Mă cufundasem cu totul în întunericul "camerei fără ferestre", în freamătul tot mai puternic al unei creaţii care îşi consolida tot mai mult valoarea, asemenea unui zgârie nori care creşte neîncetat în înălţime. În calda şi cuprinzătoarea tovărăşie a unor simţiri şi raţionamente profunde, a unor teorii, calcule, argumente coerente, deseori empirice. Lumea mea, pe care o numeam obiectivă, se asemăna întrucâtva cu furtul acelei picturi pe care o iei peste tot cu tine, dar nu reuşeşti niciodată să te uiţi bine la ea fiindcă mereu ochii tăi se îndreaptă către alte picturi, mult mai valoroase.

Absolut incredibil, dar se poate trăi cu o putere efectivă chiar şi atunci când idealul artistic lipseşte, sau nu e de găsit. Cu toate astea, în mine stăruia adevărul exprimat de un vechi scriitor: "Omul a trăit întotdeauna sub condiţia lui reală, printr-o inversiune a realităţii. El a intrat astfel într-un coşmar, luptându-se cu irealităţi de genul morilor de vânt. Pentru a ieşi din impas un singur lucru ar trebui să afle omul: că el este un miracol."

Această vibraţie imaterială, această pură presiune constantă exercitată în baza unor legi speciale de către o forţă electromagnetică puternică şi din ce în ce mai cuprinzătoare, trebuia să se manifeste şi în lumea materială. Să modeleze caracterele, fizionomiile, să pătrundă ca un curent continuu în marele întreg al naturii umane, influenţând hotărâtor existenţa lui. Păream a fi eu însumi o creaţie izvorâtă din mijlocul unui univers multidimensional, numai dacă cineva şi-ar fi putut închipui un univers pregnant prin inversiunea legilor sale, care-şi capătă caracterul specific printr-o structurare armonioasă, corespunzătoare nevoilor omului de culoare şi expresie.

Alchimia omului era tot atât de ispititoare ca şi aurul. Doar că mult mai greu de descoperit. Mult mai greu de întreţinut. Mult mai greu de prelucrat. Era o enigmă care îmi cuprindea toate simţirile, care mă punea în contact cu lumea simbolurilor, deschizându-mi mereu alte uşi, alte ferestre. Îmi dezlega drumul spre pasiuni nebănuite, resuscitându-mă cu fiecare pas. Mă transpunea într-o stare din care nu mai doream să ies.

Dar oare înţelesesem eu, cu adevărat, menirea ei? În momentele în care reveneam la realitatea obiectivă, o altă întrebare se năştea: "Quo vadis, Domine?" Oare până unde puteam să aprofundez cunoaşterea de sine şi cunoaşterea celorlalţi, fără să cad în extrema dezordinii, a confuziei, a iluziilor, a descurajării?

Leadership: Universul la care te raportezi oferă posibilitatea de a face cunoştinţă cu artistul însuşi şi cu opera sa, fără a limita posibilităţile de interpretare ale unei creaţii ce are riscul să eşueze?

Primul capitol al universului la care te raportezi prezintă o inversiune a condiţiei existenţei omului ca om, ca modalitate de ascultare a strigătului creaţiei pentru a transforma în datorie personală ceea ce se întâmplă cu lumea şi pentru a recunoaşte astfel care este contribuţia pe care o poate aduce fiecare la înfrumuseţarea ei. Acest univers reprezintă acea 100% autenticitate care alegi să te definească într-un climat străin de vechile expresii ale vieţii, punând în valoare lupta pe care o ai doar cu tine spre dobândirea unui mijlocitor între conştiinţa individuală şi lume.

Eşti convins că te înşeli în privinţa a ceea ce universul lasă în unicitatea sa, îţi faci critici, îţi adaugi reproşuri, reflectezi asupra a ceea ce ţi se pare că îţi lipseşte. Dar în acelaşi timp laşi flacăra închipuirilor să te ghideze să creezi ceva uimitor din acest întuneric, schimbând esenţa a tot ce simţi şi gândeşti într-un sens mai larg al conceptului de experienţă estetică (formă, culoare, structura, poziţionare) tot aşa cum Dumnezeu modifica lumea sa după standardele umane.

Creaţia pe care o exprimi cu ajutorul a ceea ce universul propriu încearcă să-ti dezvăluie, nu este o caricatură a dezordinii lumii, ci un fel de trăire în vis a puterii tale de a fi una cu Dumnezeu.

Numai cel care îşi însuşeşte puterea de a pătrunde în măruntaiele cele mai ascunse ale naturii umane, numai cel a cărui principii şi valori nu sunt dictate de factorii limitativi ai unei realităţi alienante - acel posesor al unei raţiuni individuale, l'homme avec une libre pensée - va manifesta o tendinţă continuă spre cunoaşterea de sine, făcând din ea un pilon de sprijin pentru zona leadershipului. Dar... până în anumite limite.

În fond dezvoltarea personală şi ascensionarea spre culmile înalte ale desăvârşirii, este "Oul lui Columb" în zona subtilă a leadershipului prin care se încearcă fundamentarea în primul rând a cunoaşterii de sine, atât de necesară fiecărui aspirant la statutul de lider. Multe sunt enigmele naturii omeneşti, şi acestea sunt greu de descifrat pentru acela care nu recurge la cunoaşterea de sine.

În pereţii de stâncă atât de înalţi ai personalităţii fiecăruia din jurul tău, exista mici porţiuni care pot fi modelate cu arsenalul tău de resurse, intelectuale şi emoţionale. Dar pentru asta trebuie să te transformi într-un magician, într-un alchimist, într-un descoperitor al frumuseţii neasemuite a zonei umane, într-un gânditor adevărat al particularului şi generalului.

"Generalul" este ceea ce ţi se relevă prin comparație cu însușirile pe care o anumită filozofie le atribuie universului, în timp ce "Particularul" este concluzia la care ajungi după ce transpui în concept trăirile experimentate în acest univers, inserându-le ulterior în contexte reale de viaţă.

Luceafărul unui creator încătuşat în lanţurile realităţii marchează acea căutare de sine ce se înalţă spre aspirații spirituale superioare, din care trebuie extrasă esenţa gândirii unei altfel de legi referitoare la calitatea imaginii pe care o reprezinţi în lume prin raportare la un univers care se joacă tot timpul între personal, artistic şi creativ.

Luceafărul unui creator încătuşat în lanţurile realităţii (I)

Şlefuieşte diamantul din tine, ca să poţi da o formă cât mai perfectă leadershipului tău.

Lumea mea interioară părea să ticăie tot mai puternic, sinistru şi inexplicabil. Un gând mă obseda permanent în ritmul unor palpitaţii intense, însoţite de cele mai ciudate simţiri. Nutream la acea unică sclipire de geniu, a supraomului, optimum et maximum. Aşteptam apariţia spontană a unui Eu împlinit. Ca un Luceafăr strălucind pe cerul nopţii arătându-mi nordul, idealul măreţ mă determina să cizelez asperităţile gândirii mele.

Cu seriozitatea impecabilă a unui căutător de răspunsuri, porneam în aventura cunoaşterii amănunţite a unei lumi nemateriale, a unui univers insuficient cunoscut. O cunoaştere a conştiinţelor şi a sufletelor, ce compuneau o masă de oameni diferiţi. O cunoaştere care prezenta fluctuaţii neaşteptate, dând naştere unei forţe nebănuite, apărute aparent din nimic.

Era o muncă copleşitoare care mă putea îndepărta de o realitate limitată, de legi, de clişee, de dogme, de prejudecăţi. Mă aflam la graniţa dintre posibil şi imposibil, dintre creaţie şi evoluţie. Un creator a cărui creaţie se hrăneşte cu căldura şi lumina revărsată de cele mai ascunse taine ale lumii, ale vieţii, ale naturii umane. Puteam să fabric oricând alte legi, să constat mereu alte adevăruri, să accept alte puncte de vedere. Aş fi vrut să construiesc, asemenea lui Einstein, modelul unui Univers pulsatoriu, care să se destindă şi să se contracte ca o inimă uriaşă. Oare aş fi reuşit?

Trebuia să şlefuiesc propria mea cunoaştere, pentru a spori valoarea propriului meu Eu.

Leadership: Aprecierea pe care o acorzi realităţii se face în funcţie de gradul de implicare în universul tău interior, dincolo de ceea ce eşti pregătit să înţelegi din el?

Nu poţi trece printr-un proces de dezvoltare în urma căruia să devii un lider mai bun, dacă eşti prizonier al unei realităţi care te limitează.

A-ţi stopa orice reacţie, orice tentativă de a te implica în propria ta împlinire, în realizarea acelui lucru care să te motiveze şi să te facă mai dinamic - este ca şi cum ai pleca într-un mic oraş de provincie într-o ţară străină, unde nu cunoşti pe nimeni, urmărit de gândul că fiecare om ţi-ar putea ghici cu o singură privire fiecare mişcare. Practic te afli în perimetrul unei zone moarte, în care nu poţi beneficia de privilegiile pentru avansarea personală.

Ceea ce contribuie la întregirea unei noi concepţii despre realitatea care alcătuieşte lumea omului este acea categorică lămurire a obsesiei care nu-i dă pace, agitându-l şi reconfortându-l, care devine luptă pentru apărarea unor valori, credinţe şi idealuri.

Această obsesie, sprijinită de integritatea şi uriaşa continuitate a unei atitudini în manifestarea unor adevăruri care te fac să priveşti viaţa cu alţi ochi, aliniind sistemului tău de valori la nişte repere noi de exprimare şi orientare, poate să contribuie la declanşarea unei noi corecţii de imagine atribuită autenticităţii sau poate să denatureze orice iniţiativă bună.

Leadership: Obsesia de a aborda calea creaţiei este centrul universului tău, dincolo de forma încifrată a înţelesului pe care îl dai termenului de "valabilitate" ?

Obsesia este începutul actului de creaţie. Este ceva ce te frământă neîncetat, un suport individualizator ce se câştigă prin adăugiri succesive, un protest împotriva subordonării unui conţinut exterior agresiv, în scopul de a defini normalul acceptat de corespondența dintre suflet, raţiune, conştiinţă şi personalitate. Este o dezvoltare intelectuală mai înaintată, care poate vedea mai departe în viitor, putând încorda spiritul asupra mijloacelor necesare pentru obţinerea unui rezultat dorit, chiar dacă aceste mijloace nu inspiră prin ele însele plăcere. E acel ceva din tine care nu te lasă să renunţi, care te ancorează şi totodată îţi dă aripi să crezi atunci când ceilalţi se îndoiesc de tine.

Poţi să dai o formă cât mai perfectă autenticităţii, numai dacă şlefuieşti diamantul din tine. Căci numai cine se avântă în toate regiunile muntoase ale propriului sine, deconectându-se de realitatea distorsionată a lumii exterioare, îmbâcsită de tot felul de prejudecăţi, va reuşi să "trezească" din adormire acea forţă creatoare proprie oamenilor care uimesc prin abilităţile lor, şi care se pot mândri cu ei înşişi.

Eram pe punctul de a descoperi şi înţelege o lume guvernată de legi, de principii raţionale. Unde dreptul la "viaţă" şi "moarte" era determinat de existenţa unei realităţi complet diferite, impunătoare prin felul în care interacţionau forţele care o compuneau. O lume cu putere limitată de o înţelegere abstractă, în care secretele cele mai adânci, dispersate printr-o forţă de reacţiune ce venea dinăuntrul fiinţei umane şi care se răsfrângea asupra universului, erau însăşi condiţia existenţei ei.

Efectul acţiunii convergente a realului şi a ficţiunii ce asigura verosimilitatea unei lumi paralele, supusă presiunii unei schimbări unice şi totalizatoare, forma perfectă a unei dimensiuni atemporale care tindea să se desăvârşească, se putea pierde dacă nu era amplificat de relaţia dintre artă şi ştiinţă, dintre om şi planul spiritual, încât să sporească intensitatea impactului asupra vieţii.

Valabilitatea variantei tale de univers este mărimea cu care poţi traversa de la un capăt la altul acea porţiune de 100% fidelitate în redarea unei realităţi insuficient descifrate de ceilalţi oameni.

Luceafărul unui creator încătuşat în lanţurile realităţii este expresia completei desăvârşiri, a înalte împliniri a sinelui care depinde de liberul arbitru din tine. Poţi deveni un lider foarte bun, dotat cu capacitatea de a modela caracterele. Poţi pătrunde ca un curent continuu în marele întreg al naturii umane, influenţând hotărâtor existenţa lui, şi poţi da o formă cât mai perfectă leadershipului tău. Dar numai dacă şlefuieşti „diamantul" din tine.

* Notă: optimum et maximum – cel mai bun si cel mai mare (lat.).

Lumina din adâncurile tainice ale întunericului

Consolidează puntea dintre autocunoaştere şi propriul potenţial, ca să-ţi desăvârşeşti identitatea.

Uneori, în mijlocul existenţei mele active şi însufleţite de cele mai îndrăzneţe visuri, se producea o fisură. Cădeam dintr-o dată într-o stare de nelinişte. Nu reuşeam să mă debarasez de o profundă convingere, ascunsă cu grijă: că toţi ceilalţi din jur îmi sunt superiori. Mă consideram un mare nimeni, un fiasco al autorităţii divine, un om suspendat de un ideal oscilant condamnat să readune iar şi iar energiile risipite ale unei lumi apuse.

Mă înfioram, tremuram, îmi întorceam mintea pe toate părţile, umblam de colo-colo ca un obsedat, ca un om scos din minţi, ca şi cum aş fi primit înfiorătoarea poruncă să devin sclavul unei patimi absurde ce căuta în fel şi chip să mă îndepărteze de ceea ce aş fi putut fi cu adevărat.

Sentimentul meu de inferioritate era de înţeles, dar tot atât de greu de suportat ca un bolovan apăsând pe întreaga mea fiinţă. Alunecam tot mai mult în jos, până la dezgustul de sine, ca un neputincios lipsit de orice idee conducătoare şi de simţul direcţiei. Eram mereu ultimul la toate, le dernier des hommes . Mă desconsideram enorm. Ţinut prizonier într-un spaţiu relativ îngust, legat de frânghia celor mai istovitoare încercări. Pedepsit parcă de o faptă de care nu eram vinovat, căram zadarnic pietroiul ironiei sorţii, de fiecare dată mai greoi, aidoma lui Sisif, ignorând parcurgerea aceluiaşi traseu, aceluiaşi destin.

Leadership: Înţelegi imaginea de ansamblu a zonei care te formează din nevoia de a fi unicul autor al unui parcurs care exclude orice posibilitate de control din afara "imediatului" ?

Încă mai consideram un privilegiu inexplicabil faptul că nu puteam să pricep nimic din mine însumi. Nu puteam să înţeleg ce era atât de strălucit la unii. Cum de ei reuşeau, iar eu nu? Nu puteam să mă mint pe mine însumi. Nu puteam să mă prefac că sunt altcineva, rivalizând cu ceilalţi. Zona în care mă formam aparţinea durerii, destul de pregnantă, de a nu fi părtaş la miracolul numit "însemnătate", fără să iau în calcul calităţile pe care încă nu mi le descoperisem şi care ar fi putut să mă transforme imediat într-un caracter dominant.

Am devenit mult mai conştient de ceea ce câştigasem din aceste cotituri ale vieţii mele – contactul cu o formă de înţelegere a sinelui meu, mai exigentă, mai incisivă, mai obiectivă. "Imediatul" era acea formă de a mă despărţi de trecut, încât să fiu prezent în conştiinţa momentului experienţei de utilizare a circumstanțelor favorabile de schimbare, fără să păstrez în suflet urmele impresiilor încercate demult.

În toate acele momente apăsătoare, dar utile, am avut prilejul să compar ceea ce sunt, cu rezultatul final, ceea ce puteam fi. Constatarea era evidentă: în adâncurile tainice şi întunecoase ale propriei mele fiinţe se găseau totuşi instrumentele necesare pentru a produce scânteia ce putea aprinde făclia celei mai incredibile reveniri.

Aveam senzaţia că, cu cât stăruiam mai mult să mă apropii de cine pot fi eu cu adevărat, cu atât mă îndepărtam mai mult de mine însumi. Era un fel de asimetrie dintre cele două părţi din mine care îmi învăluiau existenţa: Eul şi Non-Eul, realitatea şi durerea, autocunoaşterea şi desăvârşirea.

M-am întors pe drumul cel bun, înţelegând că cele două părţi din mine erau inseparabile şi se completau reciproc. Am învăţat să mă cunosc mai bine. Să scot la iveală multe răni, dar şi multe talente. Era oare acesta primul pas spre atingerea perfecţiunii?

Leadership: Trebuie să te îndepărtezi de tine pentru a-ţi crea perspectiva unei recunoaşteri totale într-un context de tipul "cucerire a propriei individualităţi în relaţie cu altele" care se cere a fi redus la o singură constantă numită "multiplicarea de imagine" ?

Dacă vrei să realizezi ceva de valoare, leadershipul îţi poate deveni ajutor de nădejde. Dar succesul în leadership nu vine dintr-o dată. El vine cu paşi mărunţi, pe măsură ce te redescoperi şi te maturizezi. Iar aceste două constante, subordonate caracterului tău, se manifestă numai atunci când apar acele "fisuri" din viaţa ta. Atunci când aluneci tot mai mult în jos, până la dezgustul de sine. Atunci când eşti cuprins de un sentiment de inferioritate, care te îndeamnă la reflecţii.

Leadershipul are la bază înţelegerea propriului tău sistem de apărare împotriva duşmanului nevăzut: "conştiinţa", care poate accepta sau nu starea ta de slăbiciune indusă de diminuarea rezervelor tale de încredere. A te îndepărta de tine pentru a-ţi crea perspectiva propriei recunoaşteri într-un context de tipul "cucerire a propriei individualităţi în relaţie cu altele", înseamnă de fapt să îţi anulezi orice încercare de a fi acelaşi om ca până atunci şi să îţi dai seama că nimic nu va mai fi la fel.

Multiplicarea imaginii personale derivă din acceptul pe care îl dai obligaţiei de a fi tu însuţi într-un context de recunoaştere care întârzie să se manifeste. Asta înseamnă să te surprinzi în desfăşurarea de forţe a doua identităţi rivale: una care se bazează pe opiniile altora şi o altă care subjugă orice încercare a trecutului de a te face una cu el.

Leadership: Ceea ce a fost provocator pentru a obține acces la ceea va fi ulterior, poate fi accesat cu mai multă ușurință pe măsură ce conştiinţa ta îşi extinde percepţiile în direcţia unui suiş care nu cunoaşte monologul?

Viitorul leadershipului se naşte azi, din înţelegerea mai profundă a propriei tale fiinţe şi a modului în care te raportezi la starea ta firească de dezvoltare. De aceea, el va arăta în mare parte aşa cum îl întâmpini, cum îl configurezi în momentele în care cele două părţi din tine se întrepătrund şi se influenţează reciproc. Prima parte te îndeamnă să te condamni şi să-ţi judeci Eul, să te îndepărtezi de tine însuţi. Cea de-a doua îţi va sări în ajutor în momentele de nelinişte, atunci când vei compara ceea ce eşti, cu rezultatul final, ceea ce poţi fi.

Lev Tolstoi ilustra acest punct de vedere în memoriile sale, spunând: " Evenimentul cel mai însemnat din viaţa unui om este momentul când el devine conştient de Eul său; urmările acestui eveniment pot fi cele mai binefăcătoare sau cele mai îngrozitoare. "

Geniul unui om care aspiră la desăvârşire, constă în facultatea de a înţelege totul, de a rezolva toate contrazicerile care survin în viaţa lui, dintre Eu şi Alter-Ego. Monologul pe care trebuie să-l eviţi cu orice preţ este acea încercare singuratică de a te disculpa continuu de acuzaţiile pe care ţi le aduci singur prin faptul că nu reuşeşti să faci din două entităţi una singură care să te reprezinte oriunde.

A nu deveni conştient de Eul tău este ca şi cum te-ai urca într-o maşină care nu porneşte, dar cu toate acestea insişti să îţi pui centura de siguranţă. Practic staţionezi într-un punct în care înţelesul vieţii tale nu capătă niciun răspuns, hrănindu-te totuşi cu speranţa că te afli în siguranţă şi că vei izbuti în final să te îndrepţi spre ceea ce te va putea avantaja.

Îţi găseşti siguranţa într-un utopic mijloc de salvare ori de câte ori nu poţi domina un conflict lăuntric? Aluneci tot mai mult în jos, până la dezgustul de sine, ca un neputincios lipsit de orice idee conducătoare şi de simţul direcţiei? Sau stărui mai mult să te apropii de cine poţi fi cu adevărat?

Consolidează puntea dintre autocunoaştere şi propriul potenţial, ca să-ţi desăvârşeşti identitatea.

Identitatea este o constantă de tip "acceptare totală" înscrisă într-un context de recunoaştere a valorii personale care survine odată cu trecerea de la un Ego mic și superficial la o conștiință de sine solidă şi radiantă.

Lumina din adâncurile tainice ale întunericului aduce în câmpul atenţiei acea parte esenţială din procesul de autocunoaştere şi desăvârşire care susţine afirmarea identităţii tale.

Aşa cum un scriitor subliniază totdeauna particularităţile personajelor sale, pe care le extrage din realitatea obiectivă şi le proiectează dincolo de normal, într-un fel de univers paralel, tot astfel şi tu, ca să-ţi conştientizezi plusurile şi propriile limite, trebuie să întremezi particularităţile care te evidenţiază, pe care le poţi extrage numai din realitatea obiectivă când nu reuşeşti să te debarasezi de anumite convingeri nocive.

Concluzie: Ca să te desăvârşeşti trebuie să-ţi cunoşti potenţialul, ceea ce se poate realiza numai printr-o autocunoaştere profundă. Nu încerca să te transformi în altcineva. Ci, cunoscându-ţi "zestrea" pe care ţi-a dat-o Dumnezeu, sporind-o printr-o meşteşugită cunoaştere şi perseverenţă, vei putea deveni omul deosebit la care tânjeşti în adâncul sufletului.

Nu uita că în tine există forţa care te va propulsa înainte, în tine zace scânteia performanţei şi a tuturor reuşitelor. Să nu cunoşti această forţă, să nu o recunoşti, să treci cu nepăsare sau inconştienţă pe lângă ea, echivalează cu prăbuşirea ta socială...

O metodă care dă roade

Găseşte elementul care evidenţiază frecvenţa ta de funcţionare ca să culegi roadele unei performanţe superioare.

Niciun criminal nu scapă atunci când Columbo investighează un caz. Da, aşa este. Simpaticul detectiv Columbo nu dădea niciodată greş când era vorba de depistarea criminalilor şi prinderea lor. El avea o intuiţie aproape genială în a identifica rapid cele mai relevante informaţii şi a face legătura între detaliile aparent lipsite de importanţă la prima vedere. Însă secretul succesului său nu se datora atât intuiţiei, cât metodei foarte sofisticate pe care o aplica în procesul de investigaţie.

Pentru a fi sigur că suspectul pe care îl ancheta era criminalul, Columbo trebuia să-i verifice raţionamentul.

De exemplu, într-unul din episoade, în timpul anchetei, Columbo îl roagă pe presupusul criminal să-l ajute să reconstituie modul în care s-a săvârşit crima. Astfel, pe motiv că nu-i plac armele de foc, Columbo îi dă suspectului un pistol şi îl roagă să tragă un foc într-o saltea de burete nou nouţă, pentru a cerceta dacă glonţul tras este identic cu cel găsit în corpul victimei. Brusc criminalul s-a panicat. Iar aşa cum a prevăzut Columbo, acesta a încercat să găsească o justificare a modului în care s-a făcut crima, demonstrându-şi nevinovăţia: " Aveţi arma, glonţul, documentul prin care se identifică proprietarul. E clar că nu eu sunt criminalul. "

Deseori Columbo aplica această metodă de intimidare a suspectului. Dându-i arma crimei, el urmărea foarte atent felul în care acesta reacţionează, încercând să se disculpe.

Leadership: Eşti capabil să stabileşti adevărul şi sursa propriei tale autorităţi, în felul în care ceilalţi oameni îşi asumă stările interioare în continua actualizare a identităţii lor?

Înclinaţia omului spre acel adevăr care îl face liber în raport cu propria lui fiinţă şi în raport cu efectele pe care le produc faptele sale, necondiţionat de vreo obligaţie asumată de propria-i voinţă, este urmărea exemplului firii sale - menit să-i verifice erorile de reprezentativitate.

Ceea ce reprezinţi, aia transmiţi. Omul reprezintă, pe de o parte un univers bogat în sentimente, apoi un întreg definit prin gândire, dar mai ales un cumul de actualizări ale evoluţiei sale care îl ajută să-şi măsoare mai bine impactul în împrejurările care îi îngăduie să-şi valorifice potenţialul la maxim.

Leadershipul, în încercarea de a exprima diferitele aspecte şi manifestări considerate importante în cadrul unei deveniri care judecă paşii clipei la scara valorilor, în care accentul se pune pe detaliile aparent lipsite de importanţă la prima vedere, este realizabil prin investigația acelei rațiuni delegate să descopere adevărul despre om.

Acest adevăr este în strânsă legătură cu circumstanţele care îi favorizează sau defavorizează rolul în societate sau în anumite circumstanţe. Cum te raportezi la oamenii care îşi pun la încercare emoţiile, virtuţile şi puterea minţii?

Leadership: Poţi să faci din tine un TOT coerent privitor la modul cum accesezi o realitate care ascunde sub diverse "măşti" trăirile oamenilor şi nuanţele cele profunde ale motivaţiei lor?

Dacă vrei să te integrezi în dimensiunea unui leadership care corespunde unei realităţi umane brute, nefiltrate de îndoieli, dar care de fapt trăieşte în bună măsură prin conectarea la stările interioare ale oamenilor (devine o adevărată provocare să le interpretezi), trebuie să atingi acel nivel evolutiv de cunoaştere care îţi permite să cunoşti adevărurile de dincolo de platoşa autoimpusă de ei.

Iar dacă oamenii trebuie să decidă cu ajutorul minţii cum să-şi cultive, cum să-şi antreneze şi să-şi prolifereze sentimentele care au potenţialul de a dăuna moralei şi imaginii lor, atunci liderul are menirea să-i readucă într-o realitate pe care ei par că au părăsit-o definitiv.

Asta presupune experimentarea acelei conştiinţe care, depăşind sentimentul, ar trebui să îi îndemne pe oameni la corectitudine şi integritate, împingându-i să fie prezenţi, identificabili şi recognoscibili printr-o judecată care ţine mai degrabă de o filosofie realistă în abordările moraliste decât de „spectacolul" creat de o ieşire din tiparele normalităţii.

A fi capabil să stabileşti adevărul pe care se sprijină conştiinţa oamenilor dă putere totală sursei propriei tale autorităţi. Un lider ia în calcul principiile pe care se construieşte identitatea reală a oamenilor, încercând să se regăsească și în acele părticele de suflet oferite de ei.

Ia aminte la definiţia identităţii de care o propunea cineva pe o pagină web: "Identitatea este ceea ce oferă continuitate vieţii interioare a omului, este partea stabilă, mereu identică cu sine însăşi, din fiinţa umană, care este purtată de la o etapă la alta, secundă cu secundă, prin toate experienţele vieţii şi care face din persoană un tot coerent."

Leadership: Multe din aspectele propriei tale motivări pot fi înţelese prin simpla analiză a abilităţilor care te însoţesc pe drumul către valorificarea realităţii percepută prin filtrarea trăirilor celorlalţi?

Dacă eşti pasionat de geografie, atunci probabil ştii că densitatea fragmentării reliefului este elementul de analiză care evidenţiază frecvenţa alternanţei culoarelor de vale cu suprafeţele interfluviale. În termeni relativi această densitate poate fi apreciată ca mică, medie şi mare, prin simpla observare a hărţii topografice. În cazul în care este nevoie de o precizie mai ridicată este necesară întocmirea unei harţi a fragmentării orizontale a reliefului pe baza calculării raportului dintre lungimea totală a reţelei de văi (exprimată în kilometri) şi suprafaţa pe care se execută măsurarea acestora.

Vei fi incapabil să culegi roadele unei performanţe care să-ţi confere o anume superioritate asupra celorlalţi, dacă nu reuşeşti să-ţi fragmentezi atenţia. Sau dacă nu îngădui convingerilor tale să se preocupe de toate detaliile care îţi întregesc personalitatea. Cu cât acorzi mai multă atenţie hărţii mentale care îţi permite să schimbi total perspectivele de abordare ale funcţionării fiinţei umane, cu atât vei putea să-ţi înţelegi mai bine credinţele care îţi guvernează mintea.

Şi tu poţi fi un Columbo al propriilor tale gânduri, al personalităţii tale dacă acorzi atenţie detaliilor care fac ca judecata ta să fie un proces mai maleabil în depistarea şi eliminarea propriilor „erori de funcţionare". Dacă întocmeşti o hartă a structurii tale de personalitate, detectivul din tine te va ajuta să îţi înţelegi mai uşor impulsurile, tendințele morale şi sociale, şi modul în care eşti perceput de către ceilalţi – pe baza raportului dintre activul şi pasivul existent în tine, dintre faptele şi valorile tale, adică dintre forma Ego-ului tău şi conţinutul său adevăr.

Leadershipul tău se constituie dintr-o intervenţie psihologică ce ia în considerare numeroase perspective de abordare ale funcționării ființei umane prin raportare la o realitate care susţine sau neagă adevărurile înscrise într-o situaţie de tip "capcană"?

Omagiul adus vieţii de pe înălţimile eternului

Demonstrează-ţi superioritatea conştiinţei tale, înlăturând influenţele distructive ale oscilaţiilor propriilor tale trăiri.

Încă o dată privirile lor se întâlniră la petrecerea tatălui ei, marele om de afaceri Bill Parrish. Susan se apropie de Joe cu acea bucurie pe care o simte o femeie împlinită în faţa iubitului ei, păstrând adânc în suflet imaginea primei lor întâlniri. Joe simţi atingerea privirii ei de parcă un fluture i s-ar fi aşezat pe piele, trezindu-i toate emoţiile pe care le credea amorţite de trecerea timpului.

- Îţi aminteşti dimineaţa aceea la cafenea, Joe? Ai spus: "Ce e rău în a avea grijă de o femeie care are grijă de tine?"

Dar în sufletul ei parcă îl implora: "Inimă nobilă, spirit înalt, te conjur, în numele dragostei pe care mi-ai dăruit-o, înlătură-mi prin vreun semn, prin vreo revelaţie oarecare, acest strop de îndoială apăsătoare care simt cum mă cuprinde ! "

- Am spus eu asta? întrebă el cu spaimă în suflet.

Sinceritatea care precede trezirea conştiinţei este o palidă încercare de a-ţi recunoaşte adevărata menire şi adevărata identitate acolo unde credinţa într-un sine separat nu poate trece de la blestem la binecuvântare.

O clipă Joe căzu pe gânduri, ca şi cum acea rămăşiţă de amintire îi atinse cele mai ascunse corzi ale existenţei, accentuându-i durerea şi mărindu-i tristeţea. Simţi dintr-o dată o furnicătură în tot trupul, izvorâtă din adâncul propriei gândiri, acel tremur, acel zgomot aproape insesizabil, acel freamăt al conştiinţe curate.

Pentru prima oară trebuia să fie sincer cu el însuşi şi faţă de Susan. Şi să-i spună adevărul. Că el era etern. Iar ea, doar o muritoare. Dar oare cum ar fi reacţionat ea la aflarea adevărului? Avea acum răgazul să-şi cerceteze rapid judecata, să facă apel la toate simţurile, la singura fărâmă de emoţie care, pentru prima oară în milenii de existenţă, i-a dat de gol bunătatea.

În finalul filmului " Meet Joe Black (1998) ", Prinţul Întunericului, întristat de sentimentele de iubire ale lui Susan, îl învie pe adevăratul Joe – aducând astfel un omagiu vieţii de pe înălţimile eternului pe care îl stăpânea nemijlocit.

Leadership: Poţi să te manifeşti prin nevoia de a te simţi superior şi de a domina un individ, luând în considerare contradicția care se creează din ceea ce ai fost anterior şi ceea ce piere în tine?

Indiferent de împrejurări, conştiinţa curată apare ca o izbândă, uneori după multe etape de confruntare cu tine însuţi. Iar această izbândă se întâlneşte destul de rar, în genere numai la oamenii care adăugă semnificaţie vieţii lor, făcând ceva care contează cu adevărat pentru ceilalţi.

Filozoful francez Albert Camus nota: " Măreţia unei credinţe se măsoară cu îndoielile ei." Tu poţi să înfăptuieşti ceva împotriva unor principii profunde, împotriva unei conştiinţe care ştie ce este binele? Te îndoieşti de acurateţea credinţei tale? Preferi să controlezi şi dirijezi totul de la distanţă depăşind oricare limite impuse de imaginea şi respectul de sine, indiferent de împrejurări?

A-ţi încălca conştiinţa, lăsând-o să radieze sentimente impure, care dezbină şi creează incertitudini în rândul celor din jur, este ca şi cum ai coborî în staţia de tren care nu trebuie.

Călătoria spre dezvoltarea personală o vei face prin rute ocolitoare, vei explora "teritorii" necunoscute – sentimente, emoţii, trăiri. Şi nimeni nu va avea grijă să-ţi spună unde să cobori. Trebuie să-ţi dai tu seama unde trebuie să te opreşti şi cum să-ţi hrăneşti sufletul odată ajuns la destinaţie.

Numai conştiinţa îţi va putea spune cum e mai bine. Însă emoţiile negative te vor împiedica să te conectezi la conştiinţa ta curată, ţinându-ţi ochii închişi, despărţiţi de lumea pe care o poţi recunoaşte cu uşurinţă drept aliată şi care îţi poate servi ca punte spre un nivel superior de cunoaştere de sine.

A fi sincer cu tine însuţi în raport direct cu parametrii conştiinţei înseamnă să exprimi un adevăr care te face special - în amintirea celui ce ce-ai fost, înainte de a te elibera de un trecut care te provoacă să reînveți constant ce înseamnă momentul prezent.

Omagiul adus vieţii de pe înălţimile eternului exprimă capacitatea de a-ţi asculta glasul conştiinţei, percepând modificările stării interioare de-a lungul unei perioade de timp.

Ca şi lider, preocupările tale trebuie să graviteze cu precădere în jurul stărilor de conştiinţă, sau mai bine zis în jurul imaginii şi personalităţii tale care reflectă propriile tale defecte sau calităţi, de care eşti sau nu conştient.

Dacă trăirile negative continuă să te acapareze în ciuda oricărei încercări de a scăpa de ele, atunci conştiinţa ta nu va fi niciodată de partea ta şi nu va fi niciodată împăcată cu ceea ce vei face.

A fi cuprins de remuşcare înseamnă să-ţi plimbi mintea la scenele trăite în trecut, într-un mediu plin de strălucire, ispăşindu-ţi greşeala de a-ţi fi părăsit adevărata identitate pentru cel ce-ai devenit.

Aşa cum organismul uman reuşeşte să-şi păstreze aproape constantă temperatura, chiar dacă temperatura mediului extern suferă variaţii foarte importante - tot aşa şi tu, ca să-ţi menţii conştiinţa curată, şi pentru ca ea să accepte adevărul a ceea ce eşti, trebuie să-ţi păstrezi constantă "cantitatea" de emoţii pozitive ce se produce în tine odată cu învingerea slăbiciunilor - chiar dacă mediul în care îţi duci existenţa îţi influenţează personalitatea, chiar dacă trăirile tale suferă variaţii importante.

Demonstrează-ţi superioritatea conştiinţei tale, înlăturând influenţele distructive ale oscilaţiilor propriilor tale trăiri.

Perfecţiunea zeiască

Creează-ţi o imagine de ansamblu asupra propriei tale valori, ca să poţi accede mai uşor către o treaptă superioară de perfecţiune.

"David" , cea mai cunoscută sculptură din istorie, alături de minunata "Capela Sixtina" , sunt mărturii vii ale harului cu care a fost înzestrat creatorul lor, un artist fără egal, desenator, pictor şi sculptor la un loc, un geniu al imaginaţiei, al improvizaţiei, al artei - Michelangelo Buonarroti.

Se pune întrebarea: cum a reuşit oare un singur om, o singură inimă şi un singur suflet, să depăşească limitele condiţiei umane şi să se ridice deasupra tuturor cu o iscusinţă nemaipomenită? Era oare Michelangelo o fiinţă omenească, sau un zeu care a luat înfăţişarea unei fiinţe omeneşti, ca mărturie a existenţei şi prezenţei divine?

Hărăzit să fie aproape un zeu. Michelangelo nu a atins succesul în tinereţe, deşi încă de la naştere a fost înzestrat cu un talent extraordinar. Ci mai degrabă la mijlocul vieţii, odată cu perfecţionarea sa în arta sculpturii şi a desenului. Misiunea lui, pe care singur şi-a ales-o, pe care singur şi-a impus-o cu hotărâre a fost să-şi întreacă rivalii odată pentru totdeauna. Dar oare putea un singur artist să-i dovedească pe toţi ceilalţi în măiestrie, în rafinament şi originalitate?

Lumea, ca să creadă cu adevărat în divinitate trebuie să fie martoră la minunile ei. La fel cum Iisus, în văzul tuturor, îi învia pe oameni şi îi făcea bine prin puterea sa miraculoasă, tot aşa şi Michelangelo voia să-şi dovedească, în văzul tuturor, puterea creatoare, dumnezeiască, izvorâtă din voinţa sa neîntrecută de a se ridica deasupra celorlalţi prin miraculos, şi de a rămâne, dacă s-ar putea, nemuritor prin operele sale.

Leadership: Poţi să te afirmi pe scena lumii ca o manifestare exterioară a unei puteri miraculoase, privind-o cu gândul la o accesare şi o coordonare ulterioară a laturii tale spirituale?

Elementele de leadership şi cele de dezvoltare personală pot fi combinate, modificate, astfel încât ele să fie mereu în echilibru şi armonie. Leadershipul presupune să te poziţionezi mai sus în clasamentul valorilor şi să ocupi un loc de vârf în slujirea creaţiei. Dezvoltarea personală presupune să recunoşti particularităţile propriei tale personalităţi astfel încât să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti nivelul de performanţă şi să te transformi într-un tip destul de capabil în a oferi rezultate calitative pentru cei care analizează şi urmăresc trendul evoluţiei tale.

A nu-ţi recunoaşte calităţile sau a nu le valorifica la maxim e ca şi cum te-ai muta într-un alt capăt de lume - nimeni în afară de tine nu ştie unde te afli. Trăieşti o viaţă independentă de a celorlalţi oameni de valoare, te distanţezi de performanţa de care eşti capabil să dai dovadă şi rămâi la nivelul de anonim. Asta îţi doreşti?

Te pregăteşti pentru o treaptă superioară de dezvoltare personală? Cum ţi-ai propus să accesezi această treaptă? Ţi-ai întocmit un profil personal care să reflecte zonele tale de interes? Cum îţi evaluezi progresele? Multe din aspectele propriei tale motivări pot fi însă înţelese prin simpla analiză a personalităţii tale şi a abilităţilor care le însoţesc pe drumul către performanţă?

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să atingi culmile măreţiei printr-o spiritualizare a imaginii propriei valori?

Mare dreptate avea cel care a spus: „ Michelangelo a fost poate cel mai mare arhitect, pictor şi sculptor din istorie. Cu infailibilul său simţ al proporţiilor a stabilit noi standarde în arhitectură. "

Da, măreţul „Legiuitor de Piatră" a atins culmile cele mai înalte ale măiestriei realizând ceea ce poate doar o mână de artişti au reuşit.

O spiritualizare a imaginii propriei valori se obţine atunci când îţi adânceşti mintea într-o direcţie totalmente străină de lumea pe care ţi-o creezi, trecând dinspre artistic spre ceea ce înseamnă trăire care se are pe sine însăşi ca singur reper, chiar şi în resturile pe care ea însăşi le lasă inevitabil în urma ei.

Tu eşti un vizionar foarte hotărât? Eşti sedus de ideea de a crea ceva absolut nou? Eşti însufleţit de dorinţa de a fi cel mai bun? Eşti capabil să-ţi asumi provocări dificile? Ce anume îţi creşte motivaţia? Care este imaginea pe care o ai despre tine însuţi? Consecvenţa este o parte crucială din procesul de cultivare a propriilor tale valori şi pasiuni? Puterea creatoare este unul din cele mai mari daruri ale tale? Îţi dezvolţi calităţile conform aşteptărilor tale?

Latura spirituală a omului este asemenea unei conştinţe supreme: mai întâi trebuie să o accesezi din afara propriei entităţi contaminate cu realitate şi apoi să o transpui într-o creaţie care să întruchipeze perfecţiunea prin proximitatea faţă de divin.

P.S. Marile opere sau marile reuşite nu s-au datorat unor forţe supranaturale, ci acelui imbold interior, acelei pasiuni şi dorinţe lăuntrice de a demonstra că se poate să te apropii de perfecţiune. Iar atingerea perfecţiunii implică multă muncă, multă gândire, multă statornicie, dar efortul depus nu rămâne niciodată nefructificat. Cei ce au ajuns aproape de perfecţiune nu au fost zei, ci oameni cu anumite calităţi care au muncit enorm ca să atingă gloria.

Primul şi ultimul rătăcitor din deşertul umbrelor

Desăvârşeşte-ţi evoluţia, plasându-ţi existenţa sub semnul Eului care te defineşte şi care te conduce spre un drum ascendent.

Simţeam că ceva avea să se întâmple cu lumea pe care mi-o creasem. Ceva care nu mai putea fi întreţinut, care nu se mai putea lega de planurile mele. Ceva care nu se mai putea întoarce, care nu se mai putea reface. Confuz, eram dispus să caut un răspuns revelator în toată acea înlănţuire continuă de transformări, reactualizări, extinderi, conversii, care făceau posibilă rătăcirea mea în labirintul existenţei pe care îl străbăteam cu greutate. Toate erau la fel şi diferite erau toate. Stranii şi repetitive. Năucitoare şi contradictorii.

Mă simţeam complet străin şi pierdut, ca un rătăcitor într-un deşert care părea să nu se mai sfârşească, într-un tărâm torid şi uscat în care nimeni nu supravieţuieşte. Un deşert al umbrelor dense, care îmi învăluiau cu răceală toate simţurile, toţi paşii. Inima şi sufletul. Care îmi absorbeau în întregime toate energiile, tot ce aveam pozitiv în mine, dereglându-mi toate gândurile, unul câte unu.

Asemenea unui celebru personaj al lui Dostoievski, eram pe cale să rup legătura cu lumea întreagă, să mă îndepărtez de mine însumi, să las totul baltă. Şi, ca un om care refuză categoric orice invitaţie de la viaţă, riscam să mă retrag în carapacea solidă a nepăsării, a celui neînţeles. A slăbiciunii care te reduce la tăcere.

Leadership: Îţi accepţi statutul de a fi "tu însuţi" în crearea conţinutului de gândire care te inspiră, dincolo de ceea ce poţi accesa cu ajutorul unei realităţi care se încăpăţânează să-ţi reziste?

Mă simţeam închis în mine însumi, ca şi când universul meu interior ar fi fost victima unor atacuri vicioase din partea unei forţe nevăzute şi ostile, cu o uriaşă capacitate de influenţare. O forţă care avea un efect doborâtor, prin loviturile tot mai puternice, puse parcă pe "repeat". Şi care puteau oricând să fie decisive. O forţă malignă, un symptôme d'une maladie inconnue, despre care nu puteam să aflu nimic. O prezenţă discretă, dar tulburătoare. Adevărată sau închipuită?

Cu mult timp în urmă am închis acest subiect, deoarece nu am avut încotro. Dar nu mai pot ascunde în mine, la nesfârşit, ca un laş, ceea ce am simţit, atât de intens, bun sau rău. Nu pot să mă las prins în vârtejul celui mai caracteristic fenomen din viaţa mea, fără să-l înţeleg, fără să-l împărtăşesc şi altora. Nu pot să-mi făgăduiesc o viaţă deplină, fără să găsesc răspuns la propriile mele nelinişti interioare. Mai ales atunci când "Ea", forţa singulară consacrată definitiv întreruperii ascensiunii mele, se întorcea. De fiecare dată mai aparte. Mai ameninţător.

Implacabil ! Eram supus unei înrâuriri statornice şi trainice, ca un rob al propriilor sale convingeri, fugind de o forţă care nu-l poate părăsi. Cea mai mare parte din mine se simţea ultragiată. Încercam să-mi ascund spaima şi emoţiile prefăcându-mă că nu s-a întâmplat nimic, că nu văd adevărul. Dar ea era acolo, statornică, pândind cu dinţii încleştaţi, înconjurându-mă ca un nimb malefic ce îşi manifesta acţiunea tot mai puternic asupra mea. Nu trebuia s-o cunosc, dar eram forţat s-o simt. Mereu aproape, tot mai impetuoasă.

Ar fi trebuit să hotărăsc de la bun început un lucru: cine este şeful. Eu? sau Forţa care mă cuprindea într-o ciudată mângâiere, propulsându-mă lin spre misterul existenţei mele? Eram pus în faţa alternanţei: ori Eu, ori Ea.

Leadership: Singurul tău acces la cine eşti cu adevărat eşti tu într-o ipostază din care se scade conţinutul unei vieţi care se închide în ea însăşi?

Nu poţi să-i conduci pe alţii, şi mai ales să-i înveţi pe cei pe care îi conduci să dezvolte alţi lideri, dacă nu reuşeşti să treci prin proba de foc a maturităţii, a "testului transcendere". Conştientizarea existenţei celor două laturi ale fiinţei tale, în mod succesiv şi câteodată simultan, creează întotdeauna confuzie. Pe măsură ce se clarifică noul mod de gândire, de recepţionare a realităţii, pe măsură ce explorezi diferite emoţii, existenţa ta va începe să se schimbe.

Leadershipul îşi face "intrarea" în viaţa ta, cu mult înainte de a fi propriu zis un lider. Pe parcursul evoluţiei tale. Atunci când te confrunţi cu sinele tău, cu lumea interioară care te defineşte. Acolo unde însă meandrele propriilor tale evoluţii sunt deosebit de întortocheate, unde întinderea nesfârşită a propriilor tale gânduri şi convingeri îţi dezechilibrează balanţa existenţială, când fiecare din trăirile tale sunt înşelătoare, abia atunci începe bătălia pentru cunoaşterea sinelui.

Transcenderea este posibilă ca lărgire a orizontului, adică extensiv şi în direcţia clarificării profunzimii lumilor în care alegi să te introduci prin puterea cu care gândurile şi emoţiile interacționează cu un ideal de dincolo de timp.

Aici te confrunți cu ipostaza omului superior, geniul, care este permanent însetat de acea cunoaştere intrinsecă, acumulată de înţelepţi de-a lungul mileniilor, trăind drama incompatibilității cu o persoană de o altă condiţie inferioară: tu însuţi, la nivel de lume.

Leadership: Reuşeşti să scoţi la iveală ceva din tine care nu ai crezut că este mai înalt decât raţiunea la care te-ai limitat iniţial?

Se spune că liderul, omul care tânjeşte spre a fi propriul său stăpân, este arhitectul propriilor sale experiențe. Dar nimeni nu a menţionat vreodată că, mai întâi de toate, omul care aspiră la statutul de lider este de cele mai multe ori un rătăcitor. Un anonim în lunga şi deseori întunecata călătorie spre propria lui natură, spre propria lui dezvoltare interioară.

Graniţa stâncoasă a existenţei care te defineşte, ca om şi ca lider, poate fi străpunsă, mai ales dacă găseşti o "spărtură" prin care să pătrunzi în interiorul unui Alter-Ego superior. Acea spărtură este oglinda conştiinţei tale care trebuie să fie din cei mai pur cristal, amintindu-ţi permanent cine ai fost, cine eşti, şi cine poţi deveni.

Legătura cu lumea întreagă se poate destabiliza dacă te îndepărtezi de tine însuţi, dacă te fereşti de săgeţile arzătoare ale propriilor gânduri şi simţiri. Iar cel de-al doilea Eu, forţa singulară destinată să întrerupă definitiv ascensiunea ta, te va copleşi, distrugându-ţi orice privilegiu de care te poţi folosi pentru avansarea personală.

Conştientizarea existenţei unei alte laturi, a celui de-al doilea Eu, în mod succesiv şi simultan, va crea la început confuzie. Primul Eu te va îmbărbăta spunându-ţi, repetându-ţi, întărindu-ţi convingerea că te poţi ridica la nivelul de excelenţă dorit. Al doilea Eu, ca o prezenţă discretă, dar tulburătoare, te va pune sub presiune, îţi va pune sub lacăt orice încercări de a te cunoaşte, amintindu-ţi cât este de neclar să fii tu însuţi, determinându-te să-ţi piezi "coordonatele".

Ceea ce poţi scoate la iveală prin intermediul introspecţiei, ca încercare de a te privi numai din perspectiva identității pe care poate numai posteritatea o găseşte fascinantă, este însăşi condiţia existenţei omului superior: de a te recunoaşte prin "Celălalt Tu".

Primul şi ultimul rătăcitor din deşertul umbrelor eşti chiar tu, în lunga şi dificila călătorie spre echilibru, spre înţelegerea Eului tău, a trecutului, a prezentului, a viitorului acestui Eu - care are nevoie de anumite coordonate pentru a se putea defini. Dar pentru aceasta vei fi nevoit să treci, asemenea unui rătăcitor, prin acele momente de cumpănă ce vor induce modificări în cursul vieţii tale. Ceea ce implică, inevitabil, anumite renunţări şi transformări la nivel lăuntric.

În fotbal, rafinamentul conducerii mingii şi seducţia pasei îşi găsesc etalonul de apreciere prin golurile înscrise. Tot astfel cunoaşterea propriului sine şi tiparul de personalitate în care ajungi să te încadrezi, îşi găsesc etalonul de echilibru în încrederea personală pe care o dobândeşti pe parcursul “rătăcirilor”, pe drumul sinuos spre misterul existenţei tale.

Desăvârşeşte-ţi evoluţia, plasându-ţi existenţa sub semnul Eului care te defineşte şi care te conduce spre un drum ascendent.

Concluzie: Mai mult sau mai puţin, cu toţii suntem auto-analitici. Cei cu un spirit analitic dezvoltat înţeleg mai bine consecinţele propriilor rătăciri din labirintul vieţii lor, trăgând în acelaşi timp învăţăminte din ele.

Pentru toţi, cel mai bun prieten va rămâne întotdeauna propriul Eu, dar totodată şi cel mai mare duşman. Amândoi polii trebuie să conlucreze astfel încât omul să aibă un traseu ascendent. Acest lucru este esenţial în leadership.

Principiul schimbării

On Ianuarie 28, 2010

Dacă eşti nemulţumit de realitate, modelează o alta. Dacă nu poţi, modelează-te pe tine.

Dacă eşti un admirator al actorului Robert De Niro, atunci precis ai văzut filmul „ Stanley & Iris (1989) ”. Iris, o văduvă cu doi copii, încearcă să-şi refacă viaţa şi să trăiască în aşa fel încât să-i fie bine. Nu-i este însă deloc uşor să se descurce singură, iar ca simplu lucrător într-o secţie de patiserie salariul nu-i ajungea pentru toate cele trebuincioase.

Dar totul se schimbă când îl cunoaşte pe Stanley, un simplu bucătar. Între ei se stabileşte o relaţie de prietenie. Însă Stanley are un mare cusur: nu ştie să scrie şi să citească. Din acest motiv este concediat şi nevoit să-şi caute un alt loc de muncă. El îşi dă seama că realitatea nu o poate schimba. Fără să ştie să scrie şi să citească nu va putea ajunge niciodată prea departe. Peste tot, oriunde îşi va căuta un loc de muncă i se va reproşa, iarăşi şi iarăşi, acelaşi lucru: că este analfabet.

Leadership: Îţi exprimi intenţia de a fi o lecţie de viaţă pentru ziua de mâine, găsind acea unică raţiune de a fi "COMPLET" în centrul unei creaţii în care se imprimă nuanţele propriului caracter?

Stanley e prea lucid ca să nu-şi dea seama că viaţa lui se risipeşte, că se sacrifică zadarnic, că lumea de vis la care râvneşte cu atâta ardoare şi convingere se îndepărtează tot mai mult de el. Nemulţumit de realitatea în care se zbătea zilnic, nedorind să se izbească mereu de refuzuri si concedieri, decide să se schimbe el însuşi. Aşa că într-o zi, graţie dorinţei sale nemărginite de a trăi în fericire, apelează la Iris, căreia îi cere ajutorul. Iris acceptă cu plăcere să-l înveţe să citească şi să scrie, şi în cele din urmă izbuteşte să-l înveţe.

Totuşi Stanley, deşi fusese tot timpul analfabet, a avut o mare pasiune: să inventeze lucruri. Printre altele inventase un mecanism sofisticat de răcire a prăjiturilor. Iar pentru că a învăţat să scrie şi să citească a putut să-şi valorifice invenţia şi să semneze un contract foarte bănos cu o companie la care a fost promovat foarte repede. Acum trăia într-o altă realitate, cea pe care şi-a dorit-o dintotdeauna – o realitate în care totul devenea posibil.

Finalul filmului este senzaţional. Stanley, se întoarce la Iris, căreia îi datora totul şi pe care ajunsese s-o iubească enorm, o cere în căsătorie şi îi propune să se mute cu el în noua lui casă.

Leadership: Îţi iei răgazul de a susţine aspiraţia de înnoire a percepţiei de sine, măsurându-ţi abilitatea de a fi complet prezent și conștient de ceea ce faci într-un moment anume?

A venit timpul să modelezi o lume nouă? Ce triumf pentru un om ca Stanley, să înfăptuiască imposibilul. Care a fost oare calitatea lui cea mai importantă? Cu siguranţă voinţa. Iar dorinţa de schimbare i-a alimentat visurile. Impulsul său spre o altfel de viaţă, tot ceea ce a făcut pentru a-şi schimba traseul existenţial, i-a dat undă verde să-şi urmeze visurile.

Cu alte cuvinte, el a învăţat să aleagă înainte să culeagă. S-a concentrat asupra lucrurilor absolut necesare pentru că altă posibilitate de a-şi schimba traiul nu era. Şi-a dat seama că singura cale de a schimba realitatea era să se schimbe el însuşi. Aşa că şi-a modelat strategiile şi s-a adaptat noilor cerinţe, aceasta fiind singura cale de a-şi atinge scopurile.

Stanley este un exemplu excelent de persoană care a făcut ceea ce trebuie în viaţă. Atras până în adâncul fiinţei sale de dorinţa arzătoare de a-şi îndeplini visurile şi adânc influenţat de dragostea faţă de Iris, a decis să pună capăt odată pentru totdeauna vieţii anoste şi chinuitoare pe care o ducea.

Percepţia de sine are ca bază raportul direct care se stabileşte între efortul de a da o nouă semnificaţie vieţii şi natura inclinaţiilor intelectuale sau afective care te împing spre acţiune.

Momentul cheie când devii conştient de importanţa înnoirii percepţiei de sine, odată cu revenirea în conştiinţă a necesităţii de a da un sens vieţii, după felul cum eşti atent la lecţiile oferite de eşecuri, se produce atunci când ai putinţa de a dobândi o nouă orientare prin intermediul unui câştig (material sau afectiv).

Fiecare om trebuie sa-si rezerve un moment pentru a reflecta de unde vine şi încotro se îndreaptă. Iar dacă, după o atentă analiză, reiese faptul că direcţia în care se îndreaptă nu este cea bună, atunci cu siguranţă trebuie să se schimbe. Iar schimbarea vine întotdeauna din interior. Căci ca să schimbi lumea exterioară, soluţia este aceea de a te schimba în primul rând pe tine însuţi.

Viaţa nu este totdeauna roz aşa cum ne-am dori fiecare din noi. Dar cu siguranţă ne-o putem îmbunătăţi dacă încercăm să ne schimbăm noi înşine.

Leadership: Trezeşti ecoul propriul tău Eu ca să poţi oferi vieţii tale o nouă orientare?

Aşa cum un pictor fascinat de expresivitatea mişcării atletice este capabil să sesizeze corpul uman şi membrele sale în traiectoria de la un punct la altul, acolo unde fotografia instantaneu eşuează – tot aşa şi tu, ca să îţi plasezi existenţa într-un alt context, ca să oferi vieţii tale o nouă orientare, mai întâi trebuie să trezeşti ecoul propriului tău Eu. Adică să elimini orice tendinţă de diminuare a propriei tale valori, să-ţi conştientizezi capacităţile, apoi să-ţi stabileşti ferm scopurile pe care vrei să le urmezi, căutând oportunităţi de dezvoltare chiar şi acolo unde alţii au eşuat.

Evaluează-ţi în mod realist poziţia faţă de factorii care ar putea influenţa negativ performanţele tale, reformulează-ţi sistemul de valori eliminând acea oscilaţie între voinţă, abandon şi îndoială - ca să-ţi regăseşti propria fiinţă, apoi impune existenţei tale traiectoria spre accesul la un nou mod de a-ţi manifesta potenţialul.

Cineva spunea că fiecărui om îi este rezervat ceva mai bun în această lume dacă îşi modelează strategiile după care se ghidează în viaţa. Avea dreptate. Este absolut necesar să ne analizăm cu atenţie caracterul şi personalitatea şi să aflăm unde suntem vulnerabili şi care ne sunt calităţile care ne pot pune într-o lumină favorabilă.

Numai dacă vom înlătura punctele slabe şi dacă ne vom dezvolta punctele forte vom izbuti să construim o realitate mai aproape de aspiraţiile noastre.

Schimbarea pe care ţi-o prilejuieşte destinul porneşte din sinceritatea inimii şi se manifestă întotdeauna moral prin condițiile compatibile cu viziunea, inovarea şi valorificarea cunoștințelor.

Principiul schimbării se referă la transformarea interioară profundă, din momentul în care conștientizăm potențialul nostru neexplorat, ca dovadă a faptului că evoluția personală este posibilă oricând. Dincolo de toate limitările aparente stă acea dorință arzătoare de progres, care îmbinată cu determinarea nestrămutată, creează ideea de renaștere spirituală. Așa că fiecare pas spre cunoaștere devine o victorie, devenind important pentru descoperirea și împlinirea propriului destin.

Seminţele din marea moartă

Deschide-ţi singur orizonturile, manifestându-ţi pe deplin ataşamentul faţă de aspiraţiile tale.

Se spune că în nămolul mării moarte zac seminţe ce nu germinează decât dacă sunt scoase şi puse să rodească în condiţii propice dezvoltării lor. Tot aşa în interiorul nostru există forţe nebănuite şi însuşiri necunoscute, până la un moment dat, care nu sunt exploatate suficient sau deloc. Care ar putea să fie forţa motrice care să le activeze?

În fiecare zi şi în fiecare noapte, se nasc fiinţe destinate dulcii plăceri a vieţii. Şi, tot în fiecare zi şi în fiecare noapte, se nasc fiinţe destinate parcă să fie condamnate de societate. Acesta este unul din mesajele filmului "Gattaca (1997)".

Vincent Freeman era unul dintre acei oameni pe care societatea îi condamnase aspru. Încă de la naştere, specialiştii preconizaseră că va muri undeva la vârsta de 30 de ani. Miop şi bolnăvicios, Vincent nu avea nici o şansă de a-şi face vreo carieră strălucită. Încercările sale de a se angaja la diverse companii au fost zadarnice. Nimeni nu dorea să-l angajeze deoarece nu avea un "profil curat".

Progresul tău are alt sens decât: înainte? Dar Vincent, în ciuda tuturor prezicerilor, era un om cu spirit puternic, era ceva în el ce nu observase nimeni. Şi avea un vis măreţ. Vroia să ajungă în spaţiu, acolo unde numai o mână de oameni puteau ajunge – doar cei consideraţi "superiori". Dorinţa lui de a se alătura oamenilor de elită creştea de la o zi la alta.

Ce atitudine formidabilă ! Privind întotdeauna lucrurile într-o lumină pozitivă, adunându-şi tot curajul şi toată ambiţia, punându-şi imaginaţia la încercare, el a găsit până la urmă o cale surprinzătoare de a se angaja la Gattaca ca navigator, şi până la urmă a zburat în spaţiu alături de cei mai buni.

Leadership: Îţi validezi input-ul de valoare în modelul general al motivaţiei pentru schimbare, asumându-ţi efortul de a îmbunătăţi construcţia unui univers din care priveşti cele ce se petrec în mijlocul propriei lumi?

" Nu te-ai născut pentru aşa ceva, şi ştii că nu iese nimic bun dacă ieşi din matca ta. " Tu ce simţi atunci când auzi acest lucru aproape în fiecare zi, de la toată lumea?

Vincent nu aparţinea acelei categorii de minţi privilegiate, cu convingeri profunde, care are întotdeauna dreptate. El a văzut totul prin prisma dorinţelor sale, convins că dacă va da crezare lumii nu va ajunge niciodată prea departe. Input-ul său de valoare era reprezentat de starea de rezistenţă cu care a răspuns provocărilor şi intereselor unei lumi care îl respingea, dar care putea fi uşor reconfigurată prin intermediul preschimbării sale într-un om diferit, sub aparenţa unui campion.

Imensul univers pe care şi l-a construit, din care privea numai cele ce se petreceau în mijlocul propriei lumi, era simbolizat prin încercarea de a disimula până la negare forma propriei suferinţe lăuntrice, a neputinţei de a se apropia vreodată de perfecţiune într-o realitate de nezdruncinat.

Tu ai de gând să-ţi urmezi calea aşa cum ţi-o croieşte soarta şi să nu încerci nici măcar să te împotriveşti? Dacă vrei sa ajungi în topul campionilor, pregăteşte-te să gândeşti şi să acţionezi ca Vincent.

Prea mult pentru unul ca tine? Adevăratul test al caracterului tău nu constă în zidurile pe care ţi le ridică societatea de prea multe ori în jurul tău, ci în capacitatea ta de a le doborî. Întăreşte-ţi caracterul, ridică ştacheta performanţei şi niciodată să nu o cobori.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi construieşti o viziune care evoluează în pofida concepţiilor şi a credinţelor celorlalţi, pornind de la premiza că o imagine care este ştearsă din prim plan este mai uşor de acceptat ca fiind una expresivă?

Personalitatea lui Vincent era compusă din două părţi: prim planul (imaginea de om integrat perfect în tiparele perfecţiunii) şi planul secundar (imaginea de om introvertit care nu-şi poate recunoaşte slăbiciunile).

Bazându-se pe ideea că tot ceea ce se află la vedere este o expresie a Creatorului Absolut, dar nu înfăţişează identitatea Lui reală, Vincent şi-a etalat măiestria de a fi el însuşi, trecând prin numeroase experienţe, ştiind că în faţa lui stăteau oameni care nu l-ar fi suportat la aflarea adevărului.

Fii tu însuţi, exprimă-te original, simte-te bine în pielea ta indiferent câte măşti porţi sau câte identităţi îţi asumi !

Ca să dai valoare persoanei tale trebuie să-ţi deschizi singur orizonturile, manifestându-ţi pe deplin ataşamentul faţă de dorinţele tale. Niciodată să nu ţi se pară ceva cu neputinţă de realizat.

Numai cei slabi văd totul ca printr-o pânză neagră. Pe măsura trecerii timpului, perspectiva sub care Vincent a privit lucrurile s-a modificat. El a făcut eforturi ca să se distanţeze de credinţele negative ale celorlalţi, nefiindu-i ruşine de sine şi nefiindu-i frică de împrejurări.

Adevărata ta valoare este dată de menirea pe care ţi-o asumi în jurul unei imagini de sine scăzută, dar cosmetizată permanent cu o mentalitate de învingător?

Seminţele din marea moartă desemnează aspiraţiile tale cele mai înalte care, însă, nu se pot împlini dacă nu devii un alt om. În evoluţia ta spre un statut concordant cu nivelul tău de aspiraţii va exista o fază pe care eu aş numi-o premergătoare: să-ţi deschizi singur orizonturile şi să-ţi dezvolţi încrederea în sine, manifestându-ţi pe deplin ataşamentul faţă de aspiraţiile tale.

Eliberează seminţele din nămolul mării moarte. Găseşte-ţi calităţile şi talentele şi învaţă să te foloseşti de ele pentru a-ţi atinge scopurile, pentru a ieşi din situaţia grea în care te afli. Priveşte întotdeauna lucrurile într-o lumină pozitivă, adună-ţi tot curajul şi toată ambiţia, pune-ţi imaginaţia la încercare şi până la urmă vei găsi o cale surprinzătoare de a-ţi atinge scopurile.

Testează-ţi aptitudinile

On Martie 04, 2009

Îmbunătăţeşte-ţi performanţele profesionale, conturându-ţi într-un mod foarte convingător stilul de interpretare al rolului tău.

Un actor de teatru urcă pe scenă şi îşi joacă rolul. Dorinţa lui cea mai mare este să capteze atenţia publicului spectator. După aproape 50 de minute în care a dat tot ce a avut mai bun din el, actorul aşteaptă reacţia publicului - care fie aplaudă, fie nu. Dacă spectatorii aplaudă cu însufleţire înseamnă că rolul pe care l-a jucat a fost excepţional, dacă nu-l susţin, probabil că actorul nu a rezonat cu ei, deci nu a oferit un spectacol prea bun.

Dar indiferent cum şi-a jucat rolul, actorul are parte de o reacţie imediată şi directă din partea publicului. Astfel, el ştie exact ce efect a avut interpretarea şi va şti ce trebuie să schimbe, ce trebuie să îmbunătăţească în profesia sa astfel încât data viitoare să-şi joace rolul impecabil.

Aşa cum un căutător de perle trage aer în piept înainte de a plonja în apă şi îl elimină tot când iese la suprafaţă – tot aşa şi tu trebuie să incubi în leadershipul tău preocuparea consecventă şi adâncită pentru fiecare din etapele hotărâtoare ale interpretării propriului rol, ţinând seama de însuşirea ta cea mai profundă şi mai preţioasă. Adică, în cuvinte mai simple, să scoţi la suprafaţă tot ce e mai bun în tine.

Leadership: Îţi evaluezi performanţa transmiţând "semnale de sincronizare" în circuitul de ajustare a aşteptărilor celorlalţi oameni?

Ceea ce diferenţiază un actor de valoare de un actor mediu este faptul că primul se străduieşte să-şi îmbunătăţească performanţele conturându-şi într-un mod foarte convingător stilul de interpretare al rolurilor sale - ţinând tot timpul cont de reacţia publicului. Căci în final publicul este cel care decide calitatea propriei sale prestaţii.

Dacă actorul nu reuşeşte să le capteze atenţia spectatorilor, dacă nu le stârneşte acea sete lăuntrică de a-l urmări până la sfârşit, atunci înseamnă că trebuie să-şi revizuiască serios stilul interpretativ.

Expresiile rezultatelor obţinute nu doar prin efort şi printr-un proces de actualizare a abilitaţilor, ci mai ales printr-o analiză a gradului de acceptabilitate a celorlalţi, joacă rolul forţelor de legătură ce acţionează asupra valabilităţii tale. Aceste expresii sunt în strânsă legătură cu mult cu modul cum te administrezi în interior şi cum te programezi pentru reuşită atunci când eşti străbătut de fiorul conştientizării poziţiei de dependenţă pe care ţi-o asumi faţă de reacţia celor care te evaluează.

Semnalele de sincronizare reprezintă manifestări ale performanţei tale, purtătoare de informaţie care te identifică drept un om de valoare, şi în funcţie de amplitudinea lor vei primi aprecieri şi follow.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi păstrezi valabilitatea într-o fază de tranziție de la un rol de mare însemnătate la un mijloc privilegiat de deschidere faţă de vastul câmp al aprecierii valorii care vine de la sine?

Rezultatele cele mai bune pe care le poţi obţine, ca element al puterii tale de convingere, se pot determina prin abandonarea poziţiei de dependenţă faţă de impresiile primite din partea publicului, adică atunci când rolul de pe scenă nu contrastează cu realitatea.

Aprecierea pe care ţi-o acorzi se face în funcţie de gradul de poziţionare faţă de ceea ce te motivează lăuntric, la nivel de imaginaţie şi emoţie, când intri în dialog cu publicul, care uneori compune senzaţia de insuficienţă a capacităţilor de interpretare a rolului într-o experienţă de învăţare a acceptării şi mulţumirii de sine.

Valabilitatea este ceea ce obţii ca valoare de sine după ce ţi-ai jucat rolul, măsurându-ţi rezonanța cu cei din jur dincolo de "aplauze".

Iar valoarea de sine, legată de concentrarea conştiinţei asupra actului ce se săvârşeşte într-un anumit moment, vizează acea credință în forțele proprii determinată de îndeplinirea realizărilor pe plan personal și profesional. Ea se manifestă ca o relaţie cauzală între atitudine şi emoţii, în sensul că ceea ce provocator, facil sau chiar relaxant pentru tine, în cazul altora poate deveni ameninţător sau imposibil de realizat.

Numai rezultatele pe care le obţii în afara scenei decid valoarea ta. Deci nu te aştepta să dai gata lumea dintr-o dată. Va fi necesar să-ţi testezi periodic aptitudinile şi competenţele, iar în funcţie de reacţia celor din jurul tău care te evaluează vei putea să stabileşti nivelul la care te situezi.

Îmi vine greu să cred că cineva poate obţine rezultate remarcabile dacă nu depune eforturi maxime în acest sens şi dacă nu îşi testează periodic aptitudinile. De aceea sunt de părere că, asemenea unui actor, va trebui să obţii reacţia mai multor persoane înainte de a avansa la rangul de profesionist.

P.S. Nu uita că gradul de pregătire profesional se bazează nu numai pe cunoştinţe teoretice ci şi pe exerciţiu practic.

A merge pe calea potenţialului de leadership înseamnă să arăţi lumii că eşti capabil să faci un rol mare atât în momentul maximului de atenţie care ţi se acordă, cât şi în momentul când te simţi nesatisfăcut de prestaţia ta.

Testează-ți aptitudinile ori de câte ori te confrunți cu noi provocări, în încercarea de a te perfecționa continuu, dincolo de ceea ce crezi că știi deja. Din acest motiv, țin să precizez că adevărata evoluție vine din autocunoaștere, într-un fel în care experiențele și eșecurile devin lecții valoroase, pe seama unui proces de învățare constant, din care îți extragi forța de a merge mai departe.

Respectă-ţi îndatoririle faţă de potenţialul tău de a înfăptui ceea ce poate fi cu adevărat virtuos, reevaluând felul în care îţi percepi propria fiinţă.

Îţi aminteşti de micuţul Nils Holgersson? Nils, năzdravanul, este transformat de un spiriduş într-un prichindel, fiind astfel nevoit să pornească într-o lungă călătorie prin Suedia alături de un stol de gâşte sălbatice.

Într-o noapte neînchipuit de frumoasă, bărzoiul Ermenrich şi Nils au poposit pe o plajă pustie. Cât timp bărzoiul se odihnea, Nils se plimba pe plaja părăsită. Dintr-o dată se poticni de ceva tare. Se aplecă şi văzu pe nisip un bănuţ de aramă, ruginit. Dându-şi seama că avea de-a face cu un lucru lipsit de orice valoare, nici nu se gândi să-l ridice şi să-l pună în buzunar, ci îl zvârli cu piciorul cât colo.

Leadership: Manifestarea valorii tale, pe baza criteriilor de evaluare a realităţii, este limitată de mărturia unei experienţe de viaţă care se întâmplă într-un moment care se pierde?

Când vru să plece mai departe, rămase uluit văzând că la o depărtare de câţiva paşi se înălţa un zid lung, cu creşte şi turnuri. Se strecură pe sub poartă şi intră în oraşul necunoscut. Aşa ceva nu-i văzuseră niciodată ochii. Numai prăvălii cu lucruri preţioase, oameni deosebit de arătoşi, case înalte pline de măreţie, frontispicii împodobite cu ornamente care mai de care mai meşteşugite, etc. Oriunde îşi arunca ochii vedea numai însufleţire. Era raiul pe pământ.

Nils cutreieră bună bucată de timp oraşul, nimeni nu-l băgă în seamă, mai ales fiindcă era mic cât un deget. La un moment dat îşi spuse în sinea lui: "N-am să fiu niciodată atât de bogat să cumpăr ceva de aici". Şi, dintr-o dată, la chemarea acestei dorinţe, tot mai mulţi negustori se strânseră în jurul lui. Toţi îi dădură să înţeleagă că pretindeau ca plată pentru orice produs numai un singur bănuţ. Dar Nils nu avea niciun ban. Atunci toţi negustorii începură să plângă cu lacrimi.

Înduioşat de starea lor jalnică, şi amintindu-şi de bănuţul de pe ţărmul mării, Nils o luă la goană. Ieşi pe poarta din oraş şi se îndreptă direct înspre locul unde descoperise bănuţul. Îl găsi imediat. Dar când să plece înapoi spre oraş, nu mai văzu decât marea tălăzuindu-şi neîncetat valurile.

Aşa cum "a cunoaşte" este actul fiinţei inteligente, tot aşa "a-ţi părea rău" este actul fiinţei care şi-a ratat menirea oferită de soartă într-o ecuaţie a afirmării personale şi a valorificării potenţialului de explorare a unei noi şi unice experienţe de viaţă.

Leadership: Ai puterea de a accepta să fii un om artificial într-o confruntare cu imaginea unei lumi care se relevă doar în anumite contexte?

Fiecare om are obligaţia de a-şi proteja propriului său cod moral şi sufletesc care îi descrie şi îi facilitează modul de "funcţionare", care îi defineşte întreaga fiinţă, importanţa ei, personalitatea care o caracterizează. Dar în acelaşi timp fiecare om are obligaţia de pătrundere a realului, care exprimă atitudinea de acceptare a ceea ce este cu adevărat. Orientarea omului asupra unei anumite zone a realului, aceeaşi care adânceşte perspectiva lui asupra modului în care îşi poate exercita valoarea – este cea care conferă frumuseţe şi esenţă fiinţei sale.

Când vine vorba de dezvoltare personală sau de leadership accentul este pus întotdeauna pe trăsătura ta de caracter definitorie. Te poţi transforma într-un om “artificial”, încetinind procesul de evoluţie a fiinţei tale prin lipsa sentimentelor şi a moralei - sau te poţi transforma într-un om cu înalte calităţi morale şi sufleteşti, datorită dorinţei tale de a înfăptui ceea ce poate fi cu adevărat virtuos.

Realul, în acest caz, este compromisul între datoria ta morală şi voinţă, între ceea ce trebuie făcut şi ceea ce îţi cere conştiinţa să faci. Dezvoltarea personală şi cunoaşterea de sine începe cu sinceritatea conştiinţei tale.

Leadership: Ai o anumită responsabilitate față de "nimicul" din tine, prin confruntarea cu "într-un anumit moment al vieții ai fi putut realiza ceva care contează cu adevărat"?

O lume care se relevă doar în anumite contexte simbolizează deschiderea ta către nou, către aventură, către a învăţa mereu câte ceva despre care nu ştiai nimic, ca un fel de răspundere în faţa unei schimbări la care poţi contribui doar printr-o lărgire a conştiinţei peste întreaga experienţă a lui "Eu sunt".

A fi un om articifial, ca un fel de nepotrivire între tine și neştiutul înconjurător din marele tablou al lumii, înseamnă să renunţi la imaginea de sine (totalitatea credinţelor şi a condiţionărilor rememorărilor) care îţi pune în prim plan "legenda personală".

Oraşul se numea Vineta. Fusese hărăzit să aibă parte de cele mai multe bucuri, însă din cauza trufiei şi a luxului de care se îmbolnăviseră locuitorii lui, a fost blestemat - înecat de un potop şi scufundat în mare. O dată în veac, acest oraş se ridica din fundul mării în toată splendoarea lui şi rămânea la suprafaţă o oră. Dacă în acest răstimp se găsea o fiinţă vie să cumpere ceva, vraja care cuprinsese oraşul ar fi fost spulberată, iar locuitorii ar fi putut trăi şi muri ca toţi oamenii.

Nils îşi duse mâinile la ochi şi începu să plângă amar. Dacă ar fi avut la el un bănuţ, cât de mic, ar fi putut să mântuiască vechiul oraş.

Tu te regăseşti în ipostaza lui Nils? Simţi că valoarea ta a scăzut la zero? Simţi că într-un anumit moment al vieţii ai fi putut realiza ceva care contează cu adevărat? Ai dat cu piciorul la şansa ta de a fi mai mult decât eşti, de a-ţi desăvârşi împlinirea? Ce anume ţi-a lipsit? Ce semnificaţie ar fi căpătat viaţa ta dacă ai fi acţionat în virtutea unei cauze drepte şi a unor sentimente nobile?

Leadership: Poți să îți valorifici esența interioară pentru a deveni o prezență transformatoare, asa incat să treci de la simpla existență la rolul de făuritor de destine?

Poţi fi mai mult decât un simplu om într-un anumit moment al vieţii, poţi fi un adevărat făuritor de destine. Dacă ai un "bănuţ". El reprezintă un pas înainte către propria ta evoluţie spirituală şi emoţională, constituind într-un anume sens ceea ce în mod curent se numeşte "fond” - care adăugă esenţă fiecărei fiinţe umane.

Acest “bănuţ” poate apărea sub forma unui gând sublim, sub forma unei decizii sau a unei soluţii pozitive, a unei vorbe bune, a unei scânteieri de inspiraţie, sau poate fi manifestarea puternică a unor sentimente frumoase, nobile. Îţi poţi cântări valoarea după felul în care îl utilizezi.

Ai o anumită responsabilitate faţă de "nimicul" din tine? Accepţi să fii un nimeni şi un nimic şi să nu pretinzi niciodată altceva de la tine?

Leadershipul este rodul unor experienţe limită care îţi individualizează parcursul printr-o creştere a nevoii de a te şti împăcat cu statutul de om care nu se sfieşte să fie tranşant când e vorba de rateuri.

Un bănuţ pentru un oraş pierdut scoate în evidenţă ceea ce ai putea deveni tu însuţi dacă acorzi importanţă acelor "nimicuri" care contribuie la maximizarea potenţialului tău de a deveni "cineva".

Aşa cum un doctor nu trebuie să-şi întoarcă privirea de la anomalii, ci trebuie să le caute şi să le înţeleagă – tot aşa şi tu, nu trebuie să-ţi pierzi speranţa în legătură cu acele situaţii în care nu ţi-ai ridicat potenţialul la nivelul celor mai înalte standarde, ci să-ţi reevaluezi felul în care îţi percepi propria fiinţă - manifestând disponibilitatea de a te schimba, eliminând toate obstacolele care stau în calea evoluţiei tale spirituale şi a descoperirii de sine.

Respectă-ţi îndatoririle faţă de potenţialul tău de a înfăptui ceea ce poate fi cu adevărat virtuos, reevaluând felul în care îţi percepi propria fiinţă.

Dezvoltarea caracterului

On Ianuarie 12, 2009

Fă un pas mai departe în dezvoltarea propriei tale personalităţi, maximizându-ţi responsabilitatea morală faţă de propriile tale convingeri şi acţiuni.

Dacă ajungi şeful poliţiei pe insula Amity, nimeni nu va avea vreodată curajul să îţi contrazică opiniile şi convingerile. Nimeni nu îţi va influenţa deciziile pe care le vei lua, viaţa profesională şi starea de spirit. De fapt, fără doar şi poate, te vei înconjura de oameni care te vor aprecia şi te vor susţine cu adevărat în tot ceea ce ai de realizat, în toate iniţiativele şi în toate proiectele de viitor.

Dar ce faci atunci când te confrunţi cu o situaţie mult prea grea pentru experienţa ta? Un rechin alb a ucis o adolescentă care înota aproape de ţărmul insulei. Se impune deci, să iei imediat anumite măsuri pentru a reduce riscul pe viitor al unui nou atac al rechinului ucigaş.

Dacă eşti precum şeful poliţiei Martin Brody, personajul principal din filmul " Fălci (1975) ", probabil vei asculta de primarul oraşului şi vei ascunde acest incident de restul locuitorilor, mai ales pentru că se apropie Ziua Americii, când toată plaja va fi plină, şi profiturile vor creşte. Dar iată că rechinul îşi face din nou apariţia şi mai ucide o persoană. Mama victimei vine la tine plângând şi după ce îţi trage o palmă zdravănă, te învinuieşte că, deşi ştiai de existenţa rechinului, ai lăsat totuşi oamenii să înoate. Ce faci acum? Închizi plaja definitiv?

Sper din tot sufletul că tu nu eşti precum şeful poliţiei din film care, nici de data aceasta nu a închis plaja. La insistenţele şi rugăminţile primarului şi a investitorilor care doreau cu tot dinadinsul să obţină venituri, Martin Brody, a lăsat în continuare plaja deschisă, până când, bineînţeles, rechinul a mai făcut o victimă.

Înţelegi posibilele implicaţii ale conştientizării faptului că eşti fiinţa din spatele leadershipului?

Liderul îşi fundamentează căile de echilibrare ale dezvoltării sale nu atunci când are de-a face cu o contrazicere a normalului sau cu o încălcare a tuturor principiilor care îl caracterizează, ci atunci când reuşeşte să corecteze o deviaţie absurdă. El găseşte curajul de a fi cu un pas înainte atunci când ceilalţi spun "Aşteaptă", el găseşte curajul de a fi singur în a face o alegere atunci când este înconjurat de oameni şi, mai ales, găseşte curajul de a depăşi acea alegere.

Toţi oamenii intră mai devreme sau mai târziu în jocul ambiguu al leadershipului. Astfel, longevitatea relaţiei "Lider-Oameni" și măreţele înfăptuiri ale echităţii, devotamentului, solidarităţii, onoarei sau bunului simţ, dezvoltă complexe neîncrederi sau nesiguranţă. Acest lucru conduce la o degradare a sistemului de funcţionare a liderului, la anularea percepțiilor bune despre sine si despre ceilalţi oameni. Şi chiar la asumarea (uneori nepăsătoare) a acelor trăsături care aduc o schimbare negativă în relaţia dintre ei.

Degradarea sau stadiul tardiv de dezvoltare al leadershipului pot genera percepții diferite asupra sensului filozofiei din spatele lui, proiectând pe fundalul său atât de încărcat, deseori dramatic, un cenuşiu care copleşeşte cu totul, tulburând orizontul pe care îl scrutează. Deci, atitudinea adoptată de lider în relația cu oameni din jur poate să contrasteze puternic cu luminozitatea specifică leadershipului, în imensa lui complexitate şi înţelepciune, bazat pe acea platformă de norme, reguli şi măsuri de prevedere care totuşi tinde să scoată la iveală şi să amplifice tot ce e mai bun din ei.

A îmbrăca forma autentică a unui caracter care e sinonim cu noţiunea de "acuzaţie" înseamnă să suporţi toate consecinţele unei decizii pripite din care se scad toate crezurile tale.

Observăm că asumarea şi conștientizarea faptului că eşti fiinţa din spatele leadershipului, a cărei percepţii despre sine pot fi interpretate negativ sau pozitiv, sau chiar în mod eronat, restrânge opţiunile tale de a fi de acord cu schimbarea în situaţiile limită.

La nivel de setări, leadershipul nu face întotdeauna un "corp comun" și nu are întotdeauna aceeași direcţie de desfăşurare cu intenţiile omului de a face compromisuri, de a trece peste prejudecăţi, de a renunţa sau de a-şi restricţiona puterea de influenţă.

Dimpotrivă, leadershipul pare mai degrabă a se distanţa de om, demarcându-se clar de zonele lor de legătură atunci când, în imensa lui vanitate, omul nu mai ţine seama de nimeni şi de nimic. Odată nerespectate obligaţiile şi neasumate angajamentele, relaţia "Lider-Oameni" se desprinde practic de sfera celor trei criterii: relevanță, funcţionalitate, liniaritatea abordării, ducând chiar la sensuri diferite, deseori chiar contrare.

Conflictele de pe tot parcursul timpului, divergenţele care se produc şi rezultatele la care se ajunge, întăresc și demonstrează acest lucru.

Leadership: Din aspirația ta spre un orizont de dincolo de realitatea imediată rezidă și greșeala fundamentală din care decurg toate viciile amăgirii cu excesul iluziei "Este bine şi aşa"?

Oamenii care au un caracter slab evită să ia decizii ferme atunci când este vorba de un risc major. De foarte multe ori ei se lasă influenţaţi de oameni mai abili, mai dornici de reuşita financiară şi care au o forţă de manipulare uriaşă.

Diferenţa dintre un lider şi un om de rând nu este lipsa de cunoştinţe, ci lipsa de fermitate. Liderii cei mai buni au mari realizări pentru că acţionează rapid, pentru că se implică cu hotărâre în rezolvarea problemelor şi sunt capabili să ia decizii majore în situaţii de risc. N-are ce căuta într-o funcţie de conducere acela care nu ştie să-şi impună punctul de vedere atunci când este cazul, care nu are curajul şi tăria de caracter de a lua în piept toate greutăţile, care nu-şi asumă responsabilitatea morală şi care nu acţionează cu maximă eficienţă atunci când lucrurile iau o întorsătură nefavorabilă.

Aşa cum companiile se concentrează în special pe asigurarea realizării elementelor de bază mai bine decât concurenţa, tot astfel tu trebuie să-ţi concentrezi întreaga esenţă a leadershipului tău asupra exercitării acelei responsabilităţi morale (care reiese din cadrul statutului special pe care îl ai) mai bine decât oricine altcineva.

Tu îţi evaluezi în permanenţă propriile emoţii şi acţiuni? Îţi analizezi cu atenţie tendinţele generale de evoluţie? E oare necesar să-ţi regândeşti orientarea către propriul tău eu? Cum interpretează ceilalţi oameni propriile tale eforturi şi acţiuni? Ai început să-ţi amplifici puterea interioară? Ai nevoie de nişte convingeri care să-ţi fie repere?

Nu poţi cere mai mult de la tine dacă nu eşti pregătit să te conformezi experienţei de a te simţi vinovat de faptele tale.

În viaţă te vei confrunta de foarte multe ori cu situaţii care nu vor fi sub controlul tău, însă caracterul va fi întotdeauna o piatră de temelie care te va ajuta să controlezi evenimentele care pot fi controlate. Datorită caracterului dârz şi hotărât, de fiecare dată când vei lua o decizie vei face un pas mai departe în dezvoltarea propriei tale personalităţi.

Indiferent de talentele pe care le ai, nu vei reuşi niciodată să devii un lider veritabil dacă nu ştii să îţi asumi responsabilitatea în situaţiile de criză, dacă nu te implici tot mai mult în soluţionarea problemelor şi dacă nu eşti suficient de hotărât să "joci tare".

Dezvoltarea caracterului ţine de starea de spirit şi tiparele de gândire pe care ţi le aduce întâlnirea dintre ceea ce ţi se cere să îndeplineşti şi ceea ce eşti pregătit să sacrifici ca să înduri grozăviile infernale ale chinurilor sufleteşti.

Fă un pas mai departe în dezvoltarea propriei tale personalităţi, maximizându-ţi responsabilitatea morală faţă de propriile tale convingeri şi acţiuni.

Dimensiunea morală a leadershipului

On Ianuarue 08, 2020

Găseşte-ţi jumătatea de spirit care te completează în peisajul frământat al evenimentelor, prin prisma experienţei "nu e nimic şi totuşi e" care te educă şi te face să fi om.

Goldstone (2016). De ce am revăzut acest film? Nu pentru acţiune, nu pentru simplitatea montajului, nu pentru câteva replici bine conturate, nu pentru povestea unui orăşel sărac aflat la capătul lumii. Nu pentru apariţia unui indian care lasă în urmă spiritul său curajos, aventurier, plin de duh sfânt, având ceva din adierea fină, dar rece, a vântului deşertic. Ci, pentru finalul plin de pace, strecurat printre meandrele intersectate ale înţelesurilor vieţii proiectate în fundalul fascinant al stâncilor masive, pline de istorie, de ritualuri şi superstiţii.

Privirile spectatorului ostenesc căutând în deşert un punct de sprijin dincolo de vijelia năprasnică a unor evenimente bizare. Dar ca să poţi spune că trăieşti tu însuţi în ultimele cinci minute din film, pe acel fundal muzical liniştit care inspiră mult prilej de pace, însăşi starea sufletească a eroului prins între lumea nouă şi vechile sale rădăcini, ca să te reculegi în linişte, în ecoul spiritelor războinice, glorioase, şi în sfârşit libere, mai întâi trebuie să supravieţuieşti adevărurilor hotărâtoare ale vieţii. Dacă reuşeşti acest lucru, atunci vei înţelege totul. Şi vei trăi împăcat cu tine însuţi.

Nu este un final fericit sau nefericit, ci este simbolul unei chemări mistice a pământului. Scoate în evidenţă acea bucată din tine care te completează, tot aşa cum intersectarea culorilor te ajută să înţelegi mai bine arta peisajului modelat de un artist.

Să fii veriga cea mai puternică care leagă adâncimea tainică a destinelor omeneşti, fragile în faţa lucrurilor trecătoare, de îndeplinirea unei chemări neînţelese. Să rămâi cu conştiinţa curată, plin de recunoştinţă faţă de cei care slujesc cu devotament drumul plin de semnificaţii al vieţii, ca o picătură din univers, un drum iniţiatic pe trepte de vârstă şi de ascensiune spirituală, cu apel de reîntoarcere la origini.

Iată ce înseamnă să fii sincer cu tine în ecoul unei lumi care nu dispare nici în veacurile viitoare…

Leadership: Construcţia ta identitară şi sufletească se deschide în faţa unei jumătăţi de fiinţare sublimă, purificatoare, care confirmă caracterul veridic a lui „Cine sunt" în mijlocul unui prezent care îşi reneagă trecutul?

Cât de tulburi ne apar uneori adevărurile rătăcitoare ale trăirii vieţii prin suflet de indian, în afara oricăror constrângeri, dincolo de orice intimidări, sfidând orice autoritate în afară de Dumnezeu. Este singurul spirit care dăinuie prin veacuri. Toti ceilalţi urmăresc conţinutul material al avuţiei, cu privirea aţintită asupra intereselor ascunse, mai mult ca un blestem, ca un prizonierat, fără să se uite îndărăt la ce s-a pierdut din ei înşişi…

Cam asta e ideea filmului. Respect pentru cel ce-a scris scenariul.

Să suporţi orice fărădelege în bătaia gloanţelor care şuieră silenţios pe lângă urechile tale. E un fapt tragic, nu o consolare. Crezi c-ai scăpat, dar amintirea rămâne, străbătută de sentimente adânci şi reţinute, ca o rană care doare enorm, chiar dacă nu sângerează. Şi chiar şi atunci când crezi că te-ai îndepărtat din bătaia privirii aruncate asupra faptelor consumate, o flacără roşie încă mai arde în tine, te cheamă înapoi spre lecţiile vieţii, strigă cu toată puterea să-ţi repari greşeala de a trăi ca un trecător neînsemnat în lumea asta.

Instinctiv, eliberator, cu forţă morală, unii se reîntorc la ceea ce contează cu adevărat. Alţii continuă să fugă de ei înşişi.

Nu vom trece niciodată dincolo de calea descoperii lui „Cine sunt?” dacă nu reuşim să vedem înăuntrul lucrurilor pe care le trăim cu demnitate, pe care le primim de la înălţimea unor credinţe şi modele străvechi de gândire, şi din prisma faptelor pe care le vom regreta la bătrâneţe.

Omul bun îşi recunoaşte la timp şansa de a deveni conştient de propria natură, găsindu-şi adevăratul sens al vieţii în recuperarea trăirilor irosite în candela învinşilor, nu neapărat în cunoaşterea care rezultă din trecerea de la „acum” la „atunci”.

Leadership: Natura ta oglindeşte chipul prezentului etern într-o experienţă a esenţelor care scoate lucrurile din condiţia de a fi umilite prin uzură şi consumate pragmatic în ritmul lent al faptelor nesimţitoare?

Am văzut o femeie deosebit de manierată, inteligentă, având acea scânteie de glamour, rostind vorbe alese cu grijă, care sub chipul de „bunătate întruchipată” îşi face drum spre nelegiuire. Fără remuşcări, fără griji, fără teamă. Nu-şi dă seama că astfel îşi chinuieşte sufletul, tot mai îmbătrânit, tot mai însângerat de cruzimea ce există în el. Un sânge atât de toxic se încălzeşte numai cu plăceri de o clipă. Se simte natura ei rece încă de la prima conversaţie. Trecutul a înghiţit-o şi pe ea, dar în coordonatele unei trăiri fără repere morale.

Adevărata ei motivaţie, era într-adevăr dorinţa de îmbogăţire, cu orice preţ, prin orice mijloace? Poate că, în fond, îşi dorea acea mare iubire din poveşti, dar o iubire aleasă greşit, căci trebuia întreţinută, consolată. Şi până la urmă marea iubire pleacă cu banii ei, dar fără ea. O linie discontinuă manifestată prin dulceţuri şi viclenii, continuată şerpuitor în adâncimea tragediei.

Oamenii aflaţi în această tragedie îşi fac întotdeauna un obicei din a oferi o plăcintă cu mere celor care trebuie să-şi ţină gura închisă...

Am întâlnit apoi un bătrân indian de culoare, folosind ca prilej de a-şi descărca sentimentele vechi în mijlocul unei lumi care nu mai crede în idealuri, în drepturile omului, în Dumnezeu. Cuvintele lui sunt simple, plăcute la auz, dar îndurerate de schimbările care se cer a fi implementate. Singurul lucru care îl va scoate din angoasa fundamentală, din acea trăire de abandon în faţa schimbării inevitabile, este moartea. A ajuns lângă strămoşii săi mai repede decât ar fi trebuit.

În bunătatea lui, probabil nu i-a părut rău.

Leadership: Crezi că există o non-separabilitate între realitatea „eternei întoarceri” şi lucrurile care şi-au pierdut valoarea, luând seamă de faptul că lumea reprezintă o entitate coerentă în care fiecare parte e conectată cu toate celelalte?

Am înţeles de ce oamenii îşi acceptă sfârşitul căutând să vadă, sau fără să fie văzuţi, o realitate a „eternei întoarceri”. Pentru că privesc adevărul lucrurilor din prisma unui trecut care nu mai transmite nimic epocilor de după el. Ca şi când ai oferi o carte plină cu adevăruri unui orb care vrea din tot sufletul să vadă, dar nu vede.

Aşadar, orice durere se datorează efortului de a recrea o lume dispărută, greu de observat, efortului de a vedea adevărul şi frumosul din nişte lucruri care şi-au pierdut valoarea, echilibrul, înţelesul, consistenta sau forma, fără să ai capacitatea de a le raţionaliza, de a le diferenţia atunci când te loveşti de ele cu totul întâmplător.

Am rămas pe gânduri la câte-o scenă fără niciun decor, în afară de un pat şi un scaun. Cineva spunea că rătăcesc mulţi câini prin deşertul acela arid, n-am văzut niciunul. Un uliu se rotea la un moment dat în înaltul cerului. Numai o pană prinsă în stropitoarele de la parbrizul unui jeep vechi mai aminteşte de el, pe la final...

Doi poliţişti. Un cowboy şi un indian. Puţin vanitoşi în simplitatea lor, cam prea fermi în sinceritatea lor, se află doar la un pas de rivalitate, ca la sfârşitul filmului să formeze o echipă redutabilă, un duo imbatabil în faţa corupţiei. Primul aşteaptă răsăritul unui soare plin de căldură, celălalt aşteaptă răsăritul unui suflet stins cândva. În inima lor încă pâlpâie flacăra credinței veghetoare. Realitatea dură încă nu le-a distrus ceea ce au mai bun în ei, mai frumos, mai curat, mai eliberator. Probabil, magia prezentului etern se verifică strălucind în ei prin forţa motrice a unui gând tainic: „Lupta întemeiază existenţa".

Aş zice că eroii din acest film se descoperă sub forţa unui clopot care bate de trei ori, apoi se opreşte. Este destul ca oricare din ei să facă un mic pas spre moarte, pentru ca întreg lanţul de stări sufleteşti să se desfăşoare nella coscienza ca un gong care desparte lumile, le restrânge la o misiune morală, tot aşa cum iubirea se restrânge la forţe sufleteşti.

Fiecare din ei scoate la iveală un adevăr de care nu era conştient că şi-l asumă în peisajul evenimentelor: „Orice râu se loveşte puternic de pietre. Şi chiar dacă continuă să curgă mai departe, mai domol sau mai alert, nu-l aude nimeni cum strigă de durere".

Leadershipul bazat pe învăţătură şi morală pune în evidenţă ideea existenţei unui orizont spaţial deosebit de Eul nostru şi afară de noi, într-un prezent care nu-şi uită trecutul, ci este condamnat să-l repete şi să-l îndure ca puritate indispensabilă schimbului de la suflet la suflet.

Dimensiunea morală a leadershipului este centrată pe o „raţionalitate normativă" la baza căreia se află ceea ce considerăm a fi bun în împlinirea unei năzuinţe care se raportează prin câmpul energetic „spaţiu-timp" la însăşi la cauza ei: evenimentul lăuntric pur.

Dimensiunea motivaţională a leadershipului

Străduieşte-te să capeţi o poziţie dominantă faţă de viaţă şi lucrurile din jur, sincronizându-te cu o evoluţie progresivă care duce la protejarea unităţii dintre idee şi materie.

Nu eram niciodată prezent în activitatea mea de cercetare decât pentru a vedea totul dintr-o altă perspectivă, pentru a arăta totul şi a spune totul, chiar dacă totul se explica prin direcţionarea dată de gândurile cele mai ascunse, de reflecţiile adânci, magnifice, pe care le generam în momentele de maximă luciditate. Să reconstruiesc realitatea prin a inventa principii cu care să încerc să explic totul ar fi fost echivalent cu încercarea de a mă transforma într-un magician care îmbină iluzionismul şi comedia într-un spectacol menit să uimească chiar şi cei mai neîncrezători invitaţi. Ceva mă motiva totuşi să încerc această provocare.

O parte importantă din mine, în care imaginaţia nu avea limite şi pentru care tendinţa către unitatea dintre atotcuprinzător şi mărginit devenea un fel de congruenţă de vederi, o ritmicitate de simţiri, măşti şi roluri suprapuse în direcţii diferite, îmi cerea cu insistenţă să dau mai departe tot ceea ce adunasem în sensuri. Şi să împărtăşesc tuturor cele mai spectaculoase călătorii ale minţii mele prin traseele dificile ale ştiinţei.

Dar leadershipul are întotdeauna două tăişuri, se promovează numai prin dovezi de forţă, prin roadele preţioase ale indivizilor înzestraţi cu haruri speciale. Iar să păstrezi în întregime tot ceea ce ai adunat cu osteneli şi prin sudoarea muncii voluntare, intrând pe filonul unei gândiri febrile, sincronizându-te cu o evoluţie progresivă, ireversibilă, continuă, care duce în final la protejarea unităţii dintre idee şi materie, este un atribut general al artei de a cunoaşte şi de a preîntâmpina fenomenul de „cădere".

Leadership: Tu continui să contribui, mai riguros şi mai victorios, la realizarea unităţii dintre esenţa negării și acceptării atotcuprinzătorului, cu aluzie la un fenomen care nu s-a mai întâmplat?

Amintiţi-vă finalul poveştii "Omul Invizibil" de H.G. Wells, cine devine dintr-o dată eroul cel mai complex pe care ni-l dă povestirea? Este tocmai omul care descoperă marea comoară, miezul unei cunoaşteri tainice.

Omul acesta se lasă pe speteaza scaunului şi începe să citească manuscrisul plin de formule ciudate. Ochii lui se îndreaptă brusc către nişte tărâmuri de nevăzut pentru alţi ochi. Sunt doldora de taine hârţoagele astea ! Dacă aş putea să le prind firul, dacă aş putea să le înţeleg ! Şi încet, încet, el se lasă prins în mrejele unui vis - veşnicul, minunatul vis al vieţii. Nicio făptură omenească, afară de el, nu ştie că manuscrisele închid în filele lor taina subtilă a transparenţei corpului omenesc şi o sumedenie de alte stranii secrete. Şi nimeni nu va şti asta, atâta timp cât el va fi în viaţă.

Leadershipul era pentru mine expresia încercării de a da un răspuns la o întrebare a sufletului: când oare mă voi vindeca de nevoia de a şti totul despre ceea ce nimeni nu vede sau nu înţelege? Dar omul care se află la frontiera dintre a spune totul, fără ocolişuri, fără rezerve, și a păstra doar pentru sine roadele eforturilor sale intelectuale, riscă să se refugieze complet într-o lume paralelă, lăsându-se pradă unei feerii numită „iubire pentru tot ce se poate stăpâni".

Leadership: Mândria care pare să te domine tot timpul este legată de nevoia de a aparţine unei totalităţi a tot ce există, a unei coincidenţe a contrariilor, prin puterea de a fi omniprezent în fiecare detaliu al realității înconjurătoare?

Afecţiunea lui se îndreaptă spre forţe permanent în mișcare, spre acele complicate formule ştiinţifice, informaţii secrete, într-o activitate de continuă transfigurare pentru cucerirea unui singur ideal: idealul de a trăi pentru o cauză măreaţă, ori împreună cu aceasta. Din acest motiv, dimensiunea motivaţională a leadershipului în care credeam, recunoscând rolul primordial al deducţiei unor concluzii din premisele interpretării unor fenomene nemaiîntâmplate, se constituia ca un determinant de corelaţie între ceea ce mă încojura şi ceea ce mă făcea să mă simt de neatins, de necuprins, de nepătruns şi de nestăpânit.

Mândria care părea să mă domine tot timpul era legată de nevoia de a aparţine unei totalităţi a tot ce există, a unei coincidenţe a contrariilor, de a pune toate isprăvile mele pe seama unei fiinţe misterioase, ieşite din comun, care se presupune că ştie totul în principal datorită superiorităţii demonstrată prin psihologia creaţiei, prin stăpânirea unei orchestrări a evenimentelor, prin puterea de a fi omniprezent.

Leadership: Poţi să explorezi latura lăuntrică a personalităţii tale prin prisma a tot ceea ce se întâmplă în viaţa ta şi în jurul tău, ca la final să fii măsura propriei tale creaţii care se apropie de ceea ce se numeşte "perfecţiune" ?

O poziţie dominantă faţă de viaţă şi lucrurile din jur se obţine prin dezvoltarea relaţiei dintre observarea realităţii, a faptelor şi a lumii puse în contact cu o alchimie a ideilor catalogate drept răspuns la exersarea unei gândiri logice, concrete şi creative. De aceea este bine să judecăm un asemenea om prin prisma unul leadership care creează caractere conturate precis, cu artă, cu linii fine, cu înălţimi de ridicare suficiente spre alte niveluri, cu identitate bine articulate, în necontenita dinamică a luptei pentru originalitate, deoarece astfel omul descoperă că este diferit.

Iar această diferenţă se înscrie într-o disciplină a dominaţiei prin valoare, demnă de invidiat, mereu pusă la punct printr-un grand purpose : printr-o dezvoltare uimitoare a unei învăţături care n-a mai fost auzită înainte, având ca finalitate dezvoltarea unităţii dintre idee şi materie. Perfecţiunea unei personalităţi împlinite din punct de vedere al actului de creaţie stă în capacitatea de a stabili corespondenţe între lucruri, elemente şi fapte, cu scopul de a antrena gândirea prospectivă.

Să încercăm să exprimăm starea lăuntrică a acestui om, a acestui suflet ales de știință pentru marile faceri ale lumii, într-o singură lumină a leadershipului, numindu-l „apărător al cunoaşterii adevărate, al inteligenței din spatele marilor descoperiri științifice". Vom face cunoștință cu un univers în care principala certitudine nu este moartea, ci transformarea materiei, un univers în care se întâmplă multe gesturi, reacţii, acţiuni discrete ce nu pot fi sesizate de oricine, în care ești conectat miraculos la toate elementele unei realităţi neînchipuite.

Sentimentul de apartenență la o totalitate a existenței derivă din capacitatea de a armoniza contrariile și de a stăpâni evenimentele.

Astfel, ne este îngăduit să-i datorăm acestui om nu doar un respect profund pentru tentativa lui de a-şi desfăşura toată forța inteligenţei pentru ajunge la o destinație pe care mulți nu o pot vedea, ci mai ales o admirație nepreţuită pentru încercarea lui de a lupta pentru o altă rigoare, a raţiunii unde ştiinţa și progresul vor duce la manifestarea omului „divin".

Dacă privim leadershipul printr-o promovare pozitivă a imaginii arhetipale supreme a omului divin, dacă lăsăm omul de ştiinţă să se ridice cu mult deasupra tuturor celorlalți semeni prin însăşi aruncarea sa în vâltoarea atotcuprinzătorului, atunci vom putea să aderăm la toate peripeţiile personajelor cărţilor în care trăim, în esenţa nemuritoare a unei existenţe de supremă complexitate şi bogăţie. Şi, prin urmare, vom putea să surprindem figura caracteristică a unei noi lumi.

Atotcuprinzătorul se constituie ca un suport de stocare a informaţiei şi a accesului la o fiinţă nou creată supusă unei realităţi revelată pe deplin în descrierea unei lumi a cărei dominantă fundamentală este "transcenderea" de sine.

Poţi să depăşeşti limitele propriei tale fiinţe depășind limita cunoașterii experimentale, perceptibile?

Dimensiunea motivaţională a leadershipului, din perspectiva omului de ştiinţă, cuprinde trăsături precum cultura, curiozitatea, subtilitatea (direcţionarea chibzuită a informaţiei), puterea, afirmarea, toate acestea lucrând în beneficiul realizării unei identităţi complexe şi dominatoare.

Leadershipul cel mai înalt este o versiune a cercetătorului care își propune ca ideal de existență o cultivare şi o valorificare a esenţei propriilor sale forţe, printr-o viziune a acceptării atotcuprinzătorului, printr-o mai bună conştientizare a necesităţii acceptării unei identităţi aparte, printr-o asumare conştientă a rolulul suprem de "om divin". Un asemenea om îşi maximizează şi îşi menţine însușirile cu totul excepționale printr-o sumedenie de secrete stranii.

Şi nimeni nu va şti aceste secrete, atâta timp cât el va fi în viaţă. Sau, mai bine zis, atâta tip cât existenţa lui va fi contestată.

Dimensiunea unei capodopere

Debarasează-te de acel status quo care nu mai funcţionează şi nu mai este acceptabil la nivel de manifestare a importanţei personale, contribuind la dinamizarea unui peisaj existenţial nou prin sublimul pe care-l conține.

Pentru prima oară avântul nemăsurat spre recunoaşterea mult aşteptată se alinia în sprijinul gândurilor triumfătoare, într-un delir de superioritate, într-o frenezie dictată de fluxul ideilor mele necenzurate, în cadrul decisivului meci, cât o finală, dintre tendinţa de a îmbrăţişa frumosul, bunul gust, şi produsul diagonalelor care puteau dinamiza un peisaj existenţial nou prin sublimul pe care-l conţinea.

Pentru simplul motiv că totul se învârtea în jurul aspiraţiilor mele de creativitate literară, trebuia să mă simt mai important ca oricând, cu speranţele încărcate la maxim, suplinind nevoia furtunoasă de libertate interioară ce-mi asalta fortăreaţa vechilor inhibiţii. În chinuitoarea luptă pentru superioritate, primul elan al unei porniri spre fapta măreață, respectul meu pentru măiestria creaţiei, senzația de „foame continuă" provocată de pasiunea pentru determinarea unor idei noi, se conforma tendinţei de a mă arăta într-o lumină potrivită, foarte intensă.

Al meu status quo era strâns legat de darul de a pluti într-un vag stilistic, într-o aventură unică a descoperirii de sine într-o realitate care nu trebuie neapărat să fie credibilă pentru a mă determina să conștientizez lucruri ce nu pot fi înțelese altfel decât printr-o ușoară desprindere de realitate. Din nou, în prim planul gândurilor mele intervenea facultatea creatoare de a da sens unei hiper-realităţi, deşi pare un fel de clonare anticipată de fantezie des întâlnită la Borges, când omul încearcă să fie o repetare a aceleiaşi poveşti într-o altă experienţă de viaţă, cu totul superioară.

Leadership: Ai conştiinţa unei anumite superiorităţi faţă de o creaţie care îşi conduce personajul prin transformările unei lumi fără graniţe, în sensul că te poţi folosi de repetarea proiecţiei sinelui în noi ipostaze?

Dominat de simţământul puterii nemăsurate, simţeam tot mai pregnant că pot să realizez orice peste puterile mele, dincolo de orice aşteptări. Substanţa puterii spiritului meu productiv, confirmând importanţa personală şi expresia unei compatibilităţi stranii cu starea sufletească a unor personaje obişnuite cu notorietatea, făcea reacţie în sfârşit cu soluţia amestecului dintre evenimentele trăite în vis, citite sau auzite.

Dacă aș fi fost un artist înzestrat cu capacitatea de a maximiza efectele pozitive ale picturilor, și nu doar un artist al condeiului având un ecou direct asupra funcţionării lumii, probabil m-aş fi grăbit să realizez o combinaţie strălucită între „Gioconda" și „The Persistence of Memory", devenind eu însumi o combinaţie între Leonardo da Vinci și Salvador Dali. Astfel, deveneam personajul unic al unei călătorii în lumea artei, al cărei superiorităţi consta în a profita de lecţiile experienţei de viaţă ale altor artişti în vederea realizării unei imagini unice despre mine însumi care domina prin greutatea aspiraţiilor de a fi mai mult decât ceea ce sunt, de a fi un creator al eternităţii, într-un univers pur vizual.

Nu se poate găsi o explicaţie plauzibilă la acest fenomen care cuprinde tumultuos omul, orientându-l lăuntric spre dincolo de orice limite, la nivelul superior al ocaziei de a se răzvrăti într-o manieră formidabilă, cu o energie debordantă, împotriva acelui Status Quo care presupune inacțiunea, indiferenţa, reticenţa, izolarea.

Ochii lui rămân dintr-o dată pironiţi undeva departe, într-un punct imaginar situat deasupra oricăror alte interese, oricăror preferinţe pentru anumite domenii de activitate, oricărui ansamblu de lucruri care îi displac, subordonându-se total tendinţelor maşinale ale psihicului de a crea condiţii propice unui nou început de capodoperă. Proiecţia sinelui meu în ipostaza legată de condiţia, modul de viaţă şi de lucru al artistului, repetată prin intermediul relaţiei spirit-materie, idee-realitate, putea fi folosită ca material motivaţional pentru producerea unei forme de rememorare a istoriei.

Leadership: Orientezi personajul pe care vrei să-l interpretezi în direcţia unui parcurs care nu se mai roteşte în cerc, ci merge drept înainte?

Robert Macaire este personajul imaginar inventat de Honoré Daumier, servindu-i artistului drept prototip în satira sa îndreptată împotriva burgheziei, a suficienţei pretenţioase, a lipsei de educaţie, a semidoctismului. În cultura franceză el reprezintă un personaj negativ arhetipal.

Dar acest personaj a fost, mai întâi de toate, creaţia unui mare comedian, Frédérick Lemaître, care la rândul său şi-a construit personajul după un tip ciudat, un vagabond întâlnit întâmplător, transformându-l în timpul spectacolelor sale într-un om de încredere bine pus la punct. "El avea frumuseţea unui zeu, impertinenţa unui Diogene, eleganţa unui rafinat, seninătatea unui copil şi devora pâinea uscată cu graţia majestoasă a lui Appolo mâncând ambrozie" scria Théodore Faullain de Banville în ale sale „Souvenirs".

Există numai un singur fel de a înţelege bine oamenii, dincolo de ceea ce sunt capabili să înfăptuiască, cumva prin ei înşişi nişte caractere care domină lumea prin înălţimea propriilor idealuri şi aşteptări, între provocările sufleteşti şi deschiderea la nou. Anume de a nu ne grăbi să-i judecăm decât prin prisma modelului de prototip pe care, aflaţi în plină imaginaţie, îl construiesc în zborul lor spre orizonturi îndepărtate.

A orienta personajul pe care vrei să-l interpretezi în direcţia unui parcurs care nu se mai roteşte în cerc, ci merge drept înainte, înseamnă să te debarasezi de acel status quo care nu funcţionează şi nu este acceptabil. Înseamnă să te debarasezi de vechea ta conştiinţă, de valorile şi de presupunerile care o alimentează, contribuind la dinamizarea unui peisaj existenţial nou prin sublimul pe care-l conține.

Toate teoriile despre om, în care leadershipul se manifestă ca factor de evaluare a elementelor particulare ale reprezentării atitudinii lui în diverse situații, sunt de această dată în impas. Pare să fie o criză a fundamentelor pe care se sprijină ordinea și cauzele de traversare a unei porțiuni dificile de transformare personală, în chinuitoarea luptă pentru superioritate. Fiindcă omul nu mai este acelaşi instrument de confruntare cu limitele și prejudecăţile lumii, ci devine un instrument de confruntare cu propriile răspunsuri la diverse revelaţii.

Leadership: Creaţia ta se adresează unui univers subiectiv organizat după chipul și asemănarea unui personaj care locuieşte în gândurile şi în fiinţa ta, dar care stă sub semnul unei realităţi care transcende planul manifestării imediate?

Așadar, atunci când ne raportăm la dimensiunea creaţiei, subordonată mai întâi unei ample desfăşurări de elemente de conexiune cu parcursul individual al omului, atenția noastră ar trebui să fie îndreptată spre un personaj uitat de lume, dar dominat de simţământul puterii nemăsurate, plin de senzația de „foame continuă" provocată de pasiunea lui pentru determinarea unor idei noi, influențat de tendinţa de a se arăta într-o lumină potrivită, tot mai intensă.

Atunci când simţi tot mai pregnant că poţi să realizezi orice peste puterile tale, dincolo de orice așteptări, abia atunci substanţa puterii spiritului tău productiv face reacţie cu soluţia amestecului dintre evenimentele trăite în vis, citite sau auzite. Simţi că faci parte din lumea unui personaj mai puţin obişnuit, din care se închegă personalitatea ta, menit să schimbe regulile jocului în artă prin intermediul aprecierii subiective asupra unei realităţi care se lasă traversată de experienţa unei revelaţii de mare intensitate emoţională, din însăşi vecinătatea ideii de "sens al vieţii".

Ca să ajungi altcineva, suplinind nevoia furtunoasă de libertate interioară ce-ţi asaltează fortăreaţa vechilor inhibiţii, trebuie să devii creaţia propriei tale capodopere, trebuie să fii favorizat de existenţa unei anumite predispoziţii de tip „must have" - aceea de a acţiona stimulii de ridicare a nivelului de importanţă personală, urmând să-ți reconfigurezi tipologia structurii determinative alături de care subiectivitatea operează asupra evenimentelor cu impact major.

Oamenii de creaţie sunt, de cele mai multe ori, personajele uitate de lume care într-un colţ al vieții, în întunericul singurătăţii, şi-au dezvoltat simţul deplinătăţii până la dimensiunea unei Capodopere. Numai ei dețin mijloacele artei transformării totale - a lor, în altcineva.

Leadershipul este puterea de a deveni creaţia propriei tale capodopere, cu menţiunea că realitatea pe care o trăieşti prin tehnica povestirii vieţii trebuie abordată ca o cale de a experimenta ipostaze diferite ale propriei persoane într-o lume a fabulosului, a abundenţei de imagini, a ideilor şi a conştiinţei care transcende hotarele timpului.

Dimensiunea unei capodopere cuprinde suma tuturor încercărilor de a te regăsi într-un altcineva mai presus de tine, într-un delir de superioritate, într-o frenezie dictată de fluxul ideilor necenzurate, în cadrul decisivului meci, cât o finală, dintre tendinţa de a îmbrăţişa frumosul, bunul gust, şi produsul diagonalelor care pot dinamiza un peisaj existenţial nou prin sublimul pe care-l conţine.

Din adânc în adâncul fiinţei tale

Aliniază-te la adevăratele tale valori pentru ca oamenii să-ţi accepte pe deplin viziunea şi să nu aibă de suferit.

Fiecare din cei 12 membri ai comitetului director aştepta ca Bill Parrish, fondatorul şi preşedintele corporaţiei Parrish Communications, să spună DA, semn că acceptă generoasa ofertă a lui John Bontecu, care dorea să cumpere pachetul majoritar de acţiuni al companiei. În loc de asta, Bill, cu acea fermitate a omului care este conştient de puterea şi influenţa sa, a răspuns: NU !

- Impresionantă ofertă. Cred. Dar m-a pus pe gânduri… La John Bontecu nu contează decât profitul. Dacă îi permitem să absoarbă Parrish Communications şi, dacă după noi, vrea să-i mai înghită şi pe alţii, atunci ca să ajungeţi la urechile lumii, va trebui să treceţi de el. Asta înseamnă nu numai că va trebui să-l plătiţi, dar mai important, va trebui să fiţi de acord cu el…În calitate de preşedinte, vă sfătuiesc să ajungeţi la concluzia că această companie nu este de vânzare…

Leadership: Cum ai putea să foloseşti în avantajul tău tot ceea ce simţi despre o anumită situaţie, încât felul în care îţi defineşti intenţiile să poată clarifica demersul bazat pe schimbarea modului în care produci prototipul promiţător al propriei persoane?

Cât de „prietenos" este designul tău interior? Bill Parrish, care în urmă cu câteva zile fusese de-acord cu fuziunea dintre cele două companii, s-a răzgândit chiar în ultimul moment. Ce schimbare de abordare, nu-i aşa? De unde schimbarea aceasta bruscă de atitudine, de gândire, şi de ce s-a produs ea în ultimul moment?

Totul poate deveni o ispită atunci când apare o oportunitate imensă. Înainte să te decizi ce e mai bine pentru tine, şi mai ales pentru alţii, e bine să te aliniezi la valorile tale, cu ceea ce este cu adevărat important pentru tine şi pentru ei. Degeaba urmăreşti binele companiei, dacă nu urmăreşti şi binele oamenilor care servesc compania. Practic, Bill Parrish a folosit în avanjatul său tot ceea ce a simţit despre situaţia în care se afla compania, adică a ştiut să facă apel la moralitate, la cauza unei constrângeri morale, nu prin ameninţare, ci prin afirmaţii categorice, căutând utilitatea nevoii de a-şi apăra entitatea pe care o conduce.

Bill Parrish a dezvăluit prototipul promiţător al propriei persoane printr-o decizie unică: de a nu-şi acorda lui însuşi atenţie, ci punând pe primul loc valoarea şi prestigiul companiei ce este reprezentată prin caracterul lui marcant, prin felul împăciuitor în care a ştiut să modereze tensiunile din ce în ce mai mari.

Toate valorile şi principiile, adunate, pe care ţi le-ai însuşit de-a lungul timpului, în care crezi şi pe care le respecţi cu sfinţenie, fac parte dintr-un design splendid, designul tău interior care îţi dezvăluie adevărata ta personalitate. Însă nu contează cât de important este designul tău dacă el nu place celorlalţi, dacă nu ţine seama de nevoile lor şi dacă nu transmite un mesaj pe măsură, care să ajungă la inimile lor.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să obţii un nivel de asigurare acceptabil a integrităţii tale, ca bază pentru o formă pozitivă de percepţie a unei imagini situată deasupra liniei de creştere a valorii personale?

În leadership nu trebuie să te sfieşti să spui cu voce tare (adică cu fermitate) ceea ce simţi despre o anume situaţie, mai bine încearcă să-ţi defineşti clar intenţiile încât ceilalţi oameni să fie mai dispuşi să te asculte şi să-ţi înţeleagă motivaţiile. Într-adevăr, un lider îşi exteriorizează emoţiile, nu se teme să exprime sau să descrie ceea ce simte despre o situaţie. El se implică, cerându-le clienţilor sau angajaţilor să-şi exprime (la rândul lor) liber sentimentele.

În finalul filmului „ Meet Joe Black (1998) ", membrii consiliului director, care la început au fost reticenţi la schimbarea de mentalitate a lui Bill Parrish, i-au mulţumit acestuia pentru decizia iscusită pe care a luat-o. Ce s-ar fi întâmplat dacă Bill ar fi acceptat propunerea lui Bontecu? Tot personalul companiei lui ar fi suferit mai devreme sau mai târziu, şi nimeni nu i-ar fi iertat greşeala lui Bill.

În momentul în care ai de luat o decizie importantă, care îi priveşte şi pe ceilalţi din jurul tău, se cern acele valori morale solide, onorabile, care sunt adânc întipărite în tine - de acele valori non-etice care nu se încadrează în tiparele tale şi care nu corespund cu ale celorlalţi. Pentru ca dimensiunea leadershipului tău să crească, nu abdica de la adevăratele tale valori morale şi ale celorlalţi. Încearcă să-ţi pui întotdeauna în valoare capacităţile lăuntrice care fac din tine un om de valoare.

Viziunea pe care o ai îţi reflectă valorile după care te ghidezi în viaţă. Pentru ca oamenii să-ţi accepte viziunea, trebuie mai întâi să-ţi accepte valorile. Iar integritatea înseamnă să te concentrezi asupra a ceea ce este important, chiar şi atunci când tu nu mai prezinţi aceeaşi maximă importanţă pentru gestionarea reputaţiei companiei.

O formă pozitivă de percepţie a unei imagini situată deasupra liniei de creştere a valorii personale este rezultatul unei decizii anterioare pe care nimeni nu a contestat-o ca fiind abuzivă sau necorespunzătoare rangului pretins de valoarea ta.

Din adânc în adâncul fiinţei tale desemnează acel proces de autocunoaştere şi dezvoltare personală care te ajută să te înţelegi mai bine pe tine şi să relaţionezi mai bine cu cei din jur. Ca să iei deciziile cele mai bune trebuie să pătrunzi tot mai adânc în fiinţa ta şi să-ţi scoţi la iveală adevăratele valori, să descoperi ceea ce e cu adevărat bun la tine.

Aşa cum buruienile trebuiesc smulse din pământ pentru a lăsa loc florilor să se dezvolte – tot aşa şi tu, ca lider, trebuie să înlături acele „buruieni" care îţi perturbă gândirea pentru a lăsa loc valorilor etice şi onorabile să evolueze. Ca să câştigi respectul celorlalţi, ca să-i determini să-ţi accepte viziunea fără să aibă mai târziu de suferit, aliniază-te la valorile tale cele mai profunde şi mai onorabile.

De asemenea, din adânc în adâncul fiinţei tale înseamnă să discerni cu înţelepciunea ta, dar şi cu sufletul tău, între etica şi non-etica faţă de colectivul pe care-l conduci şi care în mare parte te-a ales şi te-a susţinut. Înseamnă să fii alături de oamenii aceştia şi să nu le înşeli încrederea, speranţele, ci dimpotrivă, să le dai un imbold de a-şi continua ascensiunea spre binele lor, în ciuda acelora care se opun dezvoltării şi urmăresc doar interesele lor personale.

Din ce adevăruri vine şoapta?

Conştientizează constant şi îndelungat limitele leadershipului tău, pentru ca impactul cu realitatea să nu afecteze esenţa fiinţei tale.

O adevărată nenorocire se abătuse asupra marelui om de afaceri Bill Parrish, care amuţise de durere. Inima părea că-i spărgea pieptul. Iar şoapta, necruţătoare, insistentă, continua să se audă cu cea mai deplină claritate: „Da... Da... Da...” - emisă de o entitate invizibilă, înzestrată cu forţa implacabila a unui Mefisto care sesizează în chip magic, prin puterea incomensurabilă a gândurilor şi emoţiilor, tainele sufletul omenesc.

Suferindul încearcă să atribuie o explicaţie acestei şoapte care îşi făcuse drum în viaţa lui, acestei voci calme, dar cu o forţă de impunere covârşitoare. De unde provine ea? Cine o emite? Dar nu poate întrezări adevărul, nu-i poate atribui niciun fel de înţeles. Căci ea derivă toate manifestările lui; ca un torent invizibil îi acaparează întreaga fiinţă, îi slăbeşte orice reacţie de împotrivire, ghidându-i simţurile, trăirile, comportamentul, suprimându-i orice ripostă, afectându-i sănătatea şi moleşindu-i fizicul. Şoapta părea să anuleze orice posibilitate de compromis.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi asumi angajamentul de a rămâne fidel ţie însuţi, în faţa unui fapt care te depăşeşte prin imposibilitatea de a-l înţelege?

- Nu am pus nicio întrebare ! reuşeşte totuşi să îngâne Bill, printr-o sforţare a voinţei. La naiba, ce se întâmplă? Spune-mi cine eşti ! - amintindu-şi parcă cu spaimă de ultimele cuvinte pe care contesa Vaninka i le-a adresat căpitanului Fedor, cu puţin timp înainte ca acesta să moară: „ Contra evenimentelor trebuie să te opinteşti, căci oamenii de rând nu dirijează evenimentele ci, din contra, sunt târâţi de ele. ”

Durerea părea să înceteze, prevenind infarctul. Dar răul nu se lasă cu una cu două, ci reapare, cu forţă reînnoită; mai înfricoşător, mai insistent, mai aprig se aruncă asupra neajutoratului. Ca şi cum, cuprins de o antipatie crudă faţă de el, cu înverşunare, ar fi căutat un prilej de batjocură pentru a-l chinui:

- Îmi dai mie ordine? răsună şoapta în atmosferă. Cred că ştii răspunsul, Bill. Iar acum încerci să rezolvi situaţia, dar asta e situaţia pe care ştii că nu o vei putea rezolva niciodată.

Bill simţea că cineva îl dispreţuieşte, că îl urăşte. De ce? Durerea creştea din ce în ce mai mult, ca şi cum entitatea din spatele şoaptei i-ar fi pus la încercare duritatea inimii, bătând în ea cu ciocanul; ca şi cum ar fi avut o inimă din piatră şi cineva încerca să-i testeze rezistenţa. Ar fi vrut să atace, să riposteze, dar cum? Cu ce arme să înfrunte el infernul? Cum oare să schimbe el, imobilizat de durere, învăluit de teama morţii, atitudinea autoritară a unui demon?

Leadership: Răspunzi cu consideraţie la orice formă de transmitere a idealurilor tale, prin însumarea impulsurilor de comandă venite din partea unei forţe care te depăşeşte?

Aş putea presupune că succesul în arta conducerii va fi poziţionat în acea direcţie pe care o hotărăşte universul interior al omului, care îi sprijină esenţa, dirijându-i manifestările în funcţie experienţele sale anterioare, modelându-l după factorii care îl afectează cel mai puternic.

Omul care îşi aduce aportul la dezvoltarea individualităţii sale şi care dă o formă nouă viziunii sale creatoare, plasându-se în faţa unei noi realităţi, este acela care înţelege că nu tot ce se poate cuprinde cu privirea poate fi cuprins şi cu mintea.

Aşa cum oamenii primitivi nu cercetau niciodată boala care îi lovea, ci îl căutau pe Dumnezeu, tot aşa şi în cazul tău, degeaba cauţi să aduci o perspectivă nouă raţiunii tale dacă nu cercetezi evenimentele (de care te opinteşti) prin prisma adevărului pe care nu-l poţi cuprinde decât prin noţiunea unui Dumnezeu, a unei forţe care te depăşeşte şi te trage spre ea.

Motivația de a trăi pentru o cauză măreață implică transfigurarea continuă a realității, stabilind legături între ceea ce te înconjoară și ceea ce te definește.

Dumnezeu este deschiderea omului spre noi realităţi care pot să releve adevărul vieţii. Iar conform scriitorului român Cornel Ailincăi, faptul neperceput, căruia îi acordăm toată atenţia, fiind aproape obligaţi să i ne supunem, este un act de conversiune simbolică în dublu sens: îmbogăţeşte conţinutul perceput cu un conţinut imaginat şi pune în valoare rostirea ascunsă, intrinsecă mijloacelor formale.

Când te loveşti de ceva ce nu cunoşti şi simţi că eşti comandat să-i dai ascultare, având în vedere împrejurările prin care treci, al cărui conţinut supranatural vizează implicit un act de transcendere, de simbolizare exprimat prin mijloace de figurare mai mult sau mai puţin iluzioniste, abia atunci începi să te zbați în întunericul propriilor uși închise.

În acelaşi timp, invers proporţional cu frica, se naşte curajul de a trăi cu adevărat ceea ce eşti tu însuţi într-un dialog cu ceva mai măreţ ca tine, fapt ce îţi schimbă percepţia despre cât valorezi în raport cu un sens al vieţii care include atât spiritualitatea cât şi misticismul.

Leadership: Poţi să accepţi un adevăr în totalitate, din multitudinea variabilelor situaţionale născute din interacţiunea unor evenimente nedefinite care se sustrag rezolvărilor riguros predeterminabile?

O realitate unică, nedivizată, s-a întărit. Părerea marelui om de afaceri Bill Parrish (din filmul „ Meet Joe Black ”) despre sine, despre lume, s-a schimbat la sfârşitul "întâlnirii" cu şoapta. În acel moment el a încetat să existe ca un lider atotştiutor, ca un om foarte important, aşa cum se credea. Căci abia atunci a putut să reliefeze mai bine la cine era el cu adevărat, şi să accepte adevărul: că era doar un muritor, şi la fel ca orice alt muritor putea fi oricând "întrerupt" de la butonul "On-Off" de către forţe superioare.

Abia atunci a realizat cât de mic şi de neînsemnat era. Şi a acceptat cu supunere că fiecare om trăieşte aproape mecanic, ca o păpuşă, sub înrâurirea unei entităţi "nemateriale", care concepe şi reglează lucrurile după o ordine încă neştiută.

Leadershipul transformațional se bazează pe capacitatea liderului de a deduce concluzii din fenomene fără precedent, creând corelații între mediul exterior și puterea interioară.

Aşa cum un scriitor conferă personajelor sale mai multă intensitate şi expresie, le înălţă până la simbol, le conferă o anumită rotunjire sufletească - tot aşa şi tu, ca să-ţi înţelegi şi desăvârşeşti evoluţia, trebuie să-ţi plasezi existenţa sub semnul Eului care te defineşte şi care îşi poate modifica "duritatea" la impactul cu o altă realitate, una neaşteptată sau nesperată.

Conferă o anumită rotunjire leadershipului tău prin adaosul de cumpătare, de echilibru şi modestie, de înfrânare a oricărui orgoliu, a oricărui egoism. Prin adoptarea unor măsuri de stopare şi prevenire a oricărei forme de eroziune a caracterului protector, nobil, bine conturat, de care trebuie să dai dovadă.

Când încerci să defineşti ceva ce nu cunoşti, fiind contrazis de ceva potrivmic firescului, fără să fi avut puterea de a prevedea firul evenimentelor, ţi se conturează ideea că un conţinut supranatural poate fi modificat în funcţie de sensul pe care îl dai emoţiilor care vor să-ţi controleze viaţa.

Reacţiile tale faţă de întâmplările zilei depind de cum gândeşti paşii următori în funcţie de aceste emoţii !

Din ce adevăruri vine şoapta desemnează acea reacţie a subconştientului la atitudinea ta, faţă de propria evoluţie, după ce eşti pus faţă în faţă cu realitatea neaşteptată şi constaţi că leadershipul tău nu a luat forma pe care ai dorit-o iniţial.

Ascultă-ţi conştiinţa, analizează-ţi trecutul şi prezentul, şi vei cunoaşte măcar parţial viitorul. Analizează-ţi traiectoria din punctul zero, vezi dacă nu cumva te-ai îndepărtat de idealurile şi ţelurile tale. Şi află-ţi coordonatele din prezent făcând corecţiile adecvate. Numai astfel vei scăpa de coşmarul "şoaptelor" dictate de entitatea numită... conştiinţă.

Conştientizează constant şi îndelungat limitele leadershipului tău, pentru ca impactul cu realitatea să nu afecteze esenţa fiinţei tale.

Din evocarea evenimentelor se nasc sentimentele personajelor vii

On Iulie 10, 2010

Leadershipul în regie se bazează pe capacitatea de a transforma idei sumare în imagini vibrante și captivante, evocând personaje și emoții autentice, care îmbogățesc profund povestea și scenariul.

Odată asimilată de regizor prin toți porii săi, întreaga muncă pe care o reprezenta acest scenariu îi va permite să-și realizeze filmul mișcându-se cu dezinvoltură în lumea revoluționară pe care o zugrăvea, inventând fapte, episoade inexistente în scenariu, dar în perfectă conformitate cu atmosfera anului 1905. Eisenstein scria că numai privit astfel scenariul stufos și totodată laconic poate fi înțeles - ceea ce, după cum am constatat, mulți dintre comentatorii operei sale nu au reușit de altfel niciodată - felul în care și-a creat filmul. "Numai bizuindu-se pe această muncă a putut regizorul să însemne cu simple numere de ordine asemenea scene ca "crucișătorul trece fără să tragă pe lângă flotă", sau "o prelată îi desparte de ceilalți pe cei ce urmează să fie executați".

Spre marea surprindere a istoricului cinematografiei, regizorul a putut transforma astfel, în cursul turnării, frazele scurte ale scenariului în scene neașteptate și palpitante. Astfel au devenit imagini literele scenariului, dar autentica încărcătură emoțională nu era cuprinsă în însemnările sumare, ci în sentimentele noastre. Pe urmele evocării evenimentelor s-au născut din aceste sentimente personaje vii.

Improvizația în regie presupune să înțelegi profund scenariul, pentru ca apoi să îți folosești libertatea de a inventa noi episoade și scene care să se alinieze perfect atmosferei pe care vrei să o creezi.

În domeniul creației cinematografice, Eisenstein recomanda explorarea scenariului din profunzimile conștiinței în emoții. Pentru determinarea abaterilor de autenticitate și de coerență narativă ale scenelor filmului, el folosea secvențe plan-paralele, din experiență și imaginație. În acest caz, eroarea de ritm se putea verifica tot cu seturi de câte patru scene paralele în diferite domenii temporale ale narațiunii, precum trecutul, prezentul, viitorul și universalul.

Pentru a mări precizia de interpretare, un regizor poate construi un sistem de indicație cinematografică parțial digitalizată, așa încât fiecare cadru să poată fi analizat în raport cu întregul. În figura mentală a regizorului, indicatorii emoționali se citesc pe scara de valori a intensității, gradată pe fondul narativ, deoarece emoția este fundamentul experienței cinematografice. Mai ales, gradele de emoție pe scara narativă, o scară digitalizată constituită dintr-un mecanism cu secvențe de montaj care erau interconectate prin intermediul unui scenariu fluid. Redarea realității prin imaginea cinematografică se făcea în secvențe în care numărul de semnificații apărea complet. Sutimile de emoție se citeau pe scara unui cadran mental, în dreptul reperului de autenticitate de pe scara graduală a realității istorice.

Procesul de evocare cinematografică presupune îmbinarea scenariului laconic cu emoțiile și trăirile creatorului, pentru a transforma cuvintele scrise în imagini de neuitat.

Datorită dispunerii 'în prelungirea' reperelor, eroarea de paralelă între ficțiune și realitate era eliminată, știind că fiecare cadru contribuie la narațiunea globală. Scara de montaj reprezenta de fapt un interpolator pentru nivelurile de semnificație atribuite fiecărei secvențe. Trebuie menționat faptul că precizia de creație nu putea fi mărită prin realizarea unei scări mai fine de detalii, ci prin ridicarea preciziei de execuție a montajului și a scării de pe cadranul emoțional.

Comparatorul cu cadran al autenticității istorice putea atinge valori destul de mari în cazul unei reconstrucții istorice precise. Pe tamburul creativ al lui Eisenstein trebuiau citite numai valorile întregi, adică sutimile de emoție, nu și intervalele din diviziunile realității. Astfel, regizorul putea transforma, în cursul turnării, frazele scurte ale scenariului în scene neașteptate și palpitante, creând imagini vii din scheletul scenariului, unde încărcătura emoțională autentică nu era cuprinsă în însemnările sumare, ci în sentimentele și viziunea sa artistică.

Crearea unui film nu înseamnă doar urmarea literală a scenariului, ci și adăugarea unei încărcături emoționale autentice, astfel încât personajele să devină vii și memorabile.

Din evocarea evenimentelor se nasc sentimentele personajelor vii în mod natural, mai ales că fiecare emoție este trăită intens, pe principiul că arta reflectă viața în cele mai autentice forme. Din acest motiv, regizorul a putut adapta scenele, știind că fiecare detaliu contribuie la autenticitate, se conturează astfel o poveste profundă și captivantă.

Din lumină în lumină

Conectează-te cu oamenii din jurul tău la un nivel profund, ca să pui în valoare cât mai bine abordarea impecabilă care îţi defineşte leadershipul.

Locotenentul Waters, din marina SUA, omul acesta închis în el însuşi, devotat întru totul misiunii pe care o primise, a decis sa ignore ordinele înaltului comandament şi a acceptat, la insistenţele doctoriţei Lena Kendricks să-i evacueze pe localnicii de care ea se făcea responsabilă. Împreună cu ceilalţi membri ai echipei SWAT pe care o conducea, Waters îi escortează pe aceştia spre zona de extragere Alfa. Dar lucrurile se complică şi mai mult.

Trebuiau să se lupte pentru viaţa lor. Căci trupele de elită ale generalului Mustafa Yakubu – a cărui sete de putere nu cunoştea limite, erau pe urmele lor, la o distanţă de numai câţiva km. Pădurea Mazon, în care cu greu se puteau mişca, nu le mai putea oferi siguranţă multă vreme. Şansele de a ajunge la graniţa cu Camerunul, prin trecătoarea Tandjile, erau tot mai mici fiindcă "încărcătura era prea grea". Toţi acei refugiaţi din Misiunea St. Michael erau prea mulţi, prea obosiţi, unii bolnavi, alţii răniţi.

Leadership: Eşti chemat să îţi validezi poziţia de lider prin apartenenţa la un grup de putere sau prin apartenenţa la un context referenţial în care primează preţul de realizare a valorilor şi modul lor de manifestare?

Dacă ai urmărit filmul " Tears of the sun (2003) ", probabil îţi aminteşti că, la un moment dat, Waters se vede nevoit să ia o hotărâre definitivă: fie să-i abandoneze pe refugiaţi şi să-şi ducă la bun sfârşit misiunea ce i-a fost încredinţată ducând-o în siguranţă pe doctoriţa Kendricks la punctul Alpha, fie să-şi urmeze în continuare drumul plin de pericole şi grele încercări împreună cu ei. Înainte de a lua hotărârea definitivă, Waters ţine să afle părerea ofiţerilor săi, îndemnându-i să vorbească făţiş:

- Mi s-a sugerat să-i abandonez pe refugiaţi. Vă spun de acum că eu n-am sa fac asta. Nu pot. Fiindcă îmi pasă de ei... Ne aşteaptă probleme mari. Înainte de a merge mai departe vreau să aud ce aveţi voi de spus, dacă veţi fi alături de mine. Vorbiţi liber.

A-ţi desăvârşi caracterul înseamnă să-ţi etalezi cu îndrăzneală virtuţile de căpătâi ca unic conţinut al unei lecţii de viaţă de care îţi vei aminti mereu.

Dacă vrei să creezi o adevărată unitate între tine şi membrii echipei tale trebuie să faci uneori abstracţie de ierarhie şi rang, să-i consideri pe toţi egali, şi să le acorzi tuturor aceeaşi încredere. Dacă vrei să dai continuitate leadershipului tău trebuie să demonstrezi că eşti comunicativ cu subalternii tăi în orice situaţie, dându-le a înţelege că nu sunt mai prejos decât tine şi că au potenţialul necesar şi puterea de a se transforma, la rândul lor, în oameni cheie care pot face lucrurile să meargă.

Dându-şi cărţile pe faţă, vorbindu-le cu profunzime şi cu seriozitate, îndemnându-i să vorbească făţiş, fără să se teamă de opiniile lor, locotenentul Waters şi-a pus în valoare adevărata lui personalitate, precum şi adevăratele lui aptitudini de lider.

Lecţia de viaţă pe care locotenentul a deprins-o din această soluţie salvatoare, cu iz de dramă şi răzvrătire, fără a se limita la natura acţiunilor sau la rolul misiunii sale, este următoarea: există o luptă mai importantă decât lupta pentru a câştiga minţile oamenilor şi anume lupta pentru sufletele lor, ostatice într-un episod al decepţiilor.

Nimic nu răneşte mai mult decât să le ceri oamenilor să facă ceva, fără a le oferi mijloacele necesare, strategiile şi perspective viabile pentru a realiza acel lucru. Nimeni nu te va urma până la sfârşit dacă eşti vanitos, dacă nu-ţi etalezi cu îndrăzneală virtuţile bunei tale personalităţi.

Leadership: Demarezi procesul de resetare a limitelor care se impun puterii tale de apreciere a valenţelor profesionale, ca să-ţi fie mai uşor să le urmezi dacă te simţi implicat în decizii hotărâtoare?

Leadershipul izvorăşte dintr-un consens dintre fiinţa ta şi natura celorlalţi oameni. Vei putea fi sigur că-i ai pe toţi de partea ta, precum locotenentul Waters a cărui echipa l-a urmat până la capătul misiunii, numai dacă reuşeşti să te conectezi cu ei la un nivel profund.

Un consens care răspunde intereselor şi dorinţelor celor pe care îi conduci. Ei vor simţi înăuntrul fiinţei lor dorinţa de a te ajuta şi de a fi alături de tine, dacă natura lor e aceeaşi cu a ta. Dacă ei au un caracter demn, senin, puternic, de învingător, bazat pe valori şi principii comune cu ale tale, atunci vor merge alături de tine pe drumul spre realizarea scopului propus.

Limitele care se impun puterii tale de apreciere a valenţelor profesionale sunt date nu atât de gradul tău de ambiţie şi credibilitate, ci de datoria de a fi în măsură să te împaci cu gândul că ceea ce ai devenit este o pată pe memoria oamenilor care ţi-au dat "follow".

Aşa cum viaţa nu poate exista în afara apei, apa reprezentând până la 99% din sistemul viu, tot astfel desăvârşirea propriului tău stil de leadership nu se poate produce "în sens invers", adică fără implicarea unei terţe părţi în atingerea scopurilor propuse. Desăvârşirea se dobândeşte prin ineditul propriilor tale manifestări, prin empatie, colaborare şi cumpătare, prin rezonanţă cu "undele" leadershipului celorlalţi.

Trebuie să menţionez că acest aspect, ce ar putea fi considerat necesar, fiind generat de altruism şi de spiritul de camaraderie, este concludent pentru cunoaşterea aspectelor majore ale dezvoltării noilor generaţii de lideri.

Din lumină în lumină desemnează continuitatea leadershipului tău dată de acel sentiment de comuniune şi de legătură sufletească pe care îl induci celorlalţi oameni, acel sentiment de prietenie şi solidaritate care îi determină să-ţi împărtăşească ideile, convingerile şi viziunea şi să te urmeze în direcţia aleasă de tine, sinceri şi hotărâţi, făcându-şi parcă un legământ cu tine de a persevera şi de a se dedica cu totul misiunii tale.

Pentru ca leadershipul tău să-şi păstreze strălucirea, renunţă la orgolii. Pleacă-ţi urechea la opiniile celorlalţi coechipieri ai tăi, mai ales atunci când o miză grea este pusă în joc. Leadershipul de calitate presupune stabilirea unei relaţii de colaborare de lungă durată cu oameni de valoare.

Dinamismul devenirii, în opoziţie cu staticul

Efectul final al Creaţiei este fondul secret al unui suflet de artist aflat într-o continuă devenire.

Serghei Eisenstein nu învăţase desenul niciodată. Începuse să deseneze în urma unei impresii din copilărie: în aşteptarea începerii partidei, inginerul Afrosimov îi desena cu o cretă pe postavul albastru închis al mesei de joc contururi de animale. Eisenstein rămăsese fascinat de arabescul alb al liniei care se năştea sub ochii lui şi care în mişcarea sa făcea să apară câini, cerbi, pisici. Linia se mişca de-a lungul conturului invizibil al unui obiect căruia, printr-un miracol, îi dădea astfel existenţă pe postavul mesei. Dinamismul liniei era o senzaţie care-l pasiona ani de zile.

Inginerul Afrosimov îi inoculase plăcerea de a desena. Mai târziu, la Politehnică, materia aridă a geometriei analitice căpăta pentru tânărul student un farmec aparte pentru că traducea în misterioasele formule algebrice tocmai mişcarea liniilor. Dinamismul "devenirii", în opoziţie cu staticul, îl va pasiona toată viaţa, fie că e vorba de mişcarea liniei, ori de cea a fenomenelor. Era o fascinaţie pentru geneza lucrurilor care-şi are originea şi aici, în această impresie timpurie în legătură cu desenul.

A desenat, cum ştim, mult, în tinereţe. Mult şi prost, deoarece, abandonând inspiraţia primară, încărca desenul cu detalii sub influenţa şcolii ruse de pictură de gen. Caligrafierea şcolară după model nu-i reuşea nicicând. Maniera sa era aceea a desenului liniar. Apoi, abandonând desenul, a rămas în continuare pasionat, în primele sale filme, pentru puritatea matematică a montajului în mişcarea sa. Gustul pentru secvenţă apare mai târziu, şi-şi explica ciudăţenia acestei întârzieri, prin logica gândului lui Engels: "mişcarea atrage întâi atenţia, abia apoi te gândeşti la ceea ce se mişcă." *****

Leadership: Întreaga concepţie estetică şi comparatistă a creatorului din tine se formulează la intersecţia unor opoziţii ireductibile?

Confruntarea omului cu universul creaţiei se continuă în plăcerea de a da naştere unor noi aspecte de ordin tehnic, şi acestea par a "îngheţa" într-o iluzie, mai ales în ceea ce priveşte fascinaţia pentru geneza lucrurilor care-şi are originea în cazul montajului. De fapt, montajul reuneşte anumite imagini picturale, grafice, fotografice (independente) pentru a obţine un ansamblu de efecte vizuale, scenografie, mai ales situaţii menite să delecteze ochii şi creierul fiecărui spectator, într-un stil aparte.

Dacă ar fi numai atât, atunci artistul s-ar sustrage condiţiei tragice de a nu avea o istorie, de a nu-şi putea dezvolta personalitatea, de a nu-şi vedea ideile transpuse într-o realitate cât mai veridică, dar totodată progresistă. Dinamismul lui sufletesc şi artistic, îmbinând ideile şi viziunile într-un demers autentic şi copleşitor, trebuie să răspundă legilor unei lumi scoase de sub orizontul limitei impuse de neajunsurile unei meserii pline de responsabilitate (sau de neajunsurile unei epoci în care doar creaţia ar mai putea umple nişte goluri în organismul societăţii).

Leadership: Poți crea viziuni pline de substrat artistic care să aibă o utilitate practică și spirituală totodată, valorificând capacitatea de a aduce la viață o reacțiune sufletească profundă?

Dar creaţia unui regizor de talia lui Serghei Eisenstein nu este compusă din idei ce au nevoie de cuvinte pentru a fi publicate într-o rubrică săptămânală regulată, în „Time News", ci este ea însăşi o mişcare sufletească de anume soi, în care ideile şi viziunile, elementele tehnice şi elementele pur raţionale ale reacţiunii sufleteşti par lovite de temperatura mediului ambiant, căzând într-o manieră fantastică, sub regimul unui număr de variante diferite de concept, îmbinări şi efecte de clar-obscur.

Luate în sine, prin analiză şi comparaţie, aceste viziuni pline de substrat artistic sunt teoretice sau practice, adică presupun o utilitate practic şi spirituală totodată. Ideile, indiferent că sunt teoretice ori practice, chiar şi poetice, sunt ignorate de critici fiindcă implică intelectul activ.

Or întreaga concepţie estetică şi comparatistă a creatorului din tine se formulează la intersecţia unor opoziţii ireductibile: mai întâi trebuie să deschizi un subiect care să te intereseze, şi abia apoi trebuie să te gândeşti de ce şi cum atrage el atenţia celorlalţi."

Fondul secret al unui suflet de artist aflat într-o continuă devenire relaţionează cu plăcerea creaţiei de a genera forme de expresie în planul artei, dar mai ales cu plăcerea spirituală de a deschide noi orizonturi de creaţie din care putem extrage esenţialul unei concepţii regizorale (numai prin forţa interpretării şi a actului regizoral).

Dinamismul devenirii, în opoziţie cu staticul aduce în discuţie acea nevoie de schimbare totală, care începe de la modul în care artistul gândeşte, simte şi înfăptuieşte (în imagini, sunete, emoţii) actul de creaţie al unei opere de artă.

Iar pentru un regizor, schimbarea începe de la modul în care înfăptuieşte o poveste din imagini, iar devenirea lui ca artist total trebuie să aibă în vedere forţa de acţiune ce trebuie exercitată pentru modificarea unei stări de spirit generatoare de creativitate culturală.

Dincolo de ceea ce poate fi văzut

Când te concentrezi asupra ascensiunii, privirea devine mai mult decât un simț – ea devine o punte către forța tainică din interior. Privește adânc provocarea și vei vedea esența.

Încă o dată am fost surprins de performanța surorii mele, Oana Fântânaru, la semi-maratonul montan "Bucovina Ultra Rocks". Încercând să-mi amintesc parcursul ei, ajung la momentul critic când s-a confruntat cu propria neputință și a fost la un pas de a renunța. Totuși, a găsit forța interioară de a continua, un moment ce i-a schimbat perspectiva asupra efortului și reușitei. Runningul nu este doar despre ajungerea până la cel mai înalt vârf, ci și despre depășirea obstacolelor fizice și mentale, despre înțelegerea drumului în sine – drum care, odată parcurs, dezvăluie fragmente de frumusețe ce altfel ar fi rămas ascunse.

Pe măsură ce Oana avansa pe traseele sinuoase, se lăsa parcă ispitită de topografia variată a muntelui, mereu atrasă de dorința de a ajunge dincolo de ceea ce poate fi văzut, unde fiecare vârf nu este doar o destinație, ci un punct de răscruce în călătoria sa interioară. În acele momente de extaz atletic, granițele dintre sine și munte se dizolvă, lăsând loc unei conștiințe expandate (care îmbrățișează întreaga creație) să explodeze în libertate pură, atingând noi niveluri de percepție. Există vreun alergător care să nu se simtă atras de aceeași chemare spre explorarea înălțimilor, dar și a limitărilor proprii?

Evident, creația sa este o artă a mișcării, un soi de dialog între corp și spirit. Creația devine vizibilă ochilor atunci când întreaga ființă este implicată în dialogul dintre efortul fizic și reflecția interioară. Până la urmă, raționalismul cu care ea își analizează fiecare pas nu este o limitare, ci o poartă către o înțelegere superioară a propriului potențial. Fiecare detaliu al cursei, de la topografia terenului până la bătăile inimii, devine o piesă într-un puzzle al conexiunii universale, al sinergiei dintre om și natură, a cărui imagine finală revelează adevărata natură a existenței sale. O privire care vede dincolo de aparențe este un act de înțelegere profundă a luptei sale interioare și a modului în care muntele îi reflectă eforturile.

Leadership: Când ochii tăi se fixează asupra unui obiectiv provocator, ceea ce urmează este revelarea echilibrului dintre forța fizică și cea interioară?

Cu cât Oana înaintează mai mult pe traseele montane tot mai abrupte, cu atât mai mult punctul ei de echilibru spiritual se deplasează către experiențele intense ale vârfurilor, riscând să transforme fiecare urcuș într-o revelație a sinelui. Asta parcă face trimitere la un fragment dintr-un principiu al lui Patrick Drouot:

"Dacă trasăm o linie simplă de o anumită lungime și vrem s-o împărțim în două părți asimetrice, adică vrem să-i marcăm punctul de echilibru, atunci, evident, trebuie să nimerim exact mijlocul ei. Însă se schimbă cu totul situația dacă linia nu este uniformă, ci spre unul din capete se lățește tot mai mult, devenind o figură plană. În acest caz, punctul simetric, axa de echilibru, nu va cădea la mijloc, ci se va deplasa spre capătul mai lat. Cu cât va crește lățimea acestui capăt, cu atât punctul de echilibru se va apropia mai mult de el. Explicația este ușoară: chiar la simpla vedere simțim că în partea mai lată apasă mai multă greutate, adică mai multă forță, căreia fatal trebuie să-i opunem o lungime mai mare din partea opusă."

Când o parte devine mai grea, echilibrul se mută către ea. Asemenea liniei care se lățește spre un capăt, descrisă de Drouot, călătoria spirituală a surorii mele își găsește punctul de echilibru tot mai aproape de experiențele intense ale vârfurilor. Fiecare pas pe cărările abrupte devine o "greutate" spirituală mai mare, cerând o "lungime" mai mare de reflecție și înțelegere pentru a menține echilibrul interior.

Leadership: Depășirea barierelor interioare reflectate în obstacolele fizice întâlnite pe parcurs îți oferă oportunitatea de a vedea perceperea chemării naturii ca pe o rezonanță cu potențialul tău nelimitat de creație?

Ori în această topografie variată a muntelui, Oana a descoperit că provocările fizice cele mai intense, vârfurile cele mai înalte și pantele cele mai abrupte devin punctele de maximă revelație spirituală. Aici, în "capătul mai lat" al experienței sale, ea a atins acel "Astralis Xenorion Helivox", o aliniere perfectă între efortul fizic și iluminarea spirituală. Fiecare obstacol a devenit astfel nu doar o provocare atletică, ci o oportunitate de creștere interioară, deplasând constant punctul de echilibru spiritual către noi înălțimi ale înțelegerii de sine și a locului ei într-un universul vast.

Această linie devine o metaforă a căii pe care Oana a parcurs-o. La fel cum un capăt mai lat al unei linii atrage axa de echilibru, muntele își atrage cu forță irezistibilă alergătorul, cerând o balanță interioară pe măsură. Pe măsură ce dificultățile cresc, se mută "punctul de echilibru" al alergătorului dinspre confortul obișnuit spre acel spațiu din sufletul său unde potențialul adevărat și rezistența divină sunt descoperite.

Leadership: Contactul tău vizual cu obstacolul devine simbolul confruntării directe cu propriile limite și depășirea acestora, atunci când te opui îndoielilor care îți slăbesc determinarea?

Fiecare potecă abruptă îți testează claritatea vederii interioare. Iar ochii alergătorului sunt, de regulă, atrași de dificultatea ascunsă a muntelui. Iată, deci, că muntele, asemenea liniei asimetrice, are o gravitație metaforică. Partea „mai lată”, adică acea zonă de dificultate intensă (potecile abrupte, aerul subțire, pietrele instabile) devine punctul unde alergătorul își concentrează energia, pentru că acolo se află, în esență, adevărata revelație. Cu cât provocările devin mai dificile, cu atât mai adânc descoperă în el o forță tainică, echilibrul său interior balansându-se tot mai aproape de acea chemare tainică și revelatoare a muntelui.

În final, această călătorie spre echilibru nu este doar o strădanie fizică de a menține stabilitatea pe terenul abrupt, ci și o căutare a unui centru spiritual – acel punct de răscruce unde muntele exterior și cel interior se întâlnesc, revelând adevărata natură a propriei ființe. Cu cât capătul mai lat al unei linii geometrice își mărește dimensiunea, cu atât punctul de echilibru se apropie mai mult de această zonă de intensitate. La fel, cu cât muntele devine mai impunător și provocările traseului montan mai dificile, cu atât chemarea interioară a alergătoarei se intensifică, transformând fiecare pas într-o revelație a propriului echilibru.

În concluzie, tentația constantă a muntelui nu este doar o chemare exterioară pentru Oana, ci o rezonanță profundă cu propria sa natură divină. Fiecare competiție devine astfel un ritual de auto-inițiere în propriul potențial nelimitat, unde obstacolele fizice sunt doar reflexii ale barierelor interioare ce trebuie depășite.

Și tu, cititorule, ce munți interiori escaladezi în propria ta odisee spirituală? Cum transformi fiecare provocare a terenului montan într-o oportunitate de creștere spirituală, văzând dincolo de obstacolul fizic către lecția pe care o oferă natura?

Autenticitatea unei viziuni inspiraționale se reflectă în abilitatea unui lider de a percepe chemarea naturii ca pe o rezonanță cu spiritul său de creator, capabil de a transforma experiențele naturale în expresii vizuale și emoționale.

Dincolo de ceea ce poate fi văzut se află forța interioară, în fața unui test de voință și rezistență. Spun asta deoarece încercările sunt cele care ne definesc, în pofida oricărui impediment, luând atitudinea unui explorator care caută sensul dincolo de limite. Iar în privința artei de care Oana a făcut dovadă, pot spune un singur lucru: creația devine vizibilă ochilor atunci când întreaga ei ființă este implicată în dialogul dintre efortul fizic și reflecția interioară.

A crea înseamnă a modela experiențele fizice în forme care transmit complexitatea sinergiei dintre existența umană și lumea naturală.

Dincolo de invizibil

On Noiembrie 10, 2009

Demonstrează-ţi înaltul potenţial de lider, fără să-ţi concentrezi resursele în jurul unei forţe care ţi-ar putea periclita integritatea.

Numai în rarele momente de inspiraţie s-au înfăptuit lucrurile măreţe. Toate marile descoperiri, cele mai importante invenţii ale lumii, tot ceea ce este esenţial şi durabil s-a făcut numai atunci când oamenii au conştientizat necesitatea schimbării.

Poate că nimic din ceea ce ne înconjoară şi ne bucură ochii nu ar fi existat dacă oamenii de ştiinţă nu s-ar fi dedicat cunoaşterii avansate. Poate că dacă nu ar fi existat oameni puternici cu spirite puternice, exploratori şi vizionari, aventurieri şi curioşi, am fi rămas la stadiul de incertitudini. Poate că dacă nu ar fi existat gânditori şi filozofi, artişti şi meşteşugari am fi fost încă la stadiul epocii de piatră.

Este o certitudine faptul că unii oameni poartă în ei germenele succesului, al reuşitei, al curiozităţii şi al cunoaşterii. De aceea ştiinţa şi cunoaşterea, conlucrând împreună, vor avansa mereu. Din ce în ce mai rapid. Astfel se vor atinge culmi nebănuite. Se vor stabili alte frontiere dincolo de orice fel de aşteptări.

Leadership: Îţi plasezi creaţia în zona unui model independent de testare a realităţii, prin extinderea experienţei de utilizare a descoperiilor ştiinţifice într-o zonă de recunoaştere meritată a valorii de care dispui?

Fără nicio îndoială, una dintre cele mai mari descoperiri a tuturor timpurilor ar fi formula invizibilităţii. Un savant strălucit, care cunoaşte în cele mai mici amănunte tainele alchimiei transcendentale ar putea pătrunde misterul indescifrabil al invizibilităţii. El ar putea născoci o licoare magica a cărei compoziţie chimică să fie capabilă să interacţioneze cu fotonii pentru a crea efectul de invizibilitate. Desigur, diabolica licoare l-ar transforma peste noapte într-un om putred de bogat şi foarte cunoscut, însă probabil că invenţia sa nu ar putea fi scoasă la vânzare.

Orice guvern ar cumpăra imediat formula şi ar ţine-o secretă. Evident, trebuie luată în calcul şi varianta în care savantul ar dori să ducă cu sine în mormânt secretele sale, iar extraordinara lui formulă să rămână necunoscută. Însă această posibilitate este cea mai puţin probabilă. Pentru că dorinţa cea mai mare a unui descoperitor este să-şi pună amprenta, într-o anumită măsură, asupra viitorului. Asupra întregii planete. Pe de altă parte toţi aceşti ani irosiţi în muncă trebuie cumva să fie răscumpăraţi.

În lumina cunoştinţelor actuale găsirea soluţiei invizibilităţii pare o utopie. Dar mâine cine ştie…

Leadership: Recunoaşterea meritelor tale se află poziționată într-o zonă de confluență a mai multor zone diferite de abordare a unui "pas înainte", din punct de vedere al confirmării propriei valori prin raportare la o condiţie de imposibilitate?

Neprevăzutul se poate oricând întâmpla. Ce-ar fi dacă cineva ar descoperi formula invizibilităţii şi, să spunem prin absurd, un flacon care conţine licoarea magică ar ajunge pe mâinile unui manager? Cum ar arăta o companie condusă de un om invizibil?

Acesta ar duce flaconul la gură şi ar înghiţi cu lăcomie conţinutul făcându-se invizibil. La fel cum Gyges, pastorul din Republica lui Platon, se servea de puterile magice ale unui inel pentru a o vedea pe regină dezbrăcată, managerul se poate folosi de magica licoare pentru a-şi spiona, în primul rând, angajaţii. Să observe dacă sunt într-adevăr serioşi şi dacă îşi fac bine treaba, să afle ce vorbesc, cum îşi pierd timpul şi, dacă se poate, ce gândesc.

Ar avea darul de a fi pretutindeni. Ar putea să se strecoare fără nici un fel de probleme, fără să lase nici un fel de urme în cele mai bizare locuri şi să pândească fiecare gest, să asculte fiecare vorbă, să le cunoască angajaţilor cele mai intime secrete. Fiind invizibil puterea lui ar fi infinit mai mare. Ar putea apărea şi dispărea după bunul lui plac, la fel ca vrăjitorii, graţie baghetei lor fermecate. Aşa, ar putea avea cu adevărat compania la picioarele sale. Iar dacă este înzestrat cu simţul umorului s-ar putea amuza copios pe seama angajaţilor săi.

Condiţia de imposibilitate pe care o anunţă descoperirea ta este aceea de a nu te baza pe ideea că există o rețetă miraculoasă care te transformă în "altcineva". Căci orice haină ai îmbrăca tot vei rămâne captiv, mai mult istovit decât imobilizat, într-o realitate care rămâne indisolubilă pentru om, atâta vreme cât el nu are acordul expres al lui Dumnezeu.

Deci, păstrează limitele decenţei în orice tip de conţinut pe care îl creezi şi-l pui la dispoziţia lumii.

Leadershipul înseamnă să permiţi afişarea unor imagini clare şi de bună calitate la unghiuri largi de vizibilitate, beneficiind de o experienţă de vizualizare decentă în orice tip de conţinut.

Cât de orbi ar fi, însă, angajaţii? Ei nu şi-ar putea da seama nicicum că sunt urmăriţi îndeaproape şi ar continua să facă ce vor ei. Cine şi-ar putea închipui că cineva ar avea capacitatea să se sustragă privirilor lor? Chiar dacă sunt serioşi sau nu, chiar dacă sunt activi sau nu, chiar dacă sunt buni profesionişti sau nişte simpli salariaţi ajunşi acolo prin relaţii, cu toţii vor continua să facă ceea ştiu să facă cel mai bine. Unii vor sta, alţii vor munci.

Până când? Până când omul invizibil va deveni din nou vizibil şi îi va sancţiona pe aceia pe care i-a prins pe picior greşit. Astfel s-ar ţese fără încetare, fără ca nimeni să bănuiască, soarta fiecărui angajat.

Pentru un manager care reuşeşte să păşească spre celălalt nivel, al ştiinţei fără frontiere care se vrea a fi o replică la legile deja existente, totul se va concentra în jurul invizibilului: oamenii, lucrurile, faptele, obiceiurile, locurile, circumstanţele.

Totul va fi văzut, auzit şi simţit prin prisma unei anormale curiozităţi. Căci automat cel care deţine formula unei substanţe pe care e suficient să o înghită ca să devină invizibil, devine în timp tot mai curios. Atât de curios încât va dori să afle şi să experimenteze tot ce se poate. Şi să vadă totul, chiar şi lucrurile care le ştie deja, dar dintr-o altă perspectivă: mai profundă, mai intensă, mai inspirată, mai misterioasă. Se va afla într-un continuu şi interminabil proces de căutare. Iar odată ce învaţă să se folosească de acest atu, nu va mai putea reveni niciodată la starea de normalitate.

Invizibilitatea este o forţă agresivă fiindcă violează intimitatea persoanelor, deci, care îţi periclitează integritatea. Dar este şi un drog de care devii destul de repede dependent. Ar fi chiar obositor, chiar şi pentru un manager să caute să afle pe această cale absolut totul despre angajaţii săi. În fond pe el îl interesează să meargă bine compania, randamentul oamenilor să crească, etc.

Măiestria în leadership se câştigă prin curajul de a proiecta viziuni noi asupra ştiinţei, fără să devii dependent de reacţiile de ei.

Faci dovada confirmării valorii tale prin raportare la cerinţele evoluţiei ştiinţei? Încerci să împingi în extremis limitele ei?

Concluzie: Dacă lucrezi într-o companie şi observi lipsa constantă a managerului, nu te culca pe o ureche, ci străduieşte-te să-ţi faci treaba la fel de bine ca în orice altă zi. Şi mai ales, ai grijă ce vorbeşti. Un adevărat manager îşi cunoaşte foarte bine subordonaţii şi ştie tot, absolut tot ce se petrece în compania lui. De la cel mai neînsemnat lucru până la cel mai important. Chiar dacă nu îl vezi, fii convins că el, cumva, se află acolo, lângă tine. Un manager adevărat, mai mult ca sigur, chiar dacă nu este invizibil în sensul propriu al cuvântului, ştie şi află lucrurile esenţiale care se întâmplă în jurul său.

Demonstrează-ţi înaltul potenţial de lider, fără să-ţi concentrezi resursele în jurul unei forţe care ţi-ar putea periclita integritatea.

Dincolo de linia vizibilului

Când sufletul se retrage în dinamica creației, el își întipărește existența în veșnicie, dincolo de timp și spațiu.

În adâncul ființei mele înțeleg că arta nu este doar un act de creație, ci o metamorfoză devenită un simbol al potențialului de reînnoire, un fel de pelerinaj pe care artistul îl parcurge în slujba unei viziuni complete și memorabile, ce modelează și purifică spiritul.

La fel și alergatul, este o fuziune între corp și suflet ce transcende normalul cotidian. În această revelație perpetuă, privesc spre sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, în timpul semimaratonului de la Curtea Domnească. Da, o privesc asemeni unui artist care își regăsește esența dincolo de forme și măști efemere, ea devenind o oglindă a perfecțiunii artistice în mișcare.

Într-adevăr, Oana este dovada vie a dedicării absolute în fața artei, în fața acelor provocări tăcute ale muntelui, de unde se ridică mereu cu o forță renăscută, caz în care arta devine o călătorie spre sine. Cu grație, cu frumusețe, fiecare pas pe care îl face devine expresia unei depășiri a propriilor limite, fie ele fizice sau interioare. Mai mult decât atât, cu fiecare potecă parcursă, cu fiecare vârf atins, pasiunea ei capătă noi profunzimi, transformându-se într-un "Akihulich Usnionial", într-o revelație perpetuă, muntele devenind un templu al sufletului, un loc sacru unde își întâlnește autenticitatea.

Leadership: În ce moduri corpul și sufletul pot deveni parteneri în căutarea perfecțiunii și armoniei interioare, încât creația izvorâtă din ele să reflecte echilibrul profund și autenticitatea ființei tale?

Legat de semimaratonul montan, sora mea pare să întruchipeze emblematicul personaj din opera lui Mika Waltari, care își mărturisea credința în puterea eternă a spiritului dincolo de limitele trupești:

„Toate cărțile acestea le-am scris eu, Sinuhe egipteanul, doar pentru mine. Nu pentru zei, nu pentru alți oameni, nici ca numele meu să se păstreze pentru eternitate. Le-am scris doar pentru biata mea inimă încărcată de amar și tristețe.

Păstrez cu grijă aceste cincisprezece cărți și Muti a cusut pentru fiecare carte câte o învelitoare trainică din fibre de palmier. Toate cărțile acestea vor fi puse într-o lădiță de argint, lădița de argint va fi pusă într-o ladă de lemn tare, lada de lemn tare într-o ladă de aramă, așa cum odinioară cărțile zeului Thot au fost ferecate pentru a se păstra și au fost aruncate în Nil. Nu știu dacă Muti va reuși să pună cărțile în mormântul meu fără să o vadă gardienii, dar nu mă frământă prea mult acest lucru. Fiindcă știința și amintirile mele vor dăinui, chiar dacă trupul meu va pieri."

Atunci când sufletul caută exprimare, el își găsește calea fie prin pașii unui alergător pe munte, fie prin cuvintele unui scrib în singurătate, ambele fiind forme de eliberare și adevăr personal. Iar așa cum scribul își ferecă tainele în lăzi de aramă, alergătorul își sigilează luptele și biruințele în ritmul pașilor săi, ambele devenind relicve ale unui drum interior de purificare. În cele din urmă, atât scrierea, cât și alergarea sunt expresii ale unei nevoi umane fundamentale: nevoia de a crea, de a ne depăși limitele și de a lăsa o urmă în lume.

Fiecare potecă devine o pagină a unui jurnal nescris, iar muntele, marele templu al timpului, păstrează ecourile pașilor Oanei, în deplinătatea unei căutări interioare. Chiar și când vârful se ascunde sub „vălul de ceață" al muntelui, ea nu se lasă descurajată. Orice obstacol devine o punte, iar tentația constantă de a continua conturează fiecare alergare ca pe o metaforă vie a forței interioare, un dialog subtil între trup și spirit, transpus în cuvintele cărora acum, eu le dau glas.

Prin fiecare rând scris sau prin fiecare potecă urcată, sufletul își gravează propria poveste în materie, transformând efemerul în memorie durabilă.

Leadership: Poate efortul tău continuu să devină nemuritor, transpunând experiența vizuală într-un șir de imagini ce rezistă trecerii timpului?

Privirea alergătorului caută mai mult decât un final – ea pătrunde în profunzimea traseului, căutând răspunsuri despre scop și identitate. Pentru Oana, fiecare cursă nu e doar o competiție, ci un ritual de inițiere, un duel între provocare și dorință. Ea se avântă printre umbrele muntelui, ghidată de propriile standarde de disciplină și excelență, asemenea unui maestru al unei arte unice, în care fiecare pas și fiecare respirație sunt calculate, analizate și rafinate până la perfecțiune. Când sufletul se retrage în dinamica creației, fie prin alergarea neobosită pe munte, fie prin scrisul migălos pe papirus, el își întipărește existența în veșnicie, dincolo de timp și spațiu.

Astfel, fiecare chemare a muntelui devine o lecție despre sine, fiecare traseu – un altar personal, un viaggio verso l'essenza, unde linia de sosire marchează începutul unei noi introspecții. În alergare, Oana găsește un dialog cu natura, topindu-se în peisaj, transformând fiecare competiție într-o odisee simbolică, o poveste a rezistenței și frumuseții în mișcare.

Cred că imaginea surorii mele dezvăluie o lume deschisă, un punct în care efortul fizic se contopește cu spiritualitatea, ritmul pașilor ei transformându-se mereu într-un mesaj profund, aproape magic. Și să vă mai spun ceva: fiecare traseu desenat pe munte conturează, de fapt, o operă de artă ordonată, coerentă, pe care o poți admira ca pe un simbol al forței creatoare. Asemenea unui artist meșteșugit într-o operă cu caracter realist, Oana își asumă cele mai dure provocări, pentru a dovedi că limitele pot fi transcendate. Adică, reușește să facă din fiecare provocare o formă de expresie, pe principiul că arta autentică se naște din dăruire totală.

Leadershipul contopește efortul fizic cu spiritualitatea, în oglindă cu dialogul dintre natură și voință, construind o poveste de rezistență și transformare interioară.

Dincolo de linia vizibilului se află esența nevăzută a ființei, în conformitate tot cu ceea ce trăim și simțim în profunzime, din care răzbate mesajul: „Adevărata putere izvorăște din armonia dintre trup și suflet."

Din acest motiv cred că pașii calculați ai alergătorului de top seamănă cu literele scrise atent pe un pergament, un mesaj pentru generațiile viitoare: „Când trupul și sufletul vorbesc același limbaj, creăm o moștenire dincolo de timp."

Dincolo de negura alchimiei

Priveşte dincolo de limitele la care nu ai acces, astfel încât să realizezi configuraţia cea mai stabilă a ştiinţei tale.

Rezultatul preocupărilor mele era de a stabili perspectivele unei ştiinţe aflate în strânsă corelaţie cu omul şi viaţa, cu specificaţia că nimic nu trebuie să se piardă în exteriorul unui univers finit. Perspectiva era necesară pentru a plasa corect în timp şi spaţiu diferitele elemente deja cunoscute: pământ, aer, apă şi foc, combinate corespunzător într-o retortă, în măsura în care înţelegeam corect structura şi diversele lor particularităţi.

În timpul acestei operaţii complexe, distilând substanţele care prin natura lor fizico-chimică pot produce reacţii adverse, urmăream să dau viaţă unei a doua lumi. Generând o formulă care ar fi putut crea un efect cu totul excepţional. Un tip de raţionament care implica considerarea unor presupuneri ce ar fi putut fi abandonate în urma obţinerii de noi rezultate ştiinţifice. O renaştere a materiei, care mergea mai departe cu noi, continuu, ca fiinţe umane.

Evident, trebuia să iau în calcul posibilitatea de disociere a acestor elemente, transformându-le şi reînnoindu-le neîncetat, sub efectul unei evoluţii neanticipate. Dar şi posibilitatea unei descompuneri generale a acestei combinaţii, ca şi apariţia unei dominanţe a unuia din aceste elemente, având ca urmare anumite efecte secundare.

La urma urmei, ce eram eu? Ce anume mă forţa să mă apropii de adevăr, să amestec aceste substanţe în anumite cantităţi în propriul meu malaxor, să le frământ apoi ca pe-un aluat, să le las dospit, permiţându-le să acţioneze şi să-şi facă efectul?

Prin combinaţia chimică, atomii elementelor tind să-şi modifice stratul exterior de electroni, astfel încât să realizeze configuraţia cea mai stabilă, vitală. Sau, vice-versa, o configuraţie instabilă ce poate determina consecinţe nefaste. Aşadar mă puteam aştepta la orice, chiar şi la o catastrofă.

Leadership: Eşti dependent de nevoia de constituire a unei teorii ştiinţifice şi de argumentare a unui adevăr proiectat să stea la temelia vieţii din care îţi pare că poţi reuşi să faci un mesaj interesant?

Căutam răspunsuri pentru a putea trece la nivelul următor. O aventură hipnotizantă în căutarea unui orizont unic, a unei supreme dimensiuni în care atunci când păşeşti totul devine posibil. Dar o căutare la capătul căreia aş fi putut să culeg o amară învăţătură: că toate orizonturile sunt amăgiri şi nu există decât orizonturi pierdute. De parcă aş fi încercat să cercetez ceva ce nu există, o Fantazia - cine este în stare să ajungă acolo nu se mai întoarce, riscând a nu se putea adapta la niciuna din cele două lumi.

Este zadarnic să cauţi o explicaţie a adevărului, acolo unde nu există adevăr. Şi nici minciună. Ci doar un mănunchi de gânduri, ploi şi curcubeie, umbre şi culori. Spaţiul intermediar, vidul. Care cu greu poate fi umplut cu ceva. Cu toate acestea, păream a fi dependent de nevoia de constituire a unei teorii ştiinţifice şi de argumentare a unui adevăr proiectat să stea la temelia vieţii din care mi se părea că pot reuşi să fac un mesaj interesant, cum ar fi acela că: "realitatea se poate întâlni cu ficţiunea" sau că "viaţa este un ataşament faţă de efectul unei intrări în rezonanţă cu ceva invizibil".

Biologul englez Julian Huxley susţinea că există o serie de întrebări pe care nu trebuie să ni le punem, deoarece nu au răspunsuri. Cu toate acestea eforturile mele, întemeiate, cumulative, rămâneau indisolubile. Alegeam întrebările şi căutam răspunsurile posibile. O continuitate a pregătirii în vederea obţinerii pietrei filozofale, parcurgând traseul de înţelegere a noţiunilor fundamentale ale limbajului alchimic. O iniţiere în ineditul inefabil.

Funcţia referenţială a ştiinţei este explicaţia pe care o dai unui adevăr pe care mulţi nu sunt pregătiţi să-l înţeleagă deoarece nu se adresează inteligenţei omului, ci fanteziei lui de a trăi o poveste extraordinară prin intermediul lumii pe care şi-o construieşte singur.

Îmi spuneam că alchimia este ştiinţa maeştrilor. Şi că ea poate fi exprimată prin formula pertinentă şi valabilă, pe care am descoperit-o eu însumi, prin analytics , în urma unui procedeu de disecare şi recombinare. Culege un ciob de sticlă, pune-l la fiert două ore, presară-i deasupra puţin clar de lună, suspendă-l într-o rază de soare, şi vei obţine un diamant.

Dar mai mult ca oricare alt maestru, îmi revenea misiunea de a face cunoscută ştiinţa, de a o transmite mai departe, suscitând un nou înţeles prin intermediul operei - înainte de a mă ascunde în spatele ei. Un fel de scut împotriva degradării unui adevăr care m-a luat şi pe mine prin surprindere: că tot ceea ce mă înconjoară este o scenă de prezentare a experienţelor şi a schimbului de informaţii extinse spre o tendinţă de repetare.

Însă opera mea consta într-un joc de înţelepciune, mister, responsabilitate şi reflecţie. Păstrând mai degrabă tăcerea, pentru ca misterul marelui mister să persiste, lăsam posibilitatea fiecărei generaţii ce vine pe lume să cerceteze aceste lucruri, să dobândească această cunoaştere străveche şi s-o aplice nemijlocit în contextul vremurilor ce le traversează.

Alchimia nu este ceva fortuit, ci mai degrabă un tărâm stâncos la care foarte puţini au acces, cuprinzând toate cele ştiute şi neştiute. Şi ea se întemeiază numai pe credinţă şi perseverenţă.

Felul în care te priveşti în relaţie cu ştiinţa este asemănător felului în care este evaluat un diamant: prin calităţile sale excepţionale şi prin raritate, sau prin strălucirea lui atât de puternică capabilă să-l orbească pe cel care îl deţine.

Cauţi o explicaţie a adevărului, acolo unde nu există adevăr? Eforturile tale, întemeiate, cumulative, rămân indisolubile? Ştiinţa ta poate fi exprimată printr-o formulă pertinentă şi valabilă? Îţi revine misiunea de a-ţi face cunoscută ştiinţa, de a o transmite mai departe? Susciţi un nou înţeles prin intermediul operei, înainte de a te ascunde în spatele ei? Opera ta se împreunează într-un joc de înţelepciune, mister responsabilitate şi reflecţie? Pe ce se întemeiază ea?

Felul în care te priveşti în relaţie cu ştiinţa, precum şi tendinţele pe care pui accent în mod excesiv în bătălia pentru formarea şi desăvârşirea ta, determină schimbări de optică, provoacă reacţii în lanţ, creează modificări de bază în propria-ţi personalitate. Toate aceste reacţii legate între ele, accelerate de un proces de acţiuni şi reacţiuni, de respingeri şi atracţii, de eliminări şi coordonări, pun în valoare rezultatul cercetării "alchimice", al cărui singur catalizator este mobilitatea ta spirituală, deschiderea spre noi orizonturi.

Această experienţă de viaţă profesională, care poate fi trăită numai personal, trecerea de la un stadiu neevoluat la un stadiu avansat, cu rol de cuantificare, rafinare şi stabilizare a procesului de transformare, şi orientarea ta către cele mai bune rezultate, este esenţa alchimiei. Şi numai această experienţă te poate ridica în fruntea lumii.

Leadership: Experienţa inedită care te poate ridica în faţa ştiinţei corespunde tendinţei de a te pune în locul unei realităţi care depinde de înţelegerea nivelului de complexitate a unei imagini mult prea detaliate?

John Fuhrman, preşedintele fondator al companiei Frame of Mind, Inc., oferă un sfat simplu de înţeles, şi numai bun de urmat: " Concentrează-te pe ceea ce îţi doreşti cu adevărat. Altfel, multe schimbări te vor îndepărta, de fapt, de destinaţie. Atunci când năzuieşti către ceva bine definit, este mai uşor să faci ajustările corespunzătoare. "

Leadershipul din perspectiva demersului alchimic, înseamnă să plasezi corect în timp şi spaţiu diferitele elemente ale compoziţiei tale, calităţile, valorile, principiile, plus acele "minerale" care se găsesc în stare latentă, combinându-le apoi corespunzător în retorta care îţi modelează originalitatea.

Eforturile pe care le depui în acest sens sunt comparabile cu fertilizarea unui teren pentru a deveni mai productiv. Deci, vorbim de o investiţie inspirată care aduce profit pe termen lung. Iar selectarea acelor trăsături diferențiale care să-ţi confere un plus-valoare în raport cu ceilalţi aspiranţi la statutul de „alchimişti", se face numai după finalizarea procesului tău de transformare.

Etapa următoare, distilarea acestor elemente, va declanşa acel foc purificator al eliberării tuturor potenţialităţilor care vor contribui la dezvoltarea unei imagini de sine adecvate, la stabilirea unei armonii eficiente între resursele creatoare ce te pot ajuta să treci la nivelul următor. Este nevoie de această distilare pentru a ajunge la esenţe, dar şi de realizarea unei configuraţii stabile care să permită constantelor tale să se dezvolte şi dobândească o mai bună stabilitate.

Dar trebuie luată în calcul, evident, posibilitatea de disociere a acestor elemente, care sub efectul unei evoluţii neanticipate, pot produce efecte secundare. Pentru a putea fi procesate aceste elemente, ele trebuie aduse la o fragmentare care să permită introducerea lor în procesul de dezvoltare. Aşadar, trebuie să te concentrezi pe ceea ce îţi doreşti cu adevărat, să năzuieşti către ceva bine definit, apoi să faci ajustările corespunzătoare pentru ca procesul alchimic să se pună în mişcare.

O imagine mult prea detaliată este plină de informaţii care te pot ajuta să înţelegi mai uşor un fenomen de sublimare identitarã, în care, spre exemplu, ceea ce te caracterizează la nivel de împărtăşire a ideilor nu se va articula în opoziţie cu ceea ce te caracterizează la nivel sufletesc.

Dincolo de negura alchimiei exprimă multiplele variaţii şi diferenţe, nedezvăluite, din timpul operaţiilor care conduc la rezultatul preconizat de tine în tentativa de a-ţi ridica nivelul de autocunoaştere. Indică totodată o răsplată a eforturilor pe care le faci pentru a implementa schimbarea personală şi profesională, mult trebuincioasă, ducând în final la înţelegerea alchimiei.

Apropie-te de adevăr. Caută răspunsuri pentru a trece la nivelul cel mai înalt de cunoaştere. Ia în calcul posibilitatea de asociere sau disociere a elementelor tale definitorii, aranjează-le într-o altă ordine care să aibă sens şi să garanteze un crescendo al valorii tale. Priveşte dincolo de limitele la care nu ai acces, astfel încât să realizezi configuraţia cea mai stabilă a ştiinţei tale.

Dincolo de văzul lumii, inima vede adevărul

Curajul nu înseamnă doar să înfrunți adversitatea, ci să te redefinești prin ea, într-o continuă chemare la depășirea de sine.

Ploaia, prezentă la Semimaratonul Dragomirnei, nu a fost doar o manifestare a naturii, ci o metaforă vie a transformării interioare pe care a trăit-o sora mea, Oana Fântânaru. A fost ca și cum cerul însuși și-a trimis lacrimile pentru a o încerca, pentru a-i pune voința și spiritul la încercare, în conformitate cu principiul fundamental al artei de a depăși limitele. Cerul și pământul se contopeau într-o "Xenthoria Ulmivent", o fuziune miraculoasă între provocarea fizică și epifania spirituală.

Categoric, fiecare pas pe care Oana l-a făcut din greu, fiecare efort artistic care a încercat-o, a devenit o bătălie împotriva averselor însoțite de vânt puternic ce-i loveau pielea, și a drumului care părea din ce în ce mai alunecos. Dar a înțeles că, în acele momente, vremea nasoală nu o putea împiedica să termine cursa într-un timp record, ci mai degrabă o purifica, o întărea, îi curăța fiecare îndoială și fiecare teamă.

Așadar, ploaia a fost un test al forței sale interioare. Iar semimaratonul Dragomirnei nu a fost doar o simplă cursă, un munte greu de parcurs în alergare, ci un ritual de inițiere într-o dimensiune unde fiecare pas devenea o "Epedysasis Harrexhium", o chemare eternă a depășirii de sine. În momentul culminant al efortului suprem, fiecare picătură de ploaie devenise o oglindă în care Oana și-a putut reflecta determinarea, capacitatea de a se conecta la Ego fără să se lase copleșită.

Era ca și când cerul însuși plângea lacrimi de admirație pentru curajul alergătorilor, fiecare picătură devenind un cristal în care se reflecta întreaga lume, până în punctul în care realitatea și visul se contopeau. De parcă fiecare pas al suroriii mele lăsa în urmă o amprentă nu doar în noroiul drumului, ci și în țesătura timpului însuși, unde un artist ar fi putut să picteze eternitatea. Cu certitudine, fiecare picătură de ploaie a transformat cursa într-un test pentru ochiul interior, căutând adevărul personal.

Leadership: În ce mod poți să vezi în fiecare pas al tău o reprezentare vizuală a luptei dintre voință și vulnerabilitate, ca o mărturie a sublimului cauzei și al efectului?

"La lluvia no es un obstáculo, sino un aliado en nuestra transformación," șoptea parcă natura însăși, în timp ce sora mea își croia drum prin perdeaua lichidă a provocării, preferând o anumită atitudine de acceptare și integrare.

La urma urmelor, efortul se reflectă în ochii celui care își învinge limitele. În timpul alergării, ceva în Oana părea să rezoneze mult cu semnificația oglinzii, citată într-o cronică apărută în Corriere dell'arte:

"Cred că prima experiență figurativă autentică a omului este recunoașterea propriei imagini în oglindă, care este ficțiunea cea mai aderentă la realitate... Efortul meu se constituie intuitiv din încercarea de a apropia cele două imagini, aceea propusă de oglindă și aceea propusă (desemnată) de mine... Obiectul figurativ care se naște astfel îmi dă posibilitatea să-mi urmez demersul în interiorul tabloului ca și în interiorul vieții..."

Este limpede. Cu cât artistul se adâncește mai mult în încercarea de a-și recunoaște propria imagine în oglinda naturii, cu atât mai intens devine procesul de purificare și transformare interioară, riscând să transforme fiecare trăsătură de penel într-o metaforă vie a depășirii limitelor personale. Iar cu cât alergătorul se confruntă mai mult cu manifestările naturii în timpul cursei, cu atât mai profund devine efortul său intuitiv de a apropia ficțiunea rezistenței de realitatea propriilor capacități, riscând să transforme fiecare pas într-un demers artistic în interiorul vieții.

Leadership: Poți vedea în provocarea la care te supui o imagine a inevitabilității destinului, unde fiecare obstacol contribuie la recunoașterea limitelor propriei creații?

Această ploaie, simbol al provocărilor vieții, i-a dezvăluit Oanei că obstacolele nu sunt dușmanii ei, ci maeștri ascunși, gata să o învețe lecții prețioase. Fiecare picătură care cădea, ascuțită și neiertătoare, a fost asemenea unui cuțit care taie prin straturile de frică și nesiguranță, expunând miezul dur al determinării ei. Era ca și când natura însăși i-ar fi șoptit că doar prin provocare poate veni renașterea, acea metamorfoză spirituală care putea să o transforme profund. În acel moment, ploaia s-a transformat într-un catalizator al eliberării – o luptă între sine și propriile limitări.

Este esențial să înțelegem că această cursă nu a fost doar o competiție fizică, ci o călătorie inițiatică, un soi de ritual transformator. Fiecare pas prin ploaie, fiecare respirație întretăiată, era o pensulă pe pânza existenței, pictând un tablou al rezilienței umane demn de Van Gogh în "Noaptea înstelată", unde fiecare strop devenea o stea în universul personal al alergătorului. În timpul cursei, ochii Oanei au căutat răspunsuri la întrebările despre sine și voință, prin lentila unei viziuni artistice: "Tot ceea ce înfruntăm devine o pensulă în mâinile destinului."

Traversând acest peisaj lichid al provocării, Oana a descoperit că locul 3 la open și locul 1 la categorie nu erau doar poziții fruntașe într-un clasament convențional, ci coordonate pe harta propriei transcendențe. Era un fel de "Astralis Xenorion Helivox", o aliniere perfectă între efortul personal, ritmul cosmic al universului și expresivitatea picturii sufletești. În fond, tot ceea ce traversăm se transpune în arta existenței noastre.

Așadar, ploaia nu a fost doar un simplu obstacol fizic, ci și un catalizator al unei profunde schimbări interioare. A fost ca și cum spiritul ei a fost curățat de fiecare picătură care îi cădea pe frunte, eliminând oboseala și îndoiala ce o urmăreau în acele momente. Asta îmi amintește de un fragment din "Muntele vrăjit" de Thomas Mann, unde natura și izolarea îi ofereau protagonistului ocazia de a reflecta asupra vieții și morții. La fel ca Hans Castorp, care a învățat că doar prin confruntarea cu suferința poate înțelege esența vieții, Oana a simțit cum ploaia o învăța lecții ascunse, greu de înțeles în momentele de liniște.

Iar cea mai importantă lecție este aceasta: "Confruntările interioare sunt oglinda în care ne descoperim adevărata putere."

Leadershipul adevărat nu este despre evitarea obstacolelor, ci despre folosirea lor ca mijloace pentru purificarea și întărirea spiritului. Desigur, înfruntarea provocărilor este un proces de curățare a spiritului, deoarece fiecare obstacol îndepărtat este o pată ștearsă de pe oglinda sufletului.

Dincolo de văzul lumii, inima vede adevărul: "Provocările sunt trepte spre sinele nostru autentic". Asta deoarece fiecare obstacol depășit ne dezvăluie un strat mai profund al esenței noastre interioare.

Direcţia cea mai avantajoasă

Sporeşte-ţi potenţialul de afirmare personală printr-o îmbogăţire a perspectivelor şi a înţelegerii faţă de partea vizibilă a prezenţei tale în lume.

Cu câteva zile în urmă am fost în vizită la unul dintre prietenii mei cei mai buni. A fost prima vizită pe care i-am făcut-o anul acesta şi am nimerit cred într-un moment cam nepotrivit. Nişte rude mai îndepărtate de-ale lui veniseră şi ele în vizită cu puţin timp înaintea mea, şi se apucaseră deja să stea la taclale în bucătărie, unde am fost şi eu invitat.

Era şi o fetiţă cu ei care, după statură şi înfăţişare, după vocea ei jucăuşă, nu putea avea mai mult de şase ani. Împreuna cu nepoţelul prietenului meu se jucau de-a v-aţi ascunselea prin casă, nestingheriţi, fără să deranjeze pe nimeni, fără să facă prea mult zgomot. Dar, ori de câte ori îi venea rândul să se ascundă, fetiţa, foarte voioasă, foarte veselă şi cu un chef de joacă nebun, fugea repede şi se pitula sub masa din bucătărie. Aştepta ghemuită ca într-o colivie, în dosul feţei de masă care atârna până jos, momentul oportun de a se repezi la perete pentru a câştiga jocul. Dar ce ghinion, băiatul o descoperea de fiecare dată.

M-am întrebat: dacă tot are libertate totală, de ce nu încearcă să se ascundă în altă parte - în sufragerie, într-unul din oricare dormitoare, după un dulap, după vreun birou, sub pat - aşa cum ar fi făcut mulţi copii, după uşă, după frigider, în spatele cuierului, în oricare alt loc?

Leadership: Cum te defineşti prin relaţionarea ta la o situaţie în care te simţi obligat să joci un rol de observator, fără să poţi manifesta receptivitate şi solicitudine faţă de cerinţele unei experienţe de viaţă care se poate acumula numai prin implicare directă?

Nimeni nu i-a spus nimic, nimeni nu a intervenit în jocul lor intens, deşi categoric, cu toţii, le urmăream zbenguiala. Fetiţa revenea sub masă, de fiecare dată ferm convinsă că îşi va păcăli partenerul de joc, ceea ce nu s-a întâmplat nicicum. Cu siguranţă locul acela îi inspira o încredere totală, deşi nu ştiu prea bine de unde provenea această încredere. Poate că se obişnuise cu acel loc, poate că i se părea cea mai sigură ascunzătoare din casă. Indiferent de modul în care gândea, un singur lucru era cert: tot timpul revenea sub masă şi tot timpul era descoperită. N-a câştigat niciodată jocul.

Acum te întreb: dacă mâine fetiţa se va juca de-a v-aţi ascunselea în altă parte, într-o altă locuinţă, care crezi că va fi locul sigur şi de încredere în care se va ascunde? Ai ghicit: probabil sub masa din bucătărie.

În acel moment am simţit o înstrăinare de lumea care mă înconjoară, am trăit o înstrăinare de mine însumi pe care însă abia după mulţi ani am înţeles-o până la capăt, cu toate subtilităţile care pot face diferenţa dintre o imagine de o calitate excepţională şi una mai slabă. Am fost nevoit să mă redefinesc în punctul central al unei oglinzi care nu reflectă nicio importanţă. Eram imaginea unui nobody care îmbrățișează banalitatea vieții în timp ce alţii o trăiesc printr-un spirit liber, printr-un apel continuu la acțiune.

Leadership: Înţelegi care este reacţia ta la o situaţie care din păcate nu depinde de tine, astfel încât să-ţi depăşeşti tendinţa de a juca mereu rolul de învins?

Este cu siguranţă foarte greu să fii în pielea acelora care bat ritmul pe loc şi nu avansează cu nimic în tot ceea ce întreprind. Rolul fetiţei, de învins, îl jucăm foarte mulţi dintre noi, fără să ne dăm seama. Ne-am obişnuit să urmăm, încă de mici, un singur drum, de parcă altul n-ar exista.

Ne-am obişnuit să ne organizăm acţiunile numai într-o singură direcţie, neînţelegând că există şi vor exista mereu alte sensuri, alte posibilităţi, unele mult mai favorabile decât am putea crede. Cel mai adesea ne simţim atraşi de un loc sigur. Şi facem aceleaşi lucruri sigure, dar ridicole, vreme îndelungată, iar apoi ne întrebăm cu stupefacţie: cum de nu s-a schimbat nimic?

Să continui să faci aceleaşi lucruri şi să te aştepţi la rezultate diferite, e absurd, dar unii oameni, din păcate, se vor complace tot timpul în această absurditate.

Leadership: Esenţa primordială a ceea ce te caracterizează într-o situaţie de tipul "privesc, dar nu mă pot implica" îşi poate îndeplini funcţiile de ordonare a unei realităţii mai largi doar prin aportul unor particularităţi de răspuns la factorii de căpetenie ai concepţiei despre voinţa libera?

Cei trei factori de căpetenie ai concepţiei despre voinţa liberă sunt: scopul propus, efortul specific voluntar şi comportamentul de biruire a obstacolelor.

Ţi s-a întâmplat vreodată să găseşti o hartă, dar să nu ştii ce anume indică ea? Interpretarea unei hărţii nu trebuie să pornească de la o idee fixă. Căci deseori interpretarea se bazează şi pe informaţie negativă. Uneori, ceea ce nu apare pe hartă este la fel de important ca şi ceea ce este reprezentat.

Ca lider, tu eşti chemat să dai startul unui drum, nu să priveşti cum îşi găsesc alţii drumul lor. Concepţia care stă la baza creării acestui drum, paşii de acţiune care te vor ajuta să parcurgi mai eficient traseul, elementele constitutive sau auxiliare, toate aceste etape sunt cumulate cumva pe o hartă – o hartă lăuntrică, fundamentată pe un raţionament mai mult deductiv. Dacă această hartă stochează o cantitate prea mare de informaţii negative, induse de alţii sau create de tine însuţi, atunci drumul care este reprezentat pe ea va fi evident eronat.

Dar, aidoma fetiţei de care ţi-am povestit la început, s-ar putea să te blochezi când vine vorba de citirea şi interpretarea corectă a hărţii lăuntrice. S-ar putea să urmezi o cale neprofitabilă, iar progresele tale să nu fie răsplătite.

Iar una din cele mai importante lecţii este aceasta: esenţa care caracterizează un lider este ceea ce constituie şi determină un lucru, o reacţie sau o direcţie în accesarea unei noi realităţi, ea nu trebuie să fie expresia constantă a unei priviri adânci şi atente care se pierde definitiv în lumina destinului altora.

Esenţa unei noi conştiinţe care trebuie să înflorească în tine poate fi dată de diferenţa dintre privirea adâncă care se pierde definitiv în lumina destinului altora şi vederea unei deschideri către ceea ce ţi se întâmplă cu adevărat în viaţă.

Doar astfel vei putea înţelege direcţia unei noi perspective de receptare a fenomenului numit "înstrăinarea de tine însuţi".

Direcţia cea mai avantajoasă pe care o poţi obţine sub efectul unui moment existenţial memorabil, este dată de lecţia pe care o ai de învăţat, indiferent cât este de dureroasă, pe care o vei folosi ca să îţi aminteşti mereu ce importanţă are o anumită circumstanţă în crearea unei realităţi mult mai profunde.

Direcţia în care se îndreaptă liderul

Ceea ce reprezinţi pentru tine însuţi este mult mai important decât ceea ce reprezinţi pentru toţi ceilalţi.

Maestrul Chan Xiatang i-a spus lui Huoan:

Talentul şi aptitudinile oamenilor sunt, fireşte, grozave sau nu, pentru că aceste lucruri nu pot fi învăţate. De exemplu, cei care au o bucată de hârtie mică nu pot împacheta obiecte mari. Cei a căror frânghie este scurtă nu pot lua apă dintr-un puţ adânc. O bufniţă poate prinde un păduche şi poate vedea şi un fir de păr pe timp de noapte, dar atunci când răsare soarele, razele lui irită atât de mult ochii bufniţei, încât ea nu poate să vadă un deal. Se pare că talentul şi aptitudinile au fost împărţite. (Thomas Cleary - Lecţii Zen)

Povestea asta ne învaţă că fiecărui om îi corespunde un model de reprezentare internă, îi corespunde un anumit pattern de gene active care îl fac unic în anumite circumstanţe. Tot aşa cum fiecărui gen artistic îi corespunde un anumit mod de expresie, sub multiple aspecte: compoziție, vocabular, sintaxă, figuri de stil.

Taina stă în tine, liderul. Aşa cum focul, pământul, aerul şi apa formează cele patru elemente ale naturii - tot astfel solidaritatea, empatia, responsabilitatea şi respectul reciproc asigură coeziunea echipei, a oamenilor care te-au acceptat la conducerea lor şi care te urmează în direcţia aleasă de tine. Acestea sunt "piesele" pe care trebuie să le conectezi pentru ca leadershipul tău să funcţioneze bine.

Imaginează-ţi că încerci să găseşti o potrivire între patru piese într-un puzzle. Ce cauţi ca să decizi dacă se potrivesc sau nu? Mai întâi trebuie să ţii cont că fiecare din aceste patru piese trebuie să se întrepătrundă, să servească una celeilalte, să se potrivească ca o mănuşă în "contextul" acestui puzzle. Fiecare element trebuie să evolueze prin prisma celor patru factori: cunoaşterea, afectivitatea, inteligenţa şi voinţa, ca în cele din urmă să formeze un singur tot unitar.

Premisa succesului în leadership constă în armonia componentelor sale fundamentale, pe care le-am amintit. În plus, nimeni nu va reuşi să devină performer construindu-şi leadershipul pe o îmbinare dizarmonică a elementelor lui constitutive.

Leadership: Transformării tale într-un om foarte sigur de sine îi corespunde un model de reprezentare internă care îţi poate îmbunătăţi experienţa de a te accepta ca individ autonom?

Modelul de leadership care merită să aibă influenţă asupra oamenilor trebuie să fie bazat pe conţinut, pe relaţia de asemănare şi înţelegere între profilul tău şi profilul lor, între caracteristicile care te reprezintă cel mai bine şi cele care îi interesează pe ei. De fiecare dată când treci la un nivel superior de leadership devine important ca abilităţile tale să fie validate de ceilalţi. Ori, aşa cum bine preciza un celebru expert în materie de conducere, fiecare pas de dezvoltare presupune o dezvoltare ulterioară ca parte a capacităţii de lider.

A lupta de unul singur înseamnă a te bate cu morile de vânt. De aceea trebuie să ai aliaţi de nădejde pentru a obţine "victoria" în beneficiul tuturor. Cum câştigi aliaţi? Taina stă în tine, liderul. Ea există, dar trebuie găsită şi trebuie să ştii să asculţi, căci ea strigă adesea: "Sunt

Taina constă în ceea ce te defineşte, în ceea ce îţi dă autenticitate şi te integrează în cercul de oameni care privesc în aceeaşi direcţie. Ea este dată de acel element din tine care domină existenţa leadershipului tău şi care poate aduce celorlalţi beneficii de orice fel - un folos, o valoare constructivă. Este acel ceva, acea energie, acea forţă emoţională, acea putere de influenţă pe care trebuie s-o utilizezi în favoarea ta, dar în aşa fel încât cei din jurul tău să-şi atingă, la rândul lor, potenţialul maxim.

Taina este găsită doar de cei ce au învăţat şi ştiu să joace Şah sau Bridge, şi nu de aceia care s-au specializat în poker sau, şi mai rău, de aceia care s-ar rezumat la "Popa-Prostul". Leadershipul este "un joc" inteligent şi nu poate fi jucat de oricine – este un joc de echipă cu mai mulţi învingători.

Leadership: Capacitatea de a te evalua singur începe să se contureze prin prisma poziţiei tale de "putere aparentă" care te transformă într-un caz de răspundere circumstanţial, greu de suportat?

Care este poziţia ta vis-a-vis de promovarea relaţiilor cu ceilalţi oameni: Atacant sau Apărător?

Când vorbesc de leadership, pornesc de la ideea de progres, de ascensiune spre treapta superioară a piramidei valorilor, la care oamenii bravi vor aspira mereu. Dar pentru ca această ascensiune să se producă fără nici un factor inhibator, fără cea mai mică degradare a propriului tău potenţial, se impune să dezvolţi relaţii umane. Ascensiunea nu este altceva decât o combinaţie de dezvoltare autoimpusă şi de experienţă dobândită în timp, la care aş adăuga pasiunea şi entuziasmul faţă de activitatea şi poziţia ta, dar mai ales faţă de potenţialul excepţional al oamenilor. Căci fără ei nu poţi progresa.

Tu ce atitudine adopţi faţă de relaţiile umane? Respingi orice formă de a te raporta la oameni? Ataci orice gândire care nu corespunde cu a ta, îngrădind orice iniţiativă individuală sau colectivă de a interveni în leadershipul tău? Sau aperi şi încurajezi evoluţia oamenilor prin acţiuni concentrate constante de dezvoltare a resurselor lor? Ca să treci de la "amatorism" la "profesionalism" trebuie să-ţi dezvolţi pasiunea pentru dezvoltarea umană, să construieşti relaţii eficiente de colaborare.

Poţi să înscrii un gol dintr-un unghi închis?

Aşa cum în fotbal, jocul apărării este, prin definiţie, numai colectiv, tot aşa este şi leadershipul, adăugând faptul că eficienţa ta în a reuşi să duci lucrurile la bun sfârşit şi abilitatea de a lucra alături de ceilalţi oameni sunt întotdeauna limitate. E ca şi cum ai dori să înscrii un gol dintr-un unghi închis: doar puţini pot face asta. Dacă acele calităţi de lider pe care le ai nu îţi asigură succesul în stabilirea şi menţinerea relaţiilor, înseamnă că sunt ineficiente.

Poţi să-ţi exprimi viziunea în aşa fel încât să-i faci pe oameni să acţioneze în spiritul ei? Cum interacţionezi cu oamenii? Ce preţ are progresul tău? Oamenii sunt oare dispuşi să plătească acest preţ? Îţi controlezi aşteptările? Leadershipul tău constituie o oportunitate cu risc scăzut, dar cu posibilităţi mari de câştig pentru oameni? Deciziile tale răspund aşteptărilor oamenilor, sau sunt împotriva naturii umane?

Poţi să găseşti punctul de conexiune între ceea ce eşti şi obiectivele pe care le urmăreşti, astfel încât leadershipul tău să permită o evidenţiere optimă a rolului pe care îl îndeplineşti într-o poziţie circumstanţială?

Cum te poziţionezi faţă de scopurile tale?

Direcţia în care se îndreaptă liderul este şi direcţia în care o apucă oamenii. Doamna Georgeta Vanţiu, despre care v-am povestit într-un alt articol, a avut de dus o adevărată bătălie pentru promovarea limbii şi culturii spaniole. Ea a avut succes fiindcă nenumăraţi oameni, doritori să înveţe limba şi cultura spaniolă, s-au unit în jurul viziunii şi a idealurilor ei. Ea şi-a atins scopul propus creând un mediu propice de învăţare pe care ceilalţi l-au acceptat. Nu capacitatea ei de a atrage oamenii a fost asul din mânecă, ci alegerea pe care a făcut-o şi atitudinea pe care a adoptat-o şi promovat-o. Dacă oamenii sunt dispuşi să aleagă drumul tău, atunci vor adopta aceeaşi atitudine ca a ta – iar tu nu vei mai întâlni prea multe obstacole în cale.

Aşa cum am mai spus de nenumărate ori, oamenii şi liderul trebuie să formeze o echipă puternică şi profesionistă, care să lucreze eficient şi corect, cu seriozitate şi responsabilitate, şi care să fie capabilă să obţină permanent rezultate notabile. Pentru aceasta este deosebit de important ca membrii echipei, care au un rol bine stabilit, să se ajute reciproc ori de câte ori este nevoie; să aibă multă încredere unii în alţii, să împartă aceleaşi viziuni şi să fie devotaţi şi motivaţi scopului final.

Nimic nu se poate realiza, nimic nu poate funcţiona corespunzător, nici un progres nu este posibil şi totul ar rămâne neschimbat dacă unul sau mai mulţi membri ai echipei nu lucrează la maximă capacitate. Fiecare trebuie să producă ceva util, să-şi aducă aportul la bunul mers al companiei şi să se implice cu mult sârg, cu multă seriozitate şi responsabilitate în rezolvarea problemelor care ţin de competenţa sa.

Funcţionarea leadershipului are la bază munca în echipă, loialitate faţă de cei cu care lucrezi, entuziasm şi pasiune faţă de activitatea pe care o desfăşori, competenţă, eficienta, şi nu în ultimul rând unitate şi corectitudine. Asta înseamnă că toţi membrii echipei lucrează împreună pentru a găsi soluţii, şi lucrează pe picior de egalitate, nu unul mai puţin şi altul mai mult, nu unul stă şi ceilalţi muncesc pe brânci.

"Unul pentru toţi şi toţi pentru unul", deviza celebră a muşchetarilor se poate aplica şi în leadership, ceea ce presupune coeziune, ajutor reciproc având la bază o unitate de gândire şi acţiune. Aparţine liderului rolul de a determina apariţia acestei unităţi de gândire şi acţiune.

Leadershipul este poziţia pe care o ocupi ca agent autonom în acele situaţii în care scopul final urmărit nu este acela de a performa semnificativ şi eficient în perioade dificile, ci de a demonstra adevărul tuturor percepţiilor şi gândurilor tale în cele mai neaşteptate moduri.

Direcţia în care se îndreaptă liderul trebuie, mai întâi de toate, să fie direcţia accesării nivelului Sinelui Integrat şi nivelului Sinelui Superior. Deci, învaţă să lucrezi în direcţia autoafirmării sinelui şi realizării propriilor scopuri, înainte de a te poziţiona într-o anumită relaţie cu lumea.

Discipolul şi maestrul

Sporeşte-ţi capacităţile de înrâurire asupra formării unor noi mentalităţi, fără să-ţi pierzi statutul de „partener de excepţie".

Eisenstein, constatând defectele de caracter ale maestrului său, Vsevolod Meyerhold, remarcă răutatea lui şi îşi aminti câtă tristeţe îi pricinuise odată dezinteresul şi ironia răutăcioasă a profesorului când îi ceruse odată un sfat într-o chestiune personală. Şi ne putem întreba de aceea dacă oare nu această corelaţie a legendei lui Rustem şi Zorab, cunoscută din copilărie şi retrăită cu atâta acută durere acum, va determina prezenţa ei pregnantă şi dorinţa de a-i da o insolită soluţie optimistă în scenariul filmului „Marele Canal Fergana", conceput după aproape două decenii?

Dar mai târziu, după împăcare, Meyerhold îi va dedica fostului său elev o fotografie cu această inscripţie: „Sunt mândru de elevul care a devenit maestru. Acum îl iubesc pe acest maestru care a creat o şcoală. Acestui elev, acestui maestru – Serghei Eisenstein – admiraţia mea".

Dedicaţia este datată 22 iulie 1936. Primele schiţe pentru scenariul „Marele Canal Fergana" datează din iulie 1939, numai trei ani mai târziu şi data apropiată de cea a dispariţiei marelui om de teatru. *

Leadership: Poţi să faci din admiraţia faţă de cineva o distorsionare a corectei relații cauză-efect care să nu-ţi obstrueze împlinirea de sine?

Cei care cad în capcana de a fi dependenţi de altcineva, condiţia însăşi a fondării unui cadru de cooperare, ca punct de referinţă pentru leadership, vor avea dificultăţi serioase de învins pe tot parcursul carierei lor.

Manifestările gândirii tale se pot raporta la o realitate absolut nouă atunci când admiraţia pentru cineva se înlocuieşte cu obsesia pentru propriile privilegii, cum ar fi privilegiul de a te simți cu adevărat deasupra lumii, privilegiul de a te dărui singur întregii creaţii la care lucrezi, privilegiul de a te bucură mai presus de oricine de o componentă semnificativă a artei tale, privilegiul de a te pune în situaţia unui maestru, decât a unui ucenic.

Căci ruta pe care o urmează un maestru, necesară pentru echilibrarea balanţei pe care se află putinţele şi râvnele de a fi de neînlocuit, ocoleşte de multe ori spaţiu de expansiune al celui care se apropie de el. Intenţia de a-l determina să conştientizeze importanţa loialităţii este echivalentă cu puterea unui glonţ rătăcit, nu trebuie să acţionezi fără să-ţi iei toate măsurile de siguranţă. Vorba aia, fiecare trandafir are spinii săi, şi fiecare spin este o realitate.

Cred că cea mai mare dificultate, pusă sub semnul unei continue degradări, este perfecţionarea morală şi formarea caracterului prin acordarea respectului celor care nu-l merită îndeajuns. Cineva numea acest fenomen: „O distorsionare a corectei relații cauză-efect, care obstruează împlinirea de sine. "

Deşi există mulţi indivizi talentaţi prin ceea ce fac, cu calităţi de lider, ei nu vor permite nimănui să se folosească de puterea lor de mânuire a ştiinţei, cu excepţia cazului în care este într-un scop dezinteresat. Fiindcă există temerea: cine lasă prea mult de la el, riscă în final să ajungă roata de rezervă. Iar această gândire nu-ţi creează o personalitate puternică, ci doar obligaţia de a te prezenta cu ceva ce nu te reprezintă, obligaţia de a te supune instinctelor proprii de antagonist, evidenţiind trăsături şi aspecte imposibil de transmis şi de acceptat.

Leadership: Încordarea efortului creator se validează în sensul cultivării unui nou stil, în perfect acord cu realitatea experienţei de sine de la care nu există derogare?

Dacă receptarea unei experienţe de învăţare şi dezvoltare, sau mai cu seamă efectul ei formativ şi educativ asupra spiritului şi caracterului uman se situează, predominant, sub semnul inspiraţiei şi al unor valori străine, atunci momentul de vârf al colaborării poate beneficia, cu un substanţial spor de performanţă, de aportul unei noi cantităţi de deprinderi intelectuale.

Şi aceasta tocmai în vederea obţinerii unui statut de partener de excepţie prin amplificarea efectului particular „săracul se îmbogăţeşte” şi al acceptării capacităţilor de înrâurire asupra formării unor noi mentalităţi, valori, atitudini şi viziuni.

Este o vorbă a unui bun prieten a cărei idee o împărtăşesc şi eu: „ Odată ce obţii succesul fii sigur că cerul nu se va desface în două şi nici n-ai să auzi îngerii cântând. ” Această zicală rezumă atingerea unui nivel înalt de autenticitate, dar care totodată face trecerea artistului de la o mentalitate deschisă la una de tipul "Access Denied".

Leadership: Poţi să îți adaptezi gândirea pentru a evita stagnarea într-o mentalitate de „Access Denied”, dacă refuzi să îţi actualizezi viziunea și să accepţi influențele noi?

În acest caz ne putem întreba, pe bună dreptate, care este contextul în care el mai conduce? Întrebarea include şi nu se limitează la ceea ce se poate cuprinde în sfera de aplicabilitate a angajamentului conform căruia discipolul nu poate urca mai sus decât normalul acceptat de maestrul său.

Ei bine, contextul este, în acest caz, unul independent din punct de vedere emoţional, în care accentul se pune pe mândria de a diferit, prin excluderea celorlalți și prin punerea pe tapet a necesității de apărare față de aceștia. Ceea ce face ca leadershipul să se transforme într-un adevărat univers al gloriilor apuse, al falsificatorilor de artă, cu etaloane şi modele de gândire depăşite, care nu pot decât să justifice căderea liderului în exteriorul harului său şi intrarea lui în dizgraţie.

Artistul desăvârşit este o mentalitate de tipul "Access Denied" care obligă pe ceilalţi reprezentanţi ai artei să înfrunte în mod direct slaba lor performanță obţinută în timp. Însă asta nu-l face cel mai apreciat şi favorit de toată lumea.

Discipolul şi maestrul sunt două entităţi care se exclud sau se completează reciproc prin contribuţiile comune aduse la dezvoltarea durabilă a unei gândiri care nu se împiedică în clişee, care nu învinovăţeşte pe nimeni, care posedă atuurile filosofiei conform căreia ambele părţi câştigă: win-win.

Dispari până când doreşti să fii găsit

Pune-ţi la încercare curajul de a fi tu însuţi, scoţând la lumină "miraculosul" din interiorul realităţii unui rol nou.

Unul din triumfurile care constituiau cu adevărat o provocare când venea vorba de a accepta întâmplarea, era să strălucesc prin absenţă, situaţie intermediară între prezenţă şi pierdere într-un rol al nimănui, necesară în stabilirea zerourilor unei ecuaţii complexe. Dar fără ca ochii, sufletul, să vadă dacă este vorba de cineva care se pretinde a fi, fără doar şi poate, o particularitate caracteristică numai artei, ca unitate a ideii cu imaginea care se pare că v-a scăpat până acum.

Necunoscutele, zvâcniri ale conştientului atotcuprinzător, în libertatea primită de la Dumnezeu de a transcende imediatul, erau rămăşiţele unei zone impenetrabile din conţinutul gândirii mele aflată sub comanda unei energii neconsumate. Numai teoria determinismului putea servi ca bază pentru susţinerea şi întemeierea unei convenţii între expresia decursă din asocierea unor aspecte de viaţă contradictorii şi apartenenţa la conduita artistică a unui estetician al idealismului subiectiv.

Leadership: Poţi să-ți păstrezi esența autentică în timp ce navighezi între multiple înfățișări și roluri, folosind "contrastele" pentru a-ți amplifica prezența chiar și în absență?

Am pornit îndată pe urmele unei intrigi, în care forțele mari sau mici, nu are importanță căci fiecare dintre părţile implicate are dreptatea ei, înfăţişau căutările disperate ale unui vinovat de faptul că s-a făcut nevăzut într-un joc al contrastelor. Un joc al nebuniei de a mă da drept altcineva, mai ales că prezenţa mea de necuprins era necesară datorită funcţiei pe care o deţineam, de om al extremelor, exprimată prin unicitatea relaţiei dintre ajungere, plecare și revenire.

Arsène Lupin, gentilomul fantezist, omul cu mii de înfăţişări ce nu opera decât în castele şi saloane, a pătruns într-o noapte la baronul Schormann. A plecat cu mâinile goale, dar a avut grijă să-şi lase cartea de vizită pe care scrisese: „ Arsène Lupin, Spărgătorul-gentilom, va reveni când mobila va fi autentică ."

Nimic nu poate umbri faptul că dispariţiile fantomatice aveau la bază mecanismele evadării, părând totul ca un vid de incertitudine şi copleşire, fără de care miraculosul nu putea ieşi la lumină. An unknown that can become an obsessive thought . Întregul meu organism cerebral devenise o maşinărie mânată, parcă, de forţe exterioare. O mică pată albă într-un colorit translucid, o combinaţie între a urmări o intuiţie inexplicabilă, a avea noroc şi a-mi asuma riscuri.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi schimbi percepţia despre realitate şi imaginea despre lume, autentificându-te ca un utilizator de criterii ale dimensiunii vieţii sufleteşti în spaţiul dualităţii dintre ceea ce este autentic şi ceea ce este fals?

Ca o chemare, condus după un plan divin, provocat mai cu seamă de apriga rezistenţă la ideea acelui drept, devenit obsesie, de distilare a esenţei într-o formulă a aparenţei, ceea ce nu stătea în puterea omului de rând, călcam pe urmele unui fugar. Un rătăcit căruia nimeni nu îi semnalează absenţa, decât atunci când are grijă să-şi lase în urmă cartea de vizită.

Criteriile dimensiunii sufleteşti care mă făceau să aleg negarea realităţii, rămânând, oarecum, captiv în trecut şi prizonier în iluzie, într-un anume fel una cu intrarea într-un labirint al ipotezelor, rolurilor, temelor şi ambiguităţile multiple, al cărui sens scapă într-o relaţie unică cu lumea, erau dată de acea stare de naivitate primară, de inocență și curiozitate cu care savuram căile întortocheate ale unor forţe de expresie literare, plăsmuiri ciudate, creând o artă a compromisului dintre intellectualism, emoţionalism şi pregnanţă imaginativă.

Ceea ce era fals în şirul lung de trăsături ale acestui fenomen, de la efecte macro la cele particulare, era contrastul dintre rezultatele vieţii şi strigătul dureros, din răsputeri, ce răzbătea la mare depărtare peste marginile fiinţei mele. Nu voiam să admit că ceea ce credeam a fi o povestire a experienţelor mele, era doar o plăsmuire a minţii mele construită aproape integral pe baza părerilor preconcepute despre originalitate.

Singurul lucru authentic era să dăruiesc ceva lumii din preaplinul înțelegerii identității mele și a stăpânirii domeniului artisticului care înseamnă unitate între operă și voință, între idee și aparență.

Leadership: Te conduci în viaţă conform teoriilor concepute în "surdină", prin intensitatea unei experienţe fanteziste care trece dincolo de valorile autentice ale artei universale?

Susţinător timpuriu al ideii „ disappear until you want to be found” , sau „ acţionează ca şi cum n-ai exista ”, am pus în practică tot ce-am deprins prin fantezia artistului care încearcă să descopere cel puţin un amănunt care să aibă o asemănare oarecare cu una din formele infinite ale naturii, corespunzătoare cu simţămintele celor ce introduc în picturile lor pete lipsite de formă care trimit precis la obiecte reale.

Percepţia despre lume şi viaţă, vizând experiențele și concluziile referitoare la condiţiile receptării unui act artistic, prin care mă pierdeam pentru a mă regăsi în altcineva mai superior, avea ca resort dorința de a-mi folosi forțele, mari sau mici, pentru a analiza ceea ce sunt cu adevărat atunci când alegeam să intru în obscuritatea unui rol stimulativ.

Cine se conduce în viaţă conform teoriilor concepute în "surdină", prin intensitatea unei experienţe fanteziste, oferind posibilitatea de constituire a unei imagini sub acţiunea unor forţe necontrolabile, prin analogie cu elementele comune ale formelor şi mişcărilor, inspirându-se din natura contrariilor, trebuie mai întâi să dovedească existenţa celor două curente, eterne şi atotcuprinzătoare, realitatea şi suprarealitatea.

Leadership: Focalizarea prelucrărilor de limbaj şi a mijloacelor de expresie în atingerea unei stări de plenitudine face ca înlănţuirea ta în jurul artei să fie mai eficientă când este vorba să creezi imaginea unei alte lumi?

Nu spunea Andre Breton, fondator al Suprarealismului, că miraculosul iese la lumină înăuntrul realităţii? El iese la lumină în vise, în întuneric, în obsesii, în preocupări, în somn, în spaimă, dragoste, hazard; în dispariţiile fantomatice, în mecanismele evadării; în halucinaţii, în aşa numitele dezordini, nebunii; în fantezii, în supranatural şi neobişnuit, în empirism şi în suprarealitate.

Leadershipul evoluează prin înțelegerea faptului că a contribui la alegerea de a-ţi folosi mintea în folosul creării unei aparenţe, unei esenţe care trebuie ascunsă, este o atitudine demnă de un om care vrea să-şi valorifice la maxim puterea de se implica în profunzimile unui rol reprezentativ. Rol care îi permite să se plieze pe mai multe tipuri de personaje.

Acest lucru poate să creeze o diferenţiere între oamenii care pot să devină altcineva, mai superiori, „desprinzându-se de cuib", de a acționa lateral. Şi cei care se expun obişnuinţei de a „rămâne în cuib", la stadiul de decor al unei scene fără actori principali, fără roluri de excepţie, fără performanțe ieșite din comun.

Rolul pe care îl joci în spectacolul leadershipului seamănă cu acel freamăt al imaginaţiei din care se va naşte capodopera: mai întâi îţi îmbogăţeşti experienţa de vizualizare a unor aspecte neobişnuite din viaţa personală, apoi îţi păstrezi motivaţia într-o lume în care poţi face ce vrei tu şi poţi gândi cum vrei fără ca nimeni să-ţi pună vreo interdicţie.

Dispari până când doreşti să fii găsit este un îndemn adresat oamenilor care vor să se angajeze într-un alt rol decât cel normal, un rol care prezintă o noutate absolută, exprimat prin unicitatea relaţiei dintre ajungere, plecare și revenire.

Greutatea în leadership constă în faptul că, odată asumat acest nou rol, trebuie să-ţi găseşti curajul de a fi tu însuţi, fără să-ţi permiţi luxul de a nu şti cine eşti cu adevărat şi ce destin ai de împlinit. Poţi să scoţi miraculosul la lumină înăuntrul realităţii noului tău rol?

Divano

Trăsăturile stilistice ale unei arte originale poartă promisiunea unei vieţi din altă viaţă.

Frumos sunt tot timpul când mă vezi, adorabil prin intensitatea cu care evoc libertatea spaţiilor întinse, fără să dau dovadă de snobism în decizia de a mă înfăţişa lumii ca pe o unică şi măreaţă zidire a imaginii „artistului nemuritor". Câtă umanitate există în vorbele mele, câtă nobleţe în modul cum mă prezint în faţa exigenţei estetice. Oare forma de expresie nu este un proces asemănător cu focul lăuntric sau cu trăitul prin transcendenţă?

În aşteptarea razelor de soare, îmi permit luxul de a privi înspre Chipul Domnului văzut din alt unghi, din alt secol, dintr-o graţie nemaiîntâlnită, din alt sistem de referinţă, din estetica unei lumi aparte, din contrapresiunea acestui factor viu, fierbinte, preţios pur sânge, care este vibraţia murmurată a unui Eu suprasensibil în mijlocul unui cer de toamnă, perfect şi nepieritor. Probabil sunt un trandafir special, unicul care conduce la Renaştere.

Numai prin taine se face cunoscută evlavia mea. Vrednica osteneală cu care mi-am educat spiritul de perfecţiune, doar în lumina lui Amos, discreţia de a înalţa căptuşeala vastei „îngrădiri sacre" în care lucrează Absolutul unei imagini incredibile, prin extragerea esenţei unui stil de creaţie nepieritor din descifrarea tehnicii picturale de reprezentare a aparenţelor sensibile, toate acestea m-au condus la asimilarea unei drăgălăşenii lipsită de complicaţii.

Ca şi trandafir cu aspect unic, nu-mi rămâne decât să lămuresc natura şi împrejurarea prin care Lucrarea Sfântă a lui Dumnezeu se oferă drept spaţiu de aluzii transcendente exprimate în termeni de oglindiri în alte lumi şi alte vieţi, să sfidez timpul, chiar dacă el îmi vorbeşte adesea doar în limbajul cabaliştilor, aşezând spaţialitatea imaginii mele în relaţie strânsă cu modificările succesive suferite în percepţia spaţiului de creaţie, a posteriori.

Leadership: Poţi să te recunoşti în imaginea unei fiinţe supuse unei vieţi din altă viaţă, în corespondenţă cu ideea unei creaţii speciale izvorâte dintr-o pornire de înălţare de sine reflectată în rodul legăturii cu "Lucrarea Sfântă a lui Dumnezeu" ?

Triumful eleganţei şi discreţiei mele, profund semnificativ din punct de vedere al unui peisaj reflectat într-un subiect transcendental, ascuns sub un act de simbolizare In Quatro Orbitor , şi ţinând cont de succesiunea anotimpurilor, stă în puterea de a imprima în mintea artistului o anumită stare de spirit care duce la înflorirea unei identităţi originale. Călătoria în valea sufletului, a sentimentelor, a trăirilor mele puternice este redată cel mai bine în „Precuvântare la micile Solilocvii":

Lumea m-a văzut întotdeauna în viziunea unei opere cu ecouri universale, precum Raiul pe Pământ, chiar dacă de atâtea ori nu mi-am dorit nimic mai mult decât să trăiesc printre oameni ca un model de inspiraţie şi pietate, să mă străduiesc din răsputeri să stârnesc în ei emoţii diferite. S-a întâmplat să fiu mai mult decât mi-am închipuit. Scenariul pe care trebuia să mi-l imaginez ca să ating condiţia zeilor era deschiderea directoare a unei creaţii spre spaţiul perspectival de tip renascentist, cu întoarcere la 90 de grade spre încercarea omenirii de a găsi o semnificaţie transcendentă vieţii.

O simplă privire într-un colț al naturii vă va dezvălui o infinitate de forme de existență și manifestare a vieții mele, prin întrepătrunderea a numeroase încercări, corecţii şi adecvări ale legăturii dintre artist şi obiectul artei lui, dintre om şi univers. În fond, asta-i frumuseţea unei opere de artă, să te percepi centrul universului şi să dai profunzime extensiei spaţiale care te înconjoară.

Lucrarea Sfântă a lui Dumnezeu este acea cunoaştere superioară obţinută prin transformarea artistului în substanţa intimă a creaţiei sale, reprezentând puterea spirituală de a fi prezent ca martor al manifestărilor lumii în orice timp şi în orice loc.

Port sigiliul credinţei puternice investită cu capacitatea de a reproduce formatul artei doar pentru cei aleşi, proiectând într-o capodoperă plină de viaţă întreaga mea experienţă de a sonda umanul, de a-l vedea în diverse ipostaze, de a-l învesti cu eternal, pieritorul cu nepieritorul, relativul cu absolutul. De aici se trage ambiţia de a reda artistic factorul viu al coagulării sângelui lui Jupiter cu evlavia lui Athena, care de secole a plăsmuit credinţa cu devoţiuni puternice.

Sigiliul are forma de simbol a infinitului, fiind pus într-o anumită relaţie cu lumea artei, el círculo de fuego del libro espiritual, prin intermediul actului de creaţie a naturii repetat în Cauza Aryosthea pe care stăpânul meu, pictorul unei simplităţi candide, o inserează într-o lume de poveste, pe această cale aliniindu-şi sentimentele cu reflexul primar al Esenţei Cristaline.

Credinţa şi conţinutul afectiv sunt mai bogate în deschideri simbolice, spre deosebire de desen, în intimitatea unei colecţii de colaje suprarealiste.

Stăpânului meu nu i-a rămas decât să mă transforme într-un mijloc de expresie, un mijloc de exprimare a sentimentelor cu ajutorul literelor, petelor cromatice şi a liniilor ferme, printr-un act sacramental de recunoaştere a lumii eterne într-o personificare a splendorii naturii. Acest unic artist al existenţei mele, imortalizându-mă cu solemnitate într-un spaţiu atemporal, cu trecere în alte universuri, pare să fie influenţat de vitalitatea unui stil de gândire împărtăşit de Jorge Luis Borges, care spunea:

Leadership: Ţi-ai dezvoltat capacitatea de a descoperi linia fină dintre interiorul ascuns al lucrurilor şi exteriorul sesizabil, încât să-ţi extinzi limita de percepţie a actului de creaţie?

Prin profunzime şi complexitate, într-o reprezentare a vieţii obţinută prin Coincidentza Notorius în câmpul conştiinţei Inmariasty, dincolo de existenţa unei opere a naturii redată simbolic, artistul poate modela (cu accent pe valoarea expresivă a dominanţei cromatice) o lume, o realitate, o perspectivă, o personalitate, în aşa fel încât să învie măreţia trecerii sale peste timpuri. Există o adâncime în relaţia cu universul, justificată prin necesitatea de a menţine "un joc jucat etern dinaintea creatului".

Cu ajutorul străfulgerării sângerii a universului imaginat de Toma de Aquino, completat de notele străvechi ale Sfinţilor Părinţi Creştini, artistul declanşează în faţa manifestărilor sacrului modern stări afective şi sentimente care fac să vibreze linia fină dintre interiorul ascuns al lucrurilor şi exteriorul sesizabil.

L-am auzit odată pe stăpânul meu vorbind cu el însuşi, foarte aproape de mine, cu un soi de aplecare spre miza unui dialog purtat parcă între doi titani ai Odiseei. L-am înţeles mai bine ca oricine, căci trandafirii înţeleg totul dintr-o știință aparte a dominării spațiului pământesc. El îşi spunea:

- Uneori mi se pare că sunt altcineva, mult mai îndreptăţit să mişte punctul luminos de întuneric al Divinului, ca şi când un spirit de o rară mobilitate, ca al lui Homer, s-ar fi deplasat în timp doar pentru a-şi găsi în mine locul de izbăvire a Marii Opere. Nu mă recunosc în persoana lui decât atunci când gândul cel mai fugar ascultă de puterea elementară a lumii sublunare.

Nu poţi să inspiri o exprimare mai bogată, plină de semnificaţii în sipetul artei, fără să simţi farmecul, mireasma sufletului care te îmbie întru necunoscut şi ezoteric. Trandafirul este mai mult decât o compoziţie descrisă într-o dominantă cromatică intenţionată, ci este produsul exclusivist al unui act de creaţie ce se dezvoltă prin exersarea obţinerii de expresivităţi, prin combinarea elementelor de limbaj plastic.

Leadershipul, în termeni de act de creaţie, surprinde căutarea unei identităţi vizuale construită în condiţiile în care te simţi condus de o forţă exterioară ţie cu impact puternic în performanţa realizării congruenţei dintre „a priori” şi „a posteriori”.

Divano este denumirea generică a unei incursiuni în lumea creaţiei văzută ca o comparaţie cu un adevărat miracol ce trebuie ocrotit în alternanţa „subiectiv - divin”, apropiată de relaţia originală om-natură-univers constituită etern în spirit şi trăită în profunzimile expresivităţii, simbolisticii şi naturaleţei prin care se realizează transpunerea emoţiilor într-o imagine fabuloasă.

Observă-te în fiecare zi cu ochiul unui turist străin atras doar de ceea ce este interesant în lume, drept un fel de a te introduce într-o poveste scurtă care te motivează să acţionezi diferit.

Cele mai hazlii mi se par momentele acelea publicitare de la TV, când apare câte un individ (doctor, profesor, artist, etc) şi spune: "Am studiat în străinătate 6 ani, deci aveţi încredere în profesionalismul firmei pe care o reprezint". Ca şi când faptul că a plecat din ţară l-ar fi făcut mai bun la ceva... de parcă s-ar fi întors cu un premiul Nobel primit pentru cine ştie ce invenţie colosală într-un anumit domeniu de activitate.

Dacă eşti atât de studios şi plin de merite, spune-ne cum ai contribuit la dezvoltarea ştiinţei pe care o reprezinţi? Ai mişcat din loc vreun munte, ai făcut vreo descoperire importantă, ai construit o gândire nouă, ai intrat în guiness book, ceva de genul acesta?

Dacă n-ai reuşit să duci o ştiinţă cu un pas mai departe, îţi sugerez să pleci din nou în străinătate şi să studiezi în continuare. Încă eşti la nivel de "mai am multe de învăţat ! "

Nivelul de reuşită al unui om este garantat de acel efort nemăsurat care mai duce în spate un volum întreg de activitate, în căutarea unei cunoaşteri foarte avansate, sugerând de departe acea maturitate a sufletului, nu doar a deciziei, a caracterului neînfrânt de vicisitudinile pe care i le-a adus viaţa, şi în care înţelepciunea devine puntea de legătură cea mai sigură între credinţă şi necredinţa. Omul înţelept a învăţat de la el însuşi ca totdeauna viaţa are ceva în plus de oferit, dar nu e deloc ieftin de obţinut.

Concluzia: Este o cale foarte lungă până să ajungi la nivelul de om valoros care este în stare să-şi schimbe destinul într-o stea. Nu contează unde te afli sau ce studii ai urmat, contează felul cum ai contribuit la evoluţia ştiinţei.

Leadership: Poţi te gândeşti la tine prin prisma unei situaţii de pressing psihologic, în raport cu integrarea unei perspective de egalitate între o îndelungată lecţie de umilinţă şi schimbarea stării care te caracterizează?

Am fost la un concert în aer liber. Lume multă. Înghesuială. Nici măcar nu puteam să înaintez spre prietena mea, nici să mă retrag din mulţime. Am rămas locului mai bine de o jumătate de oră.

Abia atunci, gândindu-mă la ce mi-a fost dat să îndur, m-am întrebat cu folos: "De ce să stai la vedere în mijlocul mulţimii? Să-ţi bată inima de vreo stare de bucurie intensă pentru că eşti în centrul atenţiei? Poate e mai drăguţ să-ţi alegi un loc liniştit, de unde să vezi tu foarte bine toată lumea.

Estte şi ăsta un fel de apropiere aparte. Nu dintr-o dată, hop, poc, să ajungi la locul potrivit. Apropie-te încet de cine trebuie, fără să se simtă tulburătoare prezenţa ta. Ca o pisică. Fix aşa. Elegant, fără grabă, uşor, câte un pic, fără să dai din coate, fără să calci oamenii pe picioare în înghesuiala asta, şi fără să insişti...

Cine se supără prea repede că nu eşti lângă el, probabil nici nu se poate bucura de surpriza revederii.

De aia îmi plac pisicile. Ele ştiu să se strecoare printre paharele de cristal, fără să spargă nici măcar unul. Se numeşte rafinament.

Leadershipul înseamnă să treci din nou şi din nou printr-un moment în care viaţa pare să te supună unui test plin de provocări pe care nu ştii dacă îl poţi trece.

O diversitate de gânduri este o colecţie de concluzii pe care le tragi despre viaţă, despre lume, despre adevăr, despre realitate, abia atunci când te confrunţi cu o situaţie care te-a convins că trebuie să înveţi ceva nou despre tine. Fii tu însuţi în orice situaţie în care eşti constrâns să devii altcineva.

Doar ochii tăi ştiu să mă descifreze

În artă, cel mai important lucru este să vezi în orice creație o reflecție a propriei tale ființe.

Întotdeauna, de cum intră în cameră, pisoiul scormoneşte cu ochii prin toate colţurile, explorând cu o curiozitate nestăvilită fiecare posibilă ascunzătoare. Stând în pat și uitându-mă la el, fascinat de acest micuţ explorator, mi-am dat seama că el deţine talentul artistului de a nu se lăsa până nu finalizează ce şi-a pus în minte să creeze. În cele din urmă, am aruncat o jucărie spre el, un soi de motocel de aţă, ca să-l determin să se joace, ştiind că sufletul lui aparţine artistului rătăcitor în nesfârşita căutare a inspiraţiei. Privirea lui ageră, asemenea unui sculptor care caută forma perfectă în lucrul pe care îl modelează, a urmărit imediat traiectoria jucăriei și și-a fixat privirea asupra ei, apoi a prins jucăria din zbor ca o adevărată felină.

După cum am observat, curiozitatea este forţa dominantă, unică a lumii sale. Un far al minţii sale, încă neînţeles de mine, ghidându-l printre lucrurile din cameră, străbătea cu o insistență de necombătut spațiul infinit al posibilităților. Această flamură a dorinței de cunoaștere, Inalisezzo Ertusoeur, ce acordă sensuri majore existenţei sale, devine oglinda complexă a lumii care lasă libertate imaginației. Este acea sete nesfârșită de a explora și a descoperi, proprie artistului care potenţează misterul cu ajutorul fanteziei sale creatoare. În vioiciunea lui necontenită nu-şi epuizează energia în marile tendințe de căutare a sensului vieţii, dimpotrivă aș spune că îl găsește în momentele simple și autentice.

Transformă tot ce atinge în artă, revărsând asupra lucrurilor sentimentele și personalitatea sa, asemenea unui pictor ce își lasă amprenta pe pânza vieții, înfășurând în detalii minore expresia propriei sale existențe. În armonie cu propria sa esenţă, pisoiul îşi păstrează acel sens primordial de infinită bucurie care caracterizează pe copii gânditori, acea luminozitate pură și nealterată, acea setare sufletească numită "The Forever Now" ce străbate prin voalul realității cotidiene. I-am dat şi un nume pisoiului: "Indiana" (de la celebrul aventurier Indiana Jones).

Leadership: Cum ai descrie viziunea ta asupra unei scene de viață deschizătoare de perspectivă, prin filtrul unei vederi inspirate din reflexul unei conexiuni emoționale cu centrul atenţiei tale?

Este o mare bucurie să-l vezi jucându-se de-a Indiana Jones. Înclinat spre explorare, el e cel care stabileşte raporturile noi între stările vizibile şi invizibile ale lucrurilor, impregnând asupra lor un soi de magie, Aslabella Urfexides, un soi de personalizare ce transformă banalul în extraordinar, realul în vis. Mai presus de toate, starea de sensibilitate excepţională de dincolo de dinamismul acerb şi alert, îl face să fie aderent la multiplele fețe ale realității, ba pe calm, ba pe tumult, pe însăşi viața cu toate tribulațiile ei, explorând și descifrând strat după strat complexitățile ei.

Nu pot decât să-l urmăresc, pas cu pas, cu coada ochiului, ca să-mi dau seama de intenţiile sale ascunse. Pe de altă parte, aderarea la echilibrul calm, în momentele de respiro, când are nevoie de liniște și atenție pentru a-și reface forțele, este ca un dans delicat între acțiune și contemplație, între agitație și pace. Seninătatea unei dimineți liniștite, cu toată forța spiritului său însetat de viață, va invada mediul înconjurător, acordându-i vibraţia propriei sale armonii.

Știe să-şi pună pecetea sensibilă asupra realității, un soi de pendulare între senzația unei simplității constrastante cu tumultul interior, dincolo de realitățile umane, fiindcă animăluţul acesta drăgălaș, în esența sa, trăiește într-o cheie romantică: "o eternă căutare, o neliniște creatoare." Alternarea dintre alert și visare, de coborâri și cățărări vertiginoase, încordarea cu care își caută propriul eu, este un perpetuu balet al existenței.

Leadership: Cum influențează experiențele personale și motivele individuale interpretarea unei reprezentări vizuale ce nu poate fi apreciată decât prin introspecție?

Ciudat cum o idee te duce la alta. Privind pisoiul cum își caută noi repede de joacă, am făcut un fel de paralelism cu o scenă din romanul "Colecţionarul" de John Fowles:

Când vine vorba de artă, nu respect oamenii decât pentru ceea ce simt, nu pentru ceea ce știu și nici pentru titlurile lor academice. Există lucruri în ochii lor pe care nu îndrăznesc să le mărturisească, dar ai vrea să-i rogi tu să ţi le dezvăluie. Iar fiinţa pe care o îndrăgesc enorm părea să-mi spună: "N-ai cum să înţelegi ce a existat şi încă mai există între mine şi tine. Totuşi, vreau să văd dacă ai curajul să mă întrebi. Poate mai mult decât atât, vreau să văd dacă ai puterea să rămâi indiferent în fața unui chip frumos, sau să treci peste orice obstacol ca să mă cunoști".

Un pictor ar putea face o analogie între contrastul dintre fragilitatea pisoiului și imensitatea lumii din jur. O paletă de culori vii ar putea evoca energia și curiozitatea jucăușă, în timp ce tușe delicate ar putea surprinde vulnerabilitatea și sensibilitatea ființei mici. La rândul meu, aș putea să mă focalizez asupra ochilor pisoiului, să surprind în privirea lui un portal către o lume nouă şi misterioasă, încât să evidențiez profunzimea emoțiilor și dorințelor mele. Sigur că da. Gândesc că ochii pisoiului ar fi un punct focal, o oglindă a sufletului său pur și a dorinței sale de a se conecta la lumea mea. Privirea lui ar fi o invitație, o provocare de a depăși barierele și de a experimenta frumusețea lumii con una mente abierta y un corazón puro.

În artă, cel mai important lucru este să vezi în orice creație, în orice formă vie, o reflecție a propriei tale ființe. Resortul interior care porneşte întreaga mișcare de explorare și creație, înfăşurând în mister personalitatea unui explorator, marea lui pasiune pe care o trăiește în intensitatea ei, în sensibilitatea ascuțită, în curiozitatea lui artistică neobișnuită, face din el un creator fără seamăn. Ceea ce-i agită sufletul, demonstrând o rezistență împotriva excesului de "scormoniri", îl umanizează spunând că acordă spiritului său libertatea de căutare neîngrădită.

Leadership: Ce valoare poate să confere imaginilor tale contrastul dintre centrul atenţiei tale și realitatea lumii înconjurătoare, contribuind la crearea unui impact vizual puternic?

Dacă aţi citit "Motanul Încălţat", vă amintiţi când el ajunge la castelul Căpcăunului, unde îl convinge pe acesta că stăpânul său, un tânăr sărac, este de fapt un marchiz bogat. Motanul se folosește de o serie de minciuni și exagerări pentru a-l impresiona pe căpcăun. El pretinde că marchizul are o avere imensă, o armată de slujitori și o faimă nemaiîntâlnită. Purtând cizme încălțate, îl face să pară mai important și mai demn de respect. De fapt, manipulează căpcăunul în aşa fel, făcându-l să creadă că marchizul este un rival periculos și că ar fi înțelept să se alieze cu el. În final, motanul reușește să obțină tot ceea ce își dorește, intră miraculos în posesia castelului căpcăunului, demonstrându-şi încă o dată inteligența și curajul excepțional.

Da. Totdeauna mi-au plăcut pisicile. Sunt geniale. În ceea ce priveşte pisoiul meu, natura i-a putut oferi, pozitiv și cu o generozitate neîntrecută, o singură realitate stimulatorie, purificându-l ca un râu ce își croiește drum prin pietre, lăsând în urma lui doar claritate și frumusețe. Sigur că ceea ce însuflețește întregul său univers este acea capacitate de a vedea lumea prin ochii minunii, de a redescoperi în fiecare zi magia ascunsă în cotidian.

Fiind mai mult un observator psihologic, decât un simplu participant care poate include realitatea în sine, pisoiul reușește să dezvăluie straturile ascunse ale existenței mele, într-un demers artistic continuu, transpunând în realitate viziunea sa unică, plină de sensibilitate, de profundă înțelegere a lumii. Mi-am dat seama că sunt asemenea lui, deoarece și eu privesc lumea cu o perspectivă deopotrivă intrigantă și plină de culoare.

Similar motanului încălțat, caut să aduc în mijlocul creațiilor mele o doză de mister și farmec, ca și când aș deschide o fereastră către lumea poveștilor, invitând privitorul să exploreze și să descopere universul fascinant pe care îl creez. Nu în ultimul rând, mulţumesc pisoiului meu pentru inspiraţia oferită ca să scriu acest articol.

Tot ce înseamnă leadership porneşte de la capacitatea de a transpune în realitate viziunea ta unică, plină de sensibilitate și de profundă înțelegere a lumii, astfel încât centrul atenției tale să capete valoare și să inspire transformare.

"Doar ochii tăi știu să mă descifreze", pare să-mi spună pisoiul ori de câte ori îl privesc direct, comunicând fără cuvinte o legătură profundă și înțelegere tăcută.

Pisoiul este bine antrenat să navigheze cu grație și inteligență prin complexitatea spațiului său, demonstrând o înțelegere remarcabilă a mediului înconjurător. Cu cât îl privesc mai mult, urmărindu-i atent mişcările şi arcuirile atunci când se strecoară printre lucrurile din cameră, el însuşi devenind parcă în centrul lucrurilor, acolo unde se întâmplă totul, îmi dau seama că poartă în sine o parte din personalitatea mea. Reflectând aceeași agilitate și adaptabilitate, găsindu-mi locul în mijlocul acțiunii, mă integrez armonios în dinamica din jur.

Un creator de mare forţă de expresie poate să cuprindă cu privirea ceea ce realitatea refuză în general celorlalţi oameni, prin raportare la o temă sau la o idee dată de acea realitate transcendentală care poate fi abordată numai cu mijloace mistice şi artistice.

Întotdeauna m-a atras marea, chemarea valurilor, briza de noapte ce suflă plăcut în toiul verii, toată atmosfera aia plină de viață, dar în același timp relaxată. La mijloc este un avânt nestăvilit spre infinit, spre cerul oglindit în mare, spre valorificarea spirituală a vieţii, spre depăşirea condiţiei nemărginite, fiindcă marea însăşi, frumoasă, râzătoare, atât de plăcută în timpul lin, sugerează infinitatea spaţiului şi a timpului.

Da, ştiu ce înseamnă să visezi, căci atunci când visezi sufletul timpului se odihnește. Iar ceva din off, ca un ecou de departe, în ochii ascunşi ai orizontului fără de sfârşit, m-a îndemnat cu o voce drăgăstoasă să mă pierd într-un torent de tonuri albastru-ciel şi verde, exact aşa cum se vede marea în culoarea cerului. Nu-i asa? Câte observaţii fugitive, dar răbdătoare, trebuie să strâng ca să creez o nebunie dintr-un cerc mişcător a cărui rază este egală cu lungimea segmentului din desen, şi pe care marea îl completează cu imaginea unui cer nelimitat care-i tot timpul deasupra mea, alternând cu zile însorite şi cu momente de neuitat.

Aşa m-am pierdut în lumea culorilor, în cerul lumii de dincolo realitate, într-o concentrare absolută asupra şevaletului, paralel cu atacarea neinhibată a unui stoicism de natură specială, care nu se miră de nimic, un stoicism condensat în spatele privirilor (de timp) nemuritoare, care nu recunoaște confuzia, care nu cunoaşte tristețea și servituțile cu care toţi ne lovim la un moment dat. Bineînţeles, artistul din mine nu este doar un colector de impresii, posesor al unei memorii remarcabile, cel puţin pe linia specială unei arte dinamice şi expresive care schimbă în mod intenţionat aparenţa. Ci este şi un demiurg, un proiectant cosmic care utilizează elemente existente în prealabil, un microcosmos, un creator de lumi pe care numai un colorist de mare virtuozitate l-ar putea surprinde, cu mare emoție, în decoruri spectaculoase.

Leadership: Poţi să adopţi un concept vizual capabil să reprezinte globalitatea unei suprafeţe plane faţă de frumuseţea ei oglindită, cu rol în crearea simetriei dintre lucruri, fenomene şi evenimente?

Dacă aţi citit opera lui Borges, atunci sigur ştiţi de scriitorul Jaromir Hladik, autorul unei tragedii neterminate. Acesta şi-a dat seama că îi mai lipseau două acte şi că avea să moară în curând. Aşa că a stat de vorbă cu Dumnezeu pe întuneric: "Dacă exist în vreun fel, Doamne, dacă nu sunt doar una dintre repetiţiile ori greşelile Tale, atunci exist ca autor al piesei "Vrăjmaşii". Pentru a duce la bun sfârşit această dramă, care mă poate îndreptăţi şi Te poate îndreptăţi, am nevoie de încă un an de viaţă. Dăruieşte-mi aceste zile, Tu, care eşti stăpânul veacurilor şi al timpurilor. Era ultima noapte, cea mai cumplită, dar zece minute mai târziu s-a cufundat în vis ca într-o apă întunecată."

În orice gen de artă s-ar încadra, creatorul are ca obiect principal de studiu însuşi omul surprins într-un univers mai mare, ca într-un vis nebulos al cărui sens îţi scapă mereu. Alături de acest om, ai impresia că un fir imperceptibil te călăuzeşte într-un mod misterios într-un spaţiu plin de detalii încă realiste, dar stilizate până la limita fantasticului, prin raportare la o viziune care nu se limitează la retrospectivă, ci care regândește locul și rolul tău într-un context de genul: "Don't ask, don't tell. Just look and see.".

Uite aşa, doar privind marea oglindindu-se în albastrul cerului, am înţeles că pentru a explica

o artă abstractă, simbolică, suprarealistă, sunt nevoit să declar că tot ceea ce pare a fi intuirea unui nou orizont, în accepţiunea unei armonii lăuntrice, dominatoare, nu este decât rolul unui efort involuntar de abstractizare cu scopuri simbolice. Şi chiar dacă nu mi-am propus abstractizarea unei teme nesupuse unui scris rigid, statistic sau descriptiv, ceva care să atragă abstractizarea unei lumi și postularea alteia, uite că s-a întâmplat să leg cerul de mare, nisipul de scoici sau valurile de punctul în care vântul le-a generat.

Cu alte cuvinte, am făcut exact ceea ce a făcut şi Creatorul Lumii: am adoptat un concept vizual cu care am putut să reprezint globalitatea unei suprafeţe plane faţă de frumuseţea ei oglindită, cu rol în crearea simetriei dintre linii, contururi şi curbe, dintre oameni, lucruri, fenomene şi evenimente. Acest concept vizual poate fi exprimat astfel: "Ceea ce determină culoarea unui lucru depinde de starea pe care o ai atunci când priveşti opusul lui, sau un echivalent al lui."

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi descrii creaţia ca rezultat al interacţiunii dintre percepţia asupra peisajului şi funcţionalitatea acestuia în ansamblul diferitelor lui părţi componente, încât să construieşti o realitate alternativă?

Experienţa de neuitat a unei creaţii fulminante trebuie să urmeze experimentul oglindirii: printr-o reprezentare destul de reală a unei imagini, prin savurarea stării de mister a oglindirii inexprimabile, trebuie să se poată vizualiza microcosmosul lumii tale, tot aşa cum lumea ta trebuie să existe în microcosmosul holistic al Minţii Divine. Acest microcosmos cuprinde acele interacţiuni între obiecte, elemente, fenomene, evenimente, fapte şi procese, structuri, cu diferitele proprietăți ale simetriei lor.

Interesant pentru mine e faptul că uneori vuietul mării se reduce la sunetul valurilor care se sparg la ţărm, figurând prin semicercul unui meridian numit Opuninthis Steriadys (impulsul de a contempla creaţia prin ochii lui Dumnezeu), la care se adaugă perspectiva spaţiului multiplu, omogen, deschis imaginaţiei de condiţia planităţii: calitatea unei suprafeţe de a avea toate porţiunile sale cât mai aproape de un plan. Dacă ţinem seama de asta, atunci calitatea execuției unui tablou și planitatea sunt ireproșabile doar dacă merg până la efectul de "oglindă".

Şi, tot aici, auzind marea cum se loveşte de mal, simţind mirosul ei sărat, simţind soarele cum îmi atinge corpul, privind valurile cum se agită parcă chemându-mă la ele, explorând nisipul, scoicile şi....spiritul lor liber, imagine care primează faţă de explorarea înfăţişărilor lumii vizibile, reuşesc cumva să-mi extind sfera de consideraţii pentru o categorie mai largă de creaţii artistice.

La antipodul dintre vis şi realitate, prin conexiunea minte-suflet, îmi dau seama că tot ceea ce văd, ca unică soluţie de sugerare în plan a unei lumi dinamice, este menit să simbolizeze o instaurare de lumi în lumina veşniciei. Într-adevăr, sunt un artist fiindcă ştiu să reprezint vizual globalitatea hiperconectată a lumii, în aşa fel încât să transmit un maximum de informaţii estetice.

Ca să extinzi sfera de cuprindere a leadershipului trebuie să explorezi vizual, în manieră proprie, adevărurile profunde ale vieţii, dar şi imaginile din care se construiesc momentele de neuitat. Momente atât de simple, dar atât de pline de poveste, care te leagă de conceptul de creaţie, ca şi de reciproca lui spirituală, sugerând existenţa un orizont spațial infinit.

Doar uită-te şi vezi ! Şi ce vei observa? O realitate transcedentală în care cred doar ocultiștii și care adesea nu pare a fi altceva decât personificarea unei „forțe ascunse în spatele fenomenelor", stând la baza lumii aparențelor.

Această realitate transcedentală se poate dezvălui ca o amintire despre viitor, ca o alinare sufletească, ca un construct artistic independent, ca un lanţ nesfârşit de fenomene, ca un fel de succesiune de „mostre de culoare", sau ca un adevărat manifest faţă de tendinţele vederii de a evolua de-a lungul unor direcţii imprevizibile.

Doctorul misterios

Desăvârşeşte-ţi legăturile cu ceilalţi oameni, intrând în spaţiul lor sufletesc şi orientându-le emoţiile într-o direcţie favorabilă lor.

Numai un singur medic mai putea face ceva pentru sărmana copilă, dar un medic priceput şi îndrăgostit de ştiinţă, care vindeca numai de dragul de a vindeca. Jacques Mérey, căci acesta era numele lui, privi cu amărăciune acea făptură omenească lipsită complet de inteligenţă şi de calităţi, ghemuită în ea, încolăcită pe salteaua prăpădită. Inima lui se cutremură. Un sentiment adânc de milă şi de îndurare îi străbătu trupul, fiindcă niciodată nu se confruntase cu un asemenea caz. Fetiţa abia împlinise şapte ani, dar nu era bună de nimic, fiindcă suferea de idioţie (capacităţile ei mentale erau foarte reduse).

Dar ochiul priceput al lui Jacques şi intuiţia lui formidabilă, combinată cu experienţa lui îndelungată, a sesizat imediat un amănunt esenţial: mâna fetiţei, nepăsătoare şi moale, pe care ai fi putut-o crede lipsită de articulaţii, mângâia câinele familiei care o înfiase. Părea că aceste două fiinţe inferioare se înţelegeau, părea că între ele exista o forţă misterioasă care le atrăgea. Pornind de la acest gest de simpatie pe care fata o arăta animalului, Jacques întocmi pe loc un plan de tratament.

Leadership: Preţuirea ta pentru cineva se manifestă prin nobleţea caracterului modelat de o curiozitate plină de avânt faţă de ceea ce se câştigă prin facilitarea relaţiei dintre "Totalitate" şi "Vid" ?

Saltul spre triumf. Primind încuviinţarea părinţilor ei adoptivi, Jacques o luă pe fetiţă dar şi pe câine - care era singura legătură vie cu ea, la el acasă. Spera că performanţele lui în ştiinţă o vor putea ajuta pe Eva să-şi recapete simţurile şi inteligenţa. Practic, el trebuia să pătrundă în adâncul acelui infern care se numea imbecilitate, să caute o inteligenţă ascunsă şi să o aducă, împotriva aparentului ei destin, la lumina zilei.

Biata fată era sortită unei vieţi de zbucium şi unui sfârşit dramatic. Dar uite că cineva s-a încumetat să înfrunte şi să schimbe aşa zisa soartă. Dacă ai citit „ Doctorul Misterios ", de Alexandre Dumas, atunci probabil ştii că încrederea lui Jacques în ştiinţă a făcut un miracol.

Mai bine de patru ani el se luptă cu întunericul atât de adânc în care se afla micuţa Eva. Un tratament continuu, o supraveghere de fiecare clipă, o voinţă de neclintit. Folosindu-se de ştiinţa lui şi de toate „oportunităţile" naturii, el reuşeşte în final s-o vindece complet.

Vidul este o provocare a cărui răspuns probabil nici nu există, dar la fel ca acel "imposibil de definit" este reprezentat de aspectele greu de înţeles ale vieţii cu care îl asociem noi. Iar totalitatea cuprinde ceea ce descoperim la fiecare colţ al vieţii, felul cum creionăm în memorie un vis şi cum luptăm să-l atingem într-o realitate pe care nu o putem ignora la nesfârşit.

Facilitarea relaţiei dintre "Totalitate" şi "Vid" presupune să te interpui între descoperirea făcută de tine şi aplicarea ei, în funcţie de conjunctura creată de modul cum interpretezi o realitate care nu-ţi convine, dar nici nu poate fi negată.

Leadership: Poţi să estimezi gradul de conştientizare a realităţii celorlalţi oameni, prin comparaţie cu tine însuţi?

Leadershipul se individualizează prin mărimea şi sensibilitatea dependenţei faţă de amănuntele esenţiale. Un doctor ştie cel mai bine acest lucru. Capacitatea de a fi un catalizator pentru schimbare, dezvoltată pe baza faptelor reprezentate de descoperirea legăturilor dintre ceea a creat imperfect natura și ce putem face noi pentru a îndrepta efectele greşelilor ei, este rezultatul avântului şi disponibilităţii de a pătrunde în adâncul "infernului" şi de a distruge tot ce poate fi mai îngrozitor.

Întreaga forţă a Leadershipului este sintetizată în îndemnul: "Caută o inteligenţă ascunsă şi încearcă să o aduci, împotriva aparentului ei destin, la lumina zilei."

Se poate realiza ceva extraordinar prin asocierea celor două elemente: interes şi determinare, sub egida eficienţei comunicabilităţii emoţiilor şi trăirilor de care are nevoie omul pentru a elibera din postura de om slab şi neajutorat. Iar aceste două elemente sunt produse de un impuls de gândire hotărâtor care pune în practică un gând prin intermediul inspiraţiei, al spiritului de observaţiei, al exprimării fără reţinere, al inversării rolurilor, ceea ce favorizează procesul de funcţionalitate şi învăţare.

Iar procedeul folosit de liderii de mare impact, printr-o serie întreagă de corespondenţe de ordin conceptual şi pragmatic, este ilustrativ pentru reglarea "intervenției" care poate să răspundă într-o manieră satisfăcătoare nevoilor reale de formare şi dezvoltare.

Leadership: Îţi asiguri o poziţie de încredere dinspre genul de abordare pe care o defineşti drept "autoritate de control" către ceea ce face dintr-o persoană o fiinţă oarecum superioară ei?

Puterea de vindecare a temerilor, dedicarea, apropierea, atenţia, angajamentul, apelurile lansate prin intermediul conştiinţei, al valorilor de sine şi prin trăire conştientă, intervin în special în situaţiile dificile de relaţionare cu ceilalţi, atunci când nu reuşeşti să te transpui cu tot sufletul în locul celui care îţi cere sprijinul, raliindu-te la necazul lui, la matricea lui spirituală.

Totuşi, indirect, ele se regăsesc reflectate în maniera în care îţi conduci propria viaţă, când reuşeşti să te învingi pe tine însuţi, să te descoperi pe tine, când reuşeşti să te accepţi şi să fii prieten cu tine însuţi, când reuşeşti să ai compasiune faţă de tine.

Doar prin comparaţie cu tine însuţi îţi poţi asuma responsabilitatea de a face ca viaţa altora să fie mai bună, lansând în lumea reală prin intermediul "artei" de a te recrea şi redefini în mod constant - un nou angajament: fiecare om pe care îl întâlneşti este o reflexie a ta. Şi ai menirea de a te şlefui permanent şi de a scoate la iveală tot mai mult din ce poţi fi.

Leadership: Te racordezi la emoţiile oamenilor şi îi ajuţi să-şi depăşească limitele printr-un salt magic deasupra proceselor lor de gândire care fac dificilă înfăptuirea unei minuni?

Înţelegerea la nivelul emoţional al individului este esenţială în leadership. Capacitatea liderului de a recunoaşte emoţiile oamenilor şi de a le face din ce în ce mai active este poate cel mai important instrument pentru succes din trusa lui de calităţi. Un bun lider face deseori ceea ce fac doctorii atunci când se găsesc în faţa unei boli pe care n-au mai întâlnit-o şi pe care nu şi-o pot explica: încearcă să pătrundă în mintea şi în sufletul oamenilor.

Care a fost amănuntul acela esenţial pe care l-a sesizat doctorul Jacques Mérey şi care a făcut posibilă găsirea căii de însănătoşire a fetei? Fără îndoială acea legătură vie între ea şi acel câine. Iar încăpăţânarea câinelui de a rămâne lângă ea era un semn pozitiv, fiindcă era limpede că se ataşaseră unul de celălalt. Iar acest lucru nu putea însemna decât faptul că Eva avea totuşi o doză de „trăire” în ea, deci că nu era complet lipsită de simţuri. Iar pentru ca ea să se însănătoşească, Jacques nu trebuia decât să-i dezvolte acele simţuri subtile şi să le facă din ce în ce mai active.

Cât de adânc poţi să pătrunzi în abisurile fiinţei umane? Pentru a-i influenţa pe oameni trebuie să percepi foarte bine emoţiile şi trăirile lor şi apoi să te acordezi la ele. Trebuie să descâlceşti sentimentele lor şi să îi ajuţi să depăşească barierele impuse de propriile lor limite.

Sarcina liderului, asemănătoare cu cea a unui doctor, este de a împleti îndeplinirea unei misiuni importante cu înfăptuirea unei revoluţii în conştiinţa oamenilor care schimbă cursul unei lupte ce pare pierdută.

Aşa cum radiografia oferă doctorilor puterea de a vedea prin piele structurile interne osoase ale corpului viu – tot aşa şi tu trebuie să pătrunzi mai adânc în sufletul omului, acolo de unde porneşte toată fericirea sau nefericirea lui, să fii capabil să sesizezi structura lui emoţională şi să găseşti cea mai eficientă combinaţie de a-i schimba percepţiile şi de a-i îmbunătăţi existenţa.

Dacă nu reuşeşti să intri în spaţiul sufletesc al oamenilor, dacă nu ajungi să fii în perfect echilibru cu ceea ce simt ei, dacă nu descoperi toată gama sentimentelor lor, de la tandreţe la indiferenţă, de la simpatie la antipatie, de la bucurie la tristeţe, atunci nu vei putea să le orientezi emoţiile într-o direcţie favorabilă lor. Şi, în consecinţă, nu vei putea desăvârşi legăturile tale cu ei.

Concluzie: Dacă vrei să ai o influenţă mare asupra oamenilor care te înconjoară atunci trebuie să înveţi să pătrunzi cât mai adânc în sufletul lor, să înţelegi sentimentele lor, sursa fericirii sau a nefericirii lor şi mai ales să le orientezi acţiunile într-un sens pozitiv. Dar pentru asta este necesar să-ţi desăvârşeşti legăturile cu ei şi, nu rareori, aidoma unui doctor misterios, să aplici o „terapie” ţintită, individuală sau de grup.

Doi artişti ar acţiona un singur creier, o singură sensibilitate

Perspectiva autentică asupra acordului perfect dintre imagine și catalizatorul sensului ei poate aduce vitalitate procesului artistic, doar dacă dezvăluie un echilibru subtil între formă și conținut.

Întâlnirea dintre Eisenstein şi Prokofiev este un fenomen în istoria artelor. Doi artişti ar acţiona un singur creier, o singură sensibilitate. Minunea acestei întâlniri constă tocmai în acordarea, în armonizarea unică a creaţiei lor.

Iată câteva trăsături mai puţin cunoscute ale compozitorului care ne vor ajuta la înţelegerea premiselor afective ale acestei colaborări: o capacitatea de muncă despre care H. Neuhaus spunea că era uluitoare. Lucra indiferent de dispoziţia în care se afla, oricând, oriunde, în orice condiţii. Un om de o punctualitate la fel de uluitoare. Prokofiev funcţionează ca un ceasornic, scrie Eisenstein. Exactitatea sa derivă din precizia care-i caracterizează creaţia. Din exactitatea cu care imaginea este tradusă în mijloace de expresie de o precizie matematică pe care Prokofiev le ţine în frâu cu o mână de oţel.

Punctualitatea sa este proverbială: dacă o şedinţă nu începe la timp, după zece minute de aşteptare părăseşte supărat şi demonstrativ sala. Celor care doresc să-l viziteze le fixează întâlniri cu o precizie de minut: ora 12 şi 8 minute, şi e iritat dacă oaspetele nu respectă întocmai ora indicată. Se bărbiereşte zilnic la aceeaşi oră şi târâitul aparatului de ras este pentru M. Rostropovici, vecinul său, un adevărat orologiu. Pedant în îmbrăcăminte, se plimbă cu o desăvârşită elegantă vestimentară în maşinuţa să albastră. Dar, deşi spirit auster, cu o rară disciplină în muncă, agreează dansul sau tenisul, întâlnindu-se şi pe acest plan cu Eisenstein.

Pentru Eisenstein, rezultatul acestei colaborări la pelicula Alexandr Nevski – care devine o mare plăcere şi bucurie creatoare pentru ambii artişti – va fi descoperirea legilor coincidenţei, a acordului dintre sunet şi imagine.

Leadership: În ce măsură coincidența dintre imagine și catalizatorul care dă sens acelei imagini poate scoate din tine esența unei opere armonioase și profunde?

Coordonarea dintre Eisenstein și Prokofiev în realizarea filmului Alexandr Nevski este un fenomen unic în istoria artelor. Doi artiști au acționat ca un singur creier, manifestând o sensibilitate comună. Întâlnirea lor reprezintă o minune datorită armonizării și preciziei cu care și-au aliniat creațiile.

Creierul uman acționează ca un integrator, permițând un răspuns armonios la stimuli externi. Sinergia dintre cortexul prefrontal și zonele motorii permite o planificare și executare precisă a mișcărilor. Această precizie și exactitate caracterizează și relația dintre Eisenstein și Prokofiev, care lucrau împreună cu o punctualitate uluitoare. Prokofiev era cunoscut pentru disciplina sa riguroasă în ceea ce privește timpul, scriind muzica sa cu o precizie matematică, precum un ceasornic.

Pe de altă parte, Eisenstein era la fel de disciplinat și pedant în abordarea cinematografică, integrând perfect muzica lui Prokofiev în film, astfel încât sunetul și imaginea se armonizau natural. Dansul și tenisul au fost alte interese comune care au contribuit la colaborarea lor. Rezultatul a fost descoperirea legilor coincidenței, a acordului dintre sunet și imagine.

Astfel, filmul Alexandr Nevski devine o manifestare a coincidenței perfecte între două arte, prin intermediul unei colaborări exemplare dintre doi artiști care au acționat ca un singur creier.

Leadershipul poate să aibă valoarea unui proces creativ armonios, scoțând la lumină un echilibru subtil între formă și conținut, doar dacă relevă o perspectivă autentică între imagine și esența profundă a sensului ei.

Doi artiști ar acționa ca un singur creier, o singură sensibilitate, doar dacă au o comunicare profundă și armonioasă, bazată pe respect reciproc, încredere și o viziune artistică comună, care le permite să își îmbine creativitatea într-un mod complementar și sinergic. Coincidența dintre imagine şi catalizatorul care dă sens imaginii (muzica) poate să devină o descoperire fascinantă atunci când două viziuni se sincronizează pentru a crea o operă armonioasă.

Doi artiști în aceeași epopee creativă

Privirea ta oglindeşte locul din care priveşti, iar locul din care priveşti, îţi creează locul în care trăieşti.

Sunt la mare, îmi arunc ochii pe plaja însorită. Încercând să capturez cât mai multe detalii posibil, schimbând unghiul de observație pentru a vedea subiectul din perspective diferite, am reținut câteva scene de o deosebită frumuseţe. Peisajele dătătoare de adânci trăiri, nostalgice şi evocatoare, în care fiecare element devine o pagină nouă dintr-un captivant roman vizual, sunt făcute parcă pentru a le contempla şi recepta ca pe un fel de poveste nescrisă, în care nisipul și valurile devin pagini albe. Numaidecât, artistul din mine devine naratorul tăcut al acestui spectacol natural, hoinar pe drumuri întinse, chiar puţin şi mai ciudat, năzuind spre a capta esența efemeră a naturii într-o creație durabilă și a o transpune pe pânză.

Tu, marea mea dragă, ce mi-ai pregătit să văd? Cum așteptai de la mine să te pictez? Niciodată nu te-a mulțumit schița rapidă, impresiile mele iniţiale care captau misterul și profunzimea peisajului, fiindcă tot de atâtea ori am putut vedea pe chipul tău o anumită deziluzie, o vagă neîncredere, o revelație dureroasă sau dezamăgitoare care contrazicea așteptările mele. Cu luare aminte, m-ai cercetat o clipă, apoi o zi întreagă, apoi zi de zi pe tot parcursul sejurului meu, de parcă m-aş fi întors în trecut și ți-aș fi regăsit vechile secrete, îngropate în nisipul timpului, sau ţi-aş fi amintit vreo suferinţă uitată, un recuerdo profundamente arraigado en el alma. Şi, totuşi, nu-i așa că ai găsit în ochii mei o întreagă lume de sensuri și trăiri?

E adevărat. M-am grăbit, m-am avântat să te conturez mai vie că oricând, soarele încălzindu-ţi valurile, domolindu-le furia. Şi mi s-a părut absurd să pierd puținul timp avut la dispoziție cu schița unor simple răsărituri de soare, în timp ce tu, adevărata comoară a peisajului, un tablou natural desprins din visuri, erai chiar în fața mea. Cu acea privire plină de taine și deopotrivă curiozitate, ca și cum ai fi vrut să explorezi cele mai adânci straturi ale sufletului meu, tot timpul m-ai privit ca pe un pelerin al frumuseţii, iar eu ardeam de nerăbdare să îţi transpun peisajul pe pânză.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o experiență autentică și emoționantă în acelaşi timp, încât imaginea pe care o transmiţi să fie percepută ca un soi de iluzie creativă a unui artist?

Marea, draga mea întindere nesfârşită. Așteptai să comentăm tabloul împreună, imaginea ta dintr-o perspectivă veșnică, în care valurile devin ecouri ale timpului și nisipul devine un păstrător de amintiri nespuse. Chiar ai intenționat să-mi ceri părerea, gata să-mi lămurești eventuale detalii neclare, dar am plonjat total în creație și tu te-ai resemnat, sau poate că dialogul nostru te-a prins și ai uitat complet de peisaj. Poate că atunci când vei gândi la fel ca mine, sau aproape ca mine, ca noi, vei înţelege că este greu să te schimbi, descotorosindu-te de tot ce ai fost, de tot ce-ai învăţat, de tot ce-ai devenit, ca să te transformi într-un soi de muză a tabloului meu interior.

Într-un anumit moment, un gest fără sens m-a distras de la tine, în timp ce înaintea mea se desfășura un adevărat spectacol de culoare și lumină. Ai simţit ce-am simţit şi eu, nu-i aşa? Şi dacă ai simţit, de ce nu simţi în continuare? Mi-ai zis că secretul tău este prea adânc pentru a fi dezvăluit în cuvinte, prea subtil pentru a fi exprimat în limbajul oamenilor, asta fiind un adaos crucial de admirație față de sublimul creației, adus omului ca un fel de iniţiere într-o călătorie interioară care-l determină să-şi reevalueze perspectiva asupra vieții și a realității.

Leadership: Cum percepi legătura dintre profunzimile tale interioare și acea senzație de panică din fața unei pânze albe, care cere să fie umplută cu viață?

Asta mi-a amintit de panica mea de la începuturi, când fiecare pânză albă îmi crea un gol în stomac, părând că se umple treptat cu fiecare nuanță și fiecare pensulă în mișcare.

Am reuşit. Am putut vedea în peisajul chipului tău o frumusețe aparte, o imagine pe care am simțit nevoia să o transpun pe pânză, dar şi un fel de reţinere, ca şi când ai păstra în tine un secret care nu poate fi exprimat în cuvinte, ci doar transpus în culori și forme pe pânză. Seamănă cu descrierea "Portretului lui Dorian Gray", amintind de puterea artei de a captura complexitatea umană și de a reflecta adâncimile sufletului într-un mod fascinant.

Asemenea mării, arta mi-a oferit o fereastră către profunzimile inepuizabile ale experienței umane și m-a încurajat să contemplu și să receptez cu sensibilitate frumusețea și complexitatea lumii.

Leadership: Tabloul în care îţi oglindeşti privirea poate însufleţi imaginea care te reprezintă, ducând la o poveste nesfârșită?

"În colțul unei camere întunecate, pe un suport de marmură, zăcea un portret într-un cadru superb. Pictura, într-o armonie perfectă de culori, părea să respire viață. În ea, chipul unui tânăr frumos, cu ochi adânci și păr ondulat de un negru strălucitor, era surprins într-o expresie care emană tinereţe și inocență. Dar, în ciuda acestei aparențe, privirea sa părea să ascundă un secret întunecat, iar zâmbetul său avea o umbră de tristețe. Era un portret care te fascina și te înfiora în același timp, pentru că în el erau înfățișate toate poftele ascunse și toate păcatele, în timp ce tânărul din carne și oase rămânea nevinovat și intact."

La fel cum marea își dezvăluie tainele prin mișcarea sa veșnică, tot astfel eu îmi deschid sufletul și exprim emoțiile prin arta pe care o creez, fascinând orice privitor și în același timp învăluindu-l în mister, încât sufletul contemplator rămâne nevinovat și curat în fața acestui spectacol artistic. Un tânăr frumos este oglindirea unei mări care reflectă încrederea și determinarea, tainele și profunzimile sufletului care își contemplă tăcerile semnificative, el fiind surprins într-o expresie care emană tinereţe și inocență. Iar dacă marea devine învolburată, atunci și tânărul își poate găsi călăuza în propriul tumult interior.

Astfel, arta devine stăpâna unui tablou care surprinde dansul neîntrerupt al schimbărilor, fie ele în marea interioară sau în lumea exterioară. Eu însumi mi-am însufleţit tabloul cu imaginea mării, iar marea şi-a întors privirea spre mine şi mi-a împrumutat culoarea sufletului ei.

Doar aşa pot să cred în tot ce crede marea, că singurul lucru care poate rămâne neclintit între noi este pasiunea arzătoare de a explora și exprima frumusețea, felul ei de a-mi provoca și mai multă fericire, indiferent de stările și schimbările lumii înconjurătoare. O mare atât de misterioasă, încât fiecare val al tău ascunde povești nespuse !

Dacă vreodată vei uita că te-am pictat pe pânza amintirilor, aşa cum tu m-ai spălat de griji şi de tristeţe, învăţându-mă să devin o parte a peisajului tău, atunci vom rămâne amândoi părţi din aceeași poveste nesfârșită a naturii, întrepătrunși într-o conexiune profundă. Vom fi amândoi parte din același tablou, doi artiști în aceeași epopee creativă.

Leadershipul adaugă actului de creație un singur atribut: acela de a completa două entități distincte - artistul și imaginea - capabile să se îmbine armonios și să se dezvolte într-un mod inspirat.

Mai mult, dacă arta este actul de a crea și exprima o conexiune profundă între creator și subiect, într-un mod care transcende griji și tristețe, transformându-i pe amândoi în artiști, într-o poveste nesfârșită a naturii, atunci leadershipul devine un soi de catalizator al conexiunii dintre ceea ce există în interiorul fiecărui individ și ceea ce poate fi creat și exprimat prin artă.

Doi artiști în aceeași epopee creativă se întâlnesc într-un singur loc, acolo unde privirea lor devine pensula ce colorează o lume întreagă. Marea devine muză, în timp ce eu, artistul, ajung să mă preschimb într-un povestitor al nesfârșitelor sale povești. Iar dacă aș trăi o mie de ani, şi o mie de ani se vor contopi într-o singură zi, marea va fi tot acolo, dar schimbată de o pensulă care îi înfățișează veșnicia, în timp ce eu voi rămâne un artist la fel de talentat, dar preschimbat într-un martor al timpului nesfârșit.

Bine spunea la un moment Cătălin Manea: "Privirea ta oglindeşte locul din care priveşti, iar locul din care priveşti, îţi creează locul în care trăieşti."

Doi rivali la acelaşi tron

Învaţă să te conduci bine pe tine însuţi, punându-ţi forţa interioară în slujba unor valori care să nu-ţi pericliteze propria ta dezvoltare.

Kevin Lomax. Încă nu scăpase de tortura clipei, dar putea gândi liber la ceea ce-l aştepta. Ştia că nimic nu era încă limpezit între el şi John Milton care, indirect, pe căi nevăzute, îl hăituise, îl secătuise de orice forţă morală şi spirituală care-l proteja, şi-l chinuise neîncetat doar pentru a-l atrage de partea lui şi pentru a-l integra în jocul său în care deţinea puterea.

Dar totul nu fusese decât o amânare, o prelungire pentru nu se ştie cât timp a captivităţii, a perioadei de schimbare a propriei sale persoane dintr-una care luptă pentru a-şi păstra intacte credinţele creştine puternice, chiar exemplare aş spune, într-una a cărei motivaţii încorporau lăcomia şi setea de putere. Kevin era parcă osândit să fugă, iar John Milton să-l urmărească peste tot şi să-l oblige să se amestece în destinul companiei sale foarte puternice, dar dubioase.

Daca ai urmărit filmul „ The Devil's Advocate (1997) ", atunci sigur îţi aminteşti coşmarul prin care a trecut Kevin Lomax.

Ca urmare a influenţelor nefaste ale lui John Milton şi a acoliţilor săi care îi înlăturaseră, încet, încet credinţa, Kevin a fost învăluit de o stare de tensiune permanentă, de nelinişte, de disconfort interior care se manifesta printr-un amestec de frică, neîncredere, nesiguranţă, de suspiciune dusă la cote înalte. Era cuprins de acea amărăciune, de acel chin, de acea durere care vine din inimă, care te macină şi sporeşte tot mai mult odată cu deteriorarea credinţelor proprii şi a valorilor pe care se sprijină întregul tău caracter.

Leadership: Rezultatul deciziilor tale este dat de asemănarea dintre "ceea ce se manifestă la vedere" şi "ceea ce se ascunde în vedere", cu precizarea că experienţa ta de viaţa este îmbogăţită şi de evenimentele întâmplătoare pe care nu le poţi controla?

Un om se înalţă prin el însuşi şi decade tot prin el însuşi. Echilibrul universului tău interior contribuie la menţinerea stabilităţii leadershipului tău. A te despărţi de propriile tale valori şi convingeri din cauza influenţelor străine conduce la pierderea puterii morale, te poate chiar strivi sufleteşte şi te poate aduce în pragul disperării şi în final la decăderea ta spirituală şi existenţială.

Cineva spunea: "Ceea ce nu se vede e mult mai important decât ceea ce se vede, iar ceea ce nu e spus e mult mai important decât ceea ce e spus." Ceea ce nu se vede este conştiinţa ta care îţi spune ce e rău şi ce e bine pentru tine, ea îţi permite să îţi creezi viaţa după cum o vrei. Dacă îţi sunt înlăturate credinţele pe care se sprijină întreaga ta fiinţă, atunci vei intra în conflict cu tine însuţi, nu te vei mai alinia cu adevăratele tale valori, cu ceea ce este important pentru tine, şi vei eşua.

Leadership: Poţi proiecta o imagine a viitorului pe fundalul plin de semnificaţii al unei vieţi pe care s-o trăieşti prin rezultatele gândirii altora, fără să te împaci cu tine însuţi?

Eşecul temporar al lui Kevin Lomax s-a datorat deteriorării principiilor sale şi moralităţii sale din clipa când s-a angajat la puternica companie condusă de John Milton. Din acel moment el a intrat fără să vrea într-o competiţie cu propria lui persoană, între latura lui pozitivă şi cea negativă, o competiţie în care trofeul putea fi „Succesul” sau „Eşecul”.

Ca să ajungi cu adevărat la un nivel înalt al artei de a conduce, străduieşte-te să găseşti mai întâi calea de a declanşa acel mecanism sofisticat de apărare împotriva influenţelor care nu sunt binevenite, care nu-ţi susţin pe deplin idealurile, care nu contenesc în a te determina să te îndepărtezi de la principiile tale etice. Îngrijeşte-ţi mai întâi sinele, sănătatea morală înainte să-ţi găseşti drumul spre succes.

Găseşte-ţi drumul spre performanţă şi succes protejându-te de orice influenţe negative care te-ar putea îndepărta de la principiile eticii profesionale, de la concepţiile sănătoase şi adevăratele valori umane pe care ţi le-ai însuşit. Învaţă să te conduci bine pe tine însuţi punându-ţi forţa interioară în slujba unor valori care să nu-ţi pericliteze propria ta dezvoltare, şi care să-ţi servească ca bază pentru luarea unor decizii cât mai bune.

A te împăca cu tine însuţi înseamnă să vezi cu ochiul inimii ceea ce spune ochiul minţii, fără să cazi în capcana propriei slăbiciuni la “plăcere”, pentru a deveni neputincios.

Tu cât de departe poţi să vezi cu ochiul inimii şi cu ochiul minţii?

Doi rivali la acelaşi tron exprimă ideea unei delimitări între cele două forţe interioare ale tale care luptă pentru supremaţie, acele forte care îţi condiţionează comportamentele şi atitudinile şi care te pot conduce către succes sau către eşec. Prima forţă se sprijină pe nişte valori morale pozitive. Dar cealaltă forţă, mai subtilă şi mai dăunătoare, îţi produce un dezechilibru între capacitatea ta de atenţie asupra propriei tale persoane şi capacitatea ta de a face faţă oricărei încercări care-ţi iese în cale.

Aceste două forţe concurează mereu una împotriva celeilalte, cu scopul de a te motiva sau de a te demoraliza. Fă tot posibilul să nu-ţi îngrădeşti valorile solide pe care se sprijină caracterul tău, pentru a nu cădea sub influenţa forţei negative. Aşa cum un ecran de calitate convinge numai printr-o imagine clară – tot aşa un caracter puternic convinge numai printr-o înţelegere clară a propriilor valori şi convingeri şi printr-un devotament absolut faţă de ele.

Concluzie: Lupta dintre „bine” şi „rău” are loc în orice om. Pe parcursul vieţii fiecare trece prin încercări în care poate triumfa „binele” sau „răul”. Depinde de caracterul omului, de cât de puternic înrădăcinate sunt principiile şi convingerile sale, de cât de vulnerabil şi coruptibil este el, pentru ca „binele” să triumfe.

Uneori acest triumf al „binelui” nu-ţi aduce o ascensiune fulminantă, nu-ţi aduce beneficii materiale exorbitante, dar te lasă să trăieşti liniştit, împăcat cu tine însuţi şi mulţumit sufleteşte că nu ai contribuit la perpetuarea „răului” din societate. Deci depinde de tine, indiferent că ai ajuns lider sau nu, să te înalţi sau să decazi.

Dominarea spiritelor la Egipteni: Ritualul de magie pentru a face rau cuiva

On Noiembrie 2, 2010

Puterea de care dispui în acțiunile tale poate să dezvăluie aspecte ascunse ale caracterului tău, a căror vulnerabilitate se manifestă doar în relația cu cei pe care îi consideri incompatibili cu tine?

- Ce doreşti de la mine? Căci presupun că îmi cunoşti numele şi puterile.

- Îţi cunosc numele, dar nu-ţi cunosc toate puterile. Şi mai vin la tine ca să văd dacă îmi poţi fi de folos, dacă pot să recurg la puterile tale magice.

- Ce speri? Cunosc farmece împotriva înţepăturilor de scorpion și de păianjen, împotriva mușcăturilor de şarpe. Cunosc incantaţiile pentru alungarea demonilor bolilor. Mai ştiu şi să prepar farmacopeea magică, licori ca să te faci iubit.

- Niciuna dintre aceste puteri nu mă interesează. Mai întâi, ştii cum să provoci necazuri dușmanilor mei?

- Oare cum o femeie atât de tânără și de drăguță ar putea avea duşmani? Mă gândeam că îmi vei cere un descântec sau o licoare ca să te faci iubită.

- Dacă sunt tânără şi frumoasă precum spui, de ce aş avea nevoie de vreo vrajă ca să fiu iubită? Frumuseţea mea nu este cea mai puternică licoare şi vorbele mele nu sunt mai ameţitoare decât descântecele?

Leadership: Echilibrul fragil dintre dorința de răzbunare și consecințele sale te face să te simți divizat între valorile cu care te identifici și sentimentele de vinovăție care te împiedică să fii fericit?

O astfel de siguranţă îl făcu pe Sabi să zâmbească, îşi zise că ar fi fost tentat să folosească toate puterile magice de care dispunea ca să se facă iubit de o astfel de femeie.

- Ce fel de necaz ai vrea să provoci unui duşman? O boală? Răni, dureri în gingii, în membre, în şale? În acest caz, voi modela pentru tine o păpuşă. Îmi vei face rost de păr, de sudoare și fragmente de unghii de la cel sau cea căreia îi doreşti răul. Apoi va fi de ajuns să înfigi un ghimpe în partea păpușii pe care o vei alege pentru ca persoană să simtă răul acolo unde ai înfipt vârful acului.

- Ar fi o posibilitate. Dar dacă vreau ca persoană să fie lovită nu de boală sau de durere, ci de moarte? Ce vei face, ce mi-ai cere?

- Doreşti moartea cuiva?

- Poate. Răspunde mai întâi la întrebarea mea.

- Ceea ce-mi ceri este o mare răspundere. Trebuie să plăteşti scump un serviciu atât de periculos !

Leadership: Poţi să îţi asumi responsabilitatea pentru consecințele unui act lipsit de moralitate, indiferent de circumstanțe sau motivații, atâta timp cât viziunea ta nu intră în conflict cu Supra-Eul ?

- E un întreg ritual, dar nu este de-ajuns. Trebuie mai întâi scris pe un vas numele persoanei căreia îi vrei răul, apoi să spargi vasul şi să-l îngropi în apropiere de locul unde locuiește. După care trebuie să transmit puterea magică a lui Seth şi a lui Thot acestui obiect de moarte.

- În cât timp dispare persoana?

- Uneori e vorba de luni de zile, chiar de ani. Dar va muri, neapărat.

- Glumești? Toţi trebuie să murim cândva. De aceea, magia ta mi se pare cum simpluță. Dacă e nevoie să aştept ani de zile moartea persoanei, mai bine o las în seama timpului.

- Cineva tânăr mai poate trăi câteva decenii. Dar când am spus ani, mă refeream la doi, cel mult trei. Atunci persoana va muri de boală, accidental, la vânătoare, căzând de pe un acoperiş, înecându-se în fluviu, mușcată de un şarpe, atacată de un leu sau înghițită de un crocodil.

- Dacă îţi voi cere să spargi un vas, ce-mi vei cere?

- Bănuiești probabil că o acțiune care solicită din partea mea o tensiune atât de mare, atâta ştiinţă şi atâta dominare a spiritelor şi pentru care îmi risc viaţa costă foarte scump.

- Sunt gata să plătesc. Spune-mi preţul !

Leadershipul are ca principiu de bază următoarea sugestie: "o acțiune care solicită din partea ta o tensiune foarte mare, atâta știință și atâta dominare a spiritelor, costă foarte scump dacă compromite integritatea și valorile tale."

Dominarea spiritelor la egipteni (ritualul de magie pentru a face rău cuiva) se poate practica atunci când nu ești fericit și împăcat cu tine însuți, și mai ales atunci când știi că nu vei putea fi fericit într-o relație de lungă durată cu cineva. Astfel de practici sunt și acum larg utilizate de cei care caută putere și control asupra celorlalți, ignorând consecințele morale și karmice ale acțiunilor lor.

Deşi există spirite malefice şi vrăji, acestea nu se vor putea atinge niciodată de oamenii care îl au pe Dumnezeu de partea lor.

Ridică-te deasupra gândirii comune, conectându-te pe frecvenţa „intrărilor şi ieşirilor" de elemente active din configuraţia omului.

Cine a spus că spiritul are din când în când trebuinţă de un om demonic, a cărui putere superioară se ridică împotriva gândirii comune, a ştiut prea bine că în dosul unei aparenţe care ascunde adevăruri greu de acceptat se degajă o influenţă subtilă şi plină de autoritate. Subtilul indicator al performanţei ascuns în om, superior gândirii comune printr-un "a şti să conduci evenimentele" se degana dintr-un "Cine sunt?" ridicat la puterea voinţei de a experimenta noi laturi ale naturii umane, câştigădu-şi autoritatea din dosul unei gândiri plină de aparenţe.

Constatările şi expertizele pe linia de calitate a tipului de om „universal", a cărui ştiinţă de necuprins este cazată la acelaşi etaj cu suprema înţelepciune, atestă o formă periculoasă de deficit intelectual, o puternică întrepătrundere între elementele de susţinere şi cele de modelare a minţii.

Ştiinţa lui Hannibal Lecter nu este doar simplul rod al debordantei curiozităţi intelectuale, ci reprezintă principala componentă din procesul unui comerţ rentabil cu armament psihologic, foarte înfloritor, efectuat în condiţii de siguranţă. Forţa lui creatoare, atât de fină în domeniul psihologiei, rezidă în misterul vieţii interioare a unui geniu înzestrat cu cele mai bogate percepţii despre Ego, în ştiinţele spiritului. Ea trebuie exercitată ca un drog, ca un fluid ameţitor, nevăzut şi greu de adulmecat, în scopul de a spori dezlănţuirea stărilor sufleteşti ale oamenilor din jur, până la constrângerea lor totală, încât aceştia să devină subiectul unui studiu grandios despre persuasiune şi efectele ei.

Leadership: Suprimarea unei legături cu stările de conştiinţă ale oamenilor din jur poate fi asociată cu introducerea unei forţe de sugestionare pe direcţia unei viziuni rezultate dintr-un fenomen de tipul "lupta minţii împotriva sufletului"?

Hannibal nu este doar un geniu al psihologiei, ci şi un om de ştiinţă care măsoară valoarea rezistenţei oamenilor cu care interacţionează, modelul de tensiune al trebuinţei lor, pentru a-i încadra ulterior în tiparele unei noi viziuni asupra organizării neuropsihologice a vieţii. Numeroasele sortimente de măsurători, constatări şi interpretări, conectate pe frecvenţa mare a intrărilor şi ieşirilor de elemente active, supuse supraîncălzirii, din configuraţia interioară a omului, trebuie să acopere o gamă uriaşă de semnificaţii. Şi el are întotdeauna de unde să-şi aleagă modele experimentale, de toate calibrele.

Năzuind să desluşească universul uman din spatele evenimentelor, în special imboldurile şi zbuciumurile autentice care îl încearcă neîncetat pe individul obişnuit, Hannibal preferă o recunoaştere a faptelor clare. Omul vizat cercetării cu lupa minţii devine interpretul unui joc subtil de evaluare, transformându-se într-un companion de încredere, într-un redutabil pretendent la titlul de recordman în cadrul experimentelor cele mai imprevizibile.

Dar pentru a interpreta şi evalua fiinţa umană, Hannibal trebuie să se transforme el însuşi într-un iubitor constant al oamenilor. Apoi într-un dresor. Şi, în final, într-un proprietar cu drepturi depline şi discreţionare. Iar fără puterea de voinţă care ordonează haosul interior al oamenilor căzuţi în perimetrul persuasiunii, nici cea mai aprigă dorinţă n-ar putea să ducă vreodată la realizarea unei opere de artă. El trebuie să fie mai mult decât un artist, trebuie să fie un monopolist al ştiinţei.

Leadership: Valoarea forței de legătură dintre suflet şi conştiinţă rezultă din impactul cunoaşterii care se pretează la o modelare manipulativă asupra procesului de formare a Omului Nou, în încercarea de a anticipa efectul unei transformări de mentalitate la nivel de Ego supradimensionat?

Hannibal a făcut dovada unor mari calităţi de leadership, cum este persuasiunea, dar asta şi datorită Egoului supradimensionat care îi cerea să fie mereu deasupra nivelului de gândire a oamenilor din jur. El singur s-ar fi putut intitula "Omul Nou" nu doar prin prisma calităţilor sale unice, ci prin faptul că tot ce funcţiona în sensului idealului său de autoritate era acel gen de măreţie numită "eficienţă în a inspiră o senzaţie de compasiune şi empatie".

Dacă la cretani şi la micenieni locul principal în arhitectură îl ocupa palatul, atunci în zilele noastre transformarea de sine ocupă locul principal în cadrul leadershipului ca valoare absolută şi relativă. Proiectarea mentală a posibilităţilor de manifestare a omului, sondându-i sufletul până în străfundurile sale, monitorizând "temperatura" gândurilor şi emoţiilor care îl definesc în fiecare situaţie în parte, are valoarea de contract dintre furnizor şi beneficiar.

Primul, omul obişnuit, deţine calitatea de operator de date personale, dovedindu-şi disponibilitatea de a fi cercetat. Al doilea, liderul, deţine calitatea de asociat şi funcţia de administrator al activelor omului obişnuit, generând de pe urma constatărilor un venit constant de eficienţă şi productivitate în procesul de formare şi autocunoaştere.

În condiţiile unei bune gestiuni a resurselor umane, asigurându-se că elementele de unicitate sunt contabilizate în mod corespunzător şi "materialele" de ordin calitativ sunt selectate, mixate şi adaptate propriei personalităţi, liderul va reuşi să se transforme, încet-încet, într-un proprietar cu drepturi depline şi discreţionare.

Leadership: Dai dovadă de consecvenţă în abordarea cunoaşterii "simţitoare şi gânditoare", în corespondenţă cu gradul de nealterare a imaginii mentale raportată la o cauză nobilă?

Ca să poţi scoate totul din oameni pe mica imprimantă a ştiinţei conducerii, ataşată propriei staţii instinctive de condiţionare şi manipulare, trebuie să te conformezi acelei solicitări puternice de ordin etic şi social. Fă loc bunăvoinţei şi politeţii bine definite, bine conturate, ca să asiguri apropierea echidistantă dintre tine şi ei. O cunoaştere "simţitoare şi gânditoare" este elementul constitutiv al percepţiei reciproce care face ca un om să fie oglinda celuilalt.

Întrebarea fără răspuns sigur este următoarea: Dispui de mijlocul de a examina şi de a înţelege tot ce poate fi cunoscut? Sunt oamenii deschişi experimentării şi dispuşi să se autoincludă în progresele tale?

Dacă vrei să capeţi încredere în posibilităţile de autocunoaştere şi de dezvoltare personală, ridică-te deasupra gândirii oamenilor, conectându-te pe frecvenţa intrărilor şi ieşirilor de elemente active din configuraţia lor. În facultatea raţiunii umane vei găsi, după o analiză şi investigaţie psihologică, răspunsurile cele mai clare la întrebările: " Cine sunt şi cine nu sunt? "

Regulatorul suprem al leadershipului, care controlează presiunea stărilor de tranziţie ale omului, trebuie să permită schimbarea mecanismului tău din interior fără a afecta "instalaţia de foraj" în care a fost montat.

Cauza nobilă la care se raportează o imagine mentală a felului în care te raportezi la ceilalţi oameni ţine de acest "Cine sunt şi cine nu sunt" din prisma unui Ego care face totul pentru a împiedica transformarea lui într-un Sine Superior.

Domino insights scoate în evidenţă acea abilitate dezvoltată în timp de a anticipa potenţialul funcţional al omului şi posibilele obstacole apărute pe traseul cunoaşterii de sine. Căci aidoma unei piese de domino a cărei cădere antrenează un şir întreg de alte căderi consecutive, şi acest intrusionem a liderului în spaţiul uman poate declanşa un lanţ de acţiuni pro sau contra atingerii performanţei în leadership.

Conectează-ţi mintea la o sursă de energie regenerabilă, ca să poţi avea acces la o nouă dimensiune a posibilităţilor de evoluţie.

Căzusem într-o stare primejdioasă de profundă nedumerire. Căci, idealist, rătăcisem la întâmplare prin lumea secătuită a mirajelor şi iluziilor, în care aveam un rol important. Acela de a mă autodistruge. Şi, apoi, de a reînvia cu o nouă atitudine şi viziune asupra vieţii. Nu îmi găseam liniştea.

Cred că era un caz particular de rezonanţă, pe o anumită frecvenţă, cu o forţă care mă putea face invincibil între limite, armonizând oscilaţiile dintre „ deasupra " şi „ dedesubt ", dintre lumea văzută şi cea nevăzută. O punte între aceste două oscilaţii putea în mod particular să se armonizeze (sub determinismul impulsului instinctiv) cu implicarea unei forţe exterioare, nelimitată şi invincibilă, situată mai presus de măsura înţelegerii mele.

Epuizat de conflictele interioare, de solicitările care contestau orice autoritate supraindividuală, m-am oprit la intersecţia dintre cele două dimensiuni: a spaţiului şi a timpului. Simţeam în mine prăbuşirea zidurilor de apărare a aspiraţiilor de unire cu absolutul, căci cu cât aflam mai mult, cu atât se mărea necunoscutul. Izbânda asupra haosului care aproape mă copleşea uneori, putea fi dobândită numai cu participarea lui Umberto Eco la interpretarea universului meu: "Oamenii simpli au ceva în plus față de doctori, care se pierd adesea în căutarea legilor mult prea generale. Ei au intuiția individualului."

Fără nicio împotrivire mă îndepărtam de mine însumi, de Eul care mă împiedica să ating desăvârşirea. Efluviile de materie subtilă şi de energie amplificatoare, mişcându-se intensificator de la un minus de semnificaţii la un plus de coerenţă, înghesuind adevăruri şi secrete unele într-altele, dar nu în numele definitivului, închideau circuitul transformaţional.

Leadership: Lupta dintre iluzie şi viziune, alimentată de forţele tale interioare reînnoite mereu, poate să te ţină treaz şi să te incarneze, în toată devenirea ta, într-o creaţie profundă relevată ca o superioritate sui-generis?

Aspiraţia sufletului meu de a-şi făuri un nou destin desprins dintr-o realitate inaccesibilă lumii obişnuite, făcând din mine un prizonier al interiorităţii aflate în spiritul creaţiei, se cristaliza sub forma unei imagini simbol, cu trimitere la munca vechilor alchimişti. Pentru a-şi apăra ştiinţa primordială, alchimiştii, continuatorii lui Hermes, precum renumitul Elias Ashmole ale cărui lucrări l-au inspirat pe Newton, n-au încetat să abordeze în sens propriu acea profundă identificare a "Marii Opere".

Aceşti luminaţi de dincolo de ştiinţă recurgeau la un limbaj codat, la imagini misterioase şi hieroglifice despre care n-ai putea să crezi că sunt reale. Iar la acest cod al exprimării cunoaşterii nevăzute, ermetic în ochii profanului, se adăugau alte creaţii şi viziuni alcătuite din reprezentări diverse ale imaginaţiei.

Pierdut în imensitatea solicitantă a gândurilor care încercau să creeze şi transforme energia în realitate, am simţit pentru o clipă razele pale a soarelui deplasându-se de-a lungul liniei de frontieră cu perspectivele de dincolo de orizontul vizibil al vieţii. Nu eram singurul care experimenta vederea de la distanţă în căutarea unei vieţi noi, în trăirea unei vieţi condusă de forţa creaţiei, ca un fel de izbândă asupra haosului. Un personaj al lui Jules Verne ajunsese noaptea, pe întuneric, în vârful Sneffelsului şi, înainte de a se adăposti în interiorul craterului, avu răgazul să zărească "soarele de la miezul nopţii" în punctul său cel mai de jos.

Domino Insights, forţa creatoare a gândurilor care se ivesc din interacţiunea realului cu irealul. Mă cufundam într-o stare de extaz creativ fără să ţin seama de frica pe care ţi-o dau înălţimile. Mă obişnuiam cu sumbrele contemplaţii care îmi conectau mintea la o sursă de energie regenerabilă, fără să mă gândesc la cadrele luminate de necunoscut care mă puteau înstrăina de mine însumi.

Leadership: Poţi să adaugi propriei tale identităţi o sursă excelentă de decodare a unei "imaginii în oglindă" relevată sub dublu aspect: a creaţiei de sine şi a sinelui care îşi ia libertatea de a se preschimba în ce doreşte?

Reinventarea - acesta este fructul dezvoltării continue a sinelui, sursa excelentă de "venit activ" adăugat propriei tale identităţi care provine din orice activitate de susţinere şi concretizare a aspiraţiilor. A te reinventa înseamnă să conferi identităţii tale o nouă sursă de sustenabilitate şi de impact sub formă de creaţie decodată prin intermediul unei figuri de stil: "imaginea ta preschimbată într-o afirmare a permanenţei".

Aspiraţiile şi elanurile spre înălţimile creaţiei, adesea anevoioase, nu trebuie nicidecum împiedicate de linia dreaptă a unui singur drum îngust de acces spre noi posibilităţi şi viziuni. Sublimele şi îndelungile contemplări ale elementelor de viitor, create de gândurile şi stările de perfecţiune, te delimitează cu certitudine de acea mediocritate toropitoare în care cei mai mulţi indivizi se complac.

Să te reinventezi, ramificându-ţi nestingherit reţeaua proprie de aspiraţii la o secvenţă de "test" prin care să te situezi deasupra propriilor necesităţi de a accepta realitatea, aşa cum este ea, oferă siguranţă sporită nevoilor tale de a te perfecţiona continuu. "Imaginea în oglindă", care te ridică deasupra aspiraţiilor primitive ale omenirii, este viziunea pe care ţi-o dă trecerea ta într-o nouă realitate, încât să poţi contempla mai uşor minunea creaţiei.

În procesul de dezvoltare, a-ţi aduce capacităţile de creaţie la nivelul ambiţiilor cele mai nebuneşti, în urma metodelor de control şi de gestiune a propriilor resurse, este o cale de refacere şi întărire sporită a întregii tale structuri funcţionale. Care se consideră acţionată doar de eforturile de cercetare şi de maniera în care te raportezi la creaţia ta.

Ca să reuşeşti să-ţi valorifici competenţele de care ai nevoie pentru a avea acces la o nouă dimensiune a posibilităţilor de evoluţie, testându-ţi în acelaşi timp capacităţile de a face faţă schimbărilor şi de a răspunde cerinţelor individuale de performanţă, fă un experiment inovator. Conectează-ţi mintea la o sursă inepuizabilă de energie, fără să te gândeşti la cadrele luminate de necunoscut care te pot înstrăina de tine însuţi. Întăreşte zidurile de apărare ale aspiraţiilor de unire cu absolutul.

Leadership: Care este unicul lucru real din zona leadershipului care rămâne după integrarea ta în spaţiul creaţiei sub forma expansiunii gândurilor spre o nouă destinaţie?

Celui care are curajul să-şi cufunde privirile într-un cadru extins de spațiu și de timp prealabil definit. Celui care îndrăzneşte să sondeze profunzimile necunoscutului, îi va fi mai uşor să distingă unde se sfârşeşte uscatul şi unde încep să crească în intensitate valurile posibilităţilor de prelucrare a cunoaşterii.

Ca inovator în domeniul conducerii, învaţă să examinezi modul în care sunt dispuse forţele de împingere a limitelor proprii de percepţie a realităţii. Învaţă să manipulezi forţa care te poate face invincibil în procesul de întreţinere a oscilaţiilor dintre limită şi nelimitare. Creaţia este punctul cel mai înalt al libertăţii de gândire.

Explozia "luminoasă" de gânduri care îţi trec zilnic prin minte, proiectând noi idei, noi viziuni, noi modele de înţelegere a diferitelor aspecte ale realităţii, a lumii înconjurătoare şi a evenimentelor trecute, prezente şi viitoare, îţi dezvoltă capacitatea de a absorbi ceea ce este benefic zonei tale de expansiune spre noi tendinţe în leadership.

Unicul lucru real din întreaga zonă a leadershipului care rămâne după explozia "luminoasă" de gânduri, este acea pregnantă conştiinţă a sinelui care nu vrea să fie claustrat între nişte limite riguros stabilite. Şi care dispune de libertatea de decizie: de a trece peste obstacolul numit " nu cunosc ".

Leadershipul este imaginea totalităţii fiinţei guvernată de libertatea gândurilor de a plăsmui o creaţie al cărei sens unic este infinitul, aspiraţia de unire cu absolutul.

Domino Insights scoate în evidenţă, în acest caz, capacitatea de a obține o înțelegere corectă și profundă a unor noi perspective de abordare a creaţie, produse în lanţ de extinderea orizonturilor de cercetare a propriei fiinţe. Presupune deschiderea unor noi perspective de abordare a realităţii lumii şi de valorificare în folosul propriu a resurselor neutilizate de care ai nevoie pentru a-ţi extinde înţelegerea şi cunoaşterea.

Conectează-ţi mintea la o sursă de energie regenerabilă, ca să poţi avea acces la o nouă dimensiune a posibilităţilor de evoluţie.

Don't stop me now (II)

Învaţă să utilizezi relevanţa legăturii tale cu "un adânc mai înalt", acordând atenţie certitudinilor şi incertitudinilor pe care le presupune abordarea unor noi direcţii de gândire.

Îmi încleştam mintea în jurul acestui gând, aşa cum vulturul îşi încleştează adânc ghearele în carnea unei căprioare şi încearcă să o ridice de la sol. A gândului că existam printr-o metafizică proprie, prin puterea mea artistic-cauzală. Dar în acel imens schimbător al galaxiei în care evoluam, sub aspectul demersului atât de laborios şi de torturant al autenticului, o cauză nu era realmente o cauză, ci un efect de care nu eram sigur. "I'm a rocket ship on my way to Mars / On a collision course / I am a satellite I'm out of control"

Celebrul om de ştiinţă René Descartes nu doar a definit un sistem logic bazat pe descrierea fenomenelor simple, ci a construit o metafizică proprie, pornind de la metoda deductivă, şi a ajuns la concluzia că gândirea este o certitudine: "Gândesc, deci exist." Astfel, el a dedus Dumnezeirea şi lumea exterioară.

Dacă aş fi reuşit să instalez premizele unui adevăr încă nespus, prin intermediul unilateral al raţiunii ştiinţifice, prin efortul suprem al imaginaţiei pure, atunci m-aş fi aflat mult mai aproape de startul unei noi etape de evoluţie. Asemenea unui sculptor care îşi finisează opera accentuând efectele ce doreşte să le scoată în evidenţă, îmi finisam opiniile legate de credinţa că ceea ce deduceam prin exigenţă creatoare (şi printr-un soi de iluminare raţională) putea să determine cine sunt într-un fel de adânc mai înalt.

Folosesc termenul "un adânc mai înalt" pentru a exprima puterea ascunsă a înţelegerii celor trăite prin reflectie, din dorinţa neliniştit necruţătoare a înţelegerii celor întâmplate, a desluşirii adevărurilor despre măreţia lucrurilor simple şi despre simplitatea lucrurilor mari.

Leadership: Îţi demonstrezi relevanţa propriei viziuni şi capacitatea de a fi mereu cu un pas înaintea prezentului prin adăugarea unui conţinut plin de semnificaţie la editarea unei forme mai înalte de răspuns la cerinţele cunoaşterii?

Negreşit. Priveam cu toleranţă slăbiciunile unei realităţi ascunse altora, nu pentru a da impresia unei excesive atenții la detalii, facilitând preponderența artificialului, în detrimentul sentimentului de firesc remarcat, ci pentru a da o formă nouă determinărilor esenţiale ale parametriilor de evaluare şi reorientare a lumii ce mă acapara zilnic.

Cerinţele cunoaşterii care mă lumina, putând fi puse de acord cu noţiunea progresului de tipul "explozie de creaţie prin cunoaşterea adevărurilor transcendentale", erau urmatoarele: constatarea unei realitati care nu a fost descifrată pe deplin în toate consecinţele ei şi cristalizarea unei concepţii proprii despre ceea ce mi se întâmpla prin fantasticul banalităţii.

Secundar, eram convins de asigurările date de efectul unei ieşiri din mine însumi şi intrarea într-o ordine supranaturală şi spirituală, decisivă pentru reinventarea modului de a mă expune în faţa unei surse neîntrerupte de conţinut. Efect concretizat într-o înnoire de sine care mă punea într-o poziţie avantajoasă faţă de ceea ce cunoşteam, de unde puteam să privesc evenimentele vieţii fără a mai fi captivul ei. Fapt ce presupunea imediat o intrare în divinitate: "I'm floating around în ecstasy / So don't stop me now, don't stop me.”

Întotdeauna un artist, un manager al elementelor cu valoare predictivă asupra calităţii relaţiei cu propriul obiect de studiu – limbajul, într-un ansamblul de fenomene şi procese abordate prin intervenţia puterii artistic-cauzale, se lasă pradă trăirilor nemijlocite prin expresiile palpabile ale creativităţii lui. "I'm a shooting star leaping through the skies / Like a tiger defying the laws of gravity"

Una din relevanţele tale utile şi foarte folositoare evoluţiei pe scara dezvoltării, adăugate în competiţia pentru deschiderea unui orizont latent, rezultă din îmbunătăţirile sau degradările succesive la care eşti supus în încercarea de a traversa o lume transparentă, în care nu ascunzi nimic.

Această relevanţă izvorăşte din iniţiativa de a acorda atenţie certitudinilor şi incertitudinilor pe care le presupune abordarea unor noi direcţii de gândire, şi din iniţiativa de a trage concluzii sub aspectul demersului atât de laborios şi de torturant al autenticului.

Relevanţa pe care o ai ca vector de consolidare a leadershipului are ca factor dominant autoritatea pe care o reprezinţi ca potenţial furnizor de noi compoziţii intelectuale?

Relevanţa iniţiativei de a defini o zonă incertă de care depinde gândirea ta viitoare, ca expresie de sine ce explorează limitele spaţiului imprecisului şi necunoscutului, formulând câte ceva din lucrurile vagi, conferă prioritate integrării tale într-o altă versiune de putere.

Iar puterea de a găsi şi de a instala în leadership premizele unor adevăruri încă nespuse, prin intermediul unilateral al raţiunii ştiinţifice, prin efortul suprem al imaginaţiei pure, este o dovadă a faptului că, dincolo de tot ceea ce poţi concepe, forul tău interior este în expansiune.

Nu aşa se spune, că puterea este dată de informaţia pe care o porţi şi o transmiţi. Iar informaţia unei anumite combinaţii de judecăţi, aparţinând uneia dintre puţinele clase de combinaţii cărora li se opune un anumit interval de variaţie, se poate calcula şi în raport cu reperele acelor acumulări cantitative de efecte de tip „ Gândesc, deci exist " care fac posibilă transformarea ta într-un produs net superior prin „dotările" intelective.

Leadershipul, alături de relevanţele care rezultă în urma îmbunătăţirilor şi degradărilor de tip „ Poţi fi altcineva printr-un: Gândesc, deci exist ", are ca factor dominant autoritatea pe care o reprezinţi ca potenţial furnizor de noi compoziţii intelectuale, ştiinţifice sau artistice.

Compoziţia intelectuală care face cunoscută aria de investigare a leadershipului coincide cu capacitatea de a dezvolta noi semnificaţii atribuite evenimentelor şi percepţiilor subiective, trăiri şi reinterpretări ale realităţii, prin intermediul reflecţiilor asupra spiritului creator în stabilirea standardelor de proiectare ale prezentului.

Don't stop me now este o estimare, o modalitate de măsurare a relevanţei pe care o acorzi părţii conducătoare din tine care exclamă neîncetat, cu o imensă satisfacţie: „Gândesc, deci exist."

Dacă îţi finisezi constant opiniile legate de credinţa că ceea ce deduci prin exigenţă creatoare determină cine eşti într-un fel de adânc mai înalt, cu referire la o anumită logică de a raţiona prin constatări provizorii, vei avea sentimentul că poţi exista într-un altfel de decor în care tot ce este adevărat poate fi extins sau înlăturat, apărând în calitate de accente noi de stilism.

Întoarce-te la ceea ce nu cunoşti şi în acelaşi timp îndreaptă-te spre ceea ce vrei să cunoşti, încât să-ţi maximizezi şansele de a face din artă un fel de a te simţi superior.

Am ales-o pentru mine din tot ce aveam la dispoziţie, ca rezultat al unei forme de gândire superioare, adâncite în sânul unei logici de o cu totul altă structură decât logica raţională, transformată ulterior într-o senzaţie de invincibilitate. Am fost primul care a pus mâna pe ea, ceva ce nimeni nu va putea înţelege, triumful care alungă durerea, dar cu toate acestea n-o puteam desluşi decât în întuneric. "I feel alive and the world it's turning inside out, Yeah ! "

Un întuneric venit din prea multă lumină, urmărindu-mă ca o momeală de la cârlig greu de digerat. Nu trebuia decât să-mi închipui o putere imensă de la Dumnezeu, Like an atom bomb about to explode , dar neafectată de coeficienţii de corelaţie care intrau în calculul matricii de vulnerabilitate. O putere iscată printr-o împrejurare mai presus de voinţa mea, de care aveam nevoie ca să pot să-mi urmez drumul printr-o buclă retroactivă. „I'm traveling at the speed of light."

Am ales-o fiindcă era calea de promovare exclusivă a artiştilor. Această putere artistic-cauzală, partea esenţială a unei judecăţi umplute cu ceva din starea de spirit a unui Van Gogh care modulează tenta uniformă a cercurilor şi fondurilor prin plasarea tuşelor în diferite sensuri, de-a lungul unei izbucniri de contraste, înfiripa ideea construcţiei unei noi filosofii în interiorul ştiinţei.

Puterea nu era doar o bătaie de aripi izbucnită din nimic, un triumf care alungă durerea reziduală a eşecurilor trecute, între acţiuni simbolice având în sine ceva sumbru şi frământări pline de autenticitate. Ea implica o anumită ordine temporală, un anumit context de percepţie a unei realităţi ce reclamă o ancorare într-un timp repetabil, bazându-se pe o suită de evenimente şi interrelaţionări. "So don't stop me now don't stop me / Cause I'm having a good time."

Întemeietorul şcolii carteziene, Rene Descartes a creat o teorie a omului maşină, a creat geometria analitică, a descoperit principiile optice, punând, de asemenea, bazele fizicii moderne. Cum s-a întâmplat? Fiecare om, însufleţit de virtuţi dumnezeieşti, numai acolo unde se loveşte de reperele artei experimentale, pe scaunele înalte ale puterii de autodepăşire, poate da naştere unei noi forme de gândire.

Leadership: Contribui la realizarea unei forme superioare de gândire, aşezând cunoaşterea în matricea unei puteri artistic-cauzale?

Întotdeauna un artist, convins că va sparge orice tipare de gândire, va elimina din arta sa urâtul şi brutalul. Ori, va adăuga două asemenea elemente de construcţie a unei realităţi aparte, în cazul elaborării unei lucrări menite să convingă prin atenţionarea asupra importanţei pe care o au stabilirea preferinţelor şi înclinaţiilor în relevarea anumitor tendinţe de evoluţie.

Ori tocmai aici se naşte superioritatea înzestrării tale intelectuale, din capacitatea de a dezvolta şi selecta acele nuanţe, de la cele întunecate la cele luminoase, care se potrivesc realităţii pe care doreşti să o evidenţiezi. Iar puterea artistic-cauzală, partea esenţială a unei judecăţi umplute cu ceva din starea de spirit care îţi domină cel mai pregnant mintea şi personalitatea, implică o rearanjare a ordinii acelor nuanţe astfel încât să poţi practica deschiderea în faţa artei.

Leadershipul secondează senzaţia de invincibilitate pe care o atingi atunci când te adânceşti în sânul unei logici de o cu totul altă structură decât logica raţională, a unei logici care celorlalţi le scapă, care este nu atât una a sentimentului, cât mai ales a fanteziei.

Leadership: Poţi să descoperi o nouă cunoaştere inspirându-te din ceea ce nu cunoşti prin asumarea cutezanţei de a trăi într-o lume întoarsă pe dos?

Poţi contribui la realizarea unei forme de gândire superioare de gândire, aşezând cunoaşterea în matricea unei puteri artistic-cauzale, numai dacă reuşeşti să-ţi urmezi drumul printr-o buclă retroactivă – să te întorci la ceea ce nu cunoşti şi în acelaşi timp să te îndrepţi spre ceea ce vrei să cunoşti, încât să-ţi maximizezi şansele de a face din artă nu doar un fel de a te simţi superior, ci o construcţie filosofică nouă în interiorul ştiinţei.

Puţini cuteză să încerce o canalizare a acestei puteri de a se obiectiva sub dogoarea teribilă a luminii venite din prea mult întuneric, sau sub mantia protectoare a întunericului venit din prea multă lumină – putere ce se pierde adesea, asemenea unui râu care nu-şi mai urmează traseul, sub stratul gros al încadrării temporale într-un profil de configurare greşit al formulei de creaţie.

Puterea artistic-cauzală se activează din informaţiile pe care le culegi din mediul de cunoaştere pe îl creezi din interiorul şi exteriorul tău, din tot ceea ce te reprezintă în raport cu ceea ce descoperi singur. Ele îţi servesc tocmai pentru a aprecia cât mai bine nivelul de înţelegere supus unei logici subtile, pentru a apropia cât mai mult probabilităţile de depăşire a oricăror convenţii sau graniţe.

A-ţi asuma cutenzanţa de a trăi într-o lume întoarsă pe dos are în vedere actul descoperirii unor noi forme de gândire izvorâte din frânturile unei existenţe incoerente. Acest lucru se poate realiza prin exerciţiul intuiţiei şi imaginaţiei axate pe un conflict gradat şi riguros între ceea ce se vede drept o excepţie de la regulă şi ceea ce se percepe drept un sediu al iluziilor.

Marea cunoaştere care este benefică leadershipului se concretizează prin aducerea în prim plan a formei de gândire axată pe actul percepţiei unei realităţi care te face să ieşi din "normalitate", din spiritul vremii, pentru a descoperi o nouă lume.

Don't stop me now este rezultatul direct al avântului spre dobândirea unei cunoaşteri provenite din necunoaştere, adică din încercarea de a atribui întunericului şi luminii - acestor două resorturi ale creaţiei - un sens care dă bine în tabloul pe care îl prezinţi lumii.

Don't Stop The Dance

Experimentează o nouă formă de interpretare a realităţii, contribuind la crearea poveştii personale cu sângele raţiunii de a nu fi niciodată prea emoţional.

Nu voia să accepte nimic mai puţin decât îi cerea mândria, această învârtoşare furioasă a sufletului ei plin de umbre răzbunătoare, ba dimpotrivă, trebuia să caute mereu ceva nou în schimbul a tot ceea ce o făcea prizonieră într-un trecut fără viaţă, conştientizat ca o moarte continuă. Privirile ei pline de înţelesuri grave, pentru care un artist ar găsi comparaţia cu un peisaj fără viaţă, păreau a fi încărcate cu acel sentiment al deznodământului ce încheie destinul unei umanități asupra căreia s-a abătut vântul îmbătrânirii.

Nici măcar nu ţi-ai dori să îţi imaginezi aşa ceva de la un om care înalţă în faţa oricărui vis plin de speranţă un steag ce niciodată nu flutură în adierea vântului, un simplu steag şi atât, un simbol fără nicio semnificaţie, înnobilându-se în zodia unui ecou inefabil, care este pecetea poeziei. Deşertăciunea omului se măsoară în tentativele sale de a uita locul de unde a plecat, şi mai grav de atât, fără a-şi dea seama unde a ajuns să se situeze în versurile fără ecou ale unui imn de împăcare cu viaţa.

Experienţa suferinţei "pierderii de sine" permite libertatea asocierii, punerii în dialog, a unor semne de întrebare aflate la diferite grade de analizare a unei teme abordate doar în dramaturgia universală.

Singura trăire a acestei femei greu accesibile este rezultatul unui parcurs care traversează antenele instinctuale ale individului ascuns în spatele sensibilităţii deosebit de înşelătoare, coboară într-un colaj suprarealist, experimental, rece, cu tăiş de bisturiu, pentru ca apoi să urce din nou în spaţiul inerent unui Ego exacerbat şi bolnav de superioritate. Beauty should be deeper than your skin.

Adevărul e că într-un fel mă simţeam atras de faţeta aceasta a realităţii plină de umbre şi mister, percepând-o ca pe o încercare existenţială de a înţelege taina divină de transformare a omului rătăcit în patimi, într-un stadiu foarte jos al virtuţii. Abisurile unei femei rezultă din imaginaţia pe care o acorzi realităţii căreia ei îi scăpă din vedere înţelesul cel mai grăitor.

Leadership: Îţi faci un triumf din experienţa creaţiei de sine raportată la două feţe distincte ale aceleiaşi personalităţi, feţe ce se întâlnesc într-un punct convergent numit "emoţie estetică"?

Întotdeauna un scriitor excepţional îşi găseşte ca model de analiză doar personajele cel mai greu de crezut pe cuvânt, cele mai greu de acceptat sau de urmat de către spiritele tolerante, punând accent pe descrierea fenomenelor trupeşti care produc sau însoţesc procesele psihice. Trăsăturile individuale splendid observate de mine în cazul acestei femei rezidă din "natura moartă" a unui om comun, dar unul perceput numai de cele mai rare minți umane.

La ea, totul părea regizat de un fotograf care surprinde doar părţile întortocheate ale unui labirint misterios, de o unicitate ireală, încadrat între prezenţa şi absenţa unei reflecţii de ordin social, în maniera de a fixa o imagine-copie a realităţii într-un cadru al deznădejdii şi al întrebărilor fără răspuns. Un cadru al cărui fundal general este acelaşi, dar elementele de recuzită se schimbă.

Expresia unei imagini care se raportează la o altă faţetă a realităţii este, sub acest aspect, o expresie a voinţei de a ascunde orice emoţie, de a trăda orice altă intenţie decât cea declarată făţiş.

Când placi pe cineva este posibil să te îndrăgosteşti un pic, cum i se întâmplă pictorului atunci când vrea să surprindă esenţialul unei secunde săpat pe expresia chipului uman, dar trebuie să fii pregătit tot timpul de orice nereuşită a unui factor singular. A o iubi pe ea este un miraj într-un deşert vast şi pustiu. A o părăsi este similar cu eliberarea de sub vraja lui Mephisto.

O emoţie estetică este o vibraţie persistentă a sinelui convertită într-un act de simbolizare a limbajului imagistic, o formă de manifestare sufletească convertită într-o imagine care imită stilul de pictură a unui artist.

A scrie despre Ea este mai mult un soi de uimire produsă din cauza pătrunderii într-o lume stranie, un fel de îndoială foarte intensă care nu reprezintă un simptom al neîncrederii într-o minte trufaşă, ci un stimulent pentru investigația unei răni sufleteşti misterioase după cum reiese din întrebarea pe care filosoful grec Cleanthes i-o adresa demult unui tânăr discipol: "De ce eu nu simt că tu simţi?"

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să atingi o formă superioară de conştiinţă într-un spaţiu imaginativ, prin comparaţie cu o poveste pe scurt a realităţii pe care nu ai mai spus-o niciodată?

N-aş insista acum asupra portretului ei, dominat mai ales de motivul ochilor plini de vioiciune, ale cărui pleoape nu o pot înţelege, decât pe ea. Cine eşti cu adevărat? Căci ori de câte ori încerc să mă apropii mai mult de ea, aud, departe, ca într-un recul, interferența unui ecou ajuns la urechea mea asemenea unei sugestii cu iz de avertisment: ai grijă, băiete, totul e înşelător în viaţa ei, la vârsta ei, inclusiv machiajul ce scoate în evidenţă perfecţiunea trăsăturilor chipului ei.

Păstrez distanţa de ea, mai bine decât să rămânem singuri ca Faust și Margareta care sfârșesc prin a se îndrăgosti unul de celălalt. Cu un zâmbet sarcastic Mephisto şi-ar admira victoria, eu aş deveni slujitor al tărâmului de dincolo. Aş putea să cad uşor în tentaţia seducţiei, mai greu ar fi să suport iadul pe care însăşi seducţia mi-l pregăteşte. Femeia aceasta pare a fi genul de om care creează presiune asupra evenimentelor din imediata ta apropiere, doar ca să câştige o bătălie sângeroasă. Dar sângele meu nu se va vărsa niciodată în cupa sărutărilor ei primejdioase. În dosul unei guri dulci se ascunde o inimă otrăvită.

Ei bine, un asemenea model uman de neuitat îl regăsim cel mai bine conturat într-un roman al scriitoarei Mary Balogh:

"Ce orb am fost că nu am văzut asta. Ea şi-a ridicat ochii spre mine şi mi-a susţinut privirea. În ochii aceştia, care erau cea mai frumoasă trăsătură a ei, am putut să detectez durerea, ascunsă foarte adânc, sub straturile de severă stăpânire de sine. S-a iubit doar pe ea, toţi erau conştienţi de asta. În general era dispreţuită, chiar urâtă de oamenii care cădeau victima egoismului ei exagerbat. Eu voiam s-o iubesc. Voiam să găsesc drumul spre inima ei şi să fiu favoritul ei. Ce nebunie ! "

Ceea ce se vede într-o imagine plină de concreteţe este de fapt imaginea ascunsă a unei alte imagini mult mai greu de reprodus în cuvinte. În interiorul unei realităţi imaginative totul se petrece după criteriul stabilit de darul citirii gândurilor. Aici, conştiinţa îşi câştigă superioritatea prin ochiul admiraţiei faţă de profunzimea unei minţi care gândeşte totul prin opoziţii, o minte care practic contrazice ceea ce urmăreşte să expună, să convingă. Don't know why there's no sun in the sky with her.

Leadership: Poţi să construieşti un eveniment care aduce în prim-planul privitorului arta ca spaţiu de creaţie, etalând interpretări care transmit emoţii pline de afirmarea unei finalităţi transcendente?

My mother says truth is all that matters, lying and deceiving is a sin. O refugiere uşoară în închipuirea femeii plină de acea fragilitate camuflată în dosul unei măşti plină de umbre, fără de care nu s-ar putea realiza un profil artistic cât mai cuprinzător, ar putea să culmineze pe de o parte într-un protest simbolic faţă de o imagine construită doar ca să atragă simpatie, pe de altă parte într-un orizont de spirit tot mai nostalgic în faţa momentelor demult apuse.

Foarte puţine dialoguri fructuoase, amintiri deşirate, filtrări de gânduri și confirmări false de îndrăgostire, priviri aruncate într-un anumit fel, subliniate de o tăcere sumbră, m-au fixat totuşi într-o postură privilegiată de spirit tot mai asiduu marcat de bucuria creației. Drifting through a world that's torn and tattered, Every thought I have don't mean a thing. Mai precis, este vorba de momentul producerii unei fisuri între conţinutul obiectual al acţiunii ce devine un bun al conştiinţei şi mijloacele de formalizare ale unei logici care înlănţuie omul şi lumea într-un singur sistem de coordonate: trăiesc doar cât să exist.

Cred cu tărie c-o voi reîntâlni într-o bună zi, poate şi ea mă va recunoaşte, poate nu, dar cu siguranţă vom păstra distanţa unul faţă de celălalt ca două zaruri aruncate la întâmplare de mâna destinului inexorabil, ce nu mai au norocul să nimerească niciodată şase-şase. Mephisto nu-şi garantează superioritatea prin înşelăciunea sufletului omenesc, ci prin straniul joc al norocului pe care el însuşi l-a creat ca să monopolizeze o întreagă lume. Eu încă nu mi-am vândut sufletul diavolului. Şi nici nu doresc să am ghinion la zaruri.

În sfera artisticului, esenţială este viziunea pe care ţi-o formezi despre un destin inspirat din intensitatea trăirilor şi nevoilor emoţionale, care ar putea fi în acelaşi timp un tărâm inepuizabil, fertil, imaginativ, sensibil şi foarte vizual pe alocuri.

Don't Stop The Dance. Continuă să admiri firea omului, cu frumuseţea şi urâţenia lui lăuntrică, deoarece la fel ca în pictură nu va exista niciodată un tablou fără măcar un mic fond luminos alb şi o pată neagră.

Culorile va trebui să le alegi tu în nuanţele unei toamne târzii, dar atât de însorite, ca momentul de faţă în care eu scriu aceste rânduri. Ce interpretare vei da unei scene sau alta, depinde de cât de multă dăruire ai pus în crearea poveştii pe care o scrii în propriul creier şi apoi în propria viaţă cu sângele raţiunii de a nu fi niciodată prea emoţional.

Don't Think Twice, It's All Right

Depăşeşte-ţi limita cunoaşterii experimentale într-un proces al introspecţiei şi regăsirii de sine, privilegiind acceptul celorlalţi de a fi martori la evoluţia ta.

Exista ceva ascuns în mine, necontenit acelaşi, mai profund trăit la nivelul raportului dintre "Think Twice" şi "It's All Right". Ceva inclus într-o succesiune de întrebări formulate pe baza relaţiilor dintre o superioritate resemnată şi o formă de luciditate profundă. Şi asta, poate fiindcă am adăugat la trăitul meu anumite întrebări şi răspunsuri circumscrise raportului dintre sentiment şi raţiune prin intermediul unei formulări de luciditate profundă: "Orice te face să te simţi altfel, contează prin felul în care te raportezi la experienţa ta de a fi independent de clişeele unei existenţe standardizate între entertainment şi kitsch".

Era ceva neelucidat, crescând automat în mine în contact cu o energie de neînfrânt, sub puterea unui amestec de impulsuri şi condiţionări regulate, cu ajutorul unei legi de distribuţie a tăcerilor, strigătelor şi însingurărilor - pe care un pictor splendid ca Salvador Dali le-ar însera în creaţiile sale neasemuite printr-un fel de confruntare între bine şi rău. O confruntare trecută prin lentila unui ethos care nu face decât să încorseteze şi să omoare sufletul. "It ain't no use to sit and wonder why.."

Priveşte în tine însuţi, omule de rând, dar cum o face pictorul, mai din apropiere, apoi din depărtare, străbătut de suma reflecţiilor apărute în câmpul unei puteri progresive - de tipul celei care se degajă dintr-un soi de imaginar care confecţionează realitatea în funcţie de proiecţia ta în timp, sub bagheta magică a ideilor preconcepute. Dacă poţi, apropie-te de o concepţie nouă a identităţii în felul în care filosofii îşi părăsesc adăposturile întunecoase, una care ar putea fi socotită, în chip primejdios, eretică în alte timpuri: "It ain't no use in turnin' on your light". Şi poate vei regăsi acea dimensiune a personalităţii care îţi transcende limitele aparenţei.

Leadership: Cum îţi exprimi unica experienţă de a fi părtaş multiplelor confruntări cu tine însuţi din perspectiva unei trăiri care conţine condiţiile unei apropieri de viziunea unei lumi părăsite, iremediabil abandonate unei aşteptări fără de sfârşit?

Numai un Shakespeare, acest ansamblu de sensibilitate şi nobleţe spirituală care desparte orice tip de caractere prin minuţiosul simt de evaluare, ar fi putut să mă desluşească printre firele zbuciumatelor mele tentative de ascensiune spre o cunoaştere de sine mai profundă. „Still I wish there was somethin' you would do or say."

Shakespeare, aşa cum îl descrie Taine, smulge din viaţa omului un fragment, câteva fibre fremătânde din adâncul concepţiei sale complexe, din semiviziunea sa colorată, şi ni le arată. Din aceste fărâme ne rămâne să ghicim restul. În spatele fiecărui cuvânt este un întreg tablou, o atitudine, un lung raţionament prescurtat, o grămadă de idei care mişună. "It ain't no use in callin' out my name."

Şi iată-mă depăşind limita cunoaşterii experimentale, într-un proces al introspecţiei şi regăsirii de sine, privilegiind acceptul celorlalţi de a fi martori la evoluţia mea, prin prisma posibilităţii de a fi "ghicit" prin colţurile deschise ale prelatei de camuflaj numite generic: osândirea de sine. Era ca şi cum aş fi fost prizonierul unei lumi închise, iremediabil abandonate unei aşteptări fără de sfârşit: trebuia să-mi accept vina de a cuprinde o întreagă cunoaştere, fără să o pot împărtăşi lumii decât prin însăşi înstrăinarea mea de lume.

Prin văpaia privirilor necunoscute, să reuşesc să-mi personalizez raportarea la ceea ce nu eram - dar aş fi putut fi, când în mine se exercitau demonstrativ ciocniri ale formaţiunilor de rezistenţă şi protecţie, alimentând reţinerile faţă de o aşa zisă evidenţă a propriei puţinătăţi. Asta era echivalentul unui "I'm walkin' down that long lonesome road / Where I'm bound, I can't tell".

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi dovedeşti relevanţa în faţa experienţei de a fi tu însuţi, prin prisma posibilităţii de a fi rodul unui „systematic search and investigation" inclus în condiţiile unei cunoaşteri care începe cu ideea de "examinare din exterior" ?

Felul de a te raporta la o examinare din afară, la privirile străine aţintite asupra ta uneori cu aspră acuitate, în funcţie de tendinţele de te refugia în nişte convingeri de ordin inferior sau superior, se revendică în leadership de la transparenţă la opacitate.

Transparenţa se produce atunci când te situezi sub lumina clară a raţiunii, devenind o profundă oglindă a ceea ce vor ceilalţi să vadă la tine. Opacitatea este ceea ce nu se vede la tine când te opui realităţii care există prin tine, sau când te opui avântului spre înfăptuirea unui rost existenţial, evidenţiind astfel trăsăturile definitorii ale unei personalităţi îndoielnice.

A şti să te evaluezi prin prisma a ceea ce străluceşte sau apune în tine, sub puterea unui amestec de impulsuri şi condiţionări regulate care adesea opun rezistenţă la schimbare, este o virtute pe care mulţi dintre lideri se chinuie să o dobândească.

Iar prin disponibilitatea de a fi receptiv la ceea ce comunici prin „închiderea în sine", prin ceea ce transmiţi în încercarea de a depăşi limita cunoaşterii experimentale, devii mai mult decât ceea ce ştii despre tine. Devii o variantă mai bună în rezultatele de căutare ale celorlalţi - un rezultat care ţine mai mult de ceea ce ei regăsesc la tine în ei înşişi.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi dovedeşti relevanţa în faţa experienţei de a fi tu însuţi, prin prisma posibilităţii de a fi rodul orientării pe care o dă revelaţia unei noi perspective asupra realităţii care formează jurnalul intim-subiectiv al vieţii tale?

Care este fragmentul pe care ceilalţi îl pot smulge din viaţa ta, acele câteva fibre fremătânde din adâncul concepţiilor tale complexe? Ce anume pot să ghicească ei la tine şi care să-i ajute în dezvoltarea personală?

Convingerile care te limitează, izvorâte adesea dintr-un sentiment de neputinţă sau revoltă, din acel sentiment obscur al ruperii de lume, datorate poate şi fricii de ceea ce nu ştii despre tine, sau dimpotrivă, de ceea ce ţi s-a revelat în vreun fel anume, continuă vreme îndelungată să păstreze în sufletul tău o poziţie de neutralitate faţă de modul cum te percep ceilalţi.

Leadershipul, venind în prelungirea propriei evaluări realizate de ceilalţi, se poate măsura după modul în care îţi transcenzi limitele aparenţei. Să treci dincolo de ceea ce te limitează, prevenind resemnarea superiorităţii datorate ataşamentului faţă de un concret care te face neputincios în acceptarea emoţiilor proprii.

Un om poate fi superior prin ceea ce se numeşte „stagnare" numai atunci când trezeşte în ceilalţi o emoţie care îi avertizează în privinţa eventualelor efecte adverse ale orientărilor spre autorealizare.

Relevanţa ta în faţa experienţei de a fi tu însuţi ţine foarte mult de felul în care percepi schimbarea realităţii ca fiind produsul unei cunoaşteri demonstrative prin care se generează, validează şi comunică puterea ta de a fi unic, autentic.

Don't Think Twice, It's All Right evidenţiază disponibilitatea de a fi receptiv la ceea ce comunici prin „închiderea în sine”, prin ceea ce transmiţi în încercarea de a depăşi limita cunoaşterii experimentale. Poţi să devii mai mult decât ceea ce ştii despre tine, chiar un om superior, atunci când ceilalţi îţi constată „defecţiunile” şi prin aceasta reuşesc să le remedieze pe ale lor.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul tău să ia un avânt fără precedent, depăşeşte-ţi limita cunoaşterii experimentale într-un proces al introspecţiei şi regăsirii de sine, privilegiind acceptul celorlalţi de a fi martori la evoluţia ta.

Doriţi să aveţi influenţă?

On Februarie 19, 2009

Ocupă un loc mai sus în inima oamenilor, manifestând o preocupare autentică faţă de calităţile lor.

Carolus Linnaeus, considerat tatăl ecologiei moderne, s-a născut la 23 mai 1707 în sudul Suediei. Încă de mic s-a îndrăgostit atât de mult de botanică, încât chiulea de la ore şi se furişa în biblioteca scolii numai pentru a citi cărţile de botanica care se aflau acolo. Curiozitatea lui era axată pe un singur domeniu, botanica şi de aceea manifesta un dezinteres total pentru celelalte materii care se învăţau la şcoală. În ciuda faptului că tatăl său dorea cu orice preţ ca el să ajungă preot, Linnaeus şi-a urmat totuşi chemarea.

Omul potrivit la locul potrivit. Pentru că nu dorea nici în ruptul capului să se pregătească pentru preoţie, deseori aveau loc certuri şi discuţii acasă. Mare parte din copilăria lui Linnaeus a fost distrusă din cauza tatălui său care îl obliga să se pregătească pentru preoţie.

Salvarea băiatului a fost profesorul său de fizică care a intuit inteligenţa lui şi i-a pus în braţe numeroase cărţi de botanică. Profesorul a intervenit şi i-a explicat cu tact părintelui nemulţumit că fiul său va ajunge departe doar dacă îi va permite să facă ceea ce îl interesează cu adevărat: botanica. Mai mult, după ce a obţinut aprobarea părintelui, profesorul l-a luat pe băiat acasă la el şi l-a ajutat să se pregătească pentru admiterea la universitate.

Leadership: Ştii să te impui ca un moment important în dezvoltarea oamenilor mai ales prin conţinutul de referinţă care reflectă plenar concepţia ta despre sinele ideal?

Dacă eşti un făuritor de personalităţi, probabil îţi pui mari speranţe legate de faptul că forma de cunoaştere şi apropiere dintre tine şi ceilalţi oameni se va extinde, iar accesul în spaţiul lor de funcţionare va deveni mai lesnicios. Însă, împlinirea tuturor acestor speranţe nu va putea suplini niciodată absenţa corespondenţei dintre nevoi, resurse şi drepturi, din perspectiva a ceea ce oamenii ar putea să devină. Capacitatea de a te pune în locul lor, din spaţiul tău privat, va fi mereu ameninţată de fenomenul lipsei totale de potrivire.

În ce tipar de lider te încadrezi din perspectiva a ceea ce oamenii ar putea să devină? Un lider care îşi auto-evaluează autoritatea în mod constant prin comparaţie cu statusul şi realizările celorlalţi? Sau un lider care coordonează oamenii având impresia că el trebuie să controleze deciziile lor?

Ar trebui să te gândeşti mai mult poate la acele consideraţii legate de inexistenţa unei entităţi creatoare sau salvatoare, furnizoare de stimuli puternici de ridicare a oamenilor la un nivel mai înalt. În situaţia unui blocaj de realizare a transformării lor, în situaţia lipsei abilităţii de a te transpune într-un mentor, cum calculezi compatibilitatea cu factorii implicării motivaţionale în performanţa unor noi tipuri de personalităţi?

Transformarea durabilă combină introsprecția cu receptivitatea față de intervenții exterioare benefice, fapt ce declanșează potențialul tău latent.

Sinele ideal se preocupă de felul în care te vezi, în care gândeşti despre tine şi îţi conferă mentalitatea pe care o ai cu privire la diferite aspecte ale vieţii individuale şi sociale. El poate să interfereze cu percepţia, modul în care ai dori să fii sub supravegherea unui părinte spiritual, mai ales dacă intuiţia şi inspiraţia vin din unghiul unei atitudini ce glorifică preocuparea specială pentru satisfacerea anumitor forme de sprijin.

Nu vei fi niciodată dominat de un sine mai puternic decât sursa originară a talentului tău - care se datorează influenţei unui sistem de stimuli adecvaţi care ţi-au captat atenţia şi au declanşat buna dispoziţie. Cu alte cuvinte, ceea ce te ajută să progresezi spre adevărata bucurie interioară este rezultatul unei intervenţii salvatoare exterioare.

Leadership: Identitatea socială difuză din spaţiul existenţial îţi permite să reconstruieşti un sine ideal care poate deveni un arhetip individualizat în condiţiile de confidenţiale ale deciziilor luate?

Arta autentică de a te înţelege cu toată lumea şi de a te oferi drept model de urmat, de educator, în măsură a-i face pe oameni să te perceapă drept un partener egal cu ei într-un cadru specific, spre un obiectiv mult mai înălţător în viaţă, rămâne prin definiţie, un univers limitat de convenţii, dar şi de trăsături. Să însemne acest lucru că leadershipul va rămâne oarecum incert, departe de ceea ce prevezi, de ceea ce poţi reprezenta în viaţa celorlalţi oameni, departe de ceea ce îţi închipui că eşti?

E uşor de zâmbit în faţa tentativelor de apropiere de oameni, răspunzând chemării lor, prin verificarea periodică a rezultatelor vizate de aceştia, luând în calcul îmbunătăţirea calităţii procesului educaţional, pentru a face calea de urmat mai valoroasă şi mult mai accesibilă. Dar, ce-ai întreprins până acum în această privinţă? Iată o întrebare al cărei răspuns se cere pregătit pe îndelete.

A lua o decizie confidenţială în privinţa alegerii unui parcurs de dezvoltare înseamnă să fii îndeajuns de matur să recunoşti că nu ai încredere în zidul numit "limita potenţialităţii personale", tradus într-un singur fel: "adică eu nu pot fi mai bun decât atât?"

Leadership: Înţelegerea rolului tău în crearea sau menţinerea unei stări de încredere reciprocă se schimbă definitiv o dată cu fundamentarea unui nivel rezonabil de certitudine în afirmaţia "cred" ?

Carolus Linnaeus n-ar fi ajuns atât de departe dacă nu ar fi existat profesorul său de fizică. Chiar dacă toată lumea îl considera pe băiat o mare "pacoste", acest profesor a intuit de ce este în stare băiatul, că are potenţialul necesar pentru a deveni mult mai mult decât un simplu preot. De aceea l-a ajutat să-şi urmeze chemarea inimii, şi nu să se aplece în faţa dorinţei părintelui său. Contribuţia lui a fost foarte mare şi a avut un impact imens asupra vieţii băiatului.

Potenţialul tău de lider se dezvoltă, devine mai apreciat de oamenii din jurul tău numai dacă manifeşti o preocupare autentică faţă de calităţile lor. Când oamenii simt că te preocupi de persoana lor, atunci ei sunt dispuşi să te urmeze.

Manifeşti o preocupare autentică faţă de calităţile oamenilor? Poţi găsi o cale de a putea comunica cu ei indiferent de mediul din care provin? Oamenii se concentrează asupra părerilor şi sfaturilor tale? Ai capacitatea de a-i transforma în adevăraţi performeri? Se simt în largul lor cu tine? Calităţile tale de îndrumător fac din tine o persoană remarcabilă şi agreată?

Un sine pregătit pentru a evolua este beneficiarul unui ajutor răsplătit. Iar percepția de sine, influențată de stimuli externi, modelează felul în care o persoană progresează spre un ideal mai înalt.

Doriţi să aveţi influenţă? Dacă da, atunci ar trebui să cultivaţi relaţii autentice cu oamenii, dincolo de ceea ce pare evident la suprafaţă, pe motiv ca doar prin înţelegerea profundă a nevoilor lor puteţi câştiga încrederea și respectul lor.

Liderii fac mai mult decât să încurajeze oamenii, uneori îi salvează de la o viaţă mediocră, fără speranţe, fără perspective şi fără bucurii. Liderii îndeamnă oamenii să acţioneze în direcţia cea mai bună şi să rămână fideli visurilor lor. Deviza liderilor talentaţi este aceasta: " Ai un talent de la Dumnezeu, iar eu te voi ajuta să ţi-l dezvolţi. "

Nu vei putea ajunge un lider desăvârşit dacă nu eşti dispus să încurajezi eforturile oamenilor. Caută să vezi dincolo de aparenţe ce e mai bun în oameni, care este talentul lor şi întinde-le o mână de ajutor. Nu aştepta să fii recompensat pentru ajutorul pe care îl oferi, pune pe primul plan bunătatea şi generozitatea şi apoi răsplata va veni de la sine. Oamenii îşi vor dezvolta potenţialul în mare parte datorita influenţei tale. Deci asigură-te că influenţa ta este pozitivă.

Ocupă un loc mai sus în inima oamenilor, manifestând o preocupare autentică faţă de calităţile lor.

Două capitole importante din leadership

On Iulie 14, 2016

Apropie-te de leadership, formându-ţi o imagine mai precisă asupra profilului tău de căutător al punctului optim de funcţionare: între limitare şi expansiune.

Regizorul de film american D. W. Griffith i se confesează regizorului rus Sergei Eisenstein: "Jumătate din filmele mele sunt maculatură. Le-am făcut ca să pot avea banii necesari să realizez ceva pentru sufletul meu… Filme pe care le-am realizat numai pentru mine, care au fost totdeauna falimentare în reţeaua comercială… Primele au adus grămezi de aur, cele din urmă au fost numai pierderi."

Confesiunea continuă. Griffith vorbeşte despre proiectele sale. Doreşte să realizeze un film despre corupţia născută de prohibiţie: "Caut bani. Nimeni nu vrea să finanţeze o asemenea temă."

Eisenstein ascultă cu durere mărturisirile acestui veteran care este nevoit să procedeze ca un tânăr debutant. Ascultă, se îngrozeşte fără a şti încă în ce măsură soarta lui va fi şi mai cumplită, aici, în această lume fulminantă a filmelor. *

Leadership: Suporţi o suferinţă care se supune unui parcurs ce se "uzează" pe măsură ce îți asumi posibilitatea de a beneficia de „discounturi" la nivel de expectanţe?

Nu există regi în faţa sentimentului dominator de dăruire. Există doar sclavi care se conformează unui corpus preexistent de convingeri despre ei înşişi, sau care se conformează unei orientări potrivit căreia însufleţirea este considerată drept cea mai importantă dintre calităţile motrice ale omului.

Întotdeauna sistemul propriu de reglaj în zona de trecere spre un alt statut, mai responsabil, şi spre un mod de a fi care acceptă pierderi, nu doar câştiguri, se întemeiază pe baza unui efort de promovare personală de tip "Caut-Ofer". Ceea ce cauţi este direct proporţional cu preţul a ceea ce vrei să oferi.

Acest lucru – în leadership (care cere o anumită atitudine, o anumită stare de spirit în faţa a ceea ce este măreţ de înfăptuit) se asociază în principal unei variabile temporare, cu încărcătură emoţională, de tipul: "Dă lumii dreptul să te oprească ! "

Când continui să te supui împrejurărilor, în neliniştea eforturilor epuizante de a te autodepăşi şi de a te ridica la nivelul unei creaţii originale, se va întâmpla într-o bună zi să te loveşti de apogeul călătoriei tale. În acel moment gloria de a fi model sub lumina reflectoarelor va interfera cu gloria de a fi singur.

Leadershipul este bucuria omului de a se dărui continuu unei cauze măreţe. Este bucuria omului de a se redescoperi prin implicarea tot mai intensă în proiectele în care el crede, chiar şi atunci când a ajuns la apogeu călătoriei sale.

Stadiul de finalizare al unui proiect de mari dimensiuni, spărgând zidurile oarbelor determinări subiective şi obiective, psihologice şi sociale, te ajută să separi ceea ce este esenţial parcursului tău de urmat, de ceea ce nu este esenţial. Astfel vei reuşi să capeţi o imagine mai precisă asupra profilului tău de căutător al unui punct optim de funcţionare:

între limitare şi expansiune.

Cine poate suporta o suferinţă care se supune unui parcurs ce se "uzează" pe măsură ce îşi asumă posibilitatea de a beneficia de „discounturi" la nivel de expectanţe, se apropie de leadership prin faptul că se încrede în capacitatea de a-şi perpetua însuşirea de a fi mai presus de ceilalţi: puterea de a se ajuta singur.

Primul capitol important din leadership pe care trebuie să-l ai în vedere se referă la unirea dintre credinţă şi dorinţă, în încercările continue de a te autodepăşi, chiar şi atunci când lumea încetează să te mai "finanţeze".

Al doilea capitol important din leadership aduce în prim plan realitatea la care te raportezi în condiţiile de incertitudine a voinţei de înfăptuire a idealurilor proprii, dar distorsionată de procesul de expansiune al domeniului în care te încadrezi.

Două excepţii ale leadershipului

On Octombrie 14, 2016

A potrivi ceea ce percepi prin intermediul minţii într-o poveste este direct proporţional cu ceea ce faci când crezi că nu te vede nimeni.

Era o ficţiune a puterii de autodepăşire, o trăire halucinantă, începerea unei renaşteri în "divin" printr-o redescoperire a tainelor unei geometrii ştiinţifice. Ceva ce mă izbea în mod deosebit, pe mine, cercetătorul literaturii dedicate surselor generative de noi dimensiuni creative, uneori prea complicate, adâncite în zgomotul de fond ale unor himere de idei năucitoare, trepte neîndrăznite a fi urcate de oricine.

Eu însumi prezentam simptomele unei ficţiuni neverosimile. Însușirea predominantă specifică acestei ficţiuni, prin care mă reinventam, despre care un John Fowles ar afirma: "rămâne ce e de rămas când păşeşti înainte, într-o poveste căreia nu îi porţi de grijă cortinei" , constituia metafora de învăţare ce mă ajuta să accesez resursele necesare pentru schimbare, creând ceva cunoscut drept "Ego superior".

Leadership: Te-ai lăsa în voia unei puteri nebănuite, fără a sesiza esența fenomenelor care te înconjoară, dar știind că povestea ta își continuă cursul?

Îndrăznesc să afirm că m-aş fi dăruit, fără ezitare, oricărei "noua stângă", oricărui prezent inexistent in others people's mind , să mă conformez înşelăciunilor propriilor mele fantezii, inexplicabil de complexe şi cu totul în afara înţelegerii imediate. În afara sesizării şi corelării atributelor esenţiale ale evenimentelor și fenomenelor, mă lăsam alene în voia unei puteri nebănuite. Nimeni nu putea să mă vadă în ficţiunea pe care o proiectam asupra lumii, datorită faptului că lumea nu mai credea în poveşti, iar povestea mea era cât pe ce să se transforme în idealizarea misterioasei legături dintre un magician şi un om de ştiinţă.

După cum energia nu poate fi nici creată, nici distrusă, doar transformată, conform primei legi a termodinamicii, tot astfel ficţiunea unei povestiri în care eroul reprezintă o dovadă în plus a necesităţii înlăturării sale de pe scena lumii vizibile, nu se conjugă, nu se poate formula decât în proză, fiind un univers compensatoriu. În care mă refugiam atunci când echilibrul interior îmi era ameninţat de constrângerile pe care le presupune realitatea.

Leadership: Poţi să descoperi ce se află dincolo de ceea ce se poate vedea sau experimenta în mod direct, potrivind ceea ce percepi prin intermediul minţii într-o poveste care se reduce mereu la o singură temă?

Dacă vrei să preţuieşti natura și forma spiritului, atunci trebuie să îţi aminteşti ceea ce scrii despre tine însuţi, de la tinerețe până spre sfârșitul vieții, în cele mai intime aspecte ale vieții. Scrieri ce au în alcătuirea lor ceva specific: preocuparea ta pentru modul inedit de articulare a unei armonii cu sinele care se manifestă prin concentrarea asupra a ceea ce ești obișnuit să vezi și să nu crezi.

O singură temă caracterizează povestea mea, poate aţi observat: rezultatul procesului imaginativ potenţializat de o creaţie satisfăcătoare care vorbeşte într-un limbaj aproape universal despre pătrunderea Egolului într-un univers al dualităţii. Veţi avea prilejul să constataţi acest lucru dacă citiţi şi alte articole scrise de mine. Iar această temă întăreşte ideea unei comparaţii între scriitor şi creator, sub auspiciul sentimentului de superioritate, de apartenenţă la un curent literar avangardist: Nivexistyoss , sau Vocea Domnului în descoperirea unei lumi noi.

Leadership: Îţi poţi înălţa mintea la rang de crez artistic prin intermediul unei creaţii care este copia unei vizualizări a imaginii "Alpha" așezate în contextul unei înţelegeri cu tine însuți?

Ceea ce mărește valoarea ta de om care atacă permanent noi orizonturi trebuie să fie copia unei vizualizări așezate în contextul unei înţelegeri cu tine însuți. Această copie trebuie să reflecte, mai mult decât orice al episod al evoluţiei tale, acea parte a vieții mintale aflate dincolo de ceea ce crezi că eşti, dincolo de ceea ce se poate vedea sau experimenta în mod direct. Şi pe care o păstrezi ca amintire dragă.

În principiu este vorba despre artă, mai exact despre acest crez artstic: să depui toate eforturile pentru a-ţi transpune viaţa într-o creaţie care atrage toate privirile din jur. Dincolo de diversitatea nuanţelor și argumentelor care îți pot umple viaţa, examinarea poziţiei faţă de ceea ce te-ai obișnuit să vezi și să nu crezi, este de natură să cultive o nouă constatare, o anumită manifestare a arhetipului tău sufletesc, o trăire de moment care influenţează modul în care reacţionezi la ceea ce percepi dincolo de aparenţe.

Nu degeaba îl citez acum pe filosoful român Gabriel Liiceanu: „Scrisul este un mod de a te concentra asupra a ceea ce nu ştiai că ştii (asupra a ceea ce ştiai fără să ştii că ştii)".

Fiindcă a potrivi ceea ce percepi prin intermediul minţii într-o poveste este direct proporţional cu ceea ce faci când crezi că nu te vede nimeni. Este tot atât de valabil în cazul când știi ceva fără să știi de ce. Iar acest fapt, pentru purtătorul unor adevăruri de revelat, înseamnă să te regăseşti navigând într-un somn adânc și lung care domină realitatea.

Imaginea "Alpha" așezată în contextul unei înţelegeri cu tine însuți desemnează acea formă de prezenţă pe care ţi-o asigură creaţia a cărei încununare este revelaţia sursei existenţei tale ca fiinţă umană aflată mai presus de lume printr-un crez artistic: să crezi în ceea ce îţi pune la dispoziţie imaginaţia.

Două excepţii ale leadershipului ar putea fi următoarele: să te trezeşti la realitate fără să-ți amintești de tine, sau să-ți amintești de tine fără să te trezeşti la realitate. Un singur aspect este sigur în ambele cazuri: trebuie să-ţi adaptezi stilul de a fi la tonurile propriei tale resetări, oricât de false sau de adevărate sunt ele.

Două Vieţi şi Moartea în atenţia lui Dumnezeu Încearcă să prevezi cuantumul efectelor care se pot dobândi prin superioritate şi măreţie, demonstrând lumii întregi măsura capacităţii tale de a trata la modul serios ceea ce se numeşte „full control".

Culcat, nervos, gâfâind, Maximilien nu mai simţea nimic viu în el, în afară de visul acesta. I se părea că intră din plin în delirul nedesluşit care precede celălalt necunoscut, numit moartea. Ochii moleşiţi i se închiseră fără voie: şi totuşi, în dosul pleoapelor se frământa o imagine pe care o recunoscu, deşi se credea învăluit în beznă. Dar gura lui nu scoase niciun sunet. Şi, ca şi cum toate forţele i s-ar fi strâns în tulburarea aceasta lăuntrică, el suspină încercând să-şi lămurească gândurile.

Era Monte Cristo, care deschisese o uşă. Prin farmecele sale pe care nu le putea dezlega nimeni, a magicianului care ştie să hipnotizeze cu o pricepere inegalabilă simţurile şi creierul oricărui pământean, şi prin surprinzătorul lui dar de-a şti totul, contele se întrezărea a fi întruchiparea lui Dumnezeu.

Îndată, o lumină imensă se răspândi într-o cameră învecinată, sau mai bine zis într-un palat minunat, inundând încăperea unde Maximilien se lăsase în prada dulcii agonii. Atunci el văzu în pragul încăperii, la întretăierea celor două camere, o femeie nespus de frumoasă. Ea părea îngerul milosteniei înlăturând îngerul răzbunării. Era Valentine, cea pe care o crezuse moartă. Ea înaintă spre Maximilien cu o bucurie nestăpânită, pătrunsă de dragostea specifică femeii statornice în sentimente care îşi regăseşte iubitul după ani de căutări.

– Te cheamă – spuse Monte Cristo – te cheamă din fundul somnului, Valentine, cel căruia i-ai încredinţat destinul tău, iar moartea a voit să vă despartă. Din fericire eram şi eu acolo şi am învins moartea ! Valentine, de acum înainte, nu trebuie să vă mai despărţiţi cât veţi trăi, căci pentru tine el a fost în stare să se arunce în mormânt. Fără mine, aţi fi murit amândoi. Vă redau unul altuia. Fie ca Domnul să ţină seama de aceste două vieţi pe care le salvez ! *

Leadership: Bifezi o reuşită în a găsi motivaţia, determinarea şi resursele necesare pentru realizarea fuziunii dintre măreţie şi ceea ce se dovedeşte a fi un fapt ieşit din comun?

Reuşita strălucită în a găsi motivaţia, determinarea şi resursele necesare pentru realizarea fuziunii dintre măreţie şi ceea ce se dovedeşte ieşit din comun, depinde de surprinzătorul dar de a şti tot ceea ce se întâmplă şi de a cunoaşte ceea ce va urma, ca să fii pregătit să trăieşti ziua de mâine cu încredere aşteaptă.

Iar măreţia este momentul când afli că poţi schimba cursul vieţii altor oameni prin simţul regăsit al valorii sine, dar mai ales prin materializarea unei viziuni care se impune în faţa luptei dintre bine şi rău.

Măreţia are drept fundament următoarele active de leadership:

Realizarea fuziunii dintre măreţie şi ceea ce se dovedeşte a fi un fapt ieşit din comun are ca fundament forma exterioară de manifestare a credinţei într-un Dumnezeu interesat de destinul și acțiunile omului care îi este drag.

Leadership: Ai fi dispus să devii o cumpănă în lupta dintre bine şi rău, fără să fii părtinitor la o tăinuire care îşi are fundamentul în faptul că individualul e mai presus de universal?

Un iscusit vizionar va putea să prevadă cuantumul efectelor care se pot dobândi prin superioritate şi măreţie. Pentru ca leadershipul să producă o mişcare de cucerire a modului de gândire şi de înţelegere a vieţii, prin obţinerea de la oameni a unui DA total care onorează potenţialul său de impact, aceste active trebuiesc reconfigurate în funcţie de specificul situaţiilor de justificare a acţiunilor întreprinse. Deseori criteriile de justificare sunt indicatorii înfăptuirilor liderului.

O concordanţă a trăsăturilor care nu impun limite în alegerea trăsăturilor ideale ce fac din leadership un aliat fidel, se produce atunci când flexibilul şi profundul în administrarea unei lecţii de viaţă se întâlnesc cu puterea nemărginită a credinţei în supranatural.

În schimb o nonconcordanţă are loc când asprul şi solitarul geniu întruchipat în magician, un Dumnezeu al rânduielii, încearcă în chip neîndemânatic să-şi însuşească o imagine de învingător sau când, în lucidul său spirit tainic încearcă să zămislească o minune care nu poate ţine mult.

În leadership, individualul este mai presus de universal atunci când devii unicul răspunzător asupra vieţii altora, deci atunci când voinţa ta nu depinde de voinţa lui Dumnezeu, ci de izbânda ta într-o lume care te condamnă şi te judecă fără să îţi înţeleagă motivele din spatele acţiunilor.

Două Vieţi şi Moartea în atenţia lui Dumnezeu evidenţiază evoluţia omului spre obiectivul unui ideal de superioritate, supus unei credinţe fondate pe reprezentarea celor două realităţi: a binelui şi a răului, raportate la cele două constante: viaţă şi luptă - acestea nu trebuie să concureze spre ceva care să-l înalţe, ci să se impulsioneze reciproc.

Cine a înţeles leadershipul prevede cuantumul efectelor care se pot dobândi prin superioritate şi măreţie, demonstrând lumii întregi măsura capacităţii sale de a trata la modul serios ceea ce se numeşte „ full control of people's destinies ”.

Două vieţi şi un înger prinşi în plasa unui crez

Desăvârşeşte-ţi caracterul, exteriorizându-ţi toate stările sufleteşti în virtutea rolului tău.

Mă reîntorc o clipă la începutul filmului „ Vertical Limit (2000) " despre care am discutat şi în articolul precedent. Annie, Peter şi tatăl lor, Royce Garrett, se balansau suspendaţi pe o funie de versantul abrupt al muntelui, la circa 450 de metri înălţime. Funia nu îi mai putea ţine mult timp pe toţi trei.

Royce îi cere fiului său să taie funia. Acest ordin stârneşte un ecou adânc în Peter, care simte dintr-o dată povara nefericirii sale. Coşmarul vieţii a devenit pentru el o realitate, o trăire personală.

- Ascultă ce spun, Peter ! Dacă nu faci asta, sora ta o să moară ! Taie funia ! Taie odată ! Nu contează ce se întâmplă cu mine ! Taie-o ! Nu mai avem timp ! Taie-o ! exclamă tatăl său cu toată puterea şi cu toată convingerea.

Un crez care desăvârşeşte caracterul. Aceste vorbe au avut menirea să alimenteze curajul şi spiritul de sacrificiu al lui Peter, care părea să-şi aducă aminte de prima povaţă pe care i-o împărtăşise tatăl său, de acel principiu solid de leadership, de acea concepţie riguroasă despre viaţă de care acum trebuie să asculte şi să o urmeze:

Leadership: Condiţia ta de om raţional este să suporţi fapte şi consecinţe care-ţi contrazic crezurile personale, ca să verifici şi să-ţi dovedeşti că eşti sincer în ceea ce crezi sau nu crezi?

În ce tărâm al infinitului să aşezăm noi, Doamne, îngerii tăi? Două vieţi depindeau de o singură decizie, de un singur gest, de o singură cauză, de o singură conştiinţă. Cea de-a treia era deja hotărâtă de destin.

Tatăl lor, ca un înger protector, deţinând puterea de a le schimba copiilor săi simţămintele şi emoţiile în dorinţa părintească, firească, de a-i ocroti şi de a le garanta izbăvirea - ca un înger care îşi întinde aripile, pregătit să se retragă în nemurire pentru le lăsa loc copiilor săi să înţeleagă şi să accepte realitatea acestei vieţi, ca un înger care se roagă pentru o minune în rugăciunile lui mijlocitoare – a reuşit totuşi să-i anihileze lui Peter orice remuşcări şi orice tip de regret şi să-i umple golul de neîncredere şi de slăbiciune pe care îl resimţea în acel moment.

Peter, îmboldit de crezul tatălui său – crezul celor care conduc şi schimbă destine, şi-a încordat puterile sufletului şi a tăiat funia - salvând viaţa sa şi a surorii lui, cu preţul vieţii tatălui lor.

Leadership: Te conformezi mereu unei verificări interioare a cărei valoare se poate obține legând un rezultat nefast de preţul unei vieţi care se exprimă printr-un singur cuvânt:

"Remuşcare" ?

La unul din webinariile mele făceam o precizare: liderul are nevoie de un răspuns, de o reacţie pozitivă sau negativă mai ales în perioada de dezvoltare. Abilitatea lui de a se evalua, de a gândi situaţiile şi de a le face faţă - nu doar prin prisma trăirilor, ci şi a consecinţelor - constituie puterea lui cea mai mare.

Trebuie să existe o permanentă verificare interioară căreia i te se conformezi tu însuţi, în calitate de lider – şi în funcţie de rezultatul ei să fii capabil şi dispus să schimbi ceea ce nu funcţionează în viaţa ta, sau ceea ce nu poţi accepta. Această verificare, efectuată cu seriozitate, are ca scop unic şi exclusiv transformarea şi desăvârşirea propriului potenţial de conducere, fiind singurul mijloc prin care se poate dobândi acea formă concretă de realizare a sinelui.

Aşa cum un vrăjitor fierbe pentru descântecele sale toate ierburile pământului, cele bune, ca şi cele rele, obţinând în final o poţiune binefăcătoare - tot aşa şi tu trebuie să incluzi în leadershipul tău, în fiinţa ta, acele ingrediente cu proprietăţi de filtrare a setului de principii, valori şi concepţii după care te ghidezi în acţiunile tale (în cantităţile corespunzătoare) - care să nu provoace reacţii negative din partea celorlalţi, chiar dacă acestea nu respectă întotdeauna cele mai înalte standarde morale, emoţionale şi profesionale.

Răsturnarea valorilor - toate acele prăbuşiri şi urcuşuri care nu mai cunosc nicio limită, uneori sunt benefice dacă obţin acceptul celorlalţi.

Leadership: Valorile în care crezi au ca şi caracter de finalitate preţul vieţii pe care îl plăteşti pentru asumarea unui rol de vinovat într-o dramă numită "Proba Devotamentului"?

În filmul „ Vertical Limit (2000) ", Royce Garrett a reuşit să-i inducă fiului său concepţia proprie asupra leadershipului, cam ambiţioasă, asupra rolului, limitelor şi scopului unui lider - umplând tot omul său interior cu o nouă esenţă, cu o altă perspectivă, transformându-i întreaga existenţă.

Dragostea de sine nu trebuie să caracterizeze toate manifestările unui lider. Atitudinea lui faţă de alţii este un mijloc de control a propriei sale evoluţii, dar şi o formă de monitorizare a felului cum îşi exercită puterea de influenţă.

Marele merit al leadershipului constă în valoarea lui de îndreptar al valorilor, al acţiunilor pentru realizarea binelui comun, un îndreptar al aplicării filozofiei şi a felului ei de înţelegere a omului – deci, constituie un mijloc de împăcare cu tine însuti şi cu lumea din jur.

Fermitatea asociată cu capacitatea de a te face înţeles de oameni - apelând la raţiunea, dar şi la sentimentele lor - sunt "aşii" din mânecă pentru un lider. Atunci când apar situaţii limită, un lider trebuie să ştie să sacrifice ceva din sine, sacrificiul lui fiind urmat de al oamenilor, pentru ca întregul "angrenaj" să fie salvat.

Forma pe care o ia fiecare virtute când e pusă la încercare este expresia necesităţii unui sacrificiu în situaţiile dificile, de care puţini sunt capabili.

Educarea şi pregătirea oamenilor, conştientizarea aspectelor de importanţă maximă este esenţială pentru ca leadershipul să aibă o bază solidă. Cu siguranţă Royce Garrett i-a educat în prealabil pe Annie şi Peter asupra primejdiilor, asupra necesităţii sacrificiului de sine în situaţiile dificile - căci situaţia putea să fie invers, la capătul funiei să fie unul dintre ei doi – şi atunci el ar fi recurs la acelaşi gest.

Întotdeauna liderul poate să „pice”. Dar angrenajul trebuie să fie pregătit să meargă mai departe, alţii trebuie să ia locul liderului - acest „antrenament” moral, acest mod de gândire, de abordare a responsabilităţii şi de relaţionare - porneşte din copilărie, de la vârstă fragedă, şi se definitivează la vârsta maturităţii.

Liderul nu este un „Atlas” care duce în spinare o adunătură de marionete, ci un om cu tărie de caracter care este dispus să se sacrifice şi să renunţe la orice orgoliu, pentru salvarea unei colectivităţi.

Slăbiciunea de caracter seamănă cu o piatră aruncată în mare: uiţi să vezi că sentimentele de părere de rău sunt adevărate atunci când insuficienţa de a-ţi stăpâni emoţiile ajunge la fund.

Două vieţi şi un înger prinşi în plasa unui crez scoate în evidenţă acel izvor nesecat de moralitate al oamenilor care se pun în slujba leadershipului, acel izvor care revărsă peste sufletul lor înţelegerea şi înlătură blocajele emoţionale şi mentale.

Schimbarea mentalităţii oamenilor este un proces continuu, în care liderul are un rol major. Dar şi oamenii trebuie să fie dispuşi să se schimbe şi să accepte schimbarea ca un proces activ de dezvoltare individuală şi colectivă.

Spre deosebire de o partidă de şah în care se declară „mat” atunci când regele nu se mai poate mişca, şi se încheie, - în leadership, dacă liderul cade – alţii trebuie să-i ia locul.

Dovada importanţei colaborării

On Aprilie 06, 2009

Stabileşte „suprafaţa" de influenţă faţă de care se măsoară valoarea ta, integrând în leadershipul tău acele reguli pe care trebuie să le respecţi în mod consecvent.

A vrut să ajungă mai sus în ierarhia companiei şi a fost concediat.

Angajatul unei companii de electricitate, a fost selecţionat într-un program de cercetare din care a obţinut fonduri în valoare de 10.000 Euro pentru achiziţionarea unor echipamente speciale. Toate bune şi frumoase, dar el nu s-a consultat cu conducerea companiei în privinţa acestor tipuri de echipamente, pentru că pentru unele dintre ele trebuiau instalate şi componente auxiliare, altele nu aveau capacitatea corespunzătoare. Şi mai ales acest angajat a dorit să fie instalate preferenţial în sectorul său de activitate, contrar necesităţilor din alte compartimente.

A fost concediat nu atât pentru incompetent cu care a gestionat o mare parte din fonduri, ci mai cu seamă pentru atitudinea cu care a abordat chestiunea colaborării care ar fi putut fi lipsită de divergenţe.

Leadership: Personalitatea ta posedă o viziune asupra modalităţilor în care se poate evita producerea unui eveniment nedorit, în încercarea de a traversa o experienţă de viaţă de la starea de culpabilizare la una de acceptare?

Atunci când analizezi o hartă topografică din punct de vedere al reliefului este necesar mai întâi să vezi care este suprafaţa de nivel zero faţă de care s-au măsurat altitudinile punctelor.

Când vine vorba de leadership şi de îmbunătăţirea relaţiilor cu ceilalţi oameni trebuie să analizezi acele reguli pe care știi că le poți respecta tu însuți în mod consecvent, nu să te abaţi de la ele. Iar pentru aceasta este necesar să stabileşti care este „suprafaţa" de influenţă faţă de care se măsoară valoarea ta.

Aceasta suprafaţă, dacă nu este afectată de niciun fel de experienţă negativă, de niciun fel de rezultate eronate sau indicatori sub aşteptări, poate asigura o aderenţă echipei tale si poate contribui semnificativ la succesul tău şi al companiei. În caz contrar, toate demersurile tale vor eșua în primul rând din lipsă de credibilitate.

Cât de departe eşti dispus să mergi cu costurile unei acţiuni care nu acceptă dreptul la replică decât cu o oarecare urmă de culpabilitate? Reprezinţi anumite calități îndoielnice?

Leadership: Extensia personalităţii tale oferă o experiență de vizualizare superioară a aspectelor care contribuie la maximizarea valorii tale de referinţă livrate ca un întreg, cu unghiuri mai puţin largi decât ţi-ai fi dorit?

Tu cum îţi întreţii suprafaţa de influenţă? Cum le câştigi încrederea colegilor şi şefilor tăi? Eşti disciplinat în relaţia cu ei? Prezenţa ta în companie este profitabilă? Care este liantul care te uneşte de ei? Eşti previzibil? Pot ei conta pe tine? Ameninţi cu „abandonul" luând acele decizii care contravin politicilor companiei/instituţiei în care activezi?

Managerii sunt tot timpul în căutare de oameni de calitate care îşi iubesc meseria, care lucrează eficient şi care pot să aducă beneficii semnificative companiei lor. Oare ce manager nu-şi doreşte angajaţi care să gândească şi să acţioneze spre dezvoltarea dorită a companiei, care să fie încrezători în capacitatea lor de a lua o decizie şi capabili să preia iniţiativa atunci când este cazul? Da, aşa este. Toţi managerii sunt în căutare de angajaţi multifuncţionali, serioşi şi devotaţi companiei lor.

Cu toate acestea, a fi un angajat profesionist şi conştiincios nu este suficient. Trebuie să fii un model pentru ceilalţi colegi de serviciu, să îi inspiri să acţioneze într-o direcţie constructivă şi să-i determini să fie cât mai eficienţi şi mai productivi în munca pe care o desfăşoară. Trebuie să ştii pe ce butoane să apeşi pentru a schimba lucrurile din jurul tău în aşa fel încât acestea să ia o turnură favorabilă pentru companie, dar fără să exagerezi prea mult.

Valoarea ta de referinţă poate fi livrată ca un întreg şi poate fi maximizată numai printr-o imagine schimbată a ta, printr-o influenţă care previne apariţia atitudinilor negative şi prin impunerea unor valori puternice.

Leadership: Ţi-ai atribuit o însuşire care te reprezintă într-un mod definitoriu, fără să iei în calcul acea eroare de plus/minus pe care o prevede distanţa care te separă de "urmăritorul" tău?

A te strădui din greu să obţii rezultate cât mai bune astfel încât să fii văzut şi remarcat de manageri este un lucru bun. Însă există anumite limite impuse într-o companie pe care nu trebuie să le depăşeşti niciodată, cum ar fi, de exemplu, să iei o decizie fără să te consulţi cu managerii, cu şefii de compartimente sau cu colegii. A face totul de capul tău, chiar dacă din punctul tău de vedere pare că este spre binele companiei, ar putea avea un efect invers faţă de cel scontat. Mai întâi trebuie să iei la cunoştinţă dispoziţiile codului de conduită şi regulile stabilite de companie, şi abia apoi să urmezi regulile tale – dacă ştii că procedezi corect.

Individualismul, aroganţa, încăpăţânarea, lipsa de colaborare şi insubordonarea vor provoca izolarea, marginalizarea şi chiar îndepărtarea din firma a acestor angajaţi.

Ceea ce la început părea o mare bucurie s-a transformat într-un coşmar îngrozitor pentru angajatul de care vă spuneam la început, care dorind să iasă în evidenţă şi să fie mai presus decât ceilalţi colegi a acţionat în numele companiei fără să se consulte cu conducerea. A fost o greşeală fatală şi directorii au acţionat corect concediindu-l, pentru că cine face totul de capul lui riscă să ducă compania într-o direcţie eronată, poate chiar la faliment, şi nu în ultimul rând constituie un exemplu negativ pentru ceilalţi angajaţi. Cu alte cuvinte într-o companie există o ierarhie care trebuie respectată şi reguli pe care orice angajat trebuie să le respecte.

"Urmăritorul" care te ajunge întotdeauna din urmă este greşeala de a crede că o anumită situaţie vă dura o veşnicie, sau de a crede că ceilalţi cred cu tărie în tine.

Nu fă greşeala de a crede că obţinerea unor anumite rezultate bune înseamnă că ai calităţi de excepţie. Nu fă greşeala de a crede că ceilalţi se vor schimba pentru tine. Nu fă greşeala de a crede că tot ce spui şi faci este literă de lege.

Ce s-ar întâmpla dacă toţi angajaţii ar acţiona cum doresc în ciuda unor reguli pe care le-a stabilit compania? Aproape sigur haosul îşi va spune mai devreme sau mai târziu cuvântul, şi relaţia dintre angajaţi şi manageri se va dezechilibra. Aşa cum am mai spus, într-o companie unde nu există o disciplină comunicaţională, o ordine a lucrurilor, o ierarhie pe care angajaţii să o respecte, posibilitatea de dezvoltare este foarte mică.

Atât în cazul companiilor mari, cât şi în cazul companiilor mici şi mijlocii, cheia reuşitei este colaborarea. Precis ai întâlnit persoane care îşi laudă relaţia pe care o au cu şeful lor, cu colegii de serviciu şi nu în ultimul rând cu clienţii. Este un fel de linişte interioară pe care o simte fiecare om care face parte dintr-un grup şi este respectat de toţi pentru meritele pe care le are. Iar această relaţie dintre angajaţi, şefi şi clienţi se bazează în primul rând pe colaborare. Colaborarea este secretul reuşitei în orice domeniu, în toate activităţile pe care le avem de îndeplinit.

A colabora cu colegii şi mai ales cu şefii este un factor de mare importanţă şi constituie elementul cheie în dezvoltarea companiei. A colabora înseamnă să te consulţi cu şefii şi colegii în privinţa deciziilor pe care doreşti să le iei, nu să faci totul după mintea ta, după cum îţi convine ţie. O decizie care ţie ţi se pare bună şi pe care o iei fără să te consulţi cu ceilalţi, s-ar putea să fie greşită şi să pună în pericol mersul companiei.

Leadershipul este ceea ce produci singur într-un mod original din câștigurile care se opresc la tine, fără să faci greşeala de a crede că tot ce spui şi faci este literă de lege.

Lipsa colaborării şi mai ales lipsa comunicării unor date, uneori esenţiale, pot pune în pericol chiar existenta companiei sau munca şi sănătatea celorlalţi. Ce s-ar întâmpla dacă într-un laborator de analize medicale, unde anumite analize sunt lucrate în etape şi zile diferite de medici diferiţi, iar aceştia nu ar comunica între ei asupra rezultatelor obţinute în diferite etape? Cu siguranţă rezultatul final ar fi foarte departe de realitate, medicul curant nu va putea da un tratament eficient sau acest tratament dat, după o analiză de acest fel, va fi inutil sau chiar riscant.

Ce s-ar întâmpla dacă într-o fabrică de porţelanuri, un angajat care observă că compoziţia porţelanului nu este cea bună, nu ar comunica aceste constatări celor în drept care să ia măsurile de remediere? Ai ghicit. Ar însemna scăderea productivităţii şi creşterea numărului de rebuturi, ceea ce duce la pierderi materiale şi chiar la pierderea prestigiului companiei.

Când colaborăm ne aliniem şi ne armonizăm cu un scop comun, iar energiile noastre sunt canalizate în direcţii constructive. Când vine vorba de un demers pe care dorim să-l realizăm sau de o idee pe care vrem să o punem în practică, cel mai bine este să ne consultăm cu colegii şi şefii înainte de a lua decizia finală. Asta ca să fim siguri că nu greşim.

Influenţa pe care o ai într-un grup seamănă cu o pană de porumbel luată de vânt: posedă un potenţial nesfârşit de expresivitate numai atunci când redă o acţiune care va fi încheiată până la un anumit moment specificat din viitor.

Dovada măreţiei în leadership

Găseşte punctul de conexiune între ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce te defineşte, astfel încât leadershipul tău să permită o evidenţiere optimă a rolului pe care îl îndeplineşti în viaţa celorlalţi.

Ieri am citit un articol despre o profesoară care a fost premiată de regele Juan Carlos al Spaniei. Distincția i-a fost oferită pentru promovarea limbii, culturii și civilizației spaniole în România. Iar ambasadorul Spaniei la Bucureşti, Estanislao de Grandes Pascual, care s-a ocupat de organizarea ceremoniei de acordare a distincţiei, în deschiderea celei de-a VIII-a ediţie a Festivalului Naţional de Teatru şcolar în limba spaniolă, a declarat următoarele:

"Întreaga viaţă a Georgetei Vanţiu a fost, de fapt, o bătălie pentru promovarea limbii şi culturii spaniole. În anul 1986, autorităţile comuniste aveau intenţia să renunţe la limba spaniolă din programele de învăţământ. Nu s-a întâmplat asta, graţie hotărârii cu care doamna Vanţiu a susţinut programe, a semnat proteste şi a pledat, oricâte umilinţe ar fi presupus asta, pentru menţinerea materiei de studiu în sistemul de învăţământ. Ea făcea parte pe atunci dintr-o celulă de profesionişti îndrăgostiţi de cultura spaniolă, dintre care unii nu mai sunt acum în viaţă sau nu mai locuiesc în România".

Leadership: Eşti dispus să mergi până la capăt, crezând cu tărie în abilitatea ta de a iniţia schimbarea şi de a o menţine în situaţii dificile, fără să te încadrezi în nişte contexte dominate de aspectele secundare ale lumii în care alegi să crezi?

Cheile progresului în leadership sunt următoarele: curajul de a nu deveni prizonierul sistemului, abilitatea de a iniţia schimbarea şi de a o menţine în situaţii dificile, abilitatea de a fi flexibil şi de a lucra în medii diverse, abilitatea de a distinge fantezia de realitate.

Nu există decât un singur fel de a respinge ziua de mâine: a nu o trăi în sufletul celorlalţi, în armonie cu ei. Pentru ca ascensiunea ta să se producă rapid trebuie să faci primul pas demn de a fi luat în consideraţie de ceilalţi oameni: să acorzi importanţa cuvenită rolului pe care ţi-l asumi, pe care să-l îmbini la perfecţiune cu cel al liderului, ancorându-l în scenariul unei noi realitaţi. Vei avea un succes colosal numai dacă vei da dovadă de solidaritate, numai dacă vei reuşi să oferi o interpretare autentic novatoare printr-un rol plin de substanţă, plin pasiune şi de energie.

Doamna Georgeta Vanţiu a dat dovadă de un leadership eficient menit să aducă valoare – prin pasiune, prin entuziasm, prin încercarea şi reuşita ei de a menţine constant interesul oamenilor pentru o materie care nu era acceptată în sistemul de învăţământ, de către regimul comunism. Ea a demonstrat, degajând forţă de caracter, că este croită pentru un rol de mare importanţă. Aş spune că ea a fost un lider prin hotărârea fermă de a nu renunţa la iniţiativa ei, prin iscusinţa şi desăvârşirea ei de a intra în relaţie cu oamenii - dând dovadă de o mare capacitate de a înţelege importanţa factorului uman în dezvoltarea unei societăţi.

Drept urmare, rolului ei, atât de bine interpretat, care a exercitat o influenţă majoră asupra mii şi chiar zeci de mii de oameni, nu i-a lipsit aprecierile favorabile din partea "publicului" recunoscător pentru frumoasa prestaţie. Distincția ce i-a fost oferită pentru promovarea limbii, culturii și civilizației spaniole în România, a fost numai un prilej de a i se recunoaşte calităţile de lider, a reprezentat dovada propriei sale măreţii.

Leadership: Momentul în care alegi să faci o schimbare depinde de sacrificiul pe care eşti dispus să-l faci ca să accepţi că eşti în faza de refuz a unei hotărâri care marchează momentul asumării îngrădirii libertăţii proprii?

Personalitatea ta trebuie să fie definită ca cea a unui om făcut pentru roluri puternice şi complexe, unde nu există şi posibilitatea de a te abate de la hotărârile luate. Leadershipul nu trebuie să semene cu un spectacol de circ la care oamenii râd în hohote. Ci unul autentic, real, serios, plin de emoţii şi de sentimente, adaptat le propria ta viziune - un spectacol în care ceea ce pare imposibil devine posibil.

Temelia leadershipului tău are baze şubrede? Pe ce convingeri se sprijină leadershipul tău? Se bazează pe convingerea că nevoile celorlalţi oameni sunt o prioritate absolută? Se bazează pe convingerea că poţi reuşi împreună cu ei să schimbi ceea ce nu funcţionează bine, pe convingerea că trebuie să completezi ceea ce lipseşte în viaţa lor profesională?

Care sunt căile progresului tău în leadership? Progresezi prin implementarea acelor măsuri din planul tău de acţiune care se potrivesc cel mai bine nevoilor şi aspiraţiilor oamenilor (şi care pot să întreţină potenţial motor pentru dezvoltarea lor profesională)? Progresezi prin îmbunătăţirea interacţiunii cu ei? Progresezi prin a le asigura oamenilor accesul la o mai mare diversitate de resurse care să le faciliteze succesul?

Cum arăţi că ai înţeles pe deplin sensul sublim al misiunii tale?

Fiecare lider, ca şi doamna Georgeta Vanţiu, au nevoie de timp ca să urce scara leadershipului, o mulţime de lucruri trebuie făcute. Dar cel mai important este misiunea pe care ţi-o asumi. Eşti capabil să-ţi demonstrezi măreţia prin intermediul misiunii tale? Misiunea ta implică sacrificii? Îţi îngustează ea orizontul? Misiunea te poate conduce spre un profesionalism în care să ai răspuns în orice situaţii? Cum te ajută misiunea ta să ajungi la un nivel mai înalt? Care este acel unic aspect greşit pe care nu l-ai luat în calcul? Te ajută misiunea să stabileşti şi de menţii relaţii bune cu ceilalţi oameni?

Nu uita: Dacă faci ceva şi pierzi încrederea oamenilor, relaţia ta cu ei se poate rupe definitiv, cât ai clipi din ochi.

Punctul de conexiune între ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce te defineşte reprezintă de fapt un mod de a te privi pe tine însuţi ca într-o oglindă realistă care inversează (de la mare la minim) calea de a te identifica cu eroul în care vrei să te transformi.

Dovada măreţiei în leadership este însăşi puterea de a înfrunta pericolul de a-ţi pierde libertatea, în eventualitatea introducerii unei acţiuni (pe baza dreptului comun) ce poate determina o schimbare a modului de a redirecţiona un rezultat cu potenţial tragic. Pentru asta trebuie să îţi permiţi selectarea voluntară a modului de a face faţă unor situaţii limită.

Dovedeşte că eşti un lider eficace

Luminează-ţi drumul spre excelenţă, fără să permiţi "mingii" să iasă din perimetrul tău de responsabilitate.

Trei indivizi mascaţi, dotaţi cu echipamente specializate au pătruns în incinta unei bănci, reuşind să sustragă două sute de mii de lei. Camerele de filmat au surprins momentul în care aceştia au dat "marea lovitură" dar fiindcă purtau măşti nu au putut fi identificaţi.

Şeful poliţiei a fost determinat să ia măsuri urgente. I-a convocat pe toţi ofiţerii de poliţie şi le-a spus pe un ton ferm doar atât: " Justiţia trebuie să-şi spună cuvântul. Vreau ca hoţii să fie prinşi cât mai repede posibil şi să răspundă în faţa legii. Până la sfârşitul acestei săptămâni cazul va fi rezolvat. La treabă ! "

Leadership: Este necesară o revizuire de fond a actualelor criterii pentru producerea rezultatelor care să reflecte o viziune mai largă asupra impactului tău în sfera tangibilului?

Tu cum îţi valorifici potenţialul de lider? Îţi asumi responsabilitatea de a fi un model de eficacitate pentru arta de a conduce? Ai un alt model pe care să-l urmezi în afară de propria ta persoană? Cum reacţionezi la ce se întâmplă în perimetrul tău de responsabilitate? Faci lucrurile cum trebuie atunci când îi conduci pe alţii? Te concentrezi numai asupra rezultatelor?

Aşa cum omul nu a creat computerele pentru sarcini mediocre, tot astfel talentul tău de a fi o persoană practică, de a surprinde şi de a schimba latura negativă a lucrurilor, nu este limitat de nici un fel de reguli sau condiţii. Tangibilul în leadership se referă la împrejurările deosebite pe care le ai de întâmpinat în alegerea anumitor informaţii şi ignorarea altora, organizarea lor în anumite forme de răspuns la solicitările autorităţii pe care o reprezinţi în formularea unor direcţii noi de implementare a unui demers.

Criteriile pentru producerea rezultatelor care reflectă o viziune mai largă asupra impactului tău în sfera tangibilului sunt date de unicitate, nivelul de risc, reacţiile la evenimente, forma de răspuns la cererile unei situaţii spinoase, destinaţia pe care o propui pe căi directe sau ocolitoare şi solicitările obligaţiilor maxime care le pretinzi de la ceilalţi.

Leadership: Rezultatele pe care le-a obţinut la testul numit "justiţia trebuie să-şi spună cuvântul" evidenţiază faptul că corectitudinea şi transparenţa activităţilor tale constituie forme de răspuns la o nevoie irepresibilă a ființei umane: "nevoia de a fi altcineva"?

Atitudinea responsabilă este singura abordare posibilă. Odată ce ai identificat o problemă trebuie să-ţi formezi şi un sistem de convingeri prin care să respingi orice încercare de a o ocoli, trebuie să stabileşti o delimitare strictă a zonelor pe care trebuie să le tratezi printr-o intervenţie promptă, de natură să intensifice randamentul eficacităţii tale.

Dacă eşti microbist, atunci probabil ştii că toate mingile din suprafaţa porţii sunt ale portarului. În leadership, mingile din suprafaţa ta de joc reprezintă valorile şi convingerile pe care ţi le-ai format de-a lungul vieţii şi care te conduc spre excelenţă, dar numai cu condiţia obligatorie să reflecte adevărul, să se bazeze pe integritate şi onestitate.

Faptul că şeful poliţiei a dorit cu tot dinadinsul să-i prindă pe făptaşi cât mai repede i-a mobilizat pe toţi ofiţerii de poliţie să se mişte rapid şi să fie mai eficienţi. Acesta este tipul de abordare pe care o adoptă oamenii cu adevărat competenţi care, odată ce şi-au stabilit un obiectiv, nimeni şi nimic nu-i poate opri să-l atingă. Iar spiritul lor curajos atrage atenţia tuturor celorlalţi care, cuprinşi de un sentiment de puternică solidaritate, de unitate, se grăbesc să întindă o mână de ajutor fără să caute laude şi recompense.

Într-un oraş care se vrea promovat nu trebuie să existe crima organizată şi nu trebuie tolerate astfel de acţiuni de vandalism precum furturile, spargerile şi tâlhăriile comise în plină stradă, uneori la ore de vârf de faţă cu toată lumea. Şeful poliţiei ştia foarte bine că a trece cu vederea sau a nu lua imediat măsuri ferme de prindere a infractorilor, poate însemna nu numai pierderea reputaţiei sale ci şi a locului de muncă. În termeni mai simpli, cine nu-şi face treaba, cine nu se implică cu adevărat în rezolvarea problemelor riscă să-şi taie singur creanga de sub picioare.

Nevoia de a fi altcineva corespunde obiectivelor performanţei abordate din perspectiva unei viziuni care are în vedere o echitate a aprecierii importanţei sociale a muncii pe care o prestezi prin identificarea minusurilor şi plusurilor anumitor situtaţii greu de anticipat.

Tratezi problemele înainte ca ele să devină prea mari? Este clar faptul că, în lipsa unui corp de specialişti care să investigheze cazurile de jaf, lucrurile se vor mişca destul de greu. Întreaga activitate de urmărire, identificare şi prindere rapidă a infractorilor cere foarte multă muncă, îndemânare, spirit de echipă şi spirit de iniţiativă. Este într-adevăr greu, dar nu imposibil, asta ar spune detectivul Columbo. Deci, puţin mai mult optimism n-ar strica !

Un şef de poliţie care ţine la reputaţia instituţiei pe care o conduce trebuie să se asigure că infractorii vor fi prinşi într-un timp cât mai scurt, pentru a nu încuraja intenţiile infracţionale ale altora. De ce în ultima perioadă au fost jefuite atâtea bancomate şi bănci? Este limpede că hoţii au observat rapid ineficacitatea poliţiei şi au văzut în asta un mare avantaj de care au ştiut să profite. Un punct slab pentru unii creează o pârghie pentru alţii, sau cine este pe fază sesizează imediat călcâiul lui Arhile.

Vechiul proverb " Cine se grăbeşte, oboseşte iute " nu este valabil în anumite domenii sau sectoare de activitate unde regulile se schimbă sau nu sunt respectate. Ca lider trebuie să fii capabil să iei iniţiativa pentru a rezolva problemele înainte ca ele să devină prea mari şi să te asiguri că obiectivele pe care ţi le-ai propus sunt îndeplinite într-un timp cât mai scurt. În consecinţă, doar dacă vei acţiona cu multă seriozitate şi vei găsi rapid soluţii la problemele cele mai complexe, vei avea câştig de cauză şi vei strânge laurii victoriei.

Luminează-ţi drumul spre excelenţă, fără să permiţi "mingii" să iasă din perimetrul tău de responsabilitate.

Un lider efiace nu este asemenea unui jucător de fotbal care driblează în alergare mai mulți adversari, și aleargă tot terenul pentru a înscrie. Ci este asemenea unui portar care trebuie să apere şuturile altor jucători, menţinându-te în meci chiar și atunci când jocul nu iese.

P.S. Sper ca politia să rezolve cât mai rapid cazurile dificile şi fie întotdeauna cu un pas înaintea infractorilor, şi nu invers. Dar totul depinde de cei care conduc această instituţie. Sunt ei oare nişte lideri eficace?

Drama Otrăvurilor

Atribuie creației tale un sens foarte subtil, asumându-ţi îndatorirea de a depăşi limitele care te provoacă să declanșezi psihologia unei forme de răspuns la acuzațiile tale.

– Ai săvârşit aceste crime cu o iscusinţă neruşinată, dar care totuşi nu-i putea înşela decât pe oamenii gata să se lase orbiţi din pricina afecţiunii ce ţi-o purtau. Ştiam că există un otrăvitor în casă încă de când a murit doamna Saint Meran. Am fost prevenit. După moartea lui Barroois, bănuielile mele mereu treze în adâncul inimii au căzut pe cineva, chiar şi atunci când nu s-a săvârşit o crimă. Nu mai există îndoială că tu eşti ucigaşa. De aceea crima ta, cunoscută acum numai de două persoane, dar bănuită de mai mulţi, va deveni publică. Şi, cum îţi spuneam mai adineauri, nu-ţi vorbesc ca soţ, ci ca judecător !

Doamna de Villefort îşi ascunse faţa în palme.

– Vai ! – îngână ea – te rog, nu te lua după aparenţe !

– Eşti cumva laşă? strigă Villefort cu dispreţ în glas. E adevărat, am observat că otrăvitorii sunt totdeauna laşi. Oi fi cumva laşă, tu, care ţi-ai întocmit planurile drăceşti şi ţi-ai preparat băuturile ticăloase cu o dibăcie şi o iscusinţă atât de miraculoasă? Tu care ai plănuit atât de bine toate, ai uitat oare să calculezi un singur lucru, adică unde putea să te ducă săvârşirea crimelor tale? Asta e cu neputinţă. Ţi-ai păstrat o otravă mai blândă, mai pătrunzătoare, mai ucigătoare decât celelalte, ca să scapi de pedeapsa meritată…Cel puţin aşa nădăjduiesc !

Doamna de Villefort îşi împreună mâinile şi căzu în genunchi.

– Oare fiindcă eşti de patru ori vinovată ai crezut că ai să scapi de pedeapsă? Oare fiindcă eşti soţia aceluia care cere pedepsirea ai crezut că n-o vei primi? Nu, nu ! Eu exist ca să pedepsesc ! Oricine ai fi, eşafodul o aşteaptă pe otrăvitoare mai ales dacă – după cum spuneam mai adineaori – otrăvitoarea n-a avut grijă să păstreze pentru ea vreo picătură din cea mai sigură otravă a ei !

Leadership: Te recunoşti învins de scenariul unei ruperi de realitate în faţa unor certitudini care dezvăluie latura ascunsă a personalităţii tale?

Creaţia şi rostul omului sunt estimate prin intermediul realităţii pe care o aduce lumii într-un mod care îi oferă avantajul de a se reinventa, dar alteori prin modul de a concepe acordurile unei ambiţii neîmplinite. În tertipurile avocăţeşti, creaţia poate fi reprezentată de elementul constitutiv al unei acuzaţii, ţinând de un joc al moralităţii care scoate la iveală vinovăţia unei atitudini volitive.

Situaţia dată de o lovitură a sorţii, care periclitează imaginea individului, poate să reflecte mai mult decât o psihologie inversă ce culminează cu reprezentarea concretă a unei memorii stricte a emoţiilor şi durerii. Regăsim, în acest caz, acea psihologie a încălcării unor reguli de conduită care îl ţin pe individ departe de lumea reală şi de realitatea împărtăşită cu ceilalți.

Așa cum scrie la carte, psihologia inversă este o metodă prin care cineva este determinat să adopte un anumit comportament sugerându-i-se să se comporte exact în manieră inversă. Așadar, este vorba de o interpretare a realității pe care fiecare și-o creează prin credințele și gândurile sale, care este „stoarsă” prin abaterea de la contextul unei situații, prin subtile procedee de retrăire efectivă a trecutului și explorarea personalității prin intermediul construirii identităților disociative.

Limitele care te provoacă să declanșezi psihologia unei forme de răspuns la acuzațiile aduse cuiva sunt date de modul de gândire pe care îl întâmpini la asumarea angajamentului de a produce un efect de ceas: să fii discret, uşor de citit, să completezi o anumită ţinută, să afişezi o imagine corespunzătoare ipostazei pe care o consideri onorantă şi să "ticăi" când totul funcţionează corect.

Când între oameni există o interacțiune (ne vedem reciproc, putem purta o conversaţie) condiţionăm acea înţelegere a sensului oricărei manifestări. Asta implică o inspecţie amănunţită a stării care se trădează prin automatisme verbale, prin repetarea diverselor motive de îngrijorare care par a se încadra în temeiul anumitor motive de bucurie sau mulţumire.

Însă trebuie să fii foarte atent ca să depistezi o seamă de indicii ascunse prin raportarea psihicului la un criteriu exterior lui însuși, adică prin stabilirea unei dependențe liniare faţă de intensitatea retrăirii unui moment cheie din existența omului. Acest moment trebuie să surprindă legătura logică între gândurile expuse neclar și motivaţiile care au stat la baza adoptării unei decizii care l-au determinat să reacționeze.

Testează-ţi posibilitatea de a cunoaşte natura complexă a psihologiei umane, integrând într-un mod cât se poate de original aspectele cele mai divergente ale realităţii într-un set de senzaţii de deja-vu induse de condiţia de valabilitate a convingerilor şi trăirilor care alimentează Ego-ul.

Nu uita că bucuriile sau înfrângerile se pot constitui ca o reacție contestatară a celei mai grele încercări ale omului: săvârşirea unei abateri de la îndatorirea de a fi mereu în slujba vieții și a adevărului.

Manifestarea adevăratei naturi umane este o descărcare a psihicului într-un Ego promis unui spaţiu umplut cu nelinişti, din îndoielile unei existenţe care nu se mai poate împlini, oricâte sacrificii ai face.

Drama Otrăvurilor are ca prim considerent identificarea comportamentelor, a valorilor, a convingerilor care creează starea prezentă, dar şi a emoţiilor generate de o consecinţă a acţiunilor care culminează cu un act final de acuzare.

Drumul de dincolo de magie

Principalul lucru ce îl diferenţiază pe un vrăjitor de oamenii obişnuiţi este faptul că îşi folosese puterile pentru a spune povestea vieţii lui într-un mod care va contura parcursul viitor al lumii.

Am fost pentru prima dată atras de magie în urmă cu 50 de ani. (Jumătate de secol ! Cum zboară timpul !) Ce n-aş fi dat atunci să fi putut avea acces la o carte ca aceasta pe care o ţii tu acum în mână ! Însă, pe vremea aceea, astfel de cunoştinţe erau greu de obţinut. A trebuit să caut cu înfrigurare şi să fac cercetări, să urmez indicii străvechi şi cărări de mult uitate. A trebuit să cerşesc, să împrumut şi să învăţ de la cei câţiva magi mai bine informaţi pe care am reuşit să îi găsesc. De-a lungul anilor, am învăţat cum să folosesc globul de cristal, cum să ghicesc în cărţile de tarot, să vindec cu ajutorul mâinilor, să utilizez ierburi şi poţiuni şi să fac multe alte lucruri pe care nu le puteai afla de la nimeni sau care nu îţi erau în mod normal la îndemână.

Am învăţat totul despre vrăji, farmece şi cum să folosesc magia. Am parcurs un drum lung, uneori dificil. A fost însă plin de satisfacţii şi, practicând ceea ce am învăţat, am reuşit să-i ajut pe alţii şi să le aduc fericirea şi alinarea. După un timp, am devenit eu însumi profesor şi am fost astfel capabil să transmit mai departe cunoştinţele pe care le-am căpătat cu atâta trudă. Mi-am dedicat viaţa artelor magice şi transmiterii cunoştinţelor asimilate celor ce sunt gata şi vor cu adevărat să le accepte - celor ca tine.

Aceasta este un grimoar, un manual de iniţiere în vrăjitorie pe care l-am conceput special pentru tine. Lasă-te purtat într-o călătorie. Îţi va deschide calea spre un alt univers, îţi va spune cum să devii tu însuţi un vrăjitor, îţi va spune ideile şi conceptele, apoi te va conduce pe o potecă secretă care şerpuieşte printr-o pădure a cunoaşterii străvechi, cu copaci ce par uneori înspăimântători. În tot acest timp, vei învăţa că lucrurile nu sunt întotdeauna ce par a fi. Ceea ce mulţi oameni percep a fi înfricoşător, ţie nu ţi se va părea deloc aşa, ci mai degrabă ţi se va părea dătător de putere şi înălţător.

Poteca ce traversează pădurea continuă la nesfârşit, însă cu cât se afundă mai tare, cu atât mai interesant devine totul. E ca şi cum te-ai aventura în Pădurea Interzisă de lângă Hogwarts. Este un loc în care se păstrează secretele, iar misterele nu pot fi dezvăluite. *

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o promovezi despre tine poate fi substituită unei reprezentări unificatoare a existenţei trecută prin filtrul unei cunoaşteri care face abstracţie de cuvântul "putere" ?

Aşa cum poeţii îşi făuresc versurile din materia vieţii, tot astfel imperativul dezvoltării durabile se va hrăni numai din materia inepuizabilă a viziunii care se abate de la legile formale ale gândirii moderne. Magicienii cei mai iscusiţi urmează direcţia din care vine ecoul lucrurilor pe care nu le cunosc, desprinzându-se de ecoul lucrurilor pe care omul de rând este obişnuit să le înţeleagă.

O foarte mare parte a informaţiilor pe care le deţine magicianul insuflă ideea că lucrurile nu sunt totdeauna ce par a fi, iar dacă ele nu se văd înseamnă că lumea îşi focalizează atenţia în direcţia care nu trebuie. Aşadar, iluzia trebuie să fie succesul total al abaterii atenţiei, dar pentru asta ea trebuie să fie percepută ca un loc în care se păstrează secretele şi unde misterele nu pot fi dezvăluite.

O minte deschisă reprezintă un sistem de producere a unui venit individualizator, de tip "dobândă cheie", care creşte odată cu valoarea probabilităţii de producere a unor schimbări. Liderii cel mai buni ştiu foarte bine că ştiinţa nu se modelează neapărat după oameni, ci după elementele definitorii ale învăţăturilor extrase din experienţa de zi cu zi. Asta este dobânda cheie pe care o încasezi de pe urma propriilor incursiuni în perimetrul sistemului de gândire care prelucrează şi valorifică datele şi informaţiile de intrare (cele extrase din mediul extern).

Veridicitatea unui magician nu constă în experienţa pe care i-au dat-o cărţile, oricât de preţioasă ar fi ea, ci în găsirea răspunsului la întrebarea: "Cât de eficient pot deveni dacă mă compar cu înţelepciunea obţinută din cărţi?"

Iar existenţa lui este trecută prin filtrul unei cunoaşteri care face abstracţie de cuvântul "putere" fiindcă el nu caută să câştige popularitate, devotament sau foloase din partea nimănui. Orice întâlnire cu ceilalţi reprezintă un test menit să îi dovedească cât de mult a învăţat în fiecare etapă a devenirii sale, un test care poate să-i confirme abilităţi noi şi să-i deschidă noi posibilităţi de a-şi demonstra desăvârşirea.

Leadership: La capătul procesului de selecţie şi transformare a informaţiilor, poţi să devii tu însuţi o carte, dar în aşa fel încât ea să se substituie vieţii celor care o citesc?

Tototdată, magicianul poate fi eroul pe care un scriitor trebuie să-l inventeze pe parcursului drumului către propriul destin, retrăind momentele grave din viaţa unui creator care îşi intensifică valenţele atunci când nu este susţinut, când nu este încurajat, sau atunci când este marginalizat.

Astfel, valabilitatea propriei sale identităţi constă în transmiterea unei cunoaşteri asigurată de o experienţă trăită prin semnificaţii personale ale evenimentelor şi fluxului vieţii. Iar testul final al călătoriei sale, "marea trecere" spre o existenţă nemuritoare constă în aptitudinea lui de a pregăti lumea pentru o nouă poveste fără sfârşit.

Deviza "cunoaşte-te pe tine însuţi", daemonul, geniul interior al omului, duhul chinuitor şi stimulator în aceeaşi vreme, devine mai degrabă un parteneriat, un exercițiu de extindere a memoriei, de înmagazinare a informațiilor, care prin combinaţii şi asocieri diferite asigură un antrenament al gândirii, facilitând descoperirea unor noi adevăruri folositoare definirii unei noi identităţi.

La capătul procesului de selecţie şi transformare a datelor şi informaţiilor, trebuie să simţi că devenit tu însuţi o carte, cel mai complet depozit al inteligenţei omeneşti, înmagazinând în filele ei cunoştinţele ştiinţifice accesibile numai celor care doresc să învețe din experiențele tale și să aplice mai departe cele învățate.

Leadershipul îşi poate câştiga o orientare de lungă durată potrivit devizei: "Important este ceea ce înveţi de la tine în timpul trecerii de la magie la carte."

Celebrul magician şi scriitor, Oberon Zell-Ravenheart, scria în prefaţa manualului său de magie:

"Ai grijă cititorule, Stăpânul Întunericului are o putere uriaşă, fiind ajutat de oştiri nenumărate, iar influenţa lui se simte în fiecare colţ al lumii. Nu poţi spera să-l învingi prin forţa armelor, pentru că el are cele mai cumplite arme născocite vreodată şi controlează bogăţia imperiilor. Este tatăl minciunilor şi al prefăcătoriei şi îţi poate întoarce până şi părinţii împotrivă. Trebuie să-i înveţi slăbiciunile şi să te foloseşti de ele, transformându-le în lucruri care îţi dau putere: dragoste, compasiune, magie, puritatea inimii şi nobleţea sufletului. Viaţa te-a pregătit pentru această aventură. Vei avea parte de lecţii dureroase şi pline de învăţăminte, care îţi vor arăta ceea ce trebuie să cunoşti în fiecare etapă a călătoriei sale."

Magia este o carte menită să îţi reamintească faptul că totalitatea vieţii cuprinde nu doar educaţia timpurie, ci mai ales binele şi răul, şi că mai presus de această opoziţie stă atitudinea ta în faţa ei.

Drumul de dincolo de magie se poate corela cu importanţa poveştii care conturează ideea unui viitor menit să îţi capteze atenţia prin următoarea constatare: "Suntem într-un loc aflat între Lumi şi într-un timp aflat în afara Timpului. Rolul tău nu este să pleci din acest loc, ci să faci din el unul ospitalier şi fermecător."

Drumul spre adevărata performanţă

Dezvăluie oamenilor natura propriului tău eu, fără să falsifici cele mai sincere emoţii pe care vrei sa le exprimi.

În finalul filmului „ Meet Joe Black (1998) ”, Susan Parrish, fiica miliardarului William Parrish, ajunge la podul care făcea legătura cu proprietatea tatălui ei, unde îl reîntâlneşte pe Joe Black.

Privindu-l pe Joe cu ochi pătrunzători, încercând să perceapă miezul cel mai profund şi misterios al personalităţii sale, Susan îşi aminteşte cum l-a cunoscut: „Cafeneaua…” spuse ea cu o voce tandră.

Ceea ce predomina la Joe, era conştiinţa perceptibilă prin simţuri, interiorizată în suflet şi recunoscută cu mintea. El îi răspunse lui Susan:

- Iartă-mă că spun asta, dar nu am uitat niciodată… Mi-ai spus că-ţi place de mine.

- Nu… răspunde Susan cu ochii aproape înlăcrimaţi, percepând adevăratele lui sentimente… Am spus că îmi placi atât de mult…

Leadershipul tău se ghidează mai mult după impactul vizual al imaginii pe care cauţi să o surprinzi "unică şi senzaţională" prin intermediul proprietății extraordinare a sufletului de a simți o emoţie puternică?

Un om fără o conştiinţă a sinelui, un om în care nu se găseşte nicio urmă de spirit, un om care nu şi-a dezvoltat latura emoţională în aşa fel încât să-i aducă pe ceilalţi în sfera lui de influenţă, nu va putea niciodată facilita transformarea lor. Conexiunea emoţională între Joe şi Susan s-a realizat numai din raportul de "culori" sufleteşti, vii, intense, de o mare puritate. El s-a pliat la trăirile ei, şi-a subordonat întreaga lui frumuseţe emoţională propriei ei sensibilităţi şi a fost destul de precis pentru a nu trăda calitatea şi natura acestei sensibilităţi, determinând-o să-l accepte definitiv în viaţa ei.

A pătrunde în ungherele ascunse ale caracterului omului, dându-ţi seama de adevărata lui valoare şi scoţând în evidenţă latura bună a acestuia, este o calitate care se vede rar în leadership, chiar şi la liderii cei mai mari. Susan i-a transmis lui Joe Black, printr-o adâncă sinceritate, ceea ce simţea cu adevărat pentru el, dezvăluindu-şi astfel natura propriei sale fiinţe, a propriului ei „Eu” - ca o eliberare sufletească. Iată dovadă unei consistenţe sufleteşti pe care se clădeşte legătura dintre oameni.

Leadershipul este uneori asemenea unor focuri de artificii, lipsite de substanţa vitală şi de echilibru interior - se dezlănţuie scurt pe moment, încântă şi fascinează pe oricine, transformând clipa într-o amintire vie şi strălucitoare, dar apoi se face nevăzut. Acest gen de leadership nu durează fiindcă aceşti lideri întorc spatele adevăratei simţiri sufleteşti a oamenilor, şi din această cauză nu reuşesc să pătrundă esenţa personalităţii lor.

Leadership: Zona care corespunde imaginii de care te ataşezi prin intermediul emoţiilor puternice, ilustrează de fapt modul în care experienţa ta personală este cea mai bună lecţie de viaţă?

Ca să înţelegi realitatea, ca să-ţi dai seama de adevărata faţă a oamenilor, de adevărata lor valoare, nu-ţi fixa leadershipul într-o neclintire emoţională lipsită de ecou. Ci caută cu bun simţ calităţile lor cheie, alcătuirea fiinţei lor, părţile luminoase şi acceptabile pe care şi-au întemeiat inteligenţa emoţională şi afectivă, prin intermediul sentimentelor pe care le deţin şi le transmit subtil.

Aşa după cum internetul este o prelungire a revoluţiei generate de apariţia electricităţii şi a computerelor, care antrenează schimbări şi transformări profunde în viaţa noastră de zi cu zi – tot astfel puterea ta de a te raporta la oameni este o prelungire a artei tale de a te adapta adevăratelor valori pe care ei îşi clădesc viaţa - ca o consecinţă firească a unei capacităţi superioare de înţelegere a structurii lor interioare, antrenând transformări profunde în cursul existenţei lor.

Din prisma leadershipului, cea mai bună lecţie de viaţă este aceasta: "Imaginea de care te simţi cel mai atras este imaginea de care s-a ataşat Ego-ul tău în încercarea de a se schimba în bine."

Drumul spre adevărata performanţă pleacă întotdeauna de la "a simţi". Dacă nu eşti receptiv la sentimentele oamenilor, atunci ei nu-ţi vor urma niciodată exemplul. A te raporta adevăratei simţiri sufleteşti a oamenilor este singura modalitate de a-i înţelege în miezul cel mai adânc al personalităţii lor. Adevărată performanţă este să ştii să te faci văzut, să ştii să te faci auzit, să ştii să te faci înţeles prin intermediul unei imagini care trezeşte emoţii puternice.

Drumul spre adevărata performanţă este în corelaţie cu capacitatea liderului de a pătrunde esenţa lucrurilor, inclusiv esenţa personalităţii umane, sesizând ceea ce nu merge, ceea ce nu se potriveşte cu analiza obiectivă a cauzelor şi efectelor.

Drumul Trandafirului

Leadershipul este virtutea de a te înscrie într-o imagine care durează doar câteva secunde să o priveşti, dar care se imprimă în veşnicie.

Câteodată, aş vrea să fac parte din altă lume, nemuritoare şi mereu însufleţită de frumuseţea unei grădini plină de culoare, de liniştea unei stări imense de încântare, fapt care să constituie triumful binevenit al unei eliberări din captivitatea timpului, din temniţa materială a unei societăţi consumeriste şi superficiale. Aş vrea să fac parte din imaginea unei realităţi care îşi perpetuează existenţa printre palpitaţiile unei inimi mereu înflăcărate de focul sacru al gesturilor de sensibilitate, al momentelor de tandreţe din zona spiritualităţii.

Astfel, am ajuns să mă descriu prin excelenţa esteticii de a fi parte din viața de zi cu zi a unui trandafir. Asta este ceea ce se numeşte să-ţi doreşti un refugiu pentru suflet, să trăieşti o experienţă unică, ferită de necurăţie şi revărsări de vanitate. Gingăşia de neatins a trandafrului, atât de apropiată de fineţea penelului care aşterne culorile pe pânză, în stare de prim amestec de lumesc şi evelaţie, se datorează eliberării de lanţurile trupului omenesc pentru a pătrunde revelaţiile lumii suprasensibile.

Sufletul şi trandafirul, esenţa mea non-materială şi forma de expresie a întâlnirii cu altă lume, fac obiectul unei legături explicate prin faptul că două entităţi ezoterice asemănătoare se află faţă în faţă cu ceea ce pictorul va turna în formă artistică, cea mai înaltă formă a validării spirituale, prin absenţa strigătelor de disperare din mijlocul suferinţei pământeşti.

Adevărata minune pe care ţi-o dă bunul Dumnezeu este să simţi că trăieşti viaţa unei plante perene, din familia Rosaceae, surprinsă într-un tablou căruia privitorul îi poate da, numaidecât şi fără întârziere, o notă de uimitor, de veridicitate, de măreţie, de preţiozitate, de perfecţiune. În sfârşit, mă simt liber să gândesc în termeni de consens cu aspiraţiile de pace sufletească, în senzualitatea şi în bogăţia simbolică a unui trandafir care se pregăteşte cu hărnicie să-şi schimbe nuanţele pentru un alt anotimp. Sublim şi înălţător, nu-i aşa?

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti dispoziţia sufletească legată de un anumit eveniment trăit ca experienţa estetică, prin dezvăluirea unei imagini care tinde să înlocuiască lumea existentă?

După cum lesne se poate observa, factorul integrant al conştiinţei mele de a mă raporta la lume este imaginea „Eu-lui" care se structurează din următoarele componente: sublimul unei privelişti de vis, căutarea conştientă a unei fuziuni spirituale şi dispoziţia sufletească legată de un anumit eveniment trăit ca experienţa estetică.

Ispititor, am ajuns să cred într-o schimbare de perspectivă din care se înţelege şi se concepe imaginea unei noi identităţi: a lucrurilor, a întâmplărilor şi a vieţii - văzute în funcţie de capacitatea lor de a găzdui emoţia unei picturi care te transportă în altă lume. Nu este de-ajuns să te consideri o şoaptă de răspuns a liniştii pe care ţi-o furnizează mişcarea penelului, amintind de întinderile vaste ale unei sfinte încrederi într-un prezent pe care îl vrei continuat în alte timpuri, îl alte dimensiuni ale fiinţării, mai e nevoie să te conţii tu însuţi într-un dialog cu materia şi cu mijloacele de execuţie.

Iar această experienţă estetică vizează adoptarea unei sensibilităţi aparte, a unei atitudini pozitive de tipul "sunt posesor al unui rafinament înnăscut", care denotă o mare capacitate de a empatiza şi de a înţelege diversitatea naturii umane. Denotă o solidă acumulare de stări, idei şi viziuni, care tind spre exteriorizarea unui ideal de puritate şi cinste sufletească pe care îl privilegiază numai caracteristica de bază a trandafirului: de a fi întotdeauna sincer, fermecător şi elegant. De a se face tot timpul plăcut odată cu înflorirea lui.

Legătura cu artă este realizată prin farmecul puterii de a te înconjura de frumos, cu o aură pozitivă, discret, cu bun gust, aşa cum se înconjoară pictorul de petele pline de culoare care, adunate sau împrăştiate, țin privirea şi inima îndreptate parcă asupra unei imagini a paradisului, încă neterminate. Pictura mă face să nu mai cred în muritorul de rând care se pregăteşte pentru confruntarea cu limita absolută a timpului, ci la o redistribuire a înţelesului vieţii prin inducerea sentimentului de apartenenţă la un spaţiu paradisiac, cosmic, astral, al conştiinţei care priveşte totul prin ochii eternităţii.

Marea însemnătate a artei trebuie conştientizată prin exercitarea puterii de modelare a realităţii într-un context de mare vizibilitate, prin referire la un conţinut revelator de "potenţial expresiv" în construirea viziunii asupra unei lumi complet diferite.

Frumosul presupune trăinicia unor sentimente estetice, ca duioșie, măreție, visare, vitalitate, uimire, într-o temă simbolică de inspiraţie pur spirituală, cu precădere în reflexul culorilor roşu şi galben ale trandafirului.

Trandafirul este singura mea punte de legătură între lumile paralele, între frumosul artei şi aşa-numitul frumos din natură. El îmi inspiră o stare de atemporalitate, o concentrare de emoţii şi de evenimente în aceeaşi imagine, miză majoră a unui procedeu de alternanţă între bun gust şi simplitate. Ca şi când aş fi fost ispitit de vraja unei mângâieri de caşmir pur, plină de duioşie, sinceritate şi delicateţe, pe care natura o face să fie vizibilă şi palpabilă în cazul unei picturi de mare fineţe, în prim planul căreia se distinge o entitate vizual-plastică ce întruneşte condiţiile unei treziri spirituale de anvergură.

Pictura, la fel ca viaţa mea plină de căutări, bucurii şi neîmpliniri, este realitatea unei povești sensibile, de o uluitoare frumusețe, pe care numai natura o poate plămădi din roşul trandafiriu al unei clipe plină de emoţii, păstrată-ntr-o scânteie astrală, în spiritul unei renaşteri în altă formă, în alt spaţiu al universului.

Leadership: Poţi să defineşti un concept al admirației pentru conținutul tău de viaţă care se structurează (într-o operă artistică) ca un ecou al întâlnirii dintre două lumi asemănătoare legate printr-un anumit eveniment trăit autentic?

Sensul unei trăiri trebuie să determine intensitatea reacţiei omului în faţa unei experienţe de confirmare a "excepţionalului" gândit ca sens al unei vieţi care nu se topeşte prin exces. El trebuie să semnaleze sau să anticipeze ceva legat de tema trandafirului extinsă în lumina unei arte inconfundabile.

Scriitoarea Mary Balogh reuşeşte acest lucru atunci când îşi mărturiseşte apartenenţa la două trăiri suprasensibile în acelaşi timp, prin intermediul personajului ei favorit, artistul Joel Cunningham. Adică, prin continuarea utilizării sărăcăcioase a pânzei şi prin vulnerabilitatea de a sprijini viziunea unei profunde schimbări de atitudine privind rolul, conţinutul şi semnificaţia imaginii.

"Am pictat toată ziua. Am pictat furios şi fără oprire şi am ajuns la concentrarea totală de care am nevoie atunci când creez. Am pictat această femeie după schiţele pe care le-am făcut, din memorie, şi din partea aceea din mine care nu poate fi descrisă în cuvinte. Portretul nu e în niciun caz terminat, dar sunt teribil de mulţumit de el. E ceva atât de...delicat în fiinţa ei, încât mă temeam că nu voi putea niciodată să îl prind în gând, în viziune sau pe pânză. Dar cred că i-am prins frumuseţea, bucuria de a trăi, vulnerabilitatea,

Dimensiunea şi valoarea unui efect artistic este rezultatul unui şir de alăturări de semnificaţii, suprapuneri de culoare, îmbinări de cuvinte vii, intersecţii de elemente de decor, artificii de percepţie asupra realităţii, obsesii tematice, altele faţă de alăturarea iniţială.

Acestea devin normalitate la o personalitate care preia de la simbolul trandafirului o formă de sensibilitate specială, adaptată pentru recepţia şi analiza unei imagini figurate care nu poate să înceapă decât cu alegerea culorii predominante într-un anumit moment de insight , de onestitate, de luciditate şi de confesiune. La sfârşit rămâi uimit de nespusa simplitate a compoziţiei.

Leadershipul este lumea comparabilă între viaţă şi artă, văzută ca o infinitate de imagini care-şi răspund unele altora în deplină ordine, luminate de aceeaşi intensitate de roşu a sentimentului de apartenenţă la o identitate de tipul "Omul Nou" care face trecerea de la o identitate de împrumut la una reală.

Drumul Trandafirului este un concept al admirației pentru conținutul meu de viaţă care oferă privitorului o valoare intrinsecă referitoare la creaţia care continuă să mă fascineze, numită "Omul Nou".

Drumul începe de la punctul în care se declanşează înflorirea primilor boboci şi se continuă, la nesfârşit, cu strădania artistului de a oferi acel "altfel" în prezentarea unui dialog fecund pe tema unei identităţi unice, tradusă printr-o imagine caracterizată de o dominantă cromatică intensă: roşu. Pasiune. Vitalitate. Echilibru. Imaginaţie. Întinerire.

Dualitatea este rar văzută cu "ochiul liber"

Ceea ce vezi cu ochiul liber într-un plan de fundal dezvăluie legătura sensibilă dintre ceea ce contempli în natură și sinele tău reflectat în propria creaţie.

Insula Creta îmi face cu ochiul, din nou, cu o anumită mândrie, în combinație cu o anumită pensulă, cu o anumită pânză, toate vederile şi perspectivele de aici corelându-se cu o anumită subtilitate caracteristică pictorilor care ştiu să descopere frumuseţea în detalii. Are şi insula aceasta propria ei viață, liniştită, plină de soare, plină de verdeaţă, cu aspectul unui mic rai pe pământ care promite o detaşare de registrul receptării obişnuite, favorabilă vederii de profunzime. Aici simt că trăiesc pentru calitatea vieţii mele lăuntrice, înfruntând condiția enigmatică a pictorului de a întrupa o prezenţă spirituală, dând chip unei ordini cu sens și finalitate a lumii. Poate că tocmai spiritul acesta de libertate pe care insula îl poate oferi, dă măsura libertății mele de exprimare.

Evident. Am mereu admirat modul în care artiştii își exprimă conștiința prin intermediul creației, iar această legătură dintre ei și plăsmuirile lor, care se propagă în interiorul fiinţei mele şi îmi dictează totul, mă uimeşte şi mă urmăreşte neîncetat pe această insulă care încearcă o revelare a misterului Ymphia Usein Anneemins Aattya Uschellat, adevărul de dincolo de aparenţa externă a lucrurilor.

Pot, într-adevăr, să-mi păstrez echilibrul interior, starea de bine şi să găsesc o semnificaţie înaltă locului în care mă aflu, derivat de la o frumoasă întâmplare, numai dacă rămân neclintit, legat de acest pământ sfânt, în măsura în care înfrunt latura enigmatică a pictorului care păstrează permanent contactul cu natura, ţinând vie memoria impactului inițial al creaţiei asupra conştiinţei sale. Nimeni nu poate nega asta. Sincronizarea sufletului cu locul, stabilind un echilibru între "am plecat şi m-am întors", arată uluitoare condiție a unui pictor care îşi manifestă conștiința printr-un impuls de admiraţie, de polaritate pozitivă, luându-mi libertatea de a face minunat orice punct de vedere divin care aduce armonie, dar și ciocnirea dintre creaţie și suflet.

Leadership: Poţi să te oglindeşti într-un spaţiu relativ restrâns, legând între ele două realităţi complet autonome şi opuse?

Înţeleg prea bine de ce întotdeauna ochii cu care privesc totul în jur, fără să uit nimic în urmă, fără să las nimic nedescoperit, sunt bineveniţi să-mi ofere încântare mentală, o seninătate cerească, un echilibru emoţional, ori de câte ori marea cu ale ei valuri înspumate crează peisaje noi. Iar dacă între privirea mea şi creația naturii există o legătură strânsă, sub impulsul de întoarcere la nostalgia altor vremuri, relaţional cu experienţa de concentrare a unei energii omniprezente în direcţia unei asemănări între imagini şi stări de spirit, atunci impulsul nestăpânit de creaţie pe care-l simt în mine creşte în amplitudine.

Insula a fost dintotdeauna aici, dar eu n-am vizitat-o niciodată până azi. Ca atare, ceea ce mă încântă cel mai mult în acest loc de vis, plin de vrajă, plin de culoare, este că el nu se întoarce niciodată în amintire decât dacă am dorinţa de a-l uita şi de a-l face să se piardă într-un parcurs de viață anevoios, într-un joc istovitor şi disperat până la un deznodământ imprevizibil. În acest sens, pictura devine mai mult decât o simplă activitate relaxantă pentru mine, cât mai degrabă o parte integrantă a ființei mele într-un soi de imagine mentală pe care încerc să o descriu în culori vii pentru a lega între ele două realităţi complet autonome şi opuse: una este viaţa de zi cu zi, cealaltă este ce se află dincolo de ea.

Tare mult îmi încântă vederea tot ceea ce reflectă armonia naturii, culorile vibrante şi formele variate pe care insula le găzduieşte într-un spaţiu relativ restrâns. Este drept că vederea poate fi condusă de o intenție artistică și în același timp să se mențină într-un plan riguros-speculativ precum este "esteticul", dar mai întâi trebuie să știu în ce măsură pot să tratez generalul ca un fapt particular. Deci, vederea are dubla calitate de a fi suport și motiv al universalității, dar are și caracterul de a fi personală, deschisă și comunicativă în același timp, fiind atât de evidentă încât ar fi greu de negat fără vreo recunoaștere exterioară.

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate să inspire privitorului o reacție emoțională puternică, dezvăluind conexiunile profunde ale experiențelor trăite în limitele unei subiectivități deterministe?

Din păcate, insula poate să dea un sentiment de izolare, o impresie dezamăgitoare asupra conceptului de tranziţie, o mixtură înşelătoare a experienţelor conştientizate în limitele unei subiectivităţi deterministe care tinde să deformeze realitatea pentru a inspira privitorului o reacţie emoţională puternică. Ceva asemănător artei expresioniştilor care cuprindea adesea viziuni neliniştitoare, conţinând simboluri influenţate de cercetările simboliste. Iar pentru ca voi să înţelegeţi mai bine ce vreau să spun, mă voi întoarce la începutul unei povestiri celebre scrise de Hans Christian Andersen:

"Trebuie să ne întoarcem la începutul acestei poveşti, pentru ca, atunci când vom ajunge la sfârşitul ei, vom şti mai multe decât ştim acum. Şi anume, despre un drăcuşor care într-o zi se puse voios pe treabă şi meşteri o oglindă care avea puterea ca tot ce se oglindea în ea bun şi frumos să devină mic şi urât, în timp ce tot ce era mic şi urât să devină mare şi mai urât ca niciodată. Priveliştile cele mai frumoase arătau ca spanacul fiert, iar oamenii arătau hidoşi şi fără corp, părând că stau în cap. Înfăţişarea lor era strâmbă, pentru ca nimeni să nu îi poată recunoaşte, iar un singur pistrui dacă aveau pe faţă, părea că se răspândeşte pe întregul nas şi gura lor. Era foarte distractiv pentru drăcuşor. Dacă un gând nevinovat trecea prin capul cuiva, acesta era răstălmăcit de oglindă; şi cât mai râdea drăcuşorul atunci de născocirea lui cea vicleană."

Ei bine, situația pe care o creează pictorul este un fel de reflecție asupra realităţii cu care vine permanent în contact. El poate folosi arta ca pe o modalitate de a reflecta asupra propriilor experiențe, într-o anumită parte a lumii, în timp ce oglinda drăcușorului reflectă și distorsionează realitatea în oricare altă parte a lumii.

Totuşi, în ambele situații, unice prin efectul lor simbolic, există o componentă de transformare care contribuie la susţinerea artei. Dacă oglinda transformă frumusețea în urâțenie, atunci insula izolată a pictorului îi poate schimba perspectiva asupra operei de artă, care nu mai este o realitate durabilă, cât mai degrabă o minciună imperfectă. Iar în acest caz pictorul nu mai este un creator de lumi, ci un destin covârşit de conştiinţa marii erori de a nu se recunoaşte el însuşi în propriul tablou, de a nu se mai identifica cu opera sa.

Leadershipul primeşte aşa numita măsură a "conştiinţei" atunci când creaţia cu care te identifici este înţeleasă ca o ipostază a libertăţii, când nu exprimă realitatea de a trăi într-un orizont închis.

Dualitatea este rar văzută cu "ochiul liber" dacă mă gândesc la faptul că o insulă nu este completă fără un far. Iată că şi aici găsesc un asemenea far sub forma unui artist vizionar care îşi proiectează creația în lumea exterioară, iluminând și ghidând privitorul către o experiență emoțională puternică.

Încă sunt prizonierul acestei insule, dar sunt un prizonier liber, pot să visez, pot să mă pierd, pot să rămân cu amintiri frumoase, fiindcă mă las în voia imaginilor și ideilor ce dansează în jurul meu ca valurile oceanului nesfârșit.

Dublul unei priviri care încearcă să se vadă mai bine pe sine

Diferenţa există, alteritatea se construieşte. Iată primul postulat pe care se întemeiază ştiinţa expresivităţii sporite, individualizate, în artă.

Abordarea creaţiei mele porneşte de la premisa că forma optimă de constituire a unei individualităţi cu funcţie exponenţială, ce se află la intersecţia dintre simetrie şi suprarealism, nu ar putea fi satisfăcută decât prin recapitularea unei experienţe demne de o poveste, sub genericul "Realitate Fictivă". Este vorba de a-mi aminti cine sunt cu adevărat, astfel încât să pot continua creaţia propriei experienţe de viaţă la un nivel superior de conştientizare a contiguităţii dintre ce este evocat şi ce este perceput.

Până la urmă este şi asta o performanţă literară.

Asta se poate întâmpla numai când forma şi imaginea vizuală apar complet schimbate într-un spaţiu atemporal al faptului de a fi "pretutindeni şi nicăieri", ca o aventură neîntreruptă în spaţiul privat al unui artist care se revelează ca o ocheadă aruncată peste timpul istoriei și care pretinde să se realizeze ca atotcunoscător printr-o experienţă de viaţă îndelungată.

Bineînţeles, un asemenea artist nu ar vrea să lase o aparenţă care să-i schimbe întregul traseu al vieţii, ci s-ar converti într-un personaj cu puteri dumnezeieşti, plin de virtute, aşa cum este Prospero (din piesa lui Shakespeare), având puterea de conduce cu o manieră de trăire a dumnezeirii complotul unei serii de evenimente neprevăzute. El se foloseşte de vrăji, scheme și manipulări care toate funcționează în tandem ca parte a marelui său plan de atingere a statutului de "Cauzalitate Unică" .

Leadership: Poţi să ajungi la o acceptare de sine mai largă prin realizarea unui rol de excepţie exprimat în sens dublu, ca parte foarte importantă a procesului de creare a unui erou care încearcă imposibilul fără să aibă nevoie de prezentare?

Din punct de vedere al schimbării formei şi al imaginii care mă caracterizează în cazul redării unui personaj cu atitudine hotărâtoare, o instanţă demiurgică cu înfăţişare de om, deci mai degrabă în sens progresiv decât static, am reuşit să mă autodefinesc ca un ansamblu de comportamente, voci, costume, acrobaţii, trăiri în care naturalul se întâlneşte des cu supranaturalul, în diferite mişcări scenică, apariţii şi dispariţii în fum şi flăcări.

Toate acestea, definite ca atare, au fost transfigurate deseori de personalitatea Creatorului, fiind dispuse într-un ansamblu articulat de imagini dătătoare de conotaţii asupra interpretărilor ulterioare.

Evident, toate au rolul de decor complex în prezenţa unui renumit creator de măști şi costume, pentru preamărirea unei idei, a unui eveniment, a unui erou legendar, păstrând distanţa pe toată durata spectacolului printr-o invizibilitate structurală, printr-un caracter dublu, nici vizibil, nici invibizil, sau în acelaşi timp şi vizibil şi invizibil.

Să nu uităm că un magician cu valenţe de fizician categoriseşte realitatea determinând mulţimea tuturor moleculelor care pot în chip factual să reacţioneze cu ea.

Cine poate să instaureze aici o ordine, dacă nu chiar artistul genial care şi-a definit misiunea şi vocaţia - aceea de a trezi în el însuşi şi în cei din jurul său noţiunea mistică a unui erou atins de titanism şi hybris (imaginea clasică, extrem de răspândită a unui erou cu alură de supraom), având totuşi puterea de a-şi recunoaşte adevărata identitate ascunsă în spatele măştilor, în spatele personalităţii duble. Punctul culminant este atins atunci când magicianul începe să-şi confunde deghizarea cu adevărată-i identitate.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi proiectezi imaginea de sine într-o ipostază de remarcabilă stabilitate, chiar şi atunci când începi să-ţi confunzi deghizarea cu adevărata identitate?

În scenariu de film pe care l-am scris cu ani în urmă, spuneam că un magician se formează sub presiunea evenimentelor. Se transformă, îşi pierde fiinţa lui adevărată, îşi dizolvă identitatea, îşi elimină propriile slăbiciuni, încalcă orice bariere - ca apoi să dispară cu totul, apărând dintr-o dată într-o nouă ipostază - urmată la rândul ei de alte ipostaze. Mai întâi este chimist, apoi vraci, când înţelept, când fizician. Întotdeauna implicat într-un proces de acţiuni şi reacţiuni, de respingeri şi atracţii, de eliminări şi coordonări, într-o lume a simbolurilor şi a filtrelor magice create chiar de el însuşi. Din toate elementele astfel asociate se alcătuieşte un complex nou, un tip uman cu totul diferit.

Fie că este vorba de recunoaşterea mea într-un dublu al meu, dacă luăm în calcul o forţă aparte Visergeranth (prezenţa mea în "imaginea celuilalt"), datorită experienţei comunicării prin indici falşi, mimică, postură şi gesturi precis codificate, avem în faţă procesul de recunoaştere a unei alterităţi fin diferenţiatoare pe care se întemeiază dimensiunea simbolică a identităţii separate, distincte. Chiar dacă totul se petrece "în ceaţă", magaicianul îşi acceptă divinitatea, revendicându-şi conştiinţa de a fi un mijloc de expresie artistică;. câştigându-şi poziţia de "om miraculos".

Nu m-aş fi aşteptat la desfăşurarea cadrelor de la sfârşit, dincolo de care esteticul nu poate trece peste real, de la întrepătrunderea unor planuri pe care le credeam deja dispărute, la reapariţia unor personaje pe care le simţeam mai importante. Dar lucrul acesta se adevereşte numai dacă iau în calcul o putere decisivă care accentuează dinamismul imaginii, fără ca ea să cunoască legile mişcării şi ale remodelării, ca actus imperfecti.

O privire mai atentă aruncată asupra imaginii care te face să te deosebești de mulțime, dezvăluie decalajul dintre interpretarea vizuală a unei experiențe de divertisment, și realitatea care se relevă treptat prin efectele sale de clar-obscur.

Dublul unei priviri care încearcă să se vadă mai bine pe sine este atât de familiară artistului care îşi creează două imagini într-una singură, cu scopul precis de a o notă de stil performanţelor tale. Diferenţa există, alteritatea se construieşte. Iată primul postulat pe care se întemeiază ştiinţa expresivităţii sporite, individualizate, în artă.

Duhurile

Îndeamnă-ţi Ego-ul să câştige o identitate superioară în faţa celorlalţi oameni, acordând însemnătate unei realităţi mai adânci.

- Maximilien - spuse Monte-Cristo - prietenii pe care i-am pierdut nu se odihnesc în ţărână. Ei sunt înmormântaţi în inima noastră, şi Dumnezeu a voit aşa, ca să-i putem avea veşnic lângă noi. Şi eu am doi prieteni care mă însoţesc astfel întotdeauna: unul dintre ei este cel ce mi-a dat viaţa, celălalt este cel ce mi-a dat inteligenţa. Duhul lor, al amândurora, trăieşte în mine. În clipele de îndoială le cer sfatul, iar dacă fac vreun bine, asta se datorează numai sfaturilor lor. Întreabă-ţi inima, Maximilien, dacă trebuie să-mi arăţi mai departe un chip atât de răutăcios.

- Prietene - răspunse Maximilien - glasul inimii mele e cu desăvârşire trist şi nu-mi făgăduieşte decât nenorociri.

- Numai cei slabi văd totul ca printr-o pânză neagră. Sufletul îşi deschide singur orizonturile. Pentru că sufletul îţi e întunecat, el îţi arată un cer noros. *

Leadership: Cum reacţionează personalitatea ta la una din cele două alternative : "eşti o insulă stingheră" sau "o fărâmă din întreg", prin intermediul poziției asumate faţă de cerinţele sufletului şi provocările existenţei?

A great man îşi asociază mental personalitatea, experienţele, fiecare faptă, fiecare drum ales, fiecare acţiune, cu o anumită trăire şi cu un anumit sentiment, pentru a crea o armonie între ceea ce este şi ceea ce vrea să fie. Posedând suplimentar o anumită capacitate înnăscută de receptivitate spirituală, moştenind o genă a inteligenţei şi mentalităţii predecesorilor săi, un asemenea om nu se va manifesta niciodată ca o fiinţă rătăcitoare care îndură aventuri existenţiale, ci mai degrabă ca un model de virtute admirat de toată lumea.

Leadershipul se poate evidenţia ca o dominantă caracteristică a omului spiritual, în faptul că acesta acordă însemnătate unei realităţi mai adânci, aninând de orizonturile sale de generare a încrederii şi credibilităţii, contururile unei veritabile alianţe cu modele predecesoare de gândire şi virtute.

Suprafaţa spaţiului de gândire şi acţiune a unui lider posedă acea adâncime a trecătorului banal prin această lume, dar şi o perspectivă a artistului care îşi organizează tabloul în funcţie de evenimentele care-i solicită conştiinţa - percepţia acordându-se suplimentar dimensiunii unei identităţi mai cizelate. Dar şi pentru că plenitudinea unei credinţe într-o forţă mai înaltă este cea mai adecvată formă de a te considera sursa unei ordini pe care nu ai prevăzut-o, dar care te favorizează într-un fel sau altul.

Plasându-se într-o poziţie continuatoare a predecesorilor săi, în condiţiile unei suprapuneri a sferelor de apreciere a ceea ce este moral corect şi a ceea ce este greşit, un astfel de om va putea să reprezinte mai bine fundamentul unei judecăţi de valoare şi fundamentul unei convingeri profunde.

Un bun cunoscător al semnelor lumii îşi trage originile din cunoaşterea predecesorilor săi, făcându-şi un examen de conştiinţă în faţa lui Dumnezeu prin felul cum îşi deschide orizonturile în faţa unei realităţi care pare străină şi adversă.

A fi o insulă stingheră înseamnă să te îndepărtezi de forţa cauzală a evenimentelor care au o importanţă majoră pentru evoluţia ta, prin faptul că imaginea lumii din care îţi tragi originile este la dispoziţia unei conştiinţe aflată dincolo de timp şi spaţiu, a unei conştiinţe care se angajează în crearea realităţii pe care ţi-o doreşti.

Realitatea este ceea ce crezi despre tine într-un vârtej al ecourilor de viziune din alte timpuri, care te transpun într-un mod foarte realist în mijlocul acțiunii din prezent, într-un context ingenios de schimbare a cursului evenimentelor - fiindcă faci parte dintr-o inteligenţă universală care îşi continuă planul prin intermediul cunoaşterii transmise de la o generaţie la alta.

Omul în care domneşte o seninătate aproape supraomenească se situează prin excelenţă într-o zonă a interferenţelor externe - în care se pot identifica indicii ale unei potenţialităţi de cizelare şi îndrumare. Ego-ul tău poate să câştige o identitate superioară în faţa celorlalţi oameni doar dacă reuşeşti să fii mai mult decât ceea ce eşti în fiecare moment din ciclul vieţii - când ai ocazia să îţi împărtăşeşti sincer sentimentele şi dorul pentru cei dragi.

A fi o fărâmă din întreg înseamnă să te conectezi la o sursă superioară de putere, încât personalităţii tale să i se poată asocia dreptul de a fi de ajutor unei lumi care continuă să pună accent pe impactul luptei dintre bine şi tău.

Cele mai importante cerinţe ale sufletului omenesc sunt pretenţia de a deține înţelepciunea celor bătrâni, deprinderea de a merge pe urmele lor, şi nevoia de a se hrăni cu satisfacţia unei misiuni spirituale împlinite. Desigur, nimic nu este mai greu de parcurs decât un drum sufocat de nostalgia acelei „uniri în cuget şi-n simţiri" ce ne-a fost insuflată în anii copilăriei, sau de nostalgia unei iubiri de mult pierdută, sau de nostalgia lumii dinaintea căderii în păcat.

Liderul este o emblemă a predecesorilor săi, îmbogăţit cu îndrăzneală, dinamism şi inspiraţie, cu acea calitate morală ce izvorăşte din înţelepciunea pe care aceştia au lăsat în urma lor, modelându-l în a fi ceea ce ar trebui să fie: un judecător al faptelor şi al deciziilor, un mediator al dorinţei de schimbare sau o instanţă a puterii de modelare pe care ceilalţi se pot sprijini.

Cuvintele poetului englez John Donne nu se vor ofili niciodată: „ Niciun om pe lume nu-i o insulă stingheră. Fiecare om este o parte din Continent, o fărâmă din Întreg. " Toţi ne tragem din alţii. Şi tot aşa felul de a fi şi capacităţile cele mai înalte ale minţii şi chibzuirii ne sunt transmise deseori pe cale spirituală.

A ţine seama de capacitatea de cuprindere a spiritului celor care au trăit, trăiesc şi vor trăi în tine, este ceva profund, înălţător, care nu doar că te inspiră la acţiune, dar te apropie de stadiul de om superior care beneficiază de virtuţile cu care el însuşi se află în echilibru.

Leadershipul este calitatea omului investit cu o spiritualitate înaltă pentru a dovedi existenţa unei inteligenţe universale, prin asigurarea unui orizont de cunoaștere actualizat asupra percepției dintre trecut şi prezent, dintre rău şi bine.

Duhurile sunt prietenii de nădejde care trăiesc în tine, veghează constant asupra ta, sporind acele însuşiri care dau vieţii tale nobleţe, şi în acelaşi timp îţi lărgesc sfera de impact şi influenţă. Care sunt acele virtuţi pe care ai putinţa de a le săvârşi cu ajutorul lor?

Puterea de te ridica deasupra a ceea ce eşti, prin asumarea unei viziuni despre lume şi prin extinderea experienţei de utilizare a ei prin acţiune, centrându-te într-o identitate profundă şi constantă, îşi găseşte integrarea nu doar într-un ideal nobil. Ci mai presus de toate în lărgirea orizonturilor de cunoaştere şi în adâncirea relaţiilor cu cei care te-au inspirat de-a lungul vieţii.

Dumneavoastră sunteţi frumoasă şi deşteaptă, dar vă lăsaţi în voia soartei

On Mai 27, 2010

Nu poţi să potenţezi la maximum senzaţia de univers ficţional, într-o reprezentare a realităţii unde adevăratul spectacol al vieţii se desfăşoară în culise.

- Venisem, zise Samuel, să vă întreb ce veşti îmi mai daţi despre excelenţa sa, prietenul meu, contele von Eberbach. Cum mai merge dragostea?

- Prost, răspunse Olympia.

- Ei nu, cum se poate?

- Aşa este. În primele zile a fost foarte îndrăgostit, foarte tandru, foarte respectuos şi aş adăuga chiar foarte fermecător. Dar, după vreo 15 zile îndeosebi, s-a schimbat într-un mod de nerecunoscut. Este inegal, capricios, ursuz.

- Din pricină că nu v-aţi dat osteneala să-l câştigaţi. Bărbaţii sunt atât de proşti, încât măreţia şi simplitatea îi resping în loc să-i atragă. Doar josniciile şi viclenia îi reţin. Există nenumărate mijloace de a-i domestici, iar frumuseţea sau inteligenţa nu înseamnă nimic, dacă nu ştii să le foloseşti. Dumneavoastră sunteţi frumoasă şi deşteaptă, dar vă lăsaţi în voia soartei. Este o mare prostie ! Sunteţi fermecătoare, vă risipiţi, sunteţi bună, sunteţi absurdă. I-aţi satisfăcut capriciile în loc să-i măriţi interesul, rezistându-i. El v-a rugat să vă îmbrăcaţi într-un anume fel ca să-i reamintiţi de o femeie căreia îi semănaţi. Tot el v-a cerut să vă puneţi şaluri de o anumită culoare, să vă pieptănaţi într-un anumit fel. Iar dumneavoastră i-aţi îndeplinit toate fanteziile cu o răbdare şi o blândeţe total lipsite de abilitate, îngăduiţi-mi s-o spun. Obstacolul este principalul magnet al dorinţei umane, şi chiar dacă pare o naivitate, trebuie să recunoaştem, că ceea ce ai nu mai doreşti.

- Ce-aş putea să vă spun? zise Olympia. Contele von Eberbach este un om egoist, exigent, posesiv chiar. Se vede că vrea totul doar pentru sine. Are dorinţele imperioase ale slăbiciunii şi ale bolii. Nu-ţi oferă nimic din sufletul său, dar vrea totuşi din al tău. Ceea ce el iubeşte, sau ceea ce a iubit la un moment dat în mine, nu sunt eu, este asemănarea mea cu altă femeie. Este o moartă, este o sigură dispărută care a luat odată cu ea şi viaţa lui în mormânt. Puteam să-i refuz fericirea acestei amintiri sacre? Nu eram geloasă pe moartă: el o iubea, eu îl ajutam s-o iubească. Dar acum, mi-e teamă să n-o fi uitat-o şi pe ea, ca pe atâtea altele, şi că biata moartă să nu fi murit pentru a doua şi ultima oară. Iar Eu, pentru care arta a devenit toată viaţa mea, pot eu, de exemplu, să accept să renunţ pentru totdeauna la teatru şi la muzică, poate, aşa cum îmi cere dânsul? Ceea ce-i trebuie lui nu este nici o soţie, nici o amantă, ci ceva precum o fiică. Tot ceea ce seamănă cu o voinţă, o dorinţă, o pasiune sau o idee puţin mai îndrăzneaţă, îl oboseşte.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să potenţezi la maximum senzaţia de univers ficţional pentru a obţine certitudinea unui fapt care dezvăluie emoţiile unei suferinţe adânci, neîmpărtăşite?

Această privire aruncată în inima universului tainic al omului bogat, trufaş şi posesiv, nelinişteşte până la epuizare pe oricine. Este vorba despre o afecţiune psihică des întâlnită ce se exteriorizează în urletul unei conştiinţe care nu se împacă cu situaţia actuală, constituind la fel ca în orice proces psihologic marcant, o compensare disperată a fragilităţii lăuntrice, un strigăt al vieţii însăşi ce se simte ameninţată de dinamica ucigaşă a unei nevoie nesatisfăcute.

Aici nu mai este vorba despre caracterul de "ficţiune" al infernului prin care trece individul, deci nu este vorba despre un coşmar din care te trezeşti fără să vezi încotro duce acţiunea dintr-o realitate paralelă, ştiind că ai revenit cu picioarele pe pământ şi totul este mai real decât o vrajă mistuitoare în care mulți intră și foarte puțini ies. Prin aceasta este subliniată, totodată, aluzia ce trimite spre cuplul Orfeu-Euridice: "Doamne ce greu a fost să mă scutur de somn, să mă descotorosesc de vraja nămoloasă. Lângă putere era poarta uitării aruncată în chip de zar crâncen al sorţii. Am intrat acolo fără să ştiu, şi asta e vina mea."

Inadaptarea individului la cerinţele sufleteşti ale celui de lângă el a declanşat criza unei conştiinţe care nu se mai regăseşte în alte perioade ale vieţii, o conştiinţă care nu este influenţată de niciun fel de calităţi, deci fiind lipsită adesea de stabilitate morală. Prin aceasta, leadershipul se referă la o prezenţă care poate să inspire certitudinea unui climat destins, dar nu şi certitudinea asupra unui singur fapt, aparent. În fine, nu poţi să potenţezi la maximum senzaţia de univers ficţional într-o reprezentare a realităţii unde adevăratul spectacol al vieţii se desfăşoară în culise.

Psihologia omului învins de stările sufleteşti este necesară ca să conştientizăm ce se întâmplă dacă facem un pas în plus spre stadiul de disoluţie totală a personajului principal, a cărui dispariţie are loc printr-o exaltare a imediatului neaşteptat şi a imaginaţiei secătuita de puteri.

În chimismul cel mai profund, substanţa omului este dată aici de revelaţia unei legi necruţătoare: "Tot ce-i al meu, trebuie să-mi placă doar mie", care stipulează, generic, o clauză de tipul "take it or pay for it", ceea ce presupune instituirea realului într-o ficţiune a cărei trambulină este visul de care nu apuci să te bucuri. Iubirea mitică se va constitui acum într-una din acele faze ale visului care devine figurat într-o lume concretă, şi a cărui prezenţă vădeşte o conştiinţă mai acută a fatalităţii, a dificultăţilor ce trebuie învinse, dar totul fără speranţă.

Invocată astfel în modulaţiile unei lamentări, prin procedeul "fie-ţi milă de mine", imaginea omului puternic sfârşeşte însă prin a fi abolită în mişcarea nimicitoare a emoţiilor de disconfort în menţinerea relaţiilor cu ceilalţi, de vreme ce demersurile sale se încheie cu evocarea unei amintiri din care durerea execută inima. Absorbind în materia gândurilor întreaga substanţa a realului în care emoţiile sunt incastrate, tencuite, transformate în neant al posibilităţii de exprimare, omul revine încet, încet, la statutul de copil neajutorat care are nevoie de susținere.

Astfel încât, aşa cum se poate vedea citind romanului lui Alexandre Dumas, felul omului de a-şi drămălui viaţa dinaintea sfârşitului tragic, are în tot mai mare măsură caracterul unei reverii delirante asupra destinului, care se află în gândurile latente, așa cum vine vorba: „a visa cu ochii deschişi". Sau poate că este o încercare de reconstrucţie a unei reverii psihanalitice despre ruşine care trece apoi într un delir de ruină ? Cum să-l menţină asta pe visător într-o conştiinţă de linişte?

Iar aici, elementul "iubire" nu face decât să potenţeze la maximum senzaţia de univers ficţional, rolul unei relaţii cu cineva devenind, în mod evident, o călătorie nu mai puţin liniştitoare, prin suprafaţa lipsită de adâncime a unei lumi, tăcute şi ascunse.

Pătrunderea în adâncul spaţiului leadershipului se face printr-o mărturisire a sentimentului de mândrie faţă de acţiunile pe care le întreprinzi, acestea reprezentând certitudinea unei continuităţi în spiritul de opoziţie faţă de conformismul unei vieți supuse codurilor și moravurilor uşoare.

Dumneavoastră sunteţi frumoasă şi deşteaptă, dar vă lăsaţi în voia soartei dacă nu ţineţi cont de faptul că tot ceea ce credeţi despre cineva este ataşat de natura emoţiilor şi intensitatea lor. Când nu se află destulă răbdare în exprimarea sentimentelor, şi dacă nu poţi învăţa adevăratele deosebiri dintre lucruri şi valoarea lor, atunci nu vei putea să aprobi ceea ce zice înţeleptul S. Smiles:

"Înţelepciunea constă, mai ales, din acea calitate a spiritului, care dă posibilitatea individului să aibă o atitudine dreaptă, discretă şi inimoasă în faţa împrejurărilor vieţii. De aceea oamenii culţi şi cu experienţă sunt totdeauna răbdători, în timp ce ceilalţi sunt meschini şi netoleranţi."

Dumnezeu le-a pus pe toate în mişcare spre folosul lucrării Sale

Pentru univers un singur om este mai important decât toţi ceilalţi oameni.

Cititorule. Chiar acum îţi adresez o simplă întrebare, care este mai mult decât o întrebare, este cazul unei dileme. Oare dacă s-ar aduna în acest moment toți cântăreții din lume, de toate vârstele și toate felurile, având la dispoziție cele mai avansate tehnologii muzicale, și toată istoria muzicii fiind de partea lor, ar putea ei toți la un loc să compună o piesă de talia "The Show Must Go On", la fel de prestigioasă ca varianta compusă de Freddy Mercury ?

Nu-i aşa că nimeni nu poate? Înțelegi acum de ce experiența tuturor oamenilor adunați la un loc, este zero în fața talentului? De fapt, talentul este condiţia de existenţă a unicităţii, rezultatul unor îndelungi căutări, consecinţa unei gândiri pline de strădanii care, adesea, are valoare de întărire a actului de creaţie.

Decât să capeți experiență în diverse domenii, mai bine îți găsești talentul unic. În această privinţă, toată experiența din lume, a tuturor oamenilor la un loc, nu va egala niciodată talentul unui singur om. Și întotdeauna va exista un singur talent neîntrecut în fiecare ramură a științei.

Leadership: Poţi să te referi la tine ca la un celălalt tu semnificativ, încât să dai sens conţinutului unei imagini care încearcă prin dimensiunea şi rezoluţia ei să pătrundă în inteligibil?

Când Dumnezeu oferă unui singur om o parte din harul său, din acel moment o nouă stea începe să lumineze cerul. Pentru univers, un singur om este mai important decât toţi ceilalţi oameni. Acesta este simbolul "Iisus Hristos", o amplă compoziţie figurativă. Şi de aici dualitatea naturii lui Hristos – atât umană cât şi divină.

Simbolizând de fapt greutăţile, supărările şi suferinţele pe care "cei aleşi" trebuie să le suporte pe parcursul drumului vieţii, Iisus Hristos desemnează imaginea unei poveşti reale ce se reflectă distinct, ca într-o oglindă convexă, în apariţia misterioasă a unui sfânt care face să curgă harul divin prin inima sa. Does anybody want to take it anymore?

Leadership: Reflectezi asupra condiţiei tale trecătoare, punând pe primul plan dezvoltarea ideii de "uniune ipostatică" între o imagine vie aflată dincolo de controlul tău şi o imagine anticipativă care se schimbă pe parcurs?

Acum îmi dau seama câte lucruri mă leagă de oamenii rari şi preţioşi, fără să-mi epuizez posibilităţile văzului de a sesiza, cu un ochi sau cu ambii ochi (atât de la distanţă cât şi de aproape) forma şi conturul unui nou univers definit de culoare, energie, pozitivitate. Câtă muncă grea şi încordată, intensă şi creatoare, trebuie să plăteşti ca să faci trecerea de la imaginar la perceput, dar rezultatele se văd din plin pe măsură ce avansezi. Să ne vedem cu bine la linia de Finish, drag alergător de cursă lungă !

Aici şi acum, pentru întâia oară, am început să împărtăşesc şi altora adevărul a ceea ce înseamnă "plinul" divin şi ce relaţii perceptive, asociative, afective se pot stabili în perimetrul spaţiului de receptare a fiinţei divine. O fiinţă disponibilă ca pură extensie materială, ce se emancipează cu ajutorul unei forțe spirituale ce acţionează în ea.

Toți am venit pe pământ cu dovada unei firi spirituale de succes și cu un destin divin, dar nu toţi îndeplinesc condiţia metafizică numărul unu a separaţiei de cele lumeşti: asigurarea acelui Indespiadhyas Conceichtuos (o convingere a lucrurilor nevăzute) din încremenirea timpurilor.

Iar acum, când sunt plin de forţe creatoare, de la însuşi Dumnezeu primite în dar ca manifestare a harului Său, acum când pot să împart comoara cunoaşterii mele vaste şi adânci, tratată ca spaţialitate inerentă unei imagini arhetipale, uite că sunt nevoit să mă confrunt cu însăşi absenţa mea, să fug, să nu mă mai uit îndărăt, să mă ascund de restul lumii ca un înger care, venind din spaţiu, abia picat din rai, nu poate să interfereze cu starea lumii.

Leadership: Ai posibilitatea să-ţi extinzi viziunea asupra unui personaj iniţiat în legile "imposibilului devenit posibil", printr-o capacitate infailibilă de discernământ între ceea ce este real și ceea ce este ireal?

Cel puţin la început, omul de mare talent este privit cu pleoapa depărtărilor infinite, într-un cadru nerealist, ca o consecinţă nebănuită a denaturării simbolurilor de natură sacră. Şi asta, mai ales dacă imaginea făcliei sau a focului etern care menține Perfecțiunea în această parte a lumii, se află în obscuritate directă.

Semnificaţia cuprinzătoare a lui Iisus Hristos, definit ca un cosmos la scară redusă, ca o mandala adăpostind o reverie a infinitului într-un spaţiu limitat, lumesc, trebuie pusă în relaţie perceptivă cu ochii unui privitor din afara cadrului Lui de acţiune. Semnificaţia lui Iisus Hristos trebuie să dilate câmpul de acţiune al Marii Opere printr-un prinos de conţinut care să conducă la înțelegerea importanței evoluţiei ce se poate realiza doar prin intermediul ştiinţei.

Cum spunea cineva, natura uriaşă nu poate fi cuprinsă decât printr-o microcosmicizare, deci fiind redusă la elementele simbolice care o rezumă. Iar omul de mare talent, fiind proiectarea pe pământ a constelaţiei Sagittarius din câmpul de forţă al Imanenţei, conjugat cu siguranţa unui spaţiu protector, trebuie să producă schimbarea de proporţii în această lume, propagând mesajul divin Omnia Mutantur : "Nimic nu trebuie să rămână neschimbător."

Leadership: Ţii cont de particularitatea unui fundal plin de contrast, imortalizând în alte ipostaze potenţialul revelatoriu al omului care caută şi găseşte în sine surse de reconstituire a unei imagini cu dublu sens?

Pe această linie de frontieră extrem de subţire evoluează îndeosebi magia unei minţi deschise la schimbare. Ce exemplu să vă dau? Dacă mă gândesc bine, a produce o schimbare semnificativă în orice domeniu este un proces similar cu trecerea de la căruţa trasă de cai, la un automobil de genul Tesla. Ceva colosal, zdruncinător ca un cutremur care, în anumite privinţe, trebuie să fie şi unul istoric.

Cu toate acestea, sunt o grămadă de indivizi (aşa zis specialişti) care au acasă o căruţă veche cu roţi de lemn. Ei aplică din când în când o vopsea nouă dricului, mai schimbă câte o scândură putredă, mai ung cu vaselină câteva șuruburi, o învelesc cu vreo două perdele second-hand, şi li se pare că au făcut ceva extraordinar. Minunat !

Ceea ce aceşti indivizi nu realizează este că, în continuare, au rămas la stadiul de "ultima căruţă". Cum ar putea ei să înţeleagă simbolul finalizării Marii Opere? Este vreunul din ei stăpân al potenţialului sacru de a face minuni? Ar putea vreunul să se constituie ca fiind contopirea a două imagini: a infinitului şi a crucii de lumină, sub spectrul larg al realităţii reflectată de Toiagul lui Asclepios sau de Pocalul Hygeei ?

Pentru a folosi leadershipul ca element de schimbare în perimetrul gândirii pe care o coordonezi, trebuie mai întâi să fii în stare să faci distincţia între valoare şi nonvaloare, între material şi spiritual.

Dumnezeu le-a pus pe toate în mişcare spre folosul lucrării Sale, pentru ca lumea aceasta să facă parte dintr-o uniune cu înalturile cerului. Aici intră în joc "magia", creaţia din lumile universului, personificată de un zeu care a început din nimic și a modelat tot ce îl înconjoară.

Magia în leadership este următoarea: trebuie să ai convingerea că, atunci când imaginea ta va ieşi în evidenţă, ea va avea particularitatea de a fi în egală măsură adevărată şi fictivă.

După toate regulile artei

On Iulie 13, 2010

Pentru a-i putea controla pe oameni trebuie să-i scoţi din context şi să le oferi o altă orientare.

În urma neaşteptatei morţi a regelui Hamlet, regina Danemarcei, Gertruda, s-a măritat cu Claudius, fratele răposatului ei soţ. Această faptă ciudată i-a trezit tânărului prinţ Hamlet anumite bănuieli – că în chip tainic Claudius i-ar fi făcut de petrecanie tatălui său.

Aflând într-o zi cum că o nălucă – semănând leit cu regele mort, tatăl lui - îşi făcuse apariţia pe una din terasele din faţa palatului, Hamlet a hotărât să facă el însuşi de strajă în noaptea aceea cu oştenii, ca să poată avea un prilej de a o vedea.

Când se înnoptă, lui Hamlet i se arătă stafia tatălui său, care îi mărturisi în ce chip mişelesc fusese ucis tocmai de fratele lui, Claudius (unchiul lui Hamlet), pe care de altfel şi el îl bănuia de mult. Tânărul prinţ îi făgădui bietei năluci că nu-şi va găsi liniştea până ce nu va răzbuna această crimă. Gândul răzbunării începu să-l frământe tot mai mult pe Hamlet, care însă nu ştia în ce chip să-şi împlinească făgăduinţa.

Masca suferinţei. Niciun simţământ nu-i mai putea urni din loc lui Hamlet convingerea fermă că tatăl său a fost ucis. S-a legat atunci în faţa fantomei să-şi respecte promisiunea – deci, cu dreptate sau fără dreptate, se va răzbuna. Dar cum? Căci ca să învinuieşti pe cineva de crimă, trebuie să ai dovezi foarte clare şi solide.

Leadership: Faptele considerate ca posibile motive de răzbunare sau ca posibile reacţii la nedreptate îşi au sfera de incidenţă restrânsă la faptele ce intră în conţinutul noţiunii de "fond de rezervă"?

Pentru ca nimeni să nu-i afle taina cea mai adâncă din suflet, ca să îndepărteze orice fel de bănuieli, prinţul a luat hotărârea ciudată de a se preface pe de-a-ntregul zănatic. Fiind înzestrat cu un talent actoricesc deosebit, el şi-a jucat cu atâta măiestrie rolul de nebun, încât şi regele şi regina, şi ceilalţi curteni se lăsară amăgiţi. Şi, lăsând să se creadă că adevărata pricină a smintelii sale era dragostea faţă de iubita lui, Ofelia, Hamlet a întredeschis, încetişor, o uşă tainică pentru a se strecura pe nevăzute prin hăţişul de „spini" al lui Claudius, care începuse să-l suspecteze de aflarea adevărului.

Nu eşti artist dacă nu îţi rămâne vreo iluzie. În acest timp, sosi la curte o trupă de actori, cu care altădată Hamlet petrecuse ceasuri plăcute. Ca să nu existe vreun dubiu că într-adevăr Claudius, unchiul său, era responsabil de moartea tatălui său, tânărul prinţ hotărî numaidecât ca trupa de actori să joace în faţa unchiului său o piesă, ceva asemănător cu uciderea tatălui său. Regele nu ştia ce capcană i se pregătea.

Piesa s-a jucat chiar după scenariul conceput de Hamlet privind uciderea tatălui său. Regele Claudius, păli atunci când avu loc scena otrăvirii, îi fu zdruncinată atât de tare conştiinţa încât nu a mai fost în stare să asiste la restul piesei. Prefăcându-se că se simte rău, sau poate chiar fiindu-i rău cu adevărat, părăsi sala brusc, îndreptându-se spre încăperile sale. Abia în acel moment, Hamlet a fost pe deplin încredinţat că vorbele stafiei tatălui său erau adevărate. Claudius era criminalul.

Fondul de rezervă este metoda cea mai ascunsă de distribuire centralizată a resurselor tale de forţă interioară, know-how şi statornicie, ce vine către nevoia de a te simţi capabil să înfrunţi totul, faptul că tu contezi pentru o răsturnare de situaţie, permiţând o diagnosticare a rentabilităţii investiţiei tale în latura ta creativă şi ingenioasă.

Leadership: Intrarea ta într-un joc al contrastelor îţi dezvoltă facultatea virtuţii de a deveni altcineva?

În anumite situaţii liderul, în strânsă legătură cu ceea ce se întâmplă în jurul lui, ar putea fi catalogat în mod paradoxal drept un "descoperitor de erori" (erori răspândite ca adevăruri în medii variate de interacţiune cu ceilalţi oameni), dacă nu-şi neglijează obligaţiile asumate prin filtru emoţional-raţional.

Un asemenea lider poate arăta, prin descoperirea raporturilor dintre puterea şi relevanţa deţinută de oameni, cultivând un nou de tip de morală (care recunoaşte norme valabile întotdeauna şi pentru toţi, fără nicio excepţie, oferind concluzia întâmplărilor şi învăţămintele desprinse din ele) că dincolo de realitatea aparentă există o realitate pe care ne-am încăpăţânat să nu o vedem până acum.

Putem începe să o percepem mai clar, doar dacă sunt scoase la iveală "informaţii" secrete, aduse în prim plan de lider printr-o abordare de tipul prefăcătoriei: "ascunde-ţi intenţiile şi nivelul de competenţă ."

Amploarea influenţei tale este dată de rolul pe care îl joci singur într-un scurt metraj filmat într-un cadru de referinţă numit "prezenţa spiritului luminat" care te va însoţi pe drumul pe care vei putea obţine uşor şi repede desăvârşirea în zona ta de control.

Contextul în care funcţionează leadershipul nu trebuie să se transforme într-un atelier al înşelăciunilor, în care minciuna devine realitate, ci un experiment care merită să fie reluat până când obţii nişte răspunsuri clare. Adevărul unor decizii este că poţi face un lucru mai puţin ortodox din nişte motive bune. Accentele ciclului acesta de inovaţii, combinaţii, intrigi, multitudinii de tendinţe, pregătire şi intrare într-un joc al contrastelor, trecerea de la un plan la altul, conferă liderului facultatea incendiară a virtuţii de a deveni altcineva, de a realiza cu măiestrie o nouă variantă a sa. O variantă îmbunătăţită care are potenţialul să facă diferenţa dintre percepţie şi realitate, dintre eroare şi adevărul revelat.

Leadershipul se sprijină pe această premisă: că în orice circumstanţă sunt întotdeauna trei variabile: liderul, oamenii şi relaţia dintre ei care are principal promoter: adevărul, respectiv redarea lui.

Liderii care posedă total ceea ce se obişnuieşte să se numească sentimentul de respingere a falsităţii , sunt dominaţi de tendinţa de a judeca încălcările regulilor, urmată de tendinţa de a judeca fiecare context în detaliu înainte de a lua cele mai inspirate decizii de viitor. Parcă ar fi înzestraţi cu puterea de a pătrunde natura umană, până la o identificare cu implicaţiile şi faţetele ei multiple.

Leadership: În ce context îţi poţi dovedi superioritatea psihologiei tale instinctuale, pentru a dezvălui adevăruri ascunse în situațiile critice, atunci când rațiunea nu este suficientă?

Prinţul Hamlet şi-a dovedit superioritatea psihologiei sale instinctuale nu atât prin jocul de teatru pe care l-a făcut, deopotrivă de îndrăzneţ şi iscusit, ci prin şiretlicul său, determinându-l pe unchiul său Claudius să se dea singur de gol. Interpretarea iscusită a trupei de actori a răscolit sufletele celor de la curtea regală, în mintea cărora a încolţit ideea că ar putea să fie reală prezentarea faptelor, respectiv că regele Claudius se făcea vinovat de această crimă.

Când un om începe să joace teatru, el are întotdeauna un motiv şi un scop. Motivul prinţului Hamlet a fost să răzbune moartea tatălui său, scopul lui fiind acela de a-l demasca pe criminal. Pentru asta el a fost nevoit să intre într-un joc cu o miză foarte mare, şi să acţioneze cu cea mai mare prudenţă. Forţele lui, stârnite de puternica lui dorinţă de răzbunare, s-au concentrat asupra pregătirii unei capcane sofisticate căreia criminalul să nu-i poată rezista. Iar cu cât se prefăcea mai mult, cu cat îşi juca mai bine rolul de nebun, prin purtările neobişnuite, cu atât mai uşor şi mai repede a determinat prinderea în capcană a criminalului.

Hamlet şi-a jucat rolul de nebun după toate regulile artei. Teatrul său s-a dovedit deosebit de bine realizat. Iar prin crearea unui curent de opinie favorabil lui şi tatălui său, a deschis o nouă perspectivă asupra evenimentelor petrecute, contracarând efectul celora emise oficial.

Pentru a-i putea controla pe oameni, pentru a-i putea conduce în direcţia aleasă de tine, trebuie să izbuteşti să înjghebezi minţile lor, să-i ţii sub propria ta vrajă, trebuie să izbuteşti să le transmiţi cu maximum de eficienţă convingerile tale şi să le influenţezi gândirea. Trebuie să-i scoţi din context şi să le oferi o altă orientare, determinându-i să privească lucrurile dintr-o perspectivă mai cuprinzătoare.

Stăpânești arta aflării adevărului în virtutea condiţiei tale de "actor" care îşi dă seama de performanţa sa abia după ce şi-a acceptat rolul de protagonist sub influența hotărâtoare a deznodământului care încheie destinul său?

După toate regulile artei se pregătește regizarea unui spectacol de calitate. Se spune că numai jucând teatru afli adevărul. Adevărul este uneori greu de aflat, dar te poţi apropia de el urmând căi ocolitoare. Atunci când însa simţi că ţi se pun beţe în roate, este bine să te foloseşti de şiretlicuri şi de metode ingenioase pentru a-ţi descoperi realii rivali, cât şi realii aliaţi.

Durerea care priveşte spre stele

Apropie-te de ceea ce-l face pe om să "ticăie", ţinând cont de acele convingeri privitoare la capacitatea lui de a ignora sau de a accepta realităţile negative.

Episcopul Myriel putea fi chemat oricând la căpătâiul bolnavilor şi al muribunzilor. Ştia că aceasta este datoria lui cea mai mare şi adevăratul său rost. Familiile văduvelor şi orfanilor n-aveau nevoie să-l cheme. Se ducea el singur. Ştia să stea şi să tacă îndelung lângă bărbatul care-şi pierduse soţia iubită, lângă mama care-şi pierduse copilul. Aşa cum ştia când să tacă, ştia şi când să vorbească. Minunat fel de-a mângâia !

Nu căuta să aline durerea prin uitare, ci s-o înalţe şi s-o înnobileze prin speranţă: Spunea: "Luaţi seama când vă îndreptăţi gândul spre cei morţi. Nu vă gândiţi la ceea ce putrezeşte. Priviţi drept înainte. Veţi zări lumina vie a mortului vostru drag strălucind pe bolta cerului."

Cunoştea binefacerile credinţei. Se străduia să povăţuiască şi să-l liniştească pe omul cuprins de deznădejde, arătându-i cu degetul pe cel ce se resemnează. Încerca să-i transforme durerea care priveşte spre groapă, arătându-i durerea care priveşte spre stele. *

Leadership: Poţi să accelerezi accesul omului spre o formă superioară de "revelaţie şi iluminare", subestimând autoritatea funcţională care îl stăpâneşte?

Cauţi să arăţi că poţi strânge laolaltă şi alte abordări de situaţie decât cele de tip participativ în dezvoltarea omului? Cum ar fi, ca lider, să încerci să accelerezi accesul omului spre un statut superior „uitând" de el, subestimând autoritatea funcţională care îl stăpâneşte?

Îndrumătorul spiritual este un om total care cunoaște și folosește bine instrumentele științelor (filosofice, sociologice, teologice), care şi-a modelat caracterul şi personalitatea prin cultivarea valorilor precum: adevărul, binele, etica, linişte sufletească. El poate fi analizat prin prisma unei demonstraţii de ataşament faţă de o anumită formă de spiritualitate, care îl înscrie în provocarea de a găsi bucurie şi motivaţie în viața de zi cu zi, motivându-l să adopte un stil de gândire ponderat şi echilibrat.

Şi tu poţi accelera accesul oamenilor din jur spre o formă superioară de "revelaţie şi iluminare", dacă le oferi spre explorare acea parte a lumii pe care ei o neglijează sau nu o conştientizează ca pe un act de meditaţie creatoare, ca un act de unitate cu natura, ca un act de pietate, ca un act de înrudire cu sine şi ca un act de înrudire cu Creatorul. Leadershipul trebuie privit în primul rând ca formă de dezvoltare spirituală.

Autoritatea funcţională care îl stăpâneşte pe un asemenea om este dată de datoria pe care el şi-o asumă integral: de a contribui la consolidarea rolului de intermediar între echilibru şi extreme. El este gata să ducă constant o luptă pentru dezvoltarea conştiinţei depline ce se plasează în raport cu o entitate exterioară, cu o prezenţă imuabilă, cu revelarea divinităţii care îl înconjoară.

Spiritualitatea este mijlocul prin care îţi poţi cunoaşte sinele superior, interacţionând nu cu legile perfecţiunii, ci cu permanenţa unei posibile stări de calm şi linişte interioară menită să uşureze uitarea oricăror suferinţe.

Faptul interesant pentru viitorul leadershipului constă în aceea că nu se mai pune problema promovării omului lipsit de spiritualitatea credinţei spre o happy peaceful normality în termenii ori – ori , ci sub forma relaţiei şi – şi . Adică, trebuie să fii şi realist şi vizionar şi înţelegător şi susţinător şi îndrumător în acelaşi timp.

Nu întotdeauna îi poţi limita omului realitatea, dar poţi încerca să schimbi stadiul lui existenţial de la "nonsen" la un nivel de perceptabilitate certă. Să plasezi reperele sale de gând, sentiment şi suferinţă într-o altă orientare. Pentru ca leadershipul să aibă efectul de calmare a durerilor sufleteşti, luând în considerare dimensiunea implicării tale în viaţa celorlalţi oameni, nu-i de ajuns să încerci să aduci la lumină acea frumuseţe şi iubire infinită - care este fundaţia vieţii şi prezenţa în fiecare.

Ci trebuie să construieşti un fundament psihic sănătos, să te apropii de ceea ce-l face pe om să "ticăie", ţinând cont de acele convingeri privitoare la capacitatea lui de a ignora sau de a accepta realităţile negative. Aşa cum reiese limpede din practicile episcopului Myriel, binecuvântarea de trăi în acord şi prin integrarea unei spiritualităţi realiste şi pozitive, dar mai ales integrarea unei viziuni noi asupra actului de "vindecare" a omului, privit ca un tot unitar, anulează fărâmiţarea individuală a firii sale.

Leadership: Încerci să diminuezi efectele conexe fenomenelor sensibile ce au loc în "sistemele vii" orientate greşit, în privinţa modului în care reacţionezi la ceea ce ţi se întâmplă?

Avem puterea de a conştientiza fiecare situaţie pe care o traversează ceilalţi oameni. Putem alege ce vom face în continuare pentru că ei să se aprecieze mai mult şi să îşi reamintească că sunt valoroşi. Ne putem impune emoţiile pe care să le avem pentru că ei să se simtă mai bine în pielea lor, să se accepte, să se dezvolte atât mental cât şi emoţional, şi să-şi atingă potenţialul maxim. Putem să-i readucem la un nivel de mulţumire, care să le uşureze viaţa. Numai astfel putem să creştem noi aspiraţii din seminţele realizărilor noastre.

Toate aceste aspecte ale puterii noastre de înţelegere şi influenţare pozitivă a omului, controlându-i existenţa şi nevoile de viaţă, se întăresc reciproc şi sunt dependente una de alta. Ele constituie un tablou plin de vibraţie care ne reprezintă sinele autentic – cine suntem noi cu adevărat în situaţii în care simţim că ceilalţi oameni pierd controlul asupra vieţii lor.

Tu încerci să-ţi faci loc prin meandrele complexei vieţi spirituale a celor din jur?

Sistemele vii sunt unităţi de gândire completate de ansambluri de stări, procese şi însuşiri psihice proprii fiecărui individ, semnificative prin organizarea lor pe o poziţie de autoritate. Ele sunt compatibile cu înţelesul pe care îl conferim fenomenelor care ne încurcă atât de mult în zilele noastre: extaz, clarviziune, revelaţie, sensibilitate la durere, vindecări produse de efectele a ceea ce numim mai mult sau mai puţin "credinţă".

Dacă aceste sisteme nu sunt orientate spre o entitate de ordin superior, omul îşi pierde din capacitatea de a neutraliza tranzitul de la stadiul de veghe la cel de negare de sine.

Leadership: Ce sentiment transmiţi atunci când beneficiarii unor experienţe negative solicită în mod expres "factura" pentru garanţia unei noi stabilităţi personale?

Cugetă la această întrebare: Cine eşti atunci când constaţi funcţionarea necorespunzătoare a aparatului existenţial uman? Eşti un ceasornicar care încearcă să repună în mişcare mecanismul naturii umane, cu răbdare, rigoare şi fineţe? Încerci să reasamblezi acele piese care nu se potrivesc dimensiunilor lor de transformare, ce se integrează perfect doar în decorul unei realităţi serbede, condensată într-o situaţie sau alta?

Să ne amintim ce spunea Viorica Ardeleanu: „ Ceasornicăria se învaţă zilnic. De multe ori mi s-a întâmplat să mi se aducă un ceas pe care nu l-am mai văzut vreodată, dar care seamănă oarecum cu altele. Am făcut conexiuni cu celelalte modele şi am reuşit să repar şi ceasuri pe care le vedeam pentru prima dată. Am reparat ceasuri cu carcasă de aur, dar şi ceasuri mai simple. "

Una din cerinţele majore ale maturizării şi dezvoltării personale este adoptarea atitudinii fundamentale a celui care practică disciplina gândului şi a simţirii, ca formă de împăcare a spiritului cu puterea de gând a duhului, ca formă de regăsire a echilibrului interior, ca formă de normalizare şi purificare a stării minţii.

Durerea care priveşte spre stele vizează acele părţi întunecate şi ascunse a personalităţii tale pe care, dacă nu reuşeşti să le înţelegi şi să le elimini prin meditaţie şi linişte sufletească, nu-ţi vei putea găsi fundamentul decât în nesiguranţa de sine, jena în relaţiile cu ceilalţi şi în subaprecierea propriei persoane.

Durerea imperfecţiunii măiestriei

Ori de câte ori vei face un pas mare către perfecţiune, sufletul îţi va fi pus la grea încercare.

Într-o zi domnul Selder, vesel şi nerăbdător să-l revadă pe maestrul Dürer, l-a invitat acasă la el. Acesta a acceptat invitaţia cu plăcere şi şi-a făcut apariţia la ora stabilită. Se vedea din capul locului că maestrul nu mai era cel de altădată, tânăr, ambiţios, cu o putere de muncă extraordinară, cu o viziune largă şi intuitivă asupra viitorului, cu toate că încă era cel mai renumit şi mai talentat desenator şi pictor din Germania.

Mâinile cu degetele lungi, pe care diluanţii şi vopselele lăsaseră semne, trădau meseria lui modestă, pe care o încă o mai practica cu plăcere şi mândrie. După înfăţişarea sa aristocratică, după felul în care vorbea, se vedea că este un adevărat gânditor, un om foarte educat şi înzestrat cu multă înţelepciune.

Meşterul Eimer, care se afla şi el în vizită la domnul Selder, împreună cu acesta, ascunzându-şi stinghereala, au început să-l elogieze şi să-i laude arta.

Dürer, puţin stânjenit, încercând să le domolească elanul, le-a spus cu o voce gravă:

- Poate că eu caut perfecţiunea, acea perfecţiune pe care o are o linie dreaptă sau un cerc, de aceea nu mă mulţumesc niciodată cu o jumătate de măsură. O linie greşită îmi distruge desenul şi trebuie să-l repet iarăşi şi iarăşi la nesfârşit, iar lucrările din tinereţe aproape că nu-mi mai plac, deşi pe vremea aceea am călărit de multe ori până la Bologna ca să iau lecţii de perspectivă. Dar perfecţiunea nu există decât în Dumnezeu. În tot ce-i pământesc lipseşte ceva, de aceea simt durerea imperfecţiunii măiestriei mele.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi reperezi bagajul de cunoştinţe de la distanţa unei creaţii care îţi pune la grea încercare angajamentul de a-ţi asigura o experienţă eficientă de motivare a sinelui?

Chiar şi oamenii desăvârşiţi au supărări, chiar şi ei au parte de suferinţe. Însă suferinţele oamenilor desăvârşiţi, în special a artiştilor, constă, de cele mai multe ori, în neputinţa lor de a atinge perfecţiunea sau măcar de a se apropia de ea, temându-se mai presus de orice că într-o bună zi soarele măreţiei şi splendorii lor va apune.

Frica de a se simţi umiliţi şi neînsemnaţi, mai ales la o vârstă înaintată când sunt supuşi frecvent greşelilor, pune stăpânire pe spiritul lor, îi transformă în prizonierii propriilor lor aspiraţii, nemaiputând astfel deţine controlul asupra propriilor lor destine. Dintr-un fel activ de a fi se moleşesc, nu mai au imboldul de altădată de a-şi îmbunătăţi performanţele, de a-şi realiza obiectivele, chiar dacă încă sunt deschişi la mine şi spirit, ci intră într-o stare de melancolie vecină cu năuceala, gândurile fiindu-le tot mai împrăştiate.

Cu cât un om cunoaşte mai mult şi e mai desăvârşit, cu atât îi este mai mare suferinţa.

Cea mai mare temere a maestrului Dürer, care pe lângă faptul că era înzestrat cu un talent artistic nemaipomenit avea şi o viziune largă şi adâncă asupra naturii umane, era aceea că nu va reuşi să se ridice la nivelul aşteptărilor sale foarte mari.

Cu cât ştia mai mult, cu cât învăţa mai mult, cu atât dorea să fie mai perfect în tot ceea ce făcea. Un cerc, o linie, dacă nu erau perfect realizate, însemna s-o ia iarăşi de la capăt, descumpănit, privindu-se cu un ochi critic, regretând, simţindu-se obosit, îngrijorat. Dacă o pată de culoare sau o nuanţă nu se potrivea cu imaginea pe care dorea s-o creeze, tabloul era considerat nereuşit, ceea ce însemna s-o ia de la capăt, pornind precum Sisif într-o nouă încercare, poate mai norocoasă.

Leadership: Poţi trăi cu regretul compromisului de a suporta efectele negative ale excesului de perfecţiune şi în acelaşi timp să rămâi cu convingerea că ai învins o greutate mare pe care puţini o pot împinge?

Durerea pe care o simte în suflet cel care doreşte să atingă perfecţiunea atunci când dă nas în nas cu imperfecţiunea, atunci când conştientizează că nu se ridică la înălţimea propriilor sale aşteptări, îl împiedică să se exprime, să se dezvolte la maximă capacitate, determinându-l să devină tot mai nesigur pe sine.

Un astfel de om e gata să cadă pradă tristeţii, purtându-şi în suflet durerea mereu şi mereu, până când ceea ce încearcă să realizeze iese perfect. A greşi e un păcat pentru cel desăvârşit, poate nu un păcat de moarte, dar cu siguranţă unul care nu se iartă.

Greutatea cea mare pe care puțini o pot împinge este să-ţi maximizezi potențialul de reutilizare al acțiunii în folosul atingerii perfecțiunii.

Şi oare cine poate salva un suflet dominat de un astfel de păcat? Cine poate îmbărbata, mângaia, însenina un suflet stăpânit de o foame nebună după perfecţiune, dar o foame ce îi dă mereu ocol şi nu şi-o poate satisface? Oare cine este, şi unde se află acel înger minunat care poate înviora mintea unui ahtiat dupa perfecţiunea absolută, aducându-l la starea de normalitate?

Leadership: Strălucitele tale reuşite pot fi interpretate ca un indiciu al limitării potenţialului de punere în exploatare a inspiraţiei creative şi, astfel, al scăderii presiunii puse pe partea de menţinere a unei poziţii de echilibru?

Fiecare lider are anumite aşteptări, anumite idealuri, anumite obsesii. Napoleon Bonaparte, ca şi Alexandru cel Mare şi alţi mari conducători, a avut o obsesie magnifică, puteţi ghici uşor care era aceea: să stăpânească lumea. La fel ca un artist în căutarea perfecţiunii, Napoleon, a cărui capacitate de conducere nu putea fi pusă la îndoială, nu-şi putea permite să facă nicio greşeală.

Cu cât înregistra mai multe victorii, cu atât devenea mai ahtiat după putere, dar, în acelaşi timp, orice eşec îl arunca sufleteşte cu un pas înapoi. În sinea lui îşi spunea: „ Cum, eu să pierd o bătălie? Eu, Napoleon? ” Apoi, furios, întrucâtva obligat de propria lui conştiinţă, se arunca din nou în vârtejul luptelor, cu un imbold ce sfidează orice limită, cu un spirit mult mai dinamic, până când ieşea învingător, indiferent care era preţul pe care trebuia să-l plătească.

Păcat că orice poveste de vitejie are un sfârşit, la fel cum orice artă are delimitări şi convenţii. Dragostea lui Napoleon pentru putere şi neputinţa lui de a-şi atinge ţelul i-au produs o mare durere în suflet. Suferinţa lui interioară cumplită, datorată în mare parte setei sale nemărginite de a fi stăpânul absolut al Europei, şi dacă s-ar putea al întregii lumi, i-au produs şi i-au accentuat îmbolnăvirea.

Leadership: Cum îţi afectează relaţia cu morala raportul dintre "succesele obţinute" şi

"pretenţiile iniţiale de a dispune de libertatea de creaţie"?

Oamenii cu o voinţă foarte puternică, care îşi închină viaţa unui singur ideal - perfecţiunea, caută să fie desăvârşiţi în tot ceea ce fac, în tot ceea ce urmăresc. Şi personal cred că e datoria fiecărui om să se străduie să fie cât mai bun în domeniul său de activitate. Dar fiecărui ţel măreţ îi corespunde un zbucium sufletesc puternic. Ori de câte ori cineva va face un pas mare către perfecţiune, sufletul îi va fi pus la grea încercare.

Desigur marii lideri tânjesc după perfecţiune, ridicând ştacheta standardelor tot mai sus şi bineînţeles impun acest lucru şi celor din echipa lor. A impune un ritm accelerat şi intens poate avea efecte benefice doar în cadrul colectivelor formate din oamenii care au aceleaşi ţinte, aceeaşi pregătire şi aceleaşi standarde de calitate (şi nu numai). Însă dacă oamenii nu sunt identici cu „prototipul" numit lider, se poate întâmpla să clacheze, atât ei, cât şi liderul lor.

Adevărata perfecţiune înseamnă să-ţi menţii în poziţia de echilibru în ceea ce priveşte voinţa şi motivaţia de a fi consecvent în procesul de gestionare al activului numit: stima de sine.

Aşa cum bine spunea un internaut: "Stima de sine reprezintă modul în care ne evaluam pe noi înşine în raport cu propriile aşteptări şi cu ceilalţi, fiind direct proporţională cu conştientizarea valorii noastre."

Concluzie: Un om care vrea să-şi înalţe munca la rang de artă, un om care caută perfecţiunea în tot ceea ce face, trebuie să-şi ajusteze nivelul standardelor, ritmul şi intensitatea activităţilor, altfel va avea un sentiment de frustrare şi chiar de vinovăţie în momentul în care constată că mai are imperfecţiuni sau că nu are posibilitatea de a-şi atinge propriile standarde.

Eşti îndeajuns de onest şi obiectiv în ceea ce priveşte posibilitatea de a atinge standarde foarte înalte de profesionalism?

Ecoul glasului care strigă îndurare

Stabileşte un raport între autoritate şi vulnerabilitate, ca să poţi determina mai uşor constanta de caracter a omului.

Acolo unde nu pui deloc suflet, Dumnezeu nu intervine. Conectarea la natura divină este eternă, dar posibilitatea unei intervenţii salvatoare nu pare valabilă în cazul omului care se lasă copleşit de forţa brută a loviturilor sorţii, generatoare de intense reacţii, de nelinişti şi tensiuni chinuitoare asemenea unei răni adânci care nu se mai închide. Iar timpul de vindecare a unei răni poate fi micşorat numai dacă din ea se scurge continuu sensibilitate şi sinceritate, ca rezultat al rugăciunilor puternice.

Cuvintele lui Alexandre Dumas, " Îndurarea omenească n-are margini, dar iertarea omenească are o măsură ", se pot aplica cu mare uşurinţă în cazul senatoarei Ruth Martin, în stadiul demo al vulnerabilităţii ei. Toată lumea urmăreşte în direct la televizor, cu sufletul la gură, solicitarea de eliberare a fiicei sale, în temeiul dreptului incontestabil la viaţă. O experienţă unică a fiinţei afectuoase, sprijinită de o rafinare a gândirii. O protecţie maternă orientată împotriva riscurilor pe care asasinul o conştientizează, dar are el oare puterea să-şi domolească pornirile?

Leadershipul înseamnă a renunța la control, pentru a descoperi puterea adevărată prin compasiune și sacrificiu.

Bătăile sacadate ale inimii tot mai slăbite transmit vibraţii în cutia de rezonanţă a vocii. Vocea este un centru de iradiere a simţirilor cele mai profunde şi mai înflăcărate. Iar dacă încercăm să stabilim un raport între gradul accentuării zgomotului lăuntric şi variaţiile "presiunii de ieşire" resimţite în inflexiunile vocii, putem determina constanta de caracter a omului.

Bătăile inimii se asociază cu creşterea în amplitudine a undei de mărinimie pe curba presiunilor psihice. Sublim şi totodată răscolitor, glasul acesta tremurat duce emoţia la un nivel superior, spre vârful piramidei îngrijorării, favorizând pierderea stăpânirii de sine şi vidul lăuntric. Iar gestul acesta de abdicare, pasul semnificativ spre redescoperirea valorii spirituale, dând la o parte arma autorităţii sub înrâurirea inimii frânte care se înfioară şi tremură tot mai tare, devine punctul de reper al întregii sale fiinţe. Un self-abandonment , o reprezentare intelectuală şi emoţională a unei strategii neimaginate de către un conducător.

Leadership: Poţi să pui suflet în refacerea viitorului celorlalţi în stadiul demo al vulnerabilităţii tale, fără să devii prizonierul unui orizont de credinţe care aparţine exclusiv iniţiativelor de a accepta compasiunea extremă şi sacrificiu de sine?

Numai printr-o atitudine hiperprotectivă, compusă din obligativitate şi constrângere, ce provoacă izbucnirea unei crize de personalitate, se poate dovedi unicitatea omului, dată de configuraţia tuturor aspectelor ce ţin de "controlul intern". Acest proces de îmbinare şi armonizare a raţiunii cu credinţa, dincolo de competenţele şi experienţa acumulată într-un post de conducere, are o fundamentală importantă pentru leadershipul axat pe îmbunătăţirea procesului de luare a deciziilor.

Dincolo de experienţa suferinţei ce determină o retragere silenţioasă în propria cochilie, dar nu în sensul creator, se petrece aproape întotdeauna o transformare. O rafinare a gândirii critice care generează întrebarea fundamentală pe care şi-o pune omul înfiorat de nelinişti: " Unde este izbăvirea? ", ţâşnind ca o rugăciune puternică menită să-l ajute în încercările ce-l aşteaptă. Şi care conduce la identificarea unei noi direcţii de acţiune, la dezvoltarea unei posibilităţi noi de înţelegere a propriilor capacităţi şi limite.

Momentele de pierdere a stăpânirii de sine și de vid lăuntric pot duce la redescoperirea valorilor spirituale profunde.

Stadiul demo al vulnerabilităţi tale este reprezentat de clipa în care eşti pe cale să faci un pas important prin abandonul în faţa unei dilemele morale, ezitând între a săvârşi o nedreptate (constrângerea voinţei altuia, care neagă voinţa ta) şi a săvârşi o faptă uimitoare şi, pe cât se poate, minunată, dar cu preţul alterării imaginii de sine.

Poţi deveni prizonierul unui orizont de credinţe care aparţine exclusiv iniţiativelor de a accepta compasiunea extremă şi sacrificiu de sine atunci când imaginea ta nu mai prezintă o evoluție, ci este o simplă prezentare a diferitelor legături posibile între bine și greu. Când credinţe precum "totul gravitează în jurul meu" scad în intensitate şi sunt înlocuite cu altele de tipul "nu sunt îndeajuns de deștepți să-mi dea seama ce se întâmplă" , înseamnă că leadershipul se proiectează spre interior, transformându-se într-un soi de sentiment al lipsei de valoare personală.

Înţelepciunea din spatele leadeshipului se poate rezuma în felul următor: învaţă să schimbi ceea crezi despre tine în momentul în care eşti ferm convins că ceea ce ţi se întâmplă face parte din ceea ce nu te-ai gândit niciodată că ţi s-ar putea întâmpla.

Cineva mărturisea pe o pagină web: "Este foarte uşor să dai cu pietre, mai ales când le-ai luat din edificiul la care n-ai trudit tu însuţi. Este mult mai greu să iei aceste pietre vii şi să le zideşti la loc, pentru ca edificiul să crească."

Prin aplicabilitatea ei la leadership, această observaţie bine ţintită vizează autenticitatea omului prin refuzul lui de a accepta ceea ce trăieşte. Edificiul capătă semnificaţia unei orientări restrictive în haosul vieţii, în momentele de transformare cele mai reprezentative, marcând intrarea în scena extrem de interesantă a redimensionării realităţii interioare. Iar pietrele, având semnificaţia profundă a efectului cel mai defavorabil, creând posibilitatea desfăşurării în lanţ a unei reacţii de panică sau confuzie, împiedică staţionarea omului în acea zonă a încrederii depline ce poate exercita o influenţă mobilizatoare asupra celorlalţi.

A încerca să pui suflet în refacerea viitorului celorlalţi, în stadiul demo al vulnerabilităţii tale, este piatra de încercare care demască nevăzutul, sinele cel mai înalt, adevăratul om lăuntric, harul lui Dumnezeu ce comunică direct cu compartimentele inimii. Un self-abandonment , o reprezentare intelectuală şi emoţională a unei strategii neimaginate de către un conducător.

Leadership: Decazi din gradul de plutonier major al escadronului numit "Autoritate" datorită a ceea ce simţi când intri în contact cu versiunea unui sacrificiu care devine însuşi raţiunea ta de mai târziu?

Să te lupţi cu cancerul evenimentelor şi să ai tăria să treci prin drama pierderii identităţii, aduce un spirit critic în sinceritatea propriei oglindiri în cele mai ascunse riduri ale conştiinţei. Un ecou propagat ca o undă, sedat cu mult pesimism, care se repetă la nesfârşit în mintea ta producând o nelinişte constantă. De-ar înceta odată !

Iar a cădea în extrema în care nu mai eşti capabil să judeci la rece situaţiile, şi a nu mai fii plutonierul major al escadronului numit "Autoritate", are o importanţă fundamentală prin faptul că îţi distruge prestigiul şi te separă de randamentul spre care tinzi, punându-te în rândurile întâmplătorului şi aleatoriului.

Versiunea unui sacrificiu care devine însuşi raţiunea ta de mai târziu are la bază trăsăturile de personalitate câştigate printr-o renunțare voluntară la ceva prețios ţie în folosul cuiva care îţi îngăduie să-ţi asumi acea conştiinţă a apartenenţei la o soartă comună.

Ecoul glasului care strigă îndurare vizează "ricoşeul" acelei transformări interioare, în condiţiile în care dovedeşti imposibilitatea obiectivă de realizare a unei evaluări autentice, în sfera dinamică a evenimentelor de însemnătate majoră din viaţa ta. De asemenea, înseamnă să nu ceri îndurare atâta timp cât tu însuţi nu eşti dispus să oferi îndurare. Nu poţi să ceri fără să dai. Şi dai numai atunci când îţi reconsideri poziţia faţă de oameni şi faţă de tine.

Ecoul influenţei

On Octombrie 29, 2010

Un lider iscusit preia influenţele străine şi le încorporează într-o viziune cu totul nouă.

Celebrul scriitor Stephen King aminteşte în cartea sa "Misterul regelui" o întâmplare petrecută cu mulţi ani în urmă, despre regizorul englez Sir Alfred Hitchcock.

Nu cu mult timp după ce a terminat filmul "Psycho" , Alfred Hitchcock a organizat o proiecţie pentru câţiva prieteni. Aceştia s-au arătat extrem de impresionaţi, l-au declarat un as al suspansului. Alma Reville, soţia regizorului, a păstrat tăcerea până ce şi-au spus părerea cu toţii, apoi a rostit foarte ferm: "Nu-l poţi trimite aşa în lume."

S-a lăsat o tăcere cutremurătoare, cu excepţia lui Hitchcock însuşi, care a întrebat-o doar de ce nu. "Pentru că, i-a răspuns soţia sa , Janet Leight înghite când ar fi trebuit să fie moartă."

Leadership: Ideea ta este o provocare a cărui răspuns reprezintă un mesaj autentic atunci când încerci să trimiţi în lume un link către o ştire cu conţinut înşelător?

Alma Reville a avut perfectă dreptate în observaţia sa. Hitchcock nu s-a împotrivit nicidecum pentru că soţia lui i-a arătat una dintre scăpările pe care le-a comis. De fapt, ajutorul său numărul unu era Alma, care nu era doar un critic cu ochi pătrunzători ce nu se lăsa absolut deloc impresionată de reputaţia de "maestru al suspansului", dar era şi o foarte bună sfătuitoare şi o excelentă colaboratoare, înzestrată de asemenea cu o uimitoare capacitate creativă şi cu un deosebit simţ al observaţiei. Când Hitchcock spunea că vrea să zboare, Alma, fiind mereu atentă la detalii, şi mai aplecată către concret şi practic, sau mai bine zis către realitate, îl aducea de fiecare dată cu picioarele pe pământ: "Mai întâi mănâncă-ţi mâncarea."

Se spune că arta este un proces de reciclare nesfârşit. Creezi, refaci, arunci, iar acest ciclu se repetă la nesfârşit. Dar ca să evoluezi în ceea ce faci, ca să-ţi cizelezi talentul şi să-l fructifici la un nivel superior şi, mai ales, pentru a putea să-ţi creezi un stil unic, absolut ieşit din tipare, ai nevoie de mult mai mult decât perseverenţă, efort şi abnegaţie în meseria ta, ai nevoie de mai mult decât dorinţa extraordinară de a învăţa lucruri noi.

Trebuie să ai şi o minte deschisă şi atentă la toate posibilităţile. Trebuie să ai o inimă binevoitoare care să vadă întotdeauna dincolo de propriile prejudecăţi, percepţii şi convingeri. Trebuie să fii flexibil, să adopţi şi părerile celorlalţi din jurul tău. Tu accepţi influenţele celor din jur cu mintea deschisă?

O ştire cu un conţinut înşelător este o demonstrare a ideii de conexiune cauzală între cunoscător şi subiectul de cunoscut care uimeşte prin originalitate, dar nu dă toate răspunsurile la întrebările tale.

Hitchcock a refăcut multe scenarii şi a corectat multe greşeli nesesizate la început datorită sugestiilor sănătoase primite de la soţia sa Alma, şi poate şi de la alţi colaboratori de-ai săi din televiziune. Dar numai aşa şi-a putut cizela vizibil măiestria. Fiind o personalitate puternică, fiind înzestrat cu claritate şi inimă deschisă, el i-a cooptat în procesul de materializare a ideilor sale şi pe alţii pentru a realiza schimbarea în bine şi în foarte bine. Iată ce înseamnă un leadership de calitate.

O minte flexibilă este o minte pregătită să construiască viitorul. Cât de mult şi cât de bine te foloseşti de ajutorul altora va influenţa nivelul tău de reuşită. Sau, altfel spus, succesul tău se va datora în mare măsură influenţei celorlalţi, căci nu ai cum să-ţi sporeşti valoarea dacă te încrezi numai în viziunea ta proprie şi daca nu eşti deschis la părerile şi sugestiile celor din jurul tău.

Leadership: Ideea pe care ţi-o creezi în minte în timpul vizionării unei filmări este povestea în sine, sau modul cum este formulată şi raportată la termenul de "precedent" care surprinde esențialul?

Reţine vechiul proverb care spune: "Dacă te uiţi mereu sub aceleaşi pietre, vei vedea tot timpul acelaşi lucru." În leadership, dacă nu rămâi deschis la o diversitate de puncte de vedere şi perspective, nu vei putea avansa în carieră, nu vei putea atinge măiestria şi, în consecinţă, te vei situa mereu la un nivel inferior. Dacă eşti un lider iscusit te vei detaşa uneori de propriile păreri pentru a elibera mintea ca să vadă alternativele şi să le accepte.

Sper din tot sufletul că nu eşti ca unul din acei oameni care emană un aer prietenos şi surâzător, dar îşi ascund orgoliul ce mocneşte în sufletul lor, care văd o singură realitate şi îşi formează propriile versiuni ale adevărului, dar care pot fi complet deformate.

Un lider iscusit preia influenţele străine şi le încorporează într-o viziune cu totul nouă, în timp ce un lider slab ţine cu tot dinadinsul la părerile sale aberante, la himerele sale, la convingerile greşite profund înrădăcinate în propria fiinţă, şi nu dă nici cel mai mic semn că ar avea de gând să se schimbe. Un asemenea om este condamnat să facă tot timpul greşeli, căci, deseori, în ciuda aerului său amabil şi îndatoritor, nu admite niciun fel de influenţă asupra activităţilor sale profesionale, din partea nimănui. Astfel el nu va avea pe nimeni care sa-i spună: "eşti desfăcut la prohab", înainte să iasă aşa în public".

Cooptarea şi consultarea timpurie aduc beneficii pe termen lung. Iar implicarea de la început a altor indivizi în munca ta îi va face să se simtă că au investit şi ei ceva personal în ideea respectivă, că şi-au adus contribuţia la o sursă viitoare de succes, ceea ce le va conferi un sentiment de prietenie pentru tine şi le va spori încrederea în compania ta.

Precedentul care surprinde esențialul ce trebuie transmis încât să diferențieze major o idee coaptă de o idee forțată sau puțin inspirată, are sfera de cuprindere asupra detaliilor care, luate împreună, au un rol important în refacerea imaginii unei lumi care joacă un rol hotărâtor în procesul de transformare totală la nivel de "tablou" general.

Leadershipul înseamnă să surprinzi suspansul într-o proporție mai mare, prin intruziunea miraculosului sau neașteptatului în destinul personajelor.

Concluzie: Ideea de progres presupune şi a prelua şi prelucra părerile şi sugestiile celor din jur (desigur cele pozitive şi benefice), rezultatul concretizându-se într-un "produs finit" net superior, cu performanţe deosebite. Acest produs reprezintă de fapt ecoul influenţelor străine preluate. Influenţa celorlalţi oameni se reflectă în personalitatea liderului, în ideile şi în modul său de gândire, şi respectiv în calitatea "produsului finit".

P.S. Inaccesibilitatea, inacceptarea unor opinii diferite, a altor tendinţe, echivalează de cele mai multe ori cu persistenţa în greşeală.

Ecoul intens de dincolo de moarte

Pune în funcţiune propulsorul dotat cu filtru autonom al intuiţiei, ca să ajungi la acea gândire puternică de dincolo de raţiune.

În faţa unui cadavru totul devine ridicol. Mai ales dacă axa de rotaţie a gândurilor trece prin centrul de greutate al unei forţe de sens opus, care are ceva de spus. Dar care poate fi percepută doar de o minte în care se manifestă o proprietate nouă: gândirea de dincolo de raţiune.

Clarice Starling constată cu surprindere - rodul unei atenţii izvorâte parcă dintr-o experienţă apriorică - că în gura cadavrului există totuşi ceva. Iar acest ceva se cere desluşit, scotocit până în ultimul ungher al fiinţei unde străjuieşte, semeaţă, cetatea cu ziduri groase a adevărului. Bănuieşte ceva, sau este doar imaginaţia ei?

Astfel, ea este prinsă într-o zonă îngustă de control, în care punctele de contact cu realitatea sunt doar tangenţiale, intersectându-se doar pe teritoriul evoluat al unei minţi profunde. Asta o ucide pe Clarice. Şi, în acelaşi timp, îi dă viaţă. Să pornească în căutarea oarbă a unei suprafeţe de sprijin pentru potrivirea unor noi piese de puzzle.

Într-o clipă, Clarice schimbă regulile jocului de-a v-aţi ascunselea în care a fost implicată pe durata anchetei. Ispititor, ea hoinăreşte printr-un labirint subteran, imens, nesfârşit, dincolo de tărâmul morţii, cu hotărârea de neclintit a unui chimist care îşi face experienţele într-o manieră riguroasă.

Leadership: Poţi să evidenţiezi imaginea unei totalităţi de elemente omogene care să formeze semnificaţia unei corelaţii între ce ştii, ceea ce se vede şi noutatea descoperită, ca o consecinţă a unor situaţii de viață care cer anumite cunoştinţe şi abilităţi?

Ai zice că acest corp neînsufleţit, aflat în stare de putrefacţie, generează o energie a cărei forţă nemăsurabilă este cuprinsă în segmentul de timp care poate deschide porţile sufletului. Sau, mai degrabă, acele porţi ale percepţiei ce duc în adâncul subconştientului. El pare că emite nişte radiaţii invizibile care sunt absorbite de instinctul de vânător de ecouri al lui Clarice.

Acest corp rigid şi inert oferă nişte indicii ce se cer urmărite si cercetate, noi secrete, noi detalii şi aspecte privind modul în care a fost înfăptuită crima. De parcă a fi prevăzut cu nişte emiţătoare speciale ale căror unde sunt receptate de simţurile cele mai fine. La nivel instinctual, Clarice pune totul cap la cap.

Două forţe interacţionează, atrăgându-se ca un magnet - o forţă venită din adâncuri şi o forţă a simţirii care preia semnalul difuz din circuitul intermediar de descărcare a energiei însufleţitoare. La nivel de subconştient, între Clarice şi trupul în care inima nu bate are loc o comunicare dincolo de moarte, o legătură invizibilă care modifică starea unor elemente ale sistemului ei de gândire.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi pui în valoare experienţa dobândită în anii de activitate profesională într-un context de tip "I demand Justice" a cărui ecou de cauzalitate se resimte într-un punct fix de unde poate să înceapă o ordine?

Dintre toţi poliţiştii din încăpere, numai ea, Clarice, are simţul observaţiei atât de dezvoltat. Numai ea pare plasată în apropierea acestei emisii de unde ce pleacă din corpul inert, mici particule de energie care se propagă nedetectabil sub formă de raze în toate direcțiile. Numai ea percepe pulsaţiile de frecvenţă joasă, proiectate să penetreze doar o inimă caldă cu o voinţă puternică.

Această ciudăţenie nu pare deloc prea smintită. Căci, într-adevăr, fotografia medicului legist nu surprinde cadrele într-un mod însufleţitor. Ceea ce este nedesluşit, firul întregii acţiuni, numai vocea lăuntrică poate să-l refacă.

Vuietul asurzitor al spiritului înfioară cumplit inima lui Clarice: " I demand justice ! " Un ecou a cărui procesare împinge puterea minţii la extrem, făcând posibilă detectarea acelor elemente şi indicii temeinice, necesare pentru depistarea criminalului. Un singur punct fix al evoluţiei profesionale a lui Clarice, de unde poate să înceapă o ordine a unei logici superioare, poate să dea realităţii (trăită prin constrângere) o nouă semnificaţie: aceea că orice noutate în materie de fapte şi situaţii de viaţă poate lăsa loc unei compensări de puternicie şi de afirmare personală.

Leadership: Înţelegi faptul că asumarea a ceea ce trăieşti prin prisma unor considerente de ordin profesional poate avea consistenţa unui fenomen psihologic numit "un moment definitoriu al vieţii" ?

Clarice trăieşte un moment definitoriu al vieţii care se manifestă tumultuos, desfăşurat în conştiinţa ei ca un fel de ecou de dincolo de moarte, ceea ce deschide o altă perspectivă asupra evenimentelor pe care le consideră de importanță majoră pentru caz. Ea bănuieşte că persoana decedată a fost un apropiat al ucigaşului Buffulo Bill, şi nu doar atât, ci faptul că a făcut parte dintr-un experiment mai amplu care încă se află în plină desfăşurare.

Leadershipul pătrunde în câmpul de resurse primordiale ale omului - răbdarea, înţelegerea şi perspicacitatea, pentru a-l ajuta să interiorizeze credinţe de genul " Eu sunt în stare ". Şi să-şi însuşească în cele din urmă abilităţile care garantează excelenţa în luarea deciziilor care au ca scop apropierea de adevărurile tangibile şi verosimile, în scopul configurării unei noi viziuni.

Iar această concentrare asupra esenţelor şi nu asupra contrariilor, această viziune izvorâtă dintr-un microcosm de gânduri şi sentimente care îndreaptă interesul şi atenţia spre un nivel superior de cunoaştere şi înţelegere, depinde de linia despărţitoare dintre ceea ce omul consideră că este "normal" şi ceea ce este "anormal". Dintre ceea ce se întâmplă într-o anumită privinţă şi ceea ce nu se poate întâmpla.

Leadershipul se poate impune ca o soluţie de perspectivă pentru reabilitarea infrastructurii de gândire şi acţiune, nu ca o opţiune care îngroapă adevărul sau limitează potenţialul în atingerea desăvârşirii profesionale.

În funcţie de modul în care liderul răspunde observaţiilor determinate de omisiunile unor fapte care au influenţat negativ desfăşurarea evenimentelor, reexaminate sub mai multe aspecte, el va putea pune în aplicare o nouă gândire a designului şi funcţionabilităţii leadershipului. Personalizat și modificat până răspunde scopului urmărit: puterea de a se depăşi pe sine însuşi

Leadership: Adevărurile despre viaţă pe care le extragi dintr-un fapt cunoscut spre a stabili un fapt necunoscut, pot fi formulate când e prea târziu ca să mai conteze?

Pentru a recunoaşte un adevăr incontestabil trebuie să ai la dispoziţie o pârghie fină, un fapt care s-a petrecut şi care are toate şansele să se repete.

În cazul lui Clarice, adevărul care i-a scăpat din vedere de fiecare dată, este în măsură să aducă informaţii importante, dar asta nu mai poate schimba trecutul, nu mai poate învia morţii. Ea îşi dă seama, iar conştiinţa i-o repetă ca un gong chinezesc, că ceea ce contează nu este doar prinderea criminalului, ci rugăciunea pentru cei morţi (victime maltratate cu bestialitate) care să-i aline orice supărare şi să-i dea puterea să se elibereze de imaginea lor din memorie.

O forţă venită din adâncuri şi o forţă a simţirii - sunt cele două puncte cheie din infrastructura sistemului de ghidaj al liderului, construite mai mult în baza unei convenţii dintre obiectivele fundamentale ale cercetării sale şi efectele imprevizibile pe care acestea le au asupra aprecierii situaţiei de fapt.

Pentru a demonta acea gândire limitată care porneşte de la observaţii şi premise cu care toată lumea este de acord, neavând un background format din senzaţii individuale şi percepţii complexe şi extrem de rafinate, el trebuie să-şi îndrepte succesiv atenţia asupra unui aspect ignorat sau neglijat. Şi apoi să-l corecteze.

Caută bine, viitor lider ! Caută între cele două râuri ce-şi amestecă apele între adevăr şi îndoială. Porneşte în căutarea satisfacţiei adânci ce-ţi poate linişti curiozitatea, care să-ţi potolească apăsarea insuportabilă a obligaţiilor asumate cu mult curaj.

Pune în funcţiune propulsorul dotat cu filtru al intuiţiei cele mai fine şi angajează-te în partida demenţială împotriva punctelor de vedere prea puţin fundamentate. Nu te mulţumi cu realitatea pe care o indică baza de susţinere a cercetării. Schimbă regulile jocului de-a v-aţi ascunselea în care eşti implicat pe durata propriului traseu evolutiv.

Leadershipul este un moment definitoriu al vieţii tale, corespunzând unor faze ale dezvoltării în care stimulii de tip emoţional sau comportamental sunt dependenţi de legăturile puternice cu cei cărora n-ai reuşit să le vii în ajutor.

Ecoul intens de dincolo de moarte pune în evidenţă necesitatea cercetării elementelor aparent nesemnificative pentru o gândire limitată. Şi de a le aborda într-un mod particular, obţinând indicii pe care alţii nu le găsesc.

Un îndemn pentru tine, viitor lider: cercetează şi cugetă, fără însă a pierde esenţa lucrurilor.

Ecoul unei virtuţi pierdute într-o metaforă a destinului uman

Orice faptă măreaţă are gustul unei depărtări în care ai vrea să ajungi. Şi nu doar să ajungi într-un loc nemaivăzut de nimeni, ci să-l faci demn de a fi perceput ca o acţiune de mare-credință.

Strâmtoarea Magellan a devenit cu desăvârşire de prisos. Soarta ei este definitiv pecetluită. Ea nu mai are decât o semnificaţie istorică. Este redusă la o simplă noţiune geografică. Mult căutatul paso n-a ajuns calea de trecere pentru mii şi mii de corăbii. Calea cea mai scurtă şi mai rapidă spre India şi nici Spania nu şi-a sporit bogăţiile, nici Europa n-a devenit mai puternică de pe urma acestei descoperiri. Dintre toate zonele lumii locuibile, coastele dintre Patagonia şi Ţara de Foc se numără şi astăzi printre cele mai sărace şi mai părăsite colţuri ale pământului.

Dar în lumina istoriei, utilitatea practică nu determină niciodată valoarea morală a unei înfăptuiri. Numai acela care sporeşte cunoştinţele omenirii despre ea însăşi, care dezvoltă conştiinţa şi puterile ei creatoare, numai acela o îmbogăţeşte cu adevărat, pentru toate veacurile. În acest sens, fapta lui Magellan întrece însă toate faptele mari din epoca sa. Şi ceea ce reprezintă pentru noi o glorie deosebită, ceea ce adaugă o nouă strălucire gloriei lui Magellan este că – spre deosebire de cei mai mulţi conducători – el n-a sacrificat pentru ideea sa mii şi sute de mii de oameni, ci numai propria sa viaţă. Prin această jertfire de sine, într-adevăr eroică, va rămâne în veci neuitată splendida îndrăzneală a celor cinci corăbii atât de mici, atât de slabe şi singuratice în imensitatea mărilor, şi care au cutezat totuşi să pornească în sacrul război al omenirii împotriva Necunoscutului.

Leadership: Poţi să te dezvolţi sub îndrumarea unui "înainte care vine de departe", dar nu din spaţiul nedefinibil al unei depărtări, ci din adâncurile insondabile ale unui timp fabulos şi totodată real?

Şi neuitat va rămâne el însuşi, care a îndrăznit cel dintâi să schimbe în faptă această idee, cea mai temerară din toate: ocolul lumii – a cărui etapă finală este realizată de ultima dintre corăbiile sale. Căci, cunoscând în sfârşit măsura circumferinţei pământului, zadarnic căutată timp de un mileniu, întreaga omenire dobândeşte pentru întâia oară o nouă măsură a puterilor sale. Cucerind tot mai mult spaţiu, pătrunzând tot mai departe în nesfârşirile Universului, ea îşi sporeşte curajul şi bucuria de a lupta, devenind astfel conştientă de propria-i măreţie.

Întotdeauna un om realizează maximum posibil numai când fapta lui devine exemplară. Şi, din această privinţă, exemplul lui Magellan – fapta lui aproape uitată – a dovedit pentru toate timpurile că o idee, dacă e purtată de aripile geniului, dacă e dusă mereu şi hotărât înainte de o pasiune, se vădeşte la urmă mai puternică decât toate elementele naturii. Măreaţa lui faptă a arătat că un singur om, cu scurta şi trecătoarea sa viaţă, poate transforma într-o realitate şi într-un adevăr nepieritor ceea ce fusese numai o dorinţă, numai un vis pentru sute de generaţii.

Leadership: Poţi să transmiţi imaginea unei depărtări spre care probabil te vei îndrepta fără întrerupere, căutând un absolut pe care îl credeai ascuns într-o "realitate invizibilă"?

Asemenea unei lucrări divine, măreaţa fapta a lui Magellan a revelat o altă faţă a gândirii seculare, orientându-şi demersul valabil şi durabil spre împlinirea unui vis unic, de mare rezoluţie spirituală, privit însă nu ca un motiv de înlocuire a realităţii cunoscute – aşa cum l-au avut în vedere generaţii întregi – ci, ca limbaj al unei hermeneutici a mesajului divin.

Dar, ca acest limbaj să devină ţinta altor împlinitori de fapte măreţe, visul nu trebuie interpretat ca "metaforă" a unui traseu plin de obstacole şi suferinţe, spre Mântuire, sinonim cu drumul lui Moise prin deşert, ci este menit să stabilească echilibrul dintre temeiul unui angajament asumat şi scopul urmărit, redând lumii plenitudinea unui plan divin.

Deci nu trebuie să vedem fapta măreaţă ca metaforă implicită. Căci acest echilibru dintre temeiul unui angajament asumat şi scopul urmărit trebuie descifrat în planul de adâncime al marilor împliniri ale visurilor umane, plan în care acest limbaj al unei hermeneutici a mesajului divin se constituie ca un fenomen original al expresiei creatoare și al conturării unui mod de viață capabil să reflecte adevărata natură a liderului.

O realitate invizibilă este reprezentarea în faptă a unui vis care merge mai departe, cu pași mărunți dar siguri, datorită și alături de Dumnezeu. Numai în faptele măreţe, de creaţie sau descoperire, se poate citi „lauda" Domnului. Sugestii pentru susţinerea interpretării acestei "laude" divine, sunt oferite de filozofia simbolică a autoperfecţionării morale care, susţinând că relaţia dintre sine şi divin este prototipul raportului simbolic dintre ceea ce crezi că este important pentru tine şi ceea ce crede Dumnezeu că este important pentru trecerea lumii la un alt nivel. Deci, să privim fapta măreaţă ca o nouă raportare intelectuală și spirituală a omului la spațiul unui nou mod de gândire a excelenţei.

Şi, ca să parafrazez afirmaţia cuiva: Nu contează înaintarea în lumea metafizicii, într-o lume care este clădită cu precădere prin mijlocirea noţiunii de substanţialitate şi cauzalitate, sau dominată de acestea. Ci numai retragerea în fenomenul original al expresiei "Am ajuns să fiu cineva" ne oferă aici cheia credinţei întărită prin fapte.

Leadershipul este imaginea unei depărtări spre care probabil puţini se vor îndrepta vreodată, pe motiv că ceea ce leagă credinţa şi scopul foarte ambiţios, într-un ansamblu ambele părți, este reprezentată sub forma unei făgăduinţe făcută de Dumnezeu numai celor dinainte aleşi pentru a împlini o lucrare sfântă.

Ecoul unei virtuţi pierdute într-o metaforă a destinului uman este un efect de scurtătură către o întârziere regulată foarte lungă, mai ales dacă aceasta virtute se numeşte "onoare". Fără îndoială, îl putem întâlni şi cunoaşte pe Dumnezeu numai din adâncurile unui suflet însetat de reuşită şi de minuni. De la acest nivel al abordării istoriei lui Magellan, putem să ne închipuim fapta lui ca o lungă şi nesfârşită confirmare a destinului implacabil creat de Dumnezeu.

Ecoul unui vis care imită stringent realitatea

Povestea fabuloasă a unei viziuni este creaţia unui visător care renunţă la realitate pentru a urma o lume fantastică, dar extrem de spectaculoasă, pentru că este lumea propriului Sine.

Închid ochii şi mă culc, cu menţiunea că nimic nu mă poate trezi decât un vis frumos, capabil să se repete în realitate. Este un moment de gândire lucidă, dar şi rece într-un anumit fel, fiindcă mă simt prizonierul unui spaţiu în care judecăţile de valoare nu pot fi îngrădite. Or lumea exterioară nu se consumă în acest spaţiu, numai eu îmi consum himerele în spaţiul pe care îl am disponibil într-un alt prezent, dintr-un univers paralel.

Şi tocmai în completarea acestui vis progresiv, odată cu repetarea unor experienţe reale de viaţă, mă încadrez într-un rezumat de valoare al subiectului ce poate declanşa o ruptură de relaţie cu fenomenul Simvehebrew , o nouă determinare a ceva ce există în afara gândirii, mai ales dacă gândirea fi descrisă şi definită din unghiurile tăcute ale universului.

Ştiu că numai prin actul de a adormi, gândindu-mă la un lucru izvorât dintr-o dualitate a sinelui reflectat în realitate, voi putea să traversez acel spaţiu al viziunii ce îşi afirmă valoarea indiferent de suportul ei material, metafizic sau comparatist. Iar în visul meu plin de semnificaţii, atât de bine ascuns în sinele meu, părea că m-am trezit la realitate, dar ceva îmi spunea că încă dorm adânc, dar dorm fără să mă las manipulat de o eventuală oglindire în conştiinţa unui destin emanat din veşnicie.

Leadership: Imaginea în care te regăseşti cel mai bine dă impresia unui vis care te poartă în multe direcţii, dar în realitate nu cedează nicio clipă separării de lumea exterioară?

Mintea pare a fi în continuare focalizată pe recunoaşterea momentului principal când materialitatea se afirmă din plin şi în artă, prin intermediul căreia se produce traversarea de la mesaj la emoţie, de la emoţie la țesătura fragilă a unei povești din viaţa personală. În timp ce mesajul din vis, învăluindu-mă în mantia catifelată a somnului profund, se focalizează pe recunoaşterea artei ca principală punte de traversare spre împlinirea idealului unei minţi aptă să declanşeze emoţiile unei descoperiri autentice în materie de creaţie literară sau artistică.

Totuşi, în somnul acesta adânc, odihnitor, regenerant, se petrece ceva. Mai mult seamănă cu o confuzie. Căci mă simt altcineva decât sunt de obicei, percepându-mă numai în ecoul unei vieți din care, poate, va rămâne doar amintirea. Totuşi, mă simt calm în interiorul meu. Nu simt nicio nelinişte pentru care să-mi vină careva în ajutor. Totul e liniştit aici. Imaginea pe care mi-am făurit-o aici este o evadare a sinelui în altcineva identic cu mine, dar dintr-un univers paralel.

Din această cauză imi susţin punctul de vedere eminamente artistic. Creaţia mea vizează transformarea unui vis într-o viziune a interiorităţii individuale ce coincide cu momentul în care individul iese din rândul lumii, devine liber, îşi vede rostul în armonia universală, se recunoaşte ca un observator din exterior şi, astfel, întreaga lui existenţă capătă altă semnificaţie.

Mai trebuie spus că, prin comparaţie cu realitatea mea visată, bine ascunsă cu ajutorul metafizicii, se verifică şi acea facultate extraordinară a visării pe care o experimentează un personaj al scriitorului Miguel Ángel Asturias. Este vorba de acea facultate a desprinderii de realitatea imediată, lucru ce stă la baza oricărui curent filosofic:

"Cine sunt? Nu ştiu cine sunt. În căuşul mâinilor adun umbra care picură de pe pleoapele oamenilor pentru a spori cu ea noaptea, dar acum nu mai am mâini, iar oamenii nu mai au pleoape unde să se adune în picături întunericul şi visul. Sunt treji mereu..."

Leadership: Imaginea ta identitară se poate construi în funcţie de raportul ce se stabilește între lumea exterioară și lumea interioară, cu menţiunea că ceea ce te poate trezi din vis este însuşirea unei creaţii care aparţine altcuiva?

Şi ce să vezi? Noapte de noapte încep să visez cum dorm în realitate, mai mult decât ceea ce aş putea trăi în realitate cu ajutorul visului. La fel se întâmplă şi cu luciditatea unui pictor care pictează foarte bine odată cu implicarea lui în mersul Universului. Creaţia sa produce schimbări în câmpul energetic al unui spirit care ia, încetul cu încetul, stăpânire asupra fiinţei sale. Cumva, el se vede dintr-un punct situat în lateral sau deasupra patului său, iar asta înseamnă că se află deasupra planului realităţii, şi ca visul este însăşi creaţia lui.

În adâncul sufletului, mă doare că va trebui să mă despart de visul în care realitatea mi se părea doar o iluzie cu care mă învăţasem să trăiesc. Alteori mă nelinişteşte impresia că toate acestea s-au mai întâmplat odată cu acordul unui Deja-Vu metamorfozat într-un cosmos einsteinian, plin de surse gigantice de energie, care pot fi înţelese doar prin prisma relativităţii.

Mai degrabă, par a fi ilustrarea unui mare act de hipnoză şi de seducţie vizuală, îndrăgind mai mult spaţiul odihnitor dintre două planuri de existenţă separate, tot aşa cum memoria labirint a unui scriitor se odihneşte în spaţiul dintre acele cuvinte care îi alcătuiesc amintirile.

Haideţi să ne imaginăm că trezirea mea s-a întâmplat brusc, anulând orice poveste visată de un artist care se ataşează de o reprezentare a realităţii în care el pare să se manifeste cu un fel de instinct narativ, ca un reflex al mecanismului cerebral, fie ca un produs propriu al inteligenței aflat în directă legătură cu un fond spiritual, ductil şi perspectivant. Să nu fii om, ci să fii doar proiectarea visului unui alt om. Ce halucinantă descoperire !

Creaţia unui artist este viziunea asupra ființei umane autentice și împlinite în planul unei lumi pe care el o regăseşte doar visându-se ca fiind parte dintr-un vis din care se trezeşte a fi cu totul altcineva, în altă persoană.

Aşadar, creaţia mea este varianta alternativă de abordare a planului unei lumi în care mă refugiez ori de câte ori exteriorul intersectează interiorul în oglindirea unei vieți care nu poate fi egalată în literatură de alți scriitori. Şi asta, datorită autenticităţii cu care reuşesc să redau perspectiva adâncimii sinelui ca parte dintr-un imens întreg.

Ecoul unui vis care imită stringent realitatea sugerează adevărata forţă a unui artist: de a traduce realitatea lumii (percepută într-un simbolism rafinat) în forma unui vis în care te poţi pierde dacă nu eşti dispus să fii una cu sinele tău autentic.

Ecuaţia superiorităţii

Învaţă să stăpâneşti elementele principale ale construcţiei leadershipului, în aşa fel încât ştiinţa ta complexă să nu producă fisuri în structura funcţională a omului.

Din păcate este impenetrabil, prea sofisticat pentru a reacţiona la testele standardizate. Face impresia unei structuri de gândire rigide de mari dimensiuni, imobilizată în lanţurile ramificate ale unui masiv de elemente stranii care se propagă în mod discontinuu în realitatea abstractă de care se înconjoară. Pe acest om l-am lua drept un amestec întunecat şi misterios de calităţi, însă compoziţia este una rece, făcută din materialul unei judecăţi fără milă, dar căreia orice logică din câmpul psihologiei i-ar da dreptate.

Dr. Hannibal Lecter atinge niveluri suficient de înalte de înţelegere a omului. Energia foarte concentrată şi bine orientată pe care o absoarbe de la cei din jurul său, din informaţiile pe care cu dibăcie le extrage din viaţa lor, este suficient de mare pentru a produce un Big Bang. Ca un şoc electric le întrerupe acestora ritmul normal de funcţionare şi evoluţie, influenţându-i şi înclinându-le voinţa pe o axă închisă, la care numai el se poate conecta şi reconecta.

Reacţiile înlănţuite în acest proces activ de instalare a haosului în mintea oamenilor, printr-o disociere a dimensiunii personalităţii fiecăruia, prin efectuarea unei rotaţii de 180 de grade a capacităţii lor de pătrundere a complexităţii, - prezintă anumite particularităţi în funcţie de structura, modelul şi materialul din care este croit fiecare din ei.

Leadership: Măsura maximă a competentelor tale este fundamentată de experienţele unei participări la o nouă etapa de potenţare a relevanţei conceptului "fii impenetrabil" într-un context de tipul complexităţii identităţii personale?

În toată această ecuaţie a superiorităţii, primul loc îi revine doctorului Hannibal Lecter. El este stăpân pe toate posibilităţile de a calcula şi schimba mutările într-o ordine care creează o discontinuitate între gândire şi simţire, în ierarhia apropierii fizice şi sufleteşti de fiinţa umană şi dezbinării acesteia de ea însăşi.

Un mecanic de locomotivă trebuie să dea semnale cu fluierul locomotivei ori de câte ori pune convoiul de vagoane în mişcare. Însă Hannibal nu dă niciun semnal de avertizare, ci manevrează locomotiva persuasiunii fără să stabilească cu interlocutorul direcţia de deplasare, producând intenţionat deraieri.

Două forţe concurente se unesc printr-o legătură fină, apoi se resping prin intenţii diferite. Pe de o parte omul care pare a poseda ştiinţa cea mai înaltă, care pare să fi atins apogeul cunoaşterii umane. De cealaltă parte oponentul său, omul care posedă calităţile necesare pentru a face posibilă acea cunoaştere complexă şi atingerea apogeului. În ambele cazuri există gânduri, motivaţii şi scopuri mai mult sau mai puţin ascunse.

Puternicul contrast dintre cele două forţe concurente arată că niciodată nu e prea târziu să percepi viaţa altfel şi să te redescoperi. Pentru că niciodată nu afli multe despre tine decât atunci când cineva impune un alt sens vieţii tale prin intermediul unui set de factori provocatori.

Leadership: Poţi contracara efectele negative ale superiorităţii înscrisă în coordonatele unei filosofii care năzuieşte să înainteze până la limitele raţiunii omeneşti?

Pentru a avea o imagine cât mai concludentă cu privire la posibilităţile de expansiune a leadershipului în viitor, adică să fie selectabil şi uşor de manevrat ca formă de adaptare şi dezvoltare, pornind de la realităţile liderului de tip nou, cu orizontul format din acumularea ştiinţei, este necesar să procedăm la o rejudecare a relaţiei dintre Ego şi limitele raţiunii omeneşti. Aceste limite sunt atinse în momentul când nu mai faci distincţia dintre bine şi rău, crezând că amândouă contribuie la prefacerile continue ale ştiinţei, vieţii şi societăţii.

Un asemenea lider, care poate să posede ştiinţa cea mai înaltă, capabil de control, alimentat de tentaţia de a fi unic şi de a atinge apogeul cunoaşterii umane, se va confrunta în primul rând cu el însuşi. Orice element utilizat în construirea şi extinderea teritoriului de control va fi considerat dezamăgitor, ca o bilă neagră, dacă nu este perfect opozabil şi dacă nu prilejuieşte o incursiune de amploare în universul uman. Această incursiune poate stabili o limitare a opţiunilor susținătorilor şi blocarea lor într-o stare de inerţie, care alcătuieşte suportul ideal pentru susţinerea superiorităţii liderului.

E greu de spus cum şi prin ce mijloace vor fi contracarate în viitor efectele negative ale "superiorităţii", sau ale ştiinţei complexe de persuasiune înrudite cu leadershipul prin obiective, tactici şi metode de acţiune. Cert este că niciun fel de măsuri, niciun fel de relaţie dintre cele două părţi: lider-susţinători , criticate câteodată de către diverşi specialişti, nu vor putea contribui la diminuarea dorinţei liderului de a-şi demonstra cu adevărat potenţialul şi de a-şi mulţumi Ego-ul puternic şi activ.

De aceea realizarea unui profil, a unui portret psihologic care să permită aprofundarea personalităţii liderului devine de prisos în aceste condiţii. Căci ego-ul său şi raportarea la "superioritate" practic se intersectează şi fuzionează până la o contopire de excepţie. Un întreg care constituie valoarea absolută a leadershipului, punând la socoteală, prin simplificări favorabile, câştigul de orice fel. Dar în special realizarea poziţională.

Forţa leadershipului tău depinde de poziţia forţei suport a limitelor tale, în timp ce continui să-ţi mişti înainte şi înapoi umbra vieţii?

Umbra vieţii, cuprinzând consecinţele gândurilor tale ascunse, poate fi personalizată prin talentul cu care reuşeşti, pe neobservate, să provoci o contradicţie între propriile percepţii şi semnalele pe care le recepţionezi de la ceilalţi.

Ego-ul tău, devenit tot mai sigur şi mai însetat după putere şi lauri, cedează în faţa dezvoltării personalităţii tale? Lliderul devine stăpân pe toate posibilităţile de a calcula şi schimba mutările de intimidare într-o ordine care creează o discontinuitate între gândire şi simţire, din care poate rezulta o dezbinare a valorilor şi idealurilor fiinţei umane, care cu mare dificultate poate fi redresată.

Vom putea recunoaşte în lider, într-o atitudine prietenoasă, justă şi realistă, pe lângă ecourile directe ale realităţii propriilor limite şi abordări, valori şi orientări, şi unele ecouri indirecte. Acestea trimit la fondurile şi oportunităţile de câştiguri pe care el le-ar putea realiza dacă reuşeşte să profite în sens constructiv de implicarea oamenilor în acţiuni comune, stabilindu-şi superioritatea prin agregarea unui set de factori bine definiţi care să nu le împiedice dezvoltarea şi evoluţia.

Dacă vrei să te califici în etapa finală a excelenţei, învaţă să stăpâneşti elementele principale ale construcţiei leadershipului în aşa fel încât ştiinţa ta complexă să nu producă fisuri în structura funcţională a omului.

Poziţia forţei suport a limitelor tale este dată de ceea ce eşti în stare să înfrunţi din punct de vedere al conştiinţei atunci când pui ştiinţa în folosul unei psihanalize și teologii foarte sensibile la dimensiunea existențialistă.

Ecuaţia superiorităţii include cele două tipuri de lider. Unul de factură pozitivă care-şi utilizează ştiinţa, cunoaşterea, acţiunile în scopuri benefice tuturor, gândurile sale fiind în concordanţă cu faptele. Şi altul care îşi foloseşte cunoştinţele şi metodele pentru a dezorienta şi a crea un veritabil haos în mintea oamenilor. La acesta din urmă, la o cercetare atentă se descoperă gânduri ascunse puse în slujba propriului Ego şi a propriilor intenţii.

Edificiul cristalin al alchimiei

Mânuieşte bine corzile pe care se sprijină ştiinţa, încât să atingi fără repercusiuni punctul maxim al puterii tale de transformare.

Ca să evoluez spre inaccesibilul pur, spre edificiul cristalin al alchimiei, microcosmosul atât de fascinant în care se găsea nealterată piatra filozofală, trebuia să pun în practică deviza prin care funcţionalul şi motricul se autoalimentează la maximum în mod constant. Atingând acea tensiune unică care generează şi modifică materia, dând naştere unei realităţi necodate.

Nu era decât o înflorire a gândirii care propaga rapid informaţia de la intrare spre ieşire, la timpul prezent, şi exploatarea legăturii de acces cu viitorul. Aşadar, nu erau imposibil de extras nici informaţiile din coordonatele viitorului. Informaţia era, într-adevăr, primul element de la baza cunoaşterii mele, care dacă era bine structurată şi plasată pe o reţea de tipul rotationis-retexamus putea furniza elemente noi despre anumite procese sau fenomene care stăteau la baza alchimiei.

Spre deosebire de ceilalţi alchimişti care trebuiau să pună în practică deviza "obscurum per obscurius, ignotum per ignotis" ca să evolueze spre inaccesibilul pur, eu atinsesem deja punctul maxim al puterii de transformare a materiei. Reuşisem să elimin excesul de energie care permitea materiei să se comporte și să acționeze într-un anumit fel, menţinând constant procentajul de preluări de substanţe stabile. În stare de compunere, materia tindea să participe la reacţii rapide, cu degajare de căldură, care aveau loc în faza solidă a compuşilor coordinativi.

Misterioasele căi ale alchimiei se contraziceau, pierzându-şi deseori din revelaţia primordială care conducea la elaborarea hărţii precise, ce ascundea intrarea spre locul tainic în care se afla piatra filozofală. Harta o reprezentasem imaginar, după aceleaşi tipare de extracţie a minereului de uraniu în carieră şi în subteran.

Leadership: Percepţia ta faţă de ştiinţa pe care o reprezinţi este dependentă de "frumosul şi utilitatea" propriului univers de gândire care ştie să fie special printr-o salvare spectaculoasă din circumstanţele încurcate ale plinului de cunoaştere?

Am părăsit inaccesibilul după ce am crezut că stăpânesc perfect această artă. Însă nu puteam să-mi limitez învăţătura nou însuşită doar la practica alchimică. De multe ori aş fi fost nevoit să trec pe sub corzile întinse ale secretelor de la un mal la celălalt al ştiinţei, riscând să mi se agaţe catargele şi să nu mai recunosc caracteristicile unice ale adevărului dezbrăcat de orice iluzie. Şi să ating punctul de maxim dezgust faţă de mine însumi.

Dacă focul prea-plinului de cunoaştere scăpa de sub control, el ar putea mistui mare parte din tot ceea ce înţelesesem. Prin urmare reacţia de fotoliză a apei vii, transformată chimic în pulbere palpabilă, sub efectul unei trituraţii naturale, trebuia să fie suficient de rapidă şi să se reducă la gradul 3, pe o scară de la 1 la 5, pentru a împiedica extinderea focului.

Chiar şi alchimiştii sunt mici, vulnerabili şi par a nu avea însemnătate în faţa Marii Opere. Potenţialul uluitor al puterii lor de extracţie a esenţei din piatra filozofală, neprelucrată la foc deschis, se poate pierde dacă corzile pe care este înălţat edificiul cristalin al alchimiei sunt prea întinse.

Leadership: Cât de mult îţi poţi extinde operaţiunile de selecţie şi echilibrare a resurselor de creaţie, fără să declanşezi o stare de amăgire în prim planul unei conştiinţe care se vrea liberă şi evoluată?

Poţi să-ţi antrenezi gândirea prin exploatarea legăturii de acces cu viitorul? Ştiinţa îţi poate furniza elemente noi despre anumite procese sau fenomene care stau la baza evoluţiei tale? Când anume crezi că vei stăpâni perfect arta conducerii?

În condiţiile lipsei de acces la surse de informaţii preţioase, utile conturării unei ştiinţe ample, dincolo de orice fel de convingeri şi limitări, poţi apela la valorile superioare ale creaţiei căreia i te supui. Operaţiunile de selecţie şi echilibrare a resurselor de creaţie pe care le ai la dispoziţie, analizând efectele "up and down" care pot să reducă valoarea leadershipului, indică situaţii când te afli în faţa unor opţiuni ce nu pot fi convertite rapid în rezultate.

Însă atâta timp cât există "inaccesibilul", conştiinţa caracterului incomplet al ştiinţei tale, nu poate exista şi nu poate fi vorba despre nimic nociv. Dimpotrivă, poate rezulta o stimulare a consumului de creaţie, prin creditarea cu noi informaţii, tot mai selective, care nu se referă numai la dezvoltarea leadershipului în relaţie cu ceea ce este nou şi cu ceea ce se produce în plan material. Ci, în special, la alcătuirea lui structurală de o mare complexitate, deci la numărul de etape riguros delimitate, parcurse pentru a ajunge la construirea unui alt conţinut, respectiv facilitarea deciziilor care conduc la realizarea lui.

Leadership: Ştiinţa ta poate fi supusă transformării printr-un set de relaţii şi condiţionări care fac din trăirile şi simţirile sale un ciudat amestec de logică şi creativitate în construcţia simbolică a realităţii?

O măsură utilizabilă a conţinutului leadershipului, prin modificarea sau adăugarea de noi setări aferente mecanismului de creaţie, îl constituie propagarea rapidă a informaţiei spre înainte, de la intrare spre ieşire. În acest stadiu are loc "înflorirea gândirii", cu posibilitatea de a distinge fiecare direcţie de urmat, de a concentra toate resursele disponibile şi de a exploata noi oportunităţi. Aşadar, informaţia este, într-adevăr, primul element de la baza cunoaşterii, care dacă este bine structurată şi plasată pe un anumit nivel de dezvoltare poate crea condiţiile optime creaţiei.

Ştiinţa ta poate fi supusă transformării printr-un set de relaţii şi condiţionări, care au ca efect punerea sau nepunerea în practică a leadershipului, numai dacă ia forma unei "ameninţări" de natură să intimideze sau să pericliteze ceea ce ai creat. O operă de artă reuşită, cum ar trebui să fie leadershipul, dispunând de anumite efecte de extindere sau restrângere, cu posibilitatea de a se anula reciproc, trebuie să se încadreze în anumite tipare de gândire, împărtăşite la nivel de rezultat, şi să favorizeze răspândirea anumitor idei.

Ca să dobândeşti stăpânirea perfectă a artei de a conduce, limitează-ţi învăţătura nou însuşită doar la o practică care să fie validată de ştiinţă, profundă. Şi care să fie adoptată de toate tipurile de indivizi. Dacă încerci să treci pe sub corzile întinse ale secretelor de la un mal la celălalt al ştiinţei, rişti să ţi se agaţe catargele şi să nu mai recunoşti caracteristicile unice ale adevărului dezbrăcat de orice iluzie. Iar dacă focul prea-plinului de cunoaştere scapă de sub control, el putea mistui mare parte din tot ceea ce ai realizat. Vrei să atingi punctul de maxim dezgust faţă de tine însuţi?

Leadershipul este plinul de cunoaştere care îţi construieşte realitatea dorită prin intermediul efectelor de coincidenţă şi de suprapunere a unor teorii, sau care îţi atrofiază subiectivitatea dacă cineva nu te lasă să iei puţin din fiecare lucru şi să faci TU paşii aceia spre transfigurarea realităţii.

Edificiul cristalin al alchimiei, atât de fragil şi iluzoriu, semnifică acea zonă restrânsă în care se refugiază liderul, singur cu ştiinţa şi filozofia sa, pentru a descoperi "piatra filozofală". Cu care, aidoma unui magician, va putea să dea răspunsuri şi să acţioneze adecvat în toate situaţiile problemă.

Tendinţa de a persista sau de a alege calea spre o astfel de zonă, inaccesibilă majorităţii, poate fi primejdioasă pentru liderii care nu ajung să stăpânească "Marea Operă". Această incursiune în inima ştiinţei poate nărui tot ceea ce ei au creat, aidoma unui castel de nisip.

Efecte Speciale

Învaţă să construieşti o imagine vizuală din ansamblul elementelor care compun o realitate, astfel încât ceea ce vrei să scoţi în evidenţă să reprezine un uriaş efect de sinergie.

Colaborarea dintre cei doi titani continuă şi la înregistrarea sincronizată a muzicii. Eisenstein urmăreşte pasionat munca migăloasă şi de maximă exigenţă a compozitorului. Înregistrările se fac într-o atmosferă de sărbătoare. Muzica lui Prokofiev îl minunează, îl extaziază pe Eisenstein.

Prokofiev lucrează la înregistrare cu o pasiune absorbantă. Începe prin a se interesa de toate problemele tehnice ale înregistrării. Ascultă toate instrumentele producătoare de zgomot de care dispune studioul, pe unele introducându-le în partitură.

De pildă, pentru fragmentul "Careul", pe lângă cinci instrumente de percuţie, există notată în orchestraţie şi... cada de la Mosfilm. El constată deformaţiile pe care le provoacă microfoanele. Soluţionează problema folosind defectele aparatajului în vederea obţinerii unor efecte originale. Astfel înregistrează trompetele teutone foarte aproape de microfon, amplificând deformările iscate şi obţinând astfel "un uriaş efect dramatic". Caută efecte speciale şi prin distribuirea neobişnuită a instrumentelor, printr-o orchestraţie "inversată", de neconceput în domeniul lucrărilor simfonice obişnuite.

Încearcă soluţii - de atunci universal aplicate - prin amplasarea orchestrei într-un studio şi a corului într-altul dozându-le apoi la înregistrare, din cabină, după nevoile dramatice ale acţiunii. *****

Leadership: Poţi să conferi creaţiei tale un conţinut de autenticitate astfel încât să uimeşti lumea datorită "esenţei gândirii prin contraste" exprimată printr-o formă de accentuare a unei stări de spirit detaşate şi receptive la nou?

Procesul realizării compoziţiei, a cărei schiţă izbucneşte din „zgomotele” aleatoare produse de diverse repere (instrumente, voci, vibraţia unor corpuri aflate în mișcare, etc.) este mult mai complicat, nuanţat printr-o serie de asociaţii mult mai numeroase, și se referă la toată rezerva ştiinţifică, emoţională, vizionară și creativă de care dispune regizorul. Acest proces ne dezvăluie esenţa fenomenului „ gândirii prin contraste ” - vizând o selecţie atentă a intrărilor auditive, asamblate ulterior într-o combinaţie fantezistă.

Fiecare sunet sau amestec de sunete, tot ceea ce intră în perimetrul hărţii unei minţi născocitoare, poate fi considerat un fel de „translator” care emite instrucţiuni de nivel înalt într-un cod care, pentru a fi descifrat, cere un efort de gândire unitară. Un bun regizor anticipează forma pe care o îmbracă esenţa unei atare orânduiri de efecte speciale înainte de a-şi promova versiunea de realitate prin intermediul unui microcosmos de trăiri, sentimente, gânduri şi idei.

Apoi, pe parcursul materializării în diferite tipare de frecvenţă, odată cu introducerea anumitor sugestii, întregul cod se transformă într-o imagine vizuală: conţinut și mesaj.

Un regizor a cărui stare de spirit este detaşată şi receptivă la nou ştie să pună în scenă cât mai elocvent un scenariu care să evidenţieze relaţia lui cu o lume mult mai largă decât scena unui experiment, în care spectatorii trebie să relaţioneze tot ceea ce văd pe ecran cu mediul înconjurător, cu alte persoane, norme şi înţelesuri. Scenariul trebuie să evidenţieze însăşi felul de a fi al regizorului, trebuie nu doar să mişte inimile spectatorilor, ci să reprezinte realitatea propriei sale existenţe, a propriei sale minţi, a propriei sale conştiinţe.

Esenţa gândirii în contraste se poate regăsi în legătura dintre lucruri, acţiuni, stări, evenimente şi atitudini care oricând pot fi schimbate în funcţie de cauzele şi efectele care duc la schimbarea cadrului de reprezentare a cunoştinţelor care doresc a explica lumea.

Doar regizorii dotaţi cu o ureche muzicală foarte bună pot să surprindă ”ieșiri extraordinare” din zgomotele aleatoare. Ei reuşesc cel mai bine să optimizeze fluxul de efecte speciale ce corespund condiţiilor de percepţie ale sunetelor profunde si semnificative din totalul „zgomotelor”, în vederea validării diferitelor elemente ale scenariilor de film.

Ceea ce face din leadership un fel de potir cu volum tot mai cuprinzător, dând senzaţia că posesorul lui este înzestrat cu puteri supranaturale, ţine de îndemânarea cu care sunt localizate și folosite „defectele aparatajului în vederea obţinerii unor efecte originale”. Graţie defectelor, reprezentând niște comori ascunse aflate în spatele zgomotelor, ecourilor, interferenţelor, confuziilor și distorsiunilor, sub care se reuneşte arta de a surprinde esenţele subtile, orice şi totul capătă o identitate, adică limbaj și unitate.

Să poți face din defectele aparatajului pârghia care poate mișcă universul, iată ce înseamnă să fii regizor. Să cauţi efecte speciale prin distribuirea neobişnuită a instrumentelor, printr-o orchestraţie "inversată", de neconceput în domeniul lucrărilor simfonice obișnuite, iată ce înseamnă să fii compozitor. Să reuşeşti traduci orice defecte prin puritate, seninătate sau strălucire, activând în oameni o anumită stare de spirit, este calitatea unui lider.

A conferi creaţiei tale un conţinut de autenticitate înseamnă să asimilezi ideea de "deformare" a mijlocului cel mai potrivit prin care se realizează comunicarea, cu un uriaş efect de realism complet - capabil să facă senzaţie.

Efectele speciale sunt contribuţia cea mai de seamă pe care un regizor o aduce în lume prin intermediul aparatajului, având rolul de a îmbogăţi şi a adăuga valoare viziunii sale.

Efectele de compoziţie ale ştiinţei avansate

Identifică compoziţia tuturor elementelor ştiinţifice vechi şi noi în ansamblul lor organic, încât să obţii efectele de sens dorite.

Montajul îşi atinge efectul total prin senzaţia compozită a tuturor acestor elemente în ansamblul lor organic. Pentru aceasta intensifică regizorul Eisenstein conţinutul fiecărui "rezonator armonic". De altminteri secvenţa era tot rezonanţa unei impresii din copilărie când asistase, în vara toridă a lui 1914, la procesiunea sfinţirii bisericii din Staraia Russa. Această impresie vie constituia baza pentru procesiunea sa în filmul "Vechiul şi Noul".

Sau un alt exemplu mai simplu: scena întrecerii la cosit. Diferitele cadre ale montajului conţin o singură mişcare dintr-o parte a cadrului într-alta. " Şi am râs când am văzut spectatorii cei mai sensibili legănându-se dintr-o parte într-alta, din ce în ce mai repede, pe măsură ce cadrele erau scurtate. Efectul era acelaşi ca cel al unei fanfare executând un simplu marş. "

Concepţia filmărilor marelui regizor reiese dintr-un text al colaboratorului său, Tisse, care o rezumă astfel: " Scopul nostru este să obţinem efecte artistice şi tehnice prin metode cu totul noi, filmând realitatea cu simplitate. " *

Leadership: Întâmpini rezistenţe de limitare a ceea ce poţi face şi ce nu, pe durata aplicării unei abordări de tip "default" care produce efecte de inedit în decorul unui examen de regie?

Ce însemnătate poate să aibă o creaţie autentică care este ea însăşi rezultatul unei asocieri între elementele distincte corespunzătoare unui singur pol de referinţă? În leadership, unirea elementelor poate duce la ceva mai mult decât părţile ei componente, constituind din perspectiva condiţiilor necesare unui montaj corespunzător, cheia de boltă a unei faze de tranziţie spre un stadiu mai avansat de finisaj al ştiinţei.

Efectul pe care vrei să-l obţii din partea audienţei tale este legată de percepţia realităţii pe care o reflectă imaginea produsă de esenţa unui element de regie. Câteva elemente de regie pot fi reprezentate de: schimburi de replici, schiţare de mişcare scenică, element muzical obligatoriu, încadrarea actorilor într-un anumit context, vestimentaţie, orientarea rapidă a atenţiei într-o anumită direcţie, etc.

Nu poţi să-ţi făureşti firesc, cu simplitate, o imagine a unităţii ştiinţei, mai ales într-un moment de apogeu al cunoaşterii, dacă elementele ei vechi şi noi nu înlătură deficienţele şi dezavantajele discontinuităţii dintre ele. Această discontinuitate, trecerea de la un câmp de aplicare la altul, prin asociere, poate avea ca efect apariţia unei rezistenţe de limitare a ceea ce poţi face şi ce nu, care produce o anumită confuzie în definirea şi folosirea unei noi abordări de tip "default".

O abordare de tip "default" este o etapă foarte importantă pentru evoluţia leadershipului, o reprezentare a unui cadru conceptual, pe trei niveluri: principii, strategii şi metode, care poate să ofere continuu şi fără variaţii o înţelegere limpede a ceea ce transmiţi prin intermediul viziunii şi experienţei tale. Creaţia ta este tocmai echivalentul a ceea ce transmiţi şi a sensului ataşat, bazându-se foarte mult pe feedback-ul primit din partea celorlalţi.

Leadershipul tău se poate încadra într-o matrice a sensurilor care pun în prim plan un înţeles ştiinţific mai consistent?

În leadership, termenul de calitate are un înţeles mai larg cuprinzând o latură tehnică, strict legată de caracteristicile "produsului" de dezvoltare şi impact pe care îl promovezi. Iar valoarea acestui produs este reprezentată de elementele de referinţă aplicate, care conferă esenţă, influenţă şi un anumit sens de urmat în realizarea lui.

Autoritatea în domeniu, în practica ştiinţei, o poţi căpăta atunci când raportul dintre elementele vechi şi noi este corespunzător, deci atunci când ele nu se comportă ca antagoniste şi concurente. Ceea ce înseamnă că elementul cel mai des utilizat are tendinţa de a-l respinge pe cel mai slab.

Montajul reprezintă o etapă importantă în realizarea unei construcţii ştiinţifice, dar şi o practică ce determină o recompoziţie a peisajului conceptual, punând în relaţia dintre idei şi cercetare, în sfera de utilizare a elementelor componente, anumite efecte de sens.

Leadershipul se poate încadra într-o matrice a sensurilor care pun în prim plan un înţeles ştiinţific mai consistent, numai dacă concepţiile tale vizavi de "creaţie", folosite într-un context de afirmare a unei noi filozofii, pot fi considerate relevante formării celorlalţi.

Un înţeles ştiinţific mai consistent atribuit creaţiei personale poate fi redat de suma sensurilor elementelor componente ale unui montaj care permite trecerea bruscă de la un cadru la altul, dar în aşa fel încât să asigure coeziunea între adevăr absolut şi adevăr relativ.

Efectele de compoziţie ale ştiinţei avansate sunt urmările raţionamentelor bine construite pe care le suportă unicitatea ta în domeniul conducerii. Ele vizează dezvoltarea leadershipului de la componentele de bază, stabilite de predecesori, ce trebuiesc îmbinate armonios cu cele moderne şi de actualitate, conferindu-i în acelaşi timp o notă personală ce-l face inedit şi eclatant, demn de a fi apreciat.

Efectul construcţiei ştiinţifice

Manifestă-ţi intenţiile de a adopta o nouă linie de performanţă, integrând leadershipul în acea creaţie a valorii adăugate care se vrea permanent ancorată în actualitate.

Într-un articol mai puţin cunoscut, publicat în iunie 1926 la Berlin, regizorul Eisenstein scria: "Principiul meu artistic era şi continuă să rămână: nu creaţia intuitivă, ci construcţia raţionalistă, constructivistă a elementelor active. Efectul trebuie calculat şi analizat dinainte, acesta este cel mai important... Eu însumi nu sunt nici sentimental, nici sângeros, nici prea liric, aşa cum mi se reproşează în Germania.

Dar toate aceste elemente îmi sunt bine cunoscute şi ştiu că trebuie numai să le amplifici cu destulă pricepere pentru a obţine efectul necesar şi a crea tensiunea maximă. Aceasta este, cred, o chestiune pur matematică şi nu are nimic comun cu revelaţia geniului creator. Nici nu ai nevoie pentru aceasta de mai mult spirit decât pentru proiectarea unei construcţii de oţel. *

Leadership: Au fost realizate intenţiile tale de a ieşi din capcana "superficialului" în practicarea unei creaţii care îşi proclamă autonomia respingând revelaţia geniului creator?

Leadershipul se integrează cu uşurinţă în contextul construcţiilor identitare, primind de la artă - de la realitatea ei subtilă - o anumită doză de ordine şi de structură, o creştere a valorii adăugate, dar şi o anumită siguranţă pentru proprietarul elementelor ei de noutate. Numai cine se apropie de deplinătatea spontan-creatoare a fiinţei sale, lansând chemarea la unirea artei cu revoluţia ştiinţifică, tangentă cu domeniul gândirii, are posibilitatea de a se salva pe sine însuşi, ca artist, de influenţa dizolvantă a "superficialului".

Superficialul, ca mijloc de scădere şi de închidere a poziţiei tale de susţinere a artei, te împiedică să pătrunzi misterul cunoaşterii superioare, obligându-te să renunţi la creaţia intuitivă, la construcţia raţionalistă, constructivistă a elementelor active care garantează obţinerea rezultatelor stiinţifice de vârf. Superficialul este o forţă puternică a insuficienţei de sine, născută din neînţelegerea fenomenului de artă investigat, sprijinindu-se pe o anumită doză de compromitere a efectelor de perspectivă a diverselor forme de creaţie.

O creaţie îşi proclamă autonomia respingând revelaţia geniului creator atunci când efectul ei atinge tensiunea maximă a unei viziuni largi, în baza unor sentimente care nu te subjugă.

Prin izolarea superficialului, cei doi factori de producţie ştiinţifică - cercetarea şi construcţia elementelor active ale procesului de asimilare, fixare şi consolidare a cunoştinţelor, a relaţiilor de cunoaştere a adevărurilor, a tehnicilor de muncă intelectuală, devin mai puternici şi mai propice manifestărilor tale de independenţă. În practica creaţiei, aceste manifestări cuprind atât intenţiile de a adopta o nouă linie de performanţă, cât şi intenţiile de reorganizare a elementelor de compoziţie care sporesc înţelegerea modelului de construcţie a leadershipului şi metodele de aplicare ale acestuia.

În procesul de creaţie efectul trebuie calculat şi analizat dinainte de obţinerea unui rezultat, acesta fiind cel mai important pas în asigurarea unui conţinut vizual atractiv. Dar pentru obţinerea efectului, toate elementele de noutate şi de actualitate din domeniu trebuie să-ţi fie bine cunoscute şi amplificate cu destulă pricepere. Ne referim aici la efectul actului creator, contopind arta cu realitatea revoluţionară ascunsă în avântul pentru progresul, individualizarea şi promovarea ştiinţei proprii.

Leadershipul nu trebuie să se manifeste ca o entitate de sine stătătoare, ci ca o entitate dinamică integrată totalmente în acea creaţie a valorii adăugate, care se vrea permanent ancorată în actualitate.

O creaţie a valorii adăugate care se vrea permanent ancorată în actualitate este o formă de a te exprima şi de a te face înţeles prin producerea unor revelaţii ce se voiesc trăite prin experienţa directă a realităţii.

Efectul construcţiei ştiinţifice vizează eficienţa actului de creaţie prin luarea în consideraţie a elementelor de noutate şi de actualitate din domeniu, care sunt factori de susţinere pentru o potenţială creştere de performanţă. Crearea unui leadership bazat pe fundamente solide şi elemente constitutive ştiinţifice, permanent ancorat în realizările prezentului, este un mijloc de sporire a valorii personale.

Efectul de autenticitate

Una din condiţiile esenţiale ale unei acţiuni reuşite este de a te dărui total în momentul creaţiei, nereţinând-o şi netrunchiind-o prin nimic.

Orice talent are mult de câştigat dacă se dăruieşte total naturii sale, nelăsându-se stânjenit de niciun fel de considerente exterioare. Este cazul fostului hocheist Doug Dorsey din filmul "The Cutting Edge (1992)", căruia destinul i-a încredinţat sarcina de a se afirma într-o altă direcţie, asemănătoare, dar totuşi atât de diferită: patinajul artistic. De fapt, trecerea de la hochei la patinajul artistic i-a înviorat existenţa searbădă şi prăfuită cum nici nu şi-a putut închipui, fiindcă orice semn de schimbare a activităţii, concentrarea asupra unor noi idealuri, este pentru un fost campion ajuns într-un stadiu jalnic, asemănătoare învierii lui Hristos din mormânt.

Una din condiţiile esenţiale ale unei acţiuni reuşite este de a te dărui total în momentul creaţiei, nereţinând-o şi netrunchiind-o prin nimic, aşa încât potenţialul reacţiei dintre rezultat şi valoarea personală să fie proporţional cu efortul investit. O asemenea stare, un asemenea imbold care vindecă răni, chiar dacă nu este încă inspirație, este totuși foarte aproape de punctul care determină reuşita, putând chiar să aducă individul într-o lume de poveste, unde visele devin realitate. În acest context de tipul "nu există o altă cale", patinajul artistic ia naștere și devine un substrat fertil pentru o revenire pe terenul prielnic al gloriei.

Şi, bineînţeles, ca în orice film de acţiune în care gloria este însoțită de peripeţii, omul obţine un efect de autenticitate numai atunci când se gândeşte la efect, atunci când pasiunea se îmbină cu dragostea nesperată. Noua lui parteneră, talentata Kate Moseley, în acelaşi timp fostă campioană, este un exemplu de stabilitate în reacţia de tipul "altfel", fiind motivată de dorinţa de a epata o lume întreagă, având în ea parcă o genă de campion care catalizează succesul numai prin determinare şi perseverenţă.

Leadership: Încerci să-ți cauți valoarea în variaţiile contrastului dintre suflet și expresia creativă, atât încât să-ți prezinţi individualitatea prin gradări de nuanțe ale viziunii tale artistice?

Toate astea păreau o sarcină foarte grea pentru mulţi bărbaţi, nu pentru unul singur. Nu putem decât să ne imaginăm eforturile sale de a o lua de la capăt, având ca parteneră tocmai pe cea mai capricioasă patinatoare din lume. Dorsey nu a acceptat să fie marioneta lui Kate, a cărei scenă era peste tot, şi ale cărei sfori se întindeau mult în sus, până într-un paradis şarmant şi exclusivist. Iar Kate a fost nevoită să împrejurări să renunţe la Ego.

Motivaţi de impulsuri universale, nu aveau altă alternativă decât să se apropie simultan unul de altul, printr-un fel de legătură sufletească, având în vedere că timpul se curgea cât se poate de repede, iar ironiile dintre ei nu duceau decât la complicaţii. În acest caz, termenul de "variaţie" reprezintă diferenţa dintre un rezultat individual sperat şi media unui set de rezultate îmbucurătoare.

Pe ea, ceva o determina să fie altfel, un soi de magnetism al eleganţei care atrăgea privirile și inspirația, dar cu ample ramificaţii într-un fel de Ermatos Thaeae Umhiaoscul, o punte între inimă si mintea divină. Mai mult decât atât, ceva din sufletul ei părea să se destăinuie pe tot parcursul filmului, cu privire la noul ei partener. Prin atitudine, la nivel subtil, ceva din Kate părea să-i transmită lui Dorsey, mai ales înainte de proba finală a concursului unde cu greu s-au calificat:

"Pur şi simplu îţi dau cunoştinţele mele de care ai nevoie ca să mergi mai departe pentru că, până la urmă, eşti fructul iubirii mele, şi nu trebuie să te pierzi. Continuarea succesului tău ne onorează pe amândoi. Creatorul a fost mândru de tine, chiar dacă într-un moment de slăbiciune a încercat să te părăsească. Aşa sunt zeii uneori, capricioşi. Acum este momentul să dai tot ce poţi din tine."

Leadership: Poţi să explorezi procesul de receptare a unei imagini care te va urmări toată viaţa, adăugând o reversibilitate imaginară și o vedere care include "măsura superlativului"?

"Nu înceta să fii mai mult decât poţi să fii" - aceasta este fără îndoială morala filmului, ce merită revăzut iarnă de iarnă. Amândoi protagoniştii, relaţional cu orientarea adevărată care duce la succes, având în suflet presentimentul viitorului lor ideal, au purtat parcă pe frunte pecetea originii lor olimpiene.

Să trăieşti senzaţiile unui număr de patinaj artistic foarte reuşit înseamnă să porţi, să simţi în propriul tău suflet, întreaga bogăţie, întreaga profunzime a protagoniştilor, întreaga lungime a conţinutului lor, să suferi de suferinţele lor, să treci prin chinurile amărăciunilor lor, prin fericirea bucuriei lor, a biruinţei lor, a nădejdilor lor.

Şi chiar dacă nu ştiu multe despre patinatori, puţini dintre ei având fericirea de a se remarca în marea arenă a campionilor, ca nişte aştri divini, pot spune că vizionând acest film am avut prilejul să simt felul cum s-a îmbinat perfecţiunea particulară cu marile merite ale dragostei, comori divine care abia în ultimile minute ale filmului sunt scoase în evidenţă cu adevărat.

Da. Flexibilitatea în îndeplinirea unei schimbări de planuri, situație la care nu te-ai gândit, este cheia unui succes nesperat, dar triumfător și foarte bogat, material și spiritual în același timp. Acest fapt nu tulbură cu nimic eleganţa lucrării divine, ci dă prin ea însăşi la iveală faptul că procesul transpunerii unui vis în realitate, cu condiţia să fii efectiv înzestrat cu un talent original, denotă o realizare remarcabilă, suficientă pentru a-ți autentifica prezența în universul creativ, adăugând propria amprentă originală și autentică.

Măsura superlativului, în leadership, este dată de rezultatul neaşteptat la care ajungi cu mare greutate, unul care reflectă autenticitatea și genialitatea ta artistică privită ca un dar divin.

Efectul de autenticitate rezidă din izbânda unei realizari la care a contribuit Dumnezeu, tu însuți fiind instrumentul divin care transpune în realitate creații însuflețite cu izo-ul divinității. Deci, efectul de autenticitate se câştigă printr-o realizare remarcabilă la care contribuie inspirația divină, pe linia unor întorsături de situaţii care te fac să spui: "Da, fix asta s-a întâmplat în realitate, chiar dacă a părut doar un vis."

Efluviile însufleţitoare ale unei minţi libere

Dovedeşte-ţi că eşti un om valoros, concentrându-te asupra modalităţii în care te apreciază ceilalţi.

Citeam pe internet aceste rânduri legate de un protestatar din Kiev. Volodimir Parasiuk, în vârstă de 26 de ani, a susţinut un discurs puternic vineri seară în faţa Euromaidanul, iar ucrainenii cred acum că vorbele tânărului l-au convins pe Viktor Ianukovici să fugă din oraş.

Cu Vitali Kliciko, campionul mondial de box la categoria grea, privind peste umărul său, tânărul de 26 de ani, originar din Liov, a urcat pe o scenă în Piaţa Independenţei din Kiev şi a denunţat acordul încheiat de miniştrii de Externe din Polonia, Franţa şi Germania cu Viktor Ianukovici, avertizându-i pe aceştia că „strâng mâna unui criminal".

Într-un discurs emoţionant şi puternic în acelaşi timp, tânărul a anunţat că nimeni nu va aştepta alegerile anticipate stabilite atunci pentru decembrie 2014. Ianukovici ar trebui să plece din oraş până a doua zi dimineaţă sau se confrunte cu consecinţele, a avertizat tânărul vineri seară. Ianukovici a plecat din Kiev la scurt timp după aceea. *

Leadership: Eşti propriul tău reper asupra a ceea ce înseamnă ieşirea dintr-un scenariu trăit cu multă emoţie, la răscrucea opţiunilor de ordonare a unor evenimente care survin independent de voinţa ta?

Modul în care îţi exerciţi calităţile, în special puterea de influenţă fondată prin relaţia cu singurul supervizor onest - publicul, reflectă acea parte din tine, acel impuls negativ sau pozitiv pe care ţi-l impui atunci când vrei să obţii schimbarea celorlalţi. Puterea de influenţă are la bază acea învoială care stăruie asupra reînnoirii personalităţii tale, prin forţa prezenţei şi a mărturiei prezentate live referitoare la acte, fapte, împrejurări, despre care ai luat cunoştinţă în mod direct. Dar te poţi pomeni exclus din cercul încrederii, oricâtă majoritate de voturi ai avea.

Împărtăşind opinia celorlalţi oameni vizavi de realităţile actuale şi perspectivele de viitor, intuind ipotezele pe care ei îşi construiesc bugetul de idealuri în cercul mult mai larg al posibilităţilor lor de materializare, cu progrese de aspiraţii şi uneori cu adâncimi de regrete, nu faci altceva decât să aduci un serviciu de ambele părţi. Pe ei îi determini să creadă că viaţa poate fi schimbată, iar tu reuşeşti să ai un impact puternic asupra lor.

Aşadar, eşti propriul tău reper asupra a ceea ce-ar trebui să însemne ieşirea dintr-un scenariu trăit cu multă sudoare şi emoţie. Un scenariu în care nu tu alegi decorul lumii, dar pe care îl poţi interpreta după propriile orizonturi de aşteptare, în funcţie de judecata şi conştiinţa pe care o posezi şi pe care vrei s-o transmiţi.

Leadership: Te surprinzi pe tine însuţi prizonier în lupta cu luarea unei decizii bazate exclusiv pe prelucrarea faptelor realităţii, setându-ţi un termen-limită pentru ceea ce poţi înfăptui prin latura umană a eroului care te reprezintă?

Gândeşte-te ce ai face dacă ai ajunge să te contrazici cu oamenii privind abordarea "de sus în jos" - reuşeşti să determini nevoile stringente ale zonei lor de interes, dar nu reuşeşti să determini singur motivul pentru care te-ai decis să le fii alături. Dar cel mai rău este să nu ştii în ce categorie te încadrezi.

Eşti unul din acei contribuabili la schimbare care plătesc impozit leadershipului prin exercitarea anumitor presiuni de ordin afectiv şi moral asupra celorlalţi oameni? Oare eşti unul din acei oameni care tânjeşte numai după Like-uri?

Sau eşti unul din acei lideri care se concentrează asupra modalităţii în care ceilalţi îi apreciază, manifestând o atitudine serioasă şi încrezătoare faţă de reparaţia acelei defecţiuni de construcţie a unui „drum de mare circulaţie" datorată unui leadership ineficient şi obtuz?

Un prizonier în lupta cu luarea unei decizii bazate exclusiv pe prelucrarea faptelor realităţii este un erou care a învăţat să treacă peste riscuri şi dureri, îndurând consecinţele realităţii, găsind un balsam sufletesc în înfruntarea adevărului care nu-i îngăduie să tacă. Iar un leadership optuz nu ţine cont decât de miza adevărurilor expuse, dar nu şi de revelația lor care poate produce renașterea lăuntrică.

Latura umană a eroului care te reprezintă poate avea ca esenţă gândirea bazată pe scop atunci când el proiectează ceea ce ar trebui să fie mâine într-un cadru de manifestare a unor valori impuse numai pe baza adevărului abordat într-o accepţiune de consens al opiniei publice.

Efluviile însufleţitoare ale unei minţi libere evidenţiază acea capacitate a liderului de a emite o cantitate enormă de „vibraţii" de ordin motivaţional, moral, sufletesc şi raţional, menite să stimuleze direct participarea activă a oamenilor într-un proces amplu de schimbare.

Egalul lui Dumnezeu pe pământ

Ceea ce vezi este ceea ce vrei să crezi despre tine într-o imagine care se mişcă "în interior" şi în afara focalizării.

Prin intermediul picturii "Facerea lui Adam", celebrul artist Michelangelo a vrut să transmită un mesaj important, și anume: că un singur om "gol", adică umil, fără a deţine putere sau privilegii în societate, trăind doar în comuniune cu natura, şi fiind înzestrat doar cu libera voință, a reușit să se ridice la înălțimea lui Dumnezeu prin capacitățile sale intelectuale și creatoare, cu perseverență și prin exersarea talentului. Chiar şi pictura aceasta, un refugiu în faţa banalului, se încadrează în termeni de Erioradoichalis Ekaudnar Ilhetosa, adică se manifestă prin revelarea unei incomensurabile voinţe, slujind unei cauze superioare, ceea ce mă determină să cred că însuşi artistul a recunoscut implicit puterea creaţiei de a face ca un lucru să devină mai mult decât este.

Vedem în pictura "Facerea lui Adam" cum omul de țară, un biet trup pământean, ale cărui profunzimi interioare au fost trezite la viaţă doar de o spiritualitate aparte, se apropie la distanță mică de Dumnezeu, Stăpânul veacurilor şi al timpurilor, Creatorul fără seamăn. Iar degetul lui Dumnezeu bine evidenţiat în imagine, folosit ca mijloc de conturare a unei dispoziţii date de către o autoritate unitară, şi care trebuie executată întocmai, pare să arate spre Adam ca și când ar fi vrut să-i spună: "Tu ești alesul ! Ești egalul meu pe Pământ !"

Dacă aţi întâmpina vreun om gol, care ar zice: "N-am haine, aur și averi, dar sunt animat de un foc interior numit pasiune, uma paixão sem limites, oare l-aţi crede, văzându-l gol și neavând nimic pe el, l-aţi crede pe omul pământean și lumesc metamorfozat într-un om dumnezeiesc?

Adam, omul pământului are un glas, o voce puternică în arta de a reda forme plastice, şi acest glas plin de măreţie, plin de încredere liniştită, numai Dumnezeu îl înţelege şi-l aude. Natura l-a ocrotit pe Adam cu mare atenţie, cu un soi de milă maternă, fiindu-i prietenă, l-a protejat şi i-a respectat pasiunea, iar el i-a respectat legile, această legătură fiind singurul lui avantaj în lupta cu cele patru tendinţe ale păcatului exclusivist: făţărnicia, delăsarea, josnicia şi impostura, care rămân oricum fără ecou.

Leadership: Idealul tău de viaţă bazat pe puritate rezidă dintr-o estetică a trăirii constituită în favoarea unei simplităţi în care percepţia urmează să decidă asupra "formei finale" ?

Artistul, luminat de o rază de lumină din cer, se bucură de abordarea inspirată a artei de a lumina o lume pierdută în negura de vremi, ori surprinzând o poveste de viaţă desprinsă din realitatea lăuntrică. Astfel reuşeşte să aducă o perspectivă unică și profundă în creațiile sale bazate pe prezentarea corpurilor goale – tot atât de reale ca o operă de artă. Mai mult decât atât, comuniunea foarte înviorătoare cu natura plină de secrete, poate să dezvolte o sensibilitate și o înțelegere aparte asupra lumii, esenţa unei estetici apreciative pe care nu ezit să o denumesc „Poetica Umilinţei".

În acest sens libertatea de exprimare a artistului, sacră şi inviolabilă, impunându-se în mod imperios din perspectiva artei, poate permite un grad mai mare de inovație și autenticitate în creaţiile care îi poartă semnătura.

Am privit pictura de nenumărate ori, din mai multe unghiuri, cu vederea ochilor care recunosc poveştile oamenilor care s-au format în spaţiul liber al naturii. Şi mi-am dat seama că arta, opera deschisă, cere o muncă plină de îndârjire: trebuie să lucrezi fără încetare orice s-ar întâmpla, și să observi bine tot timpul. La urma urmelor, fiecare artist este unic în felul lui, iar interpretarea sau percepția artei, aşa cum ochii o cer printr-o modificare a viziunii omului faţă de locul şi rolul său în societate, poate varia în funcție de perspectivele individuale ale observatorului.

Ceea ce vezi este ceea ce vrei să crezi despre tine într-o imagine care se mişcă în interior şi în afara focalizării. Iar ceea ce contează cel mai mult este ca arta ta să rezoneze cu ceilalţi oamenii și să îi inspire într-un fel sau altul.

Cât despre expresia folosită de mine, "s-a ridicat la înălțimea lui Dumnezeu", prin raportarea lui Adam la fundalul stabil al unei văi văzute de pe un munte, mă gândesc că Michelangelo a încercat să facă legătura cu aspirația omului de rând de a se uni sau a se apropia de divin, fapt considerat un obiectiv nobil.

În ceea ce privește arta pe care o degajă expresivitatea tabloului, o artă care valorifică învățămintele trecutului, ea poate fi privită ca o formă unică de exprimare a aspirațiilor și căutărilor spirituale umane, având un mesaj intrinsec: "Se bucură mult de averi cel ce nu le duce lipsa."

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate să se concretizeze într-o imagine în care propria ta personalitate dezvăluie revelarea propriei puteri divine?

Bun, dar ce reprezintă îngerii de care este înconjurat Dumnezeu? Vedem acolo, însoţind imaginea lui Dumnezeu, nişte chipuri de copii care transmit diferite stări sufleteşti: bucurie, tristeţe, curiozitate, visare, nedumerire. Chipuri de copii care nu dorm, ci mai degrabă izbucnesc în plăsmuirile unei arte de geniu, ei reprezentând simbolul purităţii, dar şi simbolul schimbării și renașterii într-un spaţiu viu, sustras graniţelor, deopotrivă interior şi exterior.

Mă gândesc că acei îngeri sunt alți oameni "deosebiți", care la fel ca Michelangelo au fost "aleşi" dinainte pentru eternitate, pentru a sta în împărăţia lui Dumnezeu, dar înainte de toate ei trebuie să-l laude veşnic pe El, pe pământ, având un fel de rol în procesul mântuirii celorlalţi oameni. Ei au fost aleşi să fie egalii lui Dumnezeu pe pământ, neîntrecuți în diferite domenii.

Exact cum proceda şi Picasso, dar într-o altă viziune, procedeul pictural descris de Michelangelo a constat în construirea imaginii începând cu fundalul, urmărind ca acesta să nu sugereze o adâncime pronunţată, ci o vedere de la "înălţime".

Uite de aia numai în Cer sunt îngerii, dar toți s-au născut pe Pământ. Cum e jos, aşa este şi sus. Astfel, pictura "Facerea lui Adam" reprezintă o cale de a explora și a reflecta asupra lumii și a experiențelor umane, prin raportare la căutarea sacrului și a sensului divin, printr-o abordare empirică și personală, pe fundalul unei Angibileette Ouhosebitus Athesarrus, revelarea propriei puteri divine.

În fine, numai dacă artistul își trăiește creația artistică ca pe o călătorie spirituală în locuri încărcate cu energie, liber în mijlocul naturii, asta va avea ca rezultat armonia cu universul. Şi aceasta poate adăuga o dimensiune profundă și fascinantă lucrărilor artistului. În ceea ce privește pictura "Facerea lui Adam", aceasta este un mod în care artistul se apropie de forța creatoare supremă, cu referire la un fel de încarnare a acesteia în el.

În acest caz, leadershipul se formează pe fundalul unei percepţii vizuale detaliate, în care propria ta personalitate trebuie să dezvăluie o altă imagine, diferită şi unică, ce poartă un singur mesaj: "Dumnezeu este o analogie la ceea ce cunosc deja despre mine".

Ridică-te la înălţimea propriei autodepăşiri. Poţi fi un Dumnezeu numai în domeniul în care îţi etalezi talentul cu străşnicie !

Egalul lui Dumnezeu pe pământ este artistul care, imitând creaţia lumii, dă naştere unui microunivers care fiinţează în comuniune deplină cu natura. Un artist care, prin creaţia sa necontestabilă în faţa timpului, surprinde universul care, la rândul lui, îi oferă harul Său: o sursă nesfârşită de inspiraţie din complexitatea structurilor naturale (o plenitudine de culori, forme, modele, texturi). Toate acestea putând a fi transformate într-o varietate de expresii artistice.

Imaginea care se mişcă in interiorul unui artist este, de fapt, o relaţie de asemănare marcată prin creaţie şi conştiinţă, însemnând un procedeu de relevare a unei Entitati Sacre ce ar putea sa redea echilibru universal.

Ei se opresc acolo unde vor să se oprească

On Ianuarie 07, 2018

Învaţă să proiectezi în exterior tot ce se află în inima ta, ţinând sub control emoţiile celorlalţi şi dirijându-le într-o nouă direcţie.

- Înainte de a pleca, domnule conte - spuse Julie, îngăduiţi-mi să vă spun tot ce în ziua aceea...

- Doamnă, răspunse Monte Cristo, apucându-i mâinile - tot ce-mi veţi spune nu va preţui niciodată cât preţuieşte ce vă citesc în ochi, ce v-a gândit sufletul şi ce a simţit inima mea. Ar fi trebuit să plec fără să vă revăd, ca binefăcătorii din romane. Dar virtutea aceasta ar fi fost peste puterile mele, fiindcă sunt un om slab şi vanitos şi fiindcă privirea umedă, voioasă şi duioasă a semenilor mei îmi face bine. Acum plec, ducând egoismul până la a vă spune: Nu mă uitaţi, prieteni, căci pesemne nu mă veţi mai revedea niciodată.

- Să nu vă mai revedem - exclamă Emmanuel în timp ce două lacrimi mari se scurgeau pe obrajii Juliei. Să nu vă mai revedem? Aşadar nu un om, ci un zeu ne părăseşte, şi zeul acesta se va înălţa la ceruri după ce s-a ivit pe pământ ca să facă binele !

- Nu vorbi aşa, răspunse repede Monte Cristo. Să nu spuneţi niciodată asta, prieteni. Zeii nu fac niciodată rău; ei se opresc acolo unde vor să se oprească. Nu e mai puternică întâmplarea decât ei ci, dimpotrivă, ei o stăpânesc. Nu, Emmanuel, eu sunt un om, iar admiraţia dumitale e la fel de nedreaptă pe cât îţi sunt de profanatoare cuvintele.

Şi apăsându-şi buzele pe mâna Juliei, în timp ce tânăra i se aruncă la piept, el îi întinse cealaltă mâna lui Emmanuel. Apoi, smulgându-se din casa aceasta, cuib plăcut al cărui oaspete era fericirea, el urcă în diligenţa trasă de patru cai zdraveni şi se făcu nevăzut în întunericul nopţii.

Leadership: Realitatea pe care trebuie să o accepţi şi căreia trebuie să-i faci faţă, are ca prim considerent inexactitatea ilustrării unei expresivități a „imediatului" ?

Îmi place ideea de a folosi un anumit tip de bagaj emoțional, dar mai ales o anumită autoritate asupra faptelor vizate de o cunoaştere intuitivă a modului de manifestare a diversității tipologiilor umane, pentru a manipula o realitate și a găsi alte conotații decât o simplă reflecție a unui moment sau situaţie.

Dacă cauţi și dacă vrei să menţii o anumită stare de spirit în fiecare moment care trece, vei deveni tot mai deziluzionat de abilităţile tale de a obţine ceva, mai ales dacă NU consideri omul ca o realitate primară, cu valoare spirituală supremă.

Fiindcă tot ce se întâmplă în oameni, în fiecare stadiu al vieții lor, face parte din lumea pe care ei şi-o imaginează și-o acceptă ca pe un destin, ca pe un fapt împlinit și de neînlăturat, deci o lume care nu-ţi aparține ție oricât de mult ai încerca să te integrezi în ea.

O stare sufletească pe care tinzi să o exploatezi prin examinare vizuală directă, marcată îndeosebi de manifestări care sunt învestite cu valoare şi cu o anumită semnificație de către cei care le practică, se stabilește în raport cu atitudinea ta faţă de anumite limite de toleranță și adaptabilitate la nevoile lor de schimbare.

Detectivul C. Auguste Dupin, personajul fictiv creat de Edgar Allan Poe, afirma următoarele: "Cunoaşterea unui om se realizează urmărind în primul rând mimica sau fizionomia; reproducând-o, îţi vin în gând intenţiile şi gândurile sale".

În esenţă, Dupin - la fel ca Monte Cristo, creează o presupunere pe care apoi o verifică prin prisma emoţiilor declanşate de o anumită situaţie sau a căror producere este favorizată de o anumită împrejurare.

Chiar dacă te-ai obișnuit să-ţi reprezinţi „marca personală” în funcție de puterea de interpretare a expresivităţii afective a oamenilor din jur, valoarea lor nu trebuie să arate ca un desen înțeles ca un contur ce determină forma unui obiect printr-un soi de rezumat al său. Ci mai degrabă asemenea scrisului, înțeles ca o configuraţie pură, spontană, ce nu evocă fizionomia unui lucru, ci virtuțile unei naturi nealterate sau cât mai aproape de un arhetip verosimil.

Cea mai mare ispravă pe care o ai de înfăptuit, ca lider, este să-ţi reglezi nivelul de autoritate prin conştientizarea emoţiilor pe care le trezeşti în oameni, în așa fel încât ei să devină conştienţi de ceea ce simți tu !

Ei se opresc acolo unde vor să se oprească atunci când își pun în joc forța de convingere și prezenţa de spirit. Ei sunt, în simplitatea unor constatări favorabile, detectivii dedesubturilor lucrurilor din paginile "ascunse" ale minţilor înfricoşate de realitatea vieţii.

El s-a născut prea devreme pentru contemporanii săi

Fii dispus să adaugi un plus de valoare stimei de sine în încercarea a te compara cu ceilalți, acceptând faptul că a ta conştiinţă este produsul unei subiectivităţi fără nici un fel de legătură cu obiectivitatea materială.

Michelangelo. A iubit dintotdeauna lupta şi sarcina de a-şi pune toate forţele în joc. Pentru a crea, trebuie o gândire solitară, şi ideea de luptă continuă. Rezumând acestea, trebuie să evidenţiem, în primul rând, că Michelangelo a fost destinat să joace un rol singular în arta, nu numai a timpului său dar şi a multor veacuri viitoare. De origine modestă, s-a purtat ca un om simplu şi i-a plăcut compania oamenilor din popor. Cu cei avuţi şi aflaţi la putere era demn şi nu se sfia să-i sfideze, fiind conştient de valoarea sa.

Nu era sociabil decât cu oamenii umili pe care îi aprecia şi respecta. Nu a avut prieteni şi nici discipoli. Introvertit, bântuit de fantasme, trăia o tragedie internă, nelăsând să străbată frământările care-l chinuiau. Nu a avut viaţă de familie. Singura femeie din viaţa lui - Vittoria Colonna - a constituit un episod fugitiv, curmat de timpuriu. S-a vorbit şi mai ales s-a insinuat mult pe seama relaţiilor sale cu femeile. Munca îl absorbea în prea mare măsură, încât "ardea" şi nu mai avea nicio disponibilitate pentru sine. A fost un titan, predestinat a trăi pentru artă, sacrificându-se pe sine. Orice gând urât la adresa sa este un sacrilegiu.

Privit astfel, Michelangelo nu mai constituie o enigmă. El s-a născut prea devreme pentru contemporanii săi.

În altă carte, filosofia artei (Schelling) stau scrise aceste cuvinte ale lui Platon, două lucruri pe care filozofii amatori de sistem şi încrezători în mitul raţiunii le treceau cu vederea: "Spiritul ajuns în condiţie trupească este bolnav, tulbure, neînstare de gândire pură. Pesemne că pe lângă facultatea raţională, există şi una a delirului, a entuziasmului, a nebuniei."

Leadership: Rezultatul muncii tale de creaţie marchează o conştientizare a propriei persoane şi a tot ceea ce te înconjoară, luând în calcul strădania unei vieţi care a trebuit să treacă de la culmile neprevăzute - în viaţa unui om normal?

Întotdeauna artistul îşi pune sufletul său, cu tot ce are bun în el, în ceea ce face cu chibzuinţă şi cu ajutorul lui Dumnezeu, fără să se considere vreun învins al destinului. Şi atunci rolul său în destinul integral al creaţiei se fundamentează şi se implineste în Hristos. Dar în momentul în care sufletul său îşi caută o imagine măreaţă şi se ataşează de o imagine a efortului creativ care luptă cu niște greutăți care par greu de învins, practic artistul împărtăşeşte starea sufletească a celui care a produs acea imagine, la fel cum îşi împărtăşeşte viziunea asupra unui obiect care poate fi doar privit, dar niciodată atins.

E foarte important, în acest sens, să ne cultivăm ochiul cu care privirea se urmăreşte pe sine. Căci dacă artistul nu se agață de un obiect care nu se potriveşte cu restul decorului său, şi dacă imaginea de sine este oglindirea sa în propria conştiinţă, atunci privirea pe care el o îndreaptă către lumea din jur este o conştientizare a nuanţelor şi multiplelor "feţe" ale unei vieţi care se consumă printr-o poveste greu de trăit (dar pe care el urmăreşte avid să o scrie zilnic).

Artistul are această nevoie de a atrage atenţia asupra creaţiilor sale şi se hrăneşte din plin cu această atenţie, de aceea îi poate fi uşor rănit orgoliul atunci când cineva nu-i acordă atenţia cuvenită. Există mai ales o atenţie de tip religios, care ţine de spaţiul vizual al credinţei, prin care sufletul său încearcă să-i găsească o cale să înfrunte lumea care nu-l apreciază îndeajuns.

Leadership: Poţi să fii mai permisiv cu tine însuţi, luând în calcul o imagine a propriei tale fețe pe fundalul alteia?

Dar artistul devine şi mai posomorât atunci când îşi dă seama de de diferența dintre salvarea lumii și distrugerea ei. El se înspăimântă atunci când îşi dă seama cât de insignifiant este la scara lumii, chiar dacă operele lui sunt grandioase, dar greu de înţeles de spiritele înapoiate, rutinate sau inadaptate la modernitate. Deci, s-ar spune că artistul are două feţe: una care îi displace, şi alta care îl preamăreşte.

Deseori, viaţa artistului este un produs vizual care ţine de sentimentul grandios al stimei de sine, așa cum este prezentat în tulburarea de personalitate narcisistă, putând fi cu siguranță compensatoriu și poate chiar deteriora relațiile personale. Şi, să nu uităm că în cazul artiştilor schimbările mici au un impact uriaș asupra stimei de sine.

În mod deosebit, trebuie făcută o distincţie între imaginea de sine şi imaginea atribuită lumii, şi trebuie făcută o diferenţiere între încrederea în valoarea de sine şi toleranţa în faţa unor situaţii ostile conştiinţei. Fiindcă aici este vorba de altceva, exact de acea intenţie care stă în spatele diferitelor forme de imagine ale lumii interioare, ale existenţei spirituale, și trebuie luată în calcul o imagine a propriei noastre fețe pe fundalul alteia.

Artistul total dedicat artei sale este, de multe ori, expresia concretizată a modului în care se vede o persoană sau se reprezintă pe sine prin prisma conştientizării unei drame profunde.

El s-a născut prea devreme pentru contemporanii săi. Asta se poate spune despre un artist care nu a fost capabil să analizeze diferenţele dintre imaginea de sine şi imaginea altora despre el însuşi, şi să identifice aspectele comune care i-ar putea crește echilibrul psihic și sentimentul valorii personale.

Elementele fuzionează într-o imagine coerentă

On Noiembrie 6, 2011

Un artist excepțional scormonește printre senzațiile fragmentate pentru a crea o conexiune între ceea ce este faptic și ceea ce devine simbolic.

Regizorul rus, Serghei Eisenstein, scormonește cu greu în memorie pentru a readuce la suprafață șirul de elemente caracteristice străzii. Însă percepția străzii nu există încă, deoarece elementele rămân disparate, neformând o unitate. Doar în a doua fază, acestea fuzionează într-o imagine completă. Abia atunci, spune Eisenstein, își amintește strada. Observând atent acest proces în propria conștiință, asocierea elementelor pornește spontan. El remarcă faptul că fenomenul este identic în cazul creației artistice. Evocarea străzii urmează același mecanism prin care, în procesul creativ, imaginea unică, întreagă și pregnantă se naște din elementele ei disparate. În ambele cazuri, aceeași lege guvernează modul în care particularul ajunge, prin întreg, la conștiința și sentimentele noastre.

Fiecare detaliu este păstrat în memorie și senzații, ca parte a unui întreg. Eisenstein își continuă reflecția: în viața practică, dar şi în procesul amintirii, este important să treci cât mai repede peste prima fază pentru a ajunge la evocarea întregului. În artă însă, accentul se schimbă. Pentru a-și atinge scopul, opera de artă urmărește exact acest proces al sedimentării imaginilor în conștiința spectatorilor.

Astfel, metoda elaborării imaginii trebuie să re-creeze acel proces prin care, în viață, se formează imaginile noi în conștiința și simțurile omului. Ca o concluzie, Eisenstein consideră că un artist care dorește să exprime o imagine prin reprezentări faptice ar trebui să urmeze același proces, asemănător cu modul în care memorizarea străzilor new-yorkeze face trecerea de la fragmente la întreg.

Leadership: Ce impact are percepția fragmentată asupra formării unei imagini unificate, atunci când procesul artistic devine un catalizator al fuzionării acestora într-o expresie pregnantă?

Eisenstein scormonește cu greu în memorie, încercând să extragă treptat detaliile caracteristice ale străzii, proces similar etapei de percepție senzorială, în care creierul stochează inițial informațiile fragmentar. La început, elementele străzii rămân disparate, fără a forma o imagine unitară. Abia în a doua fază, ele fuzionează, reconstruindu-se treptat într-un întreg coerent. În acest moment, spune Eisenstein, își amintește strada, observând atent modul în care imaginea întreagă se naște din elementele sale individuale. Așa cum se întâmplă și în procesul de reamintire din neuroștiință, fiecare detaliu contribuie la formarea unei amintiri complexe și sedimentate în conștiință.

Eisenstein extinde această observație la creația artistică: în artă, acest proces de sedimentare a imaginilor trebuie recreat deliberat pentru a influența conștiința spectatorilor. În viața practică, scopul este să ajungi rapid la imaginea de ansamblu, dar în artă, detaliile fragmentare joacă un rol esențial, permițând spectatorului să experimenteze procesul prin care o imagine se formează și se fixează în memorie. Astfel, Eisenstein susține că un artist care vrea să exprime o imagine puternică ar trebui să procedeze ca în reamintirea străzilor new-yorkeze, urmărind să creeze o experiență sedimentată, unde detaliile se unesc pentru a forma un întreg memorabil.

Procesul de creație artistică începe cu elemente disparate care plutesc în mediul memoriei, asemenea particulelor în apa unui lac. Treptat, acestea se sedimentează în straturi succesive ale conștiinței, sub acțiunea procesului creator. Inițial, reprezentările rămân separate în percepție, dar prin procese de fuziune artistică, ele se consolidează într-o imagine pregnantă și întreagă. În viața practică, această sedimentare trebuie să fie rapidă, dar în artă, precum în formarea rocilor sedimentare, procesul este deliberat încetinit. Artistul scormonește prin straturile de senzații, urmărind să re-creeze în conștiința spectatorului acea transformare graduală din elemente faptice disparate într-o structură unitară nouă. Această sedimentare artistică devine astfel fundamentală în formarea imaginilor, unde particularul și întregul fuzionează într-o evocare distinctă, la fel cum particulele individuale se transformă în roca solidă a expresiei creative.

Leadershipul facilitează trecerea de la separarea speculativă la unitatea experiențială, promovând o sinteză dinamică între abstractizare și vitalitate emoțională.

Elementele fuzionează într-o imagine coerentă și expresivă atunci când particularitățile disparate sunt integrate într-un întreg unitar. Acest proces reflectă mecanismul natural al percepției și al memoriei, prin faptul că întregul capătă semnificație doar prin legătura organică dintre detalii. Spun asta deoarece Eisenstein subliniază importanța procesului de sedimentare și sinteză a imaginilor în conștiința spectatorilor, de fiecare dată când creează o operă de artă ce urmărește să evoce trăiri autentice. Pornind de la convingerea că arta trebuie să recreeze procesele naturale ale formării imaginii în mintea umană, Eisenstein oferă un model prin care arta devine profundă și eficientă, captând esența transformării fragmentelor în simboluri memorabile.

Elevul trebuie să plece

Exercită-ţi puterea de a modela oamenii din jur, conformându-te cerinţelor superiorităţii pe care doreşti să o evidenţiezi.

Eisenstein a frecventat multă vreme cursul maestrului Meyerhold. Într-o zi, când elevul îşi dădea una din probe, profesorul deveni trist. Eisenstein se sperie, crezând că răspunsese prost. Primi însă un bileţel de la Zenaida Reich, actriţă a teatrului lui Meyerhold şi asistenta sa. Citi biletul cu oarecare surprindere: " Când elevul nu este numai egal, dar e mai mare decât profesorul, el trebuie să plece ! "

Fiind convins că era o dorinţă lui Meyerhold, Eisenstein îl părăsi. Ruptura aceasta fu dureroasă pentru amândoi. Eisenstein o pomenea ca pe o "traumă". Încercând să-şi explice întâmplarea mai târziu, când rana se vindecase de mult, când se împăcaseră şi redeveniseră prieteni, Eisenstein scria despre această ruptură:

" Mi se părea întotdeauna că, în relaţiile cu elevii şi adepţii săi, el îşi joacă iarăşi şi iarăşi propria traumă provocată de ruptura cu primul său dascăl (de K.S. Stanislavski). Iar în cei pe care îi respingea, îşi trăia din nou amărăciunea care-l rodea. În actul respingerii, devenea tragicul părinte Rusten care-l răpuse pe Zorab, căutând parcă o justificare şi un adaus la ceea ce în propria sa tinereţe săvârşise fără a avea pornirea răuvoitoare a "părintelui", ci dând curs doar sentimentului de independenţă în creaţie a fiului prea mândru. " *****

Leadership: Eşti în stare să joci un rol mai important în viaţa altora, încât să-ţi îndrepţi atenţia asupra a ceea ce trebuie să accepţi la tine însuţi?

Leadershipul nu poate călăuzi omul prin meandrele complexităţii sale dacă, mai întâi, el nu-şi dobândeşte gloria ştiinţifică printr-o practică individuală îndelungată, printr-o interacțiune corespunzătoare cu propriile sale întrebări şi răspunsuri, cu propria lui experienţă de muncă, cu propriile sale descoperiri, cu propria sa reprezentare a realităţii.

Cine este tot timpul ajutat nu va reuşi niciodată să se impună în faţa celui mai dificil adversar: forţa de a se autodepăşi. Şi cum te poţi autodepăşi altfel decât urmându-ţi exemplul de a te antrena cu sârg, găsind modul propriu de a te reîncărca din prea-plinul energiei ce inundă fiecare părticică a fiinţei tale.

Ceea ce trebuie să accepţi de la tine însuţi, îndepărtându-te de "maestrul" care te-a format iniţial, este sentimentul efectului în atingerea unui scop determinat: câştigul, triumful puterii, o versiune nouă a totului.

Un lider este călăuzit de sentimentul finalităţii, nu al cauzalităţii. El adună elementele ce alcătuiesc părţile constitutive şi armonice ale unui parcurs iniţiatic şi le aşează într-o zonă mai puţin umblată - a originalităţii şi expresivităţii în interpretarea rolului asumat.

Leadershipul este o creaţie personalizată, cu un stil aparte, care nu se afişează în galeria " Stiluri însuşite în mod abuziv " de la alţii, ci în galeria "Stiluri însuşite în mod discret şi rafinat" . Leadershipul se dezvoltă şi se personalizează printr-o căutare profundă a propriului sine, prin intermediul rostului tău, prin intermediul puterii creatoare, punctând în oarecare fel acea libertate absolută prin care devii deţinătorul spaţiului de excelenţă profesională şi a celor care doresc să facă parte din el.

Poţi să închei un contract de împrumut în care nu se precizează durata pentru care se acordă creditul?

Contractul de îndreptare profesională este întotdeauna încheiat cu o entitate riguroasă, independentă, adică cu un maestru dedicat dezvoltării şi transformării tale. Iar el îndeplineşte acea condiţie de reciprocitate, prin care veniturile intelectuale, înglobate în rezultate pentru a absorbi cheltuielile de implicare şi formare, taxate în mai multe trepte, sunt transferate în scopul de a ascunde provenienţa sau dreptul de proprietate asupra unui bun intelectual.

Leadershipul este egalul unei întâlniri dintre două destine de excepţie, din care iese învingător cel care ştie să schimbe finalitatea unei creaţii în care chintesenţa ei funcţionează ca o dovadă a redescoperirii de sine.

Elevul trebuie să plece desemnează acea despărţire de autoritatea superioară care şi-a exercitat puterea de influenţă asupra ta, ca un factor declanşator de deschidere spre o lume din ce în ce mai sofisticată. O lume a ştiinţei de a te îmbogăţi printr-o formare profesională de calitate şi printr-o cunoaştere mai presus de orice cunoaştere, cea a sinelui, prin ideea de autoconstrucţie şi autodepăşire, punându-ţi la încercare însuşirile de cercetător.

Eliminaţi balastul costisitor

On Iunie 30, 2009

Învaţă să percepi calitatea cea mai înaltă a unui om, fără să te pierzi în lumea lui proprie.

În primul an de facultate am avut un coleg extraordinar, dar nu extraordinar în sensul bun al cuvântului. Era mai degrabă un farsor, adică o persoană care ştie să-i păcălească pe oameni şi să se folosească de ei ca să obţină diverse avantaje.

La sfârşit de săptămână obişnuiam să merg cu colegii de grupă într-un club din oraş. Nu am putut să nu observ un lucru destul de evident la colegul nostru. De fiecare dată când ne întâlneam, el obişnuia să-şi scoată portmoneul şi să ne arate câţi bani are la el: 1.000 de euro. Tot timpul avea la el o grămadă de bani.

Dar ştii ce este cu adevărat amuzant? Niciodată, dar niciodată, el nu şi-a achitat consumaţia, şi asta deoarece întotdeauna se ofereau unii colegi să-i facă cinste. Aceştia din urmă s-au pierdut în lumea lui, fără să perceapă adevăratul lui caracter.

Şi uite aşa se face că colegul nostru, care avea atâţia bani la el şi pe deasupra şi o maşină decapotabilă, se distra bine mersi pe spinarea altora.

Leadership: Extinzi circumstanţele unei forme de răspuns la adresa unei aparenţe care-ţi conferă calitatea de învins, sau restrângi cauza unei manifestări care tinde să devină acceptarea unei oferte?

Cred ca morala este aceasta: oamenii „descurcăreţi" ştiu să profite de pe urma celor naivi şi uşor de manipulat. Eşti suficient de orgolios şi complexat ca să fii uşor de manipulat? Te pierzi în lumea speculanţilor?

Iată ce face diferenţa dintre oamenii: unii dau şi nu primesc nimic în schimb, în timp ce alţii, cu reale calităţi de manipulator iau şi niciodată nu se satură.

În leadership se pune preţ pe existenţa realităţii care bate aparenţa. Nu poţi să-ţi atingi potenţialul atâta vreme cât îţi foloseşti calităţile într-un mod greşit, care le degradează. Aşa cum nişte broşuri şi lozinci ademenitoare nu vor putea ascunde niciodată o conducere incompetentă, tot aşa şi calităţile tale negative vor ieşi la iveală chiar dacă sunt mascate de puterea ta de influenţă.

Tu te mândreşti cu calităţile tale? Ele pot confirma că eşti de încredere? Până când?

A fi de acord cu calităţile pe care le afişează oamenii înseamnă să sprijini cauza unei manifestări care tinde să devină acceptarea unei oferte pe care nu o poţi refuza. Forma ta de răspuns ar trebui să îmbrace haine imprevizibilităţii, a exigenţei şi prudenţei, astfel încât rolul pe care îl joci într-o împrejurare să nu fie cel de om învins de aparenţe.

Leadership: Îţi susţii forţa de a împinge lucrurile până într-acolo încât să iei considerare posibilitatea de a nu-ţi însuşi o atenţie care exprimă farmec şi bunăvoinţă?

În foarte multe companii există astfel de indivizi, precum fostul meu coleg, care, cu o uşurinţă de nedescris, obţin totul pe de-a gata - salarii mari, beneficii, etc - cu toate că, în realitate, nu fac absolut nimic, nu-şi aduc în niciun fel contribuţia la dezvoltarea companiei, la realizarea unor obiective de interes deosebit şi nu se implică practic deloc în proiectele desfăşurate. Ci îşi petrec mai bine de 90% din timp în faţa calculatorului nefăcând nimic productiv sau plimbându-se dintr-un loc în altul fără rost. Practic ei sunt plătiţi pentru munca prestată de ceilalţi angajaţi.

Astfel de oameni nu sunt greu de depistat, toată lumea îi observă, toată lumea îi cunoaşte, însă nimeni nu face nimic, nimeni nu ia nicio măsură, iar ei se bucură mereu de o „vacanţă" prelungită. Şi este destul de clar cine are cel mai mult de pierdut, compania. Te fereşti de oamenii cu care ai numai de pierdut?

Un om cu gândire matură împinge lucrurile până într-acolo încât să recunoască o imagine care nu prezinţă o proiecţie perfectă a modelului care se mândreşte cu realizări peste aşteptări. El ia considerare posibilitatea de a nu-şi însuşi o atenţie care exprimă farmec şi bunăvoinţă, în termeni de refuzare a unei realități pe care o consideră mult prea generoasă pentru sine.

Atunci când un om îşi afişează prea multe însuşiri pozitive, ar trebui să bată la ochi ca ceva nu este chiar în ordine cu el.

Leadership: Faci dovada existenţei unui motiv de respingere a recunoaşterii unei valori de care unele persoane profită, fară să te transformi tu însuţi într-un magnet pentru "prostălăi" ?

În perioada rece, de iarnă în mod special, atunci când organismul uman este mai slăbit, eventual cu o deficienţă de vitamine, viruşii găsesc o poartă deschisă în sistemul imunitar al organismului.

O persoană care nu are nimic de oferit companiei reprezintă o risipă de bani. E ca un virus care găseşte o poartă deschisă în sistemul imunitar al leadershipului celui care conduce compania. Laşi o poartă deschisă pentru viruşi?

Tu ai permite să existe în compania sa astfel de „ viruşi şi paraziţi "? Ce leacuri trebuie să foloseşti pentru a preveni apariţia lor?

Ca să se dezvolte, o companie are nevoie de oameni serioşi şi capabili să producă profit, nu pierderi. În cazul în care un angajat nu dovedeşte seriozitate totală, mai ales după ce au fost investiţi atâţia bani şi atâta timp în pregătirea şi perfecţionarea lui, el trebuie îndepărtat imediat din companie pentru că reprezintă un balast costisitor.

Singura valoare de care unii oameni pot profita de pe urma ta, în confruntarea cu timpul pe care li-l acorzi, este respectul pe care nu-l meriţi din cauza bunăvoinţei pe care o arăţi mereu făţă de ei.

Concluzie: O companie nu poate ajunge la un nivel de dezvoltare ridicat dacă nu are în componenţa ei oameni de valoare, însă poate avea numai de pierdut dacă are angajaţi neserioşi şi speculanţi. Prin urmare, ca manager trebuie să angajezi oameni foarte buni, care au potenţial si sunt capabili să facă o treabă excelentă, şi să te debarasezi cât mai rapid de cei ce nu-şi au rostul în companie.

Învaţă să percepi calităţile cele mai importante ale oamenilor (mai ales calităţile lor negative), fără să te pierzi în lumea lor proprie – altfel vei avea doar de pierdut.

Elita minţilor evoluate

Învaţă să dai gândirii tale adâncimea experienţei de veacuri, împrumutând esenţa însuşirilor tale alese acelora care sunt lipsiţi de ele.

Mă îndreptam consecvent către o lume necunoscută, fără reper, aşa cum se îndrepta Columb spre un continent nedescoperit, dar eram mult mai puţin echipat decât celebrul conquistador, fără busolă, fără cârmă şi fără compas, simţind că totul se va sfârşi printr-un naufragiu. Voiam tare mult să cunosc o altă cultură, să dau altă culoare minţii, o introducere la ceea ce aveam să devin: o extensie a infinitului.

Visând cu ochii deschişi la nemaipomenita apropiere de ceva mai puţin dur, mai puţin împietrit de timp şi de idei fixe, aşa cum pictorii desăvârşiţi îşi caută în permanenţă noi modele prin cercetarea unor revelaţii mistice, nu prin comparaţia cu ceea ce deja au reuşit să facă alţii, puteam să deschid povestea unei scurte nebunii. Tot așa cum a făcut-o Salvador Dali. Eram un om cu vederi largi.

Avântat spre virtualitatea unei înnoiri de sine, unei existenţe uşor de justificat pe planul conştiinţei ce se arăta ca graţie divină, urmăream să dobândesc o inteligenţă înălţătoare ce nu se subscria acelei dogme aparţinând minţilor vulnerabile la condiţia de a cerceta lumea în lung și în lat. Ştiam că întotdeauna în mine trebuia să caut răspunsurile la întrebările ce nu le cunoșteam, dar tot ce era inspiraţional venea de la vechii conquistadori.

Columb a reprezentat curajul de a deschide porțile unei noi lumi întru posteritate, nu o imitaţie palidă a unei acțiuni inutile de susținere și promovare a unei idei năstruşnice. Salvador Dali a reprezentat arta imaginaţiei de a vedea dincolo de oglinda realităţii.

În ecuaţia reacţiei dintre aspiraţia spre absolut şi posibilitatea de a-ţi depăşi condiţia actuală, acolo unde răsună acea continuă și constantă formă de comunicare dintre cele două, se stabileşte o nouă funcţie de acces la reprezentarea unui nou curent de avangardă, numit "grad de apartenenţă la elita minţilor evoluate".

Leadership: Cum te raportezi la cadrul experienţei de transformare a realităţii cu care intri în contact şi de valorificare a celor descoperite, încât să dai gândirii tale adâncimea experienţei de veacuri?

La bătrâneţe, când starea de sănătate a prinţului Tyllerand nu se îmbunătăţea deloc din cauza unei inflamaţii dureroase a ochilor, singura lui preocupare rămânea cunoaşterea. Cu toate că boala îl împiedica să răsfoiască prin cărţile din biblioteca sa, doamna de Coigny ne relata următoarele despre el: "Punea mâna pe cărţi, le aşeza la loc, le lăsa ca să le ia din nou, le cerceta ca şi cum ar fi fost vii şi acest exerciţiu, dând gândirii sale adâncimea experienţei de veacuri, împrumuta scrierilor o eleganţă de care autorii lor erau adesea lipsiţi".

Uneori, tot ceea ce ţine de condiţiile de validare a unei forme de exercitare a capacităţii de a servi drept model de inspiraţie, rezultă din modul cu îți manifeşti discreţia - aceasta este partea cea mai bună a curajului de a te autodepăşi prin educaţie. A da gândirii tale adâncimea experienţei de veacuri înseamnă să-ţi raportezi gândirea la actele de măreţie ale înaintaşilor care au dovedit un spirit de sacrificiu, curaj, pricepere de a visa cu ochii deschişi, calităţi ce pot fi luate ca exemple de urmat. Înseamnă să te închizi în povestea unei întrebări: cum ar fi să trăieşti o viaţă ce poate constitui scenariul unei discuţii dintre Cristofor Columb şi Salvador Dali?

Deseori, eu însumi mă raportam la cadrul experienţei de transformare a realităţii într-un proces de revelaţie, pentru a vedea dincolo de imediatul unei subiectivităţi inautentice, dincolo de explorarea unei puzderii de alegeri încurcate, printr-un fel de exerciţiu al admiraţiei faţă de precursorii noii maniere de abordare a viziunii artstice.

Leadership: Te implici în constituirea unei revelaţii care transformă aspiraţiile în realitate, ca formă de ilustrare a profunzimii de a simţi ceea ce nu este uşor de înţeles la modelul tău de inspiraţie?

Rolul oamenilor de geniu, percepuţi deseori ca fiind inactivi sau incapabili de a se exterioriza, unindu-se în jurul vreunui ideal care transcende concretul, este acela de a fi principalul punct de reper al unei încordări intelectuale colective care pune în centrul ei nu atât înclinaţia pentru creşterea pluralismului în gândire, cât mai ales dobândirea relevanţei unui fenomen de rezonanţă.

Rezonezi cu ceilalți oameni nu atât prin acțiunile tale, nu prin creație sau mesajele ei transmise direct sau indirect, nu prin intermediul unui personaj pe care îl pui în evidenţă. Ci prin inducţia unei stări de spirit la o anumită frecvenţă de reflexie, prin însăşi natura ta - oferind o experiență mai vastă a realizării de sine la un nivel de măiestrie, construind o identitate unică, seducătoare.

Măreția în leadership, avându-şi originea în constituirea unei revelaţii care transformă aspiraţiile în realitate, este o ilustrare a profunzimii de a simţi ceea ce nu este uşor de înţeles la modelul tău de inspiraţie, ci mai degrabă intuit, interpretând mesajul acţiunilor sale. Revelaţia este promisiunea a ceea ce devii într-o sincronicitate a vieţii tale cu a altcuiva, la nivel de inspiraţie în acapararea unei forme cizelate de gândire.

După cum un desăvârşit istoric literar, atunci când faptele sunt rare, se străduieşte să le suplinească prin presupunerile circumspecte şi inducţiile legitime ale unei critici înțelepte, tot aşa şi omul care urmează un anumit model de inspiraţie, trebuie să împrumute de la el acele caracteristici subtile care nu ies în evidenţă decât în timp, şi care să-i suplinească lipsa de experienţă.

Un asemenea model de inspiraţie încorporează totul la un loc, tot ce e mai bun din tine, tot ce acumulezi la un anumit nivel de gândire.

Leadership: Poți să stabileşti prioritatea de rulare a unui program de tip „ I find myself in a past-future story ", astfel încât să-ți creezi o originalitate unică în mijlocul tuturor imitaţiilor banale care se fac în jurul personalităţii tale?

Programul de tip „ I find myself in a moment of alternate past-future story " se adresează în special minţilor care dau gândirii lor adâncimea experienţei de veacuri, împrumutând esenţa însuşirilor lor alese acelora care sunt lipsiţi de ele. Chiar prin amintirile lăsate de ei, prin experienţele și povestirile lor, esenţa are întotdeauna ceva de spus.

Pe de altă parte, imitaţia este o formă de apreciere sinceră faţă de cineva, dar care nu prezintă tendinţa de progres, care nu prezintă tendinţa de a te situa superior faţă de acel model iniţial sau măcar de a te alinia la esenţa lui. Singura imitaţie banală care se poate face în jurul unei personalităţi marcante, foarte educată şi atât de bine ancorată în sfera culturii alese, o constituie acea formă de flatare pe care şi-o atribuie artistul bine instruit profesional, dar care niciodată nu se lasă sedus de varianta unei noi realităţi.

Imitaţia este o formă superficială de evaluare a unui individ, neluând în calcul acele porțiuni discrete din existența lui care îi încadrează măreţia. Ea aduce în prim plan ideile sale, dar nu și beneficiile lor. Imitaţia readuce în prim plan trecutul unui om, fără să te lege de el acele sentimente pe care să le preţuieşti.

Leadershipul este istoria prezenţei tale într-un anumit loc, într-un anumit timp, într-un anumit anturaj, când viaţa a început să ţi se pară o descoperire a unei realităţi dure, fantastice, greu de gestionat, pe care a trebuit să ţi-o asumi pe cont propriu şi să o biruieşti prin intermediul inteligenţei pătrunzătoare.

Din elita minţilor evoluate fac parte toţi acei indivizi care se identifică cu vechii deschizători de drumuri, având acelaşi impact lumesc, funcţionând în acelaşi stil de gândire şi acţiune - ca un tribut adus fenomenului de rezonanţă, dar şi ca o rampă de lansare spre alte colţişoare neexplorate ale lumii.

Emoţia privirii prin roşul intens al trandafirului

Cea mai puternică armă a unui artist este o trecere a pensulei de-a lungul petalelor unui trandafir de culoarea sângelui.

Nimeni nu mă crede când spun că sunt un trandafir, în adevăratul sens al cuvântului, pentru că lumea aceasta atât de tehnologizată este o corelare a tuturor dinamicilor de afaceri cu profit, iar oamenii nu mai cred în artă, în creaţie, în puterea zeilor de a transcede orice lucru şi orice formă de cunoaştere. Numaidecât, sunt nevoit să-mi găsesc un bun prilej de a mă situa în planul unei aşteptări superioare venite din partea unui artist genial care ştie să facă diferenţa între emoţia unei trăiri expresioniste şi raţionamentul unei lumi tot mai indiferente la dimensiunea spirituală a vieţii, în acelaşi timp.

Nimeni nu ştie că în spatele trandafirului se ascunde opera unui creator veşnic, cât se poate de prezent într-o experienţă de tipul "Privirii prin roşu intens" care face trimitere la operele celebrului Tiziano Vecelli, şi că eu am trăit timpul pe care creatorul l-a acordat celebrului pictor pentru ca acesta să-şi dovedească măiestria în săvârşirea unor tablouri cu valoare nepreţuită. Este ca şi când aş fi blocat într-un destin care nu îmi aparţine, într-un fel de schiţă, o creionare, uma arte que poucos realmente entendem , pe care o intuiesc doar de la înălţimea expresiei de sine, fiind în strânsă legătură cu palidul reflex al unei gnoze dualiste.

Trandafirul are ceva profund din mine, din omul văzut ca fiinţă metafizică a naturii, din spiritul viu şi creator al lui En Soph, reprezentând ceva asemănător încercării unui artist de a picta întregul peisaj al Creaţiei, inclusiv pe el însuși, din punct de vedere al unei lumi care se ridică deasupra realității prin armonizarea cerului şi pământului, trecutului şi prezentului, faţă în faţă cu opera unui geniu care nu încetează să crească în faţa ochilor vii ai unui narator subiectiv.

În prim planul tabloului pe care îl creez trebuie să fie măsura propriei mele împliniri: fie reuşesc să ating înaltul unei vârste fără bătrâneţe, fie rămân acelaşi din considerentele unei ordini realiste şi spirituale care îndeamnă la autoreflecţie.

Leadership: Emoţia pe care o fabrică manifestarea creaţiei tale în timp poate să pătrundă în totalitate punctul de vedere al unui narator subiectiv care poate să dea o semnificaţie aparte sensibilităţii propriei fiinţe?

Ce înseamnă o înţelegere profundă a vieţii când în faţa privirii mele se află un trandafir plin de sentimente, plin de sensibilitate și farmec, potrivit cu calitatea conţinutului unui tablou al cărui temă - Essamynsedhe (marea promisiune a unui destin victorios) dobândește o conotație amplă, liniștită: de inocenţă şi înţelepciune?

Poate că însăşi privirea mea atât de pătrunzătoare, accesibilă prin roşul intens al unei furtuni de timp, prin roşul unei clipe păstrată-ntr-o scânteie de vis, prin contrast cu acea culoare a irisului purpuriu, va ieşi în evidenţă în scenariul realist al unei incursiuni în viaţa acelui faraon care şi-a scris singur pe tăbliţele de argint următorul epitaf: "Am ajuns un om de seamă după ce am fost un om mic."

Cu tot geniul meu artistic, plin de naturaleţe, supus interacţiunii dintre marile zbateri ale timpurilor, nu pot să pătrund în totalitate misterele creaţiei divine pentru a da o semnificaţie aparte sensibilităţii propriei mele fiinţe, fapt ce presupune comunicarea perpetuă între pământ şi cer. Un singur lucru pot să fac, un singur lucru mai sunt în stare accept cu un ecou pe măsură într-un spaţiu al subiectivităţii: să rămân un trandafir de un roşu aprins, simţitor, liber, şi să privesc lumea cum se schimbă din condeiul Creatorului Veşnic.

Sensibilitatea unei fiinţe care trăieşte emoţia unui trandafir extins în umanitate, făcut accesibil, personificat prin Duhul lui Dumnezeu spre mântuirea mea, este surprinsă într-un tablou discret a cărui temă pare a fi legată de călătoria artistului într-o lume a visului, a călătoriei în timp, într-o viaţă care se transmite mai departe, din generaţie în generaţie.

Leadership: Creaţia căreia i te dăruieşti cu atâta pasiune şi inteligenţă poate să influenţeze perceperea unei imagini care conduce la o estimare superioară a realității?

La un moment dat Balzac a creat un personaj, un pictor pe nume Frenhofer, care era tot mai sfâşiat de neputinţa de a-şi atinge ţinta din pricina descoperirii pe care o făcuse, şi anume că nu există contur, ci doar nuanţe oscilante.

Să fie ochiul mai mincinos ca niciodată? Însăşi crearea unui asemenea personaj, înconjurat de privirea plină de roşul intens al unei înţelegeri mai pronunţate a omului faţă de limbajul şi valoarea artei, denotă o anumită apropiere de momentul culegerii rodului ca pictor şi culegerii rodului din natură.

Dar acest fapt nu este neapărat sinonim cu o descoperire benefică. Fiiindcă în artă, în ceea ce priveşte creația frumosului din orice lucru sau fiinţă, cheia simbolică a unei opere este reprezentată de perceperea unei imagini care conduce la o estimare superioară a realității organizată în jurul unei singur teme: conştiinţa unei experienţe spirituale personale.

Cine vrea să înţeleagă îndemnul inimii mele, accelerarea bătăilor ei, impulsul ei de creaţie îndreptat spre acele minunate clipe de anticipare ale artei suprarealiste, trebuie mai întâi să fie absorbit de culorile vii şi tuşele pline de personalitate care poartă semnătura zecilor de pictori pe care i-am cunoscut de-a lungul unei vieţi care se repetă la fiecare generaţie, dar în altă versiune a realităţii.

Această realitate exprimă ideea de aspiraţie spre înaltul unei lumi spirituale, pe care nu o conştientizezi până când nu surprinzi relaţia dintre două personaje asemănătoare, menite să te răscolească, să te forţeze să te uiţi înăuntrul tău, să cauţi desăvârşirea unei opere pe care, deocamdată, n-a ajuns s-o ducă nimeni la bun sfârşit: experienţa comuniunii cu o fiinţă metafizică a naturii.

O fiinţă metafizică a naturii este produsul unei realităţi care dintr-un unghi pare a fi experienţa unei poveşti centrată în jurul unui personaj omniprezent, iar dintr-un alt unghi pare a fi triumful unei arte suprarealiste.

Emoţia privirii prin roşul intens al trandafirului se exercită asupra muncii de creaţie a artistului abordată din perspectiva înfiinţării posibile a unei lumi de mare profunzime în care elementul hotărâtor este sensibilitatea destăinuirii unei experienţe profunde, de vis.

Trandafirul încă îmi conduce pensula spre pânza vieţii altor personaje, dorind să le trăiesc pe fiecare în parte cu ochii deschişi, cu însufleţire, cu încetinitorul, încât să dau tonul unei capodopere nemuritoare. Trandafirul desemnează trecerea de la un timp la altul, de la povestea unui personaj la povestea altui personaj, din experienţele altor vieţi care mă influenţează în prezent.

Îţi mulţumesc că pot fi asemenea ţie, la modul în care realitatea, confundându-se cu imaginaţia, se dizolvă în faţa miilor de lumi şi situaţii aduse la viaţă de oameni care se transpun în personaje tot mai colorate.

Enigma unui destin care se repetă în altă versiune

Învaţă să priveşti lucrurile timpului prezent îmbrăţişând cu o privire mai senină şi mai pregătită vederea largă pe care o deschide ochiului o anumită depărtare.

Imaginea trandafirului din prim-planul caracterizării unui personaj controversat a luat naştere dintr-o nevoie artistică. Era o încercare de a sfida realitatea suprapusă simbolurilor cotidianului, încât scurta istorie a vieţii mele a început să devină expresia compoziţiei unei opere a cărei ecuație spectaculoasă s-ar fi putut rezuma la formarea unui ideal estetic, precum „mimesis-ul", imitarea naturii.

Nevoia cea mai profundă de a face artă prilejuieşte slujirea unui model de trăinicie demn de urmat. Era o dorinţă puternică pe care o aveam de foarte mult timp, o cale măreaţă de cultivare a unui limbaj cult, plin de imagini şi culoare, un fel de next level în rapoartele dinamice între autor şi receptor, pe care elementele relevante estetic in un dipinto soprattutto enigmatico erau puse la dispoziţia timpului, în veşnicie.

În raport cu natura, personajul pe care mi l-am închipuit prin sentimentul de uimire, ca în faţa unui tablou expus într-o expoziţie internaţională de artă, părea să-şi tragă seva din secretele unui pământ bine afânat, dintr-un amestec de realitate şi iluzie, de trecător şi veşnic.

Experienţa de a îndura o alteritate face parte din lumea magică a trandafirului, tot aşa cum oglinda născocită de scriitorul Almeida Faria îi oferă regelui portugaliei, Dom Sebastiao, un portret opus celui deja închipuit de istorici, dar legat de un destin care se repetă. Cât despre mine, ori de câte ori mă aflu în prezenţa trandafirului, creaţie a naturii care împinge iniţiativa artistică până la ideea formulării unei expresii a perfecţiunii spiritului, mă simt parcă prins în lumea visului unui personaj din Borges alcătuit din două imagini întoarse ale aceleiaşi istorii, între Martin Fierro şi Tadeo Isidoro Cruz.

Leadership: Creaţia care te ridică deasupra sinelui posedă un fir narativ și o identitate care se descoperă pe măsură ce sunt asimilate sursele de inspiraţie ale unui autor care îşi dezvăluie tot mereu un alt chip?

Când încerci să pictezi un tablou din cuvinte răsfirate, prin comparaţii şi metafore care trimit spre alte lumi şi alte realităţi, se întâmplă adesea să recunoşti în tine mărturiile unei influenţe enigmatice din alte timpuri, ca şi când într-o altă viaţă ai fost altcineva, mai vrednic de amintit. Aşa se face că, pentru a înţelege natura trandafirului, trebuie pornit de la psihologia altor personaje şi altor autori, cum este Daniel Quinn şi continuat cu Eul profund al autorului său, Paul Auster, care îşi punea problema trăirii prin asemănare, prin contiguitate spaţio-temporală:

"Căci orice se vede sau se spune, până şi lucrul cel mai vag, cel mai trivial, poate avea legătură cu desfăşurarea unei poveşti în care eşti acaparat de măreţia unor fapte, decoruri şi trăiri care au splendoarea unor pagini din 1001 de nopţi, dar organizate într-un tipar cunoscut cititorilor de romane poliţiste."

Bine, dar de ce este important să-ţi dezvălui alt chip într-un alt personaj, dacă este la mijloc aceeaşi gândire şi aceeaşi fiinţă? Probabil din acelaşi motiv pentru care trandafirii înfloresc de mai multe ori în aceeaşi vară, îşi schimbă nuanţele, adesea îşi pierd bobocii, dar nu-şi pierd nicidecum calităţile, frumuseţea şi supremaţia între celelalte flori, şi nu-şi estompează manifestarea de voinţă, de a se perpetua prin adaptare.

Prin urmare, proba de creaţie pe care v-o propun de această dată constă în reproducerea unui personaj care să corespundă fidel referinţei pusă la dispoziţie de o realitate care pătrunde în sufletul cititorilor asemenea unei comparaţii între ceea ce vezi la altcineva sau altceva, şi ceea ce aştepţi de la tine să obţii printr-o trăire revelatoare care îţi va face cunoştinţă cu un nou Tu.

Creaţia care te ridică deasupra sinelui seamănă cu oportunitatea de te regăsi într-o descriere literară în momentul în care te complaci într-o serie de ipostaze diferite, din care numai una singură este folosită ca prilej de a reflecta tot ceea ce stă în natura personalităţii tale.

Aşadar, trandafirul constituie obiectul unor rememorări cu iz de epopee personală care a luat naştere dintr-o mică doză de naivitate de a visa cu ochii deschişi lumea trăită şi povestită de un personaj care se confundă cu autorul lui. Amintirile trăite într-o altă realitate, alt loc şi alt timp, posibilitatea întoarcerii la o versiune anterioară de existenţă, constituie un salvator refugiu în faţa pericolului de a te pierde în propria-ţi imagine atunci când te-ai decis să te alături unei experienţe de transformare induse de o stare emoţională sau de o atitudine subiectivă.

Dacă aş încadra într-un tablou general semnificaţia trandafirului, ajutându-mă de acea înclinaţie a pictorului de a scoate în evidenţă personajul portretizat prin proiectarea lui într-un fond monocrom uniform, probabil aş reuşi să reliefez conturul unuia care trăieşte simultan o identitate dublă: una care se doreşte separată și unică în raport cu celelalte, şi una care se ţese prin redescoperirea misterelor unui labirint din „palatele cuvântului".

Nu este momentul să vă trec spiritul şi gândirea prin strădania tratării simbolice a motivelor de a face din trandafir personajul cheie al vieţii mele, ca semn particular al demersului de construire a unei realităţi imaginare. Ceea ce vreau să vă transmit, conducând la plasticitatea ideii de interactivitate în creaţia artistică, este că singura modalitate de a ilustra imaginea unei identităţi imuabile este de a te regăsi într-o realitate care rareori te lasă să pierzi din memorie unde eşti şi cine eşti, într-o descriere demnă de o epopee a spiritului unui scriitor care nu opreşte firul narativ şi nu intră în conflict cu acesta.

Sinele unui scriitor, descris prin simbolul trandafirului, trebuie privit ca o poveste a cărei autenticitate poate fi dovedită de mai mulţi protagonişti, fiecare din ei angajându-se să își scrie partea sa de experienţă la o odisee a spiritului şi a înţelepciunii întru căutarea şi aflarea propriului temei în lume.

Iată, în acest context, rolul trandafirului: de a evidenţia existenţa unui artist care ştie să exprime excepţional o stare de spirit creativă şi sugestivă, şi o face singular, în maniera în care Daniel Quinn îşi rezerva dreptul de a-şi ascunde condiţia asumată de scriitor excepţional sub înfăţişarea unui personaj misterios care sare de la un rol la altul, în alte timpuri, alte glasuri şi alte ecouri. El îşi mărturisea la un moment dat gândurile confuze:

"Desigur, că de foarte multă vreme încetasem să mă gândesc la mine ca la o fiinţă reală. Dacă încă mai trăiesc pe lume o fac doar de la o anumită distanţă, prin intermediului unei persoane imaginare. Însăşi natura cărţilor mele impune acest lucru."

Deşi Quinn îşi permisese să dispară, să se retragă între hotarele unei vieţi stranii şi ermetice, personajul său (Max Work) continua să trăiască în lumea celorlalţi, şi cu cât Quinn părea să se dizolve, cu atât mai persistentă devenea prezenţa lui Work în acea lume.

Trandafirul, privit din perspectiva unui secret bine ascuns, adaugă în jocul cuvintelor mele înţelesul de te pune în locul cuiva care trăieşte prin sine însăşi, prin spirit, prin imagine şi simbol, o existenţă aflată mereu într-un ciclo continuo , alcătuită din două imagini întoarse ale aceleiaşi realităţi.

Este simbolul unei părţi din sufletul meu care ajunge întotdeauna la cineva care îmi seamănă, dar poate fi şi simbolul mai multor indivizi care se manifestă ca unul singur, asemenea unui Don Quijote căruia i-au fost destinate primejdiile şi faptele mari ca să reînvie pe cavalerii "Mesei Rotunde".

Leadershipul trebuie recunoscut prin capacitatea omului de a se perpetua prin multiplicare, pe sine însuşi, la fel cum dintr-o singură tulpină înaltă de trandafir înfloresc mereu alţi boboci, fiecare cu eleganţa şi nuanţele lui.

Dar nu oricum trebuie concepută această multiplicare, ci sub forma unui model original de existenţă şi creştere, secondat de principii de neclintit, de ordin spiritual. Acest model trebuie totodată să fie înzestrat cu o serie de caracteristici menite să-l facă să-şi perpetueze imaginea conform căreia tot ceea ce este trainic se axează pe temeiul unei memorii capabile să actualizeze permanent momentele semnificative ale omului în timp.

Enigma unui destin care se repetă în altă versiune surprinde aria de manifestare a alterităţii care cultivă ideea împlinirii individului în relaţia sa responsabilă cu altcineva, la fel de pasionat de artă, dar din alte timpuri şi alte locuri. Adevărata enigmă a durabilităţii şi valorii omului se poate elucida numai privind înapoi în trecut, spre experienţele şi rezultatele artiştilor care şi-au aşternut percepţiile subiective asupra evenimentelor importante din viaţa lor.

Nu în ultimul rând, cred că trandafirului meu i se cuvine afirmaţia lui Alexandru Vlahuţă cu privire la pictorul Nicolae Grigorescu:

"Ce-a fost pentru cealaltă lume, ce noutăţi a spus el artei universale şi cum le-a spus, şi întrucât le-a spus în chip deosebit de ceilalţi – aceasta se va lămuri deplin de către cei care, uitându-se îndărăt, la lucrurile timpului nostru, vor putea îmbrăţişa cu o privire mai senină, în orice caz mai pregătită, vederea largă pe care o deschide ochiului o anumită depărtare."

Enigma

Modul în care te observi într-un cadru temporar determină modul în care percepi realitatea într-un context de certitudine absolută.

Într-o noapte tulbure, plină de lună roşiatică, am adormit cu greu. Gândurile, răscolite de versurile melodiei "T.N.T For The Brain", căutau semnificații ascunse în imaginile ce se succedau asemenea unor perle într-un şirag, pentru a alcătui amintiri. Odată ce am pătruns în lumea viselor, dintr-un punct îndepărtat de realitate, m-am pomenit într-o cameră semi-întunecată, singur, debusolat, înconjurat de o atmosferă de mister. Străbătut de sentimente adânci şi reţinute, încercam să-mi dai seama unde mă aflu, de ce sunt aici, când dintr-o dată privirea mi-a căzut pe cele cinci uși în fața mea.

Ușile, zăvorâte doar printr-o închipuire deşartă, păreau să ascundă secrete adânci, o situaţie în care nu ştiam ce să aleg, fiecare având un design distinct, dar simțeam o conexiune nepământeană, o atracție irezistibilă spre ușa din mijloc. Superstiţios, oscilând între fascinaţie şi respingere, privind prin vizorul acesteia, am fost martorul unei scene bizare: un spectacol de teatru și magie în care toți actorii purtau măști. Toți păreau să simtă prezenţa mea, mă priveau insistent, cu ochi rugători, ca și cum ar aștepta să mă alătur jocului lor ciudat, sângeros de viu. Mirosul straniu al camerei și privirile pătrunzătoare ale celor dincolo de ușă îmi stârneau curiozitatea și dorința de a explora această lume necunoscută.

Trebuia să merg până la capăt ! Smell your skin, Feel your breath, You on my side, I couldn't resist...

Leadership: Reușești să surprinzi și să accentuezi acele aspecte inedite ale propriei individualități, prin dezvăluirea unei noi dimensiuni a existenței în care se întrepătrund visul cu realitatea?

În acel moment de iluminare, timpul oprindu-se în loc, am simțit că mă aflu în mijlocul unui joc periculos, un amestec de film, picturi, imagini, muzică și, desigur, istorie, în care ochii, ca nişte ferestre larg deschise spre alte orizonturi, spre alte lumi, erau elementul central al unui fir narativ secundar. Ochii actorilor, ochii măștilor, ochii care mă priveau cu ardoare prin vizorul ușii - totul părea să mă invite să iau parte la misterul care mă înconjura.

I hope I'll understand some day, What's the meaning of this crazy game. It is real and pure, T.N.T. for the brain...

Când ochii îţi arată calea visului, visul luminându-ţi mintea încâlcită şi chinuită, intri într-un Urfedia Oidesopt Elixavia, un univers care te împinge până la limite și te forțează să sari până dincolo de imaginație. Intrigi, plăceri ascunse, iubiri interzise, nişte măşti şi roluri rapid schimbate într-o variaţiune de modele şi forme. Fă-ţi curaj şi intră în lumea ascunsă a celor nevăzute, şi vei constata în mod clar că nu există nici o veritabilă contradicţie între acest abstract şi acest concret năucitor, crepuscular.

Exact ca în romanul "Dervişul şi Moartea", de Mesa Selimovic. Ceva în mine îmi atrăgea atenţia, repetându-mi intens cuvintele personajului principal:

"Necazul e că tu nu îndrăzneşti să gândeşti. Ţi-e teamă, nu ştii unde te-ar duce gândul. Totul s-a răvăşit în tine, dar ţii în continuare ochii închişi, te ţii de drumul cel neştiut. Ai fost adus încoace pentru o pricină anume, pe care nu o ştii, deşi te priveşte, fiindcă nu te împaci cu părerile despre vina omenească. Crezi că este un vis, o glumă. Poate că aşa este. Dacă ai putea scoate de aici o cugetare filozofică, cu nimic mai prejos decât altele, cel puţin ar avea o aplicare frumoasă, te-ar împăca cu tot ce ţi se întâmplă. Invers, dacă ţi-ar da drumul, ai muri repede, de supărare, şi totul ar fi în bună regulă. Dar ce s-ar întâmpla dacă ai rămâne aici? Lumea de sus e a ta, deopotrivă ca a lor, iar ei încă nu vor să te scoată din ea."

Leadership: Cum rezonează în sufletul tău descoperirea că „Ceea ce te modelează aici, te va reflecta și acolo", în contextul unei revelaţii care îți deschide perspective noi asupra propriei existențe?

Un glob de cristal cu multe unghiuri de reflexie se afişa în faţa mea, impunător, futurist, ondulatoriu, asemenea unui caleidoscop al timpului. Şase braţe feminine, pe care se împleteau dragoni și şerpi, îl ridicau spre lună, iar globul străpungea cerul aducându-l aproape. În apropiere era un derviş pierdut în contemplare, izolat în singurătatea clipei. Un joker încerca să jongleze cu cărțile de joc, urmărindu-le traseele precum o panză de păianjen.

În tot acest loc, moartea mă privea cu coada ochiului, o lacrimă prelingându-se pe marginea de cristal, făcând să se desfășoare un număr de magie, încât toate luminările s-au stins dintr-o dată, pentru câteva secunde. Iisus lipsea cu desăvârșire din mijlocul jocului, aici fiind acceptat doar păcatul discrepant - păcatul de a fi diferit, într-o variațiune de izolare neaşteptată, fără sfârșit.

I'm with you, just lead me. I'm ready to play !

Leadership: Revelația din pronunțatele prim-planuri ale imaginilor vizuale care te captivează îți deschide calea către înțelegerea sinelui tău interior, dincolo de ceea ce te şochează pe moment?

Când m-am trezit din vis, complet schimbat în urma revelației avute, de parcă spiritul lui Aurus ar fi reuşit să mă înflăcăreze, am realizat că lângă mine, pe noptieră, se aflau o cheie și o mască de teatru, dovezi tangibile ale visului neştiut, ambiguu. Aceste obiecte păreau să fie aduse din lumea visului în realitate, făcându-mă să mă întreb despre legătura dintre cele două lumi. Era destul de asemănător cu fantezia lui Coleridge: un om visează că străbate paradisul şi drept recompensă i se dă o floare. Când se trezeşte, floarea se află lângă el.

Cheia poate fi interpretată ca simbolizând posibilitatea de a deschide ușile spre necunoscut, către misterele pe care le-am întâlnit în vis. Mă întreb de ce acest vis, de ce toate astea au survenit exact în noaptea de înviere, anul 2024. Poate că această cheie îmi oferă șansa de a explora mai departe aspecte ascunse ale propriei minți, de a descoperi părți nevăzute ale vieții mele interioare.

Sau, poate, este un mesaj codat despre ce reprezintă adevărata înviere a lui Iisus Hristos. Încă nu ştiu răspunsul, dar cu siguranţă ceva nevăzut, dar puternic, mi-a condus mâna spre a povesti visul. Nu este o întâmplare. Nu, nicidecum. Este doar o şaradă, o închipuire care rătăcește, una sorta di gioco di illusioni. Neputinţa asta a mea de a vedea cum trebuie este poate efectul umbrei pe care marele întuneric o aruncă asupra lumii.

Iisus ar aproba asta: "Sunt mijlocul prin care viața își înregistrează suita sa de variațiuni fără sfârșit". Cred că tot ce contează este visul transformat în realitate. Sau, mai degrabă, călătoria spre acea transformare de sine care îți definește destinul în două lumi: în cer și pe pământ. Ceea ce te modelează aici, te va reflecta și acolo.

Leadershipul facilitează revelația care-ți va schimba optica asupra vieții. El amplifică efectul pe care percepția realității îl are asupra intensității trăirilor tale, dezvăluind printr-un fel de "iluminare" o receptare mai profundă a relației directe sau indirecte cu Dumnezeu.

Enigma este puzzle-ul pe care trebuie să-l descifrezi, ca un răspuns oferit de vis realității, pentru a scoate în evidență latura ascunsă a ființei tale. De fapt, explorarea viselor ca mijloc de accesare a unor adevăruri ascunse poate oferi perspective noi asupra propriei vieți și credințe. Mai mult decât atât, interacțiunea dintre vis și realitate poate deschide noi perspective asupra posibilităților nelimitate de accesare a conștiinței universale.

Enjoy The Silence

Toți suntem egali în faţa virtuții de a reuni realitatea interioară cu întâmplările lumii într-un tot coerent numit „reflecţie între conţinut și formă".

Când liniştea te inspiră mai mult ca oricând nu-ţi mai rămâne decât să te legeni în amintirile ei, cu imagini distorsionate ale vârstei pierdute, să-ţi alimentezi visurile spălate de aşteptările şi încordările voinţei creatoare, doar ca să le faci vii pe scena improvizată a unui fenomen surprinzător de subtil şi adânc: "Words are very unnecessary" . Din care lipseşte clarobscurul tuturor lucrurilor.

Abia atunci simţi ce înseamnă să trăieşti în conştiinţa unui destin emanat din veşnicie, înălţat cu încă o treaptă în apropiere de Dumnezeu, asta fiind scăparea, o formă de libertate a spiritului care, iată, dă naştere dorinţei de a te ascunde de o viaţă banală care trecut deja prin multe. "Pleasures remain, So does the pain."

Încă o dată mi se întâmplă să construiesc unitatea tonală dată faptului vizibil, dar ignorat, ca o variantă a tehnicii observatorului ascuns: de a vedea doar ceea ce sunt pregătit să văd într-un decor fără legătură cu lumea. Prezentul plin de intrigă și trecutul tenebros se împletesc într-un întreg psihologic cu subiect literar, care guvernează mesajul „Eroare Internă".

Ascunsurile unui mister de necombătut, care acoperă creuzetul lui Dumnezeu, mă prind într-un moment vulnerabil, naiv, sensibil, mă ţin prizonier până la finalul rugăciunii adresate timpului efemer. Încet, ele se infiltrează în problematizarea artei relațională cu teoriile limbajului şi ale subiectivităţii care parcă îmi mărturisesc o neputinţă, painful to me , în timp ce recitesc în minte cartea lui Mystery: o fantezie creatoare mă urmăreşte mereu, reacţia fiind una de nivelare o unei lumi inefabile.

Leadership: Cât de mult poate să însemne pentru tine imortalizarea experienței trăite într-un fel diferit faţă de versiunea originală a formei tale de manifestare?

Există atâtea melodii interesante, atât de adânci, pline de ceva care să te ajută să te simţi preţuit, cu posibilitatea de a recupera eternul dincolo de materie, piese care își consumă ritmul numai pe gustul distincției esoterice, al accesului secret către un țărm ce nu se găsește pe nicio hartă.

Nici asta nu este întâmplător, la fel cum nici veşnicia ascunsă într-o clipă nu este o succesiune de transformări fără sfârşit, ci reprezentând un prezent plin de neprevăzut în care " Words are meaningless And forgettable" . Fără ca desluşirea înspre concret a componentelor imaginii de ansamblu, a schemei mari a lucrurilor, să ducă la ruperea unităţii tonal-afective specifice unei proiectări organice, subtilă, plastică, îmbogățită printr-o gamă largă de efecte estetice.

Tăcerea, starea de unitate cu sine, iniţierea unui dialog interior, generalul care trimite spre lume misterul fiinţei mele, este o receptare a realităţii prin fantezia minţii transformate de redobândirea liniștii, prin geometrizarea spaţiului "secund" specifică încadrării gândurilor şi presupunerilor în zona superioară a jocului numit COMPOZIŢIE, unde regulile rămân teoretic neschimbate.

Să te retragi în lumea ta interioară înseamnă să-ţi manifești întâietatea gândirii creatoare în condițiile stabilite de dialogul numit „apel la o putere fără limite", aducând în prim plan versiunea personalizată a unui nou mod de abordare a realităţii şi a vieţii.

Timpul stă pe loc, măsurându-se în tic-tac-ul aşteptării și încrederii neistovite, însă într-un mod tare straniu, ca atunci când se blochează în clepsidră nisipul, feelings are intense , identificând aici două tipuri de motivaţie: aventura căutării a ceea ce se află dincolo de aparenţa lucrurilor şi cuprinderea a ceea ce nu se vede cu ochiul liber, ci numai cu ochiul minţii.

"Colecţionarul" lui John Fowles, îşi aminteşte la un moment dat de o cursă de şoareci nostimă pe care o văzuse demult. De cum intra șoarecele se punea ceva în mişcare şi nu se mai putea întoarce niciodată, ci trebuia să meargă înainte, intrând în curse una mai complicată ca alta, până la sfârşit.

Viața se scurge câteodată atât de încet, cel puțin pentru mine, încât linişte pe care o simt în povestea unui anume exil, de atâtea ori împins într-o lume diferită de cea pentru care fusesem hărăzit, cu amărăciunea neputinţei de a trece peste orbirea care mă face să confund binele cu răul, seamănă cu un soi de capcană folosită la prinderea rozătoarelor mici. Un labirint al imposibilului, al constrângerilor arbitrare, interminabile, din care simt că nu mai pot să ies. "Break the silence. Come crashing in / Into my little world ! "

Nimic nu se repetă în tăcerea cuprinsă într-o izolare apăsătoare, unde numai Dumnezeu are cuvântul, care devine somn de veghe sau capcană fără ieşiri, crezută cândva uitată şi reamintită de fantezia minţii, prin geometrizarea spaţiului numit regăsire de sine, to be broken with the hands of interpretation of an experimental result.

Experimentul numit „viaţă" este un dialog cu tine însuți din care trebuie să extragi în primul rând esenţa: respectul ideii de trăire prin credință, neprivind la cele ce se văd, ci la cele ce se simt.

Leadershipul se poate traduce în felul următor: toți suntem egali în faţa virtuții de a reuni realitatea interioară cu întâmplările lumii într-un tot coerent numit „reflecţie între conţinut și formă".

Enjoy The Silence are ca suport capacitatea sinelui de a discerne, de a asculta și de a cântări tot ceea ce trăiești într-un prezent care este simultan un viitor îndepărtat, dar şi un trecut îndepărtat.

Dacă ai sentimentul că ești prins într-o capcană a tăcerii, neputând răzbate mai departe de ceea ce vezi, de ceea ce ştii, de orice judecată sau punct de vedere, înseamnă că încă nu ești pregătit să-ți asumi angajamentul de a te desprinde din toate încercările și experiențele vieţii.

A simţi înseamnă să te descoperi dincolo de realitatea tangibilă a lumii care leagă toate lucrurile.

 Notă: Depeche Mode - Enjoy the Silence

Episodul 1 al magiei de dincolo de artă

Încearcă să modelezi realitatea materială conform viziunii interioare, încât să creşti durata relației dintre estetic şi eleganţa de a fi unic.

În tot ceea ce făceam mi se părea că sunt condus de puterea cu care cineva crede în ceva ce nu există, ca şi când aş fi descoperit o posibilitate de a mă scufunda într-o lume magică, unde binele mereu învinge răul şi unde arta înlocuieşte nevoile sufletului cu interesul crescut față de senzațional.

Obiectele, imaginile, mediul înconjurător, totul căpăta o înfăţişare halucinantă, asemenea unui peisaj de Jim Warren care schimbă complet realitatea atunci când eşti imaginat drept proiecţia unui axis mundi al unei lumi în care domneşte simbolic misterul, poţiunile magice şi fantasticul în chip de suveran absolut.

Percepţia oricărui lucru din jurul meu se schimba odată cu efectul de luminozitate şi strălucire a acordurilor de verde-roşu-galben, ca într-o pictură în ulei care a prins viaţă sau care urma să prindă viaţă pe pânză. Frumuseţea capătă aici un alt înţeles, este comemorarea momentului în care m-am îndreptat spre un nou drum, unitatea unei noi determinări a lumii văzută prin ochii artistului în care pulsează, fără ambiguităţi, sensul unei revoluţii picturale începută în impresionism.

Departe de nebunia unei lumi sufocante, niciun artist nu spune NU ansamblului acestei formulări spaţiale noi izvorâte din viaţa unei ficţiuni plină de putere şi exuberanţă, dar fiecare îi atribuie o semnificaţie particulară, dând impresia unui paradis sugerat cu un lirism plin de răsturnări de formă şi separaţii de culoare.

Leadership: Îţi îndrepţi atenţia în direcţia creării unui stil unic de a face artă, în contextul în care adevărata măsură a valorii tale se obţine comparându-te doar cu tine însuţi?

Ansamblul acestor viziuni, concepţii, ca şi încercările de a le interpreta cât mai frumos, mă determinau într-un fel destul de neobişnuit să apreciez că în spaţiul relaţiilor dintre material şi spiritual, dintre formele plastice şi culorile unei realităţi excepţionale, există un limbaj al despărţirii de trecut, un limbaj al începuturilor edenice. Forma de exprimare a unui scriitor este rezultatul nebuniei de a da sens unei hiper-realităţi, fără a regăsi alta compensatorie.

Ochii oricui îndrăznea să mă înţeleagă prin înţelepciunea inimii şi a unui suflet însetat de puritate, uşor-uşor îşi schimbau forma sau culoarea, cu excepția cazului în care nu se stabilise în prealabil un contact vizual cu desenul de referinţă. De fiecare dată când cineva întrerupea contactul, ochii se schimbau din nou.

Aşa şi acum. Dacă vă veţi încumeta să-mi pătrundeţi arta, cu privirea sufletului veşnic care este diamantul neşlefuit al iubirii de sine, veţi ajunge la o expresie de intensitate pasională care vă va dezarma în contra armării spiritului analitic. Mai bine să evaluaţi valoarea literară a unei opere neterminate , decât să încercaţi să descoperiţi toate defectele autorului ei.

Constant, simţul practic mă îndeamnă să-mi îndrept atenţia în direcţia creării unui stil unic de a face artă, în contextul în care adevărata măsură a valorii mele se obţine comparându-mă doar cu mine însuţi, fiindcă eu sunt plăsmuitorul lumii căreia pretind că îi aparţin în totalitate, căreia îi atribui o mulţime de semnificaţii şi îi dăruiesc de fiecare dată, când mă exprim ca artist, o părticică din inima mea.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să te implici în procesul de perfecţionare a artei şi să câştigi mai mult respect faţă de tine însuţi, renunţând de la bun început la unii termeni precum "asemănare", "comparaţie" sau "feedback" ?

Cu vădită emoţie, îmi amintesc de felul cum scriitoarea Mary Balogh îşi caracteriza personajul (profesorul de artă Joel Cunningham), de parcă ar fi încercat să surprindă o parte din personalitatea artistului care mă definea pe mine:

"Nu era întotdeauna un bun observator când privea totul doar prin ochii lui. Nu putea face analogii şi referiri. Adesea, nu vedea oamenii limpede până nu începea să le facă schiţa şi să îi picteze şi să se inspire din ceea ce simţise în mod intuitiv despre ei. Dar întotdeauna reuşea să-şi picteze modelele aşa cum erau atunci când se dezbrăcau de toate afectările, apărările şi măştile."

Eu însumi am făcut o greşeală de neiertat, o modalitate mai puţin elegantă de a mă conecta la lume, pe care mi-o reproşez îndeosebi prin faptul că de atâtea ori i-am ridicat în slăvi pe alţii, considerându-mă sub nivelul lor. De fapt, a fost o vreme când tot timpul m-am raportat la judecata şi opiniile altora, dovada unei prea mici deschideri spre o personalitate integrală, neştiind că procesul de perfecţionare a artei presupune a renunţa de la bun început la unii termeni precum asemănare, comparaţie sau feedback.

Ca să capăt încredere, a trebuit să găsesc o cale de a inversa efectele configuraţiei viitoare a lumii, lipsind o vreme din decorul teatrului ei şi apărând mai apoi sub o altă identitate, cu altă linie de gândire.

Am început să vorbesc despre mine ca despre o fiinţă înzestrată cu pătrundere fină şi inteligenţă perfectă, urmărind calea originalităţii în exprimare, mai ales atribuindu-i artistului din mine o veşnică misiune: de a prelua descărcările energetice, tensiunile interioare ale modelelor sale, aşa cum se întâmplă în aria expresionismului.

Arta este înţelesul unei atât de mari înfăptuiri numită simbolic "revoluţie energetică" dedicată exclusiv vieţii culorii şi transformării ei într-o nouă imagine.

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate da senzaţia de realitate trăită în vis, croită exact pe măsura unui artist care ştie să-şi exprime viziunea potrivit ideii că din orice aventură tainică se întrevede un nou început?

În artă, ca şi în viaţă, contează foarte mult să studiezi înţelesul unei mari înfăptuiri nu doar din perspectiva a ceea ce eşti, ci şi din perspectiva a ceea ce ai putea deveni într-un cadru al puterii magice şi al poveştilor de frumuseţe, pe care imaginarul le dăruieşte citirii unor realităţi de dincolo de barierele materiale fireşti.

Nicholas Urfe din romanul lui John Fowles trecea prin aceeaşi situaţie ca mine când mărturisea: "Nu ştiam încotro mă îndreptam, dar ştiam ce-mi trebuia: o nouă limbă, o altă perspectivă, o atitudine în care diversitatea este omagiată. Cu toate că nu-l puteam defini în cuvinte la vremea aceea, îmi trebuia un nou mister."

Misterul vieţii mele consta în miracolul unui hocus-pocus nemaiîntâlnit, el chiar funcţionând. Din păcate, nu ştiam pe atunci că realitatea artistică este o formă de manifestare a sufletului pe coridorul larg al conţinutului simbolic din explorarea unei încăperi spaţioase, dar nefamiliare pentru cei în care nu predomină elementul inflamator: inteligenţa materiei.

Între pictură şi actul scriitoricesc există o legătură de nemărginire, o indulgenţă cerească faţă de puterile mele de a reconstitui din linii, culori, umbre, forme, contraste, raporturi, o lume a viselor aşternute pe pânza fuziunii dintre estetică, cunoaştere şi ingeniozitate. Masca pe care trebuia să o port era menită să surprindă chipul umbrit al unui artist care îşi exprimă în afară interioritatea, dar pe care lumea nu-l va cunoşte niciodată îndeajuns de bine.

Efectul avangardist al scrisului trebuia redat după felul cum era gândită masca, prin prisma unei identităţi ficţionale care poate învinge creatorii universului. Prin urmare, legătura mea cu arta trebuia să invite la o reverie imaginară în afara timpului, într-un spaţiu al magiei plutitoare, al influenţelor şi interacţiunilor dintre forme diverse de exprimare şi perspective de interpretare vizuală a trăirilor afective văzute drept spărturi - deschideri în mantaua cosmică prin care se întrevede mereu un alt drum, un nou început.

În opinia unui plăsmuitor de lumi, arta portretului integrează creaţia procurată din realitatea materială conform viziunii sale interioare, punând în evidenţă esenţialul unui caracter abil, puternic, stabil şi consecvent, care a fost modelat de Jos, şi nu de Sus.

Tot ceea ce el surprinde şi sintetizează într-un mod neegalat îşi găseşte corespondent în sentimentele privitorilor care au şansa să înţeleagă călătoria vizuală pe care o conţine textul literar sau tabloul unui destin artistic de excepţie.

Episodul 1 al magiei de dincolo de artă surprinde legătura dintre autenticitatea cu care prezinţi realitatea într-un mod particular şi expresivitatea cu care redai în cele mai mici detalii trăsăturile unui veritabil scriitor care ştie să trăiască o poveste magică, care ştie să inspire o literatură de bună calitate potrivit ideii că arta nu reflectă neapărat ceea ce e frumos şi înălţător, ci ceea ce creează o emoţie puternică.

Episodul 2 al magiei de dincolo de artă

Învaţă să forţezi viaţa să se curbeze după voinţa ta, respectând regulile naturale şi logice ale unei compoziţii artistice ce exprimă viu legătura dintre două lumi: virtuală şi scriitoricească.

În sinea mea nutream speranţa ajungerii la un rezultat vizual complementar unei opere care trăieşte prin ea însăşi o poveste plină de culoare și mister, de istorie şi legendă, ca atunci când eşti în căutarea unei mici luminiţe de speranţă, fie ea oricât de vremelnică şi de firavă, dar care te ghidează din interior spre culmile cerului infinit al artei veritabile.

Tot ce se ivea în jur, mai ales în mod neaşteptat, reprezenta un adaos de nuanţă închisă sau deschisă la viziunea unei noi condiţii existenţiale a omului de artă. Dacă pe acest ecran-spaţiu al realităţii observate dependent de un anumit subiect aş fi trasat un semn grafic (o linie sau o formă geometrică), poate că aş fi putut obţine mai uşor reversibilitatea relaţiilor: formă – materie, figură – fond, judecată estetică – judecată cognitivă.

Plin de curiozitate, încercând să pătrund toate lucrurile din unghiul vederii de detaliu, îmbogăţit cu un puternic efect de lectură a unui text la prima vedere, am reuşit să găsesc de fiecare dată o coerenţă, o ordine între lucruri şi fapte, să asimilez toate acele impresii superficiale pe care puţini le includ într-o carte de leadership, cu accent pe artă.

Numai o carte de o erudiţie artistică ostentativă, scrisă cu litere de foc aprins într-un vis fără margini, ar fi putut oferi o relatare adevărată şi completă despre ceea ce anume mă împlinea la nivel de aspiraţii.

Regulile de bază ale unei compoziţii artistice ce exprimă legătura dintre lumea virtuală şi cea scriitoricească sunt următoarele: să vezi mai departe decât pot ajunge privirile tale şi să exprimi prin emoţii pline de taine mai mult decât îţi oferă o imagine obiectivă.

Dacă vrei să vezi o stea în timpul nopţii pe bolta cerească trebuie să-ţi ridici privirea, deci să-ţi mişti capul într-o direcţie sau alta, ochii pătrunzând întunericul pentru a intra în lumea viselor. Dar mulţi nu bagă de seamă tocmai elementele vizuale care apar în această etapă a parcurgerii vederii de la pământ la cer, ele fiind cele care fac diferenţa dintre formă şi fond, dintre trăire şi reprezentare, dintre realitate şi pragul lumii fantastice, dintre contemplaţie şi creaţie.

Aici, fix în această dinamică a atenţiei spre imensitatea unui punct, este ascunsă taina marii arte pe care mi-o asum ca pe o descoperire a cunoaşterii nelimitate, justificând totodată ideea de adâncime spaţială virtuală.

Aş putea enumera o sumedenie de lucruri care pot transforma o imagine statică într-una dinamică, şi astfel să dau viaţă unei expresii vizuale a abundenței oferite de experiența bucuriei trăirii în „acum", care la rândul ei să devină subiectul unui răspuns sau al unei reacţii din partea observatorului.

Cum ar spune un detectiv: "cu cât mai minuţioasă cercetarea, cu atât mai reuşite rezultatele".

Leadership: Arta ta denotă reflexul unei pasionante configurări de imagini în acord cu exigenţele unei activităţi stimulatoare de mare fineţe care te încarcă cu imaginaţie, dar te ţine prizonier sub masca unui trăitor absolut de experienţe simbolizatoare?

Vizualul este o clarviziune care pleacă din experienţa vieţii. fiind pe măsura a tot ceea ce este făcut să pară natural, să exprime emoţii sincere, să absoarbă gândurile cele mai profunde. Dar în ficţiunea unui aparat psihic conectat doar la frumuseţe totul se traduce în culori pastelate, vibrante, dar uneori şi în culori neutre dacă se vrea amplificarea senzaţiei de mister.

Arta cea mai înaltă trebuie să capete valoarea de indiciu care să atragă atenţia asupra nevoii de realism, şi în acelaşi timp să fie atinsă de artificialul unei zone pline de mister.

Aşadar, vizualul poate fi pus în legătură cu reflexul unei profunde realităţi interioare văzută prin ineditul unei stranii frumuseți care oglindește cele mai înalte sentimente de care este capabilă inima omenească. Dar nicio realitate nu este aceeaşi în imaginile propriei oglindiri în spaţiul subtil al gândurilor cele mai tainice.

Eroul lui Mesa Selimovic din romanul "Dervişul şi moartea" încerca să descifreze limbajul artei, dar se lovea mereu de aceeaşi cerinţă complet lipsită de logică: unde se găseşte inspiraţia? El mărturisea cu o emoţie firească în acest context:

"Aşteptam fără motiv ceva neobişnuit, ceva ieşit din comun, care să mă uimească. Deodată lumea a ajuns o taină pentru mine, şi eu pentru lume. Ne-am aşezat faţă în faţă şi ne-am privit cu uimire, nu ne mai cunoşteam, nu ne mai înţelegeam. Am fost nevoit să plutesc deasupra sensului adevărat al scrisului, apropiindu-mă de el şi ascunzându-l sub un pseudonim care să mă protejeze de orice deznădejde, aşa cum pictorul îşi transferă ideea într-un simbol vizibil, dar greu de interpretat."

Îmbunătăţirea exprimării prin forţa artisticului, pentru că arta este motorul exprimării emoționale a fiecăruia dintre noi, este specifică confesiunii unei măşti (ca mijloc suplimentar de protecţie împotriva deznădejdii, a luptei cu morile de vânt), dar care te propulsează în rândul celor mai cunoscuţi scriitori ai noii generaţii.

Leadership: Poţi să surprinzi într-un mod aparte momentul în care percepţia unei forme de artă se suprapune imaginii unei lumi care înfăţişează noi perspective de interpretare a trăirilor tale ascunse?

Credeam că dacă mă scufund în folosirea relaţiilor dintre scris şi pictură voi reuşi, asemenea unui artist al lumii trecătoare, asemenea unui narator care apare și dispare în momentul-cheie ale unui Big Bang a priori, mi se va revela sensul trecerii mele prin timp, la fel ca atunci când uiţi să priveşti realitatea din perspectiva lui "Asta-i tot".

Primul dintre argumentele pe care le aduceam noutăţii în folosirea expresiilor, tehnicilor şi procedeelor de artă, îl constituia descoperirea faptului că din punct de vedere perceptiv nu există imagine atât de grandioasă încât sufletul să se întindă până la extremităţile unui univers fals. Ci există doar o viaţă paralelă a aceleaşi expediţii spre un loc de refugiu, limbaj ascuns al sufletului, o latură diferită a aceleiaşi suferinţe: dezacordul cu lumea obiectivă.

So find the feeling ! Singura şansă de a răzbate în cursa fenomenală cu mine însumi era să-mi simt viaţa într-o pictură menită să anunțe tenta expresionistă care avea să devină coordonatoare a universului investigat ulterior, nu doar din prisma unei forme de obiectivism în analiza imaginii artistice, ci din prisma încercării de a reda cât mai complet cu putinţă într-o imagine frontală tot ceea ce ştiam despre mine. Putere, inteligenţă, destin. O estetică a eleganţei de a fi unic.

Dacă mi-ar fi cerut cineva să confirm o ipoteză cu privire la forţa de care eram condus în viaţă, spre ceea ce nici eu nu ştiam prea bine încotro, şi dacă mi-ar fi pus la dispoziţie doar un creion pentru a scrie viitorul, aşa cum se întâmplă în cazul artiştilor care trasează drumul inițiatic al unei lumi de nostalgii și visări, probabil mi-aş fi început relatarea printr-un autoportret realizat din perspectiva trecerii timpului.

Probabil, aş fi încercat să redau o bucăţică din sufletul meu cu acea culoare a sincerităţii şi a deschiderii inepuizabile, desenând şi continuând, într-o matematică a timpului, semnele destinului poetic al unui narator care priveşte arta cu ochii unui magician al cuvintelor pline de vis şi fantezie.

Arta care rezistă timpului poate fi corelată cu accentuarea unor exprimări capabile să creeze un univers unic, pe care îl parcurgi cu emoţia cu care semnezi starea de vrajă interioară redată numai de un pictor într-o gamă cromatică vie, caldă și expresivă.

Episodul 2 al magiei de dincolo de artă surprinde calitatea artistului de a înainta cu forţă spre nisipurile mişcătoare ale miraculosului sau ale fantasticului, şi de a da viaţă unei imagini emoţionante şi atractive care să-l facă pe omul de rând să gândească: "Uite, asta poate să fie lumea mea ! "

Esenţa a ceea ce se vede dincolo de văzut

Focalizarea privirii asupra orizontului îndepărtat oscilează între efortul de voinţă și viziunea deterministă a triumfului, dincolo de obstacolele imediate.

Pentru un alergător, fiecare cursă devine o probă de iniţiere în tainele existenţei, unde perseverenţa îl ghidează spre împlinire, chiar și atunci când drumul pare pierdut. Mai bine spus, în căutarea performanţei devenim artiști ai propriului destin, pictând tabloul vieții noastre cu fiecare pas făcut. Iar aici, ochii, neavând de ce să se agațe, permit privirilor să scruteze interiorul acestui joc palpitant, lăuntric și transformator, astfel încât cursa devine dublă: un exercițiu al observării realității pe traseu montan, deloc ușor, și un zbor transcendent în împărăția imaginației fiecăruia.

Astăzi, 4 august 2024, am fost martorul unei "Xenthoria Ulmivent", o fuziune între realitatea fizică și transcendența spirituală, la maratonul de la Teioasa, o experiență ce va rămâne gravată în fibra ființei mele ca un fel de revelație a adevărului ascuns în efort. O simbioză de emoții, perseverență și surprize neașteptate m-au însoțit pe parcursul întregii curse, asemenea unei compoziții de Kandinsky, unde fiecare element și-a găsit locul într-un joc al culorilor și formelor. Fiecare pas al cursei a pictat o nouă nuanță pe pânza experienței personale.

Leadership: Reacția ta din momentul victoriei oglindește iluminarea interioară, între evenimente aparent aleatorii și viziunea extatică a triumfului?

Pe măsură ce alergam, și alergam asemenea unui artist în căutarea inspirației pure, simțeam cum fiecare pas mă apropie de scopul meu, dar Marele Arhitect al Universului avea pregătite câteva provocări pentru mine. La un moment dat, prins în ritmul meu, am realizat că m-am rătăcit, îndepărtându-mă de traseul corect, conform unei revelații ascunse în efort: "Calea spre victorie nu este întotdeauna liniară". Aproape un kilometru, mai mult decât mi-aș fi închipuit, am alergat pe un drum greșit, asemenea unui Ulise modern în căutarea propriei Itaca. În acea clipă, ca un far în noapte, am auzit o voce care a devenit pivotul înțelegerii mele asupra cursei: "Hei, ai greșit drumul !" Era Elena, un mentor al cunoașterii pe cărările trail-ului, o alergătoare fruntașă, capabilă să mă readucă pe calea cea dreaptă.

Surprizele neașteptate ale cursei reflectă imprevizibilitatea vieții însăși. Cu inima pulsând în ritmul frenetic al existenței și cu adrenalina devenind combustibilul determinării, am revenit pe traseu, am revenit cu acea hotărâre nestrămutată, gândindu-mă că fiecare obstacol e o oportunitate de creștere. Chiar dacă timpul pierdut ar fi putut fi o piatră de moară, nu m-am lăsat cuprins de disperare, nu m-am demoralizat, nu, n-am încercat să abandonez. Dimpotrivă, o energie misterioasă, comme une force qui va, m-a propulsat înainte cu acea pasiune nestăvilită a unui artist a cărui viziune transcende limitele, dincolo de orice obstacol fizic.

Revelațiile obținute prin efort intens remodelează percepția asupra sinelui. Totuși, surpriza a fost copleșitoare când am început să depășesc concurent după concurent, fiecare pas în plus devenind o victorie asupra limitărilor autoimpuse. Claritatea vizuală se intensifică odată cu aprofundarea stării de flow. În acel moment, în pofida oricărui obstacol, am înțeles că alergarea nu este doar o competiție fizică, ci o metaforă a vieții însăși, unde fiecare obstacol devine o oportunitate de creștere. În acest caz, percepția vizuală a culorilor și formelor din natură se intensifică, amintind de arta lui Kandinsky.

Leadership: Cum experimentezi congruența dintre efortul fizic intens, căutarea spirituală şi percepția asupra propriei existențe, explorând interconexiunile subtile dintre experiența vizuală şi uimirea depăşirii de sine?

Personajul principal din romanul "Biblioteca Geografului", scris de Jon Fashman, era nimeni altui decât un anonim în căutarea alchimiei, pe nume Omar Iblis. Noaptea, Omar Iblis, îşi antrena memoria: aduna în spatele casei o mână de pietre şi una de boabe de fasole uscată, întindea braţele în faţă, lăsa să cadă pietrele şi boabele de fasole, se uita fix la ele o vreme, pregătea cina şi, după ce mânca, desena modelul alcătuit de pietrele şi boabele căzute.

Atât Omar Iblis, în solitudinea sa, cucerind haosul prin crearea de modele, cât și eu, în epuizarea mea, cucerind linia de finnish, am împărtășit aceeași dorință de a descoperi o ordine subiacentă în aparenţă aleatorietate a vieții, o semnificație capabilă să depășească haosul cotidian și să ofere un sentiment de unitate și împlinire. Amândoi păream să căutăm o conexiune între acțiunile noastre și un sens mai larg al existenței. Bineînţeles că linia de finnish se contura la orizont ca o promisiune a împlinirii, simultan îndepărtată și tangibilă.

Privirea interioară și cea exterioară fuzionează creează o experiență vizuală unificatoare. În ultimele clipe ale cursei, am simțit cum universul se aliniază într-o sincronicitate perfectă, asemenea unui tablou de Dali unde timpul și spațiul se contopesc. Cu o ultimă sforțare, am trecut pragul dintre efort și triumf, iar euforia m-a inundat ca un val purificator.

Leadershipul are, în acest sens, o singură direcţie de urmat: "Privirea interioară și cea exterioară converg într-o viziune unificatoare a realității, atunci când experiența intensă a maratonului cristalizează esența căutării de semnificaţie a evoluţiei personale."

Linia de sosire simbolizează atingerea unei înțelegeri superioare a existenței. Iar acțiunile individuale capătă sens în contextul mai larg al experienței personale de autodepășire.

Esența a ceea ce se vede dincolo de văzut surprinde modelele de perfecțiune ascunse în efort și mișcare. Și dacă am devenit Omar Iblis, este fiindcă am descoperit în alergare acea alchimie personală care transformă efortul fizic în înțelepciune spirituală și în experiență artistică

Ca și Omar, care găsea ordine în modelele aleatorii ale pietrelor și boabelor, eu am găsit sens în ritmul pașilor mei și în peisajul în continuă schimbare al cursei. Această experiență a devenit propria mea "Bibliotecă a Geografului", o hartă interioară a descoperirii de sine și a transcendenței, trasată pe curba sinuoasă a vieții, unde fiecare kilometru parcurs este o pagină nouă în povestea evoluției mele personale.

Şi, într-adevăr, artistul din mine a prins viață în mijlocul efortului fizic. Până la urmă sunt un artist fiindcă am reușit să transform experiența alergării într-o pânză vie a existenței, unde fiecare pas a devenit o tușă de pensulă pe tabloul vieții mele.

Esenţa leadershipului

On August 23, 2010

Nu tot ce se află în jurul tău poate da un contur şi o nuanţă luminoasă leadershipului tău.

Voi purta tot timpul în mintea şi în sufletul meu acel unic moment pe care l-am petrecut în compania maestrului. Îi purtam o mare afecţiune, rezervată de regulă unui părinte. La rândul său, maestrul îmi purta o neţărmurită dragoste încă de când eram mic.

Era seară. După o cină frugală maestrul s-a retras in "sanctuarul" său, lăcaşul sfânt - cum îi plăcea lui să denumească camera proprie de creaţie. L-am urmat cu un sentiment de încântare. Ştiam ce va urma: o nouă lecţie.

Prin pasiunea lui, maestrul pictase numeroase tablouri – şi în toate se revedeau talentul, bogăţia de cunoştinţe, înţelepciunea şi experienţa sa. Mi se părea că numai el îmi putea furniza inspiraţia şi creativitatea de care aveam nevoie pentru a ajunge un mare artist.

Maestrul îşi îndreptă atenţia către unul din tablourile sale, rămase o clipă nemişcat admirându-l cu o sensibilitate aparte de parcă ar fi vrut să distingă ceva straniu, sau ca şi cum nişte amintiri îi năvăliră brusc în minte. Urmă o clipă de linişte în care medită pentru a-şi pune în ordine gândurile. Îi observam mimica. Părea calm, iar ochii săi erau senini. Apoi, zâmbind cu nostalgie, mi-a spus:

- Nicu, artistul e un om care vede, care ia şi transmite viziunea lui mai departe. El e capabil să inoculeze în mintea celorlalţi cele mai convingătoare imagini transpuse pe pânză cu atâta fineţe şi exactitate încât să pară vii. Îţi este imposibil să te îndoieşti de ele.

Leadership: Exersezi aplicarea propriei tale părţi conducătoare în alternanţa intrinsec-extrinsec?

Leadershipul îşi găseşte sprijin în acea variantă complementară a procesului de creaţie ai cărei parametrii corespund cerinţelor de gestionare a propriilor resurse, astfel încât rezultatele să fie în mod semnificativ îmbunătăţite. Dar totodată îşi găseşte însemnătatea în importanţa pe care o acorzi propriei tale părţi conducătoare, a sufletului şi a minţii, raportate la ceea ce este dincolo de ceea ce se poate vedea sau experimenta în mod direct.

Ceea ce încerci să realizezi este o certitudine de care te poţi îndoi, o manifestare directă a propriilor tale gânduri şi inspiraţii, sporind conştientizarea acelor laturi din tine pe care le neglijezi, le sporeşti sau le reprimi. Laturi paralele, despre care n-ai fi crezut că le ai, avându-şi originea în vârful gândirii imaginative, având darul să modifice unele aspecte legate de activitatea ta individuală într-un nou context.

Evoluţia personală şi profesională, realizată ca o manifestare directă a individualităţii creatoare, delimitate de combinaţia raţional-iraţional , obiectiv-subiectiv , nu vizează doar intenţiile de dobândire a unei autonomii intelectuale cât mai largi, şi nici nu constituie o extindere a vreunui model de bună practică. Evoluţia oferă o estimare pentru orientarea ta într-o realitate schimbătoare. Iar această evoluţie poate fi privită ca parametru al funcţiei de tip "valoare", care nu-şi pierde determinismul intrinsec sau extrinsec, devenind mai capabilă de extindere prin particularităţile de ordin constructiv.

A exersa aplicarea propriei tale părţi conducătoare în alternanţa intrinsec-extrinsec, înseamnă să te raportezi la ceea ce înfăptuieşti prin intermediul conştiinţei de sine. Înseamnă să te conectezi la realitatea de dincolo de tine, adică la tot ceea ce percepi prin puterea intenţiei tale creatoare raportată la divin, o posibilitate de comunicare cu Intelectul Spiritului de creaţie.

În aceste circumstanţe liderul poate fi considerat rezultatul unei grele munci de autoanaliză, de introspecţie şi de regăsire, însoţite de un salt în viitor spre ceea ce înseamnă a fi un om luminat, nu doar un creator. Adică un om care reuşeşte să se aventureze în afara propriei dimensiuni interioare, către o raţiune superioară.

Liderul nu "pictează" ceea ce vede, ci ceea ce gândeşte

Spre deosebire de un pictor nemaipomenit care poate reda o imagine pe care şi-a întipărit-o în minte cu o iscusinţă nemaipomenită, reproducând atât de exact cele mai mici detalii, un lider, deşi se aseamănă cu un artist în multe privinţe, nu redă niciodată în "opera" sa ceea ce vede, ci, mai presus de toate, ceea ce gândeşte. Un lider iscusit ştie că nu tot ceea se zboară se mănâncă, că nu tot ceea ce se proiectează este şi realizabil. În leadership trebuie să gândeşti, să analizezi şi să evaluezi totul cu foarte mare atenţie.

Liderul nu se poate lăsa prins ca un pictor de ceea ce vede, căci realitatea poate fi cu totul alta, poate fi schimbătoare, şi de aceea ea nu poate fi exprimată sau imortalizată într-un "tablou". Dacă liderul nu-şi formează o imagine de ansamblu a tot ceea ce-l înconjoară bine ancorată în realitate, atunci nu îşi va putea propune nici obiective realizabile.

Leadership: Viziunea integratoare a conţinuturilor de realitate pe care le accesezi este adecvată imaginii unui întreg pe care nu-l poţi controla, numit "destinaţie"?

Imortalizezi doar peisajul? Liderii au problema deformării. Ei nu reproduc în planurile lor cu exactitate ceea ce văd, uneori improvizează, pentru că totul se poate schimba. Dar nici nu distorsionează realitatea, altfel pierd din vedere ceea ce e cu adevărat important.

Îmi amintesc de afirmaţia pe care o făcea odată scriitorul motivaţional Stephen Covey: "Un lider este persoana care se caţără în cel mai înalt copac, studiază peisajul cu atenţie, şi strigă cât îl ţin plămânii: Asta nu e jungla noastră. "

Această afirmaţie întăreşte punctul meu de vedere. De foarte multe ori felul în care percepi lucrurile din jur desparte succesul de eşec. Ca lider, dacă nu-ţi concentrezi eforturile în direcţia corectă nu vei putea face progrese, ba mai mult, vei eşua în orice ai face. Pentru ca performanţele tale să fie tot mai bune, concentrează-te asupra ceea ce contează cel mai mult, nu imortaliza doar "peisajul". Căci nu tot ce se află în jurul tău poate da un contur şi o nuanţă luminoasă leadershipului tău.

Tu îţi concentrezi viziunea şi eforturile în direcţia realizării scopurilor propuse? Cui îi este favorabilă viziunea ta? Oamenii remarcă şi apreciază viziunea ta? A încerca să realizezi ceva fără să te îndrepţi în direcţia care trebuie e ca şi cum ai realiza un tablou cu o imagine superbă, dar care nu se va vinde niciodată.

Destinaţia la care se opreşte de obicei un lider se formează atunci când el începe să privească totul numai la prezent prin prisma esteticului, a frumuseţii pe care o găseşte în reprezentaţiile iscusite. Acelaşi lucru se întâmplă când el trece cu vederea o parte importantă din ce i se întâmplă fiindcă este într-o mare măsură blocat într-un nivel ridicat de diversitate. Sau atunci când se cufundă într-un univers virtual încercând să "producă" ceva care nu are largă căutare.

În leadership viziunea care trebuie să redea imaginea realităţii nu trebuie să fie să fie sugestivă şi conformă cu destinaţia pe care o stabileşte evoluţia sensibilităţii tale artistice.

Esenţa leadershipului este mult asemănătoare cu esenţa artei şi aidoma unei picturi care impresionează prin tehnica folosită, prin imaginaţie şi idei novatoare, prin accesibilitate şi rentabilitate. Tot aşa şi-n leadership, pornind de la o bază existentă, planul, modalităţile şi căile de acţiune trebuie sa "impresioneze" astfel încât ele să fie acceptate şi sa fie posibil de realizat cu investiţii cât mai mici şi asigure beneficii maxime.

Esenţa operei de artă

Numai dacă știi să privești nevăzutul poți să dezvălui tainele ascunse ale realității.

Pictura este pentru un artist nu doar o formă de exprimare, ci şi o formă de libertate consacrată vederii însetate de frumusețe și profunzime. Spun asta în timp ce admir peisajul de basm, plin de lumină şi de căldură, care mă îndeamnă la visare, un act de imaginație pură, cea mai importantă activitate a minţii, atâta timp cât aduce în realitate idei folositoare, de popularizare a creaţiei mele.

Lucrurile din jur nu-mi spun prea multe dacă nu sunt filtrate prin capacitatea ochilor de a focaliza pe retină imaginea încântătoare a unei palete de culori variate, vii şi durabile, care transformă o pânză albă într-o capodoperă plină de viață și expresie. Acea pânză albă a mării, a nisipului și a insulei pe care mă aflu, devine o adevărată operă de artă în cadrul picturii pe care o cultiv cu mult talent şi îndemânare, în imagini scoase din adâncul penelului cu darul muncii de creaţie. Proces atât de rar întâlnit în ziua de azi, proces continuu și complex care necesită pasiune și dedicare.

Şi nu este pictor în lume care să nu plătească un preţ pentru vederea aceasta capabilă să mişte inimile şi sufletele, situată la hotarul fragil dintre observaţie şi invenţie. Acest preţ fiind condiţionat de fiecare secundă de aşteptare a momentului de vis care, străpungând realitatea ca o rază de lumină, face să înflorească orice fel de amintire, ca într-un paradis al tuturor libertăţilor.

Leadership: Poţi să redimensionezi o imagine percepută în absența unui proces artistic, dar totodată să înfăţişezi în mod sugestiv spiritul unui subiect viu de metamorfoză creatoare?

Privesc totul în jur. Ochii surprind o paletă nesfârșită de culori, fiecare nuanță, fiecare model, fiecare semnificaţie reprezentând o fereastră către lumea interioară a artistului care mă reprezintă, unde sentimentele și gândurile prind viață pe o pânză plină de forță evocatoare prin cromatică şi compoziţie, dând naștere unui univers vibrant și plin de înțelesuri ascunse. Chiar şi în acest caz, meritul de a picta întocmai după natură, punând pe paleta de culori cea mai enigmatică priveliște a unei stări de fragilitate, cu care recepţionez orice mică schimbare apărută, îi aparţine în totalitate vederii exersate care știe să surprindă frumusețea lumii într-o paletă de culori și să transforme fiecare moment într-o operă de artă.

Privesc, dar nu mă pot gândi la ceea ce nu poate fi cunoscut. Nu e niciun proces artistic aici, ci doar o formă de a-mi hrăni ego-ul prin această mărturisire sinceră.

Evident. Să dau mărturisiriii mele o anumită semnificaţie, ca şi când ar produce o reacție în lanț care îmi poate schimba cursul întregii vieți, acum când ochii reuşesc performanţa de a-şi integra privirea în peisajul vast al lumii exterioare, şi să idealizez o clipă măiastră ca o apăsare ușoară pe picior într-un univers al imaginației, iată ce mă învaţă actul de dezvoltare a percepţiei vizuale izvorât din înaltul absolut al unui cer fără nori căruia îi dedic întreaga mea atenţie.

Iar prezentul îmi răspunde cu glasul unui erou de-al lui John Fowles:

"Privesc totul în jur, în timp ce mă gândesc la ziua de mâine, la viitor. Şi, da, pot să fac presupuneri destul de realiste. Mai ales cu privire la Dumnezeu, căci supremul creator este foarte inteligent, este peste tot, nu-l văd, dar îl simt. Cum ştiu asta? Ştiu pentru că nu-l înţeleg, de ce există, cine este sau cum este. Unii spun că şi eu sunt inteligent. Deci cred că Dumnezeu trebuie să fie foarte inteligent, ca să fie cu mult mai inteligent decât mine. Nu-mi dă indicii, nu-mi oferă certitudini, nu-mi dă raţiuni sau motive. De fapt, dacă m-aş ruga la Dumnezeu, l-aş ruga să nu mi se arate niciodată. Să-mi evite privirea. Iar dacă s-ar arăta, aş şti că nu este Dumnezeu, ci este doar un mincinos."

Leadership: Cum evaluezi relevanţa creaţiei tale dacă eşti reprezentat de o imagine care înrădăcinează în mintea ta meditativă conexiunea cu divinul și cu propria ta ființă?

Când un artist priveşte în zare linia orizontului, meditativ şi spiritual, adesea se vede pe sine cu ochii unui Dumnezeu necunoscut, dar desăvârșit, care pătrunde adânc în taina ființei sale interioare, revelând înţelesul unui stop cadru în timp: "tot ceea ce trăiesc este influenţat, perceput şi împlinit de o imagine care provoacă sentimentul de comuniune între ştiut şi neştiut".

Iar arta, în acest sens, denotă un fel de construcţie impersonală, pentru că simţi că tu eşti creatorul a ceea ce transcende realitatea și revelează frumusețea dincolo de cuvinte. Dar, de fapt, altcineva îţi conduce mâinile când desenezi cu pensula pe pânză, dând viață unei lumi noi și neexplorate.

Iar dacă mă folosesc de o imagine care îmbină în mod meditativ prezența mea cu dimensiunea divină, pentru a revela esența operei de artă, Atinsphorn Upyserabbas Onyoirtus, profunzimea realității obţinută prin strădania unei trăiri autentice care revelează voinţa Divinităţi ascunse, asta se întâmplă pentru că în pictură trebuie să dezvălui și să aduc la lumină divinitatea ascunsă în fiecare nuanță și formă.

Există adesea straturi de semnificații și înțelesuri bine ascunse sub suprafața vizibilă. Ba mai mult, dacă atât Dumnezeu cât și pictorul sunt implicați în procesul de revelare și exprimare, îmi pun întrebarea: lucrurile din jur există pentru ca eu să le cuprind cu privirea şi să le găsesc noi semnificaţii, sau de fapt vederea mea întruchipează Eul contemplator care explorează taina divină în culorile și forme aduse la viață prin artă?

Chiar dacă nu este întotdeauna evidentă la prima vedere, o manifestare transcendentă este prezentă în fiecare element străpuns de sfera artisticului printr-un har, printr-un glas, printr-un miracol care nu are egal în întreaga Creație. Şi chiar dacă simt că pensula mea este condusă de ceva mai înalt, fără ca voinţa mea să se poată opune unei forţe infinite, reuşesc totuşi să ating o profunzime reală în creația mea deoarece mă conectez cu propriile emoții, experiențe și gânduri autentice.

Esenţa operei de artă trebuie înţeleasă ca identitate dintre planul Eului şi cel al misterului în "substanţa creaţiei" din care izvorăşte viaţa de dincolo de moarte. Omul trăiește etern prin creația pe care Dumnezeu a insuflat-o în timpul său.

Un artist poate simți că este conectat la o sursă mai înaltă de creativitate, numai atunci când creează opere de artă. În această perspectivă, artistul nu este doar un creator de artă, ci devine o figură divină, asemănătoare cu Dumnezeu, prin intermediul creației sale.

Esenţa operei de artă este legată de conexiunea cu divinitatea, atunci când profunzimea gândurilor și trăirilor tale devine o fereastră către misterul și sacralitatea existenței. Sau atunci când devii, prin har şi virtute, asemenea lui Dumnezeu ale cărui creaţii, relevându-se ca opere de artă transcendente, își găsesc locul unic în ansamblul armonios al universului.

Iar metamorfoza creatoare, de care menţionam mai devreme, se referă la un fel de asemănare a artistului cu Dumnezeu, care îşi mărturiseşte trăirile prin intermediul creaţiei. Artistul însuşi devine Dumnezeu dacă are potențialul de a atinge și de a exprima adevăruri profunde și universale prin abilitatea sa de a crea și de a se exprima. De fapt, artistul, prin exprimarea trăirilor, emoțiilor și viziunii sale unice, își transcende propria umanitate și atinge un nivel de conștiință și de exprimare care este aproape divin.

Esenţialitatea în Leadership

Cine priveşte realitatea aşa cum i se prezintă printr-o esenţializare treptată a formelor și culorilor totului din jur, va lua decizii în funcţie de ceea ce vede, şi nu de ceea i se întâmplă.

Călătoream dintr-un loc în altul, a nu ştiu câta oară, legănat de gândurile nevoii de a mă autodepăşi, pe căile aparent atât de alambicate ale percepţiei de sine în raport cu taina unei păci nesurpate şi blânde, şi a unei linişti senine. Percepţie care provenea din însăşi imaginea plină de detalii a lucrurilor, întinderea şi forma lor fiind susceptibile de variaţie, lucruri în care se citea mulţumirea minţii ce caută legături logice între informaţii, în explicarea unei teorii a totului din jur. În dimensiunea rostului unei vieţi închinate strădaniei de a înţelege minunile Creaţiei.

Căci soliditatea despre care vorbesc iluminiştii nu poate exista fără întindere şi formă. Lucrurile sunt văzute limpezi, fără ele totul s-ar transforma într-un haos imens: un univers fără forme, fără culori şi fără viaţă. Şi totuşi, expresia "ordine" îşi are rădăcinile în "dezordine". Deoarece în constantele de timp ale tranziţiei de la o stare la alta, în voia unei nebănuite puteri de transformare exterioară, într-o mişcare mereu repetată, materia produce prin reacţii şi cataliză o forţă de gravitaţie, vibraţie, energie, spirit.

Fiecare secundă din fiecare privire aruncată într-un parte sau alta, este o revizuire a lucrurilor dată de percepţia sistemului vizual înainte de a fi martorul unei „inexplicabile" obscurităţi. Într-o secundă, privirea mea se îndreaptă spre frumuseţea lucrurilor care nu se văd, cel puţin nu oricine reuşeşte performanţa asta, sau este dată de revizuirea inexplicabilă a sistemului vizual pe care îl furnizează percepţia unei imagini a invizibilului perpetuat prin dependenţa de deducţii, de analogii, de abstractizări, presupuneri, comparaţii şi generalizări.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi împărtăşeşti experienţa unică de a te oglindi în lucrurile din jur, prin capturarea unei imagini a obiectului observat şi prezentarea ei sub formă de impulsuri creatoare?

Adesea, mă gândeam să uit tot ce văd, tot ce simt, tot ce era între mine şi totul din jur. Să încerc a mă lăsa în compania unei galerii de imagini fără colorit, însă reproduse după vreo fotografie ale cărei detalii trebuiau încadrate în desfăşurarea evenimentelor. Ar fi însemnat ca lucrurile să devină umbre ale unei realităţi fără nume, desfăşurată în condiţiile unei lipse de forme şi esenţe, tot aşa cum o carte se trăieşte odată cu lectura ei, se consumă odată cu fiecare cuvânt, şi ajunge să nu îi mai pese nimănui de ea în final, oricât de bună ar fi fost.

Lungimea de undă care determină tonul cromatic, adică acea proprietate prin care culorile se deosebesc una de alta, ar fi trebuit să corespundă punctului în care eu însumi mă oglindeam în lucrurile din jur, raportându-mă la valoarea absolută a unui limbaj inteligibil doar mie. Şi acest limbaj, despre care aş avea multe de spus, se regăseşte în scrierile esteticianului Cornel A. Ailincăi, după cum urmează:

"Obiectului perceput i se dă înfăţişarea plastică prin intermediul mijloacelor formale, iar formalizarea - transcrierea în materie picturală sensibilă - dă naştere la o realitate diferită de cea percepută. Oricât de precis, de fotografic şi-ar propune artistul să redea un arbore, de exemplu, imaginea sa picturală va spune altceva decât arborele perceput în natură. Arborele plăsmuit îl evocă pe cel real - devine simbolul acestuia - dar totodată îl încarcă, voit sau nu, cu o valoare suplimentară care se sustrage cuprinderii definitive, spărgând îndestularea iconică în întâmpinarea unui metasens."

Leadership: Efectuezi o revizuire a lucrurilor dată de percepţia sistemului vizual, înainte de a fi martorul unei „inexplicabile" obscurităţi?

Prezentarea unei imagini sub formă de impulsuri creatoare se face prin reprezentarea realităţii sub formă de impresii subiective. Ceea ce îţi lărgeşte perspectiva este o emanaţie a atenţiei atemporale, o probă a atenţiei pe care o acorzi lucrurilor şi evenimentelor din jur - întrevăzute numai prin detalii subtile. O scenă din romanul "Duma Key", scris de Stephen King, mi-a atras atenția de curând:

Detalii, detalii, adevărul stă în detalii. Fetiţa încă vede. Şi vederea cheamă cu disperare vorbirea, chiar şi într-o minte deranjată? un creier rănit? O, cu siguranţă, cu siguranţă. Oare care este primul cuvânt din partea asta a lucrului rău?"

Cine priveşte realitatea aşa cum i se prezintă printr-o esenţializare treptată a formelor și culorilor totului din jur, va lua decizii în funcţie de ceea ce vede, şi nu de ceea i se întâmplă. Obscuritatea la care adesea, cu toţii suntem martori, este dată de interpretarea greşită a detaliilor pe care ni le oferă realitatea, încât ceea ce observăm nu este acelaşi lucru cu profunzimea observaţiei experimentată de adepţii realismului. Detaliile trădează un spirit iscoditor, dublat de o putere a observaţiei şi de analiză cu totul remarcabile, în timp ce obscuritatea este consecinţa jocului de lumini şi umbre pe care numai un artist desăvârşit poate să-l urmeareasca din mai multe unghuri.

Iar cine răspunde pe deplin unei perspective de receptare racordată la sensurile evenimentelor, dând ascultare fundamentelor care țin închegat totul din jur, precum conexiunea dintre lucruri, fenomene și contextul lor, prin argumentare logică, este un om capabil să propună o nouă abordare a atitudinii faţă de ceea ce trebuie făcut în intervalul dintre alegere şi întâmplare.

Leadership: Percepţia ta asupra lumii, cu înrâurire asupra sensului vieții, este rezultatul gândirii și trăirilor născute din diverse asocieri cu elementele realităţii înconjurătoare?

Percepţia asupra lumii, cu înrâurire asupra sensului vieții, este rezultatul gândirii și trăirilor născute din diverse asocieri cu elementele realităţii înconjurătoare, exprimând de fapt captivitatea omului prin văz și auz. Această captivitate nu poate fi depăşită decât printr-o acceptare a schimbărilor care se produc ca urmare a constatărilor făcute în contact cu o conștiință care nu strigă după sunet şi mişcare, culoare sau formă, dar care cere lămuriri asupra a ceea ce nu-i bine și de ce - din tot ceea ce ți se întâmplă.

La un nivel al interpretării şi până la un anumit punct, omul care își aşterne observaţiile în raza conştiinţei nu-şi percepe niciodată propria persoană din perspectiva culorii "Viaţa e frumoasă ! ". Și nici din perspectiva formelor pe care le iau lucrurile de tipul „Big Data".

Obiectivele prioritare ale unui asemenea individ corespund cu tendința de promovare a schimbărilor esenţiale procesului evolutiv din perspectiva proiecţiilor dorinţei de evadare, de rupere a barierelor convenţionalului care se reflectă în „întâmplarea aceea".

Obscuritatea este un fenomen destul de evitat în cadrul tendinţei de a trata efectele și nu cauzele. Înseamnă să nu percepi peisajul (o imagine de ansamblu) datorită lipsei văzului și auzului, datorită volumului ridicat al lucrurilor din jur cărora le atribuim valoare și sens. Dar ceea ce se ignoră cel mai adesea este tocmai posibilitatea unei întâmplări de a se produce neaşteptat, chiar dacă vederea și auzul se mențin clare.

Sensul pe care îl atribui vieţii este direct proporţional cu privirea pe care o îndrepţi asupra lucrurilor care scapă din vedere celor care, în goana după avantajele individuale mărunte, de moment, uită sentimentul realităţii.

Esenţialitatea în Leadership are ca punct de referinţă realitatea care se dezvoltă prin evaluarea şi utilizarea lucrurilor care se întâmplă, care se impun și care se află în puterea omului, a lucrurilor care se observă doar printr-o intervenție de remodelare și de repoziţionare personală.

Estetica calităţii în leadership

Creaţia autentică nu constă doar în efortul pe care îl depui pentru a-ţi concretiza un stil artistic aparte, ci în puterea de a alege cum să-ţi eficientizezi munca astfel încât să-ţi atingi potenţialul de a împlini un destin demn de urmat.

Osteneşte-te şi desfaţă-te copiind întruna cele mai bune lucrări pe care le vei putea găsi şi care sunt ieşite din mâinile meşterilor de seamă. Şi dacă te afli într-un loc unde au fost mulţi meşteri buni, cu atât mai bine pentru tine. Dar îţi dau un sfat: bagă de seamă şi alege întotdeauna pe cel mai bun şi care are cea mai mare faimă. Urmărindu-l zi cu zi, ar fi împotriva firii să nu prinzi ceva din modul său de a lucra, din felul său de a fi.

În schimb, de te apuci să copiezi astăzi după meşterul acesta, mâine după celălalt, nu vei izbuti să prinzi ceva nici din felul de a lucra al unuia, nici din al celuilalt, şi vei ajunge, fără să vrei, un om cu o închipuire cam ciudată, căci fiecare mod de lucru al cutărui meşter îţi va hărţui mintea. Azi vei vrea să faci ca meşterul acesta, mâine cum face celălalt, şi în felul acesta nu vei ajunge niciodată să-l copiezi pe vreunul cu desăvârşire.

Dacă îl urmezi neîncetat pe unul singur, numai lipsa de deşteptăciune te-ar face să nu tragi din asta vreun folos. Şi atunci ţi se va întâmpla - dacă natura te va dărui cât de cât cu imaginaţie - să ajungi să ai un mod al tău propriu de a lucra, şi aceasta nu va putea fi decât bun. Deoarece mâna - deşteptăciunea ta fiind obişnuită să adune flori - n-ar şti să semene spini. *****

Leadreship: Îţi aperi cunoaşterea care îţi dă libertatea de a personaliza o imagine împotriva propriilor tale convingeri privind valoarea pe care o dai unei creaţii care îşi devorează creatorul?

Eşti un artist "second-hand"? Eşti un pseudo-alchimist care încearcă să fabrice leadership gold fără a deţine firul Ariadnei? Continui să înaintezi într-un coridor întunecos? Eşti limitat de "nimicul creator"? Exagerezi până la viciu orice înclinaţii ale tale?

Am mai scris despre fragmentul de mai sus, dar de această dată vreau să aduc în prim plan ideea de atingere a desăvârşirii printr-un context favorabil calităţii creaţiei, ca denigrare a kitschurilor. De cele mai multe ori înfăptuim o operă lipsită de importanţă, ne construim un farmec bazat pe emoţie pentru a face din artă un eveniment anume. În acelaşi timp ne focusăm mai mult decât trebuie pe piesele centrale care construiesc un ideal artistic, dar omitem cel mai important lucru, şi anume accesorizarea fundalului care asigură o imagine completă, cu o notă de splensoare şi originalitate.

Un artist veritabil se ghidează în activitatea lui de creaţie după ideea că măreţia unei împliniri este condiţionată de valoarea conţinului de idei şi sentimente al imaginii finale trebuie să se păstreze într-o realitate superioară, una care se întinde în spațiu și timp. Pe de altă parte, un artist "second-hand" se ghidează după ideea că "ceea ce nu cunosc, nu există" sau că "dacă nimeni nu este perfect, atunci nici opera nu trebuie să fie perfectă".

Numai o analiză în profunzime a conţinutului operei tale va reliefa diferenţa dintre ceea ce este autentic şi ce este fals. Falsul este o creaţie din care nu reiese legătura strânsă între artist şi spectatorul care tânjeşte după un univers cu totul aparte.

Tu ai vreo realizare care se poate ridica la statutul de "operă"? Sau te rezumi a fi doar un consumator, care, aidoma plantelor parazite, îşi sug hrana, o iau din operele celorlalţi? Oare nu ţi-ai pierdut simţul valorilor?

Un studiu asupra propriei tale filozofii, un studiu asupra propriei fiinţe văzută atât din exterior cât şi din interior, îţi va confirma convingerile, va arăta nivelul la care te afli: începător, mediu sau expert.

Înainte de a concepe o lucrare artistică trebuie să te asiguri că însăşi ducerea ei la bun sfârşit nu devine duşmanul tău cel mai de temut, şi că întreaga ta cunoaştere nu reprezintă un lucru ce apare la întâmplare.

De unde poate ţâşni lumina sclipitoare, salvatoare? Poţi atribui nivelului tău de cunoaştere o nouă formă funcţională?

A personaliza o imagine împotriva propriilor tale convingeri înseamnă să te raportezi la un ideal de satisfacţie în a te lăsa dominat de măreţia unei viziuni, dar fără să ai capacitatea de a te constitui tu însuţi drept un pilon central al viziunii. În acest caz, cunoaşterea ta este supusă unor limite de greutate în expunerea unei teme care să reziste trecerii timpului.

Iar pentru a atribui nivelului tău de cunoaştere o formă funcţională, bazată pe revelaţiile şi ideile cu care merită să îţi îmbraci creaţia, mai întâi dăruieşte-te total unei experienţe de iluminare personală, cum ar fi să transgresezi "imediatul", să înţelegi de ce realitatea are o dimensiune şi o anumită formă în fiecare părticică a vieţii. Dacă natura te-a dăruit cât de cât cu imaginaţie, vei găsi un punct de reper creativ în orice se vede că o scăpărare de băţ de chibrit.

Atunci când te raportezi la actul de creaţie trebuie să o faci cu grija de a nu alege lucrurile la întâmplare, ci trecându-le prin filtrul unei estetici a bizarului, a sentimentului, al iregularului, a uimirii ca reacţie spontană în faţa unei realităţi pe care puţini o anticipează.

Cum ar fi, de exemplu, să te vezi în ipostaza unui trandafir pe care să-l descrii prin limbajul unei fiinţe care descinde din Dumnezeu?

Astfel se explică raţiunea unui artist care uneşte vizualul şi verosimulul cu neprevăzutul unui sentiment care te cuprinde atunci când rămâi fără replică, când rămâi fără posibilităţi de interpretare a operei expuse în faţa realităţii.

O creaţie care îşi devorează creatorul este similară exprimării limbajului şi sensului artistic într-un mod care nu facilitează comprehensiunea informaţiei şi care nu conduce la păstrarea ei în memorie un timp îndelungat.

Merită să citez aici un internaut: "Tot ceea ce ai de făcut este să te transformi într-o antenă prin care să recepţionezi exact acea undă frecvenţă care manifestă pentru tine realitatea aleasă şi să o emiţi, să o trăieşti, să fii aceea realitate pe care ceilalţi oameni o văd în jurul lor."

Estetica calităţii în leadership este similară esteticii calităţii în artă: trebuie să te "joci" cu mintea celui care te-a descoperit, să îl faci să gândească că va reuşi să se alinieze la o realitate din care nu are nicio scăpare fiindcă deja face parte dintr-o experienţă "Touching Masterpieces".

Calitatea în leadership, ca şi în artă, înseamnă mai întâi de toate conformare la cerinţele unui standard înalt de “a gândi altfel”.

Estetica Dedublării

On Februarie 23, 2018

Încearcă să fixezi noi criterii de referinţă dimensiunii creaţiei pe care o experimentezi, surprinzând alt mod de a fi al aceleaşi naturi care te defineşte.

Cu fiecare zi ce trecea mă vedeam altcineva, m-aş fi vrut altcineva şi într-un final să rămân doar eu, o construcție abstractă, un "ireal" care permite înţelegerea faptului că realul nu poate exista decât pentru că are în el ceva suprareal, o revelaţie din astral, un spirit liber dublat de tentația de a se proiecta în viitor.

Acest proces neobosit, în continuă schimbare, starea de a fi mereu altceva sub raportul dintre ascunsul unei lumi proprii ajunsă la limitele ei şi aventura unei misterioase chemări spre o împlinire care îşi cere absolutul, era menit să dezlege taina unor virtuți reunite şi suverane într-un acelaşi spaţiu al purităţii, numit "Naturalism Sui Generis".

Mintea mea inventivă, sub diversitatea expresiilor artistice şi a surselor nesecate de informaţii, urmărea această fiinţă stranie ce decurgea nu atât din naturalismul imaginii pe care o compune gradul cel mai înalt de expresivitate atribuit încărcăturii afective, ci din asocierea enigmatică a două curente artistice compatibile: simbolismul şi suprarealismul, făcând mai mult decât evidentă ideea de coeziune într-un singur tot numit: "Violarea Plauzibilului".

Fiecare nivel de creaţiei constituie o linie din cache-ul unui traseu din adâncul zonelor ascunse ale nebuniei, în limitele realității surprinse în multiple ipostaze. O linie care, trasând forme de undă, este pe ascuns în căutarea unei înrudiri cu viziunea unei compoziţii încă nefinisate, producând un ecou al neprevăzutului din preajma evenimentelor şi influenţelor mediului de comunicare artistică.

Linia ajută trăirile să prindă formă materială, intensitate sporită, metamorfozându-se în alte forme ce capătă identitate prin expresiile degajate într-o dublă rotaţie simultană: simbolul, care conferă exprimărilor o ambiguitate debordantă, şi o prefigurare a manifestării în exterior a fiinţei care transcende personalitatea limitată.

Leadership: Iei în considerare contextul argumentativ în care vorbeşti despre tine ca "operă de artă", schiţând suplimentar liniile unei estetici preocupate de stilizarea sinelui prin modelarea subiectivă a Universului exterior?

Cu astea fiind zise, mă rezum la a concluziona: eram indicele unui Eu aparţinând unei entităţi paralele care se afla în lumea artei, propusă de o izbucnire a sufletului, încadrată între liniile unei interpretări posibile a universului imaginar, nedefinit biologic. Această entitate se contura prin jocul metamorfozelor ambigue ale diverselor chipuri şi siluete cărora unii dintre cei care le-au contemplat le-ar fi dat o singură notă de stil: hazardul nelimitat.

Principala mea greşeală, dată de forţele sensibilului ce exercitau o presiune crescândă asupra aparentului, era de a crede într-un imaginar care face tot posibilul să suplinească viul, înşelând amarnic realitatea. Ca şi când ar fi trebuit să descopăr perspectiva unei noi făpturi îndumnezeite, reprezentată simbolic într-o manieră care nu trebuie să copieze realitatea, dar care îşi câştigă existenţa pe principiul asocierilor şi al corelaţiilor suprarealiste, prin combinarea unor elemente perfect verosimile.

Adevărata operă de artă este un rezultat al încărcăturii afective produsă din asocierea simbolică a două realităţi contrare, dar compatibile, utilizată cu scopul de a transcende personalitatea limitată.

Borges atribuie versiunii poemului lui Hernandez ("Biografia lui Tadeo Isidoro Cruz"), propria lui semnificaţie. În poem, soldatul Cruz se alătură fugarului Martin Fierro, fiindcă nu poate comite delictul de a ucide un viteaz. Astfel, el se întoarce la propriul trecut, regăsindu-se pe sine. În sfârşit îşi vede propriul chip şi finalul povestirii capătă măreţia unei revelaţii. Există un moment în viaţa fiecărui om: când aflăm cine suntem. Cruz îşi înţelege în această clipă destinul şi îşi contemplă, ca într-o oglindă, chipul etern. Privind chipul înfricoşător al lui Fierro, înţelege că "celălalt era el". [1]

Contemplarea neîncetată a realităţii supreme este o dovadă a sensibilităţii cu care abordezi tot ce te înconjoară, imaginându-te purtat de murmurul materiei în elanul spre complexitate, surprinzând alt mod de a fi al aceleaşi naturi.

Ca o paranteză, acest gen de asociere cu o "entitate model", prezentată ca natură statică, îşi are precedentul în tehnica colajului cubist care pune sub semnul îndoielii doar realismul iluzoriu, prezintând ființe și lucruri într-o manieră în care nu au mai fost percepute: prin diverse elemente şi figuri geometrice, linii continue sau intrerupte, semne grafice, puncte de forţă şi contururi orientative, pentru a semnifica profunzimea spaţială.

Dincolo de învelişul cel mai subtil al înţelesurilor desprinse din ţesutul unei viziuni spirituale, care ne permite să experimentăm starea de unitate profundă, există o alchimie a actului creator asemenea unui "Alter Ego" de care eşti conştient că nu te poţi separa vreodată.

Michelangelo l-a creat pe David ca un fel de dublură a sa într-o viaţă veşnică, în încercarea de a se ridica deasupra efemerului. Ce altă modalitate mai bună este de a explora personalitatea noastră complexă decât prin transportarea ei într-o realitate alternativă, într-o lume paralelă?

Actul creator este o sumă a percepţiilor despre sine concretizată într-o dublare expresivă a unei trăiri individuale care este redată sub forma unui mesaj către exterior: "Câştigă-ţi Eternitatea ! "

Estetica Dedublării se adresează spaţiului inerent creaţiei din care se întrupează viitorul, aferent principiului asocierii simbolice dus până la un paroxism al situaţiilor ambigue prin combinarea unor elemente reale cu altele neverosimile, utilizând adesea tehnica colajului suprarealist sau cubist.

Estetica Excelenţei

Îndrăzneşte să scoţi la lumină ceea ce te defineşte în raport cu o lume care îşi caută reperele de sustenabilitate în originalitatea realizării actului de creaţie.

Osteneşte-te şi desfaţă-te copiind întruna cele mai bune lucrări pe care le vei putea găsi şi care sunt ieşite din mâinile meşterilor de seamă. Şi dacă te afli într-un loc unde au fost mulţi meşteri buni, cu atât mai bine pentru tine. Dar îţi dau un sfat: bagă de seamă şi alege întotdeauna pe cel mai bun şi care are cea mai mare faimă. Urmărindu-l zi cu zi, ar fi împotriva firii să nu prinzi ceva din modul său de a lucra, din felul său de a fi.

În schimb, de te apuci să copiezi astăzi după meşterul acesta, mâine după celălalt, nu vei izbuti să prinzi ceva nici din felul de a lucra al unuia, nici din al celuilalt, şi vei ajunge, fără să vrei, un om cu o închipuire cam ciudată, căci fiecare mod de lucru al cutărui meşter îţi va hărţui mintea. Azi vei vrea să faci ca meşterul acesta, mâine cum face celălalt, şi în felul acesta nu vei ajunge niciodată să-l copiezi pe vreunul cu desăvârşire.

Dacă îl urmezi neîncetat pe unul singur, numai lipsa de deşteptăciune te-ar face să nu tragi din asta vreun folos. Şi atunci ţi se va întâmpla - dacă natura te va dărui cât de cât cu imaginaţie - să ajungi să ai un mod al tău propriu de a lucra, şi aceasta nu va putea fi decât bun. Deoarece mâna - deşteptăciunea ta fiind obişnuită să adune flori - n-ar şti să semene spini. *

Leadership: Cum poţi să defineşti pătrunderea ta în miezul lucrurilor, şi mersul lor, în raport cu trăirile care te cuprind atunci când stai la marginea "scenei" fără a putea să te implici în spectacol?

Ştiinţa provoacă o adevărată debandadă în mintea ta? Ai ajuns să regreţi fiecare moment care te ţine departe de tine însuţi? Psihicul tău poate să susţină greutatea aşteptărilor pe care le generezi tot timpul? Eşti stăpânit de dorinţa arzătoare de a evada din rutină? Dorinţa de schimbare absolută, devine de nepreţuit?

Estetica excelenţei se produce ca urmare a faptului că poziţia ta faţă de ideea de schimbare (prin comparaţie cu evoluţia artei) se bazează pe premisa că cea mai sigură călăuză pe care o poţi avea, ca şi cea mai bună direcţie pe care o poţi urma spre desăvârşirea la care aspiri, este să capeţi o experienţă unică din lupta pe care o duci cu practica unei continue formari a caracterului.

Iar adevărata probă a caracterului este să ajungi să-ţi definitivezi un mod propriu de a face lucrurile foarte bine, cu rost şi cu tragere de inimă.

În artă, important nu este să-ţi încarci conştiinţa de simboluri formale cu ajutorul cărora să stăpâneşti impresiile furnizate de percepţia realităţii înconjurătoare. Ci să înveţi mişcările de pensulă, felul în care culorile şi liniile devin forme şi dau viaţă unei opere fără egal, folosind succesiunea "înflorii" vocaţiei şi personalităţii tale după modelul unei minţi care ştie să îmbine principiile unei cunoaşteri clarvăzătoare cu ideea demonstraţiei de răsunet a unei virtuozităţi plastice.

Potenţialul de a deveni un bun profesionist depinde în mare măsură de eforturile investite în studiul acelor avalanşe de idei şi revelaţii care se pot concretiza în rezultate deosebite, semnificative sub aspectul însemnătăţii pe care o dai luptei cu propriile tale limite.

Întreaga osatură a unei orientări adecvate în mediul încercărilor cu care te confrunţi de-a lungul unei îndelungate perioade de autoevaluare depinde de modul cum reuşeşti să defineşti pătrunderea în miezul lucrurilor, şi mersul lor, în raport cu trăirile care te cuprind atunci când stai la marginea "scenei" fără a putea să te implici în spectacol.

Felul cum îţi definitivezi opera depinde de modul cum reuşeşti să defineşti pătrunderea în miezul lucrurilor pe care vrei să le comunici, în raport cu trăirile pe care le experimentezi atunci când mergi singur pe drumul unei înnoiri perpetue.

În ce priveşte arta, pot da o mică indicaţie: cu cât veniturile obţinute din analiza lucrului celorlalţi artişti sunt mai mari, cu atât "restul" care îţi rămâne după plata cheltuielilor cu activitatea ta de învăţare este mai mic.

Şi mai cred că artistul îşi defineşte pătrunderea în miezul lucrurilor pe care doreşte să le comunice prin creaţie ca o demonstraţie de concept unic (aflat în continuă dezvoltare) care leagă conştiinţa empirică de raţiunea unei minţi infinite. El nu este un spectator care stă la marginea "scenei" fără a se putea implica în spectacol, ci este un receptacul pentru emoţii şi percepţii care vin de peste tot.

Frumuseţea leadershipului este totdeauna dată de apropierea de o viaţă trăită la maxim prin practicarea unei profesiuni onorabile, dar mai ales prin practicarea unei activităţi de învăţare şi de aplicare a cunoştinţelor în limitele în care nu provoacă oboseală. Liderii cei mai buni într-un domeniu sunt constant "reînviaţi" de forţa creaţiei autentice într-un timp care le oferă oportunitatea profundă şi unică de a primi, de a încorpora şi integra o nouă relaţie suverană cu tot ceea ce înseamnă viaţă.

Atunci când fluxurile de inspiraţie se schimbă, se adună sau se reduc, liderul nu-şi schimbă funcţionalitatea propriei opere, exploatarea acesteia rămânând la latitudinea sa, adică a unei puteri de creaţie superioare celorlalţi. El îşi defineşte pătrunderea în miezul lucrurilor pe care vrea să le comunice prin intermediul unei înnoiri de ordin spiritual, prin faptul că devine cu adevărat el însuşi prin ceva ce-l face fericit şi care îl individualizează ca manifestări practice.

Originalitatea actului de creaţie constă în căutarea unui mijloc de revelare şi cunoaştere artistică prin intermediul căruia să dai viaţă unei imagini despre "lupta din tine" care să inspire pe toată lumea la acţiune.

Estetica Excelenţei se obţine comparând stilul de a face artă al marilor creatori, cu vocaţia ta de a lucra pe cont propriu, de a-ţi manifesta pasiunile şi competentele, oferind 100% din ceea ce eşti. Eşti pregătit să duci lupta cu tine însuţi pentru atingerea unui ideal artistic inconfundabil?

Bine spunea Ralph Waldo Emerson: "Să fii tu însuţi într-o lume care încearcă neîncetat să te modeleze în altceva este cel mai mare triumf".

Estetica în roşu a unui artist fără nume

Adevărata capodoperă a artei este rezultatul a ceea ce creezi printr-un profund raport de asemănare între ceea ce simţi şi ceea ce exprimi de la înălţimea unei priviri diferenţiate, prezente în natură.

Viaţa mea se integrează în lumea trandafirilor aleşi cu multă grijă, cu iubire, spre a fi imortalizaţi, ca nişte personaje enigmatice, pe pânza fină, plină de culori îndrăzneţe, destinată ideilor de unire cu entitatea numită generic "Art Gallery". La rândul ei, viaţa trandafirilor se aseamănă cu cea a oamenilor predestinaţi spre fapte măreţe, scopritori di regni sconosciuti , întemeietori de noi curente de avangardă, precum constructivismul şi suprarealismul. Îi iubesc, îi cinstesc. Îi admir îndelung, neobosit, inepuizabil, în liniştea tăcută cu care aplic culoarea pensulei pe pânza de 80 x 120 cm, constituindu-se ca o dovadă de execuţie a operei de mare amploare, numită sugestiv: „Estetica".

Numele meu nu spune mare lucru, este mai puţin important, mai puţin precis decât este aplicarea culorii roşu-aprins pe suportul de pictură, ca un vis frumos şi încântător care nu e cu totul al meu, fiindcă aparţine de revelaţia unei fiinţe care poate fi înţeleasă numai prin imaginaţie şi inspiraţie. Cât de triumfală este proiecţia pe pânză a trandafirului, plin de sensibilitate și farmec, il testimone rappresentativo di un universo intimo , când încerci după o lungă şi umilă ucenicie în domeniul fascinant al descifrării simbolisticii să redai calmul unei naturi măreţe, plină de frumuseţe şi mister.

Chiar şi aceste cuvinte, alese şi împărtăşite cu mult aplomb, cu multă duioşie, par că stau în vârful pensulei atunci când pictez in ambienti naturali un peisaj al emoţiilor şi trăirilor omeneşti exprimate într-un limbaj plastic, fără să încerc o amară deziluzie ca în cazul unui rătăcitor într-o lume ruinată. Mai curând, în virtutea unei tematici impuse, aplicând culoarea ca o mângâiere de zefir, apăsând delicat vârful pensulei, obţin mărturisirea de care aminteşte trandafirul: „Per parlare di un argomento senza dubitare, devi avere nella tua anima la fede della passione."

Leadership: Dai dovadă de afecţiune în perceperea unui Ego autentic sub forma unei imagini duble, în descrierea din centrul viziunii pe care o oferi prezentului din perspectiva esteticii unui sentiment de fraternitate cu natura?

Voinţa mea de a dezvolta o nouă artă, suprema potenţare a unui proces evolutiv înfăptuit în jurul unei specii aparte de trandafiri care îşi caută parcă cuprinsul în culorile unei lumi în roşu-galben, poate coincide cu produsul unui scris îngrijit, complex sub aparenţa transparenţei, nuanţat prin exemplul trăirii unui vis incredibil. Numai atunci când tot ceea ce creezi îşi găseşte corespondent în aparenta fragilitate a unei prezenţe pure, mereu tăcută, dar expresivă, ţi se poate împlini cel mai frumos vis: acela de a da suflet unui personaj de factură estetică.

E de ajuns să mă gândesc la romanul „Exuvii" al scriitoarei Simona Popescu, pentru a mă autointroduce în atmosfera unui experiment estetic desăvârşit, având în prim plan limbajul inteligenţei naturii, conform căruia culoarea unei plante exotice vorbește despre anumite sentimente. Simona îl citează pe scriitorul chinez Su Dongpo:

Pentru obţinerea unei culori vibrante şi naturale care să exprime retrospectiva unei lumi dinamice, trebuie mărită intensitatea trăirilor adunate într-o singură compoziţie. Privesc atent la însemnările din caietul meu roşu, jurnal al unui deja-vu nelimitat care devine un fel de arhetip emoţional-estetic pe măsura perspectivelor de apropiere ori de adâncime ale fenomenului literar.

Scrisul bazat pe figuri simbolice, realizat prin urmărirea similitudinii dintre „întreg şi parte", se deschide numai în faţa spiritelor superioare care ştiu să exprime (până la cel mai mic detaliu) sensibilitatea şi eleganţa văzută din prisma unui univers magic, al alterităţii din memoria artistului.

În acest context plin de curent reformator mă întreb ce ar face un psiholog cu referinţele unor situaţii emoţionale puternice la construirea unui Ego marcat de un trend definitoriu, în demersurile unei estetici științifice experimentale, bazată pe fiziologie și sociologie?

Leadership: Îţi poţi concepe fiinţa în sensul durabilităţii, astfel încât să capete puterea de expresie a unei capodopere plastice ale cărei trăsături fac vizibilă viaţa misterioasă a sufletului?

Adevărata esenţă vitală a trandafirului se regăseşte în încălecările accesibilului şi inaccesibilului, în toate înghesuirile imaginilor surprinse în timpul reflecţiilor asupra unui nou cadru de gen artistic, care trimit la descompuneri nefireşti ale planului meu de existenţă, posto sull'altare della realizzazione della volontà di Dio . Este punctul de interferenţă magică prin care cel ce trăieşte pentru un altfel de spaţiu al artei se apropie de o înţelegere mai profundă a vieţii.

După cum se poate observa, sunt creatorul unei arte asociate percepţiei profunzimii elementelor vizuale, caracterizată prin durata ce o implică anumite evenimente care dispar la fel de subtil cum apar. Viziunile se pierd într-o lungă şi umilă ucenicie în stăpânirea umbrelor şi luminilor, a artei de a construi logic o pictură după legile specifice ale nobleţei şi sincerităţii unui mesaj care traversează visul unei teorii finale, in grado di spiegare tutto : „Nimic nu e prea colorat în ansamblu".

Peisajul în care trăiesc, potrivit determinanţelor unei ondulări spaţio-temporale se poate recepţiona conform calităţii stilistice ale unei imagini artistice vizuale, con un valor único , căci totul depinde de iluminare, stabilizare şi de interpretare a unei reprezentări în oglindă, împreună cu informaţii despre modul de capturare al unei game largi de subiecte. Acest peisaj se developează prin ochii unui trandafir sălbatic, străduindu-mă să-l percep ca pe o fiinţă completă, doar ca să extrag modelul estetic de referinţă, atributul Creatorului însuşi, la forza trainante dell'evoluzione , cauza determinantă a unei chestiuni de prezenţă continuă: "existenţa multiplă, trăitul prin reflexie."

De aici începe arta, nu din nobleţea şi trăinicia lucrurilor omeneşti, nu din surprinderea unor obiecte în atât de multe posibilităţi, dimensiuni, genuri, curente artistice, ci dintr-un soi de recunoaştere a specificului unei stări de sensibilitate şi armonie prin asociere cu recunoașterea informațiilor vizuale constitutive ale limbajului scris, puternic şi sugestiv.

O capodoperă plastică este rezultatul unui cumul de sentimente copleşitoare, descrise prin cuvinte de mare preţuire, pe care niciodată nu le regreţi că le-ai imortalizat într-o formulare pretenţioasă.

La început am fost un privitor, apoi mi-am însuşit scurta descriere a unui trandafir. Am ajuns la sentiment, s-a stârnit dorinţa, apoi s-a născut creaţia - urmată de un mesaj înduioşător, nu neapărat puternic. Şi, în sfârşit, assolutamente senza precedenti , mi-am asumat trăirea poveştii adevărate a unei capodopere. Dincolo de trăirile de moment ale artistului, tot mai profunde, mai calde şi mai intense, din care se presimte elixirul tinereţii fără bătrâneţe, stă acea limpezime a simţurilor singure, ceva care purifică şi ne poartă spre seninătate.

Numele meu nu este foarte important. Poate că voi fi uitat la fel de repede cum îşi scutură trandafirii petalele la sfârşit de toamnă, fără ca ale mele cuvinte să ajungă, prin raţiune, la inima iubitorilor de artă. Niciodată nu poţi fi sigur că ceea ce realizezi instinctiv, cu hărnicie, fără de seamăn, se imortalizează într-un mod cu totul fermecător într-un tablou transcendent.

Dar, poate că totuşi cineva îşi va aduce aminte de mine, chiar şi întâmplător, asemenea unei priviri aruncate în urmă, care inspiră mersul înainte, pentru că însăşi imaginea trandafirului, uscat şi pământiu, de care uneori ne lovim într-un peisaj mohorât de toamnă, ne direcţionează spre partea sensibilă şi cuvântătoare a sufletului care nu-şi pierde niciodată slava ascunsă în el.

Sunt una cu Ego-ul meu, o parte din personalitatea trandafirului. O nouă încercare mă aşteaptă dincolo de frumuseţea naturii, una meticolosa padronanza di un capolavoro, o taină care îşi aşteaptă dezlegarea pe măsura emoţiei care nu se vinde pe lucruri trecătoare: să văd profund nuanţa de roşu a legendei vii, prelungirea personalităţii mele din starea de poveste, cu ochii pe care moartea nu-i închide niciodată...

Talentul unui artist rezidă în faptul că poate reprezenta forţa de schimbare către o perspectivă de mare profunzime a sensului de „iubire ca simbioză între om şi natură”, atunci când ceea ce scoate în evidenţă devine o revelare a lumii spirituale.

Estetica în roşu a unui artist fără nume aduce în prim plan, pe măsura emoţiei şi simţirii, acea legătură intimă între natură şi lumea imaginară a artei care, meritând o cunoaştere aprofundată, una interpretación personalizada , este capabilă să depăşească statutul a ceea ce înseamnă „trecător” printr-o nouă percepţie asupra reprezentativităţii şi unicităţii unei prezenţe misterioase: „Uite-mă, fără să fiu”.

Estetica unei mărturisiri de nepătruns

Începe să-ţi desăvârşeşti arta, imaginându-ţi că nu există niciun profesor în toată lumea capabil să te înveţe.

Păream a fi pus în faţa unui imperativ imediat al vieţii, ca un fel de influență venită pe calea artei: "Necesitatea nu cunoaşte legi", mai ales în faţa unui Dumnezeu care cere cu stăruinţă răbdare în realizarea Marii Opere, cu modestia felului în care a fost proiectată şi construită lumea.

Orice protest derivat din actul creaţiei, prin care încercam să-mi fac cunoscute nelămuririle privitoare la principiile creştine revelate de ştiinţa modernă, încât să-mi asigur autonomia exprimării de sine, regăsindu-mă într-o lume imaginată, nedefinită biologic, era un fel de îndepărtare de stereotipiile particulare ale esteticii anunţate de raţiunea unei călătorii în lumea de dincolo. Aspect abordabil în urma transcenderii unui Alter Ego în proiecţia unei lecturi plină de învăţăminte.

În fond, nu îngăduiam ca simţul şi sentimentul pentru necesităţile imperioase ale artei, extrem de schimbătoare sub puterea de afirmare a simbolului, de la transmiterea unei lumi imaginare în haină realistă la câmpul esențializat al unei semnificații ideale, să fie expresia fricii generate de izbucnirea sufletului în faţa avansului unor noţiuni din jocul imprevizibil al mesajelor ce trebuiau promovate.

Nu poţi să răpeşti luna ca să cunoşti mai bine soarele, fără a intra în dezvoltarea câmpului de implicaţii simbolice care gravitează în jurul acestui demers necesar din punct de vedere interpretativ. Cu acest exemplu ating, de fapt, a doua situaţie mai generală – a combinaţiilor multiple de inserţii ale gândirii într-o confruntare dialectică pe acelaşi teren al ininteligibilului pe care îşi defăşoară lucrarea iniţiatorul lucid al unei estetici confesive.

Leadership: Raţiunea de a exista a unei opere de artă s-ar putea găsi în abilitatea ta de a aduce autenticitate unei realităţi desprinse din imboldul unei șoapte care promite înconjurul lumii?

Între a descoperi primum vivere din câmpul ambiguităţilor asociate lucrurilor şi a scoate din ele semnificaţii necuprinse încă în materia primă care îmbracă simbolul în opera de artă, există întotdeauna o constrângere de tip coincidentia oppositorum , aruncată în costumul vremii care îşi perindă anotimpurile peste singurătatea locului numit “cunoaştere de sine”.

Aici, ca şi în multe alte cazuri, nu găseam niciun sprijin în noţiunile şi conceptele marilor făuritori de artă, nicio sclipire izvorâtă din elementele altor creaţii, sub nicio formă de inspiraţie, ci mă hrăneam strict din plinătatea unei experienţe care se adâncise cu trecerea anilor, fiind mai mult animat de un "Basic Instinct" la nivel perceptual.

Şoapta pe care şi acum o adresez lumii, ca şi cum ar trece o amintire printre astre, de la o mie de ani din viitor, este o răsturnare a logicii obişnuite în teritoriul previzibilului, o formă de exprimare a imaginaţiei într-un spaţiu conceptual ce devine convingător în măsura în care nimeni nu încearcă să-mi combată credinţa într-o energie superioară care îmi guvernează fiinţa.

Nu e drept, ar spune unii critici, să storci din sufletul materiei vii tema artistică a reflecţiilor primare despre plinătatea concepţiei "incontro divino" , preschimbată în aur cu sângele ideii de alchimie, răspunzătoare de un CHARIOT TRIUMPHANT, aşa cum pictorul stoarce vopselele din tuburi, pentru a explora zonele ascunse ale nebuniei de a fi egalul lui Dumnezeu în limitele realităţii surprinse în expresia timpului infinit.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi formezi o imagine despre cineva, încercând să faci faţă unei certitudini de care te poţi îndoi?

Citiorule, vrei să mă cunoşti şi să mă înţelegi ca om şi ca explorator al tainelor celor negrăite şi nevăzute, între iluzia realităţii şi realitatea iluziei, de la o sinceritate a laturii mele creatoare, orgolioase, dornice de formă, pe ritmul unduios al vopselei, la o sinceritate a aprecierii "Flacării lui Iahve" în manifestarea cosmică, care pentru mine devine o ştiinţă compusă din multiplicarea unui singur fragment anatomic dintr-o diagramă antropomorfă menită să exprime ideea de continuitate și permanență a unui spaţiu superior celui existent, perceput la un nivel personal?

Atunci bagă de seamă că o deschidere către „ceva mai mult", imperioasa cunoaştere gravitând în jurul unei geometrii abstracte, păstrarea echilibrului faţă de impulsul de a compara unele figuraţii ale cerului cu diverse alegorii sacre, născând un adevăr din orice confruntare cu realităţile lumii nevăzută înainte de moartea trupului, printr-o ciudată coincidenţă cosmogonică, toate acestea reprezintă nişte influenţe venite pe calea unei înzestrări cu puterea de a da viaţă materiei în felul în care se extinde universul: prin haos, reorganizare şi ordine, într-un ciclu fără sfârşit.

Leadership: Ţi-ai făurit şi rafinat propriile instrumente pentru a critica o putere peste înţelegerea minţii umane, făcând apel la preocuparea pentru valoarea intrinsecă a mijloacelor de expresie integrate într-o viziune fără identitate fizică?

În artă, MATERIALUL dictează METODA. Aşadar, permiteţi-mi să mă descriu, asociindu-mă cu o viziune cosmogonică a creaţiei, ca o înzestrare divină cu puterea de topire a materiei prime la o temperatură de veridicitate aflată la limita relaţiei dintre straniu şi miraculos, într-o demonstraţie de sublimare pură a materialelor din care e construit universul scriitoricesc.

Din acest motiv, îmi permit adesea să pictez câte un tablou livresc sub forma unui motiv fundamental de decoraţie a limbajului, cu suprapuneri de expresii analoge ritmurilor de expunere a versiunii mele de artist a cărui trăire se împletește cu calmitatea și studiul riguros al formelor, împinse ușor către suprarealism (care proclamă o libertate totală de expresie).

Gândeşte-te la mine aşa cum este posibil să-l priveşti pe Paracelsus, care a scris foarte mult despre tainele kabalei şi secretele alchimiei şi magiei naturale. El mărturisea următoarele: "Am început să-mi desăvârşesc arta imaginându-mi că nu există niciun profesor în toată lumea capabil să mă înveţe, şi că trebuie să capăt eu însumi cunoştinţele în acest scop. Singura carte pe care am studiat-o a fost cartea Naturii scrisă de degetul lui Dumnezeu".

Meritul de a fi artist se datorează autonomiei exprimării de sine. Asta înseamnă să-ţi actualizezi în permanență demersul confesiv, analizând realitățile lumii în schimbare prin mijlocirea unui parcurs revelator ce ia în considerație efectele creaţiei proiectate în cuvântul lui Dumnezeu.

Estetica unei mărturisiri de nepătruns este o reprezentare a validităţii autonome de exprimare prin care ajungi să fii stăpânul universului, în care unicul mijlocitor înaintea lui Dumnezeu este esenţa cuvântului scris cu puterea cu care simbolul îi dăruieşte viață veşnică.

Estetica unei mărturisiri în alb-negru

Fii descoperirea a ceea ce însemni într-o viaţă a cărei lungime pare imposibil s-o judeci nepărtinitor.

Aş vrea să-ţi vorbesc despre ziua aceea, când mi se părea că lumea toată e a mea. Îmi luasem în ajun bacalaureatul. N-ai ştiut niciodată ce ascensiune grea a însemnat pentru mine fiecare zi de şcoală, fiecare an, ce cursă peste obstacole mereu mai înalte am câştigat, luându-mi "examenul maturităţii". N-am ştiut nimic unul despre celălalt.

Ascultam vuietul mării. Ştiam că mă voi izbi mereu de viaţă, ca marea de stânci, că voi purta în mine toate nostalgiile ei şi un veşnic dor de libertate. Nici marea nu e liberă, încercam să mă consolez. E îngrădită de ţărmuri. Poate că-i furioasă că şi-a pierdut libertatea. Parcă se izbeşte cu capul de pereţi, se loveşte de stânci şi face spume la gură !

- Sigur, scrie Andre Maurois în Memoriile sale, este o mare nebunie şi aproape totdeauna pedepsită să te întorci şi să vrei să retrăieşti la patruzeci de ani tot ce ai iubit sau de care te-ai bucurat la douăzeci.

Eu am depăşit cu mult anii maturităţii şi nu vreau să retrăiesc tot ce am iubit. Ar fi o pedeapsă. Ci să înţeleg ce am iubit, ce am trăit şi, mai ales, să mă înţeleg pe mine… *

Leadership: Eşti prins într-o problemă a timpului care nu-și va găsi dezlegarea decât printr-o schimbare a viziunii despre tine însuţi, adiacentă sentimentului că poţi să aparţii de o realitate ce există dincolo de ceea ce crezi că reprezintă limitele tale?

Cazi într-o dimensiune nesigură, plină de neprevăzut? Simţământul frustrant al inexplicabilului te înconjoară cu un strat amar de neputinţă? Individualitatea ta incontestabilă se accentuează mai mult la contactul cu o nouă formă de a te autocunoaşte? Te pierzi într-un labirint de indicii şi interconexiuni cu alte drumuri ale vieţii? Limitele tale sunt date de lipsa înţelegerii modului în care trebuie să-ţi achiţi datoriile faţă de valorile vieţii: sinceritate şi maturitate?

Deseori leadershipul este asemenea unei opere de artă rămasă neterminată, dar care este de natură să aducă noi lumini, extrem de importante asupra ultimei faze din evoluţia ta, când începi să te învârţi în jurul axei tale, în alternanţa dintre cele două ipostaze: "a fi mesagerul unui trecut rătăcit" şi "a fi ecoul unei poveşti nemuritoare". Singura artă care te lasă fără cuvinte la o privire de aproape este o cale de a te surprinde într-o ipostază de total abandom într-o realitate care îţi oferă prea puţin sau deloc din ceea ce visezi. De multe ori arta este apanajul unei minți captive într-o realitate care s-a împotmolit în propriile ei limite.

Debusolat de circumstanţele prin care treci, nu mai ştii dacă eşti sau nu ancorat în realitatea care te împlineşte. Devii complet imobil, fără putere de reacţie, prins într-un joc nesigur de dualităţi, şi asfixiat de aglomeraţia de elemente care acţionează în jurul unui singur numitor: nostalgia. Ca atunci când priveşti un tablou frumos şi încerci să te simţi în peisajul dat, dar el îţi creează imaginea de depărtare de lume, de casă, de tine însuţi. Rişti să te laşi format de caracterul insular al unei arte umanizată, dar cu accent foarte grijuliu asupra detaliilor, cu un accent apăsat pe om „în singurătatea şi intimitatea lui".

Leadership: Poţi să laşi în urmă amprenta unui destin care te apasă teribil, făcându-te să exclami cu o inocentă uimire: "Eu sunt negaţia acestei existenţe ! " ?

Îţi manifeşti melancolia printr-o izolare de restul lumii care are toate inconvenienţele unui război cu tine însuţi? Eşti decis să retrăieşti anumite momente din viaţă cu preţul unei perfecţiuni ce s-ar fi dovedit sterilă, sau cu preţul acelei umilinţe care renunță la mândrie și răzbunare, alegând dragostea, miracolul și bunăvointa?

Dintre acţiunile care te fac să fii cel mai puţin eficient, comparate între ele, izolarea rămâne însă "monumentul" cel mai reprezentativ fiindcă perpetuează starea de melancolie, senzaţia de sensibilitate urmată de presiune şi durere. Abandonarea totală într-un univers incoerent ce te caracterizează tot mai impetuos, induce o stare de zbucium interior, o senzaţie neplăcută de apartenenţă la ceva în care nu crezi cu destulă tărie ca să-l faci să se îndeplinească. Totul în tine este brusc susţinut de o curiozitate continuă de a afla adevărul: "Cine sunt eu cu adevărat ?"

Leadership: Eviţi pericolul intrării în zona "Sentimentalism" pe tot timpul funcţionării propriei conştiinţe, cu privire la ceea ce te ţine prizonier într-un moment ZERO reprodus fidel de mintea ta în calea împlinirii?

Expertul în materie de leadership, John C. Maxwell sfătuia: "Pregăteşte-te pentru momentele cheie din viitor şi alege-ţi zilnic atitudinile potrivite." Un fel de atenţionare aş zice, care semnalează confruntarea cu noi înşine ce trebuie depăşită. Canalizarea stării de incertitudine care ne cuprinde într-un moment din viaţă spre o direcţie mai în acord cu propriile valori, mai în armonie cu adevărul a ceea ce ne defineşte.

Intrarea ta în zona "Sentimentalism" este similară cu apariţia unei nostalgii a privilegiilor pierdute în demersurile căutării sensului vieţii, nu doar fiindcă eşti supus unei realităţi care te depăşeşte şi căreia nu i te poţi sustrage, ci pentru că nu eşti pregătit să-ţi recunoşti umbra, suferinţa şi semnificaţiile ei, şi să suporţi consecinţele.

Iar a fi prizonier într-un moment ZERO reprodus de mintea ta în calea împlinirii înseamnă să rămâi fidel acelor amintiri care îţi provoacă suferinţa şi nu te lasă să te propulsezi spre dimensiunile principale ale sensului vieţii (spirituală şi socială). Evocarea unor momente profund sensibile şi înduioşătoare, sau a unor experienţe dezamăgitoare, ar însemna o dublă suferinţă: cea trăită prin esenţa sfârşirii de sine şi a rememorării de tip proustian, cu ştergerea oricăror legături cu angajamentele anterioare.

Leadership: Eşti decis să-ţi revendici o identitate căreia nu-i mai poţi face faţă, în baza unei experienţe de viaţă foarte aproape de a se materializa printr-o puternică probă de caracter care te îndeamnă să devii mai tolerant faţă de tine însuţi?

Cred că pentru fiecare om momentul de reflecţie vine de obicei mai târziu, când deja este prizonier al acestor stări de tranziţie, care produc instantaneu o curiozitate negândită, nedorită, neîncăpătoare într-un asemenea context atipic. Începi să te vezi din perspectiva unui pictor care transpune pe pânză imaginile create de un poet, îndrăznind să-şi redeseneze întreaga viaţă după o comuniune cu totul, nu doar prin prisma lucrurilor pe care le consideră importante, ci prin prisma durerilor trecătoare pe care nu le poate ignora.

Iar dacă omul nu analizează cu adevărat aceste stări, procese şi situaţii de moment, lăsându-se în voia lor, fără îndoială va rămâne în zona "Sentimentalism". Va împietri într-o poziţie de apărare, în loc să intre în defensivă, care se va reflecta într-o înţelegere greşită a rolului şi responsabilităţii faţă de propria lui identitate.

Insight-ul decisiv pentru tine se produce atunci când te simţi prea izolat într-un status quo continuu, atunci când îţi petreci timpul privind în tine însuţi şi judecându-ţi reacţiile. Este semn clar că ceva îţi scapă despre tine însuţi.

Insight-ul este o privire aruncată înspre esenţa naturii tale îngropată de prea mult timp în uitare. Poate fi o marcă a chemării tale divine din care îţi confecţionezi o nouă raţiune de a fi. Dar poate fi şi o nuanţă negativă a procesului de autoevaluare trăită printr-un amestec de constrângere afectivă sau morală. Insight-ul este un adevăr despre tine însuţi la care ajungi doar prin destăinuire, prin estetica regăsirii de sine şi înţelegerea lumii lăuntrice, prin găsirea unei modalităţi de a trăi acea măreţie a sufletului pe care nu o vei găsi la altcineva, decât la tine.

Identitatea care te conduce la succes sau la eşec apare ca urmare a retrăirii unui eveniment emoţional din trecut, ce nu a fost suprimat până în momentul prezent. Este ascensiunea pe care trebuie s-o urmezi după ce te-ai judecat cu gândul de a te fi înfrânt singur.

E ca şi când ai primi o grămadă de refuzuri din partea unor oameni cunoscuţi şi de teamă să nu întâmpini altele noi, te izolezi. Dar în tine rămâne totuşi înrădăcinată curiozitatea de a fi părtaş la misterul vieţii, dorinţa de a te revolta în faţa gândurilor care aproape de strivesc, necesitatea de a te împotrivi propriei stări de latenţă. Totul devine nemăsurat de aglomerat în tine. Până ce tot ceea ce este străin de cunoaşterea ta se topeşte într-o curiozitate anemică. Apoi izbucneşte dintr-o dată, într-o înțelegere corectă a felului în care se cuvine să fii.

Cum spunea cineva: "cu cât amânăm confruntarea cu noi înşine, cu atât pierdem timp preţios pe care l-am fi putut folosi trăind la intensitate maximă". Adesea, identitatea omului pare a fi similară cu acea delicateţe a unui pictor care surprinde în creaţia sa un peisaj deosebit, cu o însemnătate aparte, încercând să-i transmită privitorului starea sa de spirit resimţită după contactul cu o realitate în care e foarte greu să te inserezi, fiindcă se răzvrătește filosofic și își trimite simbolic înţelesul spre punctul ZERO.

Şi, subliniez aici. În leadership se utilizează un "produs" singular, conceput liber şi personalizat: identitatea individului. Identitatea poate inspira încredere pe măsură ce individul îşi schimbă optica şi comportamentul, printr-o anumită decodificare a sentimentelor, printr-o dezvăluire a unor experienţe de viaţă acumulate în timp îndelungat, printr-o extrapolare a unor stări de fapt.

Se poate ajunge mai departe, până la negarea sinelui, adică asumarea unei identităţi care nu mai e a lui, o identitate căreia nu îi mai aparţine sau căreia nu-i mai face faţă atunci când nu mai poate stăpâni demonii trecutului, duhul adevărului din spatele convingerilor, când nu reuşeşte să dea deoparte vălul iluziei de a fi perfect într-o lume imperfectă.

Astfel, individul se pierde într-un labirint al jocurilor psihologice şi al nesiguranţei, într-un vârtej năucitor al jocurilor de culise care sporeşte şi mai mult neîncrederea, confuzia dintre known şi unknown. Eficienţa leadershipului depinde în mare măsură de puternica voinţă a omului de a-şi păstra flexibilitatea, de o rezistenţă superioară la "coroziune şi eroziune", la starea de incertitudine.

Cea mai puternică probă de caracter care te face să devii mult mai atent la ce se întâmplă în jur şi mai tolerant faţă de tine însuţi este să-ţi admiţi suferinţa ca pe o lecţie de viaţă, ca o condiţie necesară pentru a-ţi spori credinţa într-un nou început de drum.

Estetica unei mărturisiri în alb-negru evidenţiază acea etapă a maturităţii când îţi poţi însuşi noi indicii despre tine având o perspectivă de ansamblu asupra lucrurilor care s-au întâmplat deja, care îţi lipsesc, care îţi stimulează afectivitatea şi te provoacă să-ţi reconsideri imaginea de sine.

Chiar dacă te simţi împovorat de mâhnire, de greutăţile vremurilor, de nostalgia unei resemnări care te plasează implicit în sfera unor lumi apuse, aminteşte-ţi citatul acela celebru din filmul Star Wars: "Lumina cea mai puternică aruncă umbra cea mai întunecată."

Estetica unei trăiri astrale (II)

On Aprilie 10, 2018

Arta este peste tot şi nicăieri, în toate şi în nimic, pentru eternitate.

Sunt pierdut în nemărginirea unei amintiri de dinainte de a te fi născut tu, de dinainte de a-ţi fi aflat timpul, de dinainte de a ne fi cunoscut, potrivit proiectării înțelegerii acestui cadru de mii de ani misterios, numit simplu: viață.

Drept care am hotărât să încerc un experiment prin care să injectez puțină nuanță expresivă tabloului care nu se mai contopește într-un întreg intuitiv şi pasibil cu vederile tale, o rostire în metaforă, un retuș permis de la Dumnezeu în planul concret al formelor realității, prin tăria simplității desenului raportată la condiţia grafică a literelor prefăcute în cuvânt, dintr-o simțire, dintr-o sclipire, din nemărginirea unei trecerii dintr-un timp în altul.

Ţie, cititorule, iți las tot ce este mai sfânt din memoria mea.

Uneori, îmi doresc să nu fi avut capacitatea de a da naștere unui soi de mecanism al reversibilității temporale, drept mijloc ideal de a sluji intențiilor de a pregăti izbânda unei atare lupte aparținând întotdeauna imperiului clipei, un aşa-numit sistem al datului timpului înapoi, în subtilitatea unor necuprinse întinderi ale cunoaşterii, elementele ei de putere formând un Cosmos.

Dar poate tocmai aceasta este calitatea care corespunde menirii mele. Pot să parcurg cu luare aminte cuprinsul magic al clipelor încercate din întreg cadrul fix al trecerii mele pământeşti într-o trăire nouă, după îndemnurile şi învăţătura artistului care îşi consacră şi defineşte opera, aproape în totalitate, tematicii unei realităţi imposibil de ignorat.

Leadership: Trăirea ta în planul imanent al vieţii poate fi transpusă într-o imagine plastică care să îmbunătăţească percepţia despre o lume remarcabilă prin prezenţa ta într-o nouă vârstă a creaţiei?

O permanentă ispită a firescului, a corporalizării diagramei simbolice, a transformării conceptului vizual în formă plastică, se racordează la ceva atât de mişcător, într-un sens ce depăşeşte cu mult orice sentimentalism, tinzând spre cel mai adevărat şi mai viu sentiment uman, ca un eveniment deosebit: înflăcărarea de a schimba lumea.

Interesul meu se îndreaptă mai cu seamă spre pictorul Dürer, spre sentimentul bucuriei care îi stârnea conștiința perfectibilității lucrării "Martyrdom of the Ten Thousand". Când i-am sugerat să-l imagineze pe regele Persiei, Shapur I, într-un cadru plin de acea umanitate care îşi arogă dreptul de a stăpâni universul, Dürer mi-a dat a înţelege că trăsătura eroică a modelului său rezidă cel mai bine din oglindirea îndurerată şi pătrunzătoare a marilor vicisitudini prin care este pusă la încercare domnia unui rege.

Aş spune mai degrabă că această operă trădează adevăratul său fond psihologic, latura agitată şi nonconformistă a firii unui artist în vremuri tragice, prin marcarea iscusită a accentelor dramaticului în detrimentul monumentalității.

Dacă destinul concret al omului este asumarea lui creatoare, atunci formula autenticității mele rezidă din atitudinea angajată a unui artist de a interpreta realitatea prin intensitatea trăirilor sale, concurând cu vigoarea interpretării prin care respiră un suflu novator.

Leadership: Faci pasul decisiv prin care prezenţa ta vie în amintirile oamenilor să se ridice pe prima treaptă a unei tendinţe estetice, prin ilustrarea unui subiect istoric care te avantajează din perspectiva arbitrară a unei realităţi impunătoare și copleşitoare?

În general, când mă gândesc la conţinutul artei înscrisă în câmpul unei memorii universale, închipuită printr-o lentilă a evoluției contrastelor dintre vechi şi nou, am în minte o mişcare ce se repetă la nesfârșit într-o abundență de curbe liniare, ca într-un desen tehnic, conjugată cu o intensă pledoarie pentru izbăvirea prin artă.

Zbaterea chinuitoare a artistului în care m-am metamorfozat este o parabolă vie despre forța omului care, în ciuda vicisitudinilor vieţii, nu se rupe de frumosul unei teme de origine mistică, dintr-un univers suprarealist, ca al lui Aquasixio.

Îmi dau seama că eram fericit abia după ce momentul hotărâtor trecea, fiindcă doar aşa cuvintele mele, înlocuind imaginile veridice, puteau transmite peste generații episoadele de vârf ale istoriei. Uneori, încerc să mă uit înapoi cu coada ochiului şi mă văd ca într-un film din care să nu-mi amintesc mai nimic, ca să nu mai trebuiască să amplific această stare de nostalgie la infinit.

Pe măsură ce mă apropii de asemănarea cu Dumnezeu, încep să înţeleg că singura oază de linişte este frumuseţea naturii umane contemplată pe fundalul artei.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi confirmi apariţia desăvârşită în ecoul unui timp memorabil, astfel încât să nu-ţi pierzi profunzimea participării la freamătul tainic al unui singur răspuns spre eternitate?

Creatorul şi Umbra lui, viaţa şi ecourile ei, un apriori al imaginaţiei formale, urmând mai apoi să-şi urmeze împlinirea printr-un act de plăsmuire, parcurs de la o activitate de pictor la una de scriitor, continuând la nesfârşit cu marile teme ale universului şi culminând cu gloria talentului de a fi unic în memoria timpului.

Plin de incertitudine, simt cum traversez un alt plan al realităţii, pătruns de o energie care tinde să apară ca formă de remodelare a trecutului, eu însumi existând ca fiinţă deschisă unui orizont aproape infinit de posibilităţi. Este vorba de o estetică a bucuriei de a trăi în memoria unui timp trecut şi o estetică a dorinţei de a câştiga o imagine de reformator într-o revelare progresivă a sinelui în memoria prezentului.

Etruscul lui Mika Waltari, acel Turms nemuritorul, legând fiecare piatră a vieţii de întâmplările dorind a şi le aminti, se regăseşte într-un fel aparte din mine, într-un loc al manifestărilor creative, care deznoadă orice frânghie ce-mi ţine sufletul captiv într-o veșnică teamă: aceea de a fi respins de memoria unei lumi care moare atunci când nu reuşesc să mă raportez la concretul ei.

Un singur răspuns mă duce spre eternitate: consider că experienţa mea de până acum mă recomandă pentru poziţia de stăpân cu putere de viaţă şi moarte asupra celor ce se întâmplă, în corelație cu modul propriu de a vedea lumea în imediata vecinătate a unei arte cu referiri istorice care e capabilă să depăşească limitele propriei sale repetitivităţi.

Arta pe care o practici se distinge prin trăirea prezenţei tale într-o lume care se termină mult prea repede?

Estetica unei trăiri astrale este fructul cerului şi al pământului, al celor scrise, văzute şi semnate de capacitatea unui scriitor de a dezvolta ideea timpului în cu totul altă direcție a filosofiei, decât ar fi fost tentaţi altminteri unii să o înţeleagă. Această direcţie spune că arta este peste tot şi nicăieri, în toate şi în nimic, pentru eternitate.

Estetica unei trăiri astrale (I)

Fii pregătit pentru o lungă călătorie în jurul lumii, căutând surse de inspirație în stilul celorlalți de a construi un „înainte".

Am văzut multe în lunga perioadă a vieţii mele, cât să cuprind universul în timpul unei întreruperi de ceas, prin caracterul ei experimental, temporar și efemer, dar cu mare deschidere spre observarea istoriei prin ochiul vigilent al unui artist realist. Darul de a fi pretutindeni, nevoia de statornicie şi de aprofundare a realităţii aproape uitate, valorile unei teme universale, traduse într-o autonomie expresivă distinct perceptibilă de obiectul căruia îi împlineşte hotarele spaţiale, sunt imanente proceselor percepţiei vizuale.

Dependenţa de o concepţie cu limite precise, aceea a autocunoaşterii în urma reflecţiei unei oglinzi care măreşte orice detaliu al vieţii favorabil creării unei opere de mare valoare, este singura cale de a comunica acel ceva aflat mereu dincolo de toate atributele posibile la superlativ, literare şi estetice. Ceva ce numai eu pot să transmit adânc şi stăruitor în murmurul inefabil al unei conversaţii uitate cu Dumnezeu.

De-a lungul istoriei am trăit permanent aceste două forme de viaţă, prin ele însele o fervoare autentică izvorâtă din convingerile unui estetician care poate șterge pentru totdeauna toate semnele pe care le-a lăsat timpul, dar nu o face datorită frumuseţii unui ideal numit simplu: nemurire. Una care vine din fondul comun al tuturor întâmplărilor nebuneşti prin care a trecut omenirea, vădite dintr-o sferă a valorilor perene, şi una diferențială care s-a creat pe acest fond.

Iar cum realitatea trebuie să fie exprimată în termeni artistici, fără de care virtuțile expresive ale liniei şi amploarea relațiilor simbolice exprimate ca mijloc de limbaj nu ar putea exista, atunci pot s-o formulez astfel: fiecare element devine mai puternic prin contrastul faţă de alt element.

Leadership: Iei în considerare acea stare de a fi pretutindeni în imaginea aleasă drept fundal al existenței, prin definirea expresă a noţiunii de "împrejurare" pe care se întemeiază valorile unor constante universale?

L-am întâlnit prima oară pe meșterul Rembrandt, un om posac şi tăcut, sub bolta întunecoasă a deşertăciunii acestei lumi încercând să-şi îmbunătăţească tehnica de clar-obscur. Era "singurul pictor care și-a putut permite să amestece noroiul cu strălucirea ochilor, focul cu cenușa, sau să facă culorile să strălucească proaspăt". N-am încetat să mă întreb cum a reuşit un om chinuit de multe griji și atâta sărăcie să aducă mai multă informaţie şi profunzime pentru conturarea imaginii istorice decât regele Solomon care era neîntrecut în bogăţie şi înţelepciune.

În istoria bătăliei de la Austerlitz, cunoscută ca Bătălia celor trei împărați, una dintre cele mai mari victorii ale lui Napoleon, m-am remarcat prin îndârjirea cu care privirea pictorului François Gérard a vrut să obţină acel unic cadru fix al spaţiului-timp, în ciuda dinamismului unei naţii în plină extensiune, prin imortalizarea naturii reflexive, hotărâte şi vizionare a unui zeu în măreţia lui unică.

Povestea mea continuă ca în 1001 de nopţi, un rob mă luă de mână şi mă duse într-o sală care era împodobită numai cu frumuseţea şi cu liniile şi desăvârşite, pe "The Terrace of the Seraglio", unde pictorul Jean-Leon Gerome a surprins momentul cel mai vibrant al unei epoci artistice uitate.

Când eşti prins în mirajul viu al universului, singura cale de fixare a realităţii este culoarea pe care o atribui subiectului unei vieţi care face parte din tine.

Fără îndoială, am trăit o viaţă anterioară destul de agitată. Am fost de faţă când aheii au reușit să pătrundă în cetatea asediată, prin vicleșugul calului troian, masacrând fără discriminare pe locuitorii Troiei și profanând templele, gest ce a atras ulterior mânia zeilor. N-am lipsit nicidecum la căderea Constantinopolului, când sultanul Mehmet a declarat că el este "Singura Lege" şi că nici măcar Dumnezeu nu este în stare să-şi dispute puterea cu dânsul asupra poporului pământean.

Poate că sunt unul dintre aceia care, în toate timpurile, au continuat să trăiască, fiindcă universul lasă întotdeauna în urmă o rămășiță din nemărginirea sa tainică pentru a împrăştia mai puțin de o sutime din masa lui în conştiinţa muritorilor. Însă, niciun artist nu a reuşit să surprindă prezenţa mea de-a lungul secolelor, chiar dacă cele două constante ale mele - persistenţa şi recurenţa – se întind spre cele scrise în cărţile veşniciei.

Uneori, mă simt ca o mare din care nu am înţeles decât un val, asemenea artistului ce se desprinde de evenimentele realităţii, afundându-se într-un soi de empty spaces ca să reconstituie imaginativ o istorie, treceri lumeşti spre o experienţă unică de cunoaştere care îi oferă şansa de a se reconstitui ca un fel de "secret keeper" în abisul unui timp fără timp.

Numai Dumnezeu are înrâurire asupra omului rătăcit într-o lume care îşi retrăieşte veşnic trecutul, ca o minge învârtindu-se în jurul propriei axe, până când El însuşi ajunge să fie înlocuit de un om. Dar nu de orice om, ci de un artist grandios al sublimului în arta explorării unor tărâmuri noi, văzute ca o totalizare prealabilă a experienţei în timp şi spaţiu.

Sufletul îmi pare a fi stăpânit de acelaşi sentiment al predestinării pe care îl experimentează eroul lui Mika Waltari:

"Eu, Turms, nemuritorul, cred că aşa va fi. Chiar dacă ceea ce am scris va dispărea, chiar dacă cerneala se va dizolva, chiar dacă hârtia de stuf se va fărâmiţa, chiar dacă limbile în care am scris se vor fi şters din memoria oamenilor, scriind aceste cuvinte, am legat fiecare piatră a vieţii mele de întâmplările pe care vreau să mi le amintesc. Mă voi regăsi atunci când mă voi întoarce."

Nevoia de statornicie şi de aprofundare a realităţii spirituale este experienţa pe care o trăieşti în momentul unei îndepărtări de cele lumeşti care culminează cu apropierea de cele nemuritoare.

Estetica unei trăiri astrale este mărturia unei vieţi dedicate artei, pe două planuri paralele - al creaţiei prin imagine şi al scrisului prin rememorarea unor informații seculare, milenare, pe care am ajuns să le uităm.

Singura experienţa posibilă, nelimitată în timpul şi spaţiul infinit, turnată într-o vibraţie universală, este încercarea de reconstituire a istoriei prin exploatarea ingenioasă a relaţiei dintre imaginaţie şi realitate, transpusă într-o imagine care face viaţa unora o poveste cu adevărat nemuritoare.

Estetica unei viziuni izvorâtă din percepţia gustului

Ceea ce vezi cu darul viziunii este un indiciu a ceea ce simţi când experimentezi plăcerea gustului.

Primul lucru care trebuie remarcat în clipa în care mesteci guma Orbit, în aşa fel încât să păstrezi cât mai mult gustul dulce şi aromat, este dacă acest fenomen este ocazional sau regulat. În ce alte momente de viaţă, unice şi de neuitat, poţi să savurezi ceva delicios, răcoritor, fără să munceşti la prepararea sa şi, în acelaşi timp, să îţi satisfacă acea plăcere de a te simţi bine cu tine însuţi?

Aceia care pretind că nu cred decât în ceea ce percep simţurile lor, sunt contrazişi de realitatea materială pe care o trăiesc în prezent, identificându-se cu ea. Căci ei cred ceea ce li se întâmplă, dar nu sunt siguri de ceea ce simt, fiindcă pe de o parte mestecatul gumei determină producerea unei cantităţi excesive de salivă, dar provoacă şi un stres maxilarului, provoacă creşterea nivelului de aciditate, şi cauzează gastrita. Pe de altă parte mestecatul gumei, fapt ce încântă prin bogăţia aromelor şi complexitatea gustului, te face să te îngrijeşti mai des, să îţi pese cum arăţi, indiferent de zi, să miroşi bine şi să străluceşti.

Cu toate acestea, a mesteca guma orbit nu te ajută să fii mai discret în peisajul acestor zile, ci este dovada posesiei unui simţ estetic ascuţit, care se poate cultiva cu ajutorul unui ghid al lumii artistice, exprimat prin "Askuriathiss", acest simbol al simțului gustului, stilului și sexualității masculine, înlocuind aproape orice grijă nefirească a vieţii.

Şi încă cum ! Devii mai activ şi te simţi mult mai bine în locul în care te găseşti. Iar dacă te concentrezi pe interconectarea profundă dintre minte şi corp, fapt ceea ce poate fi experimentat direct printr-o atenţie dirijată asupra senzaţiilor fizice, vei constata un fenomen vizual plăcut: totul pare să fie mai deschis în jur, mai prietenos şi mai participativ.

Leadership: Posibilitatea ta de a transpune vizual o percepție care rezultă din acţiunea unui stimul gustativ, se materializează prin suprapunerea imaginii create ca o formă alternativa de exprimare a sinelui?

Totodată, mestecând guma orbit, suntem mai aproape de a constata un fenomen senzorial la nivelul deciziei luate de un consumator, dovedind un comportament raţional, subordonat principiului gustului: acest gust trebuie să fie echilibrat, să aibă impact la nivel psihic şi să reprezinte un simbol al unei vieți fără griji. Ca să se ajungă aici, să nu uităm că gustul reprezintă o tentativă subtilă de-a aduce botanica în bucătărie, cu accent pe preferinţele consumatorilor pentru fructe sau plante de un anumit tip, şi de de o anumită culoare.

Dar oare ce informaţie ne oferă gustul gumei orbit, ca simbol al unei stări de spirit particulare concretizată într-o viziune care va dobândi ulterior forma concretă a unei idei artistice? Spun asta luând în considerare faptul că gustul trebuie să fie o combinație perfectă de aromă și dulceață de piersică, făcând referire la preferinţele consumatorilor pentru o anumită grupă alimentară (minerale şi vitamine) de care are nevoie organismul, fiind deosebit de importantă din punct de vedere nutritiv.

Şi nu doar atât. Mestecând guma orbit mi-am dat seama că sunt altcineva. Nu doar că sunt capabil să-mi apreciez simţul estetic din cercetarea artei gustului ci, pe această cale, pot să şi propun o artă a suprarealităţii: "Vis plus realitate". Fiindcă aş putea oricând să creez o pictură cu o înaltă încărcătură simbolică care să transpună vizual interesul meu pentru redarea unui chip uman investit cu o estetică aproape dumnezeiască.

Leadership: Te poţi identifica ca posesor al unei stări de spirit particulare, concretizată într-o viziune care va dobândi ulterior forma concretă a unei idei artistice?

Gustul aduce un accent spre estetic, nu-i aşa? Iar în cazul consumatorilor, aceştia pot opta pentru o anumită paletă cromatică a legăturii dintre alimentele consumate şi aspectul unei dentiţii armonioase. Cu alte cuvinte, avem de-a face cu întâlnirea fericită dintre o compoziţie unică de rafinament care încântă simţurile şi un şablon de distribuţie a unor senzaţii de "natural".

Iar dacă ne-am imagina ce culoare are gustul gumei Orbit, în cazul în care gustul ar trebui imortalizat pe o pânză de mătase prin puterea transformatoare a metaforei şi a resemnificării experienţei trăite, atunci l-aş transpune vizual într-un plan real și abstract acelaşi timp, aşa cum este "Tutti Frutti", celebra operă de artă a artistei Helen Frankenthaler. Mai ştiţi vreo variantă de gust excelent transpus vizual?

S-o spun altfel. O experienţă transpusă vizual într-un plan real și într-un plan abstract, formează o imagine amplă ce sensibilizează și provoacă privitorul la conexiuni cu sinele, regăsindu-se ușor în diferite imagini. Normal. Ca să poţi face alegerea pentru calitate superioară şi gust elegant, trebuie să poţi aprecia experienta unei reacţii pozitive la un anumit produs, deci să treci prin experienţa unei stări unice de voie bună care să favorizeze o stare de sănătate excelentă.

Leadershipul este un fenomen legat de estetică: ceea ce admiri la tine ţine de experienţa de neuitat a gustului care te atrage de la prima vedere. Gustul pe care îl îndrăgeşti transmite o atitudine debordantă?

Estetica unei viziuni izvorâtă din percepţia gustului poate fi cuprinsă în experienţa de a crea o imagine semnificativă a cărei a cărei posesiune se numeşte amintire. Este similară cu imaginea unui chip "contaminat" de meandrele gustului și a sensibilității…

Eşti o legendă?

On Martie 01, 2009

Fă din leadership o formă permanentă a existenţei tale, reglând cu mare precizie acea legătură dintre trecut, prezent şi viitor.

Liderii fac regulile... o vreme.

Să spunem că plănuieşti o ascensiune profesională şi să te apropii vertiginos de succes. Pentru a-ţi atinge scopurile, evident se impune să te pregăteşti din timp, să faci totodată multe sacrificii, conştient fiind că succesul nu se obţine peste noapte. Reuşeşti, după multe încercări şi multe eforturi, să te angajezi într-o companie de renume. Cu timpul progresezi, urci tot mai sus pe treptele ierarhiei, şi într-un final ajungi manager general în compania respectivă. Acum tu eşti cel care face regulile şi cel care ia deciziile importante. În sfârşit visul tău s-a împlinit. Bun, ce urmează? Ai vreun plan stabilit pentru ceea ce urmează să faci după ce ai atins succesul?

La această întrebare, extrem de uşoară, puţini sunt aceia care pot să dea într-adevăr un răspuns bun.

Dacă ai făcut vreodată focul atunci ştii că după ce arde intens o perioadă de timp, încet, încet, începe să se stingă. Exact acelaşi lucru se întâmplă şi cu unii oameni. Muncesc mult, parcurg toate etapele dezvoltării unei cariere de succes şi apoi ajung în fruntea clasamentului. În sfârşit scopul lor a fost atins. Dar acest moment de strălucire, din păcate, nu durează la nesfârşit şi drept urmare, încet, încet îşi pierd puterea de muncă, nu mai au spirit de iniţiativă şi se retrag din activitatea profesională. În cele din urmă părăsesc această lume şi nimeni nu-şi mai aminteşte de ei.

Leadership: Poţi face o comparaţie între „Arta totală” şi „Arta de serie” astfel încât să evidenţiezi comuniunea de ordin spiritual dintre formele de creaţie şi cunoaştere?

Din importanţa a ceea ce destăinuieşti prin profilul tău, prin povestea ta, prin creaţiile tale, prin acţiunile tale, în cuprinsul a tot ceea ce susţii şi laşi în urma ta, decurg două consecinţe. Pe de o parte s-ar ivi tendinţa către o "artă totală" - menită să îmbine dependenţa de o varietate de factori diferiţi, dintre care mulţi sunt în afara controlului tău. Pe de altă parte dedicarea permanentă faţă de lucrul bine făcut, propusă de înalta ta ţinută profesională.

Arta Totală poate fi văzută ca un caz special al percepției vizavi de rolul pe care ţi-l asumi în absența constrângerilor de ordin extern. În acest caz, atragi elementele de cunoaştere şi experienţă, le uneşti într-un mod armonic, le integrezi în faptul unităţii de sentiment, de simţire, şi le atribui valoarea de condiție a răspunderii faţă de calitatea numită "vanitate". Boala de a fi şef derivă, evident, din simţul valorii personale, al orgoliului şi vanităţii.

Practicarea artei totale şi explorarea posibilităţilor ei combinatorii de generare a rezultatelor într-o dinamică activă, în sprijinul implementării unor idealuri generoase, duce la apariţia prototipurilor şi unicatelor, deci la anularea "artei de serie".

Arta de serie pretinde o anumită dependenţă de receptare a unui personaj care a devenit legendă, prin multiplicarea şi diversificarea consistenţă a realizărilor personale. Ea se datorează ideii conform căreia omul îşi foloseşte toate cunoştinţele specializate şi toate mijloacele avute la dispoziţie pentru a oferi, în creaţii de compoziţie realistă, noi însemnătăţi şi noi forme de acces la propria identitate.

Această artă obligă la dependenţa de anumite caracteristici ale relaţiei proces-conţinut, indicând cele mai relevante resurse de creaţie şi de expresie puse la dispoziţia tuturor celor interesaţi să-şi extindă înţelegerea cunoştinţelor despre managementul performanţei. Dar este o artă comercială, o afacere de moment în care trebuie să se vândă cât mai mult de pe urma propriului capital, nu una clădita să reziste.

Leadershipul îşi sprijină întreaga greutate pe transformarea profundă a omului în relaţie cu formele constructive ale creaţiei sale, în conformitate cu sistemul de valori specific, pe urma căreia se va dezvolta şi consolida societatea modernă, dar mai ales gândirea viitorului - prin retrăirea trecutului. Oamenii valoroşi îşi lasă amprenta asupra viitorului. Nu lăsăm să treacă pe lângă noi, în uitare, însemnătatea şi învăţătura lor.

Trebuie să te îngrijeşti de creaţiile tale cum se cuvine pentru a putea înţelege cu adevărat importanţa valorii a ceea ce transmiţi, dar şi pentru a rămâne tu însuţi o amintire frumoasă care să dăinuiască peste ani. Comuniunea de ordin spiritual dintre formele de creaţie şi cunoaştere se realizează prin ceea ce simţi atunci când priveşti lucrarea ta cum prinde viaţă şi prin recunoaşterea potenţialului de performanţă pe care îl aduci la lumină.

Poţi să interpretezi harta unui leadership de durată, îndreptându-te spre un punct mai îndepărtat de cel la care ai ajuns iniţial?

Interpretarea unei hărţi maritime presupune un efort suplimentar de explicare a legăturilor cauzale dintre elementele şi fenomenele cartografiate.

În cazul tău, elementele de progres şi de Brand, alături de fenomenul de transformare a modelului personal într-un exemplu de urmat, presupun un efort de adaptare la schimbările de rol şi de statut pe care ţi le conferă imaginea din care îţi creezi legătura cu esenţa unei noi spiritualităţi. Or această spiritualitate, după cuvintele lui, Simenon Georges, este bazată pe înţelegerea faptului că omul aparţine de o totalitate socială, fiind o parte din ea, ce se opune vechii spiritualităţi care punea omul înaintea colectivităţii.

Interpretarea „hărţii" unui leadership de durată trebuie să ţină seama de legătura dintre etapele procesului dezvoltării profesionale şi cele ulterioare - când ai ajuns în vârful piramidei ierarhice. Pentru aceasta este necesar să faci apel la toate valorile şi principiile pe care le posezi şi să ţii seama de toate obligaţiile noi care îţi revin.

Nu ridica o barieră mentală între trecut şi viitor, între cine ai fost, cine ai devenit, şi cine vei fi de acum înainte. Poţi fi cu adevărat desăvârşit doar dacă te ridici la nivelul pe care îl doresc ceilalţi. Adică, dacă îţi continui cu însufleţire „ expediţia de cucerire a leadershipului ", doar dacă te îndrepţi spre un punct mai îndepărtat de cel la care ai ajuns iniţial.

Leadership: Poţi să găseşti un teren de împăcare între trecut, prezent şi viitor, astfel încât Brandul tău să nu se îndrepte spre descompunere?

Mulţi oameni aflaţi în funcţii înalte de conducere îşi închipuie, în mod fals, că numele lor va dăinui veşnic în memoria şi inimile celorlalţi, că faptele lor nu vor fi niciodată uitate. Din păcate, odată cu trecerea lor în nefiinţă, atât numele lor cât şi meritele pe care le-au obţinut de-a lungul vieţii sunt date uitării. Tot ce-au făcut o viaţă întreagă, prin multe sacrificii şi sudoare, se risipeşte la fel de repede ca trecerea nopţii. Pentru ca nu a fost ceva de durată.

Legendele nu mor niciodată. Doar puţini oameni reuşesc să-şi păstreze intacte în timp imaginea sau realizările. Câteva nume confirmă pe deplin acest lucru: Iisus, Napoleon Bonaparte, Albert Einstein, John D. Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie, John Lennon, Elvis Presley. Atât în timpul vieţii, cât şi după ce-au trecut în nefiinţă, numele lor nu s-a şters din memoria oamenilor şi din cărţile de istorie. Şi asta pentru că fiecare dintre ei a ajuns o Legendă.

Realizările ieşite din comun ale acestor oameni i-au transformat în adevărate legende. Să nu ne înşelăm: nu orice persoană care are o carieră de succes, sau care deţine o funcţie importantă de conducere este o legendă. Când Elvis Presley a păşit pentru prima oară pe scenă şi a cântat „ Heartbreak Hotel" , el a schimbat pentru totdeauna faţa muzicii în lume. El a spart gheaţa, a influenţat pe toată lumea cu stilul lui muzical.

Nu-i de-ajuns să trăieşti pe acest pământ, trebuie să-ţi aduci contribuţia la bunul mers al lucrurilor, la binele întregii naţiuni. Sparge gheaţa, exprimă-ţi unicitatea. Schimbă ceva, decide să clădeşti ceva care să dăinuiască veşnic, ceva care să reprezinte veşnic numele tău. Nu-i de-ajuns să ajungi un om de vârf. Pentru ca leadershipul tău să dăinuiască în timp, trebuie să devii o Legendă.

A fi o Legendă este arta de a te prezenta memorabil într-o imagine care face înconjurul lumii în orice dată din viitor.

Eşti un manager iscusit?

On Martie 21, 2009

Ţine cont de însuşirile tale fireşti, clădindu-ţi orizontul în lumina unei conştiinţe care să pună în valoare latura ta cea mai însemnată.

Într-o zi, regele se afla în vizită la maestrul zen Muhak, de la templul Kanju-ji. Şi a grăit astfel:

- Prietene, ne cunoaştem de ani mulţi, să schimbăm câteva glume, cât suntem feriţi de ochii lumii. N-am prea râs de mult timp !

- Vă poftesc, stăpâne, să-mi spuneţi ceva vesel…

- Dragul meu Muhak, oricât ai fi tu de maestru zen, nu faci mai multe parale decât un măgar, un măgar dobitoc ! Ha, ha, ha ! Acum e rândul tău, a spuse regele. Spune-mi ceva hazliu !

- Stăpâne, aşa cum sunteţi în acest moment, semănaţi cu Shakyamuni la poalele copacului Trezirii !

- Asta nu e deloc amuzant, a spus regele. Eu te compar cu un măgar dobitoc, iar tu mă asemeni cu Buddha însuşi !

- Dar, stăpâne, a spus Muhak, e ceva specific măgarilor să vadă peste tot doar măgari, şi specific lui Buddha să vadă în orice fiinţă doar natura sa de Buddha… *

Leadership: Poţi să modifici percepţia constrângerilor de poziţie ale profilului tău socio-profesional şi reacţia faţă de acestea, oferind certitudinea unei calităţi intelectuale bine valorificată în activităţile viitoare?

Constrângerile de poziţie ale profilului tău socio-profesional vizează toate acele condiţii sau limite cu privire la ceea ce poţi face cu ceea ce ţi se sugerează să accepţi ca o insultă sau ca insinuare a faptului că nu eşti demn de a fi iubit. Din mulţimea stărilor sufleteşti băgate în seamă într-un moment dat, asupra cărora, dintr-o cauză sau alta îţi poţi îndrepta spiritul cu atenţie, cele care devin îndată conştientizate cel mai puternic sunt: ura, mânia, gelozia, frustrarea, înstrăinarea, tristeţea. Poziţia ta devine una de victimă care se lasă dominată, abordând întâlnirea printr-un fior de remuşcare soldat cu un comportament de autoimpunere.

Prin ceea ce exprimi ca atitudine, dincolo de tot ceea ce poate fi evident în reflexele gândirii tale, oferi o incursiune în propria lume care te poate face să te îndepărtezi sau să te apropii de oamenii din jur. În general exprimi prin imagine, prin gesturi sau cuvinte, doar ceea ce te defineşte în circumstanţele unor situaţii tensionate, pe motive bine întemeiate, dar alteori ceea ce posedă un potenţial nesfârşit de expresivitate este modul în care percepi o informaţie şi ţi-o însuşeşti ca pe ceva strict personal.

Prin prezenţa unei informaţii cu rol de feedback, accentuezi celelalte calităţi care te definesc în măsura în care simţi nevoia de comunicare a intelectului. O asemenea informaţie de tipul: "valorile tale rezultă mai întâi din ceea ce spui, apoi din ceea ce faci" , înţeleasă ca un contur a ceea ce înseamnă să fii conectat la partea sensibilă din tine, creează fundamentul unei anumite viziuni asupra raportului constiinţă-oglindă din perspectiva noţiunii de adevăr care te defineşte.

A oferi certitudinea unei calităţi intelectuale bine valorificată în activităţile viitoare de management înseamnă să accepţi o informaţie care te lasă mut de uimire ca pe o descoperire personală, apreciind-o ca fiind utilă şi temeinică pentru fundamentarea unei decizii care îţi dă ocazia să demonstrezi cauza unei neatenţii în formularea unor principii directoare care guvernează compania şi în formularea unor direcţii complementare de gestionare a imaginii care te reprezintă.

Comparaţia realizată dintre două gândiri diferite este o formă de promovare a imaginii de fundal care ţi se potriveşte în contextul unei necesităţi acute de afirmare a caracterului, dar într-o măsură pe care adesea nu ţi-o recunoşti ţie însuţi.

Imaginea vorbeşte de la sine despre misiunea companiei, tipul de business pe care îl practici, politica pe care o promovezi şi valorile în care crezi. În timp ce erorile cauzate de o informaţie rezultată din compararea judecaţilor, însuşirilor sau valorilor care te definesc cu un etalon de perfecţiune, mi se par întotdeauna normale în cazul unei abordări a modului în care te priveşti prin prisma experienţei de a fi pus în relaţie cu observaţia pe care o fac ceilalţi privitor la tine.

Percepţia constrângerilor de poziţie a profilului tău socio-profesional este dată de cumulul pe care îl deţii – intelectual, emoţional, spiritual, ştiinţific, faţă de un anumit etalon al perfecţiunii pe care îţi este greu să-l atingi.

Te vezi în funcţie de agentul generator al imaginii tale: acel frumos în a-ţi exprima un punct de vedere care vine în întâmpinarea nevoii de măreţie sau acel ecou al inteligenţei izvorâte din convingerile pe care le împărtăşeşti despre valoarea ta? Iar când spun constrângeri, mă refer la stângăcia cu care îţi manevrezi aceste convingeri în faţa celorlalţi oameni.

În leadership primează "Autoportretul" pe care ţi-l faci sub influenţa feedback-ului primit de la ceilalţi, dar şi "Portretul "celuilalt" care îţi zdruncină convingerile printr-o informaţie conformaă cu realitatea, amândouă fiind puse sub lupa unei analize adesea necruţătoare.

Atitudinea pe care o adopţi într-o situaţie de care te faci responsabil, seamănă cu placa de bază a unui laptop: este suportul fizic şi logic pentru celelalte componentele, oferind funcţionalitatea de a culege informaţiile şi a le prelucra impecabil pentru ca, în final, să rezulte o stabilitate maximă în eficientizarea activităţii de cunoaştere, gândire şi atenţie pe care o desfăşori.

A fi un manager iscusit înseamnă să-ţi repari imaginea negativă prin adoptarea unei poziţii maleabile faţă de contextele sociale în care este nevoie să îi convingi pe cei din jur că toate argumentele ce ţi se aduc, bune sau rele, reprezintă de fapt un rezultat al învăţării din greşeli şi un potențial pas înainte în termeni de funcţionalitate şi autoritate.

Eşti un manager sau un lider?

Oferă oamenilor acces la fondul tău de resurse, menţinând sub control excesul de cerere şi de ofertă.

Managerul unei companii s-a confruntat mai demult cu o dificultate majoră. Şi trebuia să remedieze situaţia apărută în cel mai scurt timp. Dar în loc să-i încurajeze pe toţi angajaţii să îşi unească forţele pentru a rezolva problema respectivă, el le-a dat un ultimatum: " Fiecare dintre cei care vor să rămână în continuare în această companie, va trebui să vină cu o idee unică de rezolvare a problemei în 24 de ore. Cine nu este capabil să găsească în acest timp o soluţie viabilă, va fi concediat fără alte explicaţii. "

În final, problema nu a fost remediată, iar compania a dat faliment după ce managerul şi-a concediat aproape toţi angajaţii.

Leadership: Îţi argumentezi influenţa poziţiei tale din perspectiva unei determinări absolute a nivelului de competenţă, în condiţiile existenţei unei cauze care înlătură caracterul justificat al faptelor tale?

În fotbal, se poate spune că un echipier „ia parte la joc" atunci când influenţează totuşi jocul, chiar şi prin vorbe şi gesturi, împiedicându-l pe adversar sau încercând să obţină în poziţia sa de ofsaid un avantaj.

Într-o companie, întocmai ca în fotbal, fiecare angajat care pune, sau nu, umărul serios la dezvoltarea ei, face parte dintr-un joc de mare complexitate, dar care poate fi şi de mare risc, în care trebuie să-şi păstreze încrederea şi credibilitatea în faţa angajatorului şi a celorlalţi colegi, putând obţine un avantaj doar prin rezultatele sale favorabile, rezultate care confirmă angajamentul său şi îl ajută să fie valoros.

Tu cum iei parte la joc? Folosindu-ţi calităţile şi competenţele în favoarea companiei, sau în detrimentul ei? Printr-o accelerare a creşterii randamentului tău, sau printr-o scădere a gradului tău de implicare?

Aşa cum o plantă trebuie udată zilnic, tot aşa şi tu trebuie să-ţi menţii cât se poate de constant seria de victorii pe plan profesional pentru ca leadershipul tău să se menţină în crestere.

Caracterul justificat al unei fapte sau a unui comportament în împrejurările iminente ale unei luări de poziţie profund critice vizavi de performanţa şi strategia companiei nu este dat doar de linia de conduită a unui om, ci de discernământul şi moralitatea cu care el înfruntă percepţiile, aşteptările, normele şi prejudecăţile sociale.

Singura cauză care înlătură caracterul justificat al faptelor tale este decizia de revocare a unui act de liberă alegere exprimat de vechea zicală: omul nu este stăpânul nimănui.

Leadership: Îţi poţi îmbunătăţi reputaţia prin menţinerea unei legături continue de tip "acces-control" în temeiul unei obligaţii care te scuteşte de frustrarea de a nu fi capabil să localizezi acţiunea de receptare a unei abordări constructive?

Conducerea este o formă de putere care poate fi acceptată sau impusă. A urma pe cineva pentru că n-ai încotro, pentru că eşti obligat s-o faci, nu este tocmai cea mai potrivită alegere. Un bun conducător este acela care are capacitatea de a-i motiva pe oameni să acţioneze şi să colaboreze cu el cât mai eficient, prin menţinerea unei legături continue de tip "acces-control" . Adică oamenii să aibă acces la fondul lui de resurse, iar el să aibă acces la fondul lor - menţinând sub control excesul de cerere şi de ofertă.

A nu fi capabil să localizezi o acţiune de receptare a unei abordări constructive este similar cu a conduce o barcă: nu poţi s-o încarci cu tot ce apuci şi să o mişti spre larg, atâta timp cât se scufundă din cauza propriei greutăţi.

O abordare constructivă vizează imboldul de a face acele transformări pe care le doreşti în companie fără să-ţi continui activităţile printr-un mesaj de tipul "Eroare de comandă". O astfel de abordare surprinde ideea unei schimbări care nu se încarcă cu o povară mai mare decât atunci când ai iniţiat-o.

Nu dezvălui nici un secret când afirm că o persoană poate ajunge într-o funcţie înaltă de conducere, dar asta nu înseamnă în mod automat că are şi aptitudini de lider. Este, deci, imprudent să punem semn de egalitate între manager şi lider. Managerul este categoric în toate, rareori oferă cu inimă deschisă, dovedind de cele mai multe ori rigiditate în gândire şi acţiune. În timp ce liderul este tot timpul deschis la colaborare, la a-şi schimba mentalitatea, la a înţelege, deschis la a fi corectat când e cazul, deschis la noi schimburi de idei şi experienţă chiar şi cu cei inferiori lui.

A conduce nu înseamnă că liderul comandă şi ceilalţi execută ordinele prin supunere şi frică. A conduce înseamnă a-i antrena şi mobiliza pe oameni pentru atingerea scopului comun, printr-un proces maleabil de optimizare a performanţelor lor.

Leadership: Poţi să dai o semnificaţie de bun augur rolului tău din perspectiva includerii unui motiv de încurajare a găsirii noilor forme de a face lucrurile, într-un context de tipul "tu contra ceilalţi" ?

Este foarte adevărat că nu poţi fi lider dacă nu eşti o persoană ambiţioasă, tenace, perseverentă, perspicace, competentă şi pregătită pentru a face faţă provocărilor care intervin în viaţa ta profesională. Totuşi, dacă nu ştii să-i atragi pe ceilalţi oameni de partea ta, dacă nu eşti capabil să faci mai mult pentru ei, să fii alături de ei şi să-i sprijini atunci când totul pare pierdut, atunci vei rămâne singur.

Oamenii nu sunt egali. Ei au aptitudini, cunoştinţe şi calităţi diferite. De asta trebuie să ţină cont un manager înainte de a le cere subordonaţilor săi să îndeplinească anumite sarcini extrem de dificile. Mai mult, într-o situaţie critică, munca în echipă are o importanţă majoră, deci apelând la o metodă de convingere silită de a-i determina pe oameni să lucreze individual, managerul nu face altceva decât să-i înstrăineze, ceea ce inevitabil conduce la eşec.

Nu e de mirare că puţine companii rezistă o perioadă îndelungată pe piaţă, şi asta pentru că nu toate sunt conduse de lideri cu adevărat competenţi, ci de manageri fără o cultură rentabilă de leadership.

Doar ceea ce ai tu mai bun poate adăuga valoare altora, îi poate ridica sau îi poate coborî.

Managementul este cererea de eficienţă pe care o generezi ca să obţii mai multă calitate, putere şi notorietate. În timp ce leadershipul este oferta motivată de a ajunge la o performanţă înaltă, fără a fi dependent de cerinţele unui randament care nu justifică investiţia în vieţile oamenilor.

Eşti vederea căreia ochiul îi surâde

Extinde-ţi permanent limitele realității, modelându-ţi gândurile şi sentimentele sub forma unor lucruri frumoase şi trebuincioase cu care să-ţi încarci sufletul.

Scaunul meu de la birou este liber să mă judece, ca un judecător neîndurător, pentru toate escapadele mele în vacanţă când s-a simţit părăsit, inutil, însingurat, şi asta, pentru a nu distorsiona realitatea unei mai profunde interdependenţe între ceea ce se așteptase să vadă şi ceea ce nu se putea vedea. El mi-a ţinut ferm evidența orelor de muncă, ceea ce i-a dat mereu posibilitatea de a stabili flexibilizarea programului meu de lucru, şi fiind o reacţie subiectivă la un anumit eveniment caracterizat prin modificări la nivel emoţional, evident că şi-a pus toată nădejdea în jurul prezenţei mele neîntrerupte, binefăcătoare, confortabile. Mai mult decât atât, şi-a găsit ca sprijin primar însăşi ideea de a fi centrul universului din singurătatea biroului meu de acasă.

Cum aş putea să-l revăd, moment prielnic pentru a începe lucrul la birou, fără să mă simt vinovat de scurta despărţire amiabilă, dar grea? Oare aş putea să mă reîntorc la el fără să-i aduc un prinos de admiraţie? Să mă prefac oare că sunt bolnav şi doar datorită acestui fapt să mă disculp pentru faptul că l-am abandonat o vreme? Da, îmi simt sufletul străin de ceea ce a trăit el însuşi, fiecare spaţiu din memoria sa fiind acaparat de microinstrucţiunile unei stări de fapt dezolante, până în momentul revenirii mele în birou, dincolo de marginea unui timp care se întoarce în trecut prin aşa numitele „curbe temporale închise".

Căci scaunului acesta, atât de bun cunoscător al lumii mele reale, căruia timpul i-a măsurat răbdarea printr-un Aductoriosus Stumbys (actul de control al evadării din real), scaunul acesta căruia eu i-am neglijat nevoile, preferinţele, aşteptările, neacordându-i suficient timp de a-şi onora obligaţiile pe termen lung, lui şi numai lui, i-am fost de atâtea ori recunoscător pentru construirea şi menţinerea dialogurilor pe care le-am purtat cu mine însumi.

E adevărat. Nu i-am înţeles toate excesele de mândrie, expresia faptului că nu-şi doreşte decât să fie ascultat, luat în evidenţă mai ales atunci când totul pare greu. De asemenea, nu i-am înţeles nici genul acela de aroganţă în spatele căreia se ascunde o anumită nesiguranţă de sine, pe lângă alte cauze. Cu toate acestea l-am privit cu acea tandrețe specific părintească, aşa cum îşi priveşte un pictor tablourile: cu admiraţie şi surprindere.

Leadership: Poţi să amplifici o emoţie coexistentă în realitatea pe care o creezi, încât să închizi "vizibilul" în centrul unei imagini staţionare ce poate fi percepută doar prin ochiul inimii?

Dragul meu, scaun de birou. Oricât de mult ai încerca să te hrănești cu iluzia unei aprecieri venite din exterior, punându-mă în prim planul afecţiunii tale, vei înțelege la un moment dat că nici toată recunoștința lumii și toate laudele aduse zilnic de către cei din jurul tău, nu vor putea vreodată concura cu satisfacția şi împlinirea simțită în străfundul sufletului, în momentul ridicării de jos a unui suflet căzut sub povara greutăților vieții.

Am citit asta demult, şi fiindcă dau dreptate autorului, îţi mărturisesc liber că dacă ai încerca să mă introduci în câmpul emoţiilor tale, printr-o creştere considerabilă a vreunei afecţiuni cu evoluţie trenantă, şi chiar dacă ai avea puterea să te preschimbi într-un palat măreţ, devenind mai mult formă a timpului decât a spaţiului, atunci ochii mei şi-ar păstra aceeaşi vedere pentru o entitate cu simplă existenţă fizică cum eşti tu.

Ferice de cine nu suspină după ce n-are, și se veselește cu ce are !

Şi nu-i aşa că toţi oamenii, cu mic, cu mare, îşi trăiesc mare parte din zi aşezaţi într-un scaun de care, cu niciun chip, nu se ataşează niciodată? Cum este să stai aşezat pe un scaun, să-i fii alături fizic, să-i absorbi energia de masă şi s-o stochezi în propria versiune de relaxare, şi cu toate astea să nu-l vezi, să nu-i simţi durerea pe care el o suportă pentru ca tu să te simţi confortabil, să nu-i asculţi glasul când suspină după un gând bun, după un dor nestins, continuând cu afecțiunea lui melancolică față de trecut.

Nu seamănă asta oare cu tragedia unui personaj din opera lui John Fowles?

"Atunci mi-am dat seama că moare, am ştiut-o toată noaptea, aş fi putut-o spune oricui. Am stat acolo lângă ea ascultând-o respirând şi bolborosind (nu părea să doarmă ca lumea niciodată), gândindu-mă la întorsătura pe care o luaseră lucrurile în scurtul timp cât am lipsit de acasă. Gândindu-mă la viaţa mea nenorocită şi nu la viaţa ei, cu mult mai nefericită. Oricine m-ar fi văzut atunci n-ar fi avut nici cea mai mică îndoială. Eram sincer şi cu adevărat disperat, deşi n-am niciun martor. Nu puteam să fac nimic. Doream atât de mult să trăiască şi nu puteam risca să mă duc după ajutor, eram la pământ, oricine şi-ar fi dat seama de asta. Pentru mine nu putea exista decât ea, pentru tot restul vieţii. Eram sigur de asta.

Mai era şi celălalt aspect: era singura care ştia că o iubeam. Ea singură ştia cine sunt cu adevărat. E foarte puţin probabil ca altcineva să mă înţeleagă vreodată..."

Leadership: Ţi-ai găsit un refugiu salvator în faţa pericolului de a te pierde în propria-ţi imagine atunci când te-ai decis să te alături unei experienţe de transformare indusă de o stare emoţională?

Puţine lucruri au capacitatea de a mă emoţiona până în străfundul fiinţei, dând totodată aripi ideilor şi răspândind seminţele cunoaşterii mele, fără a mă agăţa neapărat de un rezultat fulminant. Dar scaunul acesta de birou, resortul străduinţei mele de a fi cât mai relaxat, indicele de referinţă al unui scriitor excepţional, punând frâu orgoliului nemăsurat al satisfacţiei de a-mi cultiva egocentrismul, a reuşit cumva să formeze acea doză de senzaţional care practic copleşeşte modul în care sunt transferate informaţiile către privitor.

În prezența scaunului mă simt confortabil, este atât convenabil cât și adecvat pentru viața normală, fiindcă reuşeşte să se ridice deasupra altor lucruri prin intermediul unei imagini vizuale Odyresturhis Serpthorash care sugerează o anumită asociere sau un punct de similitudine între atitudine şi manifestarea ei externă, dar mai ales printr-o doză de umanitate oferită fără zgârcenie.

Dragul meu, scaun de birou. Oamenii vor aprecia mai bine lucrurile din jur atunci când vor înţelege că tu însuţi, etalon al cuvintelor spuse din suflet, nu eşti doar o entitate cu simplă existenţă fizică, că nu eşti doar o energie neschimbată între sistem şi mediul exterior, o formă fără fond condiționată de existența trecătoare. Tu eşti mult mai mult decât atât. Eşti simbolul unui concept de tipul "Not Null".

Adesea, tu eşti singurul meu partener de dialog, eşti vederea căreia ochiul îi surâde, eşti parte a ideii de egalitate între ceea ce se poate numi modernism și ceea ce se poate numi artă modernă. Eşti un refugiu salvator în faţa pericolului de a mă pierde în propria-mi imagine atunci când m-am decis să mă alătur unei experienţe de transformare indusă de o stare emoţională sau de o atitudine subiectivă. Şi, chiar mai uimitor, tu aduci în scenă personaje cu o psihologie plină de complicaţii, contradicţii şi inconsecvenţe, în adâncurile cărora ochiul scriitorului pătrunde și notează, iar cititorul este îndemna să ia aminte.

Leadershipul este predispus să împlinească miracolul transformării, slujindu-se de lucruri pentru a scoate în evidenţă imaginea unui om care este conștient de valoarea sau potențialul său intelectual, dar care în același timp prezintă o nemulțumire: de a nu se putea înstrăina de punctul de vedere al vederii sale.

Eşti vederea căreia ochiul îi surâde numai dacă reprezinţi în planul afectivităţii tale un lucru cu mari valenţe de simbol, un lucru foarte util în controlul gândurilor şi în redarea emoţiilor fără de care nu poţi concepe un sentiment profund şi complex.

Etapa de maturitate a leadershipului

Încearcă să controlezi starea funcţională de împlinire la nivel de cunoaştere, prin experienţa lăuntrică, pentru a defini o viziune care stăpâneşte ferm ansamblul.

Refuz să cred acest lucru, pentru că piatra lui Butler era cât se poate de naturală. Cu această piatră el putea să vindece orice boală. Mai ştiu că el nu folosea cuvinte, ceremonii sau alte astfel de elemente. Potrivit puterii de înțelegere a omului, nu este corect să se folosească gloria și frumusețea lui Dumnezeu, prezente în natură. Nici unul dintre acei oameni nu i-au cerut vreodată ajutorul lui Butler. Experiențele lui au fost privite cu un zâmbet ironic și neîncrezător.

Această metodă de vindecare va rămâne mult timp suspectată de ceilalți, pentru că înțelepciunea oamenilor comuni este inconsecventă și facilă. Ei cred că o faptă bună este mai degrabă o născocire diavolească și nu o binecuvântare a lui Dumnezeu, iubitorul și salvatorul întregii omeniri.

Aceste idei preconcepute pot fi întâlnite nu numai la oamenii simpli, ci și la cei învățați, care cred că pot înțelege foarte ușor sursa unei vindecări, dar care însă se izbesc de aceleași tipare superficiale și nu ajung la adevărata esență. Ei sunt la fel de înțelepți ca și niște copii care nu au ieșit niciodată din casa părintească și sunt speriați de orice poveste. Ei nu cunosc întregul circuit al bolilor, mai ales partea determinată de Spiritul Vieții, care este cauza celor mai multe afecțiuni. Tuturor acestor oameni le-aș recomanda să citească și cărți, precum cea de față, pentru a-și putea lărgi orizonturile cunoașterii, deși știu că ei se vor limita la ceea ce au învățat sau citit toată viața lor. "

Leadership: Capacitatea ta de a te manifesta ca unitate în diversitate se înfăţişează ca trăire individuală în sentimentul şi voinţa cu ajutorul cărora vei reuşi să asiguri folosirea corectă a cunoaşterii?

Maturitatea reprezintă în mod necesar integritatea personalităţii în planul cunoaşterii, o dată cu creşterea gradului de conştientizare deplină a consecinţelor morale şi sufleteşti privind gestionarea micilor situaţii ale vieţii cotidiene. Limitele cu care luptă omul conştient de condiţia şi atitudinea sa în diferite situaţii, sunt puse într-o relaţie esenţială cu energia subtilă a înţelepciunii care spune că orice lucru pe care îl percepi prin simţuri şi prin orice alte posibilităţi de receptare a informaţiei, de care dispui la un anumit moment, se poate preschimba într-o neaşteptată revelaţie.

Aici vorbim de înţelepciunea cunoscătorilor şi de înţelepciunea oamenilor obişnuiţi, primii ştiind să folosească orice ocazie pentru a-şi lărgi orizonturile, ceilalţi îmbrăţişând numai şansa de a se bucura de micile plăceri ale vieţii. Practic, un om învăţat se identifică cu "o sete de infinit", cu o anumită doctrină a ideilor înnăscute, în timp ce un om obişnuit se identifică doar cu un anumit flux de emoţii schimbătoare, cu un întreg noian de sentimente, de regăsiri şi frământări, de dragoste şi sinceritate.

Iar dacă adevăratul cunoscător este un mediator între om şi transcendenţă, atunci ştiinţa lui nu se transformă într-o limită a ceea ce constituie condiţia cotidiană a omului, ci mai degrabă se transformă într-o explorare a puterii de a fi diferit, chiar superior. Casa omului de ştiinţă, partea determinată de spiritul vieţii, o constituie rostul unei anumite creaţii legate de voinţa de a realiza lucruri măreţe, legate de sentimentul că poţi schimba lumea fără să cenzurezi părerile contra atunci când se afla într-o criză.

Pentru a-şi lărgi orizonturile, omul trebuie să determine starea lui funcţională finală de „împlinire” la nivel de cunoaştere prin experienţa lăuntrică, adică să analizeze propriul Ego prin reflexia acestuia în alţii, dar totodată să-şi alimenteze propriul ego prin progres tehnologic sau orice alt fel de progres. Împlinirea la nivel de cunoaştere este o lărgire a orizonturilor prin descoperirea sau chiar aprofundarea diferitelor fenomene şi situaţii care concură la constituirea acestei corelaţii între ceea ce trebuie să fie şi ceea ce este esenţial, dintre formal şi empiric.

A te manifesta ca unitate în diversitate înseamnă să-ţi defineşti o viziune care duce la câştigarea capacității de a vedea mai clar o anumită situaţie din mai multe perspective: din perspectiva unei cauzalităţi externe şi din perspectiva unei conştiinţe de sine închegate, generatoare de inovare şi originalitate.

Etapa de maturitate a leadershipului începe în momentul când Egoul îţi cere să vezi lumea din perspectiva experienţei de construire a cunoaşterii, aşa încât să emani sentimentul şi voinţa că vei reuşi să asiguri folosirea corectă a cunoaşterii. Ori să controlezi starea funcţională de împlinire la nivel de cunoaştere înseamnă să-ţi arăţi voinţa de a fi stăpân pe sine, pe meseria ta, pe ideile pe care le transmiţi, încât acţiunile tale să crească gradul de conştientizare a lărgirii orizontului de gândire şi stimularea interesului pentru domenii ale ştiinţei, artei, tehnicii şi culturii.

Eternal Flame

Înscrie-ţi creaţia într-un model nou de abordare a noţiunii de imagine, acceptându-ţi existenţa din punct de vedere al aprecierii pe care o fiinţă raţională o nutreşte faţă de tot ce-o înconjoară.

Un trandafir îşi mărturiseşte deschis simpatia faţă de învăţăturile încăpătoare ale vieţii, demonstraţie a unui aşa zis miracol de ordin spiritual, ca şi când ar trăi intens o clipă de neuitat prin intermediul unei fiinţe umane care se deosebeşte, în fel şi chip, de restul lumii. Ca o săgeată predestinată să depăşească lungimea de întindere a istoriei, aparţinând fără îndoială unor vremuri îndepărtate, el îşi asumă acest rol tranzitoriu, de la natură la cultură, o trecere de la stadiul de muritor la nemurire, ca intermediar între două lumi atât de asemănătoare prin patima creaţiei pe care o experimentează numai misticii.

Nu este prima oară când mă simt una cu o fiinţă umană, de aşa măsură încât nu pot însemna decât o parabolă despre fragilitatea vieţii, totul reducându-se la acceptarea unei realităţi asemănătoare lumii artiştilor care dau interpretări memorabile capodoperelor lor. Din mine, din acea parte a naturii care mă cuprinde de-a întregul în perfecţiunea unei clipe astrale, de aici şi curajul de a fi unic, răsare un glas de-o învăluitoare căldură şi ingenuitate vecină cu magia unei cafele fierbinţi într-o zi ploioasă: de unde izvoraşte şi unde se termină impresia de măreţie?

Celelalte flori din jur se înclină în faţa soarelui. Natura le ocroteşte printr-o înfrumuseţare abundentă, clasic proces de investigare a naturii prin capacitatea artei de a seduce privirile admiratorilor de bun gust. Razele soarelui le oferă o hrană dulce. Pe mine mă preamăreşte tentaţia omului de a se amesteca în lucrarea de mântuire a lui Dumnezeu, după chipul şi asemănarea sa, prin sinergia creaţiei, a întregii umanităţi, dar mai ales prin statut, prin dreptul de a se exprima într-un singur cuvânt: superioritate.

Leadership: Măreţia care te înconjoară de particularităţile de bază ale Creaţiei poate să formeze gradele de comparaţie cu cele două cuvinte auxiliare "more" şi "most" ?

Îmi dau seama că nu sunt fiinţa umană capabilă să trezească simţiri ample şi de o nemijlocită certitudine, nu sunt nici jocul unui magician care conduce atenţia publicului în labirinturile unei minţi mult mai vaste. Ci sunt floarea supremă a unei creaţii numită "spaţiu-timp", una tranzitorie de la arta concretă - la un Suprarealism văzut ca stare, ca mod de viaţă. Încă simt cum fac parte dintr-un tablou plasat într-o atmosferă de dor, în care planului frontal i se ataşează expresia simbolică a unei încrederi de nezdruncinat în existența unei realități absolute, consemnând imaginea ființei peste vremuri, într-un portret plin de viață și emoționant.

Orice realitate îşi are povestea ei. De la poezie la artele vizuale, ca în multe alte privinţe, sunt admirabil prin amestecul de culori şi romantism. Persistent ca un eveniment ce se repetă de-a lungul unui roman intelectualist, plin de senzaţional, păstrez cu grijă în spatele decorului care îndeamnă la visare atâtea răni care încă lasă urme, o arie de existenţă în care trăiesc cu spirit desăvârşit experimentul unei flăcări aflate în interiorul altei flăcări, o gândire înţeleasă printr-o împrejurare mai presus de voința sa.

Orice altă floare, ca piesă centrală a unei creaţii artistice, inspiraţie şi simbol, se pleacă în faţa necesităţii naturii de a se articula contextului de schimbare. Există o excepţie, bineînţeles. Căci, totodată, o creaţie a naturii reprezintă căderea în mijlocul unei realităţi care transcende planul manifestării imediate. Particularităţile ei de bază stau în trăirea extazului mistic, nu ca act magic de înşelare a destinului, ci ca sursă de spiritualitate, dar şi în contemplarea momentului infinit care se numeşte “Acum”.

Nu ştiu de unde provin spaimele unei fiinţe care nici măcar nu are o denumire ştiinţifică. Dar umilinţa de a fi retras într-o lume proprie, într-o atmosferă plină de himere, într-o manieră discretă şi onorabilă, departe de fericirea de a trăi o viziune a ajungerii omului la o nouă înţelegere, devine un soi de prizonierat în care eşti liber să priveşti realitatea cum doreşti, dar acceptând-o tot ca pe un dar de la Dumnezeu.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să creezi o viziune diferită asupra posibilităţii de a exista ca fiinţă creatoare, prin extrospecţia unei alterităţi privilegiate care evoluează de la imagine la simbol?

Creaţia unui artist poate să formeze gradele de comparaţie cu cele două cuvinte auxiliare "more" şi "most" atunci când are de-a face cu varianta de abordare a unei teme menită să devină simbolul unei mişcări artistice universale. "More" este începutul unei construcții menite să schimbe lucrurile, în timp ce “most” este o suprapunere a înţelesurilor atribuite formelor de realitate cu care intră în contact conştiinţa unei transcendenţe imanente, lumina unei exaltări spirituale.

Nu sunt doar un trandafir roşu, plin de sensibilitate. Sunt culoarea sacrificiului adus de Fiul lui Dumnezeu pentru mântuirea omenirii. Viaţa este un pic mai dură cu cei care acceptă provocarea Domnului de a trăi și a muri după Cuvântul Său, în slava unei clipe care îşi îmbogăţeşte conţinutul de graţie prin omagiul adus unei frumuseţi care este totodată şi bunătate. Uneori trebuie să renunţi la ceva din tine ca să laşi în urmă o amintire, o impresie plăcută, o etapă care a însemnat enorm pentru evoluția omenirii la un nivel mai înalt de conștiință şi spiritualitate. Înseamnă să laşi în urmă o creaţie de geniu, pentru a primi deplin o veşnicie glorioasă.

Aşa se întâmplă când încerci să te încadrezi în spaţiul unei perspective de ansamblu asupra unei teme pe care artistul o consacră picturii ce are să devină simbolul unei mişcări artistice universale. O logică plină de bun simţ, nu-i aşa?

Nu mi-a mai rămas din această minunată zi de vară decât să binecuvântez momentul în care mi s-a acordat o atenţie specială, din pricina nevoii de a mă plasa în prim planul înţelegerii unui gest de recunoştinţă. În dimineaţa aceasta, cineva m-a dorit mai mult ca oricând, încât stăpânul meu s-a îndurat să rupă o parte din mine, un boboc care se pregătea să înflorească. Astfel, m-am ridicat la înălţimea unui gând de mare profunzime umană, se numeşte dragoste.

Un scriitor de talia stăpânului meu ar fi încadrat acest moment sublim într-o luptă cu puterea unei suferinţe, din dragoste: este ca şi când mi-aş da mâna stângă cuiva care n-o are, astfel dându-mi o nouă şansă de a fi altcineva, agăţându-mă fiecare minut de speranţa unui miracol, simţindu-l şi trăindu-l cu adevărat, epuizându-l...şi nu l-aş da înapoi până când nu ar mai rămâne nimic din el.

Leadership: Ce valoare dai experiențelor de viaţă şi stăruinţei de a te pune în poziția de a fi în măsură să le trăieşti într-o operă pe cât de imperfectă, pe atât de uimitoare?

Poate că sunt doar o extensie a unei personalităţi complexe a cărei operă înglobează şi corelează, într-un mod original, repere ale intervenţiei estetice în firul vieţii. Ca artist al unei opere de artă totale, mi-am însuşit meritul de a șoca privitorii prin amestecul de inovație și banalitate, pregătind cugetul lumii pentru întâlnirea cu un spaţiu iluzionist în care se exercită forţe de cunoaştere greu de perceput cu ochii fizici, ci doar prin ştiinţa spirituală.

Perioada transformărilor spirituale începe cu acceptarea existenţei din punct de vedere al aprecierii pe care o fiinţă raţională o nutreşte faţă de tot ce-o înconjoară. În acest sens, mă regăsesc în cuvintele unui pământean, acel glorios egiptean din romanul lui Mika Waltari, care are cea mai scumpă şi mai puternică trăire a sufletului menită să aducă renaşterea spirituală mult aşteptată:

"Fiindcă eu, Sinuhe, am trăit în fiecare om care a trăit mai înainte de mine şi voi trăi în fiecare om care va trăi după mine. Voi trăi în plânsul şi în bucuria fiecărui om, voi trăi în bunătatea chiar şi în răutatea fiecărui om, voi trăi în dreptatea şi în nedreptatea omului, voi trăi în slăbiciunea şi în puterea lui. Nu vreau ca numele meu să rămână nemuritor, asemenea unei amintiri la care cu greu poţi să renunţi, fiindcă eu voi trăi etern în fiecare om prin ideea de comparaţie cu o poveste a cărei realitate scapă observaţiei obişnuite, dar care demonstrează fluiditatea şi evoluţia dificil predictibilă a evenimentelor."

Sunt regele regatului meu. Când mă aflu în mijlocul altor flori, lumea asistă la revenirea unei frumuseţi care se hrăneşte din viaţa unui artist dotat cu inteligenţă şi spiritualitate nemăsurată, solicitând intervenţiei naturii o cheie de înţelegere a misterului unei lumi care aşteaptă să fie hrănită cu mângâiere, blândeţe, căldură, compasiune. Chiar dacă am de-a face cu cea mai elementară orientare spaţială, adică simetria, rigoarea şi frontalitatea picturii care proslăveşte unirea cu Dumnezeu, mereu biruitoare în orice stil şi orice formă, trăsăturile mele - definitorii pentru artă - sunt puse la vedere numai celor dispuşi să le recunoască, să le însuşească, simţindu-le ca fiind ale lor.

Experienţelor mele de viaţă le dau valoarea de imagine care într-o realitate simulată, putând la rândul ei să fie conținută de o altă simulare, reuşesc adesea să sfideze inteligenţa privitorului.

La o reconsiderare revelatorie din perspectiva unei capodopere de geniu, cineva m-ar culege dintr-o grădină îngrijită minuțios cu pasiune de gospodărie, simţind astfel că sunt purtat spre dulcea nemurire, în timp ce un poet mi-ar închina cu spirit şi adevăr o odă admirabilă:
"Învaţă-mă să cred din nou în oameni. Învaţă-mă să cred din nou în vise. Să pot să-ţi fiu pe veci umilul tău erou ! "

Adevărata capodoperă la care se raportează leadershipul este trăirea cu care susţii ineditul act de creaţie din existenţa unui artist care îşi asumă rolul de mediator între om şi natură.

Eternal Flame este o extensie a nădejdii într-o enormă sursă de inspiraţie trebuincioasă artistului pentru a dobândi nemurirea. Este ceea ce vezi la tine atunci când simţi pulsul vieţii din postura unui trandafir care alege să se lase înfăşurat mai mult în mrejele unei naraţiuni fascinante, desfăşurată în plan artistic, decât în mrejele unei aspiraţii de sorginte pur romantică.

Eu nu sunt pentru finit, sunt pentru infinit

Trebuie să împingi studiul fiecărei părţi din ştiinţa vieţii, fiecare fragment, dincolo de observaţia banală, până se iveşte măreţia vieţii.

Privesc marea cum se freamătă. Valurile ei au o forță colosală. Privindu-le cu un ochi de artist, aș zice că ele nu cunosc deloc sau măcar armonia din artă, acel principiu al designului care conferă operei sentimentul de coerență sau coeziune. Iar formele lor, în nesfârșitele întinderi ale mării, îndeosebi când soarele răsare, pot fi puse în relație cu diferite lucruri externe, în măsura în care sunt privite pe latura reală a fenomenelor care alcătuiesc natura, "Marele Tot". Întotdeauna după răsărit pictura capătă o tonalitate mai deschisă.

Mai e ceva. Însăşi valurile fac ca toate creațiile mele, în materie de artă, cât și creațiile asemănătoare ale naturii, să se încadreze în tabloul unei priviri de sinteză, ca elemente separate ale întregului ce ia în posesie mirajul unei lumi debusolate, o goană neobosită după iluzii. Nu știu încă dacă ochii mei vor înțelege vreodată diferența dintre o altă fațetă a realității și forma de cunoaștere specifică frumuseţii unui răsărit de vară care se încăpățânează să nu ofere prea multe șanse de oglindire a apusului în apă.

Prin aceasta să nu se înțeleagă cumva greșit. Nu caut în valuri, în forța acționată de puterea lor, forma pură a vreunei libertăți de expresie, sau forma pură a relației dintre semnificativ și nesemnificativ. Însă forma mișcărilor lor, forma pură, eliberată de obiect sau de materie, dă acea artă care se leapădă cu totul de corporalitate, reprezentând forma de reglare a raportului dintre văz și auz, spre obținerea unei cunoașteri care este în același timp exterioară cât și interioară.

Leadership: Poţi să pătrunzi cu privirea o lume care se extinde real dincolo de cadrul observaţiei banale, cu condiţia să respecţi distanţa cuprinderii unei viziuni ideale?

Natura și arta sunt un tot unitar, chiar și numai prin aceea că valurile, legate de raportul corpurilor transparente, nu pot fi contrazise de perspectiva superioară a privirii axate pe căutarea deschiderilor de orizont (pe care le oferă însăși modul de spargere al valurilor în larg). Iar în măsura în care valurile, privite ca o adaptare a formei la realitățile exterioare noi, se separă de totalitatea mării, tot așa cum se separă lucrurile captate de privire, deci în măsura în care orice diferență este instituită prin lumină, atunci scopul artei mele este să trezească senzația de deja-vu, o nevoie de reflexie, creând o imagine ce nu se va șterge niciodată din memoria vizuală a celui care îmi privește creația.

Vai, cât de greu sunt înțelese valurile, și cât de alterate ajung ele la ochii privitorului care nu știe că acestea produc o muzică în mintea compozitorului de sonate. Cumva, mediul extern de care au nevoie valurile ca să devină muzică sau viziune artistică, constituie modul lucrurilor materiale de a fi aidoma ideilor. Abia acum ne putem gândi la valuri ca la formele dintâi și pure ale mișcării universale, înălțate pe aripile unei muzici în care sunetele, vorbind o limbă secretă, neinteligibilă, par să redea direct părți din știința vieții.

Aici își face loc cel mai bine sfatul medicului român Grigore T Popa: " Trebuie să împingeţi studiul fiecărei părţi din ştiinţa vieţii, fiecare fragment, dincolo de observaţia banală, până se iveşte măreţia vieţii. "

Chiar mai pregnant este exprimat acest lucru în cadrul artei prin opoziția dintre armonie, proporţie şi echilibru, așa cum se manifestă ea în câmpul vederii de aproape a valurilor.

Ritmul lor este alert și neînțeles, ca un fel de dublu al naturii mele, mișcările lor fiind o melodie pură provenită din tabloul unui om visător, sau, de ce nu, desemnând o simplă rătăcire armonică fără destinație definitivă, care trece și apare iar.

Numai artistul genial reușește să transforme un sunet sau o perspectivă din exterior într-o întreagă eternitate, să redirecţioneze spectrul de armonice ale unui sunet fundamental asupra interiorităţii sale, într-o capodoperă plină de frumusețea valurilor, cu multe proprietăţi simbolice. Chiar și numai acest fapt transmite o emoție puternică și nouă.

Leadership: Poţi să schimbi felul în care priveşti, cauţi informaţia vizuală, o selectezi şi o interpretezi, urmărind nu atât efectele eclatante pe care le înghite clipa prezentă, ci esența imaginii care durează în timp?

În noaptea 272 din cartea "O mie şi una de nopţi", se povesteşte că în hotarul andaluzilor se afla demult un castel a cărui poartă fusese făurită pentru a sta ferecată. Într-o zi, un om curios şi destoinic a vrut să cerceteze ce se află în acel castel. Desfăcu încuietorile fiecărei încăperi, toate având un aspect magic și religios. Dar în cea de-a cincea încăpere el găsi o oglindă de formă circulară, lucrare a lui Soliman, fiul lui David, al cărei preţ era de necuprins, căci cel care se privea în apa ei vedea chipurile părinţilor şi pe ale fiilor, de la întâiul Adam şi până la aceia care vor auzi Trâmbiţa cea din urmă.

El a înţeles atunci că cea mai mare comoară a lumii este replicarea subconștientă a unor frânturi de viaţă pe care le înghite clipa prezentă, ca mai târziu ele să răsară în toată strălucirea lor, pline de semnificaţia care a fost scăpată din vedere multă vreme.

La fel şi universul exterior (marea, cu valurile ei sclipitoare), nu se află împins undeva la periferia nemărginirii mele lăuntrice, ci este transformat el însuşi în fluiditate lăuntrică, în substanţă de suflet. Iar dacă fiecare val este doar o încuietoare pe care trebuie s-o desfac pentru a-i înţelege tainele, apelând la procedee artistice (precum valoraţia şi pensulaţia), atunci poate voi înţelege într-o bună zi că ceea ce este de necuprins este chiar sufletul meu, decantat de orice întrupare fizică.

Marea m-a învăţat să mă oglindesc într-o existenţă deja trăită, fiind expansiunea indefinită a mişcării de a fi într-o armonie integrativă cu Logosul (simulacrul realității). În mod surprinzător, ascultarea muzicii valurilor mi-a indus şi s-a transformat în trăirea perpetuă a altor vieţi, într-o veşnică mişcare pe orbita unui prezent unic, neîntrerupt. Iar vizualizarea neîncetată a valurilor ei reprezintă o artă ce îmbină imaginația cu spațialitatea și cu logosul abstract. Ele dezvoltă povestea dualităţii mele prin căutarea unui limbaj universal, fără cuvinte.

În leadership, o viziune este ideală dacă fiinţa trăieşte într-o dualitate interioară: o jumătate simte, acţionează, cealaltă se priveşte acţionând.

Eu nu sunt pentru finit, sunt pentru infinit, deoarece am învăţat să cunosc marea, valurile ei sclipitoare, nisipul, pescăruşii, scoicile, şi fiecare din ele îmi cunoaşte gândurile şi sufletul, fără să spun nici un cuvânt. Ele sunt frânturi de existenţă care se succed, şi în care eu mă regăsesc sub o altă înfăţişare. Şi, cu atât sunt mai impresionante aceste frânturi de existenţă, cu cât urmele paşilor mei, pe care le poartă cu ele, sunt încă de neşters. Cred că aceasta este, de fapt, măreţia vieţii...

Bine spunea cineva: "Poate că la nivel subtil materia interferează cu logosul, dând naştere unei legături greu de conceput pentru mintea umană. Ca să înţelegi asta, trebuie să ai în tine ceva din maiestatea divinului."

Eu număr doar orele însorite

Felul în care ştiinţa abordează lumea şi lucrurile ei impune repere noi, un alt limbaj şi alte reprezentări.

Mă interesează în mod deosebit să aflu calea de pătrundere într-o stare supraomenească de perfecţiune şi beatitudine, ca succesiune a momentelor de efervescenţă intelectuală, de revărsare spontană a vieţii unei alte Persoane din mine, încât să încep să clădesc un nou imperiu de realitate şi să devin un simbol al măreţiei de a îmbrăţişa schimbarea la faţă a lumii.

Triumful acestei intenţii îl constituie cucerirea mijloacelor de limbaj care alcătuiesc aspectul exterior al unei opere de artă: culoare, linie, volum, dar şi aspectul interior al Omului Nou cu care intru în contact, relevant prin sensibilitatea de a recepta lumea în detaliile unei epoci care a avut şi lumini şi umbre. Aici nu pluteşte umbra efemeră a lucrurilor manifestate în termeni de valoare sau preţ, ci densitatea vizuală a informaţiei pe care o furnizez printr-o juxtapunere a culorilor definitorie unui mare maestru al paletei.

Evident, mijlocul de a realiza ceva atât de spectaculos precum transformarea omului într-o dublură a sa mult mai sofisticată, cu ajutorul mijloacelor de reprezentare a cuvintelor, fără să intru în conflict cu legile naturii de îndată ce prind prilejul unei eschivări de la graniţele convenţionale ale naturalului, este claritatea convingerii că nu există idei înnăscute, ci doar născocite. În acest caz, apelez la acţiunea culorii asupra intenţiilor artistice de reprezentare a unei asocieri între contrastul vizual și imaginea exprimată în plan lexical.

Aşadar, operaţia trebuie exersată nu atât asupra obiectelor sensibile externe, ci mai cu seamă asupra operaţiilor minţii, percepute şi reflectate printr-o linie imaginară care desparte trecutul de viitor, lumea de sus cu lumea de jos, o simplă linie de contur a conţinutului de inspiraţie ce asigură înlănţuirea noţiunilor de creaţie într-o formă logică şi cât mai accesibilă cititorilor.

Culoarea predominantă din tabloul pe care îl descriu este argumentul dominant dintr-un text al cărui traducere este "Eu număr doar orele însorite".

Leadership: Poţi să elaborezi o viziune nouă a noţiunilor de „autor" şi „capodoperă" în jurul unei experienţe de tipul "You never get tired of reading it" din perspectiva raportării la un storytelling care odată început, nu mai poate fi terminat?

A ridica cuvântul la rang de exprimare şi exprimarea la rang de virtute este mărturia unei viziuni care se realizează în mod plenar într-o legătură cu lumea - din punct de vedere al conţinutului unei arte plină de fapte. Dar din punct de vedere al conţinutului de semnificaţie se distinge vizibilitatea unei persoane diferite care îşi accentuează puternic prezenţa într-un storytelling care te duce într-o călătorie misterioasă. You never get tired of reading it !

Simpla mea prezenţă într-un cadru al gândirii estetice cu scopul de a defini o nouă trăsătură a progresului creaţiei, mai ales parcursul plin de avânt spre definirea unei identităţi a conceptului de Om Perfect, chiar dacă pare o utopie a raţiunii absolute, denotă caracteristicile stilului meu de a construi o povestire de succes. O povestire a cărei calitate izbitoare nu stă tocmai în firescul unei vieţi trăite pentru lucrurile frumoase, ci în necesitatea unei atenții îndreptate către misterul unei făpturi dintr-un alt timp ce se amestecă lucid în regulile unui joc absurd de lumini şi umbre.

Dovada unei inteligenţe artistice şi a unei autenticităţi a fibrei scriitoriceşti este dată de conţinutul de semnificaţie pe care se bazează relaţia dintre vizual şi textual, integrată într-o poveste de impact.

La o adică, este şi acesta un mod de a mă adresa ştiinţei cele mai înalte: oare până unde sunt dispus să mă întâlnesc cu mine însumi astfel încât realitatea să capete imanenţa unei materialităţi absolute care să evoce corporalitatea compactă a textului şi a semnului, supusă necesităţii de a fi veridică, de a suporta o referire la adevărul lumii reale?

Poate că perfecţiunea înseamnă să experimentez alteritatea, să mă raportez la mine ca la o fiinţă trăitoare într-un loc practic inaccesibil, sau într-un univers infinit, într-un spaţiu secret al experienţelor de neuitat pline de aventura unei ştiinţe totale. Aşadar, simt o datorie faţă de cealaltă jumătate a mea dintr-un alt spaţiu-timp. Simt că trebuie să o ascult şi totodată să-i ofer oportunitatea de a-i face cunoscute convingerile, temerile, neliniştile, visele mele legate de miraculosul univers al artei.

Autorul este simbolul "mâinii care scrie tot" printr-o persoană interpusă între subiect şi obiect, printr-un relativ și subtil acord faţă de tot ceea ce este diferit. El asociază jocurile de limbaj cu jocurile rol în care domină sentimentul de dependenţă al omului fată de un alt om, pe care creaţia îl necesită cu adevărat.

Capodopera unui artist este ceea se distinge dincolo de forţa vizuală, este procesul continuu de simbolizare pe care îl necesită experienţa redării unei lumi interioare, a unei micro lumi spectaculoase, dintr-un unghi revelator.

Leadership: Îți poți citi cu ușurință gândurile precum o imagine într-o oglindă, conform deprinderii de a surprinde ceea ce pare de neînţeles într-un spaţiu unde totul este interpretat drept o creaţie fără sfârşit?

În romanul lui Umberto Eco, "Numele Trandafirului", există un fragment care îmi aminteşte de felul în care mă luptam să înţeleg o anumită direcţie imprimată ştiinţei pe care o slujeam şi o cultivam în scrierile mele:

"Am pornit-o hotărât spre labirint. Intram aici singur pentru prima oară, umbrele lungi aruncate de felinar pe pardoseală mă îngrozeau ca și nălucirile din noaptea dinainte. Mă temeam în orice clipă să nu mă pomenesc în fața altei oglinzi, pentru că în așa fel este magia oglinzilor încât chiar dacă știi că sunt oglinzi ele nu încetează să te neliniștească."

Întotdeauna când te apropii de un răspuns la dilemele tale se întrevede un alt numitor comun, o altă faţă a realităţii, un alt drum şi un nou început. Ştiinţa se măsoară în capacitatea intuiţiei de a surprinde ceea ce iniţial pare de neînţeles. Pe scara mândriei de a fi altfel, de a aparţine unei elite privilegiate, în faţa căreia orice raţiune capătă o poziţie dominantă, printr-o subtilă oglindire a realităţii în conştiinţă, acest lucru constituie un fel de paralelism cu felul meu original de a fi, cu acea parte importantă din mine despre care vă spuneam mai sus.

Chiar şi acum există un conflict între mine şi leadership, între cerinţele Egoului care vrea să spună totul şi cerinţele de protecţie ale ştiinţei superioare care nu se vrea culeasă şi înţeleasă decât de spiritele reflexive, de aceste drepte dominante aşezate particular faţă de axele de coordonate ale forţei totale exercitate asupra alcătuirii unei noi forme de gândire.

Cum oare să-i las pe alţii să îmi afle toate tainele fără să mă grăbesc în întâmpinarea acelei nevoi de bază a leadershipului, care cere mai întâi de toate răbdare, stăruinţă, prudenţă şi discreţie?

O creaţie fără sfârşit are ca trăsătură principală posibilitatea de a privi lucrurile din perspectiva unei ştiinţe care abordează o temă de maxim interes în ansamblul ei, dar şi în diversitatea sa, încât să schimbe realitatea pe care o cunoşti şi în care trăieşti.

Eu număr doar orele însorite este linia de contur a conţinutului unui tablou redat prin delicata interpretare a unei realităţi interioare, prin acurateţea evocării artistice şi prin puterea imaginaţiei. Dar mai ales prin puterea cromatică a contrastelor dintre două fiinţe diferite: una care îşi înfăţişează rostul în proiectarea demersului literar, cealaltă care tinde permanent spre frumosul unei lumi aşternute pe pânză.

Eu te-am creat în imaginea propriei Mele Clarităţi

Un rol deosebit în leadership îl constituie memoria emoţională, acel proces de reflectare a trăirilor afective anterioare care fac ca un om să existe în imagini.

Două lucruri mi-au plăcut dintotdeauna: Soarele şi Marea. Şi mi-au plăcut atât de mult, dar atât de mult, încât îmi amintesc zilnic de ele, cu duioşie, cu emoţii înălţătoare, cu vorbe calde, cu aşteptări surâzătoare, şi nu trece o zi fără ca, sub ocrotirea unei nostalgii tandre, visătoare, profunde, imaginea marii să nu-mi ofere un deja-vu fabulos, plin de semnificaţii mistice. E o deplină sinceritate în această mărturisire a sufletului meu, al paso del tiempo, care îşi încalcă propriul angajament şi, strecurându-se în plicul cu amintiri dintr-o sticlă subţire, transparentă, pe care demult au adus-o valurile la mal, chiar la picioarele mele, imprimă o orientare nouă viziunii despre sublim: "tot ce este frumos reclamă contactul nemijlocit cu Opera de Artă."

Încă o amintire pusă deoparte, lângă alte amintiri preţioase care le înlocuiesc pe cele vechi, luându-mi orice supărare, mă va face să revin în locul amintirilor de neuitat. Având caracterul unui răspuns afectiv la apelul ei, am fost în stare să privesc marea ca produs al unei dialectici lăuntrice care asigură funcţionarea imaginaţiei, la llave que abre la mente, tinzând spre producerea noului în forma unor reconstrucţii imagistice, a unor tablouri mintale. Din acest motiv, relaţia firavă gravată în memoria timpului, dintre sensul latent al mării, reprezentând o fascinantă călătorie despre puterea memoriei, şi conţinutul ei sensibil de descrieri estetice, nu este una aleatorie, ci un raport de implicaţie necesară în puterea sufletului de a recrea o realitate care de prea multe ori îmi scapă.

Mă gândesc că într-o bună zi marea nu va mai fi la fel, şi-o voi privi înmărmurit, dezorientat din cauza schimbării, ca şi când aş fi la limita dintre timpuri şi lumi. Şi va trebui să-mi apăr dreptul de a o admira şi lăuda în acelaşi mod cum pictorul îşi închipuieşte că opera sa oferă chezăşia învierii viitoare, unde totul va fi reparat şi reintegrat într-un tabloul al spaţiului fără frontiere. Chiar şi aşa, după introducerea voluntar mărită a unui vis naiv în mijlocul perioadei de reflux a elanului spre "înapoi", printr-o hermeneutică a imaginarului revelat într-un poem arăbesc, doar privind-o în pura ei formă de relief, voi fi dispus să-mi recunosc sincer neputinţa de a converti semnificaţia unei lumi diferite într-un sentiment universal, în planul imaginarului pur.

Leadership: Imaginea care îţi domină mintea în majoritatea timpului marchează receptarea unui fapt de viaţă transmis într-o operă de artă, ca probă a unei memorii identitare pe care ţii s-o evoci la modul „tematic" ?

Marea completează imaginea propriei mele fiinţe cu experienţa trăită de un personaj din opera lui Vladimir Nabokov:

"Frunzăresc iar şi iar aceste memorii pline de forţă, copleşitoare şi aducătoare de speranţă, şi mă întreb întruna dacă fisura din viaţa mea s-a produs atunci, în strălucirea acelei veri îndepărtate. Sau, poate, dorinţa excesivă pe care mi-a stârnit-o cineva a fost primul simptom al unei ciudăţenii personale. Cumva, încercând să-mi analizez năzuinţele, poftele, motivaţiile, acţiunile şi aşa mai departe, mă abandonez unui fel de imaginaţie retrospectivă care îmi alimentează capacitatea analitică cu alternative nelimitate, astfel că orice itinerar vizualizat se ramificăşi iar se ramifică, la nesfârşit, în perspectiva complexă, înnebunitoare a trecutului meu."

Şi uite aşa marea completează imaginea firii mele de artist, amestecând timpurile, emoţiile şi aspectele de natură exterioară într-un soi de creuzet ideatic, un recipient capabil să reziste la temperaturi foarte ridicate, în care fierb patimile aprinse ale unei rătăciri halucinante într-un univers paralel, simbolic, ocultat, plurivalent. În plus, ceea ce imaginaţia mea bogată poate să sesizeze clar şi perceptibil, vizând acest spaţiu al absolutului greu de localizat pe axa timpului, lăsându-mă purtat de iluzia unei trăiri tot mai intense, este imaginea completă a unei firi chibzuite de artist, a acestei firi nebune, impetuoase, independente şi rafinate totodată, căreia îi sunt încredinţate atâtea puteri şi privilegii dumnezeieşti, atâtea posibilități de a se manifesta în lumea înaltă a Creatorilor Fără Seamăn.

Singura operă de artă care îmi oglindeşte faptele vieţii, evenimente extrase dintr-o realitate care devine singura împăcare cu mine însumi, este restaurarea unei memorii care îmi luminează mintea şi sufletul.

În cazul picturii, marea nu este reprezentată ca fiind o configuraţie a nelimitatului, o trăire într-o stare de prezenţă continuă, nici nu prezintă coerenţa unui curs al retro-întâmplărilor vieţii mele, ci este simbolizată prin intermediul unei forme care este informă. Aşa cum pictura se ridică la nivelul a ceea ce este simbolic, exprimând în planul particularului ideea absolută de "Turn Back Time", mai ales dacă orientarea directă este activată preferenţial privirii din expresiile faciale în cadrul privirii directe, atunci marea şi valurile, orizontul şi perspectiva trebuie să fie un singur TOT, sinonim cu momentul în care eu însumi mă voi transforma în amintire…

Leadership: Imaginea în care îţi revezi trecutul față în față, coincide cu experiențele multiplicate într-un proces de reflectare a trăirilor, când, de pildă, imaginea a fost redusă la o simplă încercare de a vedea "întreaga diversitate în unitate"?

Oare asta înseamnă că artistul îşi vede opera aşa cum surprinzi într-o fotografie imaginea unei persoane sau chiar imaginea dintr-un vis care te alimentează cu atâta energie încât ajungi să te dedici lui mult peste limitele pe care credeai că le ai?

Cred, totuşi, că pentru a înțelege mai bine marea nu trebuie s-o privesc doar prin comparație cu mine, cât este ea de vastă și cât sunt eu de mic şi neînsemnat, ci trebuie să îmi imaginez elementele ritmului valurilor ca fiind indiferente în sine, cum sunt de pildă sunetele separate ale unei corzi, ori bătaia unei tobe. Și, oare prin ce poate deveni semnificativă o succesiune de astfel de bătăi în mijlocul mareelor și al curentului marin?

Oricât ar fi de tumultoase, sau neașteptate, ele nu au efect asupra mea decât dacă stabilesc un efect artistic-mistic asupra lor. De îndată ce privirea cea mai largă se îmbină cu sunetele aparent neînsemnate ale curentului marin, sau al valurilor, potrivit naturii și conținutul lor, ca niște taine demne de admirat ale naturii, atunci arta frumosului (în absoluitatea ei) devine o pură caracteristică a activității de a vedea întreaga diversitate în unitate. Prin urmare, însemnătatea artistului pe care îl reprezint nu mai este conferită de limbajul spiritului, de lucrul finit sau de funcţia religioasă a acestuia, ci rezidă în chiar actul creaţiei unui moment sublim de Deja-Vu detaşat de toate celelalte momente unice din viaţa mea.

Şi, iată cum, din nou mă simt transpus în realitatea lui Vladimir Nabokov:

"Sub un pretext absolut neverosimil (doar şansa aceasta îmi mai rămăsese şi, atunci nimic nu mai avea importanţă), m-am strecurat din cafeneaua de pe plajă, căci descoperisem o fâşie de nisip pustie. Şi acolo, în umbra violetă a unor stânci roşii care formau un fel de grotă, am avut un scurt interludiu de cuvinte rostite cu suflet, sentimente emoționante investite în fraze, iar singurul martor al întâmplării a fost o pereche de ochelari uitaţi de cineva. Cineva care, la fel ca mine, s-a pierdut într-o buclă a infinitului, pentru a experimenta un scurt moment de Deja-Vu."

Sub raport strict estetic, leadershipul trebuie plasat în contextul unei opere de artă care nu se autodistruge odată cu trecerea timpului, ci îşi păstrează o componentă indispensabilă: trăirea unei emoţii impregnată de amintiri, sau asumarea unui ideal de tipul "sensibilităţii reflectate în imagini."

Eu te-am creat în imaginea propriei Mele Clarităţi, pe tine, cel care de atâtea ori ai fost copleşit de trecutul tău, şi ai rămas de neuitat dincolo de limitele vieţii obişnuite. Voi fi întotdeauna bucuros să te descriu în legănarea veşnică a valurilor, prin acumularea în timp a nisipului pe ţărm, sau intrând în minunata lume a scoicilor, a păsărilor de pe plajă, a frumoaselor ierburi marine.

Voi explora malul mării plin de viaţă, cu un sentiment înălţător, cu privirea care nu se pierde în straturile de apă, şi voi scoate la iveală acea unică nestemată, fabuloasă, strălucind sub razele soarelui dogoritor, numită: Sephietriss Ethnos Eismar (trăirea într-o stare de prezenţă continuă).

Evenimentele creează în spectatori emoții prevăzute

Leadershipul creativ în regie constă în capacitatea de a construi imagini care să reflecte pulsul emoțional al poveștii, astfel încât tensiunea să fie resimțită profund de către spectatori.

Dincolo de claritate, Eisenstein urmărește la montaj, chiar în această scenă a atacului teuton, de pildă, anumite efecte compoziționale. Acest episod, chiar și în cele mai mici amănunte ale sale, este "ascultarea" acelei clipe în care inima, ca reacție la primejdia ce se apropie, se strânge și pulsează în gât. Toate detaliile acestui eveniment sunt reproduse în șirul de imagini… Aceste pulsații determină ritmul intensificării tensiunii, cezurile, accelerarea sau diminuarea mișcării. Bătăile inimii agitate dictează și ritmul tropotului cailor. Dacă privim imaginile, vedem o șarjă de cavalerie. Dacă privim compoziția, percepem și pulsația unei inimi agitate la culme. Din punctul de vedere al rezultatului, ambele – zugrăvirea în imagini și construcția compozițională – se contopesc în imaginea presimțirii începutului unei lupte pe viață și pe moarte.

Pe ecran, evenimentele se desfășoară pe baza celor mai variate emoții dinainte planificate, care creează în spectatori emoții de asemenea prevăzute (iată cum razbate până aici experiența lui Eisenstein în domeniul montajului atracțiilor). Acesta este secretul efectului sincer emoțional al adevăratei compoziții. Orice compoziție care poate detecta sursele emoțiilor umane poate să și dea naștere la aceste emoții în spectatori.

O experiență intensă și autentică în leadershipul regizoral se poate obține prin intermediul montajului atractiv planificat, care creează o legătură între acțiunea fizică a personajelor și tensiunea emoțională a spectatorilor.

Montajul cinematografic este una dintre metodele fundamentale în creația filmică modernă, deoarece permite manipularea timpului și spațiului narativ. Aceasta implică măsurarea și interpretarea ritmului și tensiunii scenelor unui film, în măsura în care creează o coerență emoțională și narativă. În general, compoziția vizuală și efectele compoziționale sunt tehnicile cele mai utilizate pentru a determina structura narativă și impactul emoțional asupra spectatorilor, dezvăluind subtextul și temele profunde ale filmului. Mai ales că, într-o sală de montaj, materialul filmat este expus la vizionări repetate și se măsoară claritatea și pulsația emoțională a fiecărei secvențe. Prin urmare, fiecare tip de scenă are o frecvență specifică de impact, care absoarbe atenția spectatorilor la momente distincte ale narațiunii.

Un lider vizionar în film știe să sincronizeze ritmul imaginilor cu bătăile inimii spectatorului, creând o experiență emoțională profundă și autentică.

Întotdeauna, regizorul folosește improvizația în montaj pentru a identifica punctele de sprijin și a alterna fazele filmului. Planurile apropiate și planurile generale sunt ca grupele funcționale ale structurii filmice, fiecare cu rolul său în zugrăvirea poveștii. Aceasta permite construcția unei narațiuni coerente și emoționante.

O viziune care detectează și amplifică sursele emoțiilor umane, oferind spectatorilor o experiență intensă și autentică, contribuie la intensificarea impactului narațiunii care rezonează profund cu trăirile și reflecțiile acestora.

Mai trebuie adăugat faptul că procesul de tăiere a peliculei este similar cu ajustarea spectrului de absorbție, unde regizorul elimină sau accentuează anumite elemente pentru a obține efectul dorit. Accelerarea sau diminuarea mișcării în cadru acționează ca frecvențele de vibrație ale emoțiilor, creând o pulsație ritmică ce rezonează cu spectatorii.

În final, montajul devine o analiză spectroscopică a emoțiilor umane, unde fiecare cezură, fiecare moment de tensiune, contribuie la crearea unui "spectru emoțional" complex și captivant. Această abordare permite regizorului să creeze o experiență cinematografică profundă și autentică, care vibrează la unison cu sensibilitatea publicului.

Un lider vizionar în montaj știe să controleze ritmul și compoziția, folosind detalii vizuale pentru a amplifica emoțiile și a crea tensiune graduală a narațiunii din cadrul scenelor esențiale.

Așadar, montajul unui film necesită o pregătire atentă a compoziției. Mai întâi, vizionați materialul brut de două ori mai mult decât durata finală dorită. Amestecați scenele filmate cu efecte compoziționale pentru a îmbunătăți claritatea și tensiunea narativă. Plasați punctele de sprijin cheie, asigurându-vă că alternarea fazelor este la nivelul potrivit de ritm. Umpleți structura narativă cu o combinație de planuri apropiate și generale, presând ușor limitele percepției pentru a elimina monotonia. Revizuiți bine după prima tăiere. În primele etape ale montajului, mențineți pulsația emoțională constantă, dar nu saturată. Tăiați vârfurile scenelor pentru a stimula accelerarea sau diminuarea mișcării. Observați reacțiile spectatorilor regulat pentru semne de scădere a interesului sau confuzie.

Improvizația în montaj este ca și cultivarea emoțiilor în grădina filmului. Regizorul trebuie să aibă grijă să elimine elementele nedorite, asemenea buruienilor, păstrând și hrănind scenele care contribuie la zugrăvirea narațiunii. Cezurile acționează ca perioadele de odihnă pentru spectator, permițând asimilarea emoțiilor plantate anterior. Construcția finală a filmului ar trebui să fie la fel de armonioasă și echilibrată precum o grădină bine îngrijită, unde fiecare element își are rolul său în crearea unei experiențe complete și satisfăcătoare.

Dubla percepție a scenei – ca reprezentare vizuală și ca construcție compozițională – creează o imagine complexă a presimțirii unei lupte pe viață și pe moarte.

Evenimentele creează în spectatori emoții prevăzute atunci când acțiunea atinge puncte de intensitate maximă din cauza dinamicii personajelor pe fondul tensiunii narative crescânde. Spun asta deoarece emoția generată trece dincolo de simpla vizualizare, în efortul de a implica profund publicul, prin faptul că sunt activați atât stimuli vizuali, cât și emoționali.

Everything Is Coming Up Roses

Învaţă să susţii cu toată forţa şi expresivitatea creaţiei tale mişcarea lumii în timp, ca pe o prelungire a sufletului Omului în faţa inteligenţei nemărginite a naturii.

Mă plimb prin grădină, prin această minunată oază de relaxare şi pace în care ciripitul păsărilor se transformă într-un concert mirific, în care mirosul proaspăt al ploii de primăvară se simte îmbătător, o boare de dimineaţă adiind ca o uşoară bătaie de aripi a fluturilor de pământ. O clipă cad pe gânduri. Mă uit lung la splendidul Double-Delight, privesc cu drag acest trandafir plin de rouă şi simt cum sunt învăluit de mângâierea unei culturi aparte, de lanţurile fermecătoare ale unei vrăji nedesluşite ce străbate calea realităţii din lumea nemărginită şi tăinuită a viselor.

Nemărginirea unei frânturi a ceea ce înseamnă feminitate, rafinament și eleganță îşi face drum printre atracţiile grădinii. Suntem ca fraţii, îmbogăţiţi de preaplinul unei lumi care, uşor, uşor, deschide o poartă spre absolutul unei plenitudini fără margini; cea pe care o găsim în forţa înţelepciunii care dăinuie de mii de ani, în faţa capacităţilor sugestive ale cuvântului plin de mistere, utilizat ca mod de a interoga capacităţile picturii şi ale vizualităţii.

Trandafirul acesta, preferatul meu, este capodopera unei confruntări disputate pe pista intelectului înscris pe coordonata unui resort sufletesc superior, desprins parcă dintr-o poveste cu minunate cuvinte simple și cu un conţinut neașteptat de semnificaţii. El intră în categoria unui subiect scriitoricesc de o ingeniozitate elevată, unde există posibilitatea ca realitatea să se întâlnească cu imaginaţia din toate punctele de vedere.

Probabil, într-un tablou pictat în culorile preferate ale lui Tiţian, trandafirul meu ar putea să apară ca o permanentă înfrumuseţare a vieţii trăite prin harul unei eternităţi a prezentului dat, o răspândire a ideii de orizont larg deschis, într-o splendidă combinaţie de galben şi roşu, eleganţă şi fineţe, caracter şi destin.

Leadership: Te simţi în stare să abordezi o imagine a ceea ce înseamnă imitarea naturii, gândindu-te la nemarginirea unei vieţi de om redată prin prisma unui simbol cuprinzător, variat?

Mai întâi de toate, cred că leadershipul ar trebui să-şi ţeasă întreaga interpretare prin intermediul un simbol cuprinzător, variat, care să caracterizeze cel mai bine o stare de spirit numită "pace", liniște, stăruinţă, regăsire sufletească, împăcare de sine, veghe.

Trandafirul este subtilitatea unei descrieri simple, fără exagerări. Îi voi adăuga acum puţină ficţiune. Aruncând o privire de artist asupra ta, ca orice iubitor de frumos şi de natură, descopăr forţa şi geniul trebuincioase construirii unei opere făcută să dăinuie peste veacuri ca amintire a unei vieţi pământeşti anterioare, menită să ne ţină uniţi în cuget şi simţiri, prefăcută într-un simbol divin ca expresie a unei frumuseţi desăvârşite.

E ca atunci când atingi misterul unei fiinţe plămădită dintr-o singură particulă a universului, care îndeamnă totdeauna la virtute, la autodepăşire, îngândurare, meditaţie, sugerând apropierea de un ţel absolut sau de o ordine ascunsă a lucrurilor cârmuite de o inteligenţă superioară, dar rescrise de un suflet atât de vibrant, de o conştiinţă atât de ardent-angajată întru slujirea unui ideal nobil.

Pictura este obişnuinţa minţii de a analiza frumosul unui corp viu în care se reîncarnează o individualitate mai înaltă.

Trandafirul luat ca model de inspiraţie. Eu nu te voi picta aşa cum aş surprinde o gheişă, cu un zâmbet afectat pe faţă sau ţinând un evantai care nu are niciun rol practic, în afara celui decorativ. Nu voi aşeza un colier în jurul tău ca să trezesc sentimentul valorii într-o temă cavalerească, de mare interes, fie reducându-ţi valoarea la vreun concept retro. Nu te voi picta cu ochii morţi, ca pe o Nefertiti, prin apelarea la o perfecţiune nefirească a trăsăturilor şi tenului. Ci te voi lăsa să străluceşti în prelungirea unei cercetări asupra imaginarului, ale cărei mize sunt: simbolistica memoriei şi universurile paralele.

Leadership: Poţi să determini înălţimea unei imagini artistice prin intermediul unei comparaţii între ceea ce îţi poate aduce călătoria vieţii şi ceea ce te ţine pe loc într-o anumită atitudine faţă de valorile unei spiritualităţi milenare?

I used to say that today is like tomorrow. Toate orizonturile vieţii mele se pierd în nemărginirea unei singure lumi, toate drumurile duc la tine. Îţi vorbesc şi te ascult cu mult interes, fiindcă ştiu ce simţi la fiecare atingere, odată cu fiecare petală ce cade la pământ, sau atunci când te clatini întruna, când te laşi în jos, când mă înveleşti cu parfum de femeie. Spinii tăi, durerea trecătoare care mângâie o zonă ultrasensibilă din memoria mea, suferinţa unui trecut care nu mai există decât prin forţa prezentului, mă eliberează de orice închidere în mine însumi. You don't understand it, I can tell it by your smile.

Adesea, recunosc după fiecare cuvânt imaginea ta rămasă în memorie, un roşu aprins care îşi schimbă vizibil culoarea într-un galben pal, cu iz de efemeritate. Dintr-o simplă contemplare individuală a imaginii statice ia naştere metafora spaţială capabilă să evoce un "aproape" şi un "departe", între care stă ascunsă existenţa unei vibraţii infinite, a unei pulsaţii etern creatoare.

În mod semnificativ, te revăd cu suflet de scriitor, unul care ştie să preţuiască momentul sublim al unei întâlniri cu o prietenă deosebită, Cella Serghi, dintr-un tablou al memoriei ei, binevenit în orice timp şi orice vreme:

"Cu câtă inconştienţă te-am lăsat să intri în viaţa mea ! Am îndepărtat, am lovit fără milă tot ce mă mai lega, tot ce-ţi stătea în cale. După cât de egoistă am fost, după cât de nepăsătoare de anumite dureri, pe care le dezlănţuise schimbarea mea, înţeleg azi cât de fericită eram pe atunci. Multă vreme nu te-am iubit...Iubeam elanul tău, gelozia ta, dorinţele şi grijile tale, adunate în jurul meu, nevoita ta de a mă vedea mereu. Tot ce spuneai avea un sunet nou, era original fiindcă gândeai altfel decât tot ce auzisem înainte. Iubeam capacitatea ta de a fi pasionat, preocupat de mine."

Valorile femeii care a lăsat adesea cuvintele să-i conducă viaţa, valori precum sinceritatea, înţelepciunea, maturitatea, rezistenţa în faţa schimbării, modestia, discreţia, libertatea, sunt totodată valorile unei spiritualităţi pe care trandafirul le-a împărtăşit azi dimineaţă cu mine printr-o scurtă conversaţie care, nădăjduiesc, va rămâne veşnic întipărită în memoria lumii şi a universului.

Înalţimea unei imagini artistice surprinde legătura de cauzalitate dintre ceea ce dă sens vieţii tale şi ceea ce te inspiră atunci când fiecare secundă a vieţii devine un experiment de limbaj.

Dacă ceva lipseşte uneori din viaţa mea, aşa cum artistului îi lipseşte de multe ori conjunctura potrivită pentru a surprinde o privire care spune totul, acest lucru se datorează lipsei de dialog cu elementul pământ. Să căutăm, mai departe, centrul optic al scenei principale dintr-un peisaj cu mult mai amplu, creat de intervenția unui creator de artă, în pofida haosului de forme şi culori care îl domină.

Trandafirul, simbol al creației lumii și al omului în scrierile persane, inspiră o anumită rezonanţă care persistă mult după ce privitorul încetează să-l mai privească. Mă ajută să-mi concentrez toată magia scriitoricească într-o singură scanare a universului uman, iar până îmi găsesc prilejul unei descompuneri a timpului, înlesnită şi de transparenţa unor tablouri cu teme atât de variate, pot aduna puțină ficţiune, răsturnări de situaţie, mister, suspans şi două poveşti întruna singură.

Lui îi plăceau nespus de mult trandafirii pentru că-i aminteau de viaţa ei, de sufletul ei suprapus peste un peisaj-portret şlefuit cu vibraţii energetice astrale, cu limbajul universului, tranzitoriu umbrit de norişori albi. Ei, îi plăceau îndeosebi confesiunile care spun totul, care dezarmează, avertizează viitorul, adăugând viaţă anilor cei mai agitaţi.

Mai mult decât atât, ea cocheta şi cu dorinţa de a fi iubită, admirată, cât mai frumoasă, şi de a dărui iubire, atât de mult încât obişnuia să se remarce prin forţa prozei devorate de lirism, prin cunoaşterea simbolică a frumuseţii trandafirilor din grădina lui.

I should have known by now, but now Everything is coming up roses.

Leadershipul, văzut ca simbol al unei creaţii literare unice, se justifică mai ales ca inserare a unei poveşti de viaţă în memoria lumii, apărând în acelaşi timp drept falsă şi adevărată, fictivă şi efectivă, dar întotdeauna la fel de minunată precum contemplarea unui trandafir, Double-Delight.

Everything Is Coming Up Roses atunci când înţelegi faptul că viaţa este o contemplare a naturii care se vrea a fi eternă într-o creaţie realizată de jur împrejurul Creatorului.

Evitaţi situaţiile riscante

On Aprilie 20, 2009

Fii pregătit să efectuezi cât mai multe ajustări astfel încât să asiguri funcţionarea viziunii tale chiar şi în condiţiile în care deciziile tale nu se transformă în ceea ce ai intenţionat.

Ora 3:20. În urma unui telefon anonim, doi poliţişti de la brigada de combatere a crimei organizate au pornit spre locul unde li s-a indicat că s-ar afla presupuşii criminali. Nu puteau şti cu certitudine dacă informaţiile cu privire la locul în care se ascundeau cei cinci criminali periculoşi sunt reale, aşa că au luat decizia să se deplaseze doar ei doi, fără să mai cheme întăriri. Când au ajuns la locul cu pricina au descins în forţă în locuinţa acestora:

"Nu mişcă nimeni ! Nu vă mişcaţi ! Staţi unde vă aflaţi ! Mâinile sus ! " au strigat cei doi poliţişti cu armele îndreptate asupra celor cinci indivizi periculoşi. Brusc se făcu linişte. O linişte totală, stranie. Şi deodată, în numai o fracţiune de secundă, acest moment de tăcere mormântală fu întrerupt de zgomotul produs de căderea involuntară a unei sticle de bere de pe masă: "Pleosc ! "

Acesta a fost momentul care i-a determinat pe poliţişti să deschidă focul asupra criminalilor care, la rândul lor au răspuns cu focuri de armă. Când echipajele de poliţie anunţate au sosit la faţa locului n-au găsit pe nimeni în viaţă. În raportul întocmit ulterior de poliţişti scria negru pe alb: "S-au împuşcat între ei şi au plătit cu viaţa."

Leadership: Imaginea pe care evenimentele cele mai reprezentative o proiectează asupra profilului tău de personalitate poate fi înţeleasă prin determinismul cu care eşti înzestrat pentru a lua nişte decizii inteligente, sau nişte decizii pripite?

Cred că morala acestei întâmplări nu are nevoie de comentarii. Nimeni nu poate să facă previziuni pe termen lung, ce se va întâmpla într-un viitor mai apropiat sau mai îndepărtat şi care sunt urmările care pot apărea în urma luării unei decizii incorecte. Dar un singur lucru e cert: cine acţionează fără să analizeze corect situaţiile riscante, fără să se gândească la consecinţele negative care pot apărea ulterior, riscă enorm. Aveţi o strategie proprie în caz de criză?

Dacă este nevoie de progres şi de schimbare, atunci automat este nevoie de viziune. Managerii trebuie să se gândească la viitorul companiei lor, să prevină şi să contracareze orice situaţie care prezintă un potenţial de risc ridicat. Criza este o situaţie riscantă şi reprezintă un motiv de îngrijorare pentru că scade nivelul de performanţă la toate nivelurile. Iar companiile ale căror manageri nu au văzut semnele evidente ale crizei s-au trezit brusc în pragul falimentului. Exact ca poliţiştii care au acţionat fără se gândească vreo clipă la pericol, managerii care nu au fost capabili să anticipeze corect cursul evenimentelor nu au reuşit să-şi salveze companiile de la dezastru.

Tot mai multe companii care au datorii la stat par să stea pe un butoi cu pulbere care poate exploda în orice clipă. Ele se află într-o situaţie extrem de instabilă din care nu pot scăpa foarte uşor pentru că managerii lor nu au avut o viziune şi o strategie proprie în caz de criză, sau pur şi simplu pentru că nu au făcut eforturi prea mari pentru a le ţine la suprafaţă.

Doar o singură şansă de scăpare mai au aceste companii, dar totul depinde de manageri. Aceştia trebuie în primul rând să aibă credinţa că pot schimba situaţia grea în care se află şi apoi, neapărat, trebuie să se mobilizeze în vederea adoptării unei noi strategii de poziţionare a companiei pe pieţele din ţară şi chiar din străinătate. Cu alte cuvinte, managerii trebuie să-şi dea mai mult interesul pentru a rezolva problemele cu care se confruntă companiile lor.

Leadership: Poţi să preîntâmpini apariţia unor efecte nedorite, apelând la identificarea cauzei unor fenomene şi împrejurări excepţionale ce pot fi soluţionate în limita anumitor termene de finalizare a impactului pe care îl are absenţa ta?

Greva este o formă de protest a unui grup de oameni care este afectat din punct de vedere economic. De exemplu, după ce contractul colectiv de muncă a expirat, managerul nu mai vrea să negocieze un alt contract ca să nu fie nevoit să mărească salariile. Din această cauză angajaţii companiei pot declanşa o grevă generală pe termen nelimitat pentru a cere renegocierea contractelor de muncă şi creşterea salariilor. Aşa se naşte conflictul dintre conducerea companiei şi angajaţii acesteia.

Pentru a evita o grevă managerii trebuie să-şi modifice strategia de afaceri şi obiectivele strategice, şi să îndrume compania spre o creştere profitabilă. Ei trebuie fie pregătiţi să efectueze cât mai multe ajustări astfel încât să asigure funcţionarea companiei lor în orice condiţii.

Pentru a preîntâmpina apariţia unor situaţii nedorite, managerul trebuie să ridice moralul angajaţilor, să îi motiveze să lucreze mai eficient şi să se implice mai mult în rezolvarea problemelor. Dacă angajaţii simt că în momentele grele managerul nu este acolo, lângă ei, ci undeva departe, nu îşi vor mai îndeplini corespunzător sarcinile de serviciu şi nu vor mai lucra eficient în vederea realizării misiunii organizaţiei. Altfel spus, dacă nu există o apropiere mai mare între manager şi angajaţi, compania nu va avea rezultatele scontate.

Sau gândeşte-te la altceva. Nu cumva absenţa ta ar avantaja reuşita evenimentelor?

Într-o poziţie de manager e bine să te gândeşti dacă nu cumva prin absenţa ta îi avantajezi fără să vrei aproape la fel de mult pe oameni ca printr-un vot explicit. Absenţa e un fel de renegare a sentimentului de a fi stăpân la tine acasă, dându-le astfel oamenilor posibilitatea să acţioneze conform propriei voinţe, împinşi de impulsul schimbător al momentului. Iată, deci, o altă semnificaţie plauzibilă a imperativului "să fii liber".

Finalizarea impactului pe care îl are absenţa ta în mijlocul oamenilor este similar cu aruncarea unei mingi în sus: încerci să exploatezi orizontul de aşteptare al unei emoții intense, fără să fii atent la ansamblul de procese care se petrec în jurul tău.

Evitaţi situaţiile riscante care apar inopinat şi care nu oferă o perspectivă largă asupra modalităţilor în care se poate evita producerea unui eveniment nedorit.

Excelenţa în leadership

Începe să culegi roadele străduinţelor tale în măsura în care ai tras învăţăminte din problemele aşezate în faţa ta de aspectul retrograd al unui conservatorism plat care condamnă lumea la stagnare.

Experimentatorul Saint-Claire Deville descoperea unul din cele mai interesante fenomene fizico-chimice: fenomenul disociaţiei combinaţiilor sub influenţa căldurii. El determina condiţiile acestui fenomen. Fapte, cât mai multe fapte trebuiau adunate, cercetate, comparate, pentru a trage concluzii tot mai generale. Numai astfel se poate ajunge, din aproape în aproape, la înţelegerea interdependenţei dintre fenomenele chimice. Faptele experimentale puse în evidenţă de pleiada elevilor lui Deville şi de sute de alţii experimentatori au confirmat liniile generale ale interpretării lui Deville. Actualitatea cuvintelor lui Deville este mereu vie pentru cei care se ocupă de teorie şi practică ştiinţifică.

Cercetarea fenomenului descoperit de marele savant n-a mai încetat, de fapt, nici astăzi. Fiecare din lucrările acestui maestru al experienţelor a deschis calea unor aplicaţii industriale noi. Întreaga activitate de cercetător a lui Saint-Claire Deville ne dă imaginea experienţei ca sursă a teoriei, a experienţei că sursă a aplicaţiilor industriale.

Pentru a pune în evidenţă produsele de disociere, el imaginează sistemul tuburilor concentrice cald-rece, prin care izbuteşte să răcească brusc produsele de disociere, astfel încât ele să nu mai aibă condiţii de recombinare. El imaginează sisteme de extragere a produselor reacţiei. Analizează, cu cele mai exacte metode ale epocii, gazele produse. Repetă de nenumărate ori fiecare operaţie şi înscrie rezultatele analizelor în tabele. În descrierea experienţelor sale, nu omite niciun amănunt semnificativ. Cantităţile sunt riguros consemnate. Niciun fenomen secundar nu este omis. Sunt prezentate şi nereuşitele, împreună cu interpretarea cauzelor lor.

Leadership: Eşti dispus să-ţi încadrezi întreaga activitate de creaţie într-o pozitie de cercetător astfel încât să foloseşti imaginea experienţei ca sursă a unor noi descoperiri, fără să cunoşti adevărata valoare a ceea ce trăieşti?

Claire Deville era de temut. Claritatea expunerilor sale transforma lecţiile de chimie experimentală în momente de propagandă activă pentru ştiinţă. Nu numai chimişti şi medici, dar şi oameni de litere, şi intelectuali de tot felul se grupau în jurul acestui maestru al experienţei, la aşa-numitele reuniuni de duminică de la Ecole Normale. Deville transmitea până departe, dincolo de zidurile laboratorului, pasiunea pentru cercetarea experimentală.

Dar destinul savanţilor se îneacă adesea în drama sentimentului profund de abandonare şi trădare, resimţit de pe urma unei societăţi în care moravurile şi interesele materiale resping beneficiile ştiinţei în evoluţia umanităţii.

Într-una din zilele anului 1881, cadavrul lui Saint-Claire Deville a fost pescuit în apele Senei. Copleşit de muncă, depăşit de problema aluminiului, trăind în mijlocul unei societăţi în morală căreia nu era înscrisă preţuirea şi recunoştinţa pentru talentele sale, Deville s-a cufundat, ca atâţia alţii, în apele deznădejdii. *

Leadership: Îţi poţi construi un raţionament superior oricăror altor consideraţii de natură particular sau general-umană, bazându-te doar pe munca intensivă cu sinele într-un demers onest de cautare a unui erou care doreşte să devină nemuritor?

Deseori, o viaţă plina de amărăciune se manifestă prin încercarea de a duce ştiinţa spre sfere idealiste, deasupra realităţilor care stăpânesc lumea, departe de necesităţile şi preocupările care frământă masele şi stimulează extinderea moravurilor cele mai detestabile.

Aproape toţi oamenii de ştiinţă au avut momente limită în drumul spre împlinirea unui destin grandios, prin conştientizarea unei absenţe de sens în categoria "ce anume îmi menţine permanent activă fericirea", unde rostul strădaniilor de a lupta cu înfricoşarea trecerii banale prin această viaţă capăta conturul unei ambiţii prometeice de remodelare a umanităţii.

Dimensiunea umană continuă să rămână slăbiciunea practicării impasibilităţii, o egoistă apărare a unor interese de moment, a unei excesive griji materiale, fără să reflecteze cu adevărat asupra evoluţiei lumii. În prezent, orice om de ştiinţă este, mai întâi de toate, un luptător împotriva clişeelor unei existenţe standardizate între super-market şi entertaiment, fiind dispus la o suspendare a nevoii de a intra în contact cu ceilalţi membri ai comunității, tocmai pentru a nu intra în acelaşi horă cu ei.

De aceea am putea aborda leadershipul, într-o situaţie aparte ce poate interveni pe parcursul perioadei de implementare a unei investigaţii în infrastructura valorii personale, drept o modalitate de explorare eficientă a unei noi dimensiuni a descoperirilor ştiinţifice, întemeiate pe factorul "sacrificiu total". Aceasta pare, de altfel, condiţia sine qua non a progresului şi a redresării nemulţumirilor de ordin profesional, cu toate că unele necesităţi – cel puţin de ordin practic – devin inevitabile.

Dar cât de departe pot să ajungă şi ce formă pot lua aceste necesităţi inevitabile în procesul elaborării teoriilor ştiinţifice ale personalităţii? În acest sens, am fi tentaţi să ne avântăm într-un demers onest de căutare a unui erou care doreşte să devină nemuritor prin însăşi exemplul trăirii sale de credinţă faţă de realizările imense ale ştiinţei puse în slujba lumii.

Nemurirea este ceea ce ramane in memoria lumii ca mostenire a unei cunoasteri experimentale profunde, dupa ce ti-ai dat consimtamantul ca mana unui destin istoric sa aleaga in locul tau pretul maretiei.

În ceea ce priveşte ştiinţa, poate că ar trebui cu toţii să pornim în căutarea unei credinţe motivate de înţelepciunea unei caracteristici a sufletului, aceea de a trece cu vederea toate nedreptățile unei lumi tot mai haotice, care (deocamdată) preţuieşte numai efemeritatea vieţii. Marcus Aurelius ne ajută cu un sfat în această privinţă:

"Când un altul te critică sau te urăște, când oamenii manifestă față de tine aceste sentimente, întoarce-te spre sufletelele lor, intră în interiorul lor și vezi ce fel de oameni sunt aceștia. Vei vedea că nu trebuie să te frămânți pentru ca ei să-și facă despre tine la un moment dat o părere.

Totuși trebuie să fii binevoitor față de ei, căci potrivit naturii sunt prieteni. Și zeii îi ajută în multe feluri, prin vise, prin predicții, ca ei să obțină acele lucruri pentru care depun atâta efort."

Dar niciodată nu sunt de ajuns câteva pietre pentru a construi un întreg eşafodaj stabil. Niciodată liderul nu îşi va putea construi un raţionament corect, bazându-se doar pe munca intensivă cu sinele. Niciodată nu va putea susţine anumite supoziţii contând doar pe forţa proprie de autoobservare. În acest caz, el poate ajunge să se bazeze doar pe prejudecăţi, forţând anumite nedumeriri. Şi să-şi întărească credinţa într-o realitate absolută şi definitivă care depinde de foarte mulţi factori variabili. Dar o realitate care nu seamănă cu căutarea unei plăceri menite să acopere o lipsă, un gol, o suferință.

O mărime fizică ce intervine într-un proces sau fenomen trebuie caracterizată printr-un număr de elemente obligatorii astfel încât ea să fie perfect determinată. În leadership, ca să-ţi pot duce ştiinţa spre un punct de vedere mai realist şi mai profund, trebuie să reiei şi să consolidezi în permanenţă procesul de optimizare a nivelului de înţelegere a dimensiunii umane spre o constantă de efect care dă posibilitatea întăririi calităţilor care te definesc.

Pentru a deprinde greutăţile şi competentele necesare leadershipului trebuie să-ţi asumi conştientizarea unei absenţe de sens atribuită demersurilor tale ştiinţifice, prin experienţe de tipul încercare-esec care pot oricând să-ţi anuleze credibilitatea în faţa celorlalţi oameni.

Excepţional Leadership

Autodisciplinează-te să-i influenţezi pe oameni, fără să-ţi ascunzi adevărata fire.

De fiecare dată când revăd filmul "The Silence of The Lambs (1991)" simt că mă integrez într-un spaţiu plin de mister care îndeamnă la prudenţă, autoanaliză, cumpătare în luarea deciziilor, fiindcă nu pot să mă leapăd de această obsesie: că asist la un joc de măşti care este cu atât mai înfiorător cu cât el nu părăseşte niciodată sfera raţionalului.

Esenţa vrăjită a lumii în care mă simt pierdut, asemenea unei corăbii fără echipaj, armonizează macrocosmosul unei fiinţe umane autonome, suverane, relativ independente de contextul social, care poate oricând să trăiască singură, dar fiind întotdeauna capabilă să distrugă alte destine.

Prin Hannibal Lecter este chemat în oglinda realităţii miezul tainic al unei lumi pline de nerv şi substanţă, în psihologia de mare clasă a unei metamorfoze de formă şi identitate, ca de la omidă la fluture. Ne aflăm în faţa unui tip de sensibilitate care apreciază fragilitatea şi delicateţea unui gest spontan aparte, dar asta până la proba contrarie. El nu este omul schimbării, ci însăşi schimbarea din om care începe cu psihologia unui exilat şi se continuă cu senzaţia de eliberare dintr-o captivitate care i-a fost necesară la un moment dat, doar ca să reflecteze mai bine la adevărata cauză a bolii sale foarte rar întâlnită, numită: "persuasiune la superlativ".

Leadership: Îţi dezvolţi o conştiinţă care pleacă de la o imagine şi ajunge la fiinţa pe care o reprezintă, pornind de la ideea că orice poveste adevărată este o poveste fără sfârşit?

Ceva din substanţa unui geniu al răului poate fi oricând recuperat prin inventarea unei poveşti cu îngeri, singura situaţie care nu duce la o tragedie, o imagine formată din fapte, lucruri şi cuvinte armonizate într-un ideal de convingeri pline de candoare care fac apel către tânăra generaţie umanistă. Iar povestea aceasta poate oricând deveni adevărată, continuându-se spre "nesfârşit", numai dacă conştiinţa îl îndeamnă să-şi aducă gândurile în lumina unei spiritualităţi concordante cu ştiinţa, şi mai ales dacă nu dă înapoi de la aceasta.

Atributele acestei poveşti uimitoare care te marchează profund prin puterea de evocare a unor destine desprinse parcă din suspine, nu sunt ritmul şi cursivitatea unei lecţii de viaţă demne de admirat, ci intriga unei acţiuni dramatice circumscrisă la un singur moment de tensiune maximă: suferinţa unei descoperiri târzii.

Pe primul loc în viaţa lui Hannibal este psihologia, dar focul curat al sufletul său este puritatea omului de esenţă foarte rară, candoarea fiinţei neajutorate, care îl poate face transparent pentru cunoştinţele sale cele mai înalte.

În persoana lui Clarice Starling găsim trandafirul plin de îndurare, vrăjit de un magician care îi ascute spinii cu dibăcia unui apicultor și cu conștiința unităţii esențiale a tuturor lucrurilor lumii, dar fără să lase spinii să crească până la capăt ca nu cumva aceștia să rănească pe cineva cu o înţepătură veninoasă. Aşadar, trandafirul acesta este fermecător datorită frumuseții sale, dar poate fi și dureros de cules datorită spinilor săi. Ai grijă la ce temperaturi îi ridici omului acea ascuţime a minţii care poate pune mai presus rezultatul unei acţiuni, decât păzirea stearpă a literei legii.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să dai la o parte pătura de incertitudine care îţi acoperă convingerile şi îţi anulează apartenenţa la spaţiul de referinţă al unui personaj plin de ambiguităţi de care te simţi atras şi pe care vrei să-l faci să se simtă atras de tine?

Hannibal nu este doar un psiholog al cărui renume a depăşit de mult graniţele de notorietate ale domeniului, de unde necesitatea imperativă de a se regăsi într-o permanentă stimă de sine, din dorinţa de a se considera el însuşi experimentul unei minţi complexe. Dar este şi un foarte bun mânuitor al realităţii de dincolo de zidurile tăcute ale vieţii liniştite înconjurată de gratii.

Clarice Starling pare o femeie timidă la prima vedere, dar în spatele feminităţii se ascunde tocmai acea puritate de om cinstit şi naiv, de o simplitate nemaiîntâlnită, mânat de nişte convingeri limitative care nu înflăcărează şi răscolesc pe oricine, ci doar pe o minte eliberată de convingeri false.

Singura incertitudine pe care o simte această fiinţă sensibilă constă în a nu şti ce să aleagă: ori să-l admire pe Hannibal pentru mintea genială de care dă mereu dovadă, ori să-l respingă pentru atrocitatea cu care îşi impune superioritatea persuasivă. În orice caz, pentru prima oară, Hannibal şi-a găsit subiectul cel mai dificil de experimentat prin faptul că este atras de inocenţa ei atât de firavă.

Leadership: Cât de mult te poate influenţa personalitatea celui pentru care eşti tentat să te redefineşti într-un raport de respect faţă de capacitatea sale deosebite, dacă nu-ţi dovedeşti sensibilitatea de a percepe ecoul prezenţei sale în realitatea care te înconjoară?

Întreaga personalitate a lui Hannibal se dezvăluie ca esenţă magică a miezului unei lumi greu accesibile, ca fiind creaţia specifică unui Ego în care nimeni nu poate pătrunde, trecută parcă printr-un push de limits în oglinda unei metamorfoze morale. Practic, activitatea sinelui nu înseamnă doar parcurgerea unui drum iniţiatic prin care se maturizează o concepţie nouă despre reprezentarea formelor umane, ci poate să ofere şi o reprezentare mai precisă, aproape naturalistă, a morţii înseşi.

Moartea surprinsă la fiecare pas nu mai este o entitate particulară, o chestiune de efect al unui caracter foarte disciplinat şi inventiv, ci reprezintă o trebuinţă de a stărui asupra unui fapt lipsit de prevedere.

Prin rotirea evenimentelor în sensul invers al aşteptărilor pe care le are fiecare personaj în legătură cu percepţiile lucrurilor sensibile, primind adesea o nuanţă de amplificare a stării de nelinişte, se poate calcula o nouă formulă a convieţuirii: singura cale de a-ţi păstra intactă raţiunea de a exista este să-ţi desparţi sufletul în mai multe puteri deosebite, printre care puterea de a fi vulnerabil şi puterea de a fi altfel decât îţi permite natura ta.

Când Hannibal îşi ademeneşte victima în pânza de păianjen a incertitudinii pentru a o devora de orice speranţă de viaţă, blocându-i orice clocot afectiv, practic el nu îşi adună toată inteligenţa într-un singur moment de inspiraţie. Ci aşteaptă ca victima să se debaraseze de tot ceea ce nu poate fi prezent în iluzia vieţii pe care o trăieşte.

Iată splendoarea unui fapt psihic de cunoaştere profundă a sentimentelor, care nu poate fi calificat drept bun sau rău din punct de vedere al rezultatelor cercetărilor din sfera psihologiei.

Leadership: Te expui unei experienţe de viaţă care începe cu intensitatea emoţiei pe care ţi-o transmite cineva într-o împrejurare deosebită şi se finalizează cu o atitudine de bunăvoinţă (arătată fără reţinere) care îţi cere să te distanţezi de propria realitate?

Diplomaţia şi raţiunea bazată pe adaptabilitate la condiţiile "întâmplătorului" te hrănesc, te îngrijesc şi te instruiesc spre cel mai bun comportament în societate. Astfel, nu mai începi experimentul asupra unui anumit oponent decât dacă eşti orbit de vanitate, de-a ignorantei tale dreptăţi, trecând orice activitate prin prisma extremelor „totul sau nimic”.

Hannibal este un simbol al totului: este dominat de sentimentul puţintei de a schimba orice destin şi dispune de mijloacele psihologice pentru a înfăptui orice convertire a omului la o altă ordine de înţelegere a vieţii, sub alte forme, mai subtile, mai puternic resimţite decât durerea fizică.

Să ne amintim de erou grec, Oreste. El pătrunde în universul nebuniei după crimele comise în numele răzbunării tatălui său (Agamemnon), divinităţile infernului silindu-l să vagabondeze dintr-un loc în altul, pradă delirului. El îi împărtăşeşte surorii sale, Electra, în repetate rânduri sentimentul că aparţine deja unui univers plin de groază.

"Te afli de pe acum printre cei morţi" îi răspunde Electra, iar unchiul său Menelau are şi el, în faţa lui Oreste, senzaţia că vede o arătare de pe lumea cealaltă. Răspunsul lui Oreste este următorul: "Nu sunt viu, deşi văd lumina".

De-a lungul acestui dialog, axat în totalitate pe tema nebuniei şi a groazei, se înfăţişează aspectele realităţii care guvernează lumea din jurul lui Hannibal. El nu-şi semnalează prezenţa în viaţa oamenilor ca un intrus ce întrerupe fluxurile regulate ale conştiinţei curate. Ci în mod foarte subtil, ca o vibraţie discretă, oferind acel un plus de inteligenţă la care victimele sale aspiră. Odată prinse în vraja acestui magician misterios, ele sunt nevoite să înfrunte permanent gândul morţii, neliniştea cea mai profundă.

Leadershipul este abilitatea de a-ţi manifesta puterea intelectuală în sfera destinului celorlalţi oameni, fără să dai frâu liber satisfacerii patimii de a te simţi bine în faţa lipsei lor de apărare.

Excepţional Leadership se referă la partea nevăzută a omului de geniu care nu trebuie să rămână exact așa, ca o ușă închisă, în raport cu lumea aparenţelor exterioare. Ci trebuie întotdeauna să iasă la iveală ca un diamant cu proprietăţi miraculoase care se șlefuiește odată cu trecerea sa prin viața tuturor celor care ştiu să-l aprecieze şi să-l "recomande" mai departe.

Genialitatea nu este inteligenţa foarte ascuţită pe care o urmăreşti neobosit să ţi-o etalezi în faţa celorlalţi oameni, încât să-ţi faci un renume împrăştiat într-o mare de evenimente. Ci este privilegiul de a simţi şi de a anula acea emoţie care te cuprinde şi te înlănţuie în strânsoarea ei, numită: ambiţie neechilibrată sau vanitate.

Executantul umil al grelei sale misiuni

Menţine-ţi leadershipul sub control, punând accent pe starea interioară cât şi pe eficienţa faptelor pe care le întreprinzi.

Ridicat pe un maldăr de speranţă, veghează sufletul chinuit al unei făpturi nevinovate, ca şi când ar fi fost desprinsă de lumea în care se pot împleti cu uşurinţă visele. El se înfioară la fiecare tresărire de fibră, la fiecare gând nefiltrat de lentilele determinării care îşi schimbă proprietăţile şi devin fumurii pe măsură ce scade cererea pentru "asigurarea de viaţă".

Catherine este prizoniera lui Buffalo Bill, aruncată într-o temniţă întunecată şi îngrozitoare, sub pământ. Căci în groapa foarte adâncă, în cuptorul spaimelor care scade temperatura posibilităţilor omeneşti de a se simţi ei înşişi, nu există termen de valabilitate pentru dorinţe şi pasiuni. În situaţii tensionate gândurile nu respectă standardele de transparenţă ale fiinţei al cărei sistem de valori este răsturnat.

Catherine Martin priveşte într-un punct fix, poate al revelaţiei de care aproape se dezobişnuise. Caută oare o oglindă, în căutarea propriei imagini? Ce să observe? Ce să simtă la vederea rămăşiţei omeneşti? Viziunile morbide, venite ca un şoc puternic resimţit până în măduva oaselor, iau locul poftei de viaţă. Însă, nu se stinge şi suflarea pe care Dumnezeu a pus-o în sufletul ei războinic.

Materia vibrează în mâna Creatorului. Într-o secundă de luciditate, produsă parcă de pronia cerească, Catherine trece de a o extremă la alta. Dintr-o dată, o succesiune de emoţii se împletesc duios cu amintirile cele mai dragi, dând naştere la o mulţime de noi frumuseţi şi străluciri. Speranţa ia locul dezamăgirii. Omul renăscut din durere, din imensa iubire divină, omul investit cu forţe noi, reformatoare, nu poate cere instanţei sale de judecată să admită demisia acelui Eu-însumi încărcat cu noi daruri spirituale.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi dezvolţi o atitudine de acceptare a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, în virtutea convingerii că tot ce trăieşti şi experimentezi se cere validat prin încercarea de a te cunoaşte mai bine într-o manieră diferită?

Structura armonioasă care rezultă din această fermitate interioară, în lupta dusă pentru credinţă, intră în ciclul high-power . Ca o undă de energie, Ego-ul propagă intens noi norme şi aspiraţii, noi puncte de control în modul de " a fi " al captivei. Reacţiile de reducere a agenţilor nocivi, ca teama, nesiguranţa, neliniştea, lamentarea, frustrarea, depresia, sunt cuplate cu formarea de noi radicali liberi. Şi anihilate de noi formaţiuni de luptă. Energia internă, declanşatoare de noi trăiri şi atitudini, este activată în trepte, evitând tulburările pe care le-ar putea produce eliberarea ei bruscă.

Alături de o fire tiranică, nu e loc pentru un om liber. În sinea ei, Catherine, supusă emoţiilor cele mai puternice, a luat o hotărâre. Capitală. Însă eliberarea cere abolirea întunericului, cere un efort imens tot atât de mare ca şi cura de dezintoxicare. Ea trebuie să înfrunte stările negative cele mai profunde ale fiinţei şi să lupte împotriva lor.

Inima nu acceptă să i se pună lacăt la gură şi să capete duritatea neînsufleţită a unei stane de piatră. Ci ţipă din toate puterile, cu toată energia imprevizibilei iluminări pe care o presupune o asemenea circumstanţă. Trezind toate fibrele care iau parte la confruntarea dintre prezent şi viitor, dintre două moduri de măsurare a vieţii care se contrazic.

"Voi îndura totul, voi străbate acel hol imens al întrebărilor fără răspuns, acel coridor subteran al stărilor de zbucium. Până ce voi învinge ! "

Şi cu înflăcărarea extremă produsă de acest gând, cu acea hotărâre care ar putea facilita orice upgrade de configuraţie lăuntrică, Catherine loveşte fulgerător în slăbiciunea sorţii potrivnice care aproape niciodată nu admite abateri de la regulă. Ea începe să se cunoască mai bine într-o manieră diferită, într-o stare de provocare maximă, când trebuie să închidă definitiv frontiera de "copilul lui mama" şi să se ridice singură la luptă, la nivelul unui Papillon care alege să evadeze dintr-un loc fără speranţe.

Leadership: Respecţi spaţiul personal prin intermediul căruia relaţionezi cu tine însuţi mai mult decât cu exteriorul, cu preţul experienţei de a te adapta situaţiei în care oricât de mult ai încerca să lupţi nu poţi spune că te-ai întrecut pe tine însuţi?

Ceea ce limitează omul la a fi strict o entitate pasivă, incapabilă de a opune rezistenţă unei autorităţi externe, şi care are meritul de a fi investigat ca având legătură cu leadershipul, este tocmai acea ipostază a personalităţii sale, dintre alte zeci de ipostaze. În care Eu-l suprem cerşeşte îndurare. Mai ales când această autoritate, asemenea unui agresor care perturbă siguranţă individului, nu poate fi redusă la tăcere, la zero. Sau măcar la o valoare acceptabilă de control.

Să dai dovadă de o adevărată tărie şi dârzenie în faţa adversarului care progresează în profunzime, devine fundamentul dezvoltării durabile a întregii tale fiinţe. Fundamentul creării oricărei viziuni despre lume, în încercarea de conştientizare şi înfrumuseţare a experienţei vieţii.

Catherine încearcă să facă faţă împrejurării în care a adus-o destinul, încearcă să împiedice realizarea planurilor lui Buffalo Bill, îşi pune la bătaie inteligenţa şi viclenia, dar totuşi pare că nu se poate întrece pe sine însăşi. Eşuează. De ce?

Fiindcă nu poate renunţa la starea de slăbiciune a naturii sale, fiindcă nu poate primi recunoaşterea altora, fiindcă degeaba ai curaj dacă nu ai putere, fiindcă degeaba ai parte, dacă nu ai şi noroc, fiindcă degeaba te uiţi într-o oglindă dacă nu te vezi altcineva, fiindcă degeaba ai abilităţi dacă îţi lipseşte perspectiva, fiindcă degeaba ai un mesaj bun dacă nu știi să-l împachetezi frumos, fiindcă degeaba ai facultate dacă îţi lipseşte şcoala vieţii.

Leadership: Îţi foloseşti conştiinţa drept scut în interacţiunea cu lumea exterioară, conformându-te unei situaţii care te consumă mult sau încercând să faci posibil acel lucru pe care crezi că nu-l poţi face?

Poetul şi filozoful libanez Kahlil Gibran a menţionat un lucru înţelept: " Pentru a putea trece prin încercările vieţii, trebuie să respectăm acel spaţiu personal prin intermediul căruia relaţionăm cu noi înşine şi nu cu exteriorul. " Este o formulă de progres la care nu se poate renunţa aşa uşor, o formă de exprimare a acordului cu atitudinea care te individualizează în situaţiile ambigue ale intersecţiei slăbiciunii cu puterea.

În jocul de şah, opoziţia reprezintă situaţia când cei doi regi se găsesc faţă în faţă la distanţă de un câmp unul faţă de celălalt. În cazul leadershipului, opoziţia este reprezentată de situaţia când te afli faţă în faţă cu tine însuţi, la distanţa de un minim sau un maxim acceptat de potenţialul tău de evoluţie. Şi de potenţialul de a te rupe de ritmurile vieţii care pun stăpânire pe tine.

Asigurarea unui randament maxim al propriei fiinţe, spre a fi pe deplin pregătit să îţi asumi lupta lăuntrică cu sistemul de valori, dezvoltând intens acele norme şi aspiraţii, noi puncte de control în modul de “a fi”, devine absolut necesar. Doar astfel se poate contura o perspectivă nouă asupra propriei persoane şi asupra celorlalţi.

Nu vei putea niciodată să părăseşti “opoziţia”, dacă intri în dezavantaj datorită unui complex de inadaptare la “şocurile” pe care atât de des le produce viaţa. Iar leadershipul nu va putea beneficia de avantajul apropierii de zona largă a proximei dezvoltări. Deci, înarmează-te cu acea hotărâre care ar putea facilita orice upgrade de configuraţie lăuntrică şi loveşte fulgerător în slăbiciunea sorţii potrivnice care aproape niciodată nu admite abateri de la regulă.

Conştiinţa este punctul în care te simţi mulţumit de sine şi puternic în faţa unei încercări dificile, deşi îţi pare rău că ţi s-a întâmplat asta.

Executantul umil al grelei sale misiuni este omul care şi-a înţeles misiunea şi face tot ceea ce este posibil pentru a o îndeplini. Acest lucru implică şi o luptă internă permanentă împotriva acelor reacţii negative lăuntrice, demobilizatoare.

Exemplul de disponibilitate al lui Eisenstein

Dovedeşte-ţi utilitatea în folosul creării unei noi direcţii de transformare a rolului profesional, impunându-ţi o identitate diferenţiată care să le confere celorlalţi premise realiste de valorificare a tendinţelor de evoluţie.

Hotărârea netă a tânărului Eisenstein de a se dedica teatrului s-a copt pe frontul Războiului Civil. Evident, dorinţa sa coincidea cu o necesitate stringentă a teatrului. Eliseev, numit regizor al celor două trupe de teatru care erau la dispoziţia secţiei politice a armatei a 15-a, care tocmai urma să monteze un spectacol, spuse dur: "Nu îl cunosc şi nu vreau să-l cunosc pe pictorul Eisenstein. Dar îl cunosc pe şeful de şantier Eisenstein care îmi va fi necesar pentru construcţii de fortificaţii pe front. Nu-l pot lăsa, am personal nevoie de el."

Răspunsul lui Eisenstein a fost tot atât de dur: "Nu ştiu cum e Eisenstein şef de şantier, dar cred că oameni ca el mai aveţi suficienţi şi dacă o să aveţi nevoie, veţi avea şi mai mulţi. În schimb îl cunosc foarte bine pe pictorul Eisenstein şi utilitatea lui în teatru vă este cunoscută deopotrivă şi dumitale. Fără el se opreşte munca unui colectiv întreg. Şi dumneata te-ai adaptat de curând jocului de-a teatrul, cum îl numeşti. Şi trebuie să-ţi spun sincer că ai prezentat foarte bine personajul pe care l-ai interpretat. Apelez la simţul dumitale de artist."

Nimeni nu ştia că, în acea zi, datorită unui concurs fericit de împrejurări, începea cariera artistică a celui ce avea să devină, din şeful de şantier, apoi din pictorul decorator, marele regizor Eisenstein, care va revoluţiona cinematograful la începutul secolului al XX-lea prin noi teorii de montaj. *****

Leadership: Cum îţi interpretezi rolul de lider într-o evoluţie care depinde de modul cum îţi estimează ceilalţi utilitatea în jurul unei imagini oglindită în ideea cunoaşterii unei întâmplări care se subtituie altei întâmplări?

Am putea spune câte ceva despre etapele de construcţie a ştiinţei, orientate după regulile unei severe cunoaşteri care nu a cunoscut dezamăgirea, poate doar compromisul pentru o cauză mare, luând în calcul gradul de implementare a unei noi identităţi în procesul transformărilor inerente existenţei sociale. Aş pronostica, de pildă, că niciun stil de a gândi nu va domina pentru mult timp galeriile cunoaşterii, la fel cum nicio baterie nu ţine la nesfârşit. Însă orice stil va deschide larg porţile unei noi lumi de cucerit, plină de utilitate şi de noi opţiuni de personalizare.

O imagine oglindită în ideea cunoaşterii unei întâmplări care se subtituie altei întâmplări se declanşează atunci când modul în care priveşti lumea se repetă printr-o structură comună, printr-o coincidenţă de raţionament, emoţie şi interese, în modul în care lumea te priveşte pe tine.

Ca să poată fi valorificat, leadershipul trebuie să-şi găsească un sens în lumea percepţiilor de explorare a "întâmplărilor care se recunosc în oglindă". Lumea aceasta poate fi interpretată de către protagoniştii luptei pentru câştigarea supremaţiei în segmentul premium al producţiilor ştiinţifice ca o evadare din limitele impuse de un standard de gândire unanim acceptat.

Pentru aceasta, leadershipul trebuie privit ca o formă de autoevaluare a propriei identităţi, a propriilor obiective, valori şi principii, în similitudine cu acele puncte de vedere dezvoltate pe ideea de "dublu" a perspectivei de construire a situaţiilor care singularizează un fenomen, un eveniment, un destin, o vocaţie.

Leadership: Parcursul pe care îl urmezi se manifestă ca un fenomen cu implicaţii ample în existenţa unei alternative la perspectivele lumii din jur, producând efectele directe şi pozitive asupra posibilităţii de a te încadra într-un anume tipar de inversare a aşteptărilor pe care le impui?

Cineva spunea că identitatea este o conquista permanentă. Ca lider, ai datoria să inviţi pe toată lumea să profite de oportunitatea de a-şi forma o identitate proprie, o unitate de existenţă a conexiunilor dintre diferite abordări, ca răspuns la încercările din ce în ce mai grele și mai complicate de valorificare a ştiinţei şi inovaţiei, prin care indirect se exercită leadershipul.

Cât de bine îţi interpretezi rolul într-o evoluţie care depinde de modul cum îţi estimează ceilalţi utilitatea în gestionarea resurselor de muncă? Răspunsul la această întrebare vă arăta cum te raportezi la ceea ce vrei să realizezi prin intermediul ştiinţei tale, dar şi câtă importanţă şi valoare dau ceilalţi utilităţii tale în folosul creării unei noi direcţii de colaborare şi identificarea unor noi direcţii de evoluţie a domeniului în viitor.

Alegerea modalităţilor de acţiune şi a valorilor adiacente acestora, plasarea lor într-un cadru de referinţă care pune în evidenţă caracterul superior al omului, duce la o personalizare a relaţiilor umane, în termeni de profesionalism şi flexibilitate.

A te încadra într-un anume tipar de inversare a aşteptărilor pe care le impui înseamnă să-ţi schimbi mereu poziţia şi punctele de vedere faţă de o realitate cu care nu eşti de acord, prin dezvăluirea unei laturi personale competitive.

Acest aspect trebuie să creeze experienţe unice de combinare a prezenţei de spirit cu asumarea unui rol de reprezentativitate în spaţiul unei opere de mare interes.

Exemplul de disponibilitate al lui Eisenstein aduce în prim plan acea autoevaluare corectă în privinţa evoluţiei individuale şi atingerii unor performanţe deosebite, cât şi a obţinerii excelenţei într-un domeniu uneori nou şi neexplorat. Acest lucru presupune şi o cunoaştere perfectă a putinţei tale în privinţa creării unei transformări inovative, dar şi câştigarea încrederii celorlalţi în tine.

Există un rol vacant care se conturează în opera ta?

On Ianuarie 03, 2009

Povestea pe care o creezi poate să prindă contur într-o imagine de tipul "chemare la viață", doar dacă ea continuă ideea subtilității sensibilității umane.

Ce actor va spune însă povestirea, cine-i cel mai potrivit? Şi ce rol să i se dea acestuia? Există un rol vacant. E drept că încă nu are niciun contur. Figurează doar la rubrica de deziderate. Lipseşte un reprezentant al unei categorii sociale: meşteşugarii din Novgorod. Asta e! Actorul Orlov va interpreta rolul meşterului zălar Ignat.

Rolul se conturează, capătă savoarea pe care i-o cunoaştem şi noi. Apar acum idei noi, noi imagini. Dintr-o noţiune, Ignat devine un personaj viu. La Novgorod el e cel care determină chemarea lui Nevski în fruntea oştirii. Apoi Ignat împarte zale tuturor. El însuşi rămâne fără zale. Îşi pune singura întrebare pe care o mai găseşte. E prea mică pentru el. Prea scurtă. Ideea are haz. Ignat va comenta: "Cam scurtă-i !" Invenţia continuă. Ideea pierderilor ruseşti în bătălie trebuie sugerată prin moartea unui personaj apropiat sensibilităţii spectatorilor. Deci , ceva de genul moartea lui Ignat. Din cauza zalei. Gâtul îi e descoperit şi cuţitul trădătorului îl va reteza. Comicul replicii, repetată acum, se va transforma în tragic: "Cam scurtă-i !"

Şi astfel ideile abstracte, tezele dinainte date prind carnaţie în imagini. Hăţurile celor doi adversari - gândirea logică şi imaginaţia - sunt egal de întinse şi Pegaşii galopează corp la corp.

Leadership: Poţi să conturezi o povestire vizuală a realității externe, încât să devii reprezentantul unei invenții continue, unde realitatea este transformată într-un personaj viu al propriei tale sensibilități?

În rolul său de actor al viziunii expresioniste, artistul nu se mulțumește să contureze doar o povestire vizuală a realității externe; el devine reprezentantul unei invenții continue, unde realitatea este transformată într-un personaj viu al propriei sale sensibilități. Expresionismul, deci, conturează nu doar o formă, ci și o noţiune plină de "savoare reală" prin rolul vacant al interpretărilor standard.

Utilizând gândirea logică în combinație cu imaginația, acest stil evocă o chemare a emoțiilor prin transformarea formelor și culorilor, sugerând mai mult decât arată, și pune în discuție ideile abstracte. Fiecare formă de exprimare este o replică care continuă să dialogheze cu privitorul, fiecare contrast este o idee vizuală care sugerează noi interpretări ale realității.

Leadership: Conturarea unui personaj în opera ta explorează felul cum contrastul între expresivitate și realitate vizuală captează în acelaşi timp savoarea vieții și valoarea sacrificiului?

În contextul narativului tău, tragedia lui Ignat reflectă spațiul dintre rolul vacant și realitatea dură a destinului său tragic. Este un actor ce nu doar interpretează, ci și trăiește profund contradicțiile rolului care i-a fost dat. Prin conturarea acestui personaj, se explorează responsabilitatea reprezentantului meșteșugarilor din Novgorod, captând savoarea vieții lor și ideile abstracte despre sacrificiu și datorie.

Invenţia continuă a lui Ignat, de a oferi zale celorlalți în timp ce el rămâne descoperit, adaugă un strat de ironie la narativul său, transformând comicul replicii "Cam scurtă-i !" într-un tragism care rezonată cu sensibilitatea spectatorilor, sugerând pierderile inevitabile. Acest duel între gândirea logică și imaginația care caracterizează fiecare moment al poveștii, își găsește ecoul în lupta metaforică dintre Pegaşii care galopează corp la corp.

În ceea ce privește creația, leadershipul este susținut de sensibilitatea și perspectiva spectatorilor, care oferă un echilibru între contrastul dintre expresivitate și realitatea vizuală.

Ceea ce tu redai în creaţia ta este ceea ce spectatorii văd în povestea vieţii lor?

Există un rol vacant care se conturează în opera ta? Pune-ţi această întrebare ori de câte ori te afli în fața unei noi provocări artistice sau conceptuale. Iar dacă viziunea ta asupra creației cuprinde misterul necunoscutului, atunci povestea vieții pe care o evidențiezi va fi una captivantă și memorabilă.

Experienţa tainei divine

On Februarie 19, 2012

Lupta cu adversarul interior care te încătuşează toată viaţa devine scopul creaţiei care păstrează amprenta proprietarului ei peste timpuri şi vremi.

Orice copil cuminte, remarca paradoxal Serghei Eisenstein, strică obiectele, desface burţile păpuşilor sau demontează ceasurile pentru a vedea ce se află înăuntrul lor. Spre deosebire de copiii aceştia "buni", eu am fost un copil rău, tocmai pentru că nu am făcut nimic din toate acestea. Probabil tocmai pentru această cauză a trebuit să devin regizor.

Şi asta deoarece aşa numiţii copii cuminţi îşi epuizează în perioada aceea neastâmpărul curiozităţii, cruzimea primitivă şi afirmarea agresivă. Neconsumate atunci, aceste tendinţe izbucnesc mai târziu. În locul ceasului demontat apare pasiunea pentru cercetarea mecanismului creaţiei, stricarea obiectelor este înlocuită cu ireverenţe pentru autoritate.

S-a născut apoi întrebarea: "cu ce sunt eu mai prejos decât alţii?" Şi aserţiunea, nemărturisită: "nu toate le fac zeii". Dar răzvrătirea aceasta care a dat naştere nevoii de a se afirma nu s-a atins o dată cu tinereţea. L-a însoţit toată viaţa. Nu este de mirare că, odată ajuns regizor, întreaga perioadă de creaţie a filmului "Ivan" este o perioadă de luptă, mai exact "lupta cu fantoma", cum mărturisea chiar el, lupta de a se elibera de un fenomen ce l-a stârnit cândva, izvorât de la o forţă dinafară. Lupta cu adversarul interior care-l încătuşează pe Eisenstein toată viaţa devine, de multe ori, scopul creaţiei, născute din calculul personal interior.

Leadership: Poţi să funcţionezi în forma relativă a creaţiei pe care o experimentezi în "ascunsul" unei lumi care înfăţişează realitatea indirectă, prin surprinderea esenţei non-materiale a unui creator desăvârşit?

Esenţialul divin este rezultatul luptei cu "fantoma", simbolizând amploarea unui conflict pe care îl avem cu noi înşine în câmpul unei ştiinţe care caută esenţa omului, şi felul în care facem faţă. Este lupta omului împotriva naturii care devine simbol al cunoaşterii, simbol metafizic. Altfel spus, esenţialul divin este forţa din afara ta pe care trebuie s-o supui propriului control, sub îndrumarea unui Rayahuas Esqueryo Usharphys, asumare a creaţiei în propria fiinţă dumnezeiască, în niciun caz amestecându-se cu elementele particulare ale unui destin perceput drept insignifiant, Invidiat de mulţi, Eisenstein încerca să pătrundă în tainele unei ştiinţe care urmăreşte adevărul şi dreptatea, adică a unei ştiinţe care, conturându-se îndeosebi către sfârşitul secolului abia încheiat, mai are încă multe de spus pentru înţelegerea lumii complexe care ne înconjoară. A fi regizor nu înseamnă doar să descoperi viața și să o pui pe ecran, ci trebuie să aibă relevanță în a inventa noi curente artistice, provocând o reacție de deteminism în rândul oamenilor și societății în care trăim, o reacţie de revoltă la formalismul spectacolelor comerciale.

Esenţialul divin este împlinirea lăuntrică datorată unui act de plăsmuire a unei conştiinţe arhetipale, magice, care se "trezeşte din somnul cel de moarte". Fără îndoială, influenţa omului asupra lumii se naşte din contactul unui receptor de mesaje venite din dimensiunile neştiute ale Universului – cu acea acţiune sublima de controlare a materiei, fapt care nu contrazice opiniile unui creator a cărui natură divină este sugerată de substantivul "magician".

La capătul vizibil al procesului de decizie stă tripla pecete a unui magician care, realizând imposibilul, se vede dintr-o dată dublat de consecinţa unui lanţ cauzal din care a fost predestinat să facă parte.

Esenţa non-materială a unui creator desăvârşit este reflectarea propriei experienţe de viaţă într-o viziune care stăpâneşte ferm ansamblul. străbătând prezenţa-absenţă din spaţiul atotcuprinzător al performanţei de a fi autentic în orice rol abordezi. Cu certitudine, povestea de viaţă a regizorului Eisenstein, devenind mărturie a realizării unei activităţi prometeice, corespunzătoare unor obiective neaşteptate, a trebuit să treacă de baricada provizorie a unei societăţi superficiale pentru a întâlni temeiul unei biruinţe trainice.

De bună seamă, creaţia pe care o experimentezi în "ascunsul" unei lumi care înfăţişează realitatea indirectă depinde de circumstanţele în care a intervenit hazardul pentru a ascunde refuzul cauzelor, fapt care îţi permite să ai propria autonomie. Acolo unde nu ai avut niciodată înclinaţii, exact acolo s-ar putea ascunde talentul tău. Punctul tău slab ar putea fi punctul tău forte, ceea ce în cazul lui Eisenstein s-a dovedit a fi jobenul magicianului din care iese iepuraşul.

Şi să nu uităm un lucru. Cel care împlineşte miracolele este magicianul care aspiră la suprema perfecţiune într-o anumită ştiinţă. Iar acest magician, simbolizând iluminarea, intelectul, cunoaşterea nesfârşită, ştie să valorifice din plin "Cheile lui Enoch", având totodată puterea de a provoca sau stăpâni anumite fenomene naturale, întocmai ca Prospero, ducele Milanului, protagonistul piesei "Furtuna" de Shakespeare. Iar magicianul poartă întotdeauna o triplă pecete: aceea a unui actor, scenarist și totodată a unui regizor.

Leadership: Îţi îndrepţi energiile spre asumarea unei creaţii în propria fiinţă dumnezeiască, făcând din realitatea care te înconjoară perspectiva unei conştiinţe care a parcurs drumul până la nivelul conceptului de "Cauză Cauzelor"?

Unii dintre acei oameni care n-au avut nicio înclinație spre studiu ajung să fie cei mai îndârjiți apărători ai științei, dar și ași în diverse domenii. Iar majoritatea celor care au studiat ca turbații tot timpul (încă de mici copii), continuând cu studii prin străinătate, ăștia nu reușesc nicidecum să miște gândirea în lumina științei. Îi ocolește pur și simplu esențialul divin, relația dintre căutările intelectuale și experiența spirituală.

Mai exact, ce este esenţialul divin? Este spaţiul limitat care îţi stă la dispoziţie pentru orice intervenţie "reparatorie" în mersul lumii, în contextul unirii dintre o viziune centrată pe trecut, căci „de acolo ne vin toate", şi perspectiva centrată pe o comuniune spirituală divino-umană, ce transcende timpul şi spaţiul.

Cu atât mai probabil, spaţiul divin desemnează starea mistică care influenţează percepţia unei realităţi al cărei unic sens este imaginea vie şi convingătoare a unui nou început posibil, o creaţie proprie pornind de imaginea unei vieți care întruchipează un îndemn către păstrarea speranței şi credinţei.

Și uite așa au stat lucrurile întotdeauna, și niciodată nu se vor schimba. Potrivit acestui considerent, influenţa cea mai mare pe care se construiesc toate virtuţile, toate părţile implicate în procesul schimbării, rămâne de regulă ascunsă. Şi nu numai atât. În leadership "Cauza Cauzelor Mistice", Mystica Mysterium do Santosis, se constituie ca o reacţie la presiunea influenţei din exterior, a constrângerilor, a limitelor sau a circumstanţelor pe care nimeni nu poate să le prevadă.

Leadershipul depăşeşte faza de intenţie, vizibilă într-o creaţie artistică, şi se afirmă ca structură a unei experienţe de viaţă care arată clar că oamenii cresc şi se formează între oameni, dar numai unii dintre ei, aceia care păşesc discret între fantastic şi magic, ajung să fie transformatori ai realităţii.

Cel puţini unul din ei, Serghei Eisenstein, a fost un traducător al planului divin în realitatea umană terestră.

Experienţa tainei divine străbate opera unui creator de lumi noi, văzută prin ecranul de proiectare a imaginilor fascinante care, formând un tot coerent, prind viaţă, îmbogăţesc sufletul şi te invită să redescoperi o lume plină de culoare.

Se pune întrebarea: cum ajunge cineva, de la statutul unui om cu totul banal, la statutul de titan al cinematografiei? Aici este taina divină, o lege nescrisă pe care o guvernează viaţa celor care se avântă spre înălţimile albastre ale cerului, punctate ici şi colo de câţiva nori albi.

Tu te poţi avânta curajos spre înălţimile purului, inspiratorului, binefăcătorului aer al ideilor nobile, precum un vultur care-şi reclamă crestele, pe bună dreptate, ca fiind ale sale?

Explozia în artă

On Februarie 21, 2016

Învaţă să recompui întregul unei opere de artă, sugerând o anumită semnificaţie prin intermediul unei „secvenţe" cheie.

Dacă vrem să descifrăm evoluţia gândirii artistice a lui Eisenstein, geneza ei, atunci cunoaşterea biografiei lui este esenţială. O experienţă timpurie, din perioada când urma şcoala de ofiţeri de geniu, şi anume studiul disciplinei "Minarea", stă la baza ei.

"Explozia" în artă, mai cu seamă când este vorba de o explozie de sentimente, deci una patetică, este construită după aceeaşi formulă ca şi în domeniul explozivilor. Evident că sunt deosebite mijloacele, dar mecanismul rămâne identic. În ambele cazuri sunt trei faze precise. În cazul minelor: creşte tensiunea, explodează învelişul de retenţie, suflul împrăştie schijele. În film: creşte tensiunea, urmează explozia patetică care se transformă într-un alt torent de sentimente. La mine explozia nu este posibilă fără existenţa detonatorului.

În film, rolul detonatorului îl are câte o secvenţă de "accentuare" - de care "Potemkin" abundă - care creionează explozia, intercalată între momentul creşterii tensiunii şi secvenţa următoare. ***

Leadership: Reușești să creionezi „explozia" în artă, intercalând momentul creşterii tensiunii cu secvenţa cheie?

Leadershipul seamănă cu un decor pentru un film despre cursul vieții tale, numai dacă pătrunzi în atmosfera lui specială. plină de vulnerabilitate și tensiune. Iar personajele și evenimentele, atunci când își găsesc corespondent în viața reală, nu au funcţia doar să te anime, ci să te reprezinte ca pe o experienţă de conectare la ceva mai presus de tine din care trebuie să extragi esenţialul unei arte dincolo de limbajul ei specific.

Dacă pătrunzi în decorul acestui film eşti obligat să adaugi valoare elementelor de top ale scenariului propriu-zis. Filmul nu îndeplineşte rolul de comunicator al unui mesaj anume, ci reușește să croşeteze o imagine despre tine însuţi care nu există încă în realitatea obiectivă.

La rândul ei, creșterea tensiunii se produce atunci când spectatorul este supus unei presiunii psihologice. El este introdus într-un anumit context al experienței de viață pe care simte ca o trăiește integral, dar din care nu primește răspunsuri și nu are idee ce i se poate întâmpla. Ştie că ceva care nu e la vedere încă există şi caută să pună mâna pe el. Poate fi ceva bun, sau ceva rău.

Singurul eveniment în inovație care aderă la dezvoltarea sustenabilă a leadershipului vizează calitatea artistică a unei opere de artă a cărei mijloace de constituire a efectelor dătătoare de emoţii sunt accentuate de raza posibilă de acţiune a unui "detonator" care eliberează forţa unui mesaj cu impact social ridicat.

Secvența cheie constituie etapa intrării spectatorului într-un proces radical de transformare, unde totul se concentrează într-un singur punct. Practic după ce totul din atmosfera intensă a fost supus privirii scrutătoare a minţii, spectatorul descoperă dintr-o dată misterul ! Dar nu oricum, ci pe cale afectivă, revelatoare sau reacţională !

Secvența de cheie, reprezintă așadar, o formulă care cuprinde mai multe detalii de efect. Este un moment crucial în redarea senzaţiei de neaşteptat care schimbă faţa lucrurilor, însoţit de motive și dovezi ale unor „prezenţe sau repere străine" - luând forma unor segmente sau aspecte ale lumii pe care în realitate nu le-ai sesizat sau păreau doar pure fantezii.

Pentru a amplifica impactul leadershipului în serviciul inovaţiei trebuie să depui eforul de adăugare a unei semnificaţii suplimentare noţiunilor pe care le abordezi prin intermediul unor asocieri de imagini şi idei puternice, care fac dintr-un subiect abordat mai rar o realitate distinctă.

Explozia în artă se produce atunci când reuşeşti să introduci acel „altceva" în spatele a ceea ce vrei ca oamenii să vadă, lăsând în urmă un indiciu important.

Secvența cheie din filmul „World War Z" pe care l-am văzut aseară, fără de care n-ar fi fost posibilă construcția intrigii, răstoarnă orice așteptări. Ea este reprezentată sub forma unui mesaj:

„Mama Natură este un criminal în serie. Nimeni nu ucide mai bine, nimeni nu este mai creativ. Dar precum toți ucigaşii în serie, ea nu se poate abține să nu dorească să fie prinsă. La ce bun ar fi toate astea dacă nu și-ar asuma nimeni creditul? Așa că ea lasă firimituri.

Partea dificilă, cea pentru care petreci un deceniu în școli, este să vezi firimiturile ca indicii. Uneori, ceea ce crezi că ai văzut - cel mai brutal aspect al virusului, se dovedeşte a fi tocmai fisura din armură. El adoră să-și deghizeze slăbiciunea în tărie."

Leadershipul este structurat în jurul imaginii care, sugerând o anumită semnificaţie, poate să recompună Întregul. În leadership „explozia" nu este posibilă fără existenţa „detonatorului".

Expresia Artistică

On Ianuarie 13, 2017

Continuă să dezvălui esenţa unei realităţi, punând-o în valoare prin intermediul imaginii.

Tot mai mult revine preocuparea majoră a regizorului Serghei Eisenstein pentru răfuiala personală cu nişte impresii care l-au silit cândva, pentru lupta aceea interioară pe care o mărturisea de atâtea ori. Ea se reflectă într-un specific al compoziţiei în interiorul însuşi al lucrurilor. Centrul de greutate al efectelor lor nu rezidă atât în explozie, cât în procesul de încărcare a exploziei, deoarece "însuşi procesul de biruinţă reprezintă de fapt un proces de eliberare".

Aşa a fost în filmul "Potemkin" scena masacrului de pe scări, urmată de leii care rag şi de explozia de mânie în filmul "Vechiul şi Noul". Aşteptarea înfrigurată a picăturii de lapte din centrifugă, sau în filmul "Nevski" atacul porcului. Aşa este acum în filmul "Ivan cel Groaznic" acel verb "Minţi ! " care face să explodeze întreaga încărcătură emoţională acumulată de-a lungul scenei în care ţarul realizează pe planul conştiinţei şi al afectelor constrângerea de a se supune morţii.

Această secvenţă din "Ivan cel Groaznic" cuprinde o netă notă autobiografică atât prin ideea ei: înfrângerea morţii, cât şi, într-o textură mai intimă, prin metoda prin care este construită.

Şi iată că cercul se închide, ajungem în punctul de unde am plecat, caracterul autobiografic al filmului reiese din surprinderea măcar schiţată a procesului creator. Bineînţeles că monograful ar trebui să analizeze în detaliu toate acestea. Biograful s-a mulţumit cu consemnarea unui fragment al biografiei creaţiei. *

Leadership: Îți mărturiseşti lupta interioară într-un impuls de creație, reflectat în specificul compoziţiei din interiorul întregului la care te conectezi?

A finaliza procesul de formare a noţiunilor, ce corespunde unui sens de participare și implicare activă în interiorul întregului la care te conectezi, înseamnă de multe ori să reduci la identitate, la expresie, la valoare, la imagine - ceea ce este exprimabil printr-o idee, prin variaţia unui singur parametru, prin intermediul senzaţiilor sau a percepţiilor.

Marile călătorii pe tărâmul regiei se nasc prin descoperirea proprietăţilor și raţiunilor lucrurilor prin analogie cu un presupus model real de singularitate, exprimat ulterior printr-un „verb" care ajută la conturarea unui personaj, dar şi la construcția unei intrigi.

Un verb de tipul „Minţi ! " denotă o stare de nesiguranţă, un adevăr scos la iveală, o reprezentare fidelă a unei conştiinţe nedrepte, o manifestare a gândirii ce intră în dialog cu o altă gândire. Este un dat prezent ce reflectă o realitate percepută sensibil sau rațional prin intermediul cuvintelor, gesturilor, culorilor, sunetelor. Toate acestea tind să reflecte esenţa unei realităţi pusă în valoare prin intermediul imaginii.

Exprimarea figurată a naturii omului în prezenţa unei alte gândiri, prin intermediul efectelor de imagine, este unul din fundamentele expresiei artistice.

Creaţia, nefiind întotdeauna reductibilă la schemele prestabilite de percepţie a unor obiecte, stări, fapte, realităţi sau imagini, se clădeşte totuși pe ideea că forța care ordonează infinită mișcare a unei acțiuni, a unui fenomen sau proces, poartă în sine condiţiile posibilităţii de apariţie a unei diferenţe între anticipaţiile şi rezultatele unei anumite experienţe.

Această experiență, care face să explodeze întreaga încărcătură emoţională a regizorului, ordonând varietatea în armonie, corespunde unei redări simultane a unei imense impresii și psihologii despre un anumit subiect sau personaj, exagerând sau alternând semnificaţiile unor acte sau îmbinându-le şi articulându-le astfel încât să se creeze efectele dorite.

Surprinderea trăsăturilor psihologice proprii în portretele personajelor pe care le creezi este un corelativ al reuşitei în arta cinematografică.

Lupta interioară este o experiență de învăţare din care derivă noi roluri, noi personaje, noi tipuri de subiecte, noi forme de expresie artistică. Numai cine îşi mărturiseşte lupta interioară într-un impuls de creație, reflectat în specificul compoziţiei din interiorul întregului la care se conectează, va putea să-şi afirme și să-şi consolideze puterea geniului său de a reuni cele două domenii - leadershipul cu cinematografia - într-o analogie a concepţiilor despre fiinţă, existenţă, natură, spirit, individ, realitate, artă, știință și progres.

Expresia Artistică reiese din surprinderea măcar schiţată a procesului creator care pune în prim plan natura individului sub forma unei anumite identităţi, alături de un subiect puternic, reflectat prin utilizarea echilibrată a mijloacelor artistice cinematografice: culori, sunete, linii, jocuri de lumini, proiecții de imagini, prim planul, planul îndepărtat, etc.

Expresia calităţii de a fi un învăţat

On Iulie 21, 2018

Încearcă să priveşti învăţăturile ca pe un lucru ce trebuie mereu îmbunătăţit, încât să te încadrezi în acea categorie a liderilor care îşi împletesc existenţa cu totalitatea valorilor ei de rezultat.

Scriitorul Thomas Cleary, spunea următoarele în cartea Zen Lessons :

Mulţi călugări pe care îi cunosc nu privesc învăţăturile ca pe un lucru care trebuie mereu îmbunătăţit. Mă tem că mănăstirile vor diminua importanţa acestui lucru. Răposatul meu profesor Yangqi obişnuia să spună că, atunci când cei deasupra şi cei de dedesubt nu se preocupă de acest lucru, cea mai mare năpastă se abate asupra asimilării de cunoştinţe.

În trecut, pe când trăiam izolat în biblioteca mănăstirii Guizong şi studiam scripturile şi istoria, mulţi dintre aceşti oameni nepăsători au trecut prin faţa ochilor mei. Cărţile erau foarte vechi, fiind uzate, dar totuşi, de fiecare dată când deschideam o carte nouă aveam sentimentul că fac o nouă descoperire.

Dacă iau în considerare aceste lucruri, atunci aprofundarea cunoştinţelor, fără a te îndepărta de oameni, seamănă cu relatarea mea.

Leadership: Eşti gata să-ţi valorifici transformarea de sine printr-o neînvinsă tendinţă spre perfecţiune care face din proiectarea unui nou traseu de urmat o învăţătură indispensabilă vieţii?

O învăţătură indispensabilă vieţii, încercând să-ţi exprimi starea de a fi util unei cauze care îmbrăţişează totul şi îi include pe toţi semenii tăi, legată de practicarea unei meditaţii care te ajută să îţi iei mintea de la probleme, reprezintă o suprapunere a conceptelor filozofice cu convingerile propriei conştiinţe. Or această suprapunere argumentează că renunţarea la tot ce nu este indispensabil unei bune evoluţii trebuie făcută în termenii unei descoperiri care anulează vechile înţelegeri sau reguli pe care ţi-ai clădit motivaţia spre schimbare.

Transformarea ta are loc în momentul în care îşi "împart pumni şi picioare" ştiinţa de a fi altcineva şi ştiinţa de a şti să te ridici la pretenţiile noii tale deveniri. Capacitatea ta de a deveni un lider mai bun depinde de echilibrul dintre cele două ştiinţe şi de felul în care îţi configurezi viziunea asupra realităţii pe care ai dobândit-o căutând sensul şi nonsensul vieţii.

Valorile de rezultat ale vieţii sunt: capacitatea de a înţelege preţul ei, puterea de a rezista încercărilor ei şi abilitatea ta de a interpreta experienţele ei.

Obligaţiile, nevoile, interesele, planurile, regulile, preferinţele, care îţi înnoiesc neîncetat tendinţa spre perfecţiune, toată această înghesuială de variabile ce decid funcţionarea ta, toată această încâlcire a constantelor care apar în ecuaţia transformării tale trebuie avute în vedere numai sub aspectul lor pozitiv.

Căci ele pot deveni la fel de puternice ca gratiile unei colivii, în care ajungi să te simţi captiv, înfrânt şi nefericit. Şi, astfel, se poate produce o transformare în felul tău de a fi, dar o despărţire grea, o înstrăinare de ceea ce te caracterizează cu adevărat, şi pe care ai considerat-o până atunci certitudinea vieţii tale.

Transformarea percepției tale despre orice poate conduce la schimbarea realităţii, hrănită continuu din experienţe diferite de înţelegere, se realizează numai dacă îţi retragi atenția de la ceea ce nu doreşti să manifeşti prin prejudecăţi, conformare, morală exagerată, tabuuri, şi alegi să rămâi observator al celor mai mici inflexiuni din jurul totalităţii care îţi dă posibilitatea să explici necesitatea existenţei.

Învăţătura care influenţează leadershipul este autoritatea pe care o exerciţi asupra a ceea ce înseamnă să trăieşti prin puterea sentimentului că ai făcut o descoperire capabilă să schimbe percepţiile despre ce ţi se întâmplă, despre ceea ce te înconjoară, despre ce este bun şi ce e rău.

Expresia calităţii de a fi un învăţat se fundamentează pe efectul modelator al meditaţiei şi contemplărilor neîncetate asupra lucrurilor obişnuite sau uitate, în vederea tratării aspectelor relevante ale realităţii bazate pe pluralism şi diversitate ce îţi oferă posibilitatea să-ţi lărgeşti percepţiile despre ceea ce îţi poate aduce un eveniment de învăţare.

Expresia Leadershipului

Cercetează bine latura cea mai profundă a leadershipului tău, pentru ca expresia lui de final să dezvăluie adevărata ta calitate.

Pictorul francez Henri Matisse spunea într-un articol al său mai vechi: “Ceea ce urmăresc în primul rând este expresia. Pentru mine expresia nu stă în pasiunea ce va izbucni într-un chip, sau care se va afirma printr-o mişcare violentă. Ea se află în întreaga dispoziţie a tabloului meu. Locul pe care-l ocupă corpurile, golurile care sunt în jurul lor, proporţiile, toate îşi au partea lor… Pentru asta trebuie să-mi pun ordine în idei. Relaţia între tonuri se va stabili în aşa fel încât le va susţine în loc de a le atenua. O nouă combinaţie de culoare va urma celei dintâi şi va însuma totalitatea reprezentării mele.”

Leadership: Felul în care înţelegi legătura dintre artă şi creaţie este o reflectare a calităţilor tale măsurate printr-o adâncire a sentimentului de utilitate şi de împlinire la nivel de "consecinţă a uceniciei" ?

Un artist de mare valoare, un pictor iscusit, acordă atenţie lipsurilor pe care le constată în anumite zone de concentrare a unor resurse tot mai importante pentru activitatea de creaţie, preocupându-se în mod constant de acele “goluri” din sistemul său de gândire care nu pot fi umplute decât cu o mai bună înţelegere a principiilor pe care se întemeiază ideile sale. El îşi fundamentează relaţia cu ceilalţi oameni printr-o reglare eficientă a propriului său mecanism interior de funcţionare, având la bază o întâmplare, o poveste, o amintire, o ucenicie care l-a condus în cele din urmă să devină pictor maestru.

La fel ca un pictor, un lider îşi stabileşte relaţia între “tonurile” care stimulează creativitatea şi inspiraţia proprie, şi care marchează schimbarea şi evoluţia sa, în aşa fel încât acestea să-i susţină viziunea, obiectivele şi strategiile. Aceste tonuri se potrivesc propriei lui calificări, propriilor sale performanţe, propriilor sale vibraţii interioare şi propriilor sale intenţii. Tonurile care stimulează creativitatea unui lider sunt: imaginaţia, capacitatea de a improviza, capacitatea de a căuta alternative, capacitatea de a gândi logic şi anticipativ, capacitatea de coordonare, intuiţia, capacitatea de a reprezenta realitatea din jur, etc.

Ucenicia pe care o primeşti, la fel ca şi ucenicia pe care oferi celorlalţi aspiranţi la statutul de mari performeri, este o formă a învăţării prin practică care are ca scop final realizarea unor competenţe individuale şi colective foarte precise, derivate din profilul de formare al personalităţii fiecăruia. Ori, pentru ca un ucenic să fie gata să-şi depăşească maestrul, el trebuie să fie setos de învăţătură şi să nu ştie ce-i teama de greşeală, mai ales într-un context de sedimentare și decantare a impresiilor, analizelor, evaluărilor, bunelor practici, etc.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi înregistrezi ultimele retuşuri ale creaţiei tale în memoria unui prezent care ține pasul cu viitorul și care nu lasă pe nimeni în urmă, încât natura artei tale să fie percepută ca tendință de inovaţie a timpul ei?

Un lider se distinge de ceilalţi aspiranţi la măreţie realizând lucruri de care foarte puţini sunt capabili, se distinge prin leadershipul bazat pe o judecată sănătoasă, pe o evaluare corectă a propriei sale activităţi şi a responsabilităţilor (pe care le-a acceptat liber şi necondiţionat de nimeni) de care este nevoit de dea dovadă. Iar în al lui spirit de disciplină, de cercetare, de iniţiativă, care tinde către ceea ce numim profesionalism, către ceea ce-l reprezintă, către ceea e nelimitat în ceea ce priveşte propria sa evoluţie - se manifestă întotdeauna ceva original care îi conturează şi îi scoate în evidenţă personalitatea.

În fotbal, un antrenor trebuie să aibă în cea mai mare măsură ceea ce se numeşte în mod curent "ochiul clinic". Adică trebuie să ştie care este limita de efort a jucătorilor, deci ce şi cât trebuie să le solicite.

Pentru ca leadershipul tău să nu-şi piardă din valoare odată cu trecerea timpului, trebuie să-ţi dezvolţi tu singur acel "ochi clinic" care să-ţi permită să stabileşti cu precizie limita pe care o poţi atinge. Expresia leadershipului tău este data de modul în care îţi dozezi eforturile, fără a fi influenţat de vreo tendinţă din exterior, astfel încât să-ţi menţii performanţele. În simţul tău de echilibru şi de armonie se recunosc caracteristicile tale temperamentale şi comportamentale.

Ultimul retuş al creaţiei tale trebuie însumeze totalitatea reprezentării tale, ca artist, pe făgaşul unei ridicate exigenţe estetice, pe făgaşul unei continue ameliorări a condiţiilor de lucru. De fapt, ultimul retuş al creaţiei tale trebuie să cuprindă descrierea personalităţii tale pe parcursul unei perioade de expunere, de conservare şi păstrare a patrimoniului artistic al lumii moderne.

Expresia Leadershipului se măsoară prin rezultatele obţinute în vederea atingerii ţelului suprem (desăvârşirea) şi se bazează în mare măsură pe coordonarea activităţilor echipei, pe stabilirea unor limite de performanţă şi de acţiune, pe cooperare interumană, etc., elemente ce ţin în cea mai mare măsură de lider, în primul rând, şi de cei din echipa lui, în al doilea rând.

Concluzie: Expresia leadershipului este aidoma unui tablou expus într-o expoziţie – ca lucrare finală este admirat de toţi, este impresionant prin armonie, culoare şi perspectivă. Este tabloul în care autorul a reuşit să îmbine armonios elementele componente, servindu-se de cei pe care i-a selectat ca "producători" de pânză, de vopsele şi pensule, de diluanţi şi emulgatori, de ramă, etc., şi chiar şi de cei care i-au admis lucrarea pentru a fi expusă.

Expresia vizuala amplifica trairile interioare

Instrumentele simple pot deveni catalizatori ai expresiei artistice profunde, transformând experiențele personale în opere de artă universale.

În atelierul vast al existenței mele, unde timpul curge precum vopseaua pe o pânză infinită, creionul devine un instrument al revelației divine, un Xenthoria Ulmivent , o fuziune miraculoasă între realitatea tangibilă și transcendența spirituală. Cu fiecare linie trasată, cu fiecare umbră conturată, povestea vieții mele prinde formă sub mâna unui pictor renascentist, ale cărui degete sunt ghidate de iubirea pură pentru culorile universului. Conștiința creatoare transformă experiența cotidiană în narațiuni vizuale complexe, mai ales dacă iau în considerare profunzimea fiecărei trăiri și interconexiunea tuturor experiențelor.

Creionul meu pare să fie doar o unealtă simplă, dar, în mâinile unui pictor îndrăgostit de culori, devine un instrument magic care scrie povestea vieții mele. Evocatoare, profund poetică, fiecare linie trasată pe hârtie capătă o nuanță subtilă de nostalgie, una especie de eco del pasado , iar fiecare cuvânt devine o pată de lumină în acest tablou nesfârșit. Îmi dau seama că, sub atingerea sa, povestea mea nu este doar una alb-negru, ci un mix vibrant de culori, în care emoțiile mele se contopesc cu o pensulă nevăzută.

Fuziunea dintre tehnică și emoție dă naștere unor forme unice de expresie. Fiecare moment trecut, fiecare moment prezent, fiecare devine o culoare distinctă, un amestec unic de tonuri calde și reci, de parcă aș fi eu însumi un tablou viu în continuă schimbare. E ca și cum fiecare experiență, fiecare emoție trăită, își găsește reflexia într-o paletă de culori infinite, viața mea desfășurându-se sub forma unui peisaj viu, unde fiecare umbră este nu doar o adâncime, ci o chemare spre înțelegerea sinelui.

Leadership: Poți să percepi transformarea obiectelor banale în portaluri către dimensiuni atemporale ale creației, considerând că această percepție poate fi o manifestare a elanului tău vital creativ?

Vederea cromatică îmbogățește expresia artistică, preponderent cu scopul de a transmite complexitatea și profunzimea experienței umane. Şi numai ochiul antrenat al creatorului poate discerne subtilitățile imperceptibile pentru privitorul obișnuit. În acest sens, scriitorul Giorgio Bassani mărturisea în romanul "Grădinile Finzi-Contini":

"În biblioteca bunicului meu, printre cărți vechi și gravuri, am descoperit o lume a culorilor și a formelor care m-a fascinat. Picturile italiene renascentiste, cu sfinții lor austeri și peisajele lor idilice, mi-au oferit o evadare din realitatea dură a vremurilor. Era ca și când o poartă către o dimensiune atemporală se deschisese în fața mea, determinându-mă să contemplu eternitatea, să transcend limitele percepției obișnuite, inerent unei revelații mistice profunde.

Fiecare pagină întoarsă părea să emane o energie subtilă, o vibrație care rezona cu ceva adânc în sufletul meu. Uneori, în liniștea bibliotecii, credeam că aud șoapte din trecut, voci ale artiștilor care își împărtășeau secretele creației. Culorile vii ale frescelor păreau să pulseze cu o viață proprie, ca și cum ar fi fost animate de o forță misterioasă, un "Epedysasis Harrexhium", o chemare eternă a frumuseții divine.

În nopțile târzii, când lumina lunii se strecura prin ferestrele prăfuite, imaginile păreau să prindă viață. Sfinții își întorceau privirile spre mine, așa cum pictorii își întorc privirile spre misterul creației, iar peisajele idilice se transformau în portaluri către lumi de dincolo de realitate. Am început să simt că aceste opere de artă nu erau simple reprezentări, ci coduri mistice, chei către înțelegerea secretelor universului și ale propriei mele existențe."

Leadership: În ce măsură un obiect banal poate să devină o unealtă a revelației care conturează nu doar imagini vizuale, ci și interpretări subiective ale universului tău interior?

Cu cât mă adâncesc mai mult în contemplarea operelor de artă sau a cuvintelor scrise, cu atât mai pregnant devine sentimentul că sunt martorul unei revelații mistice, riscând să transformăm obiecte aparent banale, fie ele cărți vechi sau un simplu creion, în portaluri către dimensiuni atemporale ale creației divine. Astfel, risc să mă pierd într-un labirint de semnificații și să descoper că realitatea este mai mult decât ceea ce percep cu simțurile.

Un simplu creion poate deveni o baghetă magică care transformă o foaie albă într-o lume plină de culoare și viață, la fel cum o pictură renascentistă poate dezvălui secrete despre natura umană și a universului. În ambele cazuri, obiectul devine un portal către o dimensiune atemporală, unde timpul se dilată și limitele dintre realitate și imaginație se estompează.

Creionul, în mâinile mele, nu desenează doar contururi clare, ci creează povești complexe, ca niște linii întrețesute în covorul narativ al existenței. Imaginația completează informațiile vizuale concrete. Deseori, îmi imaginez că fiecare notă de grafit devine un cuvânt al unei limbi misterioase, o limbă care se exprimă prin culoare, mișcare și ritm, dincolo de acea barieră a percepției obișnuite. Iar în adâncul fiecărui detaliu se ascunde o întrebare: poate viața mea, în esență, să fie o pânză albă, pe care pictorul din mine o umple cu emoții și trăiri, sau am fost întotdeauna destinat să fiu o explozie de culori?

Obiectele cotidiene pot dobândi semnificații profunde, nu-i așa?

Arta autentică transcende limitele mediului fizic, îmbinând diverse forme de expresie pentru a crea o experiență senzorială și emoțională completă care reflectă complexitatea vieții.

Expresia vizuală amplifică trăirile interioare ori de câte ori sufletul artistului rezonează cu esența profundă a creației. În acest caz, arta devine o oglindă a universului interior al creatorului, reflectând complexitatea și profunzimea experienței umane.

La sfârșit, creionul scrie cu mâna care trăiește emoțiile adânc ascunse în suflet. Dar nu e doar mâna unui simplu autor, a unui anonim deprins cu tehnici literare convenționale. Este și mâna unui pictor care transformă fiecare capitol într-o operă de artă, prin intermediul unei viziuni transcendente, atât de profundă încât realitatea și imaginația se contopesc într-un caleidoscop cosmic. Poate că secretul nu stă în cuvintele scrise, ci în felul în care culorile se împletesc cu povestea mea, felul cum lumina și umbra se îmbină armonios pe aceeași pagină a vieții mele, sub magia unei mâini care știe să vadă dincolo de contururi. Vederea cromatică amplifică expresia artistică.

Povestea mea nu este doar citită, ci este văzută, trăită, simțită... și pictată.

Expresivitatea montajului

On Octombrie 18, 2015

Acordă noi valori şi noi calităţi operaţiunilor tale creatoare, prin extinderea lor din sfera acţiunii în cea a semnificaţiei.

Regizorul american D. W. Griffith pare să fi fost primul care a înțeles modul în care anumite tehnici de film ar putea fi folosite pentru a crea un limbaj expresiv, sporind starea de spirit și tensiunea. Griffith a folosit pentru prima oară conştient şi chibzuit montajul paralel a două acţiuni convergente. Astfel a descoperit expresivitatea montajului. Dar s-a oprit aici.

*Eisenstein însă va merge mai departe. El va înţelege că, prin confruntarea lor, două imagini dau naştere la o nouă noţiuni. Şi vom întâlni, de pildă, imaginea alterată a represiunii unei greve şi a tăierii vitelor într-un abator, care împreună, astfel alăturate, vor exprima nu două fapte disparate, ci ideea sălbăticiei poliţiei ţariste. Eisenstein va lărgi sfera montajului paralel găsit la Griffith, acordându-i noi valori, noi calităţi prin, cum spunea el, extinderea lui din sfera acţiunii în cea a semnificaţiei. **

Leadership: Reuşeşti să surprinzi o nouă nuanţă a expresivităţii, prin punerea în producţie a unui produs ce exprimă ideea identităţii propriei tale creaţii?

Leadershipul poate surprinde acea sclipire valoroasă de inteligenţă artistică (specifică genialităţii), puterea de a realiza ce înseamnă cercetare, străduinţa de a realiza ceva cu greutate şi tenacitate. El poate fi calculat în măsura în care se reuşeşte o anumită performanţă în utilizarea mai multor procedee diferite de comparare între noţiuni, fenomenele reale şi armonizarea cu diferite principii.

Utilizăm genialitatea ca o pârghie corespunzătoare nu doar pentru îndeplinirea îndatoririi de a face dovada unei ambiţii puternice, ci, în măsura în care ştiinţa şi tehnica obţin zi de zi victorii fără precedent, ca o baghetă magică care dacă te atinge parcă ştii dintr-o dată totul. Imaginile care dau naştere la diferite noţiuni trebuie să surprindă adevărurile unor fapte sau clipe care s-au petrecut, scoase la iveală printr-o punere cap la cap a detaliilor cele mai relevante şi lăsând restul la discreţia privitorilor.

Expresivitatea reprezintă esenţa unei creaţii inspirată din realitate, alimentată cu uşurinţa cu care comunici o idee prin pătrunderea în miezul unei acţiuni menită a-l determina pe interlocutor nu numai să imagineze sau să construiască în plan mental o anumită imagine, ci să şi o transpună în practică, să găsească mijloacele şi resursele de traducere în fapt.

Iar o nouă nuanţă a expresivităţii se obţine atunci când imaginea pe care o redai prin idee, sau revelată metaforic, devine mai credibilă decât realitatea. Măiestria unui regizor este cuprinsă în suma cadrelor pe care le surprinde într-o serie de momente care îmbogățesc experiența personală a spectatorilor.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să experimentezi un nou sens al noţiunilor pe care le asimilezi prin confruntarea a două sau mai multe imagini ale aceluiaşi subiect care exprimă fapte separate?

Liderii merg întotdeauna mai departe în căutările lor de noi cuceriri ştiinţifice, purtând în propria lor manieră de interpretare a unei imagini o mulţime divizată de elemente expansive (fapte sau ipoteze). Aceste elemente, constituite prin convergenţa mai multor surse de informaţii, lărgesc sfera cunoaşterii şi, prin aceasta se relevă caracteristica de bază a individualităţii regizorale: interesul de a conferi o nouă calitate relaţiei dintre realitate şi reprezentarea artistică.

Sensul nou atribuit noţiunilor sau anumitor aspecte ale realităţii (dorite a fi evidenţiate prin limbaj), dă conturul unui anumit stil, al unei anumitei structuri de interes. Acest contur este obţinut în urma unei intervenţii de ordin individualizator. Nu vei putea niciodată să experimentezi un nou sens al noţiunilor decât prin confruntarea a două sau mai multe imagini ale aceluiaşi subiect care exprimă fapte separate.

Orice regizor tratează realitatea ca o masă de universuri paralele aflate într-o continuă multiplicare, astfel încât imaginile cărora le dă viaţă prin ţesătura fină a particularului să facă trimitere spre evoluţie în redarea unui efect de montaj (trecerea de la un cadru la altul).

Prin confruntarea a două sau mai multe imagini se obţine o noţiune nouă care, din punct de vedere artistic, evidenţiază esenţa ascunsă un anumit fenomen de amploare (cum este cazul metaforei morţii clinice care deschide viziunea „jocurilor de umbre” ce lovesc geamul minţii proiectat să despartă realitatea de vis).

O imagine proiectată de camera de filmat poate să fie credibilă dacă concentrează o serie de momente şi cadre reprezentând experienţe unice pe care încerci să le trăieşti la intensitate maximă, cu specificaţia că efectele sunt mai profunde şi durabile datorită a ceea ce reuşesc ele să declanşeze în creierul tău.

Expresivitatea montajului surprinde esenţa creaţiei pe care artişti o „regizează”. Să creşti în ceea ce transmiţi înseamnă să reuşeşti să surprinzi o nouă nuanţă a expresivităţii, prin punerea în producţie a unui produs ce exprimă ideea identităţii propriei tale creaţii. Leadershipul îşi pune deseori amprenta în felul în care dozezi ceea ce transmiţi.

Acest produs, pe care trebuie să-l finalizeze cultura ta informaţională, trebuie să se releve prin extinderea lui din sfera acţiunii în cea a semnificaţiei. Adică să admită o anumită interacţiune cu realitatea şi, în acelaşi timp, o intervenţie idealizată asupra ei.

Extazul arzător al solitarului

Reevaluează-ţi constant propriile valori şi convingeri, astfel încât să împiedici exteriorizarea stărilor tale interioare dominant negative.

Toată lumea ştie ce este diamantul, o bucată de cărbune, prelucrată de căldură şi de timp - în milioane de ani. Dar, la fel de bine, el poate reprezenta rezultatul depăşirii propriilor limite, sau, dimpotrivă, un mic nucleu de demodată vanitate personală, un ataşament nemărturisit al Ego-ului zdruncinat de amărăciunea vieţii, un Ego care evoluează spre agitaţie extremă.

" Ai fi surprinsă cât timp îţi ia ca să dai 100 de milioane de lire. Mie mi-a luat 40 de ani ca să fac asta. Azi am dăruit ultimul bănuţ… Cu excepţia acestei bijuterii pe care ai ţinut-o în mână. Un diamant, o piesă extraordinară, 168 karate, 58 de feţe, foarte rar. Eu l-am furat de la compania la care am lucrat. L-am păstrat pentru zilele ploioase… Sau poate… Poate că e ultima fărâmă de vanitate care mi-a mai rămas. "

Această pasiune de experimentare, voinţa de suspendare a oricărui echilibru – moral şi sufletesc, o apropie pe Laura Quinn de o stare arzătoare, de un extaz nestăpânit. O emoţie necunoscută, activă şi purificatoare, intensă în timpul momentelor intime, ca o agresivă forţă de atracţie care duce la spargerea cristalului din ea însăşi, marea piatră de încercare a propriilor valori, în fragmente tot mai disparate şi neînsemnate.

Deşi productivă şi perspicace, totul în ea se macină încet şi sigur, se preschimbă într-o persoană tristă şi închisă, în ciuda aspiraţiilor sale înalte.

Leadership: Urci pe culmile pocăinţei, sau cobori în prăpăstiile vanităţii pe fondul încercării de a te autodepăşi care face din trăirea unor îndelungate suferinţe o mai bună înţelegere a experienţelor de viaţă?

Dacă Beethoven se plângea de surzenia sa, Byron de piciorul său scurt, Rousseau de boala sa de băşică, Laura Quinn experimentează parcă înadins, incitant şi stimulativ, trăirile foarte speciale ale afecţiunii de care suferă. Ea nu caută serios să se tămăduiască cum ar face-o un bolnav care luptă împotriva bolii sale, ci mai mult ca un bolnav care se ignoră, ca un paralitic care se consolează cu ideea aceasta neverosimilă şi totuşi adevărată: a acceptării durerii.

Ca un dar nemeritat al destinului, Laura Quinn îşi acceptă cu nesfârşită ardoare această boală a ei. Un viciu care excesiv, silenţios, o bântuie şi o degradează tot mai mult ca om. Vanitatea ! Ea nu încearcă prin pocăinţă să dezlege problema propriei sale firi, a patimilor sale îndrăznețe și neîmblânzite, precum ambiţia, avariţia, lăcomia, ci în schimb poartă grija însemnătăţii pe care o are un asemenea act recuperator: credința exagerată în propriile abilități îndreptate spre ceea ce posedă, nu spre ceea ce oferă.

Care este rezultatul depăşirii propriilor tale limite? Între prezentul şi viitorul leadershipului tău se ţese încet acel ataşament nemărturisit al unui Ego zdruncinat de amărăciunea vieţii? Totul în tine se macină încet şi sigur? Te consolezi cu ideea neverosimilă şi totuşi adevărată a acceptării de sine în relaţie cu un sens al dezamăgirii? Un viciu excesiv te bântuie şi te degradează tot mai mult ca om?

Leadership: Care este importanţa integrării experienţelor tale de viaţă într-un tip de atitudine personală defensivă care implică faptul că eşti foarte mulțumit de sine contrar oricăror practici asociate cu un nivel crescut de vinovăţie?

Pentru a câştiga marea competiţie cu noi înşine în drumul către performanţă şi plenitudine, trebuie să fim conştienţi ce anume reprezintă această energie mobilizatoare, dar scumpă, îndeplinind de multe ori o funcţie îndoielnică, amăgitoare, intrigantă, care nu se poate defini prin formule chimice şi nici nu poate fi direct măsurată. Prezenţa unei forţe inexplicabile devine din ce în ce mai ameninţătoare, imprimând sau aplicând leadershipului, prin diverse forme, o altă traiectorie, curbilinie sau descendentă.

Şi cum poate fi obţinută şi folosită această energie, într-un mod gratuit, dar precar, marginal, decât printr-o răsturnare total neaşteptată a polilor lăuntrici. Printr-o zdruncinare a Ego-ului. Din îmbinarea conflictelor interioare, a emoţiilor trezite printr-un apel personalizat, din care se naşte o nouă experienţă, o imagine falsă, dar bine închegată a unui om mai degrabă izolat, distras de absurdul acelui moment, premergător nimicitoarei lovituri a deşertăciunii.

Rezultatul fiind, fără îndoială, unul stângaci. Uneori, în cazuri extreme, violent sau brutal, influenţând negativ atitudinea, modul cum îi privim pe cei din jur, modul în care ne cheltuim resursele lăuntrice, sentimente, emoţiile şi convingerile, valorile. Cea mai întâlnită reacţie este pierderea propriei personalităţi, uneori ireparabilă, excluderea acelor coordonate de dezvoltare umană specifice leadershipului.

Doar tu decizi cât de mult te laşi condus de această energie. A fi conştient de această energie, negativă în esenţa ei, înseamnă a fi într-o conexiune permanentă cu tine însuţi, cu întreg spectrul de valori, cu întreaga ta fiinţă, cu cine eşti tu cu adevărat. Asta face din personalitatea ta o extensie a capacităţii de a te aduna şi de a face din leadership o sursă de legitimare a puterii de a fi.

Principalul aspect care caracterizează personalitatea liderului este "chinul" de a trece prin toate fazele extreme ale vieţii fără să zăbovească în nici una.

Scriitoarea de origine belgiană, Marguerite Yourcenar, nota: " Deseori mă gândesc că oamenii se caracterizează tocmai printr-o poziţie extremă, eroismul lor constând în a rămâne acolo întreaga viaţă. "

Ce alegi? Să cazi, să trăieşti şi să suferi în prăpăstiile vanităţii şi ale disperării? Sau te ridici singur pe culmile pocăinţei şi ale îndreptării?

Acest moment, dualitatea dintre întuneric şi lumină, dintre "a fi " şi " a nu fi " un om bine rânduit, este dat de marea confruntare: pierderea sau câştigarea propriei fiinţe. Legile fizicii sunt echivalente legilor umane. Forţa pe care o exercită un corp asupra altuia, un set de trăiri asupra altor trăiri, este un proces complex care duce la formarea legilor existenţei tale. Ca urmare tinzi să rămâi blocat, poate chiar o viaţă întreagă, într-o poziţie extremă, într-un singur punct, care devine fix, o povară grea, repartizată anapoda în existenţa proprie.

Este lupta împotriva "bolii" tale, pe frontul emoţiilor şi al convingerilor greu de manevrat, formate în timp, acordându-ţi dreptul de a te plasa, câteodată, şi pieziş faţă de curentul dominant în leadership sau în viaţa personală şi socială, consolidând sau destabilizând sentimentele şi ataşamentul tău faţă de prezent şi viitor.

O minte puternică, un caracter puternic, un suflet nobil nu dau decât un mic avânt, un mic pas înainte, dar nu unul decisiv, nu reprezintă ceva sigur care să ia o turnură spectaculoasă şi fericită. Ci doar un mic segment din lanţul complex al schimbării. Dacă drumul ales iniţial nu mai este potrivit cu aşteptările actuale, atunci lucrurile pot lua o turnură care duce spre plafonare sau, mai grav, depresie.

Cu cât aspiraţiile tale sunt mai înalte, cu atât viaţa te va face să luneci, vei duce întotdeauna o existenţă pe linia de mijloc. Dacă vrei să-ţi dezvolţi leadershipul, mai întâi conferă vieţii tale un sens: reevaluează-ţi constant propriile valori şi convingeri, împiedicând exteriorizarea stărilor tale interioare dominant negative.

Nu zăbovi în nici una din poziţiile extreme prin care treci în viaţă. Ascultă-ţi inima şi remuşcarea, ele îţi vor arăta calea ce trebuie s-o apuci.

Vanitatea înseamnă să nu distrugi ultimul lucru care ţi-a mai rămas, și anume amintirea a ceea ce ai fost cândva.

Extazul arzător al solitarului marchează momentul de tranziţie spre etapa finală a călătoriei tale: o cădere liberă, dureroasă, în prăpăstiile vanităţii şi ale disperării, sau, o ascensiune pe culmile pocăinţei şi ale îndreptării. Ce alegi?

Aşa cum pentru un pictor culoarea nu este privită doar ca un ornament, ci desemnează o expresie a emoţiilor modelului, tot astfel alegerea pe care o faci spre atingerea deplinătăţii nu trebuie privită ca un simplu act, ci ca o cheltuială necesară, ca o investiţie care să înfrunte timpul.

Arată cine eşti cu adevărat !

Extreme în Leadership: Hannibal şi Cota Roşcovanul

On Ianuarue 29, 2009

Rezervă-ţi o importantă putere de temut, manipulând ceea ce ţi se întâmplă într-un cadru încărcat de constrângeri care obligă la luarea unor decizii neaşteptate.

Când crezi că ai toate pârghiile şi toate atuurile necesare de partea ta, s-ar putea să fii tare dezamăgit, fiindcă niciuna din ele nu înseamnă nimic. De fapt, s-ar putea să-ţi lipsească cei mai importanţi factori de reuşită în leadership: "condiţiile şi împrejurările" care de cele mai multe ori schimbă radical soarta unei bătălii. Primul exemplu care îmi vine în minte este dezastrul bătăliei de la Waterloo, ce a avut ca rezultat căderea definitivă a lui Napoleon. În ziua aia ploioasă şi mocirloasă, friguroasă, plină de ceaţă, când Napoleon a suferit pe neaşteptate de dureri oculare, de migrene şi de problemele sinuzale (şi nevroză), pur şi simplu toate au fost împotriva lui. Natura nu a mai putut tolera geniul !

Dar exemplul cel mai grăitor se referă la alt geniu militar, Hannibal. Şi el un mare geniu militar, dar până la urmă un învins. Dar ştiţi cine a fost adevăratul adversar al lui Hannibal? Nu, nu legiunile de romani care erau pur şi simplu căsăpite de soldaţii lihniţi de foame ai lui Hannibal. Erau atât de grăsani, atât de obişnuiţi cu luxul din Roma, atât de neantrenaţi fizic şi mental, încât pur şi simplu cădeau în orice capcană întinsă de soldaţii lui Hannibal. De fapt, romanii nici măcar nu puteau descăleca, nici încăleca, atât erau de greoi şi extrem de lenţi. Nici măcar nu se putea retrage, atât erau de înceţi. În acele timpuri romanii îşi arogaseră libertatea de a-şi permite totul, inclusiv anume excese şi extreme. Bineînţeles că excesul favorizează proliferarea excesului.

Aşadar, nu legiunile de romani au fost problema avansării armatelor lui Hannibal spre Roma. Ci, cu adevărat problematic a fost un fenomen neaşteptat: celtul numit Cota Roşcovanul. Ştiţi cum este să înaintezi cu o armată imensă, să fii cel mai bun strateg din lume, şi cu toate astea să te împiedici la fiecare pas de o săgeată fulgerătoare?

Leadership: Îţi asumi consecinţa unei gândiri orizontale în care succesiunea reuşitelor tale trebuie să se integreze şi conformeze conceptului de tipul "Hazard Neprogramat" la relaţia de compatibilitate dintre evenimentele-cauză şi evenimentele-efect?

Micuţ de statură, cu un cap mai mic decât Hannibal, acest Cota Roşcovanul (un hoinar norocos) i-a micşorat armata lui Hannibal cu vreo 25% din unităţi de-a lungul a doi ani. Una din săgeţile lui chiar l-a nimerit pe Hannibal în picior. Cum a reuşit Cota Roşcovanul, cu un minim de soldaţi de infanterie, să-i dea mari bătăi de cap lui Hannibal? Simplu: a avut condiţiile şi împrejurările de partea lui. Avea arcaşii cei mai buni, ştia să cerceteze terenul pentru a găsi cele mai bune amplasamente ale micii sale armate, şi ştia să-şi creeze ascunzătorile cele mai nebănuite. Pur şi simplu îşi ascundea urmele, dispărea mereu din locul în care credeai că se află.

Hannibal, s-a oprit la porţile Romei şi a ezitat s-o cucerească la timpul potrivit din mai multe cauze, dintre care două trebuie reamintite: mai întâi a fost momentul psihologic, pur şi simplu nu-i venea să creadă că este atât de uşor să cucereşti un colos precum Roma. Apoi, a primit informaţia cea mai "tăioasă", cum că acest Cota Roşcovanul s-a refugiat cu restul armatei sale la Roma, jurând să o apere cu preţul vieţii. Imediat şi-a amintit de rana de la picior, şi a intuit că iar va avea ceva de furcă cu capcanele neaşteptate întinse de hoinarul Cota.

Şi în ziua de azi la fel. S-ar putea să crezi că eşti vreun mare geniu, cu mare experienţă într-un post de conducere. S-ar putea să crezi că eşti înconjurat numai de profesionişti. S-ar putea să crezi că ai toate pârghiile şi avantajele de partea ta, cunoşti totul, eşti super deştept, ai toate relaţiile din lume. Dar s-ar putea să fii prea gras şi extrem de lent, împreună cu toţi ceilalţi oameni care te susţin. Şi s-ar putea ca alţii să ţi-o ia înainte exact pe acea cale ocolitoare la care nici nu te-ai aşteptat, şi pe care tu să nu poţi nici măcar s-o găseşti.

Leadership: Victoria ta stă sub semnul congruenţei dintre fapte de glorie şi glasul conştiinţei, ci se arată eterogenă şi multiplă, de multe ori flexibilă, capabilă de conjugări imprevizibile dincolo de coordonatele generice: "condiţii" şi "împrejurări" ?

Cine se mişcă greu, este întrecut fără nicio problemă de cei care aleargă cu viteza sporită, şi care au şi rezistenţă, şi care sunt cu adevărat înzestraţi cu calităţi de luptător. Mult mai important, condiţiile şi împrejurările s-ar putea să nu fie deloc de partea ta...

Aşa că eu, ori de câte ori aud vorbindu-se de conducători de geniu, prima oare mă gândesc la felul cum unii au eşuat jalnic la final, cu tot cu genialitatea lor...

Sfat: Nu te baza pe inteligenţă, nici pe poziţie, nici pe alţi oameni. Fii un cât mai bun sportiv, rapid şi rezistent, ca să-ţi educi spiritul şi mintea. Mizează pe faptul că toţi ceilalţi sunt îmbătrâniţi de vreme, de-abia se mişcă, exact ca melcii după ploaie, sau sunt tineri şi trăiesc numai în lux, exact ca şerpii la soare. Ei nu sunt absolut deloc antrenaţi pentru performanţă. Şi, mai important, roagă-te să ai condiţiile şi împrejurările de partea ta... Iar Hazardul îţi va surâde !

Leadershipul devine proiecţia orizontală a unei riguroase mentalităţi bazate pe trinomul "surpriză-uimire-schimbare" în contextul în care singura preocupare este obţinerea unei victorii capabile să te readucă oricând pe o traiectorie ascendentă.

Cele două extreme din Leadership: Hannibal şi Cota Roşcovanul, ne învaţă să conştientizăm puterea hazardului care poate interveni oricând în timpul unui război, şi că oricât de imbatabil te crezi, oricând vei putea cădea într-o "stupoare" din cauza loviturilor destinului, fapt ce va duce la distrugerea inconștientă a sinelui.

Acţionând în activităţile cu caracter practic, vei fi determinat să faci trecerea de la acţiuni spontane la acţiuni conştientizate, în care mai important este actul cunoaşterii.

eXtreme Tracking (II)

Evaluează şi schimbă configuraţia omului de la starea iniţială la starea ţintă, fără să-i slăbeşti temeliile.

Ruth Martin. O mamă grijulie ar face orice pentru fiica ei, ar încheia chiar şi un pact cu Diavolul. În cazuri extreme, fiinţa condiţionată de o realitate dureroasă şi înspăimântătoare, recurge - slăbindu-şi poziţia care o face inatacabilă - la devieri de la propriile crezuri, la imprudenţe scandaloase care depăşesc pe linie continuă orice aşteptări şi orice prognoze. Iar în aceste momente tulburi îşi face intrarea în scenă, fără împotrivire, particularul , determinat de solidaritatea cea mai interesantă.

Pentru a determina simptomatologia depresiei, trebuie să se facă măsurătoarea lăuntrică exactă a omului. Iar femeia aceasta disperată, a cărei constantă de echilibru depinde de temperatura propriei sale instabilităţi, face posibilă evaluarea clară a stării ei funcţionale prin absorbţia energiei sale totale.

Hannibal Lecter, prin configurarea corespunzătoare a cablurilor de conexiune cu stările sufleteşti ale senatoarei Ruth Martin, vrea să utilizeze la maxim această energie gratuită, degradată de către temperatura probabilităţilor reduse de salvare a fiicei ei. Neîngrădit de nicio restricţie, el măsoară diferitele forme ale variaţiei parametrului de sensibilitate şi descoperă sursa reacţiilor ireversibile care decurg într-un singur sens până la istovirea totală.

Leadership: Ai motiv să te simţi apreciat ca un izvor de putere şi bunătate, în raport cu îndeplinirea rolului pe care îl reprezinţi într-un punct în care măsura caracterului tău îngust nu te lasă să vezi dincolo de tine însuţi?

În loc să gândească ca Grigorie, bărbierul generalului Cermayloff: " Sper că veţi recunoaşte pe deplin preţul serviciului meu ", Hannibal recurge la procedeul extrem: supraîncărcarea adâncă, producerea unei suprasarcini ce are menirea să tulbure şi să înfioare: " Amputează piciorul unui om, și el poate simţi încă furnicături. Spune-mi, Mamă, când fetiţa ta va sta lungită pe lespede, unde anume vei simţi furnicături? "

Practic, într-o scurtă unitate de timp Hannibal cercetează criza lăuntrică în care a intrat senatoarea Ruth Martin şi determină structura finală a centrilor ei activi de decizie, după o prealabilă diagnosticare, dar fără să încerce să oprească reacţiile elementare de propagare a suferinţelor ei. El realizează un tracking al energiei interne a omului în faza de solicitare nervoasă, înainte ca eventualul physical breakdown să se producă. Şi ce anume constată?

La rândul ei, senatoarea Ruth Martin nu-şi dă seama de măsura caracterului ei. Ea nu poate vedea dincolo de ea însăşi, sau mai bine zis nu vede dincolo de autoritatea pe care o deţine prin funcţia ei. Îşi dă seama că este manipulată din mai multe părţi, dar nu vrea să recunoască acest lucru fiindcă nu acceptă schimbarea. Mândria este cealaltă faţă a vinovăţiei de care, desigur, ea trebuie să se elibereze.

Aşadar, dacă vrei să vezi adevărul despre tine, mai întâi cercetează adevărul pe care ţi-l prezintă ceilalţi despre tine.

Că între reactanţi şi produşi, între o stare apăsătoare şi o teamă care creşte tot mai mult în intensitate, există o barieră energetică care trebuie învinsă pentru a se produce transformarea radicală a caracterului. Aşadar, între resemnare şi speranţă, între încordare şi îndârjire are loc o variaţie de energie (cedare sau acceptare), producându-se un maxim de amplitudine care înscrie existenţa omului într-un trend descendent.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri o bună capacitate de protejare şi reechilibrare a elementelor tale de pasiv şi activ în condiţiile unei fuziuni între "particularul" şi "întâmplătorul" produse de o forţă extremă?

Îngrijirea personală şi profesională, pe fondul unei crize interne, aparţine în mod specific şi exclusiv acelei instanţe de cauză ce are în mod direct puterea de a te înfrânge. Orice tensiune contradictorie, care tinde să evolueze spre o stare semi-paralizantă, este rodul unei aprige fuziuni dintre "particularul" şi "întâmplătorul" produse de o forţă externă. Această forţă poate fi înţeleasă în termenii unei influenţe determinante de sus în jos, prin care Ruth Martin, pentru un eveniment sau un memento afectiv, devine victima unei manipulări psihologice greu de detectat.

Iar un lider care este profund în toate acţiunile sale, având totodată conştiinţa supremă a personalităţii sale, nu ar trebui să se lase dominat de principiul particularului şi întâmplătorului. Acest principiu spune că tot ceea ce intră în contact cu tine, în mod direct sau indirect, este direct proporţional cu ceea ce eşti în stare să devii cu sau fără voia ta.

Cel mai uşor lucru, care poate oferi satisfacţii intelectuală depline, este să induci celorlalţi oameni o stare apăsătoare şi o teamă care creşte în intensitate dintr-o anumită direcţie sau mai multe direcţii. Iar cel mai dificil lucru, ca o piatră de încercare, este să-ţi temperezi elanul de a evalua şi schimba configuraţia omului, de la starea lui iniţială la starea ţintă. Stare pe care o induci în scopul unei ascensiuni psiho-profesionale, printr-o separare accentuată de factorul perceperii şi cunoaşterii duse la extrem, dar care îţi poate ştirbi din prestanţă şi credibilitate.

Iar lucrul cu adevărat valoros este acela de a nu cădea tu însuţi în plasa ofertelor înşelătoare ale "Diavolului", bazate pe interese ascunse, deghizate, machiaveliste, nerespectând criteriile unui leadership transformator pozitiv bazat pe puterea exemplului.

Ofertele acestea ispititoare, condiţionând omul la o realitate dureroasă şi înspăimântătoare, vin cumva să compenseze efectul scăderii autorităţii liderului, conducând însă la devieri de la propriile sale crezuri, la imprudenţe ce depăşesc pe linie continuă orice aşteptări şi orice prognoze.

Leadership: Mintea ta poate construi o stare de răspuns "PRO" faţă de schimbarea stimei de sine, încât atitudinea ta faţă de evenimentele importante ale vieţii să anuleze faptele pe care nu eşti în stare să ţi le asumi?

Ce se întâmplă când un cerb sika, ghidându-se de simțul văzului și al auzului, simte furișarea tigrului în apropierea lui? Fuge ! Acelaşi efect îl creează liderul, dominat de sentimentul său de un cert complex de superioritate, prin procesul de manipulare şi de destabilizare al omului. Care a fost răspunsul senatoarei Ruth Martin atunci când a sesizat tendinţa lui Hannibal de extindere a dimensiunii spaţiului său de influenţă prin acea testare psihologică?

" Take this thing back to Baltimore. " Adică, domnule Hannibal, întoarce-te după gratii. Ţine-ţi în frâu pornirile psihice prin raţiune ! Încetează cu atitudinea de superioritate ! Învaţă să respecţi omul, să preţuieşti eforturile sale de a asigura o interacţiune şi o cooperare cât mai bună. Foloseşte-ţi puterea de influenţă ca să îţi colorezi propria viaţă, nu ca să faci umbră altor vieţi.

Aşadar, decât să deschizi o suită de măsurători lăuntrice care duc în final la o mulţime de întrebări, decât să te ancorezi într-un port la care se pot adresa întrebări chinuitoare despre existenţa umană şi se pot primi răspunsuri stânjenitoare, mai degrabă asigură-ţi o bună capacitate de protejare şi reechilibrare a elementelor tale de pasiv şi activ. Mare grija ! Nu care cumva cercetările tale obsesive să creeze o opoziţie ireconciliabilă între caracter şi virtuţi, căci astfel... s-a terminat cu leadershipul.

Leadership: Sistemul tău funcţional dispune de funcţie de reglaj şi protecţie încorporată la nivel de "ce eşti în stare uiţi despre tine încât să devii mai mult decât eşti" ?

Toate elementele funcţionale trebuie să se contopească şi să fie prelucrate în mod creator, prompt şi eficace, asigurându-le o bună stabilitate şi coordonare, fără a le substitui unei forme de comandă injuste şi restrictive care, pe lângă frânarea automată, duce la oprirea completă a fluxului de energie, la oprirea sistemului de control automat.

Dacă nu vrei să utilizeze altcineva, neîngrădit de nicio restricţie, acea energie lăuntrică care te propulsează înainte, fă tot posibilul să-ţi învingi slăbiciunile, luptându-te cu orice impuls de moment care ar putea trezi în ceilalţi o formă de câştig psiho-profesional. Măsoară diferitele forme ale variaţiei parametrului tău de sensibilitate şi descoperă sursa reacţiilor ireversibile care decurg într-un singur sens.

Leadershipul înseamnă să nu uiţi niciodată ceea ce eşti capabil să faci, prin prisma faptului că ceea ce eşti este ceea ce ai fost mereu.

eXtreme Tracking (II) vizează acel proces de extindere a influenţei psihologice a liderului prin analizarea şi testarea însuşirilor deosebite ale omului în situaţii limită, stimulând sau denaturând linia lui constantă de funcţionare prin intermediul raportului dintre contraste şi contradicţii. Anume, contrastele pe care omul ascunde şi situaţiile paradoxale cu care se confruntă. Şi contradicţiile pe care liderul le generează în încercarea de a produce o derută paralizantă.

Dar un leadership care produce destabilizări ale structurii interne a omului, deci un leadership care are un efect negativ asupra minţii şi sufletului, îşi va degrada în timp sensul primordial, distrugând fundamentul oricărei relaţii. Temelia omului este conştiinţa: să fii conştient în fiecare moment că Tu alegi să fii într-o situaţie sau în alta, că Tu alegi ce anume permiţi să se întâmple în viaţa ta şi a celor din jur.

Supraveghează-ţi îndeaproape evoluţia şi fii deschis faţă de ceilalţi, analizând şi estimând elementele de continuitate ale personalităţii tale în situaţiile limită.

Fapt straniu, nemaiîntâlnit, nimeni n-o acuză pe senatoarea Ruth Martin de deviere doctrinală sau de imprudenţă. Oricât de mult i-ar displăcea această situaţie, ea face apel la inteligenţa lui Hannibal pentru a-şi regăsi fiica, în timp ce Hannibal Lecter vede în mărinimia sufletului ei nu doar oportunitatea de a-şi redobândi libertatea, ci şi o nouă şansă de pătrundere în adâncimile sufleteşti ale omului.

Reacţiile chimice sunt procese dinamice care se desfăşoară într-un anumit interval. Iar o mamă iubitoare, dispunând de o chimie sufletească mai pronunţată, îşi gestionează trăirile afective în funcţie de aceste reacţii puternice, la fel de dureroase ca un glonţ care străbate inima. Experimental, încerci să-i desluşeşti caracterul, meandrele, aparenţele generatoare de confuzii, gândurile şi perspectivele în care se zbate, măsurându-i căldura sufletească, căutând în profunzime resorturile care pot declanşa vibraţiile de înaltă amplitudine.

Ruth Martin pare absorbită într-o bătălie fără sorţi de izbândă, într-o gaură neagră, microscopică, numită "punct fără întoarcere". Incitant, asculţi glasul acela disperat care imploră, se roagă, speră şi cere îndurare, în faţa căruia se înclină inima, cu luptele însoţitoare, provocând o încordare egală cu valoarea constantă a unui curent continuu care, trecând printr-un rezistor, dezvoltă o energie de impact suficientă pentru a efectua o nouă reglare a temperaturii interne.

Un imbold absolut irezistibil ! Fiinţa aceasta vlăguită care palpită şi vibrează fără odihnă, căreia îi poţi simţi pulsaţiile cum cresc într-un ritm ameţitor, cum arde tot mai mult combustibil însufleţitor pentru a-şi menţine gradul de stabilitate. Prototipul acesta uman care se zbate între vulnerabilitate şi intangibilitate trebuie menţinut cu orice preţ în stadiul de testare şi control.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi dezvolţi şi să-ţi menţii autoritatea cu ajutorul elementelor sensibile de personalitate, încât să nu periclitezi acele valori care se încadrează în criteriul de eligibilitate fixat resorturile performanţei?

Crearea propriului plan de dezvoltare a personalităţii se poate realiza uşor, prin identificarea acţiunilor cu potenţial evolutiv, dar nu se poate concretiza dacă aştepţi multă vreme pasiv în afara sferei evenimentelor. Iar personalitatea cea mai puternică este rezultatul dezvoltării autorităţii cu ajutorul elementelor sensibile care fac dintr-un conducător un om care experimentează iubirea. Elemente precum: manifestarea afecţiunii şi recunoştinţei, implicarea emoţională, generozitate, apreciere, preţuire pentru o misiune de caritate, etc.

Activitatea ta de "voluntariat" în cadrul programului "Omul altfel", plin de elanul de a-ţi asigura stabilitatea pe plan emoţional şi mental, în relaţiile cu cei din jurul tău, stă aproape integral sub semnul a ceea ce se numeşte SecurityPower . O ajustare a elementelor tale definitorii, într-un mod practic, prin care să detectezi orice imprudenţă în a înfrunta necunoscutul. Această operaţiune este necesară pentru a nu-ţi ştirbi autoritatea.

Leadershipul, care se axează pe ingineria optimizării materialului uman, filtrabil doar prin experienţele la care omul ia parte în viaţa de zi cu zi, nu constituie un fond de speranţă pentru atingerea unui nivel înalt de vitalitate pe plan intern. Nu prezintă întotdeauna o garanţie în ceea ce priveşte protejarea valorilor fundamentale ale omului, nu asigură calitatea şi fiabilitatea "utilajului" care să împrăştie ceva antiderapant în vederea prevenirii oricărei alunecări spre extremism. Spre acea realitate anapoda ce zguduie temeliile existenţiale, periclitând acele valori care se încadrează în criteriul de eligibilitate fixat de cele două resorturi ale performanţei: durabilitate şi sustenabilitate.

Valorile cele mai de preţ ale omului sunt: onestitatea, respectul, munca temeinică, dăruirea, ambiția și empatia.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să renunţi la tine însuţi şi la valorile care te caracterizează doar pentru a îmbrăţişa un nou statut particular (de autoritate), sub forma unei mentalităţi care îmbrăţişează paradoxul?

Senatoarea Ruth Martin este o mentalitate care îmbrăţişează paradoxul: pe de o parte vrea ca fata ei să fie găsită şi salvată, pe de altă pare încearcă să uite sau să nege o întâmplare care îi umbreşte existenţa. Pe de o parte iubeşte pe cineva, pe de altă parte se urăşte pe sine fiindcă a ajuns în situaţia de a-şi renega credinţa şi de a se abandona în mijlocul necazului. Pe de o parte îşi înţelege potenţialul de leadership, dar pe de altă parte nu-şi poate gestiona bine emoţiile. Iată ce este instabilitatea.

Nimeni nu-şi poate menţine echilibrul constant pe o suprafaţă lucioasă fără să mai alunece din când în când. Dar nici alunecarea frecventă, într-o parte sau alta a teritoriului individual, nu-i poate asigura omului o dezvoltare armonioasă, ci mai degrabă sporeşte posibilitatea retragerii lui în solitudine şi indecizie, înclinând spre influenţabilitate. Iar leadershipul nu este un sistem ABS care te menţine pe drum în orice condiţii, prevenind permanent alunecarea şi asigurând stabilitatea pe orice tip de suprafaţă.

A încerca să faci din leadership o centură de siguranţă, folosindu-te de poziţia ta ca de un agent de pază, este ca şi cum te-ai sprijini pe o trestie pe care o clătină vântul. Te vei zbate între vulnerabilitate şi intangibilitate. Vei persista într-o atitudine contradictorie care înrăutăţeşte situaţia, subminând principalul agent care poate schimba situaţia în bine: adică pe tine. În aceste condiţii vei da frâu dorinţei stringente de căutare a unui refugiu, în timp ce toţi ceilalţi vor vedea în tine un învins, uşor de manipulat.

Caută în tine însuţi, în profunzime, acele resorturi care pot declanşa vibraţiile de înaltă amplitudine. Analizează şi estimează elementele de continuitate ale personalităţii tale în situaţiile limită. Este nevoie să dezvolţi şi să menţii un program de întreţinere preventivă a elementelor sensibile de personalitate?

Leadershipul este atitudinea pe care ţi-o păstrezi neîntinată atunci când inima ta se îndepărtează de la importanţa rolului pe care ţi-l asumi în confruntarea cu o situaţie fără ieşire.

eXtreme Tracking desemnează acel proces prin care urmăreşti o ţintă, în paralel cu supravegherea atentă a propriului Eu, dar şi a altor Euri care te vor urmări permanent în evoluţia ta. Dar această evoluţie, pentru a fi benefică şi în concordanţă cu aşteptările, nu trebuie să oscileze între două extreme. Ci trebuie să aibă o traiectorie ascendentă rectilinie.

Fabula cu picătura de miere

On Aprilie 19, 2020

Încearcă să stabileşti măsura caracterului tău, fără să faci din el principalul motiv al producerii evenimentelor neasigurate de o acoperire morală corespunzătoare.

- Un vânător care se întorcea de la vânătoare s-a oprit să cumpere un borcan cu miere. În timp ce turna mierea în borcan, negustorul a scăpat o picătură pe lângă. O muscă a venit și s-a așezat acolo. De pe marginea acoperișului, o pasăre a venit și a înșfăcat-o. Pisica negustorului a văzut-o și s-a aruncat asupra ei, dar câinele vânătorului s-a aruncat și el asupra pisicii și a omorât-o cu colții săi. Mâniat, negustorul a aruncat cu piatra în vânător, care l-a lovit în cap și l-a omorât. Ca să-l răzbune, familia vânătorului a atacat casa negustorului și i-a ucis familia, jefuind prăvălia. Apoi, toți sătenii au tăbărât asupra părinților vânătorului, iar cele două sate s-au găsit în cele din urmă în război. Crede-mă, odată ce a luat o decizie, omul viclean găsește întotdeauna picătura de miere ca să înceapă cearta. *

Leadership: Cum îţi evaluezi experienţa de utilizare a raţiunii în momentul derulării evenimentelor care presupun o necesitate imediată, corelându-le cu interacţiunea dintre ce se observă şi ceea ce se aşteaptă a se întâmpla?

Bine spunea scriitorul Mika Waltari: "Cine face primul pas, trebuie să-l facă şi pe al doilea. Primul pas e cel mai dificil şi, când vine clipa, nu vor lipsi motive de război." Mai cu seamă, legătura dintre ceea ce se întâmplă în exteriorul tău şi ceea ce se întâmplă în mintea ta e posibil de gestionat, dar numai cu acordul echilibrului dintre controlul emoţional şi permiterea exprimării libere a emoţiilor într-un mod sănătos.

Nu-i vorba de faptul că de la o mică scânteie se poate isca un incendiu, ci trebuie luat în calcul faptul că evenimentele se derulează în funcţie de capacitatea omului de a-şi suporta raţiunea în "căderile" sale.

Prin simpla utilizare a propriei raţiuni, în scopul evitării producerii unor "scântei" primejdioase, se vădeşte cel mai clar distincţia dintre "a cunoaşte" şi "a soluţiona", fiind întruchipat, ca ideal, numai de înţeleptul stoic. În lumina rece a raţiunii, de a întoarce un fapt pe toate feţele şi a-l defini în substanţa toxică a evenimentelor, în înlănţuirea tendenţioasă a altor acţiuni din viaţa ta, în devenirea lor încâlcită şi gravă, se poate vedea caracterul tău adevărat.

Între ce se observă şi ceea ce se aşteaptă a se întâmpla stă experienţa de conturare a sinelui în acord cu rolul pe care îl poate juca "neprevăzutul" în derularea acţiunilor de realizare a justului echilibru dintre ceea ce se cunoaşte şi ceea ce se ascunde.

Omul care are un caracter drept face diferența dintre ceea ce se vede la prima vedere și ceea ce se întâmplă, de fapt, în spatele aparenţelor, în spatele cortinei. Chiar dacă nu poate găsi calea sau prilejul de a suprima la timp o reacție ce poate avea efect invers, produsă uneori sub forma unei avertizări, el totuşi îşi intensifică încercare de rezistenţă a libertăţii de exprimare a sinelui în faţa tenebrelor din minţile în care nu a pătruns lumina.

S-o spun altfel. Omul corect se transformă subtil într-o încercare de a arăta că el are dreptate, neopunându-se evenimentului petrecut deja, ci contând pe facultatea raţiunii de a formula argumente orientate în câmpul unei intenţionalităţi inversate: lucrul nefast s-a petrecut pentru că cineva a trecut pe contrasens şi acolo s-a izbit de un autoturism care circula din sens opus. Cu alte cuvinte, încearcă să nu te intersectezi cu ceva doar pentru că intenţionezi să câştigi ceva.

Leadershipul este întâmplarea petrecută deja, din care se desprind două concluzii: "Niciodată să nu te intereseze cauzele pierdute, adică alea în care nu mai vrea nimeni altcineva să se bage" şi "niciodată să nu te intersectezi cu cineva care arată un interes prea mare pentru el însuşi".

Fabula cu picătura de miere ne poate ajuta să identificăm măsura caracterului unui lider, care este dată de capacitatea lui de a fi flexibil. Un lider ştie că trebuie să transforme o situaţie complicată într-un început promiţător, pentru a corespunde anumitor cerințe sau unui anumit context. Mai mult decât atât, trebuie ascultat sfatul scriitorului englez Daniel Defoe: "Cel mai mare grad al înţelepciunii umane este să ştii să-ţi adaptezi caracterul împrejurărilor şi să-ţi păstrezi sufletul calm în ciuda furtunilor din afară."

Fantasma unei lumi, din care a ta e doar o rămăşiţă

Menţine-ţi constant caracterul nobil, opunându-te oricărei tendinţe de a încălca limitele impuse de filtrul emoţional şi moral al celorlalţi oameni.

Personajul principal din filmul „ Lionheart (1990) ", Lyon Gaultier, dezertează din Legiunea Străină şi ajunge în Statele Unite ale Americii. Îl găseşte pe fratele său între viaţă şi moarte, iar pe soţia acestuia fără banii necesari pentru a-şi vindeca soţul şi pentru a-şi îngriji copilul. Pentru a o ajuta el se implică în luptele ilegale, la îndemnul şi sub îndrumarea lui Joshua, cu care leagă o prietenie strânsă.

Iar Joshua era subordonatul Cynthiei - „the professional gambler" - care ţinea lucrurile sub control. Sau cel puţin asta îşi dorea ea. Era una din acele făpturi cu sânge rece pe care ai fi bucuros s-o ai aproape numai când vine vorba de bani. Extrem de atrăgătoare, cu şarmul şi fascinaţia unei prinţese, dar înşelătoare ca un şarpe. Nefiind capabilă de sentimente sincere, de dorinţe familiale, era doar purtătoarea eredităţii ei dominante, defectuoase, nicidecum nobile. Nu iubea pe nimeni în afară de ea.

Pe o astfel de fiinţă, atrasă ca un magnet numai de faimă, sedusă numai de sclipirea banului, de spectaculozitatea vieţii de lux, ea care ar trece peste orice şi oricine pentru a-şi găsi împlinirea dorinţelor ei schimbătoare, nu o poţi invita la o cină romantică fără risc, fără ca, dintr-un motiv sau altul, din senin, ceva să nu-i convină şi să izbucnească în crize de furie, şi să te trezeşti brusc pus pe „disable".

Leadership: Provocarea de a accentua importanța faptelor pe care ţi le reproşezi de la viaţă, impune trecerea lor în prim planul unei detaşări de percepţiile prilejuite de nişte centre de interes dominante?

La un moment dat Lyon îi face o vizită lui Cynthia. Era singură, întinsă în pat, provocatoare, îmbrăcată în cea mai sumară lenjerie, liniştită, visătoare, ca şi cum s-ar fi scufundat într-o lume perfectă. La vederea lui Lyon întreaga ei fiinţă fu cuprinsă de înflăcărare, părea însufleţită de gândul că, în sfârşit, un bărbat viguros ca el, o partidă atât de bună, îi va putea îmblânzi poftele.

- O voi face, îi spune Lyon. Voi lupta în continuare pentru tine. Dar trebuie să deschid un cont. Nu mă întreba de ce. Asta e condiţia mea. Şi trebuie să plec de aici. Nu pot locui într-un hotel de lux. Trebuie să trăiesc ca un luptător. Locul acesta este prea confortabil pentru mine.

Şi dintr-o dată chipul femeii, care mai înainte era atât de dulce şi suav, se modifică vizibil. Inima ei de temnicier îşi amplifică bătăile ca în ritmul ceasului de cuc. Lumea ei atât de fascinantă părea că s-a dărâmat, transformându-se în iad. Cine se crede? Cum îndrăzneşte nenorocitul să-mi spună că pleacă, fără să-mi dea ce doresc, fără să-mi satisfacă poftele? Rănită în orgoliul propriu, femeia bogată, şi atât de influentă, n-ar fi fost în stare să găsească niciodată amabilitate, vreun semn de înţelegere. Îşi activase înflăcărarea, profunzimea, consideraţia, tactul, iar acum le pierduse, sau mai degrabă le abandonase.

Modificarea atitudinii care te defineşte este condiţia determinării unui procent mare de îndoială atribuită unui caracter durabil, ce depinde de probabilităţile de realizare a evenimentelor aleatoare.

Înarmată cu toată concentrarea posibilă, mătură cu privirea omul de lângă ea, netrebnicul, ticălosul, nenorocitul, căci acum Lyon nu mai era „dorinţa" ei cea mai mare, ci doar un trişor, un condamnat, un păcătos. Şi ca urmare ea încearcă să vadă lucrurile aşa cum sunt, cu cel mai desăvârşit sânge rece, adică fără să le mai atribuie o conotaţie preponderent pozitivă. Unele şocuri provoacă, vizibil sau nu, răsturnări iremediabile. Furia ei rece, respingătoare, care ar îngheţa pe oricine, îşi arată colţii:

- Eşti sigur că pleci fiindcă n-ai găsit o altă femeie...altceva mai confortabil pe stradă? Nu răspunde ! Asta e treaba mea ! A mea ! (apoi izbeşte paharul în televizor.) M-am săturat de tine ! Afară ! „Get the fuck out ! " De azi înainte relaţia noastră va fi doar profesională, aşa cum ar fi trebuit să fie de la început !

Leadership: Care este natura personalității tale în contextul unei avuţii care te ţine captiv mental sau afectiv în jurul unei imagini folosită ca legătură între ceea ce poţi oferi şi ceea ce ţi se cere?

Fără îndoială Cynthia ar fi putut avea o înrâurire pozitivă asupra lui Lyon, fiindcă era o femeie frumoasă. Dar caracterul ei „defect", incapacitatea ei de a empatiza, de a simţi, de a fi receptivă la potenţialul lui, la emoţiile sale, la adevăratul său caracter – i-a atras doar dispreţul. În final ea şi-a pierdut şi banii, şi pe Lyon.

Un lider ca Cynthia, care priveşte întotdeauna lucrurile pe dos, care este orbit de orice simţământ, încătuşat de pofta banului, trebuie lăsat să se consume o vreme, să-şi petreacă timpul în singurătate. Trebuie lăsat să reflecteze, ca un înţelept, mai bine la esenţa caracterului său. Să-şi trateze, asa cum un doctor tratează boala, dependenţa sa de a fi mereu în centrul atenţiei; să înţeleagă mai bine putinţa de a fi altcineva - până ce flacăra ameninţătoare a gândurilor, sentimentelor şi convingerilor sale reprobabile se va stinge.

Numai prin îndiguirea acelor reacţii negative, impulsive, instabile, care nu fac loc nici unei forme de sporire a influenţei pozitive, vei putea să domini mai mult timp spiritul oamenilor, menţinând vie intenţia acestora de a se raporta la tine şi de a-ţi accepta imperfecţiunile.

Leadership: Îţi foloseşti bagajul de trăsături înnăscute sau dobândite, astfel încât să anulezi efectele negative pe care le poţi suporta conştient prin angajamentul faţă de o calitate care nu te onorează?

Filozoful Arthur Schopenhauer spunea: „ Un caracter bun, măsurat şi blând poate să fie mulţumit în împrejurări strâmtorate; pe când cel pizmuitor şi răutăcios nu va fi mulţumit nici în mijlocul tuturor avuţiilor. "

Care va fi natura personalităţii viitoare a unui lider este desigur foarte dificil de spus, căci depinde de dimensiunea imaginii sale, de înţelegerea menirii sale, de felul în care judecă oamenii, de felul cum se raportează la noile realităţi, de felul în care îşi educă propriul sine, de felul în care îşi gestionează propriile reacţii.

Nu pot spune mare lucru despre evoluţia unui lider, despre transformarea caracterului său, mai ales fără să-l observ. Dar aş pronostica, de pildă, că nicio judecată, nicio influenţă, niciun mod de a îmbina elementele de leadership care îi pot spori acestuia şansa de a atinge măreţia, nu-i va putea desăvârşi capacitatea de a stabili relaţii şi legături autentice cu ceilalţi oameni.

Aşa cum un sculptor îşi modelează opera şi o toarnă în bronz, tu trebuie să-ţi modelezi caracterul pentru a obţine rezultate maxime în sfera relaţiilor şi colaborării. Nu vei putea să comunici profund cu oamenii şi să te integrezi în lumea lor dacă Eul tău nu găseşte un ecou suficient de puternic în inimile celorlalţi.

Calitatea cea mai de jos, care nu te onorează, se perpetuează între confruntarea cu evenimentele de tip determinist şi apariţia efectului de "dinţi de fierăstrău" (cu cât îţi foloseşti mai mult autoritatea, cu atât ai mai multe şanse să îţi toceşti iscusinţa de a-ţi stăpâni impulsurile şi reacţiile).

Această calitate poate fi însăşi INFLUENŢA !

Fantasma unei lumi, din care a ta e doar o rămăşiţă vizează propria ta personalitate şi modul în care priveşti lumea după ce ai fost renegat de ceilalţi oameni, după ce ai fost trimis la pământ din cauza propriilor erori de simţire şi judecată. Doar cu o rămăşiţă te poţi alege dintr-o lume în care ceilalţi oameni îţi dau, sau nu, acceptul de a fi în fruntea lor - o rămăşiţă de sine, într-o lume însingurată de propriul tău Eu.

Menţine-ţi constant caracterul nobil, opunându-te oricărei tendinţe de a încălca limitele impuse de filtrul emoţional şi moral al celorlalţi oameni.

Faptele vorbesc

On Februarie 03, 2009

Îmbunătăţeşte-ţi capacitatea de conducere, echipându-ţi potenţialul cu acele „piese alerte” care te pot menţine în viaţă.

În filmul “ Marea evadare (1963) ”, MacDonald (interpretat de actorul Gordon Jackson), îi instruia pe evadaţii din lagăr - anume cum trebuie să reacţioneze în cazul în care, după evadare, ofiţerii germani i-ar legitima la punctele de control.

- Ţineţi minte foarte bine ! Nu vorbiţi în limba engleză. Vorbiţi numai în germană ceea ce v-am învăţat eu. Ofiţerii germani vor folosi un truc ca să verifice identitatea voastră. Mai mult ca sigur vă vor întreba ceva în limba engleză. Orice ar fi nu le răspundeţi nimic. Prefaceţi-vă că nu ştiţi engleza.

Spre sfârşitul filmului, MacDonald împreună cu un alt evadat reuşesc să ajungă aproape de graniţa cu Spania. Dar când să intre în autobuzul care ar fi trebuit să-i treacă graniţa, sunt opriţi de doi ofiţeri germani care le cer paşapoartele. După o scurtă conversaţie pe germană şi după ce le-au verificat actele, care păreau a fi în regulă, unul dintre ofiţerii germani foloseşte trucul: “Good luck”.

Fericit că a scăpat atât de uşor de control, MacDonald îi răspunde ofiţerului în timp ce urca în autobuz: “Thank you”. Brusc, îşi dă seama de greşeala făcută, dar este prea târziu. Căzuse deja în capcană.

Dar faptele sunt mai de preţ decât vorbele.

O clipă de neatenţie l-a costat viaţa ! Tocmai el, MacDonald, cel care îi instruia pe evadaţi cum să procedeze, atenţionându-i să nu vorbească sub nicio formă în limba engleză, a căzut în capcană. Cum îţi explici acest lucru? Ei bine, MacDonald a fost un bun profesor pentru ceilalţi prizonieri, a ştiut să-i instruiască, să-i îndrume şi să-i pună în gardă, dar când a sosit momentul în care să pună în practică ceea ce i-a învăţat pe alţii să facă, a uitat pur şi simplu de propriile sfaturi.

Leadership: Te implici în ceva ce se petrece în afara propriilor tale alegeri prin faptul că nu posezi noţiunea de personalizare a evenimentelor?

Laşi garda jos chiar atunci când trebuie să faci pasul cel mare? Scena aceasta din film este utilă pentru a ne aminti cât de vulnerabili suntem atunci când lăsăm garda jos, şi nu ne respectăm principiile de care suntem conduşi. La drept vorbind, foarte mulţi lideri se îmbolnăvesc grav de această boală, a „uitării”, dacă pot s-o numesc aşa.

Cineva spunea că premiza impactului circumstanţelor asupra atitudinilor şi opţiunilor omului nu poate fi pusă la îndoială. Într-un asemenea caz am putea considera mai amplă configuraţia acţiunilor şi faptelor supuse utilităţii asumate, dar şi a valorii de sine proiectate în spaţiul evenimentelor şi circumstanţelor asupra cărora omul poate interveni.

Să nu considerăm conştiinţa individuală drept bază a tot ce se petrece în jur, cu o deplină încredere în factorii decizionali prielnici. Să nu facem din scopurile personale o abandonare totală în mâinile Divinei Providenţe. Ci să ne îndreptăm atenţia spre corectarea erorilor din timpul goanei spre un nou început, ca o extindere a construcţiei existenţiale.

Evenimentele pe care le organizezi pot fi personalizate prin asumarea unui rol de tip multiplayer, în care se fac echipe, se încheagă relaţii și se generează un sentiment de adeziune la o „poveste” care merita să fie trăită la maxim. Totodată, ele pot fi personalizate cu roluri de tip „circumstanţial” în care poziţia ta devine instabilă datorită direcţiei imprecise şi a aptitudinilor "off-road" slabe.

Leadership: Dai curs acceptării a unei cereri de intervenţie în cazul unei situaţii extreme, dar fără să-ţi validezi depedenţa de a controla acea situaţie?

A personaliza evenimentele înseamnă să atribui acţiunilor tale o valoare de tip "separare de contextul iniţial de abordare a problemei", adică înseamnă să dai curs acceptării a unei cereri de intervenţie în cazul unei situaţii extreme, dar fără să-ţi validezi depedenţa de a controla acea situaţie.

Dependenţa de a deţine controlul asupra unei situaţii, acest termen care ne sugerează că nu se poate "fără", creează o constrângere faţă de misiunea pe care eşti chemat s-o îndeplineşti. Iar prin această constrângere de tip "Finish what you start" îţi redomensionezi o lume numai în parte congruentă cu nevoile tale adaptative. începi să depinzi de ceea ce nu ştii ce te aşteaptă, ancorându-ţi acţiunile în apropierea de ceea ce înseamnă să supravieţuieşti prin folosirea a cât mai puţine resurse.

Leadershipul intervine în momentul în care te propteşti cu spatele în ceva nevăzut şi împingi din toate puterile în ceva ce se petrece în afara propriilor tale alegeri. Atunci când te laşi copleşit de senzaţia stranie, rea-voitoare, experimentată de deprinderea de a te articula adecvat la context, prin care se realizează, direct sau indirect, eroarea de a omite esenţialul. înseamnă să acorzi “autonomie” micului teritoriu al incertitudinii, în absenţa unui observator care să repare realitatea sau să creeze una nouă.

Nu poate fi vorba de acea povară a 'judecătorului" care ia decizii capitale, atâta vreme cât nu poţi vedea nimic decât o imensă confuzie, atâta vreme cât nu poţi da undo la situaţia anterioară.

Ca să experimentezi leadershipul dintr-un unghi mai bun de abordare, trebuie să înaintezi în "traficul" aglomerat de schimbări de situaţie şi să ajungi la locul iniţial de observaţie de unde se trag semnalele de alarmă în caz de derapaje. Şi să selectezi ritmurile de integrare a senzorilor de siguranţă în varianta numită "neprevăzut".

Leadership: Culegi roadele străduinţelor tale de a te adapta unui rol circumstanţial, în măsura în care ai tras învăţăminte din reprezentările poziţiei tale faţă de impactul evenimentelor?

Asculţi în maşină genul acela de muzică care te face să vibrezi? Dacă da, atunci probabil eşti familiarizat cu senzaţia aia puternică, în goana aia de adrenalină când, ascultând anumite piese, apeşi pedala de acceleraţie şi simţi că eşti stăpânul tău absolut. Acesta este momentul când, nefiind blocat de nicio altă maşină, îţi poţi elibera la maxim potenţialul.

Capacitatea ta de a te focaliza asupra a ceea ce este important să faci, este ca o piesă muzicală care te face să apeşi pedala de acceleraţie a potenţialului tău atunci când eşti pus în situaţii alerte. Dacă te blochezi atunci când trebuie să apeşi pedala de acceleraţie, leadershipul tău nu va lua niciodată un demaraj excelent.

Succesul tău în tot ceea întreprinzi nu va fi influenţat atât de capacitatea de a te pregăti minuţios, ci mai mult de modul în care acţionezi, de modul în care îţi raportezi potenţialul practic la nivelul de cunoştinţe pe care l-ai dobândit. Adevărata ta pregătire începe cu acele cunoştinţe pe care le asimilezi, dar testul desăvârşirii tale se încheie cu ceea ce ştii să faci cu ele, atunci când trebuie să le pui în practică.

Dacă mă gândesc la filmul " Marea evadare (1963) " consider că dintre toţi evadaţii, MacDonald, a fost veriga cea mai slabă. Chiar dacă s-a priceput să-i instruiască foarte bine pe oameni, el a fost singurul care la "proba practică" a picat. El a picat testul desăvârşirii sale !

Pune-ţi la timp în mişcare sistemul propriu de funcţionare, altfel rişti să te trezeşti cu surprize neplăcute. Echipează-ţi întotdeauna potenţialul cu un simţ practic bine pus la punct - cu acele „piese alerte" care te pot menţine în viaţă.

Reprezentarea poziţiei tale faţă de impactul evenimentelor are ca punct de plecare o evadare dintr-o situaţie de insecuritate, iar ca punct de finalitate un efect de tip bumerang?

Concluzie: Ai grijă cum îi îndrumi pe oameni şi ce îi sfătuieşti, căci dacă ceea ce le spui nu rezonează cu ceea ce faci, s-ar putea să-ţi pierzi credibilitatea şi rişti să nu te mai urmeze nimeni.

Făptuitorul reaşezării resorturilor lumii interioare

On August 08, 2013

Promovează caracterul autentic al propriilor tale descoperiri, stabilind o legătură strânsă între elementele de valoare care susţin evoluţia ştiinţei tale.

Trăiam cu rezultatele acelei experienţe extreme prin care făcusem eforturi lăudabile pentru progresul meu. Apreciam în mod deosebit caracterul autentic al descoperirilor neobişnuite, datorită cărora reuşisem să realizez o legătură între trecut, prezent şi viitor. Şi, cu acea exigenţă proprie unui consumator de ştiinţă, o accesam ori de câte ori apărea nevoia imperioasă de a-mi satisface setea de cunoaştere.

Plasată exact la locul potrivit spre a face să rodească noul început, constanta pe care reuşisem să o identific prin raportarea mea la măreaţa lume a ştiinţei, reprezenta un set de adevăruri ce puteau fi cuprinse şi înţelese numai de mintea fizică. Ea se regăsea însă în miezul tuturor faptelor şi acţiunilor umane.

Iar această constantă era modificată la un nivel fundamental prin stabilirea preferenţială a unei legături strânse între elementele de valoare, cu caracter apropiat, optimizate pentru o anumită aplicabilitate sau pentru un anumit tip de dezvoltare şi control. A durat ceva timp ca să clarific totul, şi ca să mă poziţionez în relaţie cu noua realitate.

Oare factorul unic al mutaţiilor materiale care favorizau schimbările de valori şi de judecăţi, exercitând o presiune variabilă asupra conştiinţei mele, deformând într-o mare măsură adevărurile cu care mă luptam imaginar şi cele cu care am fost îndoctrinat, trebuia să mă îngrijoreze?

Leadership: Poţi să te dedici unei creaţii care te obligă să îţi revezi întreaga viaţă pentru a da sens unei noțiuni sau unui concept, fără să determini o alterare continuă a caracteristicilor tale funcţionale definitorii?

În mod inevitabil, complexitatea creaţiei mele aducea cu sine aparente contradicţii, oferindu-mi o experienţă complet nouă, palpitantă şi intensă. Dintr-un martor al tuturor vârstelor lumii m-am transformat într-un făptuitor al reaşezării resorturilor lumii mele interioare. Conceptul pe care viaţa mi l-a scos înainte era: "Push Up Challenge", adică trebuia să învăţ să combin improvizaţii de tot felul, semne şi interpretări, idei venite de nicăieri, artificii de exprimare şi de logică, încât să încropesc profilul unui artist al semioticii care ştie să introducă o ordine în haos, un echilibru între forţele dezechilibrate.

Prometeu a furat focul din cer pentru a însufleţi omul pe care-l făcuse, ca şi Dumnezeu, din nămolul pământului. Iar focul din cer, forţa care depăşea limita înţelegerii, energia pe care şi eu o accesam prin transformarea conştiinţei, printr-o istovitoare şi continuă focalizare a minţii spre tot ceea ce era înălţător şi sublim, era capabil să penetreze necunoscutul. Putea să însufleţească materia, să mă impulsioneze şi să schimbe potenţialul meu.

Fie creşterile, fie scăderile de intensitate ale forţei care mă conecta la o sursă de inspiraţie nestabilizată, mă ajutau să descopăr adesea un alt teritoriu al realului, determinând o alterare continuă a caracteristicilor mele funcţionale definitorii. Aceste caracteristici, ce trebuiau văzute ca pe nişte provocări ce trebuie depăşite, erau: curiozitatea, intuiţia, viziunea, abundenţa informaţiilor, capacitatea de a face lucrurile într-un mod diferit, capacitatea de a gândi in-depth şi productiv.

Pentru a nu mă dezamăgi prin apropierea tot mai mult de necunoscutele lumii, trebuia să găsesc formula de integrare într-o fază de dezvoltare care să nu fie la discreţia puterii mele imaginare. Una care să stopeze activitatea de construcţie a noului care făcea să existe acea realitate prea puţin percepută în esenţa ei. Altfel riscam să mă adâncesc prea mult în "amintiri din viitor", să mă pierd şi să rămân acolo.

Eşti interesat să stabileşti o mai bună legătură cu zona numită "peste linie", sau te complaci în metode tradiţionale de zidire a fundamentelor leadershipului?

Îţi poţi reaşeza lumea interioară astfel încât să nu aluneci în ireal? Tinzi spre cunoaşterea cea mai înaltă? Reuşeşti să realizezi o legătură între trecut, prezent şi viitor? Rişti să te adânceşti prea mult în "amintiri din viitor", să te pierzi şi să rămâi acolo? În ce condiţii eşti nevoit să stopezi activitatea de construcţie a noului?

Lipsit de profunzimea gândirii este individul care caută cu tot dinadinsul, în tendinţa de ascensiune fulminantă, să-şi creeze noi structuri "teritoriale", care să contureze mai bine de-a lungul timpului, ca spaţii de formare şi dezvoltare alternativă, acea zonă aflată dincolo de frontiera cu posibilul, dincolo de limitele sale reale.

L-aş felicita în schimb fiindcă a avut îndrăzneala, susţinut de o excelentă pregătire, vizibilitate şi intuiţie, să-şi lărgească teritoriul de înţelegere, de imaginaţie şi de inventivitate, atribuind o culoare individuală ştiinţei sale. Analizând modul lui eficient şi dârz de funcţionare, concentrându-ne atenţia asupra atribuţiilor sale de control şi dirijare a ştiinţei spre conturarea şi definirea fundamentului întregii sale creaţii, i-aş da o notă de 10+.

Fundamentul leadershipului care face cinste unui concept modern al semioticii este o reflecţie asupra ştiinţei de a gândi printr-o muncă acaparatoare de semnificaţii şi interpretări extrase din memoria unor "întâmplări" şi "coincidenţe" care facilitează exprimarea unor idei înlănţuite într-o anumită ordine.

El se apropie de leadership prin datoria lui de explorator care caută cu tot dinadinsul comori ascunse prin labirintul foarte întortocheat al schimbărilor şi tendinţelor în planul adaptării ştiinţei la complexitatea crescândă a gândirii care tinde să divizeze lucrurile în entităţi separate. Acest "utilizator" al ştiinţei îşi poate mai uşor plăsmui arta din acea permanenţă a gândirii în acţiune. Acest lucru împiedică alterarea caracteristicilor sale funcţionale definitorii, stabilind o mai bună legătură cu zona numită "peste linie".

Linia reprezintă punctul de demarcaţie între noile direcţii de valorificare a descoperirilor făcute, concretizând eforturile reale de integrare a lor în evoluţia ştiinţei, şi acea putere de transformare a conştiinţei într-o realitate paralelă.

Poţi să implementezi noi reguli în leadership prin introducerea de noi intrări într-o zonă prea mult dominată de nou?

Pentru a stabili dacă individul este protagonistul leadershipului de calitate trebuie să ţinem cont de modul în care îşi promovează caracterul autentic al descoperirilor sale. Şi să stabilim o legătură strânsă între elementele de valoare care susţin evoluţia ştiinţei tale.

De asemenea trebuie să ţinem cont de varianta lui adevăruri la care se raportează în tot acest proces al devenirii, dar şi la propria sa viziune privind reformarea viitorului prin intermediul ştiinţei, spre a crea un design aparte acestei lumi la care este invitat să-şi aducă contribuţia.

Asigură-te că poţi răspunde "Da" la tot ce înseamnă act de creaţie. Dar străduieşte-te să integrezi în leadership o formulă de control care să nu fie la discreţia puterii tale imaginare. Dacă vrei să implementezi noi reguli în leadership, încearcă să introduci noi intrări în zona dominată de nou.

Prima regulă în leadership: Nu stopa activitatea de construcţie a "noului" care face să existe acea realitate prea puţin percepută de ceilalţi oameni. Însă ai grijă să nu te adânceşti prea mult în ireal, să te pierzi şi să rămâi acolo.

A doua regulă în leadership: "Artistul nu se mulţumeşte cu ordinea inferioară a automatismelor, ci îşi creează cu eforturi considerabile o ordine vie, proprie, vădind prin exprimarea şi logica sa o oarecare înrudire între geniu şi nebunie." (Liviu Rusu)

Un promoter al noului care stârneşte aparente contradicţii prin creşterea complexităţii creaţiei sale, poate să câştige o experienţă complet nouă, palpitantă şi intensă, confirmând disponibilitatea de a se subordona unei solicitări care orientează în mod unilateral conduita sa pentru cunoaştere, spre o autoevaluare care se află la confluenţa dintre personalitatea reală şi personalitatea proiectată în decorul unui activ intangibil numit Utopie.

De aceea este importantă şi utilă leadershipului capacitatea de distingere între adevărul pe care ţi-l impui să-l forţezi, şi ficţiunea pe care ţi-o asumi prin actul descoperire-creaţie. Caracterul şi particularităţile ştiinţei tale trebuie să se raporteze la leadershipul care prezintă veridicitate şi siguranţă în funcţionare.

O zonă prea mult dominată de nou seamănă cu procesul găsirii unei ordini destul de logice acolo unde alţii văd doar o îngrămădire de informaţii, cunoștințe, formule empirice, conexiuni, contradicţii sau incerttudini.

Făptuitorul reaşezării resorturilor lumii interioare este omul care trăiește cu rezultatele experienței de redefinire personală, având ca impuls de putere acel leadership performant bazat pe idei novatoare şi cu aplicabilitate practică. Pentru a avea un impact deosebit asupra susţinătorilor, acest leadership trebuie să fie credibil. Are și el limitele sale.

Alunecarea în imposibil şi incredibil va avea efecte contrare. "Somnul raţiunii zămisleşte monştri", spunea odată pictorul spaniol Francisco Goya. Şi, tot aşa, somnul plin de vise fantasmagorice, ireale, creează condiţii propice pentru începutul sfârşitului în leadership.

Fara educație nu se poate ajunge la cunoaștere

On Aprilie 15, 2020

Concentrează-te pe ceea ce poți controla, astfel încât să poți recâștiga un anumit sentiment de control asupra a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă.

Revelația mea nu avea însă lumina orbitoare a cunoașterii supreme, ci semăna mai degrabă cu verzuiul pestilențial, ireal al capelei, care mă făcea să mă simt vinovat și apăsat. Nu Dumnezeu vorbea în mine, erau doar toate gândurile mele ce se decantau și deveneau clare, făcându-mă să înțeleg că cea mai profundă doctrină a Bisericii nu se află inevitabil în contradicție cu gândirea, știința și rațiunea. Această înțelegere nu m-a ajutat totuși deloc, deoarece nu-l simțeam pe Dumnezeu în nici un alt fel. Știam numai că Biserica e legea, rânduiala și ordinea, indispensabile pentru omul de rând, care, fără educație, nu putea ajunge la cunoaștere și trebuia așadar doar să creadă. Corupția unuia din membrii săi nu corupea Biserica, pentru că aceasta era construită de oameni, iar omul este o ființă limitată și supusă tuturor legilor unei lumi finite. Poate că multe congregații, multe mănăstiri deveniseră prea lumești, așa că meritau batjocura oamenilor, însă înțelegeam acum de ce atâția oameni talentați se călugăriseră și renunțaseră la fosta lor viață.

Cei mai mulți erau mulțumiți cu rânduiala și credința și nu aveau nevoie de mai mult, dar asta nu era și nu puteau să fie suficient pentru toți, iar eu eram unul dintre aceia care nu se puteau mulțumi niciodată cu atât. De aici se trăgea sentimentul incurabil de vinovăție care nu-mi dădea pace, tristețea aceea care-mi umbrea toată fericirea. Mie mi se cerea mai mult decât celorlalți. Ceva din mine îmi cerea mai mult decât altora, oricât de tare mă împotriveam. Era o poruncă nemiloasă și neclintită, dar nu știam de unde vine însă nu voiam să las capul jos. Așa să fie, mă gândeam eu, asta să fie știința mea și să-mi zădărnicească toate eforturile. *****

Leadership: Poţi să imprimi o mişcare asupra a ceea ce este imuabil şi omniprezent, prin revelaţia unei cunoaşteri bazată pe interpretarea propriei imagini prin ambiguitate şi tăinuire?

Tot ceea ce gândim, spunem în fel şi chip, chiar dacă cuvintele sunt acoperite de o mistică autentic creştină, se datorează unei cunoaşteri supreme izvorâtă din necesitatea de a învăţa din erori şi greşeli, adică din necesitatea de a suplini anumite limitări inerente condiţiei umane. Devenim aspri cu noi înşine atunci când nu ne ridicăm la nivelul avansat al cunoaşterii care ne poate determina schimbarea nivelului de trai, sau abandonarea condiţiei de spectator în favoarea celei de participant la o poveste de mare succes.

Tot gândirea, ştiinţa şi raţiunea ne arată ca tot ceea ce ne înconjoară şi ne conturează psihicul și obiceiurile cotidiene, pentru fiecare fărâmă de existență și de unicitate, se interpune unei decizii care poate produce un efect de "revelaţie de dincolo de gard", dacă şi numai dacă se intensifică reacţia de tip „luptă sau fugi”. Practic, revelaţia este ceea se petrece în mintea noastră referitor la o anumită schimbare atunci când faptele pe care le săvârşim accelerează mişcările întâmplătoare ale unor evenimente şi fenomene singulare.

Din necesitatea de a menţine în permanenţă un nivel ridicat al cunoaşterii, investim în educaţia minţii şi a sufletului, dar ne axăm în acelaşi timp pe acea intervenţie nevăzută prin care "Intervenţia Divină" furnizează oamenilor cunoştinţe despre sine şi aduce completări cunoaşterii naturale despre sine. Or ceea ce este imuabil şi omniprezent se află în strânsă legătură cu ceea ce mintea poate surprinde dincolo de realitatea care se arată dură sau surprinzătoare, prea puţin acceptată de mulţi, şi anume că cel mai înalt sens pe care îl putem atribui vieţii este ocazia de a descoperi universul ştiinţei. Oamenii din spatele experimentelor au înţeles cel mai bine care este raţionalitatea universului şi adevărata menire a vieţii.

Or adevărata menire a vieţii nu este să cunoşti fericirea sau dragostea, ci să alimentezi expansiunea accelerată a universului cu noi creaţii, idei, descoperiri şi invenţii, dar şi cu sentimente şi planuri, cu trăiri de moment şi amintiri. Cea mai înaltă dragoste vine din zona ştiinţei, din cunoştinţele noastre spirituale, şi nu din acea stare în care ai impresia că toată lumea e a ta, când de fapt nu ai contribuit cu nimic la dezvoltarea ei.

Adevărata educaţie a omului de ştiinţă se regăseşte în procesul prin care el îşi dezvoltă capacitatea de a se raporta la zone tot mai extinse ale existenţei, cum ar fi pătrunderea într-o realitate care se configurează din capacitatea sinelui de a se proiecta în exterior ca un fel de substituire a lui Dumnezeu.

În Concluzie: Cunoaşterea bazată pe interpretarea propriei imagini prin ambiguitate şi tăinuire este o realitate bazată pe exemplul unei vieţi caracterizate de lipsa unei reale acceptări de sine, însemnând că nu eşti capabil să îţi percepi adevărata ta valoare (ea se poate câştiga printr-o revelaţie de tipul: "Concentrează-te pe ceea ce poți controla, astfel încât să poți recâștiga un anumit sentiment de control asupra a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă.")

Fără educație nu se poate ajunge la cunoaștere, mai ales dacă educaţia nu este sinonimă cu acţiunea conştientă, organizată, desfăşurată în faţa unei realităţi greu de acceptat, dar care odată înţeleasă te eliberează de limitele unei lumi guvernată de iluzii, şi incapabilă să înţeleagă altceva în afara propriilor temeri şi necesităţi.

Un om al ştiinţei este un adept al filosofiei că datoria omului este de a ajunge la asemănarea cu Dumnezeu prin cele 5 experienţe universale: creaţie, descoperire, inventică, cercetare şi transformare.

Farmecul vieţii

On Octombrie 09, 2009

Întoarce-te la tine însuţi, pentru ca realitatea să rezoneze în jurul tău după cum vrei tu.

Versurile unui vechi cântec, prelucrat de mulţi scriitori, sună cam aşa: „ Încă de pe timpul lui Ra, vremurile cele vechi se duc şi în locul lor vin altele noi. În fiecare dimineaţă soarele răsare şi în fiecare seară se ascunde la asfinţit. Bărbaţii zămislesc, femeile nasc, fiecare piept respiră aer proaspăt. Dar toţi cei care s-au născut, toţi până la unul, merg spre locul hărăzit omului. "

Locul spre care ne îndreptăm nu-l ştim precis, nu-l cunoaştem, ci poate doar îl putem intui într-o mică măsură, dar şi în această mică măsură există o mare umbră de îndoială - pentru că viitorul este incert şi greu de anticipat. Nu putem şti cu certitudine ce ne va aduce ziua de mâine, nu putem şti dacă vom avea parte de o surpriză plăcută sau, dimpotrivă, dacă vom fi loviţi de ghinion aşa cum li se întâmplă multora. Nu doresc să par pesimist sau melancolic, dar dacă zarurile destinului fiecăruia dintre noi au fost aruncate şi jocurile au fost făcute, nu mai putem schimba nimic. Ne îndreptăm precum glonţul, direct, sigur şi precis spre locul predestinat.

Leadership: Recurgi la explorarea şi integrarea adecvată a provocărilor şi cerinţelor vieţii într-un nou template empiric, pentru determinarea reprezentării unui traseu personalizat în raport cu un timp oarecare?

Cu alte cuvinte viaţa fiecăruia este o carte cu atâtea pagini câte zile are de trăit; putem citi în fiecare zi paginile precedente de la ziua nr. 1 dar nu putem citi paginile următoare, ce aparţin viitorului. În linii mari, această carte are capitole ale căror titluri sunt „preformate" iar cu ce umplem respectivele capitole depinde într-o mare măsură de noi, de modul cum abordăm conţinutul capitolului şi de împrejurări. Cu ce umpli capitolele cărţii tale?

Este oare adevărat că toate sunt deşertăciune în această lume, că gândurile oamenilor sunt schimbătoare? Să analizăm puţin faptele. Zilnic aflăm noutăţi despre ce se petrece în lume, şi ce constatăm?

Azi unii oameni petrec în voie, se simt bine şi aspiră spre orizonturi îndepărtate. Următoarea zi, aceeaşi oameni devin trişti şi pesimişti, ocupaţi peste măsură cu munca şi, năpădiţi de griji şi frământări nu-şi mai pot permite luxul de a petrece în stil mare. Azi unii oameni se aliază, formează un tandem redutabil, puternic, aproape perfect şi luptă în vederea atingerii aceluiaşi ideal. Următoarea zi, aceeaşi oameni rup alianţa, se spurcă unii pe alţii, certându-se până la lacrimi şi înjurături. Când se împacă, când se ceartă. Azi prieteni, mâine duşmani. Poimâine iarăşi prieteni. Răspoimâine iar duşmani. Şi tot aşa.

Omul crud şi mişel, mama care ajunge soţia ucigaşului fiului ei, ibovnica ce plănuieşte înşelăciunea în clipa dezmierdărilor, hoţul care scapă cu basma curată, etc. Şi tot aşa, la fel ca dintotdeauna. Unii sunt cinstiţi, alţii necinstiţi. Azi este soare pentru unii, mâine înnorat şi deprimant pentru alţii. Azi unii o duc rău, mâine extraordinar de bine. Roată se învârte în cerc, neîncetat, de când lumea şi pământul - aceleaşi peripeţii, aceleaşi tristeţi şi bucurii, aceeaşi comedie umană în care doar actorii se schimbă, scenariul rămânând acelaşi. Leadershipul este un joc de echipă, dar în comedia umană, mulţi preferă să joace individual, cum le convine lor, fără să ţină cont de niciun fel de reguli sau principii.

Leadership: Poţi să defineşti un nou template al modulului de imagine "LOSSLESS" care să servească drept exemplu la categoria "revizuirea conţinutului demn de a fi reţinut" ?

Asta este lumea în care trăim, bună sau rea, dreaptă sau nedreaptă, convenabilă sau nu. Scriitorul polonez Boleslaw Prus spunea că lumea este ca fluviile şi munţii. „ Un fluviu, atâta vreme cât curge mereu într-o singură parte, îţi pare că-i mort; pe când, dacă o ia la stânga ori la dreapta, capătă farmec. Şi tot aşa se întâmplă şi cu munţii: dacă ar fi deopotrivă de înalţi ar plictisi, pe când aşa, piscurile lor cu înălţimi felurite şi văile adânci îţi încântă vederea. "

Încearcă să nu îngădui inimii tale să se mâhnească de lucrurile rele, urâte şi dăunătoare care se petrec în lume, ci încearcă să trăieşti după cum ai vrea tu şi după mijloacele pe care le ai la dispoziţie. Viaţa este cel mai mare bun al nostru. Încearcă să petreci în voioşie fiecare zi, alungă grijile deoparte şi înveseleşte-te. Luminează-te la faţă şi uită-te cu admiraţie la lucrurile din jur. Bucură-te de clipele de fericire pe care le trăieşti şi le împarţi cu cei dragi. Încearcă să guşti din farmecul vieţii...

Imaginea "LOSSLESS" surprinde tot ceea ce experienţa vieţii ţi-a adus ca o promisiune de explorare a emoţiilor şi a modului în care acestea te pot afecta pe plan personal sau profesional. Nu doar regrete şi note de speranţă care rămân ca nişte vânătăi vechi, vorbind despre deciziile luate pe parcurs, ci ca un efect a ceea ce eşti capabil să duci la bun sfârşit într-o realitate care este în acelaşi timp unitate deschisă şi pluralitate complexă.

Întoarce-te la tine însuţi, pentru ca realitatea să rezoneze în jurul tău după cum vrei tu.

Să determini reprezentarea unui traseu personalizat în raport cu un timp oarecare înseamnă să-ţi dezvolţi o formă de angajament pentru ceea ce viaţa aşteaptă de la tine chiar şi atunci când nu poţi să-i încuviinţezi actul de acceptare în ceea ce comportă ea ca aspiraţie spre extindere sau spre extincţie.

Faţa nevăzută a leadershipului

Momentele de cumpănă când se poate produce o destabilizare a Eului pot fi cu atât mai dese cu cât procesul de creaţie al artei tale este mai aproape de desăvârşire.

Cella Serghi este scriitoarea care nu-şi poate uita trecutul atât de adâncit în opera altor scriitori din preajma ei. Atât de bine îşi exprimă sentimentele în privinţa lor, adică după cum predomină cele plăcute sau neplăcute, încât ne este greu să ne facem o părere despre felul minţii ei de a se proteja de lucrurile pe care nu este pregătită să le accepte. În memoriile ei îl regăsim pe scriitorul Mihail Sebastian, de care Cella se simte nu doar atrasă enorm, dar întristată de felul lui de a se dărui unei activităţi scriitoriceşti care îi va marca destinul:

Ceea ce ne emoţionează cu deosebire în lumina sfârşitului tragic al lui Mihail Sebastian, sunt paginile unde stăruie asupra morţii lui Proust. Atât de mult lipsesc până şi umbra presimţirii, neliniştea cât de vagă a propriului său destin în tot ce scrie despre moartea scriitorului francez, încât aceste rânduri ni-l fac mai viu. Cuvântul "moarte" pe care-l pronunţă atât de des le dă un ciudat surplus de viaţă. Rând pe rând, cu excepţionale posibilităţi de analiză, de amănunţire pe diferite compartimente ale corespondenţei, cu o dragoste pentru adevăr care e pe măsura pasiunii lui proustiene şi a talentului său. Mihail Sebastian va arăta toate paradoxurile din destinul literar al lui Proust.

Ceea ce o ajută pe Cella Serghi să se definească ca scriitoare de mare talent, ceea ce îi furnizează interesante răspunsuri în ce priveşte personalitatea ei care suferă de durerea unei despărţiri de cei dragi, durerea unei răni care nu poate fi vindecată, este hotărârea de a-şi domoli dorinţele respinse de o existenţă prea agitată, prea efemeră, prea îngustă faţă de cerinţele grandorii, prea înaltă pentru o fiinţă de felul ei. Practic, urmărind destinul celorlalţi scriitori din anturajul ei, ea devine martoră a unei grandori apuse înainte de a răsări.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi împărtăşeşti experienţa rar întâlnită de a trăi o poveste prin intermediul imaginilor, fără să devii parte dintr-un personaj care se complace într-o existenţă independentă de propria voinţă?

Ideea că o operă ce se vrea durabilă nu e sfârşită niciodată face din Cella Serghi un judecător nemulţumit al propriei creaţii. Dacă la autoarea "Concertului din muzică de Bach" frapează redactarea spontană, în funcţie de resorturi interioare dinamice, febrile, Cella Serghi se autorevizuieşte mereu, la rece, cizelând, aprofundând, reorganizând construcţia romanelor sale de la o ediţia la alta.

Am refăcut mereu Cartea Mironei, ca să răspund la întrebările care se puneau atunci şi se pun şi azi. Am răsfoit zeci de caiete în căutarea firului care leagă destinele eroilor mei, am refăcut drumurile pe care am umblat pe urmele lor, în căutarea mea. Mă accept prin prisma a ceea ce am trăit în afara mea, deoarece am reuşit să supravieţuiesc prin tot ce-au trecut ei, de la plăcere la durere, printr-o suverană măreţie faţă de experienţele pe care le-am lăsat să se perinde în voie prin faţa mea, încât să-mi pot crea cât mai multe puncte de sprijin pentru suflet.

A trăi totul în afara ta înseamnă să te raportezi la realitatea oamenilor care se confruntă cu tendinţe impetuoase de explicare a vieţii, schiţând portretul lor psihic şi emoţional din considerentul unor teme atât de profunde cum sunt: "Lumina şi Întunericul", "Iertarea sau Uitarea". Cella Serghi are un cuvânt greu de spus asupra destinului eroilor săi, dar ne lasă să înţelegem că nu este ea arhitectul destinului lor.

Asta se numeşte să fii artist adevărat: să fii credibil prin ceea ce creezi, dar în acelaşi timp să nu laşi să se înţeleagă că evenimentele pe care le coordonezi în plan artistic se întâmplă din voia ta.

Leadership: Ce semnificaţie poţi să dai existenţei tale cuprinsă între o slăbiciune de ordin emoţional (arta de a te accepta prin prisma a ceea ce trăieşti în afara ta) şi o descurajare de care trebuie să scapi (senzaţia că totul se va sfârşi) ?

Cella Serghi nu pare să trăiască doar pentru viaţa şi opera sa, ci pentru notorietatea celor care au contribuit la realizarea ei, o notorietate post-mortem. Confruntarea vechilor ei valori cu spiritul de sacrificiu al scriitorilor care au avut curajul să-şi exprime pe timp de război idealurile înalte de libertate şi unire ce încă animau sufletele românilor de pretutindeni, este însăşi visul unei vieţi fără cusur, visul unei lumi ideale. Un vis care pare înlocuit de o lacrimă amară: actul de trăire al realităţii kafkiene în care oamenii îşi doresc moartea, mai degrabă decât suferinţa.

Am putea fi tentaţi să credem că Cella Serghi reuşeşte să-şi trăiască tinereţea zbuciumată dând un singur sens existenţei sale: de a proclama triumful creator al scriitorului care a deprins darul cuvintelor și al simțirilor înalte tocmai în prezenţa morţii. Se simte la ea acea tragedie a omului care călătoreşte continuu departe de trecut, dar plânge mereu fiindcă oriunde poposeşte trebuie să îndeplinească rolul de actor principal pe o scenă mică, improvizată, în care tensiunea este tot mai acută, lumea urmărindu-i fiecare gest de omagiere a eroilor aproape uitaţi.

Un artist se luptă cu o boală necruţătoare: păcatul remuşcării de a fi în viaţă. Până la urmă, este şi asta un soi de reprezentativitate a condiţiei de geniu nemuritor, o trainică suflare ce-l animă pe artist pentru a gusta din cupa unei noi victorii înpotriva scurgeri timpului, o dependenţă faţă infinitatea nepătrunsă a realităţii originare, dar totodată o cufundare în munca unui pictor care se joacă cu culoarea şi forma undeva la graniţa între figurativ şi abstract.

În ea se produce o destabilizare a Eului fiindcă este incapabilă de a reacţiona într-un anumit mod contra evenimentelor deja întâmplate, o doare cumplit tot ceea ce a trăit frumos sau tot ceea ce i-a întunecat aspiraţiile spre o lume mai bună. Cu toate astea, se simte în stare să interpreteze rolul altcuiva prin înţelegerea propriului rol şi a limitelor în care trebuie sa acţioneze şi să se încadreze.

În memorile ei, Cella Serghi se apropie de desăvârşire printr-o abordare a imaginii unei conştiinţe artistice sub forma unei conştiinţe teoretice a tragicului, ruptă dintr-o îmbrăţişare mirosind a moarte. O singură semnificaţie i se poate atribui unei existenţe atât de atipice, pe toate planurile unei confesiuni terminale a unui personaj simptomatic: aceea a unei tendinţe de respingere a schimbării, fiindcă e mai dureroasă decât moartea. Ea are puterea de a trăi în prezent doar pentru că se raportează la trecut.

Leadership: Alunecarea ta spre marginile individualităţii întâmpină o forţă opusă din partea provocării de a te şti cu adevărat stăpânitor al unor patimi care par ireversibile?

Relaţia între natura omului şi destinul său, pe care Cella o resimte în urma deteriorării Egoului surprins între efemeritatea vieţii şi eternitatea mortii, asigură o corespondenţă perfectă între abordările şi consecinţele pe care le încearcă într-un moment de aducere aminte când singurul fir de lumină care mai răzbătea prin pâcla tulbure a războiului era visul de a construi o poveste a spiritului de fineţe, a unui intelect sensibil, călător în timp.

Amintirile sunt dureroase nu fiindcă te fac să te simţi singur, ci pentru că te aştepţi să nu schimbe nimic la situaţia ta actuală.

Cella Serghi încearcă în memoriile sale să exploreze cele mai sensibile zone ale fiinţei umane, arătând prin aceasta că este stăpână pe orice activitate a emoţiei care "pune lumea între paranteze", deci aşezându-se ca un pilon de referinţă în psihologia şi ştiinţa cognitivă, în receptarea şi înţelegerea artistică a experienţelor de viaţă educative, potenţatoare de semnificaţie şi inspiraţie.

Mai tind să cred că individualitatea ei, manifestarea activă a libertăţii personale de a gândi şi simţi potrivit nevoilor, înclinaţiilor, intereselor, capacităţilor eroilor ei, constă în satisfacţia de a fi rămas în viaţă, în timp ce toţi aceştia s-au dus, rămânând doar amintire şi inspiraţie.

Dacă vrei să pătrunzi acea necesitate interioară care reflectă voinţa şi puterea ta de a te autodefini şi de a te ridica la nivelul aspiraţiilor tale, care te constrânge să alegi în mod liber şi arbitrar între posibilităţile pe care ţi le oferă forţa schimbării, atunci întoarce-te pe scara evoluţiei tale până la începuturi, fără să te ancorezi în umbra a ceea ce ai fost.

Evaluează-ţi trecutul şi originile pe care te chinui să le ascunzi, şi construieşte-ţi prezentul în jurul unui pivot central de obiective bine întreţinute în câmpul consecutiv de forţe de natură pozitivă. Alunecarea ta spre marginile individualităţii va întâmpina o forţă opusă din partea durerii de a te şti cu adevărat stăpânitor al unor patimi care par ireversibile, în consecinţă vei experimenta o viaţă de refugiat, o lume de dincolo de cărţi, o mai mare uzură emoţională, o stare incontrolabilă de nervi şi tristeţe.

Triumful manifestării unei identităţi depline şi durabile este arta de a te accepta din perspectiva a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, atunci când judeci şi simţi prin prisma a ceea ce laşi să se vadă în urma ta.

Faţa nevăzută a leadershipului are ca şi corespondent dorinţa de a experimenta o nouă abordare artistică pentru a simţi, a urma, a interacţiona şi a te conecta cu tot şi toţi din jurul tău, fără să dai un sens tragic existenţei tale, fără să te abandonezi unei povestiri care te copleşeşte prin caracterul ei fatidic.

Fatala solidaritate a cărei pedeapsă îşi azvârle osândiţii

On Decembrie 10, 2012

Joacă-ţi rolul care ţi se potriveşte cel mai bine, fără să te abaţi de la drumul benefic evoluţiei tale şi a celorlalţi din jurul tău.

Cineva spunea că viaţa este ţesută din felurite fire, cel bun aflându-se alături de cel rău. Dar un caracter în pielea altui caracter, sau un soldat care intră în rândul inamicul? Care dintre aceste două tipuri umane, dintre aceste două personalităţi unite printr-o cusătură simplă, printr-o ironie a sorţii, era cel bun, şi care era cel rău? Llewelyn Moss sau Carson Wells?

O întâmplare nefericită, sau mai bine zis soarta s-a năpustit cu o armă încărcată asupra celor doi protagonişti indiferent de modul cum au acţionat, punându-i faţă în faţă, ca şi cum împreună ar fi putut să întrezărească aspectele misterioase a unei alchimii. Însă limitele dintre aceste doi nativi trăind sub zodia imprevizibilului, dintre aceste două continente cu un trecut și puncte de vedere foarte diferite, erau despărţite de un ocean pe care nu puteau să-l treacă.

Iar acest ocean, înspăimântător şi crud cu toţi aceia care se aventurau pe întinderea lui, care trebuia traversat cu orice preţ cât mai rapid, îşi înălţa valurile tot mai sus deasupra celor doi, fără vreun semn sau vreo licărire de speranţă că se va domoli prea curând. Acest ocean tulbure era Anton Chigurh.

De ce oare să nu ne arătăm mai puternici, de ce oare să nu încheiem o alianţă astfel încât să secăm acest ocean de orice fel de forţă? îi dădu Carson Wells de înţeles lui Llewelyn Moss. Presupun că nu este acesta viitorul pe care ţi l-ai imaginat când ai pus ochii pe bani, nu-i aşa Moss? Hai să-i împărţim, şi te voi ajuta să supravieţuieşti furtunii.

Interdependenta şi interconectivitatea dintre cei doi, dintre aceste două sisteme umane aflate sub presiune, fiecare în responsabilitatea celeilalte, părea a se întări în urma închegării unei solidarităţi strict necesare.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să te formezi ca om de valoare din poziţia parvenită din duelul: "Doi contra Unu" sau din duelul: "Unul contra lumii" ?

Dar o navă, oricât ar fi de trainic concepută, poate oricând să fie lovită la babord, riscând a se scufunda dacă echipajul nu reuşeşte să astupe rapid spărtura prin care năvăleşte apa. Măcar până ce ajunge la cel mai apropiat ţărm.

Ca nişte vânători care iau urmele vânatului, cei doi osândiţi la fuziune, cei doi vâslaşi curajoşi pornesc - însă pe cont propriu - o investigaţie pentru a da de urmele lui Anton Chigurh, nemilosul asasin. Depunând în acest scop un efort uriaş în condiţii greu de închipuit – supravieţuirea devenind cea mai grea povară.

Singuri într-un val-vârtej continuu cu consecinţe negative, al căutării şi al pedepsirii, Llewelyn Moss şi Carson Wells sunt zgâlţâiţi zdravăn, apoi azvârliţi cumplit de pământ. Definitiv. Mortal.

Ca o lovitură stranie a sorţii, ca o consecinţă a solidarităţii ticăloase a celor doi în încercarea de a se ridica la un nivel mai înalt, ca o pedeapsă dură pentru îndrăzneala cu care au pus sub semnul egalităţii două forţe inegale ca mod de a fi în lume şi de a reacţiona la situaţii neprevăzute, Anton Chigurh a reuşit să-şi atragă de partea lui norocul. Câştigându-şi astfel dreptul de a accede, triumfător, la şansa de a se integra deplin în cadrul acelei grupe umane care nu cunoaşte decât Răul, şi atât de des victoria.

Leadership: Îţi conturezi personajul în acord cu caracteristicile sentimentelor pe care le reprezinţi prin parcurgerea unui proces de armonizare cu deciziile unei justiţii de factură îndoielnică?

Pentru ca leadershipul tău să se îmbunătăţească trebuie să parcurgi un proces de transformare. Dar nu un proces de degradare. Nu acel proces pe care, dintr-un instinct slab cizelat, fără participarea ambiţiei sau a voinței cu adevărat remarcabile, l-au parcurs în grabă Llewelyn Moss sau Carson Wells.

Acea falsă colaborare dintre ei ce făcea salturi uriaşe prin ceaţă, acea solidaritate artificială ce avea în dotarea ei doar egoismul, încăpăţânarea, lipsa de principii, refuzul schimbării, lăcomia, nepăsarea şi posesivitatea, i-a costat pe amândoi viaţa.

Dar întotdeauna când doi se bat, al treilea câştigă. Singurul învingător a fost tocmai asasinul, Anton Chigurh, care a profitat de lipsa de colaborare strânsă dintre cei doi. El a reuşit să treacă la nivelul următor de excelenţă (dar în raport cu forţele Răului), pentru că şi-a sprijinit accesul la lumea lor, pentru că şi-a găsit un loc la marginea prăpastiei în care era evident că ei se vor rostogoli la un moment dat.

Leadershipul este o reacţie de atenuare a efectelor de tranziţie spre un statut de autonomie (de a nu depinde de nimeni), atunci când forţezi desprinderea de circumstanţele imediate ce survin când doi se bat şi al treilea câştigă.

Compararea unui tip uman cu altul, studierea rivalităţii dintre ei, duce la o ipostază nouă a individului. Un conector care stabileşte foarte bine legătura cu un Alter-Ego, ajutând la producerea unui alt fel de a fi.

Cu siguranţa unui mecanism de ceasornic, Anton şi-a cuplat mufele de alimentare a excelenţei cu acele calităţi funcţionale care guvernează leadershipul, precum şi cu efectele acţiunilor trecute, la o garnitură mai specială – statornicia şi tăria de principii. Reconsiderarea fondului de competenţe ca element unificator al unei schimbări vaste. O variantă de ocolire a pericolului printr-o menţinere a mingii în aer prin loviri succesive.

Nu iau apărarea nici unui personaj, bun sau rău, ci mă limitez strict la învăţămintele în materie de leadership pe care le putem trage din modul în care s-a desfăşurat acţiunea şi s-au prezentat personajele din filmul "No Country for Old Men (2007)"

Leadership: Te-ai făcut prizonierul unei lumi pe care nu o poţi percepe în loc să te serveşti de o anumită împrejurare pentru a-ţi întări poziţia de superioritate faţă de ceea ce urmează să te reprezinte într-un rol de mare forţă?

A merge cu orice preţ înainte spre atingerea excelenţei, fără a depista şi anihila acea celulă uzată din structura "Omului" din tine, acea caracteristică prăfuită, acoperită de o acumulare densă de valori prăpăstioase, de vicii, de practici străine felului tău de a fi, este ca şi cum ai fi prizonierul unei lumi pe care o nu poţi percepe.

Te pierzi prin labirinturi, ocolind drum drept. Îţi dispreţuieşti propriul simţ de orientare printr-o absenţă de reacţie la orice factor de stabilitate. Devii tot mai puţin preocupat de tine însuţi, în acelaşi timp nu-ţi poţi defel imagina că altcineva ar putea avea cu adevărat nevoie de tine.

Iar problema poate deveni şi mai complicată decât atât. Eşti dus de nas de propria ta "dreptate", care îţi creează o impresie falsă. Un amestec de timiditate, panică şi agresivitate care te separă de tine, de zona în care vrei să ajungi. Un gen de Carson Wells sau Llewelyn Moss care se atacă întruna, printr-o falsă solidaritate. O separare de rolul care ţi se potriveşte cel mai bine. O tendinţă slabă de îmbunătăţire a relaţiei dintre parteneri. Un parteneriat amplasat sub o carapace protectoare, dar în realitate grea şi ostilă.

Ori leadershipul care îşi îndreaptă serios toate resursele spre dimensiunea umană, este o chestiune în primul rând de timp şi de echitate. O modalitate de testare a capacităţi tale de a nu te plafona la standardele unei lumi străine de adevăratul leadership, în care prăpastia dintre tine şi ceilalţi se adânceşte tot mai mult, în care mereu te înconjuri de alt rol, în care îi apreciezi pe ceilalţi după un cod al dezonoarei sau punându-i la îndoială.

Singura împrejurare care te ajută să-ţi întăreşti poziţia de superioritate faţă de ceea ce urmează să te reprezinte într-un rol de mare forţă se produce atunci când eşti silit să procedezi altfel decât îţi dictează conştiinţa sau atunci când reuşeşti să vezi ceva bun într-o persoană pe care nu o suporţi.

Fatala solidaritate a cărei pedeapsă îşi azvârle osândiţii demonstrează ceea ce se întâmplă atunci când rupi orice legătură cu leadershipul de calitate prin absenţa sau imperfecţiunea unei solidarităţi solide şi de durată.

Aşa cum un jucător de fotbal trebuie să-şi pună la contribuţie nu numai resursele fizice, dar şi pe cele intelectuale, tot astfel şi tu, pentru a nu deveni o victimă a unei neglijenţe comise pe fondul uitării de sine, trebuie să-ţi pui calităţile de „Om" în slujba evoluţiei tale şi a celorlalţi din jurul tău.

Joacă-ţi rolul care ţi se potriveşte cel mai bine, fără să te abaţi de la drumul benefic evoluţiei tale şi a celorlalţi din jurul tău.

Făuritorul de talente

On Noiembrie 14, 2010

Defineşte-ţi leadershipul ca un "motor" cu putere mare de impunere a anumitor impulsuri stimulatoare de dezvoltare, pentru ca performanţa ta să fie apreciată corespunzător.

Bun cunoscător al trecutului, plin de erudiţie şi animat de o reală pasiune pentru artă, maestrul, pe care îl consider a fi cel mai important om din viaţa mea, mi-a stârnit interesul enorm pentru pictură, insuflându-mi acea dorinţă arzătoare de cunoaştere - specifică artiştilor deosebiţi cu tendinţe novatoare. Încă din primul moment în care am păşit în atelierul lui, am ştiut cu certitudine că el avea puterea de a-mi ridica nivelul de cultura şi de a plămădi în mine aspiraţia spre ideal, spre desăvârşire, spre absolut.

Deseori am vorbit despre maestrul meu. Căci el a avut puterea de a se ridica dintre cei obişnuiţi şi de a-şi depăşi condiţia. Clipele acelea în care, cu o nespusă grijă şi atenţie mi-a destăinuit din experienţa lui atât de vastă, au fost hotărâtoare. Influenţa sa a avut o importanţă crucială asupra formării mele ca artist, dezvoltându-mi puterea creatoare prin îmbunătăţirea capacităţilor de pătrundere a lucrurilor.

Leadership: Sinele pe care îl accesezi în prezenţa unei minţi sclipitoare este mai înalt pe măsură ce împlineşti un anumit timp fixat exersării virtuţii de a te integra într-un model de manifestare a sublimului?

"Binecuvântat cel care reuşeşte să le dea copiilor lui aripi şi rădăcini" , spune un vechi proverb arab. Da, totul devine posibil dacă ai in preajma ta un om înzestrat cu o imaginaţie formidabilă, cu un spirit creativ cu totul ieşit din comun, care posedă forţa şi are dorinţa să-i dea sufletului tău de artist "aripile" atât de necesare pentru a te înălţa deasupra lui (şi a celorlalţi oameni), prin valoarea ta proprie.

Maestrul mi-a cizelat talentul şi personalitatea întipărindu-mi în suflet şi în minte principiile unei arte realiste, direct legată de pictură şi desen, şi chiar legată de caligrafie. "Aripile" pe care le-a dat sufletului meu au avut o deschidere atât de mare încât am pătruns cu adevărat arta picturii, plină de înţelesuri adânci. Iar datorită inspiraţiei pe care mi-a oferit-o, o inspiraţie care mi-a stimulat în mare măsură gândirea şi apetitul pentru cunoaştere, l-am depăşit.

Da. Exact. Mi-am întrecut maestrul. El a fost onorat de însuşirile mele creatoare, de calităţile mele de observator şi portretist, m-a admirat şi încă mă consideră un meşteşugar al detaliului.

Sublimul este rezultatul unui proces de creare şi consolidare a statutului de autor al "elementului frumos" care trăieşte pentru alții.

Leadershipul are la bază ascensiunea, care corespunde, de fapt, unei stabilizări solide, identificarea unui combustibil personalizat care arde permanent, respectând parametrii de funcţionare. Această stabilizare te poate ajuta să-ţi menţii "relaţia" pe care o ai cu coechipierul tău cel mai apropiat de terenul excelenţei - cu sursa de cunoaştere şi de cultură care te poate duce dincolo de limitele pe care ţi le impui tu însuţi sau ceilalţi oameni.

O manieră care să ofere noi percepţii asupra rolurilor şi responsabilităţilor tale, care să te avantajeze pe plan profesional, desigur fără să cauzeze o ruptură în fluxul gândirii tale, oferă garanţia întreţinerii resurselor proprii de dezvoltare şi amplificarea impactului asupra evoluţiei tale şi a celorlalţi.

Leadership: Eşti pus în postura să confirmi valoarea artei produsă între rezultatul unei ascensiuni lente şi tendinţa unei ascensiuni abrupte?

Se pot distinge mai multe stadii ale ascensiunii spre marea performanţă, care stau sub semnul intrebarii "Cat de abordabila este arta?"

Ascensiunea lentă, dar sigură care se înfige puternic în atitudinea unei anumite categorii de oameni, caracterizată printr-o supunere totală a raţiunii şi a înţelegerii faţă de un ideal particular care nu se poate atinge decât printr-o cunoaştere avansată.

Vorbim aici de oamenii care nu credeau în principiile de bază pe care se sprijină adevărata măiestrie, care nu aprobau în sinea lor niciun fel de metode de cercetare sau de învăţare, care nu aplicau cunoştinţele şi creativitatea pentru distingerea unor noi percepţii asupra sinelui şi valorii personale. Dar care au obţinut rezultate nesperate, profunde, impresionante, fiindcă au acceptau să se supună unor influenţe străine.

Ar mai fi şi ascensiunea abruptă, în care s-au angajat pe cont propriu curajoşii, şi au căzut înainte de a ajunge până în vârf.

Procesul transformării spre atingerea desăvârşirii se desfăşoară în timp şi integrează întotdeauna gândire şi acţiune susţinută - care înainte de toate trebuie să se dovedească a fi nişte investiţii fezabile, menţinute ca ideal, ca structură proprie de mobilizare şi de rezistenţă. Şi nu să se bazeze pe o resursă epuizabilă, folosită doar în caz de urgenţă, care dispare după mai multe "porniri şi opriri" necontrolate.

Valoarea artei produsă între rezultatul unei ascensiuni lente şi tendinţa unei ascensiuni abrupte poate fi determinată, în principal, printr-o meticuloasă analiză a experienţei celorlalţi artişti. Eşti pus în postura să confirmi această valoare atunci când iei parte efectiv la procesul de creare a artei prin imitaţie, prin inovaţie sau experiment.

Arta se realizează prin explorarea de profunzime a experienţei subiective - de a surprinde acea clipă a revelaţiei faptului că poţi pătrunde cu priceperea minţii tale în ceea ce nimeni altcineva nu a reuşit.

Mi-am condiţionat vocaţia şi talentul printr-o muncă asiduă ce a necesitat nesfârşite exerciţii şi retuşuri. Dar n-aş fi putut ajunge niciodată un artist adevărat dacă influenţele pe care maestrul le-a exercitat asupra mea vreme îndelungată n-ar fi fost ample şi profunde. Sentimentul bucuriei pe care mi l-a stârnit - de a crea cu propriile mâini, folosindu-mă de propria imaginaţie, o artă pe care nu oricine o poate stăpâni, arta picturii - la care se adaugă, neîndoielnic, ajutorul pe care mi l-a dat întru formarea unui stil propriu şi a unei viziuni noi, sublime, au contribuit la propria mea evoluţie şi au constituit un triumf.

Atunci când sufletul oamenilor se întretaie cu sufletul celui care conduce, numai atunci când se întâmplă acest lucru oamenii îşi deschid "aripile" luându-şi elanul de a se ridica deasupra celorlalţi semeni, oferind dovada strălucita a însuşirilor lor creative.

Iar un lider desăvârşit posedă forţa de a le da celor din jurul său "aripile" necesare pentru a se ridica deasupra lui, aripi care dezvăluie orizontul nesfârşit al imaginaţiei lor. El este un făuritor de talente.

Aşa cum un pictor transmite un sentiment profund, fără explozie de lumină şi culoare, prin evocarea atmosferei, prin simplificări de compoziţie şi ton, - tot aşa şi leadershipul, ca să ia amploare şi să devină o sursă principală de know-how, trebuie să se autodefinească ca un motor cu putere mare de impunere a anumitor manifestări, reacţii, impulsuri care să dea startul procesului de schimbare, rentabilizând potenţialul de dezvoltare al oamenilor şi ridicându-l până la cel mai înalt nivel posibil.

Căci numai dobândind o nouă adâncime a conştiinţei de sine, prin descătuşarea motivaţiilor şi forţelor interioare, prin punerea în valoare a talentelor lor şi prin folosirea lor corespunzătoare, oamenii vor putea atinge măreţia.

Măreţia este un vârf al talentului de a vedea lucrurile mereu mai aproape de viziunea ta decât a celor care vin să înveţe.

Făuritorul de talente este acela care are ambiţia de a descoperi ce se ascunde sub învelişul de neputinţă, de îndoială, de ineficienţă sau de ignoranţă ce ţine captiv oamenii, ca în faţa unui ecran care îţi oboseşte ochii, într-un spaţiu în care nu-şi pot conştientiza sau dirija resursele interioare şi propriile capacităţi, care le micşorează dorinţa de autocunoaştere. Este acela care depune eforturi spre a deveni mentorul acelor tineri care sunt mânaţi de dorinţa de a face ceva deosebit în folosul tuturor.

Un lider desăvârşit are dorinţa şi posedă forţa şi mijloacele de a le da oamenilor "aripile" necesare pentru a se înălţa chiar mai sus decât el.

Fenomenologia Artei

On Februarie 12, 2015

Îmbogățește-ți leadershipul cu noi sensuri de exprimare, comunicare şi noi modele de raţionament, găsind acele unghiuri de abordare a lor care să fie compatibile cu diferite niveluri de putere şi control.

Trebuia să lupt din răsputeri că să mă înving pe mine însumi, la limita gândurilor şi ideilor risipite zilnic în fraze dichisite, prin însăşi parcurgerea celor două circuite de semnificaţii potenţiale: Q1 pozitiv şi Q2 negativ. Două circuite legate în paralel printr-un arc de filament în interiorul creierului, la limita dintre exactitate şi eroarea tolerată, învecinate prin fluxul de anticipare a unei lumi virtuale. Trimiteau fiecare în celalalt – ca un miraj în deşert – imagini ireale, contraste curioase care înlăturau ideea oricărei evoluţii sau permanenţe.

Necontenit, aceste circuite parcurse alternativ de un curent de inspiraţie electrizant produceau o inductanţă magnetică care tăia frecvenţele înalte ale ideilor de fond, aplatizându-le printr-o distribuţie de sarcini ce poseda energie de vibraţie înaltă. Fără oprire, ideile dădeau navală prin uşa deschisă a subconştientului cu viteza unei săgeţi trimise în direcţia unei porţi tridimensionale conectate la un spaţiu înghesuit între vizibil şi invizibil, alimentate de puterea lucidităţii interogative.

Evident. Traiectoria artei mele se intersecta cu ştiinţa. Păream, în definitiv, închis într-un orizont al ficţiunii comandate de intensitatea unor gânduri adesea incoerente, care îmi caracterizau stilul şi performanţa din unghiul gândirii de ordinul al doilea, al reflexivităţii filosofice – organ al marelui corp cristalizat, perla cea mai scumpă a sferei de creaţie. Bâjbâiam într-o încăpere străină, spaţiul unei imensităţi schimbătoare, condus însă de spiritul vizionar al fizicianului care îşi raţionalizează teoriile şi se menţine în perimetrul probelor tangibile şi concrete.

Marele fizician Isaak Pomeranchuk era preocupat de teoria unor fenomene care puteau să dezvăluie cele mai adânci proprietăţi ale lumii fizice. Eu mă preocupam de aplicarea metodei de a face ştiinţă prin utilizarea subînţelesurilor şi metaforelor fecunde. Cu ajutorul lor artistul-gânditor izbutea să adâncească despicături luminoase în lumea ideală a compoziţiilor de factură abstractă – într-o manieră realistă. Şi invers.

Leadership: Importanţa operei tale este determinată de măsura în care ea depăşeşte cadrul unei receptivităţi exterioare?

Fizicianul rus Arkady Migdal spunea: „ Atât în arta figurativă, cât şi în cea nonfigurativă, importanţa unei opere este determinată de măsura în care ea depăşeşte cadrul unei receptivităţi exterioare, de profunzimea armoniei părţilor ce o compun. "

Dimensiunea artei pe care o configurezi, analizată prin prisma elementelor de sens atribuite unor noi variante de abordare a ceea ce cunoşti sau percepi, trebuie să fie atât de plină de inspiraţie încât să dea profunzime, autenticitate şi intensitate înţelesurilor pe care le comunici – fie prin viu grai, fie prin scris, fie prin exemplu personal.

Receptivitatea ţine de ceea ce cultivi în mintea oamenilor şi de feedback-ul primit de la ei, dar se distinge prin puterea lucidităţii de a delimita aparenţa de esenţă, abstractul de concret. Înţelegerea unor noi noţiuni şi concepte nu se instalează imediat deoarece capacitatea oamenilor este limitată, dar cultivă predilecţia pentru particular, manifestată în ştiinţă, dezvăluindu-se drept sursă de noutăţi – experienţe de creaţie şi reprezentări ale unor lumi diferite.

În multe privinţe, putem să reprezentăm în domeniul leadershipului noi sensuri de exprimare, comunicare şi noi modele de raţionament - prin ceea ce trăim, dar mai ales prin ceea ce ni se relevă prin studiu, creaţie şi viziune. Metodele de abordare a ştiinţei şi cunoaşterii pe care le creăm, vor continua să acţioneze şi să se dezvolte în abordări mai importante - ca o punte spre noi perspective de evoluţie.

Receptivitatea Exterioară vizează însuşirea celorlalţi oameni de a fi atenţi la ce se întâmplă în perimetrul autenticităţii tale reflectate în plăsmuirea unor noi expresii de evoluţie. Aceste expresii, la rândul lor, surprind în mod alegoric acele realităţi manifestate în sfera de cunoaştere, ideativă şi emoţională, cu care resimţi lumea şi viaţa într-o ipostază de senzaţie, de nerecunoscut.

Putem de exemplu să comunicăm ceea ce se menţine în perimetrul tangibilului, concluzii desprinse în urma cercetărilor. Dar la fel de bine putem să promovăm imagini ireale, ipoteze, contraste curioase care înlătură ideea oricărei evoluţii sau permanente. Depinde ce anume vrem să exprimăm şi de puterea pe care astfel o căpătăm.

Indiferent de ceea ce încercăm să insuflăm celor din jur, idei sau perspective în cadrul unor scheme comunicative care fac din informaţie unul din fundamentele esenţiale ale dezvoltării, atâta vreme cât ele deschid noi puncte de interese şi noi orizonturi înseamnă că avem putere.

Puterea de a pătrunde într-o zonă care găzduieşte viziunea de a ieşi din obişnuit, îmbrăţişând acea formă artistică ce stârneşte curiozitatea exploratoare, fără să acceptăm sau respingem raţionamentele abstracte.

Leadership: Poţi să exploatezi un infinit de vieţi în mijlocul unei lumi trecătoare?

Marea artă - efortul minţii de a obţine un număr nelimitat de gânduri transformate în elemente de originalitate - este întregită prin noi ipoteze şi consideraţii speciale asupra percepţiei acestei filosofii.

Prin ideea de a face raţionamente abstracte, folosind o succesiune de elemente cu înţelesuri diferite, independente de experienţa directă, reuşeşti într-o anumită măsură să dai expresie unui nou conţinut de idei şi concepţii. Contează ca forma lor de prezentare să permită prelucrarea ulterioară.

Marea Operă sau "Arta care lărgeşte orizontul de cunoaştere" se compune din ceea ce încerci să relevi din imaginea personalităţii tale astfel încât realitatea cu care te afli în rezonanţă să fie ideală într-un context de tipul: orice reflecţie este acceptată, atâta timp cât rezultatul final este coerent.

Fenomenologia Artei aduce în prim plan rolul creaţiei care adesea transfigurează realitatea, dar stabileşte viziunea de a ieşi din obişnuit. Asta presupune să accelerezi procesul de clarificare a unor concepţii încorporate în „opera personală” care să fie sunt compatibile cu diferite niveluri de putere şi control.

Fenomenologia compoziţiei artistice

On Iulie 25, 2015

Încearcă să demonstrezi forţa acelei piese improvizate care înalţă orice imagine la rang de artă, pentru ca actul de creaţie să se concretizeze într-o operă de mari dimensiuni.

Imaginaţia mea entuziastă, prinsă în arborele unei scheme imense de ecuaţii, cu fiecare adaos de elemente vizuale care întrepătrundeau, cuprindeau şi depăşeau relaţia cu lucrurile din jur, producea permanent o cantitate de fluxuri de informaţie. Dar, fără restricţii, înflăcărându-se şi producând o pasiune irezistibilă pentru acel perpetuum mobile al reperelor estetice, ea putea distruge într-o clipă opera căreia mă devotasem.

Imaginaţia este tăria senzaţiei că aparţii unei lumi perfecte caracterizată prin însăşi incapacitatea de a o stăpâni. Eu mă voiam un creator fără margini investit cu capacitatea de a trece succesiv de la o viziune la alta pe fondul aceleiaşi compoziţii, un demiurg care dirijează lucrurile voit într-o anumită direcţie în contextul afirmării unei stilistici de factură expresionistă ce nutreşte ambiţia de a trece dincolo de învelişul vizibil al fiinţelor şi a lumii.

Demonstrarea forţei acestei piese improvizate ce înălţa orice imagine la rang de artă, pentru ca actul de creaţie să se concretizeze într-o operă de mari dimensiuni, implica un soi de tandreţe pentru acele realităţi ciudate, alungate din domeniul cunoaşterii. Să mi se ierte această confruntare cu câmpul putinţei mele de a sădi noi frumuseţi lumii deja cunoscute, după legi lăuntrice care făceau jocurile unor bunuri tangibile - ce putea fi la fel de bine intangibile.

Leadership: Poţi să te priveşti din perspectiva particulară a unei lumi care reuşeşte să nu fie a ta, dar care reflectă realitatea pe care ţi-o creezi în permanenţă prin gândurile tale?

Citeam într-o carte mai veche despre naturalistul Georges Cuvier. El lua câte o sepie, o aşeza pe masă, o diseca şi îi scormonea corpul moale, căutând nervii, organele circulaţiei, respiraţiei şi altele. El prepara organ după organ, desena, nota. Lua apoi melcii de apă dulce - Limnaea şi Planorbis - după care trecea la limaci. Şi cu cât diseca mai mult cu atât tabloul general îi apărea mai limpede.

Înţelesurile atribuite operei şi sinelui creator se revelau, în cazul meu, prin interpolarea părţilor lipsă ale imaginii plăsmuite, iar imaginii îi corespundea mereu o altă zonă, plină de ajustări, până ce se contura un tablou plin de forţă şi magie. Disecant. Prelucrător. Inovaţional.

Colajul unei lumi aparte pictat integral din imaginaţia unei minţi raportată la lucruri superioare, unde fiecare eveniment capătă altă valoare, unde orice moment capătă o altă dimensiune şi semnificaţie, îşi propune să explice lucrurile neînţelese care dăruiesc roade corecte. Uneori nu mai făceam diferenţa dintre imaginea văzută mai înainte în realitate şi cea a splendorilor false care se ascundeau în straturile adânci ale creaţiei mele.

Preocupările compoziţionale, ca în cazul tablourilor cu natură vie sau moartă, în care se săvârşesc aranjări şi organizări de elemente după consideraţii de culoare, expunere, formă sau mărime, îmi orientau discret atenţia şi perspectivele spre o tehnică artistică de interpretare a îmbinărilor de fond care nu putea fi atinsă prin mijloacele obişnuite de redare a ceea ce se vede. Ci, mai curând, prin ceea ce se simte şi se trăieşte.

Leadership: Poţi să defineşti compoziţia unei lumi ideale din perspectiva unei realităţi imaginare, astfel încât să desăvârşeşti forma pe care o ia opera ta?

Leadershipul se repercutează asupra a ceea ce te poate face mai performant dacă înveţi să observi ceva pe care doar îl presimţi undeva în tine, depozitându-l ulterior în corpul concepţiilor pe care le însufleţeşti în faţa artei. Dar acest ceva pare uneori tot mai ascuns şi nu-l poţi întotdeauna afla ca să-l articulezi.

Ceea ce observi prin intermediul imaginaţiei este piesa cheie din colajul unei creaţii care te autentifică drept deţinător al unui background propriu de mii de imagini în memorie care pot apărea oriunde, oricând, dincolo de orice, servind ca puncte de plecare în derularea scenariilor de evoluţie.

Imaginează-ţi leadershipul ca o imagine în care trebuie să surprinzi întreg universul şi că un loc de acest fel e un loc al libertăţii artistice. Te afli în situaţia de a arunca o privire piezişă în sus, în jos, spre dreapta şi spre stânga, ca apoi să traduci tot ce vezi printr-o lentilă nonconformistă, o lentilă prin care tu vezi foarte clar, dar pe care nu o poţi explica celorlalţi, grăbiţi să judece, nu să înţeleagă.

Leadershipul nu face parte atât din categoria vizionarilor, ci şi a artiştilor, fiindcă devine o utilitate individuală în folosirea spaţiului de întâlnire între creaţie, onirism, imaginaţie şi concretizări.

În această direcţie acţionează însăşi forma organizată a adaosului de elemente de reper, din rodul imaginaţiei şi al construcţiei de forme noi de transpunere în materie sensibilizată a ideilor şi sentimentelor. Acestea, din punct de vedere al informaţiei stimulative, asigură o pluralitate de perspective asupra subiectului de interes.

Orice lider-artist este condus în toate acţiunile sale după următoarea regulă: „ simte şi trăieşte tot ceea ce imaginezi. "

Un asemenea căutător de nou mai întâi controlează compoziţia la care se gândeşte, pentru ca astfel să poată controla forma pe care o ia opera sa. Este ca atunci când te îndrăgosteşti de o femeie: asta nu este cu putinţă decât dacă o accepţi în totalitate cu toate defectele ei. Dar la rândul ei, ea acaparează acea parte însemnată din tine care induce receptivitatea şi sensibilitatea.

Tabloul care conturează stilul tău de conducere facilitează tranziţia de la „producer" la „promoter"?

Aici, compoziţia (care trebuie să fie, în anumită măsură, măsura ordinii unei scheme imense de ecuaţii în care se folosesc proprietăţile realităţii pe care încerci să o aduci în conştiinţa ta şi a celorlalţi) reprezintă un ansamblu de relaţii între ceea ce plăsmuieşti prin simţire, vedere interioară, imaginaţie, nu doar prin gândirea de tip "comandă şi control".

Asemenea unui câmp magnetic ce acţionează asupra unui conductor, compoziţia (scoţând în evidenţă toate acele gânduri, experienţe, trăsături care te definesc) acţionează asupra leadershipului prin faptul că aduce funcţii noi de înfăptuire a noului, precum aceea de interpretare a îmbinărilor pe care le realizezi prin intermediul intuiţiilor şi revelaţiilor.

Nu uita că înţelesurile atribuite operei şi sinelui creator se revelează deseori prin interpolarea părţilor lipsă ale imaginii plăsmuite, iar imaginii îi poate corespunde mereu o altă zonă, plină de ajustări, până ce se conturează un tablou plin de forţă şi magie. La rândul lui, acest tablou conturează stilul de conducere care facilitează tranziţia de la „producer” la „promoter”.

The Producer este un plăsmuitor de lumi, un pasionat de design care schimbă realitatea în funcţie de personalitatea şi atitudinea sa. Creaţia lui imită realitatea în funcţie de atitudinea sa faţă de un anumit subiect, faţă de anumite curente ale artei, faţă de un fapt cultural, faţă de tot ce vede că în această viaţă s-a schimbat radical. The Promoter este revelatorul unei imagini unice care trebuie să facă înconjurul lumii.

Leadershipul este ceea ce observi că s-a schimbat la gândirea lumii după ce creaţia ta a fost acceptată ca o nouă viziune a imaginarului, unde viața e creionată în contururi mai precise unor noi orientări de abordare a idealurilor înalte.

Fenomenologia compoziţiei artistice aduce în prim plan legătura ce se stabileşte între artă si leadership, prin intermediul imaginilor plăsmuite ce pot schimba radical realitatea, în sensul unei orientări imaginative sau a unei renovări intelectuale şi afective.

Fenomenologia cunoaşterii autentice

On Februarie 04, 2016

Fii propriul tău model de inspiraţie, evadând din obişnuitul acceptării unor orizonturi înguste de percepţie a realităţii.

Mă năpusteam asupra unei mici părţi din hotarul numit "My secret plan" cu responsabilitate deplină, asemenea unui Jean Valjean care îşi încordează toate puterile pentru a-l scoate de sub căruţa împotmolită pe moş Fauchelevent. Îmi dădeam seama că efectul pe care îl antrenam asupra lumii era de fapt o replică a tentativei "share your own kind of hero".

Iar cum nimeni nu-şi poate muta uşor crezurile din el însuşi, aşa cum se mută o piesă de şah aflată în pericolul de a fi luată de adversar, era vital să urmăresc consecvent întreaga mea contrapunere în faţa unei eventuale erori rezultate din cuprinsul acelui hotar. Un orizont îngust de cunoaştere vizează ocolirea unei lumi onirice, neexplorate.

Văzut de undeva de sus, tot ceea ce se petrecea în această angrenare strânsă a experienţelor conjuncturale, între simpla explorare şi interpretarea diferită a evenimentelor evoluţiei mele, în măsura unei eventuale aplicări a constrângerii numită "Transcendere", ar fi părut fără îndoială o invenţie intangibilă, un caz de transformare a unui fapt divers în raţiunea de a mă afla mai presus de ceea ce poate fi gândit sau înţeles.

Abia peste câţiva ani, atingând sublimul unei imense victorii asupra unui gen anume de a fi, aveam să realizez că în tot timpul acelei călătorii in me stesso am fost cuprins parcă în mrejele unor situaţii bizare, demne de un joc "Xcom: Enemy Unknown". Din explorator am devenit conchistador.

N-aş putea spune nici astăzi dacă asta s-a întâmplat datorită influenţei convingerii că sunt mai mult decât suma aritmetică a unor simple imbolduri, sau dacă a fost doar o consecinţă a surplusurilor de aparenţe din care transpare esenţa. Un singur lucru pot spune cu certitudine: trebuie să fii un gamer ca să poţi deţine mai uşor controlul realităţii interioare şi să devii totodată lucid de ceea ce se întâmplă în afara ta.

Leadership: Obiectul principal al cunoaşterii tale se constituie ca raport între forța prezenţei tale într-un loc în care nu ai trăit fizic și forța trăirii tale într-un superlativ continuu?

O tendinţă a probei de a evada din obişnuitul acceptării unor orizonturi înguste, se resimte în faptul că nu poţi totdeauna distinge în mod convingător între cele două forţe opuse, altminteri definite în abstract. Este vorba despre forța prezenţei tale într-un loc în care nu ai trăit fizic și forța trăirii tale într-un superlativ continuu. Amândouă denotă calitatea minţii tale de a dezvolta o nouă înţelegere şi de a nu fi limitat la ceea ce numim parametrii convenţionali ai „experimentului” de viață.

Leadershipul, introdus în coloana vertebrală a performanței de a atinge noi limite, acceptă întotdeauna noi provocări, implicând experiențe variate de sine. Tu eşti propriul tău model de inspiraţie. În acest sens posibilitatea de a folosi și a exploata puterea minţii - de a sări în hotare alternative și de a instala versiuni alternative de observație, deci a vedea totul de undeva de sus, mereu de la o altă înălțime, trebuie tot timpul întărită prin convingerea că vei avea mereu ceva nou de învățat de la tine.

Obiectul principal al cunoaşterii de care dă dovadă creatorul unei imagini de tipul "o existenţă văzută în opoziţie cu o esenţă iluzorie" constituie alternativa unei lumi clonate după o realitate mult mai profundă şi mai avansată decât aceea accesibilă tututor.

Nu pot să fac abstracţie de ceea ce gândea un personaj reprezentativ din opera lui Paul Auster: "Nu ne aflăm acolo unde suntem, ci într-o poziţie falsă. Din cauza unei slăbiciuni a firii noastre, plăsmuim o situaţie imaginară şi ne cufundăm în ea, iar astfel ne aflăm în două situaţii în acelaşi timp şi ne este de două ori mai greu să evadăm."

Distingem aici condiţiile unei superiorităţi care rezidă din plăsmuirea și cufundarea într-o situație imaginară, care ne situează într-un alt plan decât cel ce ţine de convenţionalul unor situaţii tip. Este un plan fals prin raportarea la ceea ce ni se pare că trăim în realitate. Care este locul pe care îl ocupăm în perimetrul unei înţelegeri de sine stătătoare, denumită compromis?

Compromisul cu conştiinţa, negociind limitele unei izbânzi asupra inerţiei în asumarea altor perspective și căi de urmat, poate schimba raportul între ceea ce poţi cunoaşte şi realitatea obiectivă. Dacă te afli într-o poziție falsă, plăsmuind tot felul de situații imaginare, înseamnă de fapt că reușești să te ridici spre un alt drum, spre o nouă dimensiune pe care, înainte nici nu ţi-o puteai imagina și care aduce o contribuție importantă cunoaşterii individuale.

Conştiinţa are ca suport aprobarea acceptării unei realităţi pe care ceilalţi o neagă. Oamenii care nu pot să asimileze o cunoaştere nouă prin revelații autoinduse se raportează doar la argumentele oferite de realitatea din jur, pe care le evaluează raţional. Însă pentru mințile luminate, realitatea înconjurătoare se dovedeşte a fi uneori o închisoare, nu o chemare spre ei înşişi care facilitează acel „mult mai departe” al cunoaşterii autentice.

Un singur grăunte din marea înțelepciune a lumii rezistă la orice fel de temperaturi: „ Când te afli într-o închisoare fără gratii, cel mai îngrozitor lucru este că nu eşti conştient de ecranele care închid orizontul; rătăceşti printr-o ceaţă deasă, crezând că vezi prin ea. Nici nu bănuieşti existenţa lucrurilor care-ţi scapă. "

Dobândirea progresivă a unei cunoaşteri tot mai complexe este rezultatul unei creaţii individualizatoare, de bună calitate, care pune accent pe realitatea văzută în opoziţie cu existenţa cotidiană a fiecăruia.

Fenomenologia cunoaşterii autentice aduce în prim plan acea „declaraţie” personală de acceptare a condiţiilor unei superiorităţi care rezidă din plăsmuirea și cufundarea într-o situație imaginară, dar care face din individ propriul său model unic de inspiraţie.

Cunoaşterea autentică rezultă din interpretările pe care le atribui neîncetat lumii tale interioare, în nenumăratele războiri cu sinele, cu sufletul şi cu mintea ta.

Fenomenologia Excepţionalităţii

On Februarie 17, 2015

Descoperă acei indici de excepţionalitate pe care îi implică apartenenţa la statutul de model de urmat, împingând tot mai sus acele virtuţi care te pun în contact cu tine însuţi.

O dezlegare de enigme contura linia posibilităţilor ascunse de reflecţie, de trăire şi de exprimare, străbătute de o intensă beţie creatoare care mă făcea să percep altfel lumea. Navigam printre înţelesuri tainice ca o umbră magică în faţa fenomenului crescând al intangibilităţii dintre minimele şi maximele consecutive ale gândurilor de tip "Ce-ar fi fost dacă..?" - dublate de oscilaţia între a le agrega pe un anumit domeniu şi a le pune în plan fizic.

Tot acest exces de zel, actualizat prin înaintări progresive ale gândirii pătrunzătoare, fără de care tranziţia spre o nouă experienţă nu ar fi putut fi completă, stabilea baza de calcul a unor indici de percepţie speciali. Care vizau incomprehensibilul, implicat în reacţii ale conştientului şi subconştientului, îndeplinind un număr mare de funcţii de corecţie a ştiinţei. Reacţii de tipul A + NonA, supuse unor variaţii de volum, sprijineau căutarea şi redimensionarea oricărei particularităţi care încă nu fusese dezvăluită.

Se întrevedea în cazul meu aceeaşi relaţie dezvoltată de ataşament proprie bătrânului Pierre Munier din opera lui Dumas, care îşi identifica într-atâta viaţa cu cea a copilului său, încât simţea că trăiau aceeaşi experienţă şi nu putea concepe că ar suporta o clipă măcar pierderea sau chiar simpla lui absenţă.

Peste tot părea să mă însoţească această realitate spirituală plină de semnificaţie, plină de esenţă, plină de sentimente, capabilă să selecteze indicii de excepţionalitate din blocul unui univers de gânduri. Cu ajutorul ei îmi puteam clarifica şi comunica convingerile într-un fel în care ceilalţi să rezoneze, până când nu mai era nimic de cucerit, niciun continent de descoperit, nicio idee de apărat.

Leadership: Îţi laşi întotdeauna trăirile să iasă la suprafaţă într-un demers de exaltare a ceea ce poţi exprima la cel mai înalt nivel prin intermediul unei oglindiri în "ceva mai mult decât în tine însuţi" ?

A fi un gânditor profund înseamnă să te cufunzi într-o experienţă nouă de descoperire a sinelui, în numele unei abordări a vieţii construită în interacţiunea cu înţelesurile întâmplărilor care te fac să meditezi, să-ţi pui întrebări referitoare la diverse aspecte ale trăirilor tale în diferite contexte. Dar aşa încât să-ţi umpli sufletul cu o cunoaştere înfăptuitoare de lucruri extraordinare şi de noi schimbări de percepţie asupra realităţii, care să-ţi împingă tot mai sus virtuţile cele mai însemnate, precum curiozitatea şi aprecierea descoperirilor.

Întreaga lucrare a sinelui atârnă de numărul şi calitatea acelor reflecţii datorită cărora se poate ajunge mai uşor la scopul urmărit: recunoaşterea unei valori personale care să înfrunte timpul şi încercările vieţii. Felul cum gândeşti despre tine şi viaţa ta, prin intermediul ştiinţei acumulată în timp şi alături de impulsul sentimentului de apartenenţă la o conştiinţă mai înaltă, creează virtuţile unei personalităţi puternice capabilă să dea o semnificaţie nouă realităţii pe care o reprezintă.

Prima virtute care te pune în contact cu semnificaţia vieţii este asociată capacităţii de a discerne între ceea ce te pune în valoare în ochii lumii şi ceea ce te izolează ca factor determinant al unui cumul de stări spirituale. A doua virtute te pune în contact cu tine însuţi, fiind asociată ideii de transfornare a existenţei în ficţiune din perspectiva unei experienţe de limbaj. Aceste două virtuţi, adunate într-o vieţuire emoţională şi psihologică, formează statusul: "ceva mai mult decât tine însuţi."

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să accepţi în esenţa ta reflexia unei oglinzi aflate în prim planul vieţii pe fondul unei realităţi care se dispensează de verosimil, dar care îşi exprimă acceptul explicit pentru conţinutul unei gândiri a priori?

Poţi să creezi premisele de evoluţie ale unui leadership excepţional în baza procesului existenţial care depinde întru totul de sufletul tău, proiectând cu închipuirea (dincolo de controlabil) oglinzişul ireal al altei vieţi. A trece printr-o experienţă de tip realitate virtuală, navigând printre înţelesurile ei simbolice, câştigi o cantitate mai mică sau mai mare de informaţii şi inspiraţie care, ulterior, te poate identifica ca un utilizator al unui produs intelectual orientat spre zona de unicat, de prototip.

La fel ca Alice în Ţara Minunilor, vei fi tentat să priveşti necontenit într-o oglindă, către lumea de dincolo, situată în câmpul cunoaşterii de sine - la interferenţa dintre minimele şi maximele consecutive ale gândurilor de tip "Ce-ar fi fost dacă...?"şi "De ce s-ar întâmpla astfel?" Asta echivalează cu încercarea de a-ţi confirma viziunile de ordin idealist într-o realitate care se încăpăţânează să reacţioneze după alte reguli, ale sufletului, care pornesc în luptă deschisă împotriva raţiunii.

Oglinda relevă planurile diferite ale realităţii acceptate pe fondul afirmării sinelui în ceea ce numim căutarea unui sens autentic al vieţii. De exemplu, dacă te uiţi într-o oglindă nu te vezi doar pe tine, ci vezi ceea ce te-ai aşteptat să primeşti de la o viaţă pusă sub semnul esteticului, conjugată cu sensul de bun, frumos, nobil, încrezător – ceea ce confirmă o realitate mai puternică decât visul.

Leadership: Poţi suporta adevărul care îţi poate confirma posibilitatea depăşirii unei crize de identitate, demonstrând că lumea de dincolo de oglindă este identică cu cea în care te afli?

Cineva scria la un moment dat într-un articol de critică literară: "Alice, fascinată de interogaţia dacă lumea de dincolo de oglindă este identică cu cea în care se află, se foloseşte de imaginaţie pentru a da moliciune sticlei şi pentru a o transforma mai apoi într-un soi de "ceaţă", ce face posibilă trecerea eroinei în Casa Oglinzii. La ieşirea din lumea oglinzii, eroina nu se întoarce pe aceeaşi cale, trecând prin oglindă, ci trezindu-se dintr-o reverie diurnă."

Nimeni nu poate limita o fiinţă ce poartă în esenţa ei reflexia unei oglinzi aflate în prim planul scenei numite "viaţă", aliniate imaginaţiei de a crea alte lumi, de a privi dincolo de ceea ce este prezent, în mod efectiv. Ne referim la tranziţia spre o nouă experienţă care nu ar putea fi completă decât prin înaintări progresive ale gândirii pătrunzătoare, care trece dincolo de fenomenele exterioare, stabilind baza de calcul a unor indici de percepţie speciali.

Aceşti indici, sporind flexibilitatea în abordarea unor noi viziuni, creează prin descurcarea unor fire limitative sau restrictive o anumită stare care te împlineşte. Începi să te vezi ca o fiinţă mai complexă, nu aşa cum eşti, ci aşa cum te închipui. Iar aceşti indici de excepţionalitate pot fi găsiţi numai în blocul solid al unui univers de gânduri şi valorificaţi apoi ca sursă primară de învăţare, de evaluare, de creaţie, de redefinire personală şi profesională.

Adevărul care îţi poate confirma posibilitatea depăşirii unei crize de identitate este construit în jurul convingerii că tot ceea ce gândeşti poate deveni realitate. Înţelegerea şi ascultarea sinelui, prin perspectiva minunatei structuri a existenţei „oglinzii", este un privilegiu al celor suficienţi de profunzi. Mai întâi de toate, leadershipul ar trebui să aibă ca suport practicarea esenţei sufleteşti prin lentila ştiinţei, apoi prin lentila conştiinţei de a descoperi sensul unei viziuni asupra lumii în care te învârti zi de zi.

Conţinutul unei gândiri a priori este formulat prin următoarea idee:

Tot ceea ce crezi despre tine poate fi oricând sugerat de o imagine a realităţii pe care nu ai mai văzut-o, dar pe care o accepţi ca fiind o parte din tine.

Fenomenologia Excepţionalităţii vizează acele îndrăzneţe căutări de dincolo de rigorile realităţii, propice exprimării revelatoare a sinelui tău, care conturează latura reprezentativă a modului tău de viaţă. De aceea acord o notă mare internautului care a îndemnat pe un blog: „Încearcă să-ţi laşi mintea să-ţi priceapă sufletul. Când sufletul a înţeles mintea şi mintea a simţit sufletul atunci se naşte în tine omul nou, omul care învinge."

Excepţionalitatea presupune să te ridici cu mintea şi cu sufletul la dimensiunea omului nou, care învinge orice limită. Sau, mai bine zis, la dimensiunea omului care continuă să depăşească limitele realităţii cu noi metode de reinventare a sinelui şi a identității.

Fenomenologia Imaginaţiei

On Februarie 15, 2015

Raportează-te la autenticitatea întâmplărilor povestite prin prisma cunoaşterii subiective, accentuând experienţele trăite în mijlocul realităţii pe care o creezi.

Greu de descris, precum spectrul magnetic al unei spire parcurse de curent, raţiunea mea părea supusă unor forţe de direcţie obţinute din egalitatea relaţiilor dintre real şi ireal. Construcţia ei nu putea fi desprinsă de muchia suspendată dintre veghe şi vis. De fapt, raţiunea care mă ajuta să-mi exprim convingerile şi punctele de vedere se transformase într-un hard-disc care parcă stoca secretele întregului univers. Vrând nevrând, izbutisem prima pătrundere în lumea imaginară.

În rânduiala specială a elementelor de simetrie aflate pe axa unei construcţii narative, imaginaţiei mele i se rezervase spaţiul unor antecedente cu rezultate pozitive, în baza unor cuceriri ale fundamentelor epistemologice dizolvate în tainele cele mai profunde ale unui transcendental ezoteric.

Lucrurile greu de pătruns sunt definitorii pentru o carte de proză fantastică, dar chiar şi aşa imaginaţia trebuie să-şi tragă seva din solul fertil al realităţii. Arta de a scrie este rodul priceperii de a selecta ceea ce este frumos din natură, tot ceea ce rămâne în amintirile noastre, trecând fiecare idee printr-un proces de simbolizare a realităţii în decursul unui timp devenit nemuritor.

Punctul meu de vedere se poate regăsi în finalul romanului "Pe firul pânzei de păianjen al memoriei", scris de Cella Serghi, după cum urmează:

"Când a apărut romanul meu Genţiane, murise Camil Petrescu. Dar cât de viu a rămas el în amintirile mele ! Cu câtă forţă trăieşte în personajele, în opera lui. Şi cât de bine ştia că existenţa morţii ne obligă să dăm vieţii noastre un sens, pe care moartea să nu i-l poată răpi."

Leadership: Eşti dispus să dobândeşti o cunoaştere experimentală a cursului vieţii „Eului" superior, fabricând o realitate în care nimic nu pare a fi ceea ce este, dar în care totul comunică şi reverberează?

"Nu sunt eu omul acesta", mă anunţau impulsurile de natură subconştientă, formele apriorice ale cunoaşterii duse până la extrem, într-un zig-zag ameţitor produs o forţă magnetică nelimitată ce orienta undele de frecvenţă ale realităţii spre o ştiinţă nouă. O ştiinţă a corelaţiilor şi a interdependenţelor între fenomene încă nelămurite, prin operaţii ale gândirii folosite aleator într-o stare de reflexivitate autoindusă.

Iar când omul împinge în lături uşa acelei părţi vitale din el însuşi care impune resetarea identităţii cu avântul imaginaţiei creatoare, este ca şi când ar trece printr-un soi de hipnoză extinsă, valuri de lumină pătrund la adâncimi diferite şi creează acel virtual reality - un prezent în care omul uită de el însuşi, uită de tot ce îl înconjoară.

În somnul provocat de starea Eului liric, un hipnotizat poate răspunde la întrebările care nu au încă un răspuns dovedit ştiinţific. Clarviziunea capătă grai. Subiectul se transformă într-un vizionar al provizoriului, într-un exponent al superiorităţii obscure. Lumea devine o reflexie a unui vis produs într-un alt vis, o expresie a unităţii dintre adevărul absolut şi adevărul relativ, o întrupare a unei pensiero magico evoluate care nu mai este dirijată de către atenţie, ci este subordonată unor factori subiectivi şi afectivi.

Un personaj al scriitorului Ion Moja, cuprins de aceeaşi imaginaţie lipsită de simţul măsurii a lăsat să răzbată întrebarea: "Cine te crezi tu, mă?" Numai că din lipsă a ceva de care să se agaţe, a cuiva în care să existe, a trebuit să accepte că a greşit. De fapt şi în ultimă instanţă, imaginaţia lui, ca şi a mea, se redusese la o cunoaştere pur experimentală.

Viaţa Eului superior poate fi identificată şi înţeleasă prin analogie cu o operă de ficţiune devenită realitate, prin modul în care eşti deschis spre a experienta o line de evenimente fără final, din care ţi-l alegi ca model de referinţă pe cel care ți se potrivește mai bine. Eul superior este o stare de continuă transfigurare, o împlinire continuă a fiinţei tale prin intermediul cunoaşterii pe care ţi-o dă nu numai calitatea de martor al vremii tale, dar şi întâlnirea biografică cu diverse figuri legendare.

Leadership: Susţii acea atitudine specială a inteligenţei care întovărăşeşte sensul conştiinţei înfăptuirii unei experienţe nemaiîncercate?

Un loc de frunte în încercarea de a îmbunătăţi calitatea gândirii creative îl constituie capacitatea de a te delimita de realitatea imediată, bazându-te pe tiparele de utilizare a reflexiilor imaginarului. Mai exact, trebuie să ai în vedere asigurarea dimensiunii experimentale a înțelegerii vizavi de ceea ce nu poate fi perceput în cursul modificării imprejurarilor exterioare. Această înţelegere trebuie să se deschidă spre reprezentările unei lumi virtuale, dar corespondentă cu realul înţeles ca sursă de inspiraţie, şi mai puţin ca determinare a unei forme de schimbare.

Dimensiunea experimentală produce scânteia creativă pentru formarea sau abordarea unei viziuni intuitiv-perceptuale, folositoare autenticităţii în redarea ideii de "coerenţă artificială" prin faptul că înlocuieşte firul logic al desfăşurării evenimentelor existenţiale cu dependenţa de factorul "întâmplătorului" care măreşte însemnătatea poveştii.

Această dimensiune sprijină nu atât actul creaţiei, cât mai ales dezvoltarea acelei noi ştiinţe a corelaţiilor şi a interdependenţelor între fenomene încă nelămurite, prin operaţii ale gândirii folosite într-un soi de stare autoindusă.

Nu degeaba spunea scriitorul român Rădulescu Motru: „Cunoştinţele reţinute de memorie n-au întru nimic valoarea unor panacee universale. Ca să devină folositoare, ele trebuiesc susţinute de o atitudine specială a inteligenţei celui ce le primeşte."

El se referă la acea atitudine de insuficienţă a înţelegerii profunde, care se poate corecta şi îndrepta numai prin rezultatul unei sondări interioare, întovărăşind sensul conştiinţei înfăptuirii unei experienţe nemaiîncercate.

O mutaţie a semnificaţiilor în chiar interiorul situaţiilor descrise în termeni de eludare a realităţii, se aliniază eforturilor de a te instrui şi de a te forma ca un vizionar al celor încă neînchipuite, ca un exponent al superiorităţii obscure, dar profunde şi reformatoare.

Factorul declanşator al unei poveşti care prinde cititorul de la prima la ultima filă este acea doză de realitate percepută ca fiind hiper-conectată la o singură structură imensă numită "viziune artistică" - fiindcă oferă un grad sporit de expresivitate semnificaţiei de profunzime atribuită rostului omului în lume.

Fenomenologia Imaginaţiei este prezentată ca o poziţie deţinută de omul care vrea să se apropie mereu de un nou vârf. El trebuie să posede şi să întărească acel simţ natural de pătrundere la esenţa unor noi cunoştinţe şi noi puncte de reflecţie printr-o „adormire” a raţiunii, preluând controlul asupra forţelor de direcţie obţinute din egalitatea relaţiilor dintre real şi ireal.

Cel mai important obstacol peste care trebuie să treci în lupta pentru o mai bună reprezentare a ta pe scara afirmării şi valorii eşti chiar tu - în încercarea de a te substitui unei mentalităţi care străbate ficţiunea.

Tu poţi să susţii dezvoltarea autenticităţii prin creşterea conştiinţei de sine în cadrul unui proces de subiectivizare sau chiar de negare a realităţii, printr-un act de cunoaştere indirectă?

Această iniţiativă favorizează o înţelegere a ceea ce eşti cu adevărat dincolo de orice aşteptări.

Fenomenologia magiei

On Februarie 03, 2015

Învaţă să crezi în ceea ce nu poate fi înţeles, integrându-te într-o cultură a ineditului şi a experienţelor unice.

Căutam temeiul realului mai degrabă în jocul lumii interioare decât în soliditatea lumii din afară, totul negru pe alb, împins de voinţa de a învinge imposibilul. Chiar până la negaţia naturii mele. De parcă mintea mi-ar fi fost încadrată într-un chenar intangibil care îmi conferea individualitate în raport cu un imens efort de ţinere sub control a instinctelor de explorator al neînţelesurilor. Iar învăluirea minţii mele într-o ceaţă a misterului de ordin superior, motiv pentru care toate păreau atât de îndepărtate, de nepătruns, îmbrăcate în ornamentul neobişnuit al aparenţelor în care se puteau surprinde semnele unui timp noologic, făcea să nu pot deosebi începutul de sfârşit.

Era o contradicţie greu de gestionat între tendinţele de înţelegere ale imposibilului ce îşi avea rădăcinile în jocurile preschimbării, în lirismul distilat al esenţelor dintr-un spectacol calculat al măştilor. Substantia mysterium. O nebuloasă în care se putea pierde sensul vieţii în rotaţia de 180 grade a raţiunii. Ce-aş mai fi putut adăuga orizontului meu perceptiv, atât de bogat în înţelesuri pline de neînţelesuri? Răspunsul e simplu. Nimic altceva decât noi varietăţi de forţe ficţionale, acţionând într-un sens convenabil repoziţionării mele într-un real care nu era totul.

Nu spunea Dante că îndoiala oferă tot atâta desfătare cât cunoaşterea? Aş fi vrut să fiu prezent pretutindeni în acea variantă a integrării mele în imposibil, ca într-o incantaţie magică, să fiu martorul tuturor evenimentelor de neimaginat, al tuturor începuturilor şi sfârşiturilor, să înfrunt nefiinţa, să stăpânesc materia, să acced la culmile ce par de neatins în viaţa reală. Dar stafia cuibărită în cugetul meu era mai tare decât mine. Ce-ar fi avut de spus Christopher Priest despre această înlănţuire regulată a fenomenelor conştiinţei care acceptă relativismul?

Bărbatul cu pelerină neagră păşi în lumina reflectoarelor şi în strălucirea lor intensă îşi ridică palmele la vedere, răsfirându-şi degetele astfel încât să dovedească că nu avea nimic ascuns între ele.

- Priviţi-mi mâinile. Acum îmi execut ultimul truc. Voi scoate un buchet de flori din mâinile în care ştiţi că nu am nimic.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri acea condiţie de excepţie prin care se realizează apropierea de caracterul activ al cunoaşterii fără să foloseşti negaţia naturii tale?

Activitatea diferenţiatoare a sinelui este principala constantă din ecuaţia limitelor care trebuiesc asumate şi depăşite în baza existenţei, gândirii şi conştiinţei. Iar includerea utopiilor şi realităţilor într-un complicat joc al dilemelor identitare, trăite în singularitatea unei lumi aflate pe alt plan de existenţă decât cel obişnuit, creează o versiune irealistă a abilităţii tale de a te reprezenta pe axa unei fenomenologii naturale.

Cu toate acestea, o existenţă a cărei sens se reflectă, ca în oglindă, în ceea ce nu se vede, poate să asigure acea condiţie de excepţie prin care se realizează apropierea de caracterul unei poveşti care vrăjește. A te afla la graniţa dintre lucrurile cunoscute şi cele surprinzătoare este o oportunitate de a te integra într-o cultură a ineditului. Este o experienţă unică de revelare a unei lumi nevăzute care îţi oferă şansa de a te reconstitui ca un fel de magician al metodelor de fentare a realităţii. În acest caz, ceea ce se vede nu se poate atinge, înțelesul se abate de la exigențele verosimilului.

Albert Einstein spunea la un moment dat: „ Cea mai frumoasă şi mai profundă trăire omenească este misterul. " El credea cu toată fiinţa sa că sentimentul tainei se află la originea tuturor tendinţelor din ştiinţă şi din artă. Tu ai capacitatea să stabileşti realitatea dedublării tale într-un cuplu de forţe opuse mentalităţii clasice? Ai puterea să-ţi metamorfozezi întreaga minte într-o minge a cărei înţelesuri să nu poată fi descifrate pe deplin de nimeni?

Asta înseamnă, în sens restrâns, să dezvălui o nouă faţetă a cunoaşterii prin trăirea şi parcurgerea misterului până la realizarea obiectivului principal: reinventarea personală. Iar leadershipul emite o frecvenţă diferită de aproximare a propriei identităţi, ce trebuie să coincidă cu cea a semnificaţiilor pe care le transmiţi. Ai grijă în ce constă magia ta !

A folosi negaţia naturii tale ca să realizezi o mai rapidă apropiere de caracterul activ al cunoaşterii presupune să foloseşti argumente credibile pentru a ascunde trăsătura ta de caracter dominantă prin combinaţii de noţiuni, idei, efecte. Acestea, chiar dacă uneori par absurd într-un anumit context, ating un anumit moment de revelaţie care îi determină pe spectatori să descopere că eşti cineva puternic, plin de resurse.

O asemenea negaţie de felul "Nu sunt cine credeţi că sunt" poate induce o anumită confuzie celor ce te privesc, dar reprezintă una din principalele cauze (poate chiar cea mai importantă) pentru care reuşeşti să realizeze lucruri pe care nimeni nu le crede posibile.

Leadership: Cum se reflectă îndoiala faţă de exigenţele realităţii prin luarea în considerare a adevărului aflat în spatele experienţelor care te individualizează?

Formula oricărui demers ştiinţific poate fi exprimată astfel: „ Vreau să cred în ceea ce nu poate fi înţeles ". Asta aduce în prim plan posibilitatea de a obţine o înţelegere raţională a misterului, trecând de la jocul aparenţelor la adevărurile care pot să constituie o nouă ştiinţă. Înclinaţia spre tainic, spre neobişnuit, apetitul pentru minuni sunt în firea ta, dar ele trebuie să constituie un fundament, un dat nemijlocit al dezvoltării ştiinţei pe care ceilalţi oameni să o îndrăgească, chiar dacă nu şi-o pot explica.

Dacă nu pui în valoare ceea ce este particular, fie că îmbrăţişezi cu precădere noţiunile artei transformării şi repoziţionările faţă de propriile experienţe, fie că, dimpotrivă, restrângând la maxim sfera cunoaşterii limitezi unghiul abordării feluritelor iscodiri ale minţii, atunci nu vei reuşi să te încadrezi în traseul spectaculos al evoluţiei leadershipului.

Destinaţia unicităţii - care îţi poate facilita accesul la fundamentele ştiinţei de a te rupe de orice încremenire în rigoare, pentru a te dedica unei alte realităţi, mai subtile, însufleţind noi tipare de gândire - începe cu jocul inocent al aparenţelor şi al imaginilor în oglindă. Ele îţi pun la îndoială relevanţa de a te pune sub bagheta unui Alter-Ego.

Îndoiala faţă de propria persoană, în speţă faţă de adevărul din spatele experienţelor care te individualizează, mergând chiar şi până la negaţia naturii tale, oferă tot atâta desfătare cât cunoaşterea – fiindcă pregăteşte terenul pentru descătuşarea ta de sub influenţa unei perspective înguste de înţelegere a fenomenelor complexe. Aceste fenomene pot produce diferenţe semnificative în rezultatele condiţiei tale de „imigrant” care îşi limitează pentru început posibilităţile de creaţie.

Leadershipul este acel ceva particular pe care îl sugerezi într-un anumit context pentru a obţine un efect general pozitiv asupra multiplicării relaţiei dintre ceea ce nu se cunoaşte şi ceea ce se poate face ca toate să devină posibile într-o realitate diferită.

Fenomenologia magiei este strâns legată de dezvoltarea gândirii creative care nu are nici o legătură cu omul concret, ci cu omul transformat într-o entitate superioară care nu poate fi înţeleasă decât ţinându-se cont de parametrii „ hidden ” ai propriei sale naturi. Asta înseamnă să cauţi temeiul realului mai degrabă în jocul lumii interioare decât în soliditatea lumii din afară, totul negru pe alb, împins de voinţa de a învinge imposibilul.

Să faci ca existenţa ta să fie plauzibilă prin magie, prin amplificarea sentimentului de putere şi prin crearea imposibilului, asta este demn de un leadership superior. De aici decurge şi una din principalele trăsături ale liderului - deschiderea la nou, capacitatea de a combina şi recombina reprezentările realităţii - şi dacă este nevoie, de a renunţa la ele.

Fenomenologia Particularului

On Martie 14, 2015

Urmează linia directoare a drumului tău spre o cunoaştere superioară, lărgindu-ţi percepţiile despre ceea ce poate oferi un eveniment de învăţare şi descoperire.

Continuam să cred în ceva la tot pasul, fără a avea dovezi că acest ceva există, atât de neplauzibil, ca flacăra unei lumânări ţinută de o mână invizibilă. Acest ceva mă scotea definitiv afară din oricare lege a existenţei, în neputinţa de a mă adapta unor condiţii de fond pe care încă nu le cunoşteam, dar le simţeam ca o consecinţă a suprapunerii realului şi imaginarului într-un ciclu de oscilaţii cu frecvenţe diferite.

Aş fi vrut să pot să definesc "ceva-ul", să-i scurtez existenţa devenită foarte problematică, pentru ca potenţialul meu de nebunie să nu urce spre prea mult, să nu cumva să ajung la vreo limită a deşertăciunii. Ceva-ul nu este pentru oricine, dar se poate produce oricând şi oriunde. Nu trebuie să răspunzi pentru faptele tale în faţa niciunei autorităţi. Prin întreaga ta fiinţă, regăsindu-te acelaşi de odinioară, un oarecare al altcuiva înainte de ştiut.

Aş fi vrut să înţeleagă cineva tainele pe care le presimţeam undeva, la limita situării mele într-o zonă neanalizată - a particularului - înţeleasă doar prin gândirea chimistului care reduce toţi compuşii elementelor la forţa atracţiei chimice. Într-o actualitate care nu vrea să devină trecut atunci când întâlneşte viitorul, ca o idee ce se pierde îndată ce prinde contur. Putea oare „ceva-ul" să-mi dezvăluie identitatea lui ireductibilă, invitându-mă la premiul cel mare: să mă dezvolt pe extremităţile unei axe continue a nemaîncercatului?

Fundul infernului o dată atins, Dante îl străpunge şi suie în cealaltă latură a infinitului. "Ceva-ul" se pune în locul unde nu este nimic, obligând fără să oblige. Un univers al închipuirii, greu de definit. Un fel de mister irezistibil care cere efortul să fie descoperit. Viaţa îţi dăruieşte un ceva aparte, necunoscut, indiferent dacă este al răului sau, dimpotrivă, al binelui, potrivindu-se perfect cu ambiguităţile sau clarităţile întregii tale deveniri.

Leadership: Te confrunţi cu experienţa fuziunii dintre ceea ce îţi scapă din vedere şi ceea ce ţi se pare evident prin comparaţie cu percepţia unei posibile unităţi a lucrurilor?

În permanenţă viaţa îţi dăruieşte „un ceva" aparte - particularul - un efect al abaterilor de la sistematic, potrivindu-se perfect cu ambiguităţile sau clarităţile devenirii - ca un fel de reprezentare simbolică a întregii tale aspiraţii spre tainele descoperirilor, spre „infinitul" lui Dante", dând linia directoare a drumului tău spre o cunoaştere superioară.

Ceva-ul este dovada lucrurilor care nu se văd, dar care ar putea să se întâmple. Este reflecția lucrurilor care au loc în inima ta, chiar dacă ele rămân nevăzute celorlalţi. Iar când ceva îţi scapă din vedere, înseamnă că percepţia ta asupra lucrurilor se devalorizează. Percepţia trebuie să deschidă uşa experienţelor vieţii. Bine spunea scriitorul american Wayne Dyer: "Când schimbi felul în care priveşti lucrurile, lucrurile pe care le priveşti se schimbă" . Ele capătă putere asupra vieţii şi asupra rezultatelor tale din viitor, vor prelua controlul neîntârziat.

Unitatea lucrurilor se realizează în baza experienţelor care îţi schimbă viaţa atât din perspectivă a ceea ce ar trebui să însemne "opiniile în legătură cu ceea ce este dat", cât şi la ceea ce se referă termenul "certitudine" asupra aspectelor care sunt importante pentru tine în vederea obţinerii unui anumit rezultat. Unitatea lucrurilor cuprinde totalitatea însuşirilor acelor părţi din ideile, credinţele şi din cunoştinţele tale acumulate, care pot să stabilească condiţiile în care se realizează accesul la o realitate făcută să dureze.

Drumul spre cunoaşterea superioară începe cu determinarea "ceva-ului" dintr-un tablou mai mare al lucrurilor care se desfăşoară în viaţa ta.

Ori de câte ori încercam să înţeleg cercul fenomenelor înconjurătoare prin prezentul viu al lucrurilor îmi scăpa din vedere imaginea unei realităţi strâmtorată de clipele unei trăiri ce ar fi trebuit să-i dea viaţă. Mă simţeam precum căpitanul Nemo în căutarea unui pământ îndepărtat care nu poate fi descoperit decât prin puterea imaginaţiei. Ceea ce mi se părea evident prin comparaţie cu percepţia unei posibile unităţi a lucrurilor era dorinţa de a experimenta o largă gamă de emoţii trecute prin filtrul dur și permanent al întrebării "Până când va funcționa ordinea şi firescul lor?"

Dar căutatul necunoscutului şi crezutul că l-ai găsit şi îl stăpâneşti, aşa cum doreşti să ţi se potrivească cu adevărat, în rezonanţă cu un nou corp de informaţii, din materia gândurilor răsucite în toate direcţiile în mintea cu care te lupţi constant, poate să înalţe până la principiu cardinal sentimentul cel mai deprimat de blocare, împiedicându-te să acţionezi în deplină luciditate.

Deci, nu te lăsa alimentat doar de geografia imaginarului. Particularul îşi are corespondentul nu doar în mintea ta, ci în viaţa de zi cu zi. Totul este să-l descoperi, să-l laşi sa te conecteze la focul tău interior, la acea energie care îţi dă puterea să te eliberezi din robia obişnuitului şi familiarului.

Leadership: Poţi surprinde esenţa lucrurilor care se exprimă în lumea ideilor tale, prin intermediul experienţei de a-ţi asuma o identitate care nu este suficientă sieşi, ci este definită de raporturile cu elementele exterioare?

Orice gândire se naşte din cultul concretului, dat de totalitatea acelor cunoştinţe care îşi au originea în experienţa trăită direct, privită din prisma transformărilor care implică lucrul cu sinele, permiţându-i evoluţia. Dar schimbarea percepţiilor despre ce înseamnă existenţa şi construirea unui set de valori, în funcţie de interesul manifestat pentru ceea ce eşti ca om, depinde de condiţiile de fond pe care se întemeiază „particularul" - rolul, evoluţia şi finalitatea lui.

Condiţiile de fond sau, altfel spus, împrejurările de care depinde apariția unui fenomen sau care influențează desfăşurarea unei acțiuni, putând-o frâna sau stimula, vizează acele aspecte la care te raportezi într-un fel sau altul, întâlnite în viață ca fiind nişte proiecţii ale unor stări şi gânduri de moment în contextul realităţii explorate. În strânsă legătură cu misterul care te face să fii altfel, aducând în considerare detaliile semnificative pe care le ascunzi în definirea ta.

Ceea ce te defineşte totodată te şi individualizează, cu precizarea că este vorba de aproximaţia pe care o dai în legătură cu componentele realului şi imaginarului într-un ciclu de oscilaţii cu frecvenţe diferite.

Poţi verifica valabilitatea leadershipului, care reclamă o recomandare pe măsură: „Acesta sunt eu", în funcţie de viziunea şi ideile ce prind contur odată cu lărgirea percepţiilor privind particularul . Să reuşeşti să pui o nouă temelie în locul unde nu este nimic şi să obţii o ecuaţie care unifică impresiile, concluziile şi aprecierile într-un soi de experienţă transformaţionala, să creezi un anumit nivel de conştientizare, un factor de evoluţie cu mare impact, din acel univers al închipuirii, greu de definit, aceasta înseamnă să ştii să te inspiri pornind de la zero.

O identitate care nu este suficientă sieşi, ci este definită de raporturile cu elementele exterioare, este o construcţie a relaţiei dintre percepţia pe care o ai asupra realităţii şi percepţia pe care o ai în legătură cu abilităţile tale de a schimba compoziţia realităţii.

Identitatea este ceea ce te aştepţi să găseşti nou la tine atunci când la tot pasul ţi se ivesc ocazii de a-ţi adresa întrebări şi de a găsi răspunsurile potrivite, chiar dacă nu eşti destul de pregătit să le dai o semnificaţie aparte şi să le transformi în ceva de valoare.

Legătura cu lumea se înfăţişează potrivit stării tale din aceste două intervale de timp: momentul când te-ai hotărât să te iniţiezi în tainele unui fenomen mai puţin cunoscut şi momentul când acest fenomen te-a prins în mrejele lui.

Fenomenologia Particularului evidenţiază o formă izolată de cunoaştere, dobândită prin lărgirea percepţiilor şi deschiderea minţii, cu scopul de a conştientiza noi aspecte pe care ţi le oferă realitatea înconjurătoare prin sondarea imaginarului.

A acţiona în deplina conştiinţă a unor situaţii ce definesc experienţa "ceva-ului", prin conceperea unui alt proces de realizare de sine, înseamnă a privilegia iniţiativa concretă şi personală în dobândirea unei cunoaşteri mai profunde. Iar această experiență are ca punct central "nemaiîncercatul".

Rămâne de lămurit întrebarea: în ce măsură acest „ceva” este adecvat existenţei şi capacităţilor tale de descoperitor?

Fenomenologia reflectării identităţii în monumentalitate

On Octombrie 11, 2015

Apropie-te de înţelegerea şi realitatea unui model de inspiraţie, arătându-l în toată complexitatea sa.

Se nasc primele imagini ale filmului. Ideea iniţială este cea a "reabilitării" acestui ţar ponegrit pentru cruzimea sa de toţi duşmanii săi, dar animat în fond de o singură uriaşă pasiune: crearea unităţii Rusiei. Figura monumentală se cerea zugrăvită cu mijloacele monumentalului. Un om ale cărui gesturi enigmatice şi înfricoşătoare sunt explicabile numai prin efortul său titanic de a crea în jurul Moscovei statul rus.

Dar regizorul Serghei Eisenstein nu vrea să-l absolve pe Ivan, să-l prezinte pe cel Groaznic ca pe cel Blând. Doreşte numai să descifreze sensul, semnificaţia acţiunilor lui. Ceea ce urmăreşte nu este o măreţie exterioară şi prin aceasta falsă. Monumentalul este un joc de expresie a caracterului şi a acţiunilor lui. Îl va apropia de înţelegerea şi de sensibilitatea spectatorului contemporan, arătându-l în toată complexitatea sa.

"Această figură înfricoşătoare şi atrăgătoare, groaznică şi fermecătoare, tragică în înţelesul deplin al cuvântului, va deveni de înţeles pentru omul de azi când ne vom gândi la lupta ce se desfăşoară în sufletul lui Ivan, înfruntându-i implacabil pe duşmanii patriei..."

Aceasta este ideea de la care porneşte regizorul. Din nou eterna temă: lupta pentru unitate. *

Leadership: Poţi obţine o anumită estimare a valorii experienţei despre sine, prin integrarea şi conturarea unei noi identităţi într-o creaţie proiectată în jurul unei viziuni unitare si monumentale?

Identitatea unui artist se caracterizează prin efortul de a crea imaginea unei lumi ideale, prin extensia mult mai largă a câmpului de utilizare a termenului "monumental", cu referire la visarea şi unica putere de a da viaţă unei opere la nivelul superior al culturii, sub impulsul unui subiect, a unei acțiuni, a unei desfășurări de evenimente în timp și spațiu.

Învaţă şi tu să fii un artist. Mai întâi identifică elementele vizuale care creează impresia de monumentalitate, care determină şi reprezintă o figură plină de interes, apoi încearcă să potrivești pisele astfel încât să construiești o imagine plină de dinamism şi diversitate a culturii tale.

Rezultatul provocării de a te încadra în ipostaza de unicat, abordată din perspectiva experienţei de sine care predomină în ceea ce te defineşte atunci când te oglindeşti în înţelesul şi întinderea unei creaţii de excepţie, poate fi semnificativ dacă procesul de dezvoltare a unei teme este permanent susţinut de referirile la un moment grandios din evoluţia unui model de inspiraţie.

O viziune unitară şi monumentală, promovată la statutul de operă de artă este strâns legată de optimizarea experienţei de căutare a unor elemente de comparaţie între lucruri şi evenimente, aventurate în înşiruirea unor elemente de limbaj plastic.

Leadershipul, datorită contribuţiei întregitoare a unui subiect de studiu, investigabil experimental, poate atinge nivelul de ştiinţă înaltă dacă sunt permanent evaluate efectele de sugestivitate ale raporturilor dintre aspecte încărcate de sens ale unui întreg coerent şi complexitatea unui ansamblu de acţiuni ce corespunde unei identităţi în anumite momente.

Esteticianul român, Victor Ernest Maşek, scria la un moment dat: „ Una din cele mai importante lumini aruncate de concepţia structuralistă asupra operei unitare este tocmai demonstraţia faptului că elementele structurale ale unui întreg se întrepătrund şi se condiţionează reciproc, reflectându-se unul în altul. "

Dacă aceste elemente sunt comasate într-un singur moment de impact, pe baza analizei unor informaţii complete şi nu neapărat după experienţa personală, atunci valoarea creaţiei va evolua înspre statutul de operă, născută din resorturile unice ale propriei aprecieri.

Devii bogat în ceea ce priveşte prelucrarea informaţiilor, posibil distorsionate sau incorecte, doar dacă te apropii de înţelegerea şi de realitatea unui model în care îţi oglindeşti măreţia, arătându-l în toată complexitatea sa.

Nu se înşela cel care spunea că complexitatea unui model de inspiraţie poate duce cu gândul la un act de creaţie. Căci promovând o puternică solidaritate între conţinutul creaţiei şi aspectele calitative ale unei situaţii concrete, bazată pe o cunoaştere apriorică conformă unui model de inspiraţie experimental, poţi obţine o anumită estimare a valorii experienţei despre sine.

Leadershipul edifică unitatea unei imagini care se cere a fi imortalizată în timp prin valoarea acordată viziunii din care purcede complexitatea unei existenţe grandioase în care tu însuţi (regizorul) îţi rezervi dreptul de a fi erou.

Fenomenologia reflectării identităţii evidenţiază sentimentul de apartenenţă la un model de inspiraţie, prin asigurarea vizibilităţii acelei laturi a eu-ului ce se manifestă într-un context specific.

Vei putea să dai creaţiei o nouă formă dacă îţi explorezi identitatea printr-o etalare a mijloacelor proprii de expresie, prin auto-observaţie şi prin reflectare asupra semnificaţiei unui fapt care surprinde complexitatea unui ansamblu de acţiuni ce corespunde unei identităţi în anumite momente.

Fenomenologia reprezentativităţii

Ridică problema timpului pe alt plan, aducând în joc întrepătrunderea relaţiilor dintre „Vechi" şi „Nou".

Eisenstein are, aşadar, de rezolvat o problemă compoziţională complexă, impusă de cazul concret care i-a apărut prin tema acestui film. Soluţia problemei timpului fusese căutată îndelung, era o veche şi constantă preocupare a sa, şi este poate aici cazul să o spunem. "Greva" era în fond cristalizarea unui fapt repetat continuu pe plan istoric, într-o fabulă care cuprindea o întreagă experienţă acumulată istoric, deci în timp. Filmul "Potemkin" rezolva aceeaşi problemă într-un alt mod, concentrând o perioadă revoluţionară într-un singur episod reprezentativ.

Optica folosită în ambele cazuri era aceea a concentrării pe principiul metaforei: simbol într-un caz, sinecdocă în al doilea. Dilatarea întâmplărilor din film ar fi dus la fresca istorică în timp. Filmul "Vechiul şi noul" ridică problema timpului pe alt plan, aducând în joc întrepătrunderea, conflictului dintre două etape ale istoriei omenirii. *****

Leadership: Poţi să atingi acea experienţă a progresului în stilizarea compoziţiei spre a obţine unificarea dintre subiect şi compoziţie, în folosul abordării unei reprezentări vizuale bazate pe metaforă?

Leadershipul se reflectă în formele de expansiune ale metodelor de îmbinare a elementelor ce fac din creaţie un act de comunicare. Practic, utilizatorul ştiinţei îşi comunică punctele de vedere vizavi de o anumită particularitate a modului personal de a se raporta la un anumit context sau subiect, concentrându-se mai ales pe principiul metaforei. Avem de a face, cumva, cu modalitatea de a surprinde mai multe cadre diferite de evenimente sau întâmplări, prin alte mijloace de percepţie a realităţii, încât redarea coerenţei dintre prim-plan şi fundal să fie cumulate într-un singur episod reprezentativ.

Preferabil, în ceea ce priveşte aria de cercetare şi punerea în evidenţă a imaginii unui anumit subiect, este ca aceste elemente să se distingă ca o formă de cunoaştere avansată. Aici apare tot mai des tendinţa concentrării pe stabilirea de principii şi atribuirea de simboluri unor componente cheie care asigură validitatea „produsului" promovat. Adică, filmul. Acesta poate fi bine pus la punct prin încurajarea concentrării pe principiul metaforei care spune că o imagine trebuie văzută ca o deschidere de drum, nu ca o uşă închisă, pentru a fi credibilă.

Sau, cum spunea cineva pe web: "Metafora trebuie să fie emoţional saturată, să creeze o imagine, căci imaginea este „glontele cu centrul deplasat, ea se înfige în memorie pe ani de zile."

Regizorii şi artiştii, în genere, urmează o direcţie de dezvoltare bazată pe cercetări asupra mărimii absolute a plus-valorii ce decurge din lărgirea semnificaţiilor atribuite întâmplărilor sau evenimentelor din jur, în relaţie cu omul, timpul şi povestirea redată. Cristalizarea unui fapt repetat continuu pe plan istoric, într-o fabulă care cuprinde o întreagă experienţă acumulată istoric, deci în timp, reprezintă factorul care determină proporţia dintre luciditate şi imaginaţie.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi revizuieşti viziunea despre reprezentarea artistică printr-o concepţie diferită asupra creaţiei şi asupra caracterul ei diversificat, încât să dai o notă de inedit unificării dintre subiect şi compoziţie?

Evenimentele au şanse mari să devină un episod reprezentativ pentru modul cum aceşti făuritori ai creaţiei înţeleg relaţia cu lumea, realitatea, timpul şi cu ei înşişi. Un episod capabil a sugera întregul ansamblu al aspectelor ce alcătuiesc misiunea de a da viaţă anumitor personaje, făcând mai captivant procesul de prelucrare şi definire a unor compoziţii, noi date şi tipuri de concepte.

Leadershipul, putând a da rezultate interesante şi în determinarea tipurilor de personalitate care corespund propriei înţelegeri asupra lumii, include raportul dintre luciditate şi imaginaţie. Iar reprezentativul este ceea ce se dezvoltă prin exploatarea acestui raport. Mai trebuie luat în calcul faptul că o creaţie se poate pune în valoare numai prin capacitatea regizorului de a se ralia unor „norme” nescrise ale momentului, şi de a se focaliza mai mult pe formă decât pe conţinut. De exemplu poate fi mai important să înţelegi ideea pe care o transmite filmul, decât alegerea unei imagini cu mare impact la public.

Numai cine reuşeşte să conceapă o întâietate oarecare a reprezentativului prin ridicarea problemei timpului pe alt plan, aducând în joc întrepătrunderea relaţiilor dintre „Vechi” şi „Nou”, va putea să cuprindă acea experienţă a progresului în a obţine unificarea dintre subiect şi compoziţie.

A concentra o imagine într-un singur episod reprezentativ înseamnă să dai o notă de veridicitate compoziţiei care triumfă printr-o înlănţuire ingenioasă a secvenţelor care conţin valoarea de "intensitate absolută" la nivel de mesaj transmis.

Fenomenologia reprezentativităţii implică acea calitate a artiştilor de a scoate în evidenţă trăsăturile unice ale unui anumit subiect cercetat, în relaţie cu lumea, realitatea, timpul şi cu ei înşişi, cu scopul de a obţine noi compoziţii şi concepţii care să merite aprecierea celorlalţi.

Fenomenologia Secretului

Pune în valoare unicitatea identităţii tale, fără să prelucrezi şi să pui întreaga ta experienţă în slujba constituirii şi promovării unei entităţi virtuale.

Cum adică este neidentificabil? Scuză-mi exprimarea, prietene, dar nu-ţi pot răspunde la această întrebare. Este o extensie a unui secret existenţial bine păstrat, împărăţia lumii mele interioare, efectul unui corp compus invizibil, bogat în sensuri, localizat în coordonate de la minim la maxim, după regulile unei sinteze de tip permutaţional, într-un interval neregulat de timp. Destăinuirea lui i-ar putea diminua efectele.

Degeaba încerci să constaţi acea presence sensible a magicului fluid al ştiinţei pure, forma de expresie ce contribuie la întregirea imaginii unei destinaţii aparte de sugestivitate. Căci asemenea operei de artă care ia înţelesuri deosebite câştigând trepte înalte în ierarhia estetică, secretul - printr-o încordare a minţii care pune numai două întrebări lumii: A mare şi B mare - poate cădea mai apoi în desuetudine şi în derizoriu îndată ce se desprinde din mine.

Veghează-l cu străşnicie, îmi şopteşte constant inima, ai grijă de el, nu te abate de la consideraţia care i-o datorezi, căci iată, el este amprenta care te face recognoscibil și inconfundabil. Prietene, este ceva important în joc, o întreagă arie a imperativelor creatoare specifice matematicianului care găseşte simetria între A şi B, cercetând cu maximă rigurozitate modelele voit simplificate ale fenomenului de interprétation linéaire prin redefinirea vectorilor de spaţiu - ceva ce tu nu cunoşti şi nu-ţi poţi explica, cu toată erudiţia ta.

Este lesne de înţeles de ce trebuie tăgăduită această forţă de nepătruns, elementul acesta de o substanţialitate superioară ce coincide cu un punct din spaţiu, care mă stăpâneşte şi îmi transmite bogăţia cunoașterii nețărmurite, poziţionându-mă corect faţă de Dumnezeu, faţă de ceilalţi oameni și faţă de mine însumi. Cheia acestei cunoaşteri, totalitatea unui potenţial care nu se anulează la frontiera cu intangibilul, este arta de a te pierde în interpretările sinelui şi de a te regăsi într-o formă superioară.

Timp de opt ani, cât a trăit la castelul contelui Herissy, naturalistul francez George Cuvier s-a plimbat pe malul mării studiind animalele maritime zvârlite pe plajă în timpul fluxului. Stătea ore întregi cu privirile pironite asupra unui singur punct.

Amănuntul acesta mă trezeşte din lumea nestatornică de gânduri ce se zbate puternic în universul minţii mele. Aud mereu acelaşi Safe-Messaje: străduieşte-te să aranjezi secretul cât mai aproape de un punct, dar aşa încât să nu lase impresia unei închisori.

Leadership: Individualitatea ta înclină balanţa spre o evoluţie în sus sau în jos - în relativa izolare care te separă de riscurile unei repoziționări radicale faţă de ceilalţi?

Ca o consecinţă a hrănirii constante cu noi fructe ale cunoaşterii, leadershipul este străbătut în primele stadii de început de o entitate subtilă, de tip „Private", care măsoară nivelul motivaţiei ascunse pentru estimarea unicităţii şi a gradului de dăruire în slujirea unui ideal de neatins. Acest nivel este superior pretenţiilor de progres susţinute de capacitatea de creaţie şi de ideile livreşti achiziţionate în timp.

Fuziunea dintre ceea ce ai deprins prin studiu şi ceea ce ai acumulat prin experienţele trăite, reprezentându-te ca o versiune mai sofisticată a omului care vei deveni, nu doar că atribuie o semnificaţie deosebit de profundă saltului spre o mai mare realizare de sine, dar îţi o notă de unicitate.

Pentru a avea o măsură obiectivă a transformării personale se impune îmbogăţirea înţelegerii ideii de „secret", întărind astfel constatările cercetărilor efectuate în mod individual. Secretul este o formă de a te identifica într-o manieră fundamentală cu caracterul tău diferenţiator, proiectând asupra celorlalţi o anumită superioritate - aceea de a şti ceva ce nu ştie nimeni – în dinamica unui ciclu nou de acces către o filosofie a individualităţii.

Dar oare această individualitate înclină balanţa spre o evoluţie în sus sau în jos - în relativa izolare care te separă de riscurile ce le implică o nouă repoziţionare faţă de ceilalţi? Căci prin punerea în valoare a unei identităţi unice, printr-o muncă intelectuală susţinută şi conştiincioasă, se relevă o imagine ce stă în universul intelectual adânc, o premiză a modului în care te percepi, o latură a personalităţii care nu poate fi abordată decât de pe poziţii de egalitate - adică doar din perspectiva superiorităţii.

Aici leadershipul nu se bucură de statutul exemplar al unui „vehicul" privilegiat care îndeplineşte condiţiile definite de erudiţie şi de înţelegerea profundă a lucrurilor, fluidizând şi uşurând transmiterea unui imbold spre înainte, spre noi descoperiri, spre depăşirea limitelor tot mai greu accesibile. Ci se confruntă cu abordarea unidirecţională.

Secretul urmăreşte întregirea imaginii unei destinaţii aparte de sugestivitate care aduce dovada unei optici inedite asupra unei lumi „vechi" în noile condiţii, metamorfozante, ale trăirii autentice, dedublate de căutarea a ceea ce se află dincolo de aparenţa lucrurilor sau a ceea ce nu se află în lumea ta imanentă.

O rezultantă a modului cum se construieşte "secretul", ca parte a unui leadership experimental, se poate determina atunci când îţi măsori productivitatea învăţării şi performanţele intelectuale cu nivelul de înţelegere şi de percepţie a neofiţilor în timpul implementării unei noi direcţii de dezvoltare.

Un asemenea model de leadership prelucrează informaţia de frecvenţă superioară, combină toate elementele de perspectivă într-o armonie personalizată. Sau, mai bine spus, prelucrează şi pune întreaga experienţă în slujba constituirii şi promovării unei entităţi aproape virtuale care, chiar dacă se prelungeşte spre comunicarea personală "față în față", nu poate modela lumea după vreo viziune.

Fenomenologia Secretului exprimă năzuinţa unei perfecţiuni al cărei simbol ineradicabil rămâne edificiul unic al credibilităţii profesionale. Secretul reclamă neobosit acel „altceva", ca termen al unei înţelegeri mai adânci, dar el nu poate răspunde în faţa unei „instanţe de apel" atunci când face obiectul unei judecăţi critice de validare. Iar leadershipul se apelează numai printr-o formă de înţelegere reciprocă.

Cum să ţii evidenţa unor gânduri şi idei care se amestecă într-un vârtej adânc şi obscur, fără să le risipeşti într-un soi de centru al atenţiei, fără să te îndoieşti tu însuţi de ele? Dar mai important, cum vor putea ele să asigure perenitatea acestei arte numită leadership?

Fenomenologia Ştiinţei

Accesează ştiinţa puterii de a intra în jocul subtil al confuziilor, amplificând acea caracteristică a gândirii ce apare la contactul dintre experienţă şi firul vieţii.

Totul părea desprins dintr-un ansamblu de vederi de dincolo de aparenţe, de dincolo de raţiune, de dincolo de lucruri, de dincolo de infinit. În acord cu inedita zonă a pseudo-adevărurilor, sub sfera improvizaţiei şi a impredictibilului. Izolat, intrasem într-un amplu proces de evoluţie, întinzându-se ca un soi de dirijare a atenţiei într-o altă direcţie, exprimată printr-o entitate de sens ce se hrănea cu răspunsurile la întrebările fără de sfârşit.

Nonconformist. Păream distribuit într-un rol deloc credibil pentru un om normal, încadrat într-o lume dominată de o ştiinţă ce varia în funcţie de atâtea necunoscute dispuse ca nişte combinaţii de linii continue şi întrerupte, în cadrul unor coordonate generalizate. Sarcinile de coordonare a indicilor şi senzorilor de percepţie implicaţi în elaborarea unei noi structuri cognitive deveneau mai complexe şi mai critice pe măsură ce se adunau întrebările şi răspunsurile.

Neplauzibil. Mă aflam în punctul de maximă altitudine, condus de acea sete neţărmurită de a prinde între vertebrele minţii inefabilul ce numai geniul îl poate degaja, care te arde până în adâncul sufletului, făcându-te să intri involuntar într-un joc subtil al confuziilor, atrăgând însă curiozitatea. Indefinitul pe care nu-l puteam încadra într-o formă, şi pe care însuşi Dumnezeu cu atotputernicia sa îl însemnase cu fierul roşu al măsurii în transcendentalul ezoteric, devenise un produs al impulsurilor care generau outputuri spontane.

Un indicator de perspectivă. Nu mă mai limitam la observaţii generale, ci începusem să atribui sensuri metafizice unor căutări atractive, unor sentimente fluide. Cu riscul de a deforma exagerat marginile ştiinţei, de a deteriora adevărurile căpătate prin revelaţie. Precum saltul în înţelegerea universului, trecerea de la un spaţiu obscur la un spaţiu limpede.

Cred că mă asemănam cu botanistul francez Lamarck: „El citea o carte după alta, umplea topuri întregi de hârtie, mâzgălea paginile cărţilor cu o sumedenie de notaţii. În mintea sa lua naştere un neverosimil amalgam: judecăţile alchimiştilor medievali se împleteau cu teoriile vechilor greci, iar ipotezele contradictorii se ciocneau în creierul său într-un fel de dans nebun."

Leadership: Te laşi ghidat de tentaţia de a plasa ştiinţa oriunde în spațiul subiectivismului, construind pattern-uri de integrare a unor noi coordonate de orientare la nivel existenţial?

Esenţa primei metamorfoze a ştiinţei este un soi de incompatibilitate vecină cu nebunia, din cadrul unei proces de continuă şi neamăgită reflecţie asupra realităţii personale. Felul cum îţi antrenezi propria gândire, fapt ce ţine de o clasă de consideraţii şi reflexii ce pot fi găsite numai în jocul subtil al confuziilor care declanşează un noi valuri de întrebări şi răspunsuri, sub sfera improvizaţiei şi a impredictibilului, te înscrie într-un soi de cursă nebună spre atingerea unui alt grad de dezvoltare.

Mai exact este vorba despre acel progres al științei capabil să te facă să stăpâneşti fundamentul solid şi revelator al unei profunde experienţe, efectele inedite ale unei noi realităţi. Adevărata artă a stăpânirii ştiinţei se evidenţiază în ceea ce nu este evident, în ceea ce nu se vede la prima privire, în realitatea mascată de supoziţii şi excepţii. Leadershipul capătă în acest nou context un plus de forţă nelimitată, fiindcă îţi îngăduie să descoperi ceea ce te atrage ca informaţie şi semnificaţie, nu doar ca orientare de perspectivă pe termen mediu şi lung.

Un savant rus a declarat la un moment dat: „ Spre deosebire de artă, unde lucrul cel mai important este reacţia vie şi nemijlocită la cele văzute sau auzite, în ştiinţă trebuie să ştii să te uimeşti de rezultatele gândirii, de semnificaţiile cunoştinţelor acumulate. Motivaţia cea mai nobilă şi care corespunde cel mai bine spiritului ştiinţei este curiozitatea, dorinţa de a afla cum este alcătuită natura. "

Informaţiile extrase din observarea vieţii, din contradicţiile şi meandrele unei profunde transformări, creează drumul către noi puncte de reflecţie, fiind apanajul dorinţei de a afla cum este alcătuită natura. În mintea ta ia naştere un neverosimil amalgam: judecăţile se împletesc cu teoriile, iar ipotezele contradictorii se ciocnesc într-un fel de dans nebun.

Leadership: Opoziţia pe care o întâmpini între realitatea personală şi gustul neclar al întrebărilor fără sfârşit serveşte în chip esenţial distincţiei între semnificaţia pe care o atribui existenţei şi efectul confirmării ei finale?

Reconstituirea unor noi scări de valori, a unei noi baze de putere, într-o viziune largă şi matură, începe de la experienţa actuală a sinelui şi a vieţii. Şi se extinde până la judecata apriorică, adică ruptă de experienţă. Aici ştiinţa, prin combinaţii de semnificaţii superioare, se constituie ca o coeziune a adevărurilor, a raţiunii şi a vederilor de dincolo de sfera de experienţă - măsurând importanţa relativă a diferitelor rezultate obţinute - cu tine însuţi.

Leadershipul care pune preţ pe unitatea dintre om şi experienţă se poate rezuma astfel: să lupţi din răsputeri până reuşeşti te învingi pe tine însuţi şi, în final, să ajungi stăpân pe situaţie. Este rezultatul unei autodepăşiri care se realizează prin lărgirea înţelegerii asupra fenomenelor de impact, este rezultatul unei gândiri ce apare la contactul dintre experienţă şi firul vieţii într-un real care pare desprins din altă lume.

Deci, am putea spune că acest gen de leadership este rodul ştiinţei puterii de a intra involuntar într-un joc subtil al confuziilor pricinuite de concluzii, observări şi analize ale „necunoscutelor" realităţii, atrăgând însă curiozitatea şi producând rezultate prin convingerile bazate pe alegerea dintre mai multe variante de abordare a lor.

Confirmarea finală a existenţei vine ca urmare a diminuării intenţiilor de limitare a efectelor de tranziţie de la certitudinea unei realităţi ce nu se poate extinde - la posibilitatea unei autodepăşiri care se realizează prin comunicarea adevărurilor căpătate prin revelaţia unei noi lumi.

Ştiinţa care îţi lărgeşte orizontul se măsoară prin ceea ce obţii după ce ai eliminat cauza acelei suite de contradicţii şi confuzii care pot distorsiona imaginea de sine faţă de realitatea constatată ulterior.

Fenomenologiei Ştiinţei i se poate asocia acea multitudine de operaţii de prelucrare a informaţiei, adică o informatică, un mod de a colecta reprezentări ale aspectelor abstracte ale realităţii şi de extragere a esenţelor, o caracteristică a gândirii ce apare la contactul dintre experienţă şi firul vieţii.

Această abordare se reflectă în output-urile pe care le generezi la fiecare scanare a fenomenelor de impact care îţi pot schimba total perspectiva asupra vieţii. Fenomene precum indefinitul, contradicţiile, confuziile, paradoxurile sau antinomiile de tip finit-infinit, lumină şi întuneric, viaţă şi moarte, vechi-nou, bun-rău, adevăr şi minciună, etc..

Fenomenologia timpului

Recunoaşte acea faţetă a timpului care se aplică raporturilor dintre cine ai fost, cine credeai că eşti şi cine ţi-ai dorit să fii, trecându-l prin sita imaginarului.

Uneori eram stăpânit de dorinţa infailibilă de a îndura timpul, într-o stare de acceptare totală a imaginarului. Vădit, nutream speranţa de a ajunge în viitor, în coliziune directă cu mintea şi trăirile altora indivizi, pe culoarul lung şi încăpător al invizibilului. Impasul în care ma aflam, moment al unei vagabondări prin tendinţe experimentaliste care nu stiam unde puteau duce, era opusul a ceea ce obţineam într-un demers de depăşire a limitelor de semnificaţie aduse expresiei: "sunt o lume ce nu trebuie ignorată".

Spre a mă convinge de structura unei realităţi despre care credeam că este de negăsit, în virtutea unor legi care îmbrăţişează veşnicia, trebuia să obţin componentele câmpului „intangibil" prin intermediul potenţialului de aprofundare a ceea ce doar presupuneam, din care uşor deriva concretul – a cărui expresie nu o cunoşteam. Mai puteam oare să mă reîntorc din lumea ce avea să fie, în lumea ce a fost?

Timpul îmi era mai mult duşman decât prieten, deoarece nu reuşeam să intuiesc acea promisiune adâncă din mine, acea chemare spre o realitate deosebită, spre o schimbare ce ar fi putut să mă facă să înţeleg mai multe despre mine. Aveam de-a face cu acea orientare în spaţiu din timpul unei audieri a existenţei cele mai interesante, din romanul lui Umberto Eco, în care totul se mişcă într-o direcţie particulară, conştientizarea devine atenţie şi atenţia devine percepţie. Iată ce mă tulbura:

"În fața unor fapte inexplicabile tu trebuie să încerci să-ți închipui multe legi generale, ale căror legături cu faptele de care te ocupi nu le vezi încă. Și deodată, în legătura neașteptată dintre un fapt, un rezultat și o lege, ți se întrezărește o judecată care ți se pare mai convingătoare decât altele. Încearcă s-o aplici la toate cazurile asemănătoare, s-o folosești ca să tragi previziuni din ea."

Leadership: Te dedici unui destin revelator de noi semnificaţii cu privire la diferenţa dintre tu cel de ieri, cel de azi şi cel de mâine, la nivel de mişcare a gândului spre ceea ce nu poate fi întâmplare?

Experimental, în felul cum relaţionam cu această nebunie gratuită, cu forţa aceasta dăruită de nivelul spiritual care tulbura însăşi istoria vieţii mele, oprită într-un punct al universului meu ficţional, înscrisă parcă în filosofia unei ştiinţe imprecise, s-ar fi putut încălca legile timpului, ducând chiar la anularea lui. Procesul acesta era cumva bazat pe aplicarea formulei dT = eV+O, în care componentele dimensiunii timpului erau produse de energia vidului adunată la punctul meu de origine.

În Dante aflasem de piatra de hotar între evul mediu şi timpurile moderne, semnul unei clipe care se lăsa aşteptată, prelungindu-se chiar până la eternitate. Iar asemenea pietre de hotar, ca într-un soi de renaştere, făceau trecerea către o gândire nouă, exprimată în alte structuri ale realităţii. Bineînţeles, relaţia mea cu timpul se vede în orice situaţie altfel, deoarece însăşi realitatea pare desprinsă dintr-o eternitate imaginară care întrece filosofia ştiinţei mele despre materia sensibilă, despre societate, despre viaţă.

Aceste timpuri, în momentele privilegiate ale rupturii mele de lume, facilitau întâlnirea cu un AlterEgo inspirat de strălucirea nemuritoare a unui întreg nedestructibil, orizontul unei înţelegeri situaţionale iremediabil închistate într-un spaţiu extrem de strâns. Uimirea a tot ce însemna „suprarealul” devenea o axă a cunoaşterii, mai mult o judecată clarvăzătoare decât o intuiţie lucidă.

Timpul este adevărul creator al unei lumi în care dorințele, visele, imaginația, fac parte dintr-o realitate care, într-un viitor mai mult sau mai puţin îndepărtat, se construieşte deja, se pregăteşte să fie descoperită, să devină pur şi simplu viaţă.

Prin urmare, semnificaţia destinului meu capăta valenţe de "excepţie de la regulile scrise ale lumii", mai mult fiindcă făceam parte dintr-o ficţiune care nu are alte proprietăţi decât cele pe care i le atribuie povestirea unor întâmplări trăite sub imperiul previziunii unor variabile cu o evoluţie neregulată. Nu este nicio întâmplare faptul că gândurile mele plămădeau o altă realitate, caz în care tot ceea ce mă caracteriza devenea parte intergrantă dintr-un viitor care pune accentul pe cuvântul creator menit să scrie istoria prin repere imaginare, prin eroi imaginari, prin forţa imaginilor, prin spontaneitatea limbajului.

Cine nu are plusurile experienţei de a se privi din alte lumi, nu are nici minusurile ei. Atât plusurile, cât şi minusurile sunt conforme unei repartizări tot mai probabile ale conţinutului imaginar care, neîncălcând normele sistemului de credinţe, tinde spre o percepţie crescândă a realităţii într-un remarcabil context – devenit un simbol al evoluţiei spre o treaptă superioară a autoconducerii.

Timpul te poartă în afara limitelor vieţii de zi cu zi, fiind perceput ca o asimilare a unei materialităţi independente de tine sau ca o alternativă a ta într-un univers paralel. Să te autoconduci spre o nouă lume, echivalentă cu încercarea de a recrea intensitatea originală a senzaţiei: „ Nu e nimic mai interesant decât a rescrie istoria personală ”, reprezintă de fapt o recucerire a timpului, decorat cu elemente izolate corelate subiectiv, în care îţi reînnoieşti afinitatea faţă de ceea ce este diferit sau ne-conform credinţelor celorlalţi.

Acest fapt denotă, în leadership, acea putere specială: a plăsmui, a ţese, a lega sau a împleti noi coordonate ale evoluţiei ce pot fi caracterizate ca atare numai în momentul acceptării totale a imaginarului.

Leadership: Ai puterea să te întorci într-un loc care a rămas neschimbat, ca să îţi dai seama cât de mult te-ai schimbat tu?

Imaginarul are înrâurire asupra ştiinţei conducerii prin faptul că adaugă noi caracteristici timpului şi realităţii, pe lângă modul clasic văzut până acum, chiar dacă este identificat cu o stare de suprastimulare. Este sursa revelaţiilor, un sistem de probabilitate ce se introduce în sistemul de gândire pentru a i se putea prevedea manifestările. Timpul denotă încrederea în trăirile unei alte persoane care are acces la o lume expusă interpretării şi înţeleasă prin idei, noţiuni, reprezentări, printr-o comparaţie cu relaţia dintre memorie şi evocare.

Ca să fac mai bine înţeleasă legătura dintre timp şi revelaţie, îl voi cita pe Nelson Mandela: "Nu e nimic mai interesant decât să te întorci într-un loc care a rămas neschimbat, ca să îţi dai seama cât de mult te-ai schimbat tu."

Aici putem întrevedea semnul unei clipe care s-a lăsat aşteptată. Putem recunoaşte acea faţetă a timpului care se aplică raporturilor dintre cine ai fost, cine credeai că eşti şi cine ţi-ai dorit să fii, comasate ca premiză a dezvoltării într-un singur punct al existenţei: un nou început, o altă stare de fapt, o nouă putere, o nouă conştiinţă.

Ca să faci din leadership o ştiinţă a salturilor spre nivele superioare de înţelegere şi de manifestare, trebuie să cauţi necontenit, să întâmpini, să obţii acea renaştere ideatică - convertirea ta la o abordare menită să facă trecerea spre o gândire nouă, spre o stare de fapt nouă, spre o putere nouă, spre o conştiinţă nouă, spre superioritate. Deci o abordare încadrată în alte structuri ale realităţii, dar produsă în dimensiunea temporală a imaginarului.

Ideea care construieşte plăsmuirea unei noi lumi, prin optimizarea unei noi structuri de gândire, comunică plenitudinea şi unicitatea unei opere care a luat naştere din dorinţa de a mă vedea tot timpul în alt loc. Timpul poate înţeles prin intermediul raportului dintre ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce vrei să pari a fi, într-o ficţiune care aşteaptă să fie descoperită de oricine.

Leadershipul este o viziune a timpului care te învaţă cum să priveşti tot ceea ce te înconjoară dintr-o altă perspectivă, ca o alternativă unei compoziţii tematice a cărui prim popas este crearea unei legături între personajul unei priviri din afara a ceva în care eşti-şi-nu-eşti, şi autorul unei vieţi ieşite din comun.

Fenomenologia timpului aduce în prim plan acel act curajos al transformării de sine, datorat în principal mişcării gândului, imaginarului, judecăţii clarvăzătoare şi intuiţiei lucide, având ca indicator testul timpului.

Fenomenologia valorii lucrurilor

On Iulie 09, 2015

Învaţă să cunoşti funcţia "High" a lucrurilor, astfel încât să foloseşti logica îndreptată spre cunoaşterea lor drept mărturie solidă adusă în sprijinul formării unei noi raţiuni.

Voiam să-mi acord libertatea de a mă gândi la lucrurile care mă preocupau cu adevărat, când însăşi sensul importanţei lor şi credinţa în tot ceea ce ele puteau cauza schimbarea aveau o corespondenţă în viaţa de zi cu zi, chiar dacă viaţa mi se revela ca o uriaşă taină. Ceva puternic şi viu, aplicat pe formula Gând+Iluzie=Magie, pentru fiecare valoare a identităţii mele, din care se obţineau câmpurile „descoperire” şi „sens”, în punctul de întâlnire dintre amplitudinea vieţii şi clipa evadării din scenariul ei.

Cine m-ar fi putut crede? Cine n-ar fi fost tentat să spună: cum, adică dumneata ai cutezat să crezi că poţi face dintr-un lucru esenţial prin importanţa lui un sens al vieţii? Iar acest sens între limitele cărei puteri omeneşti se înscrie?

Nu mai e nevoie să menţionez că, în felul multora de a privi lucrurile şi chiar pe mine, totul părea o exagerare, o încercare de recreare a aceluiaşi sistem de semnificaţii al trăirilor ce căpătau noi valori, o largă întrebuinţare. Lucrurile, ca şi trăirile, vibrează la anumite frecvenţe.

Poate că era doar o plăsmuire a supraconştientului care se clarifica pe măsură ce formam noi sensuri. Alături de raţiunea distinctă pentru care devenisem un univers, parte a unui întreg ce acţionează şi gândeşte în termenii lucrurilor esenţiale. Totul numai din cauza seminţelor ascunse ale gândurilor care, asemenea drogurilor, căpătau o formă solidă după împreunarea materiei cu energia. Dar efectul punea o stăpânire absolută pe viaţa mea.

Poate că voiam să pun în evidenţă dimensiunile concepţiei marilor futurişti, credeam că un asemenea mod de a gândi este superior celorlalte.

Cine ar fi încercat să priceapă acea stare a lucrurilor pe care mintea mea de cercetător încercase s-o desluşească prea devreme, să fiu acolo unde lucrurile se includ în însăşi valoarea vieţii, în direcţia unui „ceva” de dincolo de noţiune şi de logică, ar fi fost dintr-o dată proiectat într-o lume de a cărei existenţă nu a bănuit absolut nimic. În afară de ceea ce i se servea ca adevăr universal.

Leadership: Opera ta are capacitatea de a se constitui ca temelie a vieţii lucrurilor reale, sau stă mărturie pentru apartenenţa lucrurilor „de mare obişnuinţă" la dreptul de dobândire a unei noi forme de conceptualizare a propriilor experienţe de viaţă?

Opera care îl reprezintă pe un artist este imaginea totalităţii lucrurilor care îl înconjoară, provenite din personalizarea experienţei de viaţă, din sugestiile unei perspective ample asupra creaţiei sau din spaţiul simbolic al receptării unor părţi izolate din natură.

O operă bazată pe plăsmuirea unor universuri nesondate de nimeni altcineva, conţinând combinaţia echilibrată a ştiinţei şi experienţei în făurirea unui sens al sinelui superior, are viaţa lucrurilor reale. Adică se compune din esenţa a ceea ce extragi din legătura cu tot ce te înconjoară, înseamnă a fi, a percepe, a experimenta, a căuta ceva cu adevărat valoros în variabilele implicate în lanţul cauzal care influenţează modul tău de gândire.

La fel ca lucrurile iubite şi agonisite în timp, opera este complexă şi particulară. Iar studiul lor, forma funcţiilor lor de a fi unite, separate şi încadrate într-un context mai larg, în care tentaţia unei replieri identitare devine tot mai puternică, precum şi rezultatul ajustării lor într-o zonă a valorilor şi a sensului imprimat inspiraţiei, ne oferă o măsură a reconsiderării lor şi a punerii lor în folosinţă.

Leadership: Poţi face din tot ce te înconjoară repere ale unei creaţii artistice care invită privitorul în universul adevărat al valorilor unui protagonist care oferă accesul la un alt stil de a aborda viaţa?

Să-l citez o clipă pe criticul francez Hippolyte Taine, care scria atât de amănunţit despre Balzac: „ Era un colecţionar, aproape maniac. Avea nevoie de cărţi minunate, de fotolii antice, mobile preţioase, de rame sculptate aparte, de tablouri alese. S-a lăsat adesea pus în situaţii neplăcute din dorinţa de a dobândi porţelanuri de Saxa, tapiserii şi alte fleacuri. Pasiunea lui pentru lucrurile frumoase semăna cu un fel de mâncărime fizică, mai curând era o dorinţă senzuală decât un nobil gust al spiritului. "

Leadershipul începe să se contureze acolo unde produsul a tot ceea ce te înconjoară se concretizează într-un plan realist de dezvoltare, într-un plan de sondare şi de reorganizare a sinelui, într-un plus de profesionalism, într-un anumit stil de gândire. Dacă cineva cunoaşte funcţia lucrurilor, atunci ştie cum să le folosească în sprijinul propriei sale dezvoltări.

Lucrurile devin accesorii şi se armonizează în mod excepţional într-un tot unitar, într-un spaţiu încărcat de potenţialităţi, supus unei orientări care ţine seama de legătura dintre viaţă, muncă, ambiţie şi artă. Să faci din leadership o operă care renaşte din lucrurile pe care le adori, le stăpâneşti sau le gândeşti, este cea mai mare calitate a unui artist, a unui om destinat să facă lucruri măreţe.

Înclinaţiile artistului, precum facultatea de a discerne asupra unor informaţii folosindu-se de dimensiunile estetice sau ascunse ale lucrurilor, se dovedesc deseori a fi sinonime cu facilitarea procesului de conceptualizare a propriilor sale experienţe de viaţă.

A-ţi conceptualiza experienţele de viaţă înseamnă să dai un nume nou şi un înţeles nou tututor însuşirilor particulare ale lucrurilor din jur, încadrându-le într-o viziune care nu depăşeşte tendinţa lor de a se constitui drept o plăsmuire a imaginaţiei.

Argumentele care vin în sprijinul formării unei noi viziuni ţin de percepţia şi interpretarea tuturor formelor de expresie ale creativităţii compuse din suma lucrurilor la care ai fost atent până la momentul respectiv şi îngăduinţa de a le da o nouă semnificaţie în trebuinţele vieţii.

Fenomenologia valorii lucrurilor poate fi înţeleasă prin prisma conținutului şi orientării cunoscutelor care, gravitând mereu în jurul omului, creează spaţiul necesar libertăţii individuale de a-şi definitiva pregătirea şi stilul de gândire, de-a lungul operei care se împlineşte prin unirea ştiinţei cu viaţa.

Tu ai căpătat profunzimea studiului lucrurilor din jur? Aceste lucruri au funcţia de stimulare a gândirii şi functia de reprezentare a ta în relaţie cu viaţa şi ştiinţa?

Fenomenul "Zoom-Out" şi atitudinea subiectivă a creatorului

On Ianuarie 02, 2017

O viziune plină de autenticitate se cristalizează dacă sensibilitatea artistului se aliniază la structura emoțională a creației sale.

Montajul lui Eisenstein realizează îmbinarea existenţei obiective a fenomenului "Zoom-Out" cu atitudinea subiectivă a creatorului lui, iar compozitorul Prokofiev percepe structura intim emoţională şi îşi acordează propria sensibilitate cu ea. Tocmai pentru reuşita acestei acordări se întâmplă ca Prokofiev să-şi modifice muzică dacă imaginea o cere, după cum Eisenstein nu ezită să facă modificări în montaj pentru a permite muzicii să-şi spună cuvântul.

Singura neînţelegere se va ivi atunci când toată muzică vă fi terminată. Eisenstein îl roagă pe Prokofiev să compună o uvertură. Compozitorul refuză: deoarece filmul începe cu un episod tragic, uvertura ar trebui să fie triumfal-eroică şi nu vede cum s-ar putea face trecerea dintre aceste două muzici diferite. Este dispus, declară el, să scrie oricâtă muzica, dar considerente artistice îl împiedică să o scrie pe aceasta. Eisenstein insistă totuşi. Atunci Prokofiev acceptă, însă numai cu condiţia ca regizorul să schimbe episodul trist de la începutul filmului. Dar, deoarece Eisenstein crede că nu se mai poate schimba planul de montaj, filmul rămâne fără uvertura şi genericul se proiectează pe linişte. Şi mulţi comentatori văd aici un efect special urmărit de Eisenstein.

Leadership: Cum poate atitudinea ta subiectivă să dea viață unei opere care să reflecte concordanța dintre imagini și emoții, încât să te poziționeze în mijlocul epocii sale?

Din multitudinea de posibilităţi pe care le avem la dispoziție în vederea realizării unei creaţii autentice, nu trebuie să ne oprim, aşadar, la elemente cu caracter decorativ, nici la date cu caracter biografic, ci doar la concordanţa dintre imagini şi emoţii. Şi aceasta numai în măsura în care considerăm că orice creaţie, într-un fel sau altul, îl situează pe artist în mijlocul evenimentelor epocii sale. Din motive asupra cărora trebuie să revin adesea, doresc să intru în problema, deosebit de ispititoare, a atitudinii subiective a artistului care trebuie să plăsmuiască din materia anorganică, frumuseţe, senzaţii şi sentimente, trăiri, astfel încât să dea viață unei opere care să inspire și să emoționeze.

Emoţiile şi imaginile, cu nenumărate şi profunde implicații, prin care s-ar putea urmări, în totalitatea lor componentele unei opere de artă, sunt un fel de oglindă prin care creatorul prezintă anumite episoade din viaţa lumii care l-a inspirat să devină legendar. Spunând aceasta mă refer, în principal, la caracterul valoric, pur spiritual, inepuizabil al operei de artă. Acest caracter inepuizabil constă în aceea că sub înfăţişarea specificităţii oricărui gen de artă ni se dezvăluie ceva din natura celorlalte genuri de artă, cu trimitere la muzică, de exemplu, care face ca fenomenul "Zoom-Out" să însemne o perspectivă mai amplă asupra contextului, surprinzând relațiile dintre detalii și întreg, precum și dinamica ansamblului.

Leadership: Poate procesul tău de decizie artistică să ofere o îmbinare armonioasă între existența obiectivă a fenomenului "Zoom-Out" și structura intim emoțională a imaginii create?

Un alt efect care acționează la nivel subiectiv este așa-numitul efect de ancorare, care împiedică adesea o analiză obiectivă a structurii informațiilor pe care le primim. În loc să judecăm situațiile într-un mod limpede și să ne acordăm sensibilitatea pentru a evita erori, ne ancorăm într-un punct de referință specific, afectându-ne considerentele și atitudinea în procesul de decizie.

Montajul artistului în creația sa reprezintă îmbinarea dintre existența obiectivă a fenomenului și atitudinea subiectivă care o modelează. În procesul creativ, structura intim emoțională a imaginilor poate necesita modificări semnificative pentru a transmite mesajul dorit. Asemenea unei uverturi într-un concert triumfal, modificările aduc o perspectivă artistică asupra episodului tragic care ne arată frumusețea subtilă a considerentelor subiective.

Leadership: Cum poți îmbina considerentele artistice cu valorile practice astfel încât unitatea organică a creației tale să reflecte sensibilitățile umane și să ofere o experiență estetică?

Montajul lui Eisenstein realizează îmbinarea existenței obiective a fenomenului cu atitudinea subiectivă a creatorului lui, asemenea modului în care arhitectura organică integrează aspectele subiective ale designului cu funcționalitatea obiectivă. Compozitorul Prokofiev percepe structura intim emoțională și își acordează propria sensibilitate cu ea, așa cum arhitectul organică își modifică proiectele pentru a răspunde sensibilităților umane.

Tocmai pentru reușita acestei acordări se întâmplă ca Prokofiev să-și modifice muzică dacă imaginea o cere, după cum Eisenstein nu ezită să facă modificări în montaj pentru a permite muzicii să își spună cuvântul. Considerentele artistice joacă un rol esențial în acordarea proiectelor arhitecturale cu mediul înconjurător, la fel cum Prokofiev și Eisenstein au adaptat muzica și montajul pentru a obține efectul triumfal eroic dorit.

Singura neînțelegere s-a ivit atunci când toată muzica a fost terminată. Eisenstein îl roagă pe Prokofiev să compună o uvertură. Compozitorul refuză: deoarece filmul începe cu un episod tragic, uvertura ar trebui să fie triumfal-eroică și nu vede cum s-ar putea face trecerea dintre aceste două muzici diferite. Prokofiev a refuzat mereu să compromită valorile artistice pentru scopuri practice, preferând să creeze structuri fără uvertură, lăsând genericul să se proiecteze pe linişte.

Leadershipul poate să încurajeze îmbinarea existenței obiective a fenomenului "Zoom-Out" cu atitudinea subiectivă a creatorului, percepând structura intim emoțională a operei și acordându-și propria sensibilitate cu aceasta.

Fenomenul "Zoom-Out" și atitudinea subiectivă a creatorului se referă la modul în care artistul își lărgește perspectiva pentru a înțelege contextul mai amplu al creației sale, combinând obiectivitatea analizei cu intuiția și emoția propriei sale experiențe. O abordare creativă autentică necesită că artistul să fie în armonie cu propriile sale emoții și cu structura lucrării. De fapt, adevărata expresie artistică apare atunci când viziunea creatorului se îmbină cu structura emoțională a lucrării.

Ferestrele leadershipului

On Octombrie 10, 2010

Leadershipul este ca o fereastră cu vederea directă până în adâncul sufletului celui care conduce.

Într-o zi, pe când încercam să redau în crerion chipul şi trăsăturile unui neînfricat personaj din desenul animat "Piraţii apei negre" , pe nume Ren, maestrul s-a hotărât să ia loc lângă mine şi după felul în care m-a privit am simţit că aveam să aflu ceea ce doream de atâta vreme să ştiu.

Mi-am întors privirea către el. M-a privit cu atenţie. Paloarea feţei, tremurul uşor al buzelor îi arătară ce se petrecea cu mine. Eram tare mâhnit de faptul că, încercând sa redau cu cât mai multă acurateţe trăsăturile personajului şi să creez privitorului o imagine mentală vie despre el, am omis exact esenţialul, adică sentimentele pe care trebuia să le redau chipului său.

Făcusem o mare greşeală. Redasem personajul într-un colorit pestriţ, lipsit de strălucire, fără echilibru, fără măsură, fără simetrie, nu dădusem coerenţă întregului, nu construisem un spaţiu convingător în care formele să se încadreze firesc. Deşi mă bucuram de multă afecţiune din partea maestrului, îmi era oarecum ruşine de prestaţia mea.

- Copile drag – îmi zise el uitându-se mereu la mine cu o dragoste aproape paternă, pentru a realiza un desen desăvârşit trebuie să depui nu numai muncă, ci şi suflet şi căldură. Desenul e o artă vie, e o parte din mintea artistului. Desenul e ca o fereastră cu vederea directă până în străfundul inimii tale, Nicu. Să nu uiţi niciodată asta.

Leadership: Îţi permiţi o libertate de exprimare care poate să surprindă prin însufleţirea care străbate dincolo de graniţele obişnuitului?

Ca judecată de valoare şi ca manieră de sintetizare a ceea ce ai învăţat şi a ceea ce ai înţeles din experienţa ta, dar mai ales a ceea ce transmiţi prin forţa expresivă a creaţiei, este mai bine să-ţi permiţi o libertate de exprimare care să surprindă nu doar prin ceva inovator, cât mai ales prin însufleţirea care străbate dincolo de graniţele obişnuitului. Astfel le permiţi oamenilor să se conecteze mai profund la esenţa ta.

Procesul de integrare a creaţiei în leadership presupune raportarea permanentă la factorul calitativ şi cantitativ al contribuţiilor tale, datorate eforturilor de a utiliza anumite doze de imaginaţie şi originalitate în sprijinul apropierii de ceea ce eşti tu ca esenţă, de ceea ce îţi este propriu în cel mai înalt grad.

Chiar dacă la nivel subiectiv, există sentimente de insatisfacţie şi nemulţumire în ceea ce priveşte exprimarea mesajului transmis, admitem că există o anumită proporţie, armonioasă, conformă cu un ideal de perfecţiune şi cu un standard aproape imposibil de atins - iar noi sfătuim liderii să ţină seama tocmai de această proporţie.

Obişnuitul este creaţia din care nu poate fi extrasă nicio constatare distinctă în ceea ce priveşte evoluţia şi conservarea unui model de gândire ce favorizează un anumit limbaj de reprezentare al cunoaşterii.

Cine săvârşeşte greşeala de a prelungi caracteristicile unor percepţii ce ţin de un mental superior şi de a face oarecum "cauză comună" cu proiecţiile imaginaţiei, evitând utilizarea unor corecţii suplimentare de nuanţă, nu va putea să prevină apariţia dificultăţilor în a distinge realitatea de ficţiune.

În condiţiile înţelegerii moderne, dincolo de gratiile aglomerărilor de sensuri, semnificaţii, cugetări profunde şi învăţăminte extrase benevol din temele creaţiei personale, liderul-artist îşi construieşte un nou stil de artă, cu un colorit bogat şi expresiv, caracterizat prin concentrarea afectivă, comunicaţională şi cu putere de impact. Separarea treptată şi uneori rapidă de întreaga ramificaţie de idei şi moduri de gândire străine, îi oferă o independenţă proprie, cu posibilitatea de autoconducere şi autodezvoltare.

Desprinderea de percepţiile care aparţin unui singur subiect de gândire şi de concepţiile abstracte ce inhibă sfera înţelegerii artei, implică o nouă structură de raporturi ale creaţiei cu exteriorul şi cu orientările tale în dobândirea şi consolidarea deprinderilor de gândire şi de producere a rezultatelor finale.

Leadership: Inepuizabila varietate a creaţiei pe care o experimentezi prin metode „do it yourself" se poate materializa într-o imagine de sine proiectată în gândirea altcuiva?

Aidoma unu pictor, un lider desăvârşit redă în opera sa, cu o extraordinară expresivitate, formula strălucitoare a esenţei leadershipului său. Prin intermediul operei sale, în care îşi transpune ideile, convingerile, aspiraţiile şi cunoştinţele, liderul îşi exprimă de fapt personalitatea, iar caracterul şi valoarea operei sale reflectă părerea bine întemeiată a oamenilor despre sufletul său. Căci ceea ce creează liderul este, fără urmă de îndoială, o parte din sine.

Dacă leadershipul pe care îl produci nu este o artă vie, menită să fie privită, care să satisfacă gusturile oamenilor şi să le modifice starea de spirit - o artă menită să contribuie la educarea oamenilor, capabilă a transmite, prin mijloace artistice proprii, idei şi sentimente de mare profunzime şi subtilitate, atunci rolul tău – ca şi lider - nu este acela de catalizator în activitatea companiei.

Leadership: Recurgi la o interpretare de tipul "eu ştiu mai bine" , chiar şi atunci când practici acceptarea semnificaţiei creaţiei pe care o atribui admiraţiei faţă de cineva?

"Ferestrele" leadershipului sunt căile prin care îţi poţi pune în practică ideile şi prin care îţi poţi atinge scopurile. Ele trebuie să se deschidă întotdeauna spre exterior, înspre fiinţa şi inima celorlalţi oameni, pentru a fi propice luării unor decizii responsabile, reciproc agreate. Dacă se deschid spre interior, strict numai înspre viziunea şi politica liderului, ele dăunează carierei sale şi relaţiilor cu ceilalţi oameni.

Un lider slab, care nu-şi urmăreşte decât interesul personal, care se conformează numai propriilor valori, perspective, criterii şi convingeri, nu face decât să construiască o mulţime de ferăstruici mate spre propria lui inimă, bine ferecate pentru ceilalţi oameni, iar acest lucru nu-i poate oferi o transparenţă decizională căci împiedică accesul tuturor în spaţiul său. Astfel leadershipul său este o fereastră ce se transpune numai în universul lui propriu şi nu e accesibil nimănui.

Ca să te ridici deasupra celorlalţi oameni trebuie să fii creativ, pasionat, să ai viziune. Însă dacă îţi lipsesc abilităţile de a influenţa şi îţi lipseşte răbdarea pentru a obţine un sprijin larg pentru ideile şi principiile tale, toate demersurile pe care le iniţiezi sunt sortite aproape din start eşecului. Una din căile sigure de a-i influenţa pe oamenii din jurul tău este să deschizi larg "ferestrele" leadershipului tău spre ei.

Înainte să-ţi promovezi arta continuă să lărgeşti semnificaţiile creaţiei pe care o experimentezi, prin îmbogăţirea personalităţii tale cu noi perspective de receptare a unei intervenţii de tip corectiv.

Ferestrele leadershipului sunt căile de comunicare şi interacţiune între tine şi ceilalţi oameni, sunt căile prin care îţi poţi consolida capacitatea de a conduce. Ele nu trebuie să fie ferecate sau mate, ci să permită celor pe care îi conduci să vadă până în adâncul sufletului tău. Altfel vei rămâne un mare necunoscut şi un neînţeles singuratic care în cele din urmă va fi părăsit.

Concluzie: Pentru a fi înţeles, pentru a fi urmat şi sprijinit în demersurile tale, trebuie să asiguri accesul celorlalţi la arta ta.

Fetiţo, eşti regina Franţei

On Aprilie 03, 2014

Adânceşte-ţi identitatea într-un context mai amplu, unde diferenţa dintre tine şi ceilalţi să devină un mod de a înţelege mai bine dimensiunea vieţii.

Uşa se deschise şi omul apăru din nou. Ţinea în mână păpuşa cea minunată la care micuţa Cosette visase îndelung. Fetiţa se uită la el, se uită la păpuşă, apoi se dădu înapoi încet şi se trase mai adânc sub masă, lângă zid. Nu mai plângea, nu mai ţipa. Părea că nici nu mai îndrăzneşte să răsufle. Faţa îi era încă plină de lacrimi, dar ochii începuseră să i se umple, ca cerul la revărsatul zorilor, de razele ciudate ale bucuriei. Ceea ce simţea în clipa aceea era cam ceea ce ar fi simţit dacă i-ar fi spus cineva deodată: "Fetiţo, eşti regina Franţei".

Cosettei îi era frică. I se părea că dacă s-ar atinge de păpuşă, păpuşa ar fi trăsnit-o. Ceea ce era de altfel adevărat într-o oarecare măsură, pentru că îşi spunea că doamna Thenardier, la care muncea ca servitoare, ar certa-o şi ar bate-o. Fusese dintotdeauna goală-goluţă sub vântul cel aspru al durerii.

Cu toate acestea, ispita birui. Sfârşi prin a se apropia de domnul cu păpuşa, şi murmură sfioasă, întorcându-se spre doamna Thenardier: "Am voie, doamnă? Am voie?" Niciun cuvânt n-ar şti să zugrăvească înfăţişarea ei, în acelaşi timp deznădăjduită, îngrozită şi încântată.

Străinul avea ochii parcă plini de lacrimi. Părea să fie atât de mişcat, încât nu vorbea că să nu plângă. Făcu Cosettei un semn cu capul, încurajând-o să se joace cu păpuşa. Era singurul cadou pe care i-l făcuse vreodată cineva, unica jucărie pe care o cerea insistent sufletul ei, şi pe care necunoscutul acesta, care părea trimis din cer de providenţă, i-a dăruit-o. *****

Leadership: Pui în ecuaţia puterii de influenţă o situaţie a stărilor tale sufleteşti care sugereaza un anumit nivel de predictibilitate în modul în care lucrurile se vor derula, în condiţiile folosirii metodei "cost-direct"?

În ce constă puterea fundamentală pentru omul de azi, care îl poate transforma într-un lider autentic? Este această putere o cale de a găsi ritmul trăirii în ceilalţi? Este o cale către sfinţire, către îndumnezeire, care le întrece pe toate celelalte, împlinindu-te mai mult prin cele mai neaşteptate fapte, gesturi şi atitudini?

Leadershipul este un prilej de a-ţi adânci identitatea într-un context mai amplu, unde diferenţa dintre tine şi ceilalţi devine un mod de a înţelege mai bine specificitatea şi dimensiunea vieţii. Este încercarea de a pune în ecuaţia puterii o situaţie a stărilor tale sufleteşti, în condiţiile folosirii metodei cost-direct. În care doar variabilele de timp continuu "vreau" şi "trebuie", reunite într-un spaţiu privat, impenetrabil, propriu realităţii însăşi a lumii obiective, pot fi adăugate în aceeaşi construcţie a omenescului.

Aşa cum lumea este o reflectare a ceea ce se întâmplă în interiorul tău, tot astfel "costul-direct" pe care îl ai de suportat în urma negocierii cu tine însuţi spre o mai bună cunoaştere a leadershipului, este o constrângere a concretului şi a conştiinţei care, punând la încercare tăria caracterului tău, te obligă să acţionezi în conformitate cu aşteptările celorlalţi. Acest "cost-direct" ţine de procesul trecerii statutului existenţial al fiinţei umane de pe o treaptă inferioară pe alta superioară.

A impune şi a da un sens puterii tale de a te recunoaşte ca individ separat de lume şi, în acelaşi timp, care are o influenţă asupra lumi, înseamnă să-ţi provoci propria natură şi propriul destin să accepte ceea ce îţi este oferit ca pe o scăpare dintr-un mod de viață care copleșește prin emoţie şi imagine.

Nu mai ştiu cine spunea următorul lucru, dar cu siguranţă avea dreptate: "În timp ce trecem prin această viaţă cu o atitudine de recunoştinţă, vom fi sensibili la faptul că există întotdeauna oameni cu nevoi mai mari decât ale noastre."

Ca să-i ridici pe oameni la un nivel mai înalt decât acela la care te afli tu însuţi, este imperativ să-i repoziţionezi faţă de acele experienţe care le provoacă suferinţa, determinându-i să intre în cu totul altă etapă a vieţii. Dintr-o situaţie veche şi limitativă, într-una nouă şi compatibilă cu recunoașterea unui statut distinct. Leadershipul trebuie să asigure o continuare a tendinţei spre dragostea-pasiune care oferă un plus de putere faţă de celelalte valori ale vieţii.

O asemenea schimbare de concepţie ar fi pe deplin justificată, cum opinia unora continuă s-o considere, mai ales dacă pui relaţia ta cu oamenii sub semnul particularului. A-ţi adânci identitatea într-un context mai amplu înseamnă să pui suflet şi implicare în faţa unui destin aparent fatidic, încât să dobândeşti un rol nou, fundamental pentru iniţierea de relaţionări eficiente într-un mediu nou de formare şi creştere personală.

Leadershipul este recunoştinţa pe care ţi-o câştigi când situaţia grea şi perspectiva superficială a vieţii îi determină pe oameni să vadă mai departe de ziua de mâine, printr-o renaştere în momentul de faţă.

Fetiţo, eşti regina Franţei aduce în câmpul atenţiei acea stare de mulţumire sufletească, adevărata valoare a capitalului uman, inegalabilă poate cu nimic în lume, care contează să te însoţească permanent în viaţă, înainte ca leadershipul să se transforme într-o mare reuşită.

Ficţiunea omului care ia cunoştinţă de el însuşi

On Decembrie 14, 2014

Găseşte-ţi curajul şi determinarea de a te reinventa, sondând posibilele faţete ale unei direcţii imposibile.

Puterea mea de creaţie mă plasa în realitatea unei linii de timp numită eternitate, din perspectiva unei gândiri polivalente (critice, algoritmice, laterale) care acum se laudă cu faptul că "a trăit tot ce a spus". Găsisem mijlocul de a fi un univers în sine însuşi. Mă înspăimânta puterea pe care o aveau revelaţiile asupra acestei creaţii ieşite din comun, scara pe care omul parcurge urcuşul său spre Dumnezeu, modelul acesta de convergenţă dintre două evoluţii aparte: una a contrastelor, cealaltă a paradoxurilor.

În toată această degringoladă a minţii cuprinsă de lucrarea gândurilor, eram secondat de emoţia adâncă a medicului care este obligat să lupte împotriva morţii, oriunde ar întâlni-o. Trebuie să mori ca să învii într-un alt mod. Dacă vrei să-ţi testezi limitele în alte dimensiuni, dacă vrei să smulgi podoabele eterne din mâna Domnului, întru acea nemărginită cunoaştere înţeleasă ca proces veşnic de asemănare cu atotputernicia. Cine m-ar fi putut salva din faţa pericolului reinventării?

În secret, în mintea-mi care se pregătea să traverseze spaţiul libertăţii de exprimare a gândurilor năstruşnice, stăruiau cuvintele lui Alexandre Dumas: „ Deasupra ta, vezi, este un cer întotdeauna senin plin de stele, o întindere de azur pe unde la fiecare pas Dumnezeu ridică un praf de aur, şi fiecare atom este un univers. " După Epicur, atomii trebuie să fie neschimbători şi individuali, fiindcă în caz contrar, dacă împărţirea s-ar continua în nemărginit, atunci la sfârşit s-ar nărui totul în neant. Şi apoi din acest neant s-ar produce iarăşi toate lucrurile, ceea ce, este cu neputinţă.

Numai sondând posibilele faţete ale unei direcţii imposibile, în prezenţa unui timp Quick Connection pe care eu îl percepeam drept infinit, ca o dimensiune a cunoaşterii individuale văzută ca o măsură a schimbării, puteam să ajung la acea înălţime a abordării concentrate pe o evoluţie performantă.

Leadership: Cum abordezi traversarea accelerată a unui timp care se construieşte aproape exclusiv pe abandonarea lui, prin abordarea unei creaţii care depăşeşte puterea de cuprindere a minţii obişnuite?

Creaţia de care dădeam dovadă cu brio nu era altceva decât un suport de propagare a unei viziuni care poate că ar fi putut afecta istoria într-o modalitate practică și concretă dacă aş fi avut capacitatea de a mă opri într-un vis pentru a examina ceea ce se petrece fără să mă clintesc din loc, fără să pot schimba ceva. E un fel de simulare a unei realităţi de dincolo de orice experienţă a lumii, de dincolo de angrenajele lumii vizibile, aşa încât toate cele ce le cântăream şi le atribuiam o valoare poetică trebuiau să treacă printr-o experienţă memorabilă de "escape in a new identity".

Consumul de realitate augmentată poate fi începutul unor croieli inovatoare de viziuni care se completează una pe cealaltă prin traversarea accelerată a unui timp care se construieşte aproape exclusiv pe abandonarea lui. A abandona ceva familiar, urmând o altă cale de a te defini si de a-ti extinde orizonturile, înseamnă a accepta schimbarea. Sau, altfel spus, un timp care se construieşte pe abandonarea lui este o modalitate de a cuprinde universul unei lumi noi fără să ţii cont de graniţele ei.

Practic, trăieşti într-un timp prezent care continuă să înainteze încet, dar nu în întregime, fără să iei în considerare ceva la care nu vei putea să te mai întorci vreodată. A abandona timpul prezent nu înseamnă să-l anulezi sau să faci abstracţie de el, ci doar să-l experimentezi într-un cu totul alt mod, într-un context favorabil afirmării valorilor de perspectivă, pe care încă nu le resimţi.

Căci are loc o supradimensionare a conţinutului de experienţă în ceea ce priveşte utilizarea realităţii şi personalizarea ei cu noi aşteptări care devin apoi, prin amplificarea lor, impulsuri pentru proiectarea îndeplinirii unui nou rol la înălţimea unei noi conştiinţe de sine.

În leadership, ficţiunea contribuie la formarea unei viziuni de dincolo de timp, de dincolo realitatea imediată, de dincolo de vedere, prin intermediul evoluţiei creaţiei care reprezintă chiar imaginea ta de promotor al unor "aspiraţii nemuritoare".

A-ţi testa limitele în alte dimensiuni, ceea ce duce la formarea convingerii că posibilităţile de exprimare sunt nenumărate, presupune să găseşti energia creatoare cu care să umpli acel gol din tine care facilitează autocorectarea, transformarea şi care dă sens existenţei.

Pentru ca leadershipul să funcţioneze fără mari întreruperi trebuie să te regăseşti mai bine în propria ta autenticitate, adică să funcţionezi cu gândul la conţinutul de valoare pe care vrei să-l accesezi şi să-l livrezi printr-o creaţie care e o combinaţie între "Visul unei nopţi de vară" a lui Shakespeare şi "Magicianul" lui John Fowles.

Ca să înţelegeţi mai bine la ce mă refer, amintiţi-vă de laureatul premiului Nobel, Ernest Hemingway. El a abandonat jurnalismul, bine făcut şi bine răsplătit, încurajat de convingerea că povestirile sale sunt excelente şi că va găsi un editor care să i le publice. Şi, într-adevăr, abandonul acesta premeditat l-a ajutat să devină mai întâi un profesionist al prozei scurte şi apoi un mare romancier.

Aspiraţia lui de a crește ca ființă umană complexă, de a fi mai mult decât un simplu jurnalist, de a deveni un mare nume al literaturii, este o comoară nemuritoare pentru că întotdeauna lumea va căuta să descopere aceeaşi formă de a se reinventa prin spirit, prin inovaţie, prin jocul superior al inteligenței, şi de a se reuni în jurul unei idei care ne îndeamnă să ne evaluăm puterea interioară pentru a putea renaşte mai entuziaşti şi mai plini de energie.

Evaluează-ţi puterea interioară ca să ştii dacă eşti stăpânul sau sclavul destinului !

Ficţiunea reprezintă un fundament a priori pentru a putea cunoaşte, prin intuiţie, ceea ce extinde în mod nelimitat aria de motivaţie a instinctului de a se opune vechilor credinţe şi de a promova o mentalitate care să poată face cu adevărat diferenţa dintre o imagine banală şi una demnă de toată admiraţia celor din jur.

Ficţiunea omului care ia cunoştinţă de el însuşi evidenţiază posibilele faţete ale unei direcţii aparent imposibile de urmat, prin forţa inteligenţei şi a dorinţei de a accede la un nivel superior de conştiinţă, fiind singura cale de a te reinventa.

Orice stimulare peste măsură a inteligenţei este o ameninţare la adresa conştiinţei limitative, mai ales atunci când sunt subminate convenţiile realiste tradiţionale şi exigenţele de veridicitate ale probelor aduse în sprijinul unor noi teorii, ipoteze, perspective şi viziuni care stabilesc condiţiile prealabile ale unei creaţii mai puţin obişnuite.

Preferi să rămâi ancorat într-o conştiinţă limitativă decât să experimentezi o abordare pilot a excelenţei în promovarea noului?

Fiecare trandafir a fost odată un boboc

On Ianuarie 11, 2021

Marea cunoaştere reclamă cu prisosinţă meritul artistului de a eterniza, într-un mod sui generis, ceea ce este efemer.

Totul a început pe la vârsta de zece ani, dar a început fără să-mi dau seama, fără să desluşesc însuşirile inerente ale atracţiei conjuncturale faţă de un fenomen bizar care încă îmi zgândăreşte sufletul. Şi a început cu un film de Oscar, plin de fiorii tainelor vechi în ale credinţei, al cărui început încă mă mai bântuie, legat de sobrietatea necesară unei mănăstiri foarte vechi, de-a lungul unei bucăţi de poveste care, aveam să constat mai încolo, are prea multe în comun cu viaţa mea. Filmul se numeşte "În numele Trandafirului", ecranizare dupa romanul lui Umberto Eco.

Şi mănăstirea respectivă, grandioasă prin importanţa valorilor protejate, avea şi ea un început, mai greu de înţeles ce-i drept, pentru că oricărui început îi este necesar un alt început pentru a-şi găsi corespondentul într-un fel de comoară a revelațiilor vieţii autentic creştine, condusă nemijlocit de către Dumnezeu. Şi începutul cunoaşterii bisericii, ca şi sfârşitul povestirii, aveau în centrul unei întregi game de relaţii cu Dumnezeu o imensă bibliotecă (gen labirint), adăpostind mii de volume a căror cunoaştere încă îmi mai bântuie sufletul cu tainele unei arte care, ca orice altă artă, se bizuie pe o îndelungată experienţă.

Şi erau atât de multe cărţi în biblioteca respectivă, mult mai multe ca oriunde, şi fiecare din ele avea un început şi un sfârşit, salutând parcă timpul cu un mesaj de întâmpinare: "Luminaţi-vă sufletele cu Duhul Cunoașterii Cea de Sus". Şi între atât de multe cărţi, fiecare puţin mai prăfuită ca cealaltă, am zărit una mai uzată şi mai murdară, şi îi lipseau multe pagini, mai ales îi lipsea începutul, dar sfârşitul era încă acolo. Şi parcă, în acel sfârşit plin de taine, plin de şoapte şi suspine, am întrevăzut un început de mesaj integrat în imaginea simbolică a unui trandafir.

Acel singur mesaj, de pe o foaie lipsă, încă făcându-mă să-mi revăd trecutul, încerc să-l reconstitui acum cu nostalgie: "Orice sfârşit are un început, la fel cum fiecare trandafir a fost odată un boboc"… În scurt timp o să înflorească.

Leadership: Poţi să te detaşezi de tot ceea ce susţine greutatea propriului ego, printr-o experienţă de regândire a unei creaţii rămasă de prea mult timp în urmă?

Din marile şi falnicele mistere ale mănăstirii, pe care un om destul de matur le-a descris atât de minuţios, n-a mai rămas nimic. Nici măcar începutul, nici măcar sfârşitul, ca şi când ele ar fi făcut parte dintre nişte resturi de pergamente, căzute din scriptorium, şi făcute scrum de o realitate neînţeleasă. Astfel mi-am trăit o parte din viaţă, cu un început care nu-şi cunoaşte sfârşitul, precum o carte ce nu-şi cunoaşte autorul şi căreia îi lipsesc prea multe pagini ca să poată fi vreodată citită.

Greutatea egoului meu constă în faptul că am încercat să trec cu vederea ceea ce niciodată nu voi putea uita, ca şi când aş trece pe lângă o carte având ca subiect o construcţie antică, şi nu aş cunoaşte scriitorul pentru simplul fapt că sunt inspirat din cartea lui. Iar dacă o asemenea carte este o creaţie a începutului de maturitate, înseamnă că succesiunea obişnuită a paginilor ei mi-a lăsat în urmă visele făcând din mine un simplu călător într-o lume în prefacere?

Într-un fel, simt c-am trăit precum o mănăstire plină de cărţi, care nu-şi dezvăluie silueta din pricina zidurilor foarte înalte care o înconjoară. Realitatea şi visele mele erau mai importante decât conţinutul profund al unor mistere vechi pe care nu le puteam descifra, sau mai bine zis, ele nu însemnau nimic pentru mine. Şi, totuşi, începutul unei noi vederi despre spiritualitate, un refinado pretexto para el estudio de Dios, intenţiona să-şi facă loc în călătoria vieţii mele.

Aşa a fost să fie. Am căutat frumuseţea, distracţia, bogăţia, acolo unde nu era nimic, la fel cum Adso din Melk a căutat credinţa într-o călătorie fără sfârşit, dar şi-a regăsit în suferinţele vieţii liniştea sufletului. Deasupra mea plana imaginea trandafirului, o mărturisire plină de credinţă, poate pentru că în esenţialitatea mea adâncă doream să obţin acordul cu ceva sfânt, mai presus de orice înţelegere, printr-un Salonthenea, o insuflare divină care cheamă de la întuneric lumină, de la păcat la pocăinţă.

Locul mănăstirii era o oază de linişte, o reacție de compensare a acelor sentimente de inadecvare, insuficienţă, rușine, care străpung orizontul oricărui tânăr visător. Abia mai târziu am înţeles asta. Şi dacă m-aş întoarce la începuturile ei, m-aş regăsi în ipostaza de fiu rătăcitor care a început să-și îndrepte viața. Numai în linişte îţi poţi găsi drumul într-un labirint plin de cărţi, a cărui ieşire trece prin carte, prin cărţi fără număr, prin lecturi fără capăt, prin scrieri pline de învăţăminte, pline de lirism şi de sensibilitate.

Leadership: Tot ceea ce există în exteriorul tău serveşte clipă de clipă drumului tău de autodescoperire, ca o referință a unui subiect la același subiect explorat printr-o experienţă a prezentului continuu?

Sfârşitul nu-l cunosc, dar mai mult ca sigur el exprimă cunoaşterea cea mai aleasă ilustrată sub forma unui trandafir. Nu ştiu dacă viaţa are neapărat un sfârşit, sau un nou început. Chiar şi trandafirul are un început de însemnătate, manifestat sub forma de fixare a sentimentului de frumos şi sublim în tabloul vieţii, rivalizând cu succesiunea unei multiplicităţi de concepte abstracte şi reci. Or plantarea unui trandafir este începutul unei noi conştiinţe spirituale, tăierea lui reprezentând sfârşitul unui drum care m-a dus de fiecare dată în acelaşi loc.

Iar dacă mă refer la un înţeles mult mai larg, responsabil de evaluarea vieţii, atunci atenţia îmi este îndreptată spre sfârşitul romanului lui Umberto Eco, unde există o ajustare de natură dinamică a eului meu creator la însuşirile inerente ale trandafirului: grija, răbdarea şi toleranța la înțelepciunea conștientă.

"Cu cât citesc aceste însemnări cu atât mă conving mai mult că înşiruirea de fapte de care vorbesc este rodul întâmplării şi că nu cuprinde niciun mesaj. Dar paginile acestea neterminate m-au însoţit toată viaţa care mi-a mai rămas de trăit de atunci, le-am cercetat adesea ca pe un oracol, şi mi se pare chiar că ceea ce am scris atunci pe foile acestea, pe care le citeşti tu, cititorule necunoscut, nu e altceva decât o mixtură, un carme a figura, adică o povestire cu poze, un nesfârşit acrostih care nu spune şi nu repetă altceva decât ceea ce mi-au şoptit acele fragmente reconstituite din pagini uzate şi rupte. Nu mai ştiu dacă până acum eu am vorbit despre ele, sau ele au vorbit prin gura mea."

Îmi este greu să explic ce exprimă în mine vederea unui trandafir la citirea acestor cuvinte. Am senzația că trăiesc cu el, că vibrez la unison cu o prezenţă unitară din punctul de vedere al unei conştiinţe nemărginite, și mă delectez cu ceva ce coboară dintr-un loc sfânt. Spre deosebire de Adso din Melk, eu nu mi-am regăsit calea cea mai aleasă în preajma vreunui maestru, dar m-am regăsit pe mine în ipostaza de metaforă, simbol al unui trandafir, un simbol al prezentului etern care nu te lasă să uiţi nimic din ceea ce ai trăit.

Leadershipul, din ipostaza unei psihologii a dedublării, este creaţia căreia i te confesezi printr-o experienţă de regândire a sinelui în ceea ce priveşte imaginea vieţii tale percepută sub forma unei sacralităţi la care ai obligaţia de a te întoarce.

Cu siguranţă, într-o bună zi îmi voi reaminti de mine, de mănăstire, de biblioteca cu mii de volume, de Adso din Melk, de început şi de sfârşit. După ce se usucă floarea, va începe să se deschidă un nou boboc. Atunci voi fi liber. Voi înţelege totul. Voi urma o altă viaţă, cu un alt început, cu alte pagini, scrise cu alte cuvinte într-o limbă mai simplă. Mă voi recunoaşte când mă voi întoarce.

Fiecare trandafir a fost odată un boboc, şi bobocul a devenit, printr-o minune pe care noi uităm să o observăm, floare. Acest proces se centralizează în jurul unităţii, roind în jurul nucleului primar al unei fraternităţi universale.

Fiecare vede ceea ce vrea să vadă

On Decembrie 10, 2022

Dacă nu te vezi în ceea ce priveşti, înseamnă că priveşti fără a vedea.

Înaintea ochilor mei apărură dintr-o dată mai multe televizoare, dispuse paralel, unde imaginile se repetau anapoda prin învârtirea completă a unui ciclu de dilatări și comprimări ale timpului. Un timp paralel, al uitării şi al regăsirii, al memoriei şi al tăcerilor eterne, care nu mai avea răbdare să aprofundeze tainele "nepătrunsului" meu. Pe deasupra, nicio altă vedere din lume, chiar şi umanizată după imaginile pe care le arătau oricare dintre televizoare, n-ar fi putut să condiţioneze percepţia succesiunii culorilor şi a formelor care inoculau în mintea mea ideea simultaneităţii de mici evenimente aflate în desfăşurare.

Şi, cum privirea încerca să se focalizeze doar asupra unui singur televizor, punând la punct câteva metode de încetinire a imaginii detectată prin harul ochiului de a crea o iluminare laterală, fie printr-un proces extrinsec ochiului, am putut să-mi abat gândurile de la cursul lor firesc şi să nu mă pierd printre şoapte enigmatice, printre realităţi pe care nu le pricep. Or, aşa cum în artă nu trebuie căutată imitaţia lucrurilor, ci felul cum sunt reprezentate ele, tot astfel vederea mea nu trebuia să se focalizeze prea mult asupra unui mijloc de "presiune" psihologică, ci trebuia să-mi reediteze gândurile, trăirile, impresiile, incât să opereze o transpoziţie emoţional-imaginativă.

Doar aşa, privind o imagine cu ochi de culoare deschisă, fără să sincronizez ecranul televizorului cu traseul optic al subiectivismului meu, aş fi putut oare să modific imaginea timpului care devine necruţător şi intolerant? Şi dacă privirea mea era pur şi simplu denaturată de imaginile distorsionate ale televizorului, luând forma unei curbe ilogice de randament inversat, dincolo de ceea ce se vede, nu-i aşa că ochiului meu i-ar trebui puţină distanţare de realitate încât să pătrundă în lumea unei utopii numite "Odyssey of the Despairing Mind" ?

Atunci am înţeles adevărata menire a televizoarelor care derulează imagini fără vreo legătură aparentă cu domeniul realului sau existentului: că ceea ce văd nu încetează să se schimbe şi, în multe cazuri, nu încetează să genereze experienţe de realitate virtuală.

Leadership: Poţi să îţi concepi imaginea de sine în funcţie de un obiect propus spre a fi observat, prelungind durata observării la nivelul unei trăiri care nu se consumă?

Încă nu s-a terminat aventura din camera "connected tv devices". Ochii mei, plini de curiozitate, sensibili la prezenţa misterului în tot şi în toate, deschişi către dimensiunea enigmatică a fiecărei situaţii, încă voiau să găsească un sens mai larg celor văzute, sub acoperirea unei ficţiuni care să fie luată drept realitate, una care să depăşească cadrul firesc al lucrurilor. Puteam alege să trăiesc această ficţiune ca pe un soi de stare de spirit continuă, şi s-o împreunez cu arta abstractă a pictorului Gianfranco Chiavacci care abordează, de asemenea, arta optică și arta cinetică, având totuşi libertatea de a o părăsi oricând.

Aşa că m-am întors în aceeaşi cameră întunecoasă, lipsită de lumină naturală, unde televizoarele continuau să deruleze rapid imagini color, dar fără sens. Imaginile păreau un joc de puzzle bazat pe geometrie care mă făcea să apăs tot felul de pătrate şi alte forme geometrice de pe ecran pentru a completa numeroase zone de culoare. Încet, încet, îmi dădeam seama că fiecare imagine a fiecărui televizor furniza o secvenţă din capcanele minţii, din exilul inimii mele dintr-o "repetată uitare" în trăire, ca într-o privire nostalgică spre trecut, recuperând fragmente de timp şi de memorie capabile să-mi redea o parte din destinul meu contorsionat, demn de un thriller.

În felul acesta s-a realizat o legătură permanentă între ceea ce este cunoscut şi necunoscut, prin introducerea minţii mele într-un spaţiu al întâlnirilor cu alteritatea, unde eu însumi am devenit imaginea unei alte imagini a cărei percepție a depins de direcția privirii. Da, aşa e, televizoarele păreau să-mi asalteze mintea cu imagini care se succedau rapid, pline de mișcare și acțiune intensă, ca şi când eu însumi aş fi existat într-un tablou cu imagini mișcătoare, care păreau că ies din ecran, iar tabloul părea a fi mai deștept decât mine, fiindcă reda realitatea mea cu o acurateţe cromatică excelentă a culorii.

Leadership: Poţi considera "osmoza" drept caracteristică pentru lumea ta lăuntrică, prin întrepătrunderea acelor imagini reale care au calitatea transcendenţei şi a atemporalităţii?

Până la urmă, pentru a explica o artă abstractă, simbolică, suprarealistă, sunt nevoit să declar că m-am observat pe mine însumi în nişte imagini care par foarte reale, dar nu corespund cu nimic din realitate, fiind un fel de halucinaţii stranii, reconstrucţii aleatorii ale cortexului. Ca nişte vise plămădite aievea, legate în timp şi petrecute în acelaşi spaţiu. În acest context, numai artistul reuşeşte să creeze o serie de imagini, de situaţii care pot să aducă o persoană la o anumită stare sau la un anumit gest, şi cred că imaginile tridimensionale ale televizoare erau ele însăşi proiecţii de idei proiectate de mintea mea în exterior. Proiecţii ale unei minţi care se caută pe sine.

Faţă de aceste mijloace de proiecţie a imaginilor tot mai schematizate, tinzând către simboluri, către semne şi forme matematice, cu care încercam să mă familiarizez, m-am aflat permanent între cunoaştere şi necunoaştere, deoarece dincolo de ceea ce observam direct se afla o serie întreagă de însuşiri şi relaţii necunoscute, şi neînţelese de mine.

Lucrul acesta intră în socotelile celebrului psiholog Paul Popescu Neveanu, care spunea la un moment dat: "Caracteristică pentru lumea lăuntrică imaginativă a artistului este osmoza, întrepătrunderea imaginilor de diverse feluri. Orice artist are dezvoltat într-un înalt grad darul sinesteziei. El traduce în limbajul său specific de valori vizuale, auditive, kinestezice, verbale impresii de alt gen. În legătură cu aceasta se vorbeşte despre o audiţie colorată sau despre culori sonore, despre mişcări stridente, despre sunete mişcătoare sau despre imagini ciudate pline de contraste mari, amplificând astfel senzaţia de repetiţie."

Leadershipul este orientat spre esenţa a două imagini observate în plan dual: una reală care te descrie cel mai bine pe tine, şi alta (înclinată spre diferenţiere) care sugerează acea parte a sinelui tău care iese la suprafaţă numai printr-o proiecţie imaginară exteriorizată în creaţie.

Fiecare vede ceea ce vrea să vadă în lucrurile din jur, mai ales dacă acestea sunt o pură proiecţie a minţii. De bună seamă că o incursiune în spaţiul unui decor plin de obscuritate, asaltat de un joc particular de lumini, nu poate lua în posesie decât frânturi, instantanee dintr-o realitate mai mult bănuită şi intuită, decât concretă şi palpabilă.

Realitate care însă adăposteşte amprentele unui destin metaforic cu imens potenţiat de transcendere spre o altă imagine a sinelui care dă impresia, pentru câteva momente, că între mine și realitate nu există graniţe, ci doar o plăsmuire a minţii de artist.

Fii creația orizontului care își dezvăluie infinitul

Fiecare act de creație este un pas înainte către o percepție superioară, în care efortul fizic devine o cale de a pătrunde în adâncimile spiritului.

O mișcare perpetuă transcende ipostaza de agent transfigurator al realului și se pierde în orizontul unei creații care durează o singură viață. Este mișcarea pașilor alergătoarei care a triumfat, artistic și atletic, la aproape toate concursurile de semimaraton montan din acest an. "Să fii propria ta creație în timp ce alergi" a fost deviza surorii mele, Oana Fântânaru, la fiecare cursă provocatoare, împletind ritmul trupului aflat în mișcare - cu arcuirile peisajului montan, dincolo de limitele fizice obișnuite. Pentru întâia oară, considerând arta drept o expresie vie a sinelui, mi s-a părut că văd în Oana acel spirit artistic care face ca realitatea să se transforme, printr-un fel de alchimie a mișcării, ca și când fiecare pas ar fi fost o pensulă pe pânza naturii.

În vârful muntelui, răsuflarea ei tăiată se împletea cu aerul rarefiat al înălțimilor, creând o fuziune a victoriei tăcute, un fel de comuniune cu infinitul, încât spațiul și timpul păreau să se contopească într-un "Ofiyaancti Afixolem", un moment de eternitate suspendată. De fapt, fiecare alergător de top este un creator capabil să compună o imagine vizuală unică, unde timpul, spațiul și energia se contopesc într-un echilibru compozițional mai degrabă dinamic decât static. Își spunea la un moment dat în sinea ei:

"Privesc în jur și simt cum perspectiva mea se schimbă nu doar fizic, ci și în adâncul ființei mele. Vârful, acest punct culminant nu e doar un loc geografic, ci un altar al propriei mele transcendențe, căci am reușit imposibilul de a depăși limitele fizice și mentale. Văd sub mine văi și creste, dar mai ales, văd propriul meu drum parcurs, fiecare pas fiind o lecție, fiecare obstacol fiind o poartă a unui trecut pe care l-am transformat în trambulină. Astfel, realizez că am escaladat nu doar un munte de piatră, ci și labirintul propriilor mele îndoieli și temeri. Aici, în acest loc îndepărtat și totuși atât de intim, mă simt ca un far al unei existențe iluminate, radiind o lumină interioară care străpunge norii limitărilor self-impuse."

Leadership: Poți să transformi drumul parcurs într-o operă de artă, făcând din fiecare pas expresia unică a unei viziuni interioare, fără de care sensul mișcării ar fi incomplet?

"Fiecare pas marchează o expresie unică de ritm și echilibru, unde linia orizontului trasată în alergare reflectă dinamica unei creații continue din nimic. Înțeleg acum că măreția nu stă în vârful muntelui, ci în puterea de a lăsa niște urme bătătorite în drumul parcurs cu mare greutate. Acest loc devine simbolul nu al unei victorii externe, ci al unei cuceriri interioare, o dovadă vie a forței spiritului meu neînfrânt. Stând aici, la granița dintre cer și pământ, simt că am atins nu doar vârful unui munte, ci și apogeul propriului meu potențial. Mai mult decât măreția, mai mult decât atingerea vârfului, contează paşii pe care îi parcurgi spre dezvăluirea creației tale unice."

Cuvintele Oanei par să aibă puterea de a cristaliza întreaga experiență a unei alergătoare splendide, în căutarea unui loc în lume, asemenea unui tablou de Kandinsky, unde fiecare punct și linie capătă o semnificație cosmică. Totodată, cuvintele acestea reflectă un extras dintr-un fragment din romanul "Pendulul lui Foucault", scris de Umberto Eco:

"Creația e un proces de inspirație și expirație divină, ca o răsuflare neliniștită sau ca acțiunea unor foale. Încearcă să creezi și tu ceva din nimic. E un lucru care se face o singură dată în viață. Ori Dumnezeu, ca să sufle lumea cum sufli într-un glob de sticlă, are nevoie să se contracte în el însuși, pentru a căpăta suflu, și apoi emite lungul șuier luminos al celor zece sefiroți. Pentru asta e necesar ca luminile sefiroților să fie strânse în niște recipiente capabile să reziste strălucirii lor."

Leadership: Reușești să percepi mișcarea nevăzută din natură care, deși nu o poți vedea, răsună adânc în tine și îți modelează sufletul?

Oana Fântânaru a dovedit de fiecare dată, surprinzând un fel de versiune a imaginii interioare a creatorului de artă, că nu este doar o alergătoare de top, ci o plăsmuitoare de experiențe transcendente, un soi de artistă a mișcării, deoarece fiecare pas pe care îl face la concursuri exprimă o armonie între trup și natură.

A crea în alergare înseamnă să te miști într-o simbioză perfectă cu natura, să transformi fiecare respirație într-o formă estetică primordială, asemenea unui pictor care descoperă noi tipuri de pensulație. Chiar ea îmi spunea la un moment dat că: "puterea unui alergător constă în abilitatea de a găsi semnificație în fiecare pas, trăsând linii și puncte ce cristalizează dinamica unei creații continue, care nu poate fi ruptă de spațiu sau timp."

Creația reprezintă punctul de întâlnire dintre disciplina fizică și imaginația care reconfigurează limitele propriei ființe, dezvăluind adevăratul potențial al individului. Este și asta un fel de alchimie spirituală, nu-i așa? Dacă ar fi după mine, aș alege să exprim adevărul conform căruia fiecare act de creație este un pas înainte către o percepție superioară, în care efortul fizic devine o cale de a pătrunde în adâncimile spiritului. Nu știu de ce cred asta. Poate că, încă sunt de părere că transcendența e posibilă, în versiunea unei iluminări prin mișcare, cu șanse de a ajunge la un fel de revelație kinestezică, acel moment de grație care te face să simți unitatea cu natura şi cu universul.

Leadership: Pașii pe care mișcarea îi dictează te pot face să percepi inevitabilitatea destinului, transformând fiecare traseu parcurs într-o mărturie a spiritului tău neobosit, înainte de a deveni capodoperă?

Tot pe acest fir al gândirii, îmi vin în minte cuvintele scriitorului Ion Frunzetti: "Procesul de transfer empatic statornicește nu numai justificarea dreptului de a se extinde subiectivitatea omului asupra naturii, ci și obligația sufletului uman de a recepta viața adâncă, suflul de taină al pulsațiilor existenței, din natură, mișcarea nevăzută, dar puternică, răsunând în noi, a obiectului contemplat, modelându-le sufletul după structura lui, într-un chip neștiut, în mojarul proceselor noastre psihice."

Aceasta este, de fapt, esența alergătorului de top, reflectată prin mișcarea interioară a Oanei. Mișcarea devine un act de creație atunci când corpul și natura intră în rezonanță. Prin mișcare, spiritul își exprimă dorința de a se conecta la fluxul creației naturale, îndemnându-te să descoperi o estetică a mișcării care îmbină trupul și sufletul.

Fără îndoială, creația surorii mele este o expresie pură a unității dintre voința umană și ritmul naturii, transformând fiecare pas într-o operă de artă vie. Fiecare pas pe care îl face la concursuri devine un instrument de conexiune cu natura, fixând fiecare detaliu al traseului parcurs, în rezonanța adâncă a experienței de unitate și de bucurie interioară, dincolo de forme.

Leadershipul se manifestă nu prin atingerea unui vârf, ci prin puterea de a crea un drum durabil și vizionar, ca simbol al rafinamentului artistic și al puterii tale de a fi "sufletul naturii".

Fii creația orizontului care își dezvăluie infinitul cu fiecare răsuflare, în fiecare pas pe care îl faci. Prin creație, corpul devine un instrument care transmite nu doar mișcare, ci și energia interioară care conectează omul cu natura, pe calea unui artist care îmbină armonia și forța într-un moment reprezentativ al existenței. Așadar, spiritul unui alergător devine capodoperă atunci când depășește limitele fizice și se contopește cu voința interioară, transformând fiecare pas într-o expresie a autodepășirii.

Fii cu un pas înaintea celorlalţi

On Februarie 03, 2009

Înclină-ţi varianta de abordare a capacităţilor proprii, în aşa fel încât unghiul de promovare a leadershipului tău să se dovedească eficient.

Gândeşte-te puţin. Care este primul lucru care îţi vine în minte atunci când întâlneşti conceptul de "Inteligenţă emoţională" ? Mai mult că sigur te gândeşti la Daniel Goleman, nu-i aşa?

La fel, dacă te-aş întreba orice legat despre conceptul de "Gândire Laterală" cu siguranţă prima oară te vei gândi la Edward de Bono, nu-i aşa?

Atât Daniel Goleman cât şi Edward de Bono au devenit foarte cunoscuţi pentru că au fost primii care au adus în discuţie aceste concepte. De altfel, ei au creat aceste concepte şi le-au popularizat primii în seminariile lor. Oricât de multe lucruri referitoare la aceste două concepte s-ar scrie pe internet sau în diverse cărţi, lumea va şti cine sunt cei care le-au creat şi au vorbit primii despre ele.

După ce Daniel Goleman a scos pe piaţă în anul 1995 cartea „ Inteligenţa Emoţională” , şi alţi scriitori au adus în discuţie acest subiect, însă, nici unul nu a reuşit să atingă succesul de care s-a bucurat Daniel Goleman. Când cineva cumpără o carte, primul lucru la care se uită este anul apariţiei ei. Aşa că, chiar dacă în prezent sunt postate mii de articole pe internet referitoare la "Inteligenţa Emoţională", chiar dacă la seminarii sunt puse în discuţie elemente legate de acest concept, fii convins că lumea are deja întipărit în minte numele Daniel Goleman, pentru că are dovada. El a fost primul care în 1995 a deschis şi a dezvoltat subiectul, restul nu mai contează. Scurte şi trecătoare sunt intervenţiile ulterioare ale celorlalţi de după el.

Albert Einstein a spart tiparele unor concepţii geniale, elaborând teoria relativităţii restrânse. Există la ora actuală vreun fizician mai cunoscut decât el?

Îţi orientezi leadershipul pe o pantă ascendentă atunci când eşti prins între două dileme: "dacă o fac, şi nu merge?" VERSUS "dacă nu o fac şi apoi regret?"

În leadership, „pantele” sunt date de acele elemente, de acei factori care te scot din anonimat, care te individualizează şi te transpun într-o altă sferă mai presus de banalitatea cu care eşti întâmpinat zi de zi. Ca să fii în frunte trebuie să te distanţezi de ceilalţi oameni printr-o gândire fulgerătoare şi mult mai profundă. Ar trebui să te ocupi cu spirit de răspundere şi serioasă pregătire de unicitatea ta dacă vrei ca leadershipul tău să nu fie caracterizat drept lipsit de strălucire şi să fie considerat superficial.

Valoarea ta este accentuată de un unghi de vedere situat la „înălţime” atunci când reușești să evidenţiezi ceea ce te individualizează ca artist din acea perspectivă unică care integrează conștiinţa întregului tău talent în conștiinţa întregii omeniri.

Pentru ca unghiul tău de abordare a leadershipului să se dovedească eficient trebuie să-ţi înclini varianta de promovare a capacitaţilor tale astfel încât să te afli la o cât mai mică distanţă de exigenţele oamenilor. Poţi să le satisfaci exigenţele prin intermediul unei viziuni, a unei idei, a unor soluţii inovatoare care să aibă particularitatea de a fi excelente.

Tu îţi orientezi leadershipul pe o pantă ascendentă sau descendentă? Regretul de a nu te dezamăgi, la fel ca şi teama de a încerca ceva diferit, au în comun incapacitatea de a produce actul schimbării în perimetrul unei zone personalizate de impact care poate accepta o cauză de referinţă: preocuparea de a fi competitiv.

Leadership: Poţi să fii primul care lansează o idee hotărâtoare în evoluţia conceptului de "poziţionare de brand" care pretinde desfăşurarea unui eveniment de tipul "învingătorul ia totul"?

Cea mai eficientă metoda de a atrage atenţia asupra ta, şi de a te propulsa la un nivel mai înalt este să lansezi primul un mesaj, o idee sau un concept pe care apoi să-l propagi în întreaga lume. Dacă, de exemplu, eşti un scriitor foarte bun care într-adevăr are ceva de spus, care vine cu idei noi şi interesante, atunci ai un avantaj enorm. Aducând în discuţie în cărţile tale un concept nou despre care nu s-a mai discutat pe larg în alte cărţi sau pe internet, îţi poţi crea un nume sonor care să nu fie uitat niciodată.

Şi de data aceasta se confirmă deci constatarea că oamenii cei mai abili reuşesc întotdeauna să-şi creeze avantaje greu de ignorat. Aşa cum un călător tresare în tren atunci când locomotiva se opreşte pe neaşteptate, aşa cum oamenii se năpustesc afară din casele lor la primul semn de cutremur, tot astfel, într-o clipă, conceptul întâlnit într-o carte reînvie în mintea cititorilor pe autorul acelui concept.

O idee hotărâtoare care este lansată în evoluţia conceptului de "poziţionare de brand" poate pretinde desfăşurarea unui eveniment de tipul "învingătorul ia totul" atunci când reuşeşti să te distanţezi de mulţime şi să transformi legătura ta cu ştiinţa într-o relaţie de tip "unu la unu".

Leadershipul este înălţimea pe care ţi-o dă ştiinţa în jurul unui perimetru de luptă strâmt impus de necesitatea obiectivă de a găsi o formă expresivă de manifestare a personalităţii.

Ceea ce caracterizează cu adevărat oamenii aflaţi în vârful ierarhiei este tocmai faptul că ştiu să-şi creeze o punte de legătură cu succesul. Aidoma unui conducător iscusit care ştie să cucerească ceea ce pare de necucerit, ei reuşesc să spargă tiparele şi să se afirme primii. Atât succesul lui Daniel Goleman, cât şi cel al lui Edward de Bono sau al lui Albert Einstein, nu poate decât să confirme faptul că soarta se arată întotdeauna generoasă faţă de oamenii care acţionează primii. În acelaşi timp, soarta le este potrivnică celor care nu ştiu sau nu reuşesc să se facă remarcaţi.

Aşadar, fii peste măsură de ambiţios şi fă tot posibilul să fii primul care lansează un mesaj puternic, un concept deosebit, o idee interesantă sau o informaţie senzaţională.

Înclină-ţi varianta de abordare a capacităţilor proprii în aşa fel încât unghiul de promovare a leadershipului tău să se dovedească eficient.

Fii un jucător de excepţie

On Iunie 16, 2009

Ridică-te la înălţimea potenţialului tău, astfel încât să găseşti ecou în mintea şi în sufletul celor din jurul tău.

Trăim într-o lume guvernată de principii. Principiile colegialităţii, ale devotamentului, onoarei, ale respectului reciproc, ale încrederii, pe care le descoperim în timp, nu deodată, nu din prima clipă când intrăm în contact cu diverse persoane, şi nu numai în momentele grele când, fără doar şi poate, suntem nevoiţi să apelăm la un prieten, la un coleg, la un părinte sau la un frate.

Da. Toate principiile de care suntem călăuziţi în viaţă, pe care încercăm să le respectăm uneori cu atâta stricteţe în activităţile noastre şi pe care deseori le propovăduim pe la seminarii, în articole şi conferinţe, în rândul clienţilor şi colaboratorilor – sunt foarte valoroase, dar din păcate, uneori sunt foarte greu de pus în practică.

Ne străduim să fim mai buni, facem eforturile cele mai mari, dăm totul din noi, ne luptăm până la ultima picătură şi în final constatăm, cu multă amărăciune, că totul a fost în zadar, că nimic din tot ce-am făcut, din tot ce-am visat, din tot ce-am încercat să realizăm nu s-a materializat; totul a rămas aproape neschimbat, aceleaşi metehne – doar că mai puţine, aceleaşi rezultate – foarte puţin diferite, aceleaşi reproşuri, aceleaşi învinuiri, aceleaşi ironii din partea tuturor. Oare unde am greşit? Oare ce ne rezervă viitorul? Oare merită să mai respectăm vreun principiu?

Leadership: Poţi să te angajezi în traversarea anumitor experienţe din care să extragi semnificaţii despre sine, despre alţii, despre viaţă, fără să te pui în prim planul unei superiorităţi care elimină orice potenţial punct slab?

Duminică am fost cu prietenii mei la fotbal. Ca de obicei aceeaşi regulă: "zece minute sau două goluri", şi, tot ca de obicei, cinci sau şase echipe aşteptau pe margine să le vină rândul să intre pe teren. Şi echipa mea aştepta. În timp ce ne uitam cu toţii la jocul pe care îl făceau echipele dinaintea noastră, nu am putut să nu observ, ca toată lumea de altfel, jocul slab şi ezitant al unuia dintre jucătorii de pe teren. Nu trebuie să fii un geniu ca să observi dacă cineva ştie sau nu să joace fotbal, măcar cât de cât.

Ei bine, tipul de care vă vorbesc nu se pricepea deloc la sportul acesta. Pur şi simplu, ori de câte ori primea o pasă, o pierdea; de fiecare dată când i se atrăgea atenţia să rămână în apărare, el parcă dinadins o zbughea în atac; nu a interceptat nicio minge pasată de adversari, nu a făcut nicio deposedare şi nicio recuperare, nimic, absolut nimic, şi, pe deasupra, a mai dat şi un autogol, fapt care i-a determinat pe ceilalţi coechipieri să nu-i mai dea nicio pasă. Iar la sfârşitul zilei, după atâtea meciuri pierdute, a fost rugat, prietenos, ca de azi înainte să-şi caute o altă echipă la care să joace, una mai pe măsura lui.

A meritat sau nu această schimbare de planuri? A fost o decizie dreaptă, corectă? Băiatul era tare ambiţios şi s-a străduit să joace cât mai bine – a fugit dintr-o parte în alta a terenului de nenumărate ori, chiar a alergat mai mult decât toţi, a cerut pase, a venit la primire, încercând să le arate celorlalţi coechipieri că se implică în joc, dar ce folos? Încercarea lui a dat greş. Nicio echipă nu-şi doreşte să aibă în componenţa ei un jucător slab, acesta este crudul adevăr.

Apartenenţa ta la o echipă este precum zarurile aruncate la întâmplare: nu ştii niciodată ce o să iasă, dar cu siguranţă nu poţi să "comanzi" un şase-şase care să-ţi permită accesul facil la o nouă poziţionare în termenii unei singure feţe a zarului.

Raţiunea unui antrenor se împarte în două părţi invers proporţionale. Mai întâi este rezultatul unei manifestări emoţionale puternice unde deciziile sale afectează validitatea perspectivelor de adaptare la un mediu dur, care este o confirmare a toleranţei prea mari arătată pentru orice abateri, o slăbiciune care se întoarce sigur împotriva sa. Apoi este tendinţa gândirii în termeni de superioritate, care respinge categoric orice slăbiciune.

Liderul este genul de căpitan de echipă care experimentează tendinţele ascendente sau descendente ale coechipierilor săi din resursele secundare ale unei raţiuni care va folosi orice punct slab şi orice greşeală ca pe un instrument util de dezvoltare personală. Practic un lider alege să se comporte mai întâi ca un agent al reflexiei celorlalţi în zona lui de acţiune, şi abia apoi ca un antrenor.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi reglezi poziţionarea faţă de provocările imediate ale integrării tale într-o zonă de recunoaştere a valorii, fără să-ţi renegi apartenenţa la o minoritate care se menţine la o altitudine medie?

Cine greşeşte de prea multe ori pe teren nu mai primeşte nicio pasă şi pică în dizgraţie. Lipsa de profesionalism a unui jucător este sesizată rapid de coechipieri şi, în cele din urmă acesta ori se auto-exlude ori va fi exclus din echipă. Poţi să te străduieşti mult şi bine, poţi să depui efort peste efort, să dai tot ce poţi, poţi să încerci cât vrei să faci o impresie bună celorlalţi coechipieri, să te mişti în stânga, în dreapta, să ridici mâinile, să creezi sentimentul că eşti folositor şi indispensabil, însă dacă aceştia nu observă la tine niciun progres, nicio schimbare pozitivă în stilul tău de joc, niciun rezultat notabil, atunci nu mai rămân multe lucruri de spus. Coechipierii vor căuta un înlocuitor iar tu vei fi înlăturat din echipă.

Dar să fim cinstiţi. Oare nu este echipa îndreptăţită să-şi caute un alt coechipier, unul care să joace cât de cât decent, care să nu pună probleme, care să se poată integra cu uşurinţă în stilul lor de joc? Căci, de ce să piardă, ce rost ar avea să intre într-o competiţie ştiind că, din cauza unuia dintre coechipieri, soarta fiecărui meci va fi oricum pecetluită? Oare nu căutăm de fapt cu toţii să câştigăm, să simţim gustul succesului, fie numai şi pentru o clipă? Să ne bucurăm că am făcut o treabă bună şi că tot timpul pe care l-am investit în joc, toate eforturile noastre au meritat pe deplin şi s-au concretizat în final într-un rezultat foarte bun.

Fiecare membru al unei echipe trebuie să se concentreze asupra anumitor sarcini pe care trebuie să le îndeplinească cu succes, altfel munca nu se va desfăşura eficient. Cu cât îţi faci munca mai bine, cu cât dai mai multa dovadă de profesionalism şi seriozitate, cu atât vei câştiga mai uşor respectul şi încrederea celorlalţi, care se vor apropia tot mai mult de tine şi vor începe să te preţuiască necondiţionat, la adevărata ta valoare. Mai mult decât atât, te vor lăuda pentru calităţile tale deosebite, te vor stima, te vor iubi şi te vor recomanda şi altora, în nici într-un caz nu se vor descotorosi de tine, nu, aşa ceva nu se va întâmpla niciodată. Nimeni nu are vreun interes să excludă din echipă un om de valoare, care poate contribui la obţinerea unei poziţii fruntaşe în clasament.

Leadershipul este valoarea arbitrară pe care o atribui unui meci de fotbal al cărui rezultat contează mai puţin decât nivelul de fidelitate al jucătorilor faţă de căpitanul lor.

Fii un jucător de excepţie prin modalitatea de a controla deciziile antrenorului în termenii de validitate a comportamentului emoțional și a percepţiei de sine din perspectiva unui privitor care analizează un meci fără implicaţii emoţionale. Apoi încearcă să te ridici la înălţimea potenţialului tău astfel încât să găseşti ecou în mintea şi în sufletul celor din jurul tău.

Fii vederea într-o lume oarbă

On Aprilie 09, 2023

E stânjenitor când eşti silit să te priveşti atunci când nu vrei să te împaci cu ceva.

Zici că eşti deschis la schimbare, nu-i aşa? Poate că ai revăzut filmul Terminator, cu real interes, şi apreciezi valoarea utilizării tehnologiei, înainte de orice sensibilizare a propriei individualităţi artistice. Te laşi inspirat de un robot din acela supersofisticat, un android capabil să reziste la foc şi gloanţe, care are memorie nesfârşită, înţelege totul la nivel de Einstein, inspiră încredere totală în sine, şi îţi spui: vai, inovator, aş vrea să am şi eu unul acasă. De fapt, aş vrea să am şi eu capacităţile lui, atât de complex este. Cu siguranţă este strălucit, tehnologia viitorului, aici este cheia marilor speranţe.

Dar schimbarea începe cu tine însuţi, în afara relaţiei cu o realitate suprarealistă, şi abia acum vei vedea cât de deschis eşti la schimbare. Te întreb, înainte de toate: eşti în stare să înveţi un limbaj de programare, precum Python sau C++, ceva ce nu ai mai făcut? Eşti în stare să faci o descoperire majoră în vreun domeniu? Eşti în stare să duci o ştiinţă la un high-level? Cu ce creaţie uimitoare te poţi lansa în lume? Care este contribuţia ta în secolul 21, în lumea şiinţei, prin ochii internetului?

Măcar să-ţi faci un blog personal, să spui 2-3 cuvinte din măreaţa ta experienţă în vreun domeniu, eşti în stare? Sunt atâţia copii de clasa a şasea care au un blog, găsesc zilnic ceva de spus. Tu chiar nimic nu ai a spune? Eşti doar un obiect de decor ale cărui însuşiri caracteristice descriu forme şi umbre fără fond? Eşti doar pisc de munte în jurul căruia cununile de nori se încheagă şi se risipesc mereu? Eşti în favoarea unui android care poate imita emoţiile umane, sau calci pe urmele unui om de ştiinţă care ştie să investească în robotică, inteligenţă artificială sau inginerie genetică?

Leadership: Crezi că poţi face din "vizibil" o viziune pe termen lung, prin lipsa unui conţinut "live" care nu prezintă date cu caracter personal?

Şi iarăşi spun. Cei de la coadă vor rămâne tot timpul la coadă, ca rezultat al unei excesive stări de repaos, indiferent ce poziţii ocupă în societate, în tardivul unei evaluări vizionare lipsite de orice apreciere. Adevărul este că puţini sunt deschişi la schimbare, şi chiar şi mai puţini reuşesc să facă o schimbare importantă în lume, sau într-un domeniu al ştiinţei. Majoritatea rămâne la nivel de fantasia distante într-un film SF în care adevărul este ascuns în plină vedere, chiar dacă ceea ce vine din imaginaţia cuiva, acel "Osohatadidah Curassel Haderasepane", slăbiciunea minţii de a se lăsa pradă mirajelor, deseori ridică pe culmi orice neştiinţă.

Şi este o neştiinţă mai jos de orice neştiinţă, când cineva nu ştie că nu cunoaşte, şi crede că a cunoaşte este doar rodul unei imaginaţii mais do que ambígua care-i dă frâu liber şi care părăseşte lesne tărâmul adevărului, ca să prindă miraculosul. Aşadar, lăsaţi falşii apostoli să-şi predice neştiinţa, ei nu vor prinde niciodată putere în lume, la fel cum nu se vor uni niciodată cu marile spirite ale ştiinţei. De fapt, ei vor păstra întotdeauna umbră, fiindcă în umbră s-au născut şi în întuneric vor muri. Ei nu vor afla niciodată tainele ştiinţei, vor fi predicatorii unei falsa ciência care nu aduce cu sine nicio inovaţie, niciun suflu, ci doar o încremenire groaznică în timp, o imposibilitate de înţelegere a schimbării.

Aceşti falşi predicatori, aceşti pantofi de ocazie stiletto cu toc subţire care seduc privirile, dar nu spun niciodată nimic, nimic, nimic, sunt ruşinea toxică provenită din lipsa cunoașterii Cuvântului lui Dumnezeu, sunt trecutul jalnic de care omenirea nu trebuie să-şi amintească niciodată. La ei nu se vede nimic, nimic, nimic, şi nimic nu se transformă. Ei nu cunosc internetul, nu cunosc tehnologia, la fel cum nu ştiu nimic despre ştiinţă, rămânând continuu în starea în care omul ruinat speră că nu-i decât un vis. Nu au nimic de dezvăluit, sunt incapabili să aducă lumina în întuneric, fiindcă întunericul este absenţa luminii, la fel cum răul este lipsa Lui Dumnezeu.

Cum bine preciza cineva pe internet: "În istoria omenirii se cunosc o sumedenie de căderi în plase, ridicări pe culmi înalte ale mirajelor, a unor idoli falşi, înscăunarea minciunii în poziţii cheie cu mare putere de stanţare, generalizarea corupţiei."

Leadership: Viziunea ta este o victorie a adevărului asupra minciunii în contextul clarităţii informaţiilor transmise şi modul lor de recepţie, cu menţiunea că ceea ce vezi este perceput prin "conştiinţa infinită" ?

Numai cei străluciţi vor face lumină într-o lume întunecată. Fii lumină într-o lume întunecată, fii vederea într-o lume oarbă ! Internetul este prima lentilă a universului, conştiinţa infinitului, cea care a creat Universul, este primul pas spre căutarea adevărului şi cunoaşterii, este ieşirea din întunericul care înconjoară lumea. Arată ce ştii să faci, fă-ţi cunoscută cunoaşterea prin intermediul creaţiei, descoperirii şi inventicii. Transformă-ţi pasiunea în ştiinţă, şi încearcă să duci ştiinţa la un high-level !

Internetul este trecerea de la lumea veche la lumea nouă, este salvarea profeţită a lui Dumnezeu.

Se impune deci să vezi care este statutul ochilor tăi în receptarea unei intervenţii de 360 grade într-un spaţiul al libertăţii care trebuie protejat de propaganda unei sminteli mai smintite încă decât ordinea, mai ales dacă ochiul îşi foloseşte vederea în combaterea unei varietăţi de "phony articles", "fake news" or "disinformation", de care nu vei putea face abstracţie când vei aborda problemele creaţiei şi receptării operelor de artă. Deseori intuiţia ochiului există în afara vederii, în afara aprecierii pe care ei o consideră corectă referitor la acel beneficiu perceput asupra clarităţii informaţiilor şi a conţinutului din acest spaţiu.

Nu uita că vederea încețoșată reprezintă pierderea clarităţii vederii.

Dacă nu te împaci cu schimbarea, nu te vei împăca nici cu tine însuţi, fiindcă îţi vei da seama cât de mic şi de neînsemnat eşti în Lumea Nouă. Referitor la acest lucru, scriitoarea irlandeză Cecelia Ahern spunea: "E stânjenitor când eşti silit să te priveşti atunci când nu vrei să te împaci cu ceva. Ceva crud şi real de care nu poţi fugi. Te poţi minţi pe tine, mintea ta şi în mintea ta tot timpul, dar când te priveşti în faţă ştii că minţi. Te minţi pe tine când spui că eşti mai mult decât crezi că eşti, de fapt."

Progresul din jurul internetului va trebui să fie opera acelei fiinţe libere care după îndelungate rătăciri pe marile unei Odisei interioare, îşi va fi regăsit sufletul, în mod obiectiv pierdut cândva. Din acest considerent, leadershipul este rezultatul regăsirii propriei identități prin reconcilierea cu evenimentele trecute.

Fii vederea într-o lume oarbă, altfel vei fi precum ceilalţi orbi care şi-au pierdut complet vederea. Vederea reprezintă cunoașterea, iar orbirea reprezintă informația uitată (sau ignorată). Chiar dacă medicii oftalmologi recomandă realizarea consulturilor periodice pentru a putea depista eventualele probleme de vedere în stadii incipiente, astfel încât să poţi remedia sau întârzia scăderea acuităţii vizuale, te asigur că nu există cale mai bună de a-ţi îngriji vederea decât procesând cât mai multe informaţii la nivel cortical. Iar singurul mediu propice percepţiei şi receptării de informaţii este şi va fi internetul.

Ești unul dintre aceia care bat pasul pe loc? Sau ești unul din aceia care promovează viteza înainte prin exemplul personal? Contribui la transformarea internetului într-un loc mai sigur pentru toată lumea?

Fiinţa a cărei esenţă este infinitul

On Aprlie 18, 2014

Liderul este precum un actor de pe scenă care trebuie să fie în acelaşi timp personaj şi povestitor.

În ce mare greşeală căzusem atunci când m-am angajat în practicarea celor mai solemne moduri de gândire, alimentate de jocul apropierii şi depărtării de lumea fascinantă a ştiinţei, ţesută simbolic printre litere şi rânduri, în jurul valorii măsurate a concentraţiei de artificial şi natural, personal şi impersonal? Mă lăsasem influenţat de forţa mistică a subconştientului, căruia mintea conştientă îi dădea formă transmiţându-i sugestii în funcţie de experienţele trăite?

În ce greşeală nemaipomenită fusesem aruncat când speram să-mi ofer toate cunoştinţele dobândite cu multă trudă drept hrană ştiinţei preponderent experimentale, în locul intensităţii trăirii, a emoţiei aparte care asemenea fluviului ce se varsă într-o mare fără flux și reflux, cunoaşte numai o parte din ceea ce constituie miezul demersului existenţial?

Dacă caracteristicile unei mărimi vectoriale sunt valoarea măsurată şi orientarea, prin orientare înţelegându-se direcţia şi sensul mărimii, atunci eu eram, simbolic vorbind, doar un vector de poziţie, adică un segment de dreaptă orientat, cu originea în originea unui sistem de coordonate cartezian care nu poate fi rezolvat. Poate cineva să limiteze o fiinţă ce poartă în esenţa ei infinitul, dar care se vede smulsă şi risipită din realitatea propriei existenţe?

Aş fi vrut să fiu un criteriu de performanţă în funcţie de care poate fi măsurată şi setată calitatea de netăgăduit a vieţii, sau mai degrabă deţinătorul adevărului absolut în folosul manifestării și transformării conștiinței, capabil să trăiesc într-o lume cu totul aparte, croită după gustul inimii mele, opunându-se oricărei interferenţe care mă poate abate de la cursul de acţiune stabilit de cerinţele frumosului şi omenescului.

Poate ar fi trebuit să mi se acorde autoritatea de creator de semnificaţii, dar nu cred că aş fi ştiut ce să fac cu ea. Aş fi vrut să fiu mai degrabă un punct de referinţă al existenţei bazate pe valorificarea resurselor lăuntrice, un corp însufleţit de călduroase raze de lumină, nu o linie de demarcaţie între vis şi realitate. De unde oare trebuia să vină puterea care să-mi lumineze calea?

Leadership: Te poţi numi suveran al continuităţii de profunzime a vieţii interioare, făcând abstracţie de drepturile de autor asupra exploatării acelui "convenţional" de poveste care răspunde nevoilor de depăşire a contrariilor care se atrag?

Leadershipul este ca o poveste din care fiecare extrage propriile concluzii, dar și direcția de urmat, pe care de multe ori nici nu ne prea vine s-o credem fiindcă conţine multă morală, multă informaţie inedită, suspans, mister, dar şi o doză de egoism. Uneori această poveste se dramatizează din ce în ce mai mult, căpătând astfel greutate şi complexitate.

Enumerând cele două punte de reper în şirul mult mai numeros al observaţiilor privind relaţia viaţă-realitate, precum libertatea de gândire şi libertatea de manifestare a convingerilor, putem spune că omul este suveran al continuităţii printr-una din cele două mari funcţii care îi sunt proprii, " fast forward " sau " rewind ". Prima deţine o pondere bine determinată în aprecierea unei evoluţii nesigure, a doua tinde spre o stare depăşită, alterând valorile de bază.

Confirmăm acest lucru pornind de la faptul că un scriitor nu poate fi străin de lumea în care se află, arătându-se indiferent faţă de tot ceea este frumos şi omenesc. El işi măsoară percepţiile care creează emoţiile odată cu experienţele care îi induc o stare de transă din care se vor desprinde apoi imaginile marelui scenariu. Sau, la fel de bine, scriitorul poate fi un self-model of attachment faţă de evoluţia unei profesiuni care îşi exercită prerogativele la graniţa dintre cunoaşterea nelimitată şi maximizarea potenţialului de difuzare a ideilor prin producţia de combustibil ştiinţific.

El poate fi un om al cărui suflet seamănă foarte bine cu un puzzle uşor de reprezentat pe harta vieţii, piesele găsindu-se în modul în care se implică în reînnoirea ei.

Leadership: Eşti legat de încercarea de a înlocui "infinitul care menţine viaţa în vid" cu încercarea de a justifica povestea căreia îi pui titlul "În dialog cu UMBRA MEA"?

Două instanţe se atrag în câmpul scriitoricesc: cuvântul inteligent care, dacă este plasat unde trebuie, poate să înnoade sau să deznoade firul poveştii; şi nevoia unei posibile modificări de conţinut şi stil care poate da scriitorului senzaţia de stranietate sau o senzaţie de irealitate (acţionând ca o otravă dulce) care în mod inevitabil continuă să exercite o influenţă secretă asupra vieţii lui.

Liderul este precum un actor de pe scenă care trebuie să fie în acelaşi timp personaj şi povestitor, un punct de referinţă pentru viaţă şi un punct de referinţă pentru ştiinţă, dezvoltând în jocul reciprocităţii o anumită autonomie în colectarea de fonduri private, de tip "index", care stochează valori care par mai importante. Unele îi ghidează modul de comportament şi modul de gândire, altele determină calitatea stărilor sale, a credinţei sale, a acţiunilor şi a relaţiilor ce le are cu realitatea propriei existenţe.

Dacă vrei să trăieşti într-o lume cu totul aparte, croită după gustul inimii tale, care să se opună oricărei interferenţe care te poate abate de la cursul de acţiune stabilit de cerinţele frumosului şi omenescului, atunci îndreaptă-ţi leadershipul către interior când interpretezi un rol mare pe scena vieţii. Scrisul este primul pas către acea reflecţie asupra sensului vieţii, venit dinspre prezenţa unui artist al plăsmuirilor de limbaj care vrea să interogheze felul în care este alcătuită lumea, felul cum totul funcţionează într-o atât de strânsă legătură cu starea lui sufletească.

Dar poţi, oare, să faci asta – sută la sută – fără să piezi nicio clipă legătura cu dorinţa de ascensiune care sădeşte în tine aspiraţia spre cucerirea unei alte lumi, a infinitului care menţine viaţa în vid? Sufletul tău simte nevoia unei contopiri cu infinitul pe care îl creezi din contul tău de om dependent de o realitate care se auto-transformă?

Viaţa în vid este o poveste încă nescrisă care îşi aşteaptă naratorul. Iar infinitul care menţine viaţa în vid este perioada, starea de aşteptare a unei sclipiri de inspiraţie care poate să vină sau să nu vină din partea unor persoane superioare care şi-ar putea stimula abilităţile artistice în funcţie de realităţile exterioare şi interioare.

O poveste căreia îi pui titlul "În dialog cu UMBRA MEA" ia în considerare nevoia fundamentală a omului de a se exprima aşa cum este, de a se redescoperi, de a se detaşa de lumea din jur printr-o vie emoţie transfiguratoare.

Această emoţie poate varia de la o abordare a temporalităţii vieţii interioare, la reprezentarea atemporalităţii unei conversaţii plăcute cu propria conştiinţă, ca şi construcţie metaforică minuţios elaborată.

Fiinţa a cărei esenţă este infinitul este protagonistul unei poveşti uluitoare despre speranţă, credinţă şi miracolul vieţii, care nu cunoaşte decât monologul unui om singur, dar împuternicit cu orizonturi mult mai măreţe decât cele efemere ale lumii acesteia, provocate de ivirea unor realităţi mult mai diferite decât cele anticipate.

Fiinţa cunoscătoare al cărei reflex este devenirea

Scanează întreaga structură a forţelor tale de orientare, ca să descoperi reperele ce pot influenţa pozitiv nivelul tău de profesionalism.

Morţii nu i-a mai rămas prea mult timp de aşteptat. Invizibil, organismul acesta aflat în stare de suspensie îşi reglează toate funcţiile de răspundere ce i-au fost încredinţate de la natură şi aşteaptă doar un semn ca să intre în acţiune. El îşi anunţă necuvântător prezenţa pe măsură ce îi este pus la dispoziţie spaţiul necesar desfăşurării forţelor neprevăzute şi compromiţătoare care îşi accelerează vectorii de voinţă supremă în direcţia trasată de destin.

Dar până şi moartea începe să dea semne de îndoială, o lipsă de continuitate în proiectele ei, în actul de conducere, o prematură defecţiune a sistemului de operare atunci când mintea omenească îşi redobândeşte concentrarea şi rămâne constantă în rezultate, în vecinătatea suprafeţei de spirit şi de spontaneitate.

Leadership: Îţi proiectezi obiectivele pe fondul realităţii autentice, pe baza experienţei individuale de cunoaştere anterioară, prin înţelegere proprie şi prin interpretarea propriei fiinţe pe care o propune altcineva?

Hannibal Lecter nu oferă niciun indiciu concludent cu privire la prinderea criminalului, doar fărâme de flashbackuri şi întrebări cu răspunsuri echivoce, drumuri impracticabile la nivel psihic şi emoţional.

Prin urmare Clarice Starling este nevoită să-şi pună la bătaie mintea, să-şi scaneze întreaga structură a forţelor de orientare şi să le imprime o anumită acceleraţie pe direcţia deplasării spre un reper fix. Dintr-o singură încercare să-şi aducă în stare perfectă elementele active, reglate de intuiţie, de sensibilitate şi de conştiinţă. Fără precedent să realizeze un schimb de substanţe şi de energie cu mediul ei de acţiune.

FBI-ul realizează o hartă a crimelor comise. În împrejurimi, undeva acolo, în singurătate, se ascunde Buffalo Bill. Grăbeşte-te Clarice, grăbeşte-te ! Viaţa bietei Catherine depinde acum doar de agilitatea minţii tale. Timpul este pe sfârşite !

După cum un arheolog îşi reglează cu fineţe mişcarea mâinilor şi a corpului pentru a putea efectua săpăturile necesare scoaterii la iveală a unui obiect de valoare inestimabilă, Clarice îşi programează decodorul mental şi caută cu sârguinţă canalul potrivit la numărul regiunii unde crede că ar putea găsi unele răspunsuri evidente, urmărind întocmai schema de aplicare a unui algoritm simetric. Mintea ei creează noi reflexe de judecată, capătă alte valenţe de cuprindere a realităţii.

Clarice se îndreaptă spre o sarcină greoaie şi ambiţioasă: inventarea unei scheme generale de orientare, graţie căreia să fie posibil să descopere reperele care pot influenţa destinul bietei Catherine, răpită şi sechestrată de Buffalo Bill. Dar pentru a-şi atinge scopurile, Clarice trebuie să introducă în evoluţia construcţiei orientării sale un raţionament unic.

Practic ea are misiunea de a descoperi, îndărătul profesionistului în devenire, fiinţa cunoscătoare a psihicului uman al cărei reflex este această devenire.

Leadership: Perspectiva a ceea ce te conduce către obţinerea rezultatelor te împinge să fii cu totul altceva, împotriva voinţei tale de a recunoaşte pur şi simplu o anumită realitate?

Clarice scapă din vedere un singur aspect în toată această operaţiune complexă de căutare a indiciilor: nu-şi dă seama că de fapt altcineva i-a programat întreaga mentalitate, că de fapt ea este obligată de Hannibal să devină altcineva, un produs psihologic cu însuşiri mult mai profunde.

Practic, ea se angajează într-un demers dificil împotriva voinţei sale de a recunoaşte pur şi simplu o anumită realitate: că de fapt este un cobai care nu poate lua decizii singur, ci tot timpul aşteaptă să i se ofere suport în căutarea informaţiei, un anumit cadru de referinţă (intelectual, emoţional) care să o ajute să urmeze drumul cel drept al indiciilor și al descoperirilor.

După ce criterii preferăm un mod de gândire "industrial", generator de perspective sărace şi subiective, unei modalităţi de abordare a cunoaşterii bine cioplite în materialul dur al judecăţii care trezeşte şi întreţine interesul pentru activitatea de cercetare desfăşurată în folosul devenirii, dispunând de aceleaşi considerente de ordin practic?

Avansarea liderilor spre un nivel superior de profesionalism, datorită producţiei la scară largă de judecăţi, calcule şi mecanisme logice, este foarte pretenţioasă. Se ajunge în situaţia de a realiza estimări, presupuneri şi scenarii diferite asupra naturii cercetării, menite a satisface una şi aceeaşi ipoteză. Astfel se înregistrează o anumită evoluţie ascendentă a leadershipului, dar minoră în comparaţie cu adevărata evoluţie.

În acest caz descoperirea reperelor multiple şi complexe ce pot influenţa major existenţa omului supus unei influenţe străine negative, în limitele căruia se înscriu într-o continuă întrecere tot felul de indicii şi suspiciuni, se dovedeşte insuficientă.

Leadership: Când te confrunţi cu o probă de viaţă, te laşi furat de tendinţa de a te poziţiona, în general, la un nivel mult inferior propriei prestanţe de a te numi "privilegiat" într-o anumită ştiinţă?

Două moduri de gândire sunt definitorii pentru dezvoltarea leadershipului. Gândirea raţională şi analitică, corespunzătoare pentru evaluarea rezultatelor cercetării care duc la atingerea unui target de ordin moral şi social. Şi gândirea care imprimă o anumită acceleraţie propriului potenţial de lider, dar mai puţin corespunzătoare devenirii rodnice spre ceva mai înalt, spre o excelentă cunoaştere de sine. Între ele două, deseori are câştig de cauză cea dintâi.

Opţiunea de generare a valorii, îndărătul profesionistului în devenire, se realizează după criterii destul de exigente, după anumite modele de stabilite în practica leadershipului, după anumite reguli raţionale şi după anumite argumente. Având ca scop o cunoaştere cât mai profundă a naturii umane şi a transformării acesteia. Dar şi după tipul de interpretare a schemei de orientare ce se realizează în funcţie de reflexele de judecată care trebuie să dezbine liderul dintr-un sistem încremenit de cunoaştere şi de analiză.

Leadershipului implică o urmărire consecventă a consecinţelor pe care ipotezele şi concluziile, răspunsurile evidente sau nesigure, le au pe plan profesional. Prin parcurgerea susţinută a unei căi de introspecţie şi conştientizare profunde, dar şi graţie unei viziuni reglate de intuiţie, de sensibilitate, de robusteţea scenariilor şi de raţionamentul unic care influenţează cercetarea, trebuie să-ţi aduci în stare perfectă elementele active care au puterea de a declanşa procesul de devenire.

Această devenire se reflectă în rezultatele pe care le obţii. Şi depinde de cât de cunoscător al psihicului uman eşti.

Leadershipul este experienţa pe care o capeţi prin autosugestie sau printr-un transfer de personalitate care nu îi este oricui la îndemână, cu menţiunea de a nu te transforma într-un experiment pentru altcineva.

Fiinţa cunoscătoare al cărei reflex este devenirea scoate în evidenţă acel drumul parcurs de lider pentru a obţine performanţele dorite. Acest drum, care se doreşte să aibă un trend ascendent, este inimitabil şi se construieşte în timp. El poate avea un traseu plin de ocolişuri şi de meandre. Sau poate fi rectiliniu, în funcţie de cunoştinţele, abilităţile şi experienţa anterioară a liderului. Dar el nu se construieşte după formule matematice, ci implică întotdeauna elemente ce ţin de fondul unic şi personal de dezvoltare.

Fila albă din agenda de programări

On Martie 20, 2013

Descoperă oportunitatea trecerii la un alt statut, acordând propriei tale naturi o cotaţie maximă.

Încă o dată nemilosul asasin, aflat în fruntea mişcării sale de cavaler al întunericului, îşi dezlănţuie furia instinctivă. De această dată împotriva unui mafiot important care a avut îndrăzneala de a-i tulbura liniştea interioară.

Dar lângă Anton Chigurh şi victima lui atinsă de fasciculul laser al fatalităţii, stă resemnat, ca o filă albă, un suspect firav şi temător care nu se află în "agenda de programări". Un nimeni, un biet contabil care nu găseşte curajul să acţioneze în vreun fel, să iasă la înaintare cu vreun comentariu. Totuşi, el nu fuge, ci răspunde cuviincios la întrebările ce-i sunt adresate. A ales unealta corectă, a găsit mijlocul de a-l determina pe asasin să treacă printr-o experienţă deosebită, fapt care i-a adus însufleţitoarea izbăvire.

E destul ca Anton să respire, că imediat nervii acestui firav ghiocel se şi încordează, limita superioară a tensiunii sale normale este atinsă. O legătură covalentă se stabileşte preferenţial între elementele cu caracter personal şi spiritual apropiate. Încrederea, credinţa şi nădejdea, se defragmentează în molecule tot mai izolate.

Ceva se întâmplă, ceva neobişnuit. Asasinul stă uluit în faţa unicului martor al oribilei sale crime, în timp ce martorul stă uluit în faţa atitudinii blânde, fără precedent a asasinului. O transformare reciprocă între două tipuri de energii, eliberându-se o cantitate de căldură ce produce topirea parţială a stratului de gheaţă din personalitatea lui Anton.

Leadership: Experienţa unei senzaţii de tipul "m-am săturat să răspund la provocări" avute în urma unei revelaţii de simţire şi gândire înaltă te face să-ţi cauţi identitatea într-o lume a regăsirii Sinelui conectat la condiţiile pieritoare ale vieţii?

Ne putem îndoi? Nevinovatul emană une lumière nouvelle ca mijloc de apărare, o stare de spirit la superlativ, ceva mult mai misterios decât poate crea raţiunea umană, şi pentru care nu se găseşte explicaţie. Ca un medicament miraculos împotriva morţii şi a bolii, încă neinventat la scară mondială, ţinut ascuns în micul laborator al fiinţei sale.

Şi ce medicament ! În locul metodei clasice de înlăturare a oricăror martori, Anton dă semne de redresare a personalităţii, îşi reprimă dependenţa de a ucide. Pare că a găsit mângâiere de la aproapele său, un motiv gingaş pentru a se despărţi de orice iniţiativă vanitoasă, păcătoasă. O intenţie de idilizare?

Anton devine predispus la inerţie, riscând să-şi piardă originalitatea, să devină lânced şi greoi, să se pietrifice prea de timpuriu într-o profesiune care cerea " No Mercy ".

El nu mai este pătruns de acel credo normal al conştiinţei sale, " Safety first ", ci pentru întâia oară impulsul său brutal este anulat cu totul. Pare că ridică fiinţa umană la un rang mai înalt. Prin propria lui forţă de reacţiune elimină barierele nonconformismului dus până la paroxism. Legea lui Murphy: " Dacă ceva rău se poate întâmpla, se va întâmpla cu siguranţă ", dă greş de această dată, îşi schimbă radical sensul.

Anton sesizează pentru prima dată necesitatea şi oportunitatea trecerii la un alt statut, dintr-un motiv nobil. Dând prudent, fără grabă, dimensiunii umane o cotaţie maximă. Un fel de conductivitate, o cantitate de energie pozitivă traversează într-o secundă secţiunea sensibilă a personalităţii sale, pe o lungime neobişnuită.

Astfel vulcanul îşi suspendă activitatea şi devine pasiv. Cel puţin pentru o vreme. *

Leadershipul: Lupta cu propriile tale variante de "a fi" poate servi ca un pretext pentru a trăi experienţa unei anumite nuanţe de moralism care scade din concentraţie printr-o alăturare de slăbiciuni şi circumstanţe nefericite?

Ai găsit mijlocul de a stimula experienţa cea mai îndrăzneaţă a celor din jurul tău? Eşti pătruns de acel credo normal al conştiinţei " Safety first "? Poţi elimina barierele nonconformismului prin propria ta forţă de reacţiune? Îţi poţi stabiliza crunta dependenţă de a urma o cale improprie personalităţii tale?

În tranziţia spre limanul devenirii, prima jumătate care te individualizează - cea care stimulează experienţele cele mai îndrăzneţe, nu duce întotdeauna către adevăratele culmi ale progresului, ci deseori spre o încăierare în toată regula cu propriile tale variante de "a fi". Prima variantă ia în considerare cauza unei anumite situații de tulburare emoţională sau a unui stil de viață deficitar, iar cealaltă variantă (într-un mod izolat) are semnificaţia de experimentare conştientă a sensului de a fi un centru de inițiativă în ce priveşte suportabilitatea "costurilor" necesare vieţii, de a fi un recipient al impregnărilor de nelinişte din exterior.

Astfel se naşte o luptă categorică în tine, o pendulare permanentă între contrarii: bun sau rău, măreţ sau tragic. Înainte să ridici cortina schimbării, încep să se zbată captive întrebările răscolitoare ale existenţei tale: " Cine sunt cu adevărat? Sunt un simptom direct al propriei mele slăbiciuni? Sau o piatră de temelie solidă în vieţile altora? "

O idee teribilă apare: leadershipul este o podoabă? Poate. Fiindcă el este bunul cel mai de preţ al unor fiinţe rare, a unor oameni dotaţi cu capacitatea de a face distincţie între cele două laturi ale personalităţii care îi defineşte. Aceia care posedă "geniul" sau cel puţin "talentul" de a schimba acea intolerabilă şi instabilă stare de " a fi ".

A trăi experienţa unei anumite nuanţe de moralism înseamnă să-ţi asumi responsabilitatea unei schimbări, a unei înnoiri sau libertăţi de decizie, în raport cu valorile propriei supravieţuiri într-un context de tipul: "Cu ce m-am ales din toată tragedia acestei întâmplări?"

Valori precum: liberul arbitru, libertatea de expresie şi de alegere, toleranţă în faţa dezamăgirilor şi a evenimentelor stresante, adevărul, dreptatea, egalitatea, compasiunea, trebuie să facă parte din arsenalul puterii de a alege să laşi sau nu circumstanţele să dicteze modul în care te percepi pe tine însuţi. Din nefericire aceste două proeminenţe ale excelenţei sunt posedate de prea puţini dintre cei care au fericirea de a se consacra ca lideri, ele devin doar trenuri de marfă care duc minereul undeva la prelucrare – de a căror frâne şi direcţie am serioase îndoieli.

Liderul este rezultatul căutărilor sincere pornite din dorinţa de a face performanţă, de a face lucrurile să iasă întotdeauna cum trebuie în urma unei conjuncturi nefavorabile. Reprezintă ipostaza creată cu grijă de către cele două entităţi partenere: "geniul" şi "talentul". Statutul prioritar al liderului trebuie să fie acela de om care ştie să devină mai bun, în curajul de a recunoaşte că a greşit în anumite momente ale vieţii.

Cel ce a trecut prin viaţă dobândind o sumă de experienţe, a înţeles că nota dominantă a propriului caracter, singurul mijloc de apărare împotriva deşertăciunii şi absurdului, dar şi a falsităţii, este pozitivismul din el, condimentat cu un amestec de caracteristici nutritive: adaptabilitatea, integritatea, redresarea personalităţii, stabilizarea dependenţei de a fi servitorul unor iniţiative vanitoase, păcătoase.

Leadershipul este puterea de a te schimba în condiţiile unei game de posibilităţi de alegere între ceea ce te face să suporţi suferinţa şi ceea ce te face să simţi mulţumire din faptul că nu te laşi prins în plasa prejudecăţilor şi convingerilor limitative.

Fila albă din agenda de programări scoate în evidenţă factorul (adeseori uman) care participă decisiv la transformarea ta, dând un sens pozitiv existenţei tale.

Accepţi nevoia de a-ţi focaliza mintea şi puterea voinţei asupra propriei transformări? Ai curajul de a-ţi înfrunta cele mai profunde compulsiuni? Îţi trebuie acea calitate care lipseşte adesea din bagajul de calităţi al "liderilor industriali"?

Descoperă oportunitatea trecerii la un alt statut, acordând propriei tale naturi o cotaţie maximă.

Finala de pe tărâmul explorării

On Mai 14, 2012

Fă dovada propriei tale măreţii, fără să te pierzi în labirintul unei personalităţi cu extrem de puţine înzestrări empatice.

Filmul "Meet Joe Black (1998)" . Ultima cină, împreună, toţi membrii familiei, cu numai câteva zile înainte de evenimentul mult aşteptat: petrecerea de aniversare a marelui om de afaceri Bill Parrish.

Dar Bill era singurul de la masă care nu părea deloc entuziasmat de eveniment. Bărbatul acesta ordonat în tot şi în toate, îşi stăpâneşte chiar şi în clipele de relaxare, în mediul familial, fiecare nerv al feţei. Pe figura lui impozantă, plăsmuită parcă dintr-un aliaj rezistent la schimbare, oglindind cea mai desăvârşită combinaţie de două tipuri umane, identice prin tăria pe care o răspândesc în jur – al savantului, care nu sfidează nicio lege, şi al judecătorului care sancţionează fără milă orice mică greşeală – nu se poate zări niciun zâmbet.

Leadership: Eşti pe cale să-ţi dezvolţi o mentalitate egoistă şi dispreţuitoare în încercarea de a-ţi ascunde vulnerabilităţile şi de a te proteja de descumpăniri ulterioare?

Fiica lui cea mare, Allison, pregătise mini-tortul, iar el, singurul om pe care-l admira cu adevărat, nici măcar o felie nu voia să guste. Ca şi cum cineva i-ar fi încremenit cu puterea unui singur gând fiecare gest, fiecare tresărire a inimii sale, fărâmiţându-i decisiv orice urmă de simţire. Biata femeie, nefericita victimă a unei nepăsări covârşitoare, istovită de furtunile interioare care îi răscoleau întreaga fire, îşi trage ochelarii de soare pe ochii întristaţi, sperând să-şi ascundă lacrimile care curg nestingherite ca un râu de apă vie din care emană toată puterea ei, şi de care nimeni nu se încumetă să se atingă.

- "The goddamn party ! " Aţi auzit? Nu-i pasă deloc ! De ce mă mai chinuiesc? Încerc să pregătesc în numai două zile petrecerea secolului pentru tatăl meu, iar lui nici că-i pasă ! "He doesn't give a shit ! " exclamă ea cu tărie.

După cum Sigmund Freud şi-a ratat nu numai cariera academică, ci şi practica medicală prin împotrivirea lui faţă de metoda mecanică a neurologiei, tot astfel marele Bill Parrish, precis ca un matematician în toate planurile sale, autoritar în toate palierele vieţii sale sufleteşti, era pe cale să-şi piardă şi ultima brumă de bun simţ, ultima fărâmă de respect pentru tot ceea ce însemna "noi" în sânul familiei sale - prin atitudinea lui nepăsătoare faţă de străduinţele fiicei lui.

Leadership: Te pierzi în labirintul unei personalităţi cu extrem de puţine înzestrări empatice?

Un lider care are puterea să producă schimbarea, şi care o produce cu acea frenezie a descoperitorului, surprinde manifestările cu totul materiale, cele mai puţin aparente, a lumii lăuntrice, morale şi sufleteşti a celor din jur – dar mai întâi îşi încarcă el însuşi, la maximum, necontenit, bateriile morale, sufleteşti care îi alimentează existenţa.

Aşa cum un scriitor se strecoară în făpturile miilor de personaje ale sale şi se pierde în labirintul existenţei lor, trăind viaţa lor, tot astfel un individ ca să se apropie de excelenţa în arta conducerii trebuie mai întâi să-şi comunice emoţiile în mod pozitiv, să le recunoască atât pe ale lui cât şi pe ale celorlalţi - fără să se piardă în labirintul unei personalităţi cu extrem de puţine înzestrări empatice.

Personalitatea poate să reprezinte o indulgenţă trufaşă, aproape dispreţuitoare faţă de cele necunoscute care te blochează în deciziile tale, sau poate fi esenţa unei realităţi din care nu poţi scăpa. Depinde de felul cum răspunzi la acţiunea neaşteptată şi la neprevăzutul care modelează orice valoare a ta de referinţă.

Dintr-o dată omul cu inimă de piatră, omul nestrăbătut de nicio emoţie – sau poate de una impură, nefiltrată de raţional şi moral, el care traversa criza "nerecunoştinţei" - îşi deschide la un singur acord de voinţă, inima. Sesam, deschide-te ! În ochii marelui Bill Parrish, mai înainte atât de reci, se iveşte într-o clipă, ca la comandă, scânteia înţelegerii, sclipitoare ca un diamant. Îşi simţea, aşa cum razele soarelui mângâie lin pământul, toată făptura reînnoită de emoţii şi energie pozitivă.

Dar cine? Cine i-a răscolit micuţa cămăruţă a sufletului? Cine, ce anume, cu ce forţă i-a reparat defecţiunea majoră a inimii făcând ca aceasta să pompeze din nou, continuu, liniştitor, o cantitate imensă de emoţii eliberatoare, cu vibraţii foarte înalte precum bucuria, dragostea, raţiunea, acceptarea?

Bill săvârşeşte minunea: ia o felie din tort, o gustă cu acea plăcere a omului care găseşte şi soarbe fluidul tămăduitor al bolii necunoscute care îl afectează, închide ochii încet, respiră profund, simţind parcă cum leacul îşi face instantaneu efectul – apoi, Evrika ! Ce bun este tortul ! Şi ce reacţii benefice are medicamentul care îndulceşte firea omului ! Căci în clipa următoare Allison tresare de bucurie, îşi şterge lacrimile, îşi potoleşte sufletul zbuciumat; apoi gestul lui este salutat şi urmat de ceilalţi membri ai familiei, care se încumetă a gusta din acelaşi minunat tort, din aceeaşi tip de esenţă vie.

Leadership: Îţi suprimi năzuinţa spre virtute din pricina căutării cu orice preţ a unui moment de deconectare de la ceea ce fusese până atunci viața ta?

Dacă nu vrei să te rezumi doar la statutul de lider, ci la a fi un om de calitate, atunci fă tot posibilul să nu te îmbolnăveşti de boala "fugii de sine". Asumă-ţi întreaga responsabilitate pentru toate emoţiile îţi limitează performanţele. Aceste emoţii transmisibile, pe care le trăieşti în rând cu ceilalţi oameni, te încearcă la orice pas, la orice vârstă, te atacă în împrejurările cele mai delicate, punând piedică puterii tale de a empatiza, îngreunând parcurgerea drumului tău optim spre excelenţă.

Fuga de sine, departe de limitările ignoranţei faţă de lumea din jur, este o încordare a trăirii instinctive faţă de experienţele noi, o încordare care nu cedează în faţa niciunei atracţii. Ea se formează atunci când nu reuşeşti să optimizezi posibilităţile privind abordarea şi afirmarea autonomiei tale ca om de mare fineţe intelectuală.

Eşti eficient în zonele pe care ai nevoie să le înzestrezi? A încerca să trezeşti ecourile propriului tău Eu, fără să găseşti răspuns la întrebarea: " De ce nu sunt compatibil prin felul de a gândi şi simţi cu ceilalţi oameni? ", este ca şi cum ai vrea să tămăduieşti bolile sufletului strict pe cale medicamentoasă, fără să aplici în prealabil nicio terapie sufletească.

Dacă te împotriveşti realităţii care te face să fii aşa cum eşti, ca un abil calculator care îşi face bine socotelile, căutând să te agăţi cu orice preţ, în mod egoist, de o abordare care nu te defineşte, dezacordându-te de latura profund umană care atinge şi emoţionează pe cei din jur, atunci graniţele dintre leadership şi viaţa ta vor deveni permeabile.

Virtutea este calitatea de a rămâne la înălţimea propriei măreţii chiar şi atunci când te cobori la nivelul unei trăiri care se consumă.

Finala de pe tărâmul explorării desemnează acea rampă de lansare pentru tine însuţi, pentru Eul tău care se loveşte constant de refuzul propriu, ca de un zid construit din indiferenţă, din inconştienţă, superficialitate, ori dintr-un fel de amorţeală bolnăvicioasă - de a te conforma celor mai de preţ emoţii şi simţăminte, de a înainta fidel pe drumul măreţiei. Explorează-ţi sinele înainte de a produce schimbări în garnitura sufletească a celorlalţi oameni.

Important nu este tabloul de pe perete, ar spune un artist, ci întregul mediul înconjurător, şirul de experienţe, pozitive sau negative al conştiinţei tale, care îţi modelează personalitatea – căci tocmai conştiinţa, această piatră de hotar a leadershipului, îţi încarcă spaţiul interior cu fluidul binefăcător al schimbării şi dezvoltării tale spirituale, dictându-ţi ce şi cum să faci, să te comporţi, să spui, să iubeşti sau să urăşti – ce anume să scoţi la iveală, ce anume să ţii ascuns.

Fă dovada propriei tale măreţii, fără să te pierzi în labirintul unei personalităţi cu extrem de puţine înzestrări empatice.

Flacăra unei lumânări ţinută de o mână invizibilă

On Martie 02, 2014

Extinde-ţi teritoriul de cunoaştere, fără să te ataşezi prea mult de proprietăţile realităţii cu care ajungi să te identifici.

Cu un zel deosebit încercam să-mi concentrez toate forţele inteligenţei mele spre o întoarcere la esenţialul pe care îl pierdusem din vedere, la constituirea unei viziuni filosofice proprii, bazate numai pe experienţa de viaţă. Care, însă, suferea mici alterări sub influenţa diferitelor condiţii de utilizare a raţiunii. Trebuia să am grijă cum prelucrez fiecare request individual pentru asigurarea un echitabil schimb de coordonate între sistemele de referință ale autorităţii mele intelectuale şi morale.

Era limpede că felul acesta de a mă privi şi de a mă înţelege, sub aspectul unei analize atente şi a unei opţiuni de prelungire a valabilităţii mele de fond, pe care orice om responsabil de propria formare este obligat s-o efectueze din când în când, spunea mereu acelaşi lucru: „ Oare înţeleg în profunzime ceea ce caut pentru a umple golul creat de o insuficientă configurare a parametrilor de utilizare a proceselor superioare de gândire? "

Mai mult ca sigur eram electrizat de acea gândire artificială şi abstractă a omului de ştiinţă, despre care esteticianul român, Ion Ianoşi, spunea că opreşte în loc mişcarea necontenită, separă părţile inseparabile ale întregului, disecă şi pătrunde adâncurile ce nu i se înfăţişează direct, adâncuri ce se cuvin înţelese prin efortul mijlocitor şi întrucâtva mortificator al raţiunii.

Omul care nu descoperă din experienţa propriilor trăiri o nouă teorie sau un nou concept de originalitate în domeniul creaţiei ştiinţifice, cu certitudine nu posedă nici clarviziunea destinului care îl impinge să fie mai mult decât este.

Încăpăţânarea de a depăşi orice limită. Sondarea profunzimilor în ceea ce priveşte domeniul ştiinţei. Erudiţia metodică bogată în rezultate precise şi preţioase, ca un izvor de apă vie din care bei şi nu te mai saturi. Stimularea unei gândiri independente şi investigative. Toate acestea îmi pregăteau piesele pentru suportul solid de susţinere şi promovare a leadershipului.

Vina era în totalitate a mea. Pentru că îmi pierdusem esenţialul. Pentru că mă ataşasem de proprietăţile unei realităţi grevate de nişte aspiraţii intelectuale superioare, cu care ajunsesem să mă identific. Pentru că uitasem să conştientizez toate părţile bune şi rele care, asemenea unor regiuni frământate, răscolite de fenomene atmosferice aleatorii, făceau ca viaţa să merite să fie trăită.

Leadership: Ai activată opţiunea de prelungire a valabilităţii tale de fond rezultată din sugestia unei fine intuiţii a operei finale căreia i-ai închinat întreaga viaţă?

Crezi că poţi să iei parte la o bătălie titanică şi să te întorci fără niciun traumatism de pe ţărmurile suprasolicitărilor intelectuale şi a frământărilor de ordin moral sau emoţional? Eşti continuatorul valorilor care te ajută să creşti spiritual, ghidându-ţi viaţa spre tărâmurile unei gândiri care produce o cotitură fundamentală în modul de abordare a realităţii?

Dreptul de a utiliza şi promova leadershipul aduce cu sine responsabilitatea deschiderii unui nou orizont creativ în cunoaşterea umană, ca un fel de opţiune de prelungire a valabilităţii tale de fond şi găsirea unui antidot pentru sentimentul de angoasă care îţi poate însoți existența. Poţi oare să te împaci cu tine însuţi pe fondul unei tendinţe de evoluţie care îţi solicită intens capacitatea intelectuală?

Opera finală căreia i-ai închinat întreaga viaţă este rezultatul strădiunţei cu care ţi-ai perfecţionat mijloacele de exprimare pentru a putea comunica adevăruri despre sine, despre existenţă, despre lume, concepute sub forma unor legi universal valabile.

Imaginaţia cu care îţi completezi prejudecăţile sau virtuţile, în abundenţa nebănuită a situaţiilor în care se aplică deformarea sau supradimensionarea unui fragment din viaţa cotidiană, deci recurgând la o comparaţie cu realul, corespunde manifestării dorinţelor tale de a aduce mai întâi în conştiinţa propriei credinţe schimbarea direcţiei de curgere a evenimentelor.

Dacă alegi să îţi schimbi viziunea asupra a ceea ce te preocupă cu totul, sau mai degrabă asupra a ceea ce se întâmplă dincolo de realul care te stăpâneşte, curăţându-ţi gândirea de toate condiţionările şi toate pretenţiile ei de a avea un caracter supranatural, nu vei putea să experimentezi o creştere ritmică a frumosului existenţial. Ci vei risca o suspendare în gol, susţinându-te doar printr-un adevărat miracol al legilor echilibrului de ceea ce contează cu adevărat pentru tine.

Abilitatea de a înţelege şi promova leadershipul, dobândită prin controlul impulsurilor care îţi pot prejudicia existenţa, ţinându-te departe de primejdia unei creaţii intelectuale care şi-ar pierde seva în timp, are la bază fenomenul strict uman numit conștientizare. Să conştientizezi schimbarea produsă prin tine însuţi datorită unui concept inovator. Şi numai datorită acestui proces, poţi evalua mai bine propriile tale experiențe și trăiri. Precum şi experiențele altora, învățând de pe urma lor.

Leadership: Imaginaţia cu care îţi completezi virtuţile de realizare a unei opere generatoare de noi direcţii de viaţă corespunde manifestării nevoii tale ascunse de a te simţi superior în faţa unui nou început de lume?

În "The Raţionale of Verse (1843)", scriitorul american Edgar Allan Poe scria următoarele: " Să examinăm un cristal. Ne interesează întâi egalitatea dintre unghiurile uneia dintre feţele sale. Egalitatea laturilor ne place. Dar cea a unghiurilor ne dublează plăcerea. "

Dacă alegi să cercetezi şi să mergi mai departe pe drumul construirii unui imaginar care deschide noi orizonturi cunoaşterii cele mai avansate, să intri pe drumul înţelegerii unui teritoriu ştiinţific mult mai disputat, te vei ataşa de proprietăţile unei realităţii grevate de aspiraţii intelectuale superioare, cu care sigur vei ajunge să te identifici.

Şi astfel, devii asemenea flăcării unei lumânări, ţinute de o mână invizibilă. Atingi o anumită perfecţiune, prin relaţie cu rezultatele experimentale, impusă de o forţă care face un unghi obtuz cu axa de referinţă a ceea ce este unanim acceptat, impus drept unică variantă existenţială de luat în calcul: bucuria de a trăi.

Poate că acest unghi îţi dublează plăcerea de a interacţiona cu un spaţiu generat dinamic printr-o cunoaştere ce devorează orice resursă informaţională. Dar îmbunătăţirea "feţelor" leadershipului se află la originile construcției tale identitare care interacţionează cu valorile, cu modul cum îţi interpretezi personalitatea pe terenul realităţii prezente şi viitoare, în perfectă armonie cu accepţiunile şi principiile tale existenţiale.

A te simţi superior în faţa unui nou început de lume înseamnă să-ţi desăvârşeşti imaginaţia spre inepuizabil, multiplicând formele de percepere şi de exprimare a realităţii cu noi adevăruri care pot fi valorificate în viața reală.

Flacăra unei lumânări ţinută de o mână invizibilă scoate în evidenţă acea teamă de a nu fi pus în situaţia de a da socoteală propriei tale conştiinţe, care nu se vrea o autoritate în vreun domeniu de specialitate. Dar care trebuie educată în aşa fel încât să nu ajungă a stranger pentru existenţa plină de bucurii care te hrăneşte. Nu te îndepărta te tine însuţi, oricât de fascinantă este abilitatea ta de reinventa lumea !

Fluxul torenţial al imaginaţiei

Lasă-te cucerit de o idee dominantă, pentru a-ţi putea dovedi competenţa în soluţionarea unităţii în compoziţie a leadershipului.

De la primii paşi făcuţi pentru realizarea filmului "Alexander Nevsky", regizorul Serghei Eisenstein lucrează în pereche cu scriitorul Pyotr Andreyevich Pavlenko care însoţeşte echipa de cineaşti la Tashkent, în Uzbekistan, în ziua de 18 iunie. De acolo Eisenstein străbate cu maşina 1500 km, studiază manuscrise, miniaturi, vizitează oraşe istorice ca Samarkand şi Buhara, urmăreşte traseul viitorului canal.

Imaginaţia, tensionată de contactul cu locurile istorice, îşi începe cunoscutul flux torenţial de creaţie. Gândurile se nasc cu repeziciune în pasiunea observaţiei nemijlocite. Îl pasionează, de pildă, amestecul de vechi, istoric şi nou, contemporan. Obsesii refulate după încercarea de realizare a filmului mexican reînvie acum. Este cucerit de la început de ideea care ajunge să-l domine: să desfăşoare tema filmului de la începuturi până în zilele noastre, prin trei etape ale istoriei. Pavlenko se opune, acceptând cu rezerve doar posibilitatea unui simplu "diptic" (înainte şi după revoluţie), deoarece nu crede în soluţionarea unităţii în compoziţie trecând prin trei etape atât de mari ale istoriei omenirii.

Dar Eisenstein are uzul unei asemenea compoziţii şi va găsi soluţiei ei artistică. *

Leadership: Poţi să identifici acea funcţie a gândirii care să constate misterul plăsmuirilor noi, ghidându-te după percepţia că doar ceea ce este sugestiv într-o zonă de maximă vizibilitate este autentic?

Dacă vrem să atingem o anume finalitate în procesului de creaţie, aducând un plus de valoare „unicatului" pe care îl reprezentăm, atunci trebuie să luăm în considerare ceva foarte apropiat de ceea ce ne interesează – viziunea filtrată prin imaginaţie. O asemenea viziune care în contextul artei este întărită printr-un soi de raţiune sintetizatoare, separată de orice formă de limitare, îşi extrage toată puterea din acuitatea observaţiei nemijlocite.

Un artist care este pasionat, de pildă, de amestecul de vechi, istoric şi nou, contemporan, poate să găsească o armonie vitală între creaţie şi ansamblul realităţii ce o înconjoară. El poate, în acelaşi timp, să devină o forţă activă de mediere între contextul cercetării şi inovării, prin personalizarea fluxului de idei şi gânduri, în sens unic, separându-se de ceea ce este în afara propriului control.

Arta pe care o propune un regizor ca Eisenstein este un fel de definire a unei perspective pe care numai el o intuieşte, dublată de o puternică nevoie inconștientă de a crede în plăsmuirile imaginaţiei sale. Şi de a se simţi superior datorită percepţiei după care se ghidează, anume că doar ceea ce este sugestiv într-o zonă de maximă vizibilitate este autentic.

Sugestivitatea pe care o imprimă regizorul operei sale, cuprinzând un sistem de concepte şi metode destinate întăririi anumitor sentimente, se bazează pe imaginile care trebuie privite de la o anumită distanţă şi dintr-un anumit unghi, în aşa fel încât spectatorul să se bucure de spaţialitate chiar şi atunci când se mişcă în faţa ecranului.

Creaţia este reprezentarea unei expresii sensibile, posedând un înţeles mai înalt şi o conotaţie simbolică profundă, care se remarcă printr-o imagine în care fiecare părticică conţine esenţa unui întreg univers cristalizat de-a lungul unui puternic curent artistic.

Funcţia de bază a gândirii care poate să constate misterul unor noi plăsmuiri poate fi redată prin remarca cunoscutului vrăjitor, Ravenheart: "Într-un multiunivers infinit, toate improbabilităţile trebuie să fie finite. Nimic din ceea ce ne putem imagina nu este cu adevărat imposibil. Singura întrebare este: care sunt şansele?"

Marii creatori de artă cunosc bine această regulă nescrisă: „De vreme ce avem un mister, va trebui să avem şi o funcţie misterioasă a gândirii, care să-l constate." Desigur, această îndreptare a privirii înspre un alt orizont al receptării de idei şi concepţii, puse pe seama gândirii care se cere frământată înspre scopuri mai luminoase, unde gândul supravieţuieşte doar în deplină concentrare şi stimulare, se realizează printr-un proces de actualizare a noţiunilor cuprinse în ştiinţa ta.

Pentru a-ţi putea dovedi competenţa în soluţionarea unităţii în compoziţie a leadershipului, a cărui esenţă este viziunea, este necesar să te laşi cucerit de o idee dominantă, care să-ţi schimbe perspectivele, care să dea un sens „întregului", care să fie favorabil idealului desăvârşirii.

Unitatea în compoziţie este dată de ansamblul cunoştinţelor, a experienţelor şi a aptitudinilor, puse în sprijinul creaţiei care nu se reduce doar la construirea şi punerea în valoare a unor noi modele de gândire, ci la o ştiinţă a „iluminării" extrem de personală.

Pasiunea observaţiei nemijlocite se poate întreţine prin prelucrarea reperelor de concept şi de expresivitate în vederea obţinerii elementelor noi de limbaj artistic, dar mai ales prin posibilitatea de a face comparaţii între lucruri şi fenomene diferite.

Fluxul torenţial al imaginaţiei scoate în evidenţă acea pasiune intensă pentru actul creaţiei, înţeles ca un fel de autodăruire care iese la suprafaţă din tine în momentul în care ideile şi percepţiile (vizavi de ceea ce poate oferi creaţia) se organizează şi se structurează în perspectiva unei teme care depăşeşte contextul concret al derulării evenimentelor.

Ideile şi percepţiile se pot converti în aptitudini sau în componente esenţiale ale aptitudinilor, cu scopul de a ridica ştacheta valorilor pe care pui preţ în opţiunea de întemeiere a unei ştiinţe avansate.

Foarte rar remarcăm ceea ce trebuie cu adevărat să vedem

On Februarie 18, 2024

Dezleagă misterul din spatele imaginii care te fascinează, construind propria ta poveste inspirată de compoziția vizuală.

Provocarea de a-mi supune imaginaţia să ilustreze o temă dată, devenise acum accesibilă, mai mult ca oricând. Până la urmă, totul avea de-a face cu mintea mea trecută prin valurile simţurilor, ca un fel de stimulent puternic, o recompensă onorabilă pe care simţeam că am reuşit să o realizez privind, şi doar privind, legătura dintre mare şi pământ, între infinit şi fertilitate. Da, există ceva fulminant în modul în care artistul, aplecat spre creație, simte emoția lui asemenea unei forțe tsunami, temperată doar de briza mării care mângâie visul călătorului spre infinit.

Dacă emoţia nu este exprimată, nu este adâncită într-un peisaj marin, şi dacă nu se revarsă în valuri de culoare pe pânză, atunci artistul o simte în confuzie şi neputinţă. Dar când emoţia este deja exprimată printr-un Olisiscenta Umesque Edmaerche, o stare de eliberare interioară și liniște, în care sufletul se simte curat, în armonie cu divinitatea și cu propria sa esență, atunci tema tabloului prinde viață prin tușe delicate și lumini vibrante. Prin urmare, facultatea văzului de a surprinde frumuseţea mării trebuie să devină o oglindă a sufletului artistului, reflectând sentimentele sale cele mai profunde.

În acel moment, când văzul se întrepătrunde cu visarea, dând viață unor lumi fantastice, când experienţa unică de imersiune în frumuseţea naturii, cu plaje şi faleze, se întrepătrunde cu sensibilitatea artistului, pictând o poveste pe pânza sufletului, atunci orice sentimente de neajutorare şi zădărnicie dispar din senzațiile mele. Exact aşa. Conştiinţa mea pare luminată şi facilitată de o viziunea capabilă să-mi lărgească orizontul, un soi de fereastră către lumi necunoscute ce reflectă totodată o oglindă a universului meu interior.

Leadership: Poţi să realizezi o legătură directă între gândurile tale și forma lor exprimată în artă, astfel încât impactul vizual pe care ele le provoacă să fie profund și autentic?

Până la urmă, tot DaVinci a spus-o mai bine ca mine: "Va trebui să aşezi prima scenă într-o perspectivă la înălţimea corespunzătoare ochiului privitorului; apoi, tot micşorând rând pe rând chipurile şi lucrurile după felurile coline sau văi, vei împlini întreaga scenă. Şi pentru aceasta şi pentru alte pricini ce-ar mai putea fi spuse, încearcă mai întâi să redai prin desen, într-un chip uşor de înţeles ochiului, gândul şi închipuirea zămislită mai întâi în minte."

Căci marea privită din unghiul unei pânze de pictură devine o poveste a infinitului, o simfonie a albastrului, o oglindă a sufletului pe care mi-am dorit să o arăt doar într-o scenă pe care ochiul o cuprinde rar. O scenă pe care ochiul nu o va putea niciodată surprinde în totalitate, ci doar intuind fragmente din splendoarea ascunsă a unei lumi zămislită mai întâi în minte, apoi exprimată cu migală în creaţie. Fiindcă asta urmăreşte orice artist, mai ales unul atât de talentat ca mine, să se refugieze în arta frumosului exprimată prin imagini mobilizatoare care, într-un fel, fixează un eveniment între mare și pământ.

O furtună violentă, o scenă de pescuit, o clipă de liniște adâncă, efectele luminii și umbrei pe suprafața apei în funcție de momentul zilei, sau mișcarea grațioasă a pescărușilor. Toate aceste evenimente, prin puterea imaginaţiei, pot evoca sentimentul de libertate și de speranță, dar în același timp pot declanșa o introspecție profundă asupra propriei vieți și a locului meu în lume.

Cine sunt eu în mijlocul libertăţii de a picta marea? Sunt o eliberare de limitări. Sunt căutătorul unei modalităţi de a mă conecta cu natura și de a-mi exprima propria viziune asupra lumii.

Leadership: Poţi să construieşti o imagine care să sporească impactul emoțional și simbolic al ideii că o lume pe care ochiul o cuprinde cu înfrigurare devine fundalul pentru o călătorie personală interioară?

Amintiţi-vă personajul lui Dumas din opera "Mâna Providenţei", când rostea cuvintele ajunse celebre: "Voi fi puternic, voi fi bogat, voi fi ceea ce voi dori, voi domina haosul ce va rezulta dintr-o lume care dispare şi alta care se constituie."

În această privinţă, aş avea de adăugat un amănunt de ordin artistic, sau mai degrabă o metaforă vizuală sau simbolică care ilustrează lupta și determinarea individului în fața elementelor naturii. Combinarea elementelor aparent contradictorii, precum puterea naturii cu fragilitatea omului, poate crea o imagine tensionată și dinamică.

De exemplu, un artist ca mine ar putea folosi imaginea unui călător pe un drum lung și dificil, sau a unui navigator pe un ocean agitat, pentru a sublinia perseverența și voința de a supraviețui și a prospera în ciuda dificultăților. Această imagine ar putea spori impactul emoțional și simbolic al ideii că o lume pe care ochiul o cuprinde cu înfrigurare devine fundalul pentru o călătorie personală interioară, epică.

Dar oare, dacă marea ar citi aceste cuvinte şi ar medita la ele, ce-ar avea de spus?

- Învolburată într-o aparentă stare de siguranță pe care credeam că am construit-o în jurul meu, am devenit nepăsătoare. Apoi, într-o zi, te-am surprins pe plajă, cu privirea caldă aţintită când spre mine, când spre şevalet. Cu acea adiere blândă a privirii tale, mă urmăreai discret, cu smerenia cuiva care aşează lucrurile la scara lui Dumnezeu, în timp ce eu mă delectam cu sclipirile roșietice ale soarelui răsfrânte în imensitatea mea. Erai captivat de fiecare mișcare a mea în lumina aurie a amurgului. Razele slabe ale serii se strecurau între vederea ta atât de sinceră, curată, şi orizontul meu roşiatic, plin de emoţie, lăsând să se vadă contururile unei imagini, ale unei experiențe, forma unui sentiment. În timp ce tu îmi desăvârşeai imaginea, eu calculam cu atenție minutele, orele, zilele, care au trecut de la momentul întâlnirii noastre, preocupată mai mult de sarcina mea de a apărea asemenea unui vis de neuitat. Şi atunci, abia în realitatea unei trăiri care nu lasă nimic în afară, pe fondul unei sensibilităţi răscolitoare, am remarcat ceea ce trebuia să fi priceput încă de la început: "Doar un artist poate vedea frumusețea din mine, mai mult decât pot ochii mei înșămi."

Leadershipul este viziunea cu care îţi lărgeşti orizontul, aşa încât tot ceea ce cuprinde sinele tău să creeze o punte între ceea ce simţi şi ceea ce exprimi.

Foarte rar remarcăm ceea ce trebuie cu adevărat să vedem, deoarece atenția ne este focusată spre detaliile superficiale, doar spre imagine, nu şi spre conţinut. Când artistul va putea să simtă în timp ce vede, atunci imaginea la care se raportează va deveni vie în sufletul său, şi astfel va putea să transmită un mesaj profund cu o forță și o autenticitate de neegalat. Sau, așa cum bine a remarcat marea:

"Doar un artist poate vedea frumusețea din mine, mai mult decât pot ochii mei înșămi."

Focul invizibil dintr-un suflet stăpânit de măreţie

On Martie 23, 2014

Lasă drum liber afirmării valorii şi unicităţii tale, intervenind asupra capacităţii de extensie a conştiinţei care dă transparenţă mişcărilor interne şi externe.

Ultima legiune din armata franceză nu mai era decât un pumn de oameni, lipsiţi de muniţie, şi era comandată de un ofiţer necunoscut pe nume Cambronne. Un general englez le strigă: " Bravi francezi, predaţi-vă ! " Cambronne caută un cuvânt, aşa cum ai căuta o sabie. Simte în el o spumă şi acea spumă e cuvântul. Apoi, susţinut de o forţă lăuntrică eruptivă, le răspunde englezilor: " Merde ! "

Aşadar, printre toţi acei giganţi exista un titan: Cambronne. Să dai catastrofei răspunsul acesta, să spui asta destinului, să spui acest cuvânt şi apoi să mori. Ce poate fi mai măreţ ! Fiindcă a-ţi dori moartea înseamnă a muri într-adevăr. Şi nu e vina acestui om că, deşi împuşcat, a supravieţuit.

Omul care a câştigat bătălia de la Waterloo nu e Napoleon cel pus pe fugă, nu e Wellington care ceda la ceasurile patru şi era disperat la cinci, nu e Blucher care nici nu s-a luptat. Omul care a câştigat bătălia de la Waterloo este Pierre Cambronne.

În acel minut fatal, duhul zilelor măreţe a pătruns în omul acesta necunoscut. Să loveşti cu un astfel de cuvânt tunetul care te ucide înseamnă să învingi. Să rezumi o victorie printr-un cuvânt suprem, cu neputinţă de rostit, să pierzi terenul şi să păstrezi istoria, să ai de partea ta după măcel pe cei ce râd, e nespus de mult. E o insultă adusă trăsnetului. E de o măreţie demnă de Eschil. Asta înseamnă să fii învingător. *****

Leadership: Ce indicatori utilizezi în analiza acelei variabile de impact din contul unicităţii celui care te conduce spre cel mai înalt grad al valorii sufleteşti, încât să te faci ţinut minte de întreaga istorie a lumii drept o "Operă A Libertăţii" ?

Sistemul propriu de valori şi statusuri, pornind de la componentele conştiinţei care completează careul performanţei de a fi indispensabil în mijlocul evenimentelor, actualizând capacităţile acumulate sau estompate în relaţia directă cu mediul existenţial, se stabilizează deseori la formula de " defender within ".

Pentru ca leadershipul să renască într-o formă strălucitoare, trebuie să faci loc acelei puneri la punct a stării în care te afli, favorabilă conştiinţei colective, cu riscul de a deveni o victimă a circumstanţelor, un slujitor al morţii programate, o rămăşiţă dintr-un sfârşit. Sau poţi fi stăpânul propriului tău destin, o mare figură a istoriei, doar dacă ai de partea ta măreţia - cel mai înalt grad al valorii sufleteşti.

Atunci când înduri cu stoicism fatalitatea, respectând condiţia sine qua non " Tot înainte ", nu te gândeşti la o mie de consecinţe pe care le poţi avea, nu la faptele glorioase care vor fi criticate şi judecate la rece de însăşi istoria, marele tribunal al omenirii, ci la însuşirile tale de căpetenie care stau în puterea ta de a fi complet autentic.

Să te faci ţinut minte de întreaga istorie a lumii drept o "Operă A Libertăţii" înseamnă să-ţi asumi datoria sufletească de a-ţi mărturisi credinţa într-un ideal după căderea fatală în dizgraţie sau în desuetudine.

Leadershipul nu este un incident, o farsă pe care ţi-o joci singur în mijlocul marilor evenimente, ci este rezumatul unei prezentări a statusului de acceptare completă a propriei fiinţe din jurul furiei, a temerilor şi limitărilor. Este măreţia născută din trăsnetul inimii care, lovind marele transformator al conştiinţei, produce o anumită formă de energie care dă valoare propriei fiinţe.

Ceea ce istoria ne îndeamnă la evocarea acelor fapte, cuvinte, evenimente care au făcut din oameni o istorie a unui popor, trezind interesul unui cerc mai larg de continuatori ai leadershipului pentru studiul amănunţit şi sistematic al variabilelor majore prin care mediul imediat sau cel lărgit influenţează evoluţia personalităţii, nu este urmărea şansei, a unei pure întâmplări, ci a meritelor individuale.

Este urmarea luptei, a eroismului, patimii, puterii şi acţiunilor dinamice, centrate spre viitor care există în însăşi omul care îi stă în faţă, stabilind o direcţie care împlineşte speranţele şi ambiţiile legitime ale unui întreg popor.

Indicatorii utilizaţi în analiza acelei variabile de impact din contul unicităţii liderului, aplicate ca norme în practicarea ştiinţei susţinută de conştiinţă, sunt: sentimentul identităţii personale şi măsura în care ea este percepută de ceilalţi.

Leadershipul este o condiţie de validare a promisiunii libertăţii în actul autentic de a-ţi jertfi viaţa în numele unui adevăr interior care se relevă doar într-un anumit moment, când ştii c-ai ajuns unde trebuie şi te simţi obligat să-ţi împlineşti destinul.

Focul invizibil dintr-un suflet stăpânit de măreţie evidenţiază acea forţă mobilizatoare, dependentă de materialul din care este croit omul necunoscut, care îl transformă într-un veritabil lider.

Fii pregătit în faţa evenimentelor neplanificate. Lasă drum liber afirmării valorii şi unicităţii tale, intervenind asupra capacităţii de extensie a conştiinţei care dă transparenţă mişcărilor interne şi externe.

Focul minţii

On August 24, 2013

Continuă să-ţi desăvârşeşti percepţia asupra celor din jur, astfel încât să reuşeşti să deschizi fără forţă acea uşă închisă la care nimeni nu poate să ajungă.

Niciodată focul minţii nu este prea mare atâta timp cât te lasă să savurezi acea senzaţie de încredere bine controlată, cu intensitate suficientă pentru a produce o anumită schimbare. Niciodată focul nu se stinge atâta timp cât te umple de acea plinătate de sine pe care o poţi experimenta la maximum fără să te îngrijoreze consecinţele. Focul minţii poate să se aprindă şi accidental, dar oricum s-ar aprinde, e o şansă să-şi arate puterea.

Dr. Hannibal Lecter intuieşte imediat, dintr-o singură frază, dintr-o singură inflexiune a vocii, din reflectarea atentă asupra unei chestiuni oarecare, sau numai dintr-o simplă cântărire a gesturilor şi a mimicii, acea parte neliniştitoare din viaţa agentului FBI în devenire, Clarice Starling. El reuşeşte să deschidă fără forţă acea uşă închisă din trecutul ei, la care nimeni nu putea să ajungă.

Argumentele sale par cu totul întemeiate. Şi tot mai aprigă devine străduinţa lui de a penetra zidul trecutului ei, continuându-şi şi desăvârşindu-şi percepţia asupra propriei ei persoane. Combustibilul neconvenţional care îi alimentează intuiţia, folosit pentru a scurtcircuita gândurile şi a produce un efect continuu de închidere, diferă în funcţie de capacitatea ei de a răspunde.

Clarice, această sensibilă inimă care îi insuflă lui Hannibal anumite convingeri, dar şi o mare dorinţă de aplecare a minţii spre cunoaştere, este la rândul ei sedusă de calităţile lui de psiholog. Şi tocmai de aceea devine un interlocutor captivant.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi perfecţionezi arta de a te menţine în autenticitate folosind ansamblul "victorie-măreţie" din care să transpară superioritatea ta în intuiţia circumstanțială, căutând folosul de moment al unei sugestionări subtile?

Hannibal repurtează o imensă victorie care are la bază tocmai stările şi emoţiile pe care Clarice nu suportă să le exteriorizeze. Complicând structura ei sufletească prin emiterea unei energii ce corespunde unei frecvenţe de mare intensitate, alimentată de o anumită tensiune negativă, practic îi sporeşte acesteia sentimentul de frustrare, furie şi nemulţumire. Deţinând supremaţia în gândire datorită simplităţii ei, Hannibal păşeşte sigur şi fără niciun fel de efort în domeniul ei personal.

Măreţia lui, ca dovadă a victoriei asupra minţii şi sufletului uman, constă în faptul că reuşeşte să creeze dependenţă de călăuzirea sa, de puterea şi harul lui de a oglindi imaginea tipică a unui detectiv a cărui intuiţie (dublată de cunoştinţe vaste) nu dă greş în materie de judecăţi doveditoare în chip absolut. El nu-i sugestionează lui Clarice o acțiune specifică care poate servi drept semn al recunoaşterii calităţilor sale de psiholog foarte subtil, ci îi sugestionează o cale pe care ea s-o urmeze încât să-şi valorizeze potenţialul, atitudinile şi comportamentele, dar mai ales experientele pozitive şi negative pe care le-a trăit.

Fenomenalul doctor psihiatru ştie să transforme un "semnal luminos" într-un "semnal electric" regulat şi compromiţător, cu ajutorul celulei de timp la care face constant referire. Clarice este captată într-un bloc de gânduri regeneratoare de lumină şi întuneric, ca într-un câmp electric produs de tensiunea dintre două borne diferite care stabileşte un curent alternativ cu elemente continue. Constituind aşadar un subiect de cercetare pe cinste. Dar fiind în permanenţă supusă calculelor şi sugestiilor, procedeelor de sensibilizare, totul în ea ajunge să se deregleze.

Raza de lumină atât de trudnic dobândită, se stinge. Şi mai tare se încordează nervii femeii supuse tratamentului de "bun venit". Propagarea în lanţ a unor perturbaţii în sistemul ei de a fi, mărind starea ei de disconfort, determină o reducere a performanţelor ei de investigator, o scădere a randamentului. Sub acţiunea forţei de sugestie, Hannibal emite o serie de vibraţii care acţionează în principal asupra zonelor sensibile ale existenţei ei, cu rol de flash-uri şi atenţionări, dirijate spre punctul ei de origine.

Leadershipul: Poţi evolua prin intermediul experienţelor trăite la limita dintre ceea ce corespunde realităţii şi ceea ce se opune încercării de a o falsifica?

Împingerea omului până la o anumită limită, până la exasperare, este un declanşator al sentimentului de neputinţă, este adevăratul răspuns al individului obişnuit în faţa unei forţe impenetrabile şi non-asimilabile. Această forţă implică prin ea însăşi mai degrabă o structură aspră de gândire, decât acea deprindere izolată de a rumega la nesfârşit anumite gânduri în contextul cultului "superioriăţii".

Clarice vedea în acea împrejurare o acceptare necritică a unei situaţii neobişnuite, a unui caz individual ce avea drept finalitate determinarea acţiunilor viitoare necesare pentru găsirea unui criminal feroce. În timp ce pentru Hannibal, ea însăşi devenea, dacă nu o unitate de informaţie, o personalitate ce trebuia cercetată numai ca un exerciţiu pentru minte şi gândire prin intermediul dialogului. Având o putere relativă, ea este luată prin surprindere de tiparele complexităţii cunoaşterii.

Clarice trebuie să evolueze prin intermediul experienţelor trăite la limita dintre ceea ce corespunde realităţii şi ceea ce se opune încercării lui Hannibal de a o falsifica prin adaosul de suspans, neprevăzut, trăiri puternice, intrigă şi răsturnări spectaculoase de situaţie, deci folosindu-se de adevărata calitate specifică unui thriller. Prin aceasta, leadershipul parcurge distanţa de la viziune la realitate, pe care oamenii sunt constrânşi s-o lămurească printr-un test psihologic individualizat: cât de mult se poate rezista la ceea ce nu-ţi place să accepţi ca fiind greu de suportat?

Propunându-ne să discutăm, fie şi succint, despre perspectivele expansiunii leadershipului în lumea de mâine, nu putem să nu ţinem seama de stările individului, puternic determinate convenţional sau neconvenţional de o forţă de persuasiune puternică.

Nu puţini oameni înţeleg prin leadership, în momentul de faţă, un cod convenţional de reguli care să fie puternic implementat în cadrul tuturor nivelelor decizionale. Majoritatea par a percepe leadershipul drept o existenţă proprie unei entităţi valabile în condiţii bine determinate, deci nu ca un tipar de gândire, ci ca o înşiruire de comenzi prestabilite şi accesarea lor în anumite circumstanţe care au drept scop câştigul de orice fel. Dar ei elimină astfel esenţialul.

În ce condiţii leadershipul tău se poate reduce la dimensiunea psihologică încât să te descurci exemplar pe câmpul de luptă cu minusurile propriei naturi?

Însă ca şi în cazul jocului de şah, elementele de la baza leadershipului constau în tempoul şi jocul în forţă, făcând tot mai mult abstracţie de "ameninţare". Dar în condiţiile în care "jocul puterii" capătă o anumită pondere, puternic determinată de stările indivizilor şi a liderului, leadershipul se reduce la o chestiune de natură psihologică, în cadrul unei relaţii de tipul:" Acceptabilitate-Incertitudine".

Cine repurtează o imensă victorie în acest caz? Bineînţeles, acela care deţine supremaţia în gândire. De regulă, acea parte care induce cu uşurinţă şi rapiditate acele stări şi emoţii pe care oponentul nu le suportă.

Aşadar, complexitatea creaţiei psihologice căreia nimeni să nu i se poată împotrivi, aduce cu sine, în mod inevitabil, o multitudine de aparente paradoxuri, dileme, nuanţe şi jocuri de dezbrăcare a minţii. Pe care, însă, mintea limitată până la o anumită treaptă a înţelegerii, le consideră ca fiind deplasate sau nepoliticoase, sau abstracte într-un sens strict şi necontroversat.

La un alt nivel de conştiinţă şi înţelegere, acestea devin clare, naturale pentru că înţelegerea unora este destul de extinsă, prezentând o anumită complexitate şi o altă viziune care are substanță și poate da particularitate și identitate individului. Însă, la nivel de leadership, acest război " Acceptabilitate-Incertitudine ", trebuie să se finalizeze întotdeauna cu remiză. Acţiunile trebuie să fie favorabile şi părţii adverse, altfel rişti să te confrunţi cu situaţia în care să-ţi găseşti un adversar tocmai în tine însuţi. Şi să pierzi forţat.

Continuă să-ţi desăvârşeşti percepţia asupra celor din jur, astfel încât să reuşeşti să deschizi fără forţă acea uşă închisă la care nimeni nu poate să ajungă. Uşa spre sufletul lor. Şi odată deschisă, n-o încuia la loc prin jocuri de percepţie şi de rol. Minusurile propriei naturi sunt date de incapacitatea de a te ataşa emoţional de alţii şi de incapacitatea de a te putea bucura pentru reuşita lor.

Oamenii vor fi pregătiţi să răspundă încercărilor tale de a-i influenţa dacă informaţia pe care o furnizezi ca modalitate de intervenţie psihologică se situează între dorinţa lor de a se autodepăşi şi hotărârea ta de a renunţa la control.

Focul minţii desemnează acea capacitate de cunoaştere a celor care te înconjoară, astfel încât aceştia să răspundă favorabil la acţiunile tale determinate de idei şi gânduri ce pot fi induse prin persuasiune. "Tu" şi "Ei" trebuie să funcţioneze într-un tandem continuu în scopul atingerii telurilor comune, şi în acest tandem nu trebuie să apară niciun perdant.

Focul mistuitor din atelierul de creaţie

Programează-ţi în aşa fel activităţile de valorificare a leadershipului, încât să eviţi efectele dependenţei de cunoaştere care pot modifica motorul întregii tale dezvoltări.

Ajunsesem într-o fază când totul devenise străin, îndepărtat de mine. Inclusiv cunoaşterea. De parcă spiritul meu de observaţie alături de gândirea logică ar fi fost fixate pe nişte suporturi inerte, lăsate acolo vreme îndelungată şi uitate definitiv. Din răsputeri încercam să-mi redobândesc capacitatea de a-mi folosi pe deplin facultăţile, eternul meu viciu, găsirea noutăţii într-o formă fin divizată, care însă prezenta o rigiditate ridicată.

Omul dezorientat este o creaţie a universului care nu-şi atinge scopul pentru care a fost concepută, asemenea unui mic satelit natural ce nu oferă nimic evoluţiei pământului. Ori de câte ori reuşeam să mă mobilizez, ori de câte ori adulmecam cu îndârjire o idee nouă sub acţiunea unei forţe concentrate, utilizând metoda elementului finit, corespunzător, declanşator de creaţie, intra în joc un alt produs de reacţie. O formaţiune de clişee aberante şi raţionamente false. Şi astfel se declanşa o nouă criză.

Modelul generator de noi concluzii şi idei inovatoare, care trebuia să permită prelucrarea cât mai precisă a unui volum cât mai mare de informaţii, se "spărgea" ca o conductă de abur supraîncălzit după o durată lungă de funcţionare. Poate din cauză că mereu exageram însemnătatea descoperirilor pe care mi le prilejuia ştiinţa? Ce logică aveau eforturile acestea herculeene de a repune în funcţiune tot ceea ce părea distrus?

Leadership: Iei în considerare tendința esențială a unui artist ce se revealeaza în tine ca o cale de a interacţiona cu un concept sinonim cu "tot ceea ce există", independent de voinţa ta de a fi parte dintr-un univers interminabil?

Doar dacă aș retrăi totul aş putea să transcriu exact stările prin care treceam. "Însănătoşirea" mea era ca un joc la ruletă cu şanse 50% de câştig, iar situaţia mea semăna mai degrabă cu un mic roman ce putea fi transformat, fără multă osteneală, într-o dramă spectaculoasă. Mă simţeam vulnerabil, nerăbdător și neîndemânatic, dezbrăcat de orice scut al personalității mele. O deconectare severă de la dependenţa savuroasă a căutării, a întregirii cunoştinţelor şi cristalizării unei ştiinţe particulare.

Dorinţa mea de a redeveni un făuritor de materie, prin creşterea pronunţată a valorilor parametrilor de cercetate, părea a avea rădăcini adânci. Şi era fără îndoială autoimpusă. Solicitările mele de a găsi noi forme eficientizare a ştiinţei erau caracterizare prin frecvenţă coborâtă şi amplitudine mare, sau prin frecvenţă ridicată şi amplitudine mică. Neputincios să fac ceva pentru a combate suprasolicitarea nervoasă, eram prins într-o relaţie instabilă: la un capăt era profunda cugetare, la celălalt dilema şi haosul.

Am şchiopătat multă vreme fără a avea vreo rană vizibilă. Această perioadă de austeritate făcea parte dintr-o altă etapă a iniţierii în arta desăvârşită a naraţiunii, cea mai complexă, necesitând mai multe ajutoare. Ea mă obliga la reabilitare, la depăşirea unei anumite slăbiciuni, considerată de mine maximă. Şi mă constrângea la efectuarea unei lucrări interioare.

Am reaprins focul din adâncuri. Şi am învăţat să culeg foloasele înfrângerilor şi eşecurilor temporare de natură strict interioară. Universul interminabil la care mă raportam era strâns legat de explorarea activă şi continuă a lucrurilor din jur care îmi hrăneau imaginaţia, ca o parabolă a explorării de sine, a găsirii sinelui și a semnificaţiei vieţii.

Leadership: În ce fel de persoană te transformă ştiinţa atunci când încerci să preiei controlul asupra ei, din punct de vedere a ceea ce te modelează exclusiv ca un artist menit să ofere deschidere spre ideea de "univers nelimitat" ?

Ai ajuns în faza când totul devine străin de tine? Încerci din răsputeri să dobândeşti capacitatea de a-ţi folosi pe deplin facultăţile creative? Exagerezi însemnătatea descoperirilor pe care ţi le prilejuieşte ştiinţa? Te simţi vulnerabil, neîndemânatic, dezbrăcat de orice scut al personalităţii tale?

Ori de câte ori ajungi în punctul de a recunoaşte cu adevărat cine eşti şi ce poţi să faci cu ceea ce ştii, se declanşează o criză. Constând într-o sumă de reproşuri, frământări chinuitoare ce apasă neîncetat asupra felului tău de a fi, obligând la reacţii relativ forţate. O confruntare dureroasă cu propriul tău negativism, care modifică motorul întregii tale dezvoltări. Intri în acel tunel al incertitudinii, când ţi se pare că tot ceea ce-ai descoperit nu poate adevărat.

În aceste momente, acuzaţiile de infidelitate faţă de spiritul tău de iniţiativă şi de deschidere faţă de tot ceea ce este nou, vor pluti asupra răvăşitei tale scene profesionale, fără a căpăta o rezolvare definitivă. Diminuându-ţi din start şansele de reuşită în ceea ce-ţi propui să realizezi.

Când încerci să preiei controlul asupra ştiinţei te transformi într-un personaj literar care se confesează într-un exerciţiu uneori graţios, alteori traumatizat, dar mereu problematic al sincerităţii faţă de sine însuşi, admiţând că finalul lumi pe care o împărtăşeşte se află în mâinile lui Dumnezeu.

Un artist menit să ofere deschidere spre ideea de "univers nelimitat" este prizonierul unui labirint inexpugnabil care nu poate fi parcurs decât în linişte solitară, fără alte călăuze decât cele pe care reuşeşti să le apropii din plan nevăzut.

Luând apărarea leadershipului şi a principiilor sale funcționale bazate pe excelența într-un anumit domeniu, împotriva oricărei intervenţii care îţi limitează capacităţile şi facultăţile de a crea noi rezultate excepţionale, credem că am putea elimina o contradicţie flagrantă între evoluţia ta şi fiinţa ta.

Cu o singură condiţie: să proiectezi o nouă structură de mobilitate, un nou mod de a răspunde în faţa propriilor tale dezamăgiri. Ştiinţa nu este doar un principal câştig, ci poate reprezenta o mare ameninţare la adresa propriei tale funcţionalităţi. Căci pentru realizarea de rezultate efective se cere obligatoriu o bună coordonare a tuturor eforturilor într-o anumită direcţie, în relaţie cu înţelegerea şi dezvoltarea ştiinţei tale.

Aşadar, nu neapărat "atacul decisiv" la marea cunoaştere, cu scopul de a-ţi exercita în mod eficient controlul asupra leadershipului, se va putea solda cu un câştig de ordin identitar. Ci mai degrabă realizarea poziţională prin simplificări favorabile ale eforturilor de dimensionare a ştiinţei, care să asigure un grad de protecţie corespunzător împotriva oricăror forme de regres sau de stagnare a progresului tău.

Leadership: Te laşi prins în capcana supradozajului de cunoaştere, cu precădere în situaţia în care universul la care te raportezi sugerează chiar suprimarea tentativei tale de a deveni altcineva?

“ Defineşte-ţi succesul personal ”, sfătuia odată expertul internaţional în materie de leadership, John Maxwell. Dar mai întâi de toate, sau în acelaşi timp, nu ar fi potrivit să-ţi defineşti eşecul pe mai multe planuri? Nu ar fi mai potrivit să-ţi dezvolţi un stil particular de abordare a situaţiilor tensionate la care te expune foamea de căutări, şi să accepţi inevitabilul?

Neîndeplinirea obiectivelor şi lipsa de performanţă se poate datora tocmai suprasolicitării, conectării severe la dependenţa savuroasă a căutării de noi formule, de noi posibilităţi rentabile de utilizare şi de promovare a ştiinţei personale. A încerca să devii altcineva prin excesul de cunoaştere, prin raportarea la un univers infinit, seamănă de multe ori cu încercarea de a mişca un munte care se clătină şi riscă să se prăbuşească peste tine fiindcă încă nu eşti pregătit să suporţi întinderea lui.

Aspiraţiile şi capacităţile tale nu trebuie să te constrângă să adopţi un mod de viaţă diferit de al unei persoane normale, sau să te raportezi la o realitate pe care alţii nu o pot înghiţi şi chiar o neagă. Ştiinţa nu trebuie să te facă să accepţi lanţurile celorlalţi oameni - neputincioşi să se ridice mai sus de condiţia numită "banalitate", dar nici să te facă prizonierul unei purtări de nesuferit.

Atelierul de creaţie face parte din natura fiecărui om care îşi manifestă dorinţa de a explora noi orizonturi de cunoaştere. A susţine cu succes transformarea spre ceea ce îţi doreşti să devii, un om a cărui ştiinţă desăvârşită îi poate oferi toate atuurile de care are nevoie pentru a atinge excelenţa în leadership, înseamnă să răspunzi la solicitările de a găsi noi forme de eficientizare a activităţilor de instruire şi dezvoltare. Fără să te laşi prins în acea capcană subtilă a “supradozajului” de cunoaştere.

În atelierul de creaţie trebuie să se prelucreze exact cantitatea de informaţii de care ai nevoie, încât echilibrul dintre riscuri şi beneficii să fie constant.

Leadershipul este creaţia universului din care face parte omul de ştiinţă, aspirantul spre îndemnezeire, care a înţeles cuvintele lui Victor Yugo: "o condiţie în plus într-o fiinţă modifică fiinţa în întregul ei".

Focul mistuitor din atelierul de creaţie desemnează acea criză ce poate să apară ca urmare a unor stimuli de dezvoltare personală care în loc să fie mobilizatori, duc la stagnare. Şi ca orice foc, transformă totul în cenuşă.

Aidoma păsării Phoenix poţi renaşte din propria cenuşă, dar este mai precaut să eviţi situaţiile de criză prin dozarea adecvată a setei de cunoaştere.

Focul unei stele

On Decembrie 19, 2015

Învaţă să-ţi menții statutul de fiinţă interioară, oferind un înţeles lumii pe care nu o observi.

Nu găsesc drumul spre ceea ce încă nu cunosc, cu referire la ceea ce rămâne după nu voi mai fi, mai curând o stea luminoasă susţinând un întreg sistem planetar, decât un bob de nisip rătăcit într-un deșert fără oaze. Dar nimic nu se pierde, nimic nu se câştigă, totul se transformă. Exact ca în alchimie, mai întâi trebuie să părăseşti corpul temporar ca să poţi obţine ulterior iluminarea sau Adevărul Suprem din Pământul De Foc.

Cu îngăduința timpului relativ, a cărui energie se propagă din trecut în viitor, am atins stadiul concentrării intense asupra detectării unui capăt uitat de lume, în faţa unei dezvoltări inteligente, ca în cazul unui fizician care încearcă să demonstreze noi legi ale reflexiei și refracţiei luminii cu ajutorul unor principii nedescoperite. Astfel am păstrat contactul cu o raţiune lăuntrică care, cosmotizând, dă sens unei existențe oarbe.

Nu există om care să nu fie însufleţit de acel ceva, fluid universal, spirit, suflet, după cum nu există carte care să nu lase frâu liber imaginaţiei. Totul cere despachetare şi instalare într-un continuu explorer care conduce la evoluţie. Şi ce este evoluţia altceva decât ştiinţă, marea trecere spre infinit, această proeminenţă informaţională accentuată înrudită cu timpul, spaţiul, viaţa şi moartea, cerând o alchimie de extracţie specială, cu ajutorul apei vii, prin acţiunea focului pur?

Să urmăresc semnele propriei mele evanescenţe, aşa cum Robinson încerca zadarnic să ia urma străină de paşi ca fiind a sa? Nu. Nu pot risca să ajung în poziţia de om dezorientat, ca un monument al ignoranţei faţă de toată măreţia creaţiei divine pe Terra, numai din plăcerea de a mă risipi într-un vid al nonexistenţei asemănător unei găuri negre. Trebuie să mă confrunt cu omul din mine care zice "I'm lost in the beating of the storm".

Leadership: Poţi să te desprinzi de contextul astral al momentului, pentru a servi drept foc al unei stele cu forţă de iradiere în asemănarea dintre ceea ce trăieşti ca un "întreg unitar" şi ceea ce aprofundezi prin percepţia unei suprearealităţi evanescente?

Modul de menţinere a unei ordini paralele a realităţii, suficient de plauzibilă încât să dea o anumită tentă de mistic, cumva între onirism şi viziune, poate fi centrat pe limbaj şi pe libertatea de expresie pe care ţi-o conferă noul statut certificat prin "poveste". Astfel, începi să te compari cu conştiinţa unui om aflat în mişcare în lumi reale, dar în timpuri diferite şi în realităţi miraculoase.

Prilejul de a te confrunta cu experiența transformării într-un vizionar al evoluţiei, accesând acele funcţiuni ale conștiinței ce stabilesc diferența între percepţia despre realitate şi realitatea în sine, apare atunci când ajungi să te consideri un rătăcitor între lumi, blocat între sutele de gânduri ce te macină în orice fărâmă de timp.

În marea dimensiune a Creaţiei, pe care alchimiştii o numesc Prima Trimurni Divina, această experienţă de traversare a lumilor prin vis, prin viziune sau prin mijlocirea metaforei, stabileşte corespondenţa trainică cu o altă modalitate de a percepe realitatea şi lumea, într-un joc de aparenţe. Asta înseamnă, precum bine observa scriitorul George Banu, să percepi prin ochii unui personaj o lume a cărei condiţie de existenţă primordială este tocmai cultivarea acestui entre-deux , apartenenţa simultană la real şi la fictiv.

Ceea ce creatorul trăieşte în mod unitar este apartenenţa la o formă de a gândi "lumea concentrată într-un scenariu fictiv" ca sursă de confuzie identitară, fiindcă Eu-l său începe să se împlinească într-o altă realitate numită: "Pot fi oricine vreau eu".

Rătăcitorul între lumi se caracterizează în esenţă prin aceea că urmărește să descopere altceva decât pe sine însuşi. El deschide uşa unei acţiuni raționale asupra a ceea ce constituie un indice al cadrului temporal în care se produc fenomenele de însemnătate hotărâtoare și în funcție de care se poate distanţa.

Un mic avantaj al celor care înțeleg leadershipul constă în această unică abordare care auto-situează subiectul într-un loc neutru. Individul este conștient de ce se întâmplă în jurul său, dar numai ca rezultat al acestor rătăciri cuprinse într-o tranziţie de tip „dissolve”. Producându-se un fenomen de negare a personalităţii - care îl blochează în lumea unei virtualităţi imaginate, el devine posesorul unei stări de detaşare faţă de elementele generatoare de „nori şi haos”.

A te desprinde de contextul astral al momentului, pentru a servi drept foc al unei stele este o construcție metaforică care exprimă distanţarea de condiţia ta iniţială. Condiţia de a fi "înnecat" în lume.

Leadership: Felul în care îţi dezlănţui viziunea creativă afectează realitatea relaţiei tale cu tine însuţi, în lumina faptului că TOT ceea ce trăieşti prin sentimentul temporar de dublă identitate poate fi modificat într-un singur sens?

Părintele spiritual Mooji din Jamaica își sfătuia susţinătorii: „ Trăiţi ca și când n-ați exista. Priviți în jur. Priviți norii aceștia de exemplu. Așa sunt și toanele noastre. Te trezeşti și nu știi dacă va fi o zi noroasă sau însorită. Așa este și viața noastră, trecutul nostru. Și totuşi... ceva nu este prins în toate astea. Te uiți mereu, vezi cerul. Zici: „Acum o să plouă”. Fermierul se bucură, dar nu și omul plecat în concediu.

Pentru cer nu contează. Doar omul care e gol spune: „E ok cum e vremea așa”. Şi astfel, mintea lui nu este niciodată depresivă.

Mintea omului zice: „Oh, cerul este foarte întunecat, foarte sumbru.” Dar cerul nu știe asta. Nu dă prea multă atenție sentimentelor și gândurilor omenești. Când omul este distras de un nor, atunci se pierde pe sine. Numai unei ființe foarte avansate îi poți spune: Trăiește ca și cum n-ai exista.”

Un sentiment de identitate temporar poate fi modificat într-un singur sens atunci când realitatea pe care ţi-o construieşti are ca şi considerent de bază un motto, referenţialul activ al cunoaşterii mistice: "Trăieşte ca şi când ai exista în altă lume".

Focul unei stele este puterea omului care nu se stinge după forma mereu schimbătoare a norilor din viaţa sa. Liderii știu să se distragă de la obsesiva rutină. Ei știu că un om este liber atunci când nu se complică cu lucruri pretenţioase, atunci când atenția îi este distrasă de la disconfortul aglomerării de evenimente.

Uneori trebuie să fii gol pe înăuntru, ca să nu rămâi încuiat pe dinafară.

Fondul unei experienţe artistice îndelung repetate

On Noiembrie 06, 2019

Este o calitate artistică să ştii să recunoşti un plus de culoare roşie într-o imagine cu fundal patinat în nuanţele unui ataşament pronunţat faţă de Eu-l divin.

Mi-am închipuit întotdeauna că sunt mai mult decât o invenţie a universului, o dovadă a continuităţii de locuire într-un spaţiu delimitat de estetică şi compoziţie, discret şi ascultător, ca un trandafir personificat în chip de artist a cărui prezenţă în mijlocul lumii încântă prin sugestia de a ceda dorinţelor şi instinctelor de apartenenţă la neobişnuitul unei relaţii dintre un astru şi un titan al Renaşterii.

Nu este o coincidenţă atunci când arta se întâlneşte cu spiritul de observaţie al unui îndrăgostit de natură, într-un concept unic şi exclusivist, de tipul „asemănare prin simplitate". Trandafirul îmi este ca o lumânare, ca un soare ce luminează calea grea a creaţiei, atunci când încerc să redau legătura cu providenţa.

Fiecare dintre noi doi, aşa cum am fost plămădiţi de artistul suprem al universului nemărginit, ca două picături de răbdare în imensul ocean al umanităţii, avem la dispoziţie nesfârşita enigmă a marii ştiinţe pentru a ne redescoperi rădăcinile şi a ne angaja într-un start-up al ideii de tresărire a inimii în faţa minunăţiilor naturii. Culori de foc, tuşe, puncte de contur, sunt utilizate în vederea obţinerii unei imagini de 2 în 1, prin intermediul unei capodopere a realismului care ne asigură că nu sunt aneantizate aspiraţiile de convergenţă la Unu, perfecţiunea naturală, un Întreg singur al căror elemente sunt din Acesta.

Căci tot ceea ce ne aseamănă, în adăugarea unui strop de lumină care ne îmbogăţeşte strălucirea şi frumuseţea amândurora, este mai mult decât un joc de imagine prin care se încearcă demonstrarea apartenenţei unei opere la simbolism. Este un dar al spiritului de ordine în peisajul gândirii însetate de profunzimile emoţionale pe care le străbate unirea mistică dintre Hristos şi suflet.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o imagine expresivă a naturii, caracteristică percepţiei unei fiinţe vii, legată de impresia unei corespondenţe între Logosul divin şi Logosul artistic?

Investigarea rezultatelor obţinute prin diversificarea tehnicilor de modelare a unui creator cu puteri mistice se face cu mijloacele specifice limbajului plastic (contrastarea, proporţia, simetria), idei, stări de spirit și dispoziții afective ale personajelor reprezentate ca nişte figuri ambigue, dar în realitate fiind ochi ai cerului, ispravnici ai tainelor eternităţii.

Este o mare diferenţă între a contempla cu evlavie o operă de artă încântătoare sau un peisaj superb, şi a contempla crucea de binecuvântare a unui Om-Dumnezeu, experimentată ca o obligaţie, nu ca o alegere, între nişte inflorescenţe galben-roşiatice care se deschid treptat, doar în prezenţa soarelui.

Trandafirul ascunde nu doar entuziasmul artistului faţă de o imagine sacră, admirabilă prin îndrăzneala simbolisticii abordate şi a măiestriei cu care este lucrată glorificarea vieţii eterne. Ascunde şi abilitatea de a capta şi de a produce emoţii estetice prin intermediul gândirii pure care te învaţă să transmiţi valori de prim rang în ştiinţă (precum creaţia intelectuală originală) prin intermediul unei scriituri simple, directe şi expresive.

Logosul unui artist este simbolul unui om banal care simte impulsul spre o nouă spiritualizare, inițierea spre gradele cele mai înalte pe care le implică revelaţia de "Dublul lui Unu".

- Tu m-ai băgat în povestea asta, acum trebuie să mă suporţi, i-am mărturisit într-o zi trandafirului meu, încercând să-l imortalizez pe o pânză de in. Într-un anumit fel, aceasta era încercarea de a reconstitui o viaţă enigmatică, precum cea a Mirandei Grey din romanul lui John Fowles, care trăia aceeaşi senzaţie de firavitate la gândul serios că printr-o atitudine de acceptare lansată de artiștii vizuali, într-o singură clipă de scăpare, ar fi putut nărui tot ce clădise până atunci:

„Dacă eşti un adevărat artist, te dăruieşti artei cu toată fiinţa. Dacă reţii o parte cât de mică din tine, atunci nu eşti artist. Nu eşti ceea ce G.P. numeşte făurar. Nu invadezi lumea. Nu trebuie să ai mici desene gata făcute sau idei preconcepute pe care să le reverşi asupra oamenilor cu scopul de a-i impresiona. Simţul şi răbdarea cuvenită artei trebuie să fie prezente, mai întâi de toate, în ceea ce eşti."

Leadership: Poţi să atribui creaţiei tale acea senzaţie de „delicate like a touch", prin cucerirea desăvârşirii determinată de o anumită acumulare de efecte de simţire?

Ceea ce pentru un scriitor este presimţirea chemării spre un veşnic început, marea taină pe care o şopteşte natura, pentru un trandafir este mirajul unei salvări de la naufragiul uitării, expresia unei nostalgii crepusculare, atât de rar pronunţate.

Privindu-mă în ochi pentru o secundă și apoi ferindu-și brusc iar privirea, ca şi când s-ar fi temut să-i recunosc o mare vină, trandafirul mi-a răspuns cu acea intensitate, căldură şi afecţiune, cu care pictorul îşi colorează trăirile cele mai profunde, emoţia şi visarea, folosind fără patimă doar nuanţe de roşu şi galben:

- Îmi recunosc vina de a fi pururea o unealtă în mâinile Domnului, o pledoarie pentru adevărata prietenie, prin autenticitatea și înalta măiestrie cu care reuşesc să transmit simţire sufletească şi imagine artistică, cu mare putere de evocare. Toată speranţa mi-o pun într-un soi de iertare care porneşte din dorinţa sinceră, plină de regrete pentru ceva greu de realizat, prin ochii unei mulţimi de stări care îmi pun la încercare prietenia: gelozie, rivalitate, posesivitate, invidia nemărturisită, vinovăţia de a nu mă ridica, cumva, la nivelul aşteptărilor Sale.

Am vrut să ajung un mare conducător, cineva pe care lumea să-l recompenseze printr-o admiraţie superioară, iar Dumnezeu m-a pregătit să fiu un mare artist, egalul Său.

Leadership: Poţi să controlezi prin intermediul creaţiei tale sugestia unei nevoi permanente de înnoire în planul esteticii, fără să erodezi imaginea cu încărcătură plastică pusă în circulaţie de un Creator al ordinii?

Şi uitaţi cum se interpune între noi doi, între un trandafir şi un receptacul pentru emoţii, mesajul unui titan al exprimării prin metafore, pe nume Victor Hugo, care parcă ne priveşte înadins dintr-un desen al secolului al 19-lea, dintr-un autoportret al cunoaşterii personale, schiţat în timp real, într-un cadru simbolic, prin trasarea unor contraste subtile şi stilate:

„Un om obişnuit va putea face oricând o lucrare regulată, dar numai spiritele mari ştiu să ordoneze o compoziţie. Regularitatea este o combinaţie materială şi pur umană. Ordinea este, ca să zicem aşa, divină. Creatorul, care vede de sus, ordonează. Imitatorul, care priveşte de aproape, regularizează. Primul procedează după legea naturii sale, ultimul urmând regulile şcolii sale. Pentru unul arta este inspiraţie, pentru celălalt nu este decât ştiinţă. În două cuvinte, regularitatea este gustul mediocrităţii, ordinea este gustul geniului."

Este o calitate artistică să ştii să recunoşti un plus de culoare roşie într-o imagine cu fundal patinat în nuanţele unui ataşament pronunţat faţă de Eu-l divin.

Leadershipul este înalta măiestrie cu care reuşeşti să transmiţi simţire sufletească, cu mare putere de evocare a unei identităţi vizuale unice, prin glasul atât de puternic al conştiinţei care îţi atrage atenţia: „nu încerca să creezi ceva extraordinar doar ca să impresionezi lumea ! "

Fondul unei experienţe artistice îndelung repetate este acaparat de conştiinţa unei apropieri de cele sfinte, printr-o asemănare cu sufletul naturii, cu splendoarea imaginii unei alte realități, transfigurate, o imagine a Împărăţiei Cereşti prefăcută într-o floare decorată cu charm de cruce roşie.

For All Seasons

Dezvoltă-ţi leadershipul urmând ciclul complet de multiplicare al lui „Eu însumi", latent şi activ în toate circumstanțele vieţii.

Era în mine un vag transcendentalism ce închidea o mare virtute deschizătoare de drumuri. Pe care n-o poseda decât creierul de geniu, omul de ştiinţă care îşi fundamentează cunoaşterea pe acel "eu sunt" într-o durată de timp variabilă, provenit din adâncul de sugestii stârnite de imensa expansiune a raţiunii ce admite intervenţia miraculoasă a supranaturalului în natural, cu intenţia de a ghici îngăduinţa cerului.

Imaginea care caracterizează lumea interioară a omului este o călăuză de încredere prin meandrele ascunse ale cuvintelor absorbite parcă într-un timp fără limite. Senzaţia că asistam la actul creaţiei, la apariţia primelor forme de viaţă de dincolo de lucruri, în vraja unor obscure solicitări ale timpului măsurat în sensul de mişcare a acelor de ceasornic care anunţau deşteptarea, schimbarea la faţă a lumii, era produsul pretinderii unei infailibilităţi care avea drept scop final eliberarea de multiplicitate şi unirea cu Unul divin.

Nu ştiam că voi fi cuprins în destinul plin de taine al altei clipe, în planul fiecărei idei de revoltă împotriva a tot ceea ce era considerat ca rămăşiţă a amintirilor, un altcumva în fiecare atunci şi acum, pierdut în veşnica aventură a căutării unui nou prototip al fiinţei mele during all seasons of using reflective learning . Singura depăşire a raţiunii care îmi caracteriza traiectoria destinului se evidenţia printr-o reinoire a prilejului de a trăi o fantezie a oglinzilor răsturnate, în care realitatea nu se potrivește de loc cu vorbele, făcând aluzie la o poveste care se scurge repede și devine extrem de imprevizibilă, creând o lectură unică, plină de mister.

Meşterul Zacharius, din opera lui Jules Verne, a găsit o cheie lungă, care semăna cu o năpârcă alungită. S-a repezit imediat la orologiu, pe care a început să-l întoarcă cu o viteză fantastică. Scârţâitul arcului îl călca pe nervi. Bătrânul ceasornicar răsucea, răsucea mereu, fără oprire, şi părea că făcea mişcarea de rotaţie fără voia lui. A răsucit cheia tot mai repede, cu strâmbături ciudate, până a obosit. "Acum este întors pentru un secol ! " strigă el.

Leadership: Poți să răsuceşti fără oprire piesa "All About Me" până la reglarea pârghiei ce îți poate da o deschidere pozitivă în faţa întregii lumi?

Clădind contururile unui "Eu însumi" viu, ca pe un al exemplar unic al creaţiei artistice, pe temeiul unor convingeri inspirate din legile inexorabile ale infinitudinii, am reuşit să-i întrec pe toţi îndrumătorii şi învăţaţii timpului nostru.

Plin de cuprinzătoarele imagini ale unei geneze perpetue născută din pulsiunea necesităţii de a mă apropia de adevărurile unei realităţi mai înalte, prin intensitatea de a gândi o operă mai mare, "eu însumi" a devenit expresia unui monolog asupra proprie-i fiinţe, observată fără menajamente, traversată uneori cu rigoare, alteori cu lirism, de nădejdea într-o cheie a filosofiei marilor gânditori: dacă viaţa noastră nu are nici un sens atunci fiecare om este chemat să-şi inventeze unul.

"Eu însumi" este opera unui conţinut plin de miez, uşor de citit şi greu de ghicit, desprind dintr-un colaj de imagini care ar trebui să trezească anumite emoții la nivel estetic, nu doar la nivel psihologic. Experienţa unei mentalităţi artistice, bazată pe verosimilitatea unor fapte, situaţii sau împrejurări ce par deosebite mai ales în sinceritatea cu care îmi aştern gândurile pe paginile inspiraţionale ale acestui blog, prezintă acea tendinţă de amestecare a simbolurilor cu multiplele lor sensuri camuflate în destin, în puterea coincidentelor, în oameni predestinaţi - toate determinând schimbarea sensului timpului trăit în vremea colindatului.

După cum fondatoarea mişcării Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy a înjghebat dintr-un vălmășag metafizic o nouă metodă de tămăduire - prin spirit, o ştiinţă recunoscută şi aplicată de milioane de discipoli, tot aşa şi eu am reuşit să exprim unitatea unei opere derivată din calităţile intelective ale autorului ei, răsucind mereu, fără oprire, piesa "All About Me" până la reglarea pârghiei ce-mi dădea o deschidere pozitivă în faţa întregii lumi, anunţând tendinţa principală a secolului: extinderea conceptului de leadership.

Posibilitatea unui destin de a fi transpus într-o operă "All about me" cu implicaţii estetice poate capăta contur atunci când tot ceea ce te înconjoară este ușor de folosit, intuitiv și eliberator, ca o metaforă a actului de creație pentru toate experienţele de viaţă care ți-ar putea trece prin minte.

În versiunea unei gândiri ce face apel la actul de creație, implicând toate manifestările raportate la elementul timp, viaţa capătă valenţe de obiect artistic care dă coerenţă profundă operei, cumva prin ea însăşi ezoterică, înmagazinând concepte originale şi conectate la tendinţele de dezvoltare care trebuiesc urmate pentru a fi în trend. Această operă, incitându-te permanent să îţi pui întrebări, fără a oferi vreodată sugestia unui răspuns definitiv, are la bază o abordare modernă a construcţiei „Eu însumi" manifestat sub multiple aspecte.

Orice manifestare, oricât de neînsemnată ar fi ea, intră sub incidenţa entităţii „Eu însumi", a cărui raţiune conteneşte să fie un miracol, dovada vie a unei nemărginiri în ceea ce privește experiența de viață, imaginea omului în lume.

Leadershipul, semnalând fără milă orice schimbare, orice acţiune, oricât de neînsemnată ar fi ea, urmează ciclul complet de multiplicare al lui „Eu însumi", latent în toate circumstanțele vieţii poate chiar ani de zile. Până când, sub influența unor factori favorizanți și predispozanți, declanșează trăirile care îţi dau forţa de a reuşi sau de a te apropia de o reuşită care să-ţi ofere bucuria totală.

„Eu însumi", fratele geamăn al lui „All about me", constituie o structură de dezvoltare personală şi spirituală cu un înalt grad de complexitate, întrunind acel complex de roluri care ar putea asigura încadrarea ta în categoria revelatorilor de autenticitate, care știu să-şi pună „operele" în circulaţie.

„Eu însumi" este o poveste creată, o destinaţie pentru toate anotimpurile. Se situează pe primul nivel de integrare în leadership care caracterizează evoluţia întregii tale fiinţe, definindu-se în termeni de reproducere a unei existențe care se vrea simbolică pentru existenţa ideală a unei lumi oricând reconfigurabile.

"Soarta unui Destin de a fi el însuşi" este mesajul pe care îl exprimi într-o operă cu accent uimitor de expresie lăuntrică, compusă dintr-un vârjej de simboluri şi figuri de stil, care se deschide și se dedică în întregime găsirii unei imagini-cheie pentru viață, de pildă în vise și în imaginație.

For all seasons este o chestiune de a folosi și a învăța din experiențele vieţii. Leadershipul este rezultatul experimentării lui „Eu însumi" în cursul celor patru anotimpuri: al aşteptării şi al meditaţiei, al ruperii tăcerii, al bucuriei de a schimba lumea şi al dăinurii peste secole.

Forma cinematografică a unui monolog

On Ianuarie 01, 2009

Articularea vizuală a gândirii poate extinde limitele expresiei umane.

În însemnările sale regizotul rus, Serghei Eisenstein, scrie : "Joyce este un colos. Îl socoteşte pe Joyce, după cum îşi aminteşte M. Seton, singurul scriitor în viaţă care a rupt zidurile tradiţiei literare, care a creat forme noi pentru a exprima procesul interior al gândirii şi emoţiei. Crede în acelaşi timp că în literatură, Joyce a fost acela care a "dezvoltat linia figurativa a hieroglifelor japoneze". Îl vizitează. Întâlneşte, în celebrul scriitor, măcinat de o boală groaznică care l-a dus până aproape de orbire, un om modest, glumeţ, dedicat exclusiv muncii.

Cei doi artişti discută îndelung, vizitele lui Eisenstein se repetă. Joyce îi citeşte pagini din lucrările sale pe care Eisenstein, acum, în lectura autorului, le înţelege mai bine. Discută mult despre "monologul interior al cărui exemplu din "Ulysses" îl entuziasmase pe tânărul regizor prin dezvăluirea desfăşurării evenimentelor simultan cu modul particular în care aceste evenimente trec prin conştiinţă şi simţire, adică asociaţiile şi emoţiile unuia din personajele principale", ale lui Leopold Bloom.

Joyce se arată foarte interesat de gândurile şi proiectele lui Eisenstein privind monologul interior. Pe regizor îl preocupa de cinci ani forma cinematografică a unui asemenea monolog, forma sa de montaj. Era convins că numai filmul sonor poate reproduce toate fazele, tot specificul cursului gândirii. De aceea filmul va continua ceea ce Joyce dusese la apogeu în literatură.

Leadership: Poţi să percepi și să interpretezi complexitatea gândirii unui personaj, pentru a crea un echivalent vizual al monologului interior într-o manieră ce imită fluxul neîntrerupt al conștiinței?

Metafora vizuală în forma cinematografică a unui monolog poate funcționa ca un echivalent vizual al monologului interior, punând în scenă modul particular în care evenimentele trec prin conștiința și simțirea unui personaj. Regizorii, folosindu-se de tehnici de montaj și film sonor, aduc în fața spectatorilor gândurile, asociațiile și emoțiile personajelor într-o manieră care imită fluxul neîntrerupt al conștiinței, așa cum a făcut Joyce în literatură. Acest proces nu este limitat la o reprezentare directă a ideilor, ci implică crearea unui dialog între spectator și film, unde complexitatea cursului gândirii este explorată într-o manieră intuitivă și profund personală.

Leadership: Îți permiți să explorezi alteritatea unui personaj prin intermediul creaţiei tale, reflectând la felul cum acesta redă fluxul neîntrerupt al conștiinței tale?

Editarea în forma cinematografică a unui monolog poate fi privită ca echivalentul vizual al monologului interior, orchestrând modul în care evenimentele și emoțiile sunt experimentate prin conştiinţa personajului. În contextul filmului sonor, regizorii și editorii utilizează montajul pentru a reconstrui complexitatea cursului gândirii, așa cum Joyce a explorat în literatură prin structurarea narativă a "Ulysses".

Aceasta nu este doar o îmbinare a cadrelor, ci o artă a structurării poveştii care permite spectatorului să navigheze prin straturile profunde ale emoțiilor și asociaţiilor personajului, creând un dialog profund între spectator și narațiunea filmului. Astfel, filmul devine un mediu în care forma cinematografică își asumă rolul de a continua explorarea gândirii umane, similare cu dezvoltarea liniei figurative a hieroglifelor japoneze menționată de Joyce.

În cinematografie, leadershipul presupune să orchestrezi dialogul dintre tine și creația ta, evidențiind complexitatea gândirii unui personaj cheie care poate să interpreteze rolul tău în anumite circumstanțe.

Forma cinematografică a unui monolog scoate în evidenţă ideea că atunci când experimentezi alteritatea prin intermediul cinematografiei, poţi să descoperi o nouă formă de empatie vizuală, stimulându-ți astfel capacitatea de interpretare a unui anumit rol în anumite circumstanţe.

Formă şi Transformare

Continuă-ţi căutările de a defini o nouă înţelegere a noţiunii de „întreg", asumându-ţi articularea sensului prim sau ultim al creaţiei.

Concepţia despre film a lui Eisenstein este ghidată de preocuparea sa pentru studiul formelor extazului. Preocuparea aceasta pornea de la aceea pentru patetic. De la filmul "Potemkin" cel puţin, pateticul era în continuare scopul căutărilor sale. Pateticul poate fi atins, medita artistul, prin naşterea bruscă a tuturor pasiunilor îndreptate spre un singur scop. Dar exploziile nu se petrec zilnic şi nu e posibil să refacă mereu acelaşi "Potemkin" în legătură cu zeci de alte revolte similare.

Căutările sale trebuiau îndreptate deci în alt sens. În crearea pateticului legat de cotidian. Adică polarizarea, într-un fapt anodin, a tuturor pasiunilor oamenilor, a tuturor speranţelor lor. Astfel imaginea, devenind fixaţia unui ideal sau a unui paroxism va putea cuprinde extazul, acesta fiind sublimarea idealului în cauză. Aşa apare separatorul de lapte din "Vechiul şi Noul". Nu are importanţă ca obiect, ci numai prin ceea ce semnifică: un moment al transformărilor de conştiinţă, al răsturnării sensurilor vieţii ţăranilor.

Jean Mitry, cu care Eisenstein a vorbit despre aceasta, îşi aminteşte astfel de ideile expuse de realizator: "să transforme în patetic ceea ce nu este deloc sau nu pare a fi, să ajungă la extaz, să determine un soi de beatitudine prin care spectatorul - cu conştiinţa parcă paralizată - intră într-o stare de receptivitate imediată şi participă emoţional (şi, de aici, mental) la acţiunea reprezentată. El visa la un fel de hipnoză prin film…" *****

Leadership: Preocuparea ta pentru atingerea unui ideal artistic se subordonează înţelegerii complexităţii „întregului integrat" al unei creaţii care îşi câştigă receptivitatea prin naşterea bruscă a tuturor pasiunilor îndreptate spre un singur scop?

Procesul de dezvoltare şi transformare a judecăţilor de valoare ce au loc într-un anumit context de cercetare duce la naşterea unei opere tratată mai apoi cu obiectivitate, căreia reuşeşti să-i demaşti deficienţele cu ajutorul reflecţiilor de tip artistic. Prin intermediul acestui proces se poate constata o îmbinare între ceea ce te încântă prin contemplarea complexităţii creaţiei şi ceea ce te preocupă prin conectarea acestei creaţii la un sens mai înalt.

Dacă învăţătorul spiritual Osho avea dreptate când spunea că extazul este scopul, iar conștientizarea este drumul spre el, atunci creaţia devine, prin extrapolare, nu doar un factor motivaţional care dă sens căutărilor de a te autodepăşi, ci un soi de experienţă de utilizare a mijloacelor de exprimare care atestă personalitatea ta aparte. Iar idealul artistic al acestei personalităţi rezonează cu expresia emoţională a vibraţiilor artei ca instrument de exprimare a semnificaţiei acordate evenimentelor şi experienţelor care pot contura profund o realitate în timp.

Înainte de toate, leadershipul se constituie dintr-o suită de încercări continue de a găsi acele sensuri ale înfăptuirii creaţiei care produc starea de receptivitate, prin formularea judecăţilor cu totul diferite asupra formei şi conţinutului de profunzime al mesajelor transmise. În cinematografie, ca şi în leadership, ceea ce transmiti trebuie să surprindă un moment al transformărilor de conştiinţă, al răsturnării sensurilor vieţii, care să menţină starea de receptivitate a oamenilor faţă de un anumit subiect, faţă de fiinţa lor interioară, faţă de o revelaţie posibilă, faţă de anumite aspecte spirituale, etc.

Dacă e adevărat ce spunea marele filosof Kant, faptul că o judecată reprezintă ideea că un lucru este cunoscut după anumite calități sau atribute, atunci fixaţia nemăsurată asupra noţiunii de "Capodoperă" în universul creaţiei se constată din imaginea pe care o proiectezi despre o realitate mai puţin cunoscută a lumii, dar care se revelează absolut limpede în faptele vieţii actuale.

Leadership: Viziunea asupra creaţiei pe care o experimentezi surprinde momentul memorabil al fiecărui eveniment important pe care conştiinţa îl receptează drept o încercare de găsire a sensului vieţii?

Leadershipul se subordonează înţelegerii complexităţii „întregului integrat" al unei creaţii care îşi câştigă receptivitatea prin naşterea bruscă a tuturor pasiunilor îndreptate spre un singur scop: să transforme fiecare eveniment într-un moment memorabil, într-un popas emoţional, într-un moment al transformărilor de conştiinţă, al răsturnării sensurilor vieţii.

Aşadar se impune evaluarea dimensiunii producţiei de sensuri care facilitează promovarea creaţiei şi o mai bună înţelegere a mesajului transmis.

Să transformi în patetic ceea ce nu este deloc sau nu pare a fi, să ajungi la extaz, să determini un soi de beatitudine prin care spectatorul - cu conştiinţa parcă paralizată - intră într-o stare de receptivitate imediată şi participă emoţional (şi, de aici, mental) la acţiunea reprezentată - este un important mijloc de a pune în valoare esenţa propriei tale identităţi, transpusa în creaţie, dar în felul în care nimeni nu se aşteaptă.

A încerca să configurezi o lume pe care doar tu o cunoşti, în marea ecuaţie a leadershipului, care corespunde răsturnărilor sensurilor creaţiei promovate, devenind ulterior fixaţia unui ideal, poate fi echivalent cu a argumenta ceva care prin natura sa nu poate fi niciodată demonstrat. Ai grijă ce sensuri produci !

A regiza un eveniment important pe care conştiinţa să-l recepteze drept o încercare de găsire a sensului vieţii înseamnă să aduci în prim plan o imagine prin intermediul căreia spectatorii să se poate identifica drept o prioritate în a-şi demonstra apartenenţa la întregirea unei realităţi noi.

Formă şi Transformare evidenţiază rezultatul final al elaborării metodelor artistului de determinare a unor noi sensuri de transfigurare ale creaţiei.

Tu în ce sens trebuie să-ţi îndrepţi căutările pentru a defini o nouă înţelegere a noţiunii de „întreg", sau mai bine zis, o nouă înţelegere a înţelegerii, una care să asume articularea sensului prim sau ultim al creaţiei?

Formează-ţi o echipă competentă

On Aprilie 09, 2009

Depăşeşte barierele limitatoare ale ştiinţei tale de a conduce, eliberându-ţi uriaşul potenţial de a fi „durabil”.

A reuşit să ducă compania pe o poziţie de vârf pentru că şi-a ales echipa potrivită.

Încă de când a fost numit manager general, George M. a urmărit să-şi formeze o echipă care să fie capabilă să obţină rezultate bune şi să contribuie la dezvoltarea companiei. Astfel, din echipa lui făceau parte un contabil, un jurist, un economist, un inginer, un programator, un tehnician, un avocat şi un foarte bun agent de vânzări. Într-o zi i-a convocat pe toţi la o discuţie şi după ce le-a trasat obiectivele le-a spus:

- Cu siguranţă ne vom confrunta cu probleme, vom întâmpina multe dificultăţi din cauza crizei, iar de unul singur nu voi reuşi niciodată să fac nimic. Chiar dacă am o experienţă practică de peste opt ani în conducere, sunt încă foarte multe lucruri pe care nu le ştiu sau la care nu mă pricep suficient de bine. De aceea v-am ales pe voi, experţi în diferite domenii de activitate, ca să ne completăm unii pe alţii.

Leadership: Faptul de a te considera într-o poziție care îţi permite o nouă configuraţie a preferinţei pentru acţiunea colectivă, îţi lezează capacitatea de a înainta nişte pretenţii mult prea exagerate faţă de ceea ce nu eşti în stare să apreciezi la justa valoare?

A întemeia o echipă formată din oameni diferiţi, cu abilităţi, talente şi cunoştinţe practice diferite este o metodă excelentă care şi-a dovedit eficienţa de foarte multe ori. Numeroase companii s-au dezvoltat plecând de la o idee pe care două sau mai multe persoane cu abilităţi diferite au pus-o în practică. Singurul lucru care i-a unit a fost scopul comun, dorinţa de a-şi depăşi propriile limite, de a obţine performanţe şi satisfacţii profesionale, şi de a se afirma.

Tu şi echipa ta sunteţi ca doi alergători înaintea startului într-o cursă lungă. Aveţi atâtea lucruri de pus la punct încât fiecare trebuie să se obişnuiască cu pasul celuilalt.

Aşa cum un alergător, ca să devină performant, trebuie să alerge foarte mult până ce ajunge să depăşească starea de normalitate - tot aşa şi tu, împreună cu echipa ta, trebuie să depăşiţi deprinderile limitatoare ale percepţiilor despre modul în care trebuie să vă sincronizaţi ritmul de dezvoltare, eliberându-vă uriaşul potenţial de a fi „durabili”, adică de a produce o mare cantitate de valoare companiei pe termen nelimitat.

Oricând îţi poţi leza capacitatea de a înainta nişte pretenţii mult prea exagerate faţă de ceea ce nu eşti în stare să apreciezi la justa valoare, atunci când oamenii care te urmează în direcţia impulsului spre unitate nu mai rezistă să facă o treabă care nu dă un caracter durabil menirii lor de a trăi în numele unui ideal înalt numit "libertate". Cum ar fi libertatea de exprimare sau libertatea de conștiinţă.

Leadership: Intenţia ta de a uni mai multe mentalităţi diferite într-un singur tot, deschide calea unei noi perspective de înțelegere a omului într-un context de dare de socoteală reciprocă care confirmă interesul de a promova un nou concept revoluţionar?

O anumită trăsătură a fost evidenţiată ca fiind cea mai preţioasă la un lider: capacitatea de a-şi forma echipa. Dar aşa cum cheagurile de sânge pot produce febră şi pot fi chiar letale, tot aşa greşelile în alegerea membrilor echipei pot declanşa o gamă largă de „infecţii" ce au drept rezultat apariţia unei breşe în sistemul imunitar al companiei.

Nu vei putea niciodată să te ridici la un nivel superior dacă încerci să faci totul de unul singur sau dacă ai alături de tine o echipă formată din oameni neinstruiţi, lipsiţi de pasiune şi care acţionează haotic. Prin urmare dacă vrei să-ţi meargă bine va fi necesar să-ţi întemeiezi o echipă funcţională, dinamică, care să genereze rezultate în compania pe care o conduci.

Membrii echipei îţi pot oferi sugestii despre cum poate fi îmbunătăţită sau modificată strategia companiei în situaţii de criză, pot propune soluţii de rezolvare a problemelor, sugestii pe care poţi să le accepţi sau nu. Dar un lucru este cert: dacă cei din echipa ta sunt specializaţi doar într-un singur domeniu de activitate ei vor fi limitaţi în multe privinţe, în special în găsirea soluţiilor în situaţiile dificile.

Oamenii cu acelaşi tip de gândire, cu aceleaşi puncte de vedere şi care manifestă aceleaşi limitări sunt mai predispuşi să fie stângaci de-a lungul carierei lor. De aceea într-o echipă sunt de preferat oameni cu mentalităţi diferite, iar fiecare în parte să poată da socoteală pentru activitatea celorlalţi. Cel puţin aşa văd eu un ideal de sinergie.

Un concept revoluţionar promovat de munca în echipă trebuie să fie o continuitate între obiectivitatea cu care liderul analizează performanţele oamenilor de a reproduce întocmai gândirea lui şi subiectivitatea cu care fiecare îşi priveşte deciziile pe care le ia, înainte şi după ce se pierde speranţa atingerii unui anumit scop.

Succesul unei companii nu este dat doar de faptul că managerul are lângă el o echipă tânără, calificată, loială, capabilă să-l susţină ori de câte ori este nevoie. Succesul este dat de modalitatea în care atât el cât şi membrii echipei lui reuşesc să rezolve competent şi prompt problemele apărute. Dacă oamenii au cunoştinţe şi abilităţi diferite mai mult ca sigur au şi opinii diferite, şi astfel sunt mai multe şanse să găsească idei bune şi soluţii eficiente. Este important ca ei să vadă problema într-un mod diferit, din mai multe unghiuri de vedere.

Fizicianul american Oliver Wendell Holmes scria: " Multe idei se dezvoltă mai bine când sunt transplantate în altă minte decât în cea din care au izvorât. Ceea ce pare umbra nopţii într-o minte se transformă în rochiţa rândunicii în cealaltă minte. "

Dacă oamenii au abilităţi diferite vor găsi mai multe posibilităţi de rezolvare a problemelor. Fiecare poate sugera idei pe care ceilalţi le-au omis, iar ceea ce pentru unul pare un motiv de îngrijorare pentru altul poate însemna o oportunitate uriaşă.

Depăşeşte barierele limitatoare ale ştiinţei tale de a conduce, eliberându-ţi uriaşul potenţial de a fi „durabil". Poţi fi durabil în business doar dacă îţi formezi o echipă competentă.

Leadershipul este un pol de stabilitate şi predictibilitate într-un context de vecinătate între indivizi, fiindcă porneşte de la singur un om care îşi comunică viziunea şi se continuă cu noi experienţe pe care toţi le împărtăşesc din perspectiva unei inteligenţe unice.

Formula de continuitate a leadershipului

On Ianuarie 17, 2016

Învaţă să devii o forţă de progres autentică în spaţiul punerii în scenă a unui rol mare, înnobilându-te cu magia unei experiențe unice.

Eram plin de dorinţa de a înainta într-un ritm propriu, în singularitatea unei voci transformate deseori în șoaptă, venită de undeva, nu ştiu de unde, dar urma să mă lămuresc până la urmă. Ca unul dintre cei care îmbrăţişează din primul moment drumul ce li se oferă înainte, ştiut numai de Dumnezeu, pentru care toate au un înţeles ambiguu, bănuind de-a lungul lui o lume fascinantă şi stranie în acelaşi timp.

Categoric. Mă îndreptam spre o întâlnire cu mine însumi văzută din perspectiva unui test al conştiinţei de a permite distincţia fină între ceea ce trăiam prin experienţa de viaţă şi ceea ce trăiam prin sentimentul de comuniune cu o altă fiinţă, plină de contradicţii, plină de taine, plină de energii fantomatice. În probele de scurtă durată, aşa cum este sprintul pe distanţele pornite de la vreun eşec şi finalizate cu o mare bucurie, puteam să-mi umplu golul plin de îndoială pe care îl purtam în mine, golul atât de necesar victoriei, o sfidare cu totul nouă în bezna clipei ce se rostogolea la picioarele mele.

Lumea îşi schimbă continuu bateriile, dinamismul devine piatra de încercare a adevăratelor caractere, cerând împărţiri nesfârşite între învingători şi învinşi. Când totul pare o chemare, dintr-o dată te trezeşti prins într-un val vârtej de situaţii surprinzătoare, explozii de sentimente contradictorii, de la o conştiinţă a fricii la una a izbânzii. Dumnezeu e lângă tine, te leagănă într-o stare de debusolare intensă, e acolo în ceasurile alea de non sai più cosa credere , făcându-se auzit doar printr-un glas slab, liniştit, nu prin intermediul simţurilor fizice, ci prin atingerea inimii şi a minţii: "Într-o bună zi vei înţelege totul".

Leadership: Cum trăieşti acea realitate a fiinţei tale pe care vrei să o subliniezi într-un context de incertitudine care nu a mai fost niciodată experimentat, prin dependenţa de a fi în contact cu altcineva superior care se situează pe terenul adevăratei observări a vieţii?

Tot timpul mă agăţam de ceva insignificant ca să-mi pot urma paşii pe care un destin ciudat părea să mi-i conducă printr-un glas puternic şi constant, nelijând priveliştea unei depline înfrăţiri a tuturor lucrurilor şi fenomenelor din jur. Era ca şi când trebuia să mă recunosc străin de mine însumi pe un teritoriu cunoscut, doar fiindcă mi se părea că nu stăpânesc îndeajuns de bine esenţa realităţii (de a accepta o viziune spirituală şi profetică a lucrurilor), că nu mă pot baza pe ea, că nu mă pot înţelege cu nimeni, neputând să mă împac cu ceea ce se desfăşoară pe scea vieţii.

În sinceritatea mea adâncă, dusă până la limita obsesiei inatacabile de a fi altfel – it driving me so crazy, în înţelegerea şi îngrijorarea care izvorau din elanul strict al unei atitudini războinice, introduceam deseori ideea echivalenţei diferitelor tipuri de evaluări ale unui spectru larg de opţiuni şi strategii de înaintare spre o realitate care să nu se împotmolească în propriile limite. Motivaţia de a continua să experimentez o stare de conştiinţă modificată, preocuparea excesivă pentru diverse lucruri sau aspecte ale vieţii, pentru lucruri cotidiene, obişnuite sau pentru subiecte minore, era de fapt un efort al gândirii de a pătrunde cât mai adânc în ceea ce înseamnă să fiu eu însumi într-o lume care încearcă neîncetat să mă modeleze în altceva.

Din tot ceea ce se adună şi se scade dintr-o călăuzire a privirii de ansamblu, din nespusurile unei răzvrătiri a orgoliului care reglementează cum vrea el impulsurile de tip

"Reinventează-te", egal cu suma schimburilor de căldură degajate de sentimente şi pasiuni, revoluţionând însuşi conceptul de forţă vitală, se naşte o altă fiinţă.

O fiinţă mai miraculoasă în existenţă decât prima. Soluţia justă a unei dotări cu anumite limite, mi se pare că trebuie căutată în sensul unei alternative: să mă aşez într-un colţ de lume şi să aştept ca altcineva să mă depăşească. Ceea ce, este inutil să o spun, dar pur şi simplu nu mă caracterizează.

Leadership: Continui să înaintezi în direcția unor rezultate nedeterminate, printr-o serie de reprezentări convergente despre tine care determină dezvoltarea unei raţiuni de tipul: "valoarea pe care o acorzi asumării unui rol puternic este favorabilă creării unei poveşti care se scrie parcă de la sine" ?

Pentru a putea face din leadership un piedestal pe care să îţi asumi o schimbare a modului de gândire, o lecție necesară evoluţiei, trebuie să încerci să refaci drumul pe care fiecare om de mare caracter l-a străbătut când a simțit un imbold puternic să-și exploreze lumea interioară, în scopul aducerii la lumină a tainelor ce stau ferecate în adâncurile sale, slujindu-l cu credință.

Fridtjof Nansen şi-a câştigat gloria de timpuriu la concursurile de mare fond, schi şi patinaj viteză, unde a ieşit învingător 12 ani în şir. Sportul însă nu i-a umbrit celelalte aspiraţii, destul de largi. Dar când să-şi aleagă drumul ce avea să-l urmeze în viaţă, se simţi oarecum dezorientat. Voia o carieră militară, voia se studieze medicina, apoi s-a hotărât pentru zoologie. Până la urmă a ajuns un mare savant, nu doar un mare explorator. A izbutit să facă istorie şi să se pună în slujba omenirii, ca nimeni altul, datorită propriul motto: „Tot înainte ! ” Dezvoltarea unei raţiuni prin care să recunoști valoarea altora, încercând să-și însuşeşti acele forţe lăuntrice care sunt orientate spre rezultate magnifice din lumea exterioară, este necesară pentru determinarea tendinţei de asumare a unui rol puternic şi de interpretare a acestuia într-o „poveste” de succes. O poveste care ai zice că se scrie de la sine, deoarece porneşte de la ceva aparent accidental, fără prea mare însemnătate, şi se transformă în ceva cu totul neaşteptat, grandios, inovativ.

Inspiraţia provenită din studierea unui model de urmat, preluând toate durerile, chinurile, speranțele și bucuriile sale pe parcursul încercărilor de a cuceri titlul de campion, se transformă într-un spațiu de expansiune, făcând din mintea și sufletul tău o busolă a reinventării şi devenirii.

O reprezentare convergentă despre tine însuţi în cursul dezvoltării unei existenţe bazată adesea mai mult pe constrângeri, decât pe bucurii, se obţine prin ideea de ieşire din tiparele limitative.

Această idee poate fi prezentată în felul următor: "Măsură valorii tale o poţi dobândi doar prin confruntare cu situaţiile de temut sau cu faptele cele mai prozaice".

Oamenii cu aspiraţii de cuceritori reușesc să-și pună într-un perfect acord cu modelele lor acele trăiri, atitudini, aspiraţii, sentimente, orizonturi, tratându-le cum le-ar trata ei, ca niște surse de venit, ca niște investiţii pe termen lung. Ei nu-şi stăpânesc inima doar cu magia unor poveşti electrizante, nu se lasă ademeniţi de magia unei plonjări într-un realism care e doar o simplă ramă a Poveștii, ci încearcă să se nnobileze se înşişi cu magia unei experiențe unice.

A continua să înaintezi în direcția unor rezultate nedeterminate, printr-o serie de reprezentări convergente despre tine, înseamnă să nu spui niciodată „ Eu nu joc acest rol mare ”, oricare ar fi rolul acela din producţia vieții tale. Ci să te foloseşti de toate însuşirile extrase din demersurile și învăţăturile provenite din viața altora, pentru a atinge propria ta măreţie, pentru a-ți construi propria ta legenda.

Ți-ai alocat un nume în spaţiul unei rubrici de bestseller?

Liderul îşi asumă un rol puternic de contribuitor la schimbarea lumii prin deviza scriitorului Ioan Romoşan: "Demnitate în faţa morţii nu poţi avea decât ştiind că viaţa pe care ai trăit-o a servit la ceva."

Formula de continuitate a leadershipului se poate extrage din ecuația „Eu + Restul lumii”, unde "Eu" reprezintă, indiferent de rolul asumat, acea instanţă deterministă valabilă doar în unicitatea sa, constant prezentă în cadrul evoluţiei lumii.

Iar „Ei” reprezintă o veritabilă aventură, o călătorie în trecut sau în prezent, prin mulţimea de cunoştinţe, intenţii, fapte şi consecinţe, făcută după multe ezitări şi pendulări între sentimente contradictorii, în care se reflectă tema dezvoltării durabile şi a competitivităţii.

Competitivitatea este motorul evoluţiei. Fără întrecere nu se poate obţine performanță. Și nimic nu poate fi mai potrivit imaginii de lider decât să te clasezi pe locul întâi.

Formula magică a unui suflet liber

On Februarie 05, 2011

Cu cât convingerile liderului sunt mai adânc înrădăcinate, cu atât scade capacitatea lui de a-şi lărgi orizonturile şi legăturile umane.

O secvenţă din filmul " Leon – The professional (1994) " mi-a atras atenţia în mod deosebit. Dacă vă amintiţi bine, Leon – asasinul, preţuia în mod deosebit o plantă dintr-un mic ghiveci pe care-l lăsa pe pervazul ferestrei. O îngrijea zilnic şi o lua cu el oriunde de muta. Acea plantă îi aducea liniştea sufletească şi îi îndulcea puţin viaţa.

La un moment dat, în timp ce uda planta, zâmbitor şi binevoitor, Leon îi spune Mathildei - copila pe care o salvase de la moarte şi pe care o "înfiase":

- Planta aceasta este prietena mea cea mai bună. Întotdeauna e fericită, şi nu pune întrebări. E ca mine, vezi? Nu are rădăcini.

Mathilda ezită un moment prelungit, reflectă bine la vorbele lui Leon, apoi îi răspunde cu un zâmbet slab:

- Dacă într-adevăr o iubeşti, du-o în mijlocul unui parc, să-şi facă rădăcini.

Leadership: Revii la exemplul unei vieţi trăite întru valori spirituale, pentru că felul în care înţelegi lumea lasă urme în tine însuţi?

Încă de mic copil Leon fusese antrenat să ucidă, misiunile secrete, şi în fond antisociale, îl însoţeau peste tot, necontenit, îndepărtându-l astfel de ceilalţi oameni, de dragoste, de compasiune, de adevărata fericire. Stând mereu în culise, ascuns de privirile celorlalţi, necomunicând cu oamenii, el nu şi-a putut da seama de adevărata valoare a vieţii. Nu-şi făcuse niciodată planuri noi, nu pornise niciodată în căutarea sensului vieţii. Lumea lui nu era o lume plină de visuri în care, mereu cu speranţă, mereu cu seninătate, mereu cu credinţă şi cu dorinţă de viaţă, să cauţi fericirea şi s-o găseşti. Ci era o lume searbădă, ascunsă, iar el era robotul care doar răspundea la comenzi.

Cred că cuvintele celebrei scriitoare Danielle Steel, din romanul " Iubire ", pe care l-am recitit recent, redau destul de bine gândurile lui Leon:

" Sufletul meu, atât de bătrân, atât de gol, se teme, de mine, de viaţă, până când visurilor, strălucitor de noi, vor începe din nou, într-un alt peisaj, într-un alt joc, conştient în fine de ceea ce ştiu, de ceea ce gândesc, de ceea ce sunt, de ceea ce simt... "

Poate că ar trebui să reflectăm bine la vorbele lui Danielle Steel, respectiv la gândurile lui Leon, şi în loc să vedem lumea prin prisma resemnării, să pornim în căutarea fericirii.

Leadership: Eşti un număr care se divide cu el însuşi, sau un număr care variază în funcţie de alt număr?

Am spus de nenumărate ori că leadershipul îşi găseşte temeiul în expresia "Omul nu este un număr al vieţii care se divide cu el însuşi, ci un număr care poate fi ridicat la puterea „n" atâta timp cât variază în funcţie de alt număr" . Întrebarea care se pune este urmatoarea: Poţi să afli valoarea absolută a numărului care se repetă?

Caut prin aceasta să arăt că cine este vigilent la orice indicii de natură a-i dezvălui adevăratul caracter, învăţând a privi sarcinile de scanare şi gestionare a sinelui ca pe nişte sarcini obiective pe care este în stare să le înfrunte bizuindu-se pe propriile fapte şi urmările lor, va ajunge să se autocondiţioneze conştient.

Să-ţi condiţionezi răspunsul psihologic "Pot" la sunetul alarmei "Voi fi ceea ce doresc să fiu" , în urma rezultatelor propriei evaluări, înseamnă să te împaci tu ţine însuţi şi să-ţi coordonezi existenţa pentru a te accepta cu bune şi cu rele, fără a falsifica datele situaţiei.

Nu trebuie să se înţeleagă că e interzis a te bucura de rezultatele determinării tale (a te schimba și a-ţi transforma viaţa) pe care le consideri cam cu uşurinţă de la sine înţelese. Dar totul capătă altă importantă după ce realizezi că cea mai grea cale de a ajunge la iubirea de sine, sau la statutul de "normal", este să te gândeşti la tine ca la un păcătos, incapabil să-ţi ierţi păcatele trecutului.

Este esenţial să percepi, printr-un proces de gândire care rezidă în analiza argumentelor contradictorii, în scopul descoperirii adevărului, că te deschizi pentru tine însuţi, nu pentru lumea din jurul tău. Nimeni nu îţi poate oferi maximum de certitudine în ceea ce priveşte baza ta spirituală, relaţiile şi legăturile tale cu ceilalţi. De aceea interesul major arătat pentru experienţele tale de viaţă, în diverse ipostaze, aşa cum le trăieşti, constituie un aspect capital pentru dezvoltarea armonioasă şi pentru înţelegerea rolului dominant sau a dependenţei de ceilalţi.

Un număr care se repetă este o reprezentare a cantităţii acţiunilor în care vrei să te implici, pornind de la acel declic magic care declanşează o reacţie la evenimentele importante care se prezintă în faţa ta. Valoarea absolută a acestui număr este dată de raportul dintre obiectiv şi subiectiv cu care percepi potrivirea ta în ecuaţia determinismului care lasă loc acţiunii libere, neconstrânsă de norme, reguli şi principii în care nu crezi.

Leadership: Te izolezi în propriul univers în ideea că te vei putea regăsi, neutralizând astfel o eventuală opoziţie din partea celorlalţi?

A face ceva împotriva dorinţelor şi aspiraţiilor tale înseamnă, în mod sigur, să te izolezi în propriul tău univers. Iar dacă acest lucru se întâmplă, atunci nu vei putea să te împaci nici cu universul interior al celorlalţi oameni.

Mathilda l-a ajutat pe Leon să vadă o altă faţă a lucrurilor, l-a ajutat sa înţeleagă ce este bucuria, ce este binele, căci felul ei de a vedea lumea nu era atât de limitat ca al lui. Ea i-a schimbat convingerile şi valorile, i-a schimbat obiceiurile şi orientarea in viaţă. L-a ajutat să-şi găsească şi să-şi dezvolte adevăratele "rădăcini". Leadershipul începe cu o schimbare de atitudine.

Cu plantele se întâmplă la fel ca şi cu oamenii. Până la urmă rădăcinile lor putrezesc dacă nu au apă. La fel, oamenii care nu îşi dezvoltă noi orizonturi şi noi legături umane sfârşesc prin a se închide în ei înşişi, prin a se separa involuntar de lumea celorlalţi. O plantă udată cu măsură va fi mai viguroasă, la fel cum un om crescut în spiritul unei vieţi pline de bucurie şi de mulţumire îşi va lărgi orizonturile.

Leadership: Starea ta de spirit transcende realitatea obişnuită, putând trăi în alte dimensiuni ale convergenţei de conţinut pe care îl primeşti din spaţiul din jur?

Toate convingerile şi sentimentele pe care ţi le formezi îţi vor crea viaţa pe care o vei duce, precum şi toate circumstanţele ei, de zi cu zi. Cu cât convingerile tale sunt mai adânc înrădăcinate, cu atât scade capacitatea ta de a-ţi lărgi orizonturile şi legăturile umane.

Ai o personalitate, un suflet, un "eu" care te face unic. Poţi schimba în bine atât propria-ţi viaţă, cât şi pe a celorlalţi dacă rămâi deschis la diversitatea de puncte de vedere şi perspective. Detaşează-te de convingerile care te "trag" înapoi, detaşează-te de gândurile, de sentimentele, de valorile şi principiile nesănătoase, pentru a-ţi elibera mintea ca să vadă alternativele şi să le accepte.

Conţinutul pe care-l primeşti de la ceilalţi oameni, precum transmiterea afectivităţii totale sau amplificarea motivaţiei de a trăi cu conştiinţa că ai un scop de îndeplinit, trebuie să rezoneze cu multitudinea de decizii care se produc sub domnia arbitrariului.

Pe de altă parte, conţinutul pe care-l primeşti de la spaţiul din jur are ca referinţă materialitatea unor obiecte extrem de diverse: de la transparența cristalului, la duritatea metalului și fragilitatea pufului de păpădie. Iar una din dimensiunile acestui conţinut poate fi reprezentată de intensitatea cu care te ataşezi de un lucru şi evoluezi odată cu el.

Însă, cum preciza cineva pe internet, problema apare atunci când ajungi să te ataşezi de un lucru mai mult decât de cei pe care îi iubeşti. Sau să alergi zi şi noapte după posesiuni, în loc să te opreşti puţin şi să apreciezi cât de valoroasă şi unică este viaţa ta.

Motivaţia de a fi altcineva se întemeiază pe ceea ce primeşti de la viaţă atunci când te trezeşti mereu în mijlocul lucrurilor care te modelează.

Formula magică a unui suflet liber este dată de deschiderea ta faţă de ceilalţi oameni. Leadershipul tău este încă departe de a ajunge la acel nivel de calitate care să reflecte puternic valorile tale bune, dacă nu te adaptezi la mediul celorlalţi, dacă nu experimentezi noi idei şi opţiuni pe care le ai la dispoziţie. Ca să-ţi lărgeşti orizonturile şi legăturile umane, trebuie musai să-ţi schimbi convingerile şi să-ţi reconsideri conceptele şi valorile.

Fiecare este liber să gândească cum vrea, este independent şi în gândire şi în acţiune. Dar trebuie să fie în concordanţă cu gândirea celorlalţi, cu posibilităţile de acţiune dar şi cu legislaţia existentă la un moment dat. Izolarea în propriul univers, inacceptarea unor nou mod de gândire şi lipsa unui orizont larg, sunt defavorabile liderului. Iar a acţiona în afara legii din cauza unei rigidităţi în gândire, atrage sancţiuni aspre.

Care ar fi formula magică a unui suflet liber? Nimeni nu o poate defini cu exactitate. Cert este că liderul, ca şi ceilalţi oameni, trebuie să se străduiască să creeze ceva excelent în viaţă. Acest lucru se poate realiza numai dacă fiecare se înarmează cu o gândire sănătoasă, dacă fiecare are o deschidere către un orizont larg.

O viziune de perspectivă, o comunicare eficientă, deschisă, un mod de acţiune în limitele legale unanim acceptate sau chiar impuse, îţi vor permite să-ţi dezvolţi "rădăcinile" sporindu-ţi vigoarea şi chiar autoritatea.

Forţa de redefinire a identităţii personale

On August 27, 2014

Fă un pas uriaş spre o nouă ştiinţă, plasându-te sub influenţa forţei de redefinire a orizonturilor unei realităţi mai înalte.

Mă aflam în faţa unui drum care conducea spre o nouă ştiinţă. Datoram totul practicii alternative în domeniul cercetării fundamentelor „inteligenţei creatoare", despre care, acum, n-aş putea să afirm decât un singur lucru: cine îşi însuşeşte cu chibzuinţă această ştiinţă devine el însuşi o sferă a lucrării transformatoare a lui Dumnezeu în lume.

Totuşi, trebuie să mărturisesc că la început ştiinţa nu a fost tocmai preocuparea mea de căpătâi. Era doar un proces de căutare a ceva încă nedefinit. S-ar putea spune chiar că nu iubeam ştiinţa decât într-un anume scop. Acela de a mă detașa un pic de o lume plină de tipare făţarnice, de aşa zisa "turmă", împotrivindu-mă sentimentului de apartenenţă la un spaţiu gol, fără personalitate. Neîndoielnic, eram dominat de aceeaşi întemeiată motivaţie cu care un pictor caută plasticitatea expresiei pentru o idee pe care o doreşte exprimată.

Era un fel de povară a minţii supuse unei tensiuni crescute, cerându-se asumată, cumva eliminată, înainte ca potenţialul ei de expansiune să se deplaseze spre valori negative. O suferinţă datorită căreia m-am descoperit brusc altfel decât eram, adâncit în sânul unei entităţi care depăşea graniţele admisibilului, sub influenţa unei forţe de redefinire a identităţii personale. Tindeam să cred, cu respectul cuvenit oricărui mijlocitor al ştiinţei, că în propria-mi minte se ascundea un ocean adevărat, supus fluxului şi refluxului, agitat de furtuni periodice. Simţeam că mă prăbuşesc în valuri tulburi.

Neconvenţional, am pătruns în blocul funcţional al gândirii nelimitate, care fascina prin profunzimea ei rar întâlnită, prin complexitatea abordărilor, actualizată şi concepută în maniera în care ştiinţa era susţinută de puterea imaginaţiei. Incurabil, subiectivismul mi-a întins deseori capcane pe durata acestei riscante expansiuni a individualităţii mele, fiind tentat să încadrez fenomenul acesta nelămurit la multe categorii de manifestări ce par secundare. Precum: „abuzul de putere".

Leadership: Susţii accelerarea şi valorificarea rezultatelor ştiinţifice în direcţia unei noi conştiinţe de care se leagă variabila unei singure transformări în realitatea care ţi se relevă ca o întrebare adresată sieși?

Progresul pe care îl realizezi în zona leadershipului este proporţional cu timpul pe care îl investeşti în regândirea identităţii personale, susţinând accelerarea şi valorificarea rezultatelor ştiinţifice în direcţia unei noi conştiinţe. Este vorba de acea conştiinţă elevată a omului care îşi cercetează sinele, prin frământarea perpetuă a inteligenţei puse în slujba creaţiei, găsindu-şi unitatea înfăptuitoare doar sub haloul imaginaţiei.

Numai printr-un proces de căutare a ceva încă nedefinit, care parcă îţi umple un gol interior, poţi realiza acea ruptură de obişnuinţă în gândire care, la rândul ei, în mod particular, anulează orice încercare de a pune în spate tot ce înseamnă realism pragmatic.

O singură întrebare se cere a fi pusă fără întârziere: care este preocuparea ta de căpătâi care îţi poate fuzniza sentimentul de apartenenţă la ceva mai larg decât lumea în care te afli? Omul care tinde spre desăvârşire, liderul prezentului şi al viitorului, luând în considerare probabilitatea de a se pierde într-un absolut impersonal, va fi obligat şi la alte metode de autoevaluare - dar mai ales la o suplă acceptare a acelui „ something else ", atât de categoric refuzat de paragrafele ştiinţei.

Un rezultat ştiinţific care schimbă orizontul de înţelegere a lumii este expresia unei gândiri nelimitate, încărcată de imaginaţie cu noi sensuri de înţelegere faţă de situaţiile prin care treci, din care rezidă forţa de interpretare a răspunsului la întrebarea: până unde te poţi avânta cu o idee fără să te simţi lezat în vreun fel de regulile fixe ale unor obligaţii asumate?

Un rezultat poate fi socotit "ştiinţific" pentru că mai întâi de toate indică ce tip de fapte trebuiesc adunate pentru a efectua o constatare, apoi pentru că creionează numai cadrul în care trebuie căutată soluţia.

Leadership: Îţi exprimi ataşamentul faţă de acea zonă a căutării de sine care-ţi conferă împlinire numai în situaţia în care lupta dintre imaginar şi raţionalitate este dusă în numele unui statut de fiinţă superioară?

Un întreg ocean se va desfăşura, în măreaţa lui nemărginire, în faţa restului vieţii tale. O sumă de plusuri şi minusuri vor compensa lipsa posibilităţii de extindere a capacităţilor de producere a unei noi platforme de cunoaştere. Dar în acelaşi timp vei avea de dus o luptă aprigă dintre imaginar şi raţionalitate în gândirea modernă.

Dacă vrei să faci din ştiinţa o bază pentru dezvoltarea leadershipului, pe tot parcursul vieţii, nu te limita la a trece dincolo de gândirea unanim acceptată, ci încearcă mai întâi să-ţi exprimi ataşamentul faţă de acea zonă a căutării de sine care conferă împlinire. Încearcă să-ţi exprimi identitatea prin persistenţa constantă a modelărilor şi configurărilor în versiunile următoare ale creaţiei personale. Doar astfel vei căpăta statutul de „reformator”.

Găseşte-ţi şi întăreşte-ţi puterea identitară, căci numai ea îţi dă tăria să supravieţuieşti schimbărilor pe care le-au impus ceilalţi, sau pe care tu însuţi le impui. Această putere este are ca obiectiv principal câştigarea trofeului aflat la hotarul dintre imaginar şi real, cu deschidere către un nou mod de abordare a relaţiei între ceea ce eşti capabil să suporţi moral prin ataşamentul faţă de o nouă realitate şi ce eşti capabil să devii prin descrierea acestei realităţi încadrată în parametrii sentimentului de apartenenţă la ceva mai "înalt".

Orizontul unei realităţi mai înalte poate fi atins doar prin extinderea profunzimii în a analiza fenomenul vieţii din perspectiva unei inteligenţe care a întâlnit la timpul potrivit scoala gândirii, hrănindu-se cu un mereu "something else" din vecinătatea unei creaţii care, emoţionând incontestabil, nu lasă pe nimeni indiferent.

Statutul de fiinţă superioară poate fi câştigat prin atenţia privilegiată ce o acorzi sentimentului de apartenenţă la ceva mai larg decât lumea în care te afli.

Forţa de redefinire a identităţii personale reflectă tendinţa de a te detaşa de masa anonimilor, având capacitatea de a crea ceva unic, memorabil şi acceptat – expresie a dorinţelor de autodepăşire – înaintând printr-o gândire inovatoare spre culmi mai înalte ale progresului. Iar puterea inteligenţei creatoare se referă la atingerea acelei individualităţi create cu şi prin ştiinţa conducerii inteligente, cu impact asupra celor care te urmează în atingerea unui ţel comun.

Cel mai bun profesor în leadership este experienţa de viaţă, mult mai importantă în formarea personalităţii decât experienţa profesională.

Forţa tămăduitoare a sufletului

On Aprilie 26, 2015

Identifică noi căi de transmitere a revelaţiei pe care o posezi, impunând înţelesul pe care îl dă sufletul tău.

- Aţi crezut, într-adevăr, că m-aş putea consola? întrebă Maximilien privindu-l cu amărăciune pe conte.

- Ascultă - spuse Monte Cristo - înţelege-mi bine cuvintele, Maximilien ! Când te întreb dacă te-ai consolat, îţi vorbesc ca un om pentru care inimile omeneşti nu au taine. Hai, Maximilien, să coborâm împreună în fundul inimii tale şi să o cercetăm. Există situaţii pe care oamenii le simt din instinct, dar nu le pot discuta cu mintea.

Simţi încă nerăbdarea aprinsă a durerii care te face să sari în sus aşa cum sare leul pişcat de ţânţar? Simţi tot setea aceea mistuitoare ce nu se stinge decât în mormânt? Eşti tot în prada idealizării părerii de rău care îl azvârle pe cel viu în afara vieţii, în urmărirea morţii? Sau simţi numai nepăsarea aceea a nervilor istoviţi, plictiseala care înăbuşă raza nădejdii care ar vrea să lucească? Simţi oare pierderea memoriei, aducând neputinţa lacrimilor?

Dragă prietene, dacă asta simţi, dacă nu poţi plânge, dacă îţi crezi moartă inima amorţită, dacă nu mai ai altă putere decât în Dumnezeu, dacă nu mai ai priviri decât pentru cer, atunci, prietene, să lăsăm la o parte cuvintele prea strâmte pentru înţelesul pe care li-l dă sufletul nostru. *

Leadership: Poţi să găseşti o bună utilizare a potenţialului de control a ceea ce oamenii văd în tine, făcând apel la jocul straniu al asocierilor dintre aspectele cutremurătoare ale vieţii şi imaginile memorabile ale răbdării pusă în faţă situaţiilor aparent fără ieşire?

Procesul de maturizare şi cel de consolidare a personalităţii, implicând atuuri ale sporirii informaţiei emoţionale pentru o mai bună receptare a mesajului pe care îl transmiţi, în sensul unei intervenţii care să susţină felul tău de a fi, performanţa, obiectivele, ideile şi făptuirea lor, se poate distinge printr-o trăsătură puțin obișnuită, ieșită din comun.

Anume, controlul realităţii sprijinit pe puterea sufletului de a asimila, produce sau transmite o stare, o emoţie, un mesaj care poate fi în mod direct sau indirect îmbrăcat într-un înţeles ce stă la mijloc între nădejde, îndoială şi revelaţie.

Celebrul scriitor, Stefan Zweig, scria despre fondatoarea Christian Science, Mary Baker-Eddy: „ Ea a observat acel adevăr incontestabil că orice reprezentare imaginară a unui sentiment, deci şi a unei dureri, cuprinde în sine tendinţa de a se transforma în realitate şi că, prin urmare, o sugestie preventivă înlătură adesea teama de îmbolnăvire care este tot atât de primejdioasă ca boala însăşi. "

Înţelesul pe care îl dai sufletului tău şi pe care îl transmiţi celorlalţi, mai degrabă prin susţinerea cu umilinţă a unei revelaţii care nu are nevoie de probe pentru a realiza o nouă imagine a realităţii, face din tine un om adaptabil la viaţă, la circumstanţele ei, la contextul în care oamenii trăiesc, se dezvoltă şi se împlinesc.

Efectul de consolare te încarcă cu stări sufleteşti pe care nu bănuiai că le poţi trăi, justificând durerea pe care o simţi când crezi că cineva are ceva ce îţi aparţine, în special acea sclipire de inteligenţă, bunătate şi înţelepciune, care vin din aşezarea minţii şi a inimii în respectul pentru valorile vieţii.

Iar singura sugestie pe care o vei primi de la cineva cu adevărat experimentat în algoritmica vieţii, de la un spirit cu adevărat impunător, este aceea de a-ţi găsi un refugiu în faţa dificultăţilor şi a contradicţiilor personalităţii tale, în locul deşertăciunilor lumeşti, în locul numeroaselor aventuri trecătoare.

Leadership: Poţi să fii tu însuţi într-o lume care încearcă neîncetat să te modeleze în altceva decât eşti pregătit să accepţi ca pe un fenomen restructurare a lumii tale interioare, prin comparaţie cu interpretarea plauzibilă a realităţii pe care nu o poţi nega?

Când vrei să ajuţi un om mai întâi trebuie să-i deschizi interesul pentru înţelesurile unei revelaţii mai înalte. Revelaţia presupune o dezvăluire de sine, o dezvăluire a voinţei tale sau a unei entităţi superioare, ca iniţiativă spre o reprezentare a unor puncte de vedere alternative şi motivate vizavi de felul cum ar trebui interpretate aspectele vieţii. În beneficiul reciproc.

Dacă ai întipărită în tine putinţa de a crede în ceva superior, aplecându-ţi raţiunea asupra celei mai favorabile abordări în ce priveşte împlinirea şi forţa plină de har pe care nimic rău nu o poate pătrunde, atunci nu vei cădea pradă „idealizării părerii de rău care îl azvârle pe cel viu în afara vieţii, în urmărirea morţii”. A te lăsa influenţat de un spirit superior înseamnă să crezi într-o realitate pe care nu poate fi negată, una care oricând se poate transforma într-o forţă de dinamism interior aproape de a cutremura orice înţelegere asupra vieţii.

Leadershipul cel mai pregnant poartă amprenta acelei mentalităţi întemeiate pe recunoaşterea sprijinului „nevăzut” pe care o entitate superioară - providenţa - îl oferă în cele mai negre situaţii de viaţă. Providenţa este răspunsul pe care îl dai vieţii în situaţia când eşti condus de o înţelegere superioară asupra renunţărilor necesare în vederea obţinerii de rezultate efective şi marcante în timp.

Găsirea unei noi ordini a marilor răspunsuri ale vieţii, pe care Dumnezeu le-a pregătit dinainte ca să te contopeşti cu ele şi să le înţelegi chiar şi în lumina palidă a durerii, ca o întrezărire a unor adevăruri revelate progresiv prin supunerea raţiunii şi a conştiinţei după voinţa inimii, este necesară pentru o bună utilizare a potenţialului tău de control a ceea ce oamenii văd în tine.

Ceea ce oamenii trebuie să vadă la tine nu este "privirea îndreptată către cer" pe care o cere credinţa cea mai puternică, ci ceea ce te face să te simţi viu atunci când înţelesul pe care îl dai sufletului tău provoacă o reacţie de împingere a limitelor, de tipul: "Sunt mai mult decât ceea ce sunt".

Forţa tămăduitoare a sufletului se cucereşte prin avântul acordat virtuţii a te comporta disciplinat în mijlocul dezordinii vieţii. Dacă reuşeşti această performanţă, fapt care implică o serie de compromisuri, dar în special o doză mare de convingere în ceva bun, abia atunci vei reuşi să apropii celelalte „suflete” de o stare ce poate fi motivată de credinţa într-o entitate superioară.

Fragile

On Decembrie 09, 2017

Tăcerea este ecoul cuvântului de care trebuie să se umple sufletul nostru.

Mă găseam în imposibilitatea de a începe ori de a sfârși un dialog cu mine însumi, blocat de prezenţa unei intrigi sentimentale semi-imaginare încărcată cu prejudecăţi, de care aş fi vrut să mă satur destul de repede. Dar o atare operaţiune implică în primul rând capacitatea de a putea selecţiona un mesaj valid de tip "How fragile I am" dintr-un şir întreg de posibilităţi de abandon în faţa neantului.

Vulnerabil în faţa celor nedorite, neaşteptate şi nemeritate, eram proiectat parcă în realitatea unei singurătăţi care dezechilibrează, debilitează şi descurajează orice tentativă de a trece peste ineditul unui gen de analiză a imaginarului care cere un demers nu aleatoriu, ci stăruitor. "Something in my mind will always stay: the reason of a previous effect, as its final cause."

Acceptarea asta pasivă a unui răspuns din partea sensibilităţii mele prea complicate, durerii de a mă şti neglijat de voinţa divină, pendulării între vremelnic şi etern, între tăgadă şi credinţă, unde starea de compromis devine ceva obişnuit, s-ar fi putut traduce printr-un efort de creare a iluziei unei individualități aflate în căutarea aceluiaşi logos originar.

Lipsea doar prilejul declanşator pentru a produce în orice moment un accident, o apropiere de deşertăciunea acestei lumi, contrastând cu năzuinţele cele mai profunde ale unui rătăcitor în pustiu born beneath an angry star.

Perhaps this final act was meant to clinch a lifetime's argument. Era mai degrabă o contrapunere de monologuri, întotdeauna o cale pentru creativitate, dar nu și pentru pragmatism. O practică a cercetării cunoașterii superioare prin examinare experimentală, arta de a crea o lume din nimic, o formă de comunicare în nuce, pentru că înseamnă să găseşti răgazul şi exigenţa unei adânciri în durerea adevărurilor lăuntrice, fiind nedespărţit de stăruinţa în trăirea tragediei consecvenţei artistice.

Leadership: Tratezi cunoaşterea într-o relaţie personală şi reciprocă a celor două dominanţe: manifestarea gândurilor înţelepte și forma de exprimare artistică?

A experimenta noi forme de exprimare artistică înseamnă să dai cuvintelor forță, culoare, substanță, greutate, pe care puțini reușesc să o facă. Alege cu grijă reprezentarea pe care vrei s-o dai cuvintelor pe care le folosești în contextul fuziunii cu Dumnezeu, trăirea de reciprocitate prin care Tu şi Fiinţa transcendentă se influenţează reciproc.

Gândeam că totul din mine este reversul scrisului limpede, dovada sensibilităţii faţă de ineditul unui aparent pustiu bogat în semnificaţii, de-a pururi o flacără a vieţii. Acceptarea unei clipe de "acum" păstrând solemnitatea unui moment prin care mi se dezvăluia cunoaşterea superioară într-o cu totul altă formă decât cea care era aşteptată. Eram asemenea unui scriitor resemnat la postura de observator căruia nu-i rămâne decât cultul detaliului cotidian şi hipertrofia descrierilor.

Dar întotdeauna din ascunsul de nepătruns al minţii poate să răsară nemurirea momentului sublim, o ilustrare frapantă a mentalităţii ce îşi are replica în imaginarul literar, un avantaj al introducerii în cele ce se săvârșesc în realitatea unei întâlniri cu Dumnezeu a cărui forța de perpetuare a creaţiei, de reinventare a materiei, depășește cadrul teoretic al rândurilor de faţă. Această inteligenţă absolută crează spaţiul logic al elementelor conceptuale care nu degenerează însă în mărcile nonsensului absolut deoarece înfăptuieşte imaginaţia productivă.

Cel puţin, privind din interiorul scrisului care face din abundenţa gândurilor fugare un mod de a mă concentra asupra a ceea ce nu ştiam că ştiu, din ampla deschidere a ochiului sensibil şi a minţii analitice, mă socoteam împlinit prin aplicarea unor experienţe acumulate în subconştient ce ieşeau la iveală ca intuiţie a universalului în individual.

Leadership: Poziţia ta faţă de decizia de a fixa un reper de orientare spre o altă modalitate de stimulare mentală, aparţine unui rol de tip "instanţă de vinovăție"?

Intuiţie care stabilea în acelaşi timp structura limbajului plastic-narativ, a modalităților netradiționale de exprimare, principiile care stau la baza lui, comparativ cu limbajul verbal. Poziţia mea faţă de asumarea unui rol de tip "instanţă de vinovăţie" fiind aceea de înfăptuitor al Marii Opere care încearcă să unifice lumea cuvântului scris cu planurile şi gândirea lui Dumnezeu.

Încă mă simt vinovat, nu atât pentru ceea ce ştiu, cât pentru ceea ce mi se relevă din experienţele trăirii mistice, din înţelegerea sinelui în lumina relaţiei cu Dumnezeu, în acord cu voia Lui şi nu cu valorile lumii.

Aşadar, mă simt vinovat prin faptul că îngădui oamenilor să descopere adevărul unei credinţe pure, fiind materia ideii sau a reprezentării fanteziei în relaţie cu activitatea perceptivă. Ca și când aș fi fost închis într-un cocoon semi-întunecat care oferă protecție, dar nu hrăneşte.

Cu sârguinţă, îmi etalez capacitatea de a analiza un ansamblu complex de elemente, de relaţii sau principii, pentru a extrage asemănările şi deosebirile dintre ceea ce se vede şi ceea ce se ascunde, dintre realitatea exterioară şi imaginaţia prea activă care blochează orice iniţiativă. Sunt prea îngăduitor faţă de înţelesul pe care cuvintele tăcerii mi le contestă, mi le amestecă, mi le şterge sau mi le aruncă în cap.

Firul fragil care mă conectează cu Divinitatea are ca raţiune principală realizarea unui cât mai fidel portret al celui care reușește să deschidă o ușa spre spaţiosul careu al cunoaşterii desfăşurat între percepţie şi imaginaţie, păstrând în același timp acea tăcere care caută o întrebare, caută un răspuns, care spune, de fapt, 1.000 de lucruri.

„Tăcerea este ecoul cuvântului de care trebuie să se umple sufletul nostru.” (Sf. Ignazio di Antochia)

Fragile este starea omului care experimentează în același timp dimensiunea densă a creaţiei și limbajul tainic al înţelepciunii. Arta şi gândirea profundă. Dialogul între tine şi Dumnezeu, însemnând că El participă la dialog prin tăcere în bucurie simţitoare.

Frânturi din realitatea unei lumi neînţelese

On Decembrie 31, 2016

Prefă-te că ești orb, dar nu te lăsa niciodată hipnotizat.

Aveam tot ce îmi trebuie pentru a deveni poet, cu excepţia poeziei. O altă esenţă a realităţii poemului era iubirea, care străbătea ca un fir incandescent toate coridoarele acestui palat unde unica regulă era jocul. Unirea forţelor de diferite orientări (reacţiuni) manifestate la graniţa dintre real şi ireal, fiind aproape insesizabilă într-o zonă de responsabilitate a lucrului gândit şi bine făcut. Se filmau secvenţe disparate în care apăreau mereu alte decoruri.

Subiect: Dumnezeu nu există. Eu eram personajul principal: Nicholas Urfe. Regizorul era: Conchis, sub înfăţişarea unui Mephisto care cerea neîndurare. Spunea că-şi poate închipui cât este de greu să joci împreună cu el, căci nu avea o tehnică pe care să se bizuie în caz că nu se înţelegea cu partenerii de joc. Eu i-am răspuns că atunci când partenerii se acordau, totul mergea perfect. De fapt, nu era decât o practică ocultă, o formă de hipnotism îngăduită într-un tărâm al magiei și al personajelor costumate, în care viaţa lui devenea viaţa mea.

James Braid, care a inventat termenul de "hipnotism", susținea că focusarea atenției este esențială pentru crearea transei hipnotice. Nu aveam dreptul la nicio extravaganţă, trebuia să mă supun asprimii lui Conchis, aceea de a mă considera învins de o realitate inventată de un creator care a iscat o ordine universală într-o poetică a măştilor, uitând să instaleze în aceasta şi o balanţă a veşnicei. În mod chibzuit, mi-a fost schimbată impresia de tânăr aristocrat, plictisit, foarte obișnuit cu totul, fără ironii, cum ar fi orice englez într-o situație normală, de care tot timpul am dat dovadă.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să crezi într-un creator care consumă experienţe de joc unice cu scopul de a da realităţii nuanţa unei expresii de sine originale care pune accentul pe atingerea perfecţiunii prin intermediul personajelor menite să înfăţişeze o multiplicitate de lumi posibile?

Spectrul doctorului Moreau din opera lui Wells era, de asemenea, vizibil în fiecare umbră a lui Conchis: „ S-ar putea să mă înşel, dar eu am văzut mai multe decât dumneata din modelele Creatorului acestei lumi - căci eu i-am cercetat în felul meu legile, toată viaţa, în timp ce dumneata colecţionai fluturi. Şi, îţi spun, plăcerea sau durerea nu au nimic de a face cu raiul sau iadul."

Se vede că lumea pe care Conchis o construise înadins ca să schimbe lumea mea, punând în valoare vizibilitatea unei alte versiuni a realităţii, un fel de Ecristroterhis , sau particularitatea de a purta mască în cosmetizarea unei opere de artă, părea să fie extrasă din efortul de a revela adâncimile unei experienţe în egală măsură existenţială şi ficţională.

Şi ar mai fi ceva: o femeie blondă în dublu rol. Şi o brunetă care îşi extinde rolul printr-o formulare negativă a "uitării". Urmează la mutare nebunul, imediat după capturarea reginei, prin care Albul speră să profite de diagonala lungă. Regele negru, un soi de perfecţiune, ceva divin, mai presus decât personajele sale, stătea ascuns în dosul unei splendide şarade, ceva care căpăta sens printr-o complexă colectare a diferitelor tipuri de măşti. Toate contribuind la o atmosferă de halucinaţie, de transă în care se petreceau lucruri, intrări, ieşiri suprarealiste, în care apăreau şi dispăreau personaje, gesturi, muzici, fără ca între ele să se lege neapărat elementele unei construcţii.

Remarcabil era tactul de care era capabil Conchis. Lumea lui era o altă faţă a aceluiaşi personaj. Iar lumea celorlalţi participanţi la scenă reieşea din explorarea unui singur personaj care înfăţişa o multiplicitate de lumi posibile. Multe thread-uri şi procese în background. O lume construită din dezvăluirea unor date greu accesibile, pentru simplul fapt că nu oricine poate pătrunde până la profunzimile magiei de a exista ca martor simultan al tablei de şah şi al unui vis mult prea îndrăzneţ pentru a putea fi împlinit.

Chiar şi gambitul reginei (recuperată prin puterea de transformare a modestului pion) a fost mutarea genială a unei femei, inegalabile prin frumuseţea ei, pe care Conchis a pus-o în faţa mea ca să-mi testeze capacitatea de concentrare. Am scăpat doar prin acţiunile nebunului, prin situarea nebunului între magician şi lume, pornind invers, întotdeauna de pe diagonala unui adevăr indestructibil: "niciun personaj nu există dacă nu se regăseşte pe sine în altă lume, şi niciun personaj nu scapă metamorfozei prin care se oferă spectatorului un nou univers metafizic, rezultat din sublimarea caracterelor într-o realitate a oglinzilor duble".

Leadership: Cum gestionezi situaţiile trăite prin conștientizarea momentului de vârf al unei forţe de sens opus esenţei tale, manifestată la nivelul existenţial printr-o schimbare permanentă a decorului realităţii?

Cine oare poate găsi ultimul vers din mintea unuia căruia îi lipseşte poezia? Cine oare se poate adapta într-o lume care ascunde cheia unui poem relevat prin: „ Percepţia imaginară "? Poţi să vorbeşti o limbă care ţine o minte genială prinsă în capcana jocului de şah, sub masca unui magician care te urmărește ca o furtună nemiloasă în călătoria ta spre schimbare? Nu există putere a sufletului care să nu fie activă în acest proces.

Alexander von Humboldt, care a contribuit la formarea geografiei ca disciplină științifică, spunea: "Nimic în natura intimă a omului nu este atât de adânc, atât de fin sau atât de cuprinzător, încât să nu răzbată în tărâmul limbajului și să nu fie hrănit de acesta. "

Eleftheria este un cuvânt nobil în limba greacă. Înseamnă libertate. Conchis mi-a dat ultima lovitură: "Dacă uiţi acest cuvânt, îţi voi dărui opt vieţi. Dacă-l memorezi, vei fi prizonierul meu, pentru totdeauna."

Poezia este înţelepciunea. Cheia este libertatea. Măştile sunt explorarea vieţii. Şi magia este dragostea. Jocul este schimbarea permanentă a decorului. Vânătorul sunt eu. Şi prada eşti tu. Întrebarea este următoarea: cât timp vei putea suporta marea şaradă, înainte de a elibera din ea? Nu există decât o singură cale de a afla: Play !

În tot acest glob de cristal care funcționează ca o mașinărie nemţească, folosit doar pentru clarviziune, unde Dumnezeu nu este pe nicăieri, s-ar potrivi de minune ca revelaţie ceea ce, în final, Aldous Huxley voia să ne facă să înţelegem: că oamenii din "Minunata lume nouă" nu suferă pentru că râd în loc să mediteze, ci pentru că nu ştiu de ce râd şi de ce au încetat să mediteze.

Aplicarea măştilor, sau magia folosirii oglinzilor care deformează realitatea, este consecinţa introducerii unei ordini aparte, a unei formule de compromis în spaţiul dintre regizor şi personaj, încât să se stârnească în spectatori curiozitatea de a „scana" fiecare scenă din spectacolul unei imaginaţii exaltate şi de a o percepe ca extensie a unei noi viziuni despre viaţă, despre lume.

Frânturile din realitatea unei lumi neînţelese sunt de multe ori de neîndurat.

Leadershipul despre care nu se prea vorbește, dar care intră în compoziţia existenţială a omului care nu se mulțumește cu un rol pasiv pe scena lumii, reprezintă de fapt o prelungire a înţelegerii raţionale a motivului pentru care totul nu este aşa cum se prezintă.

Leadershipul, în marea ecuație a necunoscutelor acestei lumi, în care ideea de libertate rămâne doar o ipoteză cu șansă de realizare, o variantă a motivului haosului originar - în sensul în care întunericul poate să triumfe prin bogăţia de farse şi imagini ambigue, este lupta celor care reuşesc să înlăture obstacolele potrivnice împlinirii lor.

Iar procesul de explorare a leadershipului este similar procesului de înțelegere a lumii, definit drept „transmisie cognitivă, care poate fi însuşit prin efectul legii care spune: „Prefă-te că ești orb, dar nu te lăsa niciodată hipnotizat."

Freamătul unei minţi de artist întrupate într-un frumos corp al naturii

Arta este mijlocul creatorului de a se constitui într-o viziune pe care ochiul o numeşte "comparaţie".

Era ceva de ordin spiritual, mistic, greu de înţeles de lumea din jur, fiindcă tot ce mă înconjura intra în categoria lucrurilor accesibile doar celor curajoşi, celor capabili să facă parte dintr-o ficţiune de tipul: „Toate personajele şi faptele prezente în această operă sunt fictive, iar toți protagoniștii sunt pagini pline de recunoştinţă dintr-o istorie a tratării naturii cu respectul care i se cuvine unui Creator de frumos."

Probabil, din această cauză, eram atras în permanenţă de natură, cu o putere irezistibilă faţă de tot ce era nobil şi vrednic de admirat în plan artistic, angajându-mă într-o dezbatere tot mai cuprinzătoare despre originea unei Creaţii care îşi revendică termenul de "perfecţiune" la nivel de personaje şi roluri chemate să interpreteze subiectul florilor în mod surprinzător de diferit. Metamorfoza florilor în oameni, şi visul florilor continuat în ascensiunea unei viziuni însufleţitoare, se derula numai în capul meu, ca o lume ireală, fictivă, curgătoare, capabilă să influenţeze doar evenimentele din lumea unui artist care se priveşte pe sine ca într-o oglindă ce închide în ea spiritele naturii.

Cu faţa spre soare, închideam ochii încet, cu emoţie, cu acel zâmbet de satisfacţie dominatoare în colţul gurii care parcă ar fi vrut să denote acea dualitate a artistului adevărat, a cărui inspirație vine dintr-un spațiu numai al lui. Sau, poate că, în alt fel, sufeream de acea condiţie a artistului ce a atins vârsta senectuţii înţelepte de a mai visa la culmile pe care le oferă exprimarea prin intermediul artei, luându-şi libertatea de a visa la ceea ce se ascunde dincolo de ceea ce nu se poate pătrunde cu privirea.

Practic, mă simţeam ca într-o escapadă a artistului în mijlocul naturii, unde totul părea extras dintr-un fragment din "Pe firul de păianjen al memoriei", de Cella Serghi: "Pictura modernă pe care n-o cunoşteam, sau, din comoditate, refuzam s-o înţeleg, începea acum cu o ciudată forţă şi mă purta cu ea în alt univers, îmi impunea o altă realitate."

Leadership: Efortul de spiritualizare a unei lumi redusă la o asociere între imagini şi cuvinte tinde spre revelarea a ceea ce este esenţial în sufletul tău, ca reper a ceea ce este comun creaţiei trecute prin filtrul unei sensibilităţi rafinate?

Priveam cu alţi ochi totul din jurul meu, ca admirator al unor lumi vizionare surprinse în metamorfoze cromatice impresionante. Trandafirii, frunzele lor firave, încercam să adun parfumul lor primăvăratic într-un tot unitar extrem de rafinat și de elegant, într-un acord dintre pământ şi soare. Şi iată că trandafirul, cu frunzele lui verzi, pline de rouă, mă aude ca şi cum aş fi o parte din sufletul naturii, ca şi când aş exista prin intermediul altcuiva, un fel de reîncarnare a unui suflet dintr-o altă viaţă.

Nu-i aşa că gândurile-mi sunt echivalente cu puterea artei de a readuce la viaţă o lume sensibilă, aproape uitată de noi cei ce ne zbatem în vâltoarea oraşelor supra-aglomerate?

Privirea conduce sufletul spre măreţia naturii. De altfel, trandafirul crede că eu fac parte din marele plan al naturii, că eu sunt vocea nevăzută a naturii. De pe urma observaţiilor minuţioase am extras cu multă dibăcie o mărturie generoasă a minunilor naturii, o declaraţie de viaţă care va emoţiona o întreagă lume, prin care încerc să mă apropii de capodopera artistului, de freamătul lui interior. Poate, tocmai de aceea, cred că sunt demn numai de atenţia unui pictor care analizează cu sensibilitate fiecare element al naturii înainte de a-l personifica într-un personaj de vis, dezvăluind un mister adânc care atinge simţul de uimire şi de admiraţie în acel dans al echilibrului dintre frumuseţe şi formă.

Da, recunosc cu tărie, sunt posesorul unui univers interior tainic, o fiinţă care ştie să trăiască intens totul, înfruntând apatia generală, creatorul unui univers suspendat între vis şi realitate, considerând că totul în artă trebuie să aibă în acelaşi timp forţă explozivă şi sensibilitate, ca atunci când stai şi admiri un peisaj panoramic. Sau ca atunci când te pierzi în profunzimea cerului înstelat aşteptând, ca dintr-o clipă în alta, o stea căzătoare foarte strălucitoare să-ţi îndeplinească ultima dorinţă: de a putea simţi freamătul vieţii pe suprafaţa lucrurilor care nu se văd, care nu vor trece, mai degrabă decât asupra lucrurilor care se văd şi care sunt trecătoare.

Leadership: Întinderea şi profunzimea realităţii în care trăieşti poate să genereze un ecou pe măsură într-o lume în care totul se uneşte şi se identifică cu actul sublim al unei creaţii instantanee?

Până la urmă, chiar şi gândurile, trăirile, înfruntarea lor, simt nevoia de vopsea, de pensulă, tot ce îi este necesar artistului pentru a se putea exprima în faţa unui şevalet şi a unei pânze albe pe care natura îşi imprimă sufletul, emoţionant, sensibil, memorabil. Îţi auzi pulsul inimii atunci când simţi vibe-ul culorilor vii, energia irezistibilă a simbolurilor imprimate cu emoţie într-un moment al unui instantaneu artistic reuşit, aproape fotografic. Dai mâna cu pasiunea autentică a unui Creator de universuri, cu o finisare delicată a trăsăturilor şi expresie rafinate, pe suprafaţa lucioasă a unei pânze de cristal, parte dintr-o reprezentare a constelaţiei Tayana construită pe ritmul muzicii lui Yakuro.

Nu mă pot obişnui cu banalul, nu mă mulţumesc a fi doar un om, ci tind spre a fi un creator de mare puritate sufletească, investit cu puterea de a pătrunde în inima naturii. Nici trandafirul meu deosebit, cu frunzele lui delicate, nu se va schimba, nu se va confesa într-un ansamblu al creaţiei mult mai vast, decât dacă vom exista unul prin celălalt, eu ca un artist înconjurat întotdeauna de frumos ce descoperă zilnic o doză de trăire artistică, iar el ca expresie a unei conştiinţe creatoare singulare. Poate o să mă credeţi, poate nu, dar cu siguranţă am dreptate.

Farmecul trandafirului, el care îşi orientează mereu frunzele spre lumină, îmi dă de înţeles că un artist poate fi un creator excepţional numai dacă se exprimă mai simplu, mai liber, mai firesc, prin intermediul frumuseţilor naturii. Poate că însuşi trandafirul îşi revelează o parte din substanţa propriului suflet raportându-se la un creator deprins cu tehnica picturală de reprezentare a aparenţelor sensibile, din perspectiva revelării vieţii sale interioare care dă tonul libertăţii infinite, a interacţiunilor cu natura într-o manieră spirituală, sau poetică.

Actul sublim al unei creaţii instantanee pune preţ pe gândurile şi trăirile manifestate de un artist care pune în acorduri noi puritatea unei armonii cu sine însăși, pe care o traduce în freamătul unei emoții rar întâlnite din sfera personificării unei naturi care, neîncetat, îi cere omului să-şi strunească şi să-şi afirme instinctele, în special instinctul de metamorfozare.

Freamătul unei minţi de artist întrupate într-un frumos corp al naturii este uneori domolit în plăsmuiri literare, estetice sensibile, de pură fantezie, unde orice asemănare devine o nouă formă de uniune între Creator şi Spiritul Elevat, în tăcerea unei clipe de neuitat, stârnită de căldura unor cuvinte fremătătoare care parcă au a spune:

Nimic nu este mai de nelocuit decât acel "tu însuţi" aflat într-un loc în care eşti tot timpul binecuvântat: în mijlocul naturii.

Trandafirul, pe care deseori îl percep ca fiind cea mai bună opţiune de îmbunătăţire a imaginii mele, se impune ca un mijloc de transformare umană, spirituală, artistică, mai ales dacă iau în considerare cuvintele esteticianului român Liviu Rusu:

"Artistul, cu adevărat creator, pătrunde atât de adânc în fiinţa sa, încât dezvăluie rădăcinile existenţei însăşi şi sesizează astfel ceea ce ne leagă mai strâns de pământ. Spiritualitatea pe care o descoperă este o spiritualitate terestră, fiindcă ceea ce ne revelează nu este o lume deasupra noastră, ci un dinamism interior, care animă tainele cele mai intime ale sufletului nostru, fondul originar al speţei noastre."

Fructul din Pomul Cunoaşterii

On August 15, 2013

Creează noi punţi de legătură între leadership şi ştiinţă, astfel încât să fii stăpânul unei minţi complexe şi al unei gândiri libere.

" Îngerul Domnului îmi spusese în vis că, dacă voiam să dobândesc o ştiinţă perfectă aşa cum îmi doream, trebuie să urc în lumea Lunii, unde aş găsi, în faţa Paradisului lui Adam, Pomul Cunoaşterii. Şi imediat ce voi gusta din fructul lui, sufletul meu va fi dominat de toate adevărurile de care o făptură este capabilă. "

Am avut de nenumărate ori ocazia de a aprofunda sensul acestor cuvinte, a căror interpretare o cunoşteam cel mai bine. Bineînţeles, punctul meu de vedere era susţinut cu argumente bine fundamentate şi cumpănite. Partea aceasta importantă a visului marelui filozof Cyrano de Bergerac, ca un întăritor al sistemului imunitar al gândirii mele ştiinţifice, încheia procesul de cristalizare a materiei din care se năştea și își înălţa turnurile alchimia.

Este de necontestat că o asemenea gândire axată pe sensuri şi subsensuri ce se cer decriptate, care trebuie măsurată înainte să-şi ia locul în suma totală de procese pozitive de dezvoltare, cere o anumită superioritate în cunoaştere. Pe care eu încercam frecvent să o accesez, să o abordez şi să o promovez mai bine ca oricine. Iar dacă voiam să înnod relaţia cu ştiinţa, mai întâi trebuia să ţin cont de elementele esenţiale menţinerii constante a condiţiilor de creare şi utilizare a materiei primare a Operei.

Se impunea însă o anumită prudenţă în repartiţia materiei după regulile greutăţilor şi ale măsurilor filosofice. Sau, cum ar spune maestrul meu, se impunea o anumită măsură în ponderea ideilor filozofice versus realitatea practică. Îmi era greu să mă înţeleg astfel. Multă vreme această rutină a cugetării încifrate, căpătând conotaţii simbolice şi metaforice, a rămas nestăpânită. M-a dominat. Apoi am înţeles totul.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi valorifici experienţa de cunoaştere prin extragerea concluziilor logice din adevărurile fundamentale despre care ştii că pot fi oricând înzestrate cu un sens diferit de sensul propriu, fără să trădezi o intenţie de exteriorizare a stărilor sufleteşti?

Adevărurile care până altădată nu voiam să le cred, acele adevăruri ce puteau fi cu claritate cuprinse şi înţelese doar de mintea ştiinţifică, erau oarecum decalate în plus sau în minus, părând la primul contact cu ele greu de digerat. Între adevăruri se stabilea mereu o nouă legătură coordinativă, realizată prin întrepătrunderea evidenţelor, a concluziilor şi învăţăturilor participante la formarea şi desăvârşirea mea.

De aceea, schematic, această legătură coordinativă, care reprezenta cazul particular al unei legături covalente, se putea reprezenta simbolic prin trei flori delicate, unite printr-o săgeată, o combinație între noroc și efort. Ea pornea de la sensul donor spre cel acceptor , extinzându-se spre punctul matur de interpretare şi complexitate într-un spaţiu figurativ.

Am cules fructul din Pomul Cunoaşterii. Am turnat peste el o lingură de esenţă pură de lună, şi cinci picături de raze de soare. În compoziţia nou rezultată am adăugat zece grame praf de stele. Apoi, după circa douăzeci de minute, păstrat la rece, la o temperatură constantă pentru a asigura viabilitatea agentului care determina sporirea stabilităţii reţetei, am gustat din preparatul magic cu o savoare inepuizabilă cu care nu eram obişnuit.

Brusc, sufletul meu a început să fie dominat de toate adevărurile de care o făptură este capabilă. Am învăţat să ofer nişte perspective imaginare pe care puţini ar putea vreodată să le transforme în realitate. Dar nu trebuia să dau nimănui prilejul de a-mi citi adâncul sufletului, plăsmuit din aceeaşi materie contorsionată a întregului numit "Univers Paralel", fiindcă ar fi însemnat să fac o revelare a adevărului ascuns în spatele aparenţelor.

Leadership: Merită să fii cunoscut pentru ilustrarea privilegiată a unei gândiri care se străduieşte să dezvăluie totul a priori, să refuze orice prejudecată, să facă din conştiinţa subiectului măsura experienţei acestuia?

Te vezi nevoit să aprofundezi sensul unor noi abordări pentru a stabili noi fundamente ştiinţei tale? Simţi că ai nevoie de un întăritor pentru sistemului imunitar al gândirii tale? Încerci frecvent să accesezi, să abordezi şi să promovezi mai bine ca oricine o anumită superioritate în cunoaştere?

Ştiinţa leadershipului, la care am făcut deseori referire în articolele şi lucrările mele, are drept obiect, printre altele, înţelegerea simultană a înlănţuirilor bine închegate, în toată marea lor complexitate, dintre cauzele şi efectele generate înainte sau după introducerea unor noi modalităţi de îmbunătăţire a performanţei.

Cauzele pot asigura premisele reprezentării unei structuri avansate de control a proceselor de gândire şi acţiune, printr-o cugetare-avertisment care îl ajută pe lider să îşi clarifice poziţia în raport cu excelenţa.

În timp ce efectele pot crea premisele unei realităţi mai obiective, impunând o nouă direcţie de evoluţie şi făcând vizibilă puterea de deschidere a liderului. Efectele sunt totodată apanajul exclusiv al singurei forţe care permite reducerea sau amplificarea considerabilă a valorii liderului: ştiinţa.

Leadership: Ai ajuns la limita pe care ţi-o impune ştiinţa, sau continui să fii chiriaşul ei în cazul apropierii de o viziune mai flexibilă asupra statutului de operă tardiv descoperită?

O operă tardiv descoperită este o sumă a percepţiilor tale faţă de lumea pe care ţi-o imaginezi altfel, o mărturie semnificativă a limitelor până la care se poate conduce "deformarea" în scopul redării cât mai expresive a unei trăiri, realităţi, idei sau imagini, ce pot avea şi altă valoare decât cea directă.

Valoarea liderului stă nu atât în rezultatele concrete obţinute, cât în imaginarea unor procedee analitice, de aprofundare şi dezvoltare a ştiinţei, susţinându-şi punctele de vedere în orice circumstanţă de natură să ridice îndoieli justificate. El poate să ajungă la limita pe care i-o impune ştiinţa atunci când nu mai poate realiza cele două condiţii esenţiale ale sale: impunerea superiorităţii în zona lui de influenţă şi abordarea unei noi modalităţi de suscitare a interesului faţă de activitatea sa în rândul susţinătorilor.

Sau, el poate continua să fie “chiriaşul” ştiinţei atâta vreme cât staţionează în rutina unei cugetări nestăpânite, încordate, întru crearea unor valori superioare, unor deducţii şi raţionamente care nu pot fi cu claritate cuprinse şi înţelese decât de minţile cele mai luminate. Aprofundarea ştiinţei, noile informaţii şi cunoaşteri, aduc cu sine o serie de contradicţii şi paradoxuri care îl fac să fie şovăitor şi nehotărât.

La polul opus, procesând o cantitate mare de idei şi adevăruri izvorâte din propriile sale cunoştinţe, el va putea să se apropie de o anumită maturitate tradusă prin înţelepciunea de a lua hotărâri eficace, consolidându-şi astfel poziţia de expert.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri o convergenţă sustenabilă a elementelor utile cunoaşterii către maximul de randament profesional, fără să extragi esenţa unei imagini care se repetă?

Aşadar, în momentul în care îţi extinzi ştiinţa şi începi să capeţi o viziune mult mai largă a ceea ce ea reprezintă, este posibil ca mintea să nu mai poată cuprindă, prin partajarea resurselor de cunoştinţe, decât ceea ce ai creat de valoare, şi informaţiile necesare pentru configurarea unei noi conexiuni cu leadershipului. Dar în acelaşi timp, ştiinţa este singurul tău aliat care te poate învăţa să oferi nişte perspective imaginare pe care puţini ar putea vreodată să le transforme în realitate.

Dacă vrei să rămâi acelaşi stăpân al unei minţi complexe şi al unei gândiri libere, perfecţionându-ţi capacităţile intelectuale pe măsura unei cunoaşteri superioare, încearcă să creezi noi punţi de legătură între leadership şi ştiinţă, astfel încât să asiguri o convergenţă sustenabilă către maximul de randament profesional (principalul indicator prin care se evaluează performanţa de a te expune lumii întregi printr-o retuşare şi o îmbunătăţire a informaţiilor pe care le pui la dispoziţie).

Esenţa unei imagini care se repetă poate fi identificată cu o informaţie codată asupra caracteristicilor structurale, fenomenologice şi funcţionale ale procesului de cunoaştere realizat din mai multe niveluri de semnificaţie, acestea fiind ataşate de: asocieri între diferite puncte de vedere, substituiri metaforice, interpretări care transcend sensul imediat sau concluzii care deznoadă „firele" argumentației.

Fructul din Pomul Cunoaşterii simbolizează rodul cunoştinţelor minuţioase, a cercetărilor individuale şi colective în domeniul leadershipului, îmbinate armonios pe parcursul anilor în experienţa practică.

Frumoasa necunoscută îşi ascunde tainele sub şapte valuri

On Iunie 06, 2014

Implică-te direct în deblocarea oricăror tipare de percepţie a ştiinţei, strângând laolaltă toate acele virtuţi inalterabile de care ai nevoie pentru a elimina defectele care dăunează valorii tale.

Eisenstein începe să "tocească" metodele artei. Avea o consistenţă de studiu. Acum însă i se pare că studiul matematicilor şi al hieroglifelor japoneze fusese inutil. Puţin mai târziu avea să le înţeleagă foloasele. Nu-şi dă însă seama că însăşi metoda sa de studiu de acum este rodul anilor de învăţământ ştiinţific. Studiază cu aplicaţie teoria artei. Porneşte la muncă sistematic, inginereşte. Curând însă rămâne descumpănit. La fiece apropiere de esenţa artei, constată cum "frumoasa necunoscută îşi ascunde tainele sub şapte valuri. Un ocean de muselină".

Atacul frontal nu izbuteşte. " Se ştie că o sabie nu poate tăia o pernă de puf... Aceasta se taie numai cu ascuţişul unei lame încovoiate, de iatagan oriental... Curbura iataganului simbolizează lunga cale ocolitoare pe care trebuie să o urmezi pentru a diseca secretele ascunse sub oceanul de muselină... Nu-i nimic ! Suntem tineri. Avem timp, viitorul este al nostru ! Apoi urmează calea studiului prin creaţie. Constată chiar amuzat că în acest caz perioada de "buchisire" poate fi de utilitate imediată." *

Leadership: Cât de micşorată sau cât de mărită ar fi personalitatea ta dacă ai fi egalul unei ştiinţe superioare?

A fi egalul unei ştiinţe superioare, când susţinem că ea ne ajută să definim decupajul spaţial semnificativ pentru a ne reprezenta simbolic o imagine, un concept sau un produs determinat, înseamnă să alegi din multitudinea de modele, stiluri, tendințe, ceea ai cu adevărat nevoie ca să obţii esenţa unei dinamici a viului, esenţa unei chimii artistice care reuşeşte să transceadă timpul și alte obstacole lumești.

Un critic de artă ar putea arăta ce nedreptate s-ar comite şi cât de micşorată ar fi personalitatea unui artist care se vrea a fi egalul unei ştiinţe superioare, neacordând însă totală importanţă acelui capitol esenţial al activităţii sale de cercetare şi dezvoltare intelectuală.

Însă pentru un bun practicant al ştiinţei conducerii, direct implicat în deblocarea oricăror tipare de inovaţie şi inspiraţie realizate din timp, a nesocoti, dintr-un dispreţ principial, această producţie majoră de înţelegeri din care se pot trage foloase nemăsurate, este echivalent cu a cădea într-o stare inferioară de gândire.

Leadershipul, în posibila sa ascensiune în relaţie cu arta şi cercetarea ştiinţifică, strânge laolaltă toate secretele ascunse, toate formele de exploatare a resurselor de creaţie împletite armonios cu acele virtuţi inalterabile de care omul are nevoie pentru a elimina defectele care dăunează valorii sale. Bineînţeles, fără să murdărească sau să distrugă cadrul de susţinere al întregului compus rezultat din studiul unor procese de producţie şi reprezentare a unor forme noi de "săbii".

Arta este o cale de a te recunoaşte şi mai ales de a te asuma pe tine însuţi în postura unui creator aparte care, întrebuinţând un material numit "simbol" şi integrând o multiplicitate de interpretări reuşeşte să introducă în realitate un obiectiv calitativ nou.

În leadership, sabia este instrumentul puterii de a determina caracterul a ceea ce este convenţional şi totodată oportun pentru asigurarea unei coeziuni între “general” şi ”particular”, dintre “sistematic” şi ”nesistematic”, despicând în două “atotcuprinzătorul”. Iar aici se merită să precizăm un citat aparţinând lui Victor Hugo: “ O armă nu-i nimic prin ea însăşi, ea nu există decât prin mâna care o mânuieşte ”.

Spre deosebire de curbura iataganului care în artă simbolizează lunga cale ocolitoare pe care trebuie să o urmezi pentru a diseca secretele ascunse sub “oceanul de muselină”, sabia simbolizează în leadership, totodată, calea de ieşire din tiparele unei convenţii sociale care te uneşte cu ceilalţi aspiranţi la un statut profesional mai înalt, dar care nu au aceleaşi înclinaţii, aceeaşi dorinţă de afirmare, aceeaşi aplecare spre aprofundarea cunoaşterii şi promovării ei în societate.

Iar a nu pune preţ pe dorinţa de afirmare înseamnă să treci cu vederea unul din modurile prin care ţi se relevă geniul, în imensa lui complexitate, dar mai ales în imensa lui capacitate de customizare a background-ului ştiinţei.

Esenţa artei este să construieşti o idee plecând de la ceea ce se ascunde în spatele tentativei de a le da o interpretare nouă conformă cu adevărul.

Frumoasa necunoscută care îşi ascunde tainele sub şapte valuri este acea ştiinţă dobândită doar prin experienţa dublată de cunoştinţe solide şi practici utilizate permanent, dar mai ales de dorinţa de autodepăşire, de afirmare şi de ieşire din anonimat.

Frumuseţea nevăzută decât de ochiul care îşi contemplă taina

On Noiembrie 28, 2023

Ceea ce vezi depinde de perspectiva unei experiențe artistice complexe, formată prin prisma interacțiunii dintre sensibilitate și viziune.

Mi-a plăcut dintotdeauna marea. Atât de mult, dar atât de mult, încât mă reîntorc la ea ori de câte ori imaginea ei îmi călăuzeşte visul de a fi una cu arta, cu frumuseţea naturii, cu peisajele spectaculoase. Numaidecât, o experienţă fascinantă se poate împlini cu lucruri despre mine însumi, forme estetice pe care arta le aduce la viață, şi pe care îmi place să le observ în jur. Adevărate poezii pentru suflet.

Ştiu asta prea bine fiindcă, în cele din urmă, singurul care poate răspunde la întrebările căutărilor mele interioare, culminante expediţii în labirintului sufletului, sunt doar eu însumi, cu propriile viziuni exagerate sau subtile, înscrise pe un şevalet special, ajustabil la adâncimea mării, ca un complice tăcut în dansul valurilor active de la răsăritul până la apusul soarelui.

În simfonia monumentală a naturii, ca un partener silențios care dansează în ritmul viselor mele, acompaniindu-mi pașii pe calea artei, şevaletul acesta plin de viaţă se armonizează cu starea mea de spirit, păstrând amintiri solemne peste vise suprapuse cu întârzieri de câțiva ani peste creaţia naturii. Iar dacă continui să privesc valurile, în speranța că voi găsi un semn divin, un răspuns silenţios capabil să-mi arate calea spre o paletă de culori neexploatate, poate că voi putea să adaug strălucire unei poveşti eterne, similară unei călătorii în timp şi spaţiu.

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate să rezoneze ca un ecou cu vocea interioară pe care de multe ori o neglijezi, încât să pui în valoare fiecare element vizual care îţi îmbogățește perspectiva artistică?

Într-unul din dialogurile cu natura, am primit din partea mării, pe care o contemplu cu nesaţ ca pe-o pictură impresionistă, un fel de inspirație nemărginită transpusă într-un soi de declaraţie de adâncă preţuire:

- Și, mai presus de toate, îți modelezi cuvintele în funcţie de apropierea ta faţă de mine, nu-i așa? Pe de o parte, mă iubeşti cu adevărat pentru sclipirea pe care o împrumut soarelui, destul de mult, ceea ce se reduce practic la un singur lucru, sunt o oglindă pe cerul nesfârşit. Şi aici pot aduce ca argument toate felurile posibile de dovezi. Pe de altă parte, recunosc că ori de câte ori mă priveşti, cu nerăbdare să îmbrăţişezi linia orizontului, cu acea intensitate stelară care depăşeşte limita cunoaşterii experimentale, simt că devin mai importantă, mai tânără, parte dintr-o realitate care se revarsă pe şevaletul întins al creaţiei tale. Nu sunt doar o mare, ci destinul unei picturi care dă viaţă viziunii artistului.

Eu sunt marea, tu eşti artistul viziunii mele.

Ceva îți spune să te avânți cât mai mult în adânca viaţă subacvatică a mării, pentru a scoate la iveală ceva din tine, ceva ce crezi că este natura ta cea mai bună, sinele tău superior, prea puţin cunoscutul Athlesalyni Sethasor. Din nou şi din nou, ceva mă determină să-ţi aud cuvintele, ca o şoaptă ce merge direct la suflet. Chiar simpla mărturisire că am însemnat ceva pentru tine m-a umplut de fericire aşa mult încât cuvintele au devenit un soi de ecou magic, toate sunetele din jur sunând ca dublu, gata să traverseze generațiile de artişti care au îndrăznit să picteze cerul și marea în culori noi, mereu reinventând povestea noastră.

Nu doar atât. Să nu crezi că această mărturisire a fost simplă; nu a fost deloc simplă, fiindcă a traversat timpul şi spaţiul ca să se întoarcă în prezent, la tine, artist inegalabil. Cu toate că ar fi putut fi cea mai simplă declaraţie, frumuseţea autentică constând în cuvintele în care am reuşit să-ţi îmbrac ideile, sunt fericită pentru că o asemenea stare, fiind totuşi o inspiraţie, îmi dă puterea de a mă dărui total în momentul creaţiei tale, nereţinând-o şi netrunchiind-o prin nimic. Aștept orice altceva în afară de a fi contrazisă, de a mi se pune la îndoială convingerile. Dar trebuie să repet, această mărturisire nu a fost simplă, fiind incontestabil raţională, demnă de un glas care vibrează de inspiraţie asupra şevaletului.

Leadership: Cum poți să îți dezvălui sentimentele din perspectiva unei prezențe veșnice, în fața unui spațiu larg și cuprinzător care te stăpânește negreșit, şi pe care tu trebuie să-l stăpânești?

Marea mea dragă, atât de multe îmi dezvălui tu, mereu şi mereu. Atunci, când ai spus cuvintele acelea, ochii tăi s-au învăluit într-un mister che mette alla prova i confini tra fantasia e realtà, şi fiind mai albaştri decât însăşi întinderea ta, am putut să-mi contopesc în ei visurile și dorințele mele, să le las să se piardă în adâncurile tale misterioase, să-mi găsesc liniștea în întinderea lor nesfârșită. Cum să nu te cred? Cum să mă prefac că nu port în suflet sentimentul apropierii de o conştiinţă a eternității, o prezență veșnică care a înregistrat și păstrat intacte istoria și misterele timpului?

În această privinţă, simţind că fac parte dintr-un spaţiu mult prea întins, inima resimţind adâncul misterios al eternităţii, vreau să aduc în discuţie un fragment din cartea "Dervişul şi moartea" de Mesa Selimovic:

"Le cunoşteam, erau învăţăturile puţin schimbate ale filozofilor greci, tălmăcite în arabă de Ibn-Sina în operele sale. După aceste învăţături, omul a ajuns treptat la ceea ce este azi, adaptându-se încet, supunându-şi natura, devenind unica fiinţă înzestrată cu conştiinţă. Astfel, natura nu mai este o taină pentru el, nici întinderea din jurul lui o necunoscută, le-a cucerit şi le domină, parcurgând drumul uriaş de la abisuri până la stele.

Spaţiul, întinderea nelimitată, este temniţa mea, un colţ devorator al imaginaţiei mele. Spun asta ascultând ecoul gândurilor mele necunoscute, picurând o neașteptată ardoare în inima mea, ca și cum marea ar fi fost un martor tăcut și înțelegător al acestor sentimente. Spaţiul acesta mă stăpâneşte negreşit. Eu îl stăpânesc pe el numai atât cât ochiul îl poate cuprinde. Iar el mă oboseşte, mă sperie, mă cheamă, mă apropie de el sau mă alungă. Îmi închipuiesc că spaţiul mă vede şi de fapt lui nu-i pasă de mine, spune că-l pot cuceri, când de fapt nu fac decât să profit de nepăsarea lui."

Leadership are ca substrat memorabil următoarea convingere raţională: "Cu cât este mai bogat conţinutul inimii tale, cu atât viziunea pe care o proiectezi în creația ta devine mai profundă şi, totodată, larg cuprinzătoare."

Frumuseţea ascunsă a unei lumi ascunse, este nevăzută decât de ochiul care îşi contemplă taina. Mă refer la faptul că marea văzută de artist, indiferent cât de adâncă și enigmatică este, pentru el reprezintă un spațiu sacru de explorare. Aceasta îi oferă oportunitatea de a se pierde în lumea sa interioară și de a contempla profunzimile ascunse ale existenței umane. Este ca o fereastră către tainele universului, unde fiecare undă și fiecare nuanță devin elemente ale unei povestiri vizuale care capturează esența creativității artistice.

Funcţia artei în dezvoltarea leadershipului

Redefineşte-ţi arta de a manevra ştiinţa, punând în valoare dezvoltarea unei noi gândiri care nu prezintă decalaje între ceea ce construieşti şi ceea ce transmiţi.

Avid de cunoaştere, Eisenstein lucra intens. Începu punerea în scenă a unei piese a lui Platnev. Dorinţa frenetică de a se exprima prin imagini noi, cu mijloace noi, a dus aici la rezolvări inedite, care, toate, constituiau, în fond, un nou pas spre cinematografie. Tânărul scenograf îşi propunea să creeze o anume relaţie între om şi mediul său, explicitând singurătatea insului strivit de metropolă. Trebuia pentru aceasta exprimat dinamismul copleşitor al marelui oraş.

Lui Eisenstein îi veni o idee care-l amuză: să folosească decoruri mobile legate de oameni. Actorii se mişcă pe patine cu roţi şi-şi duc în acelaşi timp bucata de oraş. Soluţia îmbinării omului cu mediul era influenţată de cubism, de Picasso. Dar rezolvarea era cu totul inedită.

Cele patru picioare a doi bancheri purtau faţada unei burse acoperite cu două jobene, un poliţist era pur şi simplu străbătut de circulaţia de pe străzi, o parte din costume străluceau de lumini mobile în perspectivă, alte personaje aveau doar uriaşe buze vizibile deasupra lor..

Toate acestea circulau frenetic, se întretăiau, dispăreau şi reapăreau. Erau formule cinematografice, elemente de film care încercau să se adapteze îndărătnicei scene teatrale. Eisenstein folosea aici, înainte de scriptură, limbajul cinematografic al fondurilor, al înlănţuirilor, al suprapresiunii. Abia în filmul "Greva" el va valorifica conştient aceste mijloace de expresie filmică. *

Leadership: În ce scop şi în ce cantitate utilizezi părţile stabile ale mecanismului de tip "îmbinare de decoruri" ce se ascunde în arta pe care o serveşti, încât să obţii o imagine nouă a faptelor care au dus la producerea unui eveniment de mare însemnătate?

Regizorul se ocupă de formarea unei noi regiuni de dezvoltare printr-o artă redefinită, printr-un nou tip de reprezentare a variabilelor multiple de redefinire a rolului său în activitatea de individualizare a personajelor şi a situaţiilor în care ele sunt puse. Pe acest teren se înalta virtuţile şi valorile superioare ale intelectualităţii şi determinării sale. El nu poate să creeze o anume relaţie cu mediul său de dezvoltare, până la folosirea mijloacelor de expresie în construirea unor noi şi inovative proiecte ştiinţifice, fără să colecteze resurse (imagini, decoruri şi modalităţile lor de personalizare) din vecinătatea îmbinării omului cu mediul în care se află.

O îmbinare de decoruri este o reflectare nemijlocită a sentimentelor şi a gândurilor regizorului în direcţia conturării unei imagini de ansamblu menită să redea realitatea cât mai fidel cu putință, luând în considerare condiționările la care sunt supuse personajele prin natura inteligenţei de care dispun și a sufletului de care dau dovadă prin faptele lor. Totodată, o îmbinare de decoruri este procesul de creare a unui mediu de viaţă distinct, în care se pot manifesta personaje diverse ca fiind parte integrantă a personalităţii regizorului într-un controversat lanţ de evenimente.

Deci, regizorul trebuie să fie şi un bun organizator de evenimente într-un ecou al faptelor care determină o altă percepţie a lumii, a tainelor ei, a înțelegerii a ceea ce ni se întâmplă și a scopului pentru care existăm într-un fel și nu în altul. În arta pe care regizorul o serveşte se ascund nu doar inversări de roluri, efecte de scenă spectaculoase, experimente cromatice sau o abundenţă de costume, ci mai ales acea vitalitate inofensivă pe care el doreşte să o trăiască prin participarea indirectă la anumite evenimente, acea pasiune de a fi în prim planul unei lupte pe care în realitate nu o poate duce.

A obţine o imagine nouă a faptelor care duc la producerea unui eveniment de mare însemnătate înseamnă să te foloseşti de statutul pe care îl ai, acela de plăsmuitor de realităţi, pentru a-ţi exprima punctul de vedere faţă de ceea ce consideri a fi „adevărul gol-goluț" camuflat într-un lucru căruia i se poate asigna un anumit moment în timp și o locație unică în spațiu, în raport cu un sistem de referință.

Funcţia artei în dezvoltarea leadershipului este de a exprima cu ajutorul imaginii și al imaginației, într-o explorare a extra-ordinarului, nevoia de bifare a unei prezenţe ce se manifestă ca o formă de detensionare a presiunilor sociale, ca o formă de cultură dedicată elitelor.

Această funcţie se determină prin utilizarea unor etaloane mai înalte de gândire, precum: "Omul bun este nealterat moral de actele majore ale unei civilizaţii distrugătoare" sau "Niciun personaj nu este despotul căruia i se subordonează sau i se sacrifică toate celelalte".

Leadershipul este o componentă de întrebuinţare a mecanismelor de constituire a unei noi identităţi vizuale, bazată în special pe relaţia dintre decoruri şi personaje.

Funcţia Backtracking

On Iunie 15, 2016

Fii deschis către unitatea dintre munca de creație și viziune, raportându-te la parametrii imaginii de sine daţi de tendinţele de asimilare a experienţei de acomodare la o situaţie cu totul nouă.

O adevărată revelaţie are loc atunci când măcar o plăsmuire a imaginaţiei devine realitate, când ea se dezlănţuie atât de furtunos, plină de toate avantajele pe care "operatorul" raţional ţi le poate oferi, în geometria unor macro-reguli cum ar fi selecţia, abstracţia şi alte operaţiuni care reduc complexitatea unei opere singulare, dorind-o fabuloasă, la o singură idee ce va domina tot restul lumii. O idee ce are ca punct de început imperativul: "Intră într-o zonă şi rămâi acolo ! "

Spre bucuria mea de acum, am evitat această zonă, simţind supremul dispreţ pentru o autentică imagine a desăvârşirii, dispreţul omului care insistă mereu asupra a ceea ce trebuie să înfăptuiască peste limitele sale, prin experienţa de a se desprinde de el însuşi şi de a se ridica deasupra lui pentru a se unifica sub puterea unei idei colosale. Nu ştiu de ce, dar am fost dintotdeauna atras de fenomene inexplicabile, mistere care se caută cu disperare să fie rezolvate, lucruri noi pe care puţini le-ar putea înţelege, încercând să le adopt regulile ca pe un fel de joc al minţii, răsfățându-mă cu beneficiile oferite un sistem unic, strict riguros, plin de reguli şi proceduri, care contrabalansa perfect revelațiile fricilor mele.

Un asemenea om, singular în ecuaţia superiorităţii, devine un număr complex raportat la elementele unui câmp de luptă unde se războiesc tendinţele sănătoase cu cele nesănătoase. Mă întreb ce se întâmplă dacă ideea şi imaginea ei desenată în timp s-ar manifestă într-un sistem perfect articulat ce cuprinde natura unei anumite situaţii din care se poate întâmpla să nu existe ieşire?

Probabil aş fi pus în aceeași situaţie în care se afla Luigi Galvani care a observat la un moment dat un fenomen curios pe care, la început, nu a putut să-l explice, dar a cărui studiere a dus, în cele din urmă, la descoperirea electricității celulelor vii. Iată în ce constă acest fenomen, aşa cum îl prezintă scriitorul Emil Bittman: Galvani suspendase cu ajutorul unor cârlige de cupru câteva labe de broască de balustrada de fier a balconului casei sale din Bologna. La fiecare adiere mai puternică a vântului ce sufla deasupra oraşului, extremitatea labelor de broască se atingea de balustrada balconului şi la fiecare contact cu fierul mușchii labelor se contractau.

Un om care este posedat de o idee dă întotdeauna întâietate relației cu natura din care numai el poate să tragă foloase, incluzând o apropiere de cele mai bune practici numai dintr-o curiozitate a cunoaşterii.

Leadership: Te lansezi într-o încercare de a explica lucrurile diferite din perspectiva a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, dar cu cât crezi că înţelegi mai mult, cu atât pare să fii mai departe de ceea ce crezi ştii?

Am reuşit să-mi biruiesc lăuntrul strigării patimilor trecând prin chinurile unei uriaşe tentative de exprimare a unui real greu de atins, ce forma un determinant cu valoare particularizant-cantitativă, în stare să producă acurateţe în valorosul meu har de a zămisli opere gândite în formă sinceră. Un determinant justificat de ordinul capacităţii imaginative, din care răzbătea o nouă perspectivă de interpretare a adevărurilor universale.

Aşa se explică de ce aveam atât de multă consideraţie pentru felul în care îmi însuşisem învăţăturile şi îndrumările ştiinţei, funcţionând peste limitele normalului acceptat, precum vechii alchimişti, între diferenţe de gândire şi puncte de extrem, fiindcă ştiam bine că nimeni nu va putea să mă descoase.

Într-un final, am reuşit să-mi stăpânesc setea de cunoaştere superioară, elaborată cu mijloacele cele mai de seamă ale raţiunii, departe de lume, odată cu întâmpinarea celor mai tulburătoare dificultăţi ale învăţării și dezvoltării celor ascunse. Eram pătruns de sentimentul unei recâştigări definitive a valorilor mele vitale, precum echilibrul şi discreţia, cele două expresii ale puterii mele interioare cărora merita să le acord întâietate, formând un fel de tulpină a personalităţii.

Leadership: Optezi să te situezi între diferenţele de a fi tu însuți negativ şi tu însuți pozitiv, încât să formezi un nou concept "all in one"?

Îţi plac jocurile? Nova este un Terran Ghost care trebuia să apară în shooter-ul anulat StarCraft: Ghost. În schimb, Nova Covert Ops, the first mission pack for StarCraft 2 , nu incorporează elemente din Ghost. Chris Sigaty, producător principal pentru StarCraft 2, a spus că această expansiune "se va concentra pe o poveste mult mai... intimă și mai sumbră. Ne-am concentrat atât de mult pe conflictul galactic și pe povestea galactică. Am vrea să explorăm ceva mult mai apropiat de noi". *

Una din piedicile care te împiedică să fructifici roadele leadershipului vizează încercarea de a explora ceva apropiat de tine, concentrându-te pe expansiunea unei realităţi, a unei existenţe al cărei principal punct de reper nu încorporează elementele care alcătuiesc esenţa cea mai înaltă a fiinţei tale.

Leadershipul, deschis către unitatea dintre munca de creație și viziune, unde perspectiva de transformare pozitivă este întemeiată pe liantul dintre echilibru și discreţie, trebuie să se reflecte nu din ipostaza de prizonier al lumii proprii, ci din perspectiva unui om care se redescoperă prin focul îndoielilor, căutărilor și observaţiilor care duc spre tămăduirea oricăror patimi.

Felul cum te raportezi la ipostazele în care experimentezi spaţiul privilegiat al creaţiei oglindeşte modul în care îţi asumi datoria mărturisitoare de a înfăţişa o realitate dezolantă care provoacă o alta superioară.

Cum te percepi între ipostaza de creator care există prin Sine, care are toate perfecțiunile, care e absolut, şi cea de descoperitor care nu-şi recunoaşte greşelile decât în momentul când ele se prefac într-o binecuvântare? Eşti o valoare unică de referinţă pentru ceea ce ar trebui să poată compensa orice greşeală şi orice abatere de la calea prin care încerci să atingi un obiectiv?

Felul în care îţi însuşeşti învăţăturile şi îndrumările ştiinţei, raportate la căutarea unei forme de înțelegere a unei experiențe din unghiul distanţării de tendinţa de dominare a lumii, prin ideea de a intra într-o zonă și de a rămâne acolo, depinde foarte mult de disponibilitatea de a trăi între diferenţe de gândire şi puncte de extrem, știind că nimeni nu va putea să te descoase.

Dacă optezi să te situezi între diferenţele de a fi tu însuți negativ şi tu însuți pozitiv, încât să formezi un nou concept "all in one" ce-și propune să dezvolte calitatea accesului tău la o versiune nouă a personalităţii, vei putea să promovezi un caracter, o imagine şi un raţionament ce porneşte de la recunoaşterea unei alterităţi rezultate din profunda precaritate a cunoașterii foarte avansate.

Asta face din tine un lider care ştie să îşi gestioneze stările și știe să conducă sub presiunea propriilor slăbiciuni, sub presiunea propriilor obsesii (ezoterice), sub presiunea propriilor sale erorilor de decizie, raportate la elementele unui câmp de luptă unde se războiesc tendinţele sănătoase cu cele nesănătoase.

A intra într-o zonă de non-rezistenţă și a rămâne acolo înseamnă să părăseşti vechile credinţe care în timp s-au dovedit a fi falimentare, pentru o altfel de credinţă care arde doar în inima ta ca o confirmare curiozității celui care are siguranța că se mai pot spune multe lucruri despre o problematică propusă.

Funcţia Backtracking vizează căutarea acelui raţionament ce porneşte de la recunoaşterea unei alterităţi rezultate din profunda precaritate a cunoașterii foarte avansate, făcând posibilă „livrarea" unor alte caracteristici personale: puterea de a-ţi depăşi obişnuinţele sau puterea de a-ţi înfrâna tentaţiile cele mai mari. Precum tentaţia de a te avânta, prin sporirea continuă a cunoaşterii, înspre nemăsurat.

Fundalul viu al tabloului

On Martie 30, 2010

Încadrează-te într-un fundal adecvat, astfel încât să dai valoare înţelegerii pe care ţi-o acorzi în mod particular.

Când l-am reîntâlnit pe marele artist, cu puţină vreme în urmă, mi-am dat seama că, deşi era foarte în vârstă, mai avea încă o inimă tânără, plină de veselie. Picta, cuprins parcă de un sentiment nemaipomenit, portretul unui om simplu. Părea mai mulţumit de el însuşi, mai odihnit, mai poetic aş putea spune.

Îl vedeam cât e de dedicat încă muncii lui, atins de o anumită stare de euforie, plin de imaginaţie până la cele mai mici detalii, plin de căldură sufletească. Evidenţa mă sileşte să recunosc că exista în el mai mult decât talentul înnăscut, ci o dragoste neasemuită pentru pictură şi frumos. Era un original care nu îşi crea operele ca ceilalţi artişti.

Neputând rezista simţului estetic, înnăscut în el, care căuta să fie satisfăcut în totalitate de calitatea muncii sale, şi-a făurit o artă proprie, un stil personal, propriu viziunii sale, mai expresiv, mai variat, mai compact, mai emoţionant decât a multora. E atât de desăvârşit, încât şi acum, cei care-i privesc tablourile au tendinţa de a sta să le admire îndelung.

I-am adresat, la un moment dat, o întrebare numai cu titlul de curiozitate:

- Ce anume face ca o pictură să fie valoroasă?

Leadership: Privilegiul de a compune subiectul unui tablou care transmite o emoţie aprinsă are ca esenţă înţelegerea a cine eşti cu adevărat într-o realitate care se substituie propriei aprecieri?

Maestrul a aşteptat puţin, şi-a ridicat privirea spre mine şi mi-a spus cu un oarecare zâmbet pe buze:

- Pentru ca o pictură să fie valoroasă, ea trebuie să dea aparenţa realităţii şi, numaidecât, să transmită un anumit mesaj prin intermediul subiectului principal. Asta este de fapt chestiunea cea mai importantă: pentru ca un tablou să fie bine realizat şi apreciat de criticii de artă, pictorul trebuie să scoată în relief subiectul principal. În ansamblu, tabloul trebuie să impresioneze privitorul.

Apoi, după o scurtă pauză, continuă:

- După cum bine vezi, Nicu, subiectul meu este acest om simplu, cu defecte şi calităţi, ce duce o viaţă normală. Dar ca să pot să-l scot în evidenţă a trebuit să decorez şi fundalul tabloului, curtea cu flori, cerul senin, razele soarelui, şi să creez un contrast de culoare între subiect şi fundal. N-aş fi avut cum să scot în relief subiectul principal, daca nu l-aş fi încadrat într-un fundal adecvat.< ! DOCTYPE HTML PUBLIC "-//W3C//DTD HTML 4.0 Transitional//EN"> Astfel, simt că fac parte dintr-o realitate care este mult mai mult decât mă aşteptam.

Leadership: Poţi să modifici dimensiunea propriei identităţi unificând idealul şi experimentalul într-o coerenţă vizionară nouă?

Edgar Allan Poe scria la un moment dat: "Imaginaţia pură alege de la frumuseţe sau de la deformaţie numai elementele ce se pot combina perfect, până atunci necombinate. Rezultatul, ca regulă generală, e compus din frumos sau sublim, în măsura în care frumosul şi sublimul fac parte din elemente combinate."

Pentru ca leadershipul să prindă un contur bine definit, real şi accesibil unei largi "audienţe", trebuie să creezi mai întâi condiţiile necesare unei analize obiective şi atotcuprinzătoare a formei de manifestare a genialităţii, prin încercarea de ajunge la înălţimea perfecţiunii. Prin reflectarea într-un mod veridic a părţilor tale "luminoase", îmbinându-le într-un tot unitar care să formeze "sublimul".

În tabloul modernist al leadershipului, în acest univers plin de culoare a cărui elemente, frumosul şi sublimul, odată puse în evidenţă pot crea premizele încadrării într-un stil anume, se găseşte o doză serioasă de subiectivitate şi exagerare. Acestea pot unifica idealul şi experimentalul într-o coerenţă vizionară nouă, făcând mai credibil subiectul principal: omul, sau mai exact, prezenţa unei atitudini intelectuale tot mai estompate în peisajul plin de contraste al vieţii.

Gândeşte-te la faptul că poţi aborda cu deplin calm exagerările sau erorile comise de tine însuţi în focul creaţiei, dar nu oricine poate să-ţi ducă mai departe viziunile despre viaţă.

Leadership: Fără un fundal adecvat n-ai cum să fii subiectul principal al „tabloului" !

Iată un lucru important: ca să devii un lider de succes, trebuie mai întâi să te încadrezi într-un „fundal" adecvat. Fundalul, care reflectă puternic transformările prin care treci, profesionalismul de care dai dovadă, calităţile pe care le deţii, este reprezentat de organizaţia din care faci parte, de oamenii pe care îi conduci, şi îşi poate modifica în timp poziţia şi forma, în funcţie de practicile pe care le promovezi.

Dacă în fundal n-ai pe nimeni sau nimic, nu vei putea să străluceşti, nu vei putea sa ieşi în evidenţă ca un veritabil lider. Mai mult, dacă nimeni nu te urmează, atunci înseamnă că eşti doar un personaj din fundal şi altcineva este subiectul principal, nu tu.

Un lider fără organizaţie şi fără oameni nu există. Dacă eşti limitat de incapacitatea ta de a interacţiona cu ceilalţi, sau dacă încerci să faci totul de unul singur, atunci, hotărât lucru, leadershipul tău nu are valoare. Cum poţi să fii mai presus decât alţii, dacă nu eşti înconjurat de nimeni? Cum să urci pe scara ierarhica în carieră, astfel încât să poţi obţine o poziţie mai înaltă, dacă nu-i câştigi pe oameni de partea ta şi nu-i convingi să te urmeze? Fără un fundal adecvat, n-ai cum să fii subiectul principal al „tabloului".

Aşadar, ca să te faci remarcat şi ca să ajungi în vârf, formează-ţi o echipă şi concentrează-te asupra a ceea ce puteţi realiza împreună. Totuşi, fă orice este nevoie pentru a deveni mai bun, pentru a fi mai presus ca ceilalţi prin efectele pe care le produci asupra lor, prin intensitatea cu care le influenţezi vieţile, prezentul şi viitorul.

Fiecare artist trăieşte într-o "realitate" pe care o penetrează cu subiectivismul său, fără să uite niciodată că frumuseţea tabloului depinde de admiraţia pe care şi-o acordă instinctiv lui însuşi.

Fundalul tabloului este ceea ce te reprezintă într-un spaţiu privilegiat de expunere a înţelegerii despre tine însuţi. Nu poţi fi lider dacă nu ai pe cine conduce şi pe cine îndruma, sau dacă nu eşti recunoscut ca atare. Iar dacă nu ştii instinctiv să te amplasezi într-un „fundal adecvat”, îţi vei pierde din valoare.

Fundamentele arhitecturii devenirii

On Ianuarie 03, 2014

Dezvoltă-ţi conştiinţa de a te situa deasupra celorlalţi, proiectându-te deasupra a ceea ce crezi că eşti.

Orice copil cuminte, remarca paradoxal Eisenstein, strică obiectele, desface burţile păpuşilor sau demontează ceasurile pentru a vedea ce se află înăuntrul lor. Spre deosebire de copiii aceştia "buni", eu am fost un copil rău, tocmai pentru că nu am făcut nimic din toate acestea. Probabil tocmai pentru această cauză a trebuit să devin regizor.

Şi asta deoarece aşa numiţii copii cuminţi îşi epuizează în perioada aceea neastâmpărul curiozităţii, cruzimea primitivă şi afirmarea agresivă. Neconsumate atunci, aceste tendinţe izbucnesc mai târziu. În locul ceasului demontat apare pasiunea pentru cercetarea mecanismului creaţiei, stricarea obiectelor este înlocuită cu ireverenţe pentru autoritate. *

Leadership: Îndeplineşti condiţiile formării unei noi autorităţi intelectuale prin accelerarea expansiunii conştiinţei, fixând locul unei "vederi mai presus de vedere" pe scara unei realităţi mai cuprinzătoare decât o poţi percepe la o primă impresie?

Leadershipul poate fi asociat cu un mod de a te delimita de lumea îngustă a celor fără merite însemnate, printr-o nouă intensificare a conştiinţei de sine, încurajatoare, proiectată asupra circumstanţelor de declanşare a necesităţii de a-ţi depăşi inerţia existenţială şi intelectuală. Conştiinţa este măsura adevărului pe care îl recunoşti despre tine însuţi în comparaţie cu evaluările şi performanţele celorlalţi pe scara unei ierarhii de respectabilitate construită pe merite, pe scara unei cariere de o rară disponibilitate, de unde transpare autenticitatea şi devenirea personală în sistemul de valori al comunităţii.

O simplă folosire îngrijită a cunoaşterii nu dovedeşte că ai evitat acea periclitare a esenţei naturii tale, a fiinţei tale autentice, fiindcă oricât de studios ai fi, oricât de creativ te prezinţi în faţa lumii până la un moment dat, este foarte posibil să nu reuşeşti depăşeşti pragul "autosuficienţei". Identitatea pe care o vei aborda, ca produs al interacţiunii cu raţionamentul care râvneşte să aducă lumină tot ceea ce este prezentat fals de alţii, prin distincţia dintre modelele de inovare care îţi avantajează cel mai mult calităţile de lider, este în fond o căutare de sine perpetuă care începe cu acapararea cunoştinţelor şi transformarea lor într-un produs de creaţie.

O vedere mai presus de prima vedere are ca şi considerent de bază un fel de înţelegere intuitivă a schimbărilor manifestate la nivel macro-existenţial. Un om cu adevărat de valoare se distinge prin capacitatea de a vedea prin acţiunile umane şi a descoperi motive şi înţelesuri ascunse ale unui parcurs care ar putea profita de caracteristicile sale esenţiale ale unui început modest de carieră.

Meritul de a triumfa în orice domeniu se datorează iscusinţei de a răbda acea "pauză" care există între tendinţa de a nu acorda atenţie motivelor de a fi în rândul celorlalţi oameni şi oportunitatea de a-ţi descoperi talentul într-un moment care te ia pe nepregătite.

Nu poţi deschide nicio fereastră spre un nou orizont, introducând în timpul căutării unei noi identităţi ideea de materializare a gândurilor proeminente, dacă curiozitatea ta nu atinge nivelul de alertă.

Vei putea să-ţi regăseşti direcţia de mers şi de dezvoltare numai în funcţie de gradul de înţelegere a ceea eşti tu cu adevărat, încă de la primii paşi spre performanţă. Dar mai ales în funcţie de ceea ce reprezintă produsul interiorităţii, care iradiază tot ceea ce eşti în adevărul tău cel mai profund. Produsul interiorităţii este un cumul de factori pozitivi cu efecte de durată asupra restabilirii echilibrului mental şi emoţional care îţi permite să înaintezi în viaţă.

Parametrii care îţi fixează sau îţi definesc identitatea, esenţiali în proiectarea unor forme şi structuri constructive de afirmare, sunt într-o permanentă evoluţie şi transformare, indirect determinaţi de acel tablou personal al realizărilor care se pune în joc în momentul în care sunt întrunite o serie de condiţii. Prima condiţie este recunoaşterea urgenţei de a te pune la punct în ceea ce priveşte înţelegerea temeliei ştiinţifice pe care să te sprijini în călătoria spre excelenţă. A doua condiţie este să te fereşti de efectul gândirii negative, de tipul „Ce este stricat nu se poate repara”.

A-ţi dezvolta conştiinţa de a te situa deasupra celorlalţi, privind relaţia de utilitate între ceea ce alegi să devii şi ceea ce ai devenit prin luarea deciziilor care influenţează traseul existenţial, înseamnă să crezi în esenţa ta adevărată şi, contopindu-te cu ea, să-ţi pui în valoare calităţile şi cunoştinţele în domeniul tău de interes.

Leadershipul este meritul pe care îl atribui în mod semnificativ unui proces de evoluţie care începe cu ceea ce nu-ţi place şi se finalizează cu ceea ce numim "iluminare".

Fundamentele arhitecturii devenirii sunt elementele de referinţă care contribuie la felul tău de a fi, printr-o diferenţiere a constructivităţii şi ingeniozităţii puse în sprijinul deciziei de a schimba regulile de determinare a valorii personale care nu funcţionează. Pentru a-ţi găsi adevărata menire în lume, mai întâi filtrează practica ta de viaţă prin dezvoltarea tuturor trăsăturilor sau caracteristicilor, constante în timp, răspunzătoare de patternurile înrădăcinate în propriul potenţial.

Aceste fundamente sunt: dezinteresul arătat faţă de normalitate şi măreţia de a străluci într-o combinaţie specială de intuiţie şi inteligenţă.

Fundamentul Leadershipului

On Aprilie 04, 2019

Fă-ţi timp să discerni asupra realităţii şi asupra propriilor gânduri, pentru a-ţi creşte nivelul de autoacceptare şi motivaţie.

Mă uit şi acum la fotografia ta ori de câte ori sunt singură. Spune-mi, cărei realităţi sau ficţiuni dinăuntrul tău, cărei imagini din adâncul meu răspunde chipul acesta suav numai vis şi simţire, numai emoţie, interiorizare şi patos? Şi desigur că aşa mă vedea Camil uneori. Cred că acest curent continuu se numeşte gândire.

Mă gândesc la prezent ca şi când aş trăi în trecut, cu acea durere care mă face să uit cu totul realitatea vârstei pe care am reuşit la un moment dat să o combat prin universul viselor, concentrându-mă asupra aspiraţiilor de autosatisfacere care deveniseră criteriul suprem al existenţei mele. Odată trecută, clipa nu mai are cale de întoarcere. M-am înşelat. Mă simt în continuare captivă într-un roman de Andre Maurois, el scriind parcă despre mine: "Ah, nu doream decât să mă pot izola pentru a citi, a scrie. Să trăiesc o viaţă de scriitor, pe care s-o pot popula cu personajele imaginaţiei mele."

Dar eu pe atunci nu înţelegeam nimic din viaţa unui scriitor, mai ales când e disperat că nu se poate izola, exasperat că nu se poate consacra filosofiei.

Scriitorii îşi iubesc libertatea, îşi iubesc meseria. Poate că au nevoie de mai multe iubiri, de mai multe modele...ceea ce pare a fi sursa celor mai cumplite disperări. Eu sunt tristă întotdeauna, dar nu se vede decât uneori, captivă într-o viaţă de condamnat. Da, vreau să scriu o carte. Una singură. Despre mine. Şi poate despre fericire. Despre oameni care vor să fie fericiţi. N-am descoperit de ce. Dar sper că scriind am să înţeleg şi poate că am să mă înţeleg mai bine pe mine. *****

Leadership: Poţi să-ți dovedeşti apartenenţa la o creaţie dobândită pe parcursul propriilor experienţe de viaţă, în corespondenţă cu reprezentarea unei imagini formate anterior despre cum să fii mai aproape de ceea ce contează cu adevărat pentru tine?

Decizia de a scrie este primul pas spre cunoaşterea de sine, fiindcă tot ceea ce povesteşti despre tine capătă conturul unei creaţii bazată pe o bogată experienţă, nemijlocită şi verificată îndelung. Este un proces de a reflecta la experienţele tale, spunându-ţi: „Acesta este modul în care mă văd chiar şi atunci când nu sunt de acord cu tot ce am trăit".

Apartenenţa la un act de creaţie, cum este scrisul, adânceşte relaţia dintre ceea ce ţi se întâmplă şi felul cum interpretezi fiecare aspect al fiinţei tale. Prima realitate a cunoaşterii de sine, în accepţiunea unei particularităţi de conţinut care rezidă din producerea unor stări de linişte emoţională, devine pentru o ființă excepţională un concept adaptabil de reinventare personală.

Înseamnă că ești captiv într-un spaţiu al acumulărilor de întrebări și incertitudini, într-un prezent nedefinit de percepţii, dar reuşeşti să dai un înţeles spiritual convingerilor care te-au condus spre suferinţă, spre nelinişte, spre incertitudine. Aici leadershipul, pentru care emoţiile nu trebuiesc eliminate deoarece contribuie la orientarea şi dirijarea comportamentului, capăta o valenţă de autocontrol, o sursă a puterii de a-ţi stăpâni impulsurile distructive şi adaptarea la o situaţie în schimbare.

Prin scris se manifestă speranţa unei destinderi mentale, un accept a tot ceea ce înseamnă viaţa din perspectiva unei lucidităţi care nu mai poate admite derapajul emoţional. Ceea ce scrii despre ceea ce simţi este imaginea unei lumi care se schimbă în jur, chiar dacă nu întotdeauna iei parte în mod drect la evenimentele ei. Iar capacitatea de a te perfecţiona continuu se înrudeşte cu această formă de cunoaştere rezultată din reprezentări contradictorii ale posibilului şi imposibilului de suportat, care alternează între ceea ce te izolează şi ceea ce te inspiră.

A te concentra asupra unei imagini formate anterior despre cum să fii mai aproape de ceea ce contează cu adevărat pentru tine înseamnă să urmăreşti o viziune de ansamblu asupra celor mai importante arii din viaţa ta care te-au determinat să fii autentic.

Oamenii care au atins cele mai înalte trepte ale desăvârşirii știu că rodul unei iluminări se poate produce cel mai adesea prin meditaţie. Sau prin actul creator care are loc în această stare de conştientizare îndreptată spre interior, când te supui unei realităţi diferite (un fel de proces de înţelegere a emoţiilor care te copleşesc), susținute doar de relații între informații și amănunte complet diferite.

Dimitrie Alexandru Sturdza, prim-ministrul României între anii 1895 -1909, a spus la un moment dat un lucru deosebit de important: "Omul trebuie să se simtă necontenit trăind în mijlocul timpului în care îşi exercită acţiunea sa, discernând posibilul de imposibil, realizabilul de ceea ce nu e realizabil pentru momentul în care el trăieşte."

Dar oare acest moment, în mijlocul cărei realităţi se încadrează cel mai bine pentru a putea reprezenta un adevărat punct de cotitură? Într-o realitate trăită efectiv sau într-o realitate închipuită? Căci atât prima, cât și cealaltă, sunt folosite de marii înţelepţi pentru a stoca preferinţele vizavi de particularităţile lor lăuntrice, vizavi de ceea ce este adevărat sau fals, vizavi de ceea ce este intangibil, vizavi de ceea ce ei pot să realizeze sau să arate lumii înconjurătoare.

Apariția unei aprecieri de sine înalte se produce atunci când te identifici cu imaginea unei creaţii care ia forma unei revelaţii despre viaţă pusă pe seama evenimentelor încărcate cu mult mai multă emoţie decât eşti în stare să exprimi în cuvinte.

Dacă presari în ceea încerci să reprezinţi câteva grame de incertitudine, s-ar putea face presupunerea că, indiferent de ceea ce conţine momentul prezent, poţi da naştere unor noi revelaţii despre tine. Vei putea să găsești noi perspective și semnificaţii ale vieţii, o nouă ordine, o nouă formulare de început, mai potrivită şi mai benefică pentru evoluţia ta dacă depăşeşti limita cunoașterii imediate, învăţând să te priveşti din absenţa a ceea ce ești.

Absenţa este o trecere spre un alt nivel de constiinţă, spre un alt nivel de înțelegere și percepție a complexității dimensiunii personale. Atât în realitatea vie, cât şi în realitatea închipuită se poate realiza oricând o căutare care să returneze noi puncte de reper pentru dezvoltarea personală, şi noi perspective asupra lumii.

Leadershipul este produsul capacităţii tale de a vedea realitatea aşa cum o revelează gândirea special croită sa te îndrume în acţiunile care uneori ţi se par neimportante, dar care sunt încărcate cu multă mândrie, cu multă demnitate şi cu multă căldură sufletească.

Acesta este fundamentul leadershipului: să înveţi să te înţelegi mai bine din prisma a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, prin ocheanul amintirii, al conştiinţei, al bucuriei sau al neliniştii existenţiale, pentru că totdeauna te vei ţine legat de acea realitate a existenţei interioare pe care nu o poţi nega, nu o poţi evita, şi pe care ai obligaţia să o suporţi prin acceptarea anumitor compromisuri.

Singura motivaţie care te face să mergi mai departe cu fruntea sus după ce ai experimentat suişurile şi coborâşurile vieţii este să îi înveţi pe alţii cum să privească firul vieţii din altă perspectivă.

Fundamentul unei orientări de viitor

On Martie 04, 2012

Natura este cu mult înaintea omului, iar noi trebuie să pricepem că înţelegerea ei necesită un anumit efort de conştientizare a poziţiei noastre faţă de ceea ce ar putea fi denumit "reperul unei noi direcţii de evoluţie".

Într-o zi au fost capturaţi 18 albatroşi într-o insulă pierdută în imensitatea Pacificului, Midway. Duşi în diferite locuri, cel mai apropiat loc de Midway se afla la 2.000 km, cel mai depărtat la 7.000 km, li s-au dat drumul. Toţi au ajuns acasă în numai câteva zile, cel lăsat în punctul cel mai îndepărtat parcurgând distanţa cu o medie de 510 km pe zi. O performanţă pe care o obţine de altfel,în fiecare an, în condiţii normale. Albatroşii se plimbă în largul Pacificului toată iarna şi revin apoi pe aceeaşi insulă, în acelaşi loc, unde îşi construiesc cuibul, la mai puţin de un metru şi jumătate de cel vechi.

Cum se orientează? Experienţele făcute şi păsările capturate în diferite insule din Pacific sau Atlantic au înlăturat una dintre ipotezele conform căreia reperele de pe sol aveau un rol esenţial. În anii 1960 a fost adoptată ca mulţumitoare aşa numita teorie astronomică. După unii autori, elementul major era arcul solar, traiectoria aparentă a soarelui. Nu erau oare sistemele de orientare ale păsărilor mai precise şi mai fine decât cele mai izbutite dispozitive electronice? *

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi alegi o orientare bună spre cercetarea şi cunoaşterea naturii, şi să fii sincer în această orientare atunci când faci din cunoaşterea ta o treaptă a desăvârşirii spirituale?

Când vorbim despre evoluţie ne referim la reperul unei noi poziţionări în cadrul sferei de cunoaştere a omului, încât el să producă o nouă versiune a viziunii privind nu doar valoarea personalităţii sale, ci mai degrabă valoarea experienţei cunoaşterii lumii.

De fapt, poziţionarea omului în faţa procesului de observaţie a fenomenelor particulare ale lumii, pune în prim plan versiunea personalităţii evolutive în cadrul unei orientării care are ca fundament un alt reper, anume capacitatea lui de a acţiona în sensul adaptării la schimbările relaţiei cu lumea şi cu universul prilejuite de personalizarea procesului de creaţie. Mai bine spus, este vorba despre poziţionarea omului în faţa experienţei de modelare a gândirii pe care el propune lumii.

Spiritualul este strâns legat de o gândire creativă evolutivă, este o interacţiune optimă între ceea ce eşti în stare să descoperi şi ceea ce eşti dornic să devii. Deci, să ne bazăm pe știință și pe creativitate pentru a oferi vieţii, lumii şi universului, acele experiențe memorabile și utile de descoperire a minunilor naturii.

Un creator progresează prin îmbunătăţirea constantă a orientării sale. Faptul că cineva a descoperit modul cum se orientează păsările, creând după modelul lor de zbor viitoarele sisteme de ghidare ale avioanelor, este un fapt care desemnează tendinţa omenirii de a ieşi dintr-un cerc impus de respectarea limitelor auto-impuse, a inerţiei şi a obscurantismului.

Viziunea este produsă de un câmp larg al cunoaşterii privind observarea şi compararea diverselor forme de reglaj ale naturii, de formele de interpretare ale mediului înconjurător. Iar sfera valorii de creaţie este strâns legată de o viziune care promovează redirecționarea pe termen lung a cunoaşterii, întărind credinţa într-un nou început, într-un nou mod de a concepe filosofia care completează lumea şi o obţine ca Univers. Dacă o persoană suferă de "constrângerea de nu a sprijini practicile din câmpul creaţii", bineînţeles că nici nu va reuşi să observe schimbările care le suportă natura de-a lungul timpului.

Treapta desăvârşirii spirituale este destinată interacţiunii optime dintre ceea ce eşti în stare să descoperi şi ceea ce eşti dornic să devii, aşa încât să înfăptuieşti voinţa divină de a desăvârşi ceea ce natura nu a reuşit să redea decât incomplet.

Fundamentul unei orientări de viitor ţine de capacitatea omului de ştiinţă de a vedea rezultatele creaţiei în mediul ei natural, semnificaţiile ei, minunile ei, desăvârşirea ei, datorată lucrării de excepţie pe care doar un adevărat Creator are onoarea de a o coordona și direcționa prin producția de concepte inovatoare.

Furia pătimaşă a sufletelor oarbe

On Mai 12, 2014

Verifică-ţi trăsăturile de caracter, intrând în interacţiune cu ceea ce este dincolo de propria ta aparenţă.

Copilul se opri în dreptul tufişului, fără să-l vadă pe Jean Valjean. O monedă de 40 de gologani îi scăpă jos şi se rostogoli spre mărăcini, până la Jean Valjean, care puse imediat piciorul pe ea.

- Domnule, spus micuţul savoiard, cu acea încredere a copilăriei care e făcută din neştiinţă şi nevinovăţie, daţi-mi banul.

Jean Valjean, obosit, furios, ridicându-se dintr-o dată în picioare, cu talpa tot pe monedă, deveni aproape ameninţător: "Şterge-o de aici, băiete ! "

După câteva clipe, copilul pieri, alergând cât îl ţineau puterile, fără a îndrăzni să se uite înapoi sau să scoată vreun ţipăt.

În jurul lui Jean Valjean se lăsă umbră. Nu mâncase toată ziua. Îşi trase mai bine şapca pe ochi, căută în neştire să-şi încheie haina, făcu un pas şi se aplecă să-şi ridice băţul. Şi în clipa aceea zări moneda de 40 de gologani pe care piciorul lui o înfundase în pământ şi care sclipea printre pietre. Simţi ca o zguduitură electrică: "Ce este asta?", spuse el printre dinţi.

S-o spunem simplu: nu el furase, nu omul, ci animalul care, din obicei şi din instinct, îşi pusese piciorul prosteşte pe banul acela, în timp ce inteligenţa i se zbătea în noianul atâtor obsesii, noi şi nemaiauzite. Când inteligenţa i se trezi şi-şi dădu seama de fapta animalului, Jean Valjean se dădu înapoi cu spaimă şi scoase un strigăt de groază: "Vai, ce-am făcut? Sunt un ticălos ! " *

Leadership: Îţi formezi caracterul prin prisma unui "bine" care face rău, sau a unui "rău" care face bine?

Din punct de vedere al modului în care percepi şi îţi gestionezi propria fiinţă, acţionând acea forţă a sufletului care conform realităţii experimentate o determină să se manifeste tot mai accentuat, nu poţi evita apariţia unui sistem de reglare automată cu totul nou. Cu noi forme de protest, dar şi cu noi valori. Şi, evident, cu noi structuri de reprezentare și funcționare, cu legi noi, solide, simple, clare și aspre. Care fac ca viaţa să pară un munte greu de urcat, sau un fluviu care trece munţii.

Leadershipul capătă, în acest caz, o nouă suprastructură simbolică, respectiv o autenticitate de ordin secund, prin aceea că nu mai poate indica raportul dintre autoritate, influenţă şi impact, datorită constrângerilor de ordin moral şi valoric.

Leadershipul devine o incertitudine de ordin practic, o trecere de la lumea materială, la cea spirituală, depinzând de o situaţie pe două dimensiuni temporale – trecutul şi prezentul – care pot facilita viitorul interacţiunii tale cu ceea ce e dincolo de tine. Mai exact, cu experienţa unui „bine" care face rău, sau a unui „rău" care face bine. În termeni simbolici, cele două extreme sunt reprezentate de "Omul" şi "Animalul".

Micuţul Gervais, copilul care şi-a pierdut moneda, i-a făcut indirect un bine lui Jean Valjean, ajutându-l să conştientizeze latura lui întunecată. Iar lui Jean Valjean, căruia i-a rămas întipărită imaginea omului rău care era, nu i-a mai rămas decât să se reabiliteze, făcând numai fapte bune.

Leadership: Iei în vedere posibilitatea de a te pierde într-un personaj străin atunci când existenţa ta se pierde în deznodământul unei situaţii care se distinge prin imposibilitatea de a o înţelege?

Adevăratul chip de bătălie care ridică sau coboară leadershipul, iată-l. E acest loc de întâlnire, provocatori şi puternic, dintre ceea ce eşti capabil să devii, creând un vid ce trebuie "umplut" printr-un efort de înţelegere a ceea ce eşti, prin prisma felului în care reacţionezi la ceea ce ţi se întâmplă. Şi ceea ce ai devenit de fapt în urma felului în care ai gestionat "criza" de personalitate pe care ai traversat-o.

Cu cât discrepanţa dintre Eul emoţional (individualizat deseori prin manifestările tale exterioare) şi conştiinţa Eului (ce se exprimă prin discursul verbal interior, dând naştere contrariilor care îţi permit să gândeşti) este mai mare, cu atât gradul tău de maturitate este mai mic. Nu degeaba sfătuia deseori Anthony Silard, preşedinte al The Center for Social Leadership: " Concentrează-te numai asupra ingredientelor proprii de foarte bună calitate, care te fac să fii unic, dinamic şi demn de a fi iubit. "

Important pentru a-ţi dezvolta leadershipul în situaţii în care simţi că pierzi controlul, nu este posibilitatea de a te pierde într-un personaj străin, care te intrigă şi te subjugă totodată, dând ascultare acelor gânduri de înaltă vibraţie care îţi cauzează emoţii negative. Ci să contribui la diminuarea acelor aspecte ce ţin de viaţă, care, în confruntarea cu tine însuţi, îţi pot aduce valoare.

Nu poţi întotdeauna schimba ceea ce-ai făcut, nu poţi întotdeauna să "pansezi" remuşcările cu optimism şi binedispunere. Dar poţi încerca să umanizezi "animalul" în care simţi că te-ai transformat.

Caracterul care îţi limitează leadershipul este constatarea pe care o faci cu privire la personalitatea ta într-un context în care profesia, activitatea sau misiunea ta înregistrează costuri majore la nivel de imagine.

Furia pătimaşă a sufletelor oarbe vizează acea modalitate de evoluţie spre bine şi foarte bine, pe o traiectorie ascendentă, neumbrită de trufie, patimi şi violenţă.

Furnizorii de soluţii placebo

On Aprilie 16, 2009

Învaţă să schimbi percepţia consumatorilor faţă de Brandul pe care îl reprezinţi, printr-o ajustare a valorii produsului care se extinde de la acceptul pe care i-l dă inovaţia până la efectul de dependenţă pe care i-l dă imaginea.

Nu este uşor să fii vânzător pentru un nou medicament.

Să presupunem că deţii o firmă producătoare de medicamente. În sfârşit eforturile cercetătorilor s-au concretizat într-un medicament foarte eficient în tratarea infecţiilor bacteriene. Dacă toată lumea ar fi convinsă de faptul că acest medicament dă într-adevăr rezultate, compania ta ar face vânzări de milioane. Însa de-abia acum te aşteaptă marea provocare: pasul cel mai important pe care trebuie să-l faci este să dovedeşti că acest medicament este eficient, că într-adevăr vine în sprijinul oamenilor şi nu le pune viaţă în primejdie.

Prin urmare se impune să demonstrezi în faţa persoanelor abilitate eficienţa medicamentului. Cea mai simplă cale în acest sens este să testezi medicamentul pe un lot mai mare de animale infectate. La sfârşitul testelor, dacă bacteria a dispărut în totalitate şi animalele infectate au supravieţuit, vei primi acceptul să testezi medicamentul pe subiecţi umani voluntari. Dacă şi aceste rezultate se vor dovedi un succes, abia după aceea medicamentul va fi omologat şi îl vei putea scoate la vânzare pe piaţă. Pe de altă parte, dacă medicamentul nu este eficient, înseamnă că ai investit bani şi muncă inutil.

Leadership: Este nevoie să reconsideri rolul "backup-ului" din perspectiva modului de receptare a inovaţiei?

Permanent, liderii încearcă să îşi educe afacerile în beneficiul lor, folosindu-se de receptivitatea, viziunea şi creativitatea în tot ceea ce încearcă să demonstreze prin noi abordări ale funcţionalităţilor şi strategiilor dezvoltate. Cu siguranţă, liderii bine educaţi în segmentul business vor genera o orientare de calitate. Depinde numai de ei să-şi aleagă viitorul succes.

Dar nu este drept să rămânem indiferenţi faţă de progresul tehnologiei, iar leadershipul aici lucrează ca un restaurator de "backup" în cazul în care rezultatele propriilor tale planuri, intenţii şi eforturi de business nu se concretizează într-o livrare imediată, recepţionată şi recunoscută. În acest sens, backup-ul reprezintă o componentă a procesului decizional care creează legături nu atât cu obiective tangibile de business, cât mai apropiate de eficacitatea şi randamentul în inovaţie.

Inovaţia bazată pe back-up presupune să reporneşti o afacere din perspectiva unor venituri suplimentare care să justifie efortul de a păstra brandul ca principală opţiune în mintea consumatorului şi de a creşte cota de piaţă deţinută.

În ceea ce priveşte leadershipul, supus schimbării, trebuie reconsiderat rolul "backupului" din perspectiva modului de receptare a inovaţiei. Formarea unui algoritm de receptare a valorii inovaţiei şi de respingere a kitsch-ului apare ca o necesitate evidentă, când dezechilibrele impuse de tendinţele de "vânzare de dragul vânzării", nu mai sunt cazuri izolate, ci provocări universale.

Leadership: Produci şi livrezi un produs care stagnează într-un punct mort, în loc să conturezi mai întâi un profil de consumator premium care este dispus să plătească în plus pentru condițiile de exploatare a produsului respectiv?

Companiile se formează şi se dezvoltă cu ajutorul leadershipului – dar tot datorită lui pot să-şi micşoreze performanţele şi chiar să decadă. Numai un singur element poate accelera sau frâna procesele de degradare a leadershipului – calitatea pe care se bazează şi calitatea pe care o livrează acesta.

O companie care cade sub influenţa unul produs care stagnează un timp mai îndelungat la un nivel mediu si nu are tendinţe de creştere, este ca şi falimentară. O astfel de operaţiune – implementarea unui model de leadership din exterior - se poate dovedi complet ineficientă.

Un consumator premium care este dispus să plătească în plus pentru condițiile de exploatare a produsului respectiv este de regulă un agent final care, cu venitul câştigat şi în limitele acestuia, caută să-şi satisfacă nevoile şi dorinţele fără să facă neapărat o triere justă conform unor principii de valoare, între ceea ce este credibil şi ceea ce nu este, între mărcile omologate şi imitaţii (falsuri).

Aşa cum formele de degradare a terenurilor sunt redate pe hartă fie prin diferite moduri de combinare a curbelor de nivel, fie prin semne convenţionale specifice însoţite de informaţii suplimentare sub formă de litere sau cifre – tot astfel eficienţa şi echitatea leadershipului este redată printr-un proces de evoluţie a calităţii, un proces care pune preţ pe relaţia dintre părţile contractante. Acest proces trebuie să aibă cu caracter permanent şi să permită aprecierea tendinţelor de „eroziune” ale măsurilor şi strategiilor implementate.

Mai trebuie să adaug că această tranziţie spre un nou model de leadership se face sub influenţa unui factor declanşator – încrederea. Încrederea este un fel de protecţie împotriva oricăror forme de exploatare dacă este acompaniată şi de rezultate profesionale.

Leadership: Poţi face diferența dintre un produs şi un brand, evaluând capacitatea consumatorului de a realiza o triere între factorul practic al produsului şi factorul de promovare a imaginii care renaște mereu într-o impresie unică?

Apelezi întotdeauna numai la firme care dovedesc că au soluţii eficiente? În orice moment de criză apar ca din senin pe piaţă tot felul de firme de consultanţă şi expertiză care susţin că deţin soluţii miraculoase şi strategii coerente de rezolvare a problemelor. Profitând de angoasa crizei şi de aşteptările sumbre ale managerilor privind viitorul companiilor lor, aceste firme "dumnezeieşti" reuşesc, uneori cu o uşurinţă de nedescris, să încheie contracte cu numeroase companii al căror nivel de performanţă a scăzut.

Şi, exact ca într-un film de comedie, în final se constată că noile soluţii care trebuiesc implementate sunt atât de caraghioase şi ridicole, că aproape îţi stârnesc râsul. Nu râdeţi că nu-i de râs. Foarte probabil aceste soluţii "placebo", dacă sunt implementate în companii "uşor de prostit" vor conduce la probleme şi mai mari decât existau pe timp de criză, în special la pierderi financiare.

Dacă firmele producătoare de medicamente trebuie să dovedească mai întâi că medicamentul este eficient înainte de a-l scoate la vânzare, probabil cel mai corect ar fi ca şi firmele de consultanţă să dovedească mai întâi de toate că soluţiile pe care le oferă sunt într-adevăr eficiente. Când trec printr-o criză financiară serioasă, companiile au nevoie de soluţii simple, rapide si viabile, şi de aceea nu-şi pot permite luxul de a investi sume uriaşe de bani în servicii de consultanţă care nu le aduc mari avantaje şi care nu le asigură asistenţă de specialitate la un nivel înalt.

Ca regulă generală, înainte de a scoate la vânzare un produs, firmele producătoare trebuie mai întâi să demonstreze calitatea produsului, ce poate să facă, unde poate fi utilizat, dacă este compatibil cu standardele internaţionale, daca este avantajos din punct de vedere economic, etc. În cazul firmelor de consultanţă lucrurile nu stau diferit, experţii lor trebuie să câştige încrederea şi atenţia clienţilor şi să-i convingă că soluţiile pe care le oferă sunt viabile, eficiente şi funcţionale, şi mai ales că se situează în limita legii.

Eşti un furnizor de soluţii placebo - care nu ajută la nimic concret, sau un furnizor de soluţii care într-adevăr funcţionează?

În marketing primează atât calitatea cât şi cantitatea de followers care sunt cu adevărat intersaţi de profilul brandului tău, nu atât din perspectiva utilizării unui produs, ci din perspectiva atributului imaginii de viitor ca parte integrantă din cadrul unei serii de repere identitare şi spirituale care să nu genereze autosuficienţa.

Concluzie: Cel mai important lucru de care trebuie să ţii cont înainte de a negocia contractul cu o firmă de consultanţă este să te asiguri că aceasta are o experienţă vastă în domeniu şi că soluţiile pe care le propune sunt viabile şi realiste.

Leadershipul este ca o pastilă foarte scumpă care are rolul de a remedia orice tip de deteriorări la nivelul companiei. Dar înainte de a o lua trebuie să ştii ce vitamine conţine, dacă ea are efect curativ şi dacă este într-adevăr eficientă pentru combaterea afecţiunii pe care trebuie s-o tratezi - cât şi a consecinţelor acesteia.

Hotărâtor pentru impactul leadershipului tău este conţinutul lui de „vitamine” şi modul în care îl administrezi.

Gândacul

On Noiembrie 21, 2023

Te poți integra într-un mediu propice aspirațiilor tale, doar dacă imaginea cu care îți prezinţi adevărata valoare este adecvată mediului respectiv.

Vă voi relata acum povestea unui supravieţuitor ajuns ca printr-o psihologie inversă într-un mediu necunoscut, dar uşor de explorat - "universitatea". Este vorba despre un descoperitor de comori care răzbeşte într-o mocirlă plină de necurăție, noroi și o nesuferită duhoare, prin care se înaintează foarte uşor doar prin anularea oricăror virtuţi, oricăror norme spirituale, oricăror standarde etice.

Vremea și terenul au constituit avantaje pentru acest individ banal, resurse importante de care el a știut să se folosească bine, având cu siguranţă alţi complici, de aceeasi subspecie. Aşadar, iată cum ai putea să întri într-o mocirlă în care există interese, dedesubturi, compromisuri, mediu în care un gândac nu se poate împotmoli deloc, tocmai fiindcă membrele sale sunt prevăzute cu perişori care îl ajută să se deplaseze pe suprafețe mlăştinoase, umede, şi în acelaşi timp alunecoase.

Individul acesta obscur a fost primit ca oaspete de onoare în cadrul fertil al unui regat vegetal foarte întins, fără să se târască deloc pe pământ presat, fără să întâmpine niciun pesticid care să-l omoare. S-ar spune că pământul a vibrat în climatul propice dezvoltării sale. El însuşi, un soi de suveran al biodiversității microbiene, s-a integrat de minune într-un mediu care i-a oferit suficientă hrană, apă și adăpost, fără să aibă niciun merit deosebit pentru această binecuvântată mană cerească. Într-o grădină bine îngrijită este loc de insecte aparent inofensive, nu-i aşa?

Cine oare bagă de seamă existenţa unui mic univers, ascuns sub frunza unui răsad de toamnă? Această formă de viaţă precoce, nativ cu semnul de pământ, simbolizând adaptabilitatea, a pășit în mediul academic cu aceeași precauție cu care un nou venit explorează o grădină necunoscută. Asemenea unui "vizitator surpriză," el a adus cu el propriile aspirații de mărire, cu dorința de a se dezvolta în acest nou habitat, atât de departe, până ce va ajunge la stadiul de "rege al insectelor de cultură".

Leadership: Adopți o perspectivă de tip "din afara - înăuntru" care pune accent pe responsabilitatea personală și libertatea etică, fiind deschis la tot ceea ce reprezintă "imagine transformată prin reflecție în model" ?

La unul din seminarii, noul profesor îmbrăcat la costum de patru ace, îşi deapană povestea vieţii, vorbind pe scurt despre începuturile sale umile. Ca și cum ar lăsa semințe misterioase în solul unei grădini fertile, el a început să împărtășească cunoștințele și experiențele sale care, la început, păreau a fi unice și interesante. La fel ca în cazul capsulelor de ouă ale unui gândac, informațiile pe care le-a împărtășit nu puteau fi ușor asimilate sau înlocuite cu altele.

Dar l-a luat gura pe dinainte, ca şi când trecutul umil l-ar fi împins de la spate să se elibereze de povara unei greutăţi istovitoare. Micul dăunător polifag ce nu trebuie nicidecum ignorat, a relatat un fapt de o importanţă esenţială, un secreto muy personal, o anumită întâmplare din viața sa care trebuia ținută într-un seif securizat cu cel mai complex cifru. În ce priveşte securitatea informaţiilor, insectele nu pot fi neglijate.

El a mărturisit cu bună credinţă că s-a confruntat cu dificultăți în adaptarea la grădina academică, la fel ca orice nou vizitator într-un loc nemaiîntâlnit, plin de vegetaţie. Mai întâi a ajuns profesor, apoi a trebuit să-şi aleagă disciplina pe care urma s-o predea la ore. Ajuns pe acest teren agricol, gata pentru a fi lucrat, a cochetat cu mai multe discipline, dar niciuna nu i-a fost pe plac, aşa că a făcut un curs specializat unde a obţinut o diplomă care i-a permis să se specializeze într-un alt domeniu care nu era trecut pe lista "disponibilă" a terenului fertil.

Leadership: Ai chemare să te inițiezi într-o profesie nouă explorând alteritatea prin imagini care se suprapun, încât să te specializezi ulterior în nuanțele unei exprimări vizuale unice?

Aici, se pune întrebarea plină de strălucirea obrazului curat: mai întâi ajungi profesor, şi apoi te specializezi într-un domeniu ca să profesezi? Cum vine asta? Adică ti se pun în faţă o grămadă de discipline diferite, şi tu alegi să predai oricare din ele, fără să ai habar de niciuna?

Ei bine, vizitatorul acesta bine primit şi bine venit pe tărâmul agriculturii diversificate, Leptinotarsa Decemlineata, specie de insectă care se întâlneşte frecvent în mediile de "cultură" din România, a păşit discret în grădina universitară, fapt ce ilustrează un proces de adaptare inițială. Dar evidențiază și dificultățile pe care le-a întâmpinat în a-și îndeplini eficient rolul. Totuşi, degeaba vrei să trăiești cu instinctul într-o atmosferă prielnică, dacă nu iți pui în valoare abilitatea de a ascunde "mizeria" cu care ești acoperit, noroiul în care te bălăceşti în fiecare zi.

Aşadar, în contextul academic, este esențială nu doar gestionarea locului unde gândacul își "ascunde" mizeria, ci și modul în care o gestionează, deoarece acolo unde el își lasă ouăle, într-un soi de leagăn de mătase, lipit de faţa inferioară a unei frunze slobode, acolo se vor dezvolta larvele, care trebuie să treacă şi ele printr-un proces de dezvoltare și creștere pentru a ajunge la stadiul adult. Numaidecât, intrusul acesta trebuie să se deghizeze într-o buburuză, ceva colorat şi plăcut privirii, cu conotaţii simbolice pozitive, încât să capete o recunoaştere pozitivă. Apoi își deschide tipic elitrele, își extinde aripile posterioare, zburând spre libertate.

Leadership: Profiţi de conexiunile tale pentru a ocupa un rol pentru care nu eşti pregătit, riscând astfel să transformi această oportunitate într-o iluzie vizuală cu potențiale repercusiuni în echilibrul compozițional al imaginii tale?

Mai în glumă, mai în serios, hai să vedem ce acuzaţii i se pot aduce individului care mai întâi a ajuns profesor, şi abia ulterior a făcut cursuri care să-i permită să profeseze într-un domeniu despre care nu ştia nimic.

Uzurpare de funcție: Individul a ocupat o funcție pentru care nu era calificat, profitând de relațiile sale şi de alţi complici. Acest lucru poate fi considerat o formă de fraudă, care poate avea consecințe legale.

Impostura: Individul a obținut o poziție de profesor fără a îndeplini condițiile necesare, respectiv cunoștințele și competențele necesare pentru a preda o disciplină academică. Cel mai probabil, individul a mințit în CV-ul său, unde a declarat că are cunoștințe într-un anumit domeniu.

Frauda: Individul a indus în eroare studenții și instituția de învățământ superior prin prezentarea sa ca profesor calificat.

Favoritism: Dacă un individ a primit favoruri speciale în procesul de angajare, sau a fost avantajat în detrimentul altor candidați, acesta poate fi acuzat de favoritism.

Incompetență profesională: Având în vedere că nu avea cunoștințe solide în domeniul respectiv, se înţelege că nu era pregătit să-și îndeplinească sarcinile de profesor, fapt care ar fi condus la predarea unor informații eronate sau neactualizate, sau la crearea unei atmosfere de dezinteres în rândul studenților. Iar faptul că a divulgat secretul parvenirii sale poate fi considerat o dovadă de delăsare sau neglijență. Mare greşeală !

Neglijență în procesul de selecție: Dacă instituția de învățământ nu a efectuat o evaluare adecvată a calificărilor individului înainte de a-l angaja sau promova, aceasta poate fi acuzată de neglijență în procesul de selecție. Este ştiut că universităţile din România sunt numarul 1 mondial la capitolul indivizi "noroioşi" ajunşi profesori peste noapte.

Conflict de interese: Dacă cineva din conducerea instituției are o relație personală sau de afaceri cu individul în cauză, și a influențat procesul de angajare în favoarea sa, atunci poate fi vorba de un conflict de interese.

Abuz de poziție: Dacă individul a obținut contracte cu diverse companii, prin intermediul poziției sale de profesor, aceasta poate fi o dovadă că a folosit poziția sa pentru a obține avantaje personale.

În funcție de probele disponibile, individul poate fi acuzat de una sau mai multe dintre aceste infracțiuni. Dacă este găsit vinovat, acesta poate fi pedepsit cu închisoare sau cu alte sancțiuni penale. Şi chiar dacă nu este găsit vinovat, după atâţia ani, cu siguranţă Dumnezeu ştie totul. Şi asta este de ajuns...

Leadershipul se manifestă ca un fel de recunoaștere a imaginii pe care o reflectă creaţia ta, din care trebuie să elimini imitația și mimarea unor continuităţi în procesul de afirmare a originalităţii.

Gândacul tot gândac rămâne indiferent de mediul în care se manifestă, indiferent de decorul vizual în care se regăsește, la fel cum un om corupt nu-şi schimbă natura oriunde se află.

Acest gen de "vieţuitoare" nu are niciun fel de înclinaţii spre creaţie, spre descoperire, spre inventică, ci doar spre uneltiri, tertipuri, trădări, intrigi, vorbe măgulitoare, manipulări lipsite de scrupule, planuri secrete. Absolut nimic spiritual, nimic apropiat de divin nu sălăşluieşte în sufletul, în mintea, în conştiinţa lui. Totul se reduce numai la aspiraţii profitabile.

Gânduri care cer concentrare minţii

On Aprilie 25, 2012

Visarea celor fericiţi este nevoia singurătăţii de a umple fiecare nevoie a spiritului divin.

În viaţa singuratecă pe care o ducea Cosette, alături de tatăl ei adoptiv, prinseseră un obicei: dimineaţa plecau la plimbare să vadă răsăritul soarelui, bucurie dulce, potrivită celor care părăsesc viaţa, ca şi celor care o încep.

Cei care iubesc singurătatea ştiu că plimbările din zorii zilei sunt tot atât de plăcute ca şi cele de noapte; cele din zori au însă ceva mai mult: veselia naturii. Străzile sunt pustii şi păsările cântă. Cosette, păsărică şi ea, se scula bucuros dis-de-dimineaţă. Pregăteau din ajun excursiile acestea. El le plănuia, ea le primea. Le rânduia minuţios, de parc-ar fi fost vorba de un complot; ieşeau înainte de ivirea zorilor. Cosette se bucura de fiecare amănunt. Tinereţii îi place tot ce e neobişnuit şi nevinovat.

Pe Jean Valjean îl atrăgeau, după cum se ştie, plimbările prin locuri puţin umblate, singuratice, părăsite. Se aşezase pe un drum lăturalnic, pe nişte bârne puse la poarta unui şantier. Se uita în lungul drumului, cu spatele la răsărit. Uitase de soarele care avea să se ridice. Era muncit de gânduri adânci, gânduri care cer concentrare minţii, care orbesc până şi privirea, de parcă omul ar fi închis între patru ziduri.

Există meditaţii pe care le-am putea numi verticale. Când te afunzi în adâncul lor, e nevoie de timp ca să te întorci pe pământ. Jean Valjean coborâse într-o asemenea visare. Se gândea la Cosette, la fericirea care ar fi fost cu putinţă dacă un străin nu s-ar fi aşezat între ei doi, la lumina cu care ea îi umplea viaţa, lumină care era respiraţia sufletului său. În visul acesta era aproape fericit. Cosette în picioare, lângă el, se uita la norii care începeau să se îmbrace în răsfrângeri trandafirii.

Deodată, Cosette strigă: "Tată, parcă ar veni cineva dintr-acolo". Abia atunci Jean Valjean ridică ochii. *

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi construieşti o viziune admirabilă despre sine, prin prisma a tot ceea ce experimentezi cu gândul şi cu sufletul, în timp ce îţi menții puterea asupra unei puteri mai slabe?

Visarea celor fericiţi este nevoia singurătăţii de a umple fiecare nevoie a spiritului divin. Însăşi spiritul oamenilor de seamă care caută fericirea, ca şi a celor simpli ce încă n-au găsit-o, provine dintr-o singurătate a cerului şi a pământului, deci o singurătate raportată la divin, fiindcă cerul ți-a dăruit câteva unelte cu ajutorul cărora să poți avea experienţe de credinţă:

Orice s-ar spune, esenţa spiritului divin poate fi înţeleasă printr-o activitate de rezolvare a unei necunoscute: cine eşti atunci când îţi exprimi personalitatea în mod liber şi autentic, într-un loc şi într-un timp care nu îţi favorizează (deocamdată) reputaţia, cariera, reuşitele sau autoritatea profesională?

Esenţa spiritului divine are ca ţinţă deschiderea conştiinţei către noi orizonturi, în ciuda resurselor limitate pe care le ai la dispoziție, făcând ca o mică pasiune să devină singura ta opţiune de mers înainte. Ori, aşa cum o omidă se transformă într-un fluture în interiorul unui cocon, tot aşa nu e întâmplătoare cauzalitatea unei situaţii precare ce domină sfera comportamentului tău, fiindcă poate deveni cea mai de preţ parte a vieţii tale.

În ceea ce priveşte leadershipul, contează ceea ce ajungi să fii prin ceea ce eşti dispus să înduri. Doar astfel poţi ajunge la acea maturitate care te face să apreciezi la maxim ceea ce ai, să fii fericit cu puţin, înainte de a fi fericit cu mai mult. Şi iată ce înseamnă să îţi menţii puterea asupra unei puteri mai slabe: înseamnă să rămâi recunoscător situaţiilor în care nu eşti pe deplin mulţumit cu tine însuţi, în acord cu decizia ta de a învăţa să fii mai bun faţă de tine, cel de ieri.

Respectivele forme de gândire care duc la viziune, precum imaginaţia, memoria, anticipaţia, dispoziţia spre visare sau inspiraţia, constituie un caz tipic de cunoaştere prin insight, prin oglindire, sau poate fi un caz semnificativ de cunoaştere prin comunicarea cu o deitate sau o altă entitate supranaturală. Visarea şi gândirea au ceva în comun: starea de fericire, iar mijlocitorul lor este veselia naturii. Constatăm acest lucru din acţiunea Sinelui asupra sensului vieţii, căci omul care se abandonează visării este întotdeauna omul care trăieşte experienţa unui nou început.

Cunoaşterea imaginii care te simbolizează în divin provine de la intelect (visare, stoicism, mândrie şi un praf de voinţă). Iar imaginea aceasta este o confirmare a propriei valori şi unicităţi, spre a deveni una din armele tale de comandă în privinţa a ceea ce urmează să decizi pentru viitorul tău.

Prin gânduri care cer concentrare minţii vei putea să trăieşti o viaţă aşa cum ţi-ai dorit, prin raportare la o forță invizibilă care stă în spatele a tot ceea ce faci în viaţă, şi care se numeşte: credinţă (statornicie şi visare).

Gânduri din colţurile memoriei (II)

On Iulie 01, 2022

Ştiinţa şi arta sunt cheile care deschid uşa timpului către strămoşii tăi. Numai ştiinţa şi arta te vor ajuta să-ţi regăseşti viaţa de după moarte în această viaţă.

Nu lua niciodată decizii în momente neprevăzute. Astfel de momente au darul de a te învăța ceva despre tine. Să ierți. Și să treci peste.

Fii sincer. Cu tine, cu ceilalţi. Fiecare moment în care nu eşti tu, devii altcineva care nu rezonează nici cu tine, nici cu ceilalţi.

Până când nu ştiu cum sărută o fată, nu ştiu nici cum s-o visez.

Să-ţi crezi un Brand puternic înainte de a deveni simbolul unei ştiinţe înalte.

1+1=2; 2+2=4; 4+4=8; etc... Pentru unii știința adună și multiplică valorile la nesfârșit. La alții ea nu are absolut nimic de adunat sau de multiplicat.

Un trandafir pus alături de un om înţelept formează un simbol divin.

Pentru că scrii fără să simţi...şi nu simţi când altcineva simte ceva faţă de conţinutul tău.

Cine n-a făcut nimic pentru ştiinţă, n-a făcut nimic nici pentru Dumnezeu.

Când toată lumea coboară, întotdeauna cineva urcă. Și urcă atât de sus și cu atâta forță, încât nimeni și nimic nu-l mai coboară.

Fericirea este susţinerea curajului în credinţa.

Dincolo de perfecţiune stă imperfecţiunea, la fel cum nici Dumnezeu n-a fost perfect atunci când s-a întrupat în om.

Nu încerca să citeşti o carte fără să te pierzi în rândurile scrise de alţii cu privire la ei înşişi.

Timpul este de partea celui care ştie să-l întrebuinţeze. La fel şi în ceea ce priveşte ştiinţa.

Să fii de neînlocuit ! Chiar și aceasta este o artă care are nevoie de un artist !

O melodie trebuie să inspire la timpul potrivit fix pe cine trebuie.

Pentru o confirmare a fragilității tale este de ajuns să respingi lumea aceasta și pe Creatorul ei.

Privește în jurul tău fără să-ți iei ochii de la tine.

Frământă lutul pe care îl ai la îndemână înainte de a frământa cuvinte izvorâte din precipitările unui timp neiertător.

Încearcă să pricepi fiecare înțeles atribuit unei arte ce începe cu recunoașterea unui om prins într-o colivie a fragilității.

Învață să fii tu însuți prin imaginea unui personaj care e diferit de tine, dar care trăiește o poveste asemănătoare cu viața ta.

Ori de câte ori vrei să spui ceva, gândeşte-ţi cuvintele printr-o oglindă care le măreşte importanţa şi durata vieţii.

Să îţi alegi cuvintele la fel cum pictorul amestecă culorile pentru a obţine altele.

Datorită orgoliului nu vei înţelege niciodată cuvântul "iubire" pus la baza universului.

Orice faci, fă-o cu artă, încât să regăsești la ţine acea putere care emoționează profund și captivează toată atenția.

Dacă eşti un artist veritabil, promovează-ţi cu tact abilitățile artistice şi du-ţi arta până la capăt.

Trandafirul este specific zonelor aride. În locul unde crește un trandafir cu rădăcini din altă lume, totul în jur înflorește abundent.

Totul este în legătură strânsă cu Egiptul Antic. De acolo a început totul.

Mi-a luat circa 20 de ani să înţeleg că un banal punct poate fi o linie continuă într-un cerc care își mărește la nesfârșit circumferința.

Unii îşi închipuie că au un rol mai mare decât îşi pot asuma, cu adevărat.

Fiecare are rolul lui. Altfel nu am mai avea termen de comparație.

Omul care are ceva de schimbat, să schimbe ! Omul care nu are nimic de schimbat, să se schimbe !

Aici este diferența dintre cei mici și cei mari.

O statuie rămâne nemișcată, fiindcă este făcută să aibă răbdare. Chiar și răbdarea este făcută din stană de piatră.

Un petic de iarbă. Te întrebi: de ce are culoarea verde? Fiindcă verdele are calitatea de a te binedispune în orice situație.

Cântăreşte inteligenţa privirii tale prin admirabila elocinţă a ochilor care nu se schimbă în timp.

Totul ți se dezvăluie la timpul potrivit. Trebuie doar să știi să interpretezi, la fel ca într-un vis. Să vezi în două lumi, prin două realități.

Fii bun la toate, dar fii excepţional doar într-o singură îndeletnicire. Şi aceasta excepţionalitate devine tot mai evidentă pe măsură ce exersezi răbdarea.

Învață să îți pui în evidență privirea departe de zona ochilor mândri.

Marea Știință este miezul unei stele ce nu ajunge niciodată la capătul vieții.

Viața este o stea aflată în constelația științei. Fără știință viața nu ar fi putut căpăta strălucirea unei stele.

Fiecare om îşi exprimă satisfacţia faţă de alegerea să.

Rareori întâlneşti pe cineva capabil să aprindă o stea pe cer. Cu atât mai puţin, să-i întreţină luminozitatea.

Priveşte totul cu mare atenţie, dar prefă-te că nu observi. Uneori, asta înseamnă să fii un om de mare caracter.

Să tratezi arta ca și când ai privi gardul unei grădini pline de flori și ți-ai imagina că ești înconjurat de zidurile unei cetăți pline cu soldați.

Fii atent la ce îți place la tine ca pe un fel de a vedea lumea într-un fel în care ea nu-ți spune nimic. Te vei regăsi în mijlocul unei atmosfere de serenitate absolută.

Priveşte în jur şi vei înţelege totul, cu condiţia să fii conştient de calităţile tale.

Degeaba priveşti la tot ce se petrece în jur dacă nu sesizezi ceea ce eşti capabil să trăieşti prin prisma experienţelor altora.

Privește în jur la tot ce se petrece, fără să fii atent la ceva anume. Nu contează ce vezi, atâta timp cât nu ești pregătit să reflectezi la ce ți se întâmplă.

Degeaba priveşti soarele dacă nu întrezăreşti strălucirile lui în marea în care te afunzi.

Privește unii oameni, și îi vei vedea atât de fericiți că și-au schimbat mașina. Dar în domeniul științei n-au schimbat niciodată nimic.

Fii un univers înainte de a-ţi construi viaţa aşa cum visezi.

Lumea din jur este doar o piatră pe care nu o poţi şlefui dacă ea nu se poate ridica de la pământ.

A înţeles totul numai acela care s-a dedicat întru totul înţelegerii totului.

Răbdarea este condiţia indispensabilă dobândirii marii ştiinţe. Lasă totul şi urmează-ţi chemarea. Apoi, vei fi liber.

Dacă nu ştii să scrii o poveste, nici nu te gândi c-ai să poţi trăi vreodată una.

Existența unui artist poate fi surprinsă numai prin comparație cu liniștea naturii, dar poate fi înțeleasă intrând într-o lume agitată.

Să înțelegi că dincolo de orice înțelegere este doar un vis și o stea. Soarele le luminează pe amândouă.

Să duci știința la un alt nivel, mult superior, asta înseamnă să creezi o legătură puternică cu Universul.

Să înveți să surprinzi esențialul lucrurilor înainte de a învăța să vezi ceea ce nu se vede cu ochiul liber.

Privim la noi înșine și uităm lumea. Privim lumea și uităm de noi înșine. Am uitat de ce privim.

Rămâi fidel ţie însuţi chiar şi atunci când te îndoieşti de propria-ţi credinţă. Chiar şi atunci când îţi este testată credinţa, rămâi acelaşi om minunat.

Învaţă să rămâi tu, mereu acelaşi, în faţa unei oglinzi în care totul pare a fi altceva.

Artă este forța celui care știe să se învingă pe sine-însuși printr-o afirmare necontenită a sensibilității.

Cam greu să te îndrepți în două direcții, în același timp. A simți că ești cineva, nu înseamnă că ești acel cineva.

Oglindeşte-te în ceea ce nu se vede, în poezia privirii spre un punct imaginar.

Creaţia artistică care invită la o admiraţie deplină include posibilitatea transmiterea discreţiei în realitatea culminanta a lui "tu însuţi".

Să deţii controlul total asupra Mării Ştiinţe, încât ştiinţa să devină întruchiparea puterii nelimitate a unui Creator de Lumi.

Trebuie să trăiești printre cuvinte atât de furtunoase, încât să nu-ți îngădui răgazul de a te preocupa de-o altă lume.

Drumurile cu adevărat grele sunt acelea pe care nimeni nu le conştientizează la timpul potrivit.

Încearcă să ajungi la un acord cu tine însuți, căutându-ți libertatea de a trăi intens fiecare clipă de gând adresată creației tale.

Nu te strădui să afli totul decât atunci când ești pregătit să te înțelegi cu adevărat.

Nu te gândi la tine ca la un om mic decât atunci când ai ajuns un om mare.

Fii prezent numai acolo unde eşti tu, în planul unei reprezentări pline de viaţă.

Un pictor de mare talent nu-şi leapădă niciodată gustul pentru frumos, tot aşa cum un scriitor de mare expresivitate nu-şi termină niciodată cuvintele atât de sincere.

Omul care nu mai are nimic de descoperit, nimic de creat, nimic de schimbat în domeniul ştiinţei, este un om rămas în urmă.

Fiecare moment din creațiile tale trebuie să se datoreze unui efort enorm de a te domina pe tine însuți.

Fii arta cu care un artist își luminează calea spre împlinirea vieților nenumărate.

Niciodată să nu trăiești mai intens decât creația cu care îți alimentezi lumea ideală.

Numai în domeniul artei se poate distinge sufletul lui Dumnezeu.

Mai important decât să descoperi un secret este să prețuiești valoarea lucrurilor simple.

Nimic nu e mai greu decât să reînnoiești în fiecare clipă sensul lucrurilor simple.

Ceea ce lipsește unui lucru simplu este să aparțină unei lumi asemănătoare cu a ta.

Cel mai greu lucru din lume este să fii un excelent mânuitor al lucrurilor simple.

Puţini sunt cei care au desluşit tainele artei, şi mult mai puţini sunt aceia care au contribuit la înţelegerea şi promovarea ei.

Cine face dovada unei structuri de rezistenţă mereu îmbunătăţite va avea o perspectivă mai largă asupra unui destin de excepţie.

Cei ce gândesc prea mult sunt total depăşiţi de aceia care nu stau mult pe gânduri. Uită-te şi vezi ce se întâmplă.

Dacă vrei să-l cunoşti cu adevărat pe Dumnezeu întreabă-te cum ai contribuit la dezvoltarea artei şi a ştiinţei.

Sunt oameni care au impresia că ştiu totul. Poate ca, într-adevăr, ei ştiu totul.

Rugăciunea este reprezentarea unei imagini nobile despre sine în mijlocul unei creaţii care inspiră multă putere.

Oamenii mari nu sunt mari degeaba. Oamenii mari sunt cei care nu au nimic, și reușesc totuși să aibă realizări uimitoare. Oamenii mici sunt cei care au totul, dar nu reușesc să facă nimic extraordinar.

Omul care nu face mereu un pas înainte este sortit să rămână în urmă. Unii parcă pentru asta sunt făcuţi: să rămână în urmă.

Marea forţă a artei este un act de transcendere a creatorului spre ceea ce-i spiritual în el.

Să nu treacă nici măcar o zi fără să duci ştiinţa cu un pas înainte. Dacă se poate, un pas cât mai mare.

Un om de mare credinţă este om care s-a dăruit cu mare pasiune ştiinţei şi artei.

Creaţia cea mai valoroasă a unui artist este povestea unui infinit care nu-şi găseşte deznodământul.

Cea mai înaltă formă de manifestare a energiei Universului se produce prin caracterul ludic al actului de Creaţie.

Artistul veritabil este un Creator formidabil care nu-şi termină niciodată povestea Creaţiei.

Întreaga direcţie a artei depinde de tema răsunătoare pe care o consideri demnă de toată admiraţia termenului "tu însuţi" plasat într-o perspectivă spirituală.

Înainte să-ți conturezi un stil personal de a face artă, mulțumește-te cu trăirea distanțată ce ți-o poate oferi participarea estetică la un univers imaginar.

Nu încerca să fii un performer de elită dacă nu eşti pregătit să duci performanţa la un alt nivel.

Oportunitățile sunt peste tot. Nu trebuie să fugi după ele, te înconjoară ele pe tine. Trebuie doar să le observi.

Să ai parte numai de zile norocoase și să ai întotdeauna noroc, fără să-ți propui dinainte ceva.

Cea mai importantă temă a artei este invitația de a fi tu însuți într-o existență pur spirituală surprinsă într-un spațiu restrâns și discret.

Orice mare creator are ca şi corespondent o doză de nebunie artistică.

Numai cine îmbrăţişează fenomenul artistic în întregimea lui, poate să performeze în domeniul ştiinţific.

Artă este temelia cea mai fermă în planul ştiinţei spirituale.

Să lași totul la voia întâmplării, iar întâmplarea va face totul în locul tău.

În leadership e o vorbă: toate atuurile trebuie să le ai tu. Să dispui de toate pârghiile, toate ancorele și toate mijloacele practice ale Creației.

Prima regulă în leadership: Până te hotărăști tu, altcineva a făcut deja un pas înainte.

Să trăiești și să te manifești numai prin intermediul creației, dacă vrei să câștigi simpatia lucrurilor cu care se identifică sufletul tău.

Opera de artă este ceea ce îl unește pe un creator de un clarvăzător.

Trebuie să trăieşti mult timp între cărţi ca să înţelegi vorbirea (tuturor limbajelor) pe care ele o împărtăşesc cu tine.

Să ai mai multă încredere în ştiinţa ta decât are oricine altcineva în ştiinţa lui.

Să vezi într-o oglindă ceea ce oglinda are a spune.

Cine se cufundă mai mult în tainele artei va asimila experiența câștigată fondului spiritual - care înseamnă progres și evoluție.

Cu cât artistul pătrunde mai adânc în lumea sa interioară, cu atât se va deschide în fața lui o nouă lume, mult superioară celorlalte.

Să ştii să observi şi să elimini confuzia din ceea ce observi.

În fiecare domeniu există cineva capabil să facă un pas mai mare înainte.

Altfel omenirea ar fi fost cu sute de ani în urmă.

Inspiraţia se manifestă ca un instrument ajutător pentru declanşarea creativităţii de care are nevoie omul pentru a extinde universul cu idei şi descoperiri.

Unde își găsești inspirația? Mai întâi, de ce ar avea nevoie inspirația de tine?

Mai important decât să faci ce-ţi place este să faci ceva cu ceea ce îţi place să faci.

Cel mai greu lucru din lume este să accepți să fii mereu același tu. Urmează apoi caracterizarea originii acestei interpretări.

Numai cine îşi dedică întreaga viaţă actului de creaţie va ajunge să stăpânească cu adevărat lumea artei şi secretele ei.

Dacă scoţi în evidenţă partea sensibilă a omului, omul va căuta să demonstreze cu îndârjire că este un om puternic.

Să ştii să observi şi să elimini confuzia din ceea ce observi.

Înainte să schimbi o lume, învață să duci la alt nivel orice domeniu al științei. Numai datorită științei evoluează o lume întreagă.

Dacă vrei să ai un mare impact în lumea ştiinţei, trebuie să produci un mare ecou în cursul naturii.

Să nu te joci niciodată cu focul, mai ales când ştii că focul are un frate geamăn numit "Trăsnet".

Trăsnetul şi focul sunt că pictură şi pensonul: trebuie să ştii să le mânuieşti şi ce să ceri de la ele.

Trebuie doar să ajungi în punctul în care îţi sare în ajutor un alt punct. Două puncte care se unesc creează o explicaţie grăitoare.

Când două forţe mari se unesc, abia atunci se descoperă "Tăria lui Dumnezeu în Hristos".

Sinceritatea este lumina flăcărilor care se stinge sub apăsarea cuvintelor.

Steaua îndrăgostiţilor străluceşte numai sub norocul adevărului nefalsificat.

Rătăcirea unei clipe fără iubire răsuna numai în urechile pline de săpun.

Înaintează cât mai mult, cât mai corect și cât mai eficient. Și înaintează fără să te socotești mai prejos de vrednicia ta pusă în slujba dezvoltării științei.

Degeaba muncești din greu dacă efortul tău asiduu nu va fi recunoscut drept opera unei minți strălucite.

Unii oameni nu se schimbă niciodată. Iar universul le zădărniceşte toate planurile, ca de obicei.

Poate că tocmai coronavirus a salvat lumea, sau anumiți oameni, din fața unei amenințări mult mai grave.

Mesajul coronavirus este ferm: Știința a preluat puterea de la aceia care timp de sute de ani au îngrădit-o.

Dacă ești bun într-un domeniu, lumea află de tine. Dacă eşti cel mai bun într-un domeniu, află toată lumea de tine.

Virusul. Pe unii îi reduce complet la tăcere, altora le oferă oportunitatea uriașă să se afirme cu o forță de necombătut.

Nu încerca să fii un creator, fără ca mai întâi să fii un răspuns al creaţiei la provocările ştiinţei.

Numai cei ce creează universuri sunt în stare să înţeleagă plenitudinea frumuseţii Infinitului.

Un singur om poate să aibă capacitatea de a orienta o ştiinţă în ce direcţie vrea el, prin tainele unei legende care a prins viaţă ?

Întotdeauna mai ai ceva de învăţat de la ceea ce este înăuntrul tău, mai mult decât din orice altceva.

Ceea ce deprinzi din studiu intens este nimic în comparaţie cu ce deprinzi din întâmplare.

De la cer la pământ este o distanţă cuprinsa într-o singură lecţie despre Dumnezeu.

N-ai cum să ştii dacă nu înţelegi.

Este posibil ca un singur om să aibă capacitatea de a orienta Marea Știință în ce direcție vrea el, prin tainele unei sacralități pierdute?

Cu cât se prelungește mai mult criza, cu atât ești mai productiv în munca de acasă. Va fi un an foarte productiv.

Universul este susţinut de aceia care ştiu să facă din ştiinţă un jurnal din cutia infinitului.

Nu-i de ajuns să fii puternică ca să arăţi că îţi pasă...

Nu aștepta că momentul perfect să se declanșeze când vrei tu. Perfecțiunea nu se bazează pe așteptările tale din momentele potrivite.

Îți trebuie 20 de ani ca să înțelegi că ai fi putut înțelege totul într-un singur an pe care niciun alt an nu-l poţi experimenta aidoma celorlalți ani.

A scrie fără să dai viață unui concept este ca și când ai mișca volanul unei maşini în toate direcțiile, fără să te deplasezi în vreo direcție.

Ceea ce este artistic este întotdeauna estetic, pentru că depinde de tendinţa ochiului de a admira opera minunată a naturii.

Visează... şi nu te opri niciodată din visat. Iar universul va schimba o întreagă lume, doar pentru tine.

Eternitatea este arta de a rămâne mereu acelaşi "Tu la Superlativ", în orice spaţiu şi în orice timp.

Se întâmplă ca universul să fie alături de tine...în timp ce citeşti 1001 de nopţi, în leagăn, la soare. Liniştit, fără griji.

Gânduri din colţurile memoriei (III)

On Iulie 02, 2022

Una este să cânţi din "durerea" unei tendinţe generale, cu totul altceva este să ştii să faci artă ... chiar şi dintr-un bob de nisip !

Perfecţiunea este geometria secretă a formei şi a fondului, în niciun caz o culoare aruncată la întâmplare.

Cine stă pe loc este întotdeauna depășit de cel ce face un pas înainte. Iar cel ce face un pas uriaș înainte este întotdeauna un reprezentant al științei.

Atât de puţini sunt îndeajuns de hotărâţi şi protejaţi de providenţă ca să descopere Perfecţiunea Infinită, dar şi ceea ce invizibilul, abisalul, labirinticul condiţiei umane face vizibil, etic şi estetic.

Există un nivel la care, atunci când îl atingi, nu mai eşti interesat de jocurile mici. Vrei să faci numai jocurile mari pe măsura valorii tale !

În timp ce unii îmbătrânesc şi dispar în vid, ca şi când nici n-ar fi existat, alţii întineresc şi îşi asigură nemurirea !

Dacă nu te grăbeşti să faci la timp un anumit lucru, rişti să ajungi să nu te mai bucuri de beneficiile care rezultă de pe urma lui.

Marea revelaţie a artei este să vezi ceea ce toţi ceilalţi scapă din vedere !

Dacă am privi cu atenţie tot ce ne înconjoară am realiza că trăim înconjuraţi de artă.

Să fii un neștiutor fără pereche, până ce universul îți deschide o ușă secretă. Intră pe ea fără nicio teamă, iar atunci vei înțelege totul.

"Unicul procedeu de a educa un om adevărat este de a-i da posibilitatea ca el singur să caute, să muncească şi să-şi asigure ce este necesar." Tagore, Rabindranath

Urmarea unei chemări lăuntrice este revelarea unui Dumnezeu care a dat viață omului pentru a reflecta și sprijini evoluția științei sale.

Întotdeauna ai ceva de învăţat de la o astfel de vreme mohorâtă: să nu fii un nor tulbur care se târăşte cu rea voinţă înainte.

Începutul unui mare eşec este să apari prea devreme în lumina reflectoarelor. Faptul că ai o sclipire de moment, nu înseamnă că eşti un geniu, ci este doar o încurajare de a porni în căutarea unei lumi noi şi pure.

Una din cele mai importante lecţii pe care le-am învăţat până în prezent este că niciodată n-ai să ştii leadership citind cărţi de dezvoltare personală. Mai întâi activează-ţi funcţia de creaţie şi afirmare personală !

Dumnezeu este interfaţa dintre credinţă şi ştiinţă. El reprezintă încrederea în îndeplinirea unui scop aflat aproape de limita imposibilului, dar tu trebuie să ai spiritul de discernământ spre a alege momentul şi mijloacele potrivite pentru a-l atinge.

Este şi asta un fel de apropiere aparte. Nu dintr-o dată, hop, poc. Apropie-te încet de cine trebuie, fără să se simtă tulburătoare prezenţa ta. Ca o pisică. Fix aşa. Elegant, fără grabă, uşor, câte un pic, fără să dai din coate, fără să calci oamenii pe picioare în înghesuiala asta, fără să insişti...

Dacă bătrânii se pierd tot mai mult cu fiecare zi, este pentru că universul grăbește vremea ca tinerii să schimbe complet mentalitatea lumii.

Să fii bătrân, atât de îmbătrânit încât să nu-ți recunoști bătrânețea, neștiința și neputința ei în fața legilor hazardului.

Visează... şi nu te opri niciodată din visat. Iar universul va schimba o întreagă lume, doar pentru tine.

Discuția conceptului de artă se poate încheia cu o întrebare simplă: ce este perspectiva pornind de la actul de creație?

Frumusețea nu poate să fie nimic mai mult dincolo de ce i s-a dat inițial de la natură să fie.

Printre reușitele artistice ale căror merite nu ne aparțin trebuie să distingem eșecurile artistice asupra cărora nu ne aplecăm atenția.

Unii îmbătrânesc și mor, alții întineresc și trăiesc veșnic.

Nu îți vei câștiga libertatea în Cer decât atunci când vei atinge perfecțiunea pe Pământ. Marea Știință este singura cale.

Vei rămâne prizonierul lui "așa a fost scris" până când vei fi în stare să-ți scrii singur evadarea din cartea pe care nu ai scris-o tu.

Adevărata meserie se învaţă ani de zile după ce termini facultatea.

Din tot ceea ce creezi să încerci faci o capodoperă, altfel creația ta va rămâne doar o compoziție fără linie melodică.

E ceva ce simţi intuitiv, dorindu-se a fi o facultate a sufletului care cunoaşte lucrurile dinainte ca ele să capete vreo formă.

Ceea ce experimentezi în faţa unei oglinzi face ca efectul de oglindă să-şi mărească intensitatea.

Gânditul în acord cu simţitul este cadrul unei linişti a conştiinţei care te face să uiţi că timpul trece.

Cuvântul privitor la privire este asemănător privirii ochiului care urmărește o imagine reflectată în oglindă.

Să conduci cuvântul în așa fel încât el să conducă o lume întreagă. La început a fost cuvântul.

Arta fără cuvântul artistic ar fi însemnat o lume lipsită de sensibilitate. Vei înțelege toate secretele artei numai atunci când vei fi în stare să construiești propriile tale secrete.

Cel mai simplu LEAD pentru o companie care vinde rochiţe: "Gândeşte-te la mine după felul în care te gândeşti la tine".

Un suflet mare îşi recunoaşte măreţia doar în faţa unui dublu al său.

Singura şi cea mai importantă condiţie pentru a înţelege cu adevărat artă este să fii un Creator.

Să faci din artă o ştiinţă, încât partea artistică a creaţiei tale să deschidă cheia unor noi emoţii, abordări şi interpretări.

Marii alchimişti sunt aceia care ştiu să facă din orice o Alchimie.

Oamenii mari sunt oamenii mici care şi-au croit cu răbdare drum spre măreţie.

Marea Ştiinţă este numai petru oamenii care îşi recunosc măreţia în câmpul creaţiei.

Marea Ştiinţă poate fi experimentată în acelaşi chip nemijlocit în care experimentezi ceea ce ţine de Creaţie şi Creator.

Arta este simbolul pierdut al Marii Ştiințe.

Cine înţelege arta din perspectiva creatorului îşi anulează condiţia de a fi finit.

Artei i se cuvine o vedere a infinitului prin frumuseţea creaţiei de mare profunzime.

Numai cel binecuvântat cu darul de a practica o artă deosebită, are puterea să schimbe o ştiinţă şi să o împingă înainte.

Numai cine duce ştiinţa la alt nivel se poate numi cunoscător, dar nu şi atotcunoscător.

Spune-mi în ce direcţie s-a mişcat ştiinţa datorită ţie, şi apoi putem vorbi despre Dumnezeu.

Arta este intensitatea cu care percepi o imagine înainte de a o transpune în creaţie.

Există două feluri de oameni: cei care schimbă lumea şi cei pe care lumea îi schimbă.

Un singur om poate schimba o întreagă lume, numai dacă face din acea lume organul unui singur tot.

Cine vrea mult se îndreaptă în direcția în care i se recunoaște valoarea. Cine vrea puțin nu are valoarea care atrage un plus de valoare.

Cel ce face puțin, înțelege puțin.

Frumosul nu poate fi scos în evidență decât de cineva frumos, cu un suflet bun.

Numai cei ce ştiu sunt îndreptăţiţi să vorbească despre lucrurile pe care nu le ştie nimeni.

Ştiinţa este ilustrarea măreţiei în planul nemuririi.

Am început să scriu prima carte strict legată de arta futuristă. Încă n-am decis titlul. Este păcat ca o ştiinţă atât de avansată pe care am dobândit-o în timp să nu fie condensată într-un volum care să-mi individualizeze puternic experienţa şi talentul.

Un om poate schimba o întreagă lume numai prin puterea Marii Ştiinţe.

Până şi ploaia îţi vorbeşte cu alte glasuri, trebuie doar s-o înţelegi.

Marea ştiinţă aparţine îngerilor, sau celor care ştiu să trăiască veşnic.

Focul, apa, cerul şi pământul, sunt menite să vină în ajutorul celui care ştie să le cuprindă într-o singură Creaţie.

Marea Ştiinţa se înclină în faţa celui ce ştie s-o mânuiască cel mai bine.

Întâlneşti câte un bătrân care toată viaţa lui n-a priceput ce-i aia Creaţia, dar care se identifică cu înţelepciunea. Hilar, nu-i aşa?

Nu te gândi că vei întârzia undeva, pentru că oricât de repede ai sosi, vei ajunge mereu prea târziu.

De ce să stai la vedere în mijlocul mulţimii? Să-ţi bată inima de vreo stare de bucurie intensă... Poate e mai drăguţ să-ţi alegi un loc liniştit, de unde să vezi tu foarte bine toată lumea.

Când cineva îţi propune "hai să scriem o carte împreună", îţi dai seama instantaneu care este nivelul de cunoaştere al respectivului.

Un gânditor adevărat nu are nevoie de ajutorul nimănui ca să contureze o operă literară, oricât de laborioasă ar fi ea. Asta fiindcă este conştient de capacităţile sale, în el sălăşuind o imaginaţie de mare originalitate.

Aţi auzit vreodată de vreun Victor Hugo care să-i propună lui Alexandre Dumas să colaboreze la publicarea unei cărţi, chiar dacă s-au născut în acelaşi an şi în aceeaşi ţară şi chiar dacă au locuit la doar câteva străzi distanţă unul de celălalt?

Marii titani nu-şi amestecă niciodată darurile între ei, oricât de apropiaţi ar fi.

P.S. Când ţi se face asemenea propunere de prost gust, aminteşte-i individului că:

OMUL FĂRĂ CARTE NU ARE CAPACITATEA DE A SCRIE SINGUR.

În leadership nu există competiţie. Atât de bun trebuie să fii într-un domeniu, încât toţi ceilalţi să renunţe a se compara cu tine. Triumful îţi va fi asigurat fără să duci nicio luptă, fără să se verse nicio picătură de sânge !

Câştigi tocmai pentru că nu ai competitori ! Ţii direcţia tot înainte şi toate drumurile ţi se deschid în faţă fără să întâlneşti nicio barieră.

Dacă încerci să te întreci cu cineva, sau dacă există măcar o singură persoană în lume capabilă să se ia la întrecere cu tine, înseamnă că nu ai ajuns prea departe cu ştiinţa conducerii.

P.S. N-am fost niciodată un om violent. Mi-a plăcut să câştig fără să pornesc în vreo luptă.

Şi tocmai ce mă văd cu un fost profesor universitar. Ce mai faceţi? Ce realizări mai aveţi în domeniul ştiinţei?

"Păi, nimic..."

Concluzia mea a venit instantaneu: Un om care nu schimbă coordonatele unei ştiinţe de la o zi la alta, acela nu se va putea numi niciodată erudit.

De aia se duce o naţiune la vale, fiindcă are prea mulţi profesori şi prea puţini erudiţi !

Să nu fugi de obstacole, ele te pot duce către succes dacă ştii să le ocoleşti. Păi ori fugi de ele, ori le ocolești? Oricum, amândouă variantele sunt pentru oamenii slabi. Numai cei puternici înving orice obstacole, dar niciodată nu le ocolesc și nici nu fug de ele. Să nu fugi de obstacole, ar trebui să ştii ce înseamnă asta: dacă tot zici practici atletismul, ei bine, obstacole sunt ca la o probă din atletism. Mulţi pierd cursa acolo. După ce alergi trebuie să sari, altfel, orice se iveşte în cale trebuie să confrunţi, ajungi sigur mai bine în nelămuririle personale. Îmi cer scuze dacă textul a fost greu de înţeles, eu ştiu sigur ce am dorit să transmit.

Atâția oameni se mândresc cu bogății materiale, dar niciunul nu mișcă gândirea în lumina științei. Ceea ce le lipsește este puterea faptei glorioase care dăinuiește veșnic. Murim în fiecare zi cu câte puţin din ce ne-am dorit şi nu am reuşit, cu ceva din ce am citit şi vedem că nu ni se întâmplă. Vrem sau nu, trăim din cărţi şi cu sprijinul necondiţionat al oamenilor care sunt în jurul nostru. Viaţa este ca o ruletă: o învârţi, însă sigur ea ştie de câte ori se învârteşte până se opreşte.

În fiecare noapte se repetă întunericul, ziua soare răsare mereu. Nimic nu se schimbă. Aici e diferenţa. Întunericul are rolul lui, dacă ai trăit ziua cu ce ai programat. Rău este când vine şi nu ai ceea ce îţi doreşti.

Nu te aștepta ca stelele să îți îndeplinească dorințele când vrei tu. Ar însemna ca Dumnezeu să se supună ție întru totul. Adică, bați din palme, și imediat Dumnezeu îți dă ascultare precum lampa lui Aladin? Chiar crezi că va da roade gândirea asta? Așa că stelele îți trimit norocul când hotărăște El de cuviință, iar tu trebuie să fii pe fază și să nu scapi acel moment.

Nu uita niciodată lucrul acesta: norocul apare când vrea Dumnezeu, nu când vrei tu. Nu vei fi niciodată în măsură să pui tu condiții și termeni Celui ce conduce întâmplarea.

Dar așa sunt mulți oameni, supărăcioși, aroganți, fiindcă nu se îndeplinesc dorințele fix când doresc ei. Asta se întâmplă fiindcă se pun ei înșiși pe primul plan, și ignoră orice act divin. Egoismul este adevărata problemă a lumii.

Cine ce are știință, duce știința mai departe. Cine nu are știință, nu duce nimica nicăieri.

Întotdeauna universul leagă spiritual pe cei cu adevărat buni din diverse domenii. Tot cerul și pământul îi vine în ajutor celui care stăpânește mai bine ca oricine Marea Știință.

Artă fac numai artiştii. Iar artist poţi fi în orice îţi propui, numai dacă reuşeşti să aduci totul la nivel de artă, chiar şi să eviţi, având intuiţie, situaţiile neplăcute.

Ca să te încrezi în stele, mai întâi caută să pătrunzi știința astrologiei, știința navigației, știința hărților, știința topografiei și legăturile cartografiei cu alte științe. Altfel nu vei pricepe nimic.

Unii spun că astrologia nu este o știință. Dar înțelegerea implică automat accesul la știință. Cum poți să prezici viitorul dacă nu cunoști mișcarea astrelor pe firmament? Poți vorbi despre ceva ce nu cunoști? Nu am zis că înțelege oricine astrologia, ci că astrologia nu este o știință. Dar înțelegerea implică automat accesul la știință. Cum poți să prezici viitorul dacă nu cunoști mișcarea astrelor pe firmament? Poți vorbi despre ceva ce nu cunoști?

Cine se încrede în stele este liber să se încreadă şi în cai verzi, fiecare o alege cum îşi duce mai departe ştiinţa zilei de mâine. Vorbeşti despre ştiinţă de parcă ai fi în primii zece oameni de ştiinţă. Cine este într-adevăr om de ştiinţă merge pe vârfuri şi face descoperiri. Prostimea află despre ei mai mult când ei nu mai există, însă sunt consacraţi. Am spus eu că nu e cineva liber să se încreadă în orice? De altfel, m-am adresat doar celor care gândesc ca mine, și care abordează procesul de explorare științifică. Tu explorezi ştiinţa în timp ce alergi? Pe bune?

Din fericire pentru mine nu am făcut balet, am practicat atletismul, îmi câştig existenţa ca urmare a acestui aspect. Recunosc că nu consider că am vreo legătură cu ştiinţa. Doar pentru acest motiv, nimeni nu îşi măsoară ceasul după câţi paşi de alergare fac eu. Rămân la părerea că ştiinţa este un domeniu în care nu ajunge oricine, iar cine ajunge nu are timp să vorbească despre asta dimineaţă, la prânz şi seară. Cred că îţi scapă un amănunt: am făcut sport de performanţă, atletism, lucrez în domeniul sportului, petrec şi am petrecut mult timp, sunt ultimul căruua trebuie să îi vorbeşti despre asta.

Cine a zis că trebuie să ţin aici conferinţe despre sport...eventual să postez diplomele de studii în domeniu? Faptul că postezi în cât timp parcurgi distanţe nu înseamnă că eşti om de sport. Este o vorbă: şi caii aleargă. Da, bineînțeles. Chiar şi caii participă la concursuri de echitaţie şi competiţii ecvestre. Cred că au sportul în sânge, mai ceva ca oamenii. Dar de fiecare dată știința face totul. A alerga bine implică modul cum respiri, la ce diferențe de timp și de nivel schimbi modul de respirație, cum și când mărești pasul, când și cum miști brațele, când și cum ridici genunchii, cum te hidratezi, ce săruri iei ca să te menții pe timp cald sau rece, cum trebuie să mergi în urcare pe un teren sau pe altul, când trebuie să mărești pasul, când trebuie să mărești ritmul, etc. Altfel nu faci nicio performanță. Este o știință în toate.

Cum zici tu, ne putem scrie mult şi bine. În ritmul acesta trebuie să ne oprească cineva. Te rog să petreci puțin timp printre sportivii de performanță, și vei vedea despre ce vorbesc ei toată ziua și toată noaptea. Tu ai pornit subiectul despre sport, se vede că scrii multe despre viaţa ta sportivă, şi în acest caz cum poţi fi ultima persoană căreia trebuie să îi vorbeşti despre asta? (Mai ales când tu spui mai multe ca oricine despre sport).

Omul care dispune de o putere spirituală superioară este cel a cărui știință traversează o parte a infinitului în macrocosmos.

Cine contribuie la progresul științei găsește în permanență ceva nou de descoperit și de arătat. Cine nu are știință, nu descoperă nimic și nu are nimic de arătat.

Oricât ar fi de frig, să fii mereu acolo unde te recunoști ca fiind tu. La antrenamente nu există falsitate, nu sunt oglinzi în care să te admiri, nu este public care să te aplaude.

Ești singur cu gândurile tale. Nu ai cum să pierzi, nu ai cum să câștigi. Simți doar că ți-ai găsit puterea de a fi prezent într-un loc care te-a învățat că poți fi mult mai mult decât ești.

Noptile au farmecul lor. Sa stii sa asculti intunericul, fiecare luminita.... Si sa nu pierzi niciodata din vedere steaua norocoasa !

A fi unde doresti inseamna ca esti un om liber , falsitate exista mereu unde sunt oameni, adica indivizi, nu e nevoie de oglinzi , doar cand alergi de unul singur esti tu cu tine , altfel oamenii au mereu pareri despre orice.

O zodie de foc se recunoaşte după focul pe care îl poartă înăuntru, şi care se eliberează numai prin mişcare energică !

Culorile sunt manifestări ale picturii valabile pe linia unei vieţi care nu-şi epuizează niciodată misterele.

Cei mici vor deveni cu totul neinsemnati, cei mari se vor inalta tot mai mult. Unii sunt tot timpul pe PLUS, alții sunt tot timpul pe MINUS.

Să duci știința la un alt nivel. Și de vei reuși să produci această sfântă alchimie, sub forma "Marii Opere", atunci Universul îți va dărui o stea strălucitoare peste toate veacurile din Eden.

Schimbarea cu adevărat importantă va veni din direcția la care nimeni nu se așteaptă, exact de la persoana la care nimeni nu se așteaptă.

Au mai rămas doar câteva zile până la Anul Nou. Dar în aceste câteva zile, atât de multe se vor schimba în lume. Nu vă lăsați copleșiți de rutină sau de tranziție. Internetul nu stă la masă niciodată de sărbători, nu obosește nicio clipă. Tehnologia se poate schimba radical în doar câteva zile. Majoritatea lumii încă nu conștientizează puterea internetului și a limbajelor de programare. Iar surprizele apar tocmai de sărbători, când majoritatea lumii petrece.
Sărbători fericite !

Gânduri din colţurile memoriei (IV)

Să știi să vezi ce este în fața ta. Iar tot ce trebuie să vezi se așează singur în fața ta.

În clipa când soarele va deveni mai roșu ca niciodată la apus, atunci să știți că totul va deveni roșu în lume. Foarte mulți își vor pierde și viața și averile. Impostura, lăcomia și corupția vor dispărea. Inteligența Artificială va fi singurul aliat al lumii.

Cine este mai predispus către avansarea în domeniul științific și progresul intelectual: individul care contribuie constant cu inovații, sau cel care nu manifestă nicio contribuție notabilă?

Cine are știință face totul pentru știință. Cine nu are știință, nu face nimic pentru știință. Nimic, nimic, nimic...

Cine are cunoștințe bogate, acela dezvăluie tot mai multe aspecte și nuanțe ale cunoașterii și experienței sale. Cel care dispune de cunoștințe limitate nu poate oferi nimic lumii.

Celor ce nu au făcut nimic pentru știință le amintesc cum gândeau oamenii mari care au făcut totul pentru știință. Leonardo da Vinci: "O minunată știință! Tu păstrezi viața frumuseților trecătoare ale muritorilor și le asiguri o dăinuire mult mai mare decât operelor naturii."

Cine crede că are vreo putere s-ar putea să aleagă că de fapt nu are nicio putere. Adevărata putere vine din felul cum îți folosești vederea, așa încât vederea să devină o lumină în întuneric.

Să știi să vezi cât mai bine, iar dacă tu nu vezi, o să vadă natura în locul tău. Fiecare fir de iarbă îți va spune mereu altceva, dacă știi să citești cartea naturii. Asta este partea spirituală pe care puțini o ating în Marea Cunoașterii.

Oamenii înzestrați cu harul cunoașterii au o conexiune specială cu darurile divine. Impostorii nu vor atinge niciodată sfera prețioasă a marii cunoașteri. La fel ca și divinitatea, marea luminoasă a cunoașterii nu este dezvăluită oricui.

Omul înzestrat cu inteligență triumfă în orice confruntare folosind doar puterea cuvintelor. Când argumentele lipsesc, omul lipsit de înțelepciune apelează la forța brută pentru a se impune. Trebuie să fii superior și în această luptă a voinței și determinării.

Oamenii sunt egali într-un întreg armonios matematic. Doar cei ce ies din ecuația egalității devin factori unici care îmbogățesc diversitatea spectrului uman. 3 + 3 = 1 x 6

Dacă tu crezi că știi să vezi, fii sigur că altcineva știe să vadă mult mai bine.

La orele de istorie, sunt prezentate pe scurt schițele de portret ale diversilor domnitori sau președinți de stat. Ora se încheie, elevii plictisiți de explicații laborioase, se gândesc deja la petrecerea de vineri noapte. Cam asta a fost totul despre marii conducători. Jocurile pe calculator sunt infinit mai interesante. Apoi, atenția se îndreaptă spre cozile infernale de oameni, care plătesc minim 29 de euro cu 5 zile înainte, care așteaptă la rând încă vreo 2 ore, doar ca să vadă plafonul pictat de Michelangelo cu aproximativ 600 de ani în urmă. Acum, vă dați seama care este imensa diferență dintre toți conducătorii de stat, toți la un loc, și un singur Creator?

Singurul care contează cu adevărat este cel ce știe multe și arată lumii tot ce știe. Restul vin și pleacă. Prinți și prințese, regi și regine. Cu mic, cu mare. Cum vin, așa se duc…

Unii duc știința la un alt nivel, alții nu duc nimic nicăieri.

Să faci în așa fel încât creația ta să fie mai frumoasă și mai reușită decât ar putea s-o facă Dumnezeu.

Numai atunci vei înțelege cu adevărat arta, și numai atunci Dumnezeu îți va pune o stea pe cer.

Un om cu adevărat talentat este un om de neîntrecut în lume. Și el știe un singur lucru: N-am învățat absolut nimic de la niciun profesor. Tot ce știu am învățat numai de la mine.

Degeaba îți place arta, ție, om al fineții și rafinamentului, dacă nu știi să faci din tine însuți o operă de artă. Artiștii fără a lor proprie creație sunt ca vioara fără strune.

Când o să înceapă nebunia, toți își vor pierde averile. Și mulți, nu doar averile…

Gânduri din colţurile memoriei (I)

On Iulie 01, 2021

O memorie care te-ar putea ajuta să îţi menţii creierul sănătos este generată de întreţinerea unor gânduri de moment care stăruie atât cât răbdarea artistului de ocazie este menţinută la un nivel acceptabil de intensitate (care să nu deregleze viața).

E remarcabil că atunci când se apropie norii, și ploaia, toată lumea își păstrează veselia la terasele montane. Aseară, când s-a dat alarma de urs (Ro Alert) toată lumea era panicată prin zonă. N-am văzut niciun urs, deși mă aflam fix pe strada pe care a fost văzut ursul.

Aceste motive profund semnificative ale pericolelor vor fi întâlnite mereu, în forme diferite. Uneori va lipsi apariția ajutorului gata să intervină într-un moment critic. Mai zic ceva. Toate acestea sunt temele recurente ale unei dezbateri ce descrie marea aventură a spiritului.

Cred că, până la urmă, munca periculoasă și dificilă a autocunoașterii este calea cea mai puțin aventuroasă a rutinei obișnuite.

Viața trăită în timp este mai importantă decât viața trăită la timp. Uneori finalul fericit este luat în derâdere tocmai și numai de muritorii de rând, a căror falsă reprezentare a vieții este clipa trăită în prezent.

Omul fericit se unește cu omul care suferă atunci când sentimentul individualității aparențelor oprește mintea în fața vreunui eveniment de mare impact. Și numai o cauză secretă stă înaintea înțelegerii dintre ei: mintea absorbită de spectacolul vieții.

Cred că totul din jur ascultă ce vorbesc cu mine însumi, și cred că astfel am început și eu să ascult totul din jur. Natura este învelișul exterior al gândurilor mele, totul din jur este resortul de căpetenie al naturii mele.

O memorie care te-ar putea ajuta să îţi menţii creierul sănătos este generată de întreţinerea unor gânduri de moment care stăruie atât cât răbdarea artistului de ocazie este menţinută la un nivel acceptabil de intensitate (care să nu deregleze viața).

Viața are un caracter permanent atunci când este transpusă într-o poveste care face înconjurul lumii. Una este să vorbești despre o știință, cu totul altceva este să schimbi direcția unei științe.

Arta este felul Creatorului de a spune: Îți dăruiesc un strop de culoare pentru a da inimii tale vraja de a crea candoare.

Când transformi gândurile în cuvinte simți de parcă ai călca un pământ sfințit. Prezența ta în mijlocul cuvintelor conferă gândurilor învățătura miraculoasă a unui sfânt.

Viața mea se învârtește strict în jurul cuvintelor și asta e foarte important, pentru că eu nu sunt un cuvânt.

Să te încrezi în realitatea unei povești până ce ea se apropie de calea vieții tale. Asta înseamnă să fii un scriitor care își vede viața ca o călătorie trăită de la distanță.

Ochii artistului au privirea îngăduită de continua înălțare a inimii către Dumnezeu, într-un joc al contrastelor de lumină și al nuanțelor derivate din banalitate.

Un om care nu își măsoară bogăția în procesele creației și ale descoperirilor științifice, este un om atât de sărac în ochii universului.

Cine nu a ştiut să aprecieze timpul câştigat, va fi nevoit să aprecieze timpul pierdut.

Întreaga materie dă ascultare omului de ştiinţă care caută cu inimă curată ceea ce este viu în ruine.

Caută să-ți însușești valorile înalte ale științei, prin intermediul artei, înainte de a ajunge la inteligența financiară. Aceasta este adevărata spiritualitate.

Orice îți face plăcere să faci, fă-o ca și când ai avea de îndeplinit o sarcină artistică. Și s-o faci așa încât știința să fie mărturia artisticului.

Te-ai autoeducat să te plasezi mereu într-o dinamică amplă ! Să te mişti rapid şi hotărât atunci când toţi ceilalţi se odihnesc ! Şi uite aşa, ajungi înaintea tuturor...

Toți sunt înțelepți, dar mai puțin înțeleptul, zise înțeleptul. Și dacă toți sunt înțelepți, dar mai puțin înțeleptul, atunci nimic nu e mai înțelept în această lume decât să nu fii înțelept.

Priveşte supărarea omului înainte de a-i vedea bucuria. Omul care nu-şi uită supărarea, nu-şi va găsi nici bucuria.

Să nu-ți faci chip cioplit, adică să nu-i vezi niciodată pe alții mai presus de tine. Ești și ai fost dintotdeauna mai bun decât toți. Să nu uiți asta !

Dacă ar trebui să scriu un tratat despre artă, probabil l-aş intitula: "O mie de tratate despre artă."

Te-am revăzut hăt, de departe, De departe mai aproape, Şi acum, fiindu-ţi tare aproape, E momentul să te rog: Nu mai pleca aşa departe !

Orice despartire respira aerul desertic al unui castel de nisip darâmat de zborul unei pasari alegorice. Ai putea sa scrii orice, dar daca nu te apuci de scris n-ai sa ajungi nicaieri cu nicio idee.

Ţin pustiul departe de traversarea mea prin el, ştiind de rănile pe care mi le poate provoca sentimentul de a iubi cu mintea. Tăcerea este o bancă goală care își așteaptă bătrânețea. Ori bătrânețea e o bancă goală care nu își suportă tăcerea.

Dacă o vază plină cu flori se varsă pe nisip, atunci fiecare floare, oricât de delicată ar fi ea, se transformă în nisip... iar vaza din nisip este făcută, şi tot în nisip se întoarce...

Să parcurgi distanța de la pământ la cer este echivalentul parcurgerii distanței de la utopie la știință.

Meditează la fiecare lucru minor care s-a întâmplat în timpul zilei. Și poate vei descoperi înțelesurile ascunse ale încercărilor care te așteaptă.

Creatorul este un artist al sensului vieții, capabil să construiască o punte deasupra lucrurilor trecătoare.

Ştiinţa artistului este puterea de a da strălucire unei culori care marchează miezul vieţii sale.

Inspirația vine din clipa în care ajungi să înțelegi ce se petrece de fapt în realitate. Inspiraţia este primul înțeles al cunoașterii direcționate asupra realității interioare.

Actul de creație este similar cu construcția unui tablou căruia pictorul îi pune in evidență culoarea propriei viziuni expresioniste.

O carte scrisă fără artă, fără metafore, este ca o încăpere lipsită de orice element decorativ.

Cuvintele mari sunt o chestiune de loialitate: nu te poți îndepărta de ele fără să ți le amintești continuu.

Încearcă să mânuiești cuvintele la fel cum ai conduce un Cadillac în opera "20,000 leghe sub mări". Asta înseamnă să fii un artist al profunzimii condus de un simbol al luxului.

Tragedia este viața sfârșită a unui om fără Dumnezeu în suflet, care visează la o limuzină albă, decapotabilă.

Discreția este pasiunea unui scriitor care își construiește personajele prin divulgarea calității lor de a-și urma strigătul tăcerii.

Nu încerca să fii precum personajele scriitorului tău preferat. Fii personajul preferat al scriitorului din tine care își gândește altfel viața.

Mulți oameni își ridică importanța la nivel de noblețe, fără să își închipuie cât de mici și neînsemnați sunt în orice domeniu al științei.

Manipulatorul are o așteptare mai înaltă de la sine când este ascultat de către ceilalți. Iar cei manipulați au o mare îndoială de sine.

Oamenii cu adevărat extraordinari se afirmă prin realizările ştiinţifice de anvergură, nu prin prisma poziţiei pe care o deţin.

Omul care nu știe să folosească internetul nu știe nimic nici despre univers, nici despre felul cum o minte se conectează la toate celelalte minți.

La saxofon rătăcirile sufletului sunt redate întotdeauna în note de toamna înalte.

Un parfum bine ales trădează o privire tentantă, dar nu orice privire poate simţi parfumul capabil să o inspire.

Frumusețea naturii include parfumul de tei pe care îl inspiri cu seninătatea dispoziției meditative.

Tăcerea nu garantează niciodată întoarcerea timpului într-o clepsidră.

Orgoliul este un copac care nu mai înflorește, dar stă mereu falnic în picioare.

N-o fă pe deşteptul dacă ştii că nu eşti un om inteligent.

Legea definitorie a cunoașterii: Ușorul pe care îl faci este adesea greul pe îl întâmpină ceilalți.

Tăcerile eliberate din iubire ascund mirajul unui tablou pictat cu vise fără somn.

Adevăraţii învingători sunt cei care aduc schimbări în dimensiunile şi conţinutul ştiinţei.

Ca să schimbi un sistem, trebuie să apelezi la cineva din afara sistemului. Sistemul nu este schimbător decât atunci când cineva îi refuză orice dogmă.

Marile secrete se dezvăluie numai celor ce apreciază lucrurile simple şi accesibile ce îi înconjoară în viaţa de zi cu zi.

Niciodată să nu apeşi prea tare pedala de acceleraţie: rişti să ajungi prea repede într-un loc care nu-şi găseşte sensul.

Dacă nu știi să privești în direcția care trebuie, nu vei ști niciodată în ce punct te afli.

Iubirea şi pasiunea ce-o avem în noi este melodia cântată de corul dorului de noi înşine.

Fii desăvârșit numai acolo unde ești numărul 1 în lume. Și nicidecum în alte direcții.

Nu este vorba despre "a fi acolo". Ci trebuie să simţi bine când altcineva tace.

Nu este vorba despre ceea ce vrea și îți poate oferi cineva. Ci trebuie să crezi ceea ce nu vezi.

Dacă Dumnezeu este un Creator desăvârșit, atunci numai artiștii cei mai reprezentativi Îl pot înțelege.

Toată știința lumii se raportează la trei mari indicatori de rezultate: Experiment, Creație și Descoperire.

Omul care nu se implică cu tot sufletul într-o poveste, nu se va putea numi niciodată personaj principal.

Nu te îndepărta niciodată de talentul tău nativ. Este ca şi când l-ai părăsi pe Dumnezeu.

Sa faci totdeauna ce-ti place, si nu vei munci niciodata.

Să simţi... să ai o privire sănătoasă... să iei aminte... să discerni... să alegi ceea ce este semnificativ.

Sunt oameni care oricât de multă știință ar avea, tot nu aduc nimic inovator în știință. Adevărata menire a științei/privirii este să sporească potențialul de creație.

Succesul obținut prea devreme este eșecul suferit în fața creșterii performanței. Cel mai complex indicator al creșterii performanței este răbdarea.

Secretul Kabalei este precum cerul senin: cuprinde toate stelele, cu toate că nu se văd toate.

Imaginea pe care o dai lumii despre tine poate fi ca acele lucruri care stupefiază, dar nu sunt niciodată culese, fiindcă nu dau roade.

Niciun zâmbet nu răsare dintr-un deșert înțelept, dar arid.

Să înveţi de la fiecare trecător, ca şi când ai fi însuţi doar un trecător.

Cine își face planuri mari va fi reorientat de planurile mult mai mari ale universului. Fii schimbarea pe care o cere universul.

Dacă nu te apropii de lucruri cât sunt calde, o să-ți fie atât de greu să te apropii de ele când sunt reci, ca gheața.

Cine nu reușește să vadă semnele lui Dumnezeu, probabil nu a învățat lecțiile pe care i le-a dat deja viața.

Ce dai, aia primești, cu căldură sau răceală. Dacă nu ți-au plăcut căldura și lumina, vei suporta frigul și întunericul.

Îndrăzneşte să fii mereu tu însuţi, pentru ca tot ce te preocupă să nu fie atât de dur cu tine însuţi.

Prietenii pe care ți-i alegi îți vor hotărî viitorul. Deci, matematic vorbind, dacă vrei să-ți hotărăști doar tu viitorul…

Oglindeşte-ţi frumusețea sufletului în generarea unei creații care are puterea să-ți schimbe destinul într-o stea. Asta înseamnă să fii artist.

Vei primi ce meriți în această lume atunci când singura ta miză este împărăția cerurilor. Acestei lumi îi este destinată șoapta îngerilor.

Să transformi performanţa activităţilor tale într-o artă rafinată care să contribuie cu o mie de ani la dezvoltarea lumii.

Cuvintele sunt o religie a cunoaşterii bazată pe dualitate şi nondualitate.

Prea mulți bătrâni se duc fără să fi făcut nimic pentru știință și pentru Dumnezeu. Ei n-au înțeles viața fiindcă le-a lipsit știința de a-l cunoaște pe Dumnezeu.

Ceea ce nu uiţi niciodată este ceea ce trăieşti când visezi. Un vis puternic nu se pierde niciodată prin uitare.

Ceea ce socotești ca fiind o realitate imposibil de negat, poate fi de fapt un avertisment pentru trezirea conștiinței.

Învaţă să faci zgomot în inima mea pentru că auzul cuvintelor mele să se deschidă ca o străfulgerare înaintea gândurilor tale.

Mai bine o oglindă spartă decât o oglindă dublă…prima te vede doar într-un singur timp, cealaltă te vede în două locuri diferite în acelaşi timp.

Niciodată nu te vei simți mai eliberat de incertitudini decât atunci când dai sens unui moment de calmitate trăit departe de lume.

Să știi totul din ceea ce nu ar fi trebuit să știi decât cu prețul uitării tale. A ști înseamnă să prețuiești leacul multor dureri.

Triumful cel mai de preț al descoperitorului este fapta nemuritoare. Destinul unei legende reflectă pasiunea pentru o acțiune cutezătoare.

Omul care nu poate să ordone materiei să-i dea ascultare, nu se va putea numi niciodată om de ştiinţă.

Să vezi ceea ce simțurile îți permit să percepi în momentul acela stringent, apoi încearcă să intuiești chestiile improbabile care nu se văd.

Un om care are rezistenţă este mai preţuit decât un om care are putere. Cel ce excelează într-un domeniu reuşeşte adesea să descifreze mistere și să facă noi descoperiri importante în alte domenii.

Este greu să înțelegi ceea ce nimeni altcineva nu ar putea înțelege. Și chiar și atunci când ai înțeles, tot nimeni nu te va înțelege.

Schimbă subiectul pe care ştii că nu-l poţi mânui foarte bine, altfel subiectul o să te transforme într-o persoană diferită.

Trezeşte-te dimineaţa ca şi cum nu ai fi dormit noaptea, şi vezi dacă poţi să visezi ancorându-te în realitate. Deznodământul zilei de azi este revelația zilei de mâine.

Aminteşte-ţi cine eşti şi din ce neam te tragi. Nu-ţi uita originile sfinte. Ascultă bine, observă cu atenţie, şi încearcă să înţelegi ce se ascunde în spatele tuturor enigmelor lumii. Cheia este acel roşu de culoarea trandafirului.

Actul de creație este similar cu construcția unui tablou căruia pictorul îi pune în evidență continuitatea vieții sale în istorie.

Să păstrezi pe retină viziunea lumii într-un moment de neatenție. Te întorci fără încetare într-un moment care scapă privirii tale.

Singura imagine adevărată a acestei lumi impresionează printr-o privire înceţoşată. Ochii trebuie să suporte mereu căderea nopții.

Ochii incolori au întotdeauna o privire goală. Nu contează ce spun ochii atâta vreme cât ei reflectă pustietate.

Să duci știința la un alt nivel, în numele progresului. Dar mai întâi fii un vizionar !

Puţini se nasc învingători, dar numai cei născuţi învingători ocupă un loc bun în fruntea marilor destine. Soarele poate fi văzut şi atunci când luminează cerul, şi atunci când luminează pământul.

Să depășești belșugul creației tale, adunând cu grijă orice fărâme de realitate, cu văzute și nevăzute legături între ele. Timpul nu este niciodată potrivit pentru a face potriviri între opera creată şi procesul creator.

Să știi să faci o știință din orice știință, înlocuind "vechiul" prin "modern". Cel ce are în el credința numită știință va face din orice lucru o extensie a gândirii sub forma științei și tehnologiei.

Când toți cad, cineva puternic se ridică. Și se ridică tot mai mult, fiindcă a hotărât să nu cadă niciodată. Scriitorii buni nu își găsesc inspirația în citate celebre. Însăși viața lor este povestea unui gând care mereu se reinventează.

Poți să ajungi la rădăcina unui adevăr atunci când hoinărești singur. Cartea este încăperea largă cu o splendidă vedere spre un fluviu al memoriei universale care alimentează sensul vieții tale.

Toate subiectele posibile ale artei nu pot ocoli subiectul creației, la fel cum lucrarea Creatorului nu poate ocoli centrul universului. Mai important decât vorbele extrase din experiența vieții este povestea în care viața îți înghite vorbele.

Când Dumnezeu plantează un trandafir într-un loc, tot acel loc înflorește cum nu se poate mai frumos. Azi mai încet, mâine mai rapid. Important este să te regăseşti acolo unde ţi-ai format caracterul. Înțelepciunea pe care Dumnezeu a pus-o în viața omului este puterea de înţelegere a unei suferințe care își caută alinarea într-o realitate autonomă. Candoarea este expresia unei inimi care generează o înţelegere mai uşoară a experienţei de conştiinţă extinsă.

Rămâi cine ești fără să te schimbi pentru cine ai putea deveni. Fii același chiar dacă nu ești pregătit să îți suporți neclintirea. Fii un creator cu inimă de ciocolată, încât arta ta să inspire acel sentiment de gust dulce adăugat ştiinţei în favoarea vieţii. Nu te întrista de povestea altora, ci transform-o într-o adevărată fortăreață clădită pe ideea măririi calității vieții tale.

Un om al cuvintelor este un artist al îmbinării culorilor. Ia seama să nu devii o culoare greu de descris în cuvinte. Cei ce nu cred în cuvintele tale sunt aceeaşi oameni care nu se pricep la cuvinte. Cuvintele au darul de a nu fi pricepute decât de cei pricepuţi în mânuirea lucrurilor simple. Prea multă mândrie într-un cuvânt, ce-i drept, prea mândru. Prea mult orgoliu într-un cuvânt numit orgoliu. Cu multă grijă mi-am câştigat dreptul de a rosti un cuvânt numit "mândrie" care a putut să mă propulseze înaintea celorlalţi.

Ceea ce nu vine la timp...nu mai vine niciodată.

Prima regulă a desăvârșirii în artă este să știi să vezi ceea ce nimeni altcineva nu este în stare să vadă.

Să știi să vezi într-un singur bob de nisip mereu o altă privire, fără să îți consumi niciodată privirea. Asta este Marea Știință.

Cine a propus o noua viziune asupra științei, și cine a realizat un mare pas în evoluția științei, acela își va câștiga strălucirea pe care o dă universul stelelor sale.

Ca sa gasesti lampa lui Aladin, mai intai trebuie sa fii Aladin.

Să duci știința la un nivel foarte avansat, în timp ce alții asistă neputincioși la schimbarea înfăptuită de tine.

Cel care conduce știința, conduce și expansiunea universului.

Să faci din leadership o adevărată artă, pe care Marea Știință să o memoreze ca unitate reprezentativă pentru veșnicie. Și numai unul singur poate face asta.

Ca să te încrezi în stele, mai întâi caută să pătrunzi astrologia, știința navigației, știința hărților, știința topografiei și legăturile cartografiei cu alte științe. Altfel nu vei pricepe nimic.

Întotdeauna universul leagă spiritual pe cei cu adevărat buni din diverse domenii.

Tot cerul și pământul îi vine în ajutor celui care stăpânește mai bine ca oricine Marea Știință.

Credința adevărată nu are legătură cu rugăciunile, ci cu știința. Cine mișcă bolovanul din loc nu este cel care se roagă, ci acela care găsește un mijloc eficient de a-l împinge.

Omul neinspirat așteaptă mereu ziua cea norocoasă. Omul de acțiune face tot ce este posibil pentru ca orice zi să fie una norocoasă.

Iar cel ce face un pas uriaș înainte este întotdeauna un reprezentant al științei.

Și cine n-a propus o nouă viziune asupra științei, și cine n-a realizat un mare pas în evoluția științei, acela nici nu-și va câștiga strălucirea pe care o dă universul stelelor sale.

Dacă un singur om din lume reușește să schimbe total un domeniu al științei, atunci toate celelalte domenii ale științei se vor schimba radical. Un singur om, născut într-o zodie norocoasă.

Când toți cad, cineva puternic se ridică. Și se ridică tot mai mult, fiindcă a hotărât să nu cadă niciodată.

Gândiţi-vă puţin. Câte mii de coduri apar zilnic pe internet, făcute de cei care au dorinţa de a-i ajuta pe ceilalţi. Dar acum gândiţi-vă la un alt aspect. Cam câte alte sute de mii de coduri, cu adevărat geniale, nu apar niciodată pe internet. Abia alea sunt codurile cu adevărat strălucite, dar care trebuie să ajute numai pe cineva care ştie să tragă foloase de pe urma gandirii sale...Important este să laşi măcar nişte firimituri de cod în urma ta, ceva care să-i ajute puţin şi pe alţii.

O calatorie fara finalizare in dragoste este o rugaminte care contine cuvantul "indepartare". Deci, sa ne apropiem...

Eu nu sunt pentru finit. Sunt pentru infinit.

E greu să faci artă fără să fii artist, dar şi mai greu este să fii artist fără să faci artă. Arta fac oamenii de arta , artist poti fi in orice iti propui daca reusesti sa aduci la nivel de arta totul, chiar si sa eviti , avand intuitie , situatiile neplacute

Nu există decât infinitul. Și nu ai nevoie decât de un singur punct, chiar mai mic decât un vârf de ac, ca să construiești infinitul. Cine a înțeles asta, are toată știința lumii de partea lui.

Sunt două feluri de oameni: cei care inițiază schimbarea în câmpul unei științe, și cei care nu au înțeles mobilul schimbării, nici valoarea Marii Științe.

Trebuie să știi ce să citești dacă vrei cu adevărat să înveți ceva din cărți.

Trebuue să ai norocul să întâlnești cărțile norocoase. Sau, mai bine zis, să te găsească ele pe tine.

Să nu cauți niciodată un diamant într-o grădină plină cu flori.

Este greu să vorbeşti despre artă, dacă nu ştii să faci artă.

Omul care face totul pentru știință și creație, este un om încercat de Dumnezeu.

Creația este răspunsul științei la întrebarea: cine este Dumnezeu.

Omul care se întoarce la trecut, este omul care nu are niciun viitor.

Omul care îl are pe Dumnezeu în suflet, are și competența creației produsă din nimic.

Omul care nu ştie să vadă nu se poate numi vizionar. Trebuie să ştii ca să cunoşti.

Salut iniţiativa facultăţilor din Cluj şi Timişoara de a efectua scanarea tuturor cărţilor aflate în bibliotecile lor. În special aceste două oraşe mari, cu facultăţi foarte bune, au început încă din anul 2011 scanarea tuturor cărţilor vechi sau noi. Peste 35% dintr-un total de circa 145.000 de volume au fost deja scanate si clasate.

Inclusiv licenţele şi doctoratele sunt deja introduse într-o bază de date (în format pdf) şi multe apar pe internet. Cred că cineva deschis la minte şi-a pus întrebarea: "De ce trebuie ca munca studentul să zacă prăfuită printr-o debara, şi să fie dată uitării, când la fel de bine ar putea servi ca sursă de inspiraţie pentru alte persoane care caută informaţii pe internet?"

Plus de asta, este mult mai uşor să depistezi un plagiat dacă ai o bază de date cu lucrările şi cărţile scanate în format pdf (Making A PDF Text-searchable)

Gânduri rar mărturisite în preajma artei

On Februarie 02, 2019

În artă trebuie să simţi prezenţa indirectă a pictorului aflat în plin proces de creaţie, dar în acelaşi timp trebuie să te vezi în ipostaza de supravieţuitor al unei lumi părăsite.

Încercam să văd totul din perspectiva unei umbre abătute peste o parte din viaţa mea, specifică stării de solitudine a unui scriitor în raport cu actul creaţiei, înainte de a urma drumul spre încununarea cu succes a unui mod inovator de a gândi. Înaintea tentativei de a reda o realitate străină de tot ce trăisem până atunci, încărcată cu misterul unei naraţiuni pline de suspans, stătea însăşi experienţa unei arte ancorată în tumultul vieţii.

Umbra simbolizează aspectele ascunse ale sinelui, referindu-se la acele părţi ale personalităţii mele care au fost respinse de claritatea unei imagini artistice vizuale, material suport pentru poezia unui tablou pe care privitorul trebuia să-l judece după cauza unei inerţii formale, nu după efectul de glorie al vreunui moment deosebit, emblematic și plin de încărcătură emoţională.

Niciodată nu mai fusesem absorbit de implicaţiile unui clarobscur atât de straniu al ambiguităţii stării de spirit, în faţa unui moment care părea să adune într-un singur loc multe dimensiuni şi realităţi diferite. Orice încercare de a mă apropia de artă constituia o simplă experienţă de dedublare, o căutare a altei fiinţe în propria memorie, neagră şi înşelătoare, cu o acuitate ce risca să pună în circuitul lumii ficţionale o nouă instanţă: "Metafora Perfectă".

Teoria cunoaşterii artistice se bazează în mod firesc pe lumină, întrucât majoritatea artelor sunt vizuale. Dar în acest caz ea părea a surprinde un colţ din infernul unui imperiu resuscitat, un subiect de care se poate ocupa doar Proiectul SF al unui scriitor care utilizează cuvântul în sensul esenţei unei entităţi fizice şi morale care depăşeşte graniţele unei creaţii convenţionale.

Acestui fenomen de asumare a unei ambianţe crepusculare am încercat să-i atribui o nuanţă de mister, o intrigă complexă, suspans inteligent dozat, pentru ca arta mea să capete accente de thriller cu multe teme de gândit. Calea cea mai rapidă de a dezvolta o zonă cu potenţial de a atrage privitorii era să mă surprind eu însumi într-un alb-negru desăvârşit care plasa tabloul închipuit într-un cadru mai larg de gândire şi reflecţie.

Leadership: Poţi să imprimi un nou sens imaginii vizuale ce valorifică sugestiile unei metafore structuratoare, astfel încât să-ţi împodobeşti arta cu calitatea de a îndeplini exigenţele impuse de emoţii?

Arta te încarcă cu semnificaţie, dar şi cu tensiune. Când totul se vede ca printr-un val de ceaţă, parcă înecându-ţi toată existenţa într-un câmp de semnificaţie impregnat de introspecţii aduse în zona unui fenomen sinistru, eşti îndreptăţit să te recunoşti intrat în pielea unui artist care atribuie noi proprietăţi lucrurilor ce nu depind de iluminarea exterioară, ci doar de un mod inovator de a le privi într-un context de izolare.

Cu siguranţă, metafora perfectă care se potrivea micii mele incursiuni într-un sine poetic dedat introspecţiilor abisale putea fi exprimată precum: "durerea surdă şi adâncă a unei minţi rătăcite."

Imaginea vizuală creată aici trimite spre negativul unei vieţi care acumulează cel mai mare mister: puritatea de a înfrunta realitatea, egoul, durerea, temerile, destinul, oricare ar fi el. Ea nu înfăţişează chipul unui om neliniştit, ci acea zonă a emoţiilor din lăuntrul fiinţei sale printr-o îngroşare a tuşei, prin predominanţa culorilor reci şi şterse (gri, albastru).

Una din exigenţele impuse de emoţiile unei comparaţii puternice şi revelatoare cu privire la ceea ce te defineşte ca artist este capacitatea de a vedea în modelul tău o latură diferită a firii tale şi o latură diferită a aceleaşi suferinţe care vă leagă.

Era destul de grea încercarea de a fi defini proiecţia prezenţei mele într-un fel de „locul de nicăieri” din utopia unor gânduri, vise sau amintiri trăite ca experiențe de acces la o nouă stare de conştiinţă de sine, una de tip "lunar". Dar nu imposibilă, fiindcă în artă contează mai mult planul expresiei sensibile desprinsă perceptiv din contextul experienţei concrete, decât conjunctura dezvăluirii rolului unei personalităţi uitată de lume.

În cazul meu, cred că expresionismul abstract ar fi putut trece drept o inițiativă de a construi o zonă de tranziţie spre un alt tărâm, descris cu sobrietatea istoricului erudit drept un demers de retrospectivă fotografică ce cuprinde existența nostalgiilor chemate să îmbrace imaginea unei realităţi absente din cotidian.

Arta axată pe aplicarea unei forme de captivitate a stărilor şi a gândurilor opuse între care individul pendulează, marchează de fapt trecerea de la un efect dramatic, fără iluminare, la parcursul narativ cursiv ce permite cunoaşterea unei noi ipostaze umane şi a unei noi realităţi.

Leadership: Poţi să vezi lumea de dincolo de personajul care te reprezintă, prin manifestarea unei stări de conştiinţă care îşi asumă complet realitatea creată?

În episodul “Soft Light” din vestitul serial X-Files, personajul cheie (Chester Ray Banton) este tot timpul surprins într-o zonă slab luminată, într-un semi-întuneric care împreună cu neliniștea propriei conştiinţe începe să-l apese tot mai greu. El este un om de știință care studiază materia neagră şi interacţiunile acesteia, iar umbra lui a dezvoltat într-un fel capacitatea de a dezintegra oamenii care o întâlnesc.

Toate dispariţiile misterioase ale oamenilor ce au intrat în bătaia umbrei sale s-au înregistrat după producerea unui incident din laboratorul său dotat cu un accelerator de particule activ, în care a rămas blocat, fiind expus unei cantități mari de particule subatomice.

O posibilitate de dezvinovăţire încearcă să-şi găsească un culcuş în mintea sa: “singura modalitate de a scăpa de umbra mea este să mă ascund în întuneric”. Aici nu avem de-a face cu lărgirea unui cadru de difuzare a informaţiei artistice, ci cu adâncirea într-o lume cenuşie, forma spontană a unui conținut sumbru de viață, de gânduri şi de emoţii, având ca efect acceptarea constrângerilor morale şi adoptarea fantasticului drept unică justificare a faptelor cele mai grave.

Logica interioară a individului atins de porunca unui destin fisurat, tendinţa către îndepărtarea de ceilalţi oameni, dictează întrepătrunderea crescândă a acţiunilor plăsmuite printr-un proces de sensibilizare a publicului spectator, pentru a surprinde subtilităţile unei lumi care nu trăieşte în realitatea brută. Practic, totul se desfăşoară în spiritul unui umanism care trebuie să caracterizeze oamenii cei mai puţin accesibili, îndreptăţiţi să beneficieze de o înţelegere specială şi toleranţă.

Episodul acesta m-a ajutat să văd lumea de dincolo de personajul ce mă reprezenta în viaţa reală, prin manifestarea unei stări de conştiinţă care-şi asuma complet realitatea creată datorită unei frământări excesive şi a unei confruntări cu latura întunecată a ceea ce mi se întâmpla în creier.

Arta trebuie judecată în primul rând după ataşamentul faţă de personajul pe care îl redai în concordanţă cu trăirile tale, încât să beneficiezi de o înţelegere deplină a impactului puternic resimţit de evoluţia conştiinţei sale.

Gândurile rar mărturisite în preajma artei fac trimitere spre mijloacele de expresie care pot schimba conţinutul unei imagini mohorâte printr-o coloratură predominantă.

Când vine vorba despre artă trebuie să simţi prezenţa indirectă a pictorului aflat în plin proces de creaţie, dar în acelaşi timp trebuie să te vezi în ipostaza de supravieţuitor al unei lumi părăsite, pe care nu o iubeşte nimeni. Acesta este paradoxul unei vieţi duse pe două planuri paralele şi în acelaşi timp motivul pentru care un artist sugerează o idee interesantă, dar nu-i dezvăluie în totalitate sensul primar.

Gândurile

On Martie 29, 2016

Rămâi „available” în variatele acorduri cu felul de a privi lumea, hrănind depozitarul acelei părţi din tine pe care ceilalți o caută la ei înşişi.

Eram puternic inspirat de rătăcirile de-o clipă ale gândurilor de peste zi, acceptându-le în mod diferit, atât ale virtuţii, cât şi ale păcatului de a fi mai mult decât puteam fi definit prin ochiul unei umbre reci numită nebunie. Ele puteau fi luate drept pretinderi ale unor schimbări de personalitate, plăsmuiri din înalturile unei lumi care se caută pe sine în modele eterne, fulgerări de clarviziune. Toate erau parcă ivite dintr-un cuget plin de frământare, dintr-o urmă a prezenţei mele în lumea virtuală a Începutului şi Sfârşitului, alături de potențialul de originalitate datorat manipulării extreme a conceptului de artă.

Şi totuşi, în spatele acestui obsedant gând, în priveliştea ce-l învăluise, niciodată prins în plasa vreunui "mereu acelaşi", se distingea explicaţia plauzibilă a unui fenomen straniu, apartenenţa la o întâmplare căreia i se atinseseră tot felul de priviri. În substanţa unei gândiri artistice, aparţinând acelui curent al cunoaşterii fără frontiere, în care sunt inserate convingeri supuse legilor ştiinţei, se formează izotopii radioactivi ai unui „bine ai venit” continuu. Please let me know your suggestions !

Gândurile sunt povestea unui Ego care îşi caută propria cale în teritoriul imaginaţiei creatoare, totdeauna izbindu-se de un zid subtil numit: realitatea momentului. Asta mă duce cu gândul la Doreen Valiente, fondatoarea mișcării moderne "Wicca", care afirma cândva într-una din poeziile sale: "Dacă nu găseşti ceea ce cauţi în tine însuţi, atunci nu vei găsi niciodată acel lucru în exterior. Căci, iată, am stat alături de tine încă de la începuturi, iar eu sunt cea la care vei ajunge la sfârşitul dorinţei".

Leadership: Poţi să trasezi o linie între procesul de imaginaţie care te face să uiţi unde eşti şi varianta de poveste care te prinde şi nu-ţi mai dă drumul, astfel încât să discerni sensul unui Ego care ar vrea să crească tot timpul şi nemăsurat?

Convins că am în faţă un gigant, eu însumi în perimetru unui adevăr cu sute de versiuni, asemenea unui artist rămas în anonimat datorită stilului nonconformist adoptat, înfrânându-şi nişte patimi trecătoare, ceea ce nu se vede, dincolo de efectele contradictorii ale îndoielii, am hotărât să-mi expun gândurile într-o limbă ezitantă: a emoţiilor, a inimii, a luminii şi întunericului.

Povestea mea părea a fi mai degrabă o extensie a sentimentelor trăite de un poet care reformulează realitatea literaturii dintr-o perspectivă a alterităţii, nuanţând-o pe măsură ce aduce noi argumente la convingerea că singura certitudine în privinţa identităţii sale este că NIMIC nu e cert.

Până atât de departe mergeam cu imaginaţia, într-un spaţiu al dualităţii în care adoptam chiar o atitudine filosofică faţă de realitate, încât credeam că singura variantă de poveste care dă bine la public era o proiecţie a gândurilor şi sentimentelor în legătură cu imaginea de sine pe care o conştientizam la nivelul fenomenului de patologie culturală.

Așa ceva nu putea să existe, sau exista doar în imaginația mea cercetătoare? Involuntar, corespunzător cu lumea artei, neputând fi repetată, ci plăsmuită cu concentrare şi maxim control, ale cărei imagini nu reprezentau altceva decât particularul into the eye of the lost , am ales calea pe care o socotisem cea mai apropiată spre a realiza lucrul pe care mi-l propusesem: să pătrund ceea ce-mi scăpa tot mai des.

Leadership: Poți să iei un pumn de cenușă cu o mână nevăzută și să demonstrezi efectul „please let me know your availability” în secţiunea relevantă a unei raţiuni de fond?

Să ne amintim de acel senator, fost procuror, domnul conte "Neant", din opera lui Hugo, ce gândea el cu voce tare înaintea episcopului Bienvenu?

"După moartea mea, prinde-mă dacă poţi ! Ia un pumn de cenuşă cu o mână nevăzută. Să spunem adevărul, noi, cei iniţiaţi, care cunoaştem şi dedesubtul lucrurilor. Nu există nici bine, nici rău, există numai huzur. Să privim lucrurile în faţă. Să le cercetăm în toate amănuntele. La naiba ! să mergem în adâncul lor. Trebuie să ştim să pătrundem adevărul, să scormonim pământul şi să-l descoperim. Abia atunci încercăm bucuriile cele mai rare. Abia atunci te simţi tare şi eşti fericit."

Amestecând ideile cu nişte fantasmagorii pline de cadre prelungite, cine oare poate ghici ce trece prin capul unui om care stăpâneşte arta spuselor în pâlpâitul nespuselor, adică intrare - ieşire din spaţiul unor gânduri insistente?

Cine îşi formulează gândurile în cuvinte, în contextul în care mintea este plină cu imagini diverse, poate deprinde o nouă perspectivă a lucrurilor prin care să vadă sensul fiecăruia mai ales în lumina raţiunilor revelate. Adevărul care iese la iveală din spatele gândurilor se identifică cu o realitate mai puţin palpabilă, dar care are darul de a te face să înţelegi mai bine viaţa unui poet, obsesiile şi frământările sale, din perspectiva unei dinamici a imaginarului artistic foarte original.

Gândurile sunt note şi reflecţii de luat aminte din cele scrise de alţii, în unele te recunoşti, te validezi, te opreşti acolo şi nu se întâmplă nimic. În altele poţi observa cum, mult mai puternic decât te conştientizezi ca persoană, asemenea unui artist ce atinge desăvârşirea artei sale printr-o îndârjire sisifică, o voce se insinuează în modul crescendo: Fii fericit, zdrobeşte imensul veşnicului anost !

În adevăr, elanul de a-ți expune gândurile într-o limbă a emoţiilor și expectanţelor, aduce în cadrul leadershipului vibrația specială a acelui moment unic în care se împletesc o mulţime de senzaţii nedefinite care te determină să te simţi atât de fericit. Fiind străbătut de un fior al depășirii stării de fapt, te îndrepți, potrivit datoriei şi obişnuinţei de a reda fidel ceea ce te reprezintă în chip tainic, către cucerirea unei profunzimi în ce privește redarea imaginii dedesubtului lucrurilor.

Raţiunea de fond care face parte din limbajul unui poet care doreşte să-şi îmbogăţească creativitatea în privinţa căutărilor de subiecte de mare folos pentru progresul literar se substituie obligaţiei de a face dintr-un gând obişnuit egalul unui rege într-o lume nouă.

Tu eşti exponentul unei lumi a cărei principală caracteristică este improvizaţia curajoasă?

Gândurile sunt o ascunzătoare foarte grea, dar tot ele deschid cursa către o lume mai implicată. A lua un pumn de cenușă cu o mână nevăzută este similar cu a reînvia un noian de gânduri învălmăşite, dezmorţite de ecourile unei lumi fabuloase, pe care, printr-o logică aparte, printr-o comunicare eficientă, printr-o interpretare aparte și mai largă, ajung să fie considerate un adevăr absolut în vraja măreţiei unui personaj. Asta da capacitate de transformare.

În acest sens se impune găsirea și divulgarea acelei părţi esenţiale din tine însuți pe care ceilalți o caută în diferite feluri - în discuții, în cărți, în filme, în experiența de viață, în lumile imaginare, în diverse personaje, în legătura cu dinamica unei realităţi contradictorii, etc.

Se poate spune că eşti „available”, în variatele acorduri cu felul de a privi lumea, atunci când rămâi fidel acelei părţi bune din tine însuţi care te defineşte, dar în special când hrăneşti depozitarul acelei părţi din tine pe care ceilalți o caută la ei înşişi. Abia atunci încerci bucuriile cele mai rare. Abia atunci te simţi tare şi eşti fericit.

Garanţia ta spre performanţă

On Februarie 12, 2010

Fii adeptul unei viziuni deterministe care să te integreze în obiectivele altor oameni, fără să depăşeşti alegerile lor în ceea ce priveşte atingerea obiectivelor prevăzute de ei.

Clark Gable se numără printre vedetele consacrate prin premiul Oscar. A avut o carieră strălucită, jucând alături de cei mai de seamă actori de la acea vreme. Dar cu rolul din "S-a întâmplat într-o noapte" actorul a cucerit nu numai inimile multor admiratoare, ci şi preţuirea producătorilor care l-au căutat în continuare. Legenda spune însă că a existat totuşi o categorie de oameni care l-au urât cumplit după premiera filmului: industriaşii din ramura textilă. De ce? Pentru că s-a întâmplat un adevărat crah în industria tricourilor de corp după ce superbul actor, dezbrăcându-se să se spele, a fost văzut fără tricou pe sub cămaşă. Majoritatea bărbaţilor, mai ales cei tineri, au refuzat din acea clipă să mai îmbrace inutila textilă, ceea ce a avut, fireşte, o urmare catastrofală pentru industriaşi. *****

Leadership: Poţi asigura pe termen lung incluziunea ta într-un status de dominare a publicului, modificând semnificaţia orizontului pe care îl poţi cuprinde numai de la o anumită altitudine?

Hai să ne înţelegem asupra unui lucru: altitudinea la care este situată imaginea ta este direct proporţională cu rolul pe care îl ai de jucat. Leadershipul nu este tocmai o lecţie de regie şi actorie menită să te apropie de oameni şi să le crească spiritul. Ci este un proces de planificare prin care trebuie să anticipezi schimbările de mentalitate şi de atitudine a celorlalţi oameni, să te adaptezi la stilul de imagine dorit de ei în aşa fel încât să asigure atingerea obiectivelor comune.

Aşadar, leadershipul este un proces prin care devii responsabil de reacţia "publicului". De aceea sunt de părere că trebuie să strecori în leadershipul tău, ori de câte ori este necesar, acele elemente active care să completeze înţelegerea oamenilor, care să le întreţină starea de spirit, şi care să le alimenteze sentimentul de apartenenţă la propriul tău traseu către performanţă.

Aşa cum un pictor reuşeşte să redea printr-o tehnică aparte expresivitatea chipurilor umane, tot aşa şi un lider trebuie să deţină o tehnică deosebită prin care să întărească credinţa oamenilor că leadershipul sau calităţile sale, principiile pe care le urmează, scopurile pe care le urmăreşte, corespund intenţiilor lor şi sunt utile evoluţiei lor pentru atingerea performanţei şi bunăstării dorite.

1. Singura influenţă pe care o ai asupra oamenilor este cea care îţi însoţeşte celebritatea? Cu alte cuvinte, te foloseşti de poziţia pe care o ai ca să-i faci pe oameni să te urmeze? Sau îţi pui la bătaie cea mai preţioasă armă: carisma?

2. Oamenii te urmează fiindcă aşa trebuie, sau fiindcă aşa vor?

3. Devii mai bun datorită funcţiei pe care o deţii, sau le conferi celorlalţi posibilitatea de a-ţi evolua potenţialul?

Leadership: Eşti capabil să faci o carieră demnă de un rege, interpretând cu măiestrie alte roluri decât cel care ţi se potriveşte cel mai bine?

Sunt unii lideri care cred că mânuiesc mai bine arta de a se raporta la oameni, de a relaţiona autentic cu ei, crezând sincer (dar ei nu bănuiesc şi cât de pueril) că e mai uşor, mai „personal", mai indicat să-şi etaleze toate însuşirile şi calităţile pentru a fi apreciaţi cum se cuvine. Asta pretind ei că doreşte toată lumea. Şi cred cu multă convingere că sunt percepuţi într-un fel pozitiv atunci când îşi diversifică orientările şi activităţile, adaptându-le la cerinţele "publicului" lor, din acest motiv nu se consideră niciodată vinovaţi.

Dar acest mod de a privi lucrurile este mai mult strâmb decât adevărat, fiindcă ei trebuie să fie mai întâi de toate pregătiţi să respecte o serie de reguli referitoare la asigurarea pe care o încheie indirect cu oamenii - anume că şi ei se vor dezvolta şi îşi vor amplifica zonele de talent, de aptitudini speciale, datorită prestaţiei lor. Leadershipul presupune influenţă, schimbare, transformare la nivel de mentalitate şi la nivel de sistem de valori.

Un lider iscusit nu îşi preface socotinţa, refuză să interpreteze cu măiestrie alte roluri decât cel care i se potriveşte cel mai bine, ci mai degrabă alocă suficient timp ca să cunoască oamenii şi să gândească cum să evolueze alături de ei. Deci, liderii construiesc relaţii solide şi de durată – nu doar îi seduc pe oameni o vreme, apoi îi părăsesc.

Leadershipul nu este un bilet pe care oamenii îl plătesc pentru că tu să-ţi etalezi calităţile. În acest caz, vei fi tentat să te opreşti în acest punct.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să stabileşti un anumit model de promovare a imaginii personale prin care să-ţi comunici eficient intenţiile şi emoţiile, fără să te îndepărtezi de realitatea concretă pe care o imparţi cu ceilalţi?

Leadershipul este ca o asigurare obligatorie pe care o impui oamenilor şi presupune că ei vor primi despăgubiri dacă performanţele lor, dacă calitatea vieţii lor se degradează. Te-ai gândit cum să îi despăgubeşti pe oameni în cazul în care nu ajung la nivelul de performanţă dorit? Dacă sarcinile lor nu sunt îndeplinite, dacă moralul lor scade, dacă atitudinea şi comportamentul lor nu se menţine la un nivel echilibrat, înseamnă că nu ai reuşit să empatizezi cu ei, şi nici nu ai reuşit să le inspiri interesul.

Vezi mai mult strâmb decât adevărat? Eşti capabil să vezi adevărul a ceea ce reprezinţi pentru oameni, sau continui să te complaci în aceeaşi stare de mediocritate şi să nu îndrepţi nimic? Poţi să-i pui pe oameni în locul tău atunci când dai greş? Ai puterea să-i repui în situaţia lor anterioară? Îţi schimbi atitudinea şi comportamentul? Îţi schimbi convingerile pentru ca ei, la rândul lor, să şi le schimbe pe ale lor? Dacă nu faci toate astea, la momentul potrivit, atunci preţul pe care tu însuti va trebui să-l plăteşti va fi imens.

Eşti un agent al schimbării sau un "Gambler"?

Am spus de atâtea ori, şi repet: oamenii sunt oglinda ce reflectă "chipul" imaginii tale. A încerca să te transformi într-un agent al schimbării, fără să rezolvi problemele cele mai dificile ale oamenilor, fără să-i călăuzeşti pe drumul către adevărata performanţă, dar luând deciziile cele mai puţin eficiente – este ca şi cum ţi-ai irosi cea mai mare parte din bani la jocurile de noroc. Dar pierderile, aproape zilnice, care se ridică la sume importante te falimentează. Odată cu fiecare nou eşec, odată cu fiecare nou refuz, îţi pierzi din puterea de influenţă, te descalifici ca lider - te ruinezi fără să clipeşti.

Fii analitic cu tine însuţi înainte de a te raporta la ceilalţi. Nu fă niciodată pariu cu propria ta identitate, nu paria niciodată pe impactul emoţional pe care îl poţi avea asupra oamenilor - până ce nu îţi creezi o imagine favorabilă, până ce nu îţi întemeiezi un leadership funcţional. Porneşte în căutarea adevărului despre tine ori de câte ori îţi pierzi "coordonatele". Regândeşte-ţi orientarea şi posibilităţile de manifestare, şi abia apoi conectează-te la ceilalţi oameni. Cel mai bun lider este cel ce ştie să distingă acea linie subţire care-l desparte de adevăratul său Eu, care ştie să perceapă acea gamă de reacţii nonverbale ale oamenilor (care sunt în concordante cu sentimentele lor), de acceptare sau de refuz şi care ştie să adopte cele mai bune variante de acţiune ca să se conformeze cu realitatea obiectivă.

1. Cât de bine te cunosc oamenii?

2. Cât de bine te cunoşti pe tine însuti?

3. Cum creşti motivaţia oamenilor de a contribui la dezvoltarea unei relaţii de calitate?

Leadershipul este acţiunea determinativă care poate schimba imaginea unui Brand străin şi pe care tu o califici drept o faţetă a imaginii de sine prin care se exprimă conştiinţa eficienţei proprii validată de anumite performanţe.

Pragul de intrare în adevăratul tău sine este garanţia ta spre performanţă. Ca să dai avânt leadershipului tău nu te opri la acel prag în care punctele vulnerabile intervin în dezvoltarea ta. Înfruntă realitatea, adaptează-ţi stilul şi metodele la "calitatea" oamenilor pe care îi conduci. Şi nu uita că dacă eşti respectuos, plăcut şi productiv, poţi ajunge la un nivel de influenţă asupra celorlalţi şi să-i câştigi destul de repede de partea ta.

Geneza ideii filmului intelectual

On Ianuarie 02, 2009

Procesul creativ se dezvoltă adesea prin reîntoarcerea involuntară la impresiile timpurii, ce pot declanșa descoperiri semnificative în operele de artă.

Dar la baza acestei soluţii artistice stătea tot o amintire a copilăriei, perioada până la care trebuie urmărită geneza ideii filmului intelectual. Inconştient, intuitiv, regizorul Eisenstein descoperi soluţia amintită recreând o impresie din copilărie în legătură cu caricaturile lui Daumier. Cunoscuse atunci variaţiile grafice în jurul parei care-l simboliza pe Louis-Philippe. De la portretul monarhului se ajungea, prin reducţie la limitele esenţiale, până la grafia parei.

Acum, după peste două decenii, Eisenstein descoperi legătura inconştientă dintre para lui Philippe şi ceea ce făcuse el în "Octombrie". Pentru că esenţa metodei sale artistice era următoarea: cu mijloacele montajului a alcătuit o succesiune de imagini în ale cărei extreme se aflau o splendidă dumnezeiere barocă şi un idol primitiv. Suita de montaj a contopit cele două imagini aparent disparate, alăturându-le.

Leadership: Cum ar putea o narațiune vizuală să îți influențeze percepția despre realitate, oferindu-ți o nouă înțelegere a relațiilor dintre formele de exprimare diferite?

Caricatura se născuse. Imaginea cinematografică exprima, plastic deci, o temă abstractă: identitatea grotescă dintre divinitatea cultă creştină şi cea primitivă, goliciunea ce se ascunde în spatele idolilor adoraţi. Experienţă, impresia din copilărie era declanşatorul involuntar al mecanismului genezei unei inedite soluţii artistice. Involuntar şi nu calculat, deoarece Eisenstein nu şi-a dat seama de aceasta filiaţie decât după realizarea filmului.

De la "montajul atracţiilor", efect pur emoţional, ajunge acum la "atracţia intelectuală". Scrie în acest sens şi un manifest, intitulat "Perspective", care nu apare însă. "Octombrie" cuprinde toată varietatea unui asemenea montaj intelectual. Metafora este prezentată în cele mai diferite formule.

Leadership: Cum ai percepe o operă artistică care, prin reducerea formelor la elementele lor fundamentale, îți oferă un cadru de a explora complexitatea și diversitatea experiențelor umane?

Procesul intuitiv de abstractizare în arta modernă, exemplificat prin lucrările lui Daumier, rezonează puternic cu metodologia regizorală a lui Eisenstein. Prin reducerea la limitele esențiale a formelor, artistul deschide noi căi pentru interpretare, similar cu modul în care Eisenstein a contopit în “Octombrie” imagini disparate – de la dumnezeiere barocă la idol primitiv. Această succesiune de imagini în montaj nu doar simplifică narativul, dar și subliniază geneza ideii filmului intelectual, conectând momente istorice și culturale aparent fără legătură într-o nouă sinteză estetică, care explorează complexitatea umană și istorică, așa cum amintirea copilăriei lui Eisenstein despre caricaturile lui Daumier a influențat profund variaţiile grafice ale portretului lui Louis-Philippe.

Caricatura se născuse, un fenomen a cărui profunditate răsuna în întregul spectru al imaginii cinematografice. Aceasta exprima, prin plasticitatea să, o temă abstractă: identitatea grotescă dintre divinitatea cultă creștină și cele primitive, scoțând la iveală goliciunea ce se ascundea în spatele idolilor adorați. Astfel, experiența și amintirile din copilărie deveneau un catalizator involuntar al mecanismului genezei unei soluții artistice inedite. Acesta nu era un act calculat, căci Eisenstein nu și-a dat seama de această filiație decât după realizarea filmului, ilustrând cum spațiul cinematografic, ca extensie a spațiului personal și colectiv, modelează și reconfigurează continuu percepțiile și sensibilitățile noastre.

Leadership: Ar putea fiecare personaj creat de tine să fie văzut că o manifestare a unei lupte interioare, unde sufletul tău se confruntă și, în cele din urmă, își exprimă complexitățile prin artă?

Caricatura cinematografică a fost o manifestare a vieții interioare a artistului, inferioară potențialului său creativ nativ, plină de posibilități contradictorii. Ca în cazul fiecărui om, unde chiar și identitatea de sex, cu toate semnele sale aparente, abia mai târziu capătă o definiție clară, imaginea cinematografică exprimând această luptă interioară. Prin caricatura lui Eisenstein, această "picătură bio-psihologică" se transformă într-o soluție artistică inedită, unde divinitatea cultă creștină este reprezentată într-o formă grotescă, aproape idolatră, demitizând astfel idolii adorați.

Experiența regizorală, inițial involuntară, a servit ca declanșator pentru această introspecție profundă. Treptata personalizare a temei sale cinematografice reprezintă o selecție unitară, o convergență impusă a multor elemente contradictorii, precum atavismul, ereditatea, mediul și educația, toate cooperând la eliminarea haosului inițial, fecund. În acest proces, elementele centripete sunt stimulate, în timp ce cele centrifuge sunt frânate.

În final, omul, și în mod special artistul, reușește să învingă acest haos. Sufletul său de taină își aduce aminte de toate aceste lupte interioare și, astfel, viața fecundează în plasmă sa haotică personaje care ilustrează o temă abstractă, dar profund personală. Din această fecundare se nasc nu doar personajele, ci și soluțiile artistice inedite ale filmului său.

Personalizarea leadershipului poate să reflecte o maturizare a gândirii artistice, care trece de la confuzie la claritate prin intermediul temei unei opere de artă.

Geneza filmului intelectual apare ca un proces complex care îmbină elemente de amintiri, experiențe și intuiții ale artistului. Prin reinterpretarea amintirilor din copilărie, Eisenstein ajunge să creeze o legătură între simbolurile artistice ale trecutului și metodele sale inovatoare din prezent.

Inspirându-se din caricaturile lui Daumier și din imaginea monarhului Louis-Philippe transformată într-o pară, Eisenstein aplică principiul montajului pentru a alătura imagini contrastante, de la dumnezeirea barocă până la idolul primitiv. Această alăturare de imagini disparate, dar complementare, îi permite să exprime idei complexe și abstracte, aducând la viață o viziune artistică profundă și inovatoare.

Geniul propriei minți

Conservă-ţi puterile de cunoscător la temperatura de referinţă a indicelui tău de "awareness", iniţializând o împăcare unică a tuturor contrastelor ce se resorb într-o singură unitate.

Cu cât ajungeam să cunosc mai mult lucrurile care mă reprezentau şi mă inspirau, cu o urmă de satisfacţie, cu atât aflam că ştiam mai puţin despre mine însumi, realizând că de atâtea şi de-atâtea ori credibilul şi relativul se conectează la o reţea izolată de lume. Mai ales în această stare de imparţială reflectare asupra celor ce se dovedesc a fi inexacte, o capodoperă a privirii într-o oglindă fără sfârşit, se instala o simbolizare a neajunsului de a trăi prin hăţişul semnelor de întrebare.

În spatele analogiei cu această relaţie între două planuri diferite de referinţă nu exista absolut nimic, nicio putere instantanee a vreunei laturi existenţiale care să conducă lesne la o stare de armonie, ci la un soi de evoluţie în surdină care învingea micile sau marile predispoziţii pentru a fi boem. Fiecare pas nou era doar o împăcare unică a tuturor contrastelor ce se resorbeau într-o singură unitate.

Îndoielile şi aproximaţiile pe care le presupunea tentativa de a mă statornici în particularităţile unei perspective optimizate prin prevenirea defectelor majore ale fiinţei mele, plusurile şi minusurile ei, definită conform relaţiei dintre pozitiv şi negativ, erau relative. Mai ales dacă ar trebui să generalizez noţiunea de putere complexă.

Conservarea puterilor mele de cunoscător la temperatura de referinţă a indicelui meu de "awareness", prin atâtea mijloace de adaptare la o viaţă plină de sens, sub loviturile sincerităţii care deseori preferau să rănească decât să tacă, era primul pas spre dobândirea unei minţi calme şi concentrate.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să te implici în evenimentul revelării unui nou sens al existenţialităţii, cel al descoperirii lumii unui solitar transpus într-o lume straină pus să înfrunte consecinţele unei imagini de sine revelatoare prin tonul confesiv şi emoţional?

Cu timpul, aveam să realizez că mintea care îmi furniza automat compensaţii simbolice pentru fiecare provocări ascunse, iluzii ale unor nebunii neînţelese, devoratoare, îndeplinea rolul unui joc cu conţinut imaginar, un joc de-a șoarecele și pisica în care nu ştiam cine urmărește pe cine. Prin excelenţă, geniul meu s-a manifestat în faptul că am savurat viaţa din perspectiva nevoii de a mă implica într-un joc plin de capcane, fără să devin prizonierul regulilor nescrise ale unei întregi enigma, în apropierea unei realităţi mai puţin trecătoare.

Sunt de acord cu părerea celui ce spunea: cu cât eşti mai mult decât nimic, cu atât simţi mai mult singurătatea materiei care te constituie. Într-adevăr, am plătit pentru optimizarea unei transformări ce indica o putere reactivă la bornele semnificaţiei pe care o aveau lucrurile pentru mine, egală cu modulul puterii de a conştientiza ameninţarea lor asupra vieții. Dar fără să văd personal beneficiile unei expresii de sine mai înaltă, mai liberă şi mai completă.

De asemenea, înţeleg foarte bine la ce se referea Miranda Grey din opera lui Fowles, atunci când încerca să-l descrie pe Clegg. „ Orice i se cere să plătească fără să vadă el personal pe ce dă banii, i se pare suspect. Nu are încredere în nicio altă lume în afara celei în care trăieşte şi pe care o vede. El este adevăratul prizonier. În lumea lui prezentă, îngustă şi respingătoare. "

Când încerci să reconstitui acea parte din tine care încearcă cu disperare să privească lucrurile dintr-o altă perspectivă, alteori vrând să uiţi de ele, ştiind că undeva la mijloc şade adevărul, această materie subtilă pe care o poţi modela prin voinţa de a fi legat de o stare care nu poate fi ţinută sub control, abia atunci începi să te simţi separat de lume.

Leadership: Poţi să defineşti centrul unic al unei noi fiinţe, prin care catalizatorul „putere" să devină explicabil în esenţialitatea ta?

Traiectoria ta în ecuația evoluţiei se poate reprezenta în contact cu zonele inefabile ale fiinţei tale, care fac trecerea de la un drum puțin umblat la unul foarte tranzitat. Cu cât simţi mai mult singurătatea materiei care te constituie, cu cât trăieşti mai intens un sentiment dominator, precum cel de existență în raport cu identitatea și alteritatea, cu atât se dezvăluie imensa proiectare a imaginilor unei lumi în care se aspiră spre țărmurile seninătăţii.

Reprezentativitatea ta la nivel de unitate de măsură a tăriei de a face faţă însingurării, care poate fi asociată abandonului, poate fi o dovadă a evoluţiei tale în lungul unei axe majore. Această axă valorică cuprinde nevoia de a te recunoaște legat de esenţialitatea unei identităţi emancipate şi unei solidarităţi puternice, ceea ce nu poţi găsi în lumea exterioară.

Esenţialitatea este un drum către alte realităţi, provenind din îmbinarea elementelor de valoare extrase din lupta cu tine însuţi, din conversaţiile și sfătuirea cu tine însuți, pentru ridicarea unei noi entităţi de tip Formă-Gând care permite adaptarea perfectă la orice orientare pe zona terminală a maturizării.

Centrul unic al unei noi fiinţe se proiectează pe structura sincerităţii cu care îţi înfrunţi emoţiile diverse, ce însoţesc transformarea ta într-un om diferit, dispus să nu se lase înfrânt de nimeni şi nimic, simţindu-se în faţa conştinţei liber să se separe de restul lumii. Prin aceasta înţelegem că nu este de ajuns să afli cât mai multe despre tine însuţi, conform relaţiei dintre pozitiv şi negativ, din nevoia de a te recupera, de a te reîntregi, pentru a te simţi oarecum "grandios", ci mai important este să nu te consumi în încercarea de a te împăca cu tine, cu trecutul tău, cu greşelile tale. Rişti să ajungi să nu mai ai încredere în nicio altă lume în afara celei în care trăieşti şi pe care o vezi.

Cel ce experimentează „ that loneliness that no-one knows " abordează ungherele ascunse ale leadershipului, legate indisolubil de condiţia social-umană, dintr-o dublă ipostază.

Prima ipostază vizează imposibilitatea adaptării la o lume în care prizonieratul devine singura lui calitate ce se recomandă cunoașterii de sine autentice, în afara ei nemaiexistând nimic. Cealaltă ipostază, vizează stabilirea unei direcţii a compatibilităţii ideale între fiinţa comună şi geniul propriei sale minți, aptă să cuprindă o doză extrem de mare de plenitudine obţinută din dorința de a privi lucrurile din perspectiva unei complexe definiri a esenţialităţii.

Genialitatea este calitatea omului care ştie să se integreze într-o lume pe care n-o înţelege, fără să facă din el însuşi singurul supravieţuitor într-o insulă pustie.

Geniul propriei minți este cel de experimentează o împăcare unică a tuturor contrastelor ce se resorb într-o singură unitate. Este un simbol al rolului jucat de omul care se relevă dintr-o dublă ipostază: de rezultat al adaptării la prizonieratul propriei sale lumi. Şi de facilitator al unei atitudini noi în faţa vieții ce reiese din poziția adoptată în faţa puterii de a se manifesta prin ceea ce înseamnă să fii... vulnerabil.

Glasul răzvrătirii

On Februarie 17, 2009

Schimbă constituţia psihică şi sufletească a oamenilor, transmiţându-le acea vibraţie înaltă prin care să-şi exteriorizeze aspiraţiile latente.

A fost soldat în armata romană dar a dezertat în urma unui conflict cu autorităţile. Apoi a fost încătuşat şi vândut la o piaţă de sclavi unuia care conducea o şcoală de gladiatori din Capua. Dar odată ajuns acolo, el s-a hotărât să evadeze şi să le redea libertatea celorlalţi gladiatori care erau obligaţi să lupte pe viaţă şi pe moarte, numai ca să-i distreze pe romani.

Folosind cuţitele furate din bucătăriile şcolii, a reuşit împreună cu alţi 78 de gladiatori să evadeze şi să învingă forţele armate trimise să-i captureze. În scurt timp numele său a devenit o legendă şi astfel, în mai puţin de un an de la evadarea sa, i s-au alăturat mai bine de 70.000 de oameni. Timp de aproape doi ani i-a înspăimântat pe romani, deşi nu dorea nimic altceva decât să fie liber.

Leadership: Îţi măsori curajul de a-ţi risca viaţa printr-un exit forţat din totalul unor cauze secundare?

Spartacus, " atletul cu muşchi de criţă din vremurile bătrâne " – cum îl numea poetul român Constantin Mille, a fost conducătorul uneia dintre cele mai mari răscoale din istorie. Numele său a devenit o legendă fiindcă a avut curajul să-şi rişte viaţa pentru libertate şi dreptate. El a arătat lumii prin exemplul său viu ce este libertatea, cum robii sunt în stare să devină eroi, şi că firea omenească, cu toată făptura, are tendinţa şi scopul de a obţine fericirea.

Disponibilitatea de a risca este trăsătura care iese întotdeauna la lumină la oamenii care urmăresc atingerea unui ideal. Adesea, ei se expun celor mai mari primejdii pentru a-i ajuta şi pe alţii să nutrească aşteptări şi perspective mai adecvate propriilor valori şi scopuri. Şi cu cât se implică mai mult în acest proces de schimbare a mentalităţii oamenilor, cu atât viaţa lor capătă sens.

Cauzele secundare pe care le sprijini pentru a-ţi împlini voinţa sunt restricţionate de formele de înstrăinare faţă de ceea ce ar trebui să reprezinte "omul de ieri". Cauze precum incompatibilitatea dintre condiţia ta de luptă, condiţia de împlinire şi condiţia de martir, în primul rând prin reprezentarea de stare a unui sistem de convingeri asupra evenimentelor, pot fi puse în corespondenţă cu aspiraţiile latente, ne-exprimate încă, dar care tind cu putere să se conformeze faptelor dacă li se oferă ocazia, şansa sau mediul prielnic de manifestare.

Un exit forţat din totalul unor cauze secundare are ca termen de comparație o formă de a te implica activ în schimbarea vieţii cu riscul de a fi prins în capcana de a te sacrifica pentru ceilalți, fără să te descoperi pe tine cel real.

Odată ce ai dezvoltat un sens de înţelegere a tipului de om care eşti, atunci poţi experimenta valoarea reală a vieţii prin injectarea convingerilor tale în două direcţii: o direcţie a totalei autodistrugeri sau o direcţie a desăvârşirii individuale.

Eşti un luptător sau un învins?

Glasul lui Spartacus s-a făcut auzit atunci când drepturile oamenilor au fost încălcate şi puse în pericol. Dominat de sentimentul încrederii în biruinţa finală, el şi-a susţinut cu consecvenţă ideile şi interesul pentru atingerea scopului propus. Aspiraţia lui spre libertate, care s-a făcut simţită în tot Imperiul Roman, i-a trezit pe toţi cei asupriţi din amorţeala sufletului şi a raţiunii în care căzuseră, umplându-i cu dorinţa de a se solidariza cu el. Mii de sclavii i-au înţeles mesajul şi nu l-au putut ignora.

Numai lupta dreaptă poate duce la biruinţă. Toţi cei care s-au alăturat mişcării lui Spartacus şi-au forţat limitele de dragul unei chemări mai înalte, o chemare spre acţiune, spre transformare, spre libertate, spre demnitate, spre comuniune, spre regăsirea unor vremuri de mult apuse – o chemare ce nu putea fi respinsă căci s-a înfipt instantaneu în sufletul celor obidiţi.

Glasul lui i-a mobilizat pe oameni pentru obţinerea unor rezultate deosebite. Metode de acţiune găseşte liderul, important e ca oamenii să audă glasul Lui şi să-l urmeze. Încrezător în propria persoană şi în izbândă, curajos şi dornic să-şi materializeze aspiraţiile ce vor schimba lumea, aspiraţii în care credea cu desăvârşire, Spartacus, conştient de misiunea sa, a mobilizat mii de oameni pentru obţinerea libertăţii lor.

Leadership: Poţi înțelege mai bine conceptul de autonomie personală printr-un control atent al riscului pe care îl comportă trecerea ta de la un statut de limitare la un statut de legendă?

Dar a reuşit să se impună în faţa lor şi pentru că a adăugat o doză sănătoasă de carismă la stilul său de conducere. A păşit cu avânt în primele rânduri ale fiecărei lupte, căci riscul este primul un pas înainte spre victorie, pe care el nu s-a temut să-l facă. Încrederea în victorie a fost întotdeauna prezentă în sufletul său, înarmându-l şi stimulându-l în demersurile sale.

Se mai întâmplă uneori să nu se găsească un lider, dar atunci când este găsit, el trebuie să aibă un rol călăuzitor asupra oamenilor pentru atingerea scopurilor propuse şi, în acelaşi timp, să determine schimbarea mentalităţii lor.

Autonomia personală are la bază acea motivaţie intrinsecă care diferenţiază un individ în raport cu alţii ca orientare generală în relaţiile sale cu mediul (fizic şi social).

Concluzie: Uneori pentru a-şi atinge scopul, liderul trebuie să asculte de acea voce interioară, de acel „glas al răzvrătirii” împotriva unor stări şi situaţii care par a fi bine implantate în societate şi acceptate ca o componenta a sorţii. Istoria a demonstrat că ori de cate ori se iveşte un lider cu viziuni deosebite şi cu putere de convingere, lumea poate fi schimbată.

Schimbă constituţia psihică şi sufletească a oamenilor, transmiţându-le acea vibraţie înaltă prin care să-şi exteriorizeze aspiraţiile latente.

Glasul stăpânitor al celor vii

On Aprilie 12, 2017

Explorează-ţi lumea interioară sub deviza "Stay Alive", adăugând valoarea „True" la condiţia de fond a reprezentării tale pe traseul sinuos al formării și definirii caracterului.

Sunt Gerry Lane, om de ştiinţă şi cercetător pe partea biologică a vieţii. Am tot zis că motivul neliniştii mele va părăsi cândva gândul unei tentative de definire, cu mai mult sau mai puţin succes logic, a unei funcţii "Stay alive" cu putere predictivă, determinată indirect de nenumărate variabile de acţiune puse pe seama hazardului - între contestaţie şi intuiţie.

Dar, pe parcursul unor varietăţi de conflicte între provocările de mediu şi ameninţările la adresa siguranţei mele, ajungând să traversez lumile tăinuirilor unor circumstanţe excepţionale, nesfârşite şi primejdioase ca timpul însăşi, despre care nicio certitudine nu se impunea ca justă soluţie, cel puţin pe unde mergeam eu, am întrezărit un tipar de latenţă al virusului în funcţie de anumiţi parametri de sănătate.

În tot acest concurs al hazardului, îndurat numai de eroii unui Mike Hassel, avântaţi de o tainică măreţie a speranţei spre gloria unui suprem pericol, se reflectau cuvintele lui Mark Twain: "Pot să învăț pe oricine să obțină ce vrea de la viață. Problema este că nu găsesc pe nimeni care să știe ce vrea de la viață".

Cuvinte dispuse pe un singur palier de înţelegere a lumii ce exista numai în comparaţie cu strălucirea aurire a perspicacităţii sub raportul de cauzalitate între fapta celui obligat să repare şi răsplata celui sortit să îndure. O strălucire care în mod sigur descreştea pe măsură ce îmi îndreptam pe de-a-ntregul privirea asupra propriei mele percepţii legate de teoria manevrării aparenţei de realitate - care putea fi analizată şi descrisă în mod articulat numai pe plan noetic.

Leadership: Îți focalizezi atenția asupra cercetării aparenţei de realitate care constituie un reper în materie de egalitate între ceea ce te defineşte și ceea ce aștepți să ți se întâmple?

Credeam că realitatea crâncenă pe care o trăiam este doar parte dintr-un coşmar. Părea doar un vis urât, dar visul nu se mai termina, din păcate. De ce mi-ai ieşit în cale tu, atâta amăgire şi eroare, când puteai să mă cruţi de orice atingere psihotică care, asemenea unei taine în fila discretă a nebuniei, îţi găseşti efectele nocive specifice disperării cugetului privind existența însăși a sinelui într-o obsedantă idee călăuzitoare: "Eu nu mai sunt eu însumi"?

Peste tot, oameni infectaţi, transformaţi în zombie. Numai eu, nu. Cum am putut tocmai eu, fundamental asemănător şi totuşi diferit de ceilalţi oameni, chiar dacă totul părea trecut prin filtrul subiectivităţii sau sensibilităţii artistice care orginaliza formele esenţiale şi primordiale ale creaţiei naturii, cum am putut să mă las târât într-un asemenea păcat al descâlcirii situaţiilor complexe?

Ce amăgire cumplită din partea glasului care, rupând tăcerea inimii, îmi striga în disperare să stau liniștit, să nu mă panichez, totul are să fie bine, glasul care tot timpul a rămas în mine viu, care m-a înduioşat, m-a tulburat, m-a răscolit.

Acelaşi glas obişnuit şi necunoscut, desprins parcă dintr-un roman al lui Mesa Selimovic, pe care până atunci nici nu l-am băgat în seamă. "Poate pentru că s-a auzit în tăcerea moartă, poate pentru că nu se temea, sau tocmai pentru că se temea, sau pentru că mi s-a adresat mie, cu milă, cu îmbărbătare."

Experimentul adaptării la adversităţile vieţii este o probă a perspicacităţii sub raportul de cauzalitate între fapta celui obligat să repare traseul propriilor întrebări şi răsplata celui sortit să îndure răspunsurile.

Poziția ta faţă de aparenţa realităţii poate fi o reflexie a ceea ce ai în interior pe parcursul a tot ceea ți se întâmplă, când tot ce îţi pare mai important decât tine la un moment dat, pică pe plan secund. Aparenţa pe care o dă realitatea în contextul unei pandemii se află în strânsă legătură cu poziția pe care o iei în faţa cursului ambiguu al evenimentelor, deci pe parcursul unui moment pus pe seama hazardului, fiindcă ceea ce ţi se întâmplă la un moment dat pare important pe planul recreării faptelor trecute. Trebuie să porneşti de la primul semn de pre-alertă al oamenilor, apoi să continui cu primul semn de atenţie, până la reacţia minimală generată de vizualizarea unui nou comportament.

Aparenţa, ceva care este altfel decât pare la prima vedere, contribuie la crearea acelei stări în care eşti degradat din condiţia de luptător până la nivelul de „disperare”. Sau, dimpotrivă, în care ești avansat la condiţia de erou dacă faci din reperele unor împrejurări nefavorabile o inspiraţie a creatorului picată parcă de la divinitate.

În leadership, definirea omului de valoare se poate obţine din produsul cartezian al relaţiei dintre imboldul conştiinţei sale (glasul sufletului) și încercarea, adesea dureroasă, de a-şi revizui credinţele ce-i ghidează acţiunile spre o mai mare deschidere spre viitor.

Leadershipul este încercarea de a da un răspuns corect la un test de tipul „pass or fail” atunci când viaţa îţi acordă şansa de a fi participat direct la un anumit segment al evenimentelor prilejuite de un fapt anume.

Glasul stăpânitor al celor vii este îndemnul spre izbândă şi glorie sub deviza ”Stay Alive”, la care se adaugă valoarea „True” a condiţiei de fond a reprezentării tale în deplină frumusețe morală pe traseul sinuos al formării și definirii caracterului.

Una din abilitățile cele mai însemnate ale leadershipul este să găsești acei indivizi care nu știu ce vor de la viață, apoi să-i înveți să obțină o imagine revelatoare asupra condiţiei lor de fiinţe care se pot ridica deasupra destinului, fără ca tu să fii ales în prealabil drept călăuză.

Glasul tăcerii infinite

Intră în competiţia cu tine însuţi, înainte să încerci să modifici influenţa altora în folosul propriu.

Nabucodonosor, regele Babilonului, i-a acordat toată încrederea lui Sedechia, cel de-al unsprezecelea rege al Israelului, făcându-l păstorul poporului său pe pământul lui Israel, dar acesta l-a trădat, uneltind pe ascuns cu egiptenii care, cândva, ţinuseră în sclavie neamul lui Israel. Dorinţa cea mai mare a regelui Sedechia era de a-şi lua înapoi pământurile, şi de a-şi elibera poporul de sub jugul Babilonului. În ciuda faptului că profetul său îl avertizase de nenumărate ori să nu pornească războiul împotriva lui Nabucodonosor, ci să-i ceară acestuia îndurare pentru greşeala comisă, Sedechia a rămas fidel hotărârii sale.

Dar soarta a fost mult prea crudă cu Sedechia. Toată armata sa a fost nimicită iar el, împreuna cu cei trei fii ai săi, Eliel, Achis şi Amasai, au fost prinşi şi puşi în lanţuri.

Aduşi în faţa lui Nabucodonosor, Sedechia îngenunche cu faţa la pământ şi-l imploră să le cruţe viaţa fiilor săi nevinovaţi, cu preţul propriei sale vieţi. Dar Nabucodonosor nu a arătat nicio îndurare. I-a omorât cu sânge rece pe cei trei băieţi, iar lui Sedechia, care fusese nevoit să asiste la supliciul lor, a ordonat să i se scoată ochii.

Acesta a fost preţul pe care l-a avut de plătit fiindcă a cedat ispitei de a încerca să modifice influenţa lui Nabucodonosor în folosul propriu. Bazându-se pe încrederea ce i-o acordase Nabucodonosor, Sedechia a încercat o mişcare hazardată, tupeistă, prin care să-l surprindă şi să-l învingă. Dar el nu şi-a cântărit bine valoarea faptelor sale, nu şi-a putut ţine în frâu pornirile spre infidelitate, pentru a estompa efectul reacţiilor adverse ce puteau apărea.

Leadership: Ce dimensiune a personalităţii tale eşti dispus să o arăţi lumii în cazul unui eşec?

Degeaba ai o viziune, bazată pe o formă de cunoaştere umană care derivă din experienţă, dacă eşti un om al jumătăţilor de măsură, un om al exceselor care se lăsă uşor doborât de tentaţiile de a-şi satisface ambiţiile, ignorând limitele impuse de către dezvoltatorii şi promotorii tăi.

Una din direcţiile în care poţi insista, este cea a răspunderii de sine. Fără să ignori ceea ce eşti, reaminteşte-ţi că prima constantă a modelului tău de raportare la un anumit scop este acea dilemă: alegerea - "De partea cui eşti?".

Graţie unei vaste acţiuni de rearanjare a criteriilor de promovare personală, cât şi a unor facilităţi de manifestare a capacităţilor coordonatoare ce permit efectuarea unor acţiuni în interes propriu sau al unui terţ, rişti să ajungi să te recunoşti învins tocmai de limitele putinţei tale de a suporta o răspundere care se suprapune peste contribuțiile tale la succesul altora.

Dimensiunea personalităţii tale este de tipul "accesoriului" atunci când replica finală la tolerabilitatea pe care ţi-o acordă un partener de încredere devine ea însăşi deznodământ.

Această evoluţie spre arta puterii, percepută drept un privilegiu sau un chin, reprezintă o realitate mai cuprinzătoare din care nevoia de a te lansa într-o provocare personală nu este decât o mică parte, un eşantion al unei gândiri şi al unui set de valori care scot la suprafaţă ce este în tine.

Care va fi natura acestei noi îndatoriri viitoare faţă de tine însuţi, spre binele ori spre suferinţa celor care te urmează, este desigur foarte dificil de spus. Dar cu siguranţă ia în calcul, ca un exerciţiu iniţiatic de dobândire a unei identităţi noi, independente, acea dimensiune a personalităţii pe care eşti dispus să o arăţi lumii, chiar şi în cazul în care vei suferi o respingere sau un eşec lamentabil. Acea singurătate delirantă a sinelui care se răsucește în jurul axului goliciunii existenţiale, nemaiputând să dea sens vieţii.

Glasul trist al inimii. Ce poate să simtă un om într-un moment atât de crud şi de groaznic – să asiste la executarea fiilor săi? Amărăciune? Regret?

O voce nesfârşit de tristă şi plină de jale, izvorâtă din adâncul sufletului, l-a îndemnat Sedenchia la sinucidere. Glasul interior al inimii sale îi spunea tot mai intens că nu mai are pentru ce trăi. În fiinţa lui se dădea o luptă tăcută şi înfiorătoare. Se simţea ca şi cum ar fi fost închis într-o închisoare invizibilă de unde n-avea cum să mai scape, ci unde putea numai să îndure povara suferinţelor, tortura mentală.

Leadership: Ai puterea să retrăieşti diferite experienţe de viaţă prin care ai trecut prin frânarea reacţiilor pe care le ai în faţa unei realităţi contradictorii?

Ultima punte care mai ducea la viaţă, ultima legătură cu toate simţămintele lui, cu toate visurile sale a fost nimicită. Nimeni nu posedă o inimă de schimb care să-i aline durerea, care să-i alunge tristeţea, care să-i alunge din suflet acel gust amar al dezamăgirii într-un moment atât de tragic. Nici chiar un rege.

O realitate contradictorie este o iluzie din care ne place să ne închipuim că ne înfruptăm fără a fi văzuţi, pe care o numim: "reducerea conştientizării unei schimbări prin efectuarea de mişcări în fundal".

Tăcerea desăvârşită îl învălui pe Sedenchia ca o mantie moale şi grea, lacrimile îi curgeau nestingherite. Niciun glas, niciun cuvânt nu mai putea rosti, atât de mare îi era durerea. Toate speranţele lui de viaţă s-au spulberat. Nu mai avea nici energia, şi nici motivaţiile de a trăi.

Drumul spre lumea tenebrelor. Lui Sedenchia i-au fost scos ochii, apoi a fost legat în lanţuri de bronz şi dus în Babilon. Acest nou chin, această umilinţă urma să fie răspândită peste tot, în lumea largă. Fără greutate, fără destin, condamnat la singurătate, nu îi mai rămăsese decât să-şi rabde viaţa în întuneric.

Dar adevăratul supliciu pe care trebuia să-l îndure era glasul ultimului său copil, din clipa morţii, care îi va răsuna mereu în memorie. Indiferent ce avea să se întâmple cu el de atunci înainte, nimic nu-l va tortura mai mult decât acel glas chinuit al fiului său.

Când cineva îţi transferă o poziţie dominantă, încerci să aduci în atenţia ta imagini despre tine cu situaţii în care te-ai simţit valoros prin legitimitatea acelei poziţii sau prin abuzul ei?

Concluzie: În leadership, uneori păşeşti pe nisipuri mişcătoare. De aceea, în situaţii neprevăzute, trebuie să calculezi bine paşii de urmat şi trebuie să alegi cu multă prudenta drumul care sa-ţi permită depăşirea obstacolelor viitoare şi atingerea obiectivelor propuse.

Căci orice demers pe care îl întreprinzi poate avea efecte contrare celor aşteptate.

Intră în competiţia cu tine însuţi, înainte să încerci să modifici influenţa altora în folosul propriu. Adică analizează-ţi potenţialul de lider în toate privinţele, evaluează-ţi bine calităţile şi limitele fără să-ţi supraestimezi abilitatea de a-i schimba pe ceilalţi prin jocuri, intrigi şi uneltiri, uzând de puterea cu care ai fost investit de ei. Eşti un om de încredere?

Cântăreşte bine valoarea faptelor tale pentru a estompa efectul reacţiilor adverse ce pot apărea din partea celor care şi-au pus încrederea în tine.

Glasul unui predicator în pustiu

On Iulie 16, 2019

Leadershipul este experienţa de viaţă pe care ţi-o oferă construcţia unui Alter-Ego care aproape îţi substituie întreaga fiinţă.

Natura este admirată pretutindeni, aşa cum este ea, variată, strălucitoare sau sumbră, dar cât mai umană, alimentată doar de poveştile personajelor din tablouri care te vrăjesc încă de la prima vedere. Ea este imortalizată de penelul artistului realist care ştie să transmită o emoţie intensă printr-o asortare echilibrată a culorilor şi detaliilor semnificative.

Iar acolo, în tăcerea pământului, chiar şi în mijlocul unei intinderi de vreme tulbure, şade maiestuos, chipeş şi drept către cer, EL, trandafirul, partea din mine care trăieşte evenimentele lumii prin limbajul naturii.

Nu mă laud, nicidecum, c-aş cunoaşte îndeajuns de bine sufletul trandafirului, căci, desigur, este şi el o parte din creaţia lumii sensibile, unitate dintre spirit şi materie, are şi el o formă, are nobleţe, caracter, o bază corporală, o conştiinţă curată, sensibilitate, dar mai ales are o istorie, are ceva etern, fiind plămadit din aceeaşi scânteie divină cu care este înzestrat omul. Nu sunt cine ştie ce psiholog, dar atât cât îl cunosc îmi este necesar pentru a face o conexiune între artele vizuale şi emoţiile unui început de poveste, în care viziunea străbate toate adâncurile omeneşti.

Încerc să controlez liniile, zonele cromatice, simbolistica unei continue elevaţii, nota profundă de originalitate, prin însăşi calitatea trandafirului de a istorisi o viaţă plină de învăţături, un destin monumental. Iar să multiplic prin intermediul artei semnificaţia biruinţei naturii, stabilind o relaţie între subiect şi univers, între emoţie şi vizualitate, înseamnă să pun în valoare opera unui creator de geniu care încearcă să experimenteze conştiinţa unei voci seculare care exprimă însăşi suma tuturor aspectelor ce ţin de natura umană.

Leadership: Experienţa ta de creaţie este strâns legată de imaginea cu care îţi asociezi sensul vieţii, aşa încât să confere continuitate poveştii cu care îţi identifici personalitatea?

Şoptind lucruri adânci şi neînţelese decât de spiritele alese, am înţeles glasul trandafirului ca fiind al unui predicator în pustiu, un glas care tremură din cauza tristeţii, un glas calm şi rece în acelaşi timp, secret, dar imperios, de care nu mă pot despărţi.

Sunt modest în privinţa presupunerilor mele despre oameni, mă împac cu ei doar prin asemănarea cu realitatea pe care o trăiesc ei, atâta timp cât regretul despărţirii de această lume nu ajunge până la Vertijul Neantului. Mă aştept să-mi zâmbească dispreţuitori şi neîncrezători, uneori văd că n-o fac decât în trecere, din îndărătul cuvintelor ce le animă gândirea şi viaţa celor care se ştiu învinşi de suferinţă. Alţii, cuprinşi de frumuseţea clipei şi dorind să o mai păstreze măcar odată printre genele obosite, îmi aruncă un zâmbet compătimitor şi dispreţuitor în acelaşi timp, care parcă spune: "Eşti singura persoană pe care aveam chef s-o văd…"

Nealterat de trecerea timpului, îmi spun mereu că nimeni nu ştie ce e în sufletul altuia. Lumile noastre se apropie mult, dar legăturile sunt încă invizibile pentru cei ce încă nu pot să creadă într-un simbolism emoţional aparte, pe cât de variat pe atât de semnificativ, precum aceia care refuză să-şi vadă cu alţi ochi reflexia chipului în faţa oglinzii. Semnificaţia existenţei mele este în strânsă legătură cu melancolia omului aflat faţă în faţă cu măreţia şi spectaculozitatea naturii, a cărei istorie este trecută în derizoriu sau chiar ignorată. Natura este veșnică, în timp ce omul este trecător.

Operele eterne au toată răbdarea să aştepte, tăcute şi rezervate, o imagine revelatoare a contribuţiei pe care trandafirul a avut-o în viaţa omului, o experienţă a trăirii şi a dialogului de substanţă între două destine asemănătoare.

Leadership: Creaţia realităţii care te defineşte în totalitate poate să constituie un model de dăinuire în contextul unei influenţe care se alătură evenimentelor regulate?

Creaţia realităţii care defineşte în totalitate un suflet rătăcitor este aidoma un izvor nesecat de sentimente revărsat într-un tablou care străbate însăşi eternitatea prin subiectul pe care îl tratează din perspectiva comparaţiei cu un model de virtute adaptat pentru timpurile grele.

Nu sunt doar un trandafir oarecare, ci o alegorie bazată în cea mai mare parte pe experienţe adevărate de viaţă, care foloseşte personajele, rolul şi faptele lor drept o conversaţie cu un "era mai bine dacă...", sperând că totul va avea ecou în alte timpuri, în alte circumstanţe, sub altă înfăţişare.

Vreau să spun că natura m-a croit ca un pustnic trăind în mijlocul lumii cu setea de a birui toate legile şi forţele ei. Dar uneori, la fel ca străvechea broască ţestoasă Morla din "Mlaştinile Întristării", care vorbea mereu cu ea însăşi, fiindcă nu era niciun alt interlocutor care s-o asculte, nici eu nu mă simt pregătit să supravieţuiesc unei realităţi mult prea complicată pentru a putea fi schimbată:

"Sunt bătrână, am trăit destul. Am văzut prea multe. Pentru cine ştie atât de multe ca mine, nimic nu mai are importanţă. Toate se repetă veşnic, ziua şi noaptea, vara şi iarna. Lumea e goală şi lipsită de orice sens. Totul se învârte în cerc. Ceea ce apare trebuie să şi dispară, ceea ce se naşte trebuie să moară. Totul se compensează, binele şi răul, prostia şi înţelepciunea, frumuseţea şi urâţenia. Totul e searbăd. Nimic nu-i real. Nimic nu-i important."

Leadership: Parcursul vieţii tale poate fi înţeles ca o recuperare a marilor momente din meandrele unui destin vulnerabil caracterizat de o trăire mai intensă a experienţei de a fi "mai presus de timp" ?

Bastian, din "Poveste fără sfârşit", trăieşte aceeaşi consistenţă de caracter pe care o dă imaginea puternică a trandafirului: "Aş dori să înfrunt o adevărată primejdie care să-mi ceară un curaj nebun. Aici în deşert nu te poţi întâlni cu nimeni. E mare lucru să poţi îndura lipsuri şi să rezişti la dificultăţi. Dar îndrăzneala şi curajul sunt cu totul altceva. Ar fi însă grozav să întâlnesc o fiinţă primejdioasă, dar totodată cea mai frumoasă din toată Fantasia."

Trandafirul evidenţiază diferenţa dintre El cel de ieri, cel de azi şi cel de mâine, dar la nivel de raţiune, simţire şi alegere umană, în completarea puterii de a rezista testului timpului.

Dacă gândurile mele sunt, de fapt, iluzii ale unei vieţi care îşi doreşte să fi fost trăită în alte timpuri, sub înfăţişarea altor personaje: regi sau slugi, bărbaţi sau femei, umili sau mândri, blânzi sau aspri, inteligenţi sau proşti, îndrăgostiţi sau nu, atunci opera unui creator de geniu este compoziţia unei naturi care poartă în sine, în fiecare mişcare a ei, semnele unei învăţături de care trebuie să luăm seama în viitor: totul este nimic fără culoare, fără sentiment, fără provocări, fără simţ artistic.

De multe ori, leadershipul este experienţa de viaţă pe care ţi-o oferă construcţia unui

Alter-Ego care aproape îţi substituie întreaga ființă.

Poate că într-o bună zi, o zi din aceea în care se petrec nespus de multe lucruri interesante, topite şi infuzate în ţesătura unei realităţi care îşi pune amprenta asupra eternităţii, mă veţi admira ca pe o continuitate spirituală a faptelor şi învăţăturilor mele din alte întrupări, din alte ipostaze, din alte universuri. Este şi aceasta o caracteristică a artistului care cuprinde într-o viziune nemaiîntâlnită o formă de existenţă mai subtilă, specifică meritului de a fi imortalizată într-un context de întâlnire între două entităţi asemănătoare: între pământ şi cer, între Dumnezeu şi om, între suflet şi raţiune, între fapte şi evenimente diverse.

S-a făcut deja târziu. Luna s-a retras în spatele norilor plumburii. O mică pală de vânt îmi leagănă petalele viu colorate. Nimeni nu mă mai vede la ora asta. De aceea, voi încheia aici această mărturisire plină de înţelesuri despre truda artistului de a pune mai mult accent pe o realitate plină de sensibilitate şi învăţătură. Un ecou convingător încă îmi mai străbate prezenţa în mijlocul lumii, aşa cum l-ar străbate pe un om care până în ultima clipă trăieşte cu inima deschisă o experienţă consumată în întregul ei.

Am învăţat de la om şi de la viaţa care îl adăposteşte spiritual, că e tot una să fii creaţie şi creator sub un cer plin de pace, când nu auzi altceva decât vântul şi şoaptele înserării. Singurul lucru făcut să ne diferenţieze este trăirea cu care artistul abordează rolul de mediator între personaj şi narator.

Experienţa de a fi mai presus de timp vizează înțelesul atribuit unui destin singular guvernat de realitatea pe care nicio furtună a vieţii n-o poate despărţi de credinţa într-un nou început de poveste, în care trebuie să devii un erou şi să încetezi a fi doar un supravieţuitor.

Glasul unui predicator în pustiu se hrănește din noblețea momentului prezent care îi aparține în totalitate artistului, fiindcă nimeni altcineva nu se încumetă să-şi asume singur această responsabilitate: de a face reală o poveste fără sfârşit, chiar dacă nu-l crede nimeni. Chiar dacă nimeni nu-l înţelege.

Google şi Leadershipul

On Aprilie 04, 2014

Cu cât te consideri mai important, cu atât rişti să fii mai neînsemnat.

Secolul 21. Să se înțeleagă bine. Informația pe care o adaugi pe internet reflectă valoarea ta. Nu exiști dacă nu apari pe Google, și dacă nu oferi constant informații de calitate. Mai ales, în condiţiile în care apartenenţa ta la internet, pe traseul informaţiilor care se răspândesc cu repeziciune, devine fecundă numai prin intermediul creaţiei originale. De fapt, în ultimii ani, ai zice că Internetul este locul purităţii primordiale, al nemuririi, al nesfârşitei reverii, al râvnei neîncetate spre desăvârşire.

Așadar nimănui nu-i pasă ce funcție ai, ce poziție ocupi, că ești politician, om de afaceri, medic, profesor. Nimănui nu-i pasă cum te numești dacă valoarea ta nu se reflectă în informații de calitate.

Să vă dau un exemplu. Statisticile arată că 99,9% din cei care cumpără materiale de construcţii de la Dedeman habar nu au cine conduce compania, și prea puțin le pasă de acționarii companiei. Ei sunt interesați strict de produsele de pe website-ul Dedeman, și caută pe Google informații despre acele produse.

Internetul este viitorul. Și viitorul nu este interesat cine ești și cât de important te crezi. Lumea caută numele tău pe Google doar dacă tu constitui o sursă importantă de știri. Altfel ești total inexistent, complet anonim. Parafrazându-l pe Cornel Ailincăi, am putea spune că spaţiul internet este locul în care lumea "orizontală" a fiecărui om îşi caută rostul adânc în jurul axului unei lumi verticale constituită de aspiraţiile sale cele mai înalte.

Leadership: Te simţi străin de locul în care lumea "orizontală" a fiecărui om îşi caută rostul adânc în jurul axului unei lumi verticale constituită de aspiraţiile sale cele mai înalte?

Și există atât de mulți indivizi care se dau mari și tari, dar de fapt absolut nimeni nu este interesat de ei, iar aceștia din urmă nici măcar nu-și dau seama cât de mici și neînsemnați sunt. Mai ales pe Internet. Sau aşa cum spunea tot Cornel Ailincăi, fiindcă îmi place cum a pus problema: "Pe internet, roiul lumilor omeneşti suitoare pe verticală alcătuiesc prin unire şi convergenţă spaţiul unei mirabile laolaltităţi salvatoare. Ce altă ţintă mai înaltă ar putea avea roiul lumilor alcătuite de spaţiul creaţiei în vasta lor petrecere întru cinstirea omului din viitor?"

Da. S-a terminat cu mentalitățile învechite, și cu moșnegii insipizi care merg la costum de patru ace, dar incapabili să-şi creeze un blog sau un website. Google nu este interesat de ținuta nimănui, decât atunci când se vând produse vestimentare. Cine nu dă share la informaţii de calitate, completându-şi propria creaţie cu multă imaginaţie, nu va reprezenta un spaţiu demn de explorat într-un univers aflat în expansiune.

Apropo, tineretul, căci mă adresez vouă în primul rând. A auzit careva de "marele" președinte și cadru didactic Emyl Constentinescu? Vă ajută cu ceva numele lui? Fac pariu că în urmă cu 25 de ani era cel mai important om din stat, toată presa şi media din România îl aducea mereu în prim planul ştirilor. Mai degrabă cred că el se credea cel mai important din lume, fără să ştie că imediat după terminarea mandatului va deveni "o relicvă care a început să pută a unei epoci trecute".

Cui îi pasă de o existență insipidă și trecătoare? Ați căutat vreunul din voi numele lui pe internet în ultimii ani? Vă ajută la ceva un nume?

Să fie clar. Google nu este interesat de numele tău, ci de informația pe care o scoţi în evidenţă și pe care ar putea s-o caute lumea, fiindcă are nevoie de ea. Lumea caută pe internet informația sau produsul pe care "numele tău" o pune la dispoziție, dar în niciun caz nu caută "numele tău" decât dacă eşti în centrul lumii printr-o capacitate ieşită din comun. De exemplu, dacă eşti Novak Djokovic, marele campion de la Wimbledon, sau un câştigător al premiului Oscar, ceva de genul, altfel nu reprezinţi niciun interes pentru nimeni.

Leadershipul este forma evoluţiei tale care îşi face simţită prezenţa într-un spaţiul al râvnei neîncetate spre desăvârşire, cu menţiunea că singurul lucru ce te poate plasa într-un loc fruntaş pe lista clasamentelor de "Most ranking people" este informaţia pe care o pui în circulaţie pe Internet, respectiv pe Google.

Google şi Leadershipul sunt una şi aceeaşi entitate, fiindcă în prezent şi mai ales în viitor, totul se va realiza într-un spaţiu ce a fost creat să nu fie singur, ci să aparţină exclusiv majorităţii. Nu încercaţi să credeţi că fără Internet veţi ajunge prea departe, fiindcă dacă îl parafrazez din nou Cornel Ailincăi: "internetul a devenit spaţiul primordial al zidirii luminoase, rezervor inepuizabil de idei şi imagini, vatra de împlinire a puterii imaginaţiei."

Grădina episcopului Myriel

On Aprilie 29, 2014

Pune-ţi viaţa în ordine, ca să înţelegi mai bine adevăratul chip al naturii tale.

Viaţa lăuntrică a domnului Myriel era plină de aceleaşi gânduri ca şi viaţa lui publică. Pentru cine ar fi putut s-o privească de aproape, sărăcia voită în care trăia episcopul din Digne ar fi fost un spectacol grav şi încântător. Ca toţi bătrânii şi ca cei mai mulţi dintre cugetători, dormea puţin. Somnul lui era scurt şi adânc. În rest era foarte ocupat.

Timpul pe care i-l mai lăsau nenumăratele îndeletniciri, funcţiile şi breviarul, îl dăruia în primul rând nevoiaşilor, bolnavilor şi celor năpăstuiţi. Iar timpul pe care i-l mai lăsau aceştia îl dăruia muncii. Săpa pământul în grădină sau citea şi scria. N-avea decât un singur cuvânt pentru amândouă felurile de a munci. Numea asta "grădinărit".

Stătea bucuros acolo un ceas sau două, tăind, plivind, făcând ici şi colo câte o gaură în pământ, unde punea seminţe. Nu studia plantele, iubea florile. Avea un respect deosebit pentru savanţi, dar îi respecta şi mai mult pe cei neştiutori şi, fără să se abată vreodată de la aceste norme de respect, îşi stropea în fiecare seară de vară brazdele cu o stropitoare vopsită în verde.

"Spiritul e o grădină", spunea deseori episcopul Myriel. *

Leadership: Te laşi ghidat de modelul de suport existenţial: omul lăuntric autentic, în aşa fel încât să dai însemnătate momentelor de respiro care te fac să apreciezi calitatea şi valorile vieţii?

Efectele unei deveniri intelectuale sau spirituale se datorează în principal clipelor de reflexie asupra esenţei propriei fiinţe şi a relaţiei cu lumea, materializate adesea sub aspectul înţelesului pe care îl dai vieţii. Asta, într-un scenariu în care te imaginezi cu adevărat mulţumit de ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, de ceea ce ai şi preţuieşti, fiind ghidat pur şi simplu de o forţă responsabilă pe care o poţi controla: forţa omului lăuntric autentic.

Acest om, cumva superior, pus chiar mai presus de conştiinţa care îţi permite să accesezi diferite niveluri ale realităţii în care exişti, îşi joacă perfect rolul de protector, dascăl, susţinător, sfătuitor, înţelept, menţinându-se mereu într-o poziţie realistă din care poate observa, lămuri şi fixa corect imaginile, influenţele, experienţele din care se încheagă întreaga ta identitate.

Ca să deprinzi starea de mare încărcătură spirituală a omului lăuntric şi ca să întăreşti paşii săi spre înălţimile unei însemnătăţi a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, trebuie în primul rând să înveţi să te priveşti sub impresia unui sentiment sau cu scopul de a deştepta o folosofie asupra fragilităţii vieţii.

Omul lăuntric nu este creaţia unei fiinţe inteligente de care eşti responsabil să o urmezi peste tot, ci reprezintă exerciţiul funcţiunii fireşti a sufletului care scrutează semnificaţia vieţii, indicând direcţia ţelurilor spirituale care te forţează să conştientizezi prezentul la care te raportezi, şi să îl trăieşti într-un mod autentic, armonios şi împlinitor.

Leadeship: Atitudinea ta de fond constituie o pledoarie pentru formularea unei noi filosofii a naturii capabilă să derive întreaga ta existenţă din manifestarea unui principiu spiritual?

Citiţi Marcus Aurelius. El spunea astfel: "Când lucrurile care te înconjoară te constrâng, te determină să te zbuciumi foarte tare, atunci întoarce-te repede în tine însuţi şi nu-ţi ieşi din ritm mai mult decât este necsar. Căci, odată cu întoarcerea continuă la armonie, vei fi mai stăpân pe aceasta. Îndepărtează-te de curtea imperială. Întoarce-te adesea către filosofie şi găseşte-ţi în ea pacea şi tihna, fiindcă lucrurile şi persoanele de la curte îţi distrag atenţia de la adevărata căutare a fericirii şi a sensului vieţii."

Privind leadershipul sub aspectul valorii intrinseci, ţinând cont de tentaţia de a pretinde accesul la o formă de cunoaştere care nu derivă din logica reînnoirii, ci din percepţia şi acceptarea imediată a unei coerenţe în experienţele prezente şi schimbările înfăptuite, putem să intuim o anumită realitate.

Această realitate, departe totuşi de a deveni o iluzie în mintea omului ce se consumă cu lucruri ce nu merită osteneala, cu gânduri care se repetă aproape la nesfârşit, nesincronizându-se cu totalitatea experienţelor sale, ci cu orice este contra experienţelor trăite, prinde formă într-un mediu de o anumită vibraţie, de tip " impuls ". Care nu doar că îi aduce clipe de încântare şi bucurie, desfăcând legătura între haos şi armonie, între rigoare şi virtuozitate, dar îi creează o identitate bazată pe o satisfacţie moral-intelectuală.

Îţi poţi pune viaţa în ordine numai dacă înţelegi mai bine adevăratul chip al naturii tale din experienţa de zi cu zi a vieţii, făcând abstracţie de prezenţa aspectelor negative. Leadershipul care însufleţeşte se manifestă într-un cadru de existență dominat de indispensabila autoritate de a te impune în faţa evenimentelor din jur, fiind în acelaşi timp pătruns de plăcerea de a te bucura de tine însuţi.

Amintiţi-vă de Iisus Hristos care se retrăgea periodic în grădina Ghetsimani. Marea filosofie a naturii, printr-o retragere departe de agitaţie şi de stresul cotidian, constă în a te elibera de trăirile neplăcute în care te prind evenimentele vieţii, în a te elibera de resentimentele şi de frustrările pe care le ai, de influenţele externe, de patimile care îţi falsifică firea. Toate aceste renunţări sunt necesare pentru a obţine libertatea adevărată, libertatea gândirii, a spiritului şi a purităţii.

Primul principiu spiritual de care ţine cont un lider poate fi formulat astfel: "Dacă reuşeşti să îţi suporţi propria persoană o viaţă, secundă de secundă, atunci îi poţi percepe şi pe ceilalţi oameni din jur ca o prelungire a propriei persoane."

Grădina episcopului Myriel aduce în atenţie acea relaţie pe care o are omul cu propriile lui însuşiri, cu propriile sale gânduri, exprimate sau nu, într-un cadru de existenţă care identifică acele realităţi construite în jurul tuturor posibilităţilor de cunoaştere şi înţelegere de sine.

Grandiosul transfer de personalitate al artiştilor de geniu

On Decembrie 24, 2012

Pune în scenă un spectacol de leadership de zile mari, fără să pierzi din vedere cine eşti cu adevărat.

Era un fel de manifestare a voinţei sale, tot mai fertilă, o excrescenţă în zona lui funcţională, un pivot puternic care pătrunsese nedesluşit, adânc şi temeinic în fibrele cele mai ascunse ale fiinţei sale. Un Alter-Ego, un element declanşator, o însuşire măreaţă, o desprindere absolută de orice conexiune cu interpretările ştiute ale realului şi acceptabilului, menite a-i iniţia grandioasa transformare, îi dădeau avântul spre cele înalte şi greu de izbutit.

- Eu, Jerome Morrow n-am fost destinat să fiu al doilea pe podium. Cu tot ce aveam, am fost totuşi pe locul doi. Eu ! Cum îţi poţi imagina că vei reuşi tu, Vincent Freeman? exclamă invalidul din căruciorul cu rotile.

Aceste cuvinte șocante, însoţite totuşi de o fărâmă de sens, au fost de ajuns ca să producă un cutremur, dar unul care a zguduit serios întregul eşafodaj de susţinere al lui Vincent, grota greu accesibilă în care hibernau tăcute cele mai de preţ însuşiri. O accelerare de ritm, ca o amplificare a circulaţiei sangvine într-un vas cerebral.

Printr-o reînnoire a spiritului, printr-un transfer de personalitate, printr-un împrumut de scurtă durată a calităţilor cele mai subtile - dar hotărâtoare, Vincent, omul care a fost sortit eşecului, îi ia locul lui Jerome.

Dar crusta care acoperea lava-i lăuntrică era greu de spart. Într-o măsură abia perceptibilă, începătorul se dovedea a fi esențialmente imitator, nu şi un original, nu un inovator abil care îşi croieşte poteca prin mulţime, continuând să fie pas cu pas înaintea celorlalţi concurenţi. Fiat voluntas tua, Deus Meus !

Leadership: Îţi negociezi postura de învingător sub impresia unei imagini reflectate în oglindă, ca venind din trăirea unui moment unic al constituirii unei neaşteptate autorităţi elaborată sub presiunea unei realităţi aproape imposibil de schimbat?

Să-ţi trăieşti minunea, să-ţi atingi scopul prin a fi altcineva, făcând apel la setul de calităţi care caracterizează dorinţa ta, simţul tău de superioritate, este o adevărată renaştere în voinţă, în credinţă şi armonie. Un alter ego opusul celui vizibil. Dar o falsă transpunere prin care speri să devii une autre personne , nu este altceva decât un travesti, şi nicidecum o metamorfoză.

Totuşi, această constrângere la asociere cu un Alter Ego se poate dovedi în anumite circumstanţe a fi uriaşul secret al izbânzii, printr-o convertire a personalităţii !

Fulminantul spectacol al travestiţilor. Un joc dublu, doi actori principali, strălucind unul şi acelaşi printr-o grandioasă cucerire a ceva propriu, a întregului cosmos uman. Consacraţi definitiv - în chip genial - într-un singur rol, de excepţie: "Magicianul".

Ca nişte împătimiţi ai noului, ai descoperirii, ai neconvenţionalului, ai adrenalinei, cei doi învingători spintecă, prin spirit şi prin faptă, învelişul fragil al unei identităţi impuse, care îşi va revărsa hotărâtor conţinutul plin de substanţă stimulativă într-un mediu ostil.

Vincent Freeman ajunge, prin Jerome Morrow, un navigator de primă clasă, un fel de Robur aflat la bordul unei Ėpouvante, pus în faţa unei misiuni imposibile, surmontând necunoscutul. Nevoit să profite de fiecare împrejurare norocoasă ca să se ridice în straturile superioare ale propriului său Ego. Un artist al baghetei - al spiritului, al şlefuirii personalităţii. Şi al efectului care colorează viaţa.

Leadership: Poţi să joci un rol dublu în aceeași piesă fără să-ţi sacrifici calitatea de a da actorului ce-i al actorului, în sensul unei valori acordate relaţiei directe două personaje cu aceleaşi afinităţi, dar cu poveşti de viaţă diferite?

La rândul lui, Jerome Morrow ajunge prin intermediul lui Vincent Freeman un câştigător al medaliei de aur, recondiţionându-şi puterea esenţială a fiinţei sale, spulberând limitele, încălcând condiţiile vitrege impuse de apriga instanţă de judecată a vieţii. Un artist prin excelenţă, un magician de mare clasă al cărui magnific truc a lăsat mască fanul lui cel mai tare, dar şi cel mai nemeritat: destinul necruţător.

Ceva mecanic te împinge cu hotărâre, constrângător, dincolo de limitele acceptate de societate? Încerci să redirecţionezi legile aspre care guvernează viaţa? În ce scop? În scopul reuşitei de a fi mai bun decât ţi-a fost hărăzit?

Excelenţa în leadership implică voinţa de a induce transformări benefice în propriul "Eu", în modul de gândire şi de acţiune. Şi presupune exacerbarea propriilor pretenţii vis-a-vis de "punctul terminus" propus, dar şi evaluarea permanentă a efectelor acestor transformări. Dificila conectare la acea lume pe care liderul, artistul din tine, o creează, fără a fi tulburat de realitate.

A juca un rol dublu într-o piesă în care scenariul este scris de mâna potrivnică a destinului, înseamnă să rişti să te pierzi pe tine însuţi pe acordurile unei coregrafii care te reprezintă într-o ipostază de regulă vulnerabilă, care prezintă anumite slăbiciuni: devii una cu personajul pe care nu l-ai înţeles decât la final.

O schimbare benefică, un pas înainte spre mult dorita excelenţă, concomitent o uitare de sine grea şi categorică, rece şi tare ca piatra de moară, este rareori posibilă. Numai tu ştii ce şi cât poţi să cari în spate, numai tu ştii de ce te loveşti suportând povara unei transformări hotărâtoare. Aşa cum o spun şi versurile din "Concret Angel", al Martinei Mcbride: " Este greu să vezi durerea din spatele măştii / Suportând povara unui secret furtunos. / Uneori şi-ar fi dorit să nu se fi născut niciodată."

Conştiinţa presupune să-ţi aduci mereu aminte de limitele pe care le porţi în tine, în concordanţă cu premisele obţinerii unui final care nu e întotdeauna cel dorit.

Ai curajul să-ţi schimbi identitatea, să-ţi reînnoieşti spiritul printr-un transfer de personalitate? Dar întrebarea care se poate ridica în unele inimi este: "Cat timp vei putea oare să rămâi altcineva decât cel ce eşti cu adevărat?"

Ca un iluzionist care îşi transformă magiile într-un mod unic, deseori omul care se îndreaptă spre reuşită îşi transformă energiile creatoare într-un mod extrem de eficient, unindu-le apoi într-un singur punct şi îndreptându-se direct spre punctul acela, fără să privească nici în dreapta, nici în stânga.

Dar un alter ego opusul celui vizibil, o falsă metamorfoză prin care se pierde el însuşi. Obţinând o aparenţă de a fi altcineva, nu înseamnă decât un travesti de scurtă durată, o incursiune incredibilă într-o aventură în care realitatea şi magia se confundă, şi a cărei miză este propriul Eu.

Leadership: Cum te vei descurca când vei ajunge la "punctul terminus" propus, ca raport de forţe dintre inputuri şi outputuri?

Bătălia se dă între cele două tabere, între cele două forţe de energie, de al cărei rezultat depinde supravieţuirea propriului tău "Eu". Capacitatea ta de a deveni una cu conştiinţa, posibilitatea exclusivă de a accede la esenţa propriului sine, la adevărul fiinţei tale, la ceea ce este durabil, depinde de cum te descurci atunci când ajungi la "punctul terminus" propus.

Atingerea lui va fi oare suficientă pentru a produce o "curăţire" spirituală, o nouă dimensionare a orizonturilor, o clarificare a propriilor nevoi?

Căci odată ce ai ajuns în vârful muntelui, pe căi ocolitoare, nu există altă direcţie decât în jos, urmând exact aceleaşi căi. Nu poţi face altceva decât să te străduieşti să cobori. Iar coborârea este întotdeauna mai dificilă decât urcarea, şi este cu atât mai dificilă cu cât te opui mai mult transformării – revenirii la cine eşti de fapt. Cu cât opui mai multă rezistenţă realităţii de a fi cine eşti cu adevărat, cu atât mai mult rişti să cobori mai greu şi cu atât există riscul de a te pierde definitiv pe tine însuţi.

Inputul este numărul norocos care promite succes în punerea în aplicare a planurilor, evidenţiat prin două calităţi: curaj şi statornicie. Outputul este reacţia ta la atingerea scopului propus, este principala finalitate a abordării personale la nivelul de "context particular al unei cauze pe care conştiinţa o absolvă de orice învinovăţire".

Adevărata măsură a talentului de a fi artist este recunoaşterea unui final care încheie o existenţă aflată sub semnul excepţiei, în care omul îşi vede în sfârşit visul împlinit prin ochii unui personaj interpretat cu mare drag.

Grandiosul transfer de personalitate al artiştilor de geniu evidenţiază lupta permanentă în vederea creşterii performanţelor tale. O taină a excelenţei, un imbold al reuşitei, dar un drept necesar sau un păcat?

Cunoaşte-ţi limitele, cunoaşte-ţi potenţialul, nu te avânta într-o aventură în care trebuie să lupţi cu imposibilul, decât dacă eşti făcut dintr-un material dur şi foarte elastic. Grandioasa metamorfoză a personalităţii aparţine doar artiştilor de geniu, nu şi diletanţilor.

Căci din succesul greu obţinut, trudit cu atâtea sacrificii şi speranţă, şi din izbânda atât de mult aşteptată, necesară în obţinerea excelenţei, se poate naşte nu doar satisfacţia, ci şi vinovăţia, regretul şi durerea, sau disperarea de a voi să fii altcineva decât ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce poţi să fii.

Şi, parafrazând un scriitor celebru, nimic nu vestejeşte mai repede inima unui om, ca pierderea adevăratei sale identităţi în bătălia cu superioritatea invincibilă a destinului, această supremă forţă a tuturor timpurilor, pe care uneori o învinge un artist şi de o mie de ori o plămădeşte viaţa.

Greva este Octombrie în cinematografie

On Iulie 09, 2010

Un regizor eficient în regie știe să folosească sentimentele și experiențele personale pentru a da viață personajelor și scenelor, dincolo de ceea ce este scris în scenariu.

De ce a stârnit filmul "Greva" un asemenea ecou, de ce unii atunci încă, cei mai mulți tardiv, au socotit filmul un eveniment? Fără a intra în analiza amănunțită a filmului, trebuie totuși să notăm câteva din elementele estetice ce-i sunt proprii.

Problemele estetice pe care le rezolva fuseseră puse de Eisenstein înainte de începerea realizării filmului. El singur descrie astfel felul în care s-a născut ideea care avea să se concretizeze în acest film: "Zidul Mănăstirii Strasnii, azi dărâmată, avea o arcadă. Pe acolo mergea drumul spre cinematograful, pe vremuri răsunător, de la Malaia Dmitrovka nr. 6, renumit pe atunci, pentru că aici se prezentau cele mai senzaționale filme americane... Cum ar putea fi întrecuți acești giganți ai filmului american în plină dezvoltare, în acea epocă în care propria noastră cinematografie nu-și începuse decât primii pași șovăitori? Cum să găsim un subiect care să poată întrece povestirile cinematografice americane? Unde să găsim la noi vedete care, prin strălucirea lor, să întunece luminile stelelor europene și americane? Unde să găsim eroi care, prin personalitatea lor, să umbrească pentru totdeauna corifeii filmului burghez?"

Întrebările acestea au dus la cea următoare: "Dacă am face totul invers: renunțăm la subiect, aruncăm vedetele și folosim în centrul dramei masa ca "personaj dramatic", aceeași masă care era doar fundalul pentru jocul actorilor întruchipând eroi individuali?"

Leadershipul inovator se manifestă prin capacitatea de a crea scene neașteptate și palpitante, în perfectă conformitate cu atmosfera evenimentului.

Ideea estetică a "Grevei" se născuse așadar dintr-o dorință emulativă a lui Eisenstein, pornit în lupta împotriva cinematografiei burgheze cu intenția clară de a o întrece. Precizarea mobilului acestui fenomen mi se pare importantă pentru înțelegerea personalității lui Eisenstein. Imediat după terminarea filmului, regizorul îi cunoaște cu luciditate valoarea și scrie: "Greva este Octombrie în cinematografie".

Pentru a mări intensitatea impactului emoțional și deplasarea narativă a unui film, regizorul poate folosi multiple repere sau secvențe, adică poate să utilizeze un montaj dublu cu aceeași constantă tematică: "contrapunct vizual". Deplasarea relativă a acestor secvențe, prin intermediul montajului dialectic, poate fi dată de un numărător de cadre. Prin urmare, pentru ca narațiunea să poată fi efectuată în ambele sensuri de interpretare, un sens individual și un sens colectiv, este necesar ca imaginea cinematografică să se dubleze în așa fel încât a doua imagine să fie deplasată față de prima cu 1/4 din constanta narativă. În acest mod, semnalele periodice ale poveștii devin defazate cu 90° și definesc un câmp rotitor al atenției spectatorului.

Crearea de personaje vii și autentice în film se bazează pe evocarea emoțională a evenimentelor transmise printr-o imagine, astfel încât spectatorii să rezoneze prin experiențele personale.

Deoarece o anumită porțiune din suprafața imaginii nu aparține în comun celor două perspective - individuală și colectivă - raportul semnalelor cinematografice nu este influențat de "îmbătrânirea" tehnicii, de degradarea peliculei sau de alți factori externi. Analizorul al narațiunii împarte cele două fluxuri dramatice modulate - care corespund celor două imagini, cea a eroului individual și cea a maselor, după direcția de vibrare emoțională, apoi le direcționează către receptorii de sensibilitate emoțională (spectatorii). Un al treilea receptor, de tipul "catalizator social", transformă partea fasciculului nemodulat într-un semnal emoțional care este deviat de prisma contextului social, pe oglinda realității, și apoi reflectat pe fotoelementul conștiinței colective.

Un amplificator de reglare în circuitul narativ menține constant acest semnal de ieșire al receptorului de tipul "catalizator social", prin reglarea fluxului de imagini care afectează emoțional spectatorii. În acest fel, câmpul emoțional al filmului este divizat în mai multe părți printr-un codificator de semnale care evaluează raportul celor două semnale defazate: individual și colectiv. Această abordare inovatoare a lui Eisenstein în "Greva" a permis crearea unui film care a depășit convențiile cinematografiei burgheze, răspunzând astfel provocării de a întrece giganții filmului american și de a crea o nouă estetică cinematografică sovietică.

Încărcătura emoțională autentică a scenelor nu provine din însemnările sumare ale scenariului, ci din sentimentele și experiențele personale ale echipei de creație.

"Greva este Octombrie în cinematografie" se referă la transformarea perspectivei narative, considerând că fără vedete individuale se poate atinge un impact profund, prin faptul că masa devine expresia centrală a emoțiilor și a tensiunilor. Din acest motiv, narațiunea își mută accentul, printr-un fel de renunțare la convențiile tradiționale, pe principiul că forța colectivă are un rol mai captivant decât individualitatea.

Groapa magică a maeştrilor

On Octombrie 27, 2010

Validează-ţi ipotezele cu privire la eficacitatea leadershipului tău prin prisma influenţei pe care o exercită ceilalţi asupra ta.

În noul roman "Aleph", scriitorul Paulo Coelho povesteşte următoarea întâmplare:

- Un om a alunecat şi a căzut într-o groapă. Un preot trecea pe acolo şi omul i-a cerut să-l ajute să iasă la suprafaţă. Preotul l-a binecuvântat, dar a plecat mai departe. După câteva ore a apărut un medic. Omul a cerut ajutor, medicul s-a mulţumit să-i privească de departe juliturile, să scrie o reţetă şi să-i spună să cumpere medicamente din farmacia cea mai apropiată. În fine, a apărut un om pe care nu-l mai văzuse niciodată. Din nou a cerut ajutor, iar străinul a sărit în groapă.

- Şi acum? Suntem amândoi prizonieri aici ! spuse omul.

La care străinul îi răspunde:

- Ba nu. Eu sunt din partea locului şi ştiu cum să ajung sus.

Leadership: Există o corespondenţă directă între reacţia ta de a te simţi copleşit de o situaţie (care serveşte la depăşirea limitelor proprii de competenţă) şi reproşul că nu faci destul pentru a te cunoaşte mai bine?

Cu siguranţă atragerea oamenilor de partea ta este cel mai profitabil segment al leadershipului pe care dacă îl targhetezi în mod direct vei putea să-ţi creşti valoarea. Însă, o astfel de operaţiune necesită înţelegerea percepţiilor oamenilor, cunoaşterea motivaţiilor şi a comportamentului acestora, abilitatea de a identifica acele atribute care fac din leadershipul tău un loc demn de a fi "vizitat".

Ca să-ţi evaluezi progresul trebuie să-ţi segmentezi leadershipul astfel: un segment dominat de tine – influenţa, şi un segment dominat de ceilalţi oameni – spiritul de solidaritate. Apoi să încerci să te poziţionezi în acea zonă în care ei să-şi poată manifesta atitudinea plină de grijă şi să încerci să o domini. Iar pentru asta trebuie să-ţi defineşti foarte bine planul de atac – să te transformi într-un prizonier şi să aştepţi să fii eliberat.

Ei bine, un astfel de plan de atac reprezintă exact contrariul modului de gândire dominant în strategiile de leadership. Şi de aceea nu te încurajez să iei în considerare această strategie decât dacă eşti absolut sigur de reuşita ei.

A te cunoaşte mai bine înseamnă să intri mai amănunţit în analiza unei situaţii care te ajută să evoluezi prin prisma a ceea ce ceea ce ai putea pierde dacă te laşi învins de ea.

Liantul care te uneşte de ceilalţi oameni este "groapa" în care aluneci în momentele dificile. Ca să reuşeşti să ieşi de acolo mai întâi trebuie să crezi tu în oameni, şi apoi să aştepţi ca cei care sunt cu adevărat de partea ta să vină te "viziteze" - să ţi se alăture şi apoi să te ajute să ajungi sus.

Pui la îndoială loialitatea lor? Obţinerea unui avantaj substanţial şi durabil depinde de capacitatea ta de a atrage segmentul dominat de oameni (cel mai profitabil) demonstrându-ţi măiestria în a crea relaţii eficiente şi de durată.

După cum o imagine fotografică este centrată pe un anumit element care să atragă atenţia – tot astfel tu trebuie să pui accent pe acel segment de oameni care se apropie de concepţiile şi viziunea ta de leadership, şi apoi să aduci la acelaşi numitor comun pe toţi aceia care te-au ales la conducere. Iar acest lucru este uneori foarte greu de realizat dacă nu există acea bunăvoinţă, acea disponibilitate sufletească şi bunătate de ambele părţi.

A-ţi reproşa că nu te cunoşti mai bine înseamnă să îţi judeci rolul pe care îl ai de îndeplinit într-o situaţie în care nu eşti dispus să te afirmi ca un om de mare valoare.

Groapa magică a maeştrilor exprimă acea modificare a cursului leadershipului tău. Este una din căile hotărâtoare pentru optimizarea leadershipului tău care îţi poate asigura schimbarea pe termen lung a performanţelor tale.

Uneori oamenii te pot ajuta să te ridici mai sus doar dacă îi laşi să-şi exercite influenţa asupra ta, doar dacă te laşi pe mâna lor ceea ce este riscant deoarece poate degenera în manipulare. Iar dacă îţi arăţi preocuparea faţă de ei dar nu faci niciun progres, atunci vei trăi experienţa eşecului. Nu te teme dacă ai alunecat în groapă, teme-te ca nu cumva să fii lăsat acolo tocmai de oamenii care te-au ales la conducere - dar care nu ţi-au apreciat calităţile.

Te concentrezi pe acele atribute care fac din leadershipul tău un loc demn de a fi “vizitat”? Validează-ţi ipotezele cu privire la eficacitatea leadershipului tău prin prisma influenţei pe care o exercită ceilalţi asupra ta.

Concluzie: Una din abilităţile liderului trebuie să fie aceea de a se menţine pe treapta cea mai înaltă a scării valorilor şi să urce eventual mai sus, ducând după sine echipa. Acest lucru se poate realiza numai dacă echipa este dispusă să urce împreună cu liderul şi mai ales depinde de disponibilitatea ei la schimbarea modului de gândire. Reversul medaliei este fireşte coborârea pe scara valorilor şi chiar căderea în groapă neputinţei de unde uneori poţi să ieşi, sau poţi să rămâi definitiv acolo, părăsit de echipă. Foarte rar vei întâlni pe cineva care să te ajute să ieşi de acolo.

Gustă-mă prin impresia vizuală (II)

On Ianuarie 15, 2022

Îmbunătăţeşte-ţi imaginea personală prin intermediul senzaţiilor predominante, fără să uiţi niciodată ce-ai fost înainte de cel ce eşti acum.

Omul cu o imagine de sine pozitivă este o veritabilă sursă de energie, putându-şi accesa cu uşurinţă rezervele nelimitate de vitalitate printr-o proiecţie a sinelui în altcineva pe care îl admiră nespus. Dar ce anume îi dă această stare de energie, decât acea experienţă a gustului care răspândeşte un miros proaspăt pe care îl adoră în primul rând la sine?

În acest sens, guma de mestecat Orbit nu este doar o soluție auxiliară pentru întreținerea igienei orale, un aliment miraculos care nu trebuie să lipsească din alimentația noastră, ci devine imaginea unui ochean întors către sinele fiecăruia.

Guma de mestecat Orbit este fascinaţia unui gust proeminent, o vrajă care te învăluie, te distrage și te lasă cu senzația că totul trebuie retrăit la maxim. Este poate cea mai sigură cale de seducţie pe care, dacă o investeşti cu o anumită reputaţie, o poţi folosi mereu în jocul îndrăgostirii. Dar poate i-ar mai trebui o concentraţie mai mare de miros îmbietor, ca să te facă să simţi mai bine lângă o persoană pe care o placi într-atât de mult încât ai vrea să o revezi într-o poveste pe care ai vrea să o retrăieşti la nesfârşit.

De bună seamă, guma Orbit ştie ce se petrece în mintea mea, simte că drumul cel adevărat al inimii mele este inima, şi că sunt dăruit cu un har aparte. Gustul ei atât de dulce, atât de puternic, încât simt aroma cum se extinde prin tot corpul, este alimentat de un foc lăuntric care provoacă discontinuitate în cazul senzaţiilor de Deja Vu ce par să se întâmple mai des pe măsură ce mă las în voia unei activităţi plăcute, construind o versiune nouă a poveştii pe care o are de spus viaţa mea. Ceea ce înseamnă că anumite amintiri create într-un nivel de conştiinţă, vor să fie retrăite…

Leadership: Poţi să prezinţi imaginea unei continue reconstruiri a Sinelui tău prin intermediul senzaţiilor ce au un caracter limitat, ele reflectând doar însuşirile concrete, direct accesibile organelor de simţ?

Nimic nu se pierde din memoria simţurilor mele, mai ales când mi se schimbă expresia gurii, fizionomia mea fiind asemănătoare cu cea a unui bucătar care rămâne impresionat de reţeta sa rapidă şi s-a decis să o folosească la următoarea vizită a prietenilor. Bineînţeles că preferinţele mele în materie de prospeţime şi savoare s-au adaptat odată cu modificarea percepţiei asupra gustului aromat, deci voi încerca să aleg un alt sortiment de gumă Orbit pe viitor, doar ca să experimentez o nouă senzaţie de fresh.

Observ o mare diferenţă faţă de modul "confort" atunci când o simt că cineva face curăţenie prin cavitatea mea bucală (cavum oris) şi în gât. Cu toate acesta, guma de mestecat Orbit nu are neuroni ca să se descurce singură, sau ca să priceapă care este rolul ei în poarta de acces către întregul meu corp, chiar dacă îmi oferă o senzaţie de prospeţime. Partea interesantă este că ea devine legată de mine printr-un simţ al plăcerii ce poate fi dezvoltat într-atât încât să devină a doua mea natură, pentru a-mi construi o altă imagine decât cea în care sunt eu.

Vreau să spun că însemnătatea deosebită a gumei de mestecat Orbit trebuie să fie atribuită şi rolului de companion al imaginii de sine, şi nu invers, cum s-a încetăţenit obiceiul, chemând imaginea doar pentru a ilustra impactul dintre gust, aromă şi miros. Pe bună dreptate, imaginea omului care şi-a găsit un aliat prețios pentru menținerea igienei orale, îşi pierde într-un fel fizionomia originală îndată ce îşi contopeşte funcţiile limbii (gustative, aromatice şi olfactive) cu acea notă unică de diferenţiere care bruiază statutul de fiinţă superioară înfrumuseţată cu o viaţă marcată de un sens.

Leadership: Poţi să stabileşti gradul de realism al unei imagini de sine înfăţişată prin intermediul unei experienţe senzoriale care acţionează direct asupra unui dublu al tău încărcat cu forţă expresivă, sinestezică?

Ce înseamnă, deci, să utilizez guma de mestecat Orbit pentru obţinerea unei noi fizionomii? Ei bine, la înregistrarea unei noi imagini faciale, prin procesul mecanic de mestecare, se ia în considerare gradul de pregnanţă al imaginii bazat pe imaginea captată privind normal, dar spre un stil animat. Este vorba aici despre un grad de distorsionare a imaginii omului, destul de supărătoare în procesul mestecării gumei, care poate să diminueze impresia de naturaleţe pe care o emană, de exemplu, un prezentator de ştiri pregătit să facă senzaţii printr-un zâmbet realmente de invidiat.

Mă întreb cum ar fi să asigur terenul fertil (prin forţa de atracţie) pentru o mai bună conexiune cu ceilalţi oameni, fără să interpretez concluziile pe care le-aş trage în urma unei autoevaluări fizionomice. Căci fiecare figură are un format, adică este un producător de semnificații. Şi nu-i aşa că guma de mestecat schimbă aceste semnificaţii? Oare trebuie să mă deschid mai mult faţă de instinctele de nutriţie, faţă de acea senzaţie inexplicabilă care mă face să cred că sunt mai sănătos şi arăt mult mai bine dacă mestec Orbit fără zahăr?

Un spaţiu bucal aerisit îmi dă senzaţia de frumuseţe, dar şi de protecţie. Mai ceva ca un desert delicios, bine insiropat, usor, 100% natural, guma de mestecat Orbit reprezintă un îndulcitor care, neavând efecte asupra glicemiei sau insulinei, nici nu lasă acel "bitter aftertaste" neplăcut, dar nici nu te va ajuta să scapi de toxinele acumulate în organism. Prin mestecare îşi pierde calităţile de îndulcitor sau efectul de albire a dinţilor, rămânând să îndeplinească doar rolul nesemnificativ - de "decor".

Desigur, mai trebuie să am în vedere ipostazele plastice ale gumei Orbit, înainte şi după ce a fost mestecată, ca să îmi dau seama de valoarea ei estetică şi de contribuţia pe care o aduce la transfigurarea personalităţii mele care depăşeşte „înţelepciunea vieţii cumpătate”, fiind tot mai înclinată spre orizonturile esteticii.

Leadershipul este imaginea de sine cu care te-ai obişnuit să te identifici într-o formă analoagă percepţiei despre un Brand cu care te afli în permanentă interacţiune.

Într-o bună zi voi înţelege de ce contează să am un zâmbet frumos şi o respiraţie proaspătă, desigur fără să mă chinuiesc să schimb ceva la înfăţişarea mea. Fiindcă îmi doresc să readuc timpul înapoi, şi să nu uit niciodată ce-am fost înainte de cel ce sunt acum. Într-un fel, cred că sunt acelaşi care am fost mereu...

Gustă-mă prin impresia vizuală dacă vrei cu adevărat să mă cunoşti mai bine. Sau, mai bine zis, încearcă să mă vezi prin faptul estetic care îmi alimentează imaginea de sine, punând în prim plan o necesitate responsabilă cu asigurarea unei vederi sănătoase care îmi va creşte gradul de satisfacţie. Dinţii mei, care alimentează zâmbetul, sunt semnificativ mai curaţi şi mai strălucitori de când am optat pentru guma de mestecat Orbit fără zahăr, cu aromă de afine.

Gustă-mă prin impresia vizuală (I)

On Ianuarie 11, 2022

Ceea ce simţi când intri într-o anumită stare depinde de imaginea pe care ţi-o formezi despre calitatea obiectului care îţi trezeşte anumite senzaţii, percepţii şi emoţii.

Mi-am cumpărat un pachet de gume de mestecat Orbit, cu aromă de afine, fiindcă îmi oferă un gust proaspăt şi aromat, garantând în acelaşi timp o respiraţie proaspătă şi plăcut mirositoare. Este adevărat că în general gumele de mestecat nu asigură un aport echilibrat de nutrienţi care să ateste faptul că alimentaţia poate îmbunătăţi sănătatea fizică sau mentală, dar pot spune că Orbit declanşează în mine acea senzaţie de bun gust care m-ar îndemna să cumpăr din nou.

Este vorba mai mult despre o necesitate de bază, la fel ca alimentaţia, pentru cei ca mine care au terminat un program de antrenament intensiv şi exigent. Trebuie să mă simt fresh, încât să respir un alt aer, să nu simt nicio apăsare, nicio solicitare a muşchilor sau a nervilor, şi asta porneşte de la senzaţiile de care în mod uzual nu am parte, fapt ce abate oboseala susţinător, chiar şi gândirea o abate de la rutină.

Guma de mestecat Orbit este, până la urmă, o lume închisă într-un om, un mod de a face trimitere spre plăcerea de a străbate o lume pe care în bună măsură nimeni o detestă. Nu degeaba, îmi rezerv plăcerea de a face parte dintr-o lume unde pot face ce vreau eu fără consecinţe. Sportul, distracţia, ruperea de realitate, devin şi ele parte a acestei lumi.

Aşadar, guma de mestecat Orbit poate să furnizeze plăcerea de a descifra lumea în felul micului – mare cercetător chimist, care desluşeşte într-o senzaţie plăcută mecanismul gustului ce manipulează serios o lume întreagă prin modificarea percepţiei asupra calităţii compuşilor care se găsesc în alimentaţie: zahărul sau aromele, amidonul sau diverşi antioxidanţi.

Leadership: Percepţia faţă de sinele tău poate să completeze amănuntele insolubile dintr-un produs care nu se învecheşte, conform unei experienţe de focusare asupra unei senzaţii exclusiv subiective?

Măcar pentru o perioadă scurtă de timp, zic că sunt parte a unei lumi care nu se vrea schimbată, din care nu se poate evada, o lume care deşi se închide în modern şi cochet, nu trebuie judecată decât prin prisma senzaţiei pe care o aduce la centrul comun, adică impresia de relaxare, impresia de prospeţime şi de "aerisire a interiorului".

Orbit trimite spre corp semnale fiziologice că va intra în organism ceva dulce şi aromat, fiind şi asta un fel de atracţie faţă de un produs care nu necesită prescripţie medicală, dincolo de starea de bine pe care o provoacă în momentele de relaxare. Şi ce mi-aş mai putea dori atunci când mestec Orbit decât să-mi induc o stare de echilibru şi de detaşare, alături de un control mai bun asupra reacţiilor fizice şi emoţiilor. Cât mi-aş dori ca această dispoziţie să nu mai treacă !

Ca urmare a acestei lumi, aflată în zona gustului şi a aromei naturale, în care guma Orbit este suverană şi îi răsplăteşte pe cei ce cred în ea, prilejuind o stare de de bine, o stare de pace interioară, ei bine viaţa fizică (cu binecuvântările interiorului meu) începe să împodobească experienţele lumii exterioare cu percepţia unei relaxări care mă deconectează de la zilele posomorâte.

În lumea înconjurătoare foarte des se constată prezenţa unei diversităţi de asociaţii între simţuri şi lucrurile spuse simţurilor, între plăceri şi gusturi variate, dar nimic nu se compară cu acea experienţă interesantă a satisfacţiei pe care o dă relaţia dintre bun gust şi senzaţia plăcută de răcoare şi prospeţime.

Leadership: Poţi să scoţi în evidenţă fundalul unei imagini încărcată de senzaţii, printr-o amplificare a percepţiei îndreptată asupra impresiei de autenticitate pe care ţi-o oferă experienţa unui gust inconfundabil?

De altminteri, întrucât gustul trebuie judecat prin natura senzaţiei pe care o dezvoltă la nivel de cortex şi neocortex, chiar dacă nu se poate asemui cu senzaţia pe care aş avea-o dacă aş sorbi din "elixirul nemuririi", acea ambrozie de care se vorbeşte în ospeţele zeilor, el îmi dă totuşi ocazia de a mă delecta cu percepţia unui desert mai puţin obişnuit, dar la fel de aromat şi delicios ca un sirop de tartă dulce (doar ca neavând culoarea roşu aprins).

În coordonatele viziunii mele, suveranitatea gustului pe care îl dă guma de mestecat Orbit cuprinde absolut toate lucrurile: gustul pentru aventură, gustul pentru ceea ce ţine de energii la un alt nivel, sau gustul pentru rafinat, unic, frumos. Ar mai fi gustul pentru experienţele care se aliniază vieţii normale, dar pot include aici şi gustul pentru un comportament echilibrat.

Acum, nu mai sunt în stare să constat prezenţa unei diversităţi de senzaţii şi gusturi, în încercarea de realizare a unei imagini sintetice, ci mă confrunt cu amintirea ideilor dobândite de pe urma percepţiei unei experienţe rafinate. Gustul gumei de mestecat Orbit este tot atât de falnic ca un vizir şi tot atât de măreţ ca un sultan.

Într-adevăr, gura mea n-a uitat gustul care i-a anulat uscăciunea din timpul efortului, şi încă păstrează pe limbă aroma splendidă de poveste, dintr-o bucăţică din "1001 de nopţi întunecate" pe care o dă amintirea feciorului de crai, pe nume Iasmin, a cărui guriţă, cea cu dinţi de nestemate şi cu limbă de trandafir, zemuia o vorbă dulce care te făcea să laşi uitării trestia de zahăr. El spunea că niciun gust nu este exact la fel ca altul.

Eu am să aştept până ce se va duce gustul, până ce alt gust mă va prinde în aromele sale. Apoi, pecetea tăcerii se va aşterne pe buzele mele, şi voi înceta să mă plimb visător pe drumuri lungi.

Leadershipul are ca punct de tangenţă manifestarea unei senzaţii de plăcere concepută pe fondul unei experienţe de cunoaştere ce începe de la o proprietate semnificativă a unui lucru şi se continuă cu forţa de sugestie a unei imagini simbol

Gustă-mă prin impresia vizuală dacă vrei să înţelegi starea care mă domină în diferite momente. Se vede că am în minte omul special care combină procesele neuronale, senzaţiile şi percepţiile, spre folosul unui monografist excepţional care caută, în toate amănuntele trăirilor elementare, o nouă formulă de aplicare a cunoaşterii de sine.

Hannibal în faţa porţilor Romei

On Octombrie 11, 2010

Schimbă-ţi atitudinea şi convingerile găsind acel element distinctiv din natura ta care să-ţi susţină şi întreţină motivarea.

În romanul "Aleph"renumitul scriitor Paulo Coelho discută despre epopeea lui Hannibal, unul dintre cei mai de seamă conducători ai tuturor timpurilor.

Romanii se aşteptau la o bătălie maritimă, de vreme ce cele două oraşe erau despărţite doar de câteva sute de kilometri de mare. Dar Hannibal a înfruntat deşertul, a trecut strâmtoarea Gibraltar cu o armată uriaşă, a străbătut Spania şi Franţa, a traversat Alpii cu soldaţi şi elefanţi şi a atacat imperiul prin nord, această strategie constituind una dintre cele mai mari epopei militare despre care s-a scris vreodată.

Şi-a înfrânt toţi inamicii pe drum şi deodată (fără ca astăzi să ştie cineva de ce) s-a oprit în faţa porţilor Romei şi nu a atacat la momentul propice. Rezultatul acestei indecizii: Cartagina a fost ştearsă de pe hartă de către legiunile romane. Hannibal s-a oprit chiar atunci când succesul i-a surâs, şi pentru asta a plătit un preţ mare. A fost învins de şovăiala din ultimul moment.

Leadership: Faci „click" pe elementul primordial din natura ta care poate aduce un trafic de calitate spre un model de performanţă acoperit de garanție cu condiţia reîntăririi unor ocazii de a schimba decisiv cursul lucrurilor?

Dacă ai fi în locul lui Hannibal, ţi-ai lăsa hotărârile la toanele clipei şi ai lăsa să-ţi scape victoria? Ce anume din natura ta te poate face să te răzgândeşti în ultimul moment?

Cred cu tărie că natura fiecărui individ este constituită din două elemente distincte: un element bine structurat în conştiinţă, care constituie suma tuturor speranţelor şi idealurilor sale, şi un element care este condiţionat de realitatea exterioară creată prin actul cunoaşterii anumitor aspecte care blochează dezvoltarea sa – care nu poate fi înlocuit în ultima clipă de primul element.

Deci, felul în care acţionăm depinde de actul cunoaşterii propriului nostru univers interior, dar este condiţionat cumva şi de realitatea exterioară. Totul se reflectă în conştiinţa noastră, care aşa cum observa cineva, este o oglindă a lumii exterioare. Nu numai atât. Această oglindă reflectă adevăratele noastre calităţi - puse în diverse situaţii de viaţă.

Iar dacă ne întrebăm de ce Hannibal s-a oprit în faţa porţilor Romei, deşi ar fi putut s-o cucerească atât de uşor, ei bine, acest lucru se datorează unui fenomen psihologic numit Self-Intimidation tradus prin "Uau, nu-mi vine să cred, e mult prea uşor". Este ceva de neaşteptat, nu-i aşa? Adică să ai un scop atât de înalt, pentru care ţi-ai da şi viaţa, să cucereşti o lume desprinsă parcă dintr-un vis magnific, acest lucru merită totuşi un moment de reflecţie, un moment de gândire în plus, un moment de introspecţie. Un ultim moment de admirație.

Acelaşi lucru se întâmplă când pleci într-o călătorie, într-un loc minunat precum Taj Mahal din India. Când te afli la o aruncătură de băţ de magnificul monument, nu dai pur şi simplu buzna înăuntru, nu-i aşa? Mai întâi îl admiri pe din afară, faci o grămadă de fotografii, scrii câteva memorii în jurnal, suni câţiva prieteni ca să le spui ce minunat este acolo, etc. Şi la sfârşitul zilei, după ce s-a obişnuit sufletul cu toate vederile din jur, parcă ai vrea să vezi şi cum este înăuntru, nu-i aşa?

Un lider adevărat ştie că cea mai bună variantă a unui eşec umilitor este credința într-un miracol.

Atunci când ajungem într-o situaţie nouă ne confruntăm cu multe schimbări şi suntem supuşi noi înşine multor schimbări. Este necesar să ne auto-încurajăm şi auto-disciplinăm să acţionăm după cum ne dictează conştiinţa, şi nu după cum ne dictează realitatea exterioară, dar în corelaţie cu ea. Cu alte cuvinte în situaţii noi cred că este mai important să facem "click" pe primul element al naturii noastre şi să ne asumă responsabilitatea de a urma până la capăt idealurile, dar ţinând cont şi de realităţile înconjurătoare.

Nimeni nu ştie cu adevărat de ce s-a oprit Hannibal în faţa porţilor Romei, deşi v-am relatat punctul meu de vedere. La fel cum nimeni nu ştie cum vei acţiona tu când vei ajunge la "porţile" deschise prin care trebuie să treci pentru ca succesul tău total să fie garantat. Reuşita ta va fi condiţionată de convingerile şi valorile tale la care te vei raporta în ultimul moment - de lumea care se reflectă în conştiinţa ta şi care îţi influenţează hotărârile.

Aşadar. elementul primordial din natura ta care poate aduce un trafic de calitate spre un model de performanţă este acel Self-Intimidation din care poate să rezulte nedreptăţirea destinului pentru c-ai rămas fidel credinţei în miracol. Uneori ajungi să nu poţi schimba cursul lucrurilor tocmai fiindcă ai ajuns mult prea departe cu credinţa, iar Divinitatea nu răsplăteşte întotdeauna un destin prea spectaculos tocmai fiindcă omul şi-a pus mai mult decât trebuie nădejdea în rezultatul unei fericiri lumeşti, trecătoare, egoiste, mai degrabă decât în existenţa unui ideal spiritual care previne anarhia.

Încurajarea îl ajută pe om să-şi atingă potenţialul; îi dă puteri, oferindu-i energia să meargă mai departe atunci când se opreşte din cauza unei chestiuni de conştiinţă. Pe tine cine sau ce trebuie să te susţină şi să-ţi întreţină motivarea?

E vorba de acel un element salvator care te ajută să-ţi joci cartea până în ultima clipă – acel element din natura ta care îndepărtează orice îndoieli asupra respectabilităţii propriei tale persoane şi a propriilor tale idealuri.

Semnul profetic al slăbiciunii în leadership este garanţia unei victorii utilizată ca factor determinant al unei stări de siguranţă totală construită pe fondul unei credinţe care nu numai că cere, dar şi comandă.

Eu cred că adevărata credinţă se traduce prin trăirea propriu zisă a mesajului evanghelic în viaţa de zi cu zi, nu printr-o acţiune egoistă din care se înțelege că se poate atinge fericirea de unul singur, sau doar pentru sine. Aşadar, visează să schimbi o lume care să reprezinte un loc mai bun în care să poţi trăi, nu să schimbi o lume doar pentru că acest lucru îndreaptă focusul minţii spre propria persoană.

Hannibal în faţa porţilor Romei scoate în evidenţă realitatea cu care te poţi confrunta şi tu pe ultima sută de metri – chiar atunci când te afli în situaţia de a-ţi atinge scopurile. Ce-ţi spune conştiinţa? Te simţi în siguranţă să faci pasul către reuşită? Există vreun impediment care să-ţi anuleze motivaţia chiar atunci când ai ajuns pe cea mai înaltă culme?

Schimbă-ţi atitudinea şi convingerile găsind acel element distinctiv din natura ta care să-ţi susţină şi întreţină motivarea.

Concluzie: Un lider trebuie să fie un bun strateg. Atunci când şi-a pus la punct strategia se presupune că a luat în consideraţie toate opţiunile posibile, toate alternativele şi este pregătit să acţioneze spontan şi eficient în toate neprevăzuturile. Un singur moment de slăbiciune este suficient ca să fie învins. O singură clipă de îndoială care îi "sabotează" acţiunile poate fi fatală – după cum, având unul sau mai mulţi aşi în mânecă în situaţii neprevăzute, înseamnă să aibă un adevărat colac de salvare pe apele învolburate ale unui "ocean" în plină furtună.

Harta leadershipului

On Octombrie 26, 2010

Poposeşte mai des în pragul artei leadershipului, ostenindu-te cu multă grijă să desluşeşti sensurile sale.

În cartea " Fiecare pacient spune o poveste ", scriitoarea Lisa Sanders povesteşte despre doctorul Wainapel, a cărui vedere fusese grav afectată. Cu toate acestea el îşi practica încă foarte bine meseria. Întrebându-l cum de poate să consulte un pacient, deşi nu vede aproape deloc, doctorul Wainapel i-a răspuns:

- Pacienţii mei află destul de repede că nu văd aproape deloc, dar partea ciudată e următoarea. Îşi aduc IRM-urile, fiindcă vor ca eu să mă uit pe radiografiile lor. De ce fac asta? Doar ştiu bine că eu nu văd. M-am gândit des la acest paradox – de ce să aduci imagini unui om despre care ştii că este orb? Ei bine, ei nu vor ca eu să le văd. Nu îi interesează asta. Ei vor să-i ajut să vadă ce se întâmplă. Vor ca eu să-i ajut să înţeleagă. Asta este, de fapt, treaba mea. Ca oricărui alt doctor.

Leadership: Practica ta poate fi înțeleasă convențional în termenii contribuției aduse la obţinerea unei victoriii asupra suferinţei, prin reinventarea monumentului primordial de a accede la spaţiul unei realităţi invizibile?

Leadershipul are la bază o axiomă: pui în practică ceea ce ştii. În cadrul celor mai bune relaţii cu oamenii, în devenirea ta ca lider, trebuie să dai frâu liber abilităţilor tale, dar totodată trebuie să te concentrezi pe ceea ce ai învăţat de la ceilalţi profesionişti, şi să pui în practică ceea ce ai asimilat de la ei. Dacă nu ai înţeles arta conducerii, atunci înseamnă că nu ai fost capabil să "vezi" esenţa pe care o creează aceasta, înseamnă că rolul pe care trebuie să-l îndeplineşti nu funcţionează la adevărata capacitate.

Unicul factor important în clădirea relaţiilor personale şi profesionale este disciplina. Fără ea eşti ca şi cum ai pune mâna pe o hartă, dar care nu-ţi arată exact unde te afli. Disciplina în relaţia cu mai marii profesionişti (mentori) este cheia care îşi permite progresul, este singurul mijloc prin care poţi să înaintezi printre contradicţiile pe care, în ambiţia ta spre desăvârşire, nu le prevezi şi pe care nu poţi să le rezolvi. Disciplina înseamnă să faci totul cum se cuvine, înseamnă să înţelegi acele suporturi reale pe care trebuie să te bazezi ca să obţii performanţa.

Primul sens al leadershipului este acela de a acompania oamenii în a se regăsi și conecta cu conținutul valoros din interiorul lor. Al doilea sens al leadershipului este acela de a te vedea în mod repetat în ipostaza unei deschideri către transparenţă, pentru a satisface o nevoie emoțională, nu pentru a obține atenție. Al treilea sens al leadershipului este acela de lege existenţială şi spirituală, prin care o fiinţă specială poate extinde accesul oamenilor la o realitate care depăşeşte orice înţelegere, fiindcă poate rezolva o problemă acolo unde aparent nu există soluţii.

Pentru a descifra harta leadershipului este absolut necesar să cunoşti "limbajul" pe care îl folosesc profesioniştii, cu alte cuvinte trebuie să dispui de un mentor care să te ajute să înţelegi cu adevărat "ce se întâmplă" în leadership.

Spaţiul unei realităţi invizibile reprezintă acea formă de contact cu un adevăr care, din punct de vedere medical, nu poate fi în niciun fel înlăturat, şi care iese la iveală numai atunci când inima ta accepta să creadă cu tărie în el (chiar dacă nu îl înţelege).

Aşa cum secretul unui doctor constă în observarea atentă a detaliilor - cu cât mai minuţioasă cercetarea, cu atât mai reuşite sunt rezultatele - tot astfel secretul unui leadership eficient constă în capacitatea de crede în profesionalismul altora şi de a conta pe ajutorul unui mentor. Trebuie să crezi mai întâi în cel ce îţi furnizează o mai clară, o mai proaspătă înţelegere a complexităţii artei de a conduce, şi apoi să-l urmezi.

Harta leadershipului şi realitatea pe care o percepi tu nu sunt identice. Majoritatea greşelilor de interpretare a acestei hărţi apar din cauza faptului că scapi din vedere esenţialul a ceea ce trebuie să ştii, esenţialul a ceea ce trebuie să înţelegi şi să respecţi. Dacă nu există o corespondenţă directă între ceea ce indică harta şi ceea ce eşti tu în realitate, înseamnă că nu ai ajuns la acel prag al evoluţiei încât să-ţi poţi explica totul.

Este nevoie de cineva cu o "vedere" mai bună decât a ta ca să te îndrume spre înţelegerea hărţii leadershipului? Trebuie să consulţi un "doctor" a cărui responsabilitate constă în interpretarea cât mai corectă a hărţii? E nevoie de cineva ca să calculeze exact destinaţia spre care trebuie să te îndrepţi? Care este esenţa care reiese din inspiraţia şi din ajutorul lui?

Reinventarea monumentului primordial de a accede la spaţiul unei realităţi invizibile presupune o trecere de la o dominantă empirică a profesiei (executarea precisă a meseriei) spre idealismul credinţei bazat pe concluziile apărute în urma unor dovezi şi argumente care pot dovedi existenţa unei cauzalităţi superioare, indirecte.

Harta leadershipului este o reprezentare ce poate fi descifrată numai cu ochiul unui specialist, al unui mentor care percepe esenţa lucrurilor altfel decât tine. Capacitatea ta de a conta pe el îţi ridică sau îţi coboară nivelul de pregătire.

Poposeşte mai des în pragul artei leadershipului, ostenindu-te cu multa grijă să desluşeşti sensurile sale – de la ceilalţi profesionişti.

Concluzie: Ca şi în alte domenii, şi în leadership totul se învaţă. Numai cu ajutorul mentorilor, prin experienţa proprie şi a celorlalţi vei câştiga abilităţile necesare de a găsi traseul corect pe harta leadershipului. Pornind de la noţiunile de bază, însuşindu-ţi experienţa altora, învăţând din reuşitele, dar mai ales din greşelile altora, dezvoltându-ţi capacităţile necesare de analiză şi sinteză, vei putea ajunge la punctul terminus, când vei fi apreciat pentru excelenţă. Pe acest traseu vei întâmpina obstacole mai ales de natură "umană", vei fi singur însoţit de maeştrii care te-au călăuzit şi te-au învăţat meserie. Şi va trebui să decizi de vrei să mergi înainte sau de vrei să te întorci de unde ai plecat.

Harul de a trăi sub semnul artei

On Iulie 09, 2018

Evaluează obiectiv modul în care îţi utilizezi cunoaşterea, încât opera ta să restaureze cu mijloacele desăvârşirii artistice încrederea într-o nouă eră a evoluţiei esteticii.

Ştiinţa este o pictură trăită la intensitate maximă, o infuzie consistentă de creativitate aparţinând unor niveluri diferite de experienţă. Alteori, ea reprezintă o exprimare plină de fervoare, încordare şi exigenţă, obţinută cu precădere din tensiunea dramelor şi conflictelor existenţei reale. Ceea ce trăiesc în mijlocul vizualizării de aspecte şi elemente de detaliu, admiţând că hazardul singur a creat tot ce văd în jur, seamănă cu un dialog viu între cele trei culori primare: roşu, galben şi albastru. Dar, totodată, înseamnă să accept rolul atotputernic al întâmplării şi al necesităţii de conservare a diversităţii biologice în evoluţia vieţii.

În limbaj artistic sesizez aceeaşi notă rafinată a tonurilor complementare, prin aluzii şi trimiteri de tip postmodernist, între transparenţă şi poezie, între raţiunea primordială a existenţei şi determinarea instinctuală a scrisului, menţinute în starea de maximă strălucire şi saturaţie. Demonstrativ, construiesc acea simbioză energetică absolut necesară ce vine să intensifice forţa de iradiere a cuvântului plin de miez, scris cu mult har, cu mult talent şi cu multă dăruire, dominat de acea tendinţă de apropiere între puterea de a îmbrăţişa universul şi puterea de a exalta sentimentul vieţii.

O minte sclipitoare nu-şi refuză niciodată biruinţa unei negocieri cu timpul într-un spaţiu alternativ, al reflecţiei şi visării. Ea trăieşte o ambivalenţă determinată de o epistemologie a profunzimilor, deci nu-şi declină apartenenţa la conduita artistică a unui estetician care ştie să transforme orice idee într-o compoziţie, orice obiect banal în calităţi atât de desăvârşite că par umane. Ştiinţa artistică, prin investirea culorii cu energia radiantă a vieţii lăuntrice, se înrudeşte cu raportul de forţe simbolice, de elanuri şi calităţi emoţionale care nu-l pot lăsa indiferent pe privitor.

Cine întinde o mână tremurândă timpului, desprins din tema unui tablou de Salvador Dali, pe care persistenţa memoriei îl îmbrăca tot mereu cu alte semnificaţii, va fi atins de acea magică emoţie care se cheamă ATRACŢIE, de acea minunată sclipire de geniu caracteristică compoziţiilor de neuitat ce impresionează printr-un fior al mirării în fața lucrurilor esențiale altfel văzute şi tratate.

Leadership: Îţi demonstrezi competenţa de a desfăşura o activitate continuă, ca un factor motivaţional constituit în procesul educaţiei artistice care determină disponibilitatea ta de a reveni mereu la poziţia de “formidabil”?

În arta cea mai pasionată, pe care doar filosofia ideilor pure o ridică la rang de chintesență a științelor inovatoare, există o opinie unanimă, o nuanţă de adevăr bine justificat, o lege valabilă până la sfârşitul lumii, tributară teoriilor despre schimbare. Că dacă până la vârsta de 35 de ani nu ţi-ai însuşit tainele vreunei arte, dacă nu ţi-ai definitivat un stil propriu de creaţie şi de armonie cromatică, şi dacă n-ai făcut o schimbare majoră într-o anumită ştiinţă, recalculându-i coordonatele de la un pol la altul, atunci cu certitudine nu vei mai reuşi s-o faci niciodată. Eşti doar un diletant !

În acest caz, după cum cere rigoarea execuţiei tehnice care nu oftează şi nu dă ochii peste cap în faţa splendorilor artistice, trebuie să faci distincţie între influenţele anumitor gândiri şi mărturiile materiale ale ştiinţei, în marea ecuaţie a unui intelectualism de inspiraţie extrem de rafinat.

Nu vei fi niciodată încântat să cunoşti un om care deţine vreo funcţie sau poziţie importantă în societate, dacă ştii că toată viaţa lui a fost un mare ZERO la capitolul ştiinţă, arta ocolindu-l cu o încăpăţânare aproape de neînţeles, cu un viraj scurt spre o mare afundătură, numită: delăsare.

Poziţia de formidabil îi este atribuită artistului care ştie că opera nu-i mai aparţine din momentul ce a închinat-o ştiinţei, ea devenind o emanaţie a inspiraţiei care oferă lumii ocazia de a descoperi nivelele profunde ale fiinţei sale. Cu ce rezonează numele tău: cu o funcţie publică sau cu o mare descoperire ştiinţifică pusă pe seama scopurilor superioare ale artei?

Leadership: Îţi înţelegi realizarea de sine ca o formă de îmbogăţire, de stilizare sau de spiritualitate obţinută în urma unui efort de creaţie care duce la o operă derivată originală?

Dacă te pui în locul autorului acestui articol, încercând să priveşti viitorul civilizaţiei tehnice şi viitorul educaţiei artistice, atunci probabil îţi vei plimba ochii peste rândurile scrise mărunt cu cerneală veşnică, ca şi când ai încerca să le previzionezi reacţiile. Imediat acţiunii acesteia luându-i locul contemplarea artistică, sentimentul că formezi o entitate superioară de condiţie umană prin modelarea tuturor formelor din exterior într-un nou conţinut artistic.

Mintea ta va întâlni lucruri agăţate de zidurile caselor, expuse pentru vânzare, va fi înconjurată de un număr uluitor de linii, forme, combinaţii decorative alese, culori vii, pastelate, dar şi de tonuri închise. Acestea marchează nuanţele viitoarelor forme de expresie. Cu timpul vei încerca să stabileşti o limită între kitsch şi arta veritabilă.

Scrisul cel mai inspirat surprinde arta desăvârşirii unei lumi ce se poate constitui din orice lucru mărunt care îţi iese în cale, tot aşa cum perlele se formează dintr-un bob de nisip în interiorul unei stridii.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să împlineşti ceva ce există în stadiul germinativ al zestrei tale naturale ce tinde către actualizarea unor noi potenţialităţi de rezonanţă perspectivală?

Tocmai citeam un articol despre Sir Tim Berners-Lee, supranumit „părintele Internetului”. El n-a deţinut o funcţie publică importantă în societate, dar tot prezentul şi viitorul lumii a depins de el încă de la vârsta de 34 de ani când a inventat World Wide Web-ul. Practic, el a fost mai important pentru schimbarea tehnologiei şi a formei societăţii decât toţi preşedinţii marilor state ale lumii.

În ceea ce priveşte arta, citeam undeva că Leonardo da Vinci s-a educat singur pentru a învăţa să citească scrisul de mână al naturii, care poate fi văzut peste tot: în aripi, în cojile de ou, în nori, zăpadă, gheaţă, cristale şi alte alăturări întâmplătoare. El a folosit această înţelegere în căutarea de noi idei şi soluţii la probleme. Probabil putea scoate idei şi dintr-un pantof de comis-voiajor.

Şi unul şi altul, într-un fel asemănător, au atins aceeaşi coardă sensibilă a puterii de creaţie născută din curiozităţi provenite din lumea ştiinţei şi a mediului înconjurător. Vedeţi? Lumea întreagă şi tot progresul societăţii, într-un dialog cu un Dumnezeu care se descoperă numai prin credinţă, adică prin înțelepciunea experienței şi a studiului individual, se sprijină de fapt pe creativitatea artiştilor şi a oamenilor de ştiinţă care au ajuns prin propriile forţe la pocalul Sfântului Graal.

Fără ei, probabil c-am fi rămas atât de în urmă, la stadiul de "schelet de poveste" într-o noapte universală ce n-a avut niciodată zori pentru progresul omenirii.

Personal, nutresc un mare respect pentru artişti şi oamenii de ştiinţă, în nici într-un caz pentru indivizi care ocupă diverse funcţii publice. Pentru că numai de la primii am într-adevăr ce învăţa că să schimb în mod fundamental o întreagă societate.

Leadershipul atins de influenţele artei va putea genera schimbarea unei întregi societăţi numai dacă reflectă fundamentul atitudinal pozitiv şi constructiv care creează premise pentru actualizarea unor noi motivaţii ale învăţării bazată pe percepţia imanenţei creatoare, nu pe teorie.

Harul de a trăi sub semnul artei este parte a unei formulări care redă autentic chemarea spre culmile marilor idealuri umane, spre a naște impulsuri noi, inovatoare și pline de viață, de tipul: "Bucurați-vă de fiecare lucru mărunt și apreciați-l la adevărata lui valoare, el face marea diferenţă ! "

Evoluţia esteticii începe cu o descriere captivantă a felului în care abordezi lucrurile din perspectiva raportării la valoarea actului artistic, la consumul de unicitate şi la realul redus la un corespondent metaforic.

Hăţurile egal întinse ale celor doi armăsari

On Noiembrie 06, 2014

Încearcă să-ţi însuşeşti o gândire care poate fi aplicată în experiența de transformare a „întregului”, parcurgând drumul invers al creaţiei fireşti.

Artist autentic, Serghei Eisenstein se aruncă totuşi în apele subiectului, încercând să şi-l însuşească, să parcurgă drumul invers al creaţiei fireşti. Se apropie de subiect cu eforturi, dar cu sinceritatea proprie omului de artă, cu probitate artistică adică. Acceptă situaţia şi caută să-i facă faţă. Asistăm la un chin insolit; cunoaştem calea obişnuită a creaţiei sale. Acum, lucrurile sunt inverse: "enunţarea imperativului a premers dezvoltarea firească a scenei pornită de obicei nemijlocit din necesitatea interioară, din elanul lăuntric care, evitând formula, tinde îndată spre forma imagistică gata dobândită."

Metoda obişnuită de creaţie trebuie aşadar abandonată. De aici acea dificultate extremă, unică până acum în creaţia sa. Soluţia? Trebuie să tatonezi, să probezi (în sensul croitorilor), să joci acest joc de hazard al ofertei şi al cererii pe care îl câştigi de la sine atunci când ţii hăţurile egal întinse ale celor doi armăsari – gândirea logică şi imaginaţia – pe care îi laşi să gonească împreună spre acelaşi ţel comun: reprezentarea figurativă adecvată a întregului. *

Leadership: Poţi să ieşi din monotonia imperfecţiunii prin dezvoltarea abilităţii de a comunica o anumită filosofie a gândirii ?

Drumul invers al creaţiei, după deprinderile profesionale ale unui regizor, anihilează sentimentul propriei insuficiențe, al neputinței şi limitării, deschizând calea spre deprinderea unei virtuţi înalte: aceea de a da semnificaţie unei „inteligenţe capabile de a învăţa din experienţă".

Cel născut cu predispoziţii pentru artă, spre a putea percepe o senzaţie nouă de claritate şi motivaţie, apelează la reprezentarea figurativă a realităţii, preconizând exprimarea esenţei lucrurilor, a dinamismului formei, unind pe această cale sensibilul cu spiritualul.

Mai exact, drumul invers al creaţiei desemnează procesul de construire al unei noi filosofii plasată în mijlocul evoluţiei artei, din care transpar progresiv reflexivitatea şi desăvârşirea, fiind privit ca un izvor de inspiraţie în descoperirea de modele noi de gândire. Face referire la rolul artistului de a ieşi din monotonia imperfecţiunii care este o stare de aşteptare, un fel de staţionare într-o zonă în care imaginaţia oboseşte iar realitatea îşi pierde din ce în ce mai grav contururile, devenind evanescentă, derutantă.

Leadership: Urmezi calea obişnuită a creaţiei, atribuindu-i o nouă formulă existenţei ei anterioare?

Abilitatea de a comunica prin intermediul artei o anumită filozofie a gândirii prin originalitate, profunzime, dar şi printr-o anumită încărcătură emoţională, nu poate să ducă la neglijarea a ceea ce cunoaştem graţie metodelor obişnuite de creaţie. Dar, faţă de alte forme de practicare ale artei care nu lasă o anumită libertate de exprimare şi improvizaţie, ea aduce modificări asupra mijloacelor iscusite de articulare a puterii de a vedea perfectul din imperfect, care nu se bazează nici pe simţuri, nici pe raţiune, ci exclusiv pe logică şi imaginaţie.

Un fel de prelungire a stării de spirit care duce la testarea exigenţelor de stil, calitate şi tendinţe, fără neglijarea obiectului specific cunoaşterii meşteşugite care implică convingerea excelenţei că pentru a obţine cu adevărat o valoare din ceea ce creezi, este nevoie de o anumită autonomie, fie şi relativă, de o anumită fineţe în reprezentarea modelului de gândire.

Căci o îmbinare armonioasă între cunoaşterea, interpretarea şi prezentarea artei într-o formă cât mai inteligibilă, dar şi captivantă, pentru un auditoriu variat, în care naturalul şi realismul se combină într-un univers al imaginaţiei foarte bogat, are totuşi la bază un simţ al logicii şi al pregătirii.

A urma calea obişnuită a creaţiei, atribuindu-i o nouă formulă existenţei ei anterioare, înseamnă să te îndepărtezi de punctul în care nu-i mai poţi asigura o valoare majoră prin fixarea amprentei tale personale în memoria lumii. Aşadar, avem de-a face cu o renaştere a propriului spirit, criteriu primordial în activarea unui model de artă ca repetiţie nelimitată a anumitor tipare aparţinând trecutului, ca o continuare firească a experienței acumulate.

Leadership: Optezi pentru utilizarea unei „rezistenţe de intrare" de valoare mare sau de valoare mică?

În ceea ce priveşte legătura artei cu leadershipul, focalizându-ne atenţia numai asupra acelui concept mai cuprinzător al logicii care contribuie la asigurarea obiectivităţii şi corectitudinii rezultatelor obţinute prin actul creaţiei, susţinem nemijlocit existenţa unei relaţii de reciprocitate între două obiecte: unul al gândirii, celălalt al trăirilor, întrebuinţate concomitent.

Dar întrebuinţate în aşa fel încât concluzia pe care o trag evaluatorii, în funcţie de efectul a ceea ce poate fi considerat semnificativ şi estetic, să confirme orientarea creatorului spre cultura calităţii, a naturaleței în exprimarea ideilor, poate chiar a transparenţei, dar în special spre o cultură a inovaţiei şi perfecţiunii.

Rezistenţa este o măsură a forţelor de interacţiune dintre elementele de concepţie şi de sens atribuite creaţiei, care pot să apară în cursul procesului de remodelare a propriei gândiri, integrându-se în mod stabil în configuraţia unui nou model de reprezentare a ceea ce vrei să transmiţi.

A-ţi însuşi o gândire care poate fi aplicată în experiența de transformare a „întregului" înseamnă a dispune nu numai de o sumă de idei şi valori de referinţă cu care să realizezi comparaţii şi poziţionări în raport cu sinele şi cu lumea, prin intermediul creaţiei. Ci înseamnă ca acestea să aibă mai ales o aplicativitate practică în viaţa reală.

Arta este drumul parcurs de la filosofie la creaţie spre înseşi rădăcinile fenomenului numit "joc de hazard al ofertei şi al cererii" în sensul constituirii unei atitudini a spiritului care proiectează asupra lumii o strălucire proprie.

Hăţurile egal întinse ale celor doi armăsari vizează cele două operaţii de întreţinere ale capacităţii de creaţie: gândirea logică şi imaginaţia.

Leadershipul nu este o proiecţie a imaginarului ce stimulează evoluţia pe care mintea omului o creează spre a evada departe de realitatea autoimpusă. El cere o anumită logică în acele raţionamente care generează acţiuni îndreptate spre refacerea, menţinerea, respectiv dezvoltarea unei anumite mentalităţi, unei anumite laturi a personalităţii. Îţi dă nişte coordonate şi te ghidează spre o nouă experienţă a exprimării de sine.

Hear No Evil, See No Evil, Speak No Evil (II)

On Octombrie 06, 2015

Preţuieşte tot ceea ce reprezinţi în marea ecuaţie a ştiinţei, prin activarea abilităţii de a te conforma unui „înainte” care nu a mai existat niciodată.

Sublim, se ridica din interior spre exterior întrebarea din mijlocul magiei: „Încotro te întorci pentru a putea realiza paşi uriaşi înainte?”

În faţa acestei întrebări preferenţiale, împinse până într-un punct extrem, mi-am împărţit părerile în două. Pe de o parte viaţa lua forma unui semicerc larg, continuându-şi ascensiunea până la întâlnirea cu moartea. Pe de altă parte moartea survenea ca urmare a prelungirii vieţii. Prin urmare, alteritatea se putea distinge la orizontul unei conştiinţe care trebuia regândită prin intervenţia impulsurilor inerente de tip contrar. „Of course I know everything / But you don't know my thinking.”

Eram parcă prezent pe scena unui Alter Ego care aproape îmi substituise întreaga ființă prin faptul că îmi aducea în imaginea vieţii o poveste mult mai sobră decât m-aş aştepta, o particularitate a deviaţiei de la simplitatea cu care trebuie abordată realitatea. Ca într-o călătorie spre lumea lui Dante, unde nimic şi pe nimenea n-ai mai recunoşte, în care nu ai cum să vezi decât umbra ta într-o dispută cu reputaţia ei.

Asemenea purgatoriului, în acest spaţiu ambiguu, un adevărat nucleu de particularităţi ale memoriei "Cache" explicate prin modelul fenomenului de intersectare a două planuri distincte, în acest pasaj obligatoriu pe drumul producerii cunoaşterii absolute, eram condiţionat de o singură regulă: "Hear No Evil, See No Evil, Speak No Evil".

Leadership: Semnificaţia pe care o dai formării unei concepţii de sine adecvată realităţii, te face să întrebi dacă viaţa unei singure persoane poate fi atât de palpitantă în cursul unei experienţe de tip "revelaţia unei lumi ascunse"?

O concepţie de sine adecvată realităţii se formează prin prisma unei experienţe de viaţă pusă sub semnul confruntării cu trăirile unei eveniment ce are loc în sfera acțiunii voinţei de a crea o conştiinţă lucidă în faţa absurdităţii lumii pe care o cutreieri. O lume care oricând îşi poate schimba coordonatele, putând să degenereze într-o contemplare de adâncă visare.

Era aici o perspectivă înaintată, ca o lumină puternică ghidându-mă spre o nouă intensitate. O putere sporită de conştientizarea unei lumi ascunse, în care apăream ca o realitate după care nu poţi pune punct. Eram dublura unui om închis în dublura unei alte realităţi decât cea ştiut adevărată?

Ce putere mă claustrase în acest joc supus geografiei alterităţii? Ajunsesem parcă la capătul unei scări largi, cu trepte separate în mod egal. Aş fi luat în braţe neobositul avânt al înstrăinării de tot ce nu-mi e de folos, de la faptul că nu-mi găsesc locul în suma tuturor cunoaşterilor. Ca apoi să cobor pe treptele de marmură ale misticismului, până jos, în puştiul cel mai îndepărtat. Ceva din mine refuza să ia fantasticul acesta drept realitate. "One thing is clear, the atmosphere is thin and it's cold."

Daţi-mi voie să mă integrez o clipă în romanul „Perpetuum Mobile”. Recunosc că mă situam la limita oniricului, gândindu-mă la tipul de evoluţie conceptuală din prozele lui Artur Silveştri: dacă ele au început din linia unui surrealism, a unui realism magic, în care este greu descifrezi graniţa subţire din care se trece din real în ireal sau imaginar, din posibil spre altceva, la fel se întâmpla şi cu dimensiunea onirică a prozei mele.

Leadership: Încotro te întorci pentru a putea realiza paşi uriaşi înainte, astfel încât să contribui la adăugarea unei experienţe de gestionare a ştiinţei în procesul dezvoltării tale?

Tot ceea ce reprezinţi în marea ecuaţia a ştiinţei, suprapusă traiectoriei leadershipului prin activarea abilităţii de a te conforma unui „înainte" care nu a mai existat niciodată, intră în contact cu puterea de conştientizare a unei existenţe separate. Este vorba despre un „înainte" indus printr-o gândire pretată rafinamentului interpretativ, orientat strict spre un anumit tipar de redefinire a lumii pe care o gândeşti ca fiind realitatea.

Printr-o astfel de existenţă de sine, evoluată dintr-un set de stări care te scot cu forţa din rutina intelectului, reuşeşti să trăieşti într-un univers magic construit cu multă grijă. Trebuie să te întorci spre ceea ce este ascuns în tine, spre ceea ce ai fost cândva într-un plan al fantasticului unde regulile-s inversate, pentru a descifra realitatea de dincolo de dependenţa de a fi mereu în control, dependenţa de putere, deci să experimentezi o transformare a ceea ce pare tangibil prin referire la un moment în care graniţele dintre posibil şi imposibil se estompează.

Ficţiunea este ceea ce trăieşti într-un mediu care se împotriveşte influenţei modelatoare a lumii, fapt care ajută să adopţi o atitudine de dezaprobare a manifestărilor externe de autoritate, să-ţi extinzi viziunea dincolo de ceea ce cunoşti despre tine şi a fi ceea ce ai vrea să fii cu adevărat. Aici, avem de-a face cu ştiinţa de a te transpune într-un personaj de poveste care îşi croieşte singur planurile de viitor, nestingherit de vreo constrângere, fără sinuozităţi şi opriri forţate.

Transformarea de sine este ştiinţa de a fi altcineva decât cel ce eşti în realitate.

Leadership: Poţi să descifrezi graniţa subţire din care se trece din real în ireal sau imaginar, din posibil spre altceva, croindu-ţi drum prin rândurile unei poveşti scrise cu o tehnică de şaradă?

Să ne amintim vorbele marelui scriitor român, Al. Busuioceanu: „Din umbra lumii va ţâşni întotdeauna identitatea şi adversitatea aceasta, creatoare veşnic de identităţi noi: Eu şi lucrurile. Căci Universul întreg Eu îl creez."

Dacă preferi să te întorci la o lume care nu conferă propriei tale valori şi experienţe o măsură a efectului produs de conştientizarea unei noi perspective de abordare a fenomenului diversităţii, atunci nu vei reuşi să te încadrezi în acea probabilitate de manifestare a autenticităţii pe care (încă) nu o cunoşti.

O poveste scrisă cu o tehnică de şaradă este creaţia unei minţi geniale care enunță, sub formă metaforică, unele trăsături specifice ale unei ființe misterioase cu două vieţi: una care se cere trăită prin sentimentul de omnipotenţă, omniscienţă, infailibilitate, şi cealaltă care se cere trăită prin puterea de înţelegere a tensiunii lăuntricului (intuit prin identificare cu un AlterEgo ce devine autonom odată ce își însuşeşte posibilitățile apărute într-un cadru subiectiv de existenţă).

Ceea ce constituie un criteriu de identificare a unui pas înainte spre culmile ştiinţei, luând în braţe neobositul avânt al înstrăinării de tot ce nu îţi este de folos pentru evoluţie, este tocmai opusul a ceea ce cunoşti - the unknown - provenit dintr-un soi de extindere a limitelor ce decurg din corelaţii între gânduri, idei, teorii şi întâmplări reale.

Puntea care face legătura cu marea putere a experienţei de a fi altcineva este străbătută permanent de impulsul stringent de a te îndrepta acolo unde nu ai fost niciodată.

Aşa cum tăcerea poate avea o valoare aproape egală cu vorba, la fel necunoscutul spre care tinzi poate avea o valoare aproape egală cu ştiutul - dacă reuşeşti să-l pătrunzi şi să-l valorifici. Poţi să descifrezi graniţa subţire din care se trece din real în ireal sau imaginar, din posibil spre altceva?

Marea artă a explorării unui sine autentic este să fii stăpân pe o realitate construită dincolo de experienţa personal obiectivă.

Hear No Evil, See No Evil, Speak No Evil este o invitaţie la descoperirea dimensiunii întâlnirii dintre real şi imaginar, dintre cunoscut şi necunoscut, făcând să vibreze la unison acea conştiinţă a confruntării cu limitele autoimpuse ce trebuiesc depăşite pentru a evolua în continuare.

Hear No Evil, See No Evil, Speak No Evil (I)

Încearcă să extragi o cantitate ponderată a fluxurilor de substanţialitate din precipitaţiile unor elemente intangibile, sub acţiunea forţelor de contrast ale unei imagini ce nu conţine suficientă informaţie pentru a o explica.

Aveam de-a face cu ceva intrinsec, nedefinit, în contextul unui zoom extrem ce mă arunca în altă dimensiune, care semăna cu o situaţie ce apărea absolut justificabilă în mijlocul unei nebunii izvorâte din hăul unei nelinişti epistemice. "You don't know my thinking / Who I dream of / Or the gifts that I bring...from the deepest sources of my anxiety."

Era ca şi când aş fi vrut să dau însemnătate unor gânduri captivante, ample şi complexe, dintr-o sforţare a imaginaţiei de a sluji spaţiului unui decor de operă artistică, de o rară profunzime psihologică. Eram artistul propriei sale realităţi, blocat într-o memorie secundară, al cărei conţinut era păstrat lungă perioadă de timp chiar şi în eventualitatea unei căderi în derizoriu sau în excese.

Un fenomen extrem se manifesta printr-o cantitate ponderată a fluxurilor de substanţialitate extrase din precipitaţiile unor elemente intangibile, sub acţiunea forţelor de contrast ale unei imagini ce nu conţinea suficientă informaţie pentru a o explica. Un nedefinit plin de însemnătate, presărat cu sugestii, în care artistul din mine găsea noi forme de expresie, incluzând latura fabuloasă a unui centru al universului devenit ulterior un fel de oglindă care-mi închidea sinele în spaţiul unei fiinţe dedublate.

Partea cea mai frumoasă a acceptării de sine, necondiționată de nicio autoritate externă, este te înţelegi pe tine însuţi într-un labirint neparcurs, fără să simţi nevoia să fii înţeles de ceilalţi.

Fără precedent, eram rodul a unei furtuni iraţionale dezlănţuite din senin, pe care doar realitatea o putea domoli. "One thing is clear / The atmosphere is thin and it's cold."

Totul mi se părea o magie înălţată din pustiul unei lumi regenerate din curiozitate, un echilibru între două entităţi paralele "hear and see" raportate la alte planuri existenţiale, de tipul unei egalităţi între două expresii ale validităţii a priori: "viaţa şi moartea". Legături ale celor mai deznădăjduite clipe ale existenţei mele nespuse, ca şi a celor mai înstelate de speranţe, diferite prin ceea ce ele puteau să elimine din identitatea intelectuală pe care mi-o alocasem dincolo de imprevizibilitatea unei călătorii în Unknown.

Dar ceea ce poartă caracterul unor variaţii de nuanţe, după consideraţiile unui existenţialism interogativ combinat ingenios cu viziunea de dincolo de lume şi de veacuri, valoros din prisma sufletului şi inteligenţei vizionare, poate apărea sub forma cea mai perfectă a unui: "I don't have a problem with all of this".

Leadership: Poţi să pătrunzi la miezul de foc al cunoaşterii, plasându-te în contextul unui „zoom" extrem ce te aruncă în altă dimensiune a fiinţei tale?

Un artist al cărui mediu de exprimare este tipul de conţinut care reiese din contestarea ordinii stabilite de conceptualitatea unei realităţi ce pare imposibilă, îşi poate verifica aptitudinile de aventurier printr-un update al dimensiunii descoperirilor constatate în incursiunea în necunoscut.

De fapt, înţelegerea de sine rezidă din cunoaşterea extrasă din experienţa trăită în necunoscut, prin parcurgerea unui labirint din care nu-ţi poţi găsi calea de ieşire decât prin proiectarea gândurilor spre o altă ordine a realităţii, spre o altă poveste de viaţă care să decurgă simultan în trecut, în prezent și în viitor, care să introducă simultan mai multe ipoteze, mai multe perspective de a privi propriul suflet, propriile acțiuni și motivații.

În acest sens, Zoom-ul sugerează acea schimbare de perspectivă necesară extinderii cunoaşterii, prin mutarea vederii de la un cadru mai îndepărtat la un prim-plan, sau invers. În mod constructiv, o altă dimensiune a fiinţei mele am putut s-o explorez printr-o o altă posibilă înţelegere a felului de "a gândi despre mine însumi", căci a fi nemaipomenit înseamnă să pătrunzi într-un labirint foarte complex şi confuz, să percepi imaginea lui de ansamblu şi să-i descoperi drumul spre ieşire fără să depinzi de nimeni altcineva.

Acest adevăr a fost validat demult şi de scriitorul român Valentin Dumitrescu:

„Orice întreprindere ia chipul unei aventuri. Iar aventura cunoaşterii şi a creaţiei, începe printr-o negaţie: „Nu ştiu". Practic, porneşti cu o anume încredinţare fără să ştii dinainte unde ai să ajungi. Nu cunoşti niciodată dinainte greutăţile drumului, pericolele ce te aşteaptă, gândul ori gestul care va urma.

Dar totul se dezvăluie pe parcurs, după cum, deprinzând mersul, poziţia verticală, facem ca exteriorul să devină mai puţin exterior, iar necunoscutul să devină cunoscut. La fel şi viaţa, ea poate fi de domeniul întâmplatului dacă, refuzând să ne claustrăm în lumea concluziilor, nu vom solicita întâmplării o încercare în plus. Ori nu vom pătrunde până la miezul de foc al cunoaşterii."

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să te regăseşti într-un câmp contextual unde devine presant să te conectezi la "o aventură nesfârşită la marginea incertitudinii", având în vedere efectul unei ascensiuni măsurat în termeni de "gândire care se gândeşte pe sine" ?

Ascensiunea unui creator se poate constata în cazul descoperii elementelor surprinzătoare ce abat în mod excepţional cursul convingerilor proprii de la normele stării sale de a fi. Iar convingerile care gestionează această stare, în funcţie de repertoriul de evaluări ale realităţii şi în funcţie de calitatea interpretării experienţei, sunt axate pe două dualități cheie: învățarea prin experiență şi învăţarea bazată pe explorare activă, prin reflecţie.

Aceste convingeri, ducând la descoperirea unui aspect infinit mai puternic asupra a ceea ce crezi despre tine şi despre lume, asigură o evoluţie rectilinie ce are în vedere o predispoziţie pentru latura ta atotcuprinzătoare. Prin autodeterminarea de a crede în supranatural şi fenomene magice asupra cărora nu ai control total, se poate determina mai curând acea experienţă formatoare ce asigură un sens nou al existenţei.

Deseori rişti să te manifeşti ca un amestec de cunoaştere, autocunoaştere şi sporire a expresivităţii proprii printr-o subtilă aură de putere provenită din extensiunea unor concepte deja definite. Altfel spus, ceea ce consideri că ştii despre tine şi lume, din puncte de vedere avantajate de impactul celorlalţi oameni, ori în funcţie de nişte formule de comparaţie deja uzate, poate fi doar incertitudine.

Ştiinţa cea mai avansată este codificată prin nedefinitul (o componentă a incertitudinii) care are nevoie de formă pentru a deveni existenţă concretă. Iar independenţa gândirii se exprimă în exerciţiul imaginativ, prin extragerea, prelucrarea, interpretarea şi completarea nedefinitului din realitatea lumii şi a omului.

O gândire care se gândeşte pe sine este o reflectare a realităţii în reglarea dirijată a relaţiilor reciproce dintre curiozitatea de a înțelege dincolo de aparențe şi virtutea de a surprinde contradicţia dintre esenţă şi aparenţă.

Omul ce caută să se înţeleagă mai bine este asemenea unei imagini ce nu conţine suficientă informaţie pentru a o explica. El trebuie să acumuleze numeroase experienţe de a se avânta în definirea Ego care îşi asumă rolul de iniţiator al unui demers de imaginaţie, un demers de cugetare asupra determinismului unor situaţii care, din cauza circumstanţelor lor excepţionale, fac posibilă descoperirea unui nou sens pentru ceea ce înseamnă să fii propria ta creaţie.

Hear No Evil, See No Evil, Speak No Evil aduce în lumină identitatea intelectuală pe care ţi-o aloci dincolo de imprevizibilitatea unei călătorii în necunoscut, determinând probabilitatea de apariţie a unor informaţii ridicate ce îţi pot lărgi orizontul şi percepţia asupra lucrurilor cu adevărat importante. În final trebuie să ajungi la concluzia că întreaga configuraţie a realităţii pe care o trăieşti este rodul propriei tale creaţii.

Heaven Can Wait

On Mai 03, 2018

Materia ascultă întotdeauna numai de creatorul ei, ca într-o poveste cu decor fantastic care începe cu "a fost odată" şi nu se mai termină.

O melodie care mă inspiră face mult mai mult decât o mie de ani de înţelepciune, mă face să simt că trăiesc la înălţime, în destinul unui vis care devine treptat o experienţă de sine subiectivă, aproape de un cer pe care pictorii îl numesc adesea... un salt în nemurire. Ceva tainic mă încearcă în cursul ascultării ei, fără de care simt că nu pot trăi pe durata nedeterminată a căutărilor sincere de spiritualitate, ca o poezie misterioasă a alterităţii dintr-o imagine a viitorului care îşi ascunde profunzimea şi se lasă greu descoperită.

Triada verde, albastru şi roşu, umplându-mi venele cu furie alchimică, se răsfăță într-un peisaj superb, în universul unei clipe ce capătă semnificaţie datorită transpunerii analogice în dezvoltarea unui concept profund ştiinţific, adecvat realităţilor de peste veacuri: muzica sugerează întotdeauna imagini !

Continuând procesul diferenţierii culorilor, pe fondul unui ritm alert, repertoriul cromatic (oferindu-se drept suport gândirii simbolice) se îmbogăţeşte prin ecoul străpungerii de mare delicateţe a unei linii melodice tot mai ritmate, înscrisă în parametrii stilistici a unei naraţiuni ficţionale însufleţitoare prin accentuarea unui vers în infinit: "Heaven Can Wait".

În mod particular, mă simt încătuşat într-un spaţiu virtual din care se pare nu mai pot evada, pentru că ritmul atinge corzile sensibile ale inimi mele, se transformă în poveste, manifestându-se printr-o succesiune organizată a sunetelor într-un singur cuvânt care în univers se pronunţă simplu: Living.

Materia ascultă întotdeauna numai de creatorul ei, asemeni unui Prospero care domină forţele naturii plasându-se în vecinătatea elementului intrinsec al armoniei unei compoziţii de mari proporţii. Este ca o stare emoţională amplificată de senzaţia unui vis împărtăşit de un singur om în zarea nemuririi. Ea se adresează lui 'simt' mai mult decât lui 'știu', capătă o anumită individualitate, oferindu-mi un stimul suficient de puternic pentru a mă bucura de noi experienţe subiective într-un cadru al metaforelor vizuale, unul care este palpabil prin balanţa calităţii gândirii simbolice, comparabil cu alte tipuri de corelări între culorile văzute în natură şi valorile acestora stocate în subconştient.

Leadership: Poţi face o diferenţiere între destinația unui spaţiu de profunzime care serveşte la confirmarea unui univers original şi interdicţia de a construi altceva decât ceea ce face din tine un model al realităţii?

Modul de a picta un tablou într-o realitate a amintirilor şi a idealurilor, integrându-le în prezentul cuvântului scris, este o cerere interioară de a compune un nou ritm pentru o secvenţă muzicală într-o permanentă privire în oglinda imaginarului. Câteodată, simt că devin mijlocul ideal de a sluji unor intenţii milenare, de a săvârşi un fapt producător de efecte vizuale în conştiinţa universului plăsmuit dintr-o excepţie de la regulile generale care spun că muzica trebuie să fie specifică unei teme alese.

Pe de-a-ntregul, sunt stimulat de o libertate largă de a compune scena unui univers infinit, în încercarea de orânduire a planului Divin sau a părților unei lucrări celeste. Încet, încet, mă las ancorat într-un vers care exprimă o anumită nevoie de coerenţă cu mine însumi: "Close your eyes and say: You are The One. Don't you feel the same?"

La rândul ei, o trăire cât se poate de clară într-un spaţiu din care aproape nu mă mai pot reîntoarce, al visării cu ochii deschişi, turnin' up in time , se lasă prinsă într-o lume paralelă a minţii şi sunt conştient de asta, fiindcă uşor, uşor alterez realitatea prin intermediul unui câmp informaţional. Nu exclud de aici raportarea la o divinitate condiţionată de existenţa structuralizată pe spaţio-temporalitate a cărei prioritate este procesul de creaţie, nesfârşit şi curgător ca un fluviu maiestos printre maluri stâncoase, în drum spre marea cea misterioasă.

Câteodată, am impresia că simpla îmbinare a feluritelor mele părţi sufleteşti sunt o succesiune ritmică a notelor muzicale, transpuse în culorile vii ale unei opere de artă obţinută fie prin analogia, fie prin contrastul tonurilor folosite în promovarea unui adânc sentiment de unicitate, a unui fior de spiritualitate dintr-un decor de poveste al marelui demiurg.

Destinaţia spaţiului plin de profunzime care confirmă universul original al operei a cărei coerență stilistică se fundamentează pe estetica muzicală este experienta receptării unei vaste „regiuni a artei” setată pe fuziunea contrariilor dintre viaţă şi poveste.

Leadership: Poţi să devii parte dintr-un întreg care este dincolo de ceea ce ar trebuie să însemne “Eu” în raport cu acceptarea obligaţiei de a găzdui o revelaţie mai înaltă a esteticului pur?

O tradiţie a Islamului îi atribuie regelui Solomon un inel care-i îngăduia să înţeleagă limba păsărilor. În cazul meu, este ca şi când mi s-ar oferi din obligaţie divină marea abilitate de a transforma notele muzicale într-o nouă versiune a stilului Art Nouveau într-un tablou numit "Self-Portrait". Plin de măreţie, izvorul muzical ce stă la baza creaţiei mele este o culegere de culori în care numai portocaliul, albastrul şi albul dau vitalitate unei noi realităţi, într-un acompaniament cu sonorităţi subtile, sensibile, în nuanţele de interpretare a unui ecou de lungă durată, cu revelaţii mai înalte.

Destinația mea este destinul creaţiei mele desăvârşită prin muzică. Ideea răspândită de psihologia profunzimilor, potrivit căreia omul face instinctiv corelări între diverse culori, este setată de viziunea unităţii dintre spirit şi univers, transfigurată de compozitor într-o odă de un lirism accentuat: "I saw your face an' you saw mine / And then we got much higher".

Ritmul melodiei mi se pare a fi tradus într-un context literar, chiar dacă există o zonă în care se confundă dialogul între creator şi creaţie, cuprinzând o sferă largă de modalităţi de exprimare a frumosului într-o relaţionare personală cu spaţiul unor sonorităţi de factură electronică, într-o poveste romantică: "I can't deny, you came in time / To set the night on fire."

Leadership: Te raportezi la încercarea unui creator de a da sens unei idei sau unei experienţe trăite prin extragerea unei necunoscute dintr-o realitate paralelă şi introducerea ei într-o nouă formă de reprezentare vizuală?

Esteticul care domină textul literar este o individualizare a modalităţii de exprimare de care se leagă cuvântul împământenit de secole “Unire” între nuanţele unei conversaţii cu Dumnezeu şi nuanţele unei delicate sensibilităţi în a percepe geometrismul abstract al unei reprezentări vizuale din ritmul şi versurile unei piese muzicale.

Obligaţia de a găzdui o revelaţie mai înaltă a esteticului pur îi revine numai creatorului de mare forţă artistică care ştie să alunece printre culori, lăsându-şi imaginaţia să zburde, care ştie să redea cele mai subtile nuanţe ideatice, emoţionale, reuşind astfel să comunice o nouă viziune în determinarea formei, concentraţiei şi dimensiunii unei capodopere cu titlul: călătorie într-o realitate mistică.

Fiindcă el însuşi este o taină sau la fel de bine o necunoscută.

Heaven Can Wait este plăsmuirea unei realităţi suspendate între divin şi lumesc pe care creatorul o înfrumuseţează şi o expune într-o manieră cu adevărat interesantă, ca într-o poveste cu decor fantastic care începe cu "a fost odată" şi nu se mai termină...

Hello, Charlie !

On Noiembrie 17, 2011

Activitățile copilărești reușesc să dizolve nefericirea în simplicitatea unui cadru ludic, oferind artiștilor o cale de eliberare și reconectare umană.

În acest Hollywood, pe care Eisenstein îl găsește, ca nivel intelectual, cam la nivelul unui târgușor francez, singurul său refugiu constant este Chaplin. Se vizitează des, joacă mult tenis împreună, se amuză, fac excursii cu iahtul lui Chaplin. Se plimbă prin parcurile de distracții, unde oamenii trec pe lângă Chaplin, bătându-l pe umăr în semn de afecțiune prietenească și aruncându-i un cald și firesc „Hello, Charlie!" Sunt la fel de copilăroși amândoi. Când ajung în parcul de distracții, se opresc la toate jocurile: trag la semn în ținte mobile, răstoarnă cu bile mere și sticle. Totul se face însă cu maximă seriozitate.

Chaplin își scoate ochelarii, adună cu grijă punctele, pentru că amândoi sunt ferm deciși să nu se mulțumească cu premii mărunte. În schimb, ei râvnesc mai sus, spre premii mari, de pildă un ceas deșteptător. Poate că se simt bine împreună, pentru că sunt copilăroși și astfel își pot uita tragismul, comun amândurora. Eisenstein îl descoperă pe Chaplin ca pe un om nefericit. Fiecare îi cunoaște valoarea celuilalt și se bucură de victoriile lui.

Leadership: Poate fi interpretată competiția serioasă din joc ca o formă de terapie comportamentală, unde regulile stricte facilitează libertatea interacțiunii autentice?

În contextul refugiului hollywoodian, jocul devine o formă de regresie adaptativă care permite celor doi artiști să se elibereze de tragismul propriei condiții. Din acest motiv, activitățile copilărești din parcul de distracții facilitează exprimarea firească a sinelui autentic, unde țintele mobile și bilele devin instrumente terapeutice. Această formă de interacțiune le permite să-și exploreze vulnerabilitățile într-un context securizant, transformând premiile aparent mărunte în victorii semnificative.

Cu acest prilej, adunarea serioasă a punctelor și râvnirea spre recompense mai înalte reprezintă o modalitate de reconectare cu bucuria primordială, unde nefericirea se dizolvă în simplicitatea jocului. Asemenea unei terapii comportamentale, întâlnirile lor la tenis sau vizitele în parcuri creează un cadru protejat, unde doi oameni măcinați de complexitate regăsesc libertatea exprimării copilărești.

Aşadar, parcul de distracții devine o evadare temporară din tragismul cotidian, oferind celor doi artiști copilăroși un spațiu în care pot transforma competiția în interacțiune autentică. Ei manifestă o seriozitate maximă față de regulile jocului, iar premiile, fie ele mărunte ca statueta în gips a lui Felix Cotoiul sau mai valoroase ca un ceas deșteptător, le oferă satisfacție și validare reciprocă. La propriu, aceste momente de refugiu sunt esențiale pentru a crea conexiuni autentice, permițându-le să-și tempereze tensiunile emoționale prin intermediul unui comportament copilăresc, de la jocul de tenis până la adunarea meticuloasă a punctelor pentru victoriile comune.

Prin leadership, activitățile ludice se transformă în catalizatori ai revitalizării emoționale, susținând integrarea dintre vulnerabilitate și creativitate în raport cu dinamica socială.

„Hello, Charlie!" reprezintă mesajul unei afecțiuni sincere și al unei comuniuni autentice, chiar dacă aparențele ludice ascund uneori drame interioare. În condițiile unei prietenii bazate pe înțelegere și respect reciproc, momentele copilărești devin esențiale. Spun asta fiindcă orice colaborare artistică, ce contribuie la îmbogățirea creativității, trebuie să capete o anumită profunditate emoțională pentru a se transpune în opere memorabile.

Hocus Pocus Preparatus

On Aprilie 19, 2018

Un creator de lumi ştie să-şi sistematizeze cunoştinţele, corelând diverse atribute ale artei în scopul determinării unor noi semnificaţii în plan spiritual.

Din perspectiva mea ataşamentul poate fi o mare forţă, o expresie a unei acceptări de participare la un nou model de construcţie a realităţii, cu cât se perindă mai multe stări sufleteşti variate prin conştiinţă, încât nuanţa pe care o dau anumitor convingeri sau deducţii din spaţiul gândirii pare mai vie. Primul impact cu ataşamentul se datorează unei fiinţe supradotate, şi reprezintă un proces de iniţiere configurat într-un singur mit: mitul unei drepte condusă de la neant la o semnificaţie bogată, preferabilă una care face plăcere gustului şi temperamentului meu de artist impulsiv care a produs o mișcare enormă în domeniul conducerii.

Dureri mici, neînsemnate, pot deveni nesuferite dacă ne îndreptăm atenţia cu dinadinsul asupra lor, şi nu asupra roadelor pe care le extragem din ataşamentul faţă de forma contur a unei munci susţinute și a vigilenţei faţă de eventualele provocări pe care le presupune consolidarea anumitor concepţii şi argumente din ecuaţia mereu enigmatică realitate-ficțiune. Ştiu că a trebuit să suport multe abateri de la legile bucuriei nemărginite, nesiguranţa, suspectul, surparea în irațional, ca să pătrund secretul potirului despre care se crede că ar conferi nemurirea.

Ataşamentul, un tremur gata oricând să naufragieze într-un zâmbet capabil să completeze cu afecţiunea faţă de natură, dintre ucenic şi maestru, dintre spiritualitate şi ştiinţă, este o tentativă de a sprijini dezvoltarea artei datorită experienţei de a corela ideile, teoriile, întâmplările disparate în tablouri coerente, de un realism revelator. Accidentalul vieţii, identificându-se întru totul propriei consistenţe empirice, condiţionat din toate părţile, câştigă o conştiinţă a artisticităţii ridicându-se deasupra finităţii temporare, în măsura în care reuşesc să trăiesc în spaţiul unei logici pe care instinctele o configurează.

Emoţiile mele sunt în legătură organică cu modificarea particulară a percepţiei lumii obiective şi identificarea sinelui cu universul, sperând ca astfel asociaţiile stabilite prin experienţă să capete statutul de "arie protejată", un secret care m-a ajutat să ies din anonimat, în ciuda limitărilor pe care mi le-a impus arta vie a prezentului apăsător.

Leadership: Opera căreia i-ai consacrat ani îndelungați de strădanie, până să ajungă la forma definitivă, oglindeşte un tablou rezultat dintr-un eveniment din viaţa ta care s-a putut întâmpla fiindcă că ai fost acolo unde cineva mereu te-a aşteptat?

Uite, pe scurt, povestea devenirii mele ca artist, din dorinţa de a împărtăşi publicului informaţii despre contextul în care am trăit prima revelaţie: existenţa unei forţe transcendente, supreme, misterioase, care dictează asupra destinului unui făuritor de lumi la un nivel ridicat de contact cu natura Creatorului – şi apoi, în sfârşit, cea de-a doua revelaţie: concluzia drumului şi atingerea echivalenţei formei cu cea a Creatorului.

Maestrul şi-a îndemnat ucenicul: priveşte acest arbore şi încearcă să descoperi zilnic ceva nou la el.

Ucenicul a petrecut 11 ani uitându-se îndeosebi la acel arbore, scriind zilnic 10 ore despre el, străduindu-se să găsească mereu ceva nou de împărtăşit. Greşeli, căutări, corecturi succesive. Dar cine rabdă până la sfârşit va fi mântuit.

Apoi el a ajuns magician. Apoi un alchimist conștiincios. Apoi un învăţat vestit. Apoi o legendă vie. Şi egalul lui Dumnezeu, văzut din perspectiva unui plăsmuitor de universuri paralele.

Cineva m-a aşteptat să-l întâlnesc într-un anumit loc, tot timpul. Mai întâi a fost maestrul, conexiunea spirituală cu cineva cu care eram compatibil în caracter şi calităţi. Apoi a fost arborele, bogăţia ce vrea să crească din pământ, spiritul ce conţine un sâmbure de divinitate pe care Dumnezeu l-a dăruit fiecărui om şi prin care acesta poate să-şi manifeste forţa de creaţie.

Arborele simbolizează drumul spre necunoscut, egal cu o evadare din terestru spre înălţimi, care este obsesie a unei trăiri îngropate într-un univers colorat cu acel verde special care dă tabloului unui pictor o impresie de energie, intensă şi vibrantă. Văzut din unghiul comunicării intime cu un erudit, arborele sondează adâncimea specifică unei spiritualităţi metafizice, locul de creştere a fiinţei devenind parcă o imagine dintr-un vis etern.

El contribuie la formarea unei noi conştiinţe a cărei serie de reprezentări constituie numai un detaliu al unei opere ce prezintă o adunare de observaţii şi concluzii, sau o manifestare a subiectivităţii într-un peisaj ce depăşeşte orice închipuire.

Leadership: Poţi exista etern într-un tărâm care vorbeşte despre profunzimile fiinţei, exprimând partea ta de necunoscut într-o imagine care alimentează un impuls de total devotament faţă de cele sfinte?

Imaginea care alimentează un impuls de total devotament faţă de cele sfinte se foloseşte de un simbol al confruntării timpului uman cu timpul cosmic, un versant umbrit al reculegerii şi al coborârii în intimitatea primordială a fiinţei din curbura dublă a infinitului. Astfel, arborele cu deformaţiile sale unghiulare, agravat de vibraţiile de răsucire ale ramurilor, asigură ţâşnirea unei soluţii din ciocnirea ideilor, ca şi o învăţătură din ciocnirea asociaţiilor dintre ele, exprimând caracterul general a unor adevăruri de credinţă.

Ataşamentul meu faţă de "arta pentru artă" a fost încununarea unei călătorii spirituale incredibile, în care am înţeles cu adevărat zicala din biblie: "cine rabdă până la sfârşit vă fi mântuit." Adică numai cine este capabil să sacrifice totul şi să se adâncească în fabuloasa lume a lucrurilor care dau mult de gândit, va putea să-şi câştige desăvârşirea. Altă cale nu există. Iar de la desăvârşire la glorie este o distanţă atât de mică.

Ataşamentul faţă de creaţia artistică care înnobilează sufletul, întru realizarea desăvârşirii mele şi, deci, întru realizarea scopului suprem al vieţii mele pământeşti, a vizat două entităţi separate în care a existat o relaţie: ochiul şi cuvântul, percepţia şi acţiunea optimă, printr-o linie incertă, neperfecţionată, care s-a instituit ca fir al gândului ce alchimizează cu răbdare credinţa şi ideea de "lumină" în tușe cromatice pline de caracter și culoare.

Infinitul atins prin cucerirea desăvârşirii, a fost exprimat subtil de Iisus Hristos: "Lasă totul şi urmează-Mă pe Mine, astfel vei trăi, vei avea o viaţă nouă, şi veşnică. Eu sunt Învierea şi Viaţa."

Arborele este infinitul. Străbătând prin încrengăturile ramurilor sale fiecare drum misterios, la nivelul vaselor cerebrale, începi să simţi o anumită emoţie ca atunci când te afli în faţa unei situaţii de viaţă dificile şi care te face să acţionezi. Gândirea explodează când este confruntată cu un fragment figurativ, când este asemănată cu o ramură de arbore, cu un portret sau cu o evadare din terestru spre înălţimi.

O conectare reală la acea forţă imbatabilă care guvernează universul se referă la acceptarea unei noi realități dintr-o poziție de curiozitate sinceră în a vedea cine sau ce anume dă aripi unei noi certitudini referitoare la existenţa lui Dumnezeu prin configurarea unui simbol al infinitului.

Hocus Pocus Preparatus este formula începutului de magie destinată a realiza o apropiere mai mare între diferite noţiuni, o practică spirituală manifestată în deplin acord cu o cromatică a dispoziţiilor sufleteşti amestecate între idealismul avântat şi vizionarismul profetic, care explodează într-o nouă expresie estetică ce poate pune bazele unei înţelegeri organice a operei literare sau artistice.

La baza magiei trebuie să participe împodobirea simbolică a unui arbore, ca primă modalitate de reprezentare a unui univers orientat cu precădere spre câteva puncte cardinale în care timpul este definit în raport cu o origine arbitrară.

Hocus Pocus

On Septembrie 28, 2010

Leadershipul de calitate pare un fenomen magic care se produce fără să-ţi dai seama.

Magicianul şi-a făcut apariţia pe scenă trăgând după el, în semi-întunericul care se crease, un cufăr mare de lemn, închis cu cinci lacăte zdravene, care, judecând după cum se opintea, trebuie să fi fost extrem de greu. A descuiat lacătele cu grijă, după care a deschis capacul cufărului încet. Felul în care se mişca era şi amuzant şi înfricoşător în acelaşi timp. De parcă urma să scoată din cufăr cine ştie ce putere supranaturală, închisă acolo ca moartea însăşi şi eliberată în sfârşit după mii de ani. Simţeam parcă respiraţia înfricoşătoare a unui monstru ce a fost trezit la viaţă.

Nu ştiu de ce, senzaţia de mister şi inefabil ce ne-a fost indusă cu bună ştiinţă şi cu o dibăcie manipulatorie exemplară, a făcut ca scena să pară un spaţiu bântuit de spirite malefice, loc al nefirescului şi al dezordinii, supus tuturor relelor. Sala era cuprinsă de o adâncă linişte, iar noi, spectatorii, eram cuprinşi cu toţii de o tainică emoţie, de o teamă inexplicabilă combinată cu o puternică dorinţă de a cerceta şi de a cunoaşte adevărul a ceea ce se ascundea în acel cufăr.

Însă nimic din ce mi-am închipuit eu sau ceilalţi spectatori nu s-a întâmplat. O grămadă de lucruri a scos din cufăr magicianul, tot felul de lucruri banale: o pălărie, un baston, o baghetă, nişte inele, o minge de fotbal, o rachetă de tenis, o lumânare, o ceşcuţă de cafea, o sticlă goală şi o carte veche. Le-a pus uşor deoparte pe masa special pregătită dinainte, apoi şi-a început reprezentaţia. Două ore pline de încordare şi nelinişte, de dinamică şi bună dispoziţie au urmat. N-am să uit niciodată acel minunat spectacol de magie.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o aşteptare pe care conţinutul unui secret o satisface, dar care în acelaşi timp subminează tocmai criteriul de analiză a secretului?

Dar iată o întrebare cât se poate de interesantă: ce s-a întâmplat cu acel cufăr mare de lemn?

La începutul spectacolului magicianul a intrat pe scenă târâind un cufăr mare de lemn din care a scos mai multe obiecte. L-a lăsat acolo, în dreapta mesei pe care a aşezat obiectele scoase din el. Nu l-a eliminat sub o formă oarecare şi absolut nimeni nu a urcat pe scenă ca să-l ia sau să-l mute din locul respectiv. Dar la sfârşitul spectacolului nu mai era. Dispăruse. Iar magicianul a părăsit scena ignorând existenţa vreunui cufăr.

Uite ce vreau să spun: vezi un lucru, cum ar fi un cufăr mare din lemn, îl vezi, simţi şi ştii sigur că este acolo, chiar în faţa ta. Dar în clipa următoare nu mai este. Adevărul se află în faţa ochilor tăi, numai că el nu este adevărul pe care-l cunoşti sau pe care îl aştepţi. Ci este adevărul pe care cineva ţi l-a impus să-l percepi, şi pe care vrei nu vrei, trebuie să-l accepţi.

Un magician proiectează şi construieşte excelente scenarii de magie. Totul în spectacolul său este pregătit minuţios până la ultimele detalii, de la montaj până la realizarea efectelor. Nu poţi şti niciodată dacă ceea ce face un magician este adevărat sau nu, dacă este o iluzie sau realitatea însăşi. S-ar putea să fie adevărat ceea ce spune şi ceea ce face el, dar tu nu ştii asta.

Pentru un magician magia este ca un joc, un avertisment. Nu poţi deosebi realitatea de iluzie pentru că el nu vrea să afli adevărul. Tu nu trebuie să găseşti nimic neobişnuit în toate astea, ci să priveşti încurcat spre locul pe care ţi-l indică el, ca în final să fii surprins cu totul.

Leadership: Impactul pe care conţinutul secretului îl are asupra finalităţii propriilor revelaţii, depinde de adecvarea unei atare decizii specificului unei anumite dominanţe?

Dominanţa care trebuie analizată în momentele de îndoială pe care le provoacă fenomenologia secretului, este caracterizată de inegalitatea dintre ceea ce transmiţi şi ceea ce cauţi să surprinzi la capitolul originalitate. Când cercetăm ansamblul de roluri şi jocuri fabricate cu mare iscusinţă pentru a induce o schimbare în realitatea spectatorilor, descoperim că mecanismele perceptive separă obiectul de spaţiu, respectiv forma de fond, extrăgând mesajul obiectual pe principiul gol-plin.

Asta înseamnă că ceea ce prezinţi are valoare atâta timp cât se repetă la nesfârşit un fragment dintr-o mică părticică de puzzle pe care spectatorii luptă să-l rezolve.

Ca să dai valoare leadershipului tău, trebuie să-i surprinzi pe cei din jur, să-i scoţi din normal, să-i cucereşti, să-i vrăjeşti în adevăratul sens al cuvântului. Pentru asta trebuie să foloseşti acelaşi procedeu pe care îl foloseşte un magician desăvârşit în spectacolul său de magie. Tu cum adaugi mai multă valoare leadershipului tău?

Oamenii pe care îi conduci şi care îţi urmăresc „spectacolul" cu foarte mare atenţie trebuie să rămână muţi de uimire şi de mirare: „ Uau, cum ai făcut asta? " Şi, de asemenea, trebuie să rămână muţi de admiraţie în faţa performanţei tale: „ Bravo ! Splendid ! Felicitări ! " Dar pentru reuşita „spectacolului" tău, trebuie să creezi acea atmosferă magică, perfectă, care să-ţi garanteze succesul 100%.

Leadershipul este un proces aparent de magie care se instalează automat, fără ca oamenii să-şi dea seama: „Hocus Pocus". Exact când oamenii nu se aşteaptă, exact de unde nu se aşteaptă, exact atunci apare magia. Iar un leadership de calitate înseamnă să atingi punctul în care să le modifici convingerile oamenilor şi să le conduci emoţiile fără ca ei să-şi dea seama ce se petrece cu adevărat.

Da, leadershipul este un proces de manipulare, cu puteri magice. Dar este un proces în care oamenii sesizează adevăratul tău talent abia la sfârşitul „spectacolului", atunci când îşi dau seama de miracolul care s-a petrecut. Este un proces în care tu, ca lider, trebuie să faci lucrurile să meargă, atunci când oamenii nu se aşteaptă ca ele să meargă spre bine, să-i surprinzi cu ideile, cu propunerile şi mai ales cu rezolvările tale ingenioase.

Leadership: Ai atins nivelul în care trăieşti în mod constant în limitele mijloacelor tale de magie?

De ce ar fi important ca magicianul să își conștientizeze condiția existenței leadershipului său prin intermediul metodelor sale de manipulare? Când un asemenea om va ajunge la conștiința unei dimensiuni mai înalte de a fi, deci la un nivel de înţelegere mai matur a creaţiei sale, căpătând o încredere deplină în arta sa, ceilalţi oameni din jur vor cădea în ipostaza de marionetă. Leadershipul, dilatat de o exegeză foarte specială, riscă să fie întors pe dos de fals, de o logică mai puţin firească şi mai presus de înţelegerea celorlalţi.

Esenţa leadershipului ar putea fi atinsă dacă acceptăm concepția rezonabilă potrivit căreia adevărul impus trebuie acceptat fără condiţii. Dar astfel, în opera sa, magicianul va despuia leadershipul de înţelesul lui curent, acceptat de toţi, răspândind cu atâta dărnicie un nou sens care lărgeşte doar adevărurile din cadrul propriului său univers de semnificaţii.

Idealul de a fi un alt "soare", de a purta mereu în desagă o iluzie care să facă din ceilalţi o ţintă sigură, precum și alte strălucite modificări de intrigi cu scopul de a crea un efect performant, îl va îndepărta puţin câte puţin pe lider de la drumul său. Va deveni altcineva, într-o formă sau alta, gata să își găsească o împlinire în rutină - trăind în mod constant în limitele mijloacelor sale de magie.

Căutând diverse încercări de explicare a sensului leadershipului în practicile marilor magicieni ai timpurilor noastre, dar şi în efectul lor, se poate naşte ideea de sens al omului şi al vieţii. Aşa cum preciza cineva, mințile luminate sunt doar o expresie, un exponent al umanității.

Deci, fără să criticăm o autoritate care îşi asumă din capul locului toată responsabilitatea pentru satisfacţia şi performanţa repartizării iluziilor pe care ea le guvernează, câştigând pe bună dreptate o glorie incontestabilă, să încercăm totuşi să facem un pas înainte spre performanţă şi să admirăm ideea de "secret" care poate face irezistibilă şi provocatoare ştiinţa conducerii.

Hocus-Pocus este ceea ce reuşeşti să arăţi lumii în contextul unei "dispariţii" altfel încât clipa de "apariţie" să coincidă cu acea semnificaţie de profunzime care se dezvăluie construcţiei unei realităţi noi, nu observaţiei directe a unui fenomen sau proces.

Concluzie: Atunci când un lider care, fără a crea iluzii, găseşte metode, căi şi mijloace cu totul surprinzătoare pentru atingerea ţelului comun, deschide o nouă perspectivă şi face ca lucrurile să meargă spre binele tuturor, atunci el poate fi comparat cu un veritabil magician,

Hotărârea lui Evelyn

On Iunie 20, 2010

Construieşte-ţi o atitudine puternică în leadership prin ataşamentul tău faţă de ceilalţi oameni şi prin angajamentul faţă de misiunea pe care ţi-o asumi.

Spre sfârşitul filmului „ The Mummy Returns (2001) ”, după ce puternicul rege Scorpion este înfrânt, templul lui Abu Simbel începe să se dărâme. Rick O'Connell cât şi înfiorătorul preot Imhotep (care între timp îşi pierduse puterile) se trezesc brusc aruncaţi într-un hău. Amândoi reuşesc să se prindă cu mâinile de marginea acestuia, dar spiritele morţilor îi trag în abisul pământului, în iad. Rick respiră sacadat, inima îi bătea atât de tare, la fel ca a unui om aflat în preajma morţii care abia îşi mai poate aduna ultimele puteri. În sinea lui aproape că se resemnase.

Evelyn, soţia lui Rick, şi rivala ei, regina reîncarnată Anck Su Namun, ţintuite într-un loc mai sigur priveau neputincioase cum se prăvăleau cu furie bucăţile de piatră din tavan peste tot în jurul lor. Părea că nimic nu-i mai poate salva pe cei doi, care se străduiau cu ultimele puteri să se ţină de marginea hăului.

O hotărâre care însemna moartea sau viaţa. Evelyn a înţeles dintr-o dată că doar energia si hotărârea ei vor putea să-l salveze pe Rick. În sinea ei probabil îşi spunea: „ Te iubesc Rick. Nu te voi lăsa aici. Nu, după tot ce-ai făcut pentru mine. Nu vreau să te am pe conştiinţă. Nu mi-aş ierta-o niciodată dacă ţi s-ar întâmpla ceva. ” Aşa că s-a hotărât să acţioneze.

Cuprinsă de nerăbdare şi de nelinişte, dar înarmată cu un curaj deosebit şi cu o voinţă ieşită din comun, ea aleargă spre Rick, fără să-i pese de ploaia de pietre din jurul ei. Odată ajunsă lângă el îi apucă braţul drept cu ambele mâini, inspiră adânc şi, plină de convingere, începe să-l tragă spre ea cu o încăpăţânare de nestrămutat. Cu un suprem efort reuşeşte să-l scoată afară pe Rick din hău.

Leadership: Analiza personalității tale vizează acel tip de intervenție psihologică ce ia în considerare numeroase perspective de abordare a unei sarcini care îţi pune în dificultate nevoia de justificare a puterii de sacrificiu?

Toţi oamenii sunt în stare de lucruri incredibile atunci când îşi doresc ceva cu adevărat, dar puţini au curajul să-şi pună viaţa în pericol pentru cineva. În spatele iniţiativei lui Evelyn s-a aflat un puternic simţământ de afecţiune şi ataşament. Ea a demonstrat că poate prelua iniţiativa specifică leadershipului fiind stimulată de sentimentele profunde faţă de soţul ei, expunându-se primejdiilor cu cea mai cutezătoare îndrăzneală.

Ea a dispus de o cantitate uriaşă de energie şi a avut încredere în instinctele ei atunci când a trebuit să ia decizii importante. A parcurs distanţa care desparte incredibilul de credibil. Fără umbră de îndoială Rick a fost binecuvântat să aibă o soţie, o parteneră ca Evelyn – cu un spirit viu şi energic, curajos şi tenace.

Sacrificiu este ceea ce obţii după ce ţi-ai înfruntat temerile şi ţi-ai luat soarta în mâini, în condiţiile în care eşti silit la o reacţie care-ţi pune viaţa în pericol. Când un om se autodefineşte treptat ca un "erou de sacrificiu", construind o tendinţă de a se manifesta drept catalizator care propulsează trecerea de la experienţă la credinţă, el corespunde acelei tendinţe universale înspre unitate, acelei munci îndeplinite de spirit pentru a justifica o concepţie despre iubire, despre Dumnezeu, despre ce e bine şi ce e rău.

Leadership: Cum apreciezi importanţa valorii tale de judecător într-o evoluţie a motivaţiei bazată pe severitatea consecinţelor, în raport cu presiunea situaţională pe care o simţi "din afara" propriei voinţe?

Văzând că Evelyn a pornit cu atâta elan să-l salveze pe Rick, înaltul preot Imhotep, disperat, o roagă stăruitor, o imploră pe iubita lui Anck-su-namun să-l ajute. Dar aceasta, cu privirea aţintită asupra flăcărilor şi asupra bucăţilor de piatră care cădeau tot mai abundent, temându-se pentru propria viaţă se întoarce şi fuge, sperând să se salveze. Cu alte cuvinte, ea a evitat să-şi pună viaţa în pericol pentru iubitul ei, aşa cum a făcut-o Evelyn pentru soţul ei.

Săraca fată bogată. Încântătoare, dar laşă şi necredincioasă. Abia în ultimul ceas, exact atunci când avea mai multă nevoie de ajutor, Imhotep a realizat acest mare adevăr: că un om care nu are îndrăzneală, nu iubeşte cu adevărat. Că o iubită laşă nu e deloc o femeie iubitoare, ci mai degrabă o trădătoare. Omul slab de caracter îşi dezvăluie latura vulnerabilă în situaţii critice.

Cuprins de o întristare adâncă care i-a sfâşiat de moarte inima, înaltul preot Imhotep, cu voinţa amorţită, cu lacrimi în ochi, zbătându-se câteva clipe între mânie şi durere, a renunţat să mai lupte şi a acceptat îmbrăţişarea morţii. S-a aruncat singur în abisul pierderii eterne. Dezamăgirile târzii sunt cele mai puternice otrăvuri.

Nimic nu-i mai poate alina suferinţa, nimic nu-i mai poate reda pacea inimii celui ce a fost trădat chiar de persoana în care şi-a pus toată încrederea. Înaltul preot Imhotep, şi-a pus toate speranţele în Anck-su-namun, dar aceasta i-a înşelat toate aşteptările. La fel ca un jucător de poker care pariind totul pe o singura carte pierde absolut totul (casă, maşină, soţie), tot aşa Imhotep, pentru că şi-a pus toate speranţele în cea căreia îi promisese un destin de regină, a pierdut orice resursă sufletească şi a preferat sa moară.

A-ţi asuma rolul de judecător într-o creştere permanentă a importanţei tale în sfera măreţiei este similar cu a citi cu nesaţ dintr-o carte cu conţinut dramatic: mai întâi trebuie să suporţi aceeaşi situaţie ca a personajelor, care te face să suferi, apoi trebuie să justifici o anumită concepţie pe care o ai despre Dumnezeu şi, prin urmare, a te justifica pe tine însuţi în situaţia în care personajul principal eşti chiar tu.

Alături de individualismul relativ dezvoltat în perioade tulburi ale vieţii, se conturează uşor, uşor, egoismul şi starea de exasperare în rândul celor care vor să aparţină neapărat de ceva sau de cineva, renunţând la orice mod de gândire potrivit pentru contextul dat. Această poziţie adoptată negândit, fondată doar pe emoţii, îl determină pe om să îşi creeze o realitate proprie, ambiguă prin însăşi interpretabilitatea ei, ce poate fi privită ca o explozie în lanţ şi cu efect imediat de neutralizare a "scutului" rezistent al leadershipului.

Afectivitatea, prietenia, recunoştinţa, mulţumirea de sine, bunătatea - trebuiesc administrate cu foarte mare grijă, înainte de apariţia acelei forme deosebit de contagioase, uneori mortale, a slujirii prea generoase, alteori chiar inconştiente, în numele prieteniei şi unităţii.

Dacă te afli la conducerea unei echipe trebuie ştii că oamenii slabi de caracter evită să-şi asume responsabilităţi în situaţii care cer improvizaţii, în faţa eventualelor obstacole si pericole ce ar putea sa apară. Mai mult, ei preferă întotdeauna să meargă pe căi bătătorite decât să se expună riscurilor şi să ia asume măsurile pe care trebuie să le ia.

Atunci când în echipă ai mai mulţi asemenea oameni, nesiguri şi laşi, probabilitatea de a nu ajunge la scopul propus este mare, iar echipa, în acest caz, nu este decât un grup care se poate destrăma oricând.

Presiunea situaţională pe care o simţi “din afara” propriei voinţe se produce atunci când conştiinţa ta se supune altor reguli decât cele pe care le-ai tot clamat şi le-ai luat ca alibi în majoritatea cazurilor.

Conştiinţa ta se îndreaptă spre un întreg numit "starea corecţiei finale" atunci când îţi dai seama că ceea ce contează cu adevărat nu este ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, ci ceea ce eşti dispus să sacrifici când ştii că timpul tău este limitat.

Hotărârea lui Evelyn aduce în prim plan o singură maximă: construieşte-ţi o atitudine puternică în leadership prin ataşamentul tău faţă de ceilalţi oameni şi prin angajamentul faţă de misiunea pe care ţi-o asumi.

Hotarele celor străini de tainele apusului

On Octombrie 04, 2012

Impune-te în faţa celorlalţi fără să te îndepărtezi de realitatea concretă pe care o împarţi cu ei.

Numele lui era Carson Wells. Îşi iubea meseria, fiindcă aducea bani grei. Îşi iubea viaţa, fiindcă banii se pricepeau de minune s-o întreţină. Îşi iubea propriul lui fel de a fi, lipsit de violenţă, dotat parcă cu viziunea creatoare a artistului care nu se manifestă decât în limitele propriei creaţii, combinată cu atitudinea civică obligatorie a unui intelectual. La prima vedere n-ai fi spus că era un vânător de recompense, un spéculateu r, un dispozitiv serios care răspundea perfect scopului pentru care a fost construit, o flacără care se stingea sau se aprindea în funcţie de ritmul în care obţinea contractele.

Şi, dintr-o dată, paşii ucigători ai unei umbre îşi rezervară locul în spatele său. Transpiraţia îl cuprinsese asemenea unui bolnav îngrozit de gândul morţii. Presimţi năpasta. Dar, prea târziu. Uf, dacă ar fi intuit, dacă ar fi sesizat cu o secundă mai devreme. Cel cu sânge otrăvit, cu sufletul înveninat, îl prinsese deja în pânza lui de păianjen.

Ca un cavaler sumbru, fără frică şi fără păcat, nu-şi mai putea scoate pentru ultima oară spada pe jumătate frântă, spre a-şi atinge mortal adversarul, măcar cu ciotul. Trebuia să se supună destinului.

Leadership: Dispui de ingeniozitatea necesară pentru a depăşi un impas dintr-o cauză ce nu ţine de tine, în condiţiile unei separări de factorul numit "Teren Propriu"?

Doi vânători, două făclii, două hotare despărţite doar de un gărduleţ fin de pietate: Carson şi Chigurh. Asistăm la un paradox: pe de o parte un soi de forţă de sprijin, lăuntrică, izvorâtă din credinţă, dintr-un categoric simţ al izbăvirii, completată de opusul ei, forţa de reacţie venind din afară, de la o fiinţă inumană.

Ca şi când ar fi adulmecat deodată urma acelui hotar sinistru, apusul tainic care întâmpină necruţător orice muribund, Carson îşi adună tot curajul şi face o ultimă încercare de a-şi salva viaţa:

- Nu e nevoie să faci asta, Chigurh. Sunt un simplu speculator. O să te plătesc. Îţi dau toţi banii, şi ne vedem fiecare de drumul lui...

Dar o fiinţă cu sânge rece nu poate fi înduplecată prea uşor.

- Ştii ce se va întâmpla acum, Carson, nu-i aşa? Ar trebui să-ţi recunoşti situaţia. Ar fi mai demn din partea ta, răspunse Chigurh cu arma îndreptată spre el... Dă-mi voie să te întreb ceva, Carson. Dacă regula pe care ai urmat-o te-a adus aici, la ce a fost bună? *

Leadership: Neglijezi importanţa situaţiei care îţi marchează existenţa atunci când gândeşti în termenii unor trăsături inerente?

Examenul propriilor posiblităţi de a face faţă unei situaţii se dă atunci când altcineva intră pe "terenul" propriei tale filosofii şi te implică într-o cauză ce nu ţine neapărat de tine, cât de hazard. A te separa de acest teren propriu înseamnă de fapt să devii universul altcuiva, să fii în slujba altui om, să fii important prin ceea ce îl defineşte pe el în raportare la lume.

Omul, o fiinţă raţională, acţionează în baza şi în conformitate cu gândirea, educaţia şi concepţiile sale dezvoltate în timp. Acţiunea are la bază o anumită logică şi este determinată de o gândire raţională / sau nu, care poate să genereze o forţă benefică sau o forţă ce va acţiona în detrimentul său.

Toţi oamenii care contribuie la transformarea ta pe parcursul experienţelor unice sunt mai mult sau mai puţin captivi în zona ta de interes şi responsabilitate prin gândirea pe care o "primesc" de la tine, pe care o adoptă şi o impun, la rândul lor, altora.

Căci tu, prin leadership, dispui de acea forţă lăuntrică, izvorâtă dintr-un categoric simţ al putinţei de a schimba lucrurile, o flacără care se aprinde pentru toţi, a cărei intensitate reflectă ceea ce eşti tu în realitate.

Trăsăturile inerente precum determinarea, creativitatea sau flexibilitatea sunt conturate de importanţa situaţiilor care îţi marchează existenţa. Ele reprezintă nişte repere comparative, câştigate în permanenţă şi judecate prin raportare la ceilalţi.

Dar această forţă este întotdeauna amplificată sau diminuată de opusul ei, un soi de forţă de reacţie venind din afară, de la alte persoane, de la alte determinante, de la alte "constante de a fi", care doresc să se impună cu forţa pe graniţa care vă separă, încercând să-şi propovăduiască propriile lor reguli, propriul lor mod de gândire şi acţiune.

Aşa cum e în firea valului să vrea să treacă peste el însuşi, tot astfel este în firea forţei opuse să vrea să treacă peste forţa ta, să pătrundă totul, să se facă auzită, ascultată asemenea unei fiinţe superioare care într-un fel supervizează alegerile tuturor celor din jur.

Să înţelegi prin ceea ce treci se poate acorda cu acceptarea de a te angaja cu altcineva în necunoscutul unei situaţii, dacă consecinţele directe sunt semnificative pentru cursul vieţii tale.

La hotarul dintre succesul şi eşecul în leadership stă forţa opusă care poate altera capacitatea ta de a rămâne fidel principiilor scărilor valorice la care ai aderat.

Le dai celorlalţi posibilitatea de a te aprecia la adevărata ta valoare? Care este preţul pe care îl plăteşti pentru a menţine viu interesul celorlalţi? Te simţi copleşit de un simţ al neputinţei, datorat forţei de reacţie venind din afara propriului tău cerc de excelenţă? Îţi asumi riscul de a fi interpretat greşit realitatea lor? Pledezi în favoarea unei realităţi, fără să ştii la ce să te aştepţi?

Hotarele celor străini de tainele apusului aduce în prim plan consecinţa constatării unei noi realităţi, a unui alt mod de gândire, care se opune aspiraţiilor tale.

A încerca să te conectezi la realitatea acelor oameni care nu tolerează prea bine ideea unei egalităţi, a unor principii, valori care să devină apoi standarde morale şi de calitate, a încerca să te armonizezi cu ei la nivel psihic şi emoţional printr-o atitudine de prietenie şi colaborare, este de cele mai multe ori echivalent cu eşecul.

În leadership, totul ţine de libertatea celorlalţi de a te judeca prin comparaţie cu ei şi de a te clasifica în consecinţă, dreptatea / nedreptatea fiind înfăptuită printr-o amplă viziune şi gândire asupra binelui lor.

Cu alte cuvinte, în locul procedeului reuniunii spectaculoase dintre două forţe opuse, cu puncte de vedere diferite, în alcătuirea unui teritoriu stabil de leadership, este mai prudent să acorzi prioritate criteriului loialităţii şi solidarităţii. A fi un bun lider nu ţine doar de tine, ci de capacitatea celorlalţi de a te descifra, de a te limita dând un sens nou viziunii şi principiilor tale.

Încerci să te conectezi la realitatea oamenilor care nu tolerează prea bine ideea unei egalităţi, a unor principii şi valori comune? Cum? Ştii la ce să te aştepţi?

Găseşte răspunsul la această întrebare înainte de a te reinventa: "Dacă filosofia pe care o urmezi în viaţă te va conduce într-un punct mort, la ce a fost ea bună?"

Concluzie: Fii întotdeauna cu un pas înaintea celorlalţi. Dezvoltă-ţi capacitatea de a anticipa, în limitele raţiunii umane, viitorul cu tot ce poate aduce el, bun sau rău. Fii vigilent şi pleacă urechea la vocea mulţimii şi mai ales a inamicilor tăi – căci numai astfel vei putea contracara acea forţă demobilizatoare care stă în umbra fiecărui lider.

Impune-te în faţa celorlalţi fără să te îndepărtezi de realitatea concretă pe care o împarţi cu ei.

Humpty Dumpty (II)

On Decembrie 26, 2014

Exprimă-ţi individualitatea prin asigurarea totalităţii „facerii", explorând mai eficient dimensiunea sensului vieţii.

În scurtul său discurs în faţa lui Alice, Humpty Dumpty schiţează viitorul speranţelor oamenilor şi oferă indiciul salvării noastre: să devenim stăpânii cuvintelor pe care le rostim, să facem limbajul să răspundă nevoilor noastre. Humpty Dumpty era un profet, un om care spunea adevăruri pentru care lumea nu era încă pregătită.

- Un om?

- Scuzaţi-mă. O scăpare verbală. Voiam să spun un ou. Dar scăparea este plină de învăţăminte şi mă ajută să-mi demonstrez ideea. Căci toţi oamenii sunt ouă, la o adică. Existăm cu toţii, dar nu am atins încă acea formă care este destinul nostru. Suntem potenţial în stare pură, un exemplu de urmează-să-fie. Întrucât omul este o fiinţă căzută - ştim asta din Facere.

Humpty Dumpty este şi el o fiinţă căzută. El cade de pe zidul său, iar nimeni nu-l mai poate face la loc – nici regele, nici caii regelui şi nici oamenii săi. Dar tocmai asta trebuie să ne străduim cu toţii să facem acum. Este datoria noastră ca fiinţe umane: să punem laolaltă bucăţelele oului. Căci fiecare dintre noi este un Humpty Dumpty. Iar ajutându-l pe el, ne ajutăm de fapt, pe noi. *

Leadership: Poţi da naştere viziunii unui alt tip de om printr-un act de cunoaştere transpus într-o experienţă concretă, încât să pui laolaltă bucăţelele care constituie imaginea verosimilă a unui Sine care îşi asumă specificitatea?

Leadershipul îşi extrage enorma forţă de cunoaştere umană, orientată spre lumea interioară sau exterioară, în funcţie de însemnătatea acordată existenţei parcursă prin escaladări şi coborâri. Un astfel de leadership, dirijat spre nivel tot mai înalt de complexitate, se sprijină pe ideea că fiecare individ este o valiză închisă, ticsită de gândurile, faptele şi trăirile testate într-o perioadă de timp, ce poate fi preluată atâta vreme cât ea nu depăşeşte o anumită dimensiune. Este vorba de acea dimensiune a sensului vieţii, eliberată de condiţia efemeră a valorilor intangibile, care nu pot fi evaluate sau coordonate.

Leadershipul nu poate crea efecte asupra dimensiunii existenţiale şi nu poate da naştere viziunii unui alt tip de om, decât printr-un act de cunoaştere transpus într-o experienţă concretă. Aici intră în scenă Sinele omului, imaginea pe care ţi-o formezi despre tine însuţi în neprevăzutul evenimentelor, dar în aşa fel încât să dai coerenţă unui destin care este o Întâmplare Neîntâmplătoare. Sinele este ca un ou: poate avea o consistenţă tare sau moale, dar odată ce l-ai abandonat el nu mai poate excela prin gust, calitate şi prospeţime.

A pune sub semnul întrebării existenţa, acest canal temporar prin care se realizează tranziţia către deplinătatea cunoaşterii şi a înţelepciunii pe care numai utilizarea „măsurii" o poate controla (dominând aparenţa), înseamnă de fapt să te angajezi într-un efort intelectual cu totul excepţional, care presupune o luptă pe două fronturi.

Un front al dedicării spre noi începuturi, spre o renaştere a fiinţei şi personalităţii ce ascunde, uneori, riscul de a te confrunta cu propria conştiinţă, cu îndoielile, eşecurile sau remuşcările datorate faptului că nu ai făcut totul pentru tine sau pentru o cauză nobilă, din pricina anumitor limitări. Şi un front al inclinaţiilor spre fragmentarism, spre diversitatea adevărurilor care conduc spre drumul drept al îndatoririlor tale ca fiinţă superioară, asigurând alternanţa dintre acumulările şi transformările semnificaţiilor atribuite experienţelor vieţii.

Leadership: Poţi să împarţi imaginea despre tine însuţi în bucăţele care să constituie o imagine asemănătoare unui simbol al creaţiei destinat să depăşească perimetrul original al naturii sale?

Oul nu este doar simbolul fecundităţii, ci reprezintă şi imaginea verosimilă a unei creaţii considerate un fenomen singural. La fel ca sinele omului pus în vibraţie cu elanul spiritual: el nu este niciodată abandonat de forţa divină, nici chiar în momentele de negare şi de îndoială, dar nici nu poate să formeze o lume fără ca mai întâi să-şi crească conţinutul.

Oul este sinele care experimentează o nouă naştere, modificându-şi starea de agregare şi parametrii de existenţă odată cu creşterea conştientizării privind nevoia de a fi mai mult decât o entitate lipsită de semnificaţie. Astfel, reacţiile la ceea ce este temporar îşi vor pierde din intensitate.

Să găseşti un defect în ceea ce priveşte aspectele vieţii apreciate ca nişte extinderi ale sinelui într-o multitudine de utilizări, înseamnă de fapt să găseşti o spărtură în coaja oului . Adică să descoperi o anumită semnificaţie în confuzia produsă de reinventarea personală, mai degrabă decât să accepţi o „facere” care exclude capacitatea conştiinţei de a discerne între adevăr şi falsitate.

„Facerea”, sinonimă cu perioada de căutare, actualizare şi optimizare a unei noi identităţi, în funcţie de succesele şi insuccesele experienţelor trăite, implică cuvintele: Să faci din om a ta asemănare - vizând prin aceasta o aducere laolaltă a tuturor contrariile care îl compun, cât mai nimerită pentru ipostazierea ta ca exponent al superiorităţii. Te poţi ajuta singur să devii un lider, doar dacă reuşeşti să îmbrăţişezi toate aceste contrarii, analizând lecţiile de viaţă pe care le oferă lumea din jur.

Un sine care îşi asumă specificitatea este imaginea unei dezvoltări spirituale care începe de la o existenţă ultrasensibilă şi se continuă cu expresia unei conştiinţe creatoare singulare care caută răspunsuri la un nivel existenţial profund, dincolo de suprafaţa vizibilă a evenimentelor propriu-zise.

Humpty Dumpty este o expresie care aduce în prim plan acea regiune a existenţei omului căreia îi este specific raportul dintre conştiinţă şi convingeri, clarificând prin explorarea lumii sensul atribuit cunoaşterii care fundamentează propria sa devenire.

Înainte de a-ţi crea o viziune care să te diferenţieze de restul lumii, mai întâi încearcă să-ţi exprimi individualitatea prin asigurarea totalităţii „facerii”, explorând mai eficient dimensiunea sensului vieţii celorlalţi oameni. Pentru a reuşi acest lucru ai nevoie de multă experienţă de viaţă şi de un spirit de anticipare dezvoltat.

Humpty Dumpty (I)

On Decembrie 22, 2014

Asigură-ţi menirea nobilă de formator de caractere, îmbogăţind sensurile pe care doreşti să le încorporezi în existenţa celorlalţi.

Humpty Dumpty: cea mai pură reprezentare a condiţiei umane. Ascultaţi-mă cu atenţie, domnule. Ce este un ou? Este ceea ce nu s-a născut încă. Un paradox, nu-i aşa? Căci cum poate Humpty Dumpty să fie viu, dacă nu s-a născut încă? Şi, cu toate acestea, este viu - nu încape nicio îndoială. Ştim asta pentru că poate vorbi. Mai mult chiar, Humpty Dumpty este un filozof al limbajului.

Alice în ţara din oglindă, capitolul al şaselea: „Când eu folosesc un cuvânt, spuse Humpty Dumpty pe un ton destul de batjocoritor, acel cuvânt nu înseamnă decât ceea ce vreau eu să însemne - nici mai mult, nici mai puţin. Întrebarea este, spuse Alice, dacă poţi face ca aceste cuvinte să însemne lucruri diferite. Întrebarea este, spuse Humpty Dumpty, cine este stăpânul - asta-i tot." *

Leadership: Însemnătatea mesajului pe care îl transmiţi returnează o valoare „Look-In" ce poate fi declarată cu operatorul de acces "Self"?

Ideea de a face din perspectiva înţelegerii abstracte o unitate complexă de inteligenţă, care să devină justă în noile condiţii de update a valorii de sine, se fundamentează preponderent pe gestionarea cunoştinţelor avansate de prelucrare a semnificaţiilor pe care cauţi să le încorporezi în existenţa celorlalţi oameni. Semnificaţiile trebuie să fie cât mai reprezentative pentru captarea fluxului de importanţă şi valori atribuite „redefinirii" lor complete.

Dar mai întâi de toate este prioritar să atribui o însemnătate mare condiţiei tale de artist al amănuntelor, care ştie ce anume este necesar pentru a-şi exprima virtuozitatea în domeniul improvizaţiei şi al compoziţiei care să faciliteze o bună comunicare a mesajelor. Nu uita că inteligenţa care te defineşte ca scriitor are în vedere imaginea pe care ţi-o formezi despre un ou: mai întâi trebuie să justifici în vreun fel modalitatea lui de a exista independent de sursa lui de provenienţă, apoi trebuie să te alimentezi din conţinutul lui fără ca acest fapt să îţi afecteze acţiunile principale.

Am observat deseori că liderii cei mai buni progresează în baza acestei clauze de acceptabilitate: „ Tot ce are o însemnătate adâncă rămâne depozitat în conştiinţă" . Prin urmare, un efect primar al concentrării pe ideea creaţiei de însemnătăţi, optimizate prin intermediul cuvintelor, gândurilor, ideilor, sentimentelor, este acela al acordării atenţiei mesajului pe care îl transmiţi.

Valoarea "Look-In" poate fi atribuită însemnătăţii pe care o dai conţinutului unei reprezentări mentale (o imagine a unui lucru, o asociere între stimuli și evenimente) încât aceasta să favorizeze construcţia unei noi realităţi.

Sintagma „Cine este stăpânul" - nu reprezintă doar indicele dezvoltării în materie de stil de abordare a cunoştinţelor, ci simbolizează acea parte autentică din tine, neînăbușită de clişee, care vrea să fie văzută, auzită şi să se simtă apreciată, adesea în detrimentul oricăror alţi factori de condiţionare. Această sintagmă, la rândul ei, se fundamentează pe un mesaj de redirecţionare către tine însuţi: "Ceea ce sunt corespunde aprecierii pe care o dau intelectului meu."

Când te ataşezi de un om, în realitate te ataşezi de acea parte sugestivă din el, pusă în lumină de modul de exprimare şi de mesajul transmis. Ceea ce el spune îţi transmite o anume stare. Eşti contaminat de însemnătatea unor idei, a unor concepţii, a unui montaj de ordin ideologic si psihologic, care persistă în diverse contexte prin sensurile deosebite puse în evidenţă. Dar mai ales printr-un mod de înţelegere constructivist admis ca valid din perspectiva bogăției nesfârșite pe care o oferă dimensiunea sinelui său.

Dacă vrei să te convingi de eficienţa leadershipului bazat mai mult pe emoţie, decât pe raţiune, fii deschis la toate alternativele pe care ţi le propune cealaltă persoană şi explorează tu însuţi părţile atractive pe care le poţi considera autentice, drept o pârghie spre acea menire nobilă de formator de caractere.

Se poate spune că însemnătatea mesajului pe care îl transmiţi returnează o valoare „Look-In", numai dacă cei de lângă tine, atinşi de acea forţă discretă a emoţiei care se împlineşte în formă numai prin cuvinte (prin puterea de a comunica), reuşesc să se concentreze în mod deosebit asupra însemnătăţii lor ca fiinţe care se auto-creează, care îşi pot depăşi natura. Tu însuţi devii un stimulent şi un motiv al redefinirii lor dacă însemnătatea mesajelor şi cuvintelor „aruncate" responsabil reuşesc să schimbe natura lor interioară.

Direcţia care determină punerea în valoare a flerului scriitoricesc este dată de puterea unor cuvinte care pot să aibă semnificaţii diferite atunci când se alinieaza unor reprezentării vizuale care permit efectuarea de operaţii (acţiuni, comenzi) asupra lucrurilor.

Humpty Dumpty este o expresie ce scoate în evidenţă puterea extraordinară de a comunica un mesaj, a cărui însemnătate, nefiind pusă la îndoială, vine din găsirea formei si ordinii cuvintelor, ideilor, sentimentelor în aşa fel încât să exprime cât mai fidel ceea ce nu se poate exprima nicăieri altundeva - dar care este acceptat de ceilalţi ca pe o condiţie la buna desfăşurare a jocului numit „Viaţă."

Întrebarea este, cine este stăpânul acestei puteri - asta-i tot.

I'm alive

On Mai 28, 2016

Redefineşte-ţi fundamentele pe care îţi întemeiezi abordarea vieţii, încât să ajungi să fii împăcat cu tine însuţi.

Sunt prins într-un soi de spaimă neştiută şi totodată într-un fel de admiraţie contagioasă, expresia unui conflict moral între dominaţia Eului atât de încordat şi scrisul atât de pasional, fără să-mi pot da seama dacă n-am primit cumva de la natură un dar anume care-mi dă putinţa să modific sau să nimicesc adevărul cu care sunt însărcinat să trăiesc toată viaţa.

Esenţa virtuţilor mele (disciplina, concentrarea, controlul de sine şi temperanţa) cuprinse în această escapadă a minţii din realitate, alimentată mereu cu descoperiri noi şi menţinută în limitele unor formulări expresive, mă ajută să mă accept aşa cum sunt, contribuind la acceptarea voită a personalităţii mele într-un spaţiu al unicităţii numit Limenilodhis (strălucirea unei scriituri secrete).

Treaba asta cu adevărul, pasiunea, acţiunile şi efectele lor combinate, de care îmi este teamă să se propage spre o stare intensă de iubire şi recunoştinţă, toate luate ca forme de reacţie faţă de datoriile existenţei, conduc la două sisteme de ecuaţii care permit să se determine valorile intensităţilor participării mele la cauzalitatea unei ieşiri din zona de confort. Care, cu cât este mai confortabilă, cu atât este mai greu de părăsit.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să te consideri mai mult decât eşti într-un context care pretinde aplicarea viziunii unui Creator dincolo de impactul grandios al unei înaintări venind din nefiinţă?

Scriu despre mine nu fiindcă sunt pasionat de aventura cunoașterii care trăieşte experienţe de învățare unice într-un spațiu experimental de aşternere a gândurilor curate, acceptând tot ceea ce-mi trece prin cap drept sumă a unor adevăruri universal valabile, ci pentru faptul că cunoscându-mă îndeajuns din punct de vedere al filosofiei reuşesc să mă transpun într-un Papus, ale cărui cuvinte sunt demne de reţinut:

"Când un om crede că ştie ceva şi se consideră asemenea zeilor, lucrând doar pentru mântuirea sa personală şi retrăgându-se într-un turn de fildeş pentru a se purifica, nu primeşte nimic, căci el are tot ceea ce îi este de trebuinţă pentru a fi măreţ şi spiritual."

Omul prins în această capcană a sistemelor cu potenţial diferit de predominanţă, unul moral care începe cu crezutul în sine, şi unul imaginativ născocit dintr-o dorinţă de altfel, îşi caută o cale de mijloc în pragul unei alegeri disperate, un relevant qualcos'altro într-un interval de timp variabil. De aceea, am decis uneori să îmi umplu spaţiul de scris cu nişte reflecţii uşoare, precum: "ceea ce spun are ecou numai în lumea celor care cred în poveştile care lămuresc viziunea unui Creator, de dincolo de cortina timpului, dincolo de puritatea liniei şi a desenului, dincolo de impactul grandios al unei înaintări venind din nefiinţă".

O înaintare în nefiinţă este o percepţie a sinelui într-un univers paralel, ca atunci când rosteşti nişte cuvinte magice fără să te audă nimeni, sau când scrii despre un lucru pe care nu-l vede nimeni în afară de tine.

Ca un pictor hotărât să-şi distrugă toate pânzele pictate vreodată doar ca s-o ia de la capăt, el nu încetează să preseze din ce în ce mai tare tocmai punctul cel mai sensibil, conţinutul unei pagini scrise, contemplând frumuseţea unei scene din natură. Cu totul, el este atras în propriul revizionism, în actul de redefinire a fundamentelor pe care şi-a întemeiat abordarea vieţii.

Leadership: Te reîntorci mereu spre acel "punct al meandrelor intersectate" unde trebuie să fii tot timpul contribuitor ca să poţi spune cu adevărat: I'm alive din prisma creaţiei plăsmuite cu osteneala unei vieţi plină de structuri ale Ego-ului?

Dar ceea ce nu se vede, nu se închipuie şi nu se destăinuie, în cazul acestor sisteme de ecuaţii cu o singură variabilă de susţinere - nemărginita satisfacţie de a da Replay propriilor performanţe, este faptul că în afară de toate acestea mai există şi altceva, mult mai vast ca importanță. Și anume, ambiţia de a mă surprinde, ca într-un cleşte, în matricea unei şlefuiri a permanenţei cu care tind să mă acomodez.

Permanenţa este starea neobosită a omului de a se educa singur pe sine, cu scopul de a se înţelege şi de a se accepta aşa cum este. Permanenţa este încununarea artei de a trăi conform calităţii şi chemării pe care o ai, un punct unde nu trebuie să fii tot timpul contribuitor decât dacă ai vreun folos, numai dacă datoria ta morală calcă întotdeauna pe acolo.

Egoul meu suprem îmi spune că pot fi mai mult decât un creator, că pot fi imaginarea unei scriituri neobişnuite. La polul opus, egoul meu frământat IN CUGERO îmi spune să rămân cu picioarele pe pământ. Astfel, calitatea mea de contribuitor la atingerea și satisfacerea unei deplinătăţi a sensului vieții, prin descoperirea și includerea unor adevăruri de temelie în relația cu ceea ce mi se întâmplă, vizează acel efort colosal pe care îl fac pentru a fi împăcat cu mine însumi.

Descoperitorul unor adevăruri de temelie ale vieții, în clipa în care va fi solicitat într-un rol de lider, va reuși să facă din orizontul experienței de sine un fel de asumare a unei distincţii între ceea ce i se întâmplă și ceea ce depinde de el să se schimbe.

Leadership: Îţi dezvălui creaţia de fi împăcat cu tine însuţi prin virtutea conştientizării unicităţii de a găsi noi corespondenţe ale vieţii care îţi permit să trăieşti permanent noi experienţe, iarăşi şi iarăşi, mereu prin comparaţie cu "o armă a seducţiei"?

O destăinuire a Mirandei Grey din opera lui John Fowles îmi întăreşte convingerea că pentru a avea un rost în viaţă nu trebuie doar să fii bun la ceva, ci să faci din acel ceva o mereu altă experienţă de exprimare, de libertate, un show de excepţie, altfel te vei crampona în rutină. Ceea ce nu cere, neapărat, implicare emoţională profundă.

"Adormisem la umbra copacilor şi când m-am trezit am zărit printre frunze cerul albastru-cobalt şi m-am gândit cât de imposibil era să pictezi anumite lucruri. Cum era oare posibil să găseşti o nuanţă de albastru care să redea intensitatea vie şi luminoasă a cerului? Am simţit deodată că nu mai vreau să pictez, că a picta înseamnă a-ţi da aere, că singurul lucru care contează cu adevărat este să trăieşti, să trăieşti permanent noi experienţe, iarăşi şi iarăşi, mereu."

Superioritatea, pe care leadershipul o reclamă adesea, este consecinţa unui exces de atitudine.

Iar un exces de atitudine impus de acceptarea unei experienţe de libertate în creaţie, la un om devotat unei anumite îndeletniciri, este modalitatea neconvenţională de a se arăta puternic în faţa vieţii, având conştiinţa acelei întoarceri - iarăşi şi iarăşi, mereu - spre ceea ce contează, spre ceea ce îl face mai bun şi mai responsabil, spre acel punct unde trebuie să fie tot timpul contribuitor ca să poată spune cu adevărat: I'm alive.

Arma seducţiei unui creator, direcţia cea mai productivă a firii sale, este consacrată revelării unor noi experienţe de viaţă trecute prin decorul unei realităţi care pe neaşteptate poate deveni imprevizibilă, depăşind orice putere de înţelegere, orice imitaţie a timpurilor noastre.

I'm Alive este deviza omului care încearcă să se elibereze de acea povară a regretelor şi a sentimentului de a fi neputincios faţă de caracterul efemer al lucrurilor şi al vieţii în general. Creaţia, adâncirea într-o realitate care depăşeşte competenţele raţiunii umane obişnuite, este singura cale de a simţi că trăieşti în deplin acord cu propria natură, cu propriile judecăţi, cu propria viziune, cu propria conştiinţă.

Un om care spune cu tot sufletul: I'm alive , este cel care face din însăşi viața lui o lecție a conştiinţei - de a fi o lume plină de opţiuni pentru sine. O lume ce depinde de adevărul, pasiunea, acţiunile şi efectele lor combinate, toate luate ca forme de reacţie faţă de datoriile existenţei, propagate spre o stare intensă de iubire şi recunoştinţă.

Iartă-mă și primește-mă la tine !

On Februarie 02, 2017

Afirmă-ţi individualitatea urmând indicatorul motivației care te face să te privești cu alți ochi în ecuația existenței celorlalți oameni.

- Cine ești? Mi se pare că te-am mai văzut, că te-am cunoscut, pe vremuri... spuse Caderousse cu ochii aproape stinşi, în clipa grea a suferinţei de moarte.

Monte-Cristo nu încetase să urmărească mersul agoniei lui Caderousse. Își dădu seama că însufleţirea aceasta era ultima. Se apropie de urechea muribundului și, învăluindu-l într-o privire liniștită și limpede totodată, îi spuse:

- Sunt...Sunt...

Iar buzele lui, abia întredeschise, lăsară să treacă un nume, rostit atât de încet, încât Monte-Cristo păru că se teme să-l audă el însuși.

Caderousse, care se ridicase în genunchi, își întinse brațele, făcu o sforţare să se tragă înapoi, pe urmă, împreunându-şi mâinile și ridicându-le ca într-o căutare a sincerităţii, grăi încet:

- Doamne ! Doamne ! Iartă-mă că m-am lepădat de Tine. Tu exişti. Ești cu adevărat tatăl oamenilor în cer și judecătorul oamenilor pe pământ. Doamne, multă vreme te-am tăgăduit ! Iartă-mă ! Iartă-mă și primește-mă la tine !

Și Caderousse, închizând ochii, căzu pe spate, cu un ultim strigăt și cu un ultim geamăt. Sângele i se opri de îndată pe marginile căscate ale rănilor. Era mort. *

Leadership: Îţi concentrezi toate forțele raţiunii pentru efectuarea unei reevaluări a parcursului existenţei tale care să inducă o singură perspectivă viabilă cu efecte imediate în schimbarea celor din jur?

Pentru a fi în stare să creezi o orientare a spiritului uman către substratul esenţial al unui nou mod de gândire, în funcție de imaginea de pe care ți-ai creat-o - aceea de revelator al unor adevăruri absolute, mai întâi asigură-te că punctul de vedere pe care îl expui și îl susţii nu este în opoziţie cu forțele fundamentale de acțiune ale vieții.

Două dintre asemenea forţe sunt: voința omului de a se împăca cu sine, cu trecutul său, cu greşelile care se plătesc și voința lui de a se orienta într-o direcţie nouă, în căutarea unei fidelităţi mai depline faţă de ordinea și planurile unei puteri mai înalte. Acestea sunt câteva din bogăţiile omului spiritual, alături de nesfârşitele atribute ale relaţiei cu valorile veșnice ale unui determinism bazat pe liberul arbitru.

Schimbarea celor din jur se realizează prin modul de gândire pe care îl promovezi într-o situaţie în care eşti perceput drept o "enigmă dezvăluită", şi că punctul tău de vedere asupra felului în care eşti conectat la realitatea din jur te prezintă în lumina unei noi şi mature conştiinţe. Adică trebuie să fii şi magician, şi mântuitor al lumii, pentru a face din realitate locul unei atmosfere de autentică încredere, credinţă, înţelegere şi preţuire, chiar dacă nu eşti înţeles la adevărata ta putere.

Reprezentativitatea omului, în cadrul a ceea ce numim calitatea vieții, priveşte voinţa lui de a se forma în numele unei moralităţi care include angajarea spirituală.

Conştiinţa arată retrospectiva vieţii în momentele cheie. Ea poate să contribuie la îmbunătăţirea unui parcurs derulat prin numeroase etape corespunzătoare unor forme de gândire, de simţire şi de manifestare ce fac obiectul intervenţiei atribuite unei puteri nemărginite.

Dar asta numai dacă deznodământul unei faze importante din viața omului este o consecinţă a greşelilor care s-au punctat pe parcurs. În acest caz reprezentativitatea omului, spre a deveni activă în datul unei situații identitare, reclamă percepţia unei anumite imagini de către un anumit subiect ce poate fi definit la limita dintre viață și moarte.

Acest subiect, pe care îl abordezi și îl tratezi ca însemnătate pentru ceea ce simbolizează individualitatea ta, este indicatorul motivației care te face să te privești cu alți ochi în ecuația existenței celorlalți oameni.

De exemplu, un subiect bun este ispăşirea unei vini morale, sau sacrificiul adus de bunăvoie la protejarea anumitor valori prin participarea la vreo misiune. Un alt subiect poate fi împăcarea cu tine însuți, ori împăcarea cu Dumnezeu. Sau săvârşirea unui lucru peste putinţă de îndurat. Sau o alegere altruistă, Sau indiciile unei înclinaţii deosebite către substratul tainic al lucrurilor.

Momentul cheie al dezvăluirii sinelui, în cazul în care afirmarea adevărului despre tine pune în valoare toate percepţiile subtile ale unei lumi dominate de pasiuni extraordinare, privilegii şi jocuri de culise, nu poate fi înțeles ca fiind cea mai mare realizare spre profunzimile conştiinţei vieţii. Totuşi, procesul dezvăluirii sinelui poate fi derulat pe parcurul unor situaţii în care devii obiectul intervenţiei unei Entităţi Superioare de tip divin în lumea creată de un personaj răbdător, care încearcă să treacă neobservat în mijlocul mulţimii. Tu poţi fi un magician capabil să ducă la bun sfârşit un rol plin de nuanțe, asumat în mod impresionant?

Cine vrea să-și dobândească reprezentativitatea în condiţiile de valabilitate ale unei raţiuni care vizează starea de înnoire a omului, trebuie să aprofundeze cunoașterea contextului unui subiect de mare însemnătate, cu potențial de schimbare a atitudinii omului faţă de ceea ce el încă nu este pregătit să înfrunte.

Iartă-mă și primește-mă la tine pune în prim plan îndreptarea omului prin acceptul pe care el îl acordă credinţei pe care nu a susţinut-o pe deplin. Evidenţiază acea tendinţă a puterii omului de a accepta ceea ce ar dori să nu știe, tendinţă blocată inconştient de implicaţiile de neînlăturat ale slăbiciunii firii lui, dar care se activează puternic prin acceptarea unui adevăr venit din afara sa.

Iată ce înseamnă spirit practic

On Martie 02, 2012

Fii omul pe care îl păstrează în taină rezultatul muncii tale concretizată într-o creaţie care, prin certa valoare a geniului reprezentat, face cunoscută în toată lumea voinţa lui Dumnezeu.

În Franța, spiritul de frondă se ascuțise. Se putea constata aceasta și după căldura cu care parizienii l-au înconjurat pe Benjamin Franklin. Sosise la Paris, în 1778, ca delegat al Statelor Unite ale Americii. Avea 72 de ani, era gras, chel, nobilimea se arătase șocată de lipsa lui de maniere, în timp ce în ochii celorlalți modul lui direct de a vorbi și de a se purta, fără urmă de perfidie, i-au atras din primul moment simpatiile.

Iar când Ludovic al XVI-lea a binevoit, în sfârşit, să-l primească la Versailles, francezii au fost definitiv cuceriți. Bătrânul yankeu sfidase protocolul Burbonilor, ducându-se fără perucă, fără sabie, în aceeași haină cafenie și pantaloni cafenii cu care umblă în oraș, cu ochelarii săi cu ramă de oțel pe nas. Biografia lui, cunoscută de toată lumea, era povestită ca o aventură în sine, uluitoare, fascinantă.

Fusese săpunar, tipograf, librar, profesor de înot, telal, editor, fizician, negustor, desenator de bancnote, scriitor, filosof. Avusese curajul să captureze fulgerul, inventând paratrăsnetul, dar nu atât datorită acestei "tije" care apăra mai bine decât Dumnezeu catedralele de incendiu, îl admirau francezii, ci pentru mulțimea de mici mecanisme foarte utile, pe care le înjgheba din mai nimic. Tot ce întreprindea se afla imediat, devenind un permanent subiect de comentarii admirative. Nu era oare excelentă ideea de a face un "braț mecanic"? Franklin și-l construise singur și, cu ajutorul lui, putea să-și scoată din bibliotecă orice carte dorea, din raftul cel mai de sus și să și-o aducă pe măsuța de lângă el, fără măcar să se ridice din fotoliu. Iată ce înseamnă spirit practic ! *

Leadership: Îţi oferi toată dăruirea spre valorificarea unei creaţii receptive la nou, încât imaginea vie a gânditorului care ia contact cu Eul tău să se ipostazieze într-un moralist al existenţei?

Obţinerea unei păreri clare şi corecte faţă de calitatea omului este esenţială pentru a face o comparaţie între admiraţie şi laudă, acestea două fiind mijloacele de a evalua un artist prin prisma poveştii vieţii sale la fel de interesante ca şi el. Diagnosticarea relaţiei dintre creaţie şi valorizarea spirituală a vieţii, făcută prin unirea imaginii sale de creator cu fundalul unei viziuni noi despre lume, se poate realiza printr-o analiză aprofundată a laturii personalităţii celui care ştie să-şi transforme povestea vieţii într-o călătorie spre "darul lui Dumnezeu".

Deşi nu există un test mai ferm pentru calitate, altul decât izbânda creaţiei care te face liber, spre bucuria datorată împlinirii de sine, indicând clar prezenţa dăruirii spre cultură, spre folosul cererii lui Dumnezeu de a mântui lumea printr-o schimbare totală, există mai multe cauze şi motive care pot ajuta la atribuirea diagnosticului de "vocaţie rară a omului".

Iar una din cauze este legată de eşecul omului în ceea ce priveşte găsirea locului şi sensului său într-o lume care pare să nu aibă sens. Prin urmare, el vrea să-şi schimbe condiţia de simplu om, în povestea unui om extraordinar. Aspiră chiar mai departe de atât, de ce să fie un muritor ca toţi ceilalţi oameni, când poate deveni nemuritor prin ceea ce lasă în urma sa?

Omul trebuie să-şi pună amprenta asupra evoluţiei lumii, făcând ca puterea lui spirituală să se dezvolte foarte mult pe aceeaşi undă cu a Creatorului Universului.

Te întreb pe tine, cititorule: care este moştenirea spirituală pe care pe care ţi-a dat-o Dumnezeu şi pe care tu o vei lăsa copiilor tăi?

Această moştenire este chiar taina creaţiei, minunea creativităţii şi a inventicii. Nu uita că, aşa cum bine preciza cineva pe web, lumea a fost creată şi dată omului pentru a preface viaţa făpturii în viaţa părtaşă dumnezeirii. De asemenea, o minune a lui Dumneze poate fi explicată şi transferată copiilor prin intermediul stimulării creativităţii (fapt care susţine primii paşi în domeniul cercetării). Mai ales asta face parte din moştenirea spirituală pe care o laşi lumii întregi. Copiii trebuie modelați în profunzime de valori spirituale trainice, precum iluminarea, libertatea, curiozitatea, creativitatea, inventica, într-o adevărată călătorie a descoperirii de sine.

Un moralist al existenţei este un creator care se ghidează după ideea nobilă a progresului în numele valorilor universale ale umanismului și în slujba promovării valorilor care definesc ideea unei abordări creative pusă în slujba progresului ştiinţei şi a întregii umanităţi.

Iată ce înseamnă spirit practic: să pui credinţa şi spiritul creativ la un loc de cinste în formarea unei viziuni care să asigure progresul în cunoaşterea unei noi realităţi la nivel de virtute, la nivel de înţelegere a voinţei lui Dumnezeu care vrea să transforme lumea într-un loc mai bun. Un loc al demnităţii culturale, estetice şi umane.

Idealul suprem

On Ianuarie 05, 2010

Întăreşte-le oamenilor sentimentul apartenenţei la echipă, cultivându-le credinţa în virtuţile pe care le apreciezi cel mai mult.

Ziua era pe sfârşite. Împăratul, înconjurat de garda personală, se apropie de unul dintre cei mai buni războinici ai săi. Acesta dăduse greş în misiunea ce îi fusese încredinţată. Era în genunchi. Ştia ce-l aştepta.

- În ziua când te-am numit comandant am avut încredere că nu mă vei dezamăgi. Ai pierdut bătălia. Aproape două mii de samurai au murit. Te temi de moarte?

Războinicul refuză să-şi privească stăpânul în ochi. Aruncă o privire într-o parte, apoi plecă ochii în pământ. Lăsă să treacă un timp înainte de a răspunde. Îi era ruşine că a căzut în dizgraţie. Se simţea izolat, inutil, iar aceasta era pentru dânsul o adâncă, chinuitoare umilinţă. Se învinuia în gând pentru lipsa de pricepere de care dăduse dovadă şi nu regreta că trebuia să moară.

- Nu, stăpâne. Sunt samurai. Sunt onorat că te-am slujit. Mi-am făcut datoria cât am putut de bine, dar am dat greş. Merit să mor.

Împăratul îşi scoase sabia. Se credea că sabia lui era cea mai ageră din lume iar tehnica lui inegalabilă. Fusese în multe bătălii şi nu pierduse niciuna. Era un războinic fără cusur.

- Poţi muri repede sau încet !

Un tremur profund, invizibil îl cuprinsese pe samuraiul condamnat la moarte. Dar nu-şi pierdu curajul. Nu voia să se târguiască pentru viaţa lui. Îl consola gândul că va fi omorât cu o lovitură rapidă de sabie. Nu mai avea nimic de spus. Avea puterea sufletească să tacă, să-şi tăinuiască înfrângerea. Aştepta cu capul plecat pedeapsa. Nu putea fi cruţat de această grea încercare.

- Te voi ucide cat voi putea de repede !

În secunda următoare, sabia lovi fulgerător şi decisiv. Inevitabilul s-a întâmplat. Cel care a greşit a plătit preţul maxim.

Leadership: Poţi suporta ruşinea înfrângerii făcând apel la un ideal care poate lua, după împrejurări, înfăţişarea unei inevitabile lupte cu miza înaltă a unui deznodământ care îţi poate păstra intactă valoarea?

Cel mai cumplit chin pentru un om ambiţios, cum era samuraiul, era acela de a trăi cu regretul ca şi-a dezamăgit stăpânul, cu ruşinea că nu s-a ridicat la nivelul aşteptărilor lui. El s-a antrenat încă de mic pentru a nu face greşeli. Din clipa în care se trezea se dedica perfecţionării a ceea ce făcea. Nu a trăit niciodată cu teamă, gândindu-se la răul care i s-ar putea întâmpla. Pentru el viaţa putea deveni suportabilă atâta vreme cât slujea, altfel n-ar fi avut niciun sens. A jurat pe sabie să-l apere pe împărat şi să îi fie supus până la capăt. De fapt asta şi înseamnă să fii "samurai", să serveşti, până la ultima suflare.

În secolul 16, vestitul strateg militar Daidoji Yuzan scria în tratatul de etică „Budo Shoshin Shu": „Înainte de toate, un samurai trebuie să-şi amintească, zi şi noapte, că trebuie să moară."

Un samurai nu trebuia să râvnească la bogăţii sau la celebritate. Unica lui menire era să-şi servească cât mai bine stăpânul. Propria lui viaţă era garanţia că îşi va face datoria până la ultima suflare. Dacă se întâmpla să dea greş în misiunea lui, atunci era sortit pieirii. Iar dacă se întâmpla să moară, atunci murea bucuros că şi-a slujit stăpânul.

Un singur ideal poate lua, după împrejurări, înfăţişarea unei inevitabile lupte cu miza înaltă a unui deznodământ care îţi poate păstra intactă valoarea: acela de a servi unui scop care ia forma unei misiuni în conformitate cu caracterul îndatoririi faţă de un stăpân care se comportă ca un Dumnezeu.

Leadership: Poţi să te evidenţiezi printr-o reflectare a experienţei de a fi un tot unitar şi într-o strânsă uniune cu eroul pe care îl reprezinţi într-un deznodământ care aduce izbânda unei conştiinţe înalte?

În zilele noastre nu mai există samurai în adevăratul sens al cuvântului, dar au rămas nenumărate poveşti despre ei. Din care avem multe lucruri de învăţat. Cum ar fi, de exemplu, să dăm dovadă de ataşament faţă de prieteni, faţă de familie, faţă de superiorii noştri, faţă de instituţia în care activăm, faţă de comunitatea în care trăim. A fi loial şi a conlucra pentru atingerea scopurilor propuse ne întăreşte sentimentul apartenenţei la grup.

Spre deosebire de devotamentul unui samurai faţă de stăpânul său, la ora actuală noţiunea de devotament se referă nu atât la ataşamentul faţă de şef, cât la ataşamentul faţă de colectivul de muncă şi finalizarea optimă a scopurilor urmărite.

Mulţi oameni n-au încercat niciodată un ataşament adânc faţă de cineva. Ei nu ştiu cum este să ajuţi pe alţii, nu sunt hotărâţi, le lipseşte spiritul de camaraderie şi de recunoştinţă. Tot mai mulţi sunt cei care doresc să conducă, să fie în centrul atenţiei. Şi urăsc orice fel de constrângere. Încearcă să sară peste anumite etape foarte importante, fără de care este imposibilă ascensiunea până în vârf.

Eu cred că fiecare trebuie mai întâi să înveţe să se integreze corespunzător într-un colectiv, să înveţe să conlucreze şi să fie performant, abia apoi să aspire la o avansare în ierarhia profesională. Numai conduşi de nevoia de a aparţine unui colectiv oamenii vor învăţa să-şi respecte angajamentele.

Un lider destoinic promovează dezvoltarea relaţiilor de camaraderie şi-i încurajează pe oameni să conlucreze eficient. Cea mai preţioasă dintre toate însuşirile oamenilor pe care îi conduce trebuind să fie numaidecât fidelitatea. Să-i fie credincioşi şi să-i inspire încredere, dând dovadă de curaj în orice situaţie, sub niciun chip să nu-l trădeze sau să se îndepărteze de el.

O conştiinţă înaltă se manifestă prin consolidarea ataşamentului faţă de un trecut care îşi păstrează prestigiul, dar are ca miză demonstrarea ataşamentului faţă de o filozofie care se sprijină pe latura spirituală, pe revelaţia unei izbăviri sacrificiale.

Idealul suprem al unui lider este să conducă o echipă formată din oameni capabili, care să facă faţă oricărei situaţii, ambiţioşi, competenţi, responsabili, loiali şi foarte devotaţi.

Din păcate idealul suprem este foarte greu de realizat deoarece între oameni, chiar excelenţi profesionişti, relaţiile se dezvoltă in timp, ca şi sentimentele, şi se bazează pe o cunoaştere îndelungată. Un bun lider ar trebui să fie liantul într-o echipă pentru ca aceasta să fie cât mai bună.

Chiar dacă nu mai există samurai şi educaţia corespunzătoare unui samurai, şi chiar dacă este foarte greu de realizat, întotdeauna un lider va nădăjdui să aibă de partea lui oameni plini de devotament care să-l ajute să-şi atingă ţelurile propuse în beneficiul tuturor. Acesta este idealul suprem.

Întăreşte-le oamenilor sentimentul apartenenţei la echipă, cultivându-le credinţa în virtuţile pe care le apreciezi cel mai mult. Virtuţi precum loialitatea, onoarea, răbdarea, disciplina, politeţea şi curajul - pentru atingerea scopului propus.

Ideea compoziţiei

On Februarie 27, 2016

Aruncă lumină asupra procesului de creație, dezvoltând o mai mare abilitate în perceperea adevărurilor manifestate în viaţa de zi cu zi.

Ideea aceasta a compoziţiei legate de timp era mai veche, o ştim. Ea fusese însă fertilizată şi reanimată cu câteva luni în urmă prin lecturi ale pieselor scriitorului englez J.B. Priestley care născuseră gânduri despre compoziţie în timp. Întâi lectura lui Priestley - farmecul finei mobilităţi a fanteziei lui, apoi mi se roteşte obsedant în creier un vers din "Macbeth".

S-a desfăcut legătura timpurilor, asociaţii din viaţa curentă, desigur din fondurile rezervelor emoţionale acumulate şi neîmplinite în Mexic, apoi cele văzute aici, în Uzbekistan... Aşa se naşte ideea compoziţiei filmului "Canalul Fergana". Bineînţeles - o repetăm - procesul este mult mai complicat, mai nuanţat, asociaţiile mult mai numeroase şi referindu-se la toată rezerva culturală şi emoţională. Însă detectarea chiar şi numai a unor dintre ele aruncă lumină asupra procesului de creaţie.

Aceste elemente nu sunt evident hotărâtoare, au însă rolul unor stimuli. Chiar Eisenstein o spune în legătură cu piesele lui Priestley, pe care le citise recent şi asupra cărora meditase:

*"Ele sunt interesante aici, deoarece probabil au ajutat la defrişarea terenului în jurul temei despre timp tocmai în momentul în care m-am lovit de problema timpului în scenariul despre canalul Fergana. Prea mult au fost gândite şi răsgândite lucrurile acestea, mărturiseşte în altă parte, încât sub influenţa lui Priestley ele să nu izbucnească. Şi dacă privim cazul Priestley ca pe un exemplu, el ne va lămuri, prin multiplicare şi de aici generalizare, încă o cută ascunsă a problemei pe care o urmărim." **

Leadership: Poţi să dezvolţi un punct de vedere pe o temă de actualitate prin descoperirea rezolvărilor compoziţionale despre un factor cheie provenit din sfera experienţei personale directe şi imediate?

O resursă personală nelimitată a artistului este însăşi fondul propriu de gestiune a celor sesizate de-a lungul unei linii şerpuite, conform cercetărilor prin care are loc învăţarea unor tehnici de lucru, unor lecții de viață, unor metode noi de folosire a cunoaşterii, în încercarea de a surprinde esenţialul dincolo de limita vizibilului.

Leadershipul impresionează prin farmecul finei mobilităţi a fanteziei artistului. Omul creator participă la procesul de redare a realităţii prin cele văzute şi simţite care dau povăţuire minţii către privirea celor nevăzute.

Prin asimilarea de informații și prin abordarea constructivistă a învăţării, în ale căror meniuri găsim veritabili „germeni” pentru obţinerea unei estetici a producției și reprezentării, se reflectă totdeauna o nouă temă de abordat, un scenariu de film, care duce la un alt nivel de experiență.

Cele nevăzute rulează de regulă într-un mediu restricţionat, dar uneori pot fi întâmpinate cu sufletul și mintea în diverse călătorii în lume, prin contactul cu oamenii de seamă. Oriunde te afli, oriunde te regăseşti, oriunde te simți conectat la evenimentele importante, acolo se găsesc întotdeauna „indicii”, elemente uneori hotărâtoare cu rolul unor stimuli, care duc la multiplicare şi de aici la generalizarea unor rezultate și noţiuni izvorâte dintr-o bază inductivă largă (prin urmărirea trecerii de la efecte la cauze).

Factorii cheie ai transformărilor care duc la descoperirea rezolvărilor compoziţionale despre anumite experiențe prelucrate ulterior în teme și scenarii sunt constatările, asociaţiile și comparaţiile din viaţa curentă care stabilesc formatul unor idei și lecţii inedite. Ei pot fi reprezentaţi de constanta „Timp", uneori luând forma unei imagini mentale, alteori dezvaluind o cută ascunsă a unei probleme, etc.

Estetica reprezentării unei noi viziuni provenite din sfera experienţei personale directe şi imediate, în contrast cu necunoscutul unor lungi călătorii prin universul creaţiei nematerializate, vizează originalitatea improvizaţiei cu care întâmpini o gândire a cărei bogăţie poate fi cuprinsă într-un concept inedit redat într-o operă de artă.

Ideea compoziţiei îi revine omului care ştie să se încreadă într-un mereu „nou început", având în administrare bogata rezervă culturală şi emoţională colectată în timp. Ai grijă cum te raportezi la cele văzute în locurile pe unde treci, dar mai ales la cele nevăzute, știind că ceea ce se pierde conține de obicei o mare parte dintr-un adevăr care poate propune o nouă perspectivă asupra relaţiei dintre puterea de creaţie şi cunoaştere.

Ideea filmului intelectual

On Martie 5, 2011

Procesul de montaj și reflecția asupra „filmului intelectual" pot redefini limitele tradiționale ale cinematografiei, oferind o platformă pentru idei filosofice profunde.

Deși în străinătate filmul s-a bucurat de succes – în Germania, de pildă, a fost selectat drept cel mai bun film al anului 1928 – „Octombrie" nu a avut însă nicăieri răsunetul pe care-l cunoscuse „Potemkin". Totuși, „Octombrie" și, mai târziu, studiile teoretice ale lui Eisenstein pe marginea filmului au exportat în întreaga lume ideea „filmului intelectual", stârnind pretutindeni un ecou larg și răsunător.

Încă în timpul muncii la „Octombrie" – în perioada montajului – Eisenstein se gândește mai departe. Dacă filmul intelectual este posibil, atunci se poate transpune pe ecran chiar și sistemul de noțiuni din „Capitalul" lui Marx. Ar fi fost acesta un film despre metoda dialecticii, care trebuia să dezvolte – ca limbaj cinematografic – ceea ce exista embrionar în „Octombrie".

În această direcție credea Eisenstein că se află tematica cinematografiei viitorului: în regiunea filosofică. Dar înainte de a putea începe acest film, socotea necesară o perioadă de pregătire de un an sau un an și jumătate. În această direcţie terenul era total virgin, o tabula rasa. El vedea necesitatea stringentă a unei investigații prealabile îndelungate, pentru a nu risca compromiterea unei teme de o asemenea importanță. Eisenstein percepea această muncă drept „Magnitogorskul cinematografiei" – o construcție temeinică ce ar fi pus bazele unui nou tip de limbaj cinematografic.

Leadership: În ce măsură poate creația ta să deschidă noi perspective asupra transpunerii ideilor teoretice complexe într-un format vizual captivant?

Procesul de explorare cinematografică a filmului intelectual necesită o metodologie riguroasă și o pregătire extensivă. Înainte de a transpune pe ecran sistemul dialectic al „Capitalului", terenul virgin al acestei tematici trebuia studiat prin investigații filosofice complexe. Fiecare strat al limbajului cinematografic poate ascunde structuri semnificative ce trebuie dezvoltate metodic, pentru a evita compromiterea potențialului unei astfel de teme.

Explorarea acestor teritorii necartografiate ale expresiei filmice necesită adaptarea constantă a metodelor de cercetare, stârnind ecouri în întreaga lume a cinematografiei. Totuși, asemenea unui geolog ce își pregătește minuțios explorarea unui teritoriu necunoscut, Eisenstein planifică această muncă intelectuală ca pe o cartografiere sistematică a unui nou continent artistic.

Deși „Octombrie" nu a avut același impact ca „Potemkin", filmul și studiile teoretice ale lui Eisenstein au exportat ideea „filmului intelectual", care a deschis noi direcții artistice. În timpul montajului la „Octombrie", Eisenstein a început să contemple noi posibilități, considerând că, dacă filmul intelectual este realizabil, atunci chiar și conceptele complexe din „Capitalul" lui Marx ar putea fi transpuse pe ecran.

Pentru Eisenstein, acest proiect reprezenta o explorare științifică a unui teren cinematografic virgin, o adevărată „tabula rasa". Ca un cercetător pionier, el considera esențială o perioadă prealabilă de investigație riguroasă, necesară pentru a construi un limbaj cinematografic inovator. „Magnitogorskul cinematografiei" simboliza efortul de amploare prin care Eisenstein urmărea să creeze o platformă pentru idei filosofice și dialectice, stabilind astfel bazele tematicilor viitoare în „regiunea filosofică" a cinematografiei.

Creația intelectuală implică deschiderea unor noi direcții artistice, manifestându-se în raport cu efortul de a transforma limbajul vizual într-un vehicul pentru explorarea ideilor abstracte.

Ideea „filmului intelectual" s-a născut din dorința de a transpune concepte abstracte în imagini cinematografice puternice, conform viziunii lui Eisenstein despre potențialul artistic al montajului. Aceasta presupune o „sinteză între simbol și idee", transformând filmul într-un vehicul pentru gândirea filosofică, utilizând asocieri vizuale și emoționale. Prin această abordare, limbajul cinematografic poate deveni profund și inovator, redefinind limitele expresiei artistice.

Iluzionistul care pândeşte din necunoscut întinderile ştiinţei sale (II)

Schimbă contextul realităţii pe care ţi-o impui ca un standard al cunoaşterii de sine autentice, fără să te abaţi de la traseul unei variante de responsabilizare care călăuzeşte desăvârşirea.

Mă implicasem într-o cercetare dincolo de limitele mele. O întrecere cavalerească intelectuală între două constante, între cunoaştere şi aplicabilitatea ei, între semnificaţia cunoaşterii şi actualizarea posibilităţilor tale de "a fi", o întrecere în care trebuie să am mare grijă. Căci puteam fi tentat să urmăresc un ideal mult prea înalt pentru posibilităţile mele de a-l atinge. Şi, urmărind constant acest ideal, să realizez că, de fapt, am pătruns într-un tărâm necunoscut, încălzit de cunoaşterea cea mai pură, dar totuşi atât de complicată.

Omul care ţine cu tot dinadinsul să fie altcineva, să fie mai mult decât este, să se întreacă pe sine, omul care îşi pune cunoaşterea în folosul desăvârşirii sale poate ajunge, dintr-un exces de inspiraţie, de energie şi de măsură să depăşească graniţele realităţii. Reciproca fiind la fel de valabilă, numai un astfel de om poate atinge un potenţial de maturizare şi responsabilizare maxim. Tu în care categorie te încadrezi?

Aşa cum în timpul diviziunii celulare cromatina se organizează sub formă de cromozomi, tot astfel omul care se dedică întru totul atingerii desăvârşirii sale - prin dezvoltarea continuă a ideilor şi prin sporirea eficacităţii procesului de gândire, reînnoindu-şi puterea de a se dărui lor în totalitate, poate să sfârşească prin a-şi canaliza energiile în jurul unui spaţiu gol. O separare de sine. O închidere a uşii spre reuşita totală.

Leadership: Te angajezi într-un experiment de explorare a lumii lăuntrice printr-un permanent consum de inspiraţie care te obligă să coexişti cu efectele unei ascensiuni mult prea grăbite?

Acesta a fost punctul critic al cunoaşterii mele – să ajung mai departe decât am fost programat iniţial să ajung, să escaladez un munte până ce acesta se clătină şi se prăbuşeşte. Sau să ajung în vârful lui lăsând pe alţii în urmă, având în faţa mea doar incertitudine.

Acesta a fost punctul în care am realizat că sunt limitat de un fenomen absolut, doar la o singură opţiune: incertitudinea. Iar cest teritoriu pe jumatate necunoscut, nespus de ticsit cu abstractizări, se află la graniţa care desparte realitatea de iluzie, atunci când pur şi simplu ajungi să te pierzi în labirintul ştiinţei, al vieţii, al căutării, al creaţiei, al inspiraţiei, al gândurilor fără sfârşit - cu toate adaosurile lor. Desăvârşirea nu se poate atinge decât dacă reuşeşti să treci de această graniţă, sau să vezi dincolo de ea. Şi să devii ceea ce eşti tu de fapt.

Inspiraţia este un produs al gândurilor pe care le creezi într-un anumit context care se schimbă rapid şi care de multe ori îţi neagă faptele prin vorbe. Omul care îşi aşterne liber şi necontenit inspiraţia ajunge să se refuze pe sine printr-o negaţie a ceea ce este finit, urmată de o negaţie a realităţii, el devenind singurul supravieţuitor al unei poveşti scrise de el însuşi.

O ascensiune mult prea grăbită, care este rodul unui consum continuu de inspiraţie dus până la saturaţie, reprezintă o încercare de a-ţi menţine egoul ridicat şi de a-ţi crea o imagine de sine mai înaltă, când în realitate intenţiile tale sunt de natură a provoca o rezonanţa adâncă şi tainică, puternic marcantă, în spiritul tău.

Chiar în actul desăvârşirii, în sensul preciziei absolute a măsurilor ce se cuvin a fi luate pentru o mai exactă evaluare a cunoaşterii proprii, incertitudinea se poate stabili dacă nu urmezi fidel firul devenirii tale, real sub toate aparenţele. Devii confuz şi ajungi să nu mai distingi realitatea de iluzie, îndepărtându-te de la destinaţie, abătându-te de la menirea ta, în lungul drum spre „absolut".

Leadership: Îţi concentrezi întreaga energie a desăvârşirii într-un "Adu-ţi aminte ceea ce ştii de fapt", pentru a asigura înţelegerea conţinutului unui parcurs care se doreşte a fi relevant prin ecoul produs la un alt nivel de conştiinţă?

Desăvârșirea este un act al dedublării: devii altcineva prin abordarea ta din diferite unghiuri ale realității pe care le combini potrivit proprilor viziuni despre lume, sentimente şi imaginaţie. Un om nou este o umbră a unui vechi tipar de gândire, sau o lumină a unei judecăţi care afirmă sau neagă ceva în legătură cu un anumit subiect.

Te compari în permanenţă cu un tip uman care nu doreşte schimbarea în jurul său şi în sine? Toate resursele tale sunt puse la bătaie într-o permanentă căutare de ceva nou? Ai ajuns la un nivel în care abandonezi anumite idei în favoarea altora mai noi? Descoperi pe măsură ce evoluezi că, de fapt, nu ştii nimic despre tine? Simţi că totul se întoarce împotriva ta? Îţi nesocoteşti tot mai mult propria fiinţă, printr-o sporire a cunoaşterii?

Conştiinţa este ceea ce rămâne după ce ţi-ai redefinit identitatea. Iar ecoul produs la un alt nivel de conştiinţă este un produs al schimbării gândurilor dominante în direcţia unei realităţi care există dincolo de ceea ce crezi că este realitatea.

Cine se pierde în negura gândurilor accede la o realitate apropiată de cea închipuită, ceea ce este echivalent cu o declarație de pasivitate sau cu un act de înfrângere în faţa propriei confuzii.

Leadershipul poate fi asimilat de aproape oricine, cu o singură condiţie, pe care poate numai filozoful grec Platon a exprimat-o foarte clar: " Cea mai mare parte a instruirii tale constă în a ţi se aduce aminte ceea ce deja ştii. " Şi, aş adăuga aici, " ceea ce deja ştii ", este dat de o acumulare continuă de valori şi cunoştinţe asimilate în timp, fiind totodată hotărât de tot ceea ce se modifică fără încetare în jurul tău.

Tot ceea ce există în jurul tău se modifică fără încetare şi are un ecou puternic în întregul tău fel de a fi. Şi numai dacă ai acea dispoziţie sufletească a omului care ar paria totul pe o singură carte, a omului care arde toate punţile în urma sa ca să le reclădească mai trainice pe termen lung, vei putea să te ridici la un nivel superior de leadership.

În alt caz, vei rămâne un necunoscut, un simplu om care se hrăneşte din când în când cu iluzia unui viitor grandios. Iar cel ce se agaţă de orice iluzie, recurgând la tot felul de artificii pentru a face rost de terenul necesar ridicării sale la un nivel înalt, nu va ajunge niciodată la acel reper de orientare favorabilă. Ci va ocupa întotdeauna un rol secundar într-o scenetă improvizată, ruptă de adevărul promovat de arta conducerii.

Potenţialul care te scoate din rutină este universul simbolic în care te cufunzi şi te simţi tu însuţi, privitor la ceea ce este real sau fals în toată această mişcare a gândurilor către unii sau alţii, către obiecte, lucruri sau către preocupările tale vitale.

Iluzionistul care pândeşte din necunoscut întinderile ştiinţei sale este omul stăpân pe gândurile sale, care ştie să-şi ridice cunoaşterea la un nivel superior fără să se piardă prea mult în spaţiul unei realităţi virtuale.

Iluzionistul care pândeşte din necunoscut întinderile ştiinţei sale (I)

Sporeşte cunoaşterea şi înţelegerea "Omului" din tine, fără să depăşeşti graniţele a ceea ce experimentezi din perspectiva a ceea nu poţi cuprinde.

Tot ceea ce exista în jurul meu se modifica fără încetare, dar pe nesimţite şi aproape fără ştirea mea, ca o emanaţie nefirească de vapori, într-un soi de spirală a timpului fixată de lateralele unei forţe magice numită "dublă revărsare a formelor din haosul originar". Zgomotele înfundate ale cunoaşterii şi auto-cunoaşterii se făcură auzite, dar însoţite de ecouri de îndoială. Mă aflam într-un impas care putea conduce la o diminuare considerabilă a valorii pe care mi-o atribuiam, fără ezitare, în înţelegerea vieţii şi în acceptarea realităţii.

Cum era posibil ca un ins oarecare, supus unei constante presiuni, hrănindu-se doar cu iluzia unui vis, un necunoscut care se grăbeşte să scoată la suprafaţă din cele mai întunecate colţuri ale realităţii adevărata sa menire - să se confunde, să se compare la o distanţă de doar câteva "contra-atacuri" cu un alt tip uman, cu un jucător înfocat al realului, cu un iluzionist care îşi transformă magiile într-un mod unic?

Trebuia, oare, să trag concluzia că ajunsesem rezultatul excesului meu de transfigurare, şi că toate nu erau de fapt decât unul şi acelaşi lucru, un separatism de limitele mele? Omul din mine era dincolo de orice mască? Sau se agăţa de orice iluzie, recurgând la tot felul de artificii?

Leadership: Poţi fi un model al unei conştiinţe care îşi este propriul obiect de cercetare, descoperind în tine însuţi acele mecanisme de checks and balances care te ajută să descoperi o altfel de reflexivitate?

Tot soiul de idei bine stabilite pe care le abandonam în favoarea altora incoerente. Toate resursele convingătoare puse la bătaie într-o permanentă căutare de ceva nou. Dar de ceva imprevizibil. De ceva improbabil. O baterie magnetică în jurul căreia se înşiruiau grămadă toate resursele, toate efluviile creatoare cele mai subtile, presărate cu cel mai fin set de calităţi. Dar care se descărca tot mai mult prin consumul propriu de energie.

Ca un om care învaţă atâtea şi atâtea, descoperind pe măsură ce înaintează în studiu tot mai multe secrete, eram convins că nu voi şti niciodată nimic. Că, de fapt, totul se reîntorcea împotriva mea, ca un glonţ ricoşat. Căci îmi nesocoteam tot mai mult fiinţa, printr-o sporire a cunoaşterii. O căutare simbolică a unui lucru neînţeles, lupta în jurul unui adevăr întortocheat. Exploatarea în exclusivitate a unei înţelegeri contrare propriei gândiri, ce trebuia încheiată.

Mă simţeam plasat tocmai în mijlocul cerului şi al pământului, încadrat într-o anumită categorie a realităţii - nuanţată doar la nivel de ştiinţă. Un coureur poussé des nouvelles epreuves . Fiind limitat de un fenomen necunoscut, doar la o singură opţiune: incertitudinea.

Reflexivitatea este capacitatea de a analiza propriile gânduri, emoţii, practici profesionale sau situaţii prin care treci, cu scopul de a le transforma într-un răspuns la marile dileme ale vieţii.

Iar una din cele mai mari dileme ale vieţii, pornind de la analiza propriei persoane, este umatoarea: "de ce continuă omul să construiască, să inventeze, să diversifice, căutând ceva anume, acel ceva pe care dacă-l întrebi, nu va şti să-l definească prea bine?"

Leadership: Evoluţia ta mai are încă mulţi paşi de făcut până să ajungă să-şi creeze structura capabilă de a redefini esenţa determinării tale într-un demers numit: "echilibrare personală" ?

Scânteia se aprinsese, fulgerător şi neaşteptat, ca o erupţie de gânduri într-un viitor mai mult sau mai puţin îndepărtat. Nimic nu-l mai oprea pe omul supus forţelor deschizătoare de drumuri să-şi răsfrângă iluziile în ceaţa devenirii, tot mai densă. Şi mai aspră. Acolo unde nimic nu se vede, dar unde sălăşluiesc toate răspunsurile şi se contabilizează toate secretele. Acolo unde totul se schimbă, dar înainte de toate se cântăreşte.

Ajunsesem să mă raportez la nişte concepte care îmi erau la fel de străine pe cât puteau fi protonii pentru Tolstoi. Semeţ şi tulburat mă simţeam în acelaşi timp, aidoma celui ce trece puntea cercetării ştiinţifice pentru a pătrunde într-un tărâm necunoscut, încălzit de cunoaşterea cea mai pură, dar totuşi atât de complicată.

Totul se rezuma la cât de bine mânuiam bastonul care aducea bogăţie minţii, cuprins în imperativul: "Cântăreşte-ţi bine forţele" !

Echilibrarea personală este o domolire a elanului al cărei intensitate da valoare existenţei rezumând fiinţa în profunzimea sa originară, însemnând o indulgentă a modului cum foloseşti cunoaşterea pentru a facilita acea înţelegere care te ajută să vezi înţelepciunea din spatele durerii.

Ce anume provoacă durerea ta de a nu putea pune în ordine haosul pentru a crea o nouă lume? Este oare de vină incapacitatea ta de a trece la acțiune, în încercarea de a da impresia de mai multa transparenţă unui univers plin de semnificaţii?

Cântăreşte-ţi bine forţele, ca nu cumva să ţi se pară doar că deţii toate resursele de motivaţie, inspiraţie şi imaginaţie, iar când vei da piept cu marea provocare a necunoscutului şi incertitudinii, să descoperi că a fost doar o impresie falsă.

Percepția realității tale este verificată din perspectiva a ceea ce știi că nu înţelegi, în măsura în care tot ceea ce încerci să cuprinzi este limitat de valoarea pe care o acorzi împlinirii și evoluției bazate pe explorarea propriilor gânduri şi trăiri?

Iluzionistul care pândeşte din necunoscut întinderile ştiinţei sale aduce în prim plan acea schimbare totală a omului care, manipulând în mod tot mai sofisticat ştiinţa şi cunoaşterea, ajunge să-şi creeze şi asume îndatoriri peste puterile sale. Îndepărtându-se uşor şi apoi din ce în ce mai mult de realitate, sfârşeşte prin a se izola într-o lume a iluziilor. O lume care se poate clătina şi chiar prăbuşi asemenea unui munte.

Te încadrezi într-o anumită categorie a realităţii - nuanţată doar la nivel de ştiinţă? Limitările propriei tale cunoaşteri sunt date tocmai de această incertitudine ce bate la uşa vieţii tale, întrebându-te: " Cine eşti de fapt? ". Această incertitudine evidenţiază lipsa capacităţii tale de a analiza obiectiv lucrurile înainte de a lua o decizie fermă, înainte de a afla cum stau lucrurile în realitate?

Sporeşte cunoaşterea şi înţelegerea "Omului" din tine, fără să depăşeşti graniţele a ceea ce experimentezi din perspectiva a ceea nu poţi cuprinde.

Imaginarul unei lumi de dincolo de noi

On Octombrie 03, 2020

Numai privilegiul de a fi un Creator poate da sens unei vieţi trăite într-un moment în care trebuie să legi imaginea unei aspiraţii vertical-spirituale cu imaginea unei plăsmuiri geniale.

Am început să scriu despre mine însumi ca aflându-mă în altă lume, pentru a da replica unei vieţi din altă viaţă, cu acea revelaţie cu neputinţă de precizat, pe care am încercat s-o intuiesc artistic, cu pensula şi cu un cuţit pentru pictură. Trebuia să creez reliefuri şi impasto, demne de un suprarealism sui generis, constructiv. Bineînţeles, am mizat totul pe forţa simbolică şi sugestivă a imaginilor pline de vibraţie, corespunzătoare cuvintelor scrise prin jocul hazardului, în spiritul de fineţe şi în fragilitatea unei emoţii trăită în mod genuin.

Pentru aceasta, mi-am luat ca model dual de existenţă, ca punct de trecere în altă lume, imaginea unui trandafir Double Delight , şi o asemenea tehnica futuristă de exploatare a lumilor, este influenţată, fără îndoială, de un scris al trăirii, ce aparţine în totalitate momentului următor, revizuind de fiecare dată ce a fost dobândit prin revelaţie şi iluminare.

Iar orice revelaţie ce are ca punct de reper trecerea trăirilor prin succesiunea culorilor şi a posibilităţilor de personalizare a unei lumi aparte, cu multe lumini, dar mai ales prin utilizarea punctului, liniei și formei, trebuie să fie demnă de om şi de Dumnezeu, ca să fie cel puţin comprehensibilă la nivel simbolic.

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate fi interpretată ca fiind o parte din sufletul naturii, având ca punct de reper imaginea factorului uman revelat ca fiind replica unei vieţi din altă viaţă?

Nu pot împiedica culorile să pâlpâie şi să se joace unele peste altele, chiar în momentul posesiei vizuale a unei teme de culoare numită Exludasherr , însemnând mişcarea planurilor îndepărtate faţă de cel apropiat pentru a evoca o structură spaţială nemaivăzută. Dar pot redimensiona o lume artistică cu un scris care, pornind de la trandafir, poate atinge însăşi Calea Lactee în care mă pierd şi mă regăsesc în acelaşi timp.

Probabil, divinul ce caracterizează râvna unui artist spre cât mai multă desăvârșire posibilă, poate fi asemuită cu alegerea unei culori care nu se limitează doar la conceptul Exludasherr , ci ar reflecta cel mai bine spiritul pur al reconstituirii planului astral. Însăşi trandafirul este oglinda unui artist în plan astral, o imitaţie a creatorului într-un cadru divin, într-un vis al cărţii de vis, pe teritoriul sublim al unui sevalet care, de la Renaştere încoace, a devenit forma principală a reprezentării picturale.

În aceeaşi măsură, simbolul conectării unor lumi de dincolo de mine sau dincoace de realitatea exterioară, trebuie să imite un personaj enigmatic şi fascinant, încât să fie acceptate regulile impuse de scrisul numerelor şi al anilor, aferent scrisului hărăzit de o mână nevăzută care pune lucrurile, formele şi culorile într-o anumită ordine. Cred că însuşi Creatorul mă priveşte cu ochii care văd în adevăr relaţia de identitate dintre subiectivitate şi obiectivitate, dar nu se opune scrisului parcurs cu acea calitate a scriitorului de a crea imprevizibilul, de a descrie cu obiectivitate o realitate necunoscută.

În asta constă descoperirea divinului, în proprietatea spirituală a trandafirului de a influenţa scrisul şi de a servi ca promisiune a unei pensule de a defini o nouă realitate.

Trandafirul face parte din scrisul meu, pentru că puritatea lui se regăseşte (ca unealtă artistică de prim rang) în folosirea cheii potrivite pentru accesul la Sinele Divin, individual. Oricare ar fi cuvintele scrise de mine cu stiloul fermecat, ele conţin farmecul cu care o pensulă poate colora simbolul divinului, cât şi al umanului, naturii şi universului în imensitatea sa.

Iar adevărata manifestare a divinului are ca reper imaginea factorului uman revelat ca fiind replica unei vieţi din altă viaţă, din altă lume, din altă realitate.

Da, există cuvinte ce aparţin stiloului, printr-o exprimare creativă cu ajutorul trandafirului, tot aşa cum există cuvinte ce aparţin pensulei, indiferent ce culoare am folosi pentru a crea o anumită luminozitate specifică unei picturi acrilice, în genul capodoperei lui Randy Burns. Mai ştim că prin orice scris artistic se măsoară fineţea cu care Creatorul foloseşte pensula pentru a obţine un efect luminos, utilizând cea mai ridicată frecvenţă de rezonanţă a unui glob de cristal în care sunt înscrise toate secretele facerii lumii, codurile genetice ale plantelor şi animalelor.

Să privim leadershipul printr-un privilegiu unic, divin: acela de a exprima actul de creaţie al unui Creator printr-un tip de abordare care vorbeşte despre experienţa estetică, şi poate astfel vom înţelege personalitatea unui artist care îşi plămădeşte realitatea dintr-o aparenţă accesibilă.

Imaginarul unei lumi de dincolo de noi se relevă prin sensul pe care artistul îl dă vieţii trăite într-un moment în care el trebuie să lege imaginea unei aspiraţii vertical-spirituale cu imaginea unei plăsmuiri geniale.

Momentul de vârf al procesului creator se atinge atunci când trăitul unei vieţi spirituale se reflectă în imaginea unei lumi paralele, plăsmuită cu aspiraţia de a pătrunde tainele universului, pornind de la ideea că orice corp al naturii este reflecţia unui corp ceresc, şi că orice realitate se oglindeşte în multiplicitate.

Imaginea care înfățișează destul de clar învățăturile Ocultismului

On Septembrie 28, 2022

Un lider adevărat ştie să creeze o imagine care în apropiere pare identică cu cea din depărtare, fără să ajungă să se identifice prea mult cu imaginea pe care o proiectează către restul lumii.

Hai să vă spun ce-am revăzut azi într-o carte scrisă de Papus. El scria că omul se consideră singurul creator și singurul judecător al destinului său, fiind liber să acționeze pe placul său în cercul fatalității lui, la fel cum un călător poate să acţioneze într-un vapor cu aburi așa cum dorește în compartimentul său. Dumnezeu nu mai poate să fie indicat drept complice al greșelilor umane, la fel cum nici căpitanul vasului nu este responsabil de fanteziile călătorilor pe care îi duce înainte.

Dar, cititţi mai departe, şi vă veţi afla că Dumnezeu, așa cum apare la prima vedere, este ansamblul a tot ceea ce există, iar omul este supus unei schimbări pe care nu o poate controla. Iată imaginea care înfățișează destul de clar învățăturile Ocultismului în ceea ce privește această problemă a schimbării cauzate de o forţă nebănuită.

Un vapor cu aburi este lansat pe imensul Ocean și plutește spre capătul stabilit de termenul călătoriei. Tot ceea ce conține vaporul este condus înainte. Și totuși fiecare este liber să își organizeze compartimentul așa cum îi place. Fiecare este liber să urce pe punte ca să contemple infinitul, sau să coboare pe fundul calei.

Progresul înainte se efectuează în fiecare zi pentru întreaga masă de oameni. Insă fiecare individualitate este liberă să acționeze după plac în cercul de acțiune care îi este conferit să îl împartă. Toate clasele sociale sunt acolo pe acel vapor, de la bietul emigrant, care se culcă îmbrăcat într-un sac, până la bogatul yankeu care ocupă un compartiment de lux. Și viteza este aceeași pentru toți, fie ei bogați, săraci, mari sau mici, toți vor ajunge în același timp la capătul călătoriei.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi conturezi imaginea ideală a unui prezent care îşi decide viitorul, în încercarea de a analiza ce se întâmplă în relaţia dintre un conținut care se numește "voință de putere" şi un conţinut convingător care nu se vede?

O mașină inconștientă care funcționează după legi stricte pune în mișcare întregul sistem. O forță oarbă (aburul) canalizată în tuburi și organe de metal, generată de un factor special (căldura) animă întreaga mașină. O voință, care domină mașina organică împreună cu ansamblul pasagerilor, guvernează totul: căpitanul. Indiferent în fața acțiunii particulare a fiecărui pasager, căpitanul, cu ochii fixați asupra țintei de atins, cu mâna pe cârmă, conduce imensul organism spre termenul călătoriei, dând ordinele sale armatei de inteligențe care i se supun.

Dar căpitanul nu comandă în mod direct elicea care pune în mișcare vaporul, nu are efect imediat decât asupra cârmii. Astfel Universul poate fi comparat cu un vapor cu aburi imens, unde, cel pe care noi îl numim Dumnezeu, ține cârma. Natura este mașinăria sintetizată în elicea care pune în mișcare întregul sistem potrivit unor legi stricte, iar oamenii sunt Pasagerii. Căpitanul nu intervine în detaliul maşinăriei motrice (imagine a naturii), sau în ocupaţiile pasagerilor. El guvernează în mod circumferenţial sistemul general. Nu are legătură cu ce se întâmplă în interiorul compartimentelor.

Progresul există, general, pentru tot sistemul, însă fiecare ființă umană este absolut liberă în cercul propriei fatalități. Că vor sau nu, indiferent de voinţa lor, orice ar avea în cap şi în suflet, orice planuri ar avea, toţi pasagerii se îndreaptă într-o direcţie. Dar nu atât în direcţia pe care o comandă căpitanul, ci în direcţia pe care o hotărăşte marea furtunoasă: valurile grele, stâncile tari, curenţii oceanici, intemperiile capricioase. După cum vedeţi, căpitanul însuşi, cu tot cu vasul lui, sunt două entităţi fragile supuse total forţelor naturii.

Desigur, înţelegerea acestui fapt este mult mai complicată decât pare la prima vedere, cu toate că dacă este să încadrăm într-un singur tablou tot ce ne furnizează ca exemplu realitatea de zi cu zi, vom constata că suntem neputincioşi să urmăm o anumită cale fix cum ne-am dorit noi. Sau urmăm o cale despre care credem că este valabilă, şi tot ce găsim este doar o fundătură, o iluzie, ca apoi să fim nevoiţi să ne întoarcem pe unde am venit, să ne retragem paşii, şi să încercăm o altă abordare. Şi tot aşa...până când voinţa noastră se nimereşte să fie pe placul Naturii Divine.

Leadership: Poţi să generezi o anumită manifestare de putere unde trăirile, gândurile şi amintirea unui eveniment să se circumscrie în totalitate acelui eveniment trecut, astfel încât fragmente din acesta să nu se mai reproducă automat în alte situaţii?

A ştiut Shakespeare bine acest lucru când a povestit despre felul în care Prospero dirija cu o voinţă cosmică toate elementele naturii. Oamenii încearcă să-şi croiască un drum în viaţă, fără să bănuiască că există o altă cunoaştere mai înaltă şi cu adevărat neasemuită care are o mare influenţă asupra lor.

Având în subordine nişte spirite puternice, dar ascultătoare de voința lui, Prospero putea prin mijloacele lor să comande vânturilor și valurilor mării. Din ordinul lui, spiritele au stârnit o furtună violentă, în mijlocul căreia o corabie încerca să se ţină la suprafaţă în lupta cu valurile sălbatice ale mării care în fiecare clipă amenințau să o înghită. Prospero i-a arătat fiicei sale această corabie frumoasă, despre care i-a spus că este plină de ființe vii. "O, dragul meu tată", a spus ea, "dacă prin arta ta ai ridicat această furtună înspăimântătoare, ai milă de necazul lor trist. Vezi ! Vasul va fi zdrobit în bucăți. Sărmanele suflete ! toți vor pieri. Dacă aș fi avut putere, aș scufunda marea sub pământ, mai degrabă decât nava frumoasă să fie distrusă, cu toate sufletele prețioase din ea."

Ce concluzie tragem de aici? Omul îşi conduce viaţa în aşa măsură încât ceea ce se întâmplă în ea apare ca şi cum s-ar întâmpla complet în el. Trăirile sale, cât mai vii şi mai variate, sunt abordate fie în amintirea evenimentului în totalitate, fie se circumscriu acelui eveniment trecut, pentru ca fragmente din acesta să nu se mai producă automat în alte situaţii. Obiecţia mea la aceasta este că omul ia Opera lui Dumnezeu ca pe o colecţie discretă de evenimente, şi aceasta în conformitate cu cuvântul "introvertire" care se bâlbâie într-o profundă viziune asupra existenței.

Numai că știința lui Dumnezeu este atât de subtilă, încât uneori se confundă cu firescul, iar omul ia firescul drept ceva care nu are nevoie de niciun ajutor ca să funcționeze sau să existe. Dar ceea ce Dumnezeu lasă pe dinafara înţelegerii, în principal, este conţinutul relaţiei dintre conducător şi subordonat, şi numai prin îndeplinirea cu succes a rolului de conducător se pot asigura anumite avantaje subordonaţilor. Nu-i aşa?

Leadership: Eşti în stare să îţi schimbi modul de a acţiona în momentul în care înţelegi cauza primordială care a dus la o anumită manifestare de voinţă pusă pe seama unei condiţionări bazate pe premise apriorice?

Hai să spunem că Dumnezeu este conținutul personalizat şi bine determinat, cel al cunoștințelor pure apriorice, un conţinut care nu se vede, şi la care oamenii se raportează întâmpinând dificultăți de înțelegere. Este imaginea unui Eu permanent căruia i se supun, treptat, consecinţele efemere ale diferitelor situaţii. Deşi nu se înţelege perfect cum anume această "Conştiinţă Primordială" mediază aceste evenimente şi legături între fapte, lucruri şi trăiri, fără de care nimic nu ar fi cu putinţă, un singur lucru este cert: este imposibil să percepi un lucru insignifiant, ca o şoaptă în furtună, atunci când eşti izolat de contextul tău de viaţă, fără să te întrebi de ce are o situaţie banală are un efect straniu de "nu înţeleg".

Nu poți fi numai spectator al vieții Tu ești subiectul vieții, um passado absorvido em um presente que busca seu futuro , dar eşti şi promotorul propriei viziuni despre o mână invizibilă care cârmuieşte lucrurile. Fără să fii pus într-o stare de încercare nu vei realiza că există o relaţie directă între semnificaţia unui eveniment şi reacţia afectivă faţă de acesta.

Faci asta substituind experienţei tale de viaţă imediate o interpretare temporală în care "valoarea ta adevărată" este inevitabil compromisă din cauza unei prezenţe stranii care nu te evită, privind absentă la tot ce ţi se întâmplă, ci schimbă tot ceea ce ţi-ai propus. Iar dacă încerci să uiţi ce ţi s-a întâmplat, îndepărtându-te cât mai mult de evenimentul care s-a petrecut, îndreptându-ţi gândurile în altă parte, dintr-o dată te trezeşti în mijlocul furtunii. Într-o asemenea situaţie, nu-ţi fie frică să te întorci din drum, căci vremea te poate lua oricum prin surprindere (chiar dacă vrei să găseşti consolare în gândul că mai rău nu se poate).

În leadership, convingerea că trebuie să acţionezi ca să-ţi atingi scopul propus justifică motivul unei eventuale reuşite, dar nu oferă nicio certitudine de viitor, căci întotdeauna reuşita va depinde de fenomene exterioare aleatorii, nu doar de propriile tale acţiuni.

Fii dispus să acţionezi acceptând această idee ! Utilizează-ţi capacităţile intelectuale la maxim pentru a-ţi face o idee clară despre cele punctate mai sus.

Imaginea care înfățișează destul de clar învățăturile Ocultismului este imaginea unui vapor a cărui rută principală devine ruta ocolitoare care trece prin mai multe etape: stagnare (pierzându-şi mult din importanţă pe care a avut-o), şi corecţie (pentru prevenirea oricăror împotriviri, oricăror acţiuni contrare voinţei divine).

Fii flexibil şi adaptabil în demersurile întreprinse pentru atingerea scopului propus. Întotdeauna lucrurile vor lua o altă întorsătură faţă de cum ţi-ai propus, tocmai ca să înţelegi că totul depinde numai de Dumnezeu. Prin aceasta, El îşi demonstrează puterea nevăzută, inimaginabilă și inexplicabilă.

P.S. Înt-un veac al necredinţei, Dumnezeu îşi demonstrează adevărul Cuvântului Său pe calea ştiinţei.

Imaginea cu care ochiul îşi lărgeşte orizontul

On August 11, 2023

Abilitatea de a privi o imagine într-un mod artistic sau profund nu poate fi dezvoltată în alt mod decât prin observarea și analizarea imaginilor în care te regăseşti reflectat de "celălalt tu".

Când privesc în jur, interesant este că pot să văd totul, chiar şi sensurile ascunse ale lucrurilor, sau fețele ascunse ale oamenilor, intuind mai uşor legăturile de cauzalitate între deteriorare şi progres. Şi se vede cât este de absurd să schimb o vedere sau o cauză, încătuşând realitatea într-o pretinsă insularitate care include doar forma închipuită a unei cunoaşteri concrete, dusă până într-o zonă interzisă accesului oricui la supremaţia divină. Oamenii, la fel şi lucrurile, sunt din punctul de vedere al ochilor de artist, nişte insule care se scufundă, dispar în mare sub lumina soarelui arzător, fără să li se dea de urmă. Doar în ochii lui Dumnezeu totul este regăsit.

Chiar acum privesc un om făcând jogging, încercând să-şi conserve vitalitatea și energia prin fiecare pas al său, într-un perfect acord cu ritmul pulsului său și cu zborul efemer al gândurilor sale. Are o privire adâncă, expresivă, ce poate fi imortalizată într-un tablou de Grigorescu, ca fiind un Univers în Multi-univers, deoarece în ochii lui se reflectă seninătatea unei lumi pure, misterul și frumusețea neînțeleasă a peisajului înconjurător. Tot uitându-mă la el cu o curiozitate neclintită, ca şi când aş vrea să pătrund în lumea lui secretă și să-i dezvălui gândurile ascunse, mă văd pe mine bucurându-mă de viață, contemplând această viaţă cu toate nuanțele ei profunde și complexe, în toată splendoarea ei efemeră.

Fără îndoială, omul acesta este un artist, fiindcă eu am ştiut să văd în el un artist, chiar dacă nu era decât un om oarecare printre alţi oameni de pe plajă. În peisajul său mental, unde devine necesară abordarea credibilităţii, şi nu fotografierea realităţii, mă rătăcesc ca într-un labirint plin de contraste, amintiri şi vise, unde fiecare culoare, fiecare nuanță, este o deschizătură către altă lume. Artistul însuși devine, prin oglindire în opera sa, ghidul meu prin aceste lumi captivante şi pline de magie, iar cu fiecare privire aruncată pe pânza lor imaginară, amintirile și visele mele prind viață.

Leadership: Imaginea căreia îi conferi o reprezentare figurativă poate să-ţi stimuleze clarviziunea, înlesnind totodată vizualizarea ta interioară?

Sunt pe o insulă ireal de frumoasă, izolată, cu milioane de pietricele albe ca laptele. Marea Ionică din vestul Greciei este natură pură, sălbăticie, unde în primul rând domină turcoazul. Evident, vederea mă ajută să cuprind lumea aceasta izolată, care ascunde povești neștiute, într-o temă care cuprinde natura în toată splendoarea ei, cu riscul pierderii sensului de orientare într-un timp fără întoarcere.

Pe această cale, pretextez că am nevoie de un cadru nou de zugrăvire a unei scene abia vizibile, a întâlnirii dintre un pictor şi un zeu. Este viziunea artistului care, căutând solitudinea şi liniştea insulelor pentru a-şi cultiva imaginația şi pentru a-şi aduce la viață creațiile, reuşeşte să scoată la iveală o prezență subtilă strecurată în fiecare fărâmă de creație.

Omul a devenit un alt om, fiindcă privirea lui a cuprins o altă privire asemănătoare, capabilă să pătrundă în sensurile artei. Dar totuşi este o privire diferită prin culorile şi formele pe care le descoperă în fiecare răsărit de soare, în fiecare fir de nisip, ca o amintire a timpului petrecut într-un tablou viu, de factură impresionistă.

Iar dacă am văzut pe cineva care îmi seamănă, trăind într-o formă reflectată perfect în mintea mea, este pentru că însăşi creația mea este un joc de substituție constantă în care explorez multiple identități și perspective pentru a dezvălui straturile adânci ale sinelui meu.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o imagine vizuală evidențiind contrastul dintre două entităţi figurative care colaborează în tăcere spre a deveni o singură manifestare introspectivă?

Din nou, ochii mei surprind înfăţişarea unui alt om de pe plajă. Şi privirea lor se aseamănă, amândoi sunt artişti datorită ochilor îndreptaţi spre aceleaşi puncte de interes, părând să vadă aceleaşi lucruri. Totuşi, nu-mi dau seama dacă ei doi sunt diferiţi, sau dacă este doar unul singur aflat concomitent în două ipostaze: de privitor şi de creator. Până la urmă, toată viața mea nu am făcut decât să transform viața în ficţiune, ca și cum ar exista mereu o altă persoană care mă priveşte, o prezență divină, un zeu, un creator care vede dincolo de aparențe ceea ce rămâne neobservat.

O asemenea coincidenţă am întâlnit-o şi în romanul lui John Fowles:

"La urma urmei, ce eram eu? Nu eram altceva decât suma numeroaselor mele rătăciri. Jargonul freudian din timpul procesului mă făcea să zâmbesc, dar toată viaţa mea nu făcusem decât să transform viaţa în ficţiune, refuzând să privesc realitatea în faţă. Mă comportasem întotdeauna ca şi când exista o altă persoană care mă privea, mă asculta şi îmi punea notă bună sau rea - pentru tot ceea ce făceam. Un zeu. Sau un autor de romane spre care mă întorceam, şi eu eram personajul lui, în stare să facă exact ce trebuie ca să fie pe plac, vulnerabil la afronturile lui, capabil să se adapteze la tot ce credea că doreşte romancierul-zeu.

Eu singur am creat această varietate de super-ego, ca o lipitoare. Eu însumi am hrănit-o şi din cauza ei am fost întotdeauna incapabil să acţionez liber. Constituise sistemul meu de apărare, dar devenise destul de curând propriul meu tiran. Şi acum, îmi dădeam seama, dar era prea târziu. M-am aşezat pe mal şi am aşteptat ivirea zorilor deasupra mării cenuşii..."

Leadershipul evidențiază idei legate de perspectivă, interpretare unică și transformarea realității. Pentru a crea ceva unic trebuie să vezi dincolo de aparențe, evidențiind contrastul dintre doi oameni: unul care se metamorfozează în artist, și un altul care conferă creației sale o prezenţă divină.

Imaginea cu care ochiul îşi lărgeşte orizontul poate fi cu adevărat înţeleasă numai în contextul celorlalte forme artistice, precum pictura, literatură, exprimarea vizuală care, împletind fiecare nuanță a peisajului și a trăirilor, împărtășesc esența fiecărui aspect al vieţii şi naturii. Nu uitaţi că arta de a crea imagini nu poate fi dobândită decât privind imagini.

Imaginea de sine

On Mai 21, 2017

Fii dispus să vezi adevărurile ce ți se revelează pe parcursul propriei definiri, prin comparaţie cu un tablou căruia nu-i cunoşti autorul.

Începusem să vădesc o atitudine neîngăduitoare faţă de viaţă, cu suişurile şi coborâşurile ei, asemenea unui om care se uită de prea aproape la un tablou, observând detaliile dar pierzând viziunea de ansamblu. Arta pe care mi-o asumam nu mai era o chemare a liberei exprimări în profunzimea unei lumi intangibile, ci doar o automenţinere a imaginii de sine pe care o traversam în planurile extremelor rolului de cercetător.

Ca un susţinător înfocat al unui nou sistem de convingeri, ca un promotor al imaginii ce-mi apărea pe ecranul realităţii umplând cadranul lumii cu adieri pline de farmec, mă adânceam tot mai fanatic în ideea mea fixă că există totuşi o măsură limitată în capacitatea omului de a transcende situaţia concretă imediată. Şi de a trăi în termeni de posibilitate. Probabil că arta este subordonată imaginii unui univers intim, este imaginea unui om care îşi caută sensul vieţii prin manifestarea libertăţii de a-şi explora valenţele artistice în procesul de generare a unei realităţi care cultivă mai mult "news" decât "fake".

Dincolo de cunoaşterea sclipitoare şi fermitatea raţiunii justificate numai prin implicarea în transformarea propriilor valori, nu exista decât o decizie raţională, o evadare personală din iadul vieții pline de faţete care ar fi trebuit să mă zdrobească în implacabilul mers înainte, cel puţin atât cât destinul şi amănuntul îndrăznelii se pot împăca. Dar de care sinceritatea întotdeauna se îndoieşte.

Aşadar, primul adevăr care mi s-a revelat brusc este acesta: nu poţi îndeplini un destin extraordinar dacă nu evadezi din lumea care te înconjoară, pentru a da naştere unei arte originale care nu datorează nimic şi nu se conformează modelelor obişnuite de reprezentare a lumii.

Leadership: Îţi depăşeşti condiţia deschizătorului de drumuri, apelând la o experienţă a lucidităţii de tipul "You can't hide your own true" care se loveşte de cealaltă forţă, a imaginii unei realităţi complexe şi a unei individualităţi distincte?

Şi întrucât am îndrăznit să deschid o fereastră spre această tăcută convenţie, numită Status Quo, bazată pe toleranţă şi pe dăruirea generoasă a sinelui, am avut meritul de a clarifica un aspect care, aşa cum nu-mi venea să cred, acum este valabil pentru întreaga lume. Elementele din jur care mă inspirau, mă agitau și mă făceau să mă identific cu un artist al momentului, erau ca nişte argumente ştiinţifice frumos şi judicios prezentate ce puteau susţine avântul spre o altă alegere despre care ştiam că e o posibilă prăpastie, o experienţă a lucidităţii de tipul "You can't hide your own true".

Plin de conţinut, timpul meu acţiona asupra psihologiei trăirii prin nervul unei inteligenţe tăioase. Iar sensibilităţii faţă de ineditul unui aparent pustiu bogat în semnificaţii, de-a pururi o flacără a vieţii, cuvenindu-i-se toată gloria şi onoarea unei minuni care eventual mi se întâmpla, la care eram martor ocular, îi aparţinea o urmă de sânge impregnată în momentul unei forţe a sublimului. Ea însăşi resimţită ca încă o probă a investirii mele pe făgaşul unei chimii care stârnea imaginaţia din mine, o fiinţă plină de mister desprinsă dintr-un thriller plin de revelaţii surprinzătoare, adâncită într-un vers al chimiei atracţiei faţă de tot ceea ce este superior şi care nu poate fi explicat prin cuvinte.

Un deschizător de drumuri este om care se afunda în profunzimea unei lumi intangibile, este un maestru al preciziei, subtilităţii şi complexităţii în materie de studiu al naturii, al artei şi al ştiinţei. Capacitatea omului de a accepta noul unei psihologii a Eului, alimentat prin trăirile care au forţa de a ordona lumea, este influențată de modalitatea de a transmite indirect acea motivaţie care îndeamnă pe oricine să depășească orice formă de a se închide în ei înşişi.

Atributul funcţional Unic şi Întâmplător al Creaţiei este conţinutul de luciditate pe care îl postezi într-o realitate în care uneori te simți pierdut.

Matematicianul austriac, Ludwig Eduard Boltzmann, ştia că travaliul gândirii poate fi însoţit de o suferinţă intensă, aceea a neacceptării unei stări de fapt în condiţiile prevăzute de povara existenţei. Se plângea mereu că este asaltat de întrebări tot mai lipsite de sens, ce trebuiau refuzate în mod categoric. Două interogaţii fără răspuns dădeau năvală în mintea sa, hărţuindu-l continuu: "Din ce cauză e valabilă legea cauzei şi efectului" şi "De ce, în definitiv, exist tocmai acum într-o lume care nu este aşa cum mi-o doresc eu?"

Omul cel mai captivant, un artist întemeietor de sensuri, ne poate arăta prin intermediul a ceea ce resimte activitatea unei gândiri bazată pe recomandările utilităţii sale în cadrul unei lecţii demonstrative de apropiere, de depărtare sau de diferenţiere faţă de statutul lui de destinaţie. În care legile deductibilităţii aspectelor de căpătâi ale vieţii sunt prevăzute conform artei emancipării actului de control. În care totul ţi se pare de fotografiat şi îţi vine să petreci ore întregi minunându-te de ceea ce se întâmplă.

Leadershipul, prin comparaţie cu un tablou căruia nu-i cunoşti autorul, se poate completa cu resturile unei existenţe în care simți plăcerea de a întâmpina orice situație cu o perspectivă neîngrădită și o putere nelimitată de acceptare a unui sens de apartenență la un întreg compus din trei adevăruri.

Adevărul privirii exersate, adevărul transformărilor pe care le suporţi și adevărul percepţiei care mijloceşte simbioza dintre raţiune şi sentiment. Ele sunt supuse obiectivităţii cu care îți prezinți „intervenţiile" în deşertăciunea lumii sau în frumuseţile ei.

Activitatea gândirii artistice, raportate la marea metamorfoză a creaţiei, este un efect spontan al profunzimii, al interiorizării unei bogate experienţe de transcendere a obişnuitului. Este experienţa unei realităţi care intră în comuniune cu omul printr-o continuă transcendere "de la tine şi peste tine".

Imaginea de sine este o posibilă prăpastie dacă te apropii prea mult de marginea acelui moment în care te lași purtat de inspiraţie în vederea extragerii unui adevăr tulburător. Ceea ce nu te doboară te face mai puternic, dar în același timp te poate obliga să te distanţezi de felul cum simţi tu că vrei să fii.

Ai grijă ce adevăruri ți se revelează pe parcursul propriei definiri ! Un deschizător de drumuri nu se defineşte niciodată în funcție de modul cum s-a decis să abordeze pustiul unei lumi căzute, ci în funcţie de modul cum abordează belşugul unei plenitudini a scopurilor decisive și principale ce stau la baza unei dezvoltări sănătoase.

Destinul este un tablou căruia nu-i cunosti autorul, dar căruia îi poţi da un nume, o profunzime şi îl poţi reseta la dimensiunea propriei conştiinţe şi a propriei tale valori în lume.

Imaginea derulată încet a trandafirului de toamnă

On Noiembrie 22, 2019

Trandafirul este pecetea unei singure taine, formându-se prin simpla adăugare a unui amănunt subtil într-o formulă artistică inimitabilă.

Limbajul trandafirului este monologul unui artist care, în bunătatea lui necondiţionată, fără niciun fel de constrângere, îşi exprimă forţa creatoare prin vibraţia murmurată a unui sentiment de cea mai curată şi elevată expresie. Un sentiment de felul acesta artistul îl simte pentru nişte femei virtuoase, sau pentru acele lucruri rare culese din natură şi duse foarte aproape de perfecțiune, pentru puterea plânsului unei mame, sau pentru mângâierea milei unui Dumnezeu care se îngrijeşte de omenire.

Limbajul naturii este o permanentă căutare a artei în fiecare colţişor al existenţei noastre, fragile şi vulnerabile, încărcată de melancolii vagi sau de preaplinuri de suflet, cărări de nelinişte pronunţate, afectate de trecerea vremii. Trandafirul călăuzitor, atât de drag, lovit de intemperiile din cursul toamnei târzii, mă face să mă simt copleşit de durerile unei lumi complicate care, tot mai indiferente la dimensiunea spirituală, niciodată nu a părut mai fragilă.

Ani de-a rândul, aspectele legate de intimitatea fizică, psihică şi emoţională, nu mi-au dat niciun răspuns la întrebarea: „ce se ascunde în viaţa celui care se ascunde în timp ce totul se repetă?”. Numai trandafirul mi-a împărtăşit răspunsul, grav şi accentuat, prin magia cu care artistul face să fuzioneze intim, în aceeaşi lucrare, clarobscurul unei alei umbrite de tei bătrâni care te invită la o adâncire în necunoscut, cu exuberanţa coloristică a peisajului de toamnă, undeva departe de ochii lumii.

Estetica peisajului mohorât, dar plin de culori vesele, devine un eveniment de apreciere activă a artei atunci când glasul unui orator necunoscut, îngroşat de simţire tomnatică, justificat pentru raritatea unui moment grav, atinge (cu ecoul speranţei distruse) un obiect prăfuit, sau chiar un om necăjit, pentru a putea să efectueze o călătorie într-un loc încărcat de constrângeri, stări mai profunde şi trăiri mult mai intense.

Leadership: Personalitatea ta îşi caută menirea în crearea unei identităţi vizuale care îţi permite să te înrădăcinezi în memoria unui moment unic surprins într-o imagine cu tentă de operă de artă?

Am făcut din grădina mea un spaţiu de reflecţie asupra gândurilor cele mai tainice, un mod de expunere a unui limbaj surd, fără calitate primară în pictură deoarece încetează să caracterizeze un peisaj pentru a se numi pe sine „distinctiv”. Astfel, peisajul poate fi admis ca un fel de renunţare a sinelui de a se mai considera „însemnat” pentru experienţa revelării unei realităţi mai ample, demne de suprarealiştii secolului 21.

În acest moment, limbajul pe care îl folosesc în prezenţa naturii este produsul unei conştiinţe particulare, izolate, folosind drept ancore de mesaj către viitor o înlănţuire de „n” gânduri caracterizate prin schimbări ale stărilor de spirit, în special pe cele care generează simptome profunde de natură emoţională: epuizare, tristeţe, slavă deşartă.

O personalitate care îmbrăţişează acest limbaj se supune cu demnitate unei opere de artă care trăieşte, mai ales, prin mesajul pe care îl exprimă: „tot ceea ce te răneşte sau te bulversează, te face de asemenea să vezi altfel viaţa”.

Nu-i aşa că se simte o oarecare deznădejde în scrisul meu, pe măsura vremii tot mai reci, mai capricioase, mai înverşunată să te prindă într-un labirint de întrebări, de secrete și incertitudini, ca şi când ai fi introdus în atmosfera romanului „Numele Trandafirului" de Umberto Eco?

Când trandafirul îşi pierde petalele toamna târziu, abia atunci artistul pare să fie puternic sensibilizat de imposibilitatea de a gusta deliciile unei imagini multicolore, fiind parcă introdus într-o imagine a sfârşitului de lume, ca în viziunea fotografului Christian Wærsten.

Aici, punctul culminant al istorisirii mele, de care niciodată nu mă voi putea despărţi, este dat de conştiinţa conţinutului estetic sau spiritual al unei opere de artă care impresionează prin ecourile de substanţialitate filosofică, de tipul: „I will never forget myself, no matter if I am a good or a bad painter."

Leadership: Tabloul viu al artei tale poate fi încadrat în memoria unui moment în care experimentezi o stare apăsătoare, ce poate fi folosit ca termen analogic pentru un context mai larg de cunoaştere şi înţelegere a motivaţiei care fundamentează procesul creativ?

În cartea "The Instant Millionaire", scriitorul Mark Fisher îndrumă un tânăr spre a-şi împlini visurile. Tânărul este invitat la o plimbare printr-o mare grădină de trandafiri. S-au plimbat în tăcere o vreme. Milionarul s-a oprit în faţa unui tufiş de trandafiri cu flori magnifice şi a rămas pierdut în contemplaţie. Când şi-a mai revenit, a spus:

"Cred că am mirosit aceşti trandafiri de mii de ori, dar de fiecare dată mi se pare o experienţă diferită. Ştii de ce? Pentru că am învăţat să trăiesc aici şi acum. Uit de trecut şi nu-mi pasă de viitor. Secretul e cât se poate de simplu: concentrarea mentală. Cu cât mintea îţi este mai concentrată, cu atât mai mult trăieşte ea în prezent şi cu atât este mai absorbită în tot ceea ce face. Concentrarea este cheia succesului în toate domeniile vieţii. Cu cât te vei putea concentra mai bine, cu atât mai eficient vei munci, sesizând inclusiv detaliile peste care ceilalţi trec cu uşurinţă. Grădinăritul te ajută să observi din ce în ce mai lucid lucrurile din jur."

Dragă cititorule, de fiecare dată când te vei îndoi de tine însuţi, când viaţa ţi se va părea mai grea pentru a fi îndurată, întoarce-te la acest trandafir şi aminteşte-ţi ce reprezintă el într-un univers care se potriveşte cu mintea ta, pentru că şi el şi tu aţi fost făcuţi de acelaşi Dumnezeu, pentru a descoperi în el lucrarea Lui. Concentrează-te la relaţia dintre natură şi fiinţa umană pentru a plăsmui subiectul Marii Opere, înainte de a te socoti un artist al exprimării memorabile, un hermeneut al imaginii desprinse din tainele lumilor universului.

Singurul amănunt care adăugat într-o formulă artistică inimitabilă poate realiza o asemănare între tine şi trandafir, are la bază ideea percepţiei unei compoziţii ca întreg, nu ca sumă a părţilor, ca o emanaţie a impresiei unui spaţiu nemărginit, sau ca materializare a unei forţe de natură suprareală pe care o poate produce numai un artist al exprimărilor memorabile. O astfel de formulă artistică poate fi „desenul spontan printr-o simţire de sine" sau „coloratul unui gând frumos din lumea care nu se vede".

Adevărata motivaţie a unui artist, cea care fundamentează procesul creativ, este de a surprinde cu inspiraţie şi apreciere „totalitatea lumii" într-un singur moment profund şi emoţionant, acceptând provocarea de a interpreta o imagine cu conţinut de „oglindire a sinelui" într-un colţ de realitate neştiut de nimeni.

Imaginea derulată încet a trandafirului de toamnă aduce în prim plan un mod de expunere a incursiunii într-o lume apăsătoare, ce se doreşte creativă, dar şi un procedeu artistic de construire a simbolurilor de definire a „sinelui" prin asumarea ipostazei unui personaj care își analizează stările sufletești, concepțiile, ideile prin ecoul unei singurătăţi febrile.

Imaginea obţinută de simţuri într-o imagine adevărată

On Ianuarie 23, 2022

Când percepem o figură o interpretăm conştient sau inconştient, ea reprezentând forma unui conţinut şi fiind forma vizibilă a conţinutului ei.

Tot ceea ce gustăm, dulce sau aromat, intră în componenţa noastră. Chiar dacă gustul diferă de la caz la caz, trebuie să ne bucurăm de plăcerea de a simţi cât mai intens acea aromă distinctă de eucalipt sau de mentă, amestecată cu bună dispoziţie. De pildă, guma de mestecat Orbit utilizată imediat după masă, prin orice tip de gust i-am atribui, împărtăşim ceva din intenţia cu care încercăm să obţinem un gust autentic fără să pierdem aroma, revigorând pe această cale şi digestia alimentelor consumate în timpul mesei.

Fără speranţa că voi mai da jos câteva kilograme, obişnuiesc să mestec guma Orbit, cu savoare, cu expresia intensă a unui sentiment ce emoţionează, numai dintr-un singur motiv: îmi dă senzaţia că dinţii sunt mai fini şi mai curaţi. Şi, stimulând terminaţiile nervoase de la nivelul gurii mele, dându-mi senzaţia că gura este mai rece decât de obicei, guma Orbit îmi păstrează necondiţionat acea undă de seninătate pe care mulţi ar vrea s-o atingă în încercarea de a avea o fizionomie armonioasă.

Chiar în acest moment am pe chip o seninătate pe care cu greu ar fi putut să o redea în culori vii până și cel mai iscusit pictor, fiindcă însăşi artiştii ţin foarte mult la studierea fizionomiilor care sunt foarte bine individualizate, în ciuda tratării naive. De fapt, o stare de seninătate adună părerile multora în privinţa frumuseţii ideale, pe când pictorul percepe acel grad ridicat de alb imaculat al gumei de mestecat, corelat cu albul cristalin al dinţilor, ca pe o expresia a purității, a neatinsului, fiind totodată și o reprezentare a curăţeniei şi a luminii.

Leadership: Tot ceea ce îţi face plăcere să savurezi poate să descrie profunzimea percepţiei estetice care transformă o experienţă cotidiană într-o sursă de accentuare a simţurilor capabile să creeze emoţii unice?

Demnă de toată atenţia este latura artistică a ceea ce vreau să cunosc mai bine. Prin urmare, încerc să examinez pe toate feţele o pastilă Orbit, chiar dacă nu am la dispoziţie toate informaţiile despre felul ei de a-şi păstra consistența elastică. Fără să depun cine ştie ce efort, îmi dau seama că fac parte din rolul privilegiat pe care ea îl ocupă în viaţa oamenilor: are rolul de a spori senzaţia de satisfacţie. Pur şi simplu dărnicia de percepţii şi senzaţii cu care mă învredniceşte guma de mestecat Orbit, plină de ecouri de mare acurateţe artistică, nu poate fi modificată decât de fenomenele complexe ale vieţii.

Într-adevăr, vrând să mă onoreze cu o surpriză, guma Orbit se poartă galant, aşa cum s-ar purta cu mândrie o actriţă atunci când nu apelează la ajutorul unui make-up artist ca să mascheze liniile din jurul gurii. De exemplu, linia frântă reda neliniştea, duritatea, tensiunea. Şi asta fiindcă guma Orbit are o formă minimalistă, este flexibilă, dar greu de reprezentat pe o pânză, şi totodată greu de transpus într-un desen sincer dacă o percepem drept caracteristică a unei figuri tulburate şi înfrânte care caută alinarea, repausul, sau un reazim într-o credinţă deterministă.

În arta trebuie să înţelegi operaţiunea prin care unei figuri geometrice date îi corespunde o altă figură, mult mai vie şi mai apropiată de regulile artei contemporane, odată cu orientarea ei spaţială sau cu cea a mediului ambiant. Alternativ, prin parcurgerea unei prospeţimi intrinseci, printr-o mișcare caracteristică a gurii, însoțită de un sunet specific, nearticulat, se poate obţine senzaţia de calm, sau, dimpotrivă, acea senzaţie de abandon care te detaşează de lumea reală atunci când treci prin momente dificile. Dar până la urmă te zbaţi şi lupţi cu stări sufleteşti pe care le ai de învins.

Leadership: Poţi să te conectezi direct la obiectul creaţiei tale printr-un procedeu al asemănării utilizat în procesul de dezvăluire a unei proprietăţi comune prezente atât în cadrul unei imagini, cât şi la obiectul vizat de ea?

Alteori, când mestec guma Orbit, zâmbetul meu pare fals, forţat, distilat cu voioșia neafișată, schiţând o grimasă abia-abia perceptibilă. În acest caz, cred că semăn cu acel personaj de film pe nume Arthur Fleck, alias JOKER, un individ ignorat de societate, cu o personalitate imprevizibilă și fascinantă, care nu poate fi inclus în niciun stereotip. Ce se obține prin procedeul asemănării este un studiu amplu asupra unui personaj disprețuit de societate care devine o poveste moralizatoare.

Mai mult decât atât. Stând de vorbă cu mine însumi, în timp ce mestec guma Orbit, simt că un artist îmi colorează gândurile cu un roşu pal, dar acoperit un grad ridicat de alb. Probabil artistul, măsurându-mi din ochi rotunjimea obrajilor, intuindu-mi pofta de a savura dulcele şi aroma de mentă, încearcă să construiască un declanșator emoțional prin subiectivarea realităţii generată de interacţiunea a trei factori: modelarea, modularea (obţinerea de transparenţe coloristice) şi valoraţia (procedeu artistic datorită căruia se poate reda în pictură iluzia volumului obiectelor prin diferite efecte).

Aşadar, mă privesc în modul în care artistul a ştiut să încifreze sensuri într-o operă de artă. Pur şi simplu m-am format ca model pictural după modul în care arată chipul meu, întrucât el mă defineşte întru totul, iar forma buzelor, colţurile gurii mele influenţează foarte mult aspectul fizionomiei şi expresia. Cu toate astea, cel mai adesea, guma de mestecat Orbit a devenit o îndeletnicire tot mai îndrăgită, această activitate putând fi practicată chiar şi de persoanele care nu au talent la pictură.

Idealul unei creaţii ce culminează într-o idee de „artă" se formează prin conexiunea făcută între modul în care percepi referenţialul "INSIDE" prin asemănare cu un declanşator numit "Simt reprezentativ" care îţi oferă cele mai dese plăceri.

Imaginea obţinută de simţuri într-o imagine adevărată este de fapt un prilej de explorare a sinelui, de căutare a unei identități distincte. Pe această cale, aş dori să menţionez un sfat găsit pe internet: "Foloseşte-te cât mai plenar de simţuri atunci când îţi imaginezi realitatea dorită. Încearcă să o atingi, să o guşti, să o mirosi şi să o auzi în imaginaţia ta, nu doar să o vizualizezi."

Imaginea trandafirului din înaltul unei vârste fără de bătrâneţe

On Iunie 01, 2020

O creaţie nu este totală decât atunci când omul îşi rezervă semnificaţia metafizică a unui destin care trece testul timpului.

Privesc acest trandafir cu candoare, cu aleasă consideraţie, cu ochii blânzi ai unui pictor de poveste, aşa cum m-aş mişca printre tablourile unei istorii îndepărtate reconstituite prin instantaneul unei clipe de rătăcire extras din porunca unui timp străin, imaginar, care nu-mi va aparţine niciodată. Sau, cel puţin nu cu adevărat. Căci nimic nu se aseamănă cu frumuseţea lui, atât de apropiată de reproducerea unui tablou viu, modern, cu un peisaj izvorât din altă viaţă, din altă povestire, dintr-o sursă a fabulosului care cuprinde un destin grandios, o călătorie neprevăzută plină de mistere şi o vocaţie plină de naturaleţe.

Îl privesc cu uimire, cu admiraţie, prin puterea cuvântului Nassegientyum (cuvântul lui Dumnezeu în lumina unei făclii eterne), în încercarea de a cuprinde temperamentul victorios al unui hidalgo pornit în căutarea aproape nebunească a unei noi minuni a lumii, în timpul unui zbor nesfârşit deasupra deşertului. Observ nisipul alb, atât de fin, dar plin de tristeţe, care de milioane de ani cuprinde în fiecare bob al său câte un suflet de martir, dar şi o parte din întregul unei taine ştiute doar de vechii cabalişti. Nimic nu se schimbă în timp, toate vin şi pier, dar deşertul rămâne acelaşi. Piramida lui Khufu, Sfinxul şi Cântecul Harpistului gravat în mormântul de piatră al regelui Antef II, sunt încă la loc de cinste în memoria prezentului.

De atâtea ori am încercat să uit cine sunt, să uit cine am fost, doar ca să trăiesc prin intermediul unui trandafir, să dau totul pentru el, "prima materia", cheia nemuririi, însă nu-l pot conştientiza în lumina unei viziuni moderne, ci numai dominând atmosfera unei alte lumi cuprinsă parcă într-o pictură de Valerie Anne Kelly. El face trimitere spre alte timpuri, spre alte experienţe, spre alte locuri ale deşertului, căci de acolo se trage şi neamul său, cu spini şi cu prestanţă.

Dar nimeni nu ştie de ce există trandafirii şi care este sfârşitul lor într-o creaţie care nu se bazează pe obsesia originalităţii, ci pe vizualizare şi luarea atenţiei de la pretinsa "realitate".

Leadership: Însemnătatea ta în lume începe să capete un sens de împlinire, de realizare, de întreg, prin creşterea tendinţei de receptare a mesajului cuprins într-un destin care transcende timpul, spaţiul şi istoria?

Trandafirul, ceva mai mult decât o istorie, are o însemnătate unică în lume, o subliniere aparte a reputaţiei de a fi impecabil, pentru că el dezvăluie cu claritate puterea acelor egipteni pe care Herodot îi numea "cei mai religioşi oameni". Sunt bucuros că datorită lui, şi potrivit cu adâncimile sufletului meu, cu trupul pe care îl îmbrac cu forţa solară, nu trebuie să mă mai gândesc la viaţă sau la moarte, întrucât amândouă desemnează împlinirea unei creaţii care amestecă voit registrul miraculosului cu cel al supranaturalului.

"Urmează dorinţei tale şi fă-ţi bine ţie însuţi, atâta vreme cât vei trăi", îmi şopteşte pe ascuns glasul de artist al acestei lumii trecătoare, în contextul manifestării unei realităţi mai înalte. Iar ca orice egiptean care respectă cele scrise în cartea Kohelet, trandafirul – însufleţit cu francheţea unui Boccaccio şi cu naturaleţea unui iscoditor al topos-urilor universale, îmi grăieşte mai departe rostul lui în lume: "Am fericit pe cei ce au murit în vremea veche, mai mult decât pe cei vii care sunt acum în viaţă."

Dar nimeni nu se întoarce în deşert doar ca să asculte confesiunile unui destin simţitor, înţelept, înlănţuit de zeul Ra într-o personificare a dorinţei, dar şi a eleganţei supreme, sau într-o personificare a figurilor legendare. Căci nimeni nu-mi cunoaşte trecutul, nimeni nu încearcă să mă privească cu ochi de artist, nimeni nu mă însufleţeşte cu mai multă sensibilitate decât cel ce a trăit mai multe vieţi, ştiindu-se prins între mai multe lumi.

Iată de ce e mai bine ca destinul meu să fie străin de înţelepciunea acestei lumi, căci e mai bine să mă revelez în dosul unei enigme de nepătruns, elucidată doar de vechii cabalişti, şi care ascunde adâncimi pline de durere, pline de bucurie, decât să dau acestei existenţe un sens neobişnuit.

Leadership: Totalitatea gândurilor tale formează imaginea unei creații care își are puncte comune în reprezentarea concepției despre lume și viață în compunerea unui destin livresc?

Chiar dacă am ascultat de cuvintele lui Imhotep sau de vorbele iscusitului povestitor Herdedef, n-am putut să trec cu vederea metehnele oamenilor care îşi trădează sufletul doar ca să obţină o mâncare bună. N-am putut să nu observ culoarea cerului în apus atunci când, după un război, totul se scaldă în sânge. Am văzut animalele cum se hrănesc cu carnea altor animale, viermi ce trăiesc pe seama altor organisme, felul cum se schimbă plantele în funcţie de anotimp.

Pictorul le cuprinde pe toate într-un tablou viu, cu pensula unei raze de lumină care, trecând dintr-un mediu în altul, face ca totul să fie de preţ, să se îmbine perfect şi să capete un sens unitar, mai adânc. Şi aceeaşi pensulă, având în vedere descifrarea substratului simbolic al unei opere cu conţinut spiritual, este contrazisă de ceva potrivnic firescului, fiind din capul locului bruiată de efortul de adâncire a sensului pe care îl capătă termenul Sycretexhium , însumând promisiunea unei fericiri pur imaginare, iluzorii.

Universul şi-a ales zeii. Unul dintre zei şi-a ascuns identitatea sub mantia unui rege pământean, regele şi-a conturat imaginea unui înţelept, iar înţeleptul a îndrăznit să se constituie într-o adevărată minune a naturii. Numai sfinţii ştiu că acesta este secretul Marii Opere. Iar eu sunt mai mult decât un sfânt, sunt un Creator care s-a depăşit pe sine pentru a primi ceea ce universul are şi poate să îi ofere: o stea pe cer şi mult râvnita nemurire.

Faza cea mai spectaculoasă a leadershipului este o călătorie în timp, înseamnă să porneşti pe urmele destinului legendar al omului care a reuşit să supravieţuiască unei vârste fără bătrâneţe datorită înţelegerii lucrurilor care nu se pot interpreta înainte de a se petrece.

Implicarea mea în procesul de „reconstituire” a imaginii unui trandafir din înaltul unei vârste fără de bătrâneţe se relevă, cel mai bine, într-un fragment din romanul Faraonul, scris Boleslaw Prus:

“Înveşmântează-te cât poţi de frumos şi nu îngădui inimii tale să se mâhnească. Căci, aşa e viaţa omului. Plăcerile sunt ca un fel de piscuri, iar suferinţele ca nişte văi prăpăstioase, şi numai toate la un loc alcătuiesc viaţa, ce-i asemenea lanţului zdrenţuit al munţilor libieni, la care ne uităm cu admiraţie. Omul a cărui inimă nu mai bate nu numai că nu se întristează de jalea altuia, dar nici nu se bucură de propria lui viaţă, oricât de frumoasă ar fi ea.

La ce mai slujeşte atunci frumuseţea vieţii, dacă o răscumperi cu dureri şi lacrimi de sânge? îl întreabă preotul Pentuer pe astrologul Menes.

Noaptea se lăsa tot mai mult. Menes se înfăşură în mantie şi răspunse:

- De câte ori te vor năpădi asemenea gânduri, du-te la unul din templele noastre şi priveşte-le pereţii împodobiţi cu chipuri de oameni, animale, arbori, fluvii şi stele aidoma celor din lumea în care trăim. Pentru omul neînvăţat, zugrăvelile acestea nu au nici un preţ şi poate că mulţi s-au întrebat la ce slujesc şi de ce se iroseşte atâta muncă pentru facerea lor. Dar înţeleptul se apropie cu sfinţenie şi, cuprinzându-le cu privirea, citeşte în ele istoria timpurilor vechi şi tainele înţelepciunii."

Aceasta este înţelepciunea mea: Totul se repetă, dar într-o altă versiune, şi se va repeta până ce numărul oamenilor născuţi pe pământ va egala numărul îngerilor căzuţi odinioară din paradis. Îngerii, sau spiritele întrupate ale naturii.

Imaginea trandafirului din înaltul unei vârste fără de bătrâneţe este imaginea unui om care a fost capabil să producă o angajare efectivă într-un univers simbolizat, de a se descoperi în spatele scenariului realist al unui destin de poveste care nu a fost întrerupt de vicisitudinile istoriei.

Imagini în Oglindă

On Mai 14, 2016

Stabileşte condiţia viitoare a fiinţei tale, activând „programarea" mentală de dincolo de experienţa de moment.

Încercam să mă privesc într-o oglindă cu zoom, reflectând selectiv doar lungimea de undă a gândului de care aveam nevoie cel mai mult, o vibraţie a însuşi spaţiu-timpului, printr-o emergenţă puternică, printr-un examen al refracţiei şi al acuităţii vizuale de aproape şi de departe, fără vreo corecţie a impulsului de recunoaştere a realităţii.

Cu mare interes, mă examinam din toate unghiurile posibile, de-a lungul reflexiilor directe, ca o consecinţă a particularităţilor conflictului dintre cunoscutele şi necunoscutele ecuaţiei care mă alcătuia şi a cărei rezolvare se putea desluşi odată cu desfăşurarea propriei mele exteriorităţi, facilitând o înţelegere mai completă a unui anumit mesaj.

Seria de capturi ale imaginilor din oglindă a început încă din timpul când presupuneam că joc rolul unui fizician, unui Griffin, constrâns să trec dincolo de experienţa de moment. Adăugam ceva realităţii prin care percepeam lumea, creând multiple imagini mentale rezultate dintr-o reflexie în densitatea materiei care mă constituia.

Dacă eroul atât de cunoscut al lui Wells, savantul acela de numai douăzeci de ani a descoperit un principiu general al structurii pigmenţilor şi al refracţiei - o formulă, o expresie geometrică cuadridimensională, de ce n-aş fi putut şi eu să fac o astfel de descoperire?

De altfel, ce înseamnă o ecuaţie generală pentru unul care studiază fizica moleculară? Ce înseamnă să reduci indicele de refracţie al unei substanţe solide, până la cel al aerului, fără a modifica nicio proprietate a materiei? Ce informaţie utilă pentru o aplicaţie de transluciditate poartă un corp de masă constantă, definit pe cercul trigonometric al unei suprafeţe refringente?

Leadership: Poți să efectuezi calculul propriei tale unicităţi, extrăgând valoarea unei necunoscute dintr-una din ecuaţiile reflexiei tale în oglindă?

Modul în care mă surprindeam, pierdut într-o mişcare de gândire sub efectul reflexiei, la ceea ce corpul putea să transmită, era continuarea unui mod de a mă cunoaște și comunica cu mine însumi, punând la îndoială teoriile pe care le postulau ceilalţi oameni de ştiinţă. Trăiam o senzaţie de ireal, plutire într-o realitate virtuală. Repetam întruna: Oare nu aş putea să devin invizibil?

Orice formă de conştiinţă, chiar şi artificială, este o rezultantă a diverselor constatări privind transformarea percepţiei despre reflectarea sinelui, într-o ecuaţie data de combinaţii care pot conduce la ecuaţii mai simple sau mai compuse decât cele iniţiale.

Toate laolaltă formau o variantă a experimentului natural, din prisma efemerităţii clipei raportate la o conştiinţă a rostului meu în pragul unei revelaţii majore, doar ca să descopăr vreun amănunt omis, vreo imposibilitate din punct de vedere fizic, vreo unitate de transformare a materiei. Dar totul părea de o normalitate care împiedica dezvoltarea oricăror concluzii, oricărei ştiinţe.

Unicitatea este ceea ce descoperi la tine examinându-ţi gândirea şi încercând s-o controlezi din toate unghiurile posibile ale unui savant care încearcă să revoluţioneze idei vechi de mii de ani, luptând totodată cu preconcepţiile din lumea ştiinţifică.

Pentru calculul propriei mele unicităţi, trebuia să determin una din necunoscute, extrăgându-i valoarea dintr-una din ecuaţiile reflexiei mele în oglindă. Acest tip de experienţă îmi satisfăcea nevoia de cunoaştere pe care o surprinsesem printr-un percorso di analisi di una immagine prelevata dall'osservazione della realta , în căutarea unui răspuns.

Necunoscuta principală din ecuaţiile reflexiei mele în oglindă era însăşi condiţia valabilităţii propriei mele identităţi. Mă vedeam mereu acelaşi, constatam că nu m-am schimbat, dar nu reuşeam să experimentez acea emoţie puternică în faţa unei capodopere care să-mi domine mintea, care să exprime o urmă de genialitate. Tot ce știu este că atunci când mă priveam eram conștient că nu mă aflam sub stăpânirea unei naturi superioare.

Mă simțeam asemenea unui pictor care își analizează percepţiile despre partea de umbră a tabloului prin măsurarea relaţiei dintre natural şi fantastic, dintre firesc-omenesc şi dumnezeiesc, căutând să promoveze diverse noțiuni într-o lucrare suprarealistă, pe tema relaţiei dintre lumile virtuale, tehnologie şi condiţia viitoare a fiinţei umane. Dar care nu poate să simtă dincolo de spațiul tabloului.

Înnoirea gândirii se supune procesului de evaluare a unei noi idei despre lume şi realitate care provoacă manifestările vizibile ale unei imagini de sine îmbogăţită cu valenţe de arhetip.

După cum ne spune dicționarul, arhetipul este acea structură profundă a psihicului, care generează acele imagini simbolice ce condensează un conţinut informaţional extins și guvernează organizarea experienței umane.

Poţi oricând să evoluezi într-o orientare spre acea concepţie perspectivală unde fenomenul de tip „ scrutinizing yourself în a mirror „ se prezintă în ansamblul său ca un fel de dualitate. O dualitate între natura ta firească și nevoia de a-ţi proiecta imaginea în limitele unui unghi care indică direcţia unei cunoaşteri mai înalte, transcendente.

Leadershipul este experienţa de moment în care descoperi importanţa unei noi abordări a realităţii, privită prin prisma unui om de ştiinţă care îşi priveşte imaginea în oglindă şi recunoaşte în ea o altă versiunii a răspunsului la întrebarea: "Cine este Dumnezeu în lumea creată de mine?"

A te privi în oglindă, a-ți cerceta întreaga fiinţă, nu este un proces de formare obişnuit, ci reprezintă o dovadă a preocupării tale permanente, febrile, chiar de o viaţă, de a-ţi lămuri necunoscutele propriei fiinţe, de a-ţi înţelege trăsăturile esenţiale, valoarea ta şi rolul acelei realităţi de dincolo de experiența de moment. Şi dincolo de experienţa prin care percepi lumea.

Imboldul inimii

On Octombrie 11, 2010

Păstrează intactă relaţia ta cu oamenii, dezvăluindu-le acel amănunt din caracterul tău datorită căruia ei să-ţi accepte leadershipul.

Mă simt ispitit - şi nu rezist ispitei de a vă vorbi, în acest senin ceas de toamnă deplină, din nou despre cunoscutul personaj Contele de Monte Cristo, din celebrul roman cu acelaşi nume scris de Alexandre Dumas.

După ce contele şi-a atins scopul – răzbunându-se pe aceia care l-au trimis în închisoare, unde a zăcut mulţi ani - a hotărât să-şi împartă bogăţiile singurilor săi prieteni, Maximillien şi Valentine, şi să-i redea libertatea lui Haydee, fiica conducătorului Ali Pasa, căreia îi salvase viaţa, dar care avea statutul de sclavă.

Cu o tulburare pe care zadarnic încerca s-o ascundă, Monte Cristo o rugă pe Valentine să aibă grijă de Haydee, căci el va pleca departe, iar ea va rămâne singură în lume.

Leadership: Ceea ce te delimitează și te definește ca personalitate trebuie să se piardă pentru a putea trăi o experiență autentică de identificare cu altcineva?

Ceasul marii probe. Auzind acestea, Haydee, căreia contele nu îi simţi în acea clipă prezenţa, păli. Îşi desfăcu mâinile diafane aşa cum fac fecioarele în faţa lui Dumnezeu şi cu o voce în lacrimi îi spuse:

- Bine, poruncile tale vor fi îndeplinite stăpâne. Sunt sclava ta, şi te voi asculta. Îţi voi uita până şi numele şi voi fi fericită. Apoi făcu un pas înapoi şi se pregăti să plece.

La auzul acelui glas îndurerat, care-i atinse corzile cele mai tainice ale inimii, Monte Cristo se înfioră. Ochii lui întâlniră privirea fetei şi nu putu să suporte ceea ce văzu în ochii ei.

- Doamne ! Doamne ! - spuse Monte Cristo – aşadar ar putea fi adevărat ce m-ai lăsat să bănuiesc? Haydee, ai fi fericită dacă nu te-aş părăsi?

- Sunt tânără – răspunse ea cu blândeţe – iubesc viaţa pe care tu mi-ai făcut-o întotdeauna atât de plăcută. Şi mi-ar părea rău să mor… Da, aş muri, stăpâne, aş muri dacă m-ai părăsi. Apoi repezindu-se la pieptul lui, strigă – Da, te iubesc ! Te iubesc, cum mi-aş iubi un tată, un frate, un soţ ! Te iubesc cum îmi iubesc viaţa, cum îl iubesc pe Dumnezeu, căci tu eşti pentru mine mai frumos, mai bun şi mai mare decât toate fiinţele !

Leadership: Rezultatele căutării unui sens existenţial constituie unicul criteriu de evaluare a valorii tale?

Mare dreptate a avut cel care a spus: "Ceea ce te delimitează și te definește ca personalitate trebuie să se piardă pentru a putea trăi o experiență autentică de identificare cu altcineva" . Aminteşte-ţi întotdeauna de tine cum erai înainte să te contopeşti cu rolul unui alt personaj !

Cel mai adesea, în aprecierea valorii de referinţă a unui om, rezultatele sale de căutare a unui sens existenţial constituie unicul criteriu de evaluare. Dar această valoare este deformată deseori de realitatea supusă conjuncturilor întortocheate, unui mix de factori şi situaţii aliniate pe axa conştiinţei ce există independent de reprezentările lumii lăuntrice, în acord fin cu discontinuităţile, pendulările, alternările dintre „ a fi " şi „ a nu fi ".

Sunt însă situaţii complexe, sau răsturnări de situaţie, în care, reuşita parţială sau totală de a intra în posesia unei dovezi de apreciere şi loialitate, poate fi considerată ca un venit necondiţionat de valoare. Asta dacă, atât liderul cât şi susţinătorii săi acordă importanţă şi valoare maturizării spirituale, sentimentale şi intelectuale pe fondul unei acumulări de experienţe descurajatoare.

Liderii, în orice ipostaze ar fi plasaţi şi în orice domeniu de activitate ar fi încadraţi, sunt întotdeauna condiţionaţi de cantitatea de "lumină" din straturile profunde ale sufletului lor, sunt însoţiţi permanent de nevoia de a dezvolta legături emoţionale stabile. Sunt motivaţi de sentimentul apartenenţei necondiţionate la familie în primul rând, apoi la comunitate, trăind experienţe de viaţă care au puterea de transformare pozitivă.

E foarte posibil ca ei să înţeleagă mai bine lumea tocmai prin prisma acestor fenomene de personalizare sau depersonalizare care îi vor pune din nou şi din nou în situaţii diverse până îşi învaţă aceste lecţii de viaţă sănătoase: iertarea, renunţarea la egoism, eliberarea de vechile răni, vindecarea relaţională, impactul pozitiv, recunoştinţa în suflet, toleranţa.

Apartenenţa ta la un cadru mai larg de înţelegere a reciprocităţii se poate efectua împlinind menirea firii tale existenţiale şi abandonând năzuinţa spre ceea ce este mai presus de tine.

Mai presus de tine este efortul de a trece peste ceea ce te răneşte, peste ceea ce te doare, peste ceea ce te face să te distanţezi de adevăratele valori, peste ceea ce te face să te urăşti sau peste cee ace te face să plănuieşti o răzbunare.

Aceste lecţii de viaţă trebuiesc acceptate ca pe un fapt normal, nu neapărat ca adevăruri fundamentale, ci ca o formă de câştig a cărei rezultate mai bune sau mai slabe, care sunt cerute la examenul vieţii sau la concursul de admitere în domeniul conducerii. Notele mici sunt întotdeauna o dovadă clară că transformarea pozitivă a liderului nu s-a produs sau nu s-a desăvârşit. Iar societatea acordă o importanţă mare rezultatelor evoluţiei sale. De aici rezultă caracterul subiectiv în anumite situaţii, al succesului sau nereuşitei în leadership.

Timpul pe care Monte Cristo l-a irosit într-o înfrigurată dorinţă de răzbunare personală, a fost înlocuit de unul care urma să se scurgă "dincolo de rampă", în universul în care îşi afla rostul firesc, cel la care râvnise atât de mult în tinereţea sa, alături de cineva predestinat pare-se pentru viitorul lui fericit.

Dragostea lui Haydee l-a făcut să uite ceea ce trebuia să uite. Un singur cuvânt de-al ei l-a luminat mai mult decât toţi acei ani de înţelepciune căpătată alături de abatele Faria. Prin ea s-a putut simţi iar legat de viaţă, prin ea a putut să fie din nou fericit. Imboldul inimii i-a oferit un alt tărâm ideal, înlocuindu-i concepţiile despre viaţă.

Leadership: Te confrunţi cu existenţa tendinţei de a depăşi graniţele convenţionale impuse de delimitările stricte ale ideii de a vedea totul din perspectiva umilinţei pe care o simţi faţă de tot ceea ce ţi se întâmplă?

Nu vei putea pătrunde niciodată marea taină a leadershipului dacă vei acţiona împotriva propriilor sentimente. În ciuda tuturor reuşitelor tale, chiar dacă ţi-ai cucerit spectatorii, devenind un favorit al lor, dacă nu vei stabili o legătură trainică între tine şi ei vei distruge puntea pe care tu însuşi trebuie să o treci. Nu lăsa, deci, să treacă aceste sentimente, ci pune-le mai des înaintea rolului pe care îl ai de jucat.

Imaginează-ţi că sute, mii de oameni te iubesc. Ei zâmbesc, ochii le strălucesc, le-ai adus bucurie în suflet. Ei te vor, tu le aparţii. Ei îţi dau posibilitatea să-ţi regăseşti trecutul şi să-ţi construieşti un viitor ales, emoţionându-te cu acele nuanţe ale unei sensibilităţi active. Şi îţi inspiră aceeaşi recunoştinţă şi linişte interioară precum le-ai inspirat-o tu. - Asta este dovada certă că au fost orbiţi de lumina iradiată de seducătoarea ta personalitate.

Capacitatea ta de a conduce se vede în reacţiile emoţionale ale celorlalţi oameni din jurul tău. Simţi că prezenţa ta face parte din ei, că este jumătatea lor? Eşti iubit datorită firii tale delicate, datorită spiritului tău receptiv, datorită frumoaselor maniere de a te purta, datorită farmecului aparte al geniului tău, datorită imboldului inimii tale?

Leadershipul surprinde modul cum te raportezi la ceea ce ţi se întâmplă în aşa fel încât recunoştinţa finală să ia locul umilinţei iniţiale.

Imboldul inimii este acel foc răscolitor interior care te reprezintă, care te însoţeşte întotdeauna şi care-ţi afectează existenţa pe toate planurile, personal, social, profesional. Este ceasul marii probe în care stabileşti o legătură trainică cu cei din jurul tău. Este acel ceva care li se imprimă pentru veşnicie în suflet celorlalţi oameni. Este amănuntul din caracterul tău, datorită căruia ei doresc să stea în preajma ta şi chiar să se rezeme pe tine.

Imboldul inimii uneori trebuie să preceadă imboldul minţii ca să pătrunzi marea taină a leadershipului, acţionând în concordanţă cu ceea ce-ţi dictează inima.

Îmbunătăţiţi calitatea angajaţilor

On Martie 30, 2009

Dezvoltă-ţi capacitatea de a privi un proiect din perspectiva clientului pe care-l asişti şi reprezinţi într-un comeniu al cunoaşterii, orientându-l asupra conştientizării posibilităţii de a se transpune în locul tău.

Dacă sunteţi un împătimit al artei fotografice, dacă vă place să lucraţi în programul Photoshop şi sunteţi la curent cu noutăţile, atunci probabil aţi auzit de celebrele cursuri de training "Photoshop Top Secret". Mark Monciardini şi Melanie Stimmell, autorii acestor cursuri, ne arată pas cu pas cum se pot crea grafice de vârf şi efecte speciale sofisticate.

Prin aceste cursuri de training cei doi specialişti în grafică şi design urmăresc să îi ajute pe cei neiniţiaţi în domeniu să-şi dezvolte îndemânarea şi simţul creativ. Folosind un limbaj adecvat, clar şi simplu, ei explică într-un mod cât mai accesibil cum se pot realiza mai uşor lucrurile aparent foarte complicate. Iar prin exerciţiile pe care le propun ei reuşesc să trezească interesul tuturor celor care participă la cursuri. De fapt, aceste cursuri sunt atât de bine structurate şi interesante încât tot mai mulţi împătimiţi ai fotografiei se interesează de ele.

Leadership: Poţi să implementezi o metodă de tipul "Create Your Own Series" care să dea rezultate mai bune în business şi să depăşească competitorii prin adoptarea unei gândiri orientate spre exterior în locul celei orientate spre interior?

În imensa lor majoritate, firmele de mici dimensiuni apelează tot mai des la traineri externi foarte competenţi care să se ocupe de pregătirea şi instruirea personalului în vederea creşterii eficienţei activităţii lui. Astfel de cursuri de training, cum sunt cele pe care le susţin Mark Monciardini şi Melanie Stimmell, sunt foarte căutate mai ales în firmele mici şi mijlocii care au angajaţi fără o experienţă prea mare de lucru în domeniu. Managerii trebuie să aibă certitudinea că angajaţii dispun de toate informaţiile necesare cu privire la oportunităţile de dezvoltare a carierei în cadrul firmei, de aceea apelează la specialişti care să-i instruiască şi să-i ajute să deprindă într-un timp cât mai scurt cunoştinţe şi abilităţi noi.

De fapt, Mark Monciardini şi Melanie Stimmell îşi depăşesc competitorii din zona de design prin faptul că au pus bazele unei gândiri orientate spre exterior în locul celei orientate spre interior. Practic ei nu limitează o cunoaştere doar la propriul lor beneficiu, ci îşi transferă loialitatea, competenţele şi know-how-ul altor companii dornice să răzbată pe piaţă. Totodată, ei implementează o metodă de tipul "Create Your Own Series" după terminarea perioadei de trainig prin care companiile îşi impun să continue dezvoltarea consultanţei în zona de design.

Firmele care rezistă pe piaţa în ciuda unei concurenţe acerbe sunt acelea care se preocupă intens de nivelul pregătirii profesionale a angajaţilor lor. Calitatea angajaţilor şi angajamentul lor faţă de locul de muncă sunt factori critici în supravieţuirea oricărei companii. Din acest motiv, din ce în ce mai mulţi manageri au ajuns să conştientizeze importanţa unei astfel de investiţii - apelarea la serviciile unor traineri foarte bine pregătiţi profesional, care să ofere informaţii, care să "deschidă" minţile oamenilor, care să sprijine şi să faciliteze procesul de învăţare şi dezvoltare.

Companiile au nevoie de angajaţi care să-şi îndeplinească sarcinile într-un mod cât mai eficient, care să-şi ia în serios obiectul muncii, care să pună pasiune în ceea ce fac fără să fie împinşi de la spate şi care să aibă sentimentul utilităţii. De aceea, sarcina managerilor de resurse umane nu se rezumă numai la motivarea şi fidelizarea angajaţilor, ci la a forma o echipă competentă şi eficientă. Apelând la experţi de top ei vor să se asigure că toţi angajaţii vor menţine un nivel ridicat al performanţei şi vor face faţă provocărilor unui mediu relativ incert.

Leadership: Cuantificarea rezultatelor pe care le poţi obţine prin intermediul unei surse exterioare de informare şi consiliere este recomandată atunci când este trebuie estimat impactul potenţial al diferitelor opțiuni de gestionare a valorii personale?

O companie este evaluată în funcţie de calitatea angajaţilor ei, de nivelul de pregătire al acestora şi de gradul lor de experienţă. Din această cauză, atât companiile mari cât şi cele mici şi mijlocii investesc considerabil în dezvoltarea profesională a angajaţilor lor. Cu alte cuvinte, apelarea la serviciile unui trainer sau al unui coach foarte bun este o afacere foarte bună, dar necesită o investiţie mare.

Trainerul poate fi o binecuvântare sau un blestem, o investiţie bună pentru companie sau o pacoste pentru ea. Având în vedere că în fiecare zi apar pe piaţă noi firme de training şi consultanţă, care mai de care mai specializate, mai scumpe sau mai iefine, găsirea unui trainer foarte bun nu este chiar uşoară. Iar acum, odată cu declanşarea crizei, companiile nu-şi pot permite să investească timp şi bani în instruire de proastă calitate.

Instruirea este orientată în principal spre îmbunătăţirea performanţelor angajaţilor pentru postul lor actual şi creşterea eficienţei acestora. Un bun trainer trebuie să fie un expert în domeniu care să le poată explica angajaţilor într-un mod cât mai simplu cum se pot rezolva sarcinile cele mai grele. Fără umbră de îndoială îndatorirea lui este să trezească interesul angajaţilor pentru munca pe care o desfăşoară, ajutându-i să-şi dezvolte îndemânarea şi simţul creativ, familiarizându-i cu noi tehnici de lucru.

Impactul potenţial al diferitelor opțiuni de gestionare a valorii personale depinde de nivelul tău de experienţă în gestiunea şi personalizarea unor concept unice, dar şi de forța portofoliului de active, investiţii şi servicii, pe care compania ta îl are alocat în indexul pieţei.

În concluzie: Capitalul cel mai important al oricărei companii este dat de angajaţii ei. Cu cât sunt mai pricepuţi, cu atât sunt mai dornici să muncească şi activitatea lor este mai eficientă.

Investiţi deci în calitatea angajaţilor dumneavoastră şi sprijiniţi-i să-şi îmbunătăţească performanţele.

Imensa eroare a lui Richard Wagner

On Iulie 03, 2014

Dedică-te cu totul unei arte remarcabile, fără să-ţi deprecieзi ştiinţa sau să o scufunzi într-o lipsă de sens.

După părerea lui Nietzsche, compozitorul Richard Wagner a debutat cu o imensă eroare ... s-a dedicat necugetat, dar cu bună-credinţă unei arte cu cea mai revoltătoare structură, anume acelei forme de artă care-şi vede ţelul numai în "smulgerea succesului de la public", folosindu-se de toate mijloacele artistice destinate acestui scop. Tocmai pe acest drum a ajuns însă Wagner la conştientizarea greşelii sale, la conştientizarea sterilităţii acestui drum şi a lipsei lui de sens, deoarece a sesizat, în disperarea izvorâtă din greşeala recunoscută, esenţa mincinoasă a succesului modern, a publicului modern, a întregii arte moderne.

Sentimentul dezamăgirii şi al căinţei l-au condus pe Richard Wagner la conştientizarea treptei intermediare a dezvoltării sale spirituale. Treaptă pe care Nietzsche o desemnează, spre deosebire de cea anterioară şi de cea posterioară, în două cuvinte: "Wagner a devenit un revoluţionar al societăţii." *****

Leadership: Ce însemnătate poţi da unei existenţe individuale care este ea însăşi rezultatul efectelor de "slow motion" într-un spaţiu al artei în care forma, fondul şi sensul se întrepătrund într-un barometru al interesului publicului?

Prin majorarea capitalului de cunoaştere, care uneşte elementele vechi şi noi pentru a forma altele mai evoluate, într-o matrice a ideilor maturizate, a inovaţiilor alimentate de acelaşi izvor al revelaţiilor, se încearcă susţinerea de fapt a unei poziţii de autoritate în ceea ce priveşte performanţa în realizarea creaţiilor ştiinţifice. Arta nu este doar un privilegiu de a-ţi uni sentimentele într-un singur loc, ci mai mult este un privilegiu de a vedea noi perspective de dezvoltare spirituală care să-ţi confere un anumit statut social.

Iar omul care nu poate face deosebire clară între ştiinţă şi pseudo-ştiinţă, neglijând orice punere în aplicare a experienţei, care trebuie să înceapă cu cercetări asidue şi formulări de noi concluzii constructive, va suferi o anumită înfrângere tocmai din cauza limitelor ştiinţei pe care o iubeşte. În el se va instala sentimentul dezamăgirii şi al căinţei, dacă concepţiile proprii sunt invalidate de ceilalţi şi dacă valorile acestora devin restricții pentru diferite domenii sau modele de gândire.

Greşeala unui artist poate consta în faptul că îşi uită menirea de a direcţiona, îndruma şi influenţa cunoaşterea pe care o pe care o dovedeşte în stabilirea unor distincţii conceptuale, în favoarea dorinţei de a epata. A ajunge la conştientizarea greşelii tale, la conştientizarea sterilităţii acestui drum al dezvoltării şi a lipsei lui de sens, în disperarea izvorâtă din greşeală recunoscută, este consecinţa unei carenţe de perspectivă sau a unei subaprecieri a creaţiei personale.

În ceea ce priveşte leadershipul, efectul de "slow motion" se referă tocmai la această încetinire, din propria inițiativă, a ritmului de dezvoltare, datorat dezechilibrelor în inversarea condiţiilor de exploatare a ştiinţei deja existente - în folosul obţinerii unor cât mai multe "aplauze". Omul care îşi cunoaşte limitele talentului propriu nu investeşte timp într-o nouă formă de interacţiune cu publicului decât ca modalitate de a se înţelege pe sine însuşi, de a se autoevalua prin comparaţie cu reacţia publicului.

Aşadar, elaborarea unor noi metode de creaţie este o cerinţă a evoluţiei artei, dar totodată presupune o staţionare în aşteptarea unei reacţii din partea publicului. Iar mai important este să realizezi o versiune a modului de a te regândi şi de a reforma versiunea proprie de a fi inteligent şi sclipitor, decât să ridici valoarea propriei imagini în ochii celorlalţi.

Leadership: Valorifici sau elimini erorile de explorare a unor noi forme de inovare formate în baza năzuinţei de a oferi publicului larg o imagine completă asupra fenomenului "stimulus-response"?

Deseori aceşti artizani ai compoziţilor ştiinţifice, în loc să-şi sprijine creaţiile pe datele cercetărilor obţinute, ei debutează cu imense erori de explorare a unor noi forme de inovare, tatonări nesigure şi anevoioase, încercări, eşecuri, staţionări, într-o zonă care nu garantează un aport ştiinţific garantat.

Ei se dedică cu bună credinţă unei arte care îşi vede scopul numai în obţinerea de efecte artistice şi tehnice prin metode cu totul noi, îmbinând deseori realitatea cu fantasticul. Iar asta nu-i face doar "revoluţionari", ci de asemenea propagandişti, a căror miză este orgoliul de a fi în control, de a fi superiori, de a atinge succesul maxim.

Inovaţia nu trebuie să fie un instrument de a controla ştirile destinate publicului larg, ci este mai degrabă o demnostratie de virtute în a-ţi impune să faci nişte lucrări la un anumit standard oferit doar de cel care acordă garanţia unei aspiraţii ideale de factură pur stiiitifica şi culturală.

O mare dezorientare, o lipsă de sens a procesului de autoperfecţionare, sunt factorii negativi care determină sau influenţează caracteristicile de rezistenţă a personalităţii liderului, a raţiunii sale de a privi toate "feţele" ştiinţei într-o manieră obiectivă sau subiectivă. Leadershipul intervine în această ecuaţie a efectelor, a cauzelor şi riscurile lor, care poate să deprecieze ştiinţa sau să o scufunde într-o lipsă de sens, dacă utilizatorul ei cade pradă anxietăţii. Cine îşi îngrijeşte mai mult orgoliul decât conştiinţa, greşeşte enorm, ajungând în cele din urmă să se dispreţuiască.

Fenomenul "stimul-răspuns" vizează evaluarea capacităţii artistului de a gestiona corespunzător echilibrul dintre ceea ce expune în faţa întregii lumi (ca entitate de cultură şi educaţie) şi ceea ce trebuie să accepte ca "dezamăgire" atunci când i se refuză afirmarea meritelor datorită tendinţei sale de a epata.

Imensa eroare a lui Richard Wagner vizează posibilitatea de a greşi şi de a eşua într-un domeniu de activitate cum este leadershipul, dacă scopul urmărit este numai succesul temporar, fără a aduce o contribuţie esenţială şi revoluţionară, demnă de adoptat şi de urmat, la înnoirea unei viziuni care să întâmpine preocupările oamenilor faţă de artă.

Îmi place casa dumneavoastră

Experimentează forme noi de control asupra componentelor stimulative ale realităţii, astfel încât să produci o corespondenţă eficientă între aspiraţii şi realizarea de sine.

Îmi place casa dumneavoastră şi n-aş fi crezut asta. Sunt şi eu puţin cam demodat, ceea ce se cheamă niţel cam cârcotaş. Îmi plac casele vechi, clădirile vechi. Nu-mi plac cutiile de chibrituri care se tot ridică peste tot. Cutii mari. Stupi uriaşi. Mie îmi plac clădirile cu ceva ornamente pe ele, cu o anumită graţie.

Dar casa asta îmi place. Este simplă şi foarte modernă, presupun, dar are stil şi e luminoasă. Şi când te uiţi afară, vezi lucrurile altfel decât le vedeai înainte. *

Leadership: Ţi-ai format o viziune asupra a ceea ce vrei să obţii în plus faţă de ceea ce ai, sub aspectul unei realităţi care continuă să arate mereu o altă perspectivă a ei?

În zona de "venituri" a leadershipului, dacă măsori exact ceea ce vrei cu adevărat să obţii din propriile tale investiţii în tot ceea ce îţi place, trebuie mai întâi să ai viziunea asupra a ceea ce vrei să obţii în plus faţă de ceea ce ai.

Iar a-ţi forma o viziune asupra a ceea ce vrei să obţii în plus faţă de ceea ce ai, sub aspectul unei realităţi care continuă să arate mereu o altă perspectivă a ei, înseamnă de fapt să recunoşti factorul declanşator al unei intrigi, al unei dorinţe inexplicabile de a te reinventa într-o manieră estetică (care este placută ochilor decât interesului financiar).

Dar, mai ales, trebuie să ştii care este limita dincolo de care această plăcere se poate diminua într-o proporţie covârşitoare. Este vorba de acea limită perceptivă asupra unei realităţi care pune presiune pe tine şi nu asigură compatibilitatea cu normele de amortizare a „mijlocului fix": consecvenţa în a-ţi tempera dorinţele.

Leadershipul se dezvoltă atunci când experimentezi noi şi diferite senzaţii de control asupra componentelor stimulative ale realităţii, printr-o înţelegere mai profundă şi mai utilă a nevoilor tale de împlinire. Ceea ce îţi permite să vezi lucrurile altfel decât le vedeai înainte. Tu eşti centrul leadershipului, iar oamenii te urmează în funcţie de ceea ce este mai important pentru tine, în funcţie de cum vezi tu lucrurile şi în funcţie de aspiraţiile care îţi alimentează ţelurile.

Leadership: Aspiraţiile tale pot produce un efect de "alteraţie" asupra autorităţii tale interioare, prin comparaţie cu oferta de vânzare a unei case cu aspect estetic unic?

Cum îţi creezi propriile aşteptări? Simţi că un anumit lucru ţi se potriveşte cel mai bine, că este numai al tău şi nimic nu poate schimba asta? Aceasta este o abordare care aduce o creştere a cererii pentru tot ceea ce este benefic fiinţei tale, ceea ce înseamnă că ai o atitudine sănătoasă prin trăirea sentimentului de realizare.

Poate de aceea scriitorul Anthony Silard, preşedintele organizaţiei " The Center for Social de Leadership ", îşi îndeamnă călduros cititorii să-şi investească energia în căutarea intrinsecă a punctului de congruenţă dintre gânduri şi sentimente.

Fiindcă evoluţia modelului tău de a te percepe în administrarea unei noi aprecieri a direcţiilor de explorare a realitatii pe plan estetic (contabilizată ca o ajustare a propriilor trăiri la imperativele momentului) se datorează capacităţii tale de a accepta o anumită "ofertă" care se potriveşte propriei percepţii asupra situaţiei existente.

Această "ofertă" este în concordanţă cu ceea ce simţi că-ţi satisface nevoile, un sentiment de înrudire şi legătură apropiată cu tot ceea ce te înconjoară, conferind valoare propriei tale vieţi.

Concentrându-te asupra valorilor lucrurilor în înţelegerea, cu credinţă şi recunoştinţă că vei trage foloase de pe urma investiţiilor tale, materiale sau de altă natură, îţi vei putea asuma acea viziune şi acele aspiraţii personale care nu produc un efect de "alteraţie" asupra autorităţii tale interioare.

Din prisma esteticii unei case, leadershipul se prezintă ca o nevoie de a trage folos dintr-un lucru de calitate care te poate ajuta în atingerea unicităţii dorite, oferindu-ţi o nouă viziune asupra a ceea ce înseamnă o imagine învechită raportat la ce oglindeşte o nouă realitate.

Îmi place casa dumneavoastră scoate în evidenţă acea compatibilitate între ceea ce eşti, ceea ce simţi şi ceea ce poţi realiza, adaptându-te la "ofertele" pieţei. Lucru ce impune analizarea realităţilor sub mai multe aspecte, încât să poţi obţine o corespondenţă între aspiraţii, unicitate şi realizarea de sine.

Iminenţa unei revelaţii mai înalte

Examinează mijloacele de a susţine viitorul asumării unui nou statut, prin fundamentarea valorică a opţiunilor de livrare a realităţii.

Numai spaţiul acela închis între etern şi efemer, el însuşi o sumă a contrastelor, îmbinând armonios realul cu irealul ca nişte meteori care se mistuie pentru a lumina universul, îşi putea modifica consistenţa sub dimensiunea subiectivă a interpretării, prin acţiunea directă a legilor imprevizibilului. Nu prea ştiam de ca să mă leg ca să pot întrezări o raţiune nouă a existenţei.

Legi abstracte, pe care eu însumi le stabileam cu avântul imaginaţiei creatoare, deosebit de fecunde, prin modul de formulare a întrebărilor fără răspuns, dar din care se năştea o direcţie singulară – a înţelegerii pătrunzătoare, puse în slujba unei tentaţii intelectuale irezistibile. Păream virusat de ravagiile unei nebunii tot mai extinse, asemenea unui om care uită de condiţia sa trecătoare pe acest pământ.

Fireşte, ca să învârt toate rotiţele acelea invizibile care făceau ca mecanismul subtil al creaţiei să transforme gândul în realitate, prin asocieri între mai multe concepte distincte, trebuia să sondez limitele fantasticului referenţial, subminând convenţiile raţiunii care se sprijină doar pe certitudini. Orientativ, trebuia să ţin seama de sensul curentului de declanşare a diferenţialului la însumarea forţelor fictive de întâlnire, într-un circuit logic care utiliza combinaţii potrivite de porţi de tipul Şi-Sau-Nu.

Se povesteşte că lui Nicolas Flamel i-a apărut în somn un înger ţinând o carte frumos împodobită, în care era notată o dedicaţie scrisă de Abraham Iudeul poporului evreu. Îngerul i-a spus viitorului alchimist: „ Iată această carte din care nu pricepi nimic. Pentru mulţi alţii ca tine ea va rămâne de neînţeles. Dar tu vei vedea într-o zi ceea ce nimeni altcineva nu va putea. "

Când încerci să forţezi o revelaţie mai înaltă decât toată înţelepciunea şi creaţiunea care se cer a fi folosite la adevărata lor valoare pentru a putea fi transmise peste veacuri, este esenţial să vezi ceea ce încă nu există.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi însuşeşti arta unui creator care şi-a asumat contradicţiile topindu-le într-un Sine care, departe de-a fi abstract, se plasticizează prin asocieri inedite cu materia unei noi înţelegeri a nebuniei?

Recurgerea la forma de viitor a experienţei de utilizare a ştiinţei, văzută ca purtătoare a unei revelaţii mai înalte, anticipând continuarea procesului de transformare a realităţii într-un mod care să-ţi cizeleze identitatea şi modelul de gândire, este una din condiţiile ca leadershipul să atingă pragul de absolut şi să poată concura cu domeniile care au potenţialul de a se redefini şi reinventa.

Răsplata corectă a unei nebunii tot mai extinse se poate concretiza într-un randament foarte ridicat al productivităţii, oferind un plus de valoare potenţialului tău de transformare într-un agent al schimbării. Un fel de proces conştient şi interpretabil al construcţiei de inedit susţinute într-un fel logic, suportabil şi accesibil nevoilor tale de adaptare la noile cerinţe ale performanţei ridicate la înălţimea genialităţii.

Nebunia pare a fi nu soi de lărgire a dimensiunii Eului prin asimilarea conținuturilor refulate în inconștient, care sunt scoase la lumină datorită participării la spectacolul unei surprinzătoare alternative asupra realităţii. Ea are şi un rol de generator de idei şi tematici corelative la promisiunea unei ieşiri din "Matrix", cu o îmbunătăţire a vederii din alte unghiuri decât cele impuse de criteriile obiectivităţii.

Acceptând existenţa unei fascinaţii a nebuniei din care decurge orice interogație, ca şi multitudinea de răspunsuri, trebuie să acceptăm, lucru probat şi de incursiunile într-un posibil imaginar eclectic, o anumită condiţionare: devenim atenţi numai la ceea ce răspunde unor trebuinţe ale naturii noastre. Dar, totodată putem vorbi de menţinerea conştiinţei în tiparele unei alte realităţi, alternative ori paralele, ca un fel de unitate a ştiinţei de a fi singura modalitate de descifrare a complexităţii lumii.

Leadership: Poţi să introduci noi parametri de configurare în sistemul „safe" al ştiinţei tale, pe baza valorii determinate a proiecţiei extinse a raţiunii?

Ceea ce depăşeşte cu mult până şi cel mai rafinat mod de înţelegere umană, acea artă a prelucrării revelaţiilor, poate deveni un catalizator al producerii viitorului, un catalizator al unei identităţi mult mai complexe, prin evidenţierea relaţiei dintre ştiinţa avansată şi inteligenţa abstractă. Sau mai exact, a relaţiei dintre ideea care devine reprezentativă în plan fizic şi mijloacele ei de a susţine un viitor al asumării lucide al unui nou statut, prin fundamentarea valorică a opţiunilor de livrare a realităţii.

Aici leadershipul indică altceva decât un proces avansat de gândire prin care se identifică caracteristicile limitelor depăşite prin forţa cunoaşterii născute din imaginaţie. El indică acea percepţie a separării de sursa şi centrul realităţii care te reprezintă şi apropierii de o realitate care poate fi cunoscută numai ştiinţific, mai mult aprioric. Indică acea intimă înţelegere a rolului tău de lider în contextul unui model de advancement, pus sub controlul unui raţionament intuitiv, dobândind prin aceasta noi semnificaţii ale descoperirii şi cultivării sinelui.

A introduce noi parametri de configurare în sistemul „safe" al ştiinţei tale, pe baza valorii determinate a proiecţiei extinse a raţiunii, este echivalent cu a creiona un nou tablou al realităţii, întors cu un ochi către ceva nou din viitor, fără să-ţi afecteze negativ modul de procesare a informaţiei, folosind la maxim toate acele însuşiri ale intelectului care, fiind cu adevărat utile dezvoltării, pot face din tine un exemplu al excepţionalităţii.

Revelaţia "nebuniei" care te ţine în priză este similară cu imersarea într-un imaginar care plasează Eul în coordonate unei intrigi încărcată de materia unei raţiuni care se face mai sigură şi înaltă prin sprijinul ce-l primeşte de la credinţa în existenţa unei alte realităţi.

Iminenţa unei revelaţii mai înalte evidenţiază încercarea de a evada dintr-un un prezent derutant, lipsit de perspectivă. Este un pretextul de a face în mod convenabil legătura între ştiinţă, înţelepciune şi creaţiune la formarea viitorului - fapt ce susţine potenţialului tău de transformare într-un agent al schimbării.

Imobilitatea neliniştitoare a lui Jack Crawford

Pune-ţi la încercare capacitatea de a practica o deschidere spre noi orizonturi de cunoaştere de sine, astfel încât evoluţia ta să nu stea sub semnul deznodământului nefast.

Furtuna exasperării se dezlănţuie cu o forţă de nestăvilit asupra lui Jack Crawford care conduce " The Behavioral Science Unit" din cadrul FBI. O zguduitură lăuntrică este urmată de zgomotul formidabil al frecării dintre elemente și energia adunată în unica fază a luptei cu gândurile negative. Datorate incapacităţii de a face faţă cazului spinos "Buffolo Bill". Criminalul acesta nevăzut, necunoscut, neştiut este în căutare de noi victime. Şi toată vina cade asupra celui care conduce investigaţia.

Întreaga prestaţie şi evoluţie a lui Jack Crawford pare a sta tot mai mult sub semnul deznodământului nefast. Mai este el oare persoana calificată pentru această misiune de identificare a tipului uman bolnav care dezavantajează societatea? Mai poate el oare să pătrundă nepătrunsul, să stabilească oscilaţiile de manifestări şi formulele comportamentale ale fantomei criminale care bântuie cu neruşinare, cu intriga ei, cu puterea ei ieşită din comun, prin toate locurile?

Toată priceperea lui Crawford în criminalistică şi în profilage basé sur l'analyse de l'esprit stă parcă închisă în trei manuscrise, mereu recitite şi reevaluate: biblia faptelor, biblia indiciilor şi biblia artei lor, scoţând în prim plan vrednicia aparte a instinctelor sale, a soluţiilor adoptate şi a efectelor lor. Dar aceste biblii trebuiesc constant interpretate, eliminând neadevărurile sau greşelile accidentale. Căci nimic nu se leagă în cazul acesta. Ca un savant al artei, el trebuie să adune elementele izolate, să le ordoneze, să le amestece, să le distileze, practicând un fel de chimie a soluţiilor şi combinaţiilor.

Când Buffalo Bill loveşte în toiul nopţii, totul se cutremură în Crawford, pare a fi atins de un fier roşu, simţind un fior trecându-i prin tot corpul. Vestea cade ca o secure deasupra capului său. Cuvintele generalului Alexander Suvorov par să-i bată cu putere în minte: " Nu ştiu alt chip de a recunoaşte pe inamic decât mergând la dânsul şi bătându-l ! " Dar unde se ascunde inamicul? Cine este el, de fapt?

Leadership: Poţi creşte impactul dintre ceea ce te aștepți să-ţi furnizeze realitatea și ceea ce ți se oferă integrat în lupta cu tine însuţi sub aspectul trăirii unei stări de conștiință extinsă?

Să experimentezi o stare de conştiinţă extinsă înseamnă să trăieşti în mod direct evenimentele ca şi cum tu ai fi cel care le declanşează şi care are de suferit de pe urma lor. Singurul aspect care te face să întrebi "de unde vin toate problemele şi necazurile" este impactul realităţii asupra minţii tale care poate crea impresia de nebunie.

În derutantul joc al căutării, în Crawford se stârneşte o panică de nestăvilit, de parcă ar aştepta înfricoşat dezlănţuirea unui cataclism. El pare a fi prins în menghina apăsătoarelor abordări ale aspectelor psihologice. Numai prin legarea în paralel a mai multor "rezistori" de înaltă precizie pe porţiunea de circuit între promptitudine, rigurozitate şi pragmatism, el mai poate să-şi îndrepte ancheta spre o direcție bună. Şi să ajungă la nişte concluzii relevante.

Devastator ! În subteranul minţii sale se înregistrează modificări ale concentraţiei de stimuli care nu mai asigură dozajul de idei pentru soluţionarea cazului. Nucleul sistemului său intern de operare nu mai poate utiliza noi resurse. Toată informaţia necesară reglării funcţionalităţii pare că se degenerează. Capacităţile îi sunt cuprinse într-o regiune de sine stătătoare, pierzându-şi vitalitatea. Faţă în faţă cu realitatea derutantă i-ar fi preferabilă o recunoaştere a faptelor clare, căutând să gândească independent, să fie responsabil şi să aibă încredere în forţele proprii.

Dar el nu poate duce spre împlinire acest drum imperfect al cercetării. Şi atunci lupta se dă în interior. Are loc o ruptură între două feluri de a " a fi " care nu poate fi reparată aşa uşor. Un gol în zidul ştiinţei. O discrepanţă între două maniere diferite de aborda psihologia şi personalitatea umană. Debusolat, Crawford pare să intre într-o spirală necontrolată a incapacităţii de a pune în lumină și a reconstitui capitalul propriu de eficienţă, necesar pentru a susţine modul de aplicare a propriei experienţe.

Leadership: Permiţi sistemului tău de funcţionare să intre în modul "Standby" pe linia puterii supreme a discernământului de a vedea vremelnicia lumii şi nimicnicia omului prin prisma unui singur subiect dominant?

Conştiinţa lui Jack Crawford se manifestă pe fondul încercării de a discerne între discernământul nefast al cercetărilor sale şi impactul unui mesaj filtrat din partea realităţii pe care o trăieşte intens: "Nu poţi fi sigur de ceea ce afli ! "

Subiectul dominant care îl încearcă şi aproape că îl copleşeşte nu este prinderea lui Buffalo Bill, ci scăparea lui din zona de întuneric a minţii umane pe care o experimentează ca pe un blocaj existenţial.

Prin realizarea de profiluri bazate pe analiza minţii şi printr-o combinaţie de criterii, se poate măsura cât de mult va fi acţionată fiecare regulă în parte din mecanismul de progres al omului. În acest caz, leadershipul vizează acea situaţie aparte ce poate interveni pe parcursul partidei omului cu el însuşi. Atunci când contradicţiile dintre solicitările externe şi posibilităţile interne, prin activarea lor, împiedică dezvoltarea potenţialului şi formarea acelor strategii ce pot veni în folosul activităților intelective.

A porni automat procesul de schimbare sau de refacere a ansamblului de particularităţi care fac din tine o fiinţă unică, mai ales atunci când sistemul tău de funcţionare intră în modul "Standby", este mai mult o corvoadă şi o muncă lăuntrică extenuantă. Căci, în acest caz, dacă nu există o abordare care poate păstra percepţia unităţii, elementele care contribuie la structura gândirii nu mai pot fi plasate într-o zonă continuă de dezvoltare. De aceea întreaga prestaţie şi evoluţie a ta va sta sub semnul deznodământului nefast.

Coach-ul şi autorul englez Julian Russell atrăgea atenţia: " Minţile liderilor caută mereu noi modalităţi de a exploata propriile abilităţi distinctive. Dar nu fac din agilitatea mentală o resursă la care se poate apela atunci când lucrurile nu sunt tocmai roz. "

Aceasta este doar o infimă părticică din ceea ce îi defineşte pe lideri, nefiind în toate cazurile valabilă. Căci nu suportă şi complexitatea pe care o implică activităţile de prevenire şi protecţie din faza greu de depăşit a luptei cu gândurile negative, datorate incapacităţii de a face faţă realităţii interioare.

Leadershipul este acea parte din existenţa omului care se desfăşoară sub presiunea convingerii că tot ceea ce încerci să afli despre mersul lumii şi despre aspectele ei cele mai lăudabile sunt de fapt reflexia în oglindă a autorităţii pe care o reprezinţi.

Imobilitatea neliniştitoare a lui Jack Crawford desemnează lipsa acelei flexibilităţi concordante cu situaţiile neprevăzute care au continuitate, luând forme noi cu un impact negativ asupra desfăşurării unei existenţe normale.

A preveni orice lovitură sub centură înseamnă să fii permanent cu un pas înaintea adversarului lăuntric - prin dezvoltarea personală profesională continuă, dar şi a capacităţilor de analiză şi sinteză. Şi, dacă e posibil, a acelei capacităţi de anticipare a oricărui regres de natură funcţională şi a oricărui „atac” de natură psihică.

Impasul minţilor sclipitoare

Foloseşte-te de experienţa de lucru ca de o pârghie pentru transformarea care te defineşte, dând sens şi unificând armonios întregul tău potenţial de producere a resurselor de creaţie originale.

Suntem scriitori şi niciodată nu ne întrebăm unul pe altul de unde ne vin ideile. Ştim că nu ştim. Pe atunci mă jucam de un an sau chiar mai mult cu ideea de a scrie o cărţulie despre arta scrisului, dar întârziam momentul pentru că nu aveam încredere în propria motivaţie. De ce voiam să scriu despre scris? Ce mă făcea să cred că am ceva demn de spus?

Primul răspuns care-ţi vine în minte e că un tip care a vândut atât de multe cărţi de ficţiune, cum e cazul meu, trebuie să aibă ceva demn de spus despre cum le-a scris, însă primul răspuns e întotdeauna cel corect. Colonelul Sanders a vândut o mulţime de pui prăjiţi, dar nu sunt sigur că ar vrea cineva să ştie cum a făcut-o.

Dacă aveam de gând să fiu atât de înfumurat încât să le spun oamenilor cum să scrie, simţeam că trebuie să existe un motiv mai bun decât succesul meu la public. Altfel spus, nu voiam să scriu o carte, chiar şi una ca aceasta, care să mă facă să mă simt fie ca un fanfaron literar, fie ca un nemernic transcendental. Deja există destule cărţi de felul ăsta şi scriitori de felul ăsta pe piaţă, mulţumesc frumos. *****

Leadership: Este timpul să-ţi revizuieşti modul de abordare a construirii unei experienţe de "consum" intelectual, încât să-ţi duci capodopera într-un punct în care poţi controla realitatea care te înconjoară?

Dacă nu dispui de mijloacele artistice necesare pentru a efectua o anumită sarcină, sub povara combinaţiilor şi construcţiilor aşa zis-ului progres caracterizat prin acumularea de cunoaştere, dacă nu ai nicio experienţă personală în identificarea valorii pe care o aduci operei tale, atunci leadershipul nu se va putea concretiza într-o investiţie cu potenţial ridicat de profitabilitate.

O cheltuială de tip "compromis", reprezentând o resursă avansată şi consumată în prezent pentru a obţine efecte viitoare, este absolut esenţială pentru obţinerea unei mai bune perspective în ceea ce priveşte implementarea unei anumite orientări spre productivitate şi rezultate. Este vorba de compromisul cu realitatea celorlalţi oameni pe care eşti dispus să o reprezinţi printr-o capodoperă care pune în valoare ideea de "alternativă de nonconformism" aparţinând unei minţi sclipitoare ce uimeşte lumea prin ce poate să facă, dar şi prin calea urmată.

Probabil, acesta este cel mai important ingredient necesar în construirea unui fundament de calitate superioară, o puternică direcţie a leadershipului nou, în cadrul unui intens efort de creaţie, pe baza căruia vei obţine o mai bună raportare între satisfacţie şi motivaţie. Transformarea care îl defineşte pe un lider se înscrie în tentativa de a da propriei capodopere o semnificaţie "de a fi înainte", "a fi deasupra", încât tot ceea ce face el să confirme o minte sclipitoare, subtilitate în conturare realităţii, meticulozitate în a aşeza lucrurile pentru a crea un decor cât mai de poveste.

Capodopera unui artist poate fi alternativa unei lumi clonate după viaţa reală, poate fi strâns legată de dobândirea progresivă a unei cunoaşteri tot mai complexe, poate fi manifestarea unei forme de inteligenţă, a unei abilităţi, a unei șmecherii, poate fi strâns legată de experienţa în mânuirea informaţiei, de experienţa în lucrul cu brandurile din numeroase domenii de activitate, etc. Important este ceea ce scoţi in evidenţă prin ceea ce exprimi, prin forma pe care o dai creaţiei personale.

În leadership, experienţa de consum echivalează cu întocmirea versiunii autentice a unei capodopere care poate fi oricând "reactivată şi reactualizată" încât să susţină acea interpretare a realităţii care devine cadrul de motivaţie şi de acţiune a celorlalţi oameni.

Să ştii să te foloseşti de tine, de experienţa de lucru de care dispui, ca de o pârghie pentru transformarea care te defineşte, ce corespunde dinamicii tale, dând sens şi unificând armonios întregul tău potenţial de producere a resurselor de creaţie originale. Pentru asta găseşte-ţi un motiv mai bun decât acela de a câştiga de partea ta publicul. Revizuieşte-ţi modul de abordare a construirii unei experienţe de "consum" intelectual.

Într-adevăr. Poţi însă merge şi mai departe cu alegerea ta. Re-crearea şi re-întrebuinţarea trecutului experienţei tale de muncă, alături de experienţa de transformare, vor fi doar unii dintre factori care vor determina diferenţa dintre motivare şi nemotivare. Sunt sfere de experienţă întru totul diferite, a căror explorare o începi încă din momentul în care te angajezi într-un nou proces de valorificare a potenţialului propriu, sau de valorificare a proprietăţii intelectuale. De fapt, cred că toţi ne îndreptăm spre această valorificare pe multiple şi rapide căi.

A-ţi duce capodopera într-un punct în care poţi controla realitatea care te înconjoară înseamnă să aplici cunoaşterii tale acea caracteristică de care oamenii au nevoie cel mai mult: motivaţia de a se folosi de semnificaţia ei pentru a-şi satisface ambiţiile de a reformula lumea. Şi de a-şi promova propriile calităţi.

Impasul unei minţi sclipitoare scoate în evidenţă acea lipsă de motivaţie în a face ceva nou în plan profesional, care urmăreşte orice performer pe parcursul evoluţiei sale. Până în punctul în care ori îşi pierde complet interesul, ori îşi adună forţele pentru o nouă luptă pe frontul deschis al progresului personal.

Imperiul magicianului

On Noiembrie 24, 2010

Creează un efect puternic de rezonanţă, printr-o apropiere mai strânsă de acele elemente de referinţă care conferă leadershipului tău esenţă şi influenţă.

La un spectacol de magie. Eram pătruns de ideea că avea să fie palpitant – şi chiar a fost – am avut parte de o atmosferă incendiară, plină de stil, plină de emoţii, în care se îmbinau fantezia debordantă şi interpretarea deosebită.

Magicianul căpătase înfăţişarea unei fiinţe desprinse parca din romanele lui Raymond E. Feist. M-a intrigat mai mult decât orice fiindcă radia o atitudine fermă, de genul: "Sunt exact ceea ce vedeţi." Înalt, impunător, cu privirea înflăcărată. Nu purta mască, precum alţi magicieni. Cu toate acestea nimeni nu cred că putea să pătrundă firea lui adevărată, nu era genul de tip care să-şi dezvăluie cu uşurinţă gândurile tainice şi sentimentele.

Nu vreau să relatez momentul apariţiei sale pe scenă – cu totul neobişnuit, purtând toiagul "dreptăţii" în mâna dreaptă, iar în cealaltă o amuletă de aur antică, cu totul specială, în forma Ochiului Zeului Horus. Dar la un moment dat, spre sfârşitul spectacolului, magicianul a tulburat tăcerea cu vocea lui puternică, dar totuşi plină de rafinament, ce inspira o stare de bine, o energie pozitivă, dar şi o senzaţie de forţă combinată cu o încredere enormă în propria lui persoană.

Magicianul privi o clipă la cei din primul rând, apoi, urcându-se cu picioarele pe o cutie de metal, îşi pironi ochii în tavan ca şi cum ar fi vrut sa spună o rugăciune - o rugăciune ce se spune numai în picioare, stând ferm. Ridică mâinile, ca şi cum şi-ar fi înălţat ruga spre Dumnezeu, apoi spuse: "Ego sum qui sum", adică "Eu sunt cine sunt".

Apoi, ca prin minune, magicianul dispăru, dispăru ca o umbră în întunericul ce învălui brusc scena.

Leadership: Îţi extinzi constant experienţa de a te confrunta cu semnificaţia rolului pe care îl interpretezi în jurul unui personaj?

Integrarea sistematică a experienţei personale, cu toate update-urile ei, în realitatea pe care singur ţi-o construieşti în mod activ, acceptând atât partea pozitivă cât şi pe cea negativă, se armonizează cu devotamentul faţă de acea cultură a permanentei autoaprecieri - care contribuie cu multă putere la realizarea unei autorităţi superioare, în numele autenticităţii rolului interpretat.

Este un fel de stimulare a propriei gândiri şi a propriei creaţii, transpuse în plan fizic prin intermediul un impuls de superioritate şi suprarealism, ridicat din interior, care trebuie să se dovedească pe placul mulţimii prezente. Acest impuls se caracterizează prin următorii parametrii: valoarea de vârf, criteriul suprem de valoare, timpul de urcare şi timpul de coborâre.

Putem spune că un lider atinge valoarea de vârf a performanţei (deseori percepută negativ) atunci când este angajat în pariul excesului de subiectivism şi a insuficienţei producătoare de "something else" , traversând acea fază critică prin care singur se introduce în conţinutul unei ştiinţei avansate, inaccesibile cunoașterii obișnuite.

Criteriul suprem de valoare, dat de raportul calitate-fiabilitate, conduce activitatea creatoare a liderului, arătându-i cât de constructiv este în relaţie cu ceea ce ţine de absolut şi de perfecţiune. Un lider care este deplin adaptat cerinţelor de neocolit ale sinelui ascuns, impenetrabil, nu poate să se eschiveze de la asumarea obligaţiei de a fi conştient de limitele competenţei sale.

Un lider trebuie să ofere numai acele adaosuri de originalitate pentru care este "calificat" prin experienţa de a se descurca pe cont propriu şi prin experienţa de a se confrunta cu semnificaţia rolului pe care îl interpretează în jurul unui personaj.

Iar timpul de urcare şi timpul de coborâre sunt cele două constante de fază, de care trebuie să ţii seama mereu în demersurile de a susţine necesitatea schimbării, prin repoziţionarea ta pe traseul de evoluţie. Timpul de urcare se referă la momentul de început care declanşează întâlnirea conştientului cu acea dimensiune a personalităţii pe care eşti dispus să o arăţi lumii.

Timpul de coborâre se referă la momentul final al provocării de a inova şi de a face din creaţia personală o capodoperă a leadershipului, adică atunci când îţi dai seama că trebuie să te opreşti pentru a putea exista o adevărată schimbare şi ca să se producă impactul maxim garantat.

Leadershipul tău face parte dintr-un joc plănuit cu meticulozitate, prin transformarea probabilului în determinat?

Te bucuri de cea mai înaltă cinste? Eşti capabil să interpretezi un rol mare?

Este o mare cinste, observa cineva odată, să ţi se spună: "Iată un om." Dar este o cinste şi mai mare să le inspiri oamenilor o încredere înnoită prin harul tău, prin puterea miraculoasă şi plină de inspiraţie ce iradiază din întreaga ta fiinţă, din întregul tău suflet. Oamenii să tresară la fiecare gest al tău de un fior nedesluşit, dar plăcut, un fior din acela care te înalţă şi te face să trăieşti mai intens, un fior care odată ce te cuprinde nu te mai lasă, îţi străbate tot corpul şi-ţi oferă o doză semnificativă de bună dispoziţie şi energia necesară pentru întreaga zi.

Toate făceau parte din jocul bine plănuit al magicianului. La un semn de-al său toţi cei prezenţi în sală erau parcă hipnotizaţi – era ciudat, toţi erau cuprinşi de un sentiment neobişnuit, de nelinişte, dar totuşi încântător, pentru că tuturor le plăceau provocările.

Magicianul emana un profesionalism pur, care merita tot respectul, atingea toate aşteptările. Nu era ca un om din piatră care mărşăluieşte şi înspăimântă, ci mai degrabă ca un om fără nume care-şi depăşeşte limitele când vine vorba de îmbunătăţirea prestaţiei sale. După fiecare număr de magie pe care-l executa, dând o impresie generală de putere şi forţă, spectatorii se uitau unii la alţii, ca şi cum şi-ar fi spus: "Este extraordinar ! "

Cine este omul cu puteri depline care, asemenea unui magician, poate să-şi întindă tot mai mult influenţa asupra oamenilor, interpretându-şi rolul de Atotputernic cu o dăruire totală, cu o maiestuozitate de nedescris? Nimeni nu-i cunoaşte tainele şi căile desăvârşite prin care reuşeşte să-şi sporească farmecul şi magnetismul personal. Cert este că toţi trec, în mod miraculos, în stăpânirea lui.

Rolul pe care-l interpretezi într-un spectacol porneşte de la ideea că nu dispui întotdeauna de criterii obiective pentru a verifica, cel puţin imediat, gradul de adecvare al caracteristicilor rezultante, inclusiv a dinamicii, aferente ratingurilor şi estimărilor de livrare a unei imagini mai realiste care accelerează magia.

Imperiul magicianului cuprinde toate elementele necesare, atât din punct de vedere profesional cât şi personal, prin care un individ îşi poate exercita şi menţine influenţa asupra celorlalţi oameni. Ca să-i domini pe cei din jurul tău este necesar să manipulezi lucrurile, să te înconjuri de o atmosferă plină de semnificaţie, să creezi şi să întreţii o anumită stare de spirit, creându-ţi o imagine de putere şi control. Trebuie să închei tacit un contract cu oamenii prin care să-ţi fie recunoscută poziţia de lider, şi trebuie să dovedeşti multă măiestrie în timpul "spectacolului" tău, în arta de a-ţi camufla uneori adevăratele sentimentele şi starea de spirit.

Aşa cum un magician, ca să fie evidenţiat ca maestru al spectacolului, trebuie ca oameni să rezoneze cu toată încărcătura lui de magie – tot aşa şi tu, dacă vrei să fii evidenţiat ca lider, dacă vrei ca oamenii să rezoneze cu propriile tale „reprezentări" şi să accepte efectele pe care le produce leadershipul tău - trebuie să inspiri o senzaţie de forţă combinată cu o încredere enormă în propria ta persoană.

Prin abilităţile tale, prin puterea cu care ai fost investit cât şi prin calitatea relaţiilor interumane pe care le promovezi vei putea, aidoma unui magician care deţine controlul în imperiul magiei, să-ţi creezi propriul tău "imperiu", in care să deţii controlul total. Acest lucru este posibil prin manipularea lucrurilor în favoarea ta, sporindu-ţi puterea şi controlul asupra celorlalţi, fără însă a deveni un dictator.

Creează un efect puternic de rezonanţă, printr-o apropiere mai strânsă de acele elemente de referinţă care conferă leadershipului tău esenţă şi influenţă.

Imperiul sufletului

On Noiembrie 26, 2010

Pătrunde înlăuntrul propriei tale fiinţe şi ascultă-ţi conştiinţa, pentru a-ţi stimula capacitatea de a te încadra în contextul efectelor de superioritate.

Înainte să plece departe de oraşul în care se născuse, de oraşul în care se reîntorsese cu un singur scop: să se răzbune pe cei ce l-au trimis în închisoare, unde a stat 14 ani, Contele de Monte Cristo porni spre aleile Meilhan, cu gândul să revadă pentru ultima oară căsuţa în care deseori, în tinereţe, se întâlnea cu iubita lui, Mercedes. Ajuns în prag, auzi un suspin care semăna a geamăt. Îşi îndreptă privirea spre locul de unde se auzea geamătul, şi sub o boltă de iasomie cu frunze dese şi cu flori purpurii o zări pe ea, pe Mercedes, stând aplecată şi plângând.

Mercedes îşi ridică vălul şi îşi înălţă privirea la vederea contelui care înainta spre ea.

- Mercedes – spuse contele – n-am puterea să-ţi aduc fericire, dar îţi dăruiesc alinare: vrei s-o primeşti ca venind din partea unui prieten?

- Sunt cu adevărat tare nefericită, răspunse Mercedes, cuprinsă de o tristeţe adâncă. Priveşte-mă, Edmond. Nu mai e timpul când îţi zâmbeam pe când mă aşteptai sus, la fereastra mansardei acesteia, unde locuia bătrânul tău tată. Nu te învinovăţesc, Edmond, nu, nu te urăsc, prietene. Pe mine mă învinovăţesc şi mă urăsc ! Am fost pedepsită ! Aveam credinţă, nevinovăţie, dragoste, aceste trei haruri îngereşti, iar eu m-am îndoit de Dumnezeu… Toţi ceilalţi care ţi-au făcut rău au fost împboldiţi de ură, de lăcomie, de egoism, numai eu m-am purtat aşa din laşitate. Ei doreau, eu mă temeam… Iată, suferinţa mi-a albit părul. Tu, dimpotrivă, Edmond, ai rămas tot tânăr, tot frumos, atât de frumos, şi tot mândru. Şi asta din pricină că ţi-ai păstrat credinţa, că ai avut putere, că te-ai încrezut în Dumnezeu şi că Dumnezeu te-a sprijinit. Eu am fost laşă, mi-am renegat dragostea, iar Dumnezeu m-a părăsit, şi iată-mă !

Leadership: Tăria caracterului constă din puterea voinţei de a te reprezenta ca un microunivers închis şi în pulsare continuă sau ca un tablou căruia vrei să-i dai viaţă?

Inimă te înalţă, inimă te coboară. Mercedes izbucni în lacrimi. Inima ei de femeie se frângea în faţa amintirilor.

Monte Cristo îi luă mâna şi i-o sărută cu respect. Dar ea simţi că sărutul îi e rece, asemănător atingerii unei statui de marmură. Ştia, simţea în străfundul inimii ei că niciodată acel Edmond Dantes pe care-l iubise odată, n-o va mai putea iubi la fel, căci în loc să-l aştepte, în loc să-i rămână veşnic fidelă, ea îi întinsese mâna rivalului său, în timp ce el gemea în fundul unei prăpăstii.

- Te-am crezut mort şi ar fi trebuit să mor şi eu, căci la ce mi-a folosit să port veşnic în inimă doliul după tine, spuse Mercedes cu adâncă tristeţe. N-ar fi trebuit oare să te salvez, oricât de vinovat ai fi fost? Şi totuşi te-am lăsat să mori. Am ajutat la moartea ta prin laşa mea lipsă de simţire, prin dispreţul meu, prin ignoranţa mea, nevoind să-mi amintesc că pentru mine te făcuse-şi sperjur şi trădător ! Şi acum, spune-mi adio, Edmond, şi să ne despărţim !

După ce contele plecă, glasul ei, fără voie parcă, şoptea încet de tot: Edmond, Edmond, Edmond !

Leadership: Ai puterea să-ţi aperi deplina libertate faţă de convingerile care-i stăpânesc pe ceilalţi?

Pentru a înţelege leadershipul trebuie să ne îndreptăm atenţia asupra criteriilor de evaluare a omului, analizând începuturile şi cauzele ascensiunii lui, deci ritmul şi simetria căii sale evolutive într-un cadru izolat de viaţă normală, într-un cadru izolat de restul lumii.

Ca să înţelegem omul condus de spiritul de superioritate, mai întâi trebuie să-i înţelegem izbucnirile repetate şi impetuoase, indicații ale îngrămădirii focurilor urii și lipsei de consideraţie pentru ceilalţi oameni, care odată scăpate de sub control provoacă teamă, fascinaţie sau regret. Trebuie să luăm în calcul eşecul pe plan intern şi trădarea în plan extern, ca unul dintre resorturile fundamentale ale excluziunii din parametrul vieţii sociale şi ale compromiterii coeziunii interne pe fundalul extinderii potenţialului propriu şi a necesităţilor de a se afirma.

Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche, cel mai important filosof al secolului al XIX-lea, atribuia "supraomului" atitudinea mintală, exprimată în felul următor: să-ţi aperi deplina libertate faţă de convingerile care-i stăpânesc pe ceilalţi.

Analizată mai amănunţit, lumea lăuntrică a omului se descoperă tot mai deplin în adâncimile şi frumuseţile ei adevărate, dar mai ales printr-o concordanţă deplină intre gândurile şi emoţiile experimentate în relaţia cu ceilalţi. Un soi de raţie matematică a unor mini-formaţiuni într-o formă predominantă, care mai târziu ia formă de ecuaţie cu variabile de condiţie: „părţile să-şi execute obligaţiile asumate ! ”.

Leadershipul are ca origine pretenţia de a te cunoaşte prin prisma obligaţiilor asumate în acel moment al vieţii care conţine o lecţie dureroasă greu de uitat.

Egalitatea şanselor de acceptabilitate în privinţa unor alegeri care ar putea influenţa decisiv orientarea pe termen lung, prin sensibilizarea celorlalţi şi apelul la prietenie, înseamnă, în primul rând, accesul egal la resursele raţiunii, ale conştiinţei şi a realei autorităţi care gestionează evoluţia acelor trăsături constituite în predictori ai unui comportament eficient - ele conturează profilul unui lider eficient. Această egalitate este o caracteristică cu efect direct asupra rezultatelor care te interesează, dezvăluind care persoane sunt cu adevărat importante pentru tine şi care nu, avantajându-te la modul că nu mai trebuie să rămâi în postura omului înşelat de aparenţe, mistuit de o realitate care nu poate fi controlată.

Crezi în “libertatea” constrângerii de a nivela indivizii în numele idealului tău, trăind cu imperfecţiunea morală dobândită în singurătate? Sau crezi în “libertatea” deplină faţă de convingerile care îi stăpânesc pe ceilalţi?

Pentru a-ţi stimula capacitatea de a te încadra în contextul efectelor de superioritate, mai întâi trebuie să-i cucereşti pe oameni printr-o nouă şi deplină înţelegere a esenţei tale, inoculând în mintea lor imaginea vieţii la care tu visezi şi a felului în care vrei s-o trăieşti, percepându-te drept un gând conştient al dorinţei lor, un instrument al aspiraţiilor lor.

Leadership: Poţi muri pe dinăuntru cât eşti viu?

Cine a fost singura persoană din lume care a ştiut să-l recunoască pe Edmond Dantes, care l-a putut înţelege cu adevărat şi care l-a admirat până în ultima clipă? Cine a fost persoana care a avut puterea să-i mişte acestuia toate sentimentele, să-l îmboldească atât de tare să acţioneze, să ia atitudine atunci când întreaga lui lume era cenuşie? Cine a fost această persoană din pricina căreia el nu a putut avea niciodată linişte, şi care a avut o influenţă decisivă în viaţa lui?

Nimeni alta decât Mercedes, iubita lui din tinereţe, a cărui inimă s-a frânt în faţa amintirilor, în faţa propriilor ei greşeli. Câtă putere a putut să aibă această femeie asupra lui, dar cu toate acestea, propria ei inimă, pătrunsă de sentimentul ruşinii, străbătută de un fior înjositor datorat propriei culpe, i-a zdrobit tot viitorul, i-a epuizat toată energia şi tot entuziasmul pentru visele ei.

Contele a iertat-o pe Mercedes şi chiar a încercat s-o ajute pe ea şi pe fiul ei - în calitate de prieten, dar propria ei conştiinţă nu a lăsat-o să accepte ajutorul lui. Singura alinare a sufletului ei a fost, în final, să fie cât mai departe de el, de cel faţă de care a fost necredincioasă. Sufletul ei era prea mâhnit de cele întâmplate, prea plin de tristeţe şi suferinţă. Decizia ei de a se despărţi pentru totdeauna de conte a fost consecinţa acţiunilor ei directe sau indirecte, şi care i-au deteriorat propria imagine.

Aşa cum vântul ridică pasărea deasupra deşertului, tot astfel conştiinţa încărcată de remuşcări îl împinge pe om în pragul emoţiilor negative, sub forma sentimentului că nu mai este nimic de făcut. Da, poţi muri pe dinăuntru cât eşti viu.

A muri pe dinăuntru cât eşti viu înseamnă să te ataşezi de iertarea pe care o acorzi omului, fără să-i îngădui luxul de a se apropia de ceea ce te împlineşte.

Imperiul sufletului este o emanaţie a propriei tale personalităţi – o personalitate care suportă atât suişurile cât şi coborâşurile vieţii şi care are toate şansele să trăiască bucuria împlinirii, a satisfacţiei, succesului; sau o personalitate care îşi uită rădăcinile şi care îşi distruge credibilitatea şi capacitatea de a genera speranţa celorlalţi.

Imperiul sufletului tinde să se fărâmiţeze în multe "bucăţele" nocive dacă nu eşti împăcat cu tine însuţi, cu propria ta conştiinţă, cu trecutul tău, cu realizările tale, şi, mai ales, cu cei de lângă tine. Pătrunde înlăuntrul propriei tale fiinţe, priveşte-te faţă în faţă, şi vezi dacă poţi găsi în tine un prieten căruia să-i poţi strânge mâna de fericire.

Concluzie: Suntem ceea ce suntem şi ceea ce am creat de-a lungul timpului în legătură cu noi – privitor la concepţiile noastre, la modul de gândire şi de acţiune, la sentimentele noastre şi la educaţia noastră.

Am creat un "imperiu al sufletului" care este unic în felul său, dar care poate fi remaniat permanent într-o măsură mai mare sau mai mică, acest lucru depinzând strict de noi înşine. Pentru a lua deciziile cele mai bune trebuie să pătrundem în acest imperiu, adică înlăuntrul propriei noastre fiinţe, şi după o analiză corectă să trecem la acţiune.

Implică-te cu pasiune

On Ianuarie 23, 2009

Dă energiei atitudinii tale o formă armonioasă care să-ţi pună în evidenţă trăsăturile intense de personalitate, pentru ca leadershipul tău să capete un sens deplin.

Paulo Coelho povesteşte în „ Jurnalul unui mag" despre întâlnirea lui cu Manolo, şeful galeriei spaniole de microbişti. Era ceva care l-a atras în mod deosebit la acest om, pentru că se implica cu toată inima în susţinerea echipei favorite. Era unul dintre puţinii oameni care puneau pasiune în ceea ce făceau şi se dedicau în totalitate unei activităţi anume.

Nerăbdător, Paulo Coelho l-a întrebat pe Manolo:

- Cum reuşeşti să vezi jocul, dacă eşti mereu cu spatele spre teren, dirijând galeria?

Manolo, care era cu totul îndrăgostit de fotbal şi de echipa pe care o încuraja mereu, i-a răspuns:

- Asta-i bucuria mea. Să ajut galeria să creadă în victorie.

Leadership: Acţiunile tale sunt manevrate prin intermediul unei forţe venite din zona "dependenţei de vibraţiile altora"?

În leadership, atitudinea ta trebuie să fie în acord cu evoluţia pe care vrei s-o înregistreze echipa ta. E vorba de acea „combustie" umană spontană, dar şi cât mai cuprinzătoare, orientată spre acea legătură semnificativă între oameni - care asigură unitate, coerenţă şi armonie echipei - contaminându-i cu acel dinamism si optimism care stimulează spiritul de competiţie.

Absolut ! Dar, chiar cu această înverşunare în a-ţi demonstra susţinerea, pusă sub semnul unei determinări superioare care păstrează și valorifică relaţia dintre oameni în spiritul unei atitudini conştiente şi a unei echităţi acceptate, mi se pare totuşi că experienţa definitorie care te confirmă în postura de învingător este direct legat de ideea de tranziţie spre un nivel de conştiinţă colectivă, ce implică în mod obligatoriu o traiectorie idealistă.

Această traiectorie, în mod contrar, poate constitui un pericol fiindcă te transformă într-un veritabil aliat al luptei spre un ţel care nu este cu totul prezent în tine, care nu a fost, nu este şi nu va fi niciodată al tău - ci aparţine unei entităţi care nu garantează performanţa într-un domeniu sau altul. Spiritul de solidaritate conduce cel mai bine toate acţiunile indivizilor prin intermediul uner forţe venite din zona "dependenţei de vibraţiile altora" , de convingerile, intenţiile şi înflăcărarea lor.

Acţiunile pe care ţi le propui şi urmează să le îndeplineşti sunt o urmare a alegerii tale de a rămâne ferm pe poziţie în contextul unui triumf ce se săvârşeşte şi se resimte din exterior.

Dar, aşa cum am mai spus, relaţiile cele mai puternice izvorăsc din sfera de interese și preocupări asemănătoare, care nu condamnă demersurile de selecţie care implică palierul moral, social, cultural. Cel fel idei îmbogăţesc şi influenţează marea majoritate a oamenilor?

Nu înseamnă, desigur, că leadershipul este mai bun pe motivul că zona "dependenţei de vibraţiile altora" este mai accesibilă. Dar, până la un punct, îi conferă o anumită autoritate şi prestanţă, inspirând respect, împărţind speranţa, arătându-te încrezător în puterile tale.

Leadershipul este reflectarea spontană, dar şi cât mai fidelă, a lumii tale interioare într-un proces continuu de dinamizare, de corelare şi armonizare a obiectivelor cu resursele interioare. Aici, în mod cu totul excepţional, se vădesc ceea ce numim atitudinea şi spontaneitatea unui lider.

Atunci când atitudinea ta dă impresia evidentă că este o reflectare a unei realităţi adânci, orientată spre anumite idealuri – ea se va răsfrânge în mod pozitiv asupra relaţiei tale cu ceilalţi, şi asupra modului în care ei te percep – şi numai atunci noi o putem numi „autentică”.

Leadership: Eşti prins în miezul intim al unei experienţe de tip "triumf fabulos" pentru care recunoaşterea valorii nu cere obţinerea unui statut superior?

Un triumf fabulos nu necesită neapărat obţinerea unui statut superior, căci nu este obţinut în mod direct de tine, dar poţi contribui la reprezentarea lui în ochii altora. Acest triumf te poate îndrepta spre un nou start în carieră.

Din acest motiv, recunoaşterea valorii tale nu vine direct din experienţa celui ce obţine nişte rezultate grandioase, ci indirect prin munca voluntară de susţinere a unei cauze care nu a fost niciodată a ta, dar care produce o senzaţie puternică de apropiere de un scop mai înalt şi un nivel mai înalt de importanţă.

Acesta este sensul leadershipului în actul autocunoaşterii, act care se reflectă clar numai în atitudinea ta. A-ţi îmbunătăţi atitudinea este ca si cum ai concepe o statuie în piatră, cioplești pe îndelete formele liniştite şi trainice. Dar pentru ca atitudinea ta să-şi câştige dreptul la exprimare, stabilind noi valori de referinţă, trebuie să-i dai o formă concretă, armonioasă, care să-ţi pună în evidenţă trăsăturile intense de personalitate, care să te avantajeze pe tine şi pe echipa ta - iar ea, la rândul ei, se va îngriji corespunzător de menţinerea unui nivel înalt de influenţă.

Cred că merită să fie citită de două ori afirmaţia lui Manolo pentru că descrie perfect elanul cu care liderii se implică într-o situaţie competiţională. Liderii fac tot ce pot pentru a transmite oamenilor un suflu de încredere, de curaj şi de optimism. Uneori reuşesc, alteori nu. Dar misiunea lor nu se va încheia niciodată. Ei întotdeauna îşi susţin echipa cu multa pasiune, mai ales într-o competiţie.

Leadershipul reprezintă apărarea unui ideal care nu abandonează dreptul la imagine, la reprezentare, şi care nu încearcă să disimuleze lupta pentru depăşirea efectelor de tranziţie de la un loc pe podium la titlul de cel mai bun.

Gândeşte-te puţin la Manolo, şeful galeriei spaniole de microbişti. Interesul lui este acela de a încuraja jucătorii şi de a le susţine moralul. Dacă galeria lui este convingătoare în postura de susţinător, jucătorii din teren sunt motivaţi să se implice mai mult în joc. Atunci când sunt susţinuţi jucătorii nu se simt singuri, nu simt că joaca doar de dragul de a câştiga, ci şi pentru plăcerea celorlalţi care vor să vadă un joc de calitate. În acelaşi timp, o galerie fără credinţa în victorie poate face ca o echipa de fotbal să piardă chiar şi atunci când aceasta este aproape de victorie.

Dacă eşti liderul unei echipe si doreşti să obţii rezultate excelente, cel mai bun lucru pe care îl poţi face este să urmezi exemplul lui Manolo. Străduieşte-te să înviorezi atmosfera, reda-le oamenilor suflul necesar pentru a controla partida, fă tot posibilul să schimbi scorul în favoarea echipei pe care o conduci. Aminteşte-ţi că scopul final este victoria. Deci ajută-i pe oameni să creadă în victorie. Trezeşte-le ambiţia şi încrederea necesară în reuşită. Susţine-i moral tot timpul. Fa tot ce poţi pentru a le insufla curajul şi forţa necesară pentru a învinge.

Te implici cu pasiune în atingerea obiectivelor proprii şi ale echipei pe care o conduci? Atitudinea ta este „autentică”? Îi dai energiei atitudinii tale o "formă" armonioasă?

Leadershipul trebuie să fie o experienţă de implicare care afectează cursul evenimentelor şi “scorul final al meciului”.

Importanţa factorului uman

On Aprilie 01, 2009

Învaţă să faci alegeri potrivite în momente cheie, astfel încât să nu fii obligat să te expui la consecinţele deznodământului pe care nu-l poţi ignora.

De doi ani nu mai plouase iar apele Nilului scăzuseră aproape complet. Consecinţele secetei au fost foarte grave: nu mai erau grâne, nu mai era mâncare. Oamenii care munceau la construirea piramidei erau tot mai obosiţi, sufereau mult din cauza foametei şi se anunţa o revoltă. Trimişii lucrătorilor i-au transmis Maiestăţii Sale că nu vor mai relua lucrul deoarece sunt prea slăbiţi ca să mai poată mânui pietrele atât de grele.

"Vom răbda cu toţii" a fost răspunsul faraonului. Chiar dacă îşi dorea nespus de mult ca marea piramidă să fie gata cât mai repede, Keops a luat hotărârea ca oamenii să înceteze munca până la venirea ploilor. Apoi a deschis tezaurul regal şi a vândut numeroase bijuterii de preţ ca să cumpere grâne din Canaan şi Kharu. De asemenea a sacrificat o parte din vitele templelor şi o parte de pe domeniul regal pentru a asigura nevoile de hrană ale populaţiei.

Leadership: Îţi accepţi tendinţa de a domina o lume în funcţie de nivelul de acceptabilitate al prețului pe care îl fixezi privind percepțiile de calitate influențate de valorile pe care este construit Brandul personal?

Cu cât omul are mai mult, cu atât doreşte mai mult. Această zicală conţine un sâmbure de adevăr, dar nu se dovedeşte adevărată pentru toată lumea. Keops a fost un faraon puternic, bun şi drept care a preţuit factorul uman. Punând oamenii mai presus de orice, chiar şi mai presus de visul său cel mai mare - acela de a construi o piramidă uriaşă care să dăinuiască peste veacuri, Keops a ordonat încetarea lucrului până ce apele Nilului se vor redresa. Aşadar, ceea ce a contat pentru el mai întâi de toate a fost poporul, ca acesta să nu duca lipsă de nimic şi să prospere.

Spre deosebire de alţi conducători care şi-au urmărit propriile interese fără să se sinchisească câtuşi de puţin de vieţile oamenilor şi de munca lor, Keops s-a implicat în problemele interne ale ţării sale acordând o atenţie deosebită dezvoltării factorului uman şi economic. Pentru a câştiga poporul de partea lui el s-a preocupat de modul în care oamenii îşi duc traiul. Iar în caz de criză a avut tăria de caracter să-şi vândă chiar şi o parte din propriul tezaur în folosul poporului. Cu siguranţă Keops reprezintă un exemplu demn de urmat pentru toţi managerii, politicienii şi şefii de stat din întreaga lume.

Prețul pe care l-a fixat Keops privind percepțiile de calitate influențate de valorile pe care își construise "Brandul" personal era dat de preocuparea cu care se interesa de toate transformările prin care trecea ţara lui, de utilitatea cu care a acţionat pentru o cauză comună, de raritatea cu care a fost dispus să facă să apară niște oaze în deșert. Mai presus de toate, preţul era dat de echivalentul financiar al resurselor cheltuite pentru achiziţionarea din timp a cantităţii de hrană.

Leadership: Poţi să închei un compromis între ceea ce se vede, ceea ce nu se prevede şi toate lucrurile pe care le proiectează o realitate de care nu vei scăpa ignorând-o?

Dacă nu veţi lua în considerare factorul uman este puţin probabil că veţi obţine rezultate rapide şi eficiente. Unul dintre motivele pentru care multe companii nu reuşesc să urce în top este că managerii nu comunică eficient cu angajaţii şi nu reuşesc să construiască un mediu de lucru performant. În loc să-i determine pe angajaţi să aibă o atitudine cooperantă, stimulându-i să-şi construiască o carieră, unii manageri nu fac altceva decât să traseze obiective şi să dea ordine fără să ţină cont de nevoile, de pretenţiile şi aspiraţiile angajaţilor lor.

Faptul că anumite sarcini de lucru pot să-i obosească pe angajaţi nu-i afectează deloc pe unii manageri care de foarte multe ori cer imposibilul şi, culmea, tot ei se plâng deseori că angajaţii nu sunt productivi, că sunt dezinteresaţi şi se implică prea puţin în activităţile companiei.

Oamenii reprezintă partea activă a oricărei companii iar managerii trebuie să se bazeze pe punctele lor forte pentru a obţine rezultate cât mai bune. Totodată oamenii reprezintă şi cea mai importantă sursă de creştere a profitabilităţii unei companii, fără de care ea nu ar putea funcţiona. Este clar de ce companiile cele mai dinamice din lume mizează atât de mult pe factorul uman şi fac tot posibilul să-şi formeze echipe de profesionişti care să fie capabili să îndeplinească sarcinile ce le-au fost atribuite cu devotament şi responsabilitate.

Responsabilitatea cu care îţi defineşti autentic Brandul Personal depinde de abilităţile pe care ţi le însuşeşti în situaţii neprevăzute care necesită clarviziune, luarea rapidă a unor decizii, o adaptare rapidă la circumstanţe dificile, efort prelungit şi un discurs demn de un statut înalt.

Concluzie: Conducerea unei companii trebuie să pună accent pe factorul uman, să asigure condiţii favorabile de muncă, oferind angajaţilor posibilitatea de a se remarca şi de a avansa în carieră în funcţie de realizările lor.

Preocuparea faţă de nevoile angajaţilor şi maximizarea valorii lor sunt cele mai importante aspecte de care trebuie să ţină seama un bun manager, altfel el nu va avea succes.

Importanța Leadershipului

On Iulie 15, 2016

Conferă leadershipului relevanţă datorită modului de inserare a unei imagini într-un context-mesaj ce se poate modifica folosind opţiunea Reduce/Enlarge.

Filmul se realizează minuţios. În afara unităţii de pivot a personajelor în prim-plan, celelalte figuri sunt întotdeauna grupate într-o voită ordonare simetrică, sau, dimpotrivă, ostentativ asimetrică. Regizorul şi criticul de film Jean Miltry dă un exemplu în acest sens: dacă există un turn în prim plan şi trei trepte în fundal, atunci vor fi trei personaje pe turn şi unul pe trepte.

Totdeauna gruparea unor personaje se înscrie pe o traiectorie grafică liniară sau o figură geometrică. Miltry şi Gaston Bounoure disting chiar formule geometrice corespunzând precis unor sentimente sau stări psihice: agresivitate, apărare, autoritate... Aceste compoziţii plastice sunt create totdeauna în vederea unei significări mai intense a conţinutului. Realizarea filmului nu este un joc gratuit. *****

Leadership: Practici o explorare a combinațiilor experimentale pentru a crea momentul de imortalizare al unei realităţi unice din compoziţia plastică a unui colaj construit în jurul unei singure idei nobile?

Pe măsură ce descoperi care sunt formele de manifestare a conţinutului unei resurse continue, de informaţie sau de imagine, de promovare a unui concept sau unei idei care declanşează secvenţele cheie ale unei producţii nemaipomenite, începi propria explorare a combinațiilor experimentale.

O singură idee nobilă îl plasează pe regizor la răspântia dintre inovaţia modernă şi apreciatul spectacol tradiţional: tratarea personajelor în baza comparaţiei cu comportamentul elementelor din jur, care conduce la efecte precum: exploziile, incendiile, coliziunile, schimbarea de fundal sau de prim plan, etc.

Aceste combinații experimentale sunt rezultatul unei gândiri creatoare axate pe o formă subtilă de aranjament în spaţiu a elementelor de referinţă ale unei imagini: fundalul, prim planul şi planul secundar, al căror efecte produse determină focusul, impactul vizual, momentul de imortalizare al unei realităţi unice.

Compozitia plastica a unui colaj este o reproducere prelucrata a lumii exterioare cu ajutorul combinatiei dintre elementele din jur care trebuie sa actioneze conform principiului "armoniei", principiul "simetriei" sau conform principiului "oglinzii".

Datorită poziţionării în zona combinațiilor experimentale, după interesanta formulă " dacă există un turn în prim plan şi trei trepte în fundal, atunci vor fi trei personaje pe turn şi unul pe trepte ", se poate recurge nu doar la acea parte a teoriei producţiei de noi teme de prezentare a unui subiect aparte, ci mai ales la un fel de reconstituire a unei imagini din fragmente, din mai multe piese. Acest procedeu - un soi de montaj - vizează verificarea capacităţii de percepţie vizuală.

În ceea ce privește leadershipul, în mod asemănător, nu poți să reconstitui o imagine din părţi componente după un model, fără să-i dai un anumit contur sau anumite puncte de reper. Cu cât punctele de reper sunt grupate mai mult în jurul unei axe, unele mai îndepărtate şi altele mai apropiate, cu atât legătura este mai puternică și intensitatea vizuală crește.

Leadershipul este un format unic de reprezentare a producţiei numită „realitate” datorită modului de abordare a diverselor teme exprimate în imaginea pe care o construiește regizorul. Şi prezintă relevanţă datorită modului de inserare a unei imagini într-un context-mesaj ce se poate modifica folosind opţiunea Reduce/Enlarge.

Modalitatea în care se realizează percepţia vizuală a unei imagini ţine de gruparea personajelor într-o anumită tipologie şi într-o anumită situaţie, precum şi selectarea expresiilor ce conturează trăsăturile lor de caracter, în vederea realizării unei înţelegeri mai adânci a conţinutului latent dintr-un scenariu de viaţă real.

Importanţa leadershipului este dată de imaginea pe care o construiește regizorul și o proiectează în lume, formată din elemente individuale. Cel ce ia parte la construcţia „Leadershipului” devine condiţionat să-şi întemeieze o viziune unică datorită imaginii existente pe întreaga ei suprafaţă de afişare, irupând în cadrul unei combinaţii de elemente din prim plan și din depărtare.

Importanța viziunii unui lider

On Decembrie 22, 2012

Exprimă-ţi viziunea, în aşa fel încât să-i determini pe oameni să acţioneze în spiritul ei.

Doresc să încep acest articol, făcând referire la un banc mai vechi.

O corabie naufragiază.

În timp ce înoată, un pasager se apropie de căpitan și îl întreabă:

– Căpitane, cât avem de înotat până la cel mai apropiat pământ?

– Trei kilometri - răspunde căpitanul.

– În ce direcţie?

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi determini atitudinea să fie în concordanţă cu o viziune ce mişcă sensul evenimentelor "de sus în jos", fără a da explicaţii definitive şi atotcuprinzătoare legate de ceea ce nu funcţionează?

Bancul pe care vi l-am spus scoate în evidenţă foarte bine nu doar atitudinea liderului, ci şi viziunea lui. Stabilirea viziunii depinde de fondul de responsabilitate a leadershipului tău.

O oarecare nesiguranţă în stabilirea viziunii, care depinde de fondul de responsabilitate a leadershipului tău, lipsa contrastelor puternice dintre personalitatea ta şi flerul pe care ţi l-ai dezvoltat de-a lungul anilor, ca şi indiferenţa faţă de intensitatea trăirilor celor din jurul tău, sunt semnul unei diminuări a nivelului tău de gândire şi de abordare a situaţiilor delicate (sau mai degrabă dificile) cu care te confrunţi.

Aşa cum doctorul face pacientului nişte analize specializate ale sângelui pentru a descoperi exact boala de care suferă, tot aşa şi tu - trebuie să porneşti în căutarea propriilor capacităţi ascunse, apoi să le dezvolţi, să le exploatezi la maxim, şi la urmă să le utilizezi în scopul atingerii obiectivelor propuse.

Setezi direcţia de urmat tot înainte, sau în jos?

Leadershipul este dat de distanţa care te desparte de ţărm, nu de adâncurile oceanului.

Cineva spunea că o relaţie este ca o corabie care porneşte în larg. Iar leadershipul, aş adăuga eu, este dat de distanţa care te desparte de ţărm, nu de adâncurile oceanului, setându-ţi direcţia de urmat – tot înainte, nu în jos, dar nici în sus - înspre "apus". Nuanţele accentuate care compun leadershipul tău, şi care sunt o prelungire a atitudinii şi personalităţii tale, te ajută să acţionezi în virtutea a tot ceea ce simţi, a tot ceea ce crezi, adică în virtutea acelor convingeri care te ajută să-ţi atingi adevăratul potenţial.

Integrezi în mod stângaci acele iniţiative demne de un leadership "subdezvoltat"?

Un lider care integrează, stângaci, în planul acţiunilor sale planificate sau spontane acele iniţiative demne de un leadership subdezvoltat – adică acele iniţiative care nu întrunesc suficientă susţinere morală şi sufletească, acel lider nu este chemat să conducă. El nu va reuşi să aplice niciodată reţele utilizate de adevăraţii maeştri în arta influenţei, adică de cei care stăpânesc cu o abilitate uluitoare ştiinţa conducerii.

Viziunea are la bază convingerile pe care ni le-am însuşit de-a lungul vieţii, care ne limitează sau ne dau forţă, care ne susţin sau care ne doboară, ne motivează sau ne demotivează. Viziunea este cea care dă tonul în materie de leadership şi dezvoltare personală, ea ne ajută să ne atingem adevăratul potențial permiţându-ne să ne dezvoltăm într-un ritm constant şi natural, prin eficientizarea maximă a propriilor resurse şi mecanisme interioare.

Leadership: Gândirea riscantă este "distanţa" care te desparte de ceilalţi oameni, chiar dacă nu eşti pregătit să-ţi activezi curajul în situaţii dificile?

1. Prin ce anume se remarcă această distanţă, ce indică ea? Indică oare neputinţa ta de a vedea orizontul de la distanţă şi incapacitatea ta de a indica direcţia cea mai bună? Această distanţă indică modul deficitar în care te conectezi la oameni?

2. Atitudinea ta te ajută să acţionezi în virtutea a ceea ce simţi, a ceea ce crezi, sau este una de resemnare, care evident va avea o turnură negativă?

Vreau să ştii că în funcţie de răspunsurile tale la aceste întrebări îţi vei putea măsura leadershipul. Evident, îţi va lua ceva timp de gândire, însă răspunsurile sunt foarte, foarte importante.

Leadership: Îţi laşi convingerile să fie influenţate de comportamentul oamenilor din jur deoarece nu poţi să controlezi conştient procesul prin care trec ei?

Leadershipul capătă deci, o importanţă fundamentală, prin intensitatea emoţiilor, a trăirilor umane care ne cimentează viziunea. Dacă ar fi să fac o comparaţie, ca să înţelegi mai bine importanţa pe care o are viziunea, ei bine, aş spune că viziunea este ca o" cutie poştală" - mereu ne anunţă ceva legat de direcţia pe care o urmăm în viaţa noastră, în afacerile noastre, în relaţiile sociale şi profesionale.

În funcţie de mesajele pe care le conţine această cutie poştală ne vom contura mai bine propria noastră identitate, propriile noastre calităţi, prioritizându-ne acţiunile în vederea construirii viitorului apropiat şi îndepărtat.

Când vine vorba de viziune, detaliul devine important, amănuntul expresiv, trăsăturile noastre prind contur – dar, şi reciproca poate fi tot atât de valabilă, în sensul că viziunea, dacă nu corespunde cu calităţile noastre, ea ne va limita performanţele şi, deci, nu va putea da o valoare unică leadershipului pe care îl practicăm.

Te uiţi la o uşă fără a avea curajul să o deschizi?

Cum e posibil să practici un leadership uitându-te la o uşă fără a avea curajul să o deschizi? Căci, da, acea uşă nu este altceva decât viziunea care te întâmpină atunci când porneşti la drum. Dacă leadershipul tău se situează sub limita minimă a propriilor capacităţi de orientare, deci dacă viziunea cu care îţi alimentezi performanţele nu se potriveşte cu adevărata realitate, şi dacă nu vădeşte mai elocvent credinţele, principiile, ideologia pe care o susţii şi o promovezi, atunci te vei situa mereu departe de scopurile propuse. Nu vei rămâne altceva decât un călător aflat într-o permanentă căutare, care rătăceşte dintr-o gară în alta.

Leadership: Stă în intenţia ta să transmiţi o viziune care nu evidenţiază credinţa pe care o ai într-o realitate care necesită multe compromisuri?

O viziune care se doreşte a fi performantă îţi ridică moralul, şi nu te trage în jos. Nu ţi s-a întâmplat niciodată să ai o viziune în care să te vezi pe tine însuţi?

Cred că nu este inutil să ne oprim asupra acestui punct de vedere şi să analizăm dacă el se poate susţine şi în cazul în care viziunea nu este clară sau bine definită, sau dacă nu se poate încadra în sfera stării de necesitate pe care oamenii trebuie să o ia în considerare. Nu este în intenţia liderului de a transmite o viziune care să nu evidenţieze foarte bine credinţa mare pe care o are în ea, fiindcă ar fi riscant şi aproape ridicol, acest lucru putând a-i întuneca performanţă. Deci, sub acest unghi se cuvine a ne opri şi a judeca şi leadershipul practicat de lider. Şi ce constatăm?

O viziune care se doreşte a fi performantă îţi ridică moralul, şi nu te trage în jos. Deci, este de datoria ta ca lider, sau ca viitor lider, să te străduieşti să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti imaginea despre tine şi despre leadershipul tău, pentru a-i revigora pe oamenii din jur şi a le înălţa aşteptările, insuflându-le speranţă permanentă.

Leadershipul înseamnă să permiţi compromiselor să se manifeste într-o realitate care îndeamnă la alertă şi la precauţie, pe toate dimensiunile activităţii de formare-dezvoltare a personalităţii care te poate împinge înainte.

Importanța viziunii unui lider se poate observa în momentele critice, atunci când el trebuie să ia rapid o decizie prin care să se aprobe anularea "resemnării" ce se poate vedea în comportamentul evaziv al oamenilor.

Felul în care îți percepi imaginea de sine determină valoarea pe care o atribui calităților tale personale.

La susţinerea tezei de licenţă, legată de limbajului noilor tehnologii, lumea aflată în sală aude dintr-o dată o întrebare suplimentară adresată studentei în cauză, o întrebare dintr-un domeniu total diferit, fără nicio legătură cu subiectul discutat. Este o întrebare din domeniul artistic, la fel ca şi următoarea întrebare, amândouă întrebările fiind legate de un anumit pictor şi de un anumit curent de pictură. Vă întrebaţi poate cum de-a ştiut atât de exact să răspundă domnişoara, ca şi când ar fi studiat arta ani de zile la Academia de Arte din Verona, şi acum şi-ar fi susţinut teza în domeniul picturii.

De fapt, privirea ascunsă sub ochelarii fumurii ai marelui profesor, îndreptată acerb spre ceilalţi profesori din comisie, îi reduce instantaneu pe toţi la tăcere, la o stare lugubră şi apăsătoare. Privirea lui orbitoare, hipnotizatoare, calculată, spintecă dintr-o singură lovitură orice alte privire, într-o clipă reduce la neputinţă orice potenţială voce critică, orice constatare de ordin moral. Toţi ceilalţi membri din comisie stau cu capul plecaţi, ascultători, supuşi în faţa stăpânului.

Leadership: Te confrunți cu un tablou al realității unde linia orizontului separă curajul de frică, așa cum contrastul și gradările de nuanțe într-o compoziție artistică marchează diferența între imaginea vizuală și interpretarea ei?

Prin ochelarii lui fumurii trece fulgerător o rază laser, spintecătoare şi tare ca o sabie de foc, trezind o groază cumplită în ochii celor ce au curajul să privească Sfinxul. Şi chiar dacă acest gardian al lucrurilor ascunse nu vede bine cu un ochi, activitatea electrică a creierului său fiind utilizată ca un instrument analitic în scanarea diferitelor unităţi de valoare, ei bine, celălalt ochi este un adevărat arc de forță, o tensiune ridicată de peste 100V, putând să inducă o activitate electrică în neuronii celor care încearcă să reacţioneze la contactul cu raza mudulată a intenţiei sale. În momentul în care țintești adversarul cu raza laser, dacă îl atingi, el pierde puncte sau „moare".

Profesorul aprobă cu o singură mişcare a capului răspunsurile, semn că studenta are o cultură generală deosebită. Are cineva ceva de comentat? Zonele atinse de raza laser îşi pierd sarcinile electrice. Exact ca în filmul Horror Express, cine îndrăzneşte să se uite în ochii roşii ai diavolului, riscă să i se întoarcă ochii pe dos, căpătând culoarea uniformă a unui alb - var de moarte. Acest profesor autoritar, titanul vederii de dincolo de moartea fizică, fiara cu zece coarne şi şapte capete, reuşeşte să-şi înspăimânte colegii din comisia de licenţă atât de mult, încât nimeni nu are curajul să intervină. Nimeni nu se opune privirii de dincolo de ineditul experienţei.

Leadership: Îţi poţi creşte valoarea de sine în cazul unei reuşite care se datorează potenţialului altcuiva de a-şi manifesta autoritatea?

Creierul poate să creeze impulsuri electrice spre transmiterea semnalelor. Toţi cei prezenţi în sală şi-au dat imediat seama de un lucru: la orice altă întrebare din domeniul artistic, fie şi cea mai banală întrebare, studenta n-ar fi ştiut să răspundă. Cu alte cuvinte, majoritatea a intuit imediat că întrebările au fost dinainte "aranjate", într-un mod similar cu felul în care stimulii luminoşi sau variaţiile ritmice de potenţial pot releva secretele activității electrice a sistemului nervos al subiectului interogat, aşa încât să fie relevată vasta lui cunoaştere. Fără niciun comentariu, studenta merită nota 10 (cu felicitări). Are cineva curajul să combată ultimul cuvânt al marelui profesor?

La fel ca în domeniul neurologic, unde biocurenții cerebrali și oscilațiile de potențial joacă un rol crucial, există și în acest context semnale subtile, impulsuri care au dezvăluit adâncimea cunoștințelor studentei. La fel cum în cazul oscilațiilor de potențial ale creierului, chiar și cele mai simple întrebări au putut oferi indicii importante despre cunoaşterea acumulată de studentă, ritmurile electrice ale creierului ei putând fi înregistrate prin intermediul expresiilor faciale care indicau o aşteptare încrezătoare.

S-a văzut bine că studenta a ştiut de la bun început până şi ordinea întrebărilor ce îi vor fi adresate, această activitate emoţională spontană prezentând fenomene electrice declanşate prin stimularea receptorilor senzitivi interni şi externi, dovedind mare precizie în exprimarea răspunsurilor.

Leadership: Poți să-ți exprimi stările interioare în fața unei prezențe autoritare, într-un spațiu închis și puternic pe care nu poți să-l controlezi, astfel încât să nu te simți vulnerabil?

Totul este pus sub semnul severităţii. La domnul profesor examenele se iau foarte greu, licenţa trebuie muncită cu eforturi dumnezeieşti dacă vrei o notă bună. Special conceput, înscris pe linia unei structuri securiste, acest sistem fascist bazat pe exploatarea prostimii şi pe discriminare, este menit a determina studenţii să pluseze cât mai multă bunăvoinţă în buzunarul severităţii, pentru a deveni merituoşi de stima celui care decide nota finală.

Şi numai astfel, numai dacă fluxurile luminoase întâlnesc puncte de convergență pozitive, atunci totul poate deveni mai uşor. De fapt, este o adevărată onoare să fii sub îndrumarea domnului profesor, fiindcă dacă te-ai dovedit a fi "iluminat" de lumina continuă a unei vederi ascunsă sub cortina polarizării neuronale, fenomen cunoscut sub numele de potențial electric extins în reţeaua sinaptică, atunci şi numai atunci vei căpăta înțelegere profundă în zona declanşatoare de reuşită.

Leadership: Cum contribuie simetria dintre tine și idealurile tale la crearea unui sentiment de credibilitate capabil să consolideze imaginea unui început care durează indefinit?

Pentru ca toate cele spuse mai sus să fie credibile, trebuie să se fi înregistrat un eveniment declanşator de adevăr. Ei bine, după vreo săptămână de la susţinerea tezei de licenţă, studenta eminentă, ca mulţi alţi premianţi, ia parte la o petrecere underground, în căminele studenţeşti. Veselă peste măsură, cu multă energie fizică, ea se lasă prinsă în vraja unui alt student, astfel înfiripându-se o conexiune specială, trecătoare - dar de neuitat, după modelul "o noapte furtunoasă petrecută în doi".

Aceste două sufletele cu structuri asemănătoare ale inimii, prezentând o undă de contact continuu, cu mici oscilații repetitive de natură termică, îşi cunosc atunci tainele cele mai ascunse. Beată turtă, fără niciun fel de inhibiţii, fata îi destăinuie noului iubit cum a reuşit să ia nota 10 la licenţă. Mai exact, felul cum au circulat banii, printr-un interpus, şi cum au ajuns în puşculiţa domnului profesor. Supranumit "Chiorul", acest om odios, cu ochelari fumurii, a orchestrat totul perfect. După spusele ei, tot ce a avut de făcut a fost să înveţe pe de rost răspunsurile la întrebările care i-au fost livrate dinainte, ca pe tavă.

Şi, bineînţeles, amicul ei de-o noapte a spus mai departe la ceilalţi prieteni. Şi aşa s-a aflat totul. Dar nimeni nu a spus nimic...

Cine ce ştie să vadă, vede ! Aşa stau lucrurile cu toţi studenţii de nota 10, foşti tocilari din timpul liceului, singurul lor mijloc de a ieşi în evidenţă este media finală, nota generatoare de Magna Cum Laude. Ar fi dispuşi să-şi vândă maşina, casa, orice numai ca să obţină nota 10. Şi ca orice student merituos, ca orice tocilar, toţi se pierd devreme în negura timpului fără să lase nimic în urma lor.

Leadership: Apologia pe care o faci diferitelor ipostaze ale tale sunt prezentate într-un raport de contrarietate vădită cu imaginea reală pe care o reflectă propriile acțiuni și comportamente?

Să revenim la domnul profesor, chiorul, cel cu ochelari fumurii. Uşor de recunoscut, dacă nu după chip, cel puţin după atotcunoaşterea de care se străduieşte să dea dovadă oriunde se află. Fostul tocilar născut printr-un cătun mărginaş, unde nu exista nici măcar un drum de ţară, uite ce face când ajunge la oraş. Ca un adevărat Mefistofeles, îşi pune în aplicare planul uns cu antigelul vicisitudinii, concentrat pe derivaţii cu unde înalte și ascuțite de recunoştinţă: se înfăţişează lumii drept atotcunoscător. Oriunde se află, când întâlneşte pe cineva, el recurge la acelaşi tertip de fiecare dată: dirijează dialogul cu interlocutorul spre domeniul artei, etalând ici-colo tot felul de informaţii învăţate pe de rost din diverse cărţi de artă.

Şiret ca un adevărat infractor, el arată fiecărui trecător că are o minte fină, o minte înclinată spre cele mai profunde și subtile aspecte. Este un şiretlic care merge de fiecare dată, şi care îl propulsează tot mai sus pe scara ierarhică. Tot prin talentul papagalicesc ajunge profesor universitar, şi de aici îi păcăleşte şi pe ceilalţi colegi cu vasta lui cunoaştere, evident o cunoaştere care de fapt reprezintă o imitaţie superficială, justificarea unei presuspuse inteligenţe, fiindcă tocilarul are o singură calitate: memorează totul şi repetă cuvânt cu cuvânt tot ce-a răsfoit prin alte cărţi.

El nu are deloc capacitate creativă, nu are ce căuta printre inventatori, printre descoperitori, printre artişti. În acest caz, ca să răzbească în societate, să nu fie doar un baiat no-name de pe la ţară, papagalul îşi foloseşte cu multă grijă singura lui calitate, fără ca nimeni să nu bănuiască nimic. Evrika ! Planul merge de minune, toti cad în plasa acestui farsor.

Şi când ajungi într-o funcţie înaltă, când începi să papagaliceşti în faţa tuturor câte ceva din toate domeniile, şi medicină, şi contabilitate, şi artă, şi politică, etc, atunci devii o somitate, prostii încep să îţi facă tot felul de favoruri, simţindu-se inferiori la nivel de cunoaştere. Mai peste tot se găsesc capete plecate, alţi păcăliţi, dornici să scrie cărţi în locul profesorului, să facă treaba în locul său, el punându-şi doar semnătura pe munca altora. El acordă nota finală, atât. Unde vine banul, acolo devine şi el expert peste noapte, bineînţeles prin acelaşi tertip specific papagalului, tertip care merge de fiecare dată la proşti.

Leadership: Felul în care dobândești valoare reflectă starea interioară cu care se împletește experiența ta de a te dezvălui mai limitat decât identitatea ta veritabilă?

Dar chiorul nu ştie să vadă nicidecum urmările faptelor sale. Fiindcă nu există adevăr care să nu iasă la lumină, şi niciun impostor nu scapă de pedeapsa divină. Locul pe care judecata divină ţi l-a rezervat, atotştiutorule, este la fel de înceţoşat precum ochelarii fumurii în spatele care ţi-ai păstrat vederea întunecată. Ai ştiut să vezi doar întunericul, să-l propagi şi să-l dispersezi printr-o prismă datorită refracţiei progresive, dar n-ai lăsat lumina să pătrundă în lumea asta. Ai purtat tot timpul ochelari de cal...

Oare ce direcţie ai imprimat tu studentei de nota 10, şi altora pe care i-ai propulsat ilicit în vârful piramidei notelor de 10? Este direcţia fraudei, direcţia materială a înşelării, cu care ai reuşit şi tu să urci treptele ierarhice. Practic, acesta este mesajul cu care studenţii tăi, mai ales licenţiaţii "exclusivişti" au părăsit facultatea: ca să reuşeşti, trebuie să dai şpagă. Cu asta îşi încheie cariera falsul profesor: trebuie să mituieşti lumea ca să ajungi mai departe, şi trebuie să te dai mare cunoscător, chiar dacă n-ai nimic valoros în tine.

Păcat, profesore, că n-ai înţeles niciodată mesajul pe care îl transmitea demult renumitul fotograf Bill Jay:

"Darul cel mai de preţ pe care i-l poate oferi profesorul unui student este o resursă de care să se folosească, iar nu o autoritate căreia să i se supună. Profesorul ar trebui să fie un depozitar de alternative, direcţii, atitudini. Profesorul arată cu degetul către lună. Studentul trebuie să înveţe să se uite la lună, iar nu la deget."

Percepţia ta ca entitate modelatoare trebuie să influențeze aprecierea pe care o ai pentru abilitatea ta de a crea valoare, într-un fragment de realitate care reflectă direcţia adevărului, nu direcţia falsităţii.

Impostorul este cel care vrea să pară altcineva decât este cu adevărat, apelând la mijloace mai puțin onorabile de a se afirma, cu scopul de a-şi aroga nişte merite inexistente.

Profesore, atotştiutorule ! Înainte să treci spre cele întunecate şi veşnice, iar asta se va întâmpla foarte curând, uite mesajul final primit de la însuşi Dumnezeu: n-ai ce căuta printre aştri, la fel cum n-ai ce căuta printre minţile cu adevărat luminate ale acestei lumi. Locul tău aparţine întunericului, printre alţi escroci şi parveniţi. Născut în umbra nevăzută, ai lăsat lumea în același voal întunecat, și spre acest misterios întuneric te vei reîntoarce.

Impulsul ferm spre evoluţie al fiinţei fundamental dubitative

On Decembrie 27, 2012

Defineşte "Omul" din tine pe parcursul procesului de transformare, fără să cazi de la înălţimea viziunii asupra a ceea ce eşti.

Cât pe ce a fost să cad de la înălţimea propriei mele viziuni asupra a ceea ce eram. Am oftat îngrijorat. Dacă cedam impulsului ferm, dar iraţional care mă asalta invariabil în scurta trecere a acelor ceasuri, aş fi riscat o penalizare, o accidentare, o forţată prăbuşire în neant. Încercam o erijare a fiinţei mele în ceea ce nu puteam fi. Ca o creangă uscată sub greutatea unei voinţe uriaşe, îmi frângeam nemijlocit zborul graţios spre excelenţă.

Distras de un gând aproape obsedant, înălţându-se continuu în creierul meu ca o coloană a infinitului, punându-şi amprenta pe propriu-mi suflet, am îndrăznit să păşesc pe o cale pe care n-a urmat-o nimeni. Într-o sferă a obscurului, în cel mai adânc hău necercetat de nimeni, în locul în care speram să găsesc răspunsul la propriile-mi căutări.

La naiba ! Nu mi-ar fi părut deloc rău să pun piciorul acolo unde nu mai călcase nimeni. Însă mergeam prea departe cu speculaţiile, cu presupunerile, cu cercetările mele, mult prea haotice, aidoma omului care se avântă în mâlul adânc al unei mlaştini şi, pe punctul de a se îneca, se agaţă de tot ceea ce i se pare că îl poate menţine la suprafaţă. Fără şanse prea mari de reuşită.

Redimensionarea unei înţelegeri tainice asupra întregii mele vieţi ar fi putut face posibilă schimbarea traiectoriei devenirii mele într-un artist care realizează tabloul unei viziuni largi, dar fără să fie capabil de o realizare cu adevărat remarcabilă. Eram parcă inhibat de un intervenţionism metafizic care nu putea căpăta valenţe mobilizatoare şi stimulatoare asupra propriei mele stări de spirit.

Leadership: Verdictul pe care ţi-l pui vizavi de trăirile pe care ţi le dă momentul prezent te face să ajungi la limita propriei capacităţi de a răspunde cu "DA" la cerinţele unei evadări din înfruntările înlănţuirilor de gânduri care te împiedică să-ţi cunoşti povestea vieţii?

Povestea vieţii mele era potenţată de reflexul secundar al unei gândiri care îşi înfruntă curajos proiecţiile de peste zi. Eram parcă desprins dintr-un roman al lui Stephen Crane, un soldat rătăcit pe un câmp de luptă, măcinat de un simţământ paralel, o opţiune de tip: "da, voi face asta" sau "nu, ar fi mai bine să nu încerc ". O întreagă vâlvătaie a sentimentului vital, de nelinişte lumească, în fond, indefinibil.

Vădit, ca o fiinţă fundamental dubitativă, hăituită mereu de îndoieli şi nelinişti, fusesem orbit de lumina tot mai intensă a egoismului meu de a cuceri mereu altceva, de a alerga după performanţe tot mai mari, de a-mi lărgi continuu sfera de existenţă, de-a pune totul sub semnul întrebării. Semnificativ, eram atras de o forţă irezistibilă, îmboldit de nevoia urgentă de a răspunde întrebărilor care mă bântuiau.

Vedeam departe în întuneric, în încercarea de a evolua tot mai sus, luminat doar de lumea mea interioară, dinamizat de părţile strălucite ale viziunii mele. Determinat de intuiţia, de cunoştinţele mele superioare, fugeam spre ceva care nu-mi convenea. Căutând, ca un magician într-un joben, un nou conţinut, o nouă străpungere a imposibilului.

Această constantă în schimbare a vieţii mele, puţin cam neobişnuită, devenise o sursă de anxietate. Îmi manifestam involuntar, apoi din ce în ce mai antagonic propria neputinţă de a străpunge imposibilul, printr-o sabotare a propriei mele personalităţi. Toate se învârteau în jurul meu cu o viteză ameţitoare. Simţeam o adâncă mânie împotriva propriei mele voinţe, în încercarea disperată de a mă redescoperi.

Leadership: Cum te defineşti pe parcursul procesului de evoluţie în ceea ce priveşte încercarea minţii tale de a fi în mod constant provocată de iluzia unui fals sine existent în mod independent?

Alergi după performanţe tot mai mari? Continui să-ţi lărgeşti sfera de existenţă punând totul sub semnul întrebării? Te afli în faţa unei opţiuni de tipul: "da, voi face asta" sau "nu, ar fi mai bine să nu încerc "? Încerci să evoluezi în permanenţă printr-o străpungere a imposibilului? Găseşti o ultimă resursă de vigoare printr-o disperată încercare de a te descoperi? Începi o căutare anevoioasă şi sterilă de "cunoaşteri false" care nu pot satisface decât pentru un moment evoluţia ta?

A vorbi despre om şi despre continua lui dorinţă de schimbare, această traiectorie inclusă în existenţa sa care preia o parte importantă din funcţionalitatea lui, înseamnă înainte de toate a recunoaşte raportul său constitutiv cu eforturile sale de a se "recupera". Această recuperare, recunoaşterea clară a progreselor sale reale, a hotărârii manifestate în jurul propriei sale trăiri şi experienţe, are la bază adevărul revelat de marele filozof francez, Denis Diderot. El afirma:

" A spune că omul este un amestec de putere şi slăbiciune, de lumină şi de orbire, de micime şi de grandoare nu înseamnă a-i face proces, ci a-l defini. "

Capacitatea de a-ţi maximiza leadershipul depinde de felul în care te defineşti, ca om, pe parcursul procesului de evoluţie. Tu eşti propriul tău „Creator", un pivot al auto-cunoaşterii pe care nu trebuie să-l desconsideri ca pe-o monedă de cinci bani căzută lângă vreun canal, pe-o stradă părăsită.

Leadership: Eşti tentat să te retragi în "Refugiul în care nu există oglinzi", privitor la înclinaţia minţii de a se nega când ajunge la excesul de contemplare vizavi de realităţile imediate care dirijează aspectele vieţii?

Legat de acest cuvânt - "Creator" - atât de uzual, cu atâtea înţelesuri: este de preferat să existe un anumit filtru care să nu permită o reîntoarcere la statusul produs în mod dezordonat, ci la o revitalizare a propriilor sale resurse şi energii. O deviere de la un " a fi " la un " a deveni " mai pregnant, dezvoltat pe o anumită direcţie. Dar o direcţie care să nu capete aspectul unei lupte cu morile de vânt - încercarea de a evolua în permanenţă, orbit de lumina tot mai intensă a egoismului de a cuceri mereu altceva.

E ca şi cum, rupând legătura cu viaţa zilnică, ţi-ai găsi un refugiu destinat auto-cunoaşterii. Dar un refugiu, o debara întunecată, în care nu există oglinzi, în care nu îţi este îngăduit să te priveşti. Totul se învârte în mintea ta, gândurile o iau razna, probabil mai accentuat decât de obicei, dar într-o direcţie opusă realităţii.

La fel cum cititul unei cărţi nu este suficient pentru a produce o schimbare în viaţă, tot astfel lipsa unei "reflecţii" asupra potenţialului tău îţi îngustează total orizonturile, neputând a produce un declic, o deşteptare, o decuplare de la tendinţa prea pronuntaţă spre evoluţie, spre evoluţia nefastă.

Asta înseamnă să cazi de la înălţimea propriei tale viziuni asupra a ceea ce eşti. Îţi creezi o gândire singulară, şi aceea privită în chip greşit, doar cu "ochii" imaginaţiei, un pilon pe care se sprijină întreaga construcţie a psihicului tău, dar care nu prezintă stabilitate. Căci îi lipseşte substanţa, adevărul, păstrarea unei prudenţe; o stea luminoasă, aproape de tine şi foarte cercetată.

Hai, opreşte-te o clipă şi fii "Om". Un om căruia nu-i lipseşte oglinda. Priveşte-te mereu în ea. Ce reflectă ea? Un alt om faţă de cel pe care îl ştiai?

Este momentul să îţi pui identitatea sub semnul întrebării? Cum defineşti "Omul" din tine şi ce se reflectă în exteriorul lui? Este omul din tine un "conductor" de putere sau de slăbiciune? O sursă de lumină sau de întuneric? Dai dovadă de "micime de spirit" sau de grandoare în vâltoarea probelor spre atingerea excelenţei?

Leadershipul abordat în termeni de "refugiu în care nu există oglinzi" se situează pe linia ideii că puterea sau slăbiciunea omului pot fi oricând închise într-un spaţiu existenţial foarte limitat care bulversează prin tragismul unei trăiri la limita suportabilității.

Impulsul ferm spre evoluţie al fiinţei fundamental dubitative semnifică scânteia puternică care pune în mişcare schimbarea, dar o schimbare în detrimentul „Omului" care se vrea întru totul raţional, care îşi cercetează propria cunoaştere înainte de a o folosi.

Aşa cum hemoglobina se leagă de oxigen şi oferă sângelui culoarea roşie, tot astfel omul care ştie să-şi definească foarte clar personajul în oglindă, poate să confere un grad mai înalt de credibilitate propriei sale viziuni, oferind mai mult material de calitate susţinerii dezvoltării durabile – acea culoare foarte puternică a moderaţiei, a discernământului, a echilibrului, a controlului asupra sinelui, tendinţa spre analiză şi profunzime, care are un rol esenţial în evoluţia lui personală.

Impulsul suprem al voinţei inimii

Lasă-te condus de acea forţă interioară care îţi trasează viitorul, evitând zona de turbulenţe care te deconectează de la normalul tău de a fi.

Am intrat în posesia numerelor care puteau deschide seiful. Diamantele ar fi putut să-mi aparţină. Chiar presupunând că aş fi reuşit să acţionez ferm şi negreşit, într-o sigură explozie a curajului, nu e mai puţin adevărat că ar fi trebuit să trăiesc cu adevărul. Cu relativa umilinţă în faţa acelei situaţii de viaţă covârşitoare în care ar fi trebuit să mă confrunt cu propria mea oglindă, cu omul corect din mine însumi.

Unele mase de ţesut din corp şi din creier încă mai generează curenţi puternici, semn că încă mai stăruie în mine acea activitate necunoscută de stimuli, semnale şi reacţii care mă îndeamnă să trec la acţiune. Răspund bine la provocări, mai ales atunci când sunt preocupat de ceva stringent. O formă de simţire gravă care palpită cu furie în mine, gândul ademenitor al unei victorii asupra incomensurabilului şi imprevizibilului, pe frontul larg al îndoielii.

Iar aceşti curenţi, ca nişte valuri furioase care vin şi pleacă în mod necontrolat, creează în jurul întregii mele fiinţe un câmp magnetic puternic, dar fluctuant în acelaşi timp. Or amplitudinea câmpului magnetic se reglează şi se accentuează în funcţie de glasul inimii care necontenit îmi strigă cu disperare, poruncindu-mi cu toată tăria: " Fă-o ! Fă-o ! Fă-o ! " Iar Dumnezeu nu mai are nicio putere în faţa ei.

Leadership: Dai dovadă de umilinţă şi simţire a inimii pentru a recunoaşte adevărul în perceperea unui Ego constrâns să dea sens unei experienţe de conştienţă extinsă?

Şi totuşi, nu cred să existe ceva mai frumos decât să te laşi în voia curenţilor de mare intensitate. Un fel de turbulenţă care apasă puternic asupra propriei mele fiinţe, sporindu-mi adrenalina, creând impresia unei excesive lipse de măsură, dublată de o eludare a raţiunii. Mă expun riscului unei supraestimări nebuneşti, demonice, care se manifestă oarecum prin absenţa unei înţelegeri asupra naturii mele. Cine sunt, ce am devenit?

Străbat cu iuţeală teritoriul bine delimitat al fiinţei mele, pline de răzbunare, unde se produce energia de activare a reacţiei de combinare între cei doi reactanţi: curajul şi determinarea, care se unesc formând un singur produs de reacţie: revanşa.

Da, trebuie să-mi iau revanşa. Trebuie să fac o nouă încercare de ieşire din spaţiul inconfortabil al îngrijorărilor şi slăbiciunilor mele, încheind o convenţie cu mine însumi din care să se nască anumite obligaţii unilaterale. Degrabă, să repar conectorii slăbiţi de atâta opoziţie cu mine însumi, să-i conectez la un dispozitiv care să mă mobilizeze să trec dincolo de graniţele cu care am fost obişnuit până acum. Generarea unei forţe capabile să facă faţă tuturor impulsurilor determinate de principiile şi normele generale ale moralei şi conştiinţei, devine prioritară.

Am urcat dealul pe care se înalţă castelul îndoielii şi am vizitat acea construcţie gigant, flancată de fortificaţii solide, numită încredere. Aş fi regretat probabil că am urcat până acolo, dacă nu ar fi fost priveliştea minunată, dominată de un nesfârşit sentiment de mulţumire, eliberându-mă de gândul năucitor că am fost slab şi nu am răspuns când trebuia impulsului inimii.

Leadership: Ţii cont de vulnerabilitatea ta de a nu avea un reazem la greu, în scopul personalizării unei experienţe de tip evolutiv în ceea ce ţi se potriveşte ca măsură de evitare a confruntării cu imaginea de sine?

Ai curajul să te confrunţi cu propria ta oglindă, cu omul corect din tine însuţi? Răspunzi mai bine la provocări atunci când eşti preocupat de ceva stringent? O formă de simţire gravă palpită cu furie în tine când îţi îngropi vechiul fel de a fi? Eşti constrâns de emoţii să faci un pas înainte în spaţiul inconfortabil al slăbiciunilor tale?

Obiecţia pe care o formulez, admisibilă în acest context, întemeiată pe zicala: " Dacă nu-ţi convine ce ai găsit, caută în altă parte ceea ce-ţi lipseşte ! ", nu poate să alunge demonii acelor eşecuri de natură strict personală care îi dau omului târcoale. Şi, în mod evident, nu ţine seama de ansamblul precizărilor cu privire la complexele omului care unesc caracteristicile şi manifestările sale, într-o situaţie dată.

Această obiecţie, conform căreia cine se pune în slujba integrală a dezvoltării sale nu-şi poate denigra identitatea, poate fi respinsă prin identificarea unei continuităţi de profunzime în relaţia Tu-Eu-Trecut-Prezent. Rezervele mele referitoare la pretinsul paralelism între forţa de reacţiune care are un efect contrar asupra psihicului omului, şi forţa de frânare care anulează efectul contrar, privesc în special regulile opuse de funcţionare care trebuiesc îndeplinite pentru ca omul să-şi împlinească viaţa.

Confruntarea cu imaginea de sine este dovada continuităţi de profunzime în relaţia Tu-Eu-Trecut-Prezent, ca formă de răspuns în faţa slăbiciunii de a nu te fi putut elibera de patima trăirii la modul egoist.

Când faci paşi spre viitor, încercând să-ţi uiţi trecutul, aproape inevitabil eşti cuprins de senzaţia unui gol imens, neputând să remarci o schimbare în aspectul general al vieţii. Iar cum trecutul trăieşte tot timpul în tine ca prezenţă presantă, singura ta şansă de "redresare" este înfiinţarea însăşi a acelei forme de "revanşă" care să-ţi redea puterea de a te ridica deasupra propriilor disfuncţionalităţi de funcţionare.

Iar leadershipul nu face casă bună cu inconsecvenţa, cu vulnerabilitatea omului de a nu avea un reazem la greu. Cel care nu poate să trăiască cu adevărul propriului sine în prezent, cedează în faţa naturii sale inferioare care se raportează la trecut. Şi este, deci, constrâns să trăiască cu relativa umilinţă în faţa situaţiilor de viaţă covârşitoare în care devine neputincios să se apere împotriva războiului dintre Eu-l prezent şi Eu-l trecut.

Poţi să-ţi evaluezi leadershipul în relaţie cu impulsul tău de a te reinventa la limita dintre "a fi altcineva" şi condiţia de a-ţi înfrâna impulsurile de conştientizare a propriei alterităţi?

Neîndrăznind să te confrunţi cu propria ta oglindă, cu omul corect din tine însuţi care este capabil să-ţi păstreze intactă identitatea (şi valorile care o compun), ajungi la un moment dat să atingi "tensiunea" vieţii, ajungi să te laşi în voia curenţilor de mare intensitate care îţi reduc funcţionalitatea. Semn că încă mai stăruie în tine acea activitate de stimuli, semnale şi reacţii care te îndeamnă să treci la acţiune - îndepărtându-te însă de acel teren al conştientizării, al asumării şi al împlinirii.

Acest adevăr l-a enunţat fizicianul Oliver Wendell Holmes, când spunea: " O minte care capătă noi frontiere datorită unei noi idei, nu va reveni niciodată la dimensiunea originară. " Aceste vorbe pot fi interpretate şi în felul următor.

Ideea de a fi altcineva, de a te îndepărta de teritoriul bine delimitat al identităţii tale reale, punând în umbră linia care delimitează frontierele înţelegerii, îţi va ameliora temporar situaţia şi condiţia de a fi. Dar nu-ţi va putea justifica niciodată neputinţa de a-ţi înfrâna impulsurile. Vei reveni la dimensiunea originală de existenţă, opusă stării perfecte de unitate şi deplinătate.

Preţul pe care trebuie să-l plăteşti pentru a ieşi din spaţiul inconfortabil al îngrijorărilor şi slăbiciunilor, fiind prea mare, îţi va confirma sau infirma suspiciunea – că eşti un om care nu-şi poate reface cursul vieţii.

Eficacitatea leadershipului depinde de modul în câte te afectează personal greşelile făcute din neştiinţa de a te schimba, în corelaţie cu impulsul tău de a te reinventa.

Alteritatea este tendinţa omului de a se vedea altfel decât este, în lumina a ceea ce este dispus să plătească pentru a se elibera de presiunea trecutului, de constrângerile unei existenţe austere.

Impulsul suprem al voinţei inimii scoate în evidenţă acea formă de manifestare umană care nu poate fi ţinută în frâu. Creşterea rapidă a tendinţei de a locui singur într-un spaţiu al neputinţei, constând în incapacitatea de a îndrepta o stare de lucruri care se dovedeşte a fi împotriva naturii tale reale. Intrarea într-un fel de întunecime care te deconectează de la normalul tău de a fi.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul să aibă alura unui fluviu care curge fără întrerupere, lasă-te condus de acea forţă interioară care îţi trasează viitorul, evitând zona de turbulenţe care te deconectează de la normalul tău de a fi.

In 2 Eternity

On Martie 05, 2018

Învaţă să îţi petreci majoritatea timpului în propriul univers derivat din acel flux al gândurilor care te ajută să descoperi misterele posibilităţilor infinite de creaţie.

Era pe vremea când a început să-mi place să citesc. Acceptam cu uşurinţă simbolul unei călătorii ultime, numită Eternitate, aşa cum aurul devine scump dacă reuşeşti să-l separi de celelalte metale, poate fiindcă intuiam că există o chimie între real şi imaginar, un fel de despărţire de ispita temporalului în lupta cu toate regulile lumeşti, aşa cum se stipulează în testamentul încheiat cu sângele măreţiei de a fi Una cu Totul.

Do you jump with me Into eternity? Don't be afraid, with all your memories, come one and follow me !

Delir sau exaltare? Căci păream a fi o însumi o creaţie izvorâtă din mijlocul unui univers multidimensional, numai dacă cineva şi-ar fi putut închipui acest univers pregnant prin inversiunea legilor sale, care-şi capătă caracterul specific printr-o structurare armonioasă, corespunzătoare nevoilor de expresie în constituirea unei noi arte. O tentativă de elaborare a unei estetici filosofice întemeiată pe datele revelatoare oferite de scrisul unei idei nemuritoare, într-o nestăvilită încântare a simţurilor, iată din ce e plămadit materialul minţii unui artist întemeietor de sensuri.

Pornind de la ideea că există un proces de absorbţie a incognoscibilului într-o imagine a lumii percepute şi trăite imediat, prin urmare există o artă a cărei funcţie esenţială este de contemplare reflexivă a realităţii aparente, m-am avântat în eficientizarea procesului de creaţie cu acea motivaţie cu care artistul se raportează la arta căreia i s-a supus, ca la o misiune providenţială.

În locul meu, îndreptându-se cu repeziciune spre aceeaşi destinaţie, introdus în aceeaşi versiune a realităţii simbolice, ca o flacără eternă, Jorge Luis Borges ar fi adăugat cu respect: "Au trecut o mie şi o sută de ani de când am plăsmuit-o."

Singura modalitate de a cuprinde infinitul este să realizezi că tu eşti universul !

Păream a fi o expresie a determinismului pornită din nevoia unui creion uriaş de a utiliza negrul pe alb în creionarea unei iluzii bidimensionale în care deşi par diferite, Universul şi Infinitul, ele se materializează în arhetipul unei alte relații existențiale cu Dumnezeu - care era însăşi realitatea creaţiei mele.

Iar când universului, alături de mijloacele pe care le stăpâneşte, îi e acut necesară pătrunderea în spiritualitatea formei, nu doar ca factor de sacralizare a vieţii, ci mai curând ca o prelungire a esteticii vizionare referitoare la arta construită pe pilonii opoziţiei dintre exterior şi lăuntric, atunci asistăm la o redefinire a conceptului de "Etern" ce ar putea sfida arhetipul unei lumi hrănită cu mituri şi magie. Miezul e doar învelişul.

Când încerci să dezvălui latura cea mai vulnerabilă a lui " Oriunde te-ai afla, în orice loc şi în orice timp " ţi se deschide acea lungă poartă a sufletului în credinţă, şi astăzi mai puţin cunoscută, dar bine împământenită de-a lungul secolelor, numită: Renaştere.

Leadership: Te arăţi superior în planul creaţiei, dincolo de ceea ce poţi accesa cu ajutorul unei realităţi care îşi cere “insolvenţa” prin insuficiența fondurilor artistice definite prin actul de a te feri de ceea ce nu cunoşti?

Dacă ceea ce voiam să accesez se raporta la procesul de naştere al unui univers abstract, circumscris unor reguli lumeşti din care arta şi estetica erau doar o bucăţică din spaţiul scriitoricesc în care se fortificau metafizica şi filosofia primă, atunci eternitatea era suma expresiilor plastice folosite pentru a încuraja adevărul substanţial: “nu există nimic care să nu fi existat cândva şi care să nu existe în viitor".

Scriitorul Vladimir Nabokov, făcea la un moment dat o precizare în romanul Lolita : "Există două feluri de memorie vizuală: primul, când recompui îndemânatic, cu ochii deschişi, o imagine în laboratorul minţii; al doilea, când evoci dintr-o dată cu ochii închişi, pe ecranul interior al pleoapelor, replica obiectivă, perfect vizualizată, a chipului îndrăgit, fantoma minusculă în culori naturale."

Dacă aveţi curiozitatea să intuiţi mişcările şi replicile mele în jocul exprimărilor de factură confesivă, atunci trebuie să ştiţi că interesul meu nu se limitează doar efectul stilistic al unei opere de artă izolată, ci priveşte mai curând imaginea pe care o alcătuieşte întreaga producţie a unui artist: lauda materiei şi recompunerea spaţiului viu şi nelimitat de exprimare într-un exercițiu continuu de optică personală.

A transforma condiţia reală a existenţei mele într-un nestimat poem, pus sub semnul infinitului, ca şi când m-aş fi aflat în faţa unui paradis care se cere a fi asumat şi depăşit, însemna practic să caut o relicvă a Prețiosului Sânge al lui Hristos în triplul joc de corespondenţe - corp, suflet, sufletul lumii. Împovărător, mă rătăceam cu ţelul de a regăsi locul în care se întâlnesc puterea şi măsura a tot ceea ce există.

Leadership: Te încumeți să parcurgi fenomenul veșnicei reîntoarceri la nivelul individualității artistice, printr-o descriere „trăire-tip” ce revine mereu sub o altă formă?

Iată tot atâtea aspecte ale noului curent artistic exprimat prin echivalenţe în lumea spaţiului vizual, al noului modus operandi al transmutaţiei alchimice pe care îl interferez în rândurile mele, fiind un elogiu al bucuriei de a crea o altă ipostază a expresionismului scriitoricesc modern, de factură constructivă, cu adânci semnificații spirituale.

A te feri de ceea ce nu cunoşti, în marea călătorie spre Gândirea Divină, este similar cu a citi o carte de aventuri: te inserezi în mijlocul unei lumi pe care ţi-o imaginezi a fi reală, fără să întrezăreşti posibilitatea de constituire a unui univers paralel în care exişti doar ca teorie.

Eternitatea în activitatea scriitoricească este un reflex al infinitului câştigat prin folosirea adecvată a mijloacelor de expresie folosite în relaţia atât de fragilă dintre ceea ce îţi imaginezi că trăieşti şi ceea ce trăieşti în timp ce îţi imaginezi.

In 2 Eternity evidenţiază acel spaţiu labirintic, demn de-o ficţiune a lui Borges, structurat de simetrii abstracte, cu imagini antinomice care se înlocuiesc reciproc: moartea şi nemurirea, partea şi întregul, finitul şi infinitul, ce conduc la necesitatea imperioasă a postulării reîntoarcerii la esenţă.

Esenţa este ceva ce determină cauza. Fii un artist al explorării de sine. Transformă-te în Marele Creator prin plăsmuirea propriei creaţiei în marele Big Bang al contrariilor dintre realitatea obiectivă și cea subiectivă. Poţi?

În această lume găsesc totul, până şi eternitatea

On Octombrie 05, 2018

Încearcă să dai glas realităţii prin intermediul unei opere care îşi găseşte reprezentarea într-o existenţă care se păstrează în memoria unui timp mereu prezent.

Contactele avute cu artele cele mai dinamice din lumea vizuală, pe care însăşi timpul le-a făurit în goana spre un punct fără întoarcere, m-au făcut să cred că fiecare artist se limitează la anumite teme, la anumite modalităţi de identificare a modelelor de inspiraţie printre numeroasele versiuni ale unor opere aduse anterior la cunoștință.

Dar întotdeauna arta care mi-a atras cel mai mult atenţia este un fel de combinaţie între coloritul pânzelor, crescând în diversitate şi supleţe, şi raza de lumină trecută printr-o prismă, într-o cameră obscură, descompunându-se în raze colorate diferit, asemănătoare culorilor curcubeului. Dependenţa de lumină este un ideal de frumuseţe izvorât din bezna unui secol fără busolă, din existenţa unei lumi fără repere sau din sufletul unui artist care ştie să privească totul cu alţi ochi.

Atunci când privesc un tablou al lui Christopher RW Nevinson mă simt ca şi când aş experimenta o halucinaţie, potrivit căreia pot să percep evenimente sau lucruri care nu există, satisfăcând un impuls primordial aflat la rădăcina existenţei mele construită printr-un răspuns la solicitările unui univers interminabil. Spectrul vizibil al privitorului, pentru un artist nemuritor, poate fi socotit ca o umbră de îndoială în focarul unei oglinzi care reflectă părțile instanței unui spațiu-timp curbat în urma imaginării unui "dincolo" de cunoaşterea empirică.

Artistul acesta caracterizat de un realism sobru îşi petrecea ceasurile de insomnie discutând cu mine planuri care-i înseninau starea de spirit, ca nişte splendide stele călăuzitoare, a căror reuşită îl interesa mai mult decât firimiturile de existenţă ce le-ar fi dobândit în plus dacă ar fi pictat printr-o pânză cenuşie toate ororile războiului prin care a trecut.

Leadership: Eşti capabil să surprinzi începutul unei lumi a cărui timp se acumulează într-un singur loc, dar având ramificaţii în orice viitor al oricărui eveniment major?

Nu am fost de-acord cu el în privinţa semnificaţiilor atribuite imaginii unui eveniment major redat prin jocuri de oglinzi şi lentile, cum era probabil coliziunea violentă a Transatlanticului cu un dig. Însă Nevinson continua să pretindă că toate misterele artei şi toate dedesubturile ei se manifestă în primul rând în măiestria de a obţine un spaţiu mai mare de explorat, combinând mai multe funcţii într-una singură şi în acelaşi timp dând senzaţia de contopire între mai multe lumi.

Fără adăugiri ulterioare, dar legat de un fir roșu al destinului, "The Arrival" surprinde începutul unei lumi a cărui timp se acumulează într-un singur loc, dar având ramificaţii în orice viitor al oricărui eveniment major. Nu este vorba despre o călătorie plină de surprize în minunata lume a fanteziei, ci şi despre răsucirea unei oglinzi spre un nou început de univers artistic.

Marele artist a fost fascinat de ideea de "simultaneitate", atrăgând atenţia prin complexitatea detaliilor greu de imaginat, în încercarea de a surprinde într-o singură compoziție numeroasele vederi și mișcări dintr-un singur moment.

De fapt, întreaga lui existenţă lua în considerare natura unei oglinzi care dezvăluie doar ceea ce se reflectă într-un timp lipsit de conştiinţa limbajului şi a morţii. Compoziţie luminoasă, a căror proprietăţi originale se deosebesc prin culorile născute din refracţii sau reflexii ale corpurilor naturale.

"The Arrival" este un fel de punere în oglindă a unei modalităţi de amplificare a unor evenimente pline de neprevăzut pierdute în interiorul unui spațiu de ordin supranatural sau metafizic. Imaginea pare a fi un mijloc de expresie a adevăratelor dimensiuni pe care universul le dă lumii definite într-un timp scurt de realitate.

Astfel, am început să cred despre mine ceea ce însăşi Nevinson credea despre arta sa: că sunt alcătuit dintr-o materialitate a cărei fenomenologie poate fi înţeleasă numai prin elaborarea unui sistem cromatic spaţial.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să beneficiezi de accesibilitatea unor teritorii mai largi de conţinut, revelate de misterele unei vieţi trăite la întâmplare care învăluie destinul unei relaţii speciale cu câmpul unei reprezentări spaţiale?

În fiecare conversaţie, odată cu fiecare reprezentare a liniei în creion, până în cele mai mici detalii ale construcţiei picturale, am trăit cu anticipaţie anumite faze ale viitoarei mele înţelegeri despre profunda legătură dintre spaţii, timpuri, evenimente şi realităţile lumii. Fiindcă asta este atitudinea artistică standard a celui ce vrea să cuprindă infinitul într-un singur loc.

Misterele unei vieţi trăite la întâmplare, o raritate de mare preţ pentru un optim al modurilor ficţionale de expresie, sunt asigurate de mărturia reîncarnării mele în obscuritatea unei nopţi interminabile atunci când pictorul britanic îşi termina tabloul, dându-i ultima tuşă de penel cu un lac transparent.

Artistul cel mai folositor universului este eroul care îşi urmează calea destinului cu necesitatea interioară de a furniza o dovadă a nemuririi gloriei sale, trăind prin toate secolele numai datorită copleşitoarei dimensiuni a ceea ce-a lăsat ca moştenire în urma unei vieți dedicate artei de dincolo de profit.

Se vede de aici cât de greu este aplici un stil expresionist, reintegrator a "multiplului în unic", dincolo de oglinda Sinelui, pentru a surprinde o realitate ce trebuie trăită asemenea unei enigme ce trebuie dezlegată. O reprezentare spaţială care face loc subiectivităţii are efectul unei explorări de anvergură în opera unui artist care ştie un lucru: creativitatea este peste tot, în orice format.

Dacă vrei să fii acceptat în rândul imaginilor preferate de univers, într-o noapte plină de stele, însoţit doar de lumina blândă a lunii, trebuie să-l tratezi pe acest artist, indiferent câte clase are, ca pe o fiinţă superioară desprinsă dintr-un plan al universului pentru a naşte lumea în care TU să fii de necuprins, având o misiune grea acolo unde el munceşte şi trăieşte.

Şi, evident, nimeni nu-l înţelege. Pentru că el este o parte din tine, iar tu eşti acea năzuinţă spre totalitatea existenţei, o pornire plină de forţă spre totalitatea absolută ce este cu imposibil de reconstituit pe calea empirică, ci doar spirituală.

Leadership: Eşti vrăjit de scânteia creativă a unei emoţii definitiv intuite să te constitui ca formă de spiritualitate într-un model fundamental şi cauzal pentru toate manifestările tale de sensibilitate şi frumos?

L-am crezut întotdeauna singur pe Nevinson, tocmai fiindcă era încrezător în atuurile unui spectacol inedit de oglinzi şi reflecţii, atât de bine ancorat în măreţia propriei firi, ca şi când ar fi avut ceva din măreţia fastuoasă a unei vieţi veşnice. Am fost tentat să cred că omul acesta nu doarme niciodată, nu mănâncă niciodată, nu râde şi nu glumeşte niciodată. Dar în el se simţea acea trăire care compensează orice grijă lumească, orice poftă, orice necesitate trecătoare.

Indiferent de situaţie, pe un asemenea artist al detaliilor cele mai mărunte nu trebuie să-l tratezi ca pe un om oarecare, ci ca pe un duh fără lampă, pitit într-o galerie de artă plină de savoarea pasiunii pentru temele atemporale, în care nu există igrasie, ci doar acea lucire indiscretă a ochilor care surprind mirajul unei frumuseţi atipice.

Dacă ar trebui să mă constitui ca formă de spiritualitate într-un model fundamental şi cauzal pentru toate manifestările mele de sensibilitate şi frumos, ca un drum divizat în mai multe direcţii artistice, de la banal la sublim, m-aş autoprograma de fapt pentru un soi de înţelegere a universului condensată într-o materialitate grea de mister, devenind tot mai puţin comunicabilă, tot mai fortuită.

Nu voi uita niciodată că arta este un strop din lumină, un strop din întuneric, un strop din nemurire. Fiecare epocă operează încă o triere a posibilităţilor deschise fiecărei aspiraţii spre înaltul poetic al unui albastru perceput numai din vârtejul unui carusel de amintiri. În această lume (a tabloului futurist) găsesc totul, până şi eternitatea, infinitul materiei, chiar dacă ea umblă deghizată într-un spirit foarte bătrân, dar mereu înnoitor.

Frumuseţea unei reprezentări spaţiale cuprinde măreţia unei vieţi în care se reflectă prelungirea nesfârşită a unei constante numită "amintire".

În această lume găsesc totul, până şi eternitatea, dacă încep să gândesc precum un pictor care ştie să dezvolte o compoziţie amplă, în perspectivă cromatică, dintr-o experienţă de viaţă care îi permite să vadă lumea prin oglinda unui univers indestructibil.

În adâncul prăpastiilor se deschid alte prăpastii

Tot ceea ce simţi despre viaţă şi oameni este ideea pe care ţi-o formezi despre voia ascunsă a lui Dumnezeu.

Marius era îndrăgostit de Cosette, dar nu înţelegea cine este acest Jean Valjean care o însoţea peste tot ca un tată protectiv. Nu ştia nimic despre trecutul lui Jean Valjean, care era un om înalt şi impunător, în comparaţie cu minunata şi sensibilă fetiţă căreia îi era drag să o revadă deseori în parc. Cum să se apropie de ea, dacă exista acest munte de om între ei doi? Ce caută un asemenea monstru, cu o faţa crispată şi încruntată, chip purtând cicatrici lăsate de furtuna vieţii, lângă un înger atât de drăguţ şi nevinovat?

În sfârşit, o ultimă întrebare, dar asta fără răspuns. Marius o simţea ca pe un cleşte. Cum se făcea că viaţa lui Jean Valjean se învecinase atât de mult cu a Cosetei? Ce înseamnă acest joc neînţeles al soartei, care pusese laolaltă acest copil cu un asemenea om? Există, aşadar, şi lanţuri pentru doi făurite în cer? Oare lui Dumnezeu îi place să împerecheze îngerul cu demonul? Crima şi nevinovăţia pot, aşadar, să fie tovarăşe de locuinţă în ocna tainică a mizeriei? În această perindere de osândiţi (aceasta fiind soarta omenească), doua frunţi pot trece una pe lângă alta, una neştiutoare, alta înfricoşată, una scăldată în lumina dumnezeiască a zorilor, alta vestejită pentru totdeauna de licărirea unui fulger veşnic?

Cine a putut hotărî o astfel de împerechere neînţeleasă? În ce fel, datorită cărei minuni s-a putut înfiripa convieţuirea acestui înger cu bătrânul ocnaş? Cine a putut lega mielul de lup şi, lucru mai de neînţeles, pe lup de miel? Pentru că lupul îl iubea pe miel, pentru că fiinţa sălbatică o adora pe fiinţa slabă, pentru că, timp de nouă ani, îngerul se sprijinise de monstru. Copilăria şi adolescenţa Cosetei, naşterea ei, creşterea ei feciorelnică către viaţă şi soare fuseseră ocrotite de un devotament hâd. Aici întrebările se desfăceau în mii de alte întrebări neînţelese. În adâncul prăpastiilor se deschideau alte prăpăstii, şi Marius nu se mai putea apleca asupra lui Jean Valjean fără să ameţească. Cine era acest om? O prăpastie?

Leadership: Eşti în stare să te încadrezi în nişte contexte dominate de aspecte secundare ale vieţii, fără să accepţi o limitare de tip "fapt circumstanţial" din partea unei realităţi ce se arată în diferite înfăţişări?

Tot ceea ce trăim în diferite momente ale vieţii, mai ales în acele contexte care care suntem dispuşi să acceptăm o limitare a propriilor capacităţi de integrare socială, intră în componenţa noastră. Iar prin orice tip de imagine pe care ne-o creem despre noi înşine, fie bună sau rea, ne împărtăşim intenţia cu care ne-am format acea imagine.

Imaginile nu rămân mult timp în sfera noastră de luare a deciziilor, ci se transferă în exterior, spre surprinderea unei lumi întregi. Aici, Dumnezeu are ultimul cuvânt de spus, iar ceea ce vedem la noi înşine, este ceea ce trebuie să simţim (cât mai acut) ca să luptăm pentru schimbare. De fapt, niciodată Dumnezeu nu lasă lucrurile să se desfăşoare în tihnă.

Nici una dintre imaginile pe care le vedem la noi înşine nu este neutră, nicio simţire nu este doar circumstanţială, ci dinainte aşezată de Dumnezeu în fiinţa noastră, nu ca să ne răzvrătim asupra LUI, ci tocmai ca să căpătăm acea fărâmă de înţelepciune pe care nu ne-o pot da cărţile. Dar oare putem să căpătăm acea încredere în sine pe care ne-o dorim, atunci când avem o imagine proastă despre noi înşine? Poate că este foarte adevărat ce spunea cineva pe web: "A nu ne lasă prinşi în drama dezamăgirii înseamnă să fim deschişi să vedem şi dincolo de aparenţe, să căpătăm acea flexibilitate în raport cu viaţa."

Şi chiar dacă în spatele fiecărei imagini există o intenţie, o formă fundamentală a vinovăţiei care cuprinde toată capacitatea spirituală a individului, cum se vorbeşte în plan religios, există totuşi un duh care va încerca să te însufleţească. Nu mă refer în mod special la un duh ca la o fantomă care se ocupă cu înşelarea omului, manifestându-se în diverse zgomote, mirosuri, mișcări de obiecte și așa mai departe. Ci mă refer la o concentrare de energie care îţi directionează sufletul şi mintea în direcţia unui mod de viaţă mai sustenabil, iar totul porneşte de la alegerea unor alternative: să crezi în ceea ce este etern în interiorul tău, să crezi în ceea ce încă nu poţi vedea, sau să crezi în ceea ce nu există.

Leadership: Poţi să priveşti încrezător viitorul din prisma acelei imagini de sine pe care viaţa ţi-o conturează prin trăirea experienţelor afectiv-emoţionale şi acţionale, ghidându-te după înţelesul unei viziuni care are în centru voia lui Dumnezeu?

Dumnezeu este o imagine sau o asemănare cu ceva perceput, dar nu fizic existent în mediul activ. Iar Jean Valjean părea fix opusul, un necunoscut bine asumat în plan fizic, dar la fel de impunător ca Diavolul. Iar Marius, este uşor de înţeles de ce era atât de neîncrezător, fiindcă mai mult părea să se adâncească într-un necunoscut pe care nimeni nu avea curajul să-l abordeze, un necunoscut care îi aducea o groază de stări și semne de întrebare. Or acest necunoscut nu era alimentat de vreun motor al dorinței de aventură, ci de o baterie de înaltă tensiune care se încarcă din izvorul sfânt al vieţii, numită: ambiguitate.

Există un spirit în care a fost creată imaginea binelui, înfăţişând omul în acea ipostază de înger, şi toate imaginile cu care ne confruntăm sunt încărcate de acest spirit. Dar cine hotărăşte imaginea în care se integrează un spirit? Tu, în final, receptezi în fiinţa ta spiritul în care a fost creată o imagine, chiar dacă spiritul nu-ţi dă ordine, dar nu-ţi dă nici puterea de a nu-ţi pierde speranţa că într-o bună zi ai să ajungi unde doreşti, pentru ca apoi să înţelegi totul.

Chiar în spatele imaginii pe care şi-o creează omul, pe care o vedem în tot mereu chiar oglindirea noastră, există o intenţie, pentru că în spatele imaginii există o persoană care vorbeşte prin sentimente inspirate.

Cu toate astea, contează foarte mult ce anume privim din prisma imaginii de sine pe care viaţa ne-o conturează prin trăirea experienţelor afectiv-emoţionale şi acţionale, pentru că atunci când privim ceva se imprimă în noi realitatea acelei imagini. Am putea spune că se îmbibă în noi intenţia care stă în spatele imaginii. Cred că imaginea însăşi are această funcţie de limbaj, fiindcă îţi transmite o anumită învăţătură despre oameni, sau o concluzie esenţială referitoare la credinţă: "tot ceea ce simţi despre viaţă şi oameni este ideea pe care ţi-o formezi despre voia ascunsă a lui Dumnezeu."

Înainte de a utiliza realitatea augmentată în leadership te vei simţi deseori pus în faţa acelei imagini a vulnerabilităţii care devine imaginea lui Dumnezeu prin aceea că omul poate avea mai multe feţe, bune sau rele, în funcţie de înţelesul pe care îl dai vieţii, dar şi propriei imagini de sine.

În adâncul prăpastiilor se deschid alte prăpastii, asta dacă înţelegi că în orice capitol al vieţii se interpune mesajul neclar al lui Dumnezeu, şi că în ciuda tuturor aparenţelor vieţii trebuie să-ţi păstrezi pacea sufletească. Nu uita că tot ceea ce simţi despre viaţă şi oameni este ideea pe care ţi-o formezi despre voia ascunsă a lui Dumnezeu.

În apărarea acuzatului

On Octombrie 17, 2010

Dezvoltă-ţi capacitatea de a transmite oamenilor o nouă înţelegere asupra valorilor tale, reconsiderându-ţi atitudinea şi poziţia faţă de ei.

Ca fiinţe umane, care în esenţă vrem să acţionăm cu dreptate, prin credinţă, cu o gândire pozitivă, nu vrem să vătămăm în niciun fel pe alţii. Nici moral, nici fizic. Suntem caracterizaţi de o complexitate a pasiunilor, sentimentelor şi valorilor umane, în acceptarea sau respingerea cărora avem puterea de a alege, încercăm să ne folosim de ele cât de bine putem, în ciuda oricăror obstacole sau oricăror slăbiciuni pe care le avem.

Dar Joe Black (personajul principal din filmul " Meet Joe Black ") era mai mult un spirit malefic, decât fiinţă umană. Era Prinţul Întunericului care doar luase o înfăţişare umană. El nu-şi putea da seama de sentimentele care îi animă pe oameni, de trăirile care îi încearcă în momentele grele, de nevoile lor stringente, de gândurile lor. El nu putea să ierte, nu putea să uite, nu simţea durerea, nu simţea plăcerea, nici iubirea, nu ştia ce este bucuria, nici tristeţea, nici lacrimile.

Până când o bătrână bolnavă, înzestrată cu o capacitate deosebită de a distinge trăsăturile ascunse ale oamenilor, a recunoscut firea lui adevărată. Cine i-a dat dreptul să-şi azvârle ochii în adâncul sufletului său? Nimeni. Dar cu cât vedea mai limpede în el, cu atât sporea mai mult sentimentul ei de insecuritate.

- Locul tău nu e aici domnule. Întoarce-te de unde ai venit. Şi ia-mă cu tine. Sunt prea bolnavă, suferinţa îmi este prea mare, nu mai vreau să trăiesc. Ia-mă cu tine domnule !

Leadership: Poţi să rămâi departe de pragul de sus al puterii de a suporta adversităţile unei vieţi care nu te întreabă dacă eşti pregătit s-o suporţi, ci te grăbeşte să-ţi judeci faptele cu justeţe?

Şi atunci, la auzul vorbelor ei, pentru prima oară în Joe Black ceva a prins viaţă. Învăluit brusc de un sentiment puternic de vinovăţie, el şi-a schimbat întreaga viziune asupra vieţii, asupra lumii şi a oamenilor. Şi-a dat seama că locul lui nu era între oameni. Prinţul întunericului nu poate face lumină acolo unde nu e niciuna, nu poate să apere o cauză acolo unde nu există speranţă.

Joe Black se simţea ca un acuzat de crimă care era incapabil să-şi asigure propria lui apărare. Trebuia să rezolve această problemă cum putea, potrivit convingerilor sale, fără a cere ajutorul nimănui. Cum? Reconsiderându-şi poziţia faţă de oameni, modul de acţiune şi planurile.

Dar ce se poate spune despre tine? Pe tine ce te caracterizează? Există vreun aspect care i-ar putea face pe ceilalţi să bănuiască că e ceva în neregulă la tine? Care este acel lucru pe care tu nu-l percepi la tine, şi pe care doar ceilalţi reuşesc să-l observe? Dacă da, tu cum vei rezolva această problemă?

Leadership: A suporta adversităţile vieţii înseamnă să ai puterea de a accepta fatalitatea unui destin guvernat de voinţa de putere?

Leadership-ul se află în relaţie directă cu capacitatea de a influenţa natura oamenilor. Pentru ca influenţa ta să fie maximă, trebuie să sesizezi de timpuriu existenţa acelui "punct critic" care îţi limitează potenţialul şi să ştii întotdeauna să-ţi înfrânezi toate pornirile nesănătoase: ura, dispreţul, ostilitatea. Altfel vei ajunge ca Joe Black, te vei simţi precum un acuzat care nu poate pleda nevinovat, care nu poate respinge acuzaţiile, ci poate doar să-şi aştepte judecata.

Aşa cum un bun cârmaci opreşte nava, ori o face să vireze, spre a ocoli vârtejurile primejdioase pe care vâslaşii nu le zăresc – tot aşa şi potenţialul tău de lider, ca să nu se diminueze, şi pentru ca influenţa ta să continue să crească prin intermediul celorlalţi, trebuie mai întâi să devii conştient de atitudinea sau mentalitatea primejdioasă pe care ţi le creezi şi pe care le afişezi, şi să le ocoleşti preocupându-te mai mult de percepţiile oamenilor.

De multe ori, omul care deţine puterea nu este acelaşi om care poate furniza celorlalţi oameni putere. Un lider adevărat acceptă faptul că nicio putere nu poate opri ceva în loc, că nicio putere nu are dreptul să deterioreze demnitatea inegalabilă a persoanei umane, creată de Dumnezeu.

Puterea nu trebuie să prejudicieze demnitatea, onoarea, viaţa particulară a persoanei sau dreptul ei la alegere.

În apărarea acuzatului marchează începutul unui lung proces de conştiinţă, atunci când cântăreşti o problemă morală greu de rezolvat. Tu eşti propriul tău avocat, şi ai datoria să scoţi în evidenţă orice lucru care poate fi invocat în apărarea ta, fără să încalci sentimentele tale adevărate care te definesc continuu.

Ca să fii declarat nevinovat, ca să ţi se şteargă orice circumstanţe atenuante, trebuie să aduci întotdeauna probe solide în apărarea ta. Iar cea mai solidă probă este dată de propria ta capacitate de înţelegere a oamenilor şi de ceea ce eşti tu cu adevărat.

Dezvoltă-ţi capacitatea de a transmite oamenilor o nouă înţelegere asupra valorilor tale, reconsiderându-ţi atitudinea şi poziţia faţă de ei.

Concluzie: În orice etapă a vieţii, orice om poate greşi, orice om şi mai ales un lider poate fi considerat vinovat de alţii, sau poate ajunge să se considere el însuşi vinovat de propria lui conştiinţă. Pentru a fi bine înţeles trebuie să ştii să-ţi comunici, să-ţi exprimi clar poziţia şi concepţiile, motivaţia acţiunilor tale, pentru ca ei să poată să te înţeleagă şi să te judece corect.

În căutarea miraculosului

On Noiembrie 03, 2010

Un lider nu se poate impune doar prin superioritatea lui intelectuală, ci oferind dovada strălucită a însuşirilor sale de mare artist.

Îmi puneam mari speranţe în faptul că voi ajunge un artist desăvârşit. În adâncul sufletului meu plin de vise, însetat după ceea ce însemna ineditul, după originalitate şi inovaţie, simţeam că sunt în stare să-mi construiesc o carieră şi să fac mai mult decât au făcut alţi aspiranţi la titlul de "The Greatest artist of all time" . Acesta era singurul lucru care conta pentru mine. Dar aveam presimţirea că lucrurile n-aveau să fie după voia mea.

Într-o zi m-am aşezat lângă maestrul meu, suficient de aproape ca să-l văd cum lucrează, dar suficient de departe pentru a nu-l deranja, căci nimic nu trebuia să-i distragă atenţia. Cu toate acestea, în timp ce-l urmăream fără să-l slăbesc din ochi, încercând să asimilez cât multe din şiretlicurile sale picturale, l-am întrebat plin de nerăbdare:

- Oare eu voi putea vreodată să izbutesc să impun un nou ideal despre frumuseţe în operele mele, aşa cum ai reuşit dumneata, şi să ajung celebru într-o bună zi?

Maestrul, care vorbea mereu cu însufleţire despre artă pe care o slujea, mi-a răspuns cu liniştea lui netulburată:

- Nicu, trebuie să fii pe deplin maturizat pentru a întreprinde ceva măreţ. Iar apoi trebuie să oferi dovada strălucită a însuşirilor tale de mare artist.

Leadership: Sensul atribuit creaţiei pe care o reprezinţi poate să devină o imagine de ansamblu pentru ceea ce înseamnă impact de tip "EXPRESIVITATE" ?

Un lider îşi transpune însuşirile sale de mare artist în opera pe care o realizează !

În leadership iscusinţa şi experienţa personală constituie criterii precumpănitoare. A conduce înseamnă să te concentrezi asupra propriului tău punct de vedere, luând însă în considerare punctul de vedere al celorlalţi oameni. Înseamnă să înveţi să-ţi pui în valoare talentul, uimindu-i pe cei din jur cu însuşirile tale alese, reliefate prin intermediul leadershipului pe care îl creezi şi îl practici.

Orice fapt perceput prin raportare la însușirile artistice observate la altcineva devine o posibilă transparenţă, o realitate prin care pătrunzi într-o altă realitate, într-un tărâm al infinitelor analogii şi asocieri. Însuflețirea cu care maestrul continua să depene gânduri, memorii, impresii, experiențe, dorinţe, întrebări şi răspunsuri, ajungea să mă transpună într-un univers plin de frumuseţe.

Aşa cum abilitatea şi flexibilitatea maestrului meu nu încetează să mă uimească, chiar şi după atâţia ani petrecuţi alături de el - tot aşa leadershipul tău trebuie să fie consistent, coerent, flexibil, astfel încât oamenii să se lase prinşi mereu în puterea ta de vrajă. Să se lase prinşi, n-am să spun de curiozitate, ci mai degrabă de interesul bine articulat pe care îl inspiri pentru realizarea unei "opere" de calitate.

Expresivitatea este o formă de prezentare a artei ce conţine imagini artistice şi figuri de stil prin care transmiţi cu forţă ideile şi sentimentele de care sunt însuflețiți ceilalți oameni. Ea este latentă în stadiul incipient al creaţiei, putând a fi dedusă din prisma experienţei cu care îţi împleteşti emoţiile cu reflecţiile referitoare la impactul pe care îl poate produce imaginea finală (rezultată din anumite contexte situaţionale).

Leadership: Încerci să dezbraci cămaşa concretului perceptibil în căutarea unui ceva mai adânc, mai vast, care vorbeşte dincolo de inefabil, atunci când te loveşti de abundenţa elementelor compoziționale?

Vei identifica mai ușor sentimentele și gândurile unui artist dacă reușești să identifici elementele compoziționale esențiale în interpretarea unei lucrări, cu ajutorul procedeelor artistice (printre care și figurile de stil).

Aici merită să ne amintim cuvintele scriitorului român, Cornel Ailincăi: "Fiecare lucru, oricât de umil şi oricât de insignifiant sub aparenţa lui precară ascunde o alteritate. Mergând mai departe, fiecare însuşire sensibilă, fiecare formă, culoare, strălucire, textură, materialitate, fiecare nuanţare sau alterare parţială a acestor însuşiri poate deveni un loc - o fisură în opacitatea să materială - prin care pătrundem dincolo, într-un tărâm al infinitelor asocieri."

Arta îşi are tainele ei, totul e să le cunoşti. Pentru ca arta unui artist să ia avânt, el nu trebuie să se mulţumească cu realizarea picturilor simple şi graţioase. Tehnica lui poate să atingă un înalt grad de perfecţiune numai dacă îşi transpune însuşirile de mare artist în opera pe care o realizează.

Un mare artist lasă să se întrevadă o victorie a elementelor compoziţionale, acea nobleţe a finisajului executat magistral din "esenţe" de emoţie cu ajutorul asocierilor dintre obiectivele de referinţă şi conţinuturi, dintre experienţele de viaţă şi variabilele artistice.

Tu eşti acceptat pentru însuşirile tale creatoare într-o ecuaţie ce cuprinde toate elementele necesare realizării unei mişcări de căutare şi de iniţiere în ceva care nu este cunoscut încă în lumea artei?

Aşa cum un artist, căutând să-şi satisfacă simţul estetic, înnăscut în el, îşi transpune toate însuşirile într-o operă cât mai de calitate - tot aşa şi liderul, luminat de speranţă şi credinţă, bazându-se pe raţiunea şi pe posibilităţile sale, trebuie să aplice în munca pe care o realizează însuşirile sale creatoare.

Fireşte, liderul are vise pentru viitorul lui. Raţiunea, ambiţia îl pot împinge înainte, dar fără nişte însuşiri proprii alese, care să întrunească o serie de calităţi apreciate de oameni - precum viziunea şi intuiţia, devotamentul şi forţa emoţională, el nu va reuşi să-şi impună propriul său model de leadership.

Un lider nu se poate impune doar prin superioritatea sa intelectuală, ci oferind dovada strălucită a însuşirilor sale de mare artist. Iar a fi un mare artist înseamnă să te laşi purtat spre idei care se situează dincolo de ceea ce raţiunea obişnuită poate sesiza.

Măreţia de care trebuie să dea dovadă un artist oglindeşte însufleţirea cu care el continuă să privească o capodoperă plină de culoare ca şi când ar fi întruchiparea determinării și a speranțelor semnificative într-o lume nouă care nu încearcă să uniformizeze și să controleze aspiraţiile de natură intelectuală sau spirituală.

În căutarea miraculosului porneşte fiecare individ care aspiră la idealuri înalte, respectiv la atingerea titlului de "The Greatest artist of all time" . Ceea ce favorizează neîndoielnic această evoluţie sunt însuşirile sale intelectuale, morale şi afective, ce se reflectă în calitatea activităţii sale - cu ajutorul cărora îşi realizează cu eficienţă propria operă. Ele indică posibilităţile sale certe de reuşită.

În căutarea miraculosului, este necesar să depui eforturi susţinute în vederea perfecţionării şi autodepăşirii astfel ca "opera" ta să facă dovada strălucită a însuşirilor tale de mare artist al leadershipului.

În căutarea Tărâmului de Smarald

On Septembrie 10, 2010

Pune-ţi amprenta fiinţei tale în sufletul oamenilor, astfel încât percepţia lor finală despre tine să fie în acord cu tendinţa lor spre deplina împlinire.

E plăcut să te întâlneşti cu un vechi prieten, să stai cu el la o cafea şi să depeni amintiri. Însă întâlnirea de ieri cu Mihai, a fost una de scurtă durată. Arăta într-adevăr ca un om tulburat de incertitudini şi ruşinat de propria persoană. Acestea sunt cuvintele ce mi le-a împărtăşit cu o mare nemulţumire în suflet:

"A fi fericit înseamnă să nu simţi dezgustul, tristeţea şi sila, şi să te bucuri de razele soarelui care-ţi luminează dimineţile. Dar eu nu mă pot bucura de nimic, nu mă pot relaxa aproape deloc pentru că zilnic trebuie să merg la serviciul acela solicitant şi stresant. În fiecare dimineaţă mi-e o teamă îngrozitoare să deschid ochii. Mă tortureazǎ ideea că trebuie să mă reîntorc acolo. Te rog să mă crezi, nu mai pot îndura, nu mai pot suporta acest job. De mult timp a început să-mi gonească prin minte ideea să plec, să plec din iadul acesta blestemat.

Nu percep decât un singur cuvânt: Să plec ! Să plec ! Să plec ! Să plec odată de la serviciul acesta, să evadez din închisoarea aceasta în care sunt restricţionat doar la dorinţele personale ale unui şef autoritar; să fug de el cât mai departe, să-mi caut altceva care să mă bucure, care să-mi alunge din inimă acel gust amar al dezamăgirii şi neputinţei. Şi, mai devreme sau mai târziu, chiar am s-o fac: fără să chibzuiesc, fără să dau nicio explicaţie, fără să las în urmă niciun cuvânt de rămas bun, am să plec. Pur şi simplu am să plec. " Leadership: Tendinţa ta de a judeca o anumită cauză creşte odată cu raportarea ta la conştientizarea instinctului în „EU" al factorului primordial numit "putere de decizie"?

S-a presupus în mod foarte neraţional că actul de protejare a valorii de libertate, care condamnă într-un fel sau altul încercarea liderilor de a modela subalternii după bunul lor plac, reprezintă de fapt încălcarea unui regulament etic - important pentru înţelegerea unei viziuni pragmatice asupra unei realităţi percepute drept etalon de fundamentare a unor strategii de dezvoltare viabile. Total greşit.

Căci, pe de o parte omul poate fi influenţat decisiv doar în măsura în care este dispus să se sacrifice benevol, prin orientarea motivaţiei lui în sens invers direcţiei iniţiale de înaintare spre normalitate. Pe de altă parte, introducerea unor măsuri expansioniste de promovarea a unor practici, regulamente sau politici, exclusiv sub acţiunea unei forţe constante de "aşchiere" a pieselor care întregesc personalitatea, prin intermediul unor indicatori de suprasolicitare, nu face decât să anuleze drepturile dobândite prin educaţie şi calificare, prin asumarea faptului de a munci în folosul altora.

Lumea interioară a unui individ începe să se sfărâme dacă e dominat de sentimentul tristeţii. Cu siguranţă Mihai nu este singurul om copleşit de amarul vieţii, dezgustat de jobul său foarte solicitant şi de toanele şefului care, probabil, trasează nişte sarcini foarte complicate. Singura fericire a celor care se află în situaţia lui Mihai este, inevitabil, să-şi dea demisia şi să-şi găsească altceva mai bun.

Valoarea de sine are ca efect deplin acea formă de manifestare a puterii de decizie legată de ideea de sublim, de demnitate umană, calitate inalienabilă a fiecărei persoane înzestrate cu raţiunea de a servi unui scop mai înalt.

Idealul cel mai indicat al unui om este victoria libertăţii obţinută prin justificarea celor mai rapide mijloace de negare a propriei vulnerabilităţi.

Nu întotdeauna liderul e întruchiparea unui înger ce-a coborât din rai pentru a veghea asupra ta. Nu întotdeauna îl poţi adora ca pe un sfânt ce-a apărut în calea ta ca să-ţi înlăture chinul şi amarul vieţii. Uneori, sau deseori, el îţi înşală încrederea, simţămintele, devotamentul, stârnind în inima ta nestatornicie, nelinişte şi tulburare.

Leadership: Poţi să schimbi climatul organizaţiei tale de la „arctic" la „tropical"?

Un lider iscusit aprinde în oameni dorinţa de a duce la bun sfârşit activităţile pe care le desfăşoară, descătuşându-le energiile şi amplificându-le entuziasmul. În cazul în care unul din subalterni se confruntă cu greutăţi, liderul, citindu-i emoţiile şi sentimentele, îi ia piatra de pe suflet (care zace cu toată greutatea ei pe prezentul său) şi-l ajută să renască.

Un lider iscusit elimină, prin respectarea unei etici în formarea şi propagarea de modele şi elite, tot ceea ce este apăsător în viaţa profesională a subalternilor săi, inducând în ei un sentiment de reuşită. Nu unul de frustrare sau de nemulţumire. Precum un doctor, el le poartă de grijă oamenilor ca unor bolnavi. Asta face parte din datoriile sale.

Socotim o valoare esenţială faptul că sublimul unei ambiţii, aceea de a te impune şi de a îndrăzni să te manifeşti ca un om liber, este considerat o formă modificată a frumosului, un exerciţiu de autenticitate sustras oricărei condiţionări. Şi la fel cum estetica este ştiinţa despre frumos, în ea neputând fi încadrată un tratat despre perfecţiune fiindcă este relativă, tot astfel grija de sine nu trebuie să vorbească despre măreţie decât dacă o vom privi ca un interes acordat valorificării unor noi teritorii ale războiului dintre ce înseamnă să trăieşti rezultatele gândirii altora şi ce înseamnă să trăieşti în lumea ta.

Pentru că arta succesului şi estetica vieţii, ca rezultat al creării de sine, înfăţişează atât măreţia, după cum înfăţişează comedia identităţii, după cum înfăţişează tot ceea ce poate constitui un interes acordat eliberării din robia amară a inferiorităţii faţă de toţi aceia care domină prin poziţie şi prin rol.

Meritul puterii de decizie al oamenilor aparţine liderului care nu se evaluează în conformitate cu modul de a se racorda la vederile lor subiective.

Aşa cum un acrobat se impune prin simţul echilibrului şi printr-o coordonare motrică deosebită, tot aşa şi tu, ca să modelezi atitudinea oamenilor, ca să schimbi climatul organizaţiei tale de la „ arctic " la „ tropical ", trebuie să-ţi impui acea prestanţă care te face să fii îndrăgit imediat şi să adopţi un stil de leadership în lumina nevoilor lor.

Pune-ţi amprenta fiinţei tale în sufletul oamenilor, astfel încât percepţia lor finală despre tine să fie în acord cu tendinţa lor spre deplina împlinire.

În căutarea tărâmului de smarald aleargă tot omul. Greu este de găsit. Însă liderului îi revine rolul de a asigura un climat favorabil la locul de muncă, ceea ce permite atât dezvoltarea relaţiilor interumane cât şi dezvoltarea creativităţii, creşterea randamentului individual şi reducerea stresului profesional.

Toţi oamenii au nevoie de o pauză lăuntrică, de o destindere a simţirilor prea puternic încordată. Ei nu pot fi orientaţi spre performanţă atâta timp cât activităţile pe care le desfăşoară îi epuizează fizic, dar mai ales psihic.

Clipa cea mai fericită a unui om nu trebuie să fie doar atunci când păşeşte în companie, ea trebuie să persiste pe toată perioada angajării. Compania trebuie să fie şi un fel de refugiu spiritual, o alinare sufletească, un tărâm de smarald în care oamenii să fie străbătuţi de acel sublim sentiment de bucurie nemaipomenit, de adevăratul "verde" al speranţei, şi totodată de siguranţă. Atât de îmbătător trebuie să se arate entuziasmul lor acolo încât să-şi piardă orice îngrijorare.

În căutarea unei oaze care nu există

On Aprilie 14, 2015

Controlează profunzimea judecăţilor de valoare pe care le faci şi le transmiţi, pătrunzând pe cărările întortocheate ale neînţelesurilor care conferă ştiinţei superioritatea netă faţă de cunoaşterea comună.

Eram cuprins de un sentiment intens, în întreaga configuraţie a clipei izolate de orice conţinut, într-un hăţiş de sensuri ale existenţei vecine cu nefiinţa. Suprafiresc, în răbufnirile nepotolite ale inspiraţiei şi inventivităţii mele caracteristice, în strigătul pasiunii pentru nepătrunsul mister a tot ceea ce poate fi şi nu e, totul căpăta valoarea absolutului. Parcă toate muriseră o dată cu înlănţuirea gândurilor mele într-o secvenţă a transferurilor de înţelesuri implicate în calculul interesului pentru tot ceea ce nu există. Sau, mai bine zis, pentru tot ceea ce există în necunoscut.

Ca un om aflat în semiîntuneric care ascunde un secret bine păstrat, plănuisem atât de multe lucruri pe care să le schimb fără ca nimeni să observe, printr-un noian de informaţii contradictorii, printre firele de plumb ale negării a tot ceea ce există. Doar astfel aş fi putut fi acolo unde ceva se sfârşeşte şi unde altceva începe să fie. Totul se petrecerea în creierul meu. Ca in orice roman a lui John Fowles.

Asemenea Vrăjitorului din Oz, al cărui meşteşug tainic putea schimba ceva rău în ceva bun, incompletul în complet, în bunăvoinţa posibilului, intenţionam să scot dintr-un scrin o inimă micuţă croită din mătase, umplută cu rumeguş şi s-o pun mândru acolo unde totul este imposibil, necredibil, nerealizabil. Apoi, prin stimularea impulsurilor de raţiune să perfecţionez o mecanică care să-i dea inimii înţelegere şi să se potrivească cu ceea ce încercam să proiectez asupra celorlalţi. Asta echivala cu descoperirea valenţelor mele de semnificare, reprezenta puterea de a fi altfel.

Neîndoielnic, era rostirea din mine, care se înălţa către infinit şi revenea către sfârşit, la răscrucea dintre artă, deviaţii şi exagerări, ca o alcătuire de sensuri în povestea unei vieţi ce seamănă cu o plimbare prin deşert în căutarea unei oaze care nu există.

Totul se putea transforma într-o iluzie, ştiind că este mijlocul căutării mele în nişte circumstanţe de fundal, la limita posibilităţilor fireşti ale intuiţiei pure, cu feluritele ei chipuri de combinare şi creare, între spuse şi nespuse, a verosimilului şi neverosimilului.

Leadership: Te implici în crearea unei realităţi care lasă să se întrevadă feluritele chipuri ale unei gândiri neînţelese, prin faptul că tot ceea ce iei drept viziune se dovedeşte a fi o problemă de interpretare a propriei persoane prin ambiguitate şi tăinuire?

Cine vrea să determine imposibilul, din perspectiva numeroaselor posibilităţi ale formei de a fi, în favoarea aprofundării cunoaşterii din alte perspective, în continuarea realităţii de dincolo de cuvinte, alunecând spre a contrazice principiile acceptate ca fiind adevărate, mai întâi trebuie să-şi impună grija pentru plăsmuirile imaginarului, tot aşa cum sculptorul creează modele noi şi interesante din nişte bucăţi de piatră aruncate la întâmplare.

Ideea este că stilul de exprimare şi profunzimea judecăţilor de valoare pe care le faci şi le transmiţi, în ecuaţia leadershipului care exprimă relaţia dintre ceea ce gândeşti şi ceea ce eşti, trebuie înţeleasă totodată ca ştiinţă a tipului de cunoaştere care nu vine doar din raţiune – ci prin simţuri.

Este vorba de o ştiinţă a complexelor trăiri încercate în condiţiile respectivului tip de cunoaştere, subordonat unui suprafiresc - uneori este închipuire, iar alteori realitate - care creează o evoluţie bazată pe fenomenul de căutare şi recoltare a informaţiilor, urmat de utilizarea şi transmiterea lor la un nivel superior de leadership.

Ştiinţa senzaţiilor, a impresiilor, a emoţiilor, a plăsmuirilor, revine frecvent în dimensiunea leadershipului, conform semnificaţiilor atribuite unor concepte întemeiate în contact cu imaginarul. Care, deşi aparent nu au o corespondenţă concretă, ci se exprimă printr-un proces de deviaţii şi exagerări, conduc la sădirea unor altfel de convingeri pe care inteligenţa le foloseşte în definirea unor noi direcţii de gândire. Dar şi la definirea unor aspecte de interpretare a ceea ce se poate percepe numai în contradicţii, în experienţa unicităţii creatoare.

Leadership: Poţi să dai o nouă interpretare propriei creaţii, venită într-un moment când resursele miezului originar al acesteia par îngreunate de încercarea de reprezentare a complexităţii imaginarului?

Deoarece cunoaşterea obţinută prin intermediul plăsmuirilor nu se poate realiza decât la nivelul contactului cu formele inerente ale neverosimilului, rezultă că marele miracol al creaţiei poate fi înţeles totodată ca o ştiinţă a formelor de manifestare a gândirii, a formelor de întemeiere a unor sensuri nespuse din sfera existenţialului. Ce contribuie la conturarea unor noi puncte de vedere, a unei noi identităţi, a unei noi orientări, a unei noi abordări a tot ceea ce înseamnă "tainic".

Plăsmuirile minţii duc la conturarea unor adevăruri nespuse şi dau încredere sporită în paşii ce-i vei face în viitorul atât de incert şi schimbător. Iar a te implica într-un real care lasă să se întrevadă feluritele chipuri ale unei gândiri neînţelese este sinonim cu a intra într-o lume, dincolo de sfera ta de experienţă, încercând să faci o schimbare de substanţă.

Ceea ce înseamnă că leadershipul, printr-o elasticitate a gândirii, prin posibilitatea de a te hrăni cu „neînţelesuri” şi de a te detaşa de convingerile conjuncturale, dătătoare de blocaje, pe care le experimentezi prin interacţiune directă cu realul, a căpătat bazele unei construcţii de mai mare amploare, de tip „ If-While-Else. .”

O nouă interpretare a propriei creaţiei, la răscrucea dintre artă, deviaţii şi exagerări, poate fi tratată ca o alcătuire de sensuri în povestea unei vieţi care poate fi caracterizată printr-o conglomerarea de idei total anapoda care duc într-o direcţie necunoscută, dar constructivă.

Interpretarea pe care o dau creaţiei mele este în strânsă legătură cu dorinţa de a ieşi în evidenţă în perspectiva unei extinderi de asocieri şi potriviri, în plan epistemologic sau metafizic, astfel încât ceea ce îmi poate conferi unicitate să fie cât mai subiectiv, un fel de idealism arbitrar care nu ia în seamă realitatea pe care omul de rând o vede în jur.

În căutarea unei oaze care nu există evidenţiază acea călătorie în necunoscut, privită ca un salt înainte pe scara evoluţiei universului şi creaţiei. Ideea este că ceea ce încerci să constaţi se află în altă parte, într-o altă formă - dar există, şi poate fi folosit drept combustibil pentru a produce schimbarea de mentalitate, propagând noi coordonate ale cunoaşterii. Fapt ce implică transformarea modului de gândire prin îmbrăţişarea neînţelesului.

În ce constă arta regizorului

On Februarie 01, 2009

Autenticitatea în expresia artistică se naște din echilibrul delicat între veridic și afectiv, în direcția unui înțeles profund și personal al realității umane.

Metoda de lucru a celor doi artişti funcţionează perfect, fără asperităţi. Colaborarea are întotdeauna opt momente succesive precise. Întâi Eisenstein îi arată montajul secvenţei. Apoi secvenţa se cronometrează şi regizorul îşi expune dorinţele faţă de muzică. Îşi exprimă plastic aceste deziderate: "Iată, aici trebuie să sune aşa ca şi cum cineva i-ar smulge unei mame copilul din braţe", sau "să faci să se audă aşa cum ai lovi un dop de o sticlă". Prokofiev se arată totdeauna încântat de asemenea indicaţii plastice.

Apoi compozitorul se întoarce în camera lui de hotel din Alma-Ata, unde transpune cronometrajul notat într-un anumit număr de măsuri în funcţie de tempo-ul pe care urmează să-l aibă muzica secvenţei. Pe plan se află atunci un metronom, un cronometru şi coli nescrise încă, însă cu portativele împărţite în măsuri şi mâzgălite cu tot felul de însemnări pe înţelesul lui doar. Odată fixate astfel cu precizie cadrele compoziţiei, Prokofiev compune muzica ce se înscrie în această reţea de măsuri calculată prealabil.

Leadership: Poți accentua sentimentul de revelație când, în fața unei opere de artă, simți cum inspirația își găsește ecou în propria ta experiență existențială?

Ceea ce artistul va săvârși ulterior, printr-un soi de plăsmuire a ideilor (și informațiilor) receptate prin viziune, nu constituie decât materializarea eficientă a acelui determinant primordial în declanșarea acțiunii creatoare numită inspirație, Rumatatti Aliudagoss Essaes, o impulsionare a tuturor aptitudinilor omului, şi este manifestată în toate realizările artistice de valoare. Arta devine deci, în privinţa viziunii artistice, un „fenomen unde simţurile cele mai dezvoltate, precum văzul şi auzul (care se manifestă în experienţele existenţiale) trebuiesc apreciate după criteriile impuse de raporturile fenomenologice generate de fiecare aceste trei orizonturi: emoţie, exprimare şi expresivitate.

Mai ales că, faţá-n faţă cu un motiv tematic precum "smulge unei mame copilul din braţe", arta unui regizor trebuie să-şi manifeste preocuparea de a surprinde esenţa impresionantă a acelui motiv. Aşadar, arta, aşa cum este ea, determinată prin colaborarea strânsă a mai multor artişti, trebuie să detecteze ce se află ascuns dincolo de înfăţişarea exterioară a unui „subiect", deci, cu alte cuvinte, ea trebuie să pătrundă în adâncul misterului pe care subiectul încearcă să-l dezvăluie în mod inovativ.

Arta regizorului constă în a surprinde esența profundă a motivului, dincolo de aparențele exterioare. El trebuie să exploreze complexitatea emoțiilor și să dezvăluie impactul uman al tragediei. Cât despre "pătrunderea în mister", arta devine o cheie care trebuie să permită spectatorilor să pătrundă în misterul suferinței umane. Ea trebuie să provoace spectatorii să reflecte la condiția umană și la tragismul unor situații limită.

Leadership: În căutarea ta de sens, ai descoperit cum arta servește ca o punte între realitatea palpabilă și lumea abstractă a emoțiilor care guvernează existența umană?

Important este faptul că prin explorarea artistică a durerii și a pierderii, regizorul poate oferi publicului o experiență cathartică. Emoțiile provocate de spectacol pot contribui la vindecarea emoțională și la o mai bună înțelegere a condiției umane. Arta nu este doar o formă de divertisment, ci are și un rol social important. Prin abordarea unor teme sensibile, ea poate contribui la conștientizarea problemelor sociale și la stimularea dialogului public.

Este greu să pătrunzi în misterul suferinței umane, iar arta regizorului constă în facilitarea înțelegerii acestei profunde trăiri. Există numeroase exemple de filme care au abordat cu succes acest motiv tematic, precum "Schindler's List", "Requiem for a Dream" sau "Grave of the Fireflies". În muzica compusă pentru oricare scenariu din aceste filme, suferinţa umană a fost reprezentată de tonalități obscure, progresii de acorduri enigmatice și utilizarea instrumentelor cu sunete profunde sau etere, care au adaugat o atmosferă enigmatică și neliniștitoare.

Ceea ce artistul va săvârși ulterior, adică "plăsmuirea totală" care încearcă o revelare a misterului, generând emoții intense în bula cărora regăsim erotism și violență, iubire sau ură, nu constituie decât o manifestare metaforică a acelui determinant primordial al cărui impact influențează toate aspectele creației. Întâlnim aici un fenomen de acomodare a misterului cu înțelegerea subiectivă, pe o cale alternativă: interceptarea semnelor vitale și relansarea lor metaforică, prin actul unui reinterpretări creatoare. În mod lapidar s-ar putea spune că punctul în care trebuie să ajungă creația, printr-un soi de metaforă a misterului, referitor la orice subiect cules din viața reală, trebuie să îmbrace veșminte metaforice în această reinterpretare creatoare.

Leadership: Ai conștientizat vreodată că, prin intermediul propriilor tale interpretări, ești invitat să evaluezi opera de artă într-un mod unic, explorând tensiunile și emoțiile ascunse în spatele fiecărui motiv existenţial?

În inima acestui proces de colaborare, în care metoda de lucru și tempo-ul creativ al lui Eisenstein și Prokofiev funcționează într-o sincronizare perfectă, descoperim esența plăsmuirii artistice. Arta, așadar, nu mai este doar un fenomen singular, ci devine un dialog dinamic între viziuni, un montaj al secvențelor emoționale și simbolice ce compun peisajul interior al creatorilor. Pe acest fundal al interdisciplinarității, unde muzica și imaginea se împletesc, simţurile noastre sunt invitate să evalueze opera de artă prin prisma unei plasticități emoționale și a unui simbolism profund, ce transcende cadrele compoziției obișnuite.

Comunicarea eficientă și colaborarea creativă dintre cei doi artiști evidențiază o preocupare constantă de a pătrunde dincolo de suprafața vizibilă a realității, de a explora tensiunea și emoția ascunse în adâncul misterului fiecărui motiv tematic. Astfel, creația lor comună devine o interpretare curajoasă, o receptare a misterului prin lentila unei viziuni artistice îndrăznețe, redând vieții semnele vitale ale umanității printr-o reeditare metaforică care exprimă, într-un mod unic, complexitatea experienței umane.

Prin intermediul artei, văzută ca o punte între diverse forme de expresie, poţi să-ţi depăşeşti limitele expresiei individuale, oferind o interpretare complexă a vieții. Iar pentru ca artă să se transforme într-un limbaj universal al emoțiilor, ea trebuie să depășească barierele culturale și să atingă corzile sensibile ale oamenilor din diferite medii și contexte.

Arta regizorului constă în a transforma un motiv tematic dureros într-o operă de artă semnificativă și emoționantă. Prin sensibilitate, colaborare și inovație, regizorul poate crea o experiență artistică care provoacă spectatorii, îi emoționează și îi face să reflecteze la complexitatea vieții. De fapt, regizorul trebuie să găsească un echilibru între realism și sensibilitate, evitând melodramatismul și sentimentalismul excesiv.

În ce rezidă caracterul autobiografic al filmului?

On August 29, 2011

Ca să excelezi în cinematografie trebuie să demonstrezi capacitatea de a distila experiențele emoționale personale și de a le sublima în narațiuni complexe, traducându-le în metafore și imagini.

Clocotul acesta nedefinit, care fierbe în cazanul imaginației realizatorului, cuprinde și materia memoriei emoționale acumulate de-a lungul vieții. S-a presupus nu o dată că „Ivan cel Groaznic" are și un sens autobiografic. Dar afirmația, insuficient fondată pe o argumentare care să mânuiască datele reale biografice, a rămas neconvingătoare. Mai mult, uneori, forțându-se asemănările și paralelele, comparația în sens biografic capătă un aer ridicol prin simplismul ei. Și totuși, nota autobiografică a lui „Ivan" este certă.

Caracterul autobiografic al filmului nu rezidă însă în similitudinea exterioară a situațiilor. Ea apare în două sensuri: „Ivan" înglobează o experiență afectivă – să-i spunem, memoria unor emoții proprii, a unor stări psihice de importanță esențială prin care trecuse realizatorul, care apar însă sublimate în film, traduse în cifrul unor metafore legate de fabulația cinematografică. Apoi, „Ivan" se naște din distilarea întregii experiențe creatoare de până acum, incluzând o parte a ei, dezvoltând teme mai vechi, reluând altele care revin acum într-o formă nouă.

Un lider vizionar știe să își transforme propria memorie afectivă într-un material artistic, folosind experiențele de viață pentru a da profunzime și autenticitate poveștilor sale.

Analiza caracterului autobiografic al unui film precum 'Ivan cel Groaznic' se face de obicei când experiențele personale ale regizorului sunt aduse sub forma unor metafore fine, deoarece este greu de obținut o reprezentare foarte directă și omogenă a vieții originale ale personajului, astfel încât să se înregistreze o transmisie emoțională optimă către spectatori (valori recomandate pentru impactul maxim al narațiunii cinematografice).

Conform teoriei creației cinematografice, dacă se trece de la experiența personală aflată în stare pură la transpunerea ei în film, scăderea întregii autenticități se realizează gradual, în timp ce intensitatea transmisiei emoționale depinde de produsul dintre profunzimea experienței de viață și mărimea transpunerii metaforice în limbaj cinematografic. În acest context, indicele de refracție emoțională al experiențelor personale în raport cu mediul cinematografic în care sunt prezentate reprezintă, de fapt, gradul de transformare a emoției reale în emoție filmică, iar amploarea metaforei folosite face apropierea de universalitatea mesajului.

Caracterul autobiografic al unui film poate să rezide nu din similitudinea exterioară a situațiilor, ci din experiența afectivă și stările psihice esențiale ale regizorului, traduse în metafore cinematografice.

Bineînțeles, transmisia emoțională este mai accentuată în scenele cu impact puternic (unde încărcătura emoțională este mai mare), mai ales în cazul în care experiența personală rezonează cu experiențele comune ale publicului. Acest efect se atenuează dacă experiența personală este încorporată într-un context narativ cu un indice de refracție emoțională cât mai apropiat de cel al experienței reale a regizorului și dacă metafora folosită, de genul „oglinda sufletului", este foarte subtilă.

Această abordare subliniază importanța echilibrului între autenticitatea experienței personale și capacitatea de a o transmite într-un mod universal accesibil prin intermediul limbajului cinematografic. Desigur, regizorul trebuie să găsească punctul optim între păstrarea autenticității emoționale și utilizarea tehnicilor cinematografice pentru a amplifica impactul asupra spectatorului.

Astfel, caracterul autobiografic al filmului „Ivan" nu rezidă în similitudinea exterioară a situațiilor, ci în două aspecte esențiale: filmul înglobează o experiență afectivă profundă a regizorului, o memorie a unor emoții și stări psihice fundamentale, sublimate și traduse în limbajul metaforic al narațiunii cinematografice. În plus, filmul „Ivan" se naște din distilarea întregii experiențe creatoare anterioare a lui Eisenstein, dezvoltând și reluând teme mai vechi într-o formă nouă și mai complexă.

Esența leadershipului artistic constă în abilitatea de a integra experiențele psihice profunde ale creatorului, sublimându-le și transformându-le în elemente centrale ale narațiunii cinematografice.

În ce rezidă caracterul autobiografic al filmului? El constă în integrarea experiențelor emoționale și psihice esențiale ale realizatorului, sublimându-le în narațiunea cinematografică și traducându-le în metafore vizuale complexe. Mai ales că aceste experiențe personale influențează profund modul în care sunt construite personajele și atmosfera filmului, conferindu-i o autenticitate greu de replicat.

În faţa oglinzii ne vedem pe noi înşine

Concentrează-ţi sfera acţiunii de construire a sinelui asupra a ceea ce stă la baza existenţei tale, aşa încât imaginea ta reflectată într-o oglindă să treacă prin focarul unei corespondenţe cu spiritualitatea.

Facem o asemănare în oglindă? Tu spui ce crezi despre mine. Şi eu despre tine. Te încumeţi să joci acest joc, chiar dacă nu nimerim complet adevărul celuilalt? Vrei? Desigur. Începe tu, ideea a fost a ta, deci ai întâietate. Bine. Nu îmi e greu. Însă după ce termin aştept să-mi spui tu. Îţi dai cuvântul?

Promit să fiu sincer, şi totodată imparţial. Ştiu că este greu să fii o oglindă, dar dacă reuşeşti să îţi reflectezi personalitatea în altcineva, împărtăşind adevărurile lăuntricului tău, atunci poate că raza care trece prin focarul principal al oglinzii s-ar întoarce tot în mediul din care au provenit, în sufletul amândurora.

Bine. Părerea mea. Mai întâi, cred că eşti foarte organizat în ce faci şi asta dintr-o disciplină anume. Când ţi se impune ceva refuzi, nu faci decât dacă este în acord cu personalitatea ta. Ai un suflet bun şi eşti poate prea meticulos, inclusiv în a-ţi aşeza stările, care fiind prea înalte nu rezonează cu orişicine. Îţi place să ai libertate de gândire, de mişcare, să fii tu însuţi, mereu în largul tău. Armonia fizică şi mai ales cea spirituală cu o persoană te-ar face împlinit, însă nu le-ai descoperit la o persoană simultan. Singurătatea nu îţi place şi cu toate acestea e starea ta naturală. Ai vrea o schimbare, însă mai întâi aceasta trebuie să apară şi cumva să fii nevoit să o accepţi, pentru că simţi că viaţa ta este ca şi cum ai merge contra curentului. În sfârşit, îţi plac lucrurile făcute de tine, eşti disciplinat, nu eşti ranchiunos şi dacă ai fi iubit cu adevărat ai simţi că eşti un întreg. Punct.

Spiritualitatea este rezultatul punctului în care sinele tău întâlneşte exteriorul prin intermediul unei mărturisiri care nu se întoarce împotriva ta.

Ha, ha. Credeam că îmi vei spune totul încă de la copilărie la maturitate. Da, e ok ce-ai precizat despre mine. Mai puţin chestia asta cu "viaţa dusă contra curentului". De fapt, cred că viaţa merge fix cum trebuie, doar că nu se împlineşte totul atât de repede cum vreau eu. Pe alte planuri merge super bine, tot înainte, dar mna, la alte capitole sunt în urma tare de tot...Şi ai uitat de Univers, această raţionalitate a Creaţiei colosale care mă controlează, oricât aş încerca eu să schimb lucrurile. De aceea nici nu mă agit...degeaba mă agit...las totul să se petreacă. Ok, deci îţi dau 9,50 pentru prezentarea profilului meu psihologic şi sentimental. Puteai să te faci psiholog...

Asemănările și diferențele integrate în oglinzile noastre sunt componente optice care funcţionează bine pe baza reflecţiei dintre fluxul gândurilor şi posibilitatea de a le exprima fluent. Ele permit propagarea "luminii" revelatoare după direcţia dorită de un univers straniu, în drumul rectiliniu de propagare a unor cauze şi efecte vizibile în fiecare etapă a vieţii noastre. Trebuie doar să ne mărturisim unii altora adevărurile care ne pot trezi la realitatea augmentată, în contextul cultului universului despre supravieţuirea şi destinul omului în lume.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care ţi-o formezi despre "iluminare" este afectată din cauza diferenţei dintre fluxul gândurilor şi posibilitatea de a le exprima fluent în contextul căutării celuilalt în sfera de percepţie a sinelui?

Acum e rândul meu. Ce am de spus despre TINE? În primul rând sunt ferm convins că eşti în strânsă legătură cu o altă persoană care mă admiră nespus (poţi fi o prietenă bună, sau o rudă apropiată), deci nu eşti tu cu adevărat cea care pretinzi că eşti.

Apoi, cred că eşti o persoană foarte citită, îndrăgostită de poezii (ceea ce denotă romantism, delicateţe, visare). Nu cred de nicio culoare că eşti măritată, fiindcă niciun om căsătorit nu stă pe Facebook în fiecare zi la ore atât de târzii. Mai cred că eşti o persoană emotivă, şi puţin cam timidă, aici pe Facebook vorbeşti mult, în realitate eşti cam tăcută (mai ales faţă de cineva ca mine). Cu prietenele tale te simţi în largul tău. Şi tind să cred că ai o frică de ceva, nu ştiu, gen să nu fii părăsită sau înşelată.

Eşti o fire posesivă, iar asta de obicei se întâmplă la persoanele singure, care nu au avut parte de ataşament din partea cuiva. Adesea te superi repede din nimica toată. Ai vrea să ai o viaţă romantică şi provocatoare în acelaşi timp, dar nici nu faci un pas înainte pentru asta, până şi sărutul te sperie. Mai în glumă, mai în serios, dar aşa este. De asemenea, eşti la curent cu noutăţile. Ai un suflet bun, dar viaţa te-a amărât oleacă mai mult. Vrei iubire, dar nu eşti pregătită s-o primeşti. Cam atât aş avea de spus despre tine. Greşesc undeva?

Iluminarea este o perpetuă căutare a adevărului despre lume şi univers pe care credem că-l găsim atunci când ne găsim ghidul moral şi sufletesc în altcineva asemănător nouă, sau atunci când ne mărturisim adevărurile care ne forţează să fim noi înşine. Astfel, sfera de percepţie a sinelui poate fi corelată cu imaginile obiectelor luminoase pe care le formează oglinzile sferice, cu referire la acea parte automată a fiecărei ființe umane care permite celorlalţi să se alinieze unei cauze comune, în structura unei ordini armonice prestabilite.

Explorează universul în realitatea augmentată, şi prezint-o cu toate „fineţurile" aferente, poţi?

Leadership: Sfera de extindere a sinelui tău, bazat pe spiritual, permite orientarea imaginii care te reprezintă în direcţia unei activităţi cu impact "eliberator" al cărui unghi de incidenţă poate fi modificat în anumite valori?

Oglinda, ca marcă a mărturisirilor discrete şi sincere, este partea esenţială a unei activităţi cu impact "eliberator" al cărui unghi de incidenţă poate fi modificat în anumite valori: puterea de a-ţi asuma cine eşti cu adevărat şi curajul de a te accepta aşa cum eşti. Imaginea care te reprezintă în lume, sau în faţa oglinzii, este ceea ce îndrăzneşti să afirmi despre tine fără să te simţi copleşit de ceea ce se întâmplă în viaţa ta, fără să te simţi vinovat din cauză că ai fi putut fi altcineva şi n-ai reuşit să fii.

Bine, acum pot răspunde la punctul tău de vedere? Jur că nu te cunosc şi nu cunosc pe nimeni din cei apropiaţi ţie. Simpla asociere pe care o faci tu e doar o pură întâmplare. Este adevărat ce ai spus la un moment dat. Însă ai nimerit, ai avut noroc. Dar mai departe trebuie să ştii că sunt măritată...eu şi soţul meu nu suntem genul să ne sufocăm...avem loc în casă...suficient. Da, deci m-am apropiat de adevăr. Nu sunt emotivă. Deloc. Sunt foarte tranşantă. Cine mă cunoaşte ştie. Dimpotrivă, sunt prea bătăioasă.

Astea fiind spuse, oglinda noastră se potriveşte perfect, nu se abureşte odată cu trecerea timpului, chiar dacă ideile noastre se schimbă. Ea afişează în mod evident lucrurile în care credem. Oglinda nu schimbă felul în care vedem lumea, şi pe noi înşine cuprinşi în călătoria spre lumină, spre izvorul vieţii, spre sursa ei divină. Poate că inima noastră încă își caută o comoară de care să se lipească, în care să își găsească liniştea. În faţa oglinzii ne arătăm demnitatea. În faţa oglinzii ne găsim liniştea. În faţa oglinzii ne vedem pe noi înşine ca pe o singură entitate, ca pe o singură imagine. Şi numai în faţa oglinzii adăugăm însemnări cu uşurinţă...

Oglinda, ca ipostază a Adevărului pe care îl surprindem în raport de individualitate, simbolizează partea superioară a omului ce iese în evidenţă din raportului sinelui cu Celălalt şi al Celuilalt cu Acelaşi.

În faţa oglinzii ne vedem pe noi înşine ori de câte ori încercăm să ne cunoaştem mai bine sau să depăşim anumite tipare şi obstacole personale. Am învăţat, conversând cu Ioana Sarah, că pot fi acelaşi eu pe care o să-l revăd şi mâine, chiar dacă Dumnezeu nu m-a creat perfect, ci doar mi-a cizelat spiritul să fie o formă de conştiinţă curată.

Amin.

În faţa tăcerii veşnice

On Mai 03, 2015

Măsoară-ţi caracterul pe baza modului cum eşti recepţionat de cei din jur, ţinând seama de cerinţa de a trăi cu tine însuţi în numele slujirii unei lumi pierdute.

Mercedes se schimbase mult. Şi asta nu din pricină că în timpul când fusese în culmea bogăţiei s-ar fi fălit cu fastul trufaş care înlătură în mod vădit urmele stării sociale şi face să nu mai recunoşti femeia de altădată ce-ţi apare sub veşminte mai simple. Şi nici pentru că ar fi căzut în starea jalnică de a fi silită să poarte veşmintele sărăciei. Nu. Mercedes părea schimbată pentru că nu-i mai străluceau ochii, pentru că gura nu-i mai zâmbea, pentru că, în sfârşit, o stingherie necurmată îi oprea pe buze cuvintele pe care altădată mintea ei ageră o făcea să le rostească fără zăbavă.

Mercedes nu cunoscuse niciodată adevărata mizerie. În tinereţea ei, ea vorbise adeseori despre sărăcie, dar asta este cu totul altceva. Nevoia şi necesitatea sunt două cuvinte asemănătoare şi care totuşi sunt tare departe unul de celălalt. Dar nu sărăcia îi vestejise mintea acestei femei, şi nici lipsa de curaj nu făcuse ca sărăcia să i se pară apăsătoare.

Coborâtă din lumea unde trăise, pierdută în lumea pe care şi-o alesese acum, asemenea acelora ce ies dintr-un salon iluminat feeric, ca să păşească dintr-o dată în beznă, Mercedes părea o regină descinsă din palat într-o colibă, o regină având doar cât îi trebuia ca să nu moară de foame, nerecunoscându-şi nici vasele de lut pe care era silită să le aducă ea însăşi la masă, şi nici culcuşul sărăcăcios care îi înlocuise patul. În preajmă nu vedea decât lucruri întristătoare… În faţa tăcerii acesteia veşnice, simţea că ameţeşte aşa cum simte călătorul ajuns la marginea unei prăpăstii. *

Leadership: Te supui unui proces de cunoaştere care îşi jalonează parcursul prin ignoranţa de a nu vedea decât faţeta realităţii care îţi convine?

Deşi opuse ca tendinţă de evaluare personală, cunoaşterea a ceea ce ai fost şi cunoaşterea a ceea ce ai devenit, pe planuri şi etape diferite ale unui proces care şi-a jalonat parcursul prin ignoranţa de a nu vedea decât faţeta realităţii care îţi convine, în alcătuirea cărora nu mai revii decât atunci când viaţa te lasă „baltă", conduc la realizarea unei aspre cerinţe de leadership: cerinţa de a trăi cu tine însuţi în sfârşit.

Sfârşitul măreţiei în numele slujirii unei lumi pierdute, izolat într-un adevăr concentrat pe durere şi limitare, are ca punct de maximă importanţă disponibilitatea de a accepta o realitate apăsătoare ca pe un fapt ireductibil în urma consecințelor evenimentelor la care ai asistat nepăsător. Un om care se învredniceşte de un asemenea sfârşit, complăcându-se într-o suferinţă prelungită, evident că nu-şi poate accepta condiţia ca pe un destin superior, dar îşi poate găsi un sens prin încercarea de a se împăca cu propria conştiinţă.

Relaţia dintre destin şi acceptarea condiţiei de finitudine, o alianţă în sine, compusă atât din năzuinţe cât şi nemotivare, poate explica aparenta contradicţie la care ajunge individul în încercarea de a se autoevalua prin prisma modului cum este recepţionat de lume. Când nu mai eşti atent la ceea ce răspunde unor trebuinţe ale naturii tale, deci atunci când eşti nepăsător cu tine însuţi, începi să captivezi atenţia celorlalţi ca un criteriu al felului tău de spirit, al dispoziţiei sufleteşti de a te mulţumi cu puţin.

În realitate nu este vorba de o contradicţie, ci numai de două modalităţi diferite de vizualizare a propriei fiinţe. Prima, în ipostaza de om răsfăţat, care a fost învăţat să obţină totul prea uşor, fără să se implice cu adevărat în vreun aspect important al vieţii, ca un soi de laşitate dulceagă, conservatoare prin ignoranţă şi duplicitate în asumarea unor preferinţe sau unor responsabilităţi majore. Iar cea de-a doua, drept consecinţă, în ipostaza de adversitate, ca fiind un om complet nerealizat.

Leadership: Vii în întâmpinarea nevoilor tale de individualizare prin prisma poziţionării tale într-un punct de maximă vizibilitate din care decurge o concepţie fatalistă despre viaţă?

Atitudinea ta de vinovăţie înscrisă într-un proces de interferenţă dintre trăirile şi acţiunile amplificate de hazard, duce la un rezultat aferent: respingerea a tot ce este pe gustul tău, îndepărtarea de tot ceea ce te însufleţeşte. Producerea relevanţei în a scoate în evidenţă lacunele propriei mentalităţi, ca o scurtă analiză comparativă cu situaţia existentă, trebuie să genereze un motiv de care să-ţi legi suferinţa şi s-o anuleze, cum ar fi acela de a nu ceda în faţa insistenţelor conştiinţei de a te delimita de lumea din jur.

Aşadar, leadershipul trebuie să fie, în anumită măsură, măsura regularităţii, a ordinii în ceea ce priveşte formarea ta şi a valorilor tale esenţiale, în aşa fel încât să preîntâmpini căderea în abisul vinovăţiei, al trufiei sau al preamăririi de sine. A te poziţiona într-un punct de maximă vizibilitate din care decurge o concepţie fatalistă despre viaţă înseamnă să-ţi orientezi interesul spre limitele unei obiectivităţi autoimpuse, renunţând la ceea ce e important şi valoros sufleteşte.

Să poţi recunoaşte că ai şi greşit, să vrei să te schimbi şi să o faci înainte de a fi prea târziu. Mai întâi în planul conceperii unei noi lumi, respectiv în faza de proiect mental al vieţii tale ascunse. Apoi, în cel al realizării concrete a sensului autenticităţii tale, prin intervenţia directă a hazardului, a întâmplătorului şi a neaşteptatului, având uneori funcţie de „trezire” sau de „reamintire”, apoi să acţionezi în direcţia demnităţii.

Aceasta este condiţia unui leadership transformaţional care serveşte ca suport al devenirii şi al puterii de a te depărta de marginea prăpastiei vieţii, prin asumarea suferinţei sau a fericirii: să ştii să te autoapreciezi în funcţie de dorinţa de ieşire din limitele conştiinţei individuale.

Înainte de a regla nivelul de încredere al celorlalţi în tine, măsoară-ţi parcursul existenţial experimentând acceptarea condiţiei de prezenţă care poate fi uitată.

În faţa tăcerii veşnice se va situa omul care nu a cunoscut niciodată decât acea latură a realităţii care îi convine lui, pe care şi-a imaginat-o, a conştientizat-o, dar nu a trăit-o niciodată. Capacitatea de a percepe o realitate diferită, mergând uneori mână în mână cu orgoliul de a o înfrunta, şi tăria de a deveni acea realitate, sunt două noţiuni asemănătoare. Dar care totuşi sunt tare departe una de cealaltă.

În fiecare zi mă gândesc la mine

Încearcă să-ţi descoperi vederea interioară dincolo de graniţele propriei tale căutări, prin prisma a ceea ce are arta de ascuns în ea privitor la un univers care se autoconstruiește și se autoalimentează evolutiv din propriile resurse.

În fiecare zi mă gândesc la mine. Îmi pun întrebări parcă tot mai încuietoare, care aduc în atenţie acea predilecţie a artistului pentru tot ce este în perpetuă schimbare, mişcare, pentru tot ce este trecător, tranzitoriu. Uneori, printr-o stranie cunoaştere, mă socotesc prizonierul altei lumi, mai spectaculoasă, descrisă în atâtea cărţi cu mistică orientală, ea putând fi admirată numai într-un tablou al artistului fără nume.

Şi ca orice intrare în altă lume, unde fiecare zi este diferită de cealaltă, prizonieratul meu fiind mai spectaculos prin farmecul existenţei irealizabile tehnic în această lume, mă delectez cu maxima cunoaştere izvorâtă parcă din viziunea unui regizor destoinic, obişnuit să lege actorul de decor, filmându-l în contra-plonjeu, în decupajul altor vremuri.

Astfel este lumea mea, ea străbate cât mai profund orizontul unei închipuiri create cu o uimitoare înălţare spre sublim. Este o sesizare de natură intelectuală ce face referire la modul în care artistul jonglează cu elementele lumii nevăzute, pentru a scoate în evidenţă complexitatea dialogului cu acea operă de artă care îţi revitalizează curajul de a crede că dincolo de realitate există ceva frumos, sublim, divin.

Totuşi, de ce sunt neliniştit? Fiindcă simt permanent prezenţa a ceva diferit de mine înăuntrul meu, ceva care mă ancorează într-un "Eu-Origine-Ireal" care se cere interpretat cu minuţiozitate şi deplină înţelepciune pentru a fi pe deplin cuprins în opera unei gândiri numite Tranormhisys . Ea semnifică vibraţia punctului corespondent din microcosmosul fiinţei umane recreată prin cuvinte, direct şi indirect, prin pilde, prin tăceri, prin felul în care artistul reuşeşte să ţeasă contextul-suport pentru noţiunile exprimate aleator.

Atât este de întortocheată gândirea mea, tot gândindu-mă la mine, încât uit adesea de trăirea şi simţirea întregii substanţialităţi a operei.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi schimbi viziunea cu privire la actul de a face artă, înţelegând că de fapt ai putea să fii cunoscut sub mai multe tipuri de fiinţă?

O observaţie preliminară. Prin ceea ce eu însumi sesizez la mine, fiind vorba de o lume mult mai evoluată decât pare la prima vedere, în caz că am deplină încredere în anvergura cosmică a unei geneze permanente, înţeleg că de fapt aş putea să fiu cunoscut sub mai multe tipuri de fiinţă: una fără de sfârşit, una inaccesibilă care nu comunică personal cu nimeni şi una care lucrează în lume, însă nu direct, ci indirect, prin energii. Aici arta are un cuvânt greu de spus: ceea ce mă poate face să înțeleg ceea ce trăiesc, nu are comparaţii şi variaţii în această lume.

Iar dacă structura sofisticată a creierului meu se concentrează în jurul trăsăturilor definitorii ale artei, procesul de creaţie şi actul creat, atunci este de la sine înţeles faptul că tot ceea ce gândesc sugerează dorinţa devoratoare a artistului de a-şi converti viziunea realist-fantastică în noi simboluri, metafore sau alegorii. Spun numai că acordarea creierului meu la artă se face în virtutea dispoziţiilor fireşti ale eului original de a înfrunta acea fază a simbolismului care a favorizat naşterea suprarealismului, angajându-mă în forme mai mature de relaționare cu ceea ce se numeşte Kriplansetikes (o dinamică a trăirilor temporare plasate într-o naraţiune lirică fabuloasă, imaginară).

Şi ori de câte ori vorbesc despre o minte ce poate fi studiată numai prin ştiinţa artei, simt că mă regăsesc în cuvintele lui Patrick Drouot extrase dintr-o carte pur spirituală:

"Deodată, m-am simţit trecând în "turbo". Conştienţa mea superioară şi alte nivele din mine însumi parcă mă căutau. Dar care "eu" şi cine mă căuta? Eu şi tot eu, ca şi cum diverse părţi dispersate din mine însumi se reunificau. În această etapă, încă o dată totul devenea simplu, evident, nu mai aveam corp, existam. Eram ca un satelit artificial pe orbita din jurul Pământului. Eram foarte aproape de această frontieră care separă un univers de altul, o dimensiune de alta... M-am simţit căpătând o dimensiune originală, dimensiunea MEA, aceea pe care am avut-o, pe care o am şi o voi avea în eternitate."

Leadership: Poţi să consolidezi legătura dintre artă şi univers printr-o reflectare asupra căutării unui destin care se lasă citit cu puţină vreme înainte de a fi uitat?

Cred că m-am făcut bine înţeles, chiar dacă înţelesul sinelui meu depăşeşte înţelesul convenţiei de evitare a alterităţii, a dublei stări de conștiență prezentă în mai multe lumi. Iar dacă continui să mă învârt în jurul propriei persoane, observând radiaţiile luminoase care mă aureolează din toate părţile, în jurul trăsăturilor esenţiale ale unei realităţi unde culoarea sufletului contrabalansează desenul inspirat din atmosfera sugerată de o anumită stare, atunci înclin să privesc o imagine în care invizibilul este reprezentat vizual printr-o metaforă a redescoperirii unui univers paradisiac.

Or, acesta este universul meu, traversat de o minte dibace, inventivă, unită cu o paletă de culori formată din tonuri calde, naturale și delicate, precum roşu, galben și oranj ce pun în evidenţă o imagine în care oricând mă regăsesc acelaşi, şi totuşi diferit. Iată ce se întâmplă de fapt. Străbat culisele interiorului meu cu gândul de a mă regăsi în profunzime, în artă, în ştiinţă, în aceeaşi stare şi situaţie, în momentul deschiderii capsulei timpului. Aşadar, mă folosesc de cunoştinte metafizice pentru a înţelege pe cât posibil acest fenomen de cugetare mai măreață decât măreția însăși.

În acelaşi timp, am învăţat să fiu altcineva, cu mult diferit de acel cineva care necontenit îmi şopteşte să rămân acelaşi. Am învăţat că numai în temeiul logicii frumosului, în care metafora are un rol principal, se găseşte unitatea propriei mele fiinţe care, de asemenea, este o parte din "Odiseea" în căutarea Marii Opere Alchimice (aflată sub semnul Misterului Sacru).

Chiar dacă într-o bună zi voi fi uitat în această lume, chiar dacă cuvintele mele vor fi date uitării fără de vină, iar dacă uitarea va lua amploarea unei descensiuni într-un teritoriu obscur, măcar am credinţa să cred că universul mi-a venit în întâmpinare. M-am deschis către el şi el către mine. Am înţeles că misiunea artei este să fii oglinda unui univers care este de neconceput fără tine.

Aşadar, iată concluzia:

Un om care se caută pe sine este un om care se gândeşte zilnic la sine, ca şi cum s-ar gândi la altcineva din umbra unor cuvinte rostite cu fervoare, cu acea greutate profetică cu care numai el este setat să le audă.

În fiecare zi mă gândesc la mine, la fel cum în fiecare zi mă recunosc tot mai mult ca fiind altcineva. Universul mi-a scos în cale un om minunat alături de care am motive să presupun că adevărată plăcere în perceperea artei este calea ce trebuie parcursă pentru a ajunge să fiu eu însumi un univers. Într-o bună zi voi înțelege de ce un Univers infinit poate să se reflecte într-un singur om, tot atât de complex, determinist şi uimitor.

În gol se ascunde plinul

On Decembrie 14, 2008

Adaugă o imensă semnificaţie leadershipului tău, fără să pierzi din vedere idealul de valori pe care îl porţi în suflet.

Şi de această dată voi începe spunând câteva cuvinte despre celebrul actor român Puiu Călinescu, considerat de mulţi critici de film ca fiind chiar unul dintre cei mai talentaţi actori din lume. La show-ul de televiziune "Profesioniştii", realizatoarea emisiunii, Eugenia Vodă, l-a întrebat pe marele actor, destul de în vârstă:

- Un actor ca dumneavoastră trebuie să fie plin de bani, asta ar crede telespectatorii. Dar eu am văzut cât de modest trăiţi. De ce? Aţi fost un mare cheltuitor, sau n-aţi reuşit să strângeţi banii?

Iar Puiu Călinescu i-a răspuns:

- Sunt unii care au banii în sânge. Este o boală. A avea bani. Eu merg pe invers. Eu vreau doar atât: să mă ajute Dumnezeu ca poporul să mă iubească. Eu îl iubesc.

Poţi aduce un plus de imagine leadershipului tău mulţumindu-te cu puţin, decât să te încrezi într-o dramă a vieţii care reuşeşte să te răscolească până în cel mai îndepărtat colțișor din suflet?

Poţi să ai puţin, şi totuşi să fii un om mare. Succesul tău ca lider, îţi este practic garantat doar dacă influenţa pe care o exerciţi asupra celorlalţi aduce un plus de imagine leadershipului tău. Iar părerea mea este că actorul Puiu Călinescu a vrut să exprime un mare adevăr: "În gol se ascunde plinul". Adică, nu trebuie să fii bogat ca să fii cineva. Poţi să ai puţin, şi totuşi să fii un om mare.

Acesta este unul dintre giuvaierele leadershipului care aliniază practicile, valorile şi principiile după care se ghidează oamenii virtuoşi. Acest principiu ne permite să luăm decizii înţelepte, să devenim mai încrezători în noi înşine, să apelăm la o gândire limpede, să judecăm mai lucid implicaţiile faptelor noastre, să dăm randament în ceea ce facem şi să ne îndreptăm pe drumul cel bun.

Un alt lucru foarte important care transpare din vorbele marelui actor este că fiecare dintre noi trebuie să călătorim spre descoperirea sinelui, să împlinim cât mai bine scopul etern al artei de a ne înţelege, de a ne gestiona cât mai bine propria existenţă, şi de a ne transforma în fiinţe desăvârşite fără să pierdem din vedere idealul de valori pe care îl purtăm în suflet. Călătoria noastră spre redescoperirea de sine poate fi cât se poate de rodnică în ceea ce priveşte calitatea propriei noastre existenţe, fiind unanim recunoscută de ceilalţi ca având puterea de a trezi interes prin ea însăşi, de a trezi credinţe.

Leadershipul tău se măsoară după felul în care îţi câştigi existenţa, sau după felul în care acţiunile îţi trădează personalitatea într-un contex de tipul: "Nu te limita doar la ceea ce vezi în faţa ta" ?

Se spune că cel care stăpâneşte sensul vieţii unui om, este stăpânul sufletului său. Sau, altfel spus, află ce-şi doreşte liderul, află care sunt trăirile şi emoţiile sale, şi vei avea o mare înrâurire asupra vieţii lui, asupra conştiinţei sale, asupra leadershipului său. Iar cele mai importante valori ale liderului sunt: compasiunea, empatia, acceptarea de sine, iertarea, spiritualitatea, pacea interioară, înţelegerea.

Mulţi "artişti" în ale leadershipului, îndeosebi cei care au demarat la timp schimbarea şi au facilitat dezvoltarea propriei lor existenţe, transformându-se treptat în oameni desăvârşiţi (prin virtute, prin idealuri, prin exemplul personal, insuflând oamenilor din jur aceeaşi stare de spirit) şi-au imaginat mai întâi de toate drumul pe care îl vor parcurge în viaţă, în carieră. Ei s-au gândit la propria lor dezvoltare, ca lideri, conştientizând faptul că calitatea corespunzătoare de lider nu se rezumă doar la avansarea profesională, ci la maximizarea valorii celor din jur, prin intermediul propriilor lor calităţi deosebite.

Căci până la urmă viaţa unui lider desăvârşit vădeşte o sumă de calităţi pozitive pe care a dovedit că le posedă din plin, calităţi pe care a ştiut să le valorifice şi să le scoată la lumină la momentul potrivit.

Cum maximizezi valoarea celor din jurul tău? Cum îţi pui în valoare calităţile? Oamenii te urmează prin prisma a ceea ce faci pentru ei? Te urmează pentru ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce reprezinţi? Cum poate câştiga un plus de "vitamine" leadershipul tău?

Vine întotdeauna o vreme când toţi lideri ajung să-şi pună tot soiul de întrebări legate de suflet, de spiritul uman şi de spiritualitate. De obicei acest lucru se întâmplă spre sfârşitul carierei lor, atunci când nu mai pot avansa în funcţii. Abia atunci îşi conturează fiecare nişte paşi clari prin care încep să-şi exprime fără temeri, fără ocolişuri cele mai profunde sentimente. Acest lucru aduce un plus de "vitamine" existenţei lor. Aceste vitamine nu sunt altceva decât o sursă de principii, valori şi convingeri care pot contribui la formarea şi menţinerea unei atitudini mentale sănătoase.

Leadership: Te vezi constrâns de circumstanţele extraordinare în care te afli să accepţi o realitate care se obiectivează ca o "diferenţă de sine" în două contexte ale experienţei de a fi parte dintr-o schimbare a aşteptărilor?

Aşa cum toate procesele de ardere din corpul omenesc consumă oxigen, tot astfel toate procesele care asigură evoluţia leadershipului tău consumă o parte din stările, trăirile, emoţiile tale, şi o mare parte din rezerva ta de "vitamine" – tocmai pentru a putea da o mai bună calitate şi stabilitate propriei tale existenţe.

În gol se ascunde plinul desemnează acordul dintre tine şi leadershipul tău, dintre valorile tale şi valorile celorlalţi. Atunci când îţi dezvolţi sinele, care la rândul său se hrăneşte cu atenţia oamenilor, cu emoţiile lor pozitive sau negative, cu fericirea sau nefericirea lor - aprofundezi totodată şi leadershipul. Pe măsură ce înveţi să foloseşti emoţiile oamenilor ca pe o trambulină pentru realizarea lucrurilor măreţe, vei putea cu sprijinul lor să-ţi dezvolţi un sistem coerent de scopuri care să aducă binele în existenţa ta. Şi, în acelaşi timp, vei putea să-ţi întăreşti şi să-ţi valorifici potenţialul relaţional (care trebuie să se alinieze principiilor de leadership şi obligaţiilor tale).

Ca în orice alt domeniu, şi în leadership profesionalismul este "plinul" care nu totdeauna este însoţit de bogăţie materială. Bazat pe competenţe, abilităţi şi comportament, el se desăvârşeşte în timp şi depinde de sistemul de valori pe care fiecare dintre noi şi l-a format sub influenţa educaţiei şi autoeducaţiei. Liberul arbitru din noi a decis şi decide încotro ne îndreptăm şi cum să ne alimentăm profesionalismul. Dacă vrem să simţim că nu am trăit degeaba, atunci vom alimenta "plinul" ascuns uneori în "golul" material al existenţei noastre, de care depinde supravieţuirea noastră fizică.

De cele mai multe ori, "plinul" profesionalismului umple “golul” material. Dar există totdeauna şi situaţii contrarii.

Tu poţi să asiguri stabilitate propriei tale existenţe? Cum? Care este scara valorilor pe care le preţuieşti în existenţa ta? Leadershipul tău evoluează datorită valorilor pe care le adopţi şi pe care le promovezi? Influenţa ta se datorează responsabilităţilor specifice funcţiei tale, sau se datorează nivelului ierarhic pe care îl ocupi?

Leadershipul evidenţiază posibilitatea de a fi parte dintr-o experienţă care le influenţează în bine parcursul altor oameni spre succes, cu menţiunea că ceea ce ei vor descoperi la capătul drumului este însăşi capacitatea de a renunța pentru binele mai mare al altcuiva.

În gol se ascunde plinul dacă conştientizezi faptul că abilitățile tale depind în totalitate de capacitatea de a-ți controla emoțiile și de a acționa rațional, indiferent de situație. Cineva, dar nu îmi mai amintesc cine, a spus că viaţa nu se măsoară numai după numărul anilor trăiţi, ci mai ales după implicarea profundă a individului sub aspectul spiritual, afectiv şi moral.

În luptă cu Mephistopheles (II)

Îndrăzneşte să străluceşti, fără să arzi în întregime.

Sunt Mr. Hobbs. Nimic nu mă împiedică să vă relatez despre ceea ce încă mă frământă, o imagine care mă chinuieşte groaznic, acel aspect existenţial care înlocuieşte în mine singura bujie ce aprinde flacăra bucuriei şi speranţei: gândul că trăiesc ca rob al patimilor mele. Căci, da, sunt stăpânit de o patimă puternică legată de trecutul meu, aşa cum suferinţa unui artist se reflectă în starea sufletească a tabloului său, plin de acele nuanţe melancolice din care îşi trage seva ironia sau dreptatea sorţii.
